

My Twins 51

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 51 PENNY'S CONGRATULATIONS

Brian found Winnie a bigger house with better conditions, but Winnie was angry with Brian, so she refused to leave. She had to stay with Leo. She would rather fall into Leo's trap than be controlled by Brian. Brian had no choice but move to Winnie's house with the reason that he missed his son and had to take care of his son. Brian had not gone home for several days. Penny sent someone to follow him and knew that he was living in Winnie's house. Penny was angry about that and had a sense of crisis. If it went on like that, she would lose Brian sooner or later. Penny could not sit still and did nothing. She went to the company and planned to have a talk with Brian. Penny came to the thirty floor and saw a familiar figure that made her feel sick after she walked out of the elevator. She was Winnie. Penny knew it was her even she became dust. As she was to plan to say sarcastic words to her, she found that Winnie went into an office, which made Penny have doubts. Penny did not continue to catch up with Winnie, but came to the secretary's office. She looked around and found others were there except Klara. This was exactly what Penny wished. Klara was Brian's most loyal subordinates. It was difficult to get information from her. Penny said arrogantly. "Why did Winnie get into the next office?" "You are here, Mrs. Bennet. That is Winnie's office." The secretary said with flattery. "Her office? Isn't she at the mobile phone branch?" Penny's voice became distinctly shrill. "Winnie is not a member of the mobile phone branch now, but a software engineer at the headquarters of the Bennet Group. All of the software development is managed by Winnie." The secretary knew that she had said too much, but she did not dare to offend Mrs. Bennet, or she would lose her job. "She's one of the Bennet Group?" Penny asked with doubts. Her eyes became sharp and she involuntarily wrinkled eyebrow. Penny thought Winnie did not have that ability, she must get that position relying on Brian. The Bennet Group had many branches involving in many industries. Software would be used in many areas. Winnie's position was extraordinary. She was so young that absolutely she had no that strength. "Yes, are you here to see Mr. Bennet?" The secretary changed the topic. If she kept talking, even if Penny did not fire her, Brian would not forgive her. "Yes." Penny said and turned. The secretary called her at this moment. "Mrs. Bennet, president is at work and said no one is allowed to disturb him." The secretary found Penny was angry, but she had no choice. The president's order could not be disobeyed. Now she could only pray that Klara would come back soon or she would be in trouble. The secretary went on cautiously. "Mrs. Bennet, I'll take you to the lounge. I'll tell you right after the meeting." "How dare you stop me? But don't worry, I forgive you." Penny's unexpected behaviors made the secretary sigh of relief. Instead of going to the lounge, Penny went to Winnie's office. No knocking, she pushed the door open. "Oh, nice office, it is almost as good as my husband's. Winnie, you have a good life in the company." The door was still ajar and a shrill voice was heard. Winnie just began to work, but was disturbed by Penny. She was angry. "What are you doing here? Are you in the wrong office?" Winnie endured it, after all, it was close to Brian's office, and there were secretaries outside. She did not want to quarrel with Penny. "No, I came to see you. Congratulations on your promotion." Penny paused for a moment, and resumed her acerbity. "Not bad, Winnie. It's not long since you came back. You now work at the Bennet Group as a senior manager. It seemed you are scheming." "What do you want? I'm not getting paid for nothing. I have work to do." Winnie said indifferently, she had been used to the mean Penny. "Hum..." Penny snorted. She was dissatisfied that she failed to make Winnie angry. Penny continued to sneer. "Winnie, I have warned you many times, but you got a good job, and get my husband to your house. I underestimated your ability to seduce men." Winnie did not diss her, but stared at Penny coldly with disdain in her eyes. A moment later, she spoke. "I got the job with my ability. Don't mix business with personal affairs. Your husband appreciates my ability and believes that I can bring more money to the Bennet Group, so he gave me such a superior working environment. If you slander my job, you're belittling your husband. If you feel dissatisfied about that, talk to your husband." Winnie's lukewarm voice showed that she would not yield to Penny. "Winnie..." "I'm not finished yet. Please be patient." Winnie interrupted Penny. "Your husband does live with me, but I don't know how you found out. Your husband told you so himself? Or you followed your husband or me?" "Whichever it may be, now that you know it, it is necessary to tell you. Tell your husband to keep him out of my life and bring him home if you can. I will thank you." After that, Winnie continued to look down at the file and considered Penny as a transparent person. However, her sarcastic words hurt Penny's self-esteem and made her angry. "Winnie, don't blame me be rude. Listen, from now on, you are my worst enemy, and I will hate you for the rest of my life." Penny declared war angrily, and her scarlet eyes showed her hatred. She did not go on, but left with hatred. Penny adjusted her mood in the lounge before walking into Brian's office. She would give the last chance to Winnie and Brian, if they were playing her as a fool, she would not endure it. "Why are you here? I don't need you to send me clothes?" Brian's voice was cold as usual. "I have something to tell you." At this moment, Penny had a soft attitude, which was completely different from she was just now. "Say it, then. I haven't got much time." Brian was still cold, burying his head in the computer without looking up to Penny. The disdain hurt Penny. If it were Winnie standing in front of him, he would not be this cold. "Brian, you haven't been home for a long time, and there are rumor in the company. It is not good to both of us. Although we were married by covenant, outsiders didn't know it. You live in Winnie's house..." "I need no one to direct me, and I warned you not to meddle in my private affairs. If you are not satisfied, we can terminate our contract early." Brian raised his head with a frown and looked at Penny angrily. "Brian, I don't mean to interfere with you. Winnie is not a good woman, and now she is more sinister than she was that year. You will kill your career if you get involved." Penny's feeling was hurt by Brian's mean words, but she did not want to give up like this. "She's not a good woman. Who is?" Asked Brian. "Well..... I'm just reminding you." Penny was speechless. Looking at Brian like this, if she slandered Winnie, it was just getting herself into trouble. It seemed that Brian had been obsessed with Winnie. "For the last time, I don't need you to remind me. If you want to continue to be Mrs. Bennet, you better be quiet, and if you make any trouble, you will break our contract and you will know the consequence." Brian continued to look at the data on the computer and then told her to go out. "I have to work. Don't come here for nothing." Brian's indifferent words destroyed Penny's last glimmer of hope. Since Winnie and Brian refused to give up, she could only do something about it. Although Winnie and Brian lived together, they didn't share a room and did not go to work in the same car. Winnie got off work on time every day and picked up her children from kindergarten. But Brian's time was not fixed, sometimes he would be late from party, sometimes he would work overtime. It was the first time they got off work together. Winnie walked out of the elevator and walked toward the parking lot. Brian walked out of the president's exclusive elevator. When they met each other, Winnie was indifferent. "Get in the car and go get the kids together." Brian said coldly. "I'll drive by myself, and you can do whatever you need." Winnie continued to move forward. Now there were rumor circulating in the company, she did not want to hear that and did not wanted to be misunderstood. "I said get in my car." Brian stood in front of her domineeringly, blocking her way. At this time, an employee came down and just passed by. She greeted Brian and Winnie with embarrassment. "Hello, Mr. Bennet, Winnie." The staff said hello and left in a hurry. Her behavior made

Winnie speechless. The look and the murmur seemed to be directed at her. "Mr. Bennet, this is the company. People will see that." After that, Winnie took a deep and signed. "So get in the car now, there will be more people here soon." Brian did not care about others. He just did what he wanted to do and would insist on it. "You..." As Winnie was about to continue her argument, several more employees got off the elevator. Winnie stared at Brian and got in his car reluctantly. Brian told the driver to take Winnie's car and he drove the car himself.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 52 BRIAN IS INJURED

The car left the underground parking lot under the gaze of the company's employees. Winnie in the car was angry when she looked back to find the employees whispering. "Brian, you cannot do this, how can I establish prestige in the company? They will spread gossip on my back." Winnie said with dissatisfaction. She wanted to solve the current situation, but found that she could do nothing. "You think too much, no one talk about you. Even if they do, they're right." Brian said in a low voice. She could accept what he said expect for the last sentence. "What do you mean? I deserve it, right?" Winnie said angrily. Since Brian knew it, why he embarrassed her? "You on my bed, and you attentively take care of my child. No one would not believe that you have no ulterior motive. Since you have done that, don't blame others judge you." Brian's words were colder and made her felt heartache. "We are willing to do so, why is it my fault? I like to be with Luke because I have an ulterior motive? Brian, did your wife brainwash you again? Come on, if you have any complaints against me, tell me, I'll change." Winnie said and mentioned Penny inadvertently. It seemed that her feud with Penny would never end because of this man. "You knew she came?" Asked Brian. "How could I not know? She came to my office to warn me." Winnie could not bear it anymore. If there was no concern, she would never appear in front of this man again and would walk far away. "You can ignore her, or you can confront her. Settle the scores by yourself." Brian said coldly, but his heart was insidious. He warned Penny not to make trouble for Winnie, but Penny did not seem to take his words seriously. "Did I tell you to fix it? Of course you speak for your wife. What can I expect from you? Well, stop here, I don't want to talk to you anymore." Winnie's anger had no place to vent. If it went on like this, she would die out of anger. "You want to talk to Leo?" "Yes, so?" Winnie said provocatively. Now it seemed that Leo was a hundred times better than Brian, at least he would not make her angry. There was a sudden brake. Winnie slammed into the beam of the passenger seat. Winnie clutched her aching forehead. She felt blank and dizzy. Brian was nervous and quickly pulled over the car. "Let me see." Brian pulled Winnie over with concern, but Winnie shook him away. "Go away, you don't care." "Are you satisfied now? You avenged your wife? You insisted on making me get into your car to humiliate me? You did this to warn me to stay away from your wife?" "Don't you think you're being childish? Give me a direct warning, or kill me. Why use such a dirty trick?" Winnie loudly rebuked Brian, enduring the pain and vertigo. After that, her hand covering the forehead was pulled down by Brian. Seeing that swelling protuberance, Brian frowned and his heart tightened. Just now he was angry and did not think about the consequences. If he knew it would hurt Winnie, he would never do so. The next second Brian let go Winnie's hand, got out of the car and went to the trunk to get the medicine box. By the time he got back with medical box, Winnie had already got off the car. "It's life-threatening to ride in your car. I'll take a taxi to pick up the kids." Winnie said and went straight forward. Brian followed closely to stop her. "Stop that now, it's hard to get a taxi at this time." Brian persuaded her but his strong tone was not accepted by Winnie. Without saying a word, she shook off Brian's hand forcefully, but stepped back to the middle of the road because of her unsteady weight. At this time, a car rushed up and the driver stepped on the brakes when he saw Winnie. The sound of braking woke up Brian. He rushed to Winnie without regard for his own safety. They both fell to the ground. And then the speeding vehicle suddenly turned the direction and avoided them. "Are you all right?" Brian asked with concern. "I..." Winnie didn't realize what had happened, so she didn't fear. At the moment, she was dumb because she saw worry in Brian's eyes and concern on his face. "Did you get hurt? Why don't you talk?" Brian once again confirmed if she was all right and felt more worried. "I'm fine." Winnie recovered and tried to get up. She felt pain in her forearm, but it was tolerable. Brian helped her up and examined her carefully, and found there was blood on her forearm. "You are injured, let's go to the hospital." Brian pulled Winnie toward the car. But he moved, he felt pain in his ankle. Brian staggered. The driver found that in time and help him. "Are you all right, Sir? I'll take you to the hospital." "We'll go to the hospital ourselves." Brian said coldly. Now he just wanted to confirm whether Winnie hurt. "Sir, you didn't hit us. We'll go to the hospital ourselves." Winnie refused the driver's offer. Then she began to worry about Brian. "Well, can you walk?" "Yes." Brian gritted his teeth out of pain, but he still endured it. Winnie did not continue to ask, but squatted down to check on him. Winnie saw that Brian's ankle was swollen and her heart was tense. "Go to the hospital now." Winnie's face changed and her voice was uneven. With that, she helped Brian to the car. After a few words with the driver, Winnie quickly got in the car and drove straight to the hospital. And across the road, in a black Mercedes, Penny looked at all this with anger, and her hatred soared more crazily. For Winnie, Brian was regardless of his safety. He was injured, but he was still concerned about Winnie. She had been married to Brian for four years, and Brian did not do anything for her. Penny stepped on the accelerator and left angrily. She would like to see how many times Winnie can avoid such accident. Brian called the hospital and doctors on the way to the hospital. When they arrived at the hospital, they were picked up and sent directly to the VIP emergency room. The doctor in charge was a doctor with the same age as Brian. He was tall and handsome, but his temperament was completely different from Brian's. He was not cold but sunny. The doctor looked Winnie up and down recklessly. He was surprised but then he frowned. "Miss, haven't we met somewhere before?" Instead of checking on her, the doctor chatted with a female patient, which puzzled Winnie. "I..." As Winnie was about to reply, Brian spoke in a cold voice. "That's a cliché. Check on her." Brian sat on the bed looked at the doctor coldly. "She was hurt? Where are you hurt, beauty?" The doctor's tone was defiant, and there was a smirk in his eyes. And Brian's eyes were sharp enough to puncture the doctor. Winnie thought that Brian was going to lose his temper and hurried to relieve the atmosphere. "Doctor, he may say some appropriate words because of the pain in his leg. Please forgive him. I am not hurt, his foot hurt..." "Don't talk nonsense to him." Brian interrupted Winnie coldly. This silly woman was fooled and she knew nothing about it. Brian looked at the doctor and said in a cold voice. "Kevin Burns, if you don't want to die in my hand, check on her now, or I will dismantle your hospital." "Be quiet, be quiet. Dismantling the hospital is trifle, but it is a big deal to frighten this beauty." The doctor called Kevin Burns said and bent down to touch Brian. "Excuse me, who is this lady? You're dismantling your own hospital for her?" "Kevin Burns..." Brian was furious. "Ok, ok, I check on her first, you can answer my question later." Kevin Burns knew that he angered Brian, so he quickly came to Winnie and began to check on her. "What's wrong, beauty?" "Not me, it is him. Doctor, you are mistaken." Winnie was confused by the two men's dialogue. What did he mean by his hospital? Were they playing a game of words? And did Brian know this doctor? Did he often come here? Why did he know his name? "He asked me to check on you first, and if I don't, it will be me suffer. For my own safety and for the patients who are waiting for me..."Kevin Burns..."Brian once again warned coldly, Kevin Burns quickly stopped."See, beauty? Please cooperate with me."Kevin Burns continued his checking."I... I don't hurt. Just a scratch on the arm."Winnie knew she could not refuse and in order to let Brian take the examination as soon as possible, she cooperated with Kevin Burns.Kevin Burns examined it carefully."No problem. It's just a skin wound. Let the nurse disinfect you, it does not need dressing."Kevin Burns said. A nurse came to Winnie, but Winnie refused."I will do that later. Doctor, please check on him."Winnie's tone showed that she was worried."Oh, I envy that!"Kevin Burns said suddenly, which confused Winnie. But Brian understood what Kevin Burns meant."Cut the crap."Maybe knowing that Winnie was okay, Brian's tone was less urgent."Well, well, I won't talk. I'm going to check on you now."Kevin Burns finally got serious and began to check on Brian.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 53 MOMMY IS NOT A BAD WOMAN

Brian did not break any bones but suffered serious bruises. The doctor told him that he must rest and cannot move. They tossed about in the hospital. As they got home, the kids had been picked up by Daenerys. Seeing that Brian jumping with one foot, the kids were worried. "What's wrong with you, Uncle?" "Does your foot hurt, Daddy?" Asked the two children together. "It doesn't matter." Brian said in a low voice. "Uncle, are you injured? Does it hurt?" To Brian's surprise, Megan cried for that. But Brian inexplicably felt warm by that. "Megan, don't cry, I am fine." Brian comforted Megan and his eyes became less cold. "I feel distressed about it, you must be in pain." Megan sobbed and felt tense looking at Brian's injured ankle. It made Winnie feel depressed, even Daenerys was moved. Daenerys walked up to Brian and asked. "Are you all right?" She met Brian several times, but they did not have deep communication. If he were not Luke's father, she would not contact such a cold man. "I am fine." It was indifferent tone, which made Daenerys tremble all over. "Winwin, I have a client to meet, I am leaving." After Daenerys left, Winnie began to take care of Brian. She helped Brian to sit on the sofa and took good care of him. "Put your feet on the sofa. The doctor said it should not stay in the air for too long." Winnie was about to help, but Megan moved ahead of her. "I can take care of Uncle, Mommy." Megan's small face was still red because she cried just now. "Ok. Be careful and don't hurt Uncle." Winnie did not deprive the child's love, got up and let Megan do it. "Mommy, I won't hurt Uncle, because I will hurt if he hurts." While saying, Megan squatted down to help. Rather than that Megan carried Brian's foot onto the sofa, he put them up by himself. "Thank you, Megan." Winnie was surprised that Brian, such a proud and cold man, said thank you. It was his foot that hurt. Did his head hurt too? "You're welcome, Uncle. As long as you don't feel pain, I can offer my help." Megan said softly, which made Brian's heart feel warm. "Megan, take good care of Uncle, I will get the dinner ready." Winnie could not bear to see that. She felt that she was committing a crime and she would find an excuse to leave the sad scene. "Wait a minute." Brian stopped Winnie, and then said to Luke. "Luke, go and bring the medicine box." After receiving the command, Luke quickly ran to get it, and then put the medicine box on the side of Brian. "Come here." Brian commanded, looking at Winnie. Winnie had almost known what Brian wanted, but he stood there without making any response. However, Brian did not wait patiently. He reached out to drag Winnie to his side and sit down. He opened the medicine box to find disinfectant and a cotton swab to start disinfecting Winnie's forearm. "I'll do it myself." Winnie said, Brian's concern made her flattered but she could not accept it. She remembered what Brian said on the way to get off work. That was his truth face to her. "Don't move." Brian was dominious and did not allow Winnie to withdraw her arm. Winnie tried several times, but she failed and had to obey. "Why is there a scar?" Brian inadvertently saw a small scar on the edge of Winnie's injury. Although it was not big or deep, Brian thought it was an eyespot. Winnie looked over her arm and knew what Brian was referring to. It reminded her of the moment she was pushed down four years ago. She was angry about that but she did not show it. "A hateful man pushed me and I got injured." Brian was the hateful man four years ago. She begged him when she was helpless, but he turned her down. He did not change, he was still cold. It was not expected that she would meet him again. "Blame yourself, if you didn't... if you didn't get touch with a man, you would not be hurt by a man." Brian said in a could voice. Realize that the two children were there, he did not say she was a cheater. When he thought that she had cheated many men and got touched with many men, he felt an impulse to kill them. This impulse always swallowed him. "Yes, I deserve it. So every scar on my body is a punishment for something I did wrong." Winnie said, only by saying so, Brian would not continue to argue with her. "Mommy didn't." Megan suddenly spoke. She understood the conversation between Mammy and Uncle, and she knew what they meant by "man." Megan continued. "Don't say that about Mommy, Uncle. I've been living with my aunt and grandmother since I was born. Mommy....." "Megan Chambers....." Winnie knew what Megan was trying to say, and she knew she would not allow anyone to denigrate her mother. But Megan was explaining to Brian. In Brian's view, as long as others said a word for her, it would be her plan. Why should she give Brian an opportunity to humiliate her? Winnie warned Megan in a low voice, but Megan did not want to stop. She could do anything as her Mommy said, but now she had to protect her Mommy. "Uncle, Mommy is not a bad woman. She hasn't had a man around since I was born. You are the first man to kiss Mommy. You can't say that, Uncle." Megan's face had an unyielding stubbornness like Winnie, which made Brian stunned. Brian stopped his move and did not know what to say. He just looked at Winnie coldly. "Don't look at me. I have the same thought." Winnie said indifferently, but she was nervous. Brian must have thought that she had planned what Megan said in advance, and since he thought so, she had nothing to explain. "Uncle, we are a family of four people living together. I have always wanted a Daddy to protect Mommy from being bullied. I understand you don't want to be my Daddy, but please don't bully Mommy." Megan continued. She said without fear. But when she was protecting her Mommy, Uncle felt annoyed. "Stop talking, Megan. I can take care of myself."Winnie pulled back her arm and got up directly.She knew Megan's character very well. She was just a girl, but she was stubborn and unyielding.Now Winnie understood that half of Megan was like her and the other half was like her father."Megan, Uncle saved mommy today, uncle did not bully mommy. Why don't you take care of Uncle, and I will cook."Winnie reminded Megan. No matter what Brian had done before, no matter how Brian despised her in the heart, but after all, he saved her.Whether she or Megan knew they should be thankful."All right, Mommy."Megan could only do what Mommy said.Winnie went to cook and Luke followed her."Auntie, I help you cook dinner. You got injury, and I want to help you."Luke said sensibly, which was different with Megan who was aggressive."Ok."They went to the kitchen and Winnie began to cook rice.She did not need Luke to help but taught him how to cook."First wash the rice, then put it in the rice cooker and press the cook button.""Auntie, did what Daddy said just now make you angry?"Luke's mind was not on the cooking. He came to the kitchen not completely to help Winnie, but wanted to say sorry for Daddy."No, he saved me. How can I be angry?"Winnie squatted down, put her hands gently on the shoulders of Luke, and then said softly."Luke, your Daddy is the leader, he is prestige and domineering. He has so many people to manage and he can't succeed if he's too weak.""When you grow up, you will inherit his business. Although you cannot be completely indifferent like him, you must be strong and tough." Winnie took this opportunity to enlighten him, because Luke was tortured by Penny and he only knew to apologize and dared not express his own ideas, which gradually lost his opinions on things. This was not good for the growth of children, especially boys, especially Luke who was placed high hopes. "Auntie, I'll do as you said. I'll be strong and tough. I will make myself strong and then I will protect you." Luke had been wanted to say that to Winnie. Since Daddy could not protect Auntie, he would protect her from being bullied. "Luke, you are the best. I believe you can do a good job." Winnie was pleased to encourage Luke, she believed that he would find his nature. From the moment she knew that Luke was her child, Winnie no longer regretted her return. She felt she came back in a right time. She still had chance to save him before Penny destroyed him. Winnie and Luke were cooking in the kitchen. Megan gave a cup of water to Brian. "Uncle, I was not polite just now, please don't be mad." Megan apologized, not feeling she was wrong, but feeling unease. After giving a cup of water to Brian, she felt better. "Megan, good girl. I am not angry." Brian who had been cold and proud could not be cold when he faced Megan.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 54 THE WOMAN ON THE PHONE

Brian heard every word that Megan said. If it was a show, she could not play so real without rehearsal. What happened today was an accident. It happened suddenly and Winnie had no time to let her child help her. So what she said was true? The idea suddenly occurred to Brian, but the next moment he dismissed it. It was possible that Megan did not know anything about Winnie. Yes, Brian was sure. Megan did not know that. "Uncle..." Megan wanted to say something and hoped Uncle would not make a hard time to Mommy, but she stopped suddenly. "What do you want to say?" "Uncle, if only you could be like Uncle Leo. Uncle Leo talks to Mommy gently, and he was very considerate. He cooks for Mommy and helps Mommy take care of me. Most importantly, he never gets mad at Mommy." Megan stopped here deliberately, took a look at Brian and found he was obviously not happy. Megan continued. "Uncle, don't be angry. You're Mommy's boss. It's normal to be angry with Mommy." "Uncle, since you have a wife and a family, you don't want to be my Daddy. What do you think of Uncle Leo? He has no family and no wife, so he can be my Daddy." Megan stopped again and looked at Brian with inquiring eyes. A moment later. "If Mommy is with Uncle Leo, Mommy won't have to work to earn money and won't be scolded by you. She just needs to stay at home. Uncle Leo will make money." Megan said proudly, not because she came up with a good idea, but because Brian's expression became more and more strange. "That's a great idea. I'll tell Mommy." Megan ran immediately to the kitchen, and Brian was silent with a cold face. He heard what Megan said. He did not give any answer to the child because he was afraid of hurting her heart again. Because he could not be with Winnie, so he could not give any promise. But at the thought that Winnie was really with Leo, he felt annoyed. After dinner, Brian went back to the bedroom. He couldn't go to work in his present condition, so he had to arrange his work. After Winnie cleared the tableware, arranged the two children to go to the study to do their homework, she went to Brian's room. "Mr. Bennet, I wanted to thank you for saving me today." Anyway, Winnie thought she should say thank you to him. Brian did not say a word but play with the mobile phone, as if he did not hear that. Winnie was embarrassed. "Mr. Bennet, have your work arranged?" Winnie had to change the topic to ease the embarrassment. "Yes." Brian answered indifferently. "I will go to work tomorrow, why don't you go home?" Winnie tentatively asked. He needed someone to take care of him, but she did not have the time. Brian suddenly stared at Winnie without words. "I... If you don't want to go home, let Klara come, or Albert." "Winnie, you know I was injured because of you. Do you think it is appropriate to do so?" Brian asked in angry voice, staring at Winnie. "I... I know it's not, but I have to work tomorrow." Winnie was embarrassed. She couldn't come back to take care of Brian. "Your work is not that important. I have arranged. You will rest as I rest, until I recover." Brian said domineeringly. He had known that Winnie would use work as an excuse to keep a distance with him, so he arranged it in advance "Since you said so, I'll rest." Winnie had no choice but to stay at home to take care of him, as Brian had arranged. "I'll get the water. You should take your medicine." Winnie turned to go out. When she came back, Brian was on the phone. "Mind your own business and be your doctor." Brian said coldly. Winnie guessed it was the doctor called Kevin Burns. Winnie put down the water, found the medicine, and prepared the medicine as the doctor's advice. Brian put down the phone, took the medicine handed over by Winnie, and took it in. "You know the doctor?" Winnie asked, in order to avoid embarrassment. But such a casual question made Brian suddenly look at Winnie. "What, looking for new target?" Brian said coldly. Winnie became mad and wanted to say dirty word as if she had bit by a dog. "Yeah, I'm looking for new targets all the time. If possible, if Kevin Burns is your friend, please introduce him to me." Winnie felt better by saying so. She didn't want to provoke Brian and didn't want to provoke Penny. She just wanted to work hard and lead a quiet life, as well as watched the children grow up. However, Brian did not let her have a quiet life, always reminding her that she was a cheater and that she was a disgusting woman. "I have not seen so shameless woman as you. Winnie, your child is big now, aren't you afraid it brings shame on the child?" Brian said with anger in his eyes. "I knew you'd never seen a woman as shameless as me, so I'll show you. Mr. Bennet..." "Shut up..." Brian shouted angrily as he reached out and dragged Winnie to the bed, and then rode on her. His foot was hurt, but there was no problem to punish her. Winnie was pressed under his body, suddenly feeling difficulty in breathing and her heart beat faster. She hated to have close contact with this man, but every time inexplicably she would be out of control. "Get up, the children will come in." Winnie put her hands against Brian's chest, preventing him from coming any closer. "None of those new targets you're after has more money than me." Brian angrily said. It had been a long time he had not been so close to this woman, Brian could not control his hormones. He couldn't figure out why he wanted to conquer this woman. "This is my personal affair, and I don't want to discuss it with you. Mr. Bennet, you promised me to respect me, but you..." "I didn't." Brian denied it. "You did. When you refused to divorce, refused me to be your wife, you promised me." Winnie did not dare to vent her anger, afraid that Brian lost reason and released his desire. "Hum..." Brian show contempt in his eyes. "You still have your ambition? Winnie, do you need me to warn you again?" "No, I know I don't deserve it. But I will never be any man's woman." Winnie's voice was not big, but firm. There was challenge in her eyes to Brian. It seemed that she could not be low-key. In the face of that, she had no idea how to deal with it. No matter what she said or did, Brian could find fault with her. She was a bad woman in Brian's eyes and she had no chance to change that. "I..." Brian was about to warn her, the phone rang. Brian did not see the caller ID but directly picked up the phone because he was angry. "What is it?" As Brian said angrily, he was staring at Winnie. "What's wrong, Brian? Am I bothering you?" A woman's voice was soft on the other end of the phone. Winnie heard it clearly. The sound was as sweet as honey. There was like magic in it with fear and grievances, which made people distressed to hear that. Brian changed greatly. His face suddenly relaxed, and his cold eyes became warm as if there was sunshine. And he seemed to dodge. "Dodge? Winnie thought intently, why did he dodge?" "No, it didn't bother me. Are you up? Did you sleep well last night?" Brian's tone made Winnie stunned. It was so sweet, so sexy, so mellow, so manly, and most of all, caring, loving. Was this the man Brian she knew? Was he Brian who had been cold all the time? Winnie involuntarily became upset. How many good deeds she had to do to exchange for Brian's gentle attitude? It would be realized until the day she died, because she wasn't the woman on the phone. Winnie suddenly felt grieved. This man pressed her under his body, but he was on the phone with another woman. Winnie endured it and felt her heart hurt. She pushed Brian down with force and then left angrily. Winnie went back to her room and lied on the bed. She could not calm down. She kept wondering who the woman on the phone was. What relationship was it with Brian? That woman's address to Brian was intimate. They must not be families, then there was only one possibility – she was his girlfriend. Winnie remembered she accidentally heard Brian on the phone like this several times before. It was not difficult to know that it was the same person. It seemed that Brian loved a woman deeply. That was why he said that neither she nor Penny were worthy of being his wife. Winnie felt breathing difficult at the thought of that. Finally she went downstairs to take a walk. Walking in the night, she stretched out to touch the green plants in the community, but she was still thinking of Brian's gentle eyes. That woman was lucky, making that cold and proud man become sunshine for her. Winnie gratuitously envied that woman for she made the cold Brian only be gentle to her. "Winwin, why are you alone? Where are the kids?" Leo unexpectedly appeared in front of Winnie, which stunned Winnie. "They are upstairs doing their homework. I come down and get some air. Have you just come back from work?" Winnie asked with a smile. "Yes, I just finished an important meeting." "Let's go and sit in the pavilion for a while." Leo invited Winnie and did not want to miss the opportunity for two people to get along alone. "Ok." Winnie did not refuse, but inexplicably followed Leo to the pavilion.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 55 HISTORIC MOMENT

"Winwin, why has Luke been living here?" As Winnie sat on the chair, Leo asked. He had a lot of questions, but he had no chance and did not know whether it was appropriate to ask. "They study in the same kindergarten and they really hit it off and like to play together, so he lives with us." Winnie found an excuse. She was not surprised that Leo asked this question, because others might not understand why Luke lived with her. "I...What is your relationship with Mr. Bennet?" Leo asked, but he was nervous, for fear that Winnie gave the answer he did not want to hear. Winnie frowned with her long eyelashes trembling, and then she raised a bitter smile. "Nothing, boss, employee, that's all." Winnie said and then sighed, trying to relax herself, but found that her heart was tight. She had nothing to do with Brian. He belittled her and would not treat her sincerely. Winnie's words made Leo breathe a sigh of relief, but what he saw on Winnie's face was blank. "Did Penny get you into trouble?" Leo asked, guessing Winnie's sadness was related to Penny. "She came to me more than once, and I don't know why she did that. She did so four years ago, and now..." Winnie mentioned things happened four years ago angrily started talking about, and then she stopped. She forgot that she was talking to Leo, who was one of the protagonists. "Forget it. It's all over. I can understand that Penny makes trouble for me. After all, anyone would be suspicious since Brian is here." "Winwin, four years ago..." Speaking of things four years ago, Leo was to apologize, but Winnie did not give him a chance. "Don't mention it again. It was my darkest time. I don't want to mention it." She felt hurt once it was mentioned, she did not dare or want to recall it. At that time, Leo and Penny dealt with her together, and not it was Penny and Brian made a hard time to. She could not provoke one of them. "Ok." Leo stopped immediately when he saw Winnie was upset.

"Winwin, since you have nothing to do with Brian, it's best to keep a distance from him. This is the only way to keep Penny from keeping an eye on you." Leo reminded her. He knew Penny was insidious, and she was so when they broke up. He was afraid that Winnie such a nice person would be framed by her. "I know, I want to stay away from him too, but I failed. Leo, thank you for your reminding. I gotta go, the children will be anxious if they don't see me." Winnie did not refuse Leo's kindness, but she could do nothing. With the children involved, it was impossible to escape the mess. All she could do was to accept it. She might never have a safe life for the sake of her children. Winnie got up to leave, her lonely figure made Leo feel distressed. All this was his fault. If he was given a chance, if the time could go back, he must do his best to protect Winnie, never let her have such a helpless moment. In the next day, Winnie began to take care of Brian. She sent the two children to kindergarten in the morning and met Penny downstairs when she was back. Winnie knew what Penny was coming for without thinking about it. She walked to her and said. "Come to warn me again?" "I am not here for you, but my husband." Penny's face was dark and angry. She became aggressive as she saw Winnie. "Oh...ok." Winnie did not expect that. Penny did not come to her. But there was no surprise, they were husband and wife, after all. Winnie stepped into the elevator with Penny. They did not speak until the elevator door opened. As the moment the elevator door opened, Leo stood at the door of the elevator, and the three people were all stunned. It was a historic moment, the three men met for the first time after four years. All three were involved, but Winnie was the only victim. Winnie was the victim, but she was the calmest. Penny panicked and she moved her eyes away soon after she saw Leo's eyes, And as the moment the elevator door opened, as the moment he saw Penny, he felt hatred in heart. He hated Penny and himself, after all, Winnie got hurt because of his too. "You're going out?" Winnie stepped out of the elevator and greeted Leo. "Yes, I go to work." Leo answered Winnie softly and the hatred in eyes disappeared. Their insipid conversations made Penney feel tense. She walked out of the elevator with Winnie to give way to Leo, but Leo did not move. "It's been a long time, Penny." Leo said in a stiffened tone. He needed not show tenderness to Penny. "It's been a long time." Penny was guilty, but with her present position she was not to show her timid side. She had to pretend she was noble. "We should catch up some time." Leo meant something, but some words could not said in front of Winnie. He could only endure it. "We will see." Penny decisively refused. She did not want to talk with Leo and wanted to bury what happened four years ago. "Ok, Mrs. Bennet, take your time. Maybe we'll meet some other time." Leo showed a smile of contempt and walked into the elevator. Winnie really wanted to take this opportunity to put the things clear, but by doing so, it was she who hurt the most. Winnie endured it and swallowed everything into her stomach. That she got hurt by one thing was enough, why should she mention it again? Winnie took Penny to her home and found Brian in the bedroom. He was on the phone with Klara to arrange work. Winnie closed the bedroom door and went back into the living room. "Mr. Bennet is at work. If you're not in a hurry, just wait. If you are, go in now." "No hurry." Penny knew she could not disturb Brian's work even if she was in hurry. She replied while looking around this duplex apartment. The house was almost as big as her villa. Brian spent a lot of money on it for such a low woman. "I have no idea the Bennet Group treats its employees so well." Winnie said sarcastically with a love voice, afraid that Brian would hear that. "I didn't expect the company would give such a large apartment to me." Of course, Winnie understood the irony in Penny' words, but she didn't care, and what could Penny do. Winnie continued. "The room I just came out of is the master bedroom, where your husband lives. This is my bedroom." Winnie pointed to the closed door opposite the master bedroom. "This is your husband's study, where he works when he's not hurt." Winnie paused before continuing. "By the way, you know your husband was hurt, right? Otherwise you wouldn't come over." Winnie said with irony. She had been suspected that Penny tracking her or tracking Brian, so she would know in the first time and then find her to warn her. Penny's eye became cold. She felt annoyed to be seen through. She did not say yes or not, because there was no sense. So what if she know? Penny did not care. Winnie continued since Penney kept silent. "The children's bedrooms are upstairs, one for each. Their study is also upstairs. Luke is good here, you don't need to worry about him, even though you don't worry about him at all." Speaking of Luke, Winnie's voice became cold, showing obvious dissatisfaction. "Winnie, watch your mouth. Why don't I worry about my child?" Penny refuted, for fear of being seen through her mind. "The way you worry is special. I am really happy for Luke because you are such a good mother." At the thought of Luke's injury, Winnie wished to give Penny two slap now. If it were not for some things bound, she would like to punish Penny. "Winnie, I do not understand why you are attentive to Luke, if it is because of Brian, you really are scheming." Penny said. She did not understand that. If that was true, Winnie was more scheming than she imagined. "I just don't like your attitude towards Luke, I just like Luke. If I want to get Brian, I don't need anyone, just like you did to steal Leo." Winnie mentioned what happened four years ago with hatred in eyes. "You..." As Penny wanted to talk back, Brian opened the door and jumped out on one foot. "Honey, your foot was injured, you should go to the hospital, why are you here?" When Penny saw Brian, she immediately changed her attitude, came to Brian and asked with concern. "How did you know I was hurt?" Brian refused Penny's help and asked coldly. "I..." Penny was nervous, aware that she seemed to have said something wrong. Brian's insight made her have a moment of panic. "Winwin told me just now." Penny was smart and resourceful. Winnie ironically raised the corners of her mouth. "What are you doing here?" Brian took a look at Winnie and continued to ask Penny. "I have something to talk to you. I can't get through your phone, so I came here." Penny was embarrassed to be refused, especially Winnie was present, but in front of Brian, she could only endure. "What is it?" Brian still asked coldly, without looking at her.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 56 ONLY ONE CHANCE

Penny looked at Winnie and then at Brian. Then she said. "Honey, it is family affair, let's go inside and talk." "Say it right here." Brian said impatiently. "But..." "You talk. I'll go upstairs." Winnie was sensible and left. Brian hopped to the sofa and sat down. "Say it now, I have work to do." "Dad invited you to a dinner party at my house." Whispered Penny. "Do you think I can go in this state? That's all you're asking for? Don't tell me it is an excuse." Brian asked in a deep voice with annoy in his eyes. "Not now, next weekend. Dad said you are busy, so he tells you in advance." Penny calmly said. She had prepared in advance, so she was no panic in the face of Brian's questions. "We'll see." Brian didn't say no outright because it was part of the contract. Penny was disappointed about the answer Brian gave, but she dared not show it. "Brian, you are injured and can't work. You'd better go home and I'll look after you." For Penny, this was a great opportunity to get along with Brian. As long as she took care of him with her heard, Brian would found she was good. "You go back." Brian rejected Penny. He just wanted to be quiet and did not want Penny to play up to him. "Brian..." Penny begged again, but before she finished her words, Brian looked at her coldly. She could only give up. "All right, I'll go back first." After Penny walked out of Winnie's house, she showed ferocious hatred. She once again thought it was Winnie's fault. Before Winnie showed up, he was not as indifferent as now to her. She had to get rid of Winnie. Penny went to the elevator door as she was thinking. Leo's voice was heard from behind. "Penny." Leo called her coldly, with anger in eyes. "Leo? Aren't you at work?" Asked Penney, alarmed. "To put off work for you. Come with me. We need to talk." Leo said firmly, and then turned toward his house. "There's nothing to talk about. I have business to do." When Penny refused, the elevator door opened and she hurried to go inside. "Then I'll talk to Brian." Leo's words fell in Penny's ears as the elevator door was about to close. She gritted teeth and had to walk out of the elevator. When she arrived in Leo's house, Penny didn't look around, she was thinking what Leo would ask her and how she should answer. "You seem to know what I'm trying to say." Leo said. He must be indifferent to face such a woman. "....." Penny did not answer with her eyes dodged. She did not know she would be angry or gentle. "You must tell me what happened four years ago, Penny." Leo sat on the sofa in a domineering way. Penny looked at Leo who was sunny and handsome, she felt nervous. "Leo, what I said is the truth. What do you want me to say?" Penny's tone was kind of gentle. Since Leo did not turn against her, she could be able to control herself. "I asked you to tell me the truth, but you lied to me. You have no courage to face what you have done?" Leo's eyes were sharp and his facial expression was gloomy. "What courage are you taking about? What I said is the truth." Penny was panic, feeling that Leo had already known about the truth, looking at Leo's bleak eyes and hearing his calm tone. But it was her speculation, she couldn't make a hasty admission. "Well, Penny, you have but one chance. If you do not cherish it, do not blame me. Leo's eyes suddenly became sinister. He got up angrily to see her off. "We have no more to talk about. Please go back." Penny was worried and puzzled. Did Leo give up like this? It was not like Leo. "I want to say something. Now that we're meeting this way, I'd like to ask you for help. Brian knows something about you and me. I hope you won't mention it again. When we meet, we will just treat each other as ordinary friends." Penny knew Leo was cooperating with the Bennet Group recently, so it was inevitable to see Brian. And now Brian lived in his next door and they had more opportunities to meet. It was inevitable to talk about her. Penny had to ask him for help in case of that. "Penny, I am a businessman, and we must meet each other. If you don't provoke Winwin, I will promise you that." Leo finally knew how shameless Penny was. She did not admit her fault but asked him for help. He must have a problem in brain so he believed what she said. "Leo, it is not the case. Winnie came back is to make trouble for me. She not only took my son away, but also kept Brian at her house. Do you think I can take that?" Penny obviously was out of control. Winnie again. That was the last name she would like to hear. However, these men were obsessed with her and paid for her like a fool. "Why did Winnie come back to make trouble for you?" Brian did not answer but asked a rhetorical question, which stunned Penny. "She... She is jealous of me. She wants to steal Brian and cheat him like she did to you." Penny framed Winnie without moderation, which completely disappointed Leo. "I was glad to have her cheat me; and if you cheat me, I will make you suffer. You know better than anyone whether or not Brian will be cheated. If a man of such intelligence is cheated, he is willing to do so." "Please leave. I have to work." Leo said and walked toward the door, Penny followed him closely. "Leo, no matter what, I helped you at that time, if I did not....." Penny tried to persuade Leo, but Leo suddenly stopped his pace and shouted sharply. "One must not be dirty, Penny. You are the last person to mention what happened four years ago. Winwin and I would have been happier than anyone without you." Leo glared at Penny, with hatred and regret in eyes. "....." After dinner in the evening, a few people were sitting together in the living room watching TV. The two children were talking and laughing. Winnie was silent raising the corner of her mouth. Brian always looked at Winnie unconsciously. Winnie was not the most beautiful woman Brian had ever seen, but she was the most stunning. Her facial features were pretty, her temperament was elegant and her figure was impeccable. Her beauty was very unique. She was quiet, intellectual, calm, open-minded and elegant. But the word 'cheater' hid it all. Brian withdrew his sight, not wanting to be deceived by her pure appearance. Winnie noticed Brian that. She felt bitter in heart. She did not understand Brian's intention. If it was to vent anger for Penny, he should not have saved her in a moment of crisis. Was it a pleasure for him to see her hit by a car? Why did he come to her, if it was not for Penny, if he disliked her to such an extent? Was it just a man's desire to conquer? Winnie was in daze and involuntarily moved her eyes from the TV. "Mommy, what are you thinking about?" Megan said and pulled back Winnie's free thoughts. "Oh, nothing." "Mommy. Brother says he wants to take part in Super Brain when he grows up." Megan repeated Luke's words. "Well, that's very nice. I believe that Luke can do that. Since you have a dream, you have put it into action, work hard to achieve your dream relying on your own strength. I support you." Winnie smiled proudly, as if Luke had realized his dream. "I will work hard to realize my dream." Luke said with full momentum. As long as Auntie believed in him, he had the strength to move forward. "Mommy, I want to participate in it, too." Megan said with envy. "Ok, work hard too. Megan, although the girl should work hard as the boy, the girl should be quiet and steady." Winnie said. "Ok, Mommy, you do it again." Megan seemed to be impatient, but she smiled. Such optimistic and cheerful personality was Brian's favorite. Megan walked to Brian and continued. "Uncle, Mommy has so much chicken soup for the soul that I can't even digest it. Almost a bowl every day. I feel that if you drink chicken soup, your foot will heal soon." Megan said jokingly, wishing to make Brian less cold. Fortunately, she succeeded, Brian respected her. Brian raised the corners of his mouth, gently stroking the naughty Megan. Megan and Luke were of two completely different characters. Brian once wondered why they became friends. Megan was naughty and lovely, clever and intelligent, sometimes she was stubborn. Luke was introversive, not good at expressing himself. Although he was more intelligent than Megan, but he looked depressed. He became better after meeting Winnie, but he was so when facing Winnie. "You smile, Uncle." Megan said happily. Brian's smile was warmer than the sun in Megan's eyes. "Mommy, look, uncle is smiling." Megan excitedly told Winnie, Winnie lifted her eyes and happened to see Brian's eyes. The slight radian of the mouth could hardly be called a smile, but it was unprecedented for Brian. Even if it was a slight radian, Winnie was in daze. That smile was charming, which cause ripples in Winnie's calm heart. Winnie quickly moved away her eyes and tried to calm herself down. What was wrong with her? What was wrong with her heart? Brian also moved away his eyes. Although he did not know what he looked like with a smile, he felt pleased that it made Megan happy. But the smile was only for Megan. Winnie should thank Megan for seeing it.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 57 WHAT YOU THINK WILL NOT HAPPEN

Megan was obsessed with Brian's light smile, wishing he could always smile like this. "Uncle, you are handsome when you smile, I like it." Megan continued. As the doorbell rang, Winnie quickly got up and walked toward the door, followed by Luke. Winnie looked at the video by the door. It showed an elderly man she did not know. "Who do you want to see?" Winnie asked politely. "It is great grandpa, open the door, Auntie." The man outside did not answer, but Luke gave the answer. But the answer surprised Winnie. Great grandpa? Luke's great grandpa is the chairman of the Bennet Group, Brian's grandfather. What was he here for? Confused, Winnie opened the door and saw that Butler Lowe was with him. "Hello!" Winnie said. "Great grandpa!" Luke said happily. Felix caressed Luke's small head expressionless. Then he calmly walked in. "Grandpa, what are you doing here?" Sitting on the sofa, Brian was surprised. "You're hurt. Shouldn't I come and see you? Felix's voice was cold. "Chairman, please sit down." Winnie pulled Megan up from her seat and motioned Felix to sit down. "Hello, great grandpa." Megan made a deep bow and greeted Felix. However it affected Felix's heart unexpectedly. He looked at the little girl with a sweet smile that made people love her. "Hello, little girl. What your name?" Brian's voice gradually eased. "My name is Megan Chambers." Megan readily answered. "Great grandpa, my families call me Megan. You are my family, you can call me Megan." "Megan?" Felix recovered. Although this little girl was small, she was adorable. "Look." Megan raised her right hand, revealing her birthmark on the forearm. Then she went on. "Great grandpa, do you think this birthmark look like not like half of a moon? Because of this birthmark, my name is Megan." Megan said, but it scared Winnie. Megan had a birthmark like half a moon, and Luke had a birthmark like gold ingot. Felix took a look at Winnie. Was it a coincidence? Was there really such a coincidence? Winnie was flustered and said. "Megan, come to Mommy. Great grandpa is here to visit Uncle, you should not keep talking to him." Winnie walked to Megan, took Megan's hand and stepped back a few steps. "Grandpa, I am fine, and I can go to work in two days." Brian changed the topic. "Go home to rest, why are you here?" Felix said in a cold voice with blame in his clear eyes. Hearing that, Winnie knew why Felix came here, so she said. "Megan, Luke, I take you upstairs to play." Holding one in each hand, Winnie was to leave, but was stopped by Felix. "You stay, Luke takes Megan upstairs." Felix was firm. Luke obeyed and Winnie had to turn around. After the two children left, Felix asked Winnie to sit down. In addition to what Megan said, Winnie could face anything calmly. And now Winnie had been sitting on the opposite of Felix. "Grandpa..." Brian had guessed what Felix wanted to say, and wanted to take his grandfather to the room, but Felix waved his hand to stop him. "Winnie, you are a software engineer of the Bennet Group and an employee of Brian. Why does your boss live in your house?" Felix asked coldly. His resourceful eyes made Winnie meditate. It seemed that he didn't come here to see Brian. He came here for her. But if he could put an end to Brian's obsession with her, she would be grateful to this old man. Winnie took a look at Brian, and knew he was not going to help, so she could said. "He's hurt because of me. I should take care of him." Winnie said softly, taking all the responsibility. The chairman must think that she forced Brian to stay, and he would regard her as a bad woman. Never mind, he was not the only one. "He was hurt for you, and it is Penny who should take care of him, not you. If you feel indebted, you can repay it by working hard..." Felix's face grew darker and darker, his tone was cold and clear. However, Brian interrupted his words. "Grandpa, she has nothing to do with it. You know my character and no one can tell me what to do. I'm the one who wanted to stay here." Seeing that his grandfather did not want to give up easily, Brian spoke. If Winnie was targeted by his grandfather, her life would be really difficult. "Why do you stay here?" Felix looked at Brian seriously. "It's easy to work here. I have a lot of work to do with her." Brian could only say that. He could take responsibility, but if he told the real reason, Winnie was likely to leave the city. Seeing that his grandfather did not respond, Brian continued. "Luke is also here. It's convenient for me to take care of him." "You had never taken care of Luke before. If it is the truth, it is easy." Felix paused and continued to say coldly. "Butler Lowe, take Little Young Master away, and I will take care of Luke." "Yes." On receiving the order, Butler Lowe strode upstairs. At this time, Winnie panicked and blocked in front of Butler Lowe. "No, he can't go back." Winnie said firmly. No one could take Luke away, and she would fight to protect Luke. "Chairman, I know what you are worried about, and I can assure you that it will not happen." Winnie was smart and knew his intention. "Assure what? Be specific." Felix said rigorously. His eyes were sharp. "Grandpa, this is my business. I can handle it myself. I assure you that what you fear will not happen. A woman with no status with a child will not affect me at all." Brian said in time. He did not want to hear any guarantee from Winnie. However, his words made Winnie's heart sour. Winnie knew she was not good and she did not deserve Brian. What Brian said was the truth, but why did he say that in front of others? Winnie took a disappointed look at Brian and moved away her cold eyes. "I promise you, Chairman, I will not covet him for a penny, I will not dream to be Mr. Bennet, I will not have any relationship with him above that of a colleague, I will not seduce him, I will not... I will never fall in love with him." Seeing that Felix was dissatisfied, she had to make a specific promise. But she found her heart was not sour but pain. "....." Brian did not stop Winnie. When he saw her firm and stubborn eyes, he knew that he could not stop her even if he said anything. But the words of 'not falling in love with him' made him frown. "Good, Winnie, That's what you said. If you fail to keep your words, you'll see the consequence." Felix's tone eased. Satisfied, he looked at Winnie. He continued after a pause. "Since you promised me that, I could let Luke stay, but Brian must go with me." His voice was not big but firm. Winnie looked at Brian again, looking at his cold eyebrows, his gloomy face and his injured ankle. She did not want him to go. She shouldn't be like this. She should want him to go. After he left, he could have a peaceful life. There must be something wrong with mind, why suddenly she had that thought. Brian said nothing and did not look at Winnie. He instantly got up and walked to the door with difficulty. Brian left resolutely, without looking back. Winnie's world was quiet, but it was too fast that she suddenly felt empty. Instead of going home, Brian went to Felix's old house. On the way back to the old house. "Penny told you?" Brian asked, knowing that it was Penny. "Can't I know it? There's rumor in the company. I'm not deaf or blind. Since everyone knows, why can't I know?" Felix's tone was of anger and blame. "....." Brian kept silent, not knowing how to defend himself. Because he and Winnie did have sex, the rumor was expected. "You are not wise. Although Penny's family was not as good as before, it has a great use of value. you fall out with Penny because of a woman make influence on the interests of the Bennet Group." Felix said in a deep voice. He had known about it before Penny came to him, but he thought Brian could handle it on his own. But Brian failed him, he had to do something. "I will not let this matter affect the company, and I will not be under control by the Burns family. Grandpa, when we got married, you promised me not to interfere in my affairs." Brian had a different idea from Grandpa. He would make it under control, and even if it affected the company, he would handle it well.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 58 UP TO NO GOOD

Sooner or later, Brian and Penny would be separated, and the Burns family must be abandoned. Therefore, Brian would be prepared as soon as possible, and there would be no such serious consequences as grandpa said. Felix was still aggressive and still only cared about his own thought. "I said so, but only if it doesn't affect the Bennet Group's development. Also, don't forget that the person you are waiting for is not Winnie, don't bring too much trouble to yourself." Although Winnie impressed him well, she was not the best choice. Felix's last words made Brian fall into silence. He frowned and his thought could not be seen through. He was not waiting for Winnie and could not have an ambiguous relationship with Winnie. Could he do it? Brian left. Winnie did not need to take care of him, so she had to go to work. She came to the company to find Albert, but she failed and could only go to the secretary office. "Klara, this is Mr. Bennet's medicine. Please give him." Winnie put the medicine on Klara's desk. When she looked up, she inadvertently found there was an unknown smile on her face. Was that sarcasm? Was that happiness? Winnie said nothing and turned to leave. "Winnie, wait." Klara stopped Winnie and said. "According to normal procedure, MT has sent a person over and he will come to work this morning. And you have to hand over the work." "Okay, I'll be right there." Winnie answered and walked away, and then suddenly she asked. "Who is sent from MT?" Winnie asked softly, but Klara began to work as if she had not heard her. Winnie did not continue to ask. Since Klara pretended that she did not hear her, she had no need to ask again. Winnie put her bag back to her office and went straight to her old workplace. Standing outside the office of the software department, she politely knocked on the door and heard a man's voice inside. "Come in." When she heard the sound, her nerves tightened unconsciously. But she still pushed open the door and went in. "Manger Daniel, I didn't expect you to come over in person." Winnie had to greet him Manger Daniel named Daniel Wong, was the leader of Winnie in the MT company. He had been pushing her out. Winnie accepted the company's arrangement to return to B City, because of Manger Daniel. She thought she could have an easy year at least when she came to work in B City, but she didn't expect him to come too. Daniel looked at Winnie with disdain and raised his head. "Neither did I, Winwin. Long time no see." His time was obvious frivolous, and there was evil in his eyes. "Not long, only a few months." Winnie answered indifferently. In the face of Daniel's kindness, she could only treat it with an indifferent attitude. "But I..." Daniel wanted to say that he felt it for a long time, but Winnie directly changed the topic. "Manger Daniel, how about your work if you are here?" Winnie asked, seemingly concerned. Winnie deliberately changed the topic, which made Daniel dissatisfied, and instantly he got a cold face. "I could only leave my work behind. I have no time to deal with it since you have made a big trouble here. Winnie I have always thought you are capable, why could you deal with it well? Do you know how important the cooperation with the Bennet Group is for MT? If this order is done well, more projects will come to us in the future. But, you've screwed up something so important." Daniel scolded Winnie seriously in cold voice, and his eyes were full of contempt. Since she did not accept his kindness, don't blame him for being businesslike. "I didn't deny that I did not do a good job. I have paid the price for it. The company has fired me." Winnie implied that Daniel now had no right to lecture her, but she said in euphemism and she was not sure if Daniel understood that. "It was a mercy that the company just fired you, and did not ask you to bear the loss." Daniel's tone suddenly became soft. "Winwin, you have not yet handled resignation formalities, I think you have opportunity to stay in MT, do you want me to speak for you?" Daniel had an evil look on his face, and his eyes were full of some kind of hidden desire. Such Daniel made Winnie sick. "Thanks Manger Daniel, I am ashamed of the company's trust to me, I can't go back. I'll finish the formalities later." Winnie refused and did not give Daniel chance, because he was not simple. Once he offered help, Winnie had to obey to him. But, didn't Brian say he would handle the resignation formalities for her? Why hadn't it been done? If the contract with MT had not been terminated, she could not sign with the Bennet Group. It seemed that Winnie had not been stable at work. "Winnie, this is your only chance." Daniel tried to continue lobbying, but Winnie did not want to go back. "Thank you, Manger Daniel." Winnie refused again, and immediately Daniel's face became dark. "Manger Daniel, let's hand over the work first. I have other things to deal with." Under Winnie's reminder, Daniel reluctantly began the handover work. He thought this was a chance to surrender Winnie, but Winnie flatly refused. However, he would not give up. The things difficult to get was meaningful. As usual, Winnie picked up her children after work. Coming home with two children and walking into the house, suddenly she felt empty. Unconsciously looking at the closed door of the master bedroom, the sense of loss became stronger. "Mommy, will uncle come home today?" Megan asked, as if she was used to the existence of Brian. "He comes home and will not come here again." Winnie's lonely heart became sad. But it was a situation she could manage. Winnie took a deep breath and let herself look indifferent. "Megan, Luke, take a rest and do homework after dinner." Winnie said and went directly to the kitchen. Winnie began to cook. The dinner for the three of them would be much simpler without Brian. The dinner was soon ready, served, and the children seated. Just as they were about to have dinner, Winnie's phone rang. Winnie took a look at the phone screen and found it was from Brian. She picked it up. "Mr. Bennet." Winnie answered calmly, but there was expectation in her heart. He was silent for a moment. "Let Luke answer the phone." He was indifferent as usual. Now Winnie was silent.

What was she expecting? She thought he called her, but it was quite embarrassing. "Luke, your Daddy." Winnie gave Luke the mobile phone. "Why don't you come back, Daddy?" Luke asked. Brian was stunned for a moment. "I'm at home, and Mommy takes care of me. How are you? Do you want to come back?" Brian did not know what he wanted to say and he did not why he made this call. "I don't. I'll stay here." Luke said with certainty. "Daddy, does great grandpa not allow you to come to Auntie's home? If so, you do as he said, or he will get me back. I don't want to go back, Daddy." Since childhood, he had been influenced by his great grandpa's strength. Luke knew what his great grandpa would do. Last night, Luke found that his great grandpa was not friendly to Auntie since he came in. He tried to distract his attention and try to please him, but he did not succeed. Later his great grandpa asked them to go upstairs and then his Daddy left, Luke understood everything. "If you don't want to come back, you can stay there. Great grandpa won't force you." Brian indirectly agreed to the request of Luke, and it was the first time he said to him seriously. "Thanks, Daddy. You are the best." Luke was very happy. His Daddy's tone was cold, but Luke felt warm. Because he Daddy loved him. "Daddy, don't worry about Megan and Auntie, I will take good care of them." Luke said for fear that he would be worry about Megan and Winnie. Brian was silent for another moment. "Ok." This word meant a lot. "We're going to eat now, Daddy. Bye!" Luke said happily. He did not hang up the phone but directly returned the phone to Winnie. Winnie did not notice that the phone had not been hung up. And Brian had been stuck the mobile phone to his ears. On the other end of the phone. "Brother Luke, did Uncle mention me? Did he miss me?" Megan anxiously asked. "No." Luke did not want to lie but directly give the answer. Although the answer made Megan sad, but lying children were not good children. "I'm so disappointed. I miss him." Megan pouted, lowering her head disappointedly. "Megan, don't be disappointed. If you miss him, I can take you to his home." Luke said considerately, regardless of his resistance to that home. "Megan, Luke, eat first." Winnie's voice finally came from the phone. Hearing that voice, Brian was reluctant to hang up the phone. "Mommy, did you have a fight so uncle didn't come back? Uncle always calls you a cheater. Does he hate cheaters?" Megan continued to ask, she did not understand why Uncle suddenly left. "....." Winnie suddenly froze, not knowing how to answer. It was not suitable to tell child, but she did not want to make up a reason. "You are not a cheater, Mommy. You have worked hard to earn everything for us all these years. Mommy does not sleep, Mommy has been busy all day. You work hard, why did he call you a cheater? Explain to him, Mommy, and he will come back when he knows you are not a cheater." Megan said urgently. She had been used to have Uncle and Brother around.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 59 THE PHONE HAD NOT BEEN HUNG UP

Winnie looked Megan's wronged face, feeling heart in pain. "Megan, do you like Uncle?" Winnie asked in a low voice. "Yes, like Daddy. People say Daddy is the big tree behind kids. I think Uncle is the big tree behind me." Megan answered Winnie positively. But it made Winnie remorse. Brian over the phone felt warm but helpless to hear that. "Megan, don't rely on uncle so much. Uncle can't be your Daddy even if I explain to him. Uncle and Mommy are two parallel lines that will never meet." Winnie took this opportunity to eliminate Megan's dependence on Brian, otherwise she would get hurt someday "Uncle is so excellent with high status, and his interpersonal relations are top level. We are not in the same world, and we can't be together." "But Mommy, you are good too..." Megan continued. Although she did not understand what Mommy said, she knew that Mommy was good and kind and worth to stay with uncle. "Megan, let me finish." Winnie gently interrupted Megan, and then continued. "I know you need a Daddy, but it can't be Uncle. Daddy has to live with Mommy. Only when we love each other, we can spend this life together. But Uncle has a wife and he doesn't like me, so I can be with Uncle."

"Mommy, you can love him." Megan said innocently. Winnie once again froze and Brian over the phone unconsciously held breath. He was looking forward to hear what Winnie would say. For a moment.

"Megan, love is mutual, and Mommy's love alone will not work. Megan, give me some time. If I can find the right man, I will give you a family and a Daddy." Winnie could only appease the child for the time being. She did not know if that man existed. Even if he did, it seemed that she was not qualified to love.

"Ok, I'll give you time." Megan agreed reluctantly, but she still liked Uncle more. She did not know if the man Mommy met in the future would be better than Uncle. "Megan. If you meet Uncle again, don't mention it to him or embarrass him." Winnie continued. "Ok, I see." Megan agreed, but she wasn't sure if she could keep her mouth shut. "Auntie....." She thought this conversation would be over and everyone could eat. However, Luke spoke. "Auntie, Megan can't rely on Daddy, but can I rely on you?" Luke asked in a low voice with worry. "Yes, you can rely on me forever." With a kind smile on her face, Winnie replied. She didn't need a man in her life, as long as the two children were with her. "But if you have a boyfriend, and Megan has a Daddy, what should I do?" Luke was still worried that he had to leave Winnie. He was afraid Winnie did not like him anymore. "Luke, even if I have a boyfriend, I will take you as long as you like." Winnie answered sincerely to eliminate Luke's concerns. No matter what, she would never send Luke back to Penny. "But I can't live without Daddy, and I can't live without you." Luke's words stunned Winnie. Both children had varying degrees of attachment to both adults, and it should be hard-wired, which was not easy to disconnect. She could protect Luke for a lifetime, but if she did so, she had to face Brian and Penny for a lifetime. It was not easy for Winnie. "Well, don't say anything. We'll find a way. Eat and then we do homework." Winnie deflected the conversation to prevent the two children from further depression. Brian's departure affected not only her. The two children were immersed in the confusion and missing. Brian's finally hung up the phone. Thinking about the conversation, he felt upset. No matter why, no matter when, he could not become Megan's father as Winnie said. However, Megan's wronged voice made him feel distressed. Megan was yearning to have a Daddy. Winnie would marry a man for her. But why did he feel difficulty in breathing as he thought of that? Winnie went to work and lived a quiet life as usual every day. Brian called to talk to Luke every day. When she found it was Brian's call, she would give the phone directly to Luke. It had been only a week, but she felt it was longer than a year. When she arrived in the company, Winnie had something to discuss with Brian, so she came to the secretary office. "Klara, isn't Mr. Bennet at work yet?" He should be fine in a week, Winnie thought. "Yes, he has been at work for five days. What is it, Winnie?" Klara raised her eyes and replied. Five days? Winnie was suddenly stunned. She did not know that even though their offices were so close, and she had been worrying about his injury. Winnie angrily turned straight to the president's office, but suddenly she stopped at the door. If she hadn't seen him for five days, it meant he had been avoiding her. Why did she get angry and rush in if he did not want to see her? Winnie felt sour in heart but stubbornly turned back to the secretary office. "Klara, I have an important document that I need Mr. Bennet to confirm. I will send it to him by email. Please remind him." Winnie turned back to her office. Since Brian did not want to see her, she would avoid him. She knew what to do. After Winnie returned to her office, Klara went to the president's office and passed on Winnie's words. Brian's face darkened, but he did not say anything. In order not to annoy anyone, Winnie almost spent the day in the office. She asked her assistant Alice to do the business and she developed the new software. Although it was quiet alone, but it was a peaceful day. Towards the end of the day. "Winnie, Manger Daniel of MT wants to see you. There is something he doesn't understand about mobile phone software." Assistant Alice said. Winnie checked the time and found it was still early to pick up the children, so she decided to be there with Alice. Winnie and Alice stood in front of the elevator and waited. Suddenly they heard the sound of Klara greeting Brian. Winnie could not help looking back. But she regretted it. Brian came out from the president's office with Penny. When Penny saw Winnie was looking back at her, she deliberately held Brian's arm, and Brian did not refuse her. Winnie took a look at Penny with distain and then at Brian. She thought she would be disdainful to see Brian, but she consciously wanted to see him. She had not seen him for more than a week, and he seemed colder and more handsome than ever. On his handsome face, there was a pair of bright eyes as stars in the sky. With a frown, his sexy lips were pressed. An Italian handmade suit set off his charm. He looked domineering. Everything had become a foil with him around. This man was undoubtedly the attention of the public. Whether in term of appearance or ability, talent or status, Winnie felt her not worth of him. What Winnie could only do was to occasionally appreciate it like this. Winnie looked down at Brian's injured ankle. Fortunately, he had recovered, and she no longer had to worry. Since she had no need to worry about him, she took back her eyes. At this moment, Brian walked to the elevator. Alice greeted him respectfully. "Hello, Mr. Bennet, Mrs. Bennet." Winnie only treated Brian as a leader, so she must say hello too. "Mr. Bennet." She stopped there. Even if Penny was the president's wife, Winnie did not say hello to her. Brian said nothing, looking straight ahead. His eyes did not shift because of Winnie. But Penny become embarrassed because Winnie intentionally neglected her. "....." As Penny was to mock at Winnie, the elevator door was opened. Brian stepped in followed by Penny, and then Winnie and Alice walked in. When the elevator door closed, Penny took Brian's arm ostentatiously again. Of course, Winnie, who was standing beside her, couldn't avoid such a picture. Seeing that Brian did not refuse, Winnie admitted that she was jealous. But she could tolerate it, it felt like her idol got a girlfriend. This kind of jealousy was simple and had no results. In the deathly silence of the elevator, Winnie just wanted the elevator to speed up to reach the floor she wanted to reach. Looking at Penny's proud face and Brian's cold face, Winnie felt suffocated. Fortunately, the elevator finally stopped and opened the door. Albert and Manger Daniel stood at the door saying something. Manger Daniel's eyes were full of desire at the moment he saw Winnie. He did not care others were in the elevator and the president's assistant was standing next to him. He did not want to move his eyes from Winnie. And then he found it was the president of the Bennet Group. "Mr. Bennet?" Daniel looked at Brian uncertainly. Brian did not give him any response, so he looked at Albert. He had not seen Brian before, so he dared not greet him. "Yes, this is Mr. Bennet. Mr. Bennet has something important today. I'll tell introduce you to him some day." Albert said and then walked into the elevator directly.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 60 PERFORMANCE OF CONTRACT

At the moment the elevator door closed, Brian heard Daniel's evil voice again. "Winwin, you're here fast. I thought it would take a while." The elevator closed and then went down quickly. Brian's heart felt tense when he saw that man's greedy eyes and his disgusting voice to Winnie. "Who is that man?" Brian asked in a cold voice. "Daniel Wong from MT. He used to be Winnie's leader. He didn't get along well with Winnie, so he always makes her a hard time." Albert answered seriously. He had other information, but he could not say that because Penney was here. However, Albert's information interested Penny. It seemed that not all men like Winnie, finally she met an enemy of Winnie. Brian asked no more questions, but frowned more and more tightly. Today Brian came to Penny's family to have dinner.

Although Brian was reluctant to do so, it had been agreed in the contract, he must abide by. When he arrived, he was treated as a VIP guest, even his position on the sofa was more obvious than others. "Are you still so busy, Brian?" Penny's father, Richard Burns, asked. "Yes." Brian answered in a quiet voice, without any expression on his face. "Good, young people should focus on career, put more efforts when you are young." "Dad, Brian has worked very hard. There are very few people of his age who have achieved so much like him in the whole world, let alone B City," Penny said because he knew that Brian did not like to communicate too much with her family. At the same time, she said these words to her sister and brother, and her aunt who did not like her. She showed off with arrogance on her face. Only then could she stand tall and strut her stuff in front of her sisters and brothers, which was why she had agreed to a covenant marriage in the first place. "Yes, you are right, Brian is excellent. Your brothers and sister-in-law should learn from him." Richard played up to him. Now the Burns Group's prospect was not good, one day it needed help from Brian, so he had to be low key. As Richard said that, the other several people looked at each other with anger, but no one said it out. They were cowardly because of Brian's position, but they were not optimistic about Penny, who was a half-sister. If it had not been for Brian's support, they would have tried to drive Penny out of the Burns family. Penny did not speak, but she was proud. After being recognized by Richard, she was immediately identified as the best candidate for the marriage. Penny once thought that Richard found her was just for marriage, in order to win support from the Bennet Group. At the beginning she was reluctant, because I do not know what kind of person Brian is, more not sure if he has Leo excellent. Before seeing Brian, there was no one in the Burns family except Richard who didn't discriminate against her and made sarcasm at her. Even the servants looked down upon her. Especially her aunt, she said her mother was cheap and directly drove her away, scolding her as a small fox. It was a hard time to be bullied, and Penny would always remember the humiliation they gave her. Until Penny understood Brian and knew his strength, she decisively accepted the contract marriage with Brian. Since then no one dared to see her as dirt. No one dared to despise her made her feel satisfied, which she did not want to lose in the rest of her life. Because of this, she tried her best to get Brian, to win his heart. Only if Brian really belonged to her, she could have this status forever. There was silence in the living room for a moment. Richard said again. "Brian, you and Penny have been married for four years. I think it's time to have a child." In Richard's view, only when Penny conceived Brian's child, her position can be stable. If it was a boy, it would be better. What Brian hated most was that others told him about the child. When he heard Richard's words, his face turned black and he spoke in a cold voice. "One child is enough for me." Brian said in an awe-looking manner. His voice was so cold that the temperature of the living room fell to the freezing point. Penny found Brian was angry and she tried to ease his anger. "Dad, don't worry. We have Luke, Luke and I get along well. He is my own son." Penny said gallantly, as if she was good to Luke, as if she was selfless. In fact, Penny was not steadfast. The child was not hers and had bad relationship with her. She had been married to Brian for four years, but there was no wedding or even a marriage certificate. Of course no one knew this, except the two of them... No, now Winnie knew it too. So much uncertainty awaited Penny, who was more anxious than anyone but could not show it. "Ok, I don't mind your business." Richard said. At this moment, the servant came over to call everybody to have dinner, so that he felt less embarrassed. Winnie was later because Daniel's endless questions. She failed to contact Daenerys, so she had to call Leo. It was already 7 p.m. when Winnie got home, but when she got home, there was delicious food, which made her feel a sense of happiness. "Wash your hands and get ready to eat." Leo cooking in the kitchen showed a warm smile when he saw Winnie got back. Winnie made a call to him. Even if he was having a shareholders' meeting, he left all shareholders behind and came back to help Winnie. Leo felt it was happier to pick up the children and cook for Winnie than having a shareholders' meeting. "Thank you for picking up my kids and cooking for me." Winnie said. "Never mind, I am free today. I have no time to help you when I am busy." Leo said. It was happy to help Winnie. "Wash your hands and help me set the table." Leo urged. "Okay, I'm going to wash my hands." Winnie went to the bathroom. She thought of Leo's bright smile while washing her hands. If only... Winnie smiled. Why she always thought of that year. It had passed and time could not go back. Don't get caught up in the past. It was good to get along with Leo as a friend, if Brian acted like Leo..... Thinking of this, Winnie ironically raised her mouth. Why should she think of Brian and imagine him as a specific person? He was Brian, the ice cave that had not melted for thousands of years. He was Brian, the ice of the remote North Pole. They were one in the same world, she was wasting her energy in thinking of him. They began to have a happy dinner. While eating, Luke watched the time, seemingly he was waiting for something. As he put down his chopsticks, Winnie's phone rang. "It must be Daddy." Luke excitedly said. Winnie took a look at the mobile phone screen and directly handed it to Luke. "Daddy." Luke excitedly called Brian. "Have you had dinner yet?" Brian asked quietly, to listen whether there was Winnie's voice. "Yes. Wait a minute, Daddy." Luke stopped and looked at Winnie and Leo. "Uncle, Auntie, take your time to eat. I am full, I will talk to Daddy in the living room." Others did not finish eating, Luke felt it was not polite to speak loudly, so he went to the living room. Brian heard he said "Uncle, Auntie", and he frowned instantly. "Who's at Auntie's?" Brian asked in a cold voice. "Uncle Leo is here. Auntie worked overtime today. Uncle Leo picked us up. Then he cooked dinner for us while waiting for her to come back." Luke said clearly. Although he hoped that the person who cooked the dinner was Daddy, but he liked Uncle Leo. Brian's face seemed darker. He was not at Winnie's house, so Leo was freer to come and go. While eating dinner, Winnie kept an eye on Luke in the living room. "Has Penny given you any trouble these days?" Leo asked, seeing that Winnie was absent-minded. "No, she has reached her goal." Winnie answered bitterly. "What goal?" Leo did not understand. "Go to Brian's grandfather and complain that I forced Brian to stay here. Then his grandfather came and took Brian away." Winnie did not tell Leo the harsh words Felix said, otherwise she would feel more embarrassed and more ashamed. "That simple?" Leo questioned. According to his understanding to Felix, it would not be so simple. How could that all-powerful businessmen, that ruthless and resolute man let go of Winnie so easily? To Brian, the Bennet Group was the most important and would not allow anyone to destroy it. And if Winnie was attracted by Brian, the Bennet family and the Burns family would have disputes, and it would affect the future of the Bennet Group, would shake the foundation of the Bennet Group. Above all, Brian's fame and fortune would come under attack. So Felix was not just to bring Brian back. "Yes, as long as I do my job well and don't affect the relationship between Brian and Penny." Winnie evaded the point and said lightly. "What if you affect them?" Leo asked with worry. In fact, Winnie had affected them or Felix would not come to her. "No, that will not happen. As long as Penny doesn't bother me, I won't have anything to do with Brian." Winnie gave a quick answer, which confused Leo. "Winwin, stop working at the Bennet Group. Why do you have stay at the Bennet Group? You are capable, and you can find a good job. As long as you are in the Bennet Group, Penny will guard against you. You are her enemy to her. You better stay away from her, or she is a threat to you." Leo tried to persuade her, so that Winnie would not become the victim of emotional communication of that couple.