

My Twins 401

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 401 ZOE WAS GUILTY

Wendy did not feel Brian's words comfort but warm. She answered with a bitter smile. "I know, Brian, I know we can't be together, but I can't control myself. I need time to forget the six years of the time we spend together. Never mind, I will get over." Wendy did not say words to stick to Brian, but she was hurtful to say that. "Brian, I am sorry for what happened today. My Mom ran out after she asked me some questions, I am sorry I failed to stop her. I am sorry she hit Winwin." Wendy explained to Brian with regret and sincerity, hoping that Brian would not hate her, so she chose to sacrifice her mother. It worth if Brian did not hate her. "Brian, please say sorry to Winwin for me. I will apologize to her when I am well. She can slap on me and scold me." Wendy said pitifully. "She did not hate you. It was she told me to see you. No matter it was misunderstanding or not, I don't want it happen again. If you hurt Winwin, again, don't blame me for being rude." Brian dare not believe Wendy again because she had lied too many times and he could not tell which words of her were truth or false. He had no love but only pity to Wendy now. Hearing what Brian said, Wendy was so sad and her hope disappeared. Brian did not mean to come, he already did not care about her. She was overthinking. "Thank you. Thank Winwin's forgiveness for me. it will never happen again." Wendy said sadly. If she had not had hope for Brian, she would not forgive Winwin. "Take care, I gotta go." Brian left without hesitation and Wendy could not help but cry. Brian walked out of the ward and saw Zoe sitting on the chair at the door of the ward. She did not expect that Brian would come out so soon and there was panic in her eyes. "Brian..." Brian did not look good at the thought that Zoe hit Winwin. "Zoe..." "Brian, it was my fault, I didn't get to know the truth and hit Winnie. I am sorry, please don't be angry at Wendy." Zoe apologized before Brian said a word. She was afraid of Brian's cold eyes, and she'd better apologized. "It happened and you have achieved what you wanted. And I have seen everything." Brian said coldly and did not accept Zoe's apology. "Zoe, there is something I have to tell you, and you be ashamed about it." So Brian told her what Wendy had done to Winnie. No matter Wendy had told her mother or not, he felt it necessary to tell her, so that she could understand that it was not Winnie's fault. "I didn't know what. If it was Wendy did that, it was her fault. She could not make a threat to other's life." Zoe was shocked and could not believe it. But Brian would not lie. She now understood why Brian insisted to break up with Wendy. "Not if, it is the fact, you can confirm it with Wendy." Brian said in a domineering manner and then he added. "Zoe, I have two children and two children could not leave their mother. But if Wendy accept it at the beginning, we would not end up like this." "Yes, you are right. No child could leave his mother. Brian, but Wendy..." Zoe wanted to apologized for Wendy, but Brian felt it pointless. "Zoe, please let me finish." Brian interrupted her and continued. "I had been in a relationship with Wendy for six years, and it would ok for me to live with her for a lifetime even if I don't love her, but what she had done makes me realized that she is not suitable to be the stepmother of the children." Brian said differently. "In those years, I asked her to give birth a child for me, she insisted to go abroad. I did not stop her, but I urged her to go back for years, and she refused. Zoe, how many men can wait for a woman for six years?" "I confirmed with her that she would not come back, so we broke up, but when I decided to be with Winnie, she came back. I accepted her. Was this Winnie's fault? Why did she shrink the responsibility to Winnie and harm her and my children?" Brian said angrily. He wanted Wendy do understand that they could not be together again. "Zoe, I can't be with Wendy again, you better advise her. Let's have a peaceful break up. If she dares do anything to Winnie and children, she would end up like Penny." With that, he left. No matter that, he could not be with Wendy again. Zoe wanted to stop Brian, but she could not say anything. Looking at his back and her resolute attitude, she said nothing. What Brian said made sense. If Wendy did not leave in those years, Winnie would not show up. And it was truth that Wendy was in hesitation before she came back. Brian had given her chance, but she did not seize it. Zoe came back to ward angrily. She wanted to persuade Wendy to give up, but seeing that Wendy was in tears, she could not control herself but get angry. "Why are you crying? You made all this. What is the use crying? Wendy, when did you become so horrible? It is ok that you are scheming, but you can't hurt other." "And you did not tell me, or I would not have made a scene in Brian's office." Zoe scolded Wendy loudly, wishing to release her angry and wake Wendy up. "You know it? Did Brian tell you?" Wendy asked her mother in tears. "Yes. I am angry it was not you but Brian told me. You made me ashamed." "Brian has told me everything. He had been waiting for you for six years, he is spoony. He accepted you when you are back, but why didn't you turn a blind eye on Winnie? Which man has no woman outside? Can't you just see Winnie as a mistress?" Zoe felt it was a pity for Wendy to lose Brian, and it was Wendy did not seize the chance. "I can't stand it, I can accept that my husband has a woman outside." Wendy said angrily to her mother. She was sure that she was not tolerant, or she would not have broken up with Brian. "What quality do you have to require others? You don't have only one man, why do you require Brain only loves you? Break up with Brian, if you dare to cause troubles again, I will leave you alone." Zoe now knew her husband's mood and knew what he said was the best choice for Wendy. "No, no, just leave me alone." Wendy shouted loudly and she did not admit it was her fault and did not want to give up Brian. She did not believe that she could not defeat Winnie and that Brian could forget her after having six years of relationship. She wanted Winnie to know that Winnie hurt her as a mistress of her boyfriend. Thomas went out and did not come back till the time for dinner. As he walked in, he saw Luke and Megan, and he frowned. This was the Bennet family, it was understandable that Luke was there, but it was annoying that Megan was there. "Grandpa Thomas, you are back." Megan greeted politely. Her aunt had told her that she was now one of the Bennet family. "Yes." He answered indifferently. "Uncle Thomas, you are back." Stella greeted him. she had saw his cold attitude to Megan, but she said nothing about it. "Yes, where is Joshua?" He asked Stella. "He has a party and will come back later." Stella with a smile, because Megan's identity had been known. "What is your grandpa?" Thomas asked Stella while he looked at Megan with distain. "He is in the study." Stella gave a bight smile, because her grandpa had been waiting in the study for a while. "You play with the kids, I go and see your grandpa." With that, he went straight to the study. After Thomas left, Megan came to Stella and asked with timidness. "Aunt, doesn't Grandpa Thomas like me?" "Yes, but it is because he doesn't know you are a Bennet. He will like you when Great Grandpa tells him." Stella gave a brighter smile as if she had seen what happened in the study. In the study. Thomas went straight to the point. "Dad, why Megan is here, it is annoying. Don't bring her here again." Thomas said with an annoying tone. Felix raised his eyes to Thomas, said nothing but lowered his head to read his commercial magazine. Seeing that his father said nothing, Thomas continued, "And about Luke, I have something to say. Don't let him stay at Winnie's. If no one can take care of him, I can take care of him, I can pick him from school. Why let him stay with Winnie. We are not relatives and it is so ridiculous."

CHAPTER 402 EXPOSURE OF MEGAN'S IDENTITY

Thomas said a few words, but Felix was still silent, listening quietly with his eyes fixed in the magazine, but he frowned. Thomas continued. "Brian is not small and he should get married. Let him marry Wendy, so that she could take care of Luke." Thomas spoke for Wendy, but he did not it was late. With that, he stopped. At this time, Felix finally raised his head and took off his glasses. He looked at Thomas seriously. "Have you finished speaking?" "Yes, it has to be solved immediately, if it holds on..." "My turn then." Felix interrupted him indifferently. "The engagement between Wendy and Brian has been cancelled and they have broken up." "Why?" Thomas was surprised and asked before Felix had finished his words. "Because she hurt Megan." Felix answered coldly and Thomas was confused about it. "What does it related to us, she did not hurt Luke." "It is equal to go against me, and I will not accept her." "Dad, I don't understand. When did you become so concerned about Megan. She is not our kid, why did you give up Wendy for her?" Thomas did not understand why his father had changed his attitude. If he was good to Megan, it was equal to that he had accepted Winnie. "I will tell you why." "Megan is Brian's daughter, Luke's sister, sure I am concerned about her." Felix's eyes were sharp and domineering. "What? ..." At the middle of his sentence, Thomas stopped and looked at Felix with surprise. Megan was Brian's daughter, Luke's sister, and she was at the same age as Luke. "They are twins?" Thomas asked. "Yes, they are twins. Luke is brother and Megan is sister, they are Bennets." Felix was sure about that, because he had read the paternity test report. "I don't know that. Brian has been hiding it... Wait, since they are twins, Winnie is the mother?" Thomas asked, and there was anger in his heart. "Yes, she is Luke's mother." Felix answered. "Well..." Thomas was so shocked. He felt they had unusual relationship, but he did not expect that Megan was a Bennet, and Winnie was Luke's mother, so everything made sense. If he was right, he was the last one to know the truth, Penny and Richard might have known about it. "He had been hiding it, why did he make it public now?" He asked feeling he got fooled. "Because Penny and Wendy know it. If they say it out, there may be bad for us, so Brian told me." Hearing that, Thomas was angry and nervous. He was angry because Penny and Wendy did not tell him the truth, he was nervous because his father mentioned Penny, it was like a warming to him. "It is ridiculous, I can't accept it." Thomas tried to hide his panic. "But it is good to say it out, or Penny will make to trick to our family. In this way, I will protect Megan, and no one dare make a move." Felix indirectly warmed Thomas, hoping he could understand and did nothing. Thomas sure could understand, but he had an opinion to his father. After leaving the study, he left the house in a hurry. As he left, Jack came back. He was happy to see Megan and Luke, and Megan reminded her of Winnie. "Good you have come back. We are going to have dinner, go and wash your hand." Before he said a word to the kids, Stella told him it was time for dinner. Everyone sat at the table, but all the servants including Butler Lowe were standing by the table, waiting for admonitory talk. "I have a thing to announce before the dinner, I ..." "Grandpa, why are you so serious, it makes me nervous. If it is a good news, go ahead, but if it is not, don't say it, or it will affect our appetite." Jack interrupted Felix, and after that he found his grandpa was watching him sharply. "Jack, Grandpa is speaking, don't interrupt him." Maria found Felix was serious, so she scolded Jack. "Dad, go ahead, don't mind this insensible child." Felix took a deep breath and then continued. "Megan is our kid. Her name is Megan Bennet. She and Luke are twins, and their mother is Winnie. So we get a miss in our family, you all should take care of her." Felix said word by word. The servants were surprised but no one dared to ask anything but agreed to what Felix said. "Yes, Chairman, we will take care of Miss Megan." But Maria and Megan were so shocked to hear that and they needed time to digest it, especially Jack. He could not believe it and did not want to believe it. "You are kidding, Grandpa, how can they be twins?" "I am not kidding, they are twins, and Megan is our kid." Stella said. And then Felix told everyone to eat. But Jack was not in a mood to eat. Thomas went straight to Richard and wanted to ask him how much he had hidden. Thomas kicked open the door and broke in the house. He stared at Richard angrily. "What is going on?" Richard asked with doubts. "You dare ask me that, huh? What is going on with Winnie's kids? What did you hide from me?" Thomas shouted angrily. Hearing that, Richard knew that Thomas had learn the identities of the children. "So you know it, but I didn't hide it. I learnt it recently and I just did not have time to tell you." "Bullshit, you have known it for a long time and you use it to make me help you." Thomas shouted angrily, and it was to make Richard's ears deaf. "I..." "Don't argue, you know it and you daughter knows it." Thomas did not give Richard a chance to refute. Richard looked at him with guilt and did not know what to say. "Richard, I violated the law to help you, but you hid the truth from me? Do you know you have destroyed my plan? If you told me early, I can use it on Brian." Thomas was furious and wanted to punch at Richard's face. "Your family has known about it?" Richard asked. "Yes, they all know it and I am the last one to know it. We could use it to threat Brain, but you hid it from me. Now we lost the chance. Is this what you want?" Thomas said angrily, panting. It was not only a chance to him, but also lost the Bennet Group. "Thomas, calm down. I do know it and wanted to use it to threat Brian, but I didn't expect he would say it first, and destroy our plan." Richard regretted and he had lost such an opportunity. "Do you think it is easy to deal with Brain. He is cautious. We got a chance, but you waste it." "Richard, I don't care what will happen to you and I will not go to prison to see your daughter again." With that, he was to leave, but was stopped by Richard. "Don't be angry, Thomas, it was my bad. Don't get Penny involved, please go and see her." "If I see her again, I will be caught too. Brian must have known I went to see Penny, so he said the fact out. If I see her again, Brain will do something to me." "You have missed the opportunity, take care of yourself." Then he left. He now regretted to be connected with Richard. He should not help him but should reply on his own, otherwise it would not be so passive. Rufus was alone at home, thinking about Isobel. He could not control himself and he had to tell her about Megan, so he made a call to her. Isobel was not at home but had dinner out with some friends. Seeing that Rufus called, she got up and picked up the phone in a quiet corner. "What is it?" She asked in a cold voice. "I have something to tell you, or I will not call you." Hearing her voice, Rufus missed her more. If possible, if Isobel agreed, he would like to call her even if there was nothing to tell her. He just wanted to hear her voice. "What?" "It is about the children. Megan has been recognized by the Bennet family." Rufus went straight to the point, because he knew Isobel did not want to waste time. "What do you mean?" Isobel was nervous and her hand on the phone tightened. "Now the Bennet family know Megan is a Bennet and Winnie is the mother of two children."

CHAPTER 403 RUFUS' ASSURANCE

Rufus said in a deep and steadfast voice, but Isobel did not feel it but shocked. "Why is it so sudden? Winwin did not tell me." "It was Brain's meaning and it is good for Megan. The reason is complex, but please believe it is the best for Megan. My father recognizes her and no one would dare do anything to her." Then he continued. "Winnie did not tell you because she was afraid that you would be worried and get back early. She said she would explain to you when you are back." Rufus told her thoroughly, because his family was complicated and it needed time to explain in details, and Isobel would feel incredible and could not understand. "Since then, why did you tell me? Can't you tell me when I am back? Not how can I stay here?" Isobel felt uneasy. She did know what would change to Winnie and if she got hurt. She asked. "How is Winnie, can she be with two children now?" She asked with concern and Rufus felt bad too. "Winwin doesn't know I call you, I want you to be prepared. If you can stay there, come back, one day you have to face it. Rufus called because he missed Isobel and wanted her to go back early, so that he could see her. At the beginning, he told himself to control his emotion and not cause unnecessary trouble to Isobel, but he felt he could not do that. He then continued. "Winwin can't be with the children for the time being, and the children are in my father's, but you don't have to worry. Stella is there to take care of the children and they will be back in a few days." "I knew it. The children are important to Winwin. If she could not see them, how can she live? Rufus, you promised me that Winnie and the children will not separate, but now..." Isobel was emotional. She now missed the children, and how could Winnie accept it? Rufus knew Isobel was worried, so he comforted her. "Don't worry, it is not that bad. It was temporary that Winnie could see the children. What I promised you will be fulfilled. I will not let you down like I did when we were young." Rufus mentioned those years, but there was silence on the phone. "I mean, you don't have to worry, I will help Winwin. My father needs time to accept the fact and figure out how to deal with it." "He likes both children and he doesn't dislike Winwin, so I want to give him some time, so that he can come up with what to do." Rufus continued after taking a breath. "Don't worry, Isobel. I have never given you a sense of security since I knew you, but I can assure you that I will let Winwin live with the children. Rufus had the confidence and he would work hard on it. Now he just wanted Isobel not to worry about it. What he said to his father was kind of a threat. If there was nothing he could do, he would let Brian leave with Winnie and he could deal with it. "... Isobel was silent. He was right that he had not given her any sense of security and she was not sure if he could keep his words. "Take care of it, if the children can't go back to Winwin, it is pointless I go back, so I will be back when the children are back." Isobel chose to believe Rufus, she hoped that he would not let her down again. With that, she was hung up, but Rufus stopped her. "Isobel, have you had a decision on what I asked you last time?" Rufus tried to drag the time, because hearing Isobel's voice, he felt at ease and had made up for his loneliness of years. What Isobel said made him worried that the children can't be back to Winnie and Isobel would not come back but disappeared in his life. At this, he would help the children back to Winnie. "No, I don't know what to do." Isobel answered, but she had her own thought. Even Felix did not give back the children to Winwin, he would not stop them to see her. So the children stayed in the Bennet family and did not need her to take care of them. She could let Winnie take care of Vanessa and then continue her medical aids. If she stayed away from the Bennet family, Brian and Stella would not know she was Winnie's aunt and they would be safe. So everything had hope and there would be sunshine one day. "Then think of it, but I hope you can think for the children. Wendy and Brian have broken up, so Brian is single, I want him to be with Winnie." Rufus did not want to give up, because he wanted to fix everything and wanted a peaceful life, and the children have a good ending. Isobel was surprised to hear that, but Wendy was not the obstacle between Winnie and Brian, but the gap between the two families and the resentment. It was impossible to be perfect. "I will think about it. But first let the children back. I gotta go." Finally, she hung up. Winnie and Brian lied in bed, looking at the children on the phone screen. "Did you take a bath?" Winnie asked with a smile. "Don't worry, Mommy, I have taken bath." Megan was excited. She can't be with Daddy and Mommy, but it was interesting to live like this. She now was a Bennet, she was so proud. "Good, finish your homework at time, especially Megan." Winnie said. "I know, Mommy." Megan said reluctantly, but she would not go against her mother. "Don't worry, Mommy, I will take care of sister and tell her to finish homework. Mommy, when can we go home, I want to be with you." Luke said. He did not feel at ease without Mommy around, he had bad memory before and was afraid to lose his Mommy. "Don't worry, Luke, Daddy, Grandpa and Aunt are working hard on it. You too, so that we can be Mommy early." Brian said. He was clammy on face, but he felt sorry for the kids. "You too, Daddy. We are pleasing Great Grandpa according to aunt, I believe he will agree us to be together. Don't worry, Mommy, just go to work and wait us to go back." Luke did not feel good, but he still confirmed his parents, which made Winnie guilty. "Ok, I will listen to you. I will go to work and wait for you to come back." Winnie gave a nice smile, so that the children would not worry about her. "Megan, what is Great Grandpa's attitude to you?" Brian asked, because his attitude to Megan as the key point. "It is good, he likes me. No matter what I said, he always smiled and always hugged me, but he is too old to hold me." Megan said with a smile and she was happy. "Don't worry, Daddy, Mommy, I will try hard to make Great Grandpa agree us to be together. I am confident." "Ok, I believe you can make it, but don't anger him." Brian reminded Megan, because he knew if his grandpa was angry, it would be difficult to deal with it. "Ok, Daddy." Luke said with confidence. "It is late, you go to sleep. We will wait for your good news." "Bye, Daddy, Mommy." "Bye." As the children's lovely faces disappeared in the phone, Brian put down the phone and then turned off the light. "The children are working hard on it and you should insist. We have hope. As long as Grandpa cares about the feeling of the children, we can make it and we can be together." "Winwin, please fight for it, give me your heart and I will cherish it for a lifetime." Brian seemed to see the success, and he would work hard with the children. He thought he was alone to fight with Grandpa, but now his family was with him, so that he had more confidence. "It is too sudden, I feel it unreal." Winnie avoided the topic. She did not have too much hope and did not want to be disappointed. "Why is it unreal? We live real, Winwin. We have been through a lot and it should be over now. I feel our torture will come to an end and we will have a good life."

CHAPTER 404 GET HEALED

Brian was looking forward to it. He felt as long as he worked hard, everything would be fixed. It was not easy to deal with it, but it was possible to fix it. "I hope so, but even if your family accepts me, my aunt may not agree." Winnie put the responsibility to her aunt. "Why?" Brian asked with doubts. "Because she doesn't like you. She said you are excellent and you have many people around you, I will have no sense of safety to be with you." It was what her aunt worried, but she thought so too. "Is it appraise or critic? I don't have women around me expect you. I will only have you in the rest of my life. Tell your aunt that... never mind, if Grandpa accepts you, will talk to your aunt." Brian had much thought, but he did not expect Winnie's aunt had opinion on him. He did have a lot of women around him, but he did not like them and he only liked Winnie. "Ok, I will wait for your news." Winnie said with a smile. "Go to sleep, we need to work tomorrow." Winnie ended the conversation. She did not dare imagine what Brian said. And there might not be a day that Brian talked to her aunt. Now she only wished she could have the children back. Leo came to Emily's home a lot these days, and Emily's parents had got used to it and they were not angry anymore. He came a lot, but he did not often see Emily. She went to deal with the procedures of going abroad or hung out with friends. Now he came again. He was disappointed that he did not see Emily in the living room, but he had talked to her parents. "I have nothing to do today, can I have dinner at your home?" Leo asked, even if he was refused, he would stay and wait for Emily. "Ok, I will cook for you." Emily's mother Ada said with a smile. She could see that Leo liked Emily wanted to accept him again, but Emily did not forgive him, and she did not know why. "Thank you, Ada, I can cook too, I can help." Leo was pleased. He felt relieved that Emily's parents accepted him. "Help me another day. Go upstairs, Emily is in her bedroom." Ada said with a bright smile. Emily was finally home, if she did not tell Leo that, it was a waste. "Emily is home?" Leo asked in surprise. "Yes, she came back at noon. She seems to have got a cold, she took medicine and...." Before she could finish her words, Leo had run to upstairs, which amused Ada. Leo pushed open the door of Emily's bedroom. The curtain was closed and it was dim inside, but he could see that Emily lying in bed covered with quilt. He came to the bed and then sat down. At this time, Emily said in a daze. "Mom, I seem to have fever, get me some medicine." Hearing that, Leo was worried. He reached to her forehead and felt it was hot. Without a word, he went out. Emily did not open her eyes. She thought it was her mother and did not expect to be Leo. Soon, she heard the sound of door opening. She sat up and opened her eyes, and was to take medicine. But she found it was Leo. "What are you doing here? Where is my Mom?" Emily asked in puzzle. "She is cooking downstairs, and it was me came in just now." Leo said to Emily with medicine in one hand and a glass of water in the other. "Take the medicine, or you will get burn." Hearing that, Emily felt warm in heart. She took the medicine obediently and then put the glass of water on the bedside table. As she leaned over, her slippery pajamas straps fell over, revealing her breast, which was attracting in the dim room. Emily did not notice it but it was seen by Leo and he got fast heartbeat and thirsty in throat. Emily sat well. Leo pulled the quilt and covered Emily. Emily must be cold and he could not control his violet beating heart. At this time, Emily realized that she dressed few. She glanced at Leo and then took her line of sight back. She pulled then quilt over. "What are you doing here?" Emily asked indifferently in a nasal tone. "I miss you." He answered and he did have such a simple purpose. "Don't stay ambiguous words, I think it is better we keep distance." Emily was struggling. She felt Leo lied to her again, but she was pleased to hear that. She knew it was hard to get over Leo. She still loved her, but she dare not believe him now for fear that she would be hurt again. "Emily, I was serious about what I said to you, and I am serious now. I am not kidding. Think it over, if...: "No, it is impossible. I have a blind date, and I will have a new relationship soon, so it doesn't matter if you are serious or not." Emily did not want to hear Leo so say words to sway her, or she could not tell which was true or false, so she stopped him. "It doesn't belong to you, your blind date loved Winnie." Leo said and did not want Emily to use Brian as an excuse. "How did you know?" Emily asked in surprise. She did not tell him. Did she tell him when she was drunk? "It doesn't matter, don't reject me using Brian. I know you can't accept me know and don't believe that I love you. I can understand, but don't hurry to reject me, try to feel my heart, I..." "Stop, I have my reason to reject you. Since you know I will reject you, don't insist. I won't believe you, because I don't think it necessary to think for a man who had lied to me." Emily interrupted Leo again. If she could believe him, she would not mind and would not break up with him, What Leo said now was a torture to her and she had the right to reject him. She continued. "Leo, you may not realize I was hurt, if you do, you would not come to me again." "To be honest, I have finished my procedure for going abroad, I am going abroad, so don't waste your time on me. it is impossible that we can be together." Emily said sadly. She could not let go of the fact she got cheated, so she could not accept Leo, and it would be the source of contradiction. She really wanted to go out and get relieved and heal her heart. If at that time Leo liked her, she would accept him. But she did not know how long it would take and if Leo would wait for her. "Emily, I hurt you and I am sorry, but I hope you can give me a chance..." Leo felt sour and he could feel Emily did not believe him. he tried to persuade her, but Emily did not give him a chance. "Go out, I don't feel well and I need some sleep." With that, she lied down and covered herself in the quilt. After a moment of silence, she felt that Leo got up, walked out and closed the door. She did not pop her head out till the door was closed, but she did not turn around, because she cried silently. She wanted to tell Leo, now matter he liked her or not, it was late. She did not get over him, but she did not want to be disturbed and just wanted to heal her heart. Leo did not leave, because he was not to give up. He did not leave until he finished the dinner there. On they way home, he made a call to a friend. "I need a favor." "... "I have fight with my girlfriend. She was angry and wanted to go abroad. Help me and make her fail to deal with the procedures." "... "Her name is Emily Jones." "... "Ok, do it some time." After hanging up, Leo gave a sly smile. Klara learned that Wendy was in the hospital, so she came to see her. Though Wendy could not be Brian's wife, but Klara needed her help to go back to the Bennet Group, so she came to show her concern. "You got a cold, why are you in hospital for days?" Seeing that Wendy looked bad on face and lost weight, she asked. "I got a fever, but I didn't notice it, so I got pneumonia. The doctor said I need to live in hospital for Megan. But it is good to stay in hospital, so that I don't need to hear my mom's nagging at home." Wendy was touched that Klara came to see her, which meant she made a true friend. "If it is pneumonia, you should pay attention to it. Listen to the doctor and discharge when you get recovered." "Klara felt Wendy's sickness is related to her mood. If she had not broken up with Brian, she would not get sick." "Yes, it is quiet here, and I can think it over." Wendy dare not face the future and did not want to go home. For her, the hospital was the best place now. Thinking of the rudeness of Brian, she did want to give up, but thinking Winnie was pleased, she did not want to give up. She was struggling and did not know what to do. "Has Laura contacted you?" Klara asked. "We met, it was me waiting for her in her work place. I wanted to asked her what she said to Winnie, so that I can come up with a solution, but she was evasive and said she had told me everything."

CHAPTER 405 KLARA KNEW THE TRUTH

Speaking of Laura, Wendy still had doubts, especially she had warmed her, which she did not understand. "What did she mean? How can she do that? She wants to stay away us because we end up like this?" Klara said angrily. It was not about what Laura said, but she lost her job, but Laura still had her job. "I don't know what she said, so I don't know what to do. It seems that Laura is the smartest among the three of us." Wendy did not hate Laura, she just wanted to nag about it. "Yes, she is. She keeps her job and gets her salary, but she stays away with us after what happened to us. How can she do that?" Klara said, and Wendy was sorry for that. "Don't worry, Klara, even if I can be with Brian, I will help you get your job back." Hearing that, Klara said. "I don't mean that Wendy, I mean Laura is not reliable. It doesn't relate to job, don't overthink about it." "No, I don't overthink. I am at my worst, but you still came to see me, so you are the best to me." Wendy said and felt she was sorry for getting Klara involved, so she would find a way to get her job back. "Don't stay that, we are friends, but at least we see through Laura." Klara was happy secretly. As long as Wendy felt guilty to her, she would help get her job back, and now she just wanted her job back. "Wendy, I heard Luke call Winnie Mommy in the hot pot restaurant. Did you hear that?" Klara thought if it and looked at Wendy with doubts. Laura and she had heard the quarrel between Wendy and Winnie, but she did not remember it afterwards. Not it seemed wrong. "Alas..." Wendy took a sign and then answered. "It is normal Luke called Winnie Mommy, because she was his mother." Wendy said calmly, but it was shocked for Klara and she lost her ability to think. And then she came back to her sense. "You mean Luke's mother is Winnie? What about Megan?" "Megan's father is Brian. They were twins." Wendy did not want to believe it, but no one could change the fact. "Twins? Gosh, what is going on? So they are families?" Klara asked in disbelief. Why did it change so suddenly? She had been working for Brian for a long time, but she did not know it. "Yes, they are families.” That was the biggest obstacle for Wendy and it would be easy for her to defeat Winnie. As her mother said, the two children were Winnie’s trump card. “It is surprising, I can’t believe it. How come Winnie is Luke’s mother? And now there is Megan.” Klara felt it incredible, and now she was panic and did not know what to do. She thought Brian loved Winnie, and Winnie at most was a mistress, but now it did not seem like that. With two children, no one could defeat her. If she had known such important information, she would not help Wendy, because Wendy could not defeat Winnie. So she got fooled? “I knew it when I broke up with Brian and now I still could not believe it.” Wendy hid the fact. If she said she had known it long ago, she would be more guilty to Klara. “If it is the truth, we have no chance. With two children, she wins.” Klara was panic. If she had known Winnie would be Brian’s wife, she would not go against her, let alone to like Brian, she would not have chance to get her job back. “Klara, I don’t give up. You don’t need to worry about me. Winnie has two children, but Felix doesn’t care about it. He has been trying to find a rich woman for Brian, but Winnie is not. What was why Wendy was proud. “But Chairman needs talents. Winnie could make achievement on her own ability. Wendy, when Winnie was in our company, it was the time we got the best benefit. She brought interest to the company. With her ability, the chairman will appreciate her. Klara did not believe that, and Chairman was old and he might die one day. And then Brian would be the owner of the Bennet Group, and no one could stop them from being together. She had two children. If Felix was smart enough, he would know that Winnie was the best choice. Because with her ability, if she worked two years in the Bennet Group, she might exceed Wendy. Hearing that, Wendy felt her hope disappear. She only had a family background that belong to her and she was not talented, so it was clear who would win. Seeing that Wendy was disappointed, Klara knew she went too far. Wendy had her advantage and would help her get her job back, so Wendy was still useful. “Don’t be sad, Wendy, you had a long relationship with Brian, you have your advantage. Brian liked you, if you try, you still have hope.” Klara comforted Wendy, but she felt hopeless. “Wendy, do you remember the idea I gave you?” “Yes, I said good idea should be used at critical time.” Wendy said in a low voice and she was gloomy on face. “I think now it is the critical time, you should use it.” It gave Wendy hope, and she looked at Klara with expectation. “Do you think it is the time?” “Yes, If you don’t use it now, you will have no chance again.” “But for the time being, you accept the fact you have broken up. Find your image back in Mr. Bennet’s heart before you use this method.: Klara was not sure if it would work, but she was helping herself. As long as Wendy got her job back, she would not help Wendy again. She would focus on work, because not she realized that she could not defeat Winnie. “I will do what you said, Klara. I will carry it out after preparation. Thank you for helping me, Klara.”Wendy said emotionally. Klara was right that it was her last chance. If she made a mistake, she would lose Brian forever. She would not impulsive like before, she must make a plan, so that she would get success. Brian went abroad to attend an economic forum and he was away for days, leaving Winnie alone. She could not go to the suburbs and could not go see children, so she could only go to Daenerys’. Daenerys was in confinement, but she was almost recovered and did not have to lie in bed all day. Daenerys was happy to see Winnie and she kept smiling, which confused Winnie. “Why are you smiling? Do I have something on my face?” Holding Jelly Bean in arms, Winnie asked in a low voice, for fear to wake up the kid. “I am happy for you. I feel your family of four can be together, and it is the reason I am smiling.” Daenerys had known what happened to Brian and Winnie, she was happy that Wendy and Brian had broken up and had a relationship with Winnie. Winnie sighed as she shook her head. “Others have postnatal depression, but you are excited, ask Doctor Burns to take you go hospital and have a check.” Winnie said jokingly. She did not feel anything changed expect that she had become Brian’s girlfriend, which made her feel relieved and had no guilt. But she dare not imagine to marry Brian. "I have not been so happy before. Winwin, wait and see, there will be only good things happen to you in the rest of your life." Daenerys felt it sudden but real. She could see smile on Brian's face and happiness in Winnie's eyes. "You are not only happy, but also a fortune teller. I can't see my children now, how do you know there will be only good things happen to me in the rest of my life?" "You are talking nonsense, if you say that again, I will take Jelly Bean back, so that I won't be alone." With that, she lowered her head and kiss Jelly Bean's face. "You can't threat me." "I will not joke again."

CHAPTER 406 AVOIDABLE TOPIC

Daenerys stopped smiling and then continued. "Winwin, I don't think the children are the problems. I don't think a man in his 90s is rude as he was young and let the children leave their mother." Seeing that Daenerys was serious, Winnie wanted to have a talk, so she gave Jelly Bean to the nanny and asked her to take her to the baby room. "Even if he allows me to be with the children, he would not let me be with Brian. In his heart, Brian's wife should be rich and powerful, and Emily fixes." Winnie compared herself with Emily, Daenerys was upset to hear that. "It is not truth. People's concept will change as he grows old. Felix is old and he will not be so domineering." Daenerys had hidden from Winnie, speaking of Emily, she felt guilty. "I hope so, but it is not real, or he would not ask Brian to have a blind date." Winnie thought of Brian, but to Daenerys, it was related to Emily. "Even if Chairman doesn't change his attitude, the Bennet family is all on your side and speaks for you, he will not insist for a long time." "Winwin, don't think too much, but I hope you can fight for it and upset Brian. I told you, you have to be his wife, because it is the best for you and the children." Daenerys persuaded her, but she dare not mention the blind date of Brian. "I don't think anything during this period of time. I don't think the things related to the children can be dragged, but I will wait until Chairman makes the final decision." "But I miss the children, I am worried." At this, Winwin took a deep breath. "Luke has depression and Megan has not separated with me for such a long time. I am afraid they can't stand it if it is too long." "No, don't worry. The Bennet family will take care of them. If the children can't stand it, Chairman will make his decision." "They will be fine. In a few days, they are going to go to school. If you want to see them, you can go to the school. No one will keep an eye on you all the time." "By the way, will your aunt and Vanessa be back soon?" To avoid the last topic, Daenerys changed one topic. "Yes, but I have not told my aunt about Megan. I don't know if she could accept it. My aunt has brought Megan up, I am afraid she will be sad." Her aunt would be back soon, Winnie had to worry about it. "You are overthinking. She can meet them, sure she can accept it. Probably when your aunt is back, Megan and Luke can go home and you may be able to marry Brian." Daenerys was not as pessimistic as Winnie. She felt everything would turn out to be good result. "No, my aunt doesn't like Brian and she will not agree me to be with him." Winnie gave a self-mocking smile. Both Felix and her aunt stopped her from being with Brian. Hearing hear, Daenerys remembered that her aunt opposed them to be together. And her aunt had called Daenerys to ask her to persuade Winnie not to be with Brian. "Why doesn't your aunt like Brian?" Daenerys asked with doubts. "I don't know, my aunt said we are not match to his family, and I can only have an ordinary man to have a peaceful life." Winnie did not understand either. "She may think the Bennet family is too powerful and is afraid you don't get favor. I think she had her reason to worry, but she neglects your ability." "You are talented and created achievement to the Bennet family. They will not underestimate you.” Daenerys knew Winnie well, she was competent in work. If Felix could not accept Winnie, it would be his biggest loss in life, as well as the biggest loss to the Bennet Group. “You think I am good, but it doesn’t mean everyone likes me. I have two children, but they can neglect their feelings.” At this, she took a breath. She told herself not to think of anything and just needed to wait patiently, but she could not control herself. “Well, don’t think too much, you have Brian with you. Work hard and make more money, so that Felix will attach importance to you.” “Well, let’s chat another topic, or you will have random thoughts.” Daenerys said as she turned on the TV, so that the atmosphere would not be so weird. “I haven’t seen Emily for days, what is she doing?” Winnie mentioned Emily, but Daenerys felt difficult to talk about it. “She seems to have a cold and have a rest at home.” “The influenza is serious, just let her rest at home. I will see her in a few days.” Winnie was busy these days and did not know Emily was sick. “No, it is epidemic. You are busy at work, if you get sick, who does your work?” Daenerys tried to stop her, but she was not afraid of being infected, she did not want Winnie to be alone with Emily, or she might find out the truth. “Then I will make a call to her.” With that, she pulled out her phone and made a call to Emily. “How are you doing, Daenerys said you are sick.” Winnie asked when the phone was put through. “Yes, I got cold, but I am fine, I just feel dizzy.” Emily said in a nasal tone. She was lying in bed. She was not as good as she described. “Have you visited a doctor? You don’t seem well.” Winnie felt she was badly ill from Emily’s voice and she was worried. “No, I just got cold. I had a fever yesterday, but now I am better.” Emily only wanted to stay in bed and did not want to go to anywhere. She had drunk for days, and she felt exhausted. Not she only wanted to have a few days of sleep, and she planned to go abroad when she got well. But before that, she wanted to deal with the things related to Winnie, so that she could feel at ease. “Drink some hot water and get sweat, so that you will be well sooner. I am worried about you. Give me your address, I want to see you.” Winnie was worried hearing Emily’s weak voice. “No, don’t come, you will get infected. I was sleeping and I got awakened by phone, that is why I sound like this. I will be good later.” Emily had not figured out how to tell Winnie, so she did not want to be alone with Winnie. “Ok, get some sleep. Drink more water and have food, so that you can get well soon. Go to sleep, I will not disturb you.” Learning that she had awakened Emily, Winnie hung up the phone after a few words. Emily wanted to go back to sleep after she hung up, but her phone rang again. She picked it up in a daze. “Hello, Miss Jones, this is from the State Administration for Entry-Exit. Your document submitted did not get arrival. If you want to reapply it, please complete your date.” “Ok, ok.” Hearing the news, Emily did not know how to describe her mood, a bit disappointed and a bit pleased. She felt she was badly sick and could not tell how her mood was. After hanging up the phone, she said to herself. “Is it so difficult to apply to go abroad now? Others were smooth, what have I done wrong?” Emily turned over and wanted to go back to sleep, but not the door of the bedroom was pushed open, which annoyed her. “I want...” Before she could finish her words, Leo came in. “What are you doing here?” “I can’t come?” Leo asked with a smile. “You are boring. Go out, I want to sleep.” Emily did not want to talk to Leo and then covered herself in a quilt. Leo came to the bedside and put the medicine and water on the bedside table and then sat down on bed. He lifted the quilt, caught her arm and pulled her up. “What are you going? I told you to go out.” Emily stared at him with dissatisfaction. Leo reached out to feel her forehead and spoke after making sure she did not have a fever. “Your mom said you have been sleeping and did not take medicine at noon. Get up and take the medicine first.” With that, he gave water and medicine to Emily. After glancing at him, Leo took the water and medicine. As Emily took the medicine, Leo got up and walked to the window. He pulled open the curtain and the sunshine got in. After taking the medicine, she put the water to one side and said with dissatisfaction. “What are you going? I am going to sleep? Why you open the curtain?” Emily raised her voice, but Leo did not close the curtain, but opened the window. "Leo, I am ill. If you open the window, I will feel cold. Don't you want me to get well?" Emily got off bed angrily, came to the window and was to close the window, but was stopped by Leo.

CHAPTER 407 IT IS NOT RIGHT

Leo took Emily's hand, so that she could not close the window "It is not cold now, because you are ill, so you need to open the window to get some fresh air, or you can recover even if you lie in bed for ten days. Leo said gently. He wanted Emily to get well and did not want her to close herself. Even if she did not like him anymore, he wanted her to have a happy life, but not live in darkness. "It has nothing to do with you. Let go." Emily was angry, but she did not want this man to interfere her life. Leo had not response as if he had not heard Emily and took her hand to go to the bed. "Get in bed and cover your quilt, so that you will not feel cold." With that, he pressed her shoulders and made her sit down. "Leo..." "Lie down, I have something to tell you." Leo was serious, if he did not say something, he would be driven out. "Is it related to Winwin?" Emily asked, because she knew Leo cared about Winnie and there was nothing to talk expect Winnie. "You have no interest in others' thing. I now envy Winnie because you like her." Leo said jokingly. "Lie down, and then I will tell you." Leo told Emily to lie down again, because she would be dizzy and sleepy after taking medicine, and it was uncomfortable to sit up. Emily lied down so that Leo could tell her and leave as soon as possible. "Go ahead, If I can help, I will help, if I can't don't blame me.: "It should be Brian to ask for you favor, he wanted to protect Winwin, but to meet you, I came here." Leo told her the truth, but Emily gave an ironic smile. "Don't make excuse for yourself, I don't like false people. Actually Emily envied Winnie because two men protected her, but she had none, and instead, she was a tool to them. Leo had guessed that, so he raised the corner of his mouth. "I knew you won't believe it." "I have talked to Brian. I wanted tell Winnie that Brian and you had a blind date and I wanted to make her feel relieved that I deceived you, but Brian said it was a mess in his family and he just was with Winnie, so he wants you help him, or he would be forced to have a blind date again." Leo told Emily the truth, he wanted to tell her last time, but if he did, he had no excuse to see Emily. "What do you mean Winnie is with Brian?" Emily noticed the key point. She had been drinking in bar, did she miss something? "I forgot to tell you that Brian and Wendy had broken up. He is single so he is with Winnie, and that is why he wants your help." Leo had forgotten the important things, and he could not be always calm in face of Emily. "Good, I hate Wendy." Hearing that, Emily finally got a better mood. She continued. "Their children are so big, they can just get married." Emily raised her idea, but after that, she regretted it and felt she had said something wrong. "You must not want them to get married." That was the reason she felt said something wrong. Leo sure could not agree to Winnie to marry another man. "Yes, I want them to get married, as long as Winwin is happy, I can stop feeling guilty for her and put my feeling to another woman. As long as she is married, another woman can believe that I like her." Leo took the chance to confess. It was truth. Emily was stunned to hear that and did not know how to describe her feeling. "You like a woman based on another woman, I think it is unfair. It is like you put with it. Whether you like another woman, you don't need to prove to anyone. Emily took a sigh and felt depressed. "Tell Brian I will help him before I go abroad. I can't help him after I have my procedures done. Let him fight for his own happiness, I don't have much time to help him." Emily did not have a problem with Winnie and Brian, she was just disappointed at Leo. He said he liked her, but she could not feel it. She was afraid to be cheated again and did not want to believe it. "Emily, it is not me, it is Brian needs your help. I..." Leo knew Emily misunderstood him and wanted to explain, but Emily did not want to listen to him. "I know it is Brian, I understand, you don't have to repeat it. But you have the same purpose, you both do it for Winnie." Emily raised her voice and questioned him. "Don't explain, I have been used by you since the beginning. It is good enough that I can keep silent. Who of you have considered my feeling, who knew how hurtful I am?" At this, she shed tears, but she turned her face and did not want Leo to see that. She then continued. "Don't use me or hurt me again taking as a fool. If not for Winwin, I would not endure it." "Leo, if you are a man, be brave. If you like Winwin, go after her and take her from Brian. Don't use another woman, it is not right." Leo heard what Emily said and saw her tears. He blamed himself and wanted to protect her. But Emily was hurt and it was not easy for her to accept him. "Emily, can you listen to me?" Leo asked her opinion, because Emily had interrupted him before. "No, I don't want to hear your defense. You came for Brian, you made it. And I agreed to help for the sake of Winwin. Don't talk nonsense, I won't want to listen to it." Emily refused him. In her eyes, what Leo said was defense. "I can try my best to help, but I am not that noble to fight for your love regardless of my feeling." "Go back, my throat is sour, and I don't want to talk." With that, she turned her back to Leo. Leo knew she was in a bad mood and did not want to hear anything, so he had to end the conversation. "Ok, have some sleep." Then he saw Emily covered her ears with quilt. Seeing that, he had to leave in silence. In the old house. Since he knew about the identity of Megan and Luke, Thomas had been serious, which gave burden to the kids. They dare not talk loudly for fear to annoy him. whatever they did, they were careful. In such an environment, they missed more Daddy and Mommy. They did not have a good mood at table, lowering head and said nothing. Felix noticed it, but he did not say anything. After dinner, he came to the study and considered it was related to Thomas, so he wanted to have a talk with Thomas. But before that, two kids came in holding hands. Lowering their heads, they looked timid, but held hand to encourage each other. At this moment, they felt lonely and they could only rely on each other. "What are you doing? Do you want to play with me?" Felix said in a relaxing tone, so that the kids could be relaxed. "Great Grandpa, we want to talk with you." Luke said in a low voice and his mood did not get better because of Great Grandpa's relaxing tone. "Ok, let's chat." Felix sat down on the sofa and asked the two kids to sit next to him. But two kids stood in front of him, as if they had made a mistake. "You are in a bad mood, tell me about it and then you will feel better." Seeing that the kids were in bad mood, Felix was worried. "I miss Mommy and Daddy, Great Grandpa, can we go the suburbs?" Megan asked. She only said she missed Mommy and dare not say she wanted to see Mommy, for fear that Great Grandpa would be angry. "I also miss Mommy and Daddy. Great Grandpa, please send us back to suburbs." Luke said in a low voice. Felix knew they missed their family, he took a sigh before he spoke. "If you go the suburbs, won't you miss Daddy and Mommy?" "We can at least see Daddy in the suburbs. Mommy..." At this, Megan stopped, because she did not know what to say, so that Great Grandpa would not be angry. she only knew that Mommy was forbidden to be mentioned since her identity was exposed. Luke at this time said. "We miss Mommy, Great Grandpa. We want to be with Mommy. Even if you can give us a complete home, please allow us to be Mommy."

CHAPTER 408 KNEEL DOWN TO BEG

Luke cheered himself up to say that. And then he knelt down in front of Felix. At this time, Megan cried out loud and knelt down too. "Great Grandpa, let Daddy marry other woman. We will not stop him anymore. We just want to be with Mommy." Megan begged Felix, sobbing. Felix was stunned and could not speak. The children wanted a complete home, but they gave up after waiting for days. They played well, but it was superficial, they had had it in mind and never felt relaxed. "Great Grandpa, I have never been separated from my mother since I was a child, and I can't accept it. You most love me, you can't see me to be sad." With Luke beside her, Megan got courage and said what she wanted to say. And it would be more effective if she was pathetic. "I can't live without Mommy, too. Great Grandpa, let us live with Mommy." Luke also begged. Great Grandpa did not make statement in these days, and he was really worried and had to come with Megan to intercede. "You're Bennet, and should live the Bennet family, and..." Felix finally spoke, but he stopped in the middle of the sentence. Now the children were sad, and they could not take it any more. Luke knew Felix's attitude after hearing that, and he became nervous. "Great Grandpa, let Megan live with Mommy then, I can live with Daddy. As like before, pretend I have not found Mommy and Megan is not a Bennet." Luke said so that Megan could stay with Mommy. But what Megan said made Felix upset. "No, I don't want to separate with Brother. I finally have brother, I can't separate with him. Daddy doesn't belong to me and if Brother leaves me, who protect me?" Megan cried out loud, she was too emotional to control herself. She moved forward to Felix and continued to say. "Great Grandpa, I don't want to separate with Brother. I can live without Daddy and Mommy, but I must stay with Brother. We rely to each other. If we separate, I can't live." "Great Grandpa, let Brother and I stay with Mommy. Without Mommy, we don't have sense of security." "There is always someone hates us. In your place, Grandpa Thomas doesn't like us. In suburbs, Wendy doesn't like us. Only in Mommy's home, everyone likes us." "Brother and I tried hard not to provoke anyone, we dare not lost tempers like other kids. Before we said anything, we had to think if is right to say so." Megan cried sadly and it upset Felix. He had never thought of the kids' feeling and thought if it was good to the kids' growth. Did he make a mistake, did he hurt the kids? Seeing that Felix was silent with a gloomy face, Luke thought he was not to agree to them, so he kept thinking of methods that could be accepted. "Great Grandpa, we are small and we can't live without Mommy. Let us stay with Mommy and we will come back when we are older." Luke gave his opinion but he did not know if Great Grandpa would accept it. "Luke, your Mommy is young and she will get married one day. How can I let you live with your stepfather?" Felix had to say so because he did not get a better answer. "No, Mommy will not have a boyfriend. She said she would stay with us for a lifetime and would not get married." "Even if she gets married, it is ok, it is the destiny of Megan and me. Even if we don't have stepfather, we would have stepmother, we can't still have a complete home." It made Felix speechless. Yes, even if there was no stepfather, there would be stepmother, how could the kids grow healthily? "Great Grandpa..." Megan wanted to persuade Felix again, but the door of the study was pushed open and Stella came in. She heard Megan cried, so she rushed in with worry. But the scene in the front made her sad. Megan cried sadly and two kids knelt down in the front of Felix. She knew what the kids wanted, but her grandpa frowned and had a gloomy face, which upset her. It could not change her grandpa's attitude. "Megan, get up, don't annoy Great Grandpa, if he is angry, you can't fix it." She said it deliberately, because she was angry at her grandpa's attitude. As she said that, she bent over to hold Megan and walked out holding Luke's hand. As she walked, she said, "Don't cry, be tough. When you grow up, no one can restrain you." Stella left the study with two kids and Felix had heard what she said. Stella said that to him, blaming him for depriving the kids' happiness. Rufus soon knew that the kids knelt down to beg Felix, as well as Felix's attitude. He was angry that his father was so ruthless and that he did not care about the kids' feeling. Then he came to the old house. He saw Thomas first and confirmed with him about his father's location. Rufus had heard from Stella about Thomas' attitude to two kid and he did not happy about that. But now he needed to see his father, so he did not mind it. Without knocking at the door, he went straight to Felix's bedroom. Seeing that, Felix had known why Rufus came. Felix was reading a commercial magazine on the sofa. Seeing Rufus, he put down the magazine slowly. "You come often." Before, Rufus seldom came, but not he came a lot. "Dad, you should know why I come. The kids begged you like that, don't you give them some hope?" He went straight to the point. He had no patience to drag it. "Did Stella tell you?" Felix got up slowly. "Does it matter? You can't make the kids sad, or Luke will regain depression. Do you want him to be torture by depression?" Rufus was not calm as Felix, he just felt sad that his grandson was hurtful. "I am still considering it." Felix gave a simple answer. But if he had to consider for five years, it would be too late. "Dad, you don't have to consider it. I have told you the kids could not live without parents and we can't replace them." "I hope you take my advice and let them stay together." Rufus insisted his opinion. His father might be angry, but he had to fight for it, because it was related to the kids and he did not want them to be restrained. "To be together, it is not that simple. Even if I agree Winnie to be with the kids, I won't agree she to be with Brain." Felix said, but it was not his final decision. "You want to develop the Bennet Group, right? Now it is in the leading place in business, what else do you want? I told you I can manage the company and I will let anyone to exceed the Bennet Group. Doesn't it satisfy you? Do you want to have force Brian?" Rufus did not get his father's ambition and why he had to finish his dream by restraining others. There were many people in the world and they had different live, but they were passionate. He was superior, but why he still did not feel content? "I do it for Brian's good. If he marries a rich woman, he will feel proud and it will be good for his business. Do I have to tell you this?" Felix refuted angrily. He found an excuse, but he felt it unconvinced. "Is this good? But Brain wants to be with the woman he loves even if it is hard. Dad, don't insist, if you insist, I will not take over the Bennet Group either, let Thomas do it." Rufus felt his father's statement ridiculous, and it was pointless to talk any longer. After that, he turned to leave. After Rufus left, Felix was angry. As Rufus walked out, he saw Thomas leaving. If he was right, Thomas had overheard their conversation. He did not stop Thomas, but followed him to the living room. "Thomas, you don't like my grandchildren, right? If you don't like them, I will take them away right now." Rufus did not want to talk with Thomas, but he would take this chance to take two kids away. With that, he went upstairs and then he took two kids downstairs, as well as Stella. Thomas came to them in embarrassment at this moment. "Brother, when did I say I don't like two kids?" Thomas denied it and did not want to admit it.

CHAPTER 409 WINNIE'S HESITATION

Seeing that Thomas denied, Rufus raised his voice. "You look gloomy face on face, do think thin the kids can't see it? They did not provoke you, right? This family doesn't long belong to you, it belongs the kids too and they have right to live here. Even if they stay here for a lifetime, no one could stop them." Rufus was silent for years and did not even mention that Brian was hurt. Thomas thought he was easy to be bullied and even bad to the kids, But now he would not endure it anymore. "Brother, I ..." Thomas wanted to explain and did not want to argue with Rufus, because it was not the time. He was alone and not powerful, so he had to get along well with Rufus. As he was to speak, Rufus had walked out with two kids, followed by Stella. "Stella, are you going back too?" He tried to ask Stella to stay. "I have to take care of the kids. Uncle Thomas, please tell Grandpa I am going back." With that, she caught up with her father's steps. She believed that her Grandpa could hear her. Seeing then left, Thomas got a gloomy face. There were many smart people around Rufus, but he was alone and his son was weak. Therefore, he could not win but had to wait for a good chance. If he got chance, he would look down upon others. Felix was sad that Rufus took the children away. Standing by the window, he had missed feeling as if he got dumped. He felt that the Bennet Group could not control Rufus and Brian. Did he have to insist. What was the result if he insisted? Did he have to give the Bennet Group to Thomas? Rufus made a call to Winnie and then took the kids to her. Winnie was excited. She had not seen the kids for days, but she felt it was long as a century. Holding kids in arms, she felt unreal. After that, she remembered there were visitors. "Rufus, Stella, sit down." Stella and Rufus sat down on sofa. It was the first time for Stella came here, but not for Rufus. Stella felt strange, but Rufus felt at ease. "Winwin, is this house big enough, if not, change one." Stella looked around. The house was clean and tidy, but it was too small for five people to live. "Yes, there are five rooms, they are not big, but comfortable. It is near to Vanessa's school, so she could save time to go to school." Winnie did not have intention to change the house and wanted to leave it to Vanessa. "Good." Stella felt relieved. "It is good. It is not big, but warm, and as a feeling of home." Rufus felt the size of the house was not important, but who lived in it. "Rufus, I will take a cup of tea to you, please wait." "No need, Winwin, sit down and let's chat." Rufus stopped Winnie. He wanted to talk about her family. "Sit down." Stella took Winnie hand and let her sit next to her. The two kids were upstairs and did not disturb them. "Winwin, Brian's grandpa still refuses, but don't worry, I will make you together." Rufus knew Winnie must be worried these days, but she asked nothing and did not urge anyone and endured it herself. So he came to conform her. "Rufus, thank you. I don't ask too much and I know Chairman has high standard for Brian's wife, so you don't have to do anything about it. Please just get me back to kids." Winnie said, till now, she dare not have expectation for Brian. "Don't you want to be with Brian?" Rufus asked in surprise. "I dare not have that thought. I don't fit the standard of Chairman and I don't want it hard for Brian to deal with it. And I don't want to make the Bennet family unpeaceful because of me." Winnie dare not have expectation on it. If she has a family background as Emily, she would go after Brian regardless of anything. But it was unreal. "Winwin, you can't have that thought. Don't think for others. If you love him, just fight for it. If you always think for others, how can you be happy?" Hearing what Winnie said, Stella was worried and had to encourage her. Winnie said nothing, because she had no confidence. Rufus took a sigh, looking at Winnie was not scheming at all. If the Chambers family had not affected because of him, Winnie would not have such worry and his father would not oppose. It was all because of him and he wanted to do something. "Winwin, what if Grandpa agrees you to be together?" Rufus asked Winnie and wanted to make sure her feeling to Brian. Winnie thought silently. At this moment, she thought of Wendy and woman in the picture. She did not know who the woman was and did not know what happened between them, and she even did not know if she was alive or not, but she had affected Winnie's decision. After a moment, she gave her answer. "If Chairman accepts me, Brian loves me and he has no other women, I am willing to be with him." Winnie said a few of ifs, which were the obstacles stopped them from being together, because she was not sure if Brian loved her for real. She did not know if the woman in the picture or Wendy came back to Brian. Without this, she could stay with Brian and gave the kids a complete home. Rufus saw Winnie's worry, but he said nothing. "Since you are willing to be with him, don't think too much, I will help you." With that, he got up. "The kids will stay here tonight. I will ask Paul to pick them up tomorrow. Don't let them go to the old house, so that you can see them at any time." "Let's go, Stella." After that, he left with Stella. In the car. "Dad, have you noticed Winnie's hesitation?" "Yes, I am thinking why." Rufus did not expect Stella notice it too. "I think she is not confident to Brian. There may be something we don't know." Stella said, but she did not know what it was. "Does Brian have another woman and Winwin knows it, or why doesn't she trust him?" Rufus felt the problem lied in Brian instead of Winnie. "I have never heard of it. I know everything about Brian and he has nothing to hide from me." Stella thought about it, but Brian did not have another woman. "He did not tell you all. Ask Doctor Burns one day, maybe he has the answer." Rufus said and wanted to know more about it. As his voice fell, Paul who was driving received a call. "What is the result?" "... "Ok, I know." "... "Go ahead." After that, Paul hung up the phone. Stella and Rufus continued to speak. "Dad, I left with you. Will Grandpa be unhappy?" Stella asked with worry. "He may be, but we can't always satisfy him. He should think of it and feel the loneliness, so that he could know the importance of family." Rufus knew Felix would be angry, but he had to do it and prove that they would not always be obedient to him. "I am worried about him." Stella was worried, but she hoped it would work, so that the children could be with Winnie. She was not contradictory. "I am worried too, but it is better to argue with him in face." He was in his 90s and it was not easy for him to change. And Rufus could only give him pressure. Rufus sent Stella to her mother-in-law's home and then went back to suburbs with Paul. "Rufus, the call was related to Vanessa." Paul broke the silence in the car. "What is it?" Rufus was nervous. "I have not found where she was born, but the mother was not Dominik Chambers' wife. She had not examination record and birth record in the hospital. I asked her colleagues and they don't know that she was pregnant." Paul reported. "Did Isobel give birth to her?" Rufus asked. "I have not found it out, because Isobel's whereabouts was not known, and it is uneasy to investigate, but I think it was she give birth to Vanessa." Paul said. The Chamber would not accept a child from nowhere and Vanessa's birthday matched to the day Isobel was pregnant. And Vanessa looked alike Stella, that was, she looked alike Rufus. "You mean Vanessa is my daughter?" It was an exciting news and Rufus could not control his heartbeat. "It is likely, but I did not get the truth, so I am not sure about it." "Rufus, there is a simple and direct way. Get an DNA sample and you will know."

CHAPTER 410 MEET IN VIDEO

Paul thought DNA test was much simpler and it was more accurate. It took less time, lest Rufus waited bitterly. "How can I get one?" It was difficult and Vanessa was in A City. "Get her teeth brush. You send kid to Winwin and pick them up in the morning, I am sure you will get the chance." Paul gave his opinion. As long as the teeth brush was got, everything would be solved. Hearing it, Rufus felt it reasonable, but he had something to worry, because it might affect the custody of two kids. "I will try. But if my father finds that two kids are with Winnie, I am afraid he would be angry, because he would send some to check." "Don't worry, Brian had bribed Chairman's men. Before they report to Chairman, they will ask Brian for advice." Paul said. "I didn't expect that. Brian is thoughtful and more and more mature, but how did you know it?" Rufus asked with jealousy. "He told me before he moved back to suburbs. At that time, he had bad relationship with you, so he told me, but I forgot to tell you." Paul was like a delivery man between Brian and Rufus. What Brian wanted to tell Rufus would be told to him, and then he told Rufus. And Rufus told him what he wanted to tell Brian too, as time went by, he forgot it. "Good, he is thought. My father did not pursue many things, so he was behind it." Rufus gave a smile and he was proud of his son. "Chairman should let go. He did not know that he could not control everything. He had made a lot effort and he would relax and enjoy life." "Even if he is domineering, he could not control Brian.” Paul said and it was the fact. Brian was like a cheetah growing fast and did not need protection, and he would go wild in the forest. “Everything knows that, but he did not admit that he is old. He has been domineering for a lifetime and destroyed happiness of generations. I don’t know if he would regret it.” Rufus agreed, his family had been working hard, and he wanted him to have a peaceful rest of life. But he might not enjoy it till he died. After Rufus and Stella left, Winnie put away the work and played with the kids, so that they could feel relaxed, and she did not mention anything. “It is late, you should go to bed.” Winnie reminded the kids gently. “Can we sleep with you?” Megan said to Mommy. “Mommy, I want to sleep with you too. We have not been with you for days.” Luke said more frankly. Winnie gave her answer after thinking. “Ok, you behaved well, so I agree to sleep with you.” In the next seconds, the kid cheered up in the living room. But lying in Winnie’s bed, the kids were restless. “Mommy, I miss Daddy, can we have a video chat with Daddy?” Megan asked. “Daddy is abroad, I don’t know it is convenient for him to chat. Go to bed first, if he is convenient, he will call us.” Winnie opposed. She did not want two kids to disturb Brian, but Megan had her idea. “I will text him to see if he is convenient.” With that, she pulled out the phone and texted Brian. “Daddy, brother and I miss you, are you convenient to have a video chat?” Brian replied but it had to wait for ten minutes. While waiting, two kids thought excitedly what they were going to talk with Daddy. And Winnie was looking forward to it. They lied down and covered the quilt. The bed was small, so they were close. Brian called in time. Megan immediately picked it up. Seeing them were with Winnie, Brian was surprised and asked. “Why are you together? Did Great Grandpa agree?” Brian was looking forward to the answer, but he was disappointed to it. “No, Grandpa took us back, and tomorrow we have to go to suburbs, because Mommy needs to go to work.” Megan said with disappointment. “I have to go to work and have no time to take care of you, so you have to go to Grandpa’s. Grandpa said he would send you back here and pick you up in the morning until you start school.” Winnie comforted the kids, and Brian would not be sad. “Oh, it is better than it was before. You can see Mommy everyday.” Brian comforted the kids too, though he was disappointed. “Daddy, when will you be back? We miss you.” Luke asked wanted their family to be together. “Two days to go, I have not finished my work yet. I miss you too, and I will finish my work as soon as possible.” Brian wanted to go home. He had no idea how long he could be with Winnie, so he wanted to cherish every day, but he had to go to work. “Daddy, you are handsome today.” Megan asked with curiosity and had interest in Daddy’s suit. “I am at a party, so I am wearing a suit to show respect to the party.” Brian answered, but he fixed his eyes on Winnie’s face. She gave a faint smile and was good looking with dimples. He felt he missed such an elegant woman. “Daddy, there must be many beautiful women in the party, don’t let them take fancy on you. You have a girlfriend.” Megan said jokingly and reminded her father. “You are naughty, I will not. It is enough that I have Mommy.” Brian said with a smile and did not expect that Megan would say that. But hearing that, Winnie felt upset. Looking at Brian who was handsome and composed in the video, Winnie lost her confidence. She was good looking and had good body shape, but she felt she did not match Brian who was handsome and rich. And that was why she dare not imagine to be with Brian. She fell in love with the man she should not love in the wrong time and wrong place. It made her humble in love. She wished her parents were alive, so that she had a good family background and could closer her distance with Brian. “It is late, you should go to sleep. Daddy is busy, say bye to Daddy.” Winnie said for the second time, but she did not have communication with Brian. After hanging up the phone, Winnie made two kids sleep. Because it was crowded in bed, so she got to the sofa in the living room. But she was not sleepy. Looking at the ceiling, thinking of Brian and what Rufus had told her, she was not sure about her future. Would that excellent man become her husband? Could they be together for a lifetime? She asked, but no one could give her an answer. In the next day, Stella saw her husband off in the airport. "Take care of yourself and remember to eat the nutrition I bought you. Don't worry about me, I will finish work and come back as soon as possible." Joshua told Stella and did not want to leave, hoping it was the last time they separate. "Ok, I know and you come back early, or I will go find you." Stella did not like separation either. She also hoped it was the last time they separated. "I will, wait for me." "Go back, you still have things to do." With that, he hugged Stella and then let go. "Ok, I am going back, you go back as soon as possible." Stella said and then left the airport. She did have something to do today. It was her father told her last night. She came to the hospital. Kevin was resting in his office after finished an operation. "I came in time, I thought you are busy." Stella came with a smile. Kevin was surprised to see her, got up and greeted her. "Stella, you came in the right time. I am going to see you in a few days." "Here I am." Stella said with smile, but she knew Kevin would talk to her about Brain. "Have a seat. I will bring you a cup of coffee and we have a talk." Kevin let Stella sit down. He walked out of the office and talked to a nurse before he came back. "Stella, the coffee will be here soon." Kevin had not seen Stella for a long time, so he was excited. "Have a seat. Are you tired?" Kevin and Brain were friends for years, so Stella had taken him as a brother. "No, I am not tired."
