

My Twins 631

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 631 CAN'T SEE PENNY

Clearly knowing that Brian didn't give Winnie money, but Penny still used these words to humiliate Winnie, because she was comfortable, she was happy to do that. "Get out of here. I have no time for bickering. I can go home when Oscar comes back from formalities." This was probably one of the happiest things for Penny these days. She would be free at home and able to carry out her plans with no one restricting her freedom. She would not be back to prison till she made Winnie get her miserable result. "You're going home?" Winnie did not know that because no one told her that. "Yes, don't you know it? I have to go home because my cancer is terminal based on law. Why should I waste government's money on a hospital?" "But you don't have to be happy. Although my family doesn't care about me, Oscar will always take care of me. He has gone to prison for formalities and become my guardian." Penny was complacent, forgetting that she was a cancer patient, who should look sick. "I'm happy that Oscar will take care of you, but think about it, It's better to get treatment." Winnie persuaded her. She knew the reason why Oscar did not tell her. Oscar must be afraid that she would take the initiative to take care of Penny. "Don't talk nonsense, go, don't let me see you again." Penny walked to Winnie and warned her in a small voice. "Don't blame me for losing your life if you are close to me." It was heard by Winnie and Daenerys, except the policeman on guard. Out of the hospital, the two men went to the car. "Winwin, be careful. She still has a grudge against you. Her mind was so twisted that she had done anything wrong. Even though she caused Daenerys Wong to lose his life, she did not feel that she was wrong." "Don't go near her again, and don't pity her. She is unrepentant posing a direct threat to your safety." Penny was dying and pitiful, but Daenerys still could not forgive her behavior. This kind of person was too dangerous, so there was no need to pity her. "Alas..... I can see her hostility to me." "But her life is coming to an end, and I really want to make her understand everything and give up everything before she dies." Winnie's kindness had no bottom line, especially in the face of dying people. She wished that Penny would not go to another world with hate. "No wonder Penny said you are really crazy. You risk your own life. You didn't hear her warning. She's a diabolical monster now, capable of anything. She wouldn't blink an eye to kill you. Why do you still think for her?" "Do not see her again till she is dead." Daenerys was aggressive, and she knew she was going too far for a dying man. But she had to consider Winnie's personal safety. "It's not as serious as you said. I have asked the doctor. She has no strength all over her body now. Winnie said calmly. "Does it take strength to kill a person? Some of them have not been killed with strength. Lady, don't think of things so simple, don't think others are all kind. There is no kinder person in the world than you." Daenerys was worried. Now Penny was a desperado, she would fight with Winnie at all costs. But Winnie could not lose her life because of a moment of carelessness. It was not worth it for someone like Penny. "You mean I'm a fool." Winnie said jokingly. She knew Daenerys said so for her good and knew that there was a risk. But she could not be so indifferent. She would protect herself, in the case of being hurt by Penny. "You are, being too kind is stupid. Don't be careless. You must listen to me on this matter. You must stay away from her. You must not fool with your own safety. You have kids, your aunt and sister. They can't live if an accident happens to you." "Also, you broke up with Brian now. You will have an easy life, so don't make yourself into troubles." Daenerys was not assured so she persuaded Winnie over and over again.

She felt uneasy if she could not have Winnie's guarantee. "Well, I will not go to see her alone, ok?" Winnie said so that Daenerys could feel relieved. She did not know whether she would see Penny alone. But Daenerys reminded her of one thing. Now she had nothing to do with Brian, so she could live a free life without suffering any more. Wendy's mother went out in the morning and didn't come back until noon. She went to her daughter's room to check if there was any dirty laundry to be washed, but found her daughter had not gone to work and was still lying in bed. "Did you just get back, or didn't you go to work at all?" Asked Zoe disapprovingly, thinking that her daughter had come back to rest at noon. "I got up late, so I didn't go to work." Wendy replied with a sad face. "Look at your attitude toward work. Your father has his attitude in the company, or you'd have been fired. You're supposed to..." "Mom, I am depressed, don't nag." Wendy interrupted her mother irritably. If she didn't go to work because she got up late, she was really happy, at least it proved that she could sleep. But she had not slept since yesterday when she heard from Klara that Brian was going to marry Gloria. "I've only said one sentence and you tell me stop nagging... But what's the matter with you?" Zoe was to refute Wendy for her temper, but she felt there was something wrong about Wendy. "Brian is going to marry Gloria." Wendy did not have the courage to say such a fact, let alone to face it. She knew how hard she had worked to get back to Brian. But it was an outcome she had not expected and she did not want to admit. "You should have expected it. Why should you be depressed? I told you last time, if the opponent is Winnie, you still have a chance, but the opponent is Gloria, you should give. Felix is so snobbish, and you've lost on the regard of family background." "Family background, understand? Felix cares most about family background, and that is why Winnie lost. If Winnie has family background as Gloria, Felix would like her." Zoe didn't feel anything wrong. Since the emergence of Gloria, she gave up all her ideas before, and even planned to give up on the idea to deal with Winnie. There was no need. All this was settled. Why should she risk her life for something hopeless? "But I paid so much, I had been with him for years, what should I do? What should our family do without him? How will we live without money and status?" Wendy was looking for all sorts of reasons for her unyielding spirit, anyhow she was now heartache. "Is it too late for you to think that? If you had that thought when you met Brian, our family is not like this now. You played with two men and hid them from each other. Now you're too late to remember our family." "Last time I told you to ask Brian for breakup fee. With that money, we will have nothing worry, and you will not be with him for nothing." It was done. They had to be realistic and deal with it. "I..." "You didn't tell him, did you?" From the way Wendy prevaricated, Zoe knew Wendy didn't ask for money. "What is wrong with your brain? If you don't ask for it, I'll go. I can't let my daughter fight for nothing." Zoe was angry Wendy did not ask Brian for money, so she got inevitably emotional. And then she just walked away. "Mom... Mom... Where are you going... Come back, I will go." Wendy shouted behind, but Zoe no longer believed Wendy. If Wendy dragged till Brian got married, they could not have the money. Winnie came back from the hospital. Because there was no place in the underground parking lot, so she parked her car in the parking lot outside. As soon as she entered the hall on the first floor, she saw a crowd gathered around the reception desk, so she went over to see what was happening. It was Zoe arguing with the receptionist. "You don't want your job anymore, do you? Did you tell Mr. Bennet who I am?" "Madam, I have said Mr. Bennet has not come back from a business trip, who should I go to?" The receptionist said with an embarrassing face, apparently Zoe had been entangled for a period of time, and the receptionist was almost crying. "You're lying. His car is here. It is you not to tell him." "Since, I will go straight in to find him." She rushed to the elevator, but the security guard stopped her, but she was brutal. At this time Winnie turned to leave. She didn't feel it was her business, so she didn't have to intervene. But as she just turned to leave, she was found by Zoe.

“Winnie, wait, you work on the thirty floor, take me to find Mr. Bennet.” Zoe broke away from the shackles of security and rushed to Winnie. “Mr. Bennet isn't here, and you won't see him even if I take you up there.” She did not succeed in avoiding troubles, Winnie could only answer truthfully. “Who are you lying to? Do you think you need to lie to me now? You don't realize your identity, do you?” Zoe instantly vented her anger on Winnie. She thought that Brian did not want to see her, so everyone was lying to her.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 632 ZOE GETS KICKED OUT OF THE BENNET GROUP

Winnie was scolded suddenly. Before she could explain, Zoe continued to abuse with harsh words. “You were kicked out by Brian, how can you be shameless to work here? He's getting married to Gloria. What's the point of you staying here? If you have self-knowledge, get out of here and don't wait for Gloria to drive you away.” Winnie had been enduring. There was whispering about this matter. She felt countless fingers pointing at her, countless eyes mocking her. Yet she wanted to know what she had done wrong, to be accused by someone who had nothing to do with her, and these people whispered at her. “Zoe, you went too far. It doesn't seem to affect you whether I go or not and whether I have relationship with Brian or not. Please show me the least respect.” Winnie said, but it made Zoe anger. Zoe seemed to have found the opportunity to fight back thoroughly and she wanted to take revenge for her grievance last time. Now Winnie had nothing to do with Brian, so Zoe felt she had no scruples to scold her. “You want respect? You stole a boyfriend from others, you are just a mistress who only seduced men with your body...” “Shut up.” Zoe hadn't finished her scolding yet, but there came a cold angry voice. Zoe looked back and found it was Brian. “Have you said enough? This is the Bennet Group, do you think it is the place you can make a scene?” Brian strode to Winnie, angrily staring at Zoe. He was full of awe-inspiring force. His eyes were burning with anger and but his voice was cold. He did not expect to see this scene, to see Winnie was being scolded with such harsh words. He and Winnie had broken up, but on one could give her finger-pointing comments. They had broken up, but she was still the mother of his kids. For the sake of the kids, Brian intervened to stop Zoe. “Brian...” “Don't explain. Leave now.” Brian hated Zoe to a certain extent. If Alfred Yup had not been honest, he would have put everything in the Yup family back to zero. “Let me explain.” Zoe finally realized that Brian's anger came from her abuse of Winnie, so she hurried to explain. But Brian would not give her a chance. “Security, what are you doing? Get her out of here.” Brian gave orders angrily. At this time, the security hurried to Zoe and drove her out. “Brian, you misunderstand... Brian, let me explain.” Zoe's struggling voice was getting farther and farther away, but Brian showed no intention of leaving. He thundered out orders. “The security who are negligent will be dismissed immediately. All the people present standing and watching regardless of the image of the company will be deducted a month's salary. If you have any objection, you should not complain but resign directly. Hearing that, everyone was dumbfounded, panic. They did not expect to lose a month's salary due to a momentary curiosity. However, Brian's anger did not end there. He went on speaking loudly. “I broke up with Director Chambers, but if you look at her in the wrong way, you can go home. We're done, but she's indispensable to the company, and if any of you have the ability to do a better job than she did, you can stand up and denigrate her.” “And most important of all, she is the biological mother of my two kids. One day my kids will inherit this company. Who of you has the guts to challenge my kids by humiliating and pressuring her?” Brian roared loudly, stared at all the people and then left pulling Winnie's hand. When Winnie came back to herself, she had been in the president's exclusive elevator, and the elevator had gone up. Winnie pulled back her hand. "It's my fault for bringing chaos to the company. You'd better fire me before this kind of thing happens again." Winnie took the initiative to dismiss herself, she wanted to leave the company with this excuse. However, it aroused Brian's wrath even more. "Are you stupid to just stand there and not argue when she said that? You just like to embarrass yourself in front of all those people, don't you?" The reason for Brian's resentment was Zoe being vexatious, if Zoe went against others, he might have left. But it was Winnie got scolded, he could not ignore her. Looking at her being scolded, Brian wanted to move her mouth and teach her to scold back. Winnie looked at Brian so intently. She did not understand the heart of Brian, did not understand what he said these mean. "Take me for a fool." Winnie was willing to be a fool not just for today, she did not care once more. "You..." Brian could not continue. What should he say with a fool? The elevator soon arrived at the president's office. Winnie stepped out of the elevator and strode forward to leave the person who was likely to suffocate her as fast as possible. However, her wrist was pulled by Brian again. "You should explain what just happened." Brian's voice was still cold, but much better than that when he was in the elevator. "There's nothing to explain. What you see is what it is." Explain what? She had already taken all the blame. "Winnie, what do you want? Why didn't you explain anything?" Winnie's rebellious attitude made Brian think of that she did not explain about many things. She made some misunderstanding become a fact and made their relationship end so quickly. Winnie shook off the hand of h Brian, and then sarcastically looked at him. "Explain? Are you asking me why I didn't explain?" "Have you ever given me a chance to explain important things and things that need explaining? I am not the one who has to explain." Winnie was angry. She hated most that things were over, but he still asked for explanation. He clearly saw how she was scolded, but he let her explain. Was she so easy to be bullied because she had no parents on her back? Winnie took a look at Brian with resentment and then turned to leave. They were done. Why this nightmare was still happening? What did she do? Why she should explain? Zoe was kicked out of the Bennet Group, humiliated and pissed off. When she got home, she couldn't wait to talk to her daughter. "Brian must have a problem. He has broken up with Winnie, but he still protects her. The Bennet Group got all those people looking at him yelling at me and having me thrown out. Do you think..." "You went to make a scene?" Wendy asked in surprise. At the beginning, she did not realize the seriousness of the matter. She did not chase out to stop her mother, because she wanted her mother to be refused and her mother would not ask breaking up fees again. She remembered what she'd learned last time and would not cause any more trouble. But what she said had caused troubles and provoked Winnie. Zoe did not admit nor deny, but felt guilty. "Mom, did you provoke Winnie again? Why do you bother her, she has nothing to do with you." "Tell me all about it." Without her mother's admission, looking at her silence, Wendy knew she must have screwed things up. "I didn't mean anything against her. They stopped me from going in..." Zoe told the story, understating her fault and magnifying others' fault. "It is normal for Brian to be away on a business trip. Even if others cheat you, it has nothing to do with Winnie, why you provoked her?" Hearing that her mother said, Wendy was sure that her mother had made a trouble. Rely on her past relationship with Brian, her mother thought she had free access to the Bennet Group. Wendy needed to have appointment first before he met Brian, she did not have any privilege, why her mother came to him directly? Zoe had chagrin, but she defended for herself. "I remembered how humiliating we were the last time and wanted to get my pride back." "Have you got it back? Have you forgotten she still has something on me?" Wendy asked a sharp question. Since Winnie knew her secret, she did not dare to provoke Winnie. "Who knew that Brian would still protect her after breaking up with her? If I knew, I would not have provoked her." Even if Zoe realized her mistake, she really did not expect that Brian would suddenly come back. And at that time she forgot Winnie had Penny's secret "They said Brian was away on a business trip and there were a lot of people watching. I thought I'd scolded her and show them all..." Wendy didn't want to listen to her mother. "Mom, these are your real thoughts. Winnie did not provoke you, it is you caused the trouble. What happened? Who was humiliated?" "How many times have I told you, even if Brian is separated from her, she is the mother of two kids? For the sake of the kids, can Brian ignore her and watch her being bullied by others?" Wendy was unable to face the recent things. Even if she could not get back to Brian, it could end like this. They could not a couple, but at least they could be friends. If she encountered difficulties in the future, he would not sit idly by as a friend. Zoe finally stopped talking and defending herself. She realized that she had screwed up and she would not get the money. "Well, what can we do? It's all happened. Try to fix it. And money..." "Mom, you still think about money? You screwed up things, how can I ask him for money? You cut off the money because you are reckless." Wendy didn't even know how to solve the matter, how could she still think about the money?

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 633 ANOTHER 50 MILLION

Penny finally came back home, which she and Brian had. Although things had changed, there was a feeling of home here. It was the warmest and most practical one she had ever remembered. Even if she really suffered from cancer, she still wanted to die here. "Oscar, you live here with me, alas... I wish I hadn't caused you any trouble." Klara said sadly, as if she was really a cancer patient could not see hope. "Don't talk nonsense. You should be positive. And I don't feel trouble in taking care of you. It would be my pleasure." Oscar said lightly, sounding pleasant. In fact, he was not happy, but in front of Penny, his depression certainly would affect Penny's mood. If she wanted to stay in a good mood and live longer, Oscar could only be more optimistic than Penny. "You are only one making me happy. Okay, I'll be positive as you say. Every day I live is a day I earn." Penny did not want to let her lies hurt Oscar, but she had to occasionally pretend to be sick. "You are right. You are the best and will overcome this disease." "By the way, you're not well, and I can't be with you 24 hours a day. I hired a nanny to cook and clean for us. She can take care of you while I'm at work. You just need to stay home and get recovered." Oscar arranged everything, so that Penny did not have to worry about such trifles. "It sounds so happy. I feel loved by my husband." Penny said, at the same time she felt bitter. If she did not suffer from cancer, she would have no such treatment to be spoiled. "If it weren't for me, we would be married now. You would be the happiest woman in the world, and I would be the man who loves his wife the most." Oscar said jokingly, but it was true. At that time, Penny liked him very much, but he had his own problems and could not be with Penny. If he had no problem accepting Penny, maybe Penny would not be like this now. "So you'll have to take care of me now to make it up to me." Penny's heart became more and more bitter, but her face still wore a smile. The past was the past. No matter how it was, it could not change. All she could do now was to face the reality. The next day Wendy came to the Bennet Group to find Brian to apologize. In the office, she felt embarrassed to face Brian. "You want to see me?" Before Wendy spoke, Brian asked. "It is... Yes... Actually, I came here today to apologize for my mother." Wendy paused several times before finishing. She felt that she had never been so embarrassed to face Brian. Hearing that, Brian sighed, thinking of Zoe was unruly and Winnie suffered injustice. But the way Wendy looked showed that she had nothing to do with it. But there were some words he had to say for Winnie. "Your mother was a bit out of line yesterday. She was told that I was on a business trip and she still made a scene in the hall. I don't know what she wants." "I'm sorry, I'm really sorry. I agree she was out of line and I apologize for her." Wendy stood up, and then bowed to Brian sincerely. However, this apology let Brian could not continue to blame. "What does your mother want with me?" Brian asked coldly. "In fact, it is all my fault, I did not stop her." It was hard for Wendy to say, but she had to. Before she came, her mother told her she must try to get some money for breaking up. Brian had given her 100 million, but she did not tell her mother. She did not want her mother to know it, once she knew it, she would be at the mercy of all obstacles. However, if she could not have money back, her mother would not stop nagging her and might even bother her. Wendy had no better way, and could only tell the truth. And the result depended on Brian's attitude. "Mom and I had a fight at home yesterday, and she scolded me for breaking up with you and not getting any money. In a fit of rage, she came to ask you to break up money." Wendy explained what happened yesterday. "Don't misunderstand me, Brian, this is not my opinion. You've already given me a hundred million yuan and a house. I won't ask you for a break up fee." "Your mother doesn't know I gave you money?" Brian frowned and asked Wendy. One hundred million plus a villa of more than ten million, the break up fee was already sky-high, why Wendy's mother was not satisfied? "Alas..... She doesn't know. I didn't tell her." "In fact, it is my fault. My deliberate concealment caused my mother's imbalance. After all these years of you supporting me, I'm used to being a big spender. If my mother finds out about the money, she will control me and take the money. And it would be hard for me to ask her for money." Wendy tried her best and she could not control Brian's thought. However, even if Brian ignored this and stopped giving her money, she understood. If she got no a penny, she would give half of her 100 million to her mother and said it was from Brian. At this time, Brian didn't know whether to blame himself or get angry. He had created good conditions for Wendy so that not she did not adapt to it after losing him. And he was angry that Wendy had such a vulgar mother. She regarded money more important than her daughter's happiness. Brian took another deep breath, then stood up and walked over to Wendy. "I'll give you another 50 million to your mother so she won't come here again. If she comes back again, I will take back this 50 million." "As for your 100 million, keep it for yourself and don't let your mother know." It was the only thing he could do for Wendy. "Brian..." Wendy was shocked, did not expect that Brian would really give her money. She didn't expect him to forgive her mother's mistake yesterday. "Brian, I can't take this money. I can't face you anymore." Brian's words made her ashamed. "The money is for your mother, and you needn't worry about it. I will transfer it to your mother's account, after that, she is not allowed to step into the Bennet Group or to disturb Winnie." Brian bought peace with money. If the money did not meet Zoe's requirement, she might bother Winnie even if she dare not come to the Bennet Group again. 50 million for Winnie's peace was worth it. Wendy walked out of the Bennet Group despondently. Thinking about Brian's words and his cold face, Wendy understood Brian was after all unreachable. Warning her mother not to come to the Bennet Group and not to disturb Winnie, in fact, it was a remind to her that she should not do struggle in vain. When Wendy came home, she heard her mother shouting excitedly. "50 million, Wendy, my account just got 50 million. Was it from Brian? Zoe could not control her excitement. She knew that Brian would give Wendy break up fees that Wendy would make a hit. This showed that Brian still had affection to Wendy. Yes, it was from Brian. 50 million, you're satisfied?" Wendy felt that she was telling these stories with great shame. She asked Brian for money again and again, ruining her dignity, as well as all their memories. Brian gave her money and destroyed her dignity. From now on, they had nothing to do with other. "What do you mean I'm satisfied? I'm doing this for you, aren't I?"

Zoe said she didn't want it, but her smile betrayed her heart. 50 million, plus the house. His family probably would not be able to make that much money in two lifetimes. Wendy stayed with Brian for so many years, she was not in vain, at least she got money for compensation, which was comfort to her heart. "After you have the money, you cannot step into the Bennet Group and cannot bother Winnie again. If you don't keep your promise, he'll take the money back, the house back, and he'll kick me and Dad out of the company." Wendy added, so as to completely coerce her mother. She was afraid that her mother would push her luck and go on asking for money. "Do you think I'm stupid? I am satisfied with the money. Brian has many women around him. I wish you stay away from him. Give up on him and don't try it again. Without warning from Brian, Zoe knew what to do. She knew clearly that Wendy had not a higher status as Winnie. How could she fight for favor? Wendy should keep distance with Brian. Now that she'd got the money, she would not do anything. "Mom, I'm in control of my affairs. Leave me alone. You just have to behave well." Wendy said and walked out. "Stop. How can I leave you alone? You've been on the wrong track, you know that? If you had listened to me, how could there be such a mess today? You and Brian would have been married long ago." Unconvinced, Zoe said to Wendy. She had thought of any possibilities ahead of Wendy, but Wendy didn't do it according to what she said. "Now that you've been dumped and given your chance to someone else, you resent me. If I hadn't forced you to ask for the money, Brian wouldn't have given..." Wendy still left in a while. She really did not want her mother to put the past things repeatedly. Wendy's heart was in a mess, and she could not listen to any of her mother's reminders. She was confused and did not know how to go. Now she was like a lost child at a crossroad, no direction was clear to her. Winnie, Gloria, who could she surpass? Who she could replace? Her repeated requests for money had blocked all the possibilities.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 634 REFUSE TO GO TO THE SUBURBS

Wendy walked out of the villa angrily. As she drove the car out of the gate of the yard, she was shocked to see the two people standing in the front of her car. Wendy widened her eyes and thought she was dreaming. Her eyes even blinked again and again and she confirmed it again and again. When a girl smiled at her like an angel, she was sure that she was not dreaming and that what she saw was real. The angel's smile, however, did not infect her, but immediately alarmed her. She parked the car and ran out quickly. "What are you doing here?" Wendy was not surprised, but scared. Even the tone of her voice was alarmed. "Anna misses you. I have no reason not to bring her here." It was Jonny, obviously with a face of evil looking at Penny. "I thought you couldn't go abroad?" Wendy was still in shock and wondered how Jonny came to her country, she was unprepared at this moment. "How can it be absolute? You think I will never come to your country in my life? That's why you are surprised to see me?" Jonny's evil smile made Wendy panic. "Yes, it is incredible..." "Mommy." Anna hugged Wendy's thigh and called her with a sweet voice. Wendy cannot bear such a meeting, but she could refuse her daughter. She stooped down and held her daughter into her arms. "Honey, I miss you." Wendy suddenly felt the importance of her daughter to her and felt that she had long missed her daughter. "Since you miss her, let us in. We haven't booked a hotel, you can't let us sleep on the street." Jonny said with disdain and was to walk in the villa carrying a suitcase. At this time Wendy hurriedly got up and stopped him. "You can't go in there. Come with me. I'll put you up." Wendy could not let Jonny go to her house and could not let him see her family. Wendy drove Jonny and her daughter to the villa Brian gave her.

Wendy knew Jonny was a rogue, if she did not settle him, she would not have a good day. "It is splendid. Wendy, you live such a good life but our daughter and I suffer, you are so heartless." Jonny was shocked by the luxurious decoration of the villa. He believed it belonged to Wendy, or she wouldn't have hidden them here. "It's not mine. It's from a friend. He went abroad after finishing the decoration. He gave me the key and told me to take care of it." Wendy did not admit that the villa was hers, and she could tell Jonny that she had money. "Your friend has put a lot of faith in you, trusting you with such a fine house. It doesn't feel real to me." Jonny said doubtfully. In his opinion, Wendy's family can afford to live in such a nice house. "Whether you believe it or not, it is up to you. There is nothing to eat here. I will get some." Wendy wanted to leave for a while, not to escape, but to relieve some of her shock in an independent space. "Don't take this opportunity to run away. If you do, I'll take Anna to your house for dinner. I can find your house." Jonny reminded. He not only could find Wendy's home, but also Wendy's company, Brian's company and Winnie. He'd been here for over a month, and he'd been going through everyone's personal information for over a month. Finally, he appeared in front of Wendy. "I won't." Wendy gave an answer before she walked out. She'd run away if she could, away from this scum, the devil. But he found her home, where could she go? Jonny would not give up. Wendy was now the most helpless and confused, she felt she was going to break down. She did not want to give up on Brian, but now Jonny had come to the door. She had no a chance to breathe for having constant problems. Wendy could not help but ask herself what her original intention of returning home was and why it came to this end. Winnie and Brian had finished talking about the custody of the kids. Two kids temporarily were taken care by Rufus. It was not that Winnie was busy, nor Rufus forced to leave two kids, but two kids wanted to live with Rufus. The smiles on the faces of the two kids were much less since they learned that their parents had separated. Even a rare smile was not genuine. They chose to live with their grandfather in the suburbs because they were afraid that their mother would be tired to take care of them, and they wanted to give their mother free space. They had their ideas and good arrangement. Regular as usual, they went back to mom's on Saturday and Sunday to play with their aunt. It was the end of the month and weekend, it was customary for the two kids to go to the old house with Brian. "Great Grandpa wants you to go there early today." Brian said to the kids in the living room. As usual, they just went for dinner at night. But it was only noon today when his grandpa called the two kids. To Brian's surprise, both kids refused. "I won't go." "Neither will I." The kids gave a firm answer. "Why?" Brian hunched down and asked the two kids patiently. "I don't want to see great grandpa. I don't want to be controlled by him like you." He complained great grandpa. But Luke did not directly say that he did not like great grandpa. Brian was shocked to hear that. He did not have his own idea and ego as the kids. "Luke, great grandpa won't interfere in your life..." Brian wanted to enlighten two kids, but he was interrupted by Luke. "Why not? He's just trying to control my life. He wants me to do what he says like you do. I like software and computers, but he asked me to study hard and go to the best international school of economic management. His purpose is obvious enough." "Dad, you want to be controlled by grandpa, but I don't. I will live my life the way I want to live it. I will never be a slave to the Bennet Group." Luke's words not only shocked Brian, but also Rufus, who incredibly looked at Luke. He did not e would have his own ideas at such a young age and have his own plan. Had he experienced too much early, or he just said it but did not understand the meaning of it. "Luke, you are right. Everyone should live their lives, should not be under secular control. But....." "But why didn't you think so, Dad? Why did you fixate on the Bennet Group and Great Grandpa? If you had not listened to Great Grandpa, you would not have broken up with Mom." Megan interrupted Brian. As usual, her little face was serious and earnest. Megan continued to ask dad. "Dad, do you really love Mom? If you do, why can't you do something for mom? If you treat Mom well early and show her enough sincerity, will she fall in love with someone else?" As Brian still didn't know how to answer, Luke said in a serious tone. "So don't blame mom. Even if mom really likes someone else, you gave the guy the chance." In the face of the two kids' query and dissatisfaction, Brian was speechless. The kids did not put Winnie made a mistake as the main reason for the breakup, they saw his negligence to Winnie. But which was the main reason they broke up? "Dad, we're not going to great grandpa's, and never again." Luke stopped seeing that his dad was speechless and did not feel guilty for his mom. It seemed his aunt was right. They could not interfere in adult affairs. Luke pulled Megan upstairs to his room. "The kids are in a bad mood, so don't push them. I will ask Paul to stay at home with them." Rufus was in dilemma, feeling distressed for his son and his grand kids. He didn't know how to comfort then or who he should comfort. "Send them to Winnie." Brian was sad, but he would not force his kids. The kids wanted to make their own decisions in life, and he supported them. "Winwin is not at home. He called me this morning and said she had gone to see Penny. She asked me to take care of the kids today." If it were not for Winnie's call, Rufus would have sent the two kids to her. "What? See Penny?" Brian frowned instantly. How could she go to see Penny? Didn't she know that Penny regarded her as an enemy? Without hesitation, Brian took out his cell phone and made a call. "Ok, I see. You don't have to worry about anything else, just protect Winnie's safety." Brian took a sigh of relief after that. He did not know that Winnie could be so kind. Penny was clearly faking illness, must Winnie cooperate with her? The kids did not go to the suburbs, so Brian had to go alone with his father. They were gonna have lunch there and be back, as the family union in this month. In the old house, Felix waited with joy but became disappointed when he did not see the kids. "Why didn't Megan and Luke come?" Felix asked in a solemn voice, his eyes full of incomprehensible inquiries. "They... They have classes at this hour and can't come until the evening." Brian answered with hesitation. At first he wanted to tell the truth, but he was afraid of hurting his grandfather, so he could only find an excuse. "Oh." Felix was dubious and didn't believe it completely because Brian didn't answer fluently. "Brian, when will Jack be transferred back?" Thomas opened his mouth. "We'll see what he does, but he's doing well in the branch. I think it suits him out there." Brian answered coldly and was not warm as Winnie was there.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 635 DECISIVE ANSWER

Thomas did not want his son to be outside all the time, he must return to the head office. Only when he often met with directors, it could lay connections for his future. "He can't stay away all the time. It's not easy to come back since it is too far away. It's hard to work and take care of himself when he is alone. Bring him back at the right opportunity." "Uncle Thomas, you don't have to worry about it. No matter where Jack is, he is taken care of, he has always been very popular with women. He will come back when he is good enough. He has to come back and help me." Brian guessed why Thomas wanted Jack back every time they met. For his peace of mind, also in order to no longer hear such nagging, Brian gave Thomas an answer in euphemism. "Well, it is up to you. I believe you can train him well." Brian's words really made him feel comfortable, but Thomas did not believe that Brian would have Jack by his side. "Brian, come with me to the study." Felix's face had already lost its joyful anticipation and was now as grave as a statue. Then Brian went to the study with his grandfather. "Tell me the real reason why the kid don't come." Felix asked seriously. Brian knew from his grandfather's attitude that his grandfather did not believe his lies at all, so he could only tell the truth. "They say they won't come again because they don't want you to control their lives." Brian told him the real reason, which made Felix have heartache. "Why do they say that?" Felix continued to ask, wondering what the kids had been through and what they had heard. "Winnie and I have broken up, the kids thought I broke up with Winnie because you force me to get married, so they don't want to come here, don't want to see you. They think you're the reason they don't have a home." Brian only said generally, and did not elaborate on the reason for breaking up with Winnie. But Felix asked. "Why did you break up?" "Never mind, anyhow we broke up." Even if Felix asked him a hundred times, he would not tell the reason. No matter who asked him, he didn't say why. All the people who the fact were told by Winnie. "Where are the kids? How are the kids arranged?" In fact, Felix knew about the arrangement of kids. He and Winnie had discussed about it, if Brian didn't give her the kids, she would have come to him. "Winnie and I decided that she would raise kids, but the kids don't live with Winnie, they will always be in the suburbs and only go to Winnie's in the weekend." For the kids' decision, Brian understood. They had home wherever they wanted to go. But looking at the kids suddenly became strong and independent, lost naive smile, he felt sorry for them. "Why not go to their mother's? It's close to school. It's much easier to get to school." Felix did not understand, because Winnie said she would be responsible for taking care of the kids. "Alas..... Two kids are sensible, afraid their mom is too tired after getting off work. And they said dad would get married, and mom couldn't just stay single for them. Mom should have her life, too. They want their mother to have her time on Monday to Friday, so that she could find a boyfriend." What Brian said was exactly what the kids said to him. He was heartbroken to say that. The kids did not cry for the sake of their parents. But that was the worst way for them to grow up. Megan once said in a dream that she had no home and now only her brother. When Brian thought of that sad scene, he broke down. The kids said nothing because they bore all the sadness. "Alas....." Hearing that, Felix took a sign. "It hurts the kids. You and Winnie have no chance to get back together?" Felix asked for the sake of the kids and Winnie. The kids were sensible, but they were in silent protest. It would remain in their hearts for a lifetime, a scar that would not be erased. And Winnie did nothing wrong, such a result was really unfair to Winnie. "No, even if we are back together, there will be no good end." Brian answered simply and decisively without hesitation. "What about Gloria? What is your plan?" Felix did not persuade, because he and Brian do not have the same definition of a good ending. "I have officially proposed marriage to Gloria, but she is still thinking about it and has not replied to me. If she says yes to, Grandpa, plan the wedding, and I will do whatever you want, as long as it's good for the Bennet Group." Brian said with bitterness. He understood the words of Megan and Luke at this moment. If grandpa accepted Winnie at the beginning, if Winnie was not wronged in his family, she might not find another man. And his family would be happy now. It seemed that the kids saw further than he did. Why he just put all blame on Winnie, and thought he had done nothing wrong? As soon as Brian said this, there was no way to continue the conversation. Felix, who was about to achieve his goal, was not happy when he saw Brian promised so unwillingly. He destroyed the happiness of a family by depriving the happiness of kids for the development of the Bennet Group and for the future of Brian. Was it worth it? Winnie came to see Penny with Daenerys. It seemed to have returned to their school days. Winnie, Daenerys, Oscar and Penny were together. In school days, as now, the four of them had always appeared together. Now, the three were busy in the kitchen, and Penny sat on the sofa alone weakly. As for her physical condition, Penny felt that it was not as good as before. But she thought that being in prison for so long made her weak. And these days in the hospital she had used some anti-cancer drugs. She thought it had an impact for her who did not have cancer. It looked like it was gonna take a while to get recovered. "Dinner is ready." Oscar came over and said to Penny, and then bent down to help her up. "What are you doing? It's not like I can't walk. You don't need to help me up." With that, Penny got up, she was not disabled, she just felt weak, she could still walk. "Yes, I am superfluous. Walk yourself." Oscar said jokingly. He had agreed with Winnie, no matter what Penny's attitude was, they had to remain optimistic. Penny came to the table and sat down, looking up at Winnie and Daenerys. "Are you going to eat here, too?" The implication was to drive them out. "Your nanny is off today, and why don't allow us to eat the food we cook? Even if you don't, we have to wait until we finish eating." Winnie said jokingly, she could understand that Penny could not accept them. "Aren't you afraid that I poison in the food, I am not responsible if you are dead." Penny said viciously, targeting mainly Winnie. It made Winnie uncomfortable, but she would continue to endure it. "We cooked the meals, we will eat them together. If you poison, let's die together." "Take it as the last meal for our life." Daenerys joked too. She wanted to punch Penny, but she would regret it if she did. Penny was dying, Daenerys did not plan to be angry with her. "Penny, Winwin cooked this dish and soup for you. It's all good for your health." "Winwin has also prepared a recipe for you, so you can ask the nanny to make it for you." Oscar said while helping Penny with food. "You didn't poison me, did you?" Penny looked up and asked Winnie coldly. "Will it be too late to poison now?" Winnie smiled and asked Penny in a humorous way. "Let's try and see which one is toxic and which one is not." Oscar said. They tried so hard to create a relaxed atmosphere, not taking Penny as a patient. So she can relax a little bit. At the end of the meal, Oscar suddenly remembered a similar scene from a long time ago. "Well, do you remember we ate in the canteen at school? Does it look like today? I sat on one side with Penny, and you two said opposite, almost every time." Oscar inadvertently mentioned the past, making everyone suddenly think of the carefree era. "You were the best to Penny, saving her place every time. Both of us could only be jealousy." Daenerys suddenly got excited from the bottom of her heart. At that time, they were happy every day. There were no miscellaneous thoughts and no grudges. There had only true feelings for each other. "I don't like to hear that, I was good to you too. I took up four seats at a time so that we can have meal together." Oscar retorted, even occupying a seat was a happy thing to him in those days. "That is because you ran fast. If you wait for us, we would not have food, let alone seats.." Winnie chimed in with a smile. It was happy for four people to think of the past. Winnie was glad that Penny was still alive, or it would only be sad to remember the past. "I don't argue with you, if I ran slowly, you would certainly stand to eat." While others ran for love and livelihood, Oscar ran for a seat. He still missed it. Penny had been silent, but she had been back to memories in those days.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 636 THE LAST PERSON WHO WANTED HER TO GET HURT

Penny remembered that they were so happy, so carefree back then, thinking about it, she unconsciously raised her corner of mouth. But when she got back to reality, the radian of her mouth disappeared. There were still four of them, and all three of them had good prospects, good careers, and good lives, but she was a criminal, making a mess of her life and not even seeing the future. "I'm full." Thinking of this, Penny suddenly had a feeling of shame, so she got up and left. She felt that she was out of her league with the three, that she had nothing in common with them. Three people's memories and three people's smiles, because of Penny's sudden departure, came to an abrupt halt. One looked at the other, but no one spoke to Penny for fear that she would be angry. After lunch, Daenerys left because she missed her kid. When she left, she asked Winnie to go with her, but Winnie wanted to stay. Daenerys had to ask Oscar to pay attention to the safety of Winnie. After Daenerys left, Penny went to her room to take a nap, while Winnie and Oscar stayed in the living room. "Go to sleep if you're tired." Winnie sat on the sofa while working on her laptop, talking with Oscar. "I won't sleep. Daenerys told me to keep you safe. I can't leave you to sleep alone." Oscar was lying on the sofa. A little tired, but not sleepy, he had not a habit of napping. "Daenerys is too cautious. I think I'll be fine." Winnie was not so sure actually, but she was not as cautious as Daenerys. "Daenerys was right to be careful." Oscar agreed with Daenerys' idea. Discretion would do everyone good. "By the way, how is Penny doing these two days?" Since they were not sleeping, they would have a talk. From the morning to now, Winnie did not have the opportunity to ask Penny's situation. "She is ok. I think this is the god's love for her. Other cancer patients could not stand the pain in the terminal stage, but she could stand it now. When she has a stomachache, the medicine the doctor prescribed will make her better." Oscar observed Penny carefully every day, fortunately, her reaction was not big, otherwise she would be anxious. "Is she good in spirits?" Winnie continued to ask, she thought the same as Oscar. She felt that Penny was the object of god's mercy. Although it ended her life early, it was a blessing that it ended without pain. "Yes, much better than we expected. It may have something to do with her not knowing the truth." As he said this, Oscar lowered his voice and looked up at Penny's room on the second floor, making sure she couldn't hear him before he continued. "It is good. Keep concealing it since she does not know. Being in good spirits will do her good." "Yes, hide as much as you can." Winnie agreed. "Oscar, there's something I have to tell you." Winnie also lowered her volume, also making sure that Penny could not hear her before she continued. "Her father is a suspect in the murder and the police do not rule out that Penny will contact her father. So you must be careful and do not confront his father if he comes here." Winnie was worried about Oscar, so she reminded him to be careful. "Yeah, I know." Oscar would be careful, but he felt that Penny would protect him even if her father tried to hurt him. So he didn't have to worry too much. Winnie went home before dinner, because she had to cook for Vanessa. Back home, she began to cook and refused Vanessa's help. Before the meal, they heard the sound of entering the password. Winnie guessed that the two kids came back. What she did not expect was that the person who sent her kids back was Brian. She looked at Brian in surprise. He said they could not see each other when there was nothing important happened, even the kids' things were dealt with by Stella. "What are you doing here?" Winnie forced herself to ask calmly. "I have something to tell you." Brian did not hide his intention and walked in directly. "Mom, we haven't had dinner yet, have you had the dinner ready?" Megan had smelled the delicious food. "Yes, it's ready. Go ahead and eat." Winnie asked the kids to eat, but did not invite Brian. She would not do it again after what she learned last time. But Megan said. "Dad hasn't eaten either. Let's eat." "I am not hungry." Brian did not say that he had eaten as he did last time, but not being hungry was also a way of saying no. Winnie was glad that she had not invited him to eat, or she would be embarrassed. "Dad, Mom. You have broken up, but you can't stay away from each other. Other people's parents get along like friends even if they broke up. Can't you even have a meal together?" Luke stood aside and asked his parents. The question put everyone to shame. Even Vanessa felt sad about it. Brian thought for a moment. "Eat first, and then we'll talk." He didn't know what to say to the kids, but they would be heartbroken if he turned down the meal. So the five of them sat down to eat. After dinner, Winnie asked Vanessa to wash dishes, and then she and Brian went out together. The two men had not gone far, but were near the elevator. "Go ahead." Winnie spoke first. "It's about Penny. You went to see her today?" Brian did not know anything about Penny and only knew what Office Lee told him. "Yes. She got out of the hospital and moved back to the house you two lived.

Neither her sister nor her brother does not take care of her, and now Oscar moved to her home to take care of her. Daenerys and I can go to see her when we can.” Winnie said simply. Brian did not ask her about Penny, nor did she tell him about it before. During this period of time, she avoided meeting him as much as possible and could not communicate with Brian outside of official business. “You cooperate when she feigns illness? Aren't you at risk if you go to see her?” Brian was concerned about Winnie, afraid of what happened to her. But his way of caring was unacceptable to Winnie. Winnie looked at Brian in silence. “She is not faking it, he is really sick. The doctor has confirmed that she has terminal cancer.” Winnie said seriously, which shocked Brian. He always thought Penny was faking it, and he never thought she actually had cancer. “A terminal stomach cancer?” Brian seemed unsure. “Yes, forget about past grudges; after all, she doesn't have long time to live. Go and see her if you can.” Winnie was kind, hoping Brian also could forgive Penny, so that Penny could die with peace of mind. “Stay out of my business. Even if she does have cancer, you can't go near her. She has a cancer and she will be more reckless. She'll think it's worth it to die with a person died with her.” Brian was worried more about Winnie's safety because of the true condition of Penny. They broke up, but he was the last person who didn't want her to get hurt. “Well, I talked too much. You warned me to stay out of your business. I know she's dangerous. I'll take care of it myself.” “If there's nothing else, I gotta go.” Winnie said and turned around, and then stopped. “From now on, when you and I meet our kids, don't be so different. Just be friends in face of them. If you can't cooperate, don't meet me again.” With that, Winnie went back home. She said so because she did not want what happen today happened again, and did not want the kids to be sad before of their estranged relationship. Leo stayed with Emily for four days, Four days later, he had been recovered and had no excuse to ask Emily to come to him. Four days later, everything seemed to be back to square one. She refused to pick up his phone and did not stay at home. She was like disappearing from the world. Leo had accumulated some work during his illness, and it took him two days to deal with it. Today he finally had time to look for Emily. He first called Emily, as usual, she did not answer, but later she turned off her phone. Leo had to send her Wechat message. “If I can't get in touch with you by the end of the day tonight, I'll go straight to your house to meet your parents, tell them what happened to us, and then directly ask them to marry you to me.” Leo knew this was a bad idea and had tried it several times. But it might work. After sending the message, Leo went to work. Unexpectedly Emily had not replied to him. Leo could only drive straight to Emily's home after work. Charles had not come back, only Christine was at home. Leo had to wait until the two old people were there, so he decided to wait for Charles to come back. “Christine, what's Emily doing these days? I can't see her all the time.” Leo chatted first, incidentally asked Emily's condition. “The company received a foreign project these days, and the interpreter happened to be away. Emily went to the company temporarily to help translate. She has been busy for days.” Christine said, it seemed that Emily was really busy. Leo wondered if it was the reason she did not pick up his phone. Should he give her a little more time? No, she had been so busy for so days but she still got time to call back. He would stick to the original plan. “Is she busy now?” Leo continued to ask. “No, she is back. She visited G city with the customers, and she came back this morning at 8 o'clock. She is sleeping in her room now.” Christine seemed distressed when she said that. But then she dropped her voice and spoke mysteriously. “Leo, you must hurry up. Charles has been watching Emily these days. He said that she is not only a good translator, but also has great ideas about business. He intends to let Emily go abroad for training and come back to help him.”

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 637 TWO MONTHS OR FIVE MONTHS

Emily's mother Christine had to remind Leo of this thing, after all, daughter and business are very important for Charles. Christine continued. "Now that Charles has this idea, I can no longer help you keep Emily. After all, Charles knows I'm faking illness." "How long will it take?" Leo was also aware of the seriousness of the problem and was afraid that his efforts would be in vain if Emily went aboard for a long time. "I don't know that yet." Christine could not give the exact time, because she had not yet discussed this matter in detail with her husband and daughter. Since this was the case, Leo felt that he should tell them about his relationship with Emily, and there might be a chance to save the situation. Just then, Charles came back from work. "Leo is there, you hadn't been here for many days." "Hello, Charles. I was sick and busy so I had not come in the past days." Leo rose to greet respectfully. Then he couldn't wait to speak. "Charles, come and sit, I have something to tell you." Leo stood and did not sit down until Charles came and sat down. "OK, go ahead." Charles said with a generous manner. "Well, actually I and..." Before he could finish, he heard a huge sound from upstairs, then Emily came close to him. Emily wearing pajamas, hair messy and sleepy eyes ran downstairs in panic, came to Leo to cover Leo's mouth. "Tell me what you want to say." Emily stared at Leo, but in front of her parents, her voice was not presumptuous. Emily was flustered because she read Leo's message. Afraid Leo really said it out, she rushed down to stop him. "Mom, Dad, I'm taking him upstairs. We have something to say." Emily pulled Leo upstairs. And later she looked back to her parents. "Mom, Dad, get dinner ready. Leo will eat here." Emily had to do so, or her parents would follow upstairs to eavesdrop. And it would have no difference with that Leo said it out, and her parent would sure marry him to Leo. She pulled Leo into her his room, confirmed that parents did not come after and then locked the door. "Come here, don't stand by the door." Afraid that her parents would hear them, Emily pulled Leo to the cloakroom. "Are you crazy that you could talk to my parents about that?" In the cloakroom, she did not give Leo time for panting but angrily blamed Leo. When she woke up and saw Leo's message, she checked the time to make sure Leo was at her house. She was so frightened at the moment as if she had seen a ghost. Emily was scared, now if she could talk to Leo in a harmonious manner, she must be crazy. "You just woke up? Did you just see my message?" Leo was not angry, but gave a smile when he saw that Emily was messy. Well, Leo was in a great mood to see her no matter what she looked like or what she said. "Yes, but why are you smiling? Is it funny that I look like this? If funny, why do you still pester me? I will be like this every day after we get married." Emily was angry that Leo was smiling at this moment. She did not know what to say but mentioned marriage unconsciously. Emily was furious, but Leo gave a happy smile. He did not answer Emily's question, but directly held Emily into his arms. "There seems to be hope for me. You are already thinking of marriage. Don't worry. I love you even if you are like this or a dissatisfied wife." Leo said sincerely. No matter what kind of person Emily was, what he would become later, he loved her as always. "You..." Emily was touched by Leo's words. In a close distance, she felt his heartbeat so real, hoping that his words were as real as his heartbeat. "Let's start over, give me another chance, I will not let you down, I will not deceive you again." Leo once again confessed his love. This time Emily did not interrupt Leo's words, she did not immediately say no. She was seriously thinking about whether this man's chest could be relied on for a lifetime and whether it could warm her for a lifetime. Emily rationally pushed Leo away, stepped back to keep her distance. "Leo, Dad asked me to help him when I came back from business school. Actually, I wanted to go abroad to enrich myself and then come back to help my family. I can't let my parents support me forever. I have to do something." Emily did not directly answer Leo's question, because she had not made up her mind. Getting along with Leo these days made her touched, but she did not have impulse to say yes now. She wanted to give herself some time to think it over. "Will you go abroad? How long will it take?" Leo did not force Emily, knowing that she still minded his past. "I will be back in about two months. I want to go abroad. I will think about our situation and give you an answer in two months." Emily originally wanted to be aboard for a few years, but not she shortened it to two months. But Leo could not accept that she went abroad, because it was too difficult to meet. Besides, with two months apart from him, she might probably forget him. She might say no to him when she came back. "If you believe me, I'll give you an opinion." Leo must find a way, or Emily would run away again. "What?" Emily wanted to listen to Leo's opinion, she would adopt it if she could. "Don't go abroad. Just study at B University. You are new at business, you may not be able to use what you have learned abroad. B University has a class of economic management, the things you learned will be more practical and useful. It's just longer than the time you spend abroad, it is about five months." "But it's may be good. You have your own company, so you can spend the five months learning and getting family with the running of your company." "After you enter the company to work for a period of time, you have a stable performance, then you can study abroad." "If you want to work in the company and to help Charles, pay attention to talent from the start, build your own team, and find the right assistants you trust. Only then can you relax when you come to work." Leo said specifically. According to Emily's current situation, he developed a set of plans. He could not only keep Emily around, but also let Emily learn. . Emily listened to him carefully and then gave it a consideration. Leo was a brilliant man and an excellent leader. He had experience in this field. In this case she should listen to Leo's opinion. "Well, I'll talk it over with Dad." Emily herself still could not make up her mind, and she needed more people to give her advice. "Ok, you should think about it." "After discussion with Charles, if you decide to study in B University, I can let you go to the class at any time." Leo confidently said, because he could easily fix it. "Ok. But you can't tell my parents that we... we slept together in this five months." Emily had to say that, or she wouldn't have time to think about it. "Five months? You said you'd think about it in two months. Why now it's five months?" Leo rebelled. Two months was a long time to wait. Five would break him. "I'm talking about study time. If I study for two months, I'll give you two months. If I study for five months, I'll give you five months. Tell me, should I go abroad or stay?" Emily threatened Leo, but now Leo knew the weakness of Emily, Emily could not threaten him. "I can't wait for five months. I have to talk to your parents now." Leo turned to go outside, and Emily hurried to pull Leo. "You can't tell them now, four months, four months, ok?" Emily compromised, but Leo was satisfied. He shook his head without speaking. "Three months?" Leo still shook his head." "Two and a half months, that's my bottom line. If you insist on telling my parents, I will definitely choose to go abroad. I am not sure how many months I will come back." Emily angrily let go of Leo's hand. She had repeatedly flinched, if Leo did not agree, there was nothing she could do. She had to show a tough attitude, or Leo would not give her two months. "Ok, Two and a half months." Leo could bear the extra half a month. But he couldn't bear it without a deadline. For the first time, the two reached an agreement, and for the first time, there was no argument. It was a good direction, a pleasant start. In order to be safe, Leo found an opportunity to secretly tell Charles about it. Charles agreed with Leo's opinion and said he was willing to cooperate with Leo to make Emily stay. Winnie and Brian seemed to be hiding from each other since they told the kids. Winnie tried not to report work, and Brian tried not to let Winnie to see him. Such a situation was comfortable for Winnie. With the pain Brian gave her, without the disdain the Bennet family gave her, she finally felt that she could breathe. Winnie felt that one day Brian would soon drive her out of the Bennet Group, in this way, she would completely get rid of Brian, and sooner or later she would get over.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 638 LEAVE FOR HALF A MONTH

After the rush hour in the morning, everyone in the company was working at their respective posts. Winnie came to the first floor to take a document, when she came back into the elevator before he could press the upward button, Brian took Albert and Calvin got into the elevator. Four eyes met, Winnie's heart was uncontrollably trembling. She greeted. "Good morning, Mr. Bennet." As her voice fell, she looked away. She did not want to be with him in a private space was to go out, but Calvin had closed it and the elevator had begun to go up. Winnie did not speak again, or see Brian's cold face and his disdainful eyes. She just wanted the elevator to rocket to the 30th floor as fast as possible. Seeing him, she was flustered. She hated herself being like that. Brian had not opened his mouth, but he noticed that Winnie looked better recently and seemed to have added weight. It was a lot better than being skinny and weak. He was pleased to see Winnie got this change. She was better after leaving him, so he was the negative energy in her life, only bringing her pain. She was in good spirits and good physical condition. This assured Brian that he did not have to worry about her all the time. "Why do you personally go downstairs to get the documents, Director Chambers? Where is Alice?" Albert broke the silence in the elevator. It eased Winnie's tense nerves. "Alice is busy, so I came down by myself." She answered. "Director Chambers, this cooperation case is almost over, right?" Then Calvin continued. Two people spoke in order to make it less awkward. "Yes, ten days to go." Winnie still only answered. In fact, this was not her character, but Brian was there, she tried not to speak, so as not to annoy him. Brian did not say a word when he got into the elevator. Even when she said hello, Brian did not respond. Winnie was almost caught cold by his depression. "Your company is ready for the next cooperation project, right? It seems that you even have no chance to rest, Director Chambers, you have been working hard." The contract for the next cooperation project had already been signed, and she was just waiting for this to end and planning the next one immediately. Calvin brought up the next cooperation case, because he was still in charge of the Bennet Group. "And..." "The next cooperation had been postponed. You can go back to your own company in the meantime." Winnie wanted to say "I am fine" but was interrupted by Brian's cold voice. Brian suddenly opened his mouth, and what he said surprised Albert and Calvin. He did not speak all the time, but when he spoke, he told Winnie to leave. Winnie had been thinking about to leave, but she still felt sad when Brian said that. "Okay, thanks, Mr. Bennet." Winnie could only say that at this moment. Albert and Calvin were still stunned, but the elevator had reached the 30th floor. As she got off the elevator, Winnie's mobile phone rang. "Officer Lee?" She always immediately picked up Officer Lee's call and her leaders' call, afraid she would delay something important. But it angered Brian. He listened to her walking behind and did not show his dissatisfaction. "Okay, okay, I get it. At noon..." That was all Brian heard, and he went into his office. "Calvin, contact Winnie's company, the next cooperation case postponed beginning in 15 days." Brian arranged the next cooperation project. In fact, in the elevator, he did not have this plan. He arranged it because he heard Calvin said that Winnie had no time for a rest, so that Winnie could relax for some days. "Okay, I'll do it. But don't you think I can take fifteen days off, too?" Calvin took the opportunity to raise his request. But no sooner had hope risen than the next moment it was ruthlessly broken. "No, there's plenty of work for you." Brian decisively killed the evil idea of Calvin. He only gave fifteen days to Winnie. "Well, I thought I can find a girlfriend in 15 days." Calvin said with disappointment. It seemed that he should not have the idea of vacation. "Not having these 15 days, you can look for a girlfriend." Albert's words made Calvin unprepared. "You..." When the two men were about to confront each other, Brian asked a question.

“Are Winnie and Officer Lee on good terms?” The question caught Albert and Calvin off guard. “What? We really don't know that.” Albert answered with confusion. “Is Officer Lee married?” Brian kept asking questions that stunned Albert and Calvin, was it because Director Chambers' phone? Alas..... Why broke up if he cared so much? “I know that. I've heard it before. He got married, but his wife couldn't take it because he was too busy at work and never came home.” Calvin answered, he had heard it long ago from his colleagues when he was in the police station with Brian to cooperate with the investigation before Penny got in the prison. Brian frowned because Officer Lee was single. Recently, Winnie and Officer Lee were too close which made him unhappy. Although he had no relationship with Winnie an could not interfere in her private life, it was not right for her not to keep a distance with a man. “How about Stefan? Is she on good terms with Winnie?” Brian continued to ask questions, which surprised even himself. It was the first time that Brian mentioned Stefan's name in front of others since Winnie got a room with Stefan. Albert and Calvin looked at each other before Calvin answered. “We don't know that. It's all about Director Chambers' private life. However, I have never seen Stefan come to Director Chambers for a long time, and I have never heard him call her when we were working together. Calvin did not dare to say it clearly, afraid that Brian would be angry. But the meaning of his words had been very obvious. If Winnie and Stefan were lovers, how could Stefan not come to pick up Winnie from work or give her a call? “Get out of here.” All of a sudden, Brian couldn't face it, and he didn't want to talk about it anymore. Also at this time he realized that it did not matter to him even if Winnie had one hundred men around her. Although he knew that it didn't matter to him, Brian's heart was in chaos when he met Winnie and he could not continue working. For many days, he had been deliberately avoiding her, although he was sad, he could endure it, but when they met, all his emotions were aroused again. He did not deny that even if Winnie did something wrong, he still could not forget her. These days Wendy had a miserable time. She had been being threatened by Jonny to stay at the villa all day. It was better to go to work during the day, but at night she would suffer physical and mental pain. Jonny was crazy about physical stimulation. Wendy was tortured that she felt unbearable. It was another miserable night, and Wendy didn't even have the courage to go to her bedroom. She sat in the living room with her computer on the coffee table, putting off going to the bedroom for work reasons. However, Jonny didn't care so much. When it was time to bed, he had to release his desire and had to get Wendy to bed. “Stop working and go to sleep.” Jonny said in a cold voice. He hated Wendy, so he took revenge and did not care about her feelings. “My work is not over yet. You go to sleep first.” Terrified, Wendy answered, at this moment, her only excuse was work. “Why work at home? Don't find any excuse.” Jonny came to the tea table and turned off Wendy's computer, to stop her from working. He reached out and pulled Wendy towards the bedroom, not caring his rude action would hurt Wendy. “Be gentle. I've hit my leg on the table.” Wendy had indeed been hit in the leg, but she was frightened at the moment. “Don't talk nonsense. Sleep when I tell you. Don't play games with me. I'm showing you mercy by not letting you stay at home during the day. If you tricks, I will keep you in the house for twenty-four hours.” Jonny said bleakly. His hate to Wendy had exceeded his imagination, and Wendy was a person of all sorts of tricks. He would not easily believe the words of Wendy, or let go of her at this point. Wendy was carried to the bedroom like a weak chick by Jonny, and then was thrown on the bed. “Jonny, please don't do this. You torture me every day. I can't take it anymore.” Wendy could only cry out bitterly since work could not be an excuse. “What? You can't stand it only after a few days? You liked the way I was wild when we were together. Not now?” Jonny shamelessly said with an evil smile. Wendy's response aroused his desire to conquer. “But you can't do it every day. I can't bear it.” Wendy looked at Jonny's face, panic, even her voice was trembling. “You can't bear it? Get Winnie to me then. I like that woman, let her help you bear it." Jonny looked at Wendy shivering on the bed. He knew this request was a help to Wendy.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 639 THE REASON FOR JONNY'S CHANGE

Wendy felt it was difficult. Winnie knew what she had done abroad, and Winnie had always vigilant to her and Jonny. Even if she broke the law, she'd have a hard time finding a way to do it. "Jonny, she can't be with you. We can't force her if she was not voluntary. This is a society ruled by law. If it doesn't work well, it will break the law and you and I will be involved." Wendy's answer seemed to make Jonny unsatisfied. Jonny picked up Wendy in a rage and slapped in her face. "Shut up, I don't want to hear your lectures. Listen carefully, if you don't get Winnie to me, you must wait on me every day." Jonny said and began to tear Wendy's clothes. "From now on you will be naked when the child is absent. Do you hear that?" Jonny angrily warned, followed by a slap in the face of Wendy. "No, Jonny, no. We're a couple and you can't do this to me." Wendy resisted, protecting her clothes with all her might. It was not a cloak, it was her last dignity. She didn't want to be abused by Jonny like, and she didn't want to be cheaper and cheaper because of Jonny. "We are a couple?" It did make Jonny stop, but the irrational gleam in his eyes grew sharper and sharper. "You talk to me about we are a couple?" Jonny could not help but hit on the body of Wendy. "Jonny, don't, don't hit me. We'll talk." Wendy cried and pleaded for mercy. Her beating reminded her of how she was abused abroad. She had gone back home because of Jonny's abuse. Or she would not have been so cruel as to leave her child. When they just got married, Jonny was very good to her, but later his temperament changed for no reason. After drinking, he abused her, scolded her, or hit her. Jonny's ruthless cruelty in his eyes made Wendy afraid. It was because of what she had been through that she had to beg for mercy. "If I don't hit you, how I vent my anger?" With that, Jonny pushed Wendy's head with his hand. "Wendy, don't blame others, you deserve it." "Jonny, don't do this to me. Even if we're not married now, we loved each other before. All these years you haven't had a proper job, and I've never held it against you. All these years your expenses have been supported by me, and I have never..." Wendy wanted to use the past things to impress Jonny, so that he could let her go. However, before her words had completely finished, Jonny kicked in her belly. "Ah..." Wendy cried out in pain, but Jonny did not have a little pity and began to scold her angrily. "You mean you have been supporting me all this time? Are those your money? That's your man's money." Jonny exposed Wendy, who was surprised and forgot the pain on her body. "What do you mean?" Wendy hoped that what Jonny said was not the same thing as she thought. "You still don't be honest? Ok, then, let's talk about your dirty things." "Not long after you and I were married, I noticed that you often called a man. And when you went abroad with me, you said that your parents didn't give you any money, but where did you get all the money? It was from that man." "Wendy, you are the most scheming woman, the most shameless slut. You were married to me but you still contacted with another man. Why should I work hard? How can I live a good life with you?" Jonny said angrily. He had not finished his words yet, or he would hit Wendy again. "Why have I become like this? It is because of you, your betrayal made me bad. You have cuckolded me for so many years. It is not surprising that you were beaten." After saying that, Jonny kicked Wendy again. Wendy hurried to embrace Jonny's leg. "Listen to me, I'll explain. Please don't hit me again. Jonny, will you listen to me?" Wendy shivered, with her heart in her throat. She had no idea that Jonny had long known about her cheating on him, much less that Jonny's change was due to her betrayal. "Okay, I'll give you a chance. I'll let you explain." Jonny stretched out his hand to pull Wendy up. "I... I knew that man before I knew you, and his family does have money. But when I met you, I started liking you. I didn't go any further with him." Wendy could only explain. But she would tell him the truth, or she would die. "Then I went abroad with you, and my parents didn't give me any money. I have become a habit of extravagance, when I had no money to spend, I thought of him. I've asked him for money many times, but you can rest assured that I have nothing to do with him. I never betrayed you physically." Wendy said with grievance, as if she did everything proper. "Are you lying and playing games with me again? You saw him when you were abroad. You got a room with him. I found room bills in your bag more than once, and you dare say you did not betray me physically. You are still lying to me. Go to hell." This explanation did not fit Jonny's facts, and Jonny was naturally angry and felt it unacceptable. He reached out and pushed Wendy on the bed and then ordered wildly. "Get up and continue to make it up." "I didn't..." Wendy sat up, crying. She had to follow Jonny's lead or she would keep getting beat up. "You had a four-year relationship with that man that didn't end until you snuck back. Wendy, I'm gonna give you one more chance to tell me who that man is. As long as you tell the truth, I will not hit you and I will let you go." Jonny once again gave Wendy the opportunity with temptation. "I... Why? It doesn't matter if you know who he is. I'm not in touch with him anymore." "Cut the crap and say it." Jonny's lion-like roar frightened Wendy. "Leo Johnson, his name is Leo Johnson." Wendy had to say Leo's name. "Leo Johnson? Who is Leo Johnson? Think it over and stop lying to me." Jonny gave Wendy another chance, and at the same time, he was ready to hit her. "I'm not lying, it's ..." Before she could finish her words, she, was directly interrupted by a slap. "Damned woman, dare lie to me again." "Ah... Help....." Jonny ignored Wendy's shouting and continued to beat, and even tore apart Wendy's clothes. "Liar, you are lying. I will silence you, and dare you to lie." "Do you think I don't know who that man is? I didn't know it in foreign countries before, and I don't know it now? What Leo Johnson? That man is Brian Bennet." Jonny shouted it out. Wendy deceived him for so many years, he finally can vent out his angry and finally could shout out his name. "You know it, why ask me? You're the most shameless one. You are the devil, you are a wicked bastard." "All the money you spent over the years was Brian's. You should be grateful to him, or you would have starved to death." Things had been completely exposed, and Jonny tortured her cruelly bit by bit. Even her pleas for mercy did not prevent her from being beaten, she shouted angrily. "I'm the devil? You made me a devil. My wife sleeps with him. It is normal for me to spend his money." "I am telling you, Wendy, I won't let you go. If you make me angry, I will go directly to Brian. He played with my woman, and I will taste his woman." Jonny was indeed a devil. He did not leave after those warning words, but rushed to Wendy crazily..... After a long time, Jonny fell asleep. And at this moment Wendy dared to get out of bed quietly. Dragging her painful body, Wendy came to the bathroom. She looked at herself in the mirror and burst into tears. Herself in the mirror scared her. Her hair was messy like a chicken coop, her face was bruised, and her mouth was still wet with blood. There were bite marks all over her neck and body. She had physical aches and bruises, and her stomach still hurt. How could she hold back her tears when she saw herself like this? She put herself in the bathtub and began to fill it with water, wanting to wash all the stains off her body. She thought about what Jonny had just said, and now she thought about herself, and it seemed that her road ahead was dark. Jonny knew everything about her along ago. That was why Jonny beat her and called her names when he was drunk. It seemed that the hatred was so deep in Jonny's bones that it was impossible for him to give up. If he did not give up, what should she do? She could not be bullied forever. However, she could not help him get Winnie, so she would be against the law and would be sent to prison like Penny. She didn't want to go to jail or to be abused by Jonny, but who was going to tell her what to do. Winnie had a peaceful like recently. Although the kids were not around her, Rufus was careful, she did not have to worry about them. She ran every morning, and went to the gym on Tuesday and Thursday. And she also got time for professional combat training at the Police Station. Because of these exercises, her physique had changed a lot. She was particularly pleased that she had accepted the invitation of the Police Station, not only for the people, but also for her physical and mental release. It was Saturday, Winnie did not have to go to work. She took Vanessa and two kids to climb the mountain in the morning. "Sister, can you slow down a little bit? Do you want to throw us three behind?" Vanessa and two kids felt hard to follow her. "I've slowed down again and again. You're too weak." Winnie stopped and looked at the panting three people with a smile.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 640 MOUNTAINTOP ENCOUNTER

Vanessa glanced at Winnie and said, unconvinced. "You were always the last to climb a mountain, why you are so good now? Did you take some medicine before you went up the mountain?" Vanessa knew her sister had changed recently and she ran every morning. Maybe it had something to do with these exercises. After her sister broke up with Brian, she felt less depressed and she did not have to face the Bennet family. "You can't catch up with me and said I took medicine? What kind of logic is that? Which one of you is tired? I can hold you up." Winnie walked down a few steps to the two kids. "Mom, hold Megan, I am a man, I can insist." Luke gave the opportunity to Megan. As he said, a man must overcome this difficulty, or he could not protect his sister. "Luke, you are the best and the most sensible. I love you." Gratified, Winnie kissed Luke and then held Megan up. "Luke, I can't hold you up, but I can carry you. Come on, get on my back." Vanessa did not want Luke walk, so she planned to carry him thought she was tired. Squatting in front of Luke, Vanessa showed her back to Luke. She knew that her back was not so broad as that upon which Luke might not rest comfortably. But she gave it unconditionally with love. "Aunt, I can hold on, if I can't hold on, I will ask you to carry me." Luke stretched out his hand and pulled his aunt, indicating her to stand up. After mom and dad broke up, he was the only man in the family. He must make himself strong enough to protect his queens. "Well, then, I hold your hand. I will carry you whenever you are tired." So they continued to climb to the top of the mountain. Stop-and-go, they finally came to the top of the mountain, but accidentally, they met Brian and Gloria. Megan was excited to see Brian. She did not know Gloria and did not know that she came with her Dad. She thought her father and mother agreed to meet at the top of the mountain, so she ran to Brian and directly hugged Brian. "Dad, is this a surprise for me? You and Mom agreed to meet at the top of the mountain, right?" Megan was happy, but Brian did not know how to answer. He looked at Winnie with embarrassment. He did not expect to meet Winnie and kids at the top of the mountain. He and Gloria had a temporary decision to climb mountain, and even Albert and Calvin did not know that, but it happened to meet Winnie here. It did not matter to meet Winnie or Vanessa here. But the two kids did not know the existence of Gloria, so he was afraid that the kids could not bear it to see her like this. "Dad....." Brian did not know how to answer, and at this moment Winnie came over. "Megan, dad comes..." Winnie came to help explain. As she wanted to say "Dad comes with a customer", her words were interrupted by Gloria. "Brian, is this your daughter?" Gloria said in an enchanting voice and deliberately removed the glasses to show her charming eyes. She did not look like a customer at all. "Yes, my daughter." "Luke, come here." Brian could only introduce each other. Luke came over. "This is my daughter, Megan. This is my son, Luke.” “Megan, Luke, say hello to Gloria.” “Hello, Gloria, my name is Megan Bennet. My family calls me Megan.” Megan said her full name every time she introduced herself, including this time. But she felt weird about this woman. “Hello, I’m Luke Bennet.” Luke greeted reluctantly. The way this woman talked to his dad bothered him. “Hello, Luke, Hello, Megan.” “Dad, who is she?” Puzzled, Megan asked. “My friend.” Brian did not dare to say it directly, afraid that the kids could not accept it all of a sudden. “Friend? Or girlfriend?” Luke focused on the problem with a dark face. Brian was again in a dilemma. “Yes, my girlfriend.” Hearing that, Megan immediately let go of his hand. She did not look at Gloria, because no matter how she looked, she was not as beautiful as her mother, no matter what kind of person she was, she was not as good as her mother. Megan stared at Brian with hurt eyes and asked before her father’s explanation. “The girlfriend Great Grandpa asked you to marry?” Megan waited for her dad’s answer, hoping he said no. Yet again she was disappointed. “Yes.” Brian felt it was unprecedented and cruel, which could be life-long psychological damage to the kids. But he had to say it, because sooner or later they had to face it. Megan did not ask again, but turned to Vanessa. “Aunt, I want to go home. I don’t want to be here.” Megan cried, threw in the arms of her aunt. She couldn’t accept it but she couldn’t change it. The only thing she could do was to cry. “Don’t cry, Megan, I will take you home.” Vanessa said and picked up Megan. At this time, Luke only had disappointment in eyes. “Wish you and Gloria happy, Dad.” Luke was unable to change it too, he could only see that his dad to be with another woman. He was sad, but he would not cry. Luke then turned to take his mother’s hand and walked away. His firm pace, his small disappointed back made Brian sad. Luke’s blessing was like a bullet in the heart of Brian, instantly he had no perception, instantly he remembered his commitment and the encouragement to the kids. Luke became proud of him through his own efforts, but he did not honor his promise. He said he was going to marry another woman in front of his kids. There was nothing more heart-wrenching and cruel in the world. Originally it was a happy mountaineering but because they met Brian, they felt sad. One cried and the other was silent. Winnie had been comforting them and the kids did not cheer up until she said she would take them to see Jelly Bean. Vanessa did not go home directly but to the library, and Winnie went home with two kids to change clothes. When they were ready to go, Isobel sent her a video calling. “Wait a minute, talk to grandaunt before we go.” Winnie took two kids back to the living room and picked up the video calling. “Aunt.” “Grandaunt.” Megan and Luke said hello to Isobel. “Dear, you are so good. I miss you.” “We miss you, too.” Megan said with a smile, temporarily forgot the grievance her father brought. “Are you as obedient and sensible as before?” “We are more sensible and obedient than before.” Megan always knew how to talk to make adults happy. “Good, I am relieved that you are doing well.” Isobel missed them and could only see them video. “Aunt, why do you get up so early?” Winnie calculated the time difference and knew that it had not yet dawn at her aunt’s side. “We’ve just finished work and haven’t slept yet.” Isobel was tired but seeing the kids made her have a good mood. “Are you still up at this hour? Are you tired? Can you take it?” Winnie immediately felt distressed. Her aunt was not young, if she often stayed up late, her health would have problems. “Don’t worry, today is the first day. And I’m the conductor. The young guys do the work. I have no health problems, neither you nor Vanessa need to worry about me.” “How is everything going? How are Vanessa and the kids’ father doing?” Isobel changed the topic, afraid Winnie would be worried. “Vanessa is good and the kids’ father...” Winnie wanted to be perfunctory, but Megan cried at this moment and told the fact that Brian and Winnie had broken up. “Grandaunt, dad and mom broke up.” “They are good, but my brother and I are not good.” Megan could not control her emotions, thinking of the separation of mom and dad, thinking of the fact that she and her brother had no home. She could not accept it, never. “Broke up?” Isobel was very surprised. "Yes, aunt." Winnie put Megan in her arms and gave her answer. "What about the kids? Who gets custody of them?" Isobel asked with worry, afraid the Bennet family had the kids. "I have custody of the kids, but Rufus takes care of them for me now. In fact, we broke up a long time ago, before you went to Africa. I didn't tell you in case you were worried." Winnie said. Although Isobel had been hoping Winnie and Brian break up, but she was very disappointed in Brian at this moment. "We don't worry if the kids are ours. But I am disappointed in Brian. I wanted him to take care of you while I am away, but he broke up with you now." Isobel was worried again. She was afraid no one took care of the two sisters or helped them when they had a problem. "Aunt, you don't have to worry. I am a man, I have grown up, I can take care of Mom, Aunt Vanessa and my sister." Luke said after a long time of silence, which touched Isobel. "Good boy. I'm relieved to have you around them. I believe that you can take care of the family."