

My Twins 501

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 501 THE MAN'S VOICE OVER THE PHONE

For this kind of good things, Brian could say it constantly in a tsundere manner to everyone. This excited him even more than his own accolade. "Yes, it is our Luke. No. 1 in the world." "Awesome, Luke is awesome. He is just six years old, but he won No. 1 in the world. Brian, I can't even imagine that Luke did it. Good...Good!" Felix had never been so excited from he married a wife and had children to now he had grandchildren. What an honor! The world was watching! "I didn't expect him to win the championship either. Luke is really good." Brian's excitement depressed some, but his grandpa's call made him back to the peak of excitement. "Good, he is the pride of our whole family." Felix calmed down and then continued. "Brian, say thank you to Winwin. If it were not her, Luke wouldn't be so good." Felix's approval was more important than thousand words. Hearing that, Brian was happy. After he hung up the phone, he immediately told Winnie. "Winwin, Grandpa asked me to thank you. He said without you, Luke could not have today's achievement." Winnie was surprised to hear Felix's appreciation. "Chairman can recognize me... Say thank you for me." Winnie did not know how to describe her mood at the moment. It was not easy to hear a heartfelt thank from Felix. But she didn't know if he really recognized her contribution to the child, or he said it politely taking her as an outsider. Before Brian had time to say anything, the call came one after another, and Winnie's mobile phone also began to ring. They all called to congratulate Luke, and they got the good news from the domestic news. "Luke wins an honor for you and for the country, or it will not broadcast. I have just watched the international channel, which is also broadcasting the news of Luke winning the competition. I am so happy that she has achieved so much at his young age... It is a happy thing." Isobel was too excited to say a word. She just said she saw it from this channel and that channel. In short, it was all about Luke this morning. How she could not be excited for such a propaganda effort? "I am happy too. Luke's efforts have not been paid in vain. But I didn't expect it would be in the news." Winnie was happier than anyone else, but she did not expect that the state was also taking this matter seriously. "How could the news not broadcast something that won glory for the country? Tell Luke I am happy to have a grandson. When I am available, I must buy the best gift and deliver it to him." Isobel could only express the congratulations to Luke with this kind of means, because temporarily she had no plan to go back. "I will tell Luke, but Aunt, are you sick? You sound feebly." Winnie could hear her aunt's excitement, but the degree of her excitement was not same as her words. She didn't feel awake but sick and weak. "No, I am good. If I get sick, I will go home." Isobel denied, afraid that Winnie would worry about her and forced her to go back. "Take care of yourself. No matter you relax or have fun out, don't let yourself be too tired. Don't make yourself sick." Winnie felt worried and said to her aunt. She would like to say it again and again over the phone. "Aunt, come back early. The two children miss you, and so do I and Vanessa." She said this every time. She has been worrying that her aunt would not come back and the Vanessa and she would lose the only one family. "I miss you too, but I finally come out once, let me have fun. When I get older, I won't be able to go out. I won't be able to climb mountains or walk on roads. There will be no point in coming out." Isobel wanted to go home too, she hated this kind of situation that she could not go home, but she could do nothing about it, she could only take it as punishment. "Every time you said so, but you are still young. You'll have plenty of chance. You can take us out with you when Vanessa has a holiday. We've been working hard in all these years and never had traveled." "Aunt, come back early, and I'll go out with you next time. If you can't walk, I will carry you, if you can't climb the mountain, Vanessa and I will carry you. What are you afraid of with us around?" Winnie knew that her aunt had been paying efforts for so many years, it was normal to go out for a trip. But she did not feel at ease and felt her aunt would never come back. The last time her aunt left home was more than 20 years ago. After leaving, she didn't contact with her family for a long time, which made her parents worried a lot. Now Winnie rest assured that was because she could be able to contact her aunt and know her whereabouts. But Winnie felt that her aunt had a trip because she had something in mind. Thinking of this, Winnie said something that she was not sure about. "Aunt, there are something you can't hide, you will have to face it." Winnie's sudden words came from her childhood memories. At the age of seven, she heard something about her aunt, though she had no intention of getting involved in adult affairs. Her aunt might be in love with a married man and his family made a big scene. Later her aunt applied for the support team of the hospital, and left with the support team and never contacted her family again. In so many years, her aunt had never been in love nor married. Winnie felt that she had not got over and still loved that man. Her aunt's reluctance to go back to B City for so many years was an escape from her past. This time, Winnie wondered if her aunt had met the man and left because she didn't want to see him again. It was because of this speculation that Winnie was afraid that her aunt would not come back, so she said what she had just said. Isobel was silent. She did not expect that Winnie would guess the reason she wanted to escape and that she would sense that. How did she know? Did she know it from childhood memories or hear something? When Isobel was silent, Winnie heard a male voice over the phone. She could not hear exactly what they were talking about, but they seemed to be happy. Who was Aunt with? His voice and tone sounded familiar. "Aunt, is there anyone else in your room? I seem to have heard someone is talking." "No, no. I'm in the hotel, and the TV's on, it could be from the TV." Isobel denied it. "Winwin, I want to play for some time. You take care of Vanessa. I am going downstairs to do some exercise. I'll call you when I am available." With that, Isobel hung up the phone at once and then looked to Rufus who was on the phone. She was in bed, and her voice was low. Rufus was about five meters away from her, but his excited voice was so loud that Winnie heard it expectedly. Isobel was still afraid that Winnie knew her relationship with Rufus. Winnie was a persistent and brave woman to face all the difficulties. If she knew it, no matter how bad it was for her, she would put things out to solve it. Winnie had put down the phone, but she was still thinking about the male voice in her aunt's phone, which did not sound like that from TV. The man seemed to have encountered something happy, so he was in high spirit. If it was not from the TV, who could the man be? Winnie thought about it, but suddenly she was in soliloquy laughing at herself. "I was so stupid. If I did not ask aunt but listened carefully for a while and I will know." "It seems that I am old and my brain is slow in thinking." "What are you talking about? Who's old?" Brian put down the phone and came to Winnie. "No, I just feel I am old and my brain stiff. Were you on the phone with your father?" Winnie avoided the story of her aunt because she was not quite sure what was going on and could not tell anyone about it. "Yes, he called me. Now the nation knows Luke got champion. The newspapers, the headline of the major social software are reporting it. I don't accept the interviews because I don't want to make it public, but it seems that it has not been under control." Brian spoke with the corners of his mouth raised. His father had made a few calls to make congratulation. Nor did he pay attention to the media blitz. If he really wanted to control the media, it was easy to do so on his own power. But now the news was broadcast, proving that Luke was indeed the pride of the nation. It should be known by the people. "I didn't expect it would have such a big impact," he said. "In my opinion, it's just a contest. I didn't expect it would bother the news anchor.” “Brian, those social platforms should be under appropriate control, after all, there may be many opinions. I’m afraid it will strike Luke’s enthusiasm.” “I saw it too, there are a lot of videos of the four of us exposed. My appearance in this why will affect your family, control it.” Winnie did not want to be exposed, because she could not explain her identity at this time. “It is good that you are exposed, so that we don’t need to explain to grandpa.” Brian did not mind it. With more people knew the existence of Winnie, his grandpa could not explain. And not it was an opportunity. “Don’t, don’t put Chairman on the spot. We can’t use this method to force him to submit. I still want him to accept me from the bottom of his heart.” Winnie did not agree with what Brian said. If Felix was forced to accept her in this way, Felix would think that she was playing tricks again. Even after being accepted, Winnie would be mocking. And it would be pointless. “You don’t have to worry about that. Grandpa has his way of thinking. If your presence makes a big difference, he’ll figure it out.” With that, Brian lifted his hands and fell on Winnie’s shoulders. He looked at Winnie affectionately, so that Winnie would not consider too much. “Winwin, it is not us expose it, so we don’t have to think too much about it or worry that Grandpa would have other ideas. We just do things in an open and honest way, and Grandpa will be suspicious if he thinks if it is suspicious. So no matter what you do, as long as you have a clear conscience, don’t care about what others would say, don’t care about what kind of person they say you are.” Brian instructed Winnie.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 502 CONGRATULATIONS FROM WENDY

Brian continued to enlighten Winnie, wishing to calm her down and give her an easy life that she would not have so much to worry about. “Winwin, I just want to tell you that Grandpa is not in charge of everything. Even if I could not persuade him, he is in his nineties and could not stop us for a life time. I will marry you one day, but I need you give me time and trust.” Winnie knew that Brian was good to her and wanted to be with her. But for Winnie, she wanted to be recognized by Felix while he was still alive. This was not stubbornness or obstinacy but a way of proving herself. “Ok, I’ll wait for you, I’ll give you time. Don’t worry and don’t make Chairman angry. Let’s take our time.” Winnie gave the answer which was not from her heart. She could not enforce her persistence on Brian, could not force Brian to fight for it with Felix. Just let it be. There was still a long road ahead in life. Who knows what may happen in the future? As long as she could have time to company the children to grow up physically and mentally healthy, she would not ask for anything else. “Ok, that’s enough for me. Winwin, I have another day of work to do tomorrow, and the day after tomorrow we’ll leave here. You can book a flight anywhere you want. I have ten days for you and the children.” Before Brian finished his words, the phone rang again. He picked up the phone. Winnie took a deep breath. She could relax for a few days without thinking about anything. Brian gave her and her children 10 days. In these ten days, she would enjoy being with Brian. Wendy heard from her mother that Luke got the champion. “Get up, it’s getting late.” “Look, Luke got the prize.” Zoe called Wendy in a stiffly tone, as if she was upset that Luke got a prize. “What has it to do with me that he won the prize? Mom, let me sleep.” Wendy was not concerned about whether Luke won the prize. If it were Winnie’s news, perhaps she would care. “You only sleep. What time is it now and you are still sleeping? No man would like a woman who doesn’t work and go out for exercise but just stays at home and sleeps all day.” Zoe was angry at Wendy’s attitude. She was not self-motivated, no wonder Brian chose Winnie. “Mom...It has nothing to do with whether the man like me or not. It doesn’t have anything to do with me that Luke won the prize.” Wendy sat up blearily. She was agitated by her mother's noise. "How could it has nothing to do with you. You're simple-minded. Luke is the world's No. 1, now the news is broadcast, and you still don't care about it." "The world's No. 1? Luke got the champion?" Wendy suddenly woke up. She had never expected that Luke would win the world championship. Luke was very smart, but she had always believed that there were people more excellent than him. Luke would meet the opponent in the international competition, but Luke was the most excellent. "Yes, it is on the news, it could not be mistaken. Now it has gone viral on all major social media platforms, with some digging up Luke's parents and wondering how clever they are to give birth to a world champion at the age of six." "Once Winnie is exposed, you will be even more miserable. The whole B City knows that you are Brian's fiancée and knows that Brian has been waiting for many years for you, so he would marry you. But once Winnie is exposed, you will have no chance." "You still said Luke's matter has nothing to do with you, now how do you think? And Megan, she was an interpreter in the interview. She could speak fluently foreign language. These two children....." Zoe was nagging. Hearing that, Wendy was irritable and interrupted her mother. "The winner is Luke, what does it matter to Megan? Mom, you don't understand, don't give blind analysis." "I gave blind analysis? Wendy, what is wrong with your brain? Winnie educated two children so well, what do you think Felix's attention is to her? Would he drive her away? He must keep Winnie for the sake of the future of both children." Zoe at the moment was angry. It was understandable, but Wendy could not figure it out. If she could not figure it out, she should listen to others, but her attitude was bad and she was brainless and stubborn. This was the most obvious performance of people without intelligence. "It is on the national news, and the nation considers it a great honor. What honor is it for Felix who enjoys it?" "I don't believe Felix would give up honor and send Winnie away." Zoe raised her voice, hoping that Wendy would be aware of the seriousness of the matter. "So what can I do? He's already won the prize. I can't do anything about it." Wendy realized that her mother was right, but there was nothing she could do. Luke was not her son and she could not control him. "There's nothing to do now." Zoe didn't know what to do either. There was a pause. "Wendy, do whatever you want as soon as possible and don't put it off any more. And you should have the grace to call Brian and congratulate him. You must play the role of a good woman in face of Brian." This was the only way Zoe could think of for the time being. "Okay, I'll call him later." After that, Zoe left Wendy's room. Wendy took a look at the clock and felt Brian had not been asleep yet, so she pulled out her phone. As she was about to dial, Jonny's phone came. "Do you know that Winnie's child won the prize?" Jonny seemed to be worried. He did not say hello but went to the point directly. "Yes, I have just heard about it. Now we're all talking about it." Wendy gave a ponderous answer. She just thumbed through the social platform, and this matter really caught much attention. "The game is over, Winnie will leave. You said you would help me, but she is going to leave and you have no action yet." Jonny was anxious because of Winnie, because he would lose such a good opportunity. "Wendy, if you don't create a chance for me before Winnie leaves, don't blame me for not being able to control my mouth." Jonny threatened Wendy. He didn't want to lose Winnie. It didn't matter whether he liked her or not. What mattered was she was rich and he could have a rich life in the rest of his life. "You.....I can only make an opportunity for you to meet. It is up to you what you would do." "Buy me something and send it to Winnie. Tell her to bring it back for me. Her room is XXXX." Wendy could only help him with this temporarily. If Brian knew that she had ulterior motives, he would not spare her. After hanging up Jonny's phone, Wendy hurried to call Brian. Brian picked it up. "Wendy!" Brian answered the phone, but when he said her name, Winnie, who was on the phone, noticed it. "Brian, I learnt the news in the morning that Luke won a prize, I am happy. Congratulations to you on having such an excellent child, and congratulations to Luke on winning the champion." Wendy said blessing words in a soft voice, but only she knew she was insincere. "It's not a big deal. He got the champion because he studied hard and Winnie taught him well. Thank you for your congratulations." Brian's answer was formal and he calmed down from being excited. "Yes, Winwin made great contribution. It is right that you chose Winwin. I am relieved to see you happy. All I want in my life is for you to be happier than me. Bless you, Brian." Wendy said in a trembling voice. She envied that Winnie could be with Brian happily. While she envied the, she felt sorry for herself. She felt it should belong to her, but Winnie took it away. She felt wronged, so her voice was trembling because she felt sour in heart. "....." Brian was silent for a moment, not knowing how to answer. He knew that Wendy still could not get him over and she must felt bitter at the moment. But there was nothing to be done. They had broken up and could not be back together. "You will find happiness, too. It's late on my side, so let's talk some other time." Brian was to hang up the phone, but Wendy stopped him timely. "Brian..." However, Wendy could not help but cry, with her sobbing voice fell into the ears of Brian. Brian looked at the phone, listened to the low sobbing voice, said nothing and then hung up the phone. This was love. When they were in love, if his woman cried in front of him, he would feel sad. But when he did not love her, he only felt she was pitiful. "Wendy?" By this time Winnie had put down the phone and walked to Brian. Looking at Brian's slightly embarrassing look without excitement, looking at his twisting eyebrows, Winnie knew that Wendy's words affected Brian's mood. "Yes, she learned the news of Luke and called to congratulate him." Brian answered with indifference. "She called to congratulate, it is good." "Let's go to bed. It's getting late, and you have work tomorrow." Looking at Brian who did not have a good mood, Winnie did not ask anything. His being upset about another woman was not something she could fix. Let him figure it out himself. At home. Wendy put down the phone and cried bitterly. She wanted to say a few more warm words to Brian, but she began to cry with a sour nose and didn't say anything. The most important thing was that Brian heard her crying but cruelly he hung up the phone. How could she not be said about Brian's attitude? After being sad, she still had to continue to strive to get Brian back. Thinking about her mother's analysis, she thought she had to do something about it now. But Wendy had a problem. When she was anxious, she did not know what to do and everything would be in a mess.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 503 SOMETHING IS WRONG WITH WENDY

Wendy had an appointment to meet Thomas. She did not know if it was right to do so, but she knew that Penny wanted to see Thomas was likely to have something to do with Winnie, but she was afraid that Thomas would refuse to help. After all, Thomas was Brian's uncle, he would not go too far for the sake of Brian. Thought so, but she still decided to see Thomas. Now there was no time for her to analyze it. Whatever the circumstances were, they had to be used. Thomas came to the agreed room. He still wore a cold face frowning. Seeing that, Wendy flinched, but it was better than the last time. "Uncle..." "Why do you want to see me?" Wendy said timidly, but before she greeted, Thomas interrupted her coldly. "I...Uncle Thomas, have a seat, I come to you for something." Wendy cheered herself up to say to Thomas. Thomas stood there in an aggressive manner, and she did not have the courage to speak. Thomas thought for a moment and then sat down. "Hurry up, I don't have much time." "Ok, I'll say it now." Wendy said. "Actually, I still can't get over Brian. I want to get him back. But I couldn't think of a better way, so I went back to the prison to meet Penny again." At this, Wendy stopped, she knew that Thomas would be angry. "You went to see Penny again. I warned you, Wendy, but you still went to see her. Penny is our family's enemy. If the Bennet family finds out that you asked her for help, you can't marry into the Bennet family even if you drive Winnie out." Thomas warned her angrily. He did not want Wendy the fool and Penny had too much contact, not because she was used by Penny or she lost, but because he was afraid that it would ruin his good deed if Wendy worked for Penny. "Uncle Thomas, I really have no other way. When I went to see Penny, she asked me to give you a message. She wanted to see you." Wendy finished speaking, afraid that Thomas would suddenly get angry and she could not finish her words. "Why should I go to see her? She's pushing her luck. Why should I keep going to see her?" Thomas was angry, patting on the tea table with hands. He hated feeling like he was being controlled, and he didn't want Wendy to know his attitude. If Wendy knew too much, it was not good for anyone. "Uncle Thomas, I know what she did to Luke hurt the Bennet family. But her target was not the child but Winnie. She just wanted to get rid of Winnie and had no intention against anyone else." Wendy tried to persuade him. As long as Thomas promised to see Penny, Penny would have her idea. Wendy knew that Penny had no other idea now, but her hatred for Winnie did not reduce. Penny's only purpose was Winnie, which was good to Wendy. "What do you mean? I go to see Penny, and then you deal with Winnie together and let me help? Are you two women going to join hands to use me?" Thomas once again patted on the table in rage. He was tired of Wendy's mindless way of speaking. She was stupid, but still wanted to fight with Winnie and marry into the Bennet family. It was daydreaming. "Uncle Thomas, calm down. I don't mean to use you. I..... It was Penny who gave me the advice. I helped him to give you a message. I won't use you, don't think much about it." Wendy hurried to explain. Thomas' anger made her tremble, but for her own sake, she could only make up the courage to appease Thomas. "Let me tell you, Wendy, I don't care what happened between you and Winnie, and I will pretend that I don't know anything and I will not tell anyone. It is the only thing I could do for old times' sake. But don't get involved in Penny's affairs and don't bring me any message anymore." Thomas' anger did not subside because of Wendy's explanation. He immediately got up after he gave the angry warning. "Uncle Thomas, you used to visit her often, don't mind one more time, just go and see her." Seeing that Thomas was to go, under the urgent Wendy did not know what should be said and what should not be said. She directly mentioned what happened before. But it was the taboo to Thomas. "Impudence. I visited her only because her father had helped me, and I only wanted to return her father's favor by arranging things for her. Why should I go to see her after I've done everything I should?" "Wendy, don't come to me again. Based on your intelligence and the way you talked, even if there were a hundred people to help you, you are not Winnie's opponent. It was you messed the things up." Thomas was furious and said satirical words directly. Maybe it was not sarcasm but insult. But amid his anger, he overlooked a detail. Thomas gasped for breath angrily, took a look at Wendy and then left. Thinking of what Thomas said, Wendy got change on her face. She felt bitter, unconvinced, humiliated and helpless. She was thinking of what was wrong with her intelligence and why she was not Winnie's opponent. She wondered where she had gone wrong so she got insulted. Thomas and Penny's father were friends, but she did not know it. He took care of Penny for the sake of her father, but why Penny didn't know Thomas? Wendy felt something strange, but she couldn't figure out what was strange. The news that Luke won the prize got popular in the nation. The Bennet family was happy that the national people were proud. But Penny was angry, especially she saw Brian and Winnie in the interview video. The family of four was so happy, and it was at her expense. They had their happiness based on her pain. She hated Winnie, no, now she even hated Brian and the two children. 'Wait for me. When I get out, we'll settle the score. During this time, you can enjoy your happiness, and when I go out, I will destroy your family.' Penny hated them so much and even wanted to escape from the prison to immediately end their happiness. But she could not go out alone. Felix had been happy from the morning until noon with a smile always on his face. No matter it was his family or servants asked him, he would tell them Luke won the prize. Suddenly he felt that there was something blissful about this ostentation. It was like the best feeling in the world. Felix once again showed it off to Butler Lowe before he was back to his room. As he just sat on the bed to get some rest, Thomas pushed the door in. "Dad, did you see Winnie leave the country?" Thomas asked calmly. "What do you mean? I didn't see her on the news." Felix asked with doubts and put on the glasses he had just taken off. "She has not quality to be on the news. If you see the social media platform, she's on almost every one of them." With that, Thomas walked to his father, turned on the phone, and then showed him the video one by one. "Look, isn't this Winnie?" "This one, she is always with Brian." Thomas thumbed through them one by one, and then pointed at the position of Winnie. "And this, I think, it is the audience. It is clear. She was holding hands with Brian, looking like the parents of the children." Thomas was passionate in his tone. It seemed that he was dissatisfied with the exposure of Winnie and tried to make his father angry with her. Felix watched one video after another, his mood became bad from good and his face became cold. Seeing that Winnie was in too many videos, he was irritable. But after hearing what Thomas had said, he wanted to ask a question first. "What do you mean? Are you not satisfied that Winnie's departure from the country? Does it affect you?" "Dad....." At this, Thomas stopped. He did not expect his father would ask that, so at a moment, he was speechless. "If I remember correctly, the last time you talked to me about Winnie, you were quite supportive of her. Why did you change your attitude now?" Felix was confused about Thomas's attitude, he did not hold consistent attitude, which showed that he had something in mind, and it was something that could not be sure of. "No... The problem is so serious that we should pay attention to it. Now they say she's Brian's wife and the mother of two children. Since it has been known by everyone, who would marry Brian? Even if there is a woman who is willing to marry her, the public opinion would be inclined to Winnie, and they would scold the Bennet family and Brian." Thomas spoke his views on this matter. He had a blind date, now Winnie's exposure had a great impact on his plan. Felix did not continue to ask, but he admitted that what Thomas worried was reasonable. Felix mused for a moment. "Find someone to block the news, don't leak out those videos that Winnie is in." Felix finally gave the order. He was happy that Luke got a prize and acknowledged Winnie's effort, but it did not mean that he accepted her. He could not allow Winnie to affect the overall situation of the Bennet family. The next morning, Brian got up and flew to another city, where he came to with Wendy and he had an accident. With the last lesson, he told Morgan to stay with Winnie, so that he could focus on work. Brian was busy, but he still paid attention to the domestic news. He was concerned about his grandpa's attitude about Winnie's exposure. And sure enough, he was right. Grandpa did block all the videos. From this point of view, grandpa's attitude was still firm and he was unable to accept Winnie. Winnie had a rare relaxing time after Luke's competition. She took Luke and Megan out to, followed by Morgan. At noon, Winnie took her two children to have lunch with Morgan in a restaurant. "Mom, why isn't Uncle Oscar with us?" Luke was so excited that he didn't think of Uncle Oscar until now. "He had flew back to our country this morning. He has something urgent to deal with at his company, so he must go back." Winnie answered gently. Neither of the children got up when Oscar left in the morning, so they didn't say goodbye. "Oh, Mom, when I get home, I must thank Uncle Oscar. Without him, I wouldn't have achieved good performance." Luke said gratefully.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 504 WAIT A DAY FOR THE CHANCE

Luke knew that he could not make such achievement on his own, and he knew that Uncle Oscar was devoted to him. He should be grateful and should know all this did not belong to his own. "Well, it's up to you. You can do whatever you want." "By the way, Morgan, did Brian say when he would be back?" Winnie did not know the exact itinerary of Brian, nor where he went. She had booked the flights, but she was afraid that Brian could not come back on time, so she asked Morgan. "Mr. Bennet said he'll be back in the evening if things go well with his work and he'll be back in the morning if it does not go well. You booked the flights at noon, and Mr. Bennet said he'll come back before time." Morgan had been in contact with Brian, so he knew all the whereabouts of Brian. "Oh, I hope he won't miss the plane. Is he not in this city?" Winnie asked. From what Morgan's, it was not difficult to guess that Brian was not in this city. "No. Mr. Bennet has gone to the same city as he went last time with Wendy." Morgan accidentally mentioned Wendy, but did not say the specific name of the city. "Try to get his memories back again?" Winnie was stunned for a moment before she asked this question. "It's for work. But I think Mr. Bennet would go to the scene if time permits." This was Morgan's experience. Every time Brian went to that city, Mr. Bennet would go to the scene no matter he was available or not. "Wendy was there last time. Could she help? Didn't she remember anything?" Winnie had never asked Brian this question, because she knew that Wendy was not that woman and she did not want to bother Brian. She thought if Brian wanted to let her know, he would say it out. If he did not want to let her know, it would only make it hard for him. She didn't want to be the one to be hated and make things difficult for others. "She remembered something. She said the accident was solved on the spot, but she said she did not remember the rest." Morgan could only play it down. Mr. Bennet must not have told Winnie, otherwise Winnie would not ask him. If he said too much, he would find it hard to explain to Mr. Bennet. "Wendy said it was solved on the spot?" Winnie suspected Wendy. She did not know anything but she said it was solved on the spot. Was she confusing Brian's memory, or did someone tell her so, or was she still lying to please Brian? Jonny followed Winnie for almost a day, but Winnie was accompanied by a man throughout the day. He had seen this man before. He had seen him next to Brian. He was not either his secretary or his assistant. From their conversation, he knew that this man's name was Morgan. In short, he did not have any chance. Even Winnie went to the bathroom, he would stand outside, more thoughtful than Brian. It seemed that this man was also a bodyguard. It must be that after what happened last time, Brian sent him to protect Winnie carefully because he was worried. Jonny could understand some of their language, so he could know that they were talking about. Maybe he could find time to go to Winnie's room in the evening. Jonny continued to track Winnie. Until the night Winnie took the children back to the room, Morgan finally no longer followed Winnie. With a random purchase in his hand, Jonny strode to the door of Winnie's room and knocked. "Mom, someone's knocking at the door." Winnie was helping Megan to have a bath. Luke heard the knock on the door in the living room, he loudly called Winnie. "I am coming." Winnie asked Megan to wait for her, and then hurried out of the bathroom. "Do you know who it is?" Winnie asked Luke. "I don't know. I didn't open the door. I didn't ask." Luke answered his mother while watching TV. At this time Winnie had walked to the door, through the door viewer, she saw Jonny. Winnie hesitated for a moment and then opened the door a bit. "What can I do for you?" Winnie asked expressionless. Jonny frequently appeared when Brian was not around, which made her she feel disgusted. "Miss Chambers, I need your help. May I go in?" Jonny said with a friendly smile on his face. "Mr. Jonny, I'm sorry, but I'm alone. You cannot go in. Let's talk here." Winnie refused directly, and she was dissatisfied with Jonny's request. "Well, I'll say it here... I... I can't explain clearly with a few words. The kids are in, it will be ok I go in." The smile on Jonny's face grew more and more sly. He was anxious and did not want to miss this opportunity, so he made an excuse to go in. Then

Jonny stretched out his hand to push the door, and deliberately put his hand on Winnie's hand holding the door. But his behavior made Winnie unhappy and sick. Winnie withdrew her hand, pushed her foot against the door with a frown, and her expression became cold. "Jonny, I didn't invite you in. You're being rude. I'm sorry, but whatever it is, I can't help you." Winnie said sternly and directly closed the door with great force. But Jonny was so strong that the door couldn't close. At this time, Luke found that something was wrong, and quickly ran to push the door with his mother. He shouted at Jonny loudly. "What are you doing? You're not invited in, what you are doing is annoying." "No, I mean no harm. I really need your mother's help. Miss Chambers, don't get me wrong. I just want you to bring something to Wendy for me." Jonny tried to explain, but he didn't let go as he spoke. He kept pushing the door with force. "I can't help you. You can deliver it to her." Winnie refused with a stern voice, but she and Luke could not close the door. Winnie was so angry and then said to Luke. "Son, go and call Uncle Morgan and tell him to come over now." Winnie spoke to Luke in her language, but Jonny understood her. "Miss Chambers, what are you talking about? I really mean no harm. This is what Wendy made me buy. She said she wanted you to bring it back. I'm trying to help. I don't mean anything." "I said I won't bring anyone's stuff back. Mr. Jonny, if you really mean nothing, why do you insist on going in? Why are you pushing my door so hard? Don't you know it's..." Winnie wanted to say that Jonny's behavior was against the law, but before she finished, Jonny was suddenly pulled away. She and Luke were resisting his strength. As his strength suddenly disappeared, Winnie shut the door at one, making a huge noise. Because Winnie did not see how Jonny suddenly released, so she looked out from the door reviewer, only to know that Brian was back, so she opened the door. He pulled Jonny aside with great strength and Jonny almost fell down. "What are you doing, Mr. Bennet?" Jonny looked at Brian with panic. He clearly heard that Brian would not come back at night. Did he hear it wrong? Now all of a sudden Brian showed up. His plan failed and he did not know how he should explain. "What am I doing? You still asked me what I am doing? My wife refused to let you in. Didn't you hear her? Can't you understand that she talked to you in your language? Don't you understand that she said she won't bring anything for anyone? What's wrong with Wendy? Do we have to bring Wendy something? You have heard everything and understood everything. Why did you insist on going in? Should I say for you what you want to do?" Brian was angry and rebuked Jonny domineeringly. From the moment he laid eyes on Jonny, he knew he was no good. As expected, he actually took advantage of his absence to see Winnie with misbehavior. Luckily, he was back. If he didn't come tonight, Jonny would break in. "Mr. Bennet, you can't talk like that. It's a false accusation. I can take legal action, you know." Jonny was afraid but he had to say so. He could not admit everything that Brian had said. It would be his responsibility if he admitted. When Brian heard Jonny's excuse like a rogue, he was even angrier and punched Jonny without saying anything. This punch in Jonny's face would have knocked his teeth out. Unfortunately, Winnie stopped Brian timely to save Jonny from suffering. "Brian, don't. If you hit him, we won't be able to leave tomorrow." Winnie said this in the dialect of the B City because she could tell that Jonny understood some of the language of her country, so that he could not figure it out. "Such a man should be hit. He has evil intentions towards you. If I hadn't come back..." He was still angry and terrified of what would happen if he didn't come back. "It is ok, Luke has called Morgan." Winnie comforted Brian, knowing that he was worried and angry. As Winnie's voice fell, Morgan rushed over. "Mr. Bennet, what happened?" Morgan did not know what was going on. Luke called him only to let him come quickly, and did not say what had happened. "He is a friend of Wendy, this is Wendy's bullshit friend. With the excuse to ask Winnie to bring things to Wendy, he wanted to intrude into Winnie's room." Brian said briefly, and then looked at Morgan. "Do you think he should be hit?" Morgan was angry and understood

Brian's meaning. He kicked Jonny directly without saying anything. Morgan hit Jonny hard, but the force was reduced when his foot touched Jonny, because Winnie stopped him. "Morgan, don't listen to Mr. Bennet. We are abroad, we can't make trouble. And we have our hotel here, and he's local. If he comes and disturbs our business while we're gone, it won't be easy." Winnie persuaded Morgan in dialect. She didn't want to make a big deal. She was leaving tomorrow. Even though Jonny had bad intention, he would meet her again. "Sis Winnie, we can't spare him. It doesn't have to be that simple, someone may be behind him." "Get out of the way, Sis Winnie, I will beat him hard and see if he has any accomplices and if it is intentional to you." Morgan was in high spirit, but his words reminded Winnie of the foreign man who had called her. "Morgan, it's better to save trouble. If he does have accomplices, I am their target. He can't do anything to me with you all around. We're leaving tomorrow. Don't make a scene." Winnie persuaded anxiously.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 505 TO THE END

Winnie persuaded Morgan, but Brian went to Jonny and kicked at him. "Ah..." Hearing a loud cry, Winnie stopped Brian. "Brian, listen to me, don't hit him. The children are watching. Don't frighten them." Winnie did not know how to stop him and could only mention the children, but it works. Brian looked back at Luke and Megan wearing a bathrobe with foam on her face and stopped hitting Jonny. "Luke, take your sister back and close the door." Brian gave a serious order, then Luke walked back holding his sister's hand. He said to his dad before closing the door. "Dad, we can't spare the one who bullies Mom." Winnie looked back at Luke and the door was closed. But the moment she looked back at Luke, Brian bent down and lifted up the collar of Jonny who fell on the ground, and then punched at Jonny's face. Jonny's blood spat out from his mouth instantly. "You, you hit me without reason, I will call the police." Jonny staggered to support himself and rummaged for his phone. At this time Brian said fearlessly. "Morgan, keep the hotel surveillance and see how he got in and how long he's been in. Get the clearest picture of him trying to force into the room. No matter where he calls the police, we will allow him to do so. And ask the police to check if he has accomplices." Brian said in foreign language so that Jonny could understand him. Jonny stopped looking for his phone and then fell to the ground again. No one knew if he was scared of the threat so he pretended to be half dead, or if he was really hurt. But either way, Brian didn't care. This consequence of trying to hurt his man was the lightest punishment. Brian took Winnie's hand and walked into the room, but he turned around before he opened the door. "Brian, forget it." Winnie quickly took Brian's hand to persuade him, lest he hit Jonny again. Instead, he took out the phone and pressed the dial button. More than ten seconds later, the phone was connected. Before the other side said anything, Brian questioned loudly and angrily. "Wendy, what do you mean? You just got back and want us to bring back your things. What is your friend up to, or what are you up to? He forced to go on when Winnie was alone. Do have an agreement to harm Winnie?" Brian's angry voice scared Wendy. She was excited to pick up Brian's call, but now she was panic. From what Brian said, she knew that Jonny went to Winnie, and he had been caught. "I did ask Jonny to deliver it, Brian. I came back in a hurry and didn't have time to buy anything to bring back, so Jonny bought it and asked you to bring it back to me." "I really don't know what happened to you, and I have no other intentions." Palpated, Wendy explained. She felt lucky that it was on the phone, if she was in the face of Brian's questioning, she would tell the truth. "What is that explanation? Perfunctory? You can't deliver what you need? Why ask Winwin to take it back to you? Are you that close with her? Is my woman at your disposal? Why don't you give things to Morgan if you have no intentions? Why do you ask Winwin to help?" "Wendy, I tell you, don't play tricks with me, don't try to hurt Winwin, don't imagine I will come back to you. Even if Winwin and I can't be together, I won't accept you because your way treating people." Brian said maliciously. He was no sure if it was Wendy's plan, but Jonny was her friend. If Wendy had not told him the room number, he could not find it. Brian had to warn Wendy, so that Winnie could feel better. "Your friend was hit by me, you can see how to deal with it, no matter you call the police or not, I will fight in the end." Brian's last words was said to Wendy, but also to Jonny, who had been lying on the ground. Then he hung up the phone decisively and took Winnie's hand back to the room Morgan took care of the rest. Back to the room, Brian asked Winnie. "Were you scared by the beast?" "No, he didn't scare me. You scared me." Winnie tried to make herself relaxed, so that Brian would not worry. Brian was finally relieved after hearing that. He put Winnie into his arms and said. "Be careful and not open the door to someone you don't know. You must love yourself well so that I can rest assured. You must be well so that I and my two children can be happy." Brian said, but he thought of himself. Same family of four with mom, dad, son and daughter. But he did not want to lose Winnie the way his father lost his mother. He didn't want his two children to lose their mother like he did. "I will, I will be careful. Don't worry, it won't happen again." Winnie had been comforting Brian. She was not scared, but Brian was scared. Otherwise, he wouldn't have gotten so angry with Wendy and wouldn't have knocked Jonny to the ground. In this life there was a man who could swing his fist for her was a kind of happiness, she should be satisfied. Jonny was carried out of the hotel and thrown on the sidewalk by Morgan. "Jonny, if you want to call the police, call the police now. If you don't, we'll leave tomorrow at noon. But it doesn't matter, you can call the police at any time, Mr. Bennet said he will fight to the end." "And, go back to warn Wendy that she will be next one to be hit she plays a trick again." Morgan did not forget to warn Jonny and Wendy. He concluded that this matter must have something to do with Wendy, must be planned by the two. Morgan turned to go after warning, but stopped again. Morgan walked back to Jonny, squatted down. There was something he had to make clear to Jonny. "I don't understand why you help Wendy. What's in it for you? I want to know on what basis Wendy asked you to come forward and hurt Winnie." Morgan stopped and looked at the confused Jonny, waiting for his answer. However, Jonny said nothing but looked at Morgan with a confused face, as if waiting for Morgan to continue talking. "You don't know, right? Wendy didn't tell you anything, right? You're a fool. You're being used and you don't even know it. It's no use having a strong body." Morgan said sarcastically, and slapped his hand on Jonny's face, trying to wake him up and make him clear. Jonny's look made him sure that it was all about Wendy. "Hum... Listen, I'll tell you why Wendy used you." "Wendy and our president had a relationship, because the Bennet family did not accept Wendy, so Wendy went abroad out of angry. But Mr. Bennet waited four years for her. When Wendy came back, our president fell in love with Winnie and broke up with Wendy. Wendy is not convinced so she made it hard for Winnie and wants to get back our president." "Do you understand? You are her tool against Winnie." Morgan briefly summarized, got up and kicked Jonny before leaving. He was deliberate to say that. Since Jonny did not know anything, since Wendy tried to harm Winnie, he would like to make them fight. After Morgan left, Jonny sat up. Thinking of Morgan's words, he knew that Wendy had two affairs at the same time for many years and he had been used and fooled by her. He pounded the ground with his fists in hatred. In fact, he did not have serious injury and needed not to be carried out. But if he did not pretend to be miserable, Brian and his assistant would probably not let him go. Jonny staggered to his feet and found his car, sat in the car and called Wendy. Wendy answered the phone quickly without hesitation. "Jonny....." "What the fuck idea you gave me? They hit me, I almost died and covered with blood." Jonny was so angry, he did not even give Wendy a chance to talk. He cursed her, but he did not say that he was being used, nor did he expose the fact that Wendy had two affairs in the same time. "Damn Brian, how can he be so ruthless? Where are you now? Go to the hospital." Wendy pretended to be worried, she did not expect things to end up like that. "Screw you. I can't even walk to the hospital. You are the one who made this happen, and you are responsible." Jonny blamed Wendy for today's pain. Wendy had to make up for it. Otherwise, he would get nothing. "Jonny, I'm only responsible for creating opportunities for you. It's up to you how you do it. How do I know you don't have a good plan before you act?" "Now don't say about it, ok? Go to the hospital to see how serious the injury is, and then we will talk about it." Wendy felt it was not her fault. She had nothing to do with it, but got scolded and warned by Brian. Although she felt wronged, the most important thing at the moment was to appease Jonny and not let him be a rogue forever. "Up to me? Wendy, are you passing the buck? Don't forget who put me up to this in the first place, who gave me the information, who gave me the room number. You should know what would happen if Brian knew about this." When Jonny heard Wendy was trying to shirk responsibility, he was even more angry. He did not pursue the responsibility he had been used, and she wanted to shirk responsibility. Well, let's see if Wendy can pull it off. "Jonny, this is not the same thing. It happens because you didn't plan it properly. You can call the police to deal with them, after all, they hit you. You can't be hit for nothing, it is in your country, and you have many friends in the police station..."

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 506 COME UP WITH A SOLUTION

Wendy shirked the responsibility and told him to call the police, Jonny was angry and he interrupted her before Wendy could finish her words. "Call the police? Fine. I'll call the police. But Brian just said that he has all the monitoring videos of the hotel, including the video of me following Winnie and staying in the hotel for so long. Above all, he suspects that I have complicity. If I go to the police, he must find out who is behind me." "Going to the police is of great benefit to me. At least my sin is borne by my partner, which can reduce the majority of the burden." "Hang up the phone, I will call the police now." "Wait..." Wendy stopped Jonny in time. It seemed that such threats had no effect on Jonny. "I can't wait, I can't be beaten in vain, medical expenses, cost of lost labor, mental damage costs, I must ask them to pay for them." Jonny finally mentioned money. Yeah, the only thing that could make it up to him now was money. "Jonny, don't worry. We'll think about it before we decide what to do." Wendy again did not know what to do. She thought it had nothing to do with it and wanted to send them into the police station. But Brian still wanted to find out who was behind it. Jonny would betray her to save himself. If he told the truth of last time, she would be in trouble. But Jonny mentioned about money, what he wanted was clear. If he didn't call the police, she had to pay Jonny to appease him. She had no money left, and she had used most of what her mother had and little left. What should she do now? The phone was silent for a moment. Even if Wendy had no money, she had to use money to solve the problem. "Jonny, don't call the police. I'll bear all your expenses. You take care of yourself and we still have plenty of chances. Winnie must pay us back twice as much as we did for our spiritual loss." "You bear all expenses? Ok, but I need someone to take care of me. I am badly injured and no one is to take care of our kid. You'd better come back and take care of us." Jonny wanted more than just money. Winnie would leave at noon tomorrow, so he was hopeless in any case. He was used by Wendy, and Wendy's purpose was achieved, but he got a wound and let Wendy slip away. It was unfair. Jonny had always been wanting mentally balanced. He got beat and he had to get a woman back. Hearing that, Wendy panicked again. If she went there, she might not be able to come back again and would be imprisoned there for the rest of her life. She would not be able to get Brian back and everything would fall through. "Jonny, you know my mother is sick and I can't leave. I'm going to give you some extra money so you can hire a nanny to take care of both of you. As soon as my mother gets better, I'll be there to take care of you." Wendy tried her best to placate Jonny and give herself a chance. "Your mother needs someone to take care of her. She has your father with her. I need more care than your mother." Jonny wouldn't believe Wendy, he went on. "Winnie and Brian will fly at noon tomorrow. I want to see you on the plane before they get on. Or I'll call the police." "Wendy, don't play tricks with me. Don't think I can't do anything about you just because you're in your country. Don't forget I can find your family... Of course, your family is rich now and probably has a different address. But I know Brian. If I ask him about his mother-in-law's house and his wife's house, who has been married for five years, I believe he would like to tell me." "Oh, by the way, I will bring our kid with me. She hasn't seen her grandma and grandpa yet." Jonny spoke threateningly and then hung up. Wendy was gasping for breath out of anger. Jonny would not let her escape from his hand. He would come to find her and say out the fact that she had a kid and husband. If he said it out, she would lose everything, and his father would lose his position in the Yup Group. Wendy was anxious and didn't understand how things had gone from bad to worse. All this work should be going in a good direction, but she did not see hope and had to deal with the mess. Now she did not know what to do. She didn't know what to do, so she called her mother to her room. "Money again? You agreed with him?" Zoe immediately got irritable speaking of money. Their money could not be spent like this, it could not be ripped off by that bastard Jonny. "What should I do if don't agree? I'm just putting it off. But that trash did nothing and was beaten by Brian." "Now he wants to call the police, and Brian will investigate the truth. And Jonny will say it out that Winnie was controlled by the police. In that case, I will be screwed." Wendy was helpless. At the moment she was like in the boundless sea like holding a log, alive with no hope in sight, but scared to death. "I told you to stop contacting with Jonny, now you can't get rid of him. He's a scoundrel and he won't stop until he ruins us all." Zoe was nagging. If Wendy was obedient and did not contact Jonny, things would not have developed so passive. "Mom, what's the use of saying that now? Now he wants more than money. He wants me to go back to MG Country. If I don't go back, he would tell Brian about my relationship with him. If he do say it, it would be a waste of all my hard work." Wendy angrily confronted her mother. She asked her mother to give her advice not to teach her. She realized that she was wrong, but now it was late, the important thing was how to solve the problem. "If you go back, you'll fall into the swamp and never get out." Zoe was angry at Wendy, but she could not come up with an idea at this moment. If Jonny really came to them, their family would be screwed. "What are you going to do?" Zoe asked Wendy after she calmed down. "I don't know. I can put it off about the money for a while, but if I don't give him an answer by morning, he'll tell Brian everything. I must go there if I have to, and try to get back then." This was the only way Wendy could figure out. The other way was to admit defeat and do nothing but wait for Brian to know everything. "Wendy, actually he may not dare to speak out the fact Winnie got into the police station, after all, he had been involved. Why would he tell you if he wants to call the police? He should have called the police when he got hit. Jonny still has something to worry about. He can't go to the police after he got hit. He could only come to you for balance." Zoe calmed down and began to analyze it. She did not approve of Wendy to MG Country. With her IQ, it would be hard for Wendy to come back again.

"I had that thought, but he would call Brian. Even if he did not say that, he can tell him that we were married." Wendy was afraid that her past was exposed. If Brian knew everything, he would find out that she was not with him with truth heart and that she dated two men at the same time. Brian would not forgive her. "Did you give Jonny the phone number of Brian?" Zoe raised her eyebrows and asked Wendy. "No, he probably didn't know it. But Jonny knows Winnie's phone number, and he called her and threatened her." Wendy now regretted it but it was of no avail. "Wait... the phone number Jonny knows seems to be Winnie's temporary number abroad?" Wendy suddenly thought of this point, which made her have a moment of surprise. "So after Winnie and Brian get on the plane successfully, Jonny can't do anything?" Zoe asked Wendy, confirming if she was true. "Even if Winnie can't be found, he can still find our home. Even though we moved, it will not be difficult to find Brian in B City. Wendy's excitement subsided. "Didn't you say he couldn't come to our country for the time being. It seems he couldn't go through the formalities to come to our country." Zoe suddenly thought of what Wendy had said to her when she just returned home. She did not remember it clearly, so she confirmed with Wendy. Being reminded, Wendy remembered it. "Mom, how can I forget it? He could not get a visa, so he could not come to our country. Why should I be afraid of him?" Wendy finally felt relieved because of her mother's reminder. When Jonny was with her, he used violence against her, so Wendy called the police, so Jonny got a record, and people with a record were not allowed to enter our country. That was the main reason Jonny couldn't follow her when she came back. "You are panic when there is a problem. You have to calm down so that you can come up with solution." "You don't need to go back. Just be perfunctory. The rest of the problem is to explain to Brian so that he can clear up his misunderstanding about you. Zoe said with confidence. If not for her help, Wendy would mess it up again. "Shall I give the money to Jonny?" Wendy asked. "You keep him calm, and when we get the money, we can calm him with money. For the time being, we have no money, and the vacancy you have made has not been filled up. If your father knows about it, the sense his justice will make him send you to confess to Brian." Zoe didn't want to give money to Jonny, because money would not solve the problem, but would only make Jonny demand more and more. "I'll take your advice this time. I'll try to put it off until noon tomorrow." Wendy felt that she could only listen to her mother now, and it was impossible for her to come up with any solutions. Her head was full of paste. She didn't know when she would wake up. The next day, Wendy bought a ticket and dragged her suitcase to the airport in order to keep Jonny calm. She contacted Jonny in the departure lounge and told him she would be boarding soon. At the same time, she showed her location and ticket to Jonny through the video. Only by doing so could Jonny trust her and she could delay until Winnie got on the plane. When it was time to check in, Wendy turned off her phone and returned home with her suitcase.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 507 I AM YOUR DESTINY

The plane was at noon, and the family of four boarded the plane on time and began their happy journey. On the plane. "It is a pity that you didn't see my friend. He'd love to see you, but you never had the time." This time, the only one that made Winnie miss was Fred. Time passed quickly and she didn't have much communication with him, nor did she have a good heart-to-heart talk with him. There were too many things she wanted to say, but she didn't have time. "A man?" Brian asked Winnie. "Yes, a foreign man. Didn't I tell you?" Winnie forgot whether she had ever mentioned Fred. "I don't remember if you had said it, but I don't want to see any men. It is not a pity." Brian said jealously and he did not know why he was jealous and why it came so easily. "You are so unkind. Fred wanted to see you just to thank you for taking good care of me. But you have this attitude." For Brian's reaction, Winnie was not angry, but amused. After all, he didn't like her being too close to men. "Why thank me? I sure should take care of the woman I love." "Besides, I didn't take very good care of you. If he thanks me, I'm ashamed." Brian could not forget what Winnie suffered. Even now, there were people still wanted to do harm to Winnie. How could he be thanked? "Oh, you are very self-aware." Winnie said with a smile, and then began to tell the story of her and Fred. "Fred had a good relationship with us when we were studying abroad. He was very kind, never discriminated against us and always helped us. All of us are very grateful to him." At this point, Brian put in a word. "Does he know Daenerys and Penny?" "Of course, we'd been together all the time, how could he not know them? The three of us spent a lot of effort to study in the same school but different departments." "Fred asked about Daenerys and Penny. I didn't tell him about Penny's time in prison, nor did I tell him about our feud. One is to save dignity for Penny, and the other is that there is no need to worry Fred." When Winnie said these, her relaxed mood suddenly became sad. "I said nothing, but Fred reminded me not to have too much to do with Penny. At that time he had seen through Penny, only I like a fool helped her, trusted her. And it ended up like this." Back then Winnie was silly and only thought of Penny, but she did not expect that she would had helped a vicious Wolf. "Forget about the past. Anyway, she's in jail and you're happy with me." Brian hugged Winnie's shoulder to comfort her. He knew that it was in the past, but it would always stay in the memory of Winnie. "Alas..... I just wanted to say that Fred was so good to me, but I didn't even tell him when I went back because of the accident of my family." "By the way, Fred said he wanted to see me the day I left, but he didn't call me because I was in a hurry." Winnie suddenly remembered what Fred had said to her. For now reason, she laughed, making fun of Brian. "Did he want to confess his love to you? Now it seems that you are not his destiny." Winnie could not help but laughing, she knew Brian would think so. "No, he said there was a man came to my school to look for me before I left." At this, Winnie stopped laughing and then spoke. "I don't know who that man is, but I think he likes me. Alas, what a pity....." "It's a pity that you didn't have the destiny. I'm your destiny. So don't think about it." Brian interrupted Winnie before she could finish speaking. No matter how handsome the man was, Brian believed that he was not deep in love with Winnie as he was. "Ha ha ha..." Winnie finally could not help laughing and that it was not allowed to make a loud noise in the public place. Winnie forgot it, but Brian was sober. He put Winnie in his arms and then put his hand over Winnie's mouth, which controlled her laugh. The unbridled laughter finally stopped, but Brian's words "I am your destiny" were deeply imprinted on Winnie's heart. Was he her destiny? Could she put her life in his hands? Yes, Brian said so, so she had to believe that he was her destiny. When Wendy came back from the airport, it was more than one o'clock in the morning. She could finally have a solid sleep, because she should be on the plane at this time and no one would disturb her. It was eleven o'clock in the morning when she woke up. It was a good sleep, but as soon as she woke up, there were many things bothering her. But the first thing Wendy did was to put Jonny into the blacklist, and the second thing was to get up and go to prison again. "I almost begged him on my knees, but he refused to come. I don't know what he means." Wendy referred to Thomas, which Penney understood. "He didn't say why, but said you're their enemy and he doesn't want to see you." Wendy summed up Thomas's attitude in one sentence. "I am their enemy? Then why did he come to see me?" Penny was confused about Thomas's sudden change. Of course, it might be related to her attitude, but he could not be so cruel. Penny felt That Thomas was hiding something, but it could not be verified, which made her helpless. "He said he came to see you because your father had helped him, and he was returning a favor. He said he didn't owe your family anything after he set you up. So now he does not want to come to see you." Wendy said in low voice, but Penny hear it clearly. Her heart beat violently when she heard the word of "father". But the expression on her face was remarkably calm. "How about you? How are your affairs coming along?" Penny suddenly changed the topic, which stunned Wendy. "Ah... I, forget it, it messed up. My useless friend got caught doing nothing and got beat." "Tell me what should I do next?" Wendy asked for advice, but Penny at the moment was not in a mood to come up with an idea for her. "The same way. Start where it's easy. When you get back, do as I say." After saying this, Penny got up and left. "Why are you leaving ahead of the time?" "What way is it? You are like saying nothing." Wendy said, but dare not say too loud. She had no gain this time, but it was troublesome for her. Penny asked her to find Thomas again. Did Penny want her to get scolded again? No, she would not touch that stubborn and frightening "nail". No, Thomas was not an ordinary nail, but a steel nail, tough and stubborn. Penny thought carefully what Wendy said squatting in the corner of the cell. She analyzed, no matter what Thomas owed her father, now it was over. Her father was now down and out and fugitive, Thomas was impossible to return favor. According to this analysis, What Thomas said was a lie. There was a good chance he was in touch with her father now. But on second thought, if he was in touch with her father now, he would not have arranged her so well. Unless... Unless her father had Thomas' handhold, so he had to do so. After thinking and analyzing it for a long time, Penny felt it the most probable. She had to see Thomas, so that she could confirm her analysis. Oscar had been busy since returning home, and finally took a day off this weekend and was called to Daenerys' home. Emily and Leo were invited too, but Leo came before the dinner. Daenerys didn't tell Emily that Leo would come, and did not tell Leo that Emily was there. When Leo walked in, they looked at each other with surprise. Then Leo looked said, greeted everyone casually. He was still handsome with a smile on face, but his heard was sour, bitter, painful. He had not seen Emily for a long time that he suspected it had been a century. He felt like they met in next life. "Emily, you are there too." By greeting, Leo carefully looked at Emily. She lost weight and look haggard. It didn't match the sunny, happy girl he had imagined. She was intent on leaving him and not wanting to be disturbed by him, so he stayed away from her. She should be happy, but... No more buts, control your heart, maybe her present situation was not because of him. "I've been here for a while. Daenerys asked me to come." Emily was slightly nervous, in fact, her heart was beating violently and it was about to jump out of throat. "I've called Oscar and all of you to come to celebrate Luke's award. We have to thank Oscar for his contribution." Daenerys said to ease the atmosphere seeing that they were both embarrassed. "Don't talk about it now. The food is ready. It's noon. We've got plenty of time to drink and talk." Daenerys said and pulled Emily to the dinning room. The reason why he called both of them here today was to let them see each other again and see if there was a chance to ease up. It might be too late to meet when Winnie came back. At the table. Kevin raised his glass. "The first cup of wine is for Oscar. Luke made good performance because Oscar made a big contribution, Cheers!" "What are you doing? Luke made his own efforts, Winwin educated him well and I was just a supporting role. I don't deserve to be credited." Oscar said modestly. He did not make much contribution and could not take so high praise.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 508 THINGS ABROAD

Seeing that Oscar was modest, Leo raised the corners of the mouth slightly, and it was no longer an embarrassing smile. "Both Winwin and Brian said that you took the biggest credit. Why are you so modest?" "Yeah, anyway, I propose to you, and you must drink it." "Cheers." Daenerys didn't care whose the credit it was. The wine had to be drunk. "Ok, I'll drink the wine. Cheers!" Oscar couldn't escape the first cup of wine anyway, so he drank it at once. Then everyone's glasses also saw the bottom drank too. "Everyone, sat sit down and we drank and talked." Oscar seesSeeing that everyone finished drinking and, Oscar beckons beckoned everyone to sit down. It has had been a long time since we they had a drink and a chat, and theyI took this opportunity to relax some of the tension. "Yes, everyone driank and talked. Chances like this won't be many. We couldn't get everyone here enough after Emily went abroad." Daenerys deliberately said it deliberately to Leo listen, but said his heart is not the tasteshe felt upset. Why friends are always together have scattered parted? Why could they be, why can't a lifetime together forever?. Emily to would really go and she would be away , this walk for several years. During this period of time, For years no one knew what would happen. Will not ould they forget their friendship and become, alienated the friendship.? Leo's heart is more bad was in a bad mood., he He satsits down and took a sigh to bowing his the head of helpless sigh, and then raised again. Repeated Repeating several times, he was to say something, about to say, but stopped. Finally only he said indifferent asked a sentence. "Are you sure what dayWhich day are you leaving?" "I will leave when Winwin is back, but the exact time has not been determined yet." Emily's mood was not right. She had been enduring the grievance and that pain that brought by Leo's alienated attitude. In order to cover up her bad mood, Emily reminded. "Don't tell Winwin I am leaving. It was not easy for their family to go out, let them play happy. If she knows I am leaving, she will be in a hurry to fly back." "Winwin doesn't know it, we have not told her yet." Oscar answered and then took a sign. "Alas..... You. it is just love, you can be together or break up. Why do you have to make far away? I don't know why you see it so complicated. You can love if you want to, and you can part amicably if you don't want to, why you make it so sad?" Oscar was not particularly concerned about these things, but he said that was because he felt sad about the parting between friends. "Let's drink, these things are in the past. No matter it is love or not, we are all good friends now." Leo spoke and poured everyone's wine glass full, then lifted the wine glass and drank it up. He was a man who dared to love and hate, and he did not want to let go of his lover's hand. But his love was a burden and annoying. Such love was a failure and must be given up. "By the way, I heard Luke did very well in the competition." In order not to let everyone continue to stay on the topic of love, Leo diverged the topic. It was not that he did not want to talk about it, it was that he was afraid that Emily felt embarrassed. Emily wanted to leave, leave then. What he left Emily was bad memories. If she lived in other place, she would forget unhappiness, started new life and lead in a positive life. Leo now had no other requirements, only hoped Emily forgot this period of bad memories, only hoped her life could be happy. Emily did not mention love but talked about the competition with everyone. "The competition is wonderful, but there are more wonderful things than this." Oscar remembered another thing. "More wonderful things? It seems that you got a lot." Daenerys didn't know what had happened, but she thought it was the kind of wonderful thing that made everyone excited and happy. "Yes, we have been taken to the police station..." Oscar told them the story while drinking. After hearing that, everyone realized that it was nothing wonderful, but angry. "Wendy made it?" "It must be Wendy." Daenerys and Emily gave this judgment almost at the same time. Wendy was in MG during this period, so there was no doubt that she was involved in this matter. "Brian did not continue the investigation, because the head of the police and the police who were working on the case apologized publicly to the media. And I don't think Wendy has so much power to influence foreign police." Oscar also suspected Wendy, but he did not think she had so much power. "She does have no power, but she must have foreign friends, having lived there for many years. She may have asked her friends for help." Daenerys was unconvinced. Her intuition told her it was Wendy behind. "It might be Wendy, but the embassy has been alarmed and made publicly apology. Wendy really doesn't have that much power." Leo voiced his opinion. "I'm not sure if she had anything to do with this, but she must have something to do with the next thing. The night I left, a friend of Wendy..." Oscar told them that Jonny got beat. He knew it when he talked to Morgan on the phone. He was sure it must have something to do with Wendy, but Brian did not continue to pursue, so it had been settled. "Wendy, she's a bastard. She never stops. Her way is more and more dirty, more and more like Penny. Does she want to kill Winwin?" Daenerys was so angry that she drank up a glass of wine. She did not understand what Wendy had to fight for. The more she did this, the more exposed her low character, and the more Brian hated her. Didn't she even realize that? "I am so angry, Daenerys. We'll ask her out tomorrow and sober her up." Emily didn't curse, but wanted to confront Penny. If Wendy wanted to be scolded, don't blame them for meddling. "Okay, we'll ask her out tomorrow." "You don't make it big, if you annoyed Wendy, she might be worse to Winwin." Kevin reminded them to be careful. He did not expect that Wendy would become like this and that she could not see the fact. Now not only Brian did not want her, but also Felix and the whole Bennet family did not accept her. Even if she got Brian, she would not have a good life and marry into the Bennet family. "What does she expect? She had done anything expect for killing life. I'd like to see if she dares to kill Winwin as Penny." Daenerys did not understand Wendy well, but she knew Wendy was not so ruthless. It would be a good thing if she sobered up by being scolded. "Don't worry, Doctor Burns. We have discretion." Emily guaranteed, but in any case they must find Wendy to have a talk. "In the final analysis, Brian was indulgent to Wendy. If he was rude to Wendy, it would not end up like this." Kevin said the most critical place, but he knew why Brian had not been rude to Wendy. One was that Wendy saved Brian, the other was they had a relationship for many years but they broke up in the end. Brian did not say it out, but he felt indebted to Wendy. For these two reasons, he would not do anything to Wendy, unless he paid off all his debts, unless he knew that the person who saved him was not Wendy. "It is not like that, he was rude to Penny, but Penny still did not give up. I think Brian is so good that all women don't want to let go. There is only Winwin stupid enough in the world to give up such a good man. Only Winwin was not scheming and did not care about money and status." Leo gives his own understanding. Things had developed to the present situation. Brian had women around, it had many reason, it was inevitable rather than accidental. Even if Wendy gave up, there would be other women showing up. It would come to an end unless Felix acknowledged Winnie. "What Leo said is reasonable. If Winwin and Brian do not marry and do not disclose their identity, the women around Brian would not be lost. Now it is Wendy, I feel it is ok, if there is a woman more ruthless than Penny, Winwin will have bad luck." Oscar also said his view. Oscar agreed with Leo's analysis. So if Wendy had been around them, it was safe for Winnie because Wendy was not ruthless to kill her. "It depends on Felix. If he accepts Winwin and openly admits that Winwin is his daughter-in-law, no one will dare to hurt Winwin." Kevin felt that the key to the problem was Felix. "It's not easy to accept. Luke won such a big honor, it is even on the central news, and it is the pride of our country. Winwin got the most credit for that, but Felix's performance was disappointing." Oscar paused for a moment and then continued. "Although Luke and I were the only ones to appear on the central News, Winwin and Brian were featured on social media platforms. But when I got back, I found out that all video Winwin is in had been deleted. Who do you think did that? Who has the power to block the news? What is his purpose?" Oscar waited for the answer. He believed that everyone knew who this person was. "Felix." "Felix." "No one can do that but Felix." Several people have guessed it. Felix did not want the relationship between Winnie and Brian to be exposed and he did not want to accept Winnie. "Don't think too much about it. Leave it to fate. We're only human and we can't change what we're meant to be. But Emily and Daenerys, you two can talk to Wendy. Don't be anxious and angry, be reasonable. Try to persuade them in the view of women so that she will not be irritated." Oscar said peacefully. He believed in fate and that the love of Winwin and Brian was doomed to have difficulties. No one could change what was destined to happen to a person in this life, just like he has no girlfriend, and might never have a girlfriend. "Oscar is right, you must control your emotions, don't provoke Wendy. Say it in peace." Kevin was worried and told them again, for fear that they would provoke Wendy.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 509 THE TALK IN COLD DRINK SHOP

They drank for a long time, but they did not get drunk. It was evening before everyone left. Oscar called a designated driver ahead of time and as the driver came, he left immediately. Leo's driver came to pick him up. He wanted to send Emily back, but he was afraid that Emily disliked that, so he did not offer his help. "I am leaving. The driver is waiting for me below." Leo turned to leave, but Daenerys stopped him. "Leo, you have a driver, send Emily back. She did not call a designated driver today." Daenerys just wanted to give them a chance to get along and see if there was opportunity to get back together. This might be the last chance, if they could not get back together, they would not have another chance. "No, no, I didn't ask for a driver because I want to spend more time with the baby. I will call one now." Emily refused before Leo said a word, but after saying so, there was a feeling of regret. "Ok, I will leave then, you play with the baby." Leo gave a bitter smile and then stepped away. He knew Emily would refuse, he knew Emily hated him. Fortunately, he did not take initiative to offer help, or it was embarrassing. Leo got into the car, but he was in a bad mood and his spirit was low to the freezing point. It would be over when she was gone. He wished her happiness. It was also a sign of love. Leo thought about it and finally sent a message to Emily. "Let me know when you leave, and I'll send you to the airport." After putting away the mobile phone, Leo gave a bitter smile. Emily might not even tell him which day to leave after receiving the message. In Daenerys' house. After Leo left, Daenerys and Emily chatted. "What are you doing? I want to give you a chance. You guys talk, maybe things will work out. But you refused." Daenerys nagged. It was a pity to lose such a good opportunity. "What should we talk about? There's nothing to talk about. Daenerys, I know you want what's best for me, but it's impossible for me and Leo to get back together." Emily said it was impossible, but her heart was throbbing because of the name of Leo, because Leo did not insist on sending her home and she was disappointed. She knew that she should not have this idea. They had broken up, and he had no need to send her home. However, her mood was affected and she even wanted to cry. "Why impossible? Can't you see that Leo still likes you? Emily, don't be so persistent, ok? Open your heart and accept the warmth of the sun. If you live in the past, your days are all dark." Daenerys persuaded Wendy helplessly. She could see that Emily was not in a good mood, but she still minded that she got cheated. "It will be all right. Everything will be all right when I go abroad. My next boyfriend may be better and he won't lie to me." Emily knew she was deeply in love with Leo, but she still minded that past. At this moment, Kevin came over with two cups of tea and placed them in front of the two women. "Have some tea." "Emily, Leo is a good man. I hope you can get to know him again. If you miss him, the next man may not be good." "You two are right for each other in every way, and you love each other. If you lose that, you really can't get it back." Kevin persuaded her too. In the past, he seldom cared other people's affairs, even Brian's affairs. But he felt pity that Emily and Leo were to separate. Kevin took a breath and then continued. "As you have seen in the love affair between Winwin and Brian, there were ups and downs and no good times. You and Leo are much happier than their love. Winwin and Brian have persisted until now, but you have given up. It seems that you and Leo's attitude towards love is not good as that of Winwin and Brian." "Leo and I... I don't know. It was Leo who lied to me. The problem was on him. It's not Leo's problem now, it's mine. Maybe our love is too simple, so we do not cherish it." As her words fell, she got a message. She picked up the phone and clicked on the message, only to see Leo's message. This was the second message Leo sent to her since they broke up. He wanted to send her to the airport. He seemed that he wanted her to leave. At this thought, she wanted to cry, but she could not show her loneliness before Daenerys and Kevin. "It is the designated driver. I must go downstairs. We'll talk to Wendy tomorrow." Emily got up, grabbed her bag and walked outside, afraid that her tears would fall down. She had been enduring, but when she got into her car, in the private space, Emily could not control crying. He said he loved her, and he wanted her to leave now short after they broke up? Daenerys said Leo still loved her, but why did he want her to leave? What Daenerys had seen must be false, it must be Leo's disguise. If he loved her, how could he let her cry alone here? The next day at noon, Daenerys and Emily came to the cold drink shop waiting for Wendy. "Like Oscar said, we should try to persuade her with reason, don't lose temper." Emily reminded Daenerys, also reminded herself. Don't cause Winnie trouble because of anger. "I will. I try to keep my emotions under control. I can help it if she doesn't say some harsh words." Daenerys felt Oscar was right, but it depended on Wendy's attitude. She could not seem to control her fiery temper if Wendy didn't reason. "Ok, that is it. Let's restrain so our emotions won't get out of hand. When you see me losing control, you suppress me. When I see you wrong, I stop you. Anyway, we can't spoil it." Emily was not sure if she could control herself, so she wanted to restrict each other. "Yes, so that..." "She is coming, she is coming, Wendy is coming." Before Daenerys could finish, Emily saw Wendy walking into the cold drink shop. "Wendy, this way." Daenerys stood up and called Wendy. Wendy walked over with a dark face, but she did not say a word. "We all know each other, and need no introduction. Sit down." Daenerys said. Compared with Emily, Daenerys was more familiar with Wendy. Wendy wore a cold face, looking unapproachable. She sat down but did not speak. "What would you like to drink? I'll call the waiter." Seeing Wendy's face, Daenerys was angry, but they agreed to persuade her with reason, so she must be patient. "Don't bother, I'm not feeling well today and I can't drink cold drinks. If you two have anything to say, just say it. I have other things to do and not much time to waste." Wendy finally spoke but she said with disdain. Emily was angry and was to lose her temper, but she endured it. Oscar said they should be calm, so she must endure it and could not be angry. Emily said silently to herself. "Well, since you don't have much time, let's go to the point." "I heard from Oscar that you went to MG, and your friend did not respect Winwin and caused trouble to her. We discussed it yesterday and you ought to be related." Daenerys was not polite, and her attitude was serious. "Don't say nonsense. I went to MG, but it happened after I have been back, it has nothing to do with me." Wendy denied. She did not expect that Winnie's friends all knew about it. She continued her sarcasm with a cold snort. "Your friend Oscar likes to meddle in others' business. Why does he care much about others' thing? Just talk nonsense." Wendy not only referred to Oscar. She was in the insinuations of Daenerys and Emily. Daenerys and Emily looked at each other, but decided to endure. "What we have discussed was no worse than the judgment of the police. Things analyzed are basically facts. If it's not directly related to you, it's indirect." "You ought to know better than anyone what kind of a man your friend is, and how you could have had him go to Winwin if you did not have motive?" Emily's tone was cold, and she could not control herself when speaking of it. "That you can be police and investigate me formally. Don't say nonsense." Wendy avoided talking about the crux of the matter.

“Wendy, you don’t have to deny it. We’re not here to tell you right from wrong. If we discuss this with Brian, we will have to ask the police for justice.” At this, Daenerys stopped and deliberately stared at Wendy to see what she would act speaking of the police. Sure enough, there was a change in her look, but it was not obvious. It seemed that Wendy had become more mature in this period of time, even was not afraid of the warning. “Don’t use Brain to pressure me. I will not admit what I did not do.” Wendy denied, but felt her mind uneasy. “But you must admit that you are still in love with Brain and are trying to get him back by dishonest means.” Emily did not have the patience to talk with Wendy, so she turned to the key point. Hearing that, Wendy did not know how to answer and spoke after looking at Emily in a daze. “I admit I’m still in love with Brian, but I don’t think there’s anything wrong. Who can guarantee he could get over once broke up? It takes time, but I deny that...” “It is ok that you only admit that you still love Brian. Don’t say anything about the things you don’t admit, we don’t believe it anyway.” “Let me ask you, Wendy, do you think it is still possible for you and Brian to get back together? What do you think is the main reason why you separated from him?” Daenerys said to Wendy. Others might believe it if she said to others that she did not admit it, but to them, it was nonsense. She asked Wendy in turn to see what she would say. “Nothing is impossible in this world. I thought I would never be separated from him, but we... “Don’t talk about the past. You’ve been away from Brian for more than four years and you never came back. It’s normal your relationship changed. It’s normal for him to fall in love with Winwin, and it’s normal for you to have other men.”

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 510 WHO IS A FOOL

Emily interrupted Wendy. She did not want to hear useless words but a direct answer. However, when she finished the last sentence, Wendy’s mood changed. She shouted loudly at Emily. “Don’t be ridiculous. I did not have another man.” Wendy’s denial was eager, as if she was covering something. Because her sudden change of attitude, Wendy and Emily looked at each other again. “We said it was possible. We didn’t say you had another man.” Daenerys stared at Wendy sharply. Wendy was panicked and hastened to explain. “But I feel that you blame me for the reason that Brian and I parted, and set me up to give up.” “We are not so dirty, and we have no such evil mind to deal with you.” “We came to you today because we want you to see the truth and give up. We hope you live your life well from now on. Don’t worry about the impossible thing or you will lose everything.” Emily had been trying to control her tone. She found that Wendy was not smart, but stupid. She tried to justify something that everyone else already knew. It was proof that she was not intelligent enough to think of any other way to deal with it. “I see the truth. Brian loved me, and may love me again. Other people have a chance to be his wife, and I have a chance too. And I have an advantage over Winnie, why can’t I fight for it? Why should I give up? What is wrong for me to pursue my own love? I will not lose everything.” Wendy was unconvinced. She did not want to give up. If she wanted to live a good life, she must have Brian, otherwise she would not be happy. “You are daydreaming, it is impossible. Are you that stupid? Don’t you know why Brian doesn’t want you? Will Brain give up two kids to stay with you? Even if Brian has a problem in his brain, do you think Felix and the Bennet family would allow a fool to take the company in charge? You are Wishful thinking.” Emily failed to control her emotions and finally burst out her anger. To her own surprise, she was the first to lose her control on her emotions and said dirty words she never said. “Who are you calling a fool?” Wendy knew that Emily scolded her, and she questioned Emily loudly. But before Emily spoke, Daenerys could not control herself. It seemed that losing control was contagious. "You are a fool who can't see the truth. The reason why you broke up with Brian is not all because of Brian. The most important reason is that Felix thinks that you are not worthy of being Brian's wife. "I tell you, Wendy, as long as Felix is here, you should not dream of marrying Brian. That's what you can't see." "You don't admit that you're a fool, do you? Then you look back and think about it, which thing you have done is brilliant, which thing you have done is satisfactory. It is inconceivable that you don't give up." "Don't insist if you don't have that IQ. Don't feel smug when you are used. We advise you is for your own good. It is in your best interest to stop now, and if Winwin strikes back, you will suffer." Daenerys lashed out at Wendy. With these words finished, Daenerys felt relieved and less depressed. "God, you talked a lot, take a drink of water." Emily handed the cold drink to Daenerys, which angered Wendy. "What you are doing is too much. As Winnie's friends, you are not helping her but hurting her. You're the fools." Wendy could not defeat the two, but she would not flinch but threatened them. "Is that a threat? Well, we'll see what you can do to Winwin and if Brian can stand by." "Wendy, listen, let me restate my purpose. This is your last chance and the only time we advise you. If you continue to hurt Winwin, you will bear all the consequences." Daenerys calmed down and restated the main reason they were there. "I'm telling you, it's impossible for you and Brian to get back together. Even if you go back together, you will break up again. This is fate. You and Brian are not destined to be married." "You have to believe in fate. You can't run away from it. You don't have to hurt Winwin." "If you quit early, Brian can still be your friend, otherwise you will know the consequences." Daenerys repeated the point. But Wendy's heart had been shrouded by haze and she could not listen to it. "Don't say that. Fate can be fought for, and you are not a god, why should you judge my life? I tell you..." "Stop, you shut up. I now find that we are casting pearls to swine. You are not only silly but also stubborn. Do whatever you want, and we'll see what happens. We'll see who doesn't admit it is the fate." Emily could not listen to it, and directly interrupted the babble of Wendy. Wendy didn't even realize what she was doing was wrong. Nothing they said mattered. "You..." Wendy wanted to rebuke, but Daenerys also stood up, they took a disdainful look at Wendy and then left together. Wendy sat alone in the cold drink shop, angry and helpless. She ordered a glass of cold drink and gulped up, hoping her anger could be dissipated. Winnie's friends had come to bully her, as the saying goes when a wall is about to collapse, everybody gives it a push. When she and Brian were together, no one dare stand up for Winnie, no one dare offend Brian. Now she was alone and everyone disliked her. Wendy hated people who looked down on others. She wanted to see what Daenerys would do to her when she came back to Brian. But there was one thing that comforted her. Two of Winnie's friends came to see her and proved that what she had done to Winnie had affected Winnie. So what she had done was useful. Thinking of friends, she thought of Klara. Winnie's friends did anything for her, but her friend Klara used her, Daenerys was right at this point. At this thought, Wendy called Klara and then waited for her in the cold drink shop. While waiting for Klara in the cold drink shop, her anger gradually subsided. Repeatedly thinking of what Wendy and Emily said, she felt it was reasonable. For example, how would she handle with Felix? He didn't like her at all, and none of the Bennet family could change the thing he determined. Thomas could speak for her in the past, but now his attitude changed and he would not help her anymore. Alas..... Well, it was no use thinking about it. As long as Brian went back to her, Brian would solve the problem. As Wendy was thinking, Klara arrived and waved to her. Wendy pretended that she knew nothing. "Wendy, when did you come back from abroad, why did not come to me?" Klara sat down and said to Wendy. Since Wendy went abroad, they had not been in contact, she thought Wendy had not come back from abroad. Today, when Wendy called her, she was quite surprised. "I've just been back for two days. I've been jet lagged so I haven't contacted you." Wendy said gently, seemingly nothing was wrong. But this double mentality was torturing. "Well, did it go well?" Klara asked curiously, since Wendy had been jet lagged, she had no doubt. "Yes, it went well. My friend is awesome..." Wendy stood firm on their heads. She could not let Klara laugh at her and let her know she did a bad job. "Good, your friend is really great. I told you that she could do nothing if you deal with her abroad" After listening to Wendy's words, Klara finally had some comfort. She failed many times to deal with Winnie, now she finally suffered. "Winnie is obviously scared. Do you know who I met with before you came?" Wendy asked mysteriously. Since she told a lie, she had to make it better, so that Klara could be happy. "Who?" Klara's curiosity grew stronger and stronger. "Daenerys and Emily, they came to me begging for mercy." "They came to you?" Klara had doubt. They would not beg for mercy, especially Emily. Her family and status was much better than Wendy, how could she beg for mercy with Wendy? "They came to intercede for Winnie." Seeing Klara's doubts, Wendy added. "However, I admire Winnie's friends. They treat Winnie like you treat me. A friend in need must put his ass on the line." Wendy said in insinuation. She was afflicting. Being irony, Klara might not feel easy. "Yes... you are right. Friends help each other." Klara was embarrassed but had doubt. But she didn't know why Wendy said that. "You are right, a friend in need is a friend indeed, instead of using each other. Klara, I think I am lucky to have you as a friend. I've been touched by your kindness to me for so long." Wendy's irony continues. She wanted to make Klara feel uncomfortable, she wanted to let her think secretly and dare not say anything. Klara's embarrassing smile was on her face. In her view, Wendy spoke contrary to her thought. She said she was touched, but her eyes were inexplicable without gratitude at all. "Wendy, why are you so sentimental today? The things I did for you were not a big deal. I hated watching you get bullied. Don't say such polite words." "I remembered it through this event, and I am delightful at the achievement we have gained. Klara, you must help me, or Winnie will bully me." Wendy restrained herself and felt it was enough to vent a bit of private anger. In the future, she still needed Klara's help.