Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 541 GOOD ATTITUDE

Winnie was excited when it came to the past. Back then, she was busy, but she was energetic. Now? "Things are different now. I've paid off my debt, Vanessa studies in college, and my children have grown up. But I'm tired mentally." At this, Winnie heaved a sigh. "I know I am tired because of Brian, but I don't blame him. If I can control my heart, I won't be so tired. I want to fight for it and want to have Brian around me. I want him to be belonged me alone, but I think I will be more tired if I do that." Winnie did not want to fight with others, not that she would not, but that she was afraid that she was hurt more deeply in the process, afraid that Brian's position was not clear enough, and she would fight in vain. "Don't say anymore. You are too good, and anyone bullies you." "What would you do about Gloria? They have made their relationship public. And you have showed up in the media before, do you want to become the laughing stock of all people?" Daenerys was angry about it. Two days before that, Brian guaranteed Winnie in front of everyone. Hearing that, they felt warm in heart, but now he was with another woman. "What can I do? Give it to time. No one will remember me as time passed." It was said that time is the best medicine, but it had no effect in Winnie. She could not forget the one she would forget and could not leave the person she should leave. It had been six years since they met in the hilltop villa. She did not forget anything, but got more and more troubles. "Gloria has a powerful family, Felix must will grasp this opportunity. What will you do it they get married?" Daenerys continued. "What can I do? I will live with my children and Vanessa. To be honest, I really want Brian to get married. As soon as he gets married, I will take the children home to live with my aunt and Vanessa. We will lead a peaceful life and no one would cause troubles to me." Winnie thought so. She would have a heartache if Brian got married, but it was better than being tortured by his side for a lifetime. "Alas..... you think it is easy. If it goes on like you want and you can get it over, there will be no difficulties in this world." Emily felt distressed for Winnie, but she could do nothing. The key point did not lie on Winnie, but Brian's love for Winnie was not certain enough. "You're right. There's nothing to worry about. As long as we don't mind it, there is no trouble." Winnie laughed and self-ridiculed. It seemed that she had not been beaten by reality. "Look, you have a good attitude. Are we comforting you, or are you comforting us?" Daenerys was speechless. She knew that Winnie pretended to be fine. Every woman cared about her love and did not want the man she loved to marry someone else. She said that because she didn't want to look sad. "We are comforting each other." Winnie smiled and then got up. "Come on, let's keep climbing." Who knows what would happen tomorrow? Maybe tomorrow Brian would let her go, maybe tomorrow she would be happy. At the moment, it'd better to climb the mountain and see the sun today. After going down the mountain, Emily and Daenerys walked with Winnie for one afternoon before they left. When Winnie returned home, the two children had already returned from the classes. Because Vanessa would go home to sleep on Saturday night, Winnie was worried, so she went back to accompany Vanessa. "Rufus, I won't have dinner at home tonight. I'll go and see Vanessa. Don't wait for me in the evening. I'll stay at home with Vanessa." "I'll call Brian to see if he will come back..." At this, Winnie suddenly remembered that Brian and Gloria attended the anniversary today. "Don't wait for Brian, Rufus. He has gone to a party." Winnie did not say where he went, afraid the two children heard it. "Ok, I see. You stay with Vanessa and bring her back tomorrow if you are not busy. The food of school cafeteria must be worse than that of our home. Go back and cook her something nice." Vanessa said she would come on holiday, but she did not. She must still mind that thing, plus Brian's blind date had been exposed, Vanessa must be more disappointed. "Ok, I'll bring her back tomorrow if I am not busy." Winnie could see that Rufus liked Rufus from his eyes, as if he missed his own daughter. But it was up to her if Vanessa would come back, but Vanessa herself. "Mom, brother and I want to see aunt, too. Please take us with you." Megan put forward the request. Rufus then said. "Go, go, Vanessa must miss the children. Let them play longer." Rufus considered for Vanessa, Knowing that Vanessa and two children were good. "Well, then, I'll take them with me." After Winnie said that, she took two children back to the city. As Winnie got home, Vanessa was already at home. "Sister, I have washed the clothes and cleaned the room. You said Megan and Luke would come back, so I have cleaned up their rooms. I'll go down to buy some food, and we can have a nice meal." Vanessa said to Winnie while playing with the children. "You are capable. You have done all the housework, then I have nothing to do. Is there any ingredients at home?" Winnie walked to the refrigerator, she was gratified because of Vanessa. "You have no need to look at it. There is nothing inside. We haven't been here for many days, even if there is any ingredient, it could not be eaten." The first thing Vanessa did when she got home was to check if there was food in the refrigerator, and there was nothing. "Eat out then, you must be tired after cleaning the house." Winnie suggested, hoping to get some distraction. "Well, then, eat out. Sister, maybe we should go to eat hot pot. That hot pot restaurant is really good." Vanessa was happy. She wanted to see Stephan and made some opportunities for her sister. "Will you talk nonsense if you are there?" Winnie was afraid that Vanessa talked nonsense. "No, I was angry that day. I didn't eat well that day because I was angry. Let's eat there again." Vanessa replied with a smile. She would not talk nonsense, but if she saw Stefan, she would say sorry to him, and it was equal to mention it again. "Ok, I'll call and make a reservation. You play, I go and change my clothes." Winnie went back to the room and made a reservation with the restaurant. When she put down the phone and sat by the bed, she wondered if Brian had already gone to the party. Then she became to worry. They showed up at the party as boyfriend and girlfriend, it must be hyped by the media and make a big fuss. If the children saw it, they would be sad. Winnie picked up the phone again, and when she was to call Brian, she hesitated. If she called Brian, Felix would know that she was not trustworthy, interfering in the affair of Brian. With that in mind, she could only call Felix. "Hello, Chairman." Winnie said hello first. "Yes?" Asked Felix in a low voice. "Mr. Bennet and Gloria attended WY's anniversary celebration today. I think the media may report it. I mean, can you control the press? I'm not trying to interfere with them. I'm afraid the children won't be able to handle it." "Of course, the choice is in your hands, you make the final decision." Winnie knew Felix did not like to talk around the bush, so she went straight to the point. Of course, she just wanted Felix to stop the media. She did not have the final say. If Felix felt that the affair between Brian and Gloria must go public, and it did not matter if the children were sad or not, he would let the media do what they wanted to do. "I'll take care of it." Felix said in a cold voice, when he was to hang up the phone, Winnie stopped him. "Chairman, there is one more thing. Gloria and Mr. Bennet have started their relationship, they will have to meet the family of each other. She will meet you, and go the suburbs to meet Rufus and Stella. It will be not right if I live in the suburbs with the children." "I can't take the children out when she is there. Chairman, if my presence makes a difference to them, can I take the children and return to my own home?" Winnie said tactfully, but she had made her attitude clear. She wanted to take the kids back to her own home, just like before that she was a single mom. "We'll see." Felix said impatiently and then hung up then phone, but Winnie was confused. She felt herself humble, contemptuous, but she could not meet Gloria awkwardly. Winnie suddenly had a feeling of being fed up with the Bennet family, especially Felix. She didn't owe Felix anything, so she couldn't be at his mercy. She was stupid to love someone she shouldn't love, but why was she looked down upon by his family? Winnie was angry, but what was the use? What could she change? Did she have to live in a frost like Vanessa said? Reality was reality, no matter how cruel it was. Winnie took two children and Vanessa to eat out. Because Winnie made a reservation in advance, Stefan came to the store early and waited. He led them to the private room, and then sat down himself. "Winwin, I said I would invite two children to dinner, so today I will sit here and eat with you." Stefan made his statement first, for fear that Winnie would pay the bill. "Yes, it is your treat today. I'll treat you the other day." Winnie did not refuse today, because it was not interesting if she refused. "Yes, my sister is right. We'll treat you some other time." Vanessa was excited. She felt Stefan approachable and suitable for their family. "Well, then, that's a deal. What do you like to eat, kids? I'll make sure you will be stuffed today." Stefan was happy that Winnie did not refuse him anymore.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 542 WINNIE GOT SPRAIN

"Thank you, Stefan!" "Thank you, Stefan!" The two children thanked Stefan and began to order their food. At the time of ordering food, Vanessa spoke again. "Stefan, I went too far that day. I must have put you in a difficult position. Sorry, I'm so sorry." Because the children were there, Vanessa said with euphemism and could not re-elaborate it. "No, it's a joke. I won't mind it." "Eat more as an apology to me." Stefan said generously, but he was disappointed about Vanessa's apology. If she apologized, it proved that she was joking the other day. "Ok, I will to meet your demands." Vanessa gave a bright smile. If the children were not there, he would continue to joke to remind Stefan. Stefan did not talk nonsense because the children were there. Actually, he had checked Winnie and Brian. Brian was unmarried and had only two children, while Winnie was divorced. In any case, he preliminarily confirmed that there was no legal connection between the two. But beyond the law, he needed to know it better. As for how to know to know it, Stefan took a look at Vanessa and felt she was the most suitable person. He would ask her out someday to get to know the truth. The party had officially begun. Gloria walked out holding Brian's arm. Everyone understood what was going on and confirmed the relationship between the two. "Brian, I am glad that you are here. Now we are family. From now on, we will join hands to us better." Gloria's father said. It was a fat old man. In the past, he called Brian Mr. Bennet, but now it made Brian antipathetic. But to act well, Brian was still cooperative. "You're right. We can work together in the future." He said coldly as he always did to the outsiders. Only when he spoke to Winnie, he wore a smile. Inadvertently he thought of Winnie, wondering what she was doing at the moment and whether she was sad. "Brian..." "Brian, my father is speaking to you." Gloria's delicate voice pulled back Brian's thoughts. "Oh, I am sorry I was distracted." "How is your grandfather, Brian?" Andrew stubbornly asked the question Brian did not hear. "Very good, he will go to the company for regularly inspection." Brian showed no interest in such homely chatter, always looking for an excuse to leave. But he just got here. It didn't seem good to leave. "Good, I will visit your grandfather some other time. You talk first, I greet the guests." Andrew realized Brian's impatience and found an excuse to leave. The music played and the dance began. "There is no suspense that this first dance must be ours." Gloria was ambiguous in eyes and soft in voice, then she led Brian to the middle of the dance floor. Two people danced as the music played and Gloria got closer. They seemed to have a close embrace under lights and in music. This scene happened to be seen by Wendy, and she had filmed it. Wendy came with her father. She knew it was a disgrace for her to see that, but she insisted to come and wanted to see what kind of relationship Brian and Gloria had. Seeing that, Wendy confirmed that they were couples, but she could not bear such pain alone. She had to let Winnie know that she would be abandoned soon. So Wendy sent the videos one by one to Winnie without a moment of hesitation. She recorded every ambiguous moment of Brian and Gloria, so Winnie would know all about it. As Winnie finished her meal, she got the message. When she found it was Wendy, she did not click open it. She then silenced her phone to stop the messages ringing. After dinner, they were quite happy. Winnie enjoyed it and she did not have any wild thoughts. But the messages sent by Wendy upset her again. When she was upset, she was distracted. Winnie accidentally fell down on the stairs at the door of the hot pot restaurant. "Mom." "Mom." "Sister, are you ok?" They gathered around Winnie and asked with concern. "I am ok." Winnie's foot was sprained, and she felt it swollen. But she said through gritted teeth that she was fine. Because the children were there, she could not say she was in pain, for fear that the children would worry. "Can you stand up?" Stefan asked Winnie squatting down. Winnie supported her body with hands and wanted to get up, but she found that her foot had no strength and it hurt terribly. "I'll carry you to the hospital." Before Winnie answered him, Stefan carried Winnie up and to the hospital. It was inevitable to have a check-up at the hospital. Fortunately, Kevin was on duty today in the emergency room. "You were so careless." Kevin said helplessly, while waiting for the results of the examination. "I didn't notice it. I didn't expect that I would get sprain." If Winnie had a prophetic ability, none of this would have happened. She wouldn't even get close to Brian. "Where is Brian? Does he know you got sprain?" Kevin thought Winnie should be sent by Brian, or he should be on the way to the hospital, rather than that she was sent by Stefan. "He went to Gloria's for a party, and I didn't call him. I will tell him tomorrow." Winnie said indifferently as if she was talking about other people's things. "Why tomorrow? Are you important or is the party important?" Hearing that Brian and Gloria were together, Kevin was angry. He pulled out his phone and was to call Brian, but Winnie grabbed it. "No, I would have called him if I could." Winnie was helpless. They were the only two in the emergency room, or Winnie did not know how to explain it. "Chairman called me on the day Gloria and Brian has scandal. He warned me not to destroy that and to talk nonsense in front of Brian." "If I call Brian now, Chairman will not be satisfied and will say that I have ulterior motives." Winnie was not going to say these, but if she did not say it out, Kevin definitely would call Brian. "The Bennet family went too far. Don't you feel wronged, Winwin? If yes, you can resist." Kevin was angry. No one in the Bennet family considered Winnie. Why did they away care about themselves but ignored Winnie? "Sure, I feel wronged." Winnie smiled helplessly. "But, I am willing to, there is no need to resist. I have considered it when I agreed with Chairman, but I do it for the children." "You are a father, Doctor Burns. Can you bear to see your child grow up in a family with parents? They are so young and they did nothing wrong. Why should I put something on them that they should not bear?" "I don't feel wronged when I think about the children." Winnie's original intention was for the children, and the Bennet family used her because of that. Yeah, but she was willing to be used, so who's to blame? "Alas....." Kevin sighed, but kept silent. What could he say? Winnie did everything for her children. Only a mother could be so selfless and great. What Winnie gave was love, and the Bennet family took advantage of it. Examination results came out, fortunately, no bone injury, but her ankle was swelling. Winnie needed to rest. Kevin held Winnie out of the emergency room. Stefan and Vanessa quickly stepped forward to help. "How is she, doctor?" Stefan asked eagerly. "It didn't break any bones, but she needs to rest. Vanessa, this is medicine, cold compress before applying this medicine." Kevin gave the medicine to Vanessa, then looked at Stefan. "Mr. Brooks, Winwin's foot hurt, but I can't leave the emergency room, please send them back." Kevin said politely, because he was not familiar with Stefan. "Doctor Burns, you are too polite. She fell in my shop and I have the obligation to send them back. We are leaving then." Stefan gave Kevin a friendly smile and then walked forward holding Winnie. But Winnie could only hop on one leg and seemed to be struggling. "You walk like this is easy to cause secondary injury, let me carry you." Stefan squatted down in front of Winnie. "Don't bother, that was just..." "Never mind, your foot has already hurt." Stefan said, squatting there, as if he would have been squatting there, if Winnie did not allow. "Yes, sister, let Stefan carry you. If you feel you owe him a favor, you can pay him back in the future." Vanessa persuaded, so Winnie could only allow Stefan to carry her. "Sorry to bother you again." "It is not, you hurt in my shop..." Stefan's voice was getting smaller and smaller, and his back was getting further and further away. Seeing that, Kevin felt sad for Winnie. It should be Brian who carried her. But now it is another man carrying her. Brian was having fun with another woman. Stefan drove to Winnie's community and was going to stop at the door of Winnie's community, but there was a car behind urging him, so he took a round and pulled up in a parking space. "Let me carry you."

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 543 HOW LONG TO WAIT

Stefan got off and went to open the door at the side of the copilot. "I am sorry that I have bothered you after having dinner at your restaurant. And you have to carry me again and again." Winnie was indeed embarrassed to bother Stefan. "You don't need to say that. You've said it several times." "If you're really embarrassed, cooperate with me and let me get back to the restaurant as soon as possible." Stefan said so, because he was afraid Winnie would refuse him. "All right, then." Winnie did not hesitate and allowed Stefan to carry her. They walked toward the door of the community and as they entered the lobby on the first floor, they heard Brian's voice behind them. "Megan..." Brian came in behind and saw Megan and Luke, so he called them. Megan heard her father's voice and quickly ran to Brian. "Dad, Mom's hurt. Her foot is hurt." Megan said pointing at Winnie. Brian then found Winnie was carrying by a man. He quickly ran a few steps to Winnie. "What happened? How did you hurt your foot?" Brian asked with concern and looked up and down at Winnie. Before Winnie gave an answer, Brian directly picked Winnie up from Stefan's back. "Nothing, I just got sprain." Winnie answered Brian calmly. In the arms of Brian, she felt more secure. She always felt not right when Stefan carried her. "She sprained her foot in my restaurant, Mr. Bennet." Stefan explained. It had nothing to do with him, but it happened in his restaurant, so he felt guilty about it. The most important person was Winnie. "Is it serious? Have you seen a doctor?" Hearing that, Brian found that Winnie's right ankle swelled and felt distressed about it. "We just came back from the hospital, Mr. Brooks helped me..." "Yes, Stefan drove us to the hospital, paid the medical bills, and carried my sister back. Stefan left his business to help us." Before Winnie could finish her words, Vanessa loudly interrupted her. She said that to Brian, wanting to let him know that there was someone to take care of her sister even if he was not around. Brian knew what Vanessa meant and that she was still angry. But this was not the time to talk about family affairs. "Mr. Brooks, thank you for taking care of Winwin." Brian said politely. Even if he felt uncomfortable that his woman was carried by him, Stefan offered her help. "Never mind, Mr. Bennet. Hurry upstairs. The doctor said she needs cold compress." "I have to get back, too. I have business at the restaurant." Stefan turned and left, Vanessa thanked him again. "Stefan, thank you. We will treat you to dinner when my sister is well."

"Don't say that. It doesn't matter." "I gotta to go. Take good care of your sister." Stefan felt guilty and was embarrassed to accept Vanessa's thanks. "Drive carefully, Stefan." "Ok!" After Stefan left, they walked into the elevator. Vanessa did not give Brian a black face, but she said no word. Back home, Vanessa went back room with two children and left Winnie to Brian. Brian sent Winnie to the bed in the bedroom, and then helped Winnie with cold compress. "You always got sprain. You were so careless." Brian felt distressed. "I accidentally sprained when I was walking down the stairs. It's okay. It didn't hurt my bones and it will be fine in two days." "Why are you home so early?" Winnie asked Brian. She thought Brian would be back in the middle of the night. "I was so bored and embarrassed, so I left with an excuse." Brian did leave with an excuse, Gloria's father really annoyed him. "So you've officially started your relationship?" Winnie continued. It was a question that torture herself, but she still asked. Ask more, listen to it more, she would have more immunity. And she would not be sad when she left Brian. "Yes, in the eyes of outsiders, but you know, it's a contract." He made it clear that he would not have done so had it not been for delaying his marriage. "Well, I know. But Brian, I have to remind you. Since it is a cooperative relationship, you must handle it well and avoid her doing something like Penny did." Winnie had to remind him, or she would have to take responsibility if it got worse. Winnie knew that if he handled it well, she would not be hurt. But If Brian could not handle it well, he should fall in love with Gloria. "Don't worry, I can handle it this time." "I'm going on a business trip tomorrow morning. I'll send you back to the suburbs before I leave. You need someone to take care of you." Brian changed the subject. After what Penny did, he knew that he had to be careful and that he could not make Winnie sad. "I'm fine here. Vanessa can take care of me. Vanessa doesn't want to go back to the suburbs for the time being, and I don't want to force her. When she goes back to school on Monday, I'll take the kids to the suburbs." Winnie refused. She knew Vanessa well. She had no plan to go back in a short time, especially after the scandal of Brian. "I see that she has a problem on me, but I am worried about you if you are here." Brian looked at Winnie and felt it difficult to deal with. "I just sprained my foot. There's nothing to worry about. Go on your business trip." Winnie felt more secure at her home than in the suburbs, at least she would not feel estranged, which was obvious on the day Brian had his blind date. She used to laugh that Wendy was a clown, but now she felt that she was no different from Wendy. Her surname is Chambers, but that was the Bennet's house. She lived like a clown there. "Winwin, what I have done has upset your whole family. Does your aunt know about it, too?" Brian was upset. He did that for everyone's good, but he had not handled it well and hurt all the Chambers family. "Yes, she called me. She said she knew it would happen sooner or later, whether we loved each other or not, we will never be together." "My aunt wants me to cut connection with you as soon as possible. She doesn't want me to have anything to do with you." Winnie conveyed the meaning of her aunt, the first two sentences were said by her aunt, but the latter one was said by her. And she did not tell him that her aunt told her to give priority to the children. She said it was her aunt told her, because she wanted Brian not to blame her if she left one day. She did not say that she would give priority to the children, because if she said, Felix and Brian might not take her seriously. "Your aunt must be disappointed in me. I'm not leaving you, not for the rest of my life. Tell your aunt not to watch the process, but to wait for the results. I will give her a good result." Brian knew Winnie's aunt would say such disappointed words. She wouldn't have refuse to see him if she hadn't been disappointed many times. Maybe she was avoiding from him by traveling. However, he had no intention of separating from Winnie, no matter what her aunt thought. He had hurt Winnie, so he had to keep her around, so as to make up for everything. "Well, I'll tell her." Winnie said, but it was not her attitude. She did not know where her heart was going. She did not know when the good result of Brian would come out. Shall she wait till her hair grew gray and her teeth felt out, or shall she still waiting in a coffin? "Aren't you going on a business trip tomorrow? Go back early. Pack up your own things, go to bed early and don't be late tomorrow morning." Winnie didn't want Brian to stay, because she felt upset and she had not yet read the videos Wendy sent to her. "What will you do if I leave?" Brian asked Winnie. "Vanessa can take care of me. Go home. Rufus will worry about you if you don't go back." Winnie insisted that Brian go back. She wanted to be alone and think it over. "Ok, call me if you need help." Brian had not finished his work, or he would not leave even if Winnie drove her away. "Ok, I'll call you if I need help." Winnie watched Brian leave, and she took a breath of relief when she heard the door was closed. She had always loved Brian deeply, but why her love was a burden, why her love made her tired? After removing the ice from her foot, Winnie took out her phone. When she clicked on the video sent by Wendy, she couldn't help laughing. What a good match, a talented man and a beautiful woman. They were close to each other and Brian seemed not be perfunctory. If it was a play, they were really good at acting. Looking at such a perfect picture, she burst out in tears. Reading Wendy's sarcastic message, she found herself so humble. She might as well be honest and admit that she had been used by the Bennet family. What should she do? Who did Brian love? Could someone tell her? Winnie had been telling herself it'd better not be clear about anything. But who could do that in love? Winnie stayed up all night because of her sore foot. Brian called her the next morning before boarding the plane, but she said she slept well. After hanging up the phone, Winnie hurried to find the news about Brian in the major social platform. To her relief, what happened last night didn't come to light. It seemed that Felix care about the two children. He must have blocked all the news, or it would be spread all over the world.

CHAPTER 544 ANALYSIS OF THREE WOMEN

Winnie sat on the sofa in the living room. Afraid of affecting Vanessa's schedule, she urged Vanessa. "Vanessa, aren't you going to the library with your classmates? Go ahead. My two children can bring me water and help me to the bathroom." "Sister, how can I go out when you are injured? I told my classmates last night that I couldn't go out today." "The children are so small. What if they got scalded by hot water? Let me take care of you." Vanessa could not leave her sister alone. She was worried about Winnie, unlike Brian, he still could go on a business trip. "Did you tell your classmates?" Winnie confirmed with her. "Yes." "Then take care of me today, I'll enjoy it." Winnie knew Vanessa was sensible and she felt pleased about it. Later, the doorbell rang. "I'll go open the door." Vanessa ran to the door and checked who it was before she opened it. "Daenerys, Emily, you are here." Vanessa greeted them happily and allowed them in. "Your sister got injured and you aunt is not at home, it must be hard for you." Daenerys said while taking off her shoes, and then came to Winnie with Emily. "You were so careless. You are good to others, but why are you so cruel to yourself?" Emily made as a joke, so Winnie might not feel too much pain. "I tried to be careful, but I didn't expect I'd sprain my ankle. It's just a step. Bad luck, maybe." Winnie gave an explanation. She could deceive two children and Vanessa, but she could not deceive Daenerys and Emily. "You were negligent, I suppose." Daenerys took a glance at Winnie, crouched down and raised Winnie's foot in the air. "Didn't Doctor Burns tell you that you can't hang your foot like that? Let it be flatwise. He is so incompetent, you must complain about him." Daenerys knew that there were things she could not say when the children were around, so she made a joke. "I'll leave it to you. I know you can do it." Winnie gave a smile. Only when they were together, she could have a relaxing smile. "You still smile? Your foot is so swollen." "Take a few more days of rest. If you don't want to go to the suburbs, I'll take care of you." Emily said. She knew that Winnie might not like to go back when Brian was not there. "Ok, I love you so much. But can you cook? If you take care of me, will both of us be starved?" Winnie still made a joke. She accepted Emily's kindness, but Emily could not cook. "I can learn to cook, don't look down on me." Unconvinced, Emily said. She thought she was smart and she could not be able to get the skill as long as she learned it. "I..." When Winnie was to continue tease her, Vanessa chimed in. "Sister, I take Luke and Megan downstairs to play. You go ahead." "Ok. Don't let them be too naughty." Winnie said. Then the two children went downstairs with Vanessa. "There's no anyone else now. Tell me what distracted you and sprained your foot." Daenerys asked. It didn't matter what they were talking about without the kids around. "You have to know it, huh?" Winnie looked at the four decisive eyes, knowing that she could not avoid it, so she pulled out her phone and showed them the videos. "This is acting? I don't think so, I think Brian is acting with you not her." Emily could not calm down when she saw the video. She shouted angrily, pointing at the video. But the person being questioned was absent. Daenerys was angry, gasping, but she had been enduring it. "Wendy sent it to you? You sprained your ankle because you were distracted by this?" Daenerys' voice was not as angry as Emily, but it could be seen that she was enduring it. "You wouldn't believe me if I said no." Among the three people, the only one who could speak calmly was Winnie. "We were having dinner at Stefan's hot pot restaurant, the children and Vanessa were there. Wendy's messages were sent one after another. I didn't dare to see it for fear that my children would see it." "But I know that as long as it is sent by Wendy, it must not be good. So I kept thinking about it and I got distracted." Winnie roughly explained, or they would dig into the truth. "So Wendy was there?" "Daenerys, you are confused by the anger. Didn't you see the message Wendy sent? She was there, it was a live broadcast." Emily was furious and wondered how Winnie felt when she saw such a video. "She was there. She saw Brian, but Brian didn't see her." That was Winnie knew. Wendy told her by message. "Well, they joined hands to deal with you now. Wendy must be pleased now." Emily could not calm down and she could not keep being composed. What she most wanted to do at the moment was to pull Wendy's hair, and also wanted to give Brian two slap. If two slaps could not wake him up, she would slap him ten times until he woke up. "They have no need to deal with me, I will be got rid of soon. When the time comes, I will be not as good as Wendy." Winnie said with self-mockery. No matter what, Wendy had Brian's memory, but she got nothing. "Be got rid of? For what? Why don't you show the video to Brian and ask him to give you an explanation? You can't give up even without asking." Daenerys could not endure it anymore but burst out. Actually, she supported Winnie's giving up, but she could not give up in this way. She never resisted but only was submissive, isn't it tragic? "Why are you so irritable? I dare not say anything now. If I keep saying, will you take knives and help me fight my way out?" Winnie tried to ease the atmosphere, knowing that these two people were for her good, were worried about her. That was why she'd rather keep things to herself than tell them. She also knew it was unfair to her, but there were many unfair things in this world, especially between the heart and the heart, so don't try to find the psychological balance. "Only you can calm down. If it were me, I would scold Wendy so that she dare not talk nonsense." As Daenerys' voice fell, before Winnie said a word, Emily chimed in. "Yes, why are you always silent? Even if you will lose in the end, you cannot sit idle. You have to fight for it." "You should not give Wendy a chance. Whatever you do, you think about Brian's feelings and his position, but have he ever thought about you?" "Wendy, you are talking about Wendy." Daenerys felt Emily had got off topic, so she reminded Emily. "Yes, Wendy, I mean Wendy. You shouldn't have given her a chance in the first place. Women sometimes need to be messy and unreasonable. No matter whether she did it or not, you will hit back at her. Do it twice, and she will never dare to mess with you again." "Now, she blatantly bully you, and you can still calm down." Emily's voice got higher. Due to anger, she could not lower her volume. "Yes, Emily is right. With or without the reason of Brian, you should not indulge Wendy." As Emily's words fell, Daenerys spoke. "Winwin, don't be negative. You think Brian is not yours and you have no position to lash out at Wendy, but Wendy thinks Brian is yours, otherwise why did she try all means to get Brian back?" "Temporarily we don't talk about Gloria, but you have to deal with Wendy. Wait until the two conspired to bully you, it will be hard to solve the problem." What Daenerys said was possible, temporarily, Winnie could not defeat them. Although she was angry to see the video of Brian and Gloria, she felt Brian still loved Winnie. If Gloria liked Brian, Winnie had one more enemy. When two or more enemies joined forces, Winnie would have no way out. "Have you both finished? Can I talk?" Winnie looked at Daenerys and Emily with a smile. Seeing that one was silent and other looked down at her phone, she knew it was her turn to speak. "Go ahead, and I'll see what you think. Wait... Before you say, I have a request. Don't think everyone is nice." "Go ahead." Daenerys reminded her, afraid that Winnie thought standing blindly in the position of others. She could stand in other people's shoes, but no one stood in her shoes. It was unfair. "Ok. Actually, I don't have to deal with Wendy, she can't make something big. If I want to deal with her, I could do nothing because Brian was on her back." "There is something deeply rooted between her and Brian, and he won't do anything to her for the sake of their previous relationships." Winnie knew it well, so it was no of significance to go against Wendy, it would only cause her trouble. Brian was sure that what Jonny did had something to do with Wendy, but he never checked it or investigated it. Wendy made an apology and it was over. If the result was the same after Winnie pursue Wendy's responsibility, she would be sadder. "I don't refute what you said. No matter what, Brian waited for Wendy for several years. This is not something that ordinary people can do. Brian will not do anything to Wendy for the same of that, but..." Daenerys changed her opinion. "But you can't do nothing. In the video, Gloria's eyes were so charming and so captivated. In her eyes, Brian was a prey and she would like to have him in bed. Do you think it is just acting? Can't you see that she has feelings for Brian?" "If she has her chance, she will regard you as her enemy. When the time comes, how do you deal with her and Wendy?"

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 545 BLINDLY TOLERANCE

Daenerys stopped speaking. Seeing that Winnie said nothing, she continued to clarify herself. "I mean you deal with Wendy first and don't let her frame you in the short time, so that she could give up." "When only Gloria is left, it will be easy to solve the problem." Daenerys was unconvinced and didn't want Winnie to give up like that. Winnie listened carefully to Daenerys' analysis. After a moment of thinking, she asked Daenerys. "What is the purpose, Daenerys?" "Brian, o grab back Brian, to have a good result of your relationship. You can't be with him wanting a status for a lifetime." Daenerys gave her answer. The fight between women was always for a man. "I don't have to grab him back. He belongs to me, as long as he loves me. But if he doesn't love me, what's the use of taking him back?" Winnie asked Daenerys, responding to the dissatisfaction and resentment of Daenerys. No one could change fate. With Felix, even if she got rid of Gloria, there would be other women showing up. She didn't have much energy to spend her whole life winning the man back. "I know what you mean, Daenerys. Don't worry, I will not be willing to be a mistress for a life time. When the children grew older and he could not marry me, I will leave him. Even now, if the Bennet family agrees that I have the children, I could disown him." Winnie felt she was tired and she even had no energy to fight with anymore. Winnie took a sigh before she spoke again. "I love Brian, but he is destined to be a king. Which king only has one woman with him? If I am with him, I will constantly deal with women one after another. Why should I be with such a man? To make myself sad?" "If I stay with him and fight with the women beside him, my love will be scheming and it became less noble." "Do you think I'm right?" Winnie still asked Daenerys. She knew Daenerys and Emily were for her sake and for her injustice. But if Brian did not insist, it would not come to a good end even if she tried hard to maintain her love. Daenerys fell into silence. Brian was never lack of women. Even if Brian did not like those women, no one could control those women. If Winnie had to fight for him, she did not know when it would stop. That was what Daenerys had in mind, but Winnie had two choices. One was to take the kids away from the Bennet family. The other was to find a way to persuade Felix that she could marry Brian. But it was not as easy as she thought. Neither of these possibilities was easy at the moment. "Emily, what do you say?" Daenerys felt that she could not persuade Winnie, so she could only seek for Emily who was looking at her phone for help. "....." Emily had paid her attention in the phone, so she didn't hear what Daenerys said. "Emily, I am talking to you." Daenerys raised her volume to call Emily. At this time, Emily clicked a voice message. "Please warn Winnie that I will not give up Brian. I sent her those videos because I want her to know that she would be abandoned soon. Her happy days will be over." It was Wendy's voice, so Daenerys and Winnie attach the attention on Emily. Winnie noticed that Emily was holding her phone all the time. Before Winnie and Daenerys responded, Emily picked up her phone and sent a voice message to Wendy. "If you don't give up, go after him. See if you can get him. See if you can regain your pride. Even if Winwin is separated from Brian, she has kids and their father is Brian. What about you? What do you have? You only have his memory. Memory....." Emily was angry, but before she could finish, time was up, she could only send another one. "What is memory? Memory is bullshit." She could not help but said dirty words, but she was still angry and shouted loudly. "And, you can pursue Brian, but if you hurt Winwin, I will never spare you. You have backstabber on your back, and Winwin is not alone in this war. As long as Daenerys and I are around, I'll find out what you've done." Emily said in a fast speed and finished it in one minute. She gasped with anger. "If I don't scold her, she will anyone can bully Winwin. She pretends to be nice in front of Brian and is rude to us. What a shame." "She wants to provoke us? Just do it. I'll see what tricks she has." After saying that, Emily felt thirsty. She tried to calm herself down, only to find Daenerys and Winnie were looking at her. "Why are you looking at me? I am angry to see Wendy's message. I tell her reason, but she does not understand reason. Such people deserve to be cursed." Emily explained. Daenerys and Winnie could not help but laughed. They did not expect Emily and Wendy had quarrel by messages. "You still laugh? Look at all the nonsense she said. She's a scoundrel, a scum." With that, she handed the phone to Daenerys and Winnie, and then continued. "Winwin, you can give up on Brian, but you can't be bullied by her, you can't endure it." "People could not have blindly tolerance." Emily encouraged Winnie, hoping that she could stop being tolerant for her love. Before Winnie gave her answer, Wendy sent her another message. Emily hurriedly grabbed the phone back and clicked on it. "What have I done? Watch your mouth, or I will accuse you of slander." "Look, how shameless she is. Doesn't she know what she has done? And she still dare provoke me. Do you think she was born without a brain?" Emily showed it to Daenerys and Winnie while giving her comments. "Go on, she must be subdued today, or she will be more aggressive towards Winwin." Hearing that, Daenerys became furious again. She had seen someone shameless but never seen one as shameless as Wendy. Since Wendy was shameless, she could not reason with her. With the support of Daenerys, Emily got more confidence.

She picked up the phone to scold Wendy. "Are you stupid? Have you forgotten everything you've done? Don't you know what your fucking Jonny did?" "How much did you give him to keep his mouth shut? A million, two million? I'll book a flight to him. I'll give him five million or ten million, I will see if he'll tell the truth or not." "We don't expose you, it is because Winwin is kind. But it doesn't mean she can be bullied. If you dare hurt Winwin again, you will be sent to prison." Emily sent her several messages. After that, she felt better. "Well done, that's the way to tell her off. She is a bastard." Daenerys applauded. At this time, Wendy sent a message again. "You have no proof. This is a smear. I will keep the message and sue you for threats." Wendy said in a tough tone, unconvinced. "She is challenging me, I..." "Give it to me, Emily." Emily decided to scold Wendy again, but as she picked up the phone, Winnie reached out to her phone. "You can have it, but you can't continue to be kind. You must be tough and scold her." Afraid that Winnie would make peacemaking and that she would endure it, Emily reminded her. "Give it to me. I promise she won't resist after I talk to her." Winnie took the phone over and then pressed the recording key. "Wendy, you know who I am. You don't have to plead for what you did to me. Ask yourself." "After I came out of the police station, I got a warning call. It was a foreigner who called me with a local accent. I know who was behind the foreigner. If you want proof, I think it's pretty easy to check a foreigner's phone records with my skills." "I think you are afraid that Brian knows a lot of things. If you provoke me again, I will tell Brian everything about you. The memory of the crash will vanish." "And as for those videos of Brian you sent me anonymously, do you think I can't find out who it is? Or don't you know how scary dark technology is?" "Your videos and pictures are either taken out of context or without context. I'm telling you, I don't even believe a picture of you sleeping with Brian. If you're good enough, give me a live broadcast." "If you're smart, shut up your mouth. This is the last time I forgive you. If anything like this happens again, I'm going to check it out, whether you did it or not." Winnie sent her message and then threw the phone on the couch. "She will not text anymore." Winnie said with certainty, because she knew what Wendy feared most. "Winwin, you are domineering. With this momentum no one would bully you in the future." Emily encouraged her. Such Winnie was domineering momentum was the one she knew before. But... "Are you sure she will not text again?" Emily confirmed again. "Yes. If she makes another provocation, I'll find out everything about her in an hour." Hearing that, Emily and Daenerys finally believed her. "Why don't we know anything about what you just said? Since you had been warned when you came out of the police station, it was someone wanted to get you into troubles." Daenerys asked with puzzlement.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 546 ENCOURAGES LEO

Daenerys did not understand why Winnie never mentioned what she had experience before. Was she afraid that her friends would be worried or was it unspeakable? "I didn't follow up. I guessed that it was Wendy. I didn't want to have an impact on Luke's competition, so I didn't make it big." Winnie explained simply. Actually, she wanted Brian to check about it, but Brian did nothing, so she left it behind. "And what about that out of context?" Daenerys continued. "Give me the phone and you'll see." Winnie couldn't help laughing. She threw the phone away and now she asked others to take it back. "Here you are." With the fastest speed, Daenerys gave the phone back to Winnie. Winnie showed her best friends the videos and pictures she had saved. A moment later. "When did all this happen? Why didn't you say anything?" Daenerys asked, worried that Winnie endured it alone. "Before going abroad, the day I went abroad, Megan and Luke and I were abroad. Any time period. All in all, when Brian was on a business trip. Winnie said calmly. She found that she did not feel sour as beginning when she looked at these pictures. "Does Brian know everything you just said, and all the pictures and videos now?" Daenerys confirmed with Winnie, but she had guessed that Brian did not know it. "No." Winnie replied simply. "Why didn't you tell him? Ask Brian with the picture. Even out of context, at least they met in private." Daenerys was unconvinced and felt that Brian went too far and that was too conservative. "I didn't tell you because I thought you might worry. I didn't ask Brian because there is no result even if I did. The two of them had reasons to meet. They met openly not privately." Winnie sighed. She knew it would make things more complicated and make them worry more. "Don't worry about me. I can handle it. It is not a big deal, and it is distasteful to talk about trifle things." "When I have accumulated enough things, when I can't stand it, my outbreak will be deterrent." Winnie said so to avoid them being worried. "We are worried because you didn't tell us. If we had known that you had handhold of Wendy and that you had your plan, we would not have been worried." Emily found that among the three of them, the most cunning one was Winnie. She and Daenerys only talked, they had no skill. "Are you relieved now?" Winnie asked Emily with a smile. "Yes, I am relieved since you can handle it yourself. I should book my flight and leave." Emily stayed for Winnie. Now she was all right, she could go abroad now. After listening to Emily, Winnie and Daenerys looked at each other, and then Winnie spoke. "You can't go now. You don't need to worry about me, but I need your help." Winnie wanted Emily to stay, so that Leo could have more chances. "What can I do for you?" Emily asked with doubts. "Wendy is not intelligent, and she is not as bad as Penny. I told you she was used by Klara. I hate Wendy, but I don't want her to end up like Penny." "You go to Klara and tell her to keep away from Wendy. Wendy will give up if no one could give her advice." It occurred to Winnie, but it had to be done sooner or later. But now she asked Emily and Daenerys to do it. "All right, I will do it before I leave." Emily agreed and felt ease at this moment. Whenever she said she would leave, she felt bad. With an excuse to make her stay, she felt dependable. She knew that she could not get over Leo and that reason she stayed was not entirely because Winnie. However, she did not know how she and Leo would be. Vanessa returned to school the next day after sending two children to kindergarten. Winnie was taken back to the suburbs by Paul. Knowing that, Brian finally felt relieved. Winnie was bored at home, so she made a call to Leo. They chatted about work at first and Leo asked about Winnie's injury. Finally Winnie mentioned Emily. "Leo, I will try to delay Emily to go abroad, you had better use this period of time to let her stay." This was not only what Winnie expected, but also the ultimate goal of all their good friends. "She said she doesn't love me, how can I have the nerve to find her?" Leo seemed to have no confidence and dare not continue to disturb Emily. That day he had made things clear, but Emily still did not believe him. His messages and phone calls were blocked by Emily. "She didn't mean it, don't you see that?" "Leo, if she doesn't love you, she doesn't have to go abroad to avoid you. On the contrary, she chose to leave because she loves you and could not forget you." Winnie talked with Leo as an experienced person. "Do you love Emily or not? Think it over before you answer me. I don't want to hear anything perfunctory." It was easy to answer. Decisively he gave Winnie his answer. "Yes, I love her, but....." "No buts since you love her. You said that you are not worthy of Emily and that you are selfish, it was recoil from difficulties" "Leo, you are so timid, one day you will regret it. While Emily has not gone yet, pursue her again." "Emily just has a knot in her heart. You can show her your heart. If you love her, give her your heart. I don't believe you can't untie the knot in her heart." Winnie tried to persuade him, she just did not help him personally. "Can she really accept me?" Leo was not optimistic anymore because of Emily. It was not that he dare not pursue Emily, but that he was afraid to hurt Emily again. He loved Emily, and the last thing he wanted to see was that she was sad. "How do you know if you don't try? Leo, you were optimistic, why you are not in face of Emily? I know you are afraid that Emily will get hurt. But this is love, either together, or hurt. You just need to fight for being together." Winnie encouraged him. She came up with a variety of ways to persuade him so that they would not separate from each other. "I'll try." Leo still had no confidence. If only he was sad, he could bear it. But if Emily was hurt, he would hate himself. "Try your best. If you don't fight for your happiness, you will regret it if you lose her. Do you want to spend the rest of your life thinking about the past?" Winnie felt more relieved. As long as Leo tried it, it was hopeful. Winnie knew that Leo was serious on anything and he would try his best. As soon as Winnie put down the phone, Calvin called and said there was something urgent to deal with. Half an hour later, Calvin drove over to pick up Winnie. It took Winnie more than two hours to finish the work. Winnie's feet put on the floor for more than two hours. And it was even more swollen than before. When she was alone in the office, she hopped on one leg to the sofa and sat down, laying her injured foot flat on the sofa. She got a pain-relieving spray and sprayed on it herself. At this moment, someone knocked at the door and walked in before Winnie said a word. "Alice, it's you!" Winnie was pleasantly surprised. Alice had been sent to the branch of the Bennet Group for some time. Winnie felt cordial to see her. "I got transferred back by Mr. Bennet. He said you'd be with us and asked me to come back to be your assistant. Mr. Bennet told me to come back as soon as possible. He told me that you got injured and was afraid that no one to take care of you." "Mr. Bennet knows you. I just came back and Calvin told me you are in the office." Alice was pleased too. As she said that, she sat down on the sofa, took the spray from Winnie's hands and applied for her. "He told me that he would get me an assistant, but I didn't expect it would be you. It's good to have you back." Winnie immersed in happiness and forgot that Alice was applying drugs for her. "I didn't expect Mr. Bennet would transfer me back. I was so happy when I found out I was coming back to be your assistant." "Winwin, I can learn something from you, so I am happy to be with you." Alice was grateful. She thought Winnie was a good person, a good leader, a capable leader. With such a leader, she could make progress. "You are so sweet. It is improvement." Winnie smiled happily. There were many things she could feel happy about except love. The two were chatting happily and then Brian's secretary knocked on the door and came in. "Winnie, Gloria Lee wants to see you." Winnie was silent for a moment. "Let her in." Winnie did not know what she had to face. However no matter what Gloria thought or said, she would not show her the cutting edge. After the secretary went out, Gloria came in afterwards. "Hello." Winnie got up and Alice helped Winnie up. "You got hurt?" "Better sit down. I would not come if I have known you were hurt." Gloria said in a kind and gentle tone, which was completely different from that enchanting voice in the video.

CHAPTER 547 DOMESTIC NUMBER

From that Gloria deliberately showed her kindness and gentleness, Winnie knew she wanted something from Brian. "Never mind." "Winnie, sit down, your foot is hurt." Alice said and help Winnie sit down. "I'll bring Miss Lee a chair so that you can sit down and talk." With that, Alice went to Winnie's desk and moved the chair to the sofa. "Please have a seat, Miss Lee." Gloria looked at Alice with a faint smile and then sat down. "Assistant, I want to talk with your director alone, can you wait outside?" Gloria said politely, but it was clear that she was arrogant. "Mr. Bennet told me not to leave Winnie, if I go out, Mr. Bennet will blame me." Alice answered Gloria with embarrassment. That was exactly what Mr. Bennet said, but he left it to her discretion. She felt Gloria was unkind and she was afraid that if she left, Winnie would have a bad time. "Mr. Bennet is really concerned about his woman. He is a good man in this point. Don't worry, I won't do anything to your director." Gloria was still warm in her expression, but Alice always felt cold from her. "I..." "Alice, go out first." Winnie said. And Alice walked out reluctantly. "I hope you don't mind, she's always been the best employee." Winnie explained with a smile, lest Gloria had other ideas. "She is serious about her work, I won't mind it." Gloria was still gentle and did not look like a scheming woman. Winnie had bad impression on her, but she looked so different now. "I came to see Mr. Bennet today, but his secretary told me he is away on business, so I came to you." "I know your relationship with Mr. Bennet, so I think it is necessary to explain it to you." "Mr. Bennet and I have a partnership. I have a boyfriend and he has you. We had to act to conceal our parents." "Don't think much about it. You will have Mr. Bennet back when it's over." Gloria said blankly, as if she had no plan for Brian. But Winnie was not stupid. She felt that Gloria was scheming since she came to explain, because there was no need for her to explain. Did Brian also need to explain to Gloria's boyfriend? Winnie had that in mind, but she did not say it out. With a faint smile, she spoke softly. "No, Brian has told me all about you. I understand your situation. You would not have such cooperation if there was another way to solve the problem." "Thank you for your understanding. I came to you with guilt, now I feel better." Gloria smiled faintly. However her eyes were not as calm as Winnie's. She came to visit Winnie. She heard that Winnie was wise, capable and amiable. She was highly regarded by others. So she came to see Winnie in the name of visiting Brian, to see how wise Winnie was. But she found nothing. Did she fail to find Winnie was smart or was Winnie not good as rumor had it? "Don't worry about it." Winnie saw no hostility in Gloria's eyes, but she could see that she trying to know something. She was right that Gloria was not simple as she looked. She was pretending, but she did not know how long she would pretend. Wendy had been bothered by Winnie's warning for a whole day since noon yesterday. But she woke up. She decided not to use dirty means, otherwise Winnie would fight back if she was provoked. She knew why Winnie gave her that warning. Winnie knew about the foreigner's call, but she did not investigate it. And Winnie knew it was she sent those pictures and videos anonymously and they were out of context. But Winnie still endured it. She had endured all these, but it did not mean that Winnie would endure all the time, so it was right to stop. If she went too far, she would have her consequence. But Wendy did not understand one thing. What did Winnie by her memory with Brian? And she referred it was the memory of the accident. Did Winnie know that she was not that woman? How could Winnie know what Brian didn't know? It confused Winnie. She had been trying to find the answer, but again and again she denied the answers. When she was annoyed, her phone rang. Seeing that it was not from abroad, she picked it up. "Hello, I am Wendy." Wendy said. "Hello!" Hearing the voice, Wendy felt creepy. "You..." "I... I'm your husband. Have you forgotten my voice so soon?" Right, it was Jonny. "You have the wrong number..." Wendy pretended not to hear anything and was to hang up the phone, but Jonny said. "If you dare hang up my phone, I will go to your home now." Jonny said harshly and domineeringly. "You are in B City?" Wendy asked nervously. It was a domestic number, so there was only one possibility - Jonny was in her country. "None of your business. If I want to see you, I will see you." "Wendy, you are so cruel. You lied to me and didn't answer my calls. Do you think I can't find you anymore?" "I foolishly believed in you and believed that you would come back to me and take care of our child. But you let me down." "Since you are so cruel to me, don't blame me for being unkind. I will call Brian right now." Jonny said in one breath, afraid that Wendy would hang up the phone. Actually he was abroad. He met a person from Wendy's country and bought his phone number. Wendy thought he was B City. Good, it could control Wendy by this. "Wait..." Wendy said and began to make her up story. "I didn't lie to you. I was on the plane, but my mother got seriously ill, so I had to get off the plane." "I..." "Go ahead, keep making up. Your mother was sick. Was your phone sick too? When I called you, your phone was off, but I another number could get through it, but you refused to answer. You had obviously blocked my number, and it had nothing to do with your mother's illness." "Wendy, no matter what reason you say, I will not believe you again." Jonny had been lied twice, if he was lied again, he would be the stupidest person in the world. Wendy was hiding from him and didn't want to go back to him. But she could not hide from him after using him. "Jonny, we were a couple. You can't call Brian for old times' sake. We..." Wendy did not make up again, because she had been seen through, so it would be pointless. She tried to communicate in a different way, trying to impress Jonny by lowering her stance, but Jonny didn't give her a chance to finish her sentence. "You don't even care about our child, and now you're talking about our relationship? Are you so cold-hearted, do you think I will care about it?" "Wendy, you are a heartless man. You even gave up your own daughter. Don't pretend. She cried sadly and begged you to stay, but you ran away secretly. Do you think our relationship still matters? In your dreams." Jonny was resentful. He hated her even more when his daughter was sad and sick after Wendy left. Wendy is a cold-blooded person and did not deserve to be a mother, did not deserve to talk about relationship. Jonny now had no illusions about Wendy, but he could not let her go because he had helped her. "What do you want? What can I do to stop you from calling Brian?" Wendy could not defend herself, so she asked Jonny to raise his requirement. "Ten million." Jonny gave Wendy his answer immediately. Now he only cared about money, only money could heal his heart and his daughter's heart. "Ten million?" Wendy was shocked. In the past, ten million was just a number to her, because she did not know how much money her family had and because Brian could solve it for her. She never thought ten million was a big deal. However, after breaking up with Brian, she had no financial resources and heard from her mother that her family was only living on salary. Under the circumstances, ten million was an astronomical number. "It is not much. It's more than ten million for the things I did for you, and more than ten million for the beating I got because of you." Jonny meant there was another ten million, but he didn't know if Wendy could take the hint. "I don't have that much of money. How can I get it?" Wendy became panic because of the money problem. She knew Jonny. If she couldn't satisfy him, he would do what he said and would contact Brain. "I don't care. It's your business whether you have money or not. It's my business whether I call Brian or not." "If I don't have ten million into my account by this time tomorrow, you can wait for Brian to call you." With that, Jonny hung up the phone, which made Wendy could not vent her anger. "What shall I do? I shouldn't have messed with him." "He's such a jerk. He must never stop pestering me. Now he's in B City. If I don't give him the money, he will come to my home and it will be troublesome." Wendy paced up and down the room, talking to herself. She hoped that she could solve the problem herself, otherwise, her mother would not agree to solve it with money.

CHAPTER 548 TRY TO PERSUADE HIM

Wendy had no way out, she could only talk to herself in the room. "Ten million, how can I have that much of money? I have not had Brain back, so I can't borrow money from him." "Who has the money?" Wendy thought racking her brains and suddenly thought of Klara. "Yes, go to Klara. Klara's money is mine, I just get the money back." Wendy suddenly saw hope, and she became less anxious. She picked up her phone and sent a message to Klara. "Klara, reply to me if you see this." In two seconds, Klara sent the message back. Klara: Wendy, I was just about to send you a message. Wendy: Why? Klara: Daenerys called me. She and Emily asked me to meet them. I don't know why, what do you say? Wendy pondered for a moment. If she did not guess wrong, it must have something to do with Winnie and it was related to what happened yesterday. Did Winnie start to fight back? Wendy: They may know we are together and want to sow discord between us? It is obviously Winnie's idea, because they saw me last time and now want to see you. Klara: I think it has something to do with Winnie too. I don't know what her plan is. Wendy: Don't guess. Go meet them. They will not eat you alive. Wendy: Tell me the location and I'll wait for you outside. If there's anything difficult, just call me and I'll come in. Whatever it is, I will not let you be bullied. Klara: Ok, I'll go meet them. Klara: It's 2:00 in the afternoon. The place is XXX Coffee Shop. Before calling to Wendy, Klara had decided to go to meet Daenerys and Emily. She did not want to meet them, but if she refused, they would come to her home. Klara made a call to Wendy because she thought Wendy knew something so that she could get prepared. But Wendy didn't know it was for her. It had better not let Wendy know it, so Klara agreed Wendy to wait outside. At two o'clock in the afternoon Klara came to the appointed place on time, but Daenerys and Emily were already there. "I'm surprised you two want to see me. Let's get this straight. We don't seem to have anything to talk about." Klara sat down and said with a cold tone cold, looking tough to get along with. "Good, you were indeed trained by Mr. Bennet." Emily was relaxed. She felt no need to be overbearing when they just met, which was rude. "We will go to the point, if I say it wrong, please forgive me." Emily started the topic. "We know that you were with Wendy all the time and that you were involved in everything that hurt Winwin." "Emily, say what you want to so, don't beat around the bush." Klara's face got dark. She was dissatisfied but she dare not be angry. Because she did not know what did Emily and Daenerys mean. "You joined hands with Wendy to hurt Winnie." Hearing that, Klara turned pale on face. "You..." Klara wanted to speak, but Emily had not finished. "You hear me out. I haven't finished it yet." "The eyes of the people are clear. We know who is good and who is bad. And the bad person would not have a good result." Emily said coldly and it was obvious that she was warning Klara. "Do you understand?" Without giving Klara the opportunity to speak, Daenerys spoke at this time. "We're here to tell you not to be a bad person. It would be good for you to leave Wendy early. We know you have your tricks. If we tell Wendy about your tricks, I think she will spare you." Daenerys warned Klara too. Winnie told them to persuade Klara, if it did not work, they could try another way. Klara was angry, but she could not vent out. "You went too far. I have been away from the Bennet Group for a long time. Why..." "Don't argue, admit it since you did that." Emily interrupted Klara's words. Daenerys spoke again. "Klara, since you like Brian, go pursue him. Get him with your ability. Why hurt Winwin?" "You like Brian, can't Winwin like him? Do you have your own brand on Brian? Why do you hurt Winwin? And why do you think that Brian will like you?" Daenerys stared at Klara, waiting for Klara's answer. Klara was angry but speechless, she looked around. "Say it, I let you talk, but you don't talk now. How can you hurt Winwin with this ability?" Emily always said at the critical moment. Emily continued. "To be honest, Klara, if it hadn't been for Winwin's mercy, do you think you could still have this kind of life? Do you think you could have gotten the money from Brian? Winwin knows everything you've done. She did not investigate you because you have a family to support." "If you don't stop that, everything you have may disappear." Emily warned again. She knew that she could only have a tough attitude to Klara. "Is that a threat?" Klara finally spoke. She understood Emily's meaning. If she provoked Winnie, Brian would take everything back if Winnie required. Klara believed that Winnie had such ability, because Brian deeply loved Winnie. Brian would meet all her requirements. "It's not a threat. I just tell you how serious it is." "Klara, is it worth it for someone who doesn't love you? If something big happens, you'll be liable." "What will you children and the elderly do if you are sent to prison?" "Winwin has evidence that Wendy is responsible for foreign affairs. As long as Wendy is involved, you will be involved. Winwin didn't pursue it. But if she did, you would be in prison now." Daenerys scared Klara with what happened abroad, it worked. Hearing that Winnie had the evidence, Klara was nervous. Emily added. "And you took those pictures and videos that Winwin received, right? Where did you learn how to retouch pictures? Who gave you advice? Have you forgotten what Winwin's job is?" "What will happen to you if all this is pursued? Learn it from a lawyer and you will know how many years you will be in prison." Emily actually was not sure about it, she was just threatening Klara. But judging from Klara's expression, she knew she was right. Klara's face changed, and she showed a frightened look. She thought she had done a perfect job, but Winnie still found it out. Since Winnie knew that it was her did that, she wondered if Winnie knew she had contact with the secretary. If Winnie knew it, she would be punished by the law, after all, the secretary revealed some business secret to her. Although it was trivial, it violated the law. Klara was silent and afraid. She did not know what to say. Daenerys and Emily looked at each other and felt they had done a good job, so their attitude eased down. "Klara, Winwin is kind. She knows everything, but she had been enduring it. She doesn't think you're that bad, and she did not you to have a bad end." "Laura stopped in time and not she had a good job, and her family was happy, most importantly, Laura felt down to earth." "If you changed, Winwin would have forgiven you and found you a job like she did to Laura. Isn't it good? It was you came to this end." Daenerys persuaded Klara. It never occurred to her that it needed strategy like a war. Klara still did not speak, but she became less tensional. Since Klara did not speak, Emily could only continue. "Since you like Brian, you should consider the possibility. Wendy has a rich family, but she is not qualified. Which position do you think you have? You should know Felix better than us. Even if he allows Brian to have a mistress, family is important." "I am not saying you are not capable. As long as you focus on work, I believe you are an excellent person." "What do I mean then? Young as you are, you have a family and a burden. Just be realistic and find a man who loves you and will take care of your family and raise the kids with you. Don't put unrealistic ideas on Brian."

CHAPTER 549 PREPARED LIES

Emily felt that it was unrealistic. How could Klara love other men since she had fallen with an excellent man as Brian? But she had to say it, for that Klara would not cause troubles to Winnie. Klara was still speechless, but lowered her head. What they said was right. She knew it was impossible for her to be with Brian, but she had loved him for so many years, it was not easy to give up. Klara was silent for a long time and finally spoke. "I will give it consideration." With that, Klara got up and left. Now her mind was in a whirl and she didn't know what to do. "Another stubborn woman." Daenerys said euphemistically and then took a sip of coffee. "She won't look back until she hit the wall." Emily added. Klara left the coffee shop and went directly to Wendy's car. It was clear that she was so depressed. "What happened? Did they give you a hard time? I'll argue with them." Wendy pretended to be out of control and was to get off, but was stopped by Klara. "No, they didn't give me a hard time. Like you said, they drove a wedge between us. It made me angry to hear them say that." Klara told a reason why she looked depressed. "I guessed it. I knew what they were up to. What did they say?" Wendy seemed to have believed Klara's words, but it was skeptical. That was why she asked the question. "They said I didn't mean to help you, I just have my plan. And they said I like Mr. Bennet and that is the reason I helped you." Klara got up the courage and said it out, in order to explore what Wendy thought. If it worked, Daenerys and Emily had no chip to threaten her, if it did not work, she could only give up. It was more of a gamble than a test. The result was up to this moment. But in order to have bigger chance, Klara defended for herself. "Wendy, don't you think it is bullshit? If I like Mr. Bennet, I don't need to use anyone. I worked with Mr. Bennet for four years. I was so close to him and I had the best chance." "If I really like Mr. Bennet, Winnie would not have a chance. Now she can't deal with you and she tries to break us up. She's a villain." It was useless to Wendy. Wendy had already known that Klara liked Brian and she was using her. She just could not show it off. Wendy gave a satirical smile, which made Klara feel creepy. "Klara, they were talking bullshit. No matter what they said, I won't believe them. They don't understand you and me. They found the worst way to drive a wedge between us." "As you said, if you like Brian, you would have been with him already. Why wait until now? Don't mind what they said." Hearing that, Klara finally felt relieved. She won in her gamble. "Wendy, I'm so touched. I didn't realize that you trust me. Wendy, I promise you, I will never like Mr. Bennet, I have no feelings for him." In order to be more real, Klara guaranteed hypocritically. Wendy felt it gross however. If it wasn't for wanting to get her money back from Klara, she must take this opportunity to expose Klara. How could she speak hypocritically now? Touched? One day she would know how it was like to be touched. "I believe in you. You've been helping me for so long without any complaints. You lost your job for me. How can I not believe you?" At this, Wendy thought of something and said. "Well, I am so angry that I have forgotten one thing. My dad's secretary is married and pregnant. So she resigned. I think since you are unemployed and have worked as a secretary, this job will be easy for you, so I told my dad you can take this job." "Really?" Klara was surprised. She experienced now what happiness was. "Yes, my father agreed. He heard that you had worked as a secretary for Brian, he agreed without thinking. But you'll have to wait two months. The secretary's contract expires in two months." "But I will give you salary these two months." Wendy had done her trick. This might be the truest time she cheated Klara. But she was clear that after this, their relationship must be uncovered. Wendy knew that she Klara was not useful now. In the future, she only discussed with her mother, and outsiders could not be trusted. "Ok, I can wait two months. Thank you so much, Wendy, thank you for helping me find this job." Klara was excited and had no second thought. Although the Yup Group was not big, it was a job as a secretary to the chairman. "We are friends, no need to thank me. You've done so much for me, this help is nothing. In the future....." Before Wendy could finish her words, her phone in her purse rang. Wendy stopped and took out her phone. "I have a call." "It's me... Yes..... Are you sure... Ok... Ok. I'm recording our conversation. I will give you the money. If you fail, I will sue you." "Don't worry... I'll transfer the money to you." Wendy hung up the phone. Hearing that, Klara was confused. "What is going on?" "Winnie will be abandoned by Brian. A few days ago, I accidentally heard from Jack that Winnie is going to attend a seminar aboard alone." "I have inquired with my foreign friends that her profession is rather sensitive. It would be easy for her to be convicted of stealing secrets abroad as long as she had no one to help her." "What a crime it is to steal foreign secrets. She will spend the rest of her life in a foreign prison. Brian could not be able to save her." Wendy showed a triumphant smile, but Klara was frightened. She had just been warned by those two women. If something happened, she might be involved. "Wendy, why didn't you tell me about it?" Klara asked carefully. "I made a decision on the spur of the moment and didn't have time to tell you. But you may rest assured that we shall succeed this time." Hearing that, Klara rested assured, since it had nothing to do with her. "Right, lend me ten million, I will transfer to the other side right away. When they receive the money, they will start the plan and they will make a move when Winnie went there." Wendy finally mentioned the money, but this number made Klara hesitant. "I don't have that much money. My bank cards are all at home." "I'll drive you back to get it." With that,

Wendy started the car and drove away from the coffee shop. Wendy knew that this money was a big number for Klara and that she was hesitant and worried. In order to make Klara to lay down her guard, Wendy continued to explain to Klara on the road. "My mother loves money and is still ill. It would upset her if I take money from her. So I can only borrow it from you. Don't worry, the interest rate is five times higher than the bank's. I'll give you the interest based on the time." Klara finally felt relieved. Last time Wendy gave her a lot of interest, plus Wendy gave her a good job. Ten million was not a big number for Wendy, so it should not be a problem. But Klara still wanted to remind Wendy. "Wendy, you take out so much money, are you sure you can defeat Winnie?" "Yes, they'll give me my money back if it fails. These are people with jobs. If they don't give me my money back, they will be afraid I will sue them." Wendy gave an affirmative answer. "But even if Winnie has been got rid of, Gloria is also an obstacle. You can't spend ten million to get rid of Gloria. What's more, Gloria has a powerful family, can we handle her?" Klara was still worried about ten million. She was afraid that even if Winnie had been solved, Gloria could not be solved. If Wendy did not remember wrong, Klara had different statement last time when speaking of Gloria. People with two mouths were not terrible but those with two hearts. "You're worried about Gloria? No need. Yesterday I asked Uncle Thomas out to dinner and asked him about Gloria." "He said it is not true between Gloria and Brian. Brian did that to cooperate with WY. When the contract is signed, Brian will not be with Gloria anymore." Wendy had made all preparations. For what Klara worried about, she had thought what to say to make Klara believe her, so she blurted it out and it felt absolutely true. "Think about it, Gloria is a showbiz person. Although rich, everyone in that circle has gossip. You have seen Gloria. She is a restless person judging from her look. The Bennet family pays much attention to reputation, do you think they would accept such woman?" "These are not my words, but Uncle Thomas. He is with grandpa all the time. He can't say anything wrong." It was the first time Wendy made it so real. She had put effort to take her money back. She could not feel relieved until she got all her money back. And only when she had money back, she could deal with Jonny. "If so, it's worth spending ten million to deal with Winnie." Klara believed the words of Wendy, and believed that Gloria and Brian had a partnership. After all, it was not the first time, Brian and Penny had a cooperative relationship before. "I have a plan. If I am not sure they have false relationship, I will not risk with ten million." "I decided to cooperate with foreigners because I thought it was worth it." "Klara, wait for the good news. When I am back to Brian, if you don't want to work in my father's company, I will get you back to the Bennet Group." Wendy constantly assured Klara, hoping that Klara could trust her.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 550 IN PREPARATION FOR TEN MILLION

Hearing what Wendy said, Klara believed Wendy and had been expecting to her commitment. She was willing to lend Wendy ten million. However, she felt that Wendy was not that smart, it was impossible for Wendy to deceive her like that. So, after Wendy explained all the doubts, she was convinced. She believed that Wendy could get Brian back and that Winnie would be defeat. Like last time, Klara did not even write a ious, took the bank card and went to the bank with Wendy. With ten million in hand, Wendy felt secure. At least Jonny could not call Brian when he had the money. And during this period of time, Wendy wanted to get Brian back as soon as possible and have his trust. No matter what Jonny said, Brian would forgive her. Wendy did not give the money to Jonny till noon next day, they deadline of Jonny. "You are not in B City?" After the money was transferred to Jonny, Wendy made a call to him and found out that he was not in her country. Wendy felt that she made a hasty decision to give away ten million. "What does it matter? It is easy for me to contact Brian and Winnie whether I am in your country or not. Wendy, don't forget, I lived in B City. It was not a long time, but I know some people." "Remember, don't take any chances. I have your handhold in hand." Jonny said insidiously. Even though the money was in hand, his attitude was still so mean and tough. He didn't want to do that either. It was Wendy who did it too ruthlessly. She didn't even care about her child, he would let her know how it felt to be tortured. "Shame on you, Jonny. How could you? Don't you think you're dirty and mean?" Wendy could not describe her feeling with words. Panic and fear, she was regretful about her ignorance and hasty decision. Ten million was not a small number, but it had been cheated. It was hard to accept. "Shame on me? How about you? Are you good? You can even give up your child. You are shameless." "Wendy, you deserve it. It will not be the last time, and that you will pay for the rest of your life for lying to me and abandoning your child." "You'd better get another ten million ready, so as not to be unprepared." Jonny laughed like a devil. He could imagine what Wendy was feeling at the moment. But whatever she felt, she deserved it. "Jonny, I can sue you for extortion. Don't think you can keep threatening me." Wendy was angry and wanted to swear, but at this time all the swear words were weak to Jonny. He was a blood-sucking devil. "Fine, call the police. I'm threatening you for a reason. We will be interecine, but I'm not afraid. Let's see which one of us loses." Jonny hung up the phone before Wendy could say a word. Since he dared to call for money, dare to threaten her, he was ready for everything. If Wendy called the police, he felt that Wendy would lose. She not only would be imprisoned, but also could not get married all her life. Jonny was clear that he had no love for Wendy, only hate. He hated her that she was so cruel to their child. In Jonny's opinion, such a mother would be better off dead, so that the child would not miss her and expect anything from her. Wendy was angry to cry by Jonny's words. Ten million, where should she going to get another ten million? Damn Jonny, she never should have messed with him. She failed to do anything to Winnie, but she got herself into big trouble. Jonny was a scoundrel, and would do what he had said. If she did not give him money, Wendy's previous efforts would be in vain, as well as the ten millions. Wendy was upset, even after crying in the car, she could not come up with a way, she still feel depressed, but it wasn't the worst of it. At this moment, she received a phone call from Stella. Seeing Stella's call, she seemed have seen light. She thought it must be a good thing, but after hearing the tone of Stella, such a light disappeared. She came to the park designated by Stella with a perverted heart. "Stella?" Wendy came to the bench and saw Stella focus on the front. "You are here." With that, Stella patted the position next to her, motioning Wendy to sit down. Stella was moderate, at least her tone was not as cold as that over the phone. Wendy finally felt relieved. "Stella, you want to see me?" Wendy asked carefully, with expectations. She was the first family member of the Bennet family who came see her after Brian and her were separated. She had expectation to Stella. "Yes, if not, I will not disturb you." Stella said in a gentle tone. She continued. "Wendy, you and Brian have broken up. I think you know the reason better than I do. Since you had broken up, since grandpa can't accept you, I wish you would leave Brian alone, and have a life of your own." Stella told Wendy the purpose that she came today. She did not say in a sharp tone because it was for the sake of the past, but it did not mean that she could connive Wendy. Hearing that, Wendy had not expectation anymore, so Stella came here to tell her stay away from Brian. "Stella, Brian and I have broken up, but I still love him. It is not easy to get over a man I love for years." "Stella, I want to get back to Brian. It doesn't matter whether Grandpa accepts me or not. I don't have to have status, I just want to be with Brian." Wendy did not want to give up. She begged Stella pitifully. She wanted Stella to be her bridge to be back to Brian. "No way." Stella said with certain. "Wendy, what do you think

Brian is? Do you think he will have a mistress casually? With his attitude, do you think he would do that?" "Most importantly..." Stella wanted to say Brian had no feeling for Wendy, but before she said anything, Wendy interrupted her. "Stella, Winnie is a typical mistress. Since he can be with Winnie, he can be with me too. I will not tell others and no one will know about it, so they will not say anything to him or affect his reputation. Wendy defended for herself. As long as she could be with Brian, she would fight for status in the future. But hearing that, Stella frowned. "Winnie is different, she has two kids. She has to stay with the kids and take care of them." Stella mocked at Wendy with sharp words that she could not compete with Winnie. Winnie was recognized by them and could not be replaced. Stella did not say that because she was afraid that Wendy would do something worse to Wendy. If she said that, Winnie would be targeted. But Wendy did not understand, she just thought Winnie had kids, but kids could not help her to get married in the Bennet family. "I have no kids, I know I can't compete with Winnie on that, but Brian and I have many beautiful memories, which Winnie did not have. Brian had lost his memory and he only remembered me in that accident. I can help him to gain his memory back. "Winnie can't do that, no one can." Wendy mentioned the accident, which made Stella frowned and her eyes cold. "Are you sure you can do that? What memory do you have with Brian? Short after you were together, you went abroad with excuses and had never been back for four years. It had been Brian went to see you on his business trips, you had a few chances to meet. What memory do you have?" Stella asked Wendy coldly, but she did not need the answer, because she knew better than anyone. She just wanted to remind Wendy to see the truth. "I..." Wendy was panic. When she was to defend, Stella interrupted her domineeringly. "I am telling you, you don't have memory but time. Brian was stupid to wait for you for four years, and he had illusion for you because of the car accident." Stella paused and then she said in a cold voice, looking at Wendy who was panic. "The memory of the car accident was made up by you. You can deceive Brian, but you can't deceive me. You can use lies to continue to deceive Brian, but you can use this lies to show it off to Winnie. You are not that woman." Stella said sharply and coldly. She revealed Wendy's lie. Wendy's face changed and now she did not know what to do. She did not believe or was not willing to admit that the only excuse she could stay with Brian was revealed like that. So she defended for herself. "What are you talking about, Stella? I don't understand. That was the experience of Brian and me. How can you say it wasn't me? If not, how can I know the time and place? How can I know she was hit by a car?" Wendy defended for herself, but it was why Stella disliked her. "Wendy, do you know what the stupidest thing about you is? It is an established fact but you still quibbled."
