

My Twins 601

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 601 SIGN THE CONSENT FORM

Winnie paused for a moment and then continued as Gloria had no response. "Gloria, Brian is a good man. If you like him, be nice to him. As for my two kids, Brian and I have agreed that they will be brought up by me and I will try my best not to disturb your life. But after all, they are the kids of the Bennet family. If you marry Brian, you will inevitably get along with them. Please forgive them if my kids do anything wrong." Winnie just wanted Gloria and Brian to get married soon. Gloria did not state that she did not like Brian or marry Brian, but an imperceptible smirk could be detected in her eyes. "It's too early to say that, but I'm still surprised you broke up." "It's normal. I do not meet the standard of Brian in choosing a wife. If we had not had kids, we would not have been together." Winnie said indifferently. The result might surprise others, but it was something she expected. Winnie looked down at her watch and then spoke after saying that. "I'm sorry, but my aunt is getting off the plane at this hour. If there's anything I can do for you, just call me. I gotta go." Winnie said and gave a calm smile, and then got up and left the cafe. Gloria clearly wanted to marry Brian, but she hid the fact in front of Winnie. Since Gloria had that thought, they would get married soon. After Winnie received his aunt, they went directly to a restaurant for dinner. Isobel were very happy to see the kids and the kids were excited to see Isobel, so the dinner was spent in laughter. Back home, the two kids played in the living room. Isobel called Winnie and Vanessa to her room. "Our support team for Africa leaves next Monday. You..." "So soon?" "Too soon. I thought you'd be home for a few more days." Two sisters interrupted Isobel at the same time, and they did not expect her aunt to leave so soon. "Every day we stay at home, there are likely to be a few more deaths in Africa. The hospital has decided to leave as soon as possible, so tomorrow you will go to the hospital and sign the consent form." Isobel said. The topic was serious, but she said casually, afraid that Winnie and Vanessa would worry. "Sign the consent form? Why is it like..." "It's just a routine signing. All the medical workers who go need family members to sign the content form. You two are the only family I have now, so you can exercise your rights." Winnie sighed and felt depressed. "Aunt, now that you have made up your mind, I can't disagree. I just want you to take care of yourself at work. Go out healthy and come back safe." Winnie was worried since now, probably she would be relieved when she was back. "I'll be all right, don't worry. I had been there many times, I have experience." Isobel comforted two sisters and then said. "You two must have a good life at home. Don't stick to things you can't solve. If Brian doesn't have time to help you out, you can go to his father. I'm sure he'll help. Just take care of each other and don't let me worry." Isobel was worried about them, so she had to remind them to find Rufus when they had difficulties. At this moment in the world she could trust was only Rufus. Two sisters looked at each other, they all knew that they could not ask Brian for help when they had difficulties. Even if they asked, he might not offer help. As for Rufus, they were not sure if Brian would agree Rufus to help. "Aunt, work hard and protect yourself. I will take care of the two kids and Vanessa." Winnie could trust only herself. If she really encountered difficulties, she had her friends. Even without the help of her friends, she would not have turned to Brian. "Aunt, I will try my best to help my sister take good care of the two kids. I will study hard so that you don't have to worry about us. We'll go to Rufus if we need help." Vanessa said to make her aunt at ease. "Ok, good." Isobel could only rely on Rufus, though she was worried. "You go and look after the kids. I'll take a walk downstairs." Isobel stood up and walked toward the outside. She was not going for a walk actually, she just received Rufus' message. Rufus was downstairs waiting for her. She went out to meet him and had a few words to talk to him. As Isobel came to the park of community, Rufus came over. "I got out late because I had to talk with Winnie and Vanessa." Isobel said with apology, feeling alienated. "Can you not go?" Rufus didn't care if Isobel was out late or not. He had waited for her for more than 20 years, these 20 minutes was not a problem for him. What he cared about was whether Isobel could stay. "No, it's all done. We are leaving on Monday." Isobel said firmly. Rufus was part of the reason of her leaving, how could she stay? "Isobel, you can give this task to others. You are now retired and have no obligation or need to support. You stay, I'll try..." "Enough, Rufus, I am not going to change my mind." Rufus tried to make Isobel stay, but Isobel had made up her mind. Isobel continued. "I came out to see you today because I want to ask you to help me take care of Winnie and Vanessa." "You felt indebted to me, so make it up to me by taking care of them." "And if I cannot come back, if things are inevitably exposed, please tell your son and daughter I'm sorry for ruining their happy family." Isobel felt it might be comfort to Brian's son and daughter by saying that. Isobel turned to leave after saying that. "What about me, if you want to go?" Hearing that, Isobel stopped her pace, facing away from Brian and feeling sad. She did not know how to answer and if her answer would hurt Rufus. "I know you have the same temper as Winwin, and I know you will never change what you decide. But I wish you would at least think of me and give me a chance." "You are the first and the last woman I ever love, if not, I couldn't have persisted waiting for you for more than 20 years. We've been apart for more than 20 years. Can't you just give me a chance? Can't you just..." "No, no. If we are together, the two kids will be caught in the middle. Rufus, thank you for waiting for me all these years, and I'm honored to be the only woman you've ever loved..." "Not loved, I still love you. Would you please have some hope? Things can be solved. How do you know it won't end work when we haven't even started? How do you know the kids won't understand?" They each had their own ideas toward their relationship. One tried to save it, the other tried to avoid it. "No, I'm leaving the day after tomorrow. I'll talk to you about it if I ever get back safe. If I don't come back, I'm sorry, I will repay you in the next life." Isobel strode away after that. She had loved Rufus for more than 20 years too. But things had changed so much. It was a destiny that they could not be together, even if they waited for more twenty years, they could not be together. The beginning was wrong, the end was wrong. The next day Winnie and Vanessa came to the hospital to sign the family consent form, while Vanessa sent her aunt away on Monday in tears. Her aunt hurried back and left in a hurry, which made her have a feeling of unsteadiness. Vanessa went to school after she was back from the airport. She felt that studying hard and living well was the greatest comfort for her aunt. But she saw Rufus standing at the gate of school. He looked sad, as if he had experienced something unhappy. "Rufus, what are you doing here?" Vanessa came to Rufus and asked Rufus in a warm voice. "Oh, nothing, I just came to see you." Rufus' mood did not turned good when he saw Vanessa, because he saw Vanessa had tears in eyes and he knew the reason. "Thank you for your concern, Rufus, but do you have something unhappy?" She wondered why Rufus was in a bad mood. "Nothing, I am happy, but I am just worried that you and Winnie have not come back." It was truth. Isobel asked him to take care of them, so he felt more burdens on his shoulders and felt more indebted to Vanessa. She resolutely decided to go to Africa, leaving Vanessa to him. To tell the truth, he really was afraid that he could not take good care of them and failed to live up to Isobel's entrust.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 602 KLARA'S SERENDIPITY

Vanessa was moved by Rufus's words. She did not want Rufus to worry about them, so she comforted him. "Don't worry about us, Rufus. The relationship between my sister and Brian is sensitive these days, so I can't go to your home. When it is over, I'll go and see you." "My aunt is gone, but she said we can ask you for help if we have a problem. She said you're a good man. So I'm sure you can help us. Rufus, we'll really trouble you then." Vanessa said with consideration, she was not sure if she needed Rufus' help, but it would make Rufus feel good. "Good, good. I will wait for you." Rufus indeed feel better, but he was still not happy as Isobel left. "Is your aunt gone?" Rufus asked. "Yes, I just sent her to the airport." Speaking of her aunt, Vanessa fought back tears again. "Did your aunt say when she would be back?" Rufus asked anxiously, afraid that what Isobel told him was not true. "I don't know. Months, probably, My aunt said it depends on the condition." Vanessa took a look at her watch and then said goodbye to Rufus. "Rufus, I'm late for class. I'll visit you some day. Don't worry about us. We'll take care of ourselves." After that, Vanessa hurried away. Looking at Vanessa's positive attitude that she held back tears, Rufus felt much pain as if his heart was in the hot oil. Isobel left his life like this, although she would be back, but he did not know when. He could face it alone, bear it alone, solve it alone, but he was afraid of hurting Winnie and Vanessa who were innocent. Winnie went to work after sending her aunt. Downstairs, she met Brian and Klara. Brian got off the car and walked to the office building. "Why are you here?" He was surprised to see Klara. He had not seen Klara since she was fired. "I..." "I'm here to meet a friend." Klara was unexpected too. She had tried her best to avoid Brian. And he should be in his office at this time, so she was nervous to meet him at this hour. "How's it going?" Brian asked, although he was angry at Klara, he still asked, because reminded him of Spencer who had died. "Not good, I haven't had a job and I can't tell the elderly. Afraid that they know it, I went out as usual at the work time and wandered outside for a day until it was time to go back. I....." "Alas..... Why do I say this? Never mind." Klara said deliberately, but she was really sad. She'd been having a bad time, but she had no one to talk to. At this time, Klara lifted eyes to see Winnie not far behind Brian. Her facial expression changed, but she still said hello. "Good morning, Winnie." "Good morning." Winnie also greeted, but she did not smile. At this time, Brian looked back at Winnie. It was obviously his eyes were freezing cold. Winnie felt her presence had disturbed the dialogue between Brian and Klara. So she chose to leave. "Good morning, Mr. Bennet, you have a chat, I go up first." Winnie left directly, but she heard the voice of Brian. "Don't worry, I'll arrange a job for you." Brian increased his volume deliberately, so that Winnie could hear him. He wanted Winnie to know that, though he fired Klara for Winnie, now they had broken up, he could arrange Klara a job in other companies. Winnie heard it clearly. This was the most real Brian. He had always been able to do anything for other women, but he could not believe her. Maybe Winnie thought wrong, for Brian, she was a dispensable woman. Winnie continued to walk forward. No matter what Brian treated her as, it did not matter, no matter how much Brian pitied other women, it did not matter. Winnie came to the office. As she sat down, Bonnie knocked on the door. "Winnie, did you see Klara downstairs?" Bonnie seemed nervous. "Yes." Winnie said indifferently. "She's not gone yet? She must have come to see me." Bonnie looked worried. "Come to see you?" Winnie asked, puzzled. "Yes, I saw her when I came to work, so I came in from the back door. She's been calling me every day these past few days, asking me if I told you about the fact I leaked Mr. Bennet's schedule. I didn't know what to say, so I kept avoiding her. I didn't expect she would come here." Bonnie said the reason for her nervousness. Since she decided not to cooperate with Klara, she did not want to contact Klara. She didn't think it was worth losing her job. "She should have left." Winnie gave her a positive answer. Klara did not come in vain today. She failed to see Bonnie, but she had greater harvest. She would not pester Bonnie downstairs anymore. "Really?" Bonnie did not know what was going on, but she believed Winnie's words. "Yes, why don't you call the reception on the ground floor and ask them to confirm it for you?" Winnie advised Bonnie and then Bonnie went out to call. But soon she came back. "Winnie, Mr. Bennet asks you to report work." "Where's Alice?" This was the last thing Winnie wanted to do and she thought of Alice. "Alice had diarrhea this morning and has not come to work from hospital." Bonnie explained. "Oh, all right, then." After Bonnie left, Winnie was silent for a moment before she took the document to the office of Brian. As usual, she knocked at the door and got in after gaining the consent. Winnie thought Albert and Calvin should be there, but she was wrong. She and Brian were the only two people in the office. And Brian had a face like an ice demon. "Mr. Bennet, I'll start reporting." Winnie began to report work seriously, but Brian was absent-minded. He wanted see her reaction, because he believed Winnie had heard his words to Klara and thought she would had her opinion. However, after Winnie finished reporting, Brian did not see that Winnie was dissatisfied. "That's all, Mr. Bennet. If there's anything you don't like, you can mention it." Winnie looked at Brian, with no distractions in eyes. "No..." When Brian wanted to give an answer, Winnie's phone rang. "Excuse me, Mr. Bennet, I'm going out to take a call." Winnie asked to go out before she took a look at the phone, because she just need an excuse to leave. However, "Answer it right here and then we get back to work." Brian commanded in a domineering manner. Winnie looked at Brian and then picked up the phone. "Hello, Winnie Chambers is speaking." Winnie picked up the phone angrily without looking at the caller ID. "Officer Chambers, it is me, Officer Lee." "Oh, it's you. What is it?" Winnie eased her tone knowing that it was Officer Lee. "Penny came out this morning. Now she is in the hospital under full examination and temporarily under the custody of the prison police. She can't compose threat to you now, but you have to be careful." Even if there was no danger, Officer Lee had to inform Winnie, so that she could be prepared and take precautions. "She was out this morning?" Winnie asked. Though she had known it, but she now felt uneasy since Penny had come out. Her aunt was not at home and she had nothing to do with Brian now, if Penney took revenge, she had to deal with Penny alone. "Yes, she came out this morning." Officer Lee repeated. "Did you contact her family?" Winnie was uneasy and worried. "Yes, no one wants to see her. She's the only one in the hospital now but the police." "Oh, there's something else I want to tell you. For your safety, I asked the leader to give you a gun, so you can protect yourself if necessary. In your current position, if a suspect is a threat to you, you can shoot after warning fails." Officer Lee paid much attention to Winnie's safety and considered everything for her. He did not know if Brian had had people secretly protected Winnie, but he would do his best. "I... I....." Winnie wanted to say she did not know how to use guns, but suddenly she realized that Brian was there, so she did not say it out. "You can't talk now?" Officer Lee was sensitive and knew someone was around Winnie. "Yes." Winnie gave a positive answer. "Then I say, you listen." "You wanted to say you don't know how to use a gun? I thought of that. You go to the leader, and he will arrange for a professional sniper to teach you. If you have any other concerns, report directly to the leader and he will figure out a way to solve them." Officer Lee said. "You tell Mr. Bennet about Penny's coming out, and I won't call him alone." "OK." "Well, goodbye." The two men hung up the phone. Winnie took her mobile phone away and then conveyed the words of Officer Lee. "It was Officer Lee. He asked me to tell you that Penny came out this morning and is now in the hospital." Winnie Summed up what Office Lee said in a simple sentence.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 603 ETERNAL ENEMIES

Winnie conveyed the words of Officer Lee formulaically, which made Brian angrier. "Why does he always contact you?" Brian questioned her in a cold voice. Winnie was so gentle and kind to everyone and only cold to him, as if it was his fault. "I don't know what you mean, Mr. Bennet. I have a right to know, and he has a right to tell me." Winnie felt Brian vexatious, he was just dissatisfied about her. "I have a right to know too, and he has a right to tell me." Brian seemed not satisfied with Winnie's explanation and refuted with a cold face. "He asked me to tell you, and you know it now. The key is not who tells, it is Penny..." At this, Winnie suddenly realized that he didn't care who told her or if Penny had come out, it was that why she and Officer Lee had close contact. "I see. You suspect I have an affair with Officer Lee." "Mr. Bennet, it is none of your business. I don't need you to question me even if I have affair with all the men in the world." "I have finished reporting the work. If there is anything wrong, ask the secretary to come to me." Winnie stared at Brian and then turned to walk outside. "I am not satisfied with your report, report it again..." Brian roared behind Winnie, but Winnie left his office as if she had not heard it. In the hospital, Penny looked really bad and took various examinations under the watchful eyes of the police. But during the examination, she kept looking around as she went from department to department. She didn't know what she was looking for, maybe hoping to see someone she wanted to see. But she asked herself who she wanted to see at this moment. Her father, half brother and sister, or Brian and Winnie? She came out with clear mind, but now she was confused. Probably she wanted to see Winnie most. She wanted to bring her to prison too and even wanted to kiss her, so that to erase all her resentment. After the examination, she was taken back to the ward by the police. The policewoman stood by and watched her in case she ran away. "Madam, can I see a person?" Penny made a sudden request to the policewoman. "Didn't your family refuse to see you? Who else do you want to see?" Policewoman said with disdain. She felt Penny was just a loser. "Not family, a friend." Penny said with embarrassment. She did have abandoned by her family. "A friend? Give me her contact information, I will try to contact her." She agreed because it was an order from her leader. So Penny gave Winnie's contact information to the policewoman. Winnie received a call from the police at soon and she thought it was ok to go out at that hour. After saying yes to the policewoman, she called Officer Lee. Officer Lee contacted other police to make sure that Winnie's safety was guaranteed before he agreed Winnie went to the hospital. When Winnie arrived at the hospital, there were two policemen in the ward, a man and a woman. And Penny had no strength, so she was not a threat to Winnie. "What's wrong with you?" Winnie asked in surprise, because she could not show that she had known everything. "How do you think? I am sick, so I am in the hospital. Long time no see, Winnie." Penny said in a strange tone. She was in a state of restraint, and if the police weren't there, she would have been abusive or violent. She was angry before she saw Winnie and now she could not help control it. "Long time no see. Why do you want to see me?" Winnie seemed to have no topic to talk with Penny, and seeing that Penny said in a strange tone, she did not have patience. When Winnie was on her way, she still had mercy, but not seeing that Penny did not change at all, she did not think mercy was needed. "Nothing, I haven't seen you for a long time, so I want to see you. I want to tell you in person I am out." Penny had a lot of words to say to Winnie, she wanted to warm Winnie, but with the police there, she was afraid that she would expose the fact she had false disease, so she could said in a sarcastic way. "It's good that you're out, but it's not good that you're sick. And I want you to take care of yourself. Penny, if you need anything, tell me directly. I don't have much time." Winnie would not have come if she knew Penny would say boring words. Now she was in the hospital, but she was a prisoner. It seemed impossible for her to repent in her life as she held herself high and mighty. "You don't need to worry about my illness. Now that you have come, don't leave in a hurry. We have a lot to talk about." "Winnie, why do you stand so far from me? Come and sit there, I have whisper to you." Penny did not intend to let Winnie go, but asked her to sit next to her. She had a few words to Winnie, but was afraid the police hear it. Only when Winnie was close to her, she could say it out. Winnie thought for a moment before she walked to Penny, but the policewoman directly stopped Winnie and gave warning. "Stand right here and don't come near." Penny pleaded for mercy at this moment. "Madam, we are good friends and we just have a few words in private. Please." "No, not mention your friends, even your parents can't be close to you." The policewoman refused decisively. In fact, there was no provision that a prisoner could not be close to, but the leader commanded her to protect Winnie, so she must be careful. "Penny, speak directly. Don't make it hard for the police." Winnie stepped back and stood in her original position. "I just want to know if you and Brian are married, and if Felix has accepted you." Seeing her plans fell through, Penny could only ask about unimportant things. "No, we can't get married, and Felix can't accept me." Winnie calmly answered Penny's question. "Have you always been worrying about that? Penny, I told you when we met again that I am not your enemy. There's no way I can marry Brian, and now you can believe it." Winnie said it many times, but she didn't know if Penny would believe her words this time. In fact, Penny should have known that she and Brian were not married, and Penny just wanted to embarrass her. "Good, that's what I want." Penny smiled with schadenfreude, she thought there was a possibility that Winnie and Brian could be together, but Winnie always had a strong opponent and she had not defeat her. "Winnie, don't be so proud. It is good enough that you are a mistress of Brian. I saw Gloria on TV and she is not an easy character to deal with." Penny said with disdain. "Gloria has been in love with Brian for a long time. Before you came back, she liked Brian and pestered him. The two of them also had an affair. But I ended it. You don't seem to have the power to make her give up. Now that you've got an opponent, I really want to get well and see a good show." Penny said with humiliation. Winnie was her opponent, but she never put Winnie in the eye. Even now she was a prisoner, she still had a way to annoy Winnie. "Thank you for telling me these, I admit that I have no ability to defeat Gloria, so there is no a show for you." Winnie heard contempt in Penny's words, but she did not mind it. Winnie had investigated the affair between Gloria and Brian, but she did not expect Penny knew it. But it was in the past. It was a stupid thing that Penny angered her with that. "Have you anything else to say? Anything else you want to know? If not, I'm leaving. You have money in prison. But if I don't work a day, my family and my kids will starve." Winnie said with sarcasm, although Officer Lee told her not to anger Penny, she could not hold it back. "You..." "Good-bye." Winnie did not give Penny to speak, but directly turned away. She had been dreaming that Penny could change, but now it could tell that she was wrong. Penny only wanted revenge, the people around her were her enemies. Brian kept his word and had arranged a job for Klara, so Klara returned to the company, though not the same department with Winnie. She knew that Klara came back to work in the morning, because she met Klara in the employee elevator. "Hello!" Winnie was surprised to see Klara, but she still said hello politely. "We are colleagues again, but I beg your mercy, Winnie, don't make troubles to me again." Klara said with resentment in a warning tone, which angered Winnie. She never caused Klara troubles, it was Klara went against her. "Klara, it is not easy for you to get this job. I hope you cherish it. I won't trouble you as long as you don't bother me." Winnie then looked away. In her eyes, Klara, Penny and Wendy were all scheming and they never admitted that what they had done was wrong. They never fought for what they wanted, but just blamed others.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 604 SPEAK WITHOUT THINKING

Winnie felt unlucky that she met Penny. Was she too weak that all the people targeted her? Klara took a disdainful look at Winnie and did not mind Winnie's warning. "Don't worry about that. I know opportunities don't come easily and I will work hard. Mr. Bennet has always recognized my ability at work, so you don't have to worry about it." Klara said maliciously. She that Winnie gave her inculcation. She knew that it was her last chance, and temporarily she would not make any troubles, but seeing Winnie made her think of what she had been through, so she vent her anger on Winnie. "You know more than I thought. Do your job and leave me alone. Then we can work in peace. If continue to go against me with Wendy, don't blame me for being rude to you." "Now I have nothing, I am not afraid of anything. I don't care about Brian's feelings and I won't give you the chance to hurt me." Winnie said in a domineering manner to avoid something unhappy, so that everyone could work in peace. But if Klara did not heed her warning, she would not show mercy. "You..." Unconvinced, Klara was angry and was to rebuke, but a colleague came in the elevator, so she had to keep her mouth shut. Back to her office, Winnie was depressed. She wanted to have a peaceful life, but it was so difficult. All of these people came and went in her life. She kept a low profile and didn't annoy anyone, and occasionally she confronted them aggressively. But no matter how she did, she did not get a satisfactory result in the end. Today, Alice asked for sick leave, so Winnie could only go to report work. When Winnie came to the office of Brian, Albert and Calvin were there. And they were talking about Klara. "Mr. Bennet, under no circumstances should Klara come back. You know why she got fired." Albert knew in the morning that Klara had come back to work. He knew that Klara's ability to work was good, but she had been fired because of Winnie, it was not necessary to find her back. "I've made up my mind. Don't interfere with it." Brian said in a cold voice and he was angry when he saw Winnie. "Mr. Bennet, we recognize Klara's ability to work, but her character is too worrying. If you let her back, she may hurt Winnie." Calvin continued to persuade Brian regardless of his majesty. Although Klara seemed calm and low-key, Calvin did not think her ambition would fade away. "What happened to her character? No matter how bad she is, she didn't sleep with other men after Spencer died." Brian roared loudly. But his words hurt Winnie's scarlet heart. Hearing his targeted insults, Winnie felt sad. She did not expect Brian would insult her in front of Albert and Calvin. And she did not expect that she was so inferior to Klara. However, Winnie did not defend for herself. She also did not leave. She endured the humiliation from Brian. She told herself that this time she must forget this man, she must hate him for the shame he had brought her. Hearing what Brian said, Albert and Chen blamed themselves and felt distressed for Winnie. Seeing that Winnie stood motionless, Albert opened his mouth. "Mr. Bennet, for Spencer's sake, we can let Klara stay, but can you transfer her to the branch office? So..." "Shut up. I've made my decision and no one can change it." Brian roared again. His heart ached when he said such hurtful words, but Albert and Calvin spoke for Winnie, which made him angrier. "Mr. Bennet, we don't have to talk about it. But as for Winnie got a room with another man, can you..." "Calvin, stop. It is over, don't embarrass me again." Winnie finally interrupted Calvin. She did not want to defend for herself and did not want Albert and Calvin to clarify for her. Albert and Calvin believed her unconditionally, which was a great comfort to her. It didn't matter whether Brian trusted her or not. "Mr. Bennet, I'm here to report work." "....." Winnie interrupted all the topics. She would rather bear it by herself, would rather be hated by Brian than let Brian know the truth and then come to say sorry to her. There was not even the simplest trust between them. How could they be happy? It was better to be tortured like that for a lifetime than to live a life together of misunderstanding and resentment. Winnie went back to her office after the work report, and Albert and Calvin were driven out by the angry Brian. "What should we do? It is unfair to Winnie." Calvin and Albert had a talk in Albert's office. Calvin said with a sigh, still thinking of what Brian had said.

"The only thing we can do now is ask Mr. Bennet to watch the video again. If it's the same result, there's nothing we can do." Albert could not come up with a good way. He felt that if they had not angered Brian, he would not say those words to hurt Winnie. "Do you think he will watch it again? He is very against the video." Calvin could see that that video was devastating for Brian. "What do we do then? Shall we watch it for him? But Mr. Bennet has the video." Albert wanted to help Winnie, but he did not know what he could do. "What is wrong with your brain? You got those videos, you can copy them again." Albert was stunned, but Calvin was sober. The video was the only hope they could help Winnie, they would try to get it. "Right, there must be a problem with my brain, how can I not think of that?" "Wait, I'll get it." Albert was enlightened by Calvin's words. Without a moment's hesitation, he went straight out to find the video. Winnie was not in mood to work because of Brian's insulting words, so she decided to go out. She drove to the police station to her leader and asked him to arranged her a gun shooting lesson. In a special training room, Winnie put her heart and soul into shooting practice. At the moment she found that shooting was a good project to relieve the pressure. She regarded the bull's-eye as Brian, and put her anger and grievance into the bullet. As long as she triggered, all her agner and grievances shoot at Brian. Winnie was smart and soon she had mastered the basic skills. And she needed constant training to constantly enhance her ability. She had been training to the time to get off work. She enjoyed herself there and had skipped the lunch. Now on the way home, she found that she was hungry. She pulled out her phone and made a call to Daenerys and Emily. They hadn't had dinner or chatted together for a long time. And it was time to tell them she had broken up with Brian. They met in a cafeteria. They chose a quiet corner, so that they would not disturbed by others. "I haven't been out alone for a long time. Since I have Jelly Bean, I was in a hurry to come home. Today my parents are at home with my kid, so I can stay late." Daenerys said with excitement, because they finally met. "I can go home as late as I want. If I go back early, my parents would nag at me." Emily was in escape, she did not want want to her parents said Leo was perfect. "What do they nag about?" Winnie asked with interest, and did not rush to say her things. "What else can it be? It's about Leo. They said Leo recently. It is like Leo is their son and I am an outsider." Emily could not help but ridicule. Spealing of Leo, she could not describe her feeling. She did not hate him, but she dare not say she liked him, but she felt inexplicably steadfast. "Leo is really perfect. Your parents are not exaggerating but just stating the facts." Winnie said, and Daenerys added. "Yes, Leo is good. If he likes me, I would have married him." Hearing that, Emily rolled her eyes at Daenerys, while Winnie could not help but laugh. "Daenerys is right. Leo doesn't like her. Leo only likes you. Emily, if such a good man becomes someone else's husband, you will regret it." Originally she wanted to release her mood and wanted to tell her stoty, but they were talking about the love between Leo and Emily. But she and Emily were struggling, so it was ok to comfort Emily first. But Emily's love came to the light, while her love had been far away from the sun. "There's nothing to regret. I can met a better man." Emily said, unconvinced. She did not want to admit how good Leo was or admit that she still love him. "Find one, then, how can you fine a man better than Leo in the whole B City? Execpt for my husband, of course, he already has me." Daenerys said, because she firmly believed Leo was a good man, even better than her husband.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 605 LOVE WITHOUT FLAWS

Emily gave a smile because of Daenerys' words. "Are you praising Leo or Doctor Burns?" Emily felt Daenerys meant that Doctor Burns was better than Leo. Emily knew Leo was a good man, but she could not get over her disappointment to him. "No matter who I praise, do you think he is a good man or not?"

Emily, give Leo a chance. Every relationship has flaws, it is because of the flaws can we know how deep each other love." Daenerys seemed to lighten the question, but what she said made perfect sense. Every relationship had flaws. No flaws, no love. "Not you and Doctor Burns. Your love is so good, simple, and passionate." Emily said. It was not that she did not want to accept Leo, but her perfectionism dominated her heart. "We were shotgun married before we fell in love, so I feel my love is too dull, without any passion. You don't need to envy this kind of love. When I get old and want to recall it, I feel dull and boring." "I have no much experience in relationship, but I think you must seize the opportunities, or you will regret it." Daenerys said seriously. She spoke for Leo and did not want Emily to regret it for a lifetime. "Oh, that's a classic summary. You looked like you have much experience." Emily knew that she should seize the chance, but she could not get it over. "Well, we haven't been together for a few days, don't just mention my business." "Winwin, have you earned a lot of money during this time? When did you change your car?" Emily successfully changed the subject, Daenerys and Winnie did not force her. "Not long ago, and I didn't make much money. I don't take a nap at noon, so I need a bigger car to work in." Winnie said while eating, now her appetite had not been affected by Brian, so she would eat as much as possible. "Why work in the car instead of the office?" Daenerys perceived something wrong and asked. "I make some extra money on my lunch break. It's not good to be caught in the office." She didn't say what it was, but that was not a lie. It was true she changed her car for work. "Winwin, don't work so hard, you're better than me now. Even if you don't rely on Brian, you can live on just one game. What's more, you still have shares in your company. Why do you have to work during your lunch break?" Daenerys was confused that Winnie changed her car for the work. "It has become my habit, I want to earn more while I am still young. When I am tired one day, I can have some rest at will. "Anyway, it's a pity to waste time at noon. Earning some money can be more fulfilling." Winnie's mood became now after hearing the name of Brian. "Does Brian know you work like that?" Emily asked. Winnie fell silent at this. She put down her cutlery and lowered her eyes for a moment. She was serious when she looked up again. "We broke up. He doesn't need to know anything about me." "What?" "You broke up?" Daenerys and Emily were surprised to hear that. "Don't be so surprised. It is the truth." Winnie repeated. She prepared herself for a long time, expecting to burst into tears when she said it in front of them. But she should control herself, thought she felt sour in nose. Daenerys and Emily fell silent. They looked at each other and did not know if they should comfort her or congratulate on her breakup. Although they had already seen through the end of Brian and Winnie and Winnie could live a free life only after she left Brian, they felt it hard to accept when they got the news. A moment later. "Why did you break up?" Daenerys asked. "I will tell you the reason after Brian's situation is stabilized." She could tell them they had broken up, but she could not tell why. If Daenerys and Emily knew the reason, they would go to Brian and caused troubles to him. "What do you mean?" Emily asked, because she was confused. "He's going to marry Gloria. It will start all over when he marries, and I'll tell you why." "Don't ask, just know that we have broken up. Eat. I still have work to do." Winnie gave a simple explanation and asked her two bestie not to ask. So Daenerys and Emily did not continue to ask. "Have some wine till we get drunk." Daenerys made a proposal so that Winnie could release herself. "Why? I'm not that vulnerable. Besides, it's good to break up. I don't want to get sentimental. Eat. I have to go home and get back to work. I got the job and I have to finish it." Winnie rejected Daenerys' proposal, she did not want to break down after drinking and to expose her love for Brian. And she didn't want Brian to know how sad she was to leave him. Daenerys and Emily again were silent. They understood that Winnie was not hurry to make money, but numbed her feelings with work. When dinner was over, the three men went home. When Daenerys got home, Kevin had been home from work. Her parents were there, so Daenerys asked Kevin out and asked him about Winnie. "Do you know that Winwin broke up with Brian?" "They broke up?" Kevin knew they had a bad relationship during this period of time, but did not expect that they had really broken up. "Yes, Winwin said it herself at dinner. Didn't Brian tell you?" Daenerys continued to ask, she thought Kevin didn't tell her. "I know they quarreled some time ago. Winwin fainted and was hospitalized because she had not slept or eaten well for several days. But they don't allow me to ask what happened, so I don't know it." Kevin felt there was no need to hide, since Winnie had said it. "What? She was hospitalized? Why didn't you tell me? When did that happen?" Daenerys asked anxiously. She knew nothing about it. Winnie was in understatement and she did not look sad, but she had been suffering alone. "It's been nearly two months, but Winnie asked me not to tell you, for fear that you and Emily will worry about her." Kevin patted his wife's shoulder to comfort her. "Don't worry about it. If you do, what Winnie did will be pointless." "How can I not worry? She loves Brian so much that it must hurt her to break up with him. And I can't help her when she was suffering the most?" Daenerys was so worried that she was about to cry. Now she desperately wanted to know the reason for the breakup. "Why did they break up? Does Brian fall in love with Gloria?" The question baffled Kevin, who also wanted to find out why. "I really don't know why. Oscar and I were both in the hospital back then. Winwin held Oscar and cried bitterly, she did not say anything about it." "Daenerys, don't ask. Winwin must have her reason." "Even if Brian likes Gloria, it may not be a bad thing. For Winwin, breaking up is rather good for her. Their love is so heavy that she can't even breathe." Kevin felt pity, but at this time he could only comfort Daenerys. Daenerys did not see that Winnie was desperate on that day, or she would support Winnie left Brian the most. "I know it's good for her, but she loves Brian. It must be awful to break up, and I'm sorry I wasn't there for her." Daenerys didn't want Winnie to carry everything on her own. She was tired for life and relationship, it she carried it by herself, Daenerys was afraid that Winnie could not take it. "You are blaming yourself, but Winwin was afraid that you'll worry and she wanted to be alone. When she was upset, when she was in pain, your comfort may be a blow to her." "So it may be good not to comfort her, or it may make her weak. She'll be more open-minded if she gets through it herself." Kevin analysis was right, basically he had seen through the heart of Winnie. Although Winnie and Daenerys were friends, it might hurt Winnie's self-esteem. Kevin persuaded Daenerys, but he had been thinking about why they broke up and why Winnie cried sadly. Kevin asked Daenerys to go home first and he said he would go to supermarket. Then he made a call to Brian in a quiet place. He went straight to the point. "You broke up with Winwin? Have you broken up the last time you are in the hospital?" "She told you?" Brian asked, but he was unexpected that it was not till then Winnie said it. "Yes, Winwin told Daenerys and Emily. It doesn't matter who said it, but why you broke up?" Kevin asked Brian in a domineering manner, as if he would not give up till he got a satisfied answer. "What did she say?" Brian continued to ask.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 606 BREAKING UP IS THE WISEST CHOICE

Brian's answer made Kevin impatient, because he did not give a direct answer. He did not know why they refused to tell the reason. "If she had told me why, I would have believed it. I wouldn't ask you. Winwin only said that she would say it after you and Gloria get married. I want to know if Gloria is the reason. Do you fall in love with Gloria?" "Whether I like Gloria or not is not the point. Since she will tell you, wait for it." Brian refused to answer. He was not sure what Winnie said to Daenerys and why the innocent Gloria was involved. "Well, then. To tell the truth, I agree with your break up, not only me, all friends of Winnie agree her to break up with you, but I want to remind you, since you have broken up, don't go to Winwin again, and don't hurt her again." Kevin hung up the phone angrily after that. However, his words made Brian angry at Winnie. He took the car keys and drove directly to Winnie's. Winnie returned home and devoted herself immediately into the work without any rest. She had to finish one software of the public security Bureau in a short time, so as not to live up to the expectations and attention from the leadership. After working for a while, she was thirsty, so she took the cup to get some water, but before she sat down again, she heard the doorbell. She put down the cup and went to the door, in the monitor, she saw Brian with a gloomy face. Winnie hesitated for a while and wanted to pretend she was not at home. And then she thought her car was in the parking lot, so she could not lie but have to face it. "What are you doing here?" Winnie did not open the door but pressed the call button. "Open the door." Brian almost shouted out angrily, which made Winnie puzzled about his anger. "It's too late. I'm going to sleep. We'll talk about it at work tomorrow." Winnie refused to meet him. With Brian's attitude, they could only quarrel. "It's only nine o'clock. Don't use time as an excuse. Open the door, or I'll keep knocking as long as you're not afraid to disturb the neighbors." Brian became increasingly angry. The question he wanted to ask had to be asked today, and he could not wait for even a second. Winnie was really afraid of his impulse to knock on the door and affect the neighbors, so she could only open the door to let him in. "What is it?" Winnie did not look up at Brian but urged him to say it. She was annoyed by his attitude. "You asked me what it is? Don't know what you have done?" Brian asked Winnie in a cold voice and he hated that Winnie look innocent, because it made him who was the one who had done something sinister. "What have I done to make you accuse me like this?" "I've done a lot of bad things. Please just say it, or I don't know what you're referring to." Winnie wanted to confront Brian and ask him where she was wrong. But then she thought it never minded. "You..... you are shameless. You're the reason we broke up and you admitted it. Why did you tell Daenerys that Gloria was the reason?" Brian was thoroughly angered by Winnie and again he fiercely accused Winnie. In fact, Gloria was not the reason he was angry, but all people supported that Winnie broke up with him. "Did I say that?" Winnie had a moment of freezing, but she did mentioned Gloria, though she did not say Gloria was the reason and Daenerys might think that Gloria caused them to break up. Winnie laughed at herself and then gave an answer. "It seems that I can't talk to anyone about anything. I have to deal with everything by myself." "Yes, I am shameless. What can you do to me? Sue me? Let the police arrest me?" Winnie again accepted Brian's blame. She did not want that, but Brian did not trust her at all, so it would be in vain if she explained, which would only make Brian more loathe her. "Winnie, how did you become so? I can't believe you don't follow the basic principle. Breaking up with you is the wisest thing I've ever done." Brian felt helpless in the face of Winnie's "rascal" behavior. After saying that with resentment and disappointment, he turned to leave. "Brian, it has been more than six years since we first met. Have you ever trusted me unconditionally?" Winnie said to Brian. She knew she was insulting herself by asking this question, but she still had a glimmer of hope. Even if Brian said there was only once, it was worth to love him. "Yes." After thinking for a while, Brian gave this answer. But his subsequent interpretation made Winnie embarrassed. "You were a virgin and I believe it, because I proved it myself." Brian felt that his words would hurt Winnie, but he was angry and spoke without thinking. Everyone said they were right to break up, which meant he was a terrible bastard. A bastard would say anything bad. Winnie stupidly stood in situ, looking at the back of Brian disappeared in her line of sight, thinking of his ironic answer. He said once, but it was embarrassing. He must have meant to humiliate her and he never believed her once. Calvin helped Albert with his work and Albert looked for the video again. Albert came to XX hotel to find the person who helped him last time. But the man was off today, but he recommended Caro, manager of the hotel. So Albert found Caro's office. "Hello, Caro!"

Albert greeted her politely. "Hello, you must be Mr. Albert Barnes." Caro got up and went to greet Albert. "Yes, I am. Please call me Albert." "I came here today because I need your help." Albert was a busy man. Although Cora was a beautiful young woman, he didn't have much time to waste. He had to get back to work after that, or he would be scolded. "Please go ahead." Caro agreed steadily seeing that Albert was in a hurry. Since her colleague asked Albert to find her, she felt that she could help. "I would like to access the surveillance video for date XXX." Albert spoke simply, without giving further information. However, Caro frowned at that. "That day again?" Caro casually said, but she thought of Winnie. "What do you mean? What happened that day?" Albert was on guard. "Nothing, I just thought of a friend." Caro was not a talker and she was always careful. She thought of Winnie, but it was not necessarily related to Albert, so she said nothing. "Albert, come with me, I will have someone help you make a copy." Caro left with Albert. Albert was curious about Caro's reaction, but he did not ask too much because he was in a hurry. He followed Caro to copy the video and then went back to the company. Since Winnie started the practice of shooting, she did not work at noon but to practice shooting every day. Winnie came to the police station, changed the police uniform in the car, and wore the police badge before she got into the police station. In the first floor of the police station she happened to meet Officer Lee. "You come to report work?" Winnie said, she was happy to see him. "I have finished reporting and am ready to eat in the canteen. What about you, have you eaten?" Officer Lee asked Winnie. "I was in a hurry to here to practice, so I haven't eaten yet." Winnie said and felt hungry. "Don't work so hard. Come eat with me." Officer Lee turned directly left to the canteen without having Winnie's consent. Winnie did not refuse but follow him. This was the first time Winnie ate in the police canteen. The canteen was big and spectacular. It was spectacular because everyone was in uniform. Winnie thought if criminals broke into here, they would be killed by the eyes of the police. Apart from the fact that everyone was wearing police uniform, there was no much difference from their company canteen, except that people here had tasks and responsibilities, so they ate fast. The two of them got the food and sat down in a quiet seat. "The food in our canteen is not as good as that outside. I don't know if you can get used to it." Officer Lee thought Winnie's food should be very delicate, different from their food, so he was afraid that Winnie could not get used to it. "Why not? I can eat what other people eat. I'm not an alien. Eat before it gets cold." With that, Winnie began to eat. "It's delicious." Winnie did not feel bad, but repeatedly praised. "Good." Officer Lee was pleased that Winnie was so kind and ate happily, and then he began to eat. "By the way, I had someone checked that house you asked me to help. I haven't found the buyer yet. Hearing the news, Winnie was disappointed, but she didn't show it. "It doesn't matter. He will be found one day." "Don't worry, I have asked my friend to continue to check, he will let me know if there is news." Officer Lee was embarrassed that he could not help, but he would continue to pay attention to it. He was willing to help Winnie. "Thank you." Winnie said politely, but she did not understand why the buyer hid his identity. "By the way, Officer Lee, how is Penny these two days?"

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 607 TERMINAL CANCER

Winnie suddenly thought of Penny and wanted to know if there was any progress on her. Hearing Winnie's question, Officer Lee stopped eating and looked up seriously at Winnie. "I am going to tell you that." "What's the matter?" Seeing that Officer Lee suddenly became serious, Winnie was nervous. "She is not faking the disease. The final result is not available yet, but the doctor have tentatively concluded that it is cancer." "Cancer? What cancer?" Winnie felt uneasy, she never thought Penny would get cancer. The news was too sudden for her to take in. "Stomach cancer." Officer Lee's conclusion came from the doctor. "Stomach cancer? So it's true that she has a stomachache? But stomach cancer has nothing to do with stomachache. She should be fine after removing part of the stomach." Winnie felt she could not accept it although it was not the final conclusion. "That's what I told the doctor, but the doctor said if it moves to abdomen, there will be stomachache." Officer Lee's words were hard to accept. Although Penny was Winnie's enemy, Winnie still remember the had beautiful days together, so she felt it was unacceptable. "Move to abdomen?" Winnie asked incredulously, feeling upset. "Don't worry, Officer Chambers, the test result hasn't come out yet. The doctor said it is just preliminary diagnosis. It may not turn out so bad." Officer Lee did not continue to say seeing that Winnie was worried. In fact, the diagnosis might be accurate based on the doctor's experience. But if Officer Lee continued to say, Winnie might break down. "....." Winnie did not continue to ask, at the moment she also hoped that the result could be another possibility and that the doctor's diagnosis was wrong. After knowing what was wrong with Penny, Winnie had one more thing to worry about. She was worried that Penny really got a cancer. When she was back to the company and took elevator on the 30th floor, she saw Gloria came out from another elevator. Winnie gave a faint smile. "You are here to see Mr. Bennet?" She greeted politely. "Yes, he asked me to be here, saying he has something to discuss with me. Have you just come back?" Gloria said that the reason she came deliberately. "I just got back from lunch. I'll talk to you some day, I gotta work now." Winnie was still indifferent, she did not care if Gloria deliberately said that to her. Winnie left with a smile, then Gloria entered the office of Brian. "We're still a couple or not? It's hard to see you." Gloria came in and joked, pretending not to know Brian and Winnie had broken up. "You see me not" Brian with a cold face. "It has been a long time we didn't meet. If you are really my boyfriend, I'm afraid we would have broken up." Gloria saw Brian's cold face, but she did not care. "Why are you here?" Brian was not in the mood to joke, in addition to Winnie, he did not joke to any women. "You're so boring. Forget it, get straight to the point." It was not Brian asked her to be there, but she made an appointment for several days to see Brian before she came. "My dad's company recently needs a partner, and he asked if you are interested. If so, you are the first choice, because you are his supposed son-in-law." Gloria said in the form of a joke. She was afraid that Brian would be wary of her, so she said it as a joke, so that Brian would not mind it. "I'll talk to your father about business myself." The implication was that Gloria should not be in the middle. "Sure, I don't understand it even if you talk to me. My dad thought it would be better if I told you about it. Let's have dinner tonight. And you can talk to my dad when we're having dinner." Gloria invited Brian, in the name of business, Brian would not refuse. "Ok, I'll arrange the time and place, and I will let you know." Brian would not say no to official business. "How is your relationship with your boyfriend these days?" Brian deliberately asked about it and wanted to know if Gloria would marry him. He had been tortured by Winnie, plus Winnie let him down and he was angry at Winnie, so he wanted to marry Gloria. Just every time he thought of it, Winnie's sad face occurred to his mind. He was eager to get to the bottom of the matter, but he feared that the truth was what the video showed. Once Winnie and Stefan really had improper relationship, even if it was for the work, he would not let Winnie stay. "Alas..... Don't mention it. He doesn't trust me because we keep having scandals. He's always fighting with me these days. I'm wondering how much longer we can hold out. I wonder if it's worth it if we break up." Gloria complained in a soft voice, it seemed that she had lost confidence in love. "He doesn't believe that you and I are innocent. He doesn't have the most basic trust in me, and I'm running out of motivation to continue our relationship." Gloria said sadly trying to win the mercy of Brian. However, her words made Brian have deja vu, because Winnie had said the same things to him. Was Winnie was helpless like Gloria? "You should consider whether we should continue acting." Brian gave his advice and he did not ask if she wanted to marry him. "Forget it. Let it be. If he doesn't believe in me, it doesn't matter how much I explain to him. I think I did the right thing, and I asked his permission before we worked together. What he thinks of me is his business." Gloria would not stop the cooperation with Brian as he said. "I have a clear conscience. Even if he breaks up with me, I won't ask him to stay, because such a man is not worth it." "But if I do break up, you should be responsible for me. You can't let him laugh at me." Gloria said with a charming smile, she wanted Brian to be dubious. It was a reminder, but it would not surprise him. Brian was not in the mood to joke. He now thought if Winnie had the same thought as Gloria. He did not do a good job and was not worth Winnie to stay. Even if she had grievances, even if she could explain, but she thought he was not worth it. Right? Could she have that thought? "I have work to do. I'll talk to you tonight." Brian was upset and asked Gloria to leave. He wanted to calm down to think about the things between him and Winnie. But as long as he thought of Winnie or heard her name, he could not calm down. Winnie was worried about Penny the whole afternoon and had forgot that Gloria came to see Brian. It was time to go off work, but she received a phone call from Emily, who asked her to eat out. And Winnie selected the place for dinner. Winnie chose the hot pot restaurant of Stefan after thinking. Winnie did not go directly to the hot pot restaurant after work, but went to the hospital. She wanted to go in the ward to see Penny, but the police outside did not know her, so she was not allowed to go in and she could only secretly look at Penny outside the ward. Penny had no other obvious symptoms except for her bad complexion. Winnie doubted whether the doctor made a mistake. Winnie went to the attending doctor of Penny. "You are Penny's friend?" The doctor asked Winnie. "Yes, I'm her friend. I want to ask her about her illness." Winnie asked the doctor with expectation, but she did not know whether the doctor could give her the answer she wanted. "She is not good and the test result she has a cancer." The doctor knew he was being a bit judgmental, but it was true. "You mean she really has a cancer?" Winnie was anxious and seemed see no hope. "No, it's cancer, and it's already spread." The doctor's tone was positive and firm. Regardless of what he said, it was clear from his attitude that Penny did have a cancer. It was like that Winnie's heart suddenly fell into the abyss, which made her lost consciousness. Winnie did not want to believe that it was true. Penny committed a crime, but the crime did not lead to death. The law didn't put her to death, but God was going to take her life. "But she looks pretty well. She doesn't look seriously ill, except that she doesn't look well on face." Winnie still did not want to believe that it was a fact and wondered it was a misdiagnosis. "There are a lot of people who don't have obvious symptoms, and they have different physical conditions and different capacities. If the symptoms are obvious and caught early, there will be no terminal cancer." The doctor answered Winnie's doubts, but also killed her last fantasy. "Terminal cancer.? Do you mean Penny has terminal cancer?" "Yes." The doctor gave another blow to Winnie. Winnie widened her eyes and felt blank in mind. She hated Penny and wanted her to die, but at this, she did not want that to happen. No matter what Penny had done wrong, no matter how evil she was, Winnie wanted her to be alive. Though Penny was in prison and still malicious to her, they had beautiful days together.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 608 APOLOGIZE TO GLORIA

Winnie went out of the hospital and drove to Stefan's hotpot restaurant in a daze, Penny was leaving her soon. "Be careful when you walk." Suddenly a warm voice with ridicule spread into Winnie's ears, which put her thoughts back. "You almost hit me." Stefan joked. It had been days he did not see Winnie and he was happy to see her. He went abroad after they parted in the hotel. As he got off the plane, he heard that Winnie booked a table in his restaurant, so he came to see her before he went home. "I did not notice you are here. Have you been recently busy?" Winnie forced a smile, so that she would not affect Stefan's mood. "Yes, how are you? You must be busy too, you have not been here to have dinner and you did not call me recently." Winnie did not know that he had just come from abroad, and it was a fact that she had not contacted him recently. "Yes, I even have no time for dinner. I haven't thanked your friend yet. I will invite her to dinner some day." It occurred to Winnie. She had forgotten it because of Stefan. "No need. It was me to ask her to help, it has nothing to do with you, so I will pay her back the favor." Stefan did not want Winnie to have burden, so he refused. At this hour, Winnie heard a soft female voice from behind. "Winwin, right?" Winnie looked back, only to see that Gloria came with Brian holding his arm. "Yes, it is me." Winnie forced a smile and greeted Gloria. She did not expect that Brian would be Stefan's restaurant, and he thought she had an affair with Stefan. "Mr. Bennet, you are here, please come in." Stefan greeted Brian with enthusiasm. But he was stunned for a moment before he greeted, because a woman was holding Brian's arm and Brian did not show any hint of guilt. Brian gave a black face, horrible as a coming storm. He said nothing, but Gloria opened her mouth. "We booked a seat, will you join, Winwin?" "No, I have appointment with my friends, they..." Before she could finish, she frowned. At this moment Daenerys, Oscar, Leo and Emily stood behind Brian. Their sudden appearance made Winnie uneasy, afraid that they would have quarrel with Brian. "I..." Winnie wanted to ask them to leave, but it was too late. "What do you mean, Brian?" "Do you have to show your girlfriend to Winwin?" Daenerys and Emily came to Brian and angrily accused him. At this time Winnie hurriedly stood between Brian and Daenerys. "Stop that, you two." Winnie stopped that. It was a public place, and it would be troublesome for Brian if it became a big fuss. "Winwin, he is so intimate with another woman, can you endure it?" Daenerys could not endure it, and she did not want Winnie to endure it. "I can't endure it. Brian....." "Emily, stop. Don't embarrass me." Winnie stopped Emily in time. She didn't want to make things serious and embarrass Brian. "You..." "Oscar, Leo, take them away." Winnie sought the help of Leo and Oscar. Men were always more sensible than women at this time. Then Leo and Oscar came to take Emily and Daenerys away. "Gloria, Mr. Bennet, I am sorry, but my friend's impulsiveness is affecting you. I apologize for them." Winnie bowed her head to apologize, feeling that she had no dignity at all. "Your friends have gone too far, throwing tantrums for no apparent reason. Do they think they're powerful?" Gloria loudly accused Winnie. And Winnie looked sorry. Now she had nothing to do with Brian and he was now Gloria's boyfriend. It was indeed her responsibility to embarrass Brian and Gloria in public. "I'm sorry, my friends are overreacted. I apologize for them." Winnie did not expect Gloria would be so entangled. But it was her fault after all, all she could do now was to apologize. "This is not about being overreact..." "This....." Stefan could not stand it. He did not know what happened, but he loathe seeing Brian did nothing but see Winnie kept apologizing. However, Oscar stepped forward and said what he wanted to say. "Miss, Winnie has apologized to you, you should stop holding on to it." Oscar protected Winnie behind, for fear that Winnie would get hurt. "Who are you? With that..." "It doesn't matter who I am. What matters is that you don't embarrass Mr. Bennet." Oscar said sharply, not only because Winnie was hurt, but also because of Brian's indifference. "Mr. Bennet, you and Winwin shouldn't have this bad relationship, anyway..." Oscar looked at Brian's cold face and felt his words were redundant in the middle of her sentence. There was no need to go on. "Miss, let it go. I apologize for my friend. We'll leave the place for you." Oscar left with Winnie, expressionless. He took Daenerys and Emily to the car and then returned. He knew Winnie would apologize, but did not expect Gloria would be so unruly. Luckily, he came back, or Gloria might not let it go. After Winnie and Oscar left together, Gloria took Brian to the pre-booked room. When leaving the hall, Brian glared at Stefan angrily, which made Stefan more confused. Stefan found there was something wrong between Winnie and Brian, but he didn't know he was the reason. In the room. "What kind of friends does Winnie have? They have no quality and in public..." "You knew we broke up?" Brian interrupted Gloria coldly. Gloria could accept his cold voice, but his question surprised her. "No, did you break up?" Gloria pretended not to know it. "Then why you disrespected her? Why you accused her? Her friends are angry with me, but they did not provoke you, why did you scold her? What qualifications do you have to accept her apology?" Brian asked Gloria in an angry voice. When he saw Winnie apologized to Gloria, he felt distressed. If it were being angry, he would have protected Winnie. "I..." Gloria frightened by Brian's angry roar and did not know what to say. It seemed it was wrong to lie, because Brian was not so easy to be deceived. Now the lie got her into trouble. "I am sorry for making you unhappy. Just now, I was too deeply involved in the play. I really regarded us as a couple. And I was afraid they will see through our relationship. As your girlfriend in that situation, I can't see my boyfriend being smeared." Gloria made an explanation, trying to cover up the last lie, but she did not understand Brian well. "Gloria, I hate women who play tricks with me. I hope you won't let me down." Brian did not believe what Gloria said but strode away after warning her. And in the hall he met Stefan again. "Mr. Bennet..." Stefan tried to stop Brian, but Brian walked away after taking a glance at him. Brian's attitude worried Stefan. Although he knew that Gloria affected the relationship between Winnie and Brian, but he did not expect it would be like this. From Winnie's attitude, he knew Winnie regarded Brian as an outsider. There was a problem with it, but Stefan did not know why. Winnie and Daenerys left together and come to the barbecue restaurant where they often went to. They set the table by the roadside and drank in the roadside light. Winnie restrained herself not to drink and told herself to be sober. One reason was that she should always be on call, and the other was that she was afraid that if she drank too much, she would explain to Brian. But now she wanted to drink to release herself, because she had been restrained for too long. "You two are too impulsive today. You know that Brian broke up with Winwin. Why did you go to accuse Brian? They don't have anything to do with each other now. He can be with whoever he wants. Why are you two so irritable?" Oscar was not a talker, but today he must say something. "I know you are good to Winwin, but have you ever thought that it would make Winwin embarrassed?" Oscar pointed out the key to the problem, if not for Daenerys and Emily's impulse, Winnie would not have to apologize to Gloria humbly. "We..." Daenerys realized that she was too impulsive, but as she was to apologize, Winnie stopped her. "Well, don't say anything about it. It will be a lesson, be calm in the future." Winnie knew that if not for Daenerys and Emily's impulse, she would not have to apologize to Gloria. But Daenerys and Emily's starting point was good, she could not deny her friends' kindness.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 609 EVERYONE WAS SHOCKED

Winnie's understatement made Daenerys angrier. She felt that if Brian cared about Winnie, things would not happen today. She did not know why they broke up, but Brian's indifferent attitude was disappointing. "I never want to see Gloria again. Winwin, breaking up with Brian is the best thing you ever did. If he comes to you later with regret, you must not forgive him." "Jerk, Brian is a man who cheats and plays with women's feelings." "Don't scold, if he is a jerk, what am I? I loved him before. If he is a jerk, I am a slut." Winnie gently persuaded. She admitted that Brian's attitude was bad today, but it was his real side. He was like this when she first met him, but she felt uncomfortable when Daenerys scolded him. He was not jerk, he was a good man with responsibilities, ideals and ambitions. But he never showed it in front of her. "Look, I just said..." "Daenerys, stop, since they have broken up, don't mention it again. It is enough that Winwin is happy." Emily stopped Daenerys from speaking. She knew that Winnie still loved Brian. But the pain of being with Brian was much profound than love. Now the pain was gone, and the love was highlighted after they broke up. "Winwin, we support you no matter why you broke up. Daenerys and I have acted impulsively. If it has affected you, we will apologize in person." Emily realized that helping Winnie in that way did harm to her and made her in dilemma. "I've apologized, and it's settled, you don't need to apologize to her. Forget him, let's drink." Winnie took a deep breath and then drank up the wine. She and Brian had broken up, and she did not want Brian to affect her mood. Brian was right not to defend her since they had broken up. The woman holding his arm was the one he should protect. Winnie wanted to stop drinking, but finally she got drunk. "I have one more thing to say." Winnie was obviously drunk, but she didn't forget a thing that made her in a bad mood. "Say it tomorrow. I'll send you home first." Oscar wanted to stop Winnie, for fear that she got affected alcohol because she had a bad state. "I'll go home after that." "Penny is out of prison and now she is in the hospital." Winnie said in a low mood. "She is out?" Daenerys said, everyone looked at Winnie with surprise. "Yes, she is sick and gets treatment in hospital." Winnie felt she was less drunk when she spoke of it, because she still felt upset about it. "What is her disease?" Asked Daenerys. They were all nervous to hear that, because they were friends of Penny. "The final result has not come out yet, but the doctor said it is stomach cancer." "Stomach cancer?" "Stomach cancer?" "Stomach cancer?" The three expect Emily spoke in surprise. Even Leo, who had remained silent, was shocked by the news. "Yes, and it is terminal cancer and it has spread to the abdomen." Winnie took a long sigh, but she did not feel relaxed at all. Everyone was completely shocked. They lost trust to Penny and even hated her, but they never expected that she would have cancer. There was a long silence, but Oscar broke the silence. "Does she know that?" "No. You have the best relationship with her, Oscar, take time to see her, but don't say anything." Winnie said and stood up. "Send me home. I can't go to work tomorrow if I drink more." Winnie was sobered now and wanted to go home. "I'll send Winwin back. You wait here." Oscar decided to send Winnie home since she could not continue. "We won't drink any more. We'll send her back together." Emily also got up. Winnie drank too much, and everyone's mood was affected by Penny's illness, so they were not in mood to continue to drink. So they sent Winnie home. After sending Winnie home, Oscar drove and sent the few people home. "Leo, why do you keep silent? You have no opinion?" Daenerys had noticed Leo's silence, but she had not raised a question. "I think there should be some misunderstanding between them." "Winwin is still in love with Brian, as you can see. I think Brian is also in love with Winwin. I just don't know what went wrong to pull them apart so suddenly." Leo had been carefully watching Winnie, considering her words, to see if he could find the root of misunderstanding. However, Winnie was so cautious even she was drunk, so he got nothing from her words. "Never mind, misunderstanding or not, I think it's good to break up. Otherwise Winwin will be tortured for the rest of her life." Emily didn't think too much, she only knew that breaking up was good for Winnie. "There are many people who love each other can't be together. If they are not happy together and have no basic sense of security, there is no need to sacrifice for this kind of love." Emily gave her own opinion. They knew that Winnie loved Brian, but they were not sure if Brian loved Winnie. "You'd only been in a relationship for a short time, but you've learned a lot. Love between people is not the same, and there many reasons that people cannot be together even if they love each other." Daenerys teased Emily. She had a messy love now, but she was quiet good at analyzing other's relationship. At this time Oscar driving the car also gave his opinion. "I think Leo is right. There must be misunderstanding between them. I agree with both of you, too, I am in favor of their breakup. But I think they should not be affected by misunderstanding." "It's not good for either of them. And it's going to hurt both of them." Oscar's analysis was accepted, but a new problem arose. "Winwin refused to say what the misunderstanding is." Daenerys said and they fell into silence. "Daenerys, tell Doctor Burns to ask Brian. If Winwin wants to hide it from us, she won't tell anyone who asks." Leo could only think of Kevin. "My husband has already asked, but Brian did not tell." "Alas..... That's a lot to worry about. Winwin has not solved her problem yet, and Penny gets ill. They say bad guys live forever. How did she get cancer?" Suddenly she thought of Penny, and her heart was sour. No matter what, they met in the best years and they had beautiful memories being together. Daenerys was upset that Penny got a cancer. She would rather Penny spend the rest of her life in prison than to die of cancer so young. "Alas....." Oscar signed too seeing that Winnie and Daenerys were upset. He had a good relationship with Penny for so many years and he was the saddest one. "It was too sudden to accept. I don't know if she can handle it." At this moment Oscar was worried about Penny. He did not want Penny to end her life at this young age. He hoped it was just a dream, including the fact that Winnie and Brian broke up. He supported Winnie to break up with Brian, but he did not want Winnie to be sad because of it. Winnie was a faithful person. Even if she broke up with Brian, she would love Brian all her life. Seeing that he was with another woman was the cruelest torture to her. When Oscar sent Emily home, Leo got off the car too. Oscar then drove to send Daenerys home. "Don't go in. My parents will nag to me if they see you. Go back, we are tired today and we can talk someday." Emily used excuse for many times, but Leo had not exposed it once. Sometimes he didn't mind and went in shamelessly, sometimes he did leave without greeting her parents because he was in a hurry to work. But today he had no work and did not want to go in, but just wanted to chat with Emily. "Emily." Leo stopped Emily, who was moving forward, and then walked a few steps to Emily. "Emily, please give me another chance. Life is fickle. Penny is sick, and I may get sick. I don't want to miss out on the woman I love the most during my limited time." Leo said with emotion. He felt Penny was punished by God and she deserved it, but she was young, and it would be a pity to end her life like that. Leo felt deeply through this matter that he should not hesitate to do things that he wanted to and love the woman he loved. What a sad thing it was if he could not be with one he loved. Emily was silent. It happened a lot today, although she did not know Penny well and did not have too much contact with her, but she fell upset. She had terminal cancer at such a young age. She would die young and lose all opportunities. Was she really going to miss the opportunity that was presented to her? What if she were the next person to get cancer? Would she regret it? Emily took a deep breath and then gave her answer. "You won't get sick."

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 610 THE SAME BAR

Emily could not persuade herself to accept it, but she did feel sad about Penny, so she could only give such an answer. Since she could not answer his question, she must leave, afraid that Leo would be embarrassed. Looking at Emily left, Leo could not describe his feeling. He was upset, but he wanted to know how Emily would forgive him and be with him again. He had bought flowers and presents, booked movie tickets again and again, and asked her to dinner again and again, but he was rejected. He had tried every way, but it did not change anything. Emily still refused to forgive him. Life was so fragile, time passed fast. The illness of Penny made Leo felt that life was luxury and he did not think he had much time to waste. What should he do to marry Emily? Did he have to make her pregnant? Winnie was sent to the door of the community by Oscar and she insisted on going home by herself. From the gate of the community to the elevator, Winnie was in a daze. For a while, she thought about Brian and Gloria, for a while, she thought about Penny's cancer. It wasn't until she got out of the elevator and saw a familiar man at her door that she sobered. Her own affairs were in such a mess that she could not think of anyone else's. Winnie wanted to speak to Brian, but she did not know what to say, so she pretended that she did not see him. "Winwin..." Winnie input the password silently but Brian opened his mouth. Brian habitually called Winnie's name, but was interrupted by Winnie in a domineering manner. "Mr. Brian, please call me Director Chamber." Winnie had opened the door and was to go in. As she was to close the door, she was stopped by Brian. "Winwin..." "I said, call me Director Chambers. Don't call my name." Winnie was angry, because this man, who did not love her, called her name. "Let me in." Brian pushed the door outside and Winnie pushed the door inside. There was only a gap between the two people, but Winnie felt separated by thousands of miles. "I'm sorry, I have a boyfriend. I can't let you in. We can talk tomorrow." Winnie leaned on the door with force, trying to close the gap between her and Brian. And she did not want to see him again. "Winwin, I have to say it now." Brian insisted, he could stop Winnie closing the door easily. He felt sorry for Winnie for what she had done, even if he felt she deserved it, but he wanted to explain why he did not defend her. "Don't say my name! How many times I should say that? We have nothing to do with each other, why call my name?" Winnie shouted loudly, turned around, opened the door and continued to roar. "Get out of here, now. The breakup was my fault doesn't mean you can do whatever you want to me. I just failed in love, but I have no reason to bear other things." Winnie held the door with one hand and pointed at Brian with the other. She was close to break down. If she had been controlling herself, her tears might have flowed down. Every time, he came either to scold her or apologize to her, but Winnie could not bear either of it. She felt that she was going to die, and before she died, she did not want to listen to Brian's cold voice, and did not want to see his cold face. "Leave, go back to your world. Get married, have kids and live your life. Please don't bother me any more except for work." Winnie pushed the door with force before Brian had any reaction. But Brian actually blocked the door with his hand and it was clamped. Brian groaned and then squatted down to cover his hand. Winnie looked at Brian who was in pain, feeling worried. She squatted down to check his injury. "Let me see, let me see." Winnie was anxious, revealing her concern about Brian. Now she forgot that they had broken up. She stretched out her hand to pull Brian's hand carefully, but again she hurt Brian's hand. "Ouch." Brian cried out in pain. "Sorry, sorry, I just wanted to have a look. I am sorry, I'll take you to the hospital. I'll call Doctor Burns." Winnie felt distressed, kneeling on the ground to find the phone. The phone was in her bag and her bag was hung on the door. She came to her bag and reached for her phone with a shaking hand. She did not know how Brian hurt, she just wanted to call Kevin for help. She felt bad that Brian got hurt. When she found the phone, Brian squatted down from behind, and then helped Winnie up. "No need to go to the hospital, I won't die." Brian closed the door with his foot. His injury was worth it, if not injured, Winnie would not have let him in. "Let me take a look, and then I'll decide whether to go to the hospital or not." Winnie's voice was trembling. If it was serious, she would call Kevin. Brian did not speak, but showed his injured left hand to Winnie. "It's swollen and bruised. Let's go to the hospital." Winnie felt distressed about it. Two fingers were bruised and swollen in the same spot. It was not her fingers, but she could feel the pain. Winnie could not help but shedding tears, but she kept her head down to avoid being seen by Brian. "I'm sorry, I... I didn't mean to, I didn't think --" Because of crying, because of the effect of alcohol, because of her bad state, Winnie could not say a complete sentence. "Go to the hospital, now." Winnie then called and booked a taxi. "I said no need to go to the hospital." "I also said you have to go to the hospital. Don't you have words to say with me? I will listen to you after you go to the hospital." Brian insisted, but Winnie insisted too. Winnie could feel relieved only when he went to a doctor. Brian compromised and obediently followed Winnie to the hospital. On the way to the hospital, Winnie had been secretly wiping tears. Brian found it, but he didn't say anything. He had a complex mood, without knowing he should believe that Winnie got a room with another man or this Winnie who cry for hurting him. Winnie seemed to have many faces, and he did not know which one of them was true. He had detailed examination in the hospital. And Winnie felt relieved until determining that his bone had not been hurt. She took a deep breath and secretly wiped away her tears. "I'm glad you are fine. I'm sorry I hurt you." Winnie woke up a lot and gave a sincere apology. "Maybe it's time to listen to me." Brian didn't reject Winnie's apology, but neither did he accept it. He was just saying what he wanted to say. Winnie hesitated for a moment. "Well, go somewhere." Winnie agreed, as compensate for his injury today. She was ready for his scolding explanation, or apology. She just needed to listen to him, as long as he put the words out, Winnie thought it was worth listening to. "Let's go to the bar and have some drink." Brian said sensibly, thinking that they had never drunk in a bar calmly. He wanted to experience how Winnie and Stefan felt when they were in the bar. Two people came to the bar together, where Winnie and Stefan came last time. Standing in front of the bar, Winnie knew that Brian chose it deliberately. Winnie felt he might want to humiliate her in this place. Winnie felt she was right, because they sat down in the same position. Winnie gave an ironic smile and then sat down. When the waiter came, Winnie spoke to him. "Give me five bottles of wine." Winnie finished ordering and then looked at Brian. "This is the same wine that I drank with Stefan. It may not fit to your taste, but you can drink less or not drink, because Stefan did not drink because he needed to send me back." Winnie said sarcastically. Brian said nothing, frowning and waving to the waiter to leave. Winnie seemed to understand his meaning. Neither of them spoke, and in a moment there were five bottles of wine on the table. "Open them all." Winnie commanded, and then the waiter poured five bottles of wine into the decanter. Winnie did not remember how much she drank, but she knew at least she had order five bottles. Since Brian was going to repeat the day, she would have to drink at least five bottles, even if she was still drunk. After the waiter poured the wine, Winnie asked him to leave, and then she poured two glasses of wine herself, put one glass in front of Brian, and held one glass herself. Whether Brian drank it or not, she had no right to interfere. "Cheers." Winnie drank up and then filled it again, but Brian did not touch his glass. "You have checked the video, or you wouldn't have been sitting in this position." Winnie did not ask, but said positively. "You watched the video here, but you didn't watch... Never mind, it's up to you to see what you want to see. Cheers." Winnie did not understand the heart of Brian, and at the critical point, she stopped speaking.