Chapter 111.1: Old acquaintance 1/2

However, that little girl from just now is indeed formidable, I will admit that. Just that, these two foolish women, is it even that funny? I am only not willing to cheat, if not...

"Aiyo, when will my little nephew come out, at that time, he can bring his mom and aunt to eat chicken." Qing Yutong caressed onto her big sister's stomach and said with a grin.

Qing Ya revealed out an exceptionally beautiful smile, "If the little fellow is as obedient as that little girl from just now, it would be great. I hope that he won't be like his dad."

"What are you talking about, my child ought to be like me." Ye Hua said gravely.

Qing Ya snorted, "Seeing on the sake that you are so pitiful, I won't argue with you."

At this time, the food delivery had also arrived. After Ye Hua ate his spicy chicken burger, he went downstairs, and the sisters remained silent while smiling. After all, he was defeated by a three years old child, it was indeed very tragic.

Walking to the bar counter downstairs, Ye Hua mixed a glass of liquor that he likes, then lighted up a stick of cigarette. Taking a puff of cigarette, then drinking a mouth of liquor, this is practically what life is, all the vexing matters would immediately disappear right after that.

With the liquor and cigarette, Ye Hu sat on the chair and slowly got lost in his own thoughts, being unequaled sure feels empty...

Even if I win, it also wouldn't able to make me feel delighted. In the past, there were still at least enemies who were evenly matched against me, and even enemies who were stronger than me. The excitement that I felt during those battles, just how great did it felt, but right now...

I really sort of miss my previous enemies, and also those overlords who formed a group to eliminate me. I wonder if they are doing well or not right now. If they are doing too well, I will have to find some time to make their lives turn into hell. Since I got defeated by a little girl, my anger will have no choice but to be released on you all, if you all want to blame, go and blame Little Ah Li then.

While lost in his own thoughts, Ye Hua fell asleep. Not sure how long had passed, a sound rang out at Ye Hua's ears.

"Your Honor? Your Honor?"

Ye Hua wrinkled his brows and discovered that Wei Chang was standing beside him. Letting out a breath, Ye Hua sat his body up, then lighted up a cigarette and looked at the time, "Why are you here? It's only 5 pm right now."

"Your Honor, my date with Xiao Tang ended just a while ago. And since it's already 5 pm, I decided to not head back home and just come here straight away." While standing at the side with his back arched, Wei Chang said respectfully.

Ye Hua stood up and picked up the cigarette box on the table, "Did you pushed her over?"

"Eh... Subordinate feels that this matter has to be dealt with cautiously."

Ye Hua nodded his head, "Not bad, finally know how to think about things."

"Thank you Your Honor for the praise." Wei Chang smiled. Just how much of an honor is it to be able to receive His Honor's praise, Xiao Tang is truly my lucky star.

While smoking, Ye Hua was prepared to head upstairs. However, right when he stepped onto the staircase, he seemed to have recalled of something as he shouted out, "Wei Chang, come over, I have something to ask you."

Wei Chang ran over, "Your Honor, what is it that you want to ask of me?"

Ye Hua leaned on the staircase protective railing and asked with his brows wrinkled, "Do you still remember that woman from three years ago?"

"Three years ago?" Wei Chang mumbled.

"Why did Your Honor suddenly ask about this?" Wei Chang asked curiously.

Ye Hua exhaled out a mouth of smoke, "Nothing much, just suddenly thought of it."

"Your Honor, this is classified as reminiscing an old acquaintance, your humanity is improving yet again, subordinate congratulates Your Honor."

After pausing for a moment, Wei Chang continued, "Compared to Your Honor's first woman, the madam can be considered to be much more fortunate."

Ye Hua's interest was piqued, and he decided to just sit at the side and listen to his subordinate's analysis.

You Cannot Afford To Offend My Woman

Chapter 111.2: Old acquaintance 2/2

"Say, why is the madam much more fortunate?"

"Subordinate does not dare to casually evaluate the madam."

Ye Hua glared with his eyes and said coldly, "If I ask you to say, just say it! You are already evaluating her!"

Wei Chang was frightened to the point that he immediately kneeled down, this mouth of mine is to be blamed, why did I even bring up the madam.

"Subordinate ought to die."

"If you still don't speak, I will let Lie Gu go and kill that Xiao Tang of yours!" Ye Hua said faintly. In actuality, Ye Hua just wanted to see what kind of reaction Wei Chang would have.

As expected, Wei Chang became anxious. However, he concealed it very quickly.

"Subordinate will speak now."

Ye Hua slowly closed his eyes and waited for Wei Chang's recount.

"Your Honor's first woman is still very vivid within subordinate's memory. After all, she was the first female human that Your Honor had touched. Her appearance and other features are all exceptional, and only the madam's beauty would be able to be compared against her. For her to be able to receive Your Honor's favor, it can be counted fortunate for her."

"Talk about the important point, how is the madam much more fortunate." Ye Hua said faintly.

Wei Chang swallowed his saliva, "Your Honor, do you feel any difference right now compared to three years ago?"

Ye Hua remained silent.

"Three years ago, Your Honor's humanity was still very unstable, and Your Honor was temperamental. Whereas right now, Your Honor is able to control those emotions."

"The madam waited for Your Honor for three days, and Your Honor went downstairs to meet her afterward. From this, it can be seen that Your Honor has a heart that takes pity on others. However, that woman was not as fortunate as the madam. Two months after her first visit to the bar, she waited half a month for Your Honor, and yet, Your Honor did not go downstairs to meet her."

Ye Hua slowly opened his eyes, "She waited for half a month? You don't seem to have told me about that before."

"Just as subordinate has said, Your Honor was very unstable back then, I haven't even opened my mouth to speak, and Your Honor had already told me to scram."

Ye Hua extinguished the cigarette, "There was actually such a thing."

The Wei Chang right now had already learned how to discern what one thinks from their expression, take right now for example.

"Do Your Honor want subordinate to go and find her?" Wei Chang asked.

While unhurriedly walking up the stairs, Ye Hua said with tranquil, "No need, just one is already giving me enough headaches."

Wei Chang smiled, "The madam is after all a human, her words, actions, and bearings would naturally have some difference compared to Your Honor."

"Go on and do your own things."

"Yes!"

Towards the first woman, Ye Hua also just suddenly recalled of her today. It could be counted as just him reminiscing an old acquaintance for a bit and he did not have any other thoughts towards that first woman. Just as what Ye Hua had said, he wouldn't touch the same woman twice. Qing Ya's case is just an accident, because she had conceived my child. If not, nothing else would have happened between me and Qing Ya after that night.

When Ye Hua arrived on the second floor, he had already stopped thinking about the woman. Towards the passersby within one's life, just slightly reminiscing them for a bit would do.

Pushing open the door, Ye Hua saw that Qing Ya and Qing Yutong were sitting in front of their computers with a serious look on their face. The atmosphere was super tense right now. If I were to pull out the power cord right now, will they come and fight me with all their might?

Forget it, am I a person who is bored to the point that I would do something like this? Pulling out the power cord, this kind of thing is something only Qing Ya this foolish woman would do.

However, as the Supreme Overlord's woman, instead of being captivated by me, she actually became fond of playing computer game!

At the start, she was fond of working, and in the blink of an eye, she is now fond of playing computer game, who did she learn this bad habit from!

"Brother-in-law, look at me and big sister, we managed to survive up to top 10, we are about to be able to eat chicken soon." Qing Yutong was excited right now. The two women could be seen lying down within a patch of grass, and the important point was that, their expression was filled with nervousness.

Ye Hua sighed, "It's more or less enough after you two finished this round, let's go out and eat dinner."

"Shhh... Ye Hua, can you not speak! Others will be able to hear you." Qing Ya said with a low voice.

What else could Ye Hua say. Ye Hua straightforwardly lied down on the sister-in-law's bed and began resting. He was defeated by Little Ah Li to the point that he didn't feel like playing anymore today.

After only lying down for a while, Ye Hua heard the two women's grumbles. Don't need to think too much, the two definitely got eliminated.

You Cannot Afford To Offend My Woman

Chapter 112.1: The madam and His Honor are both the same 1/2

"Yutong, let's play one last round?" Qing Ya was unwilling to admit defeat.

"En, last round." Qing Yutong belonged to the kind that would accompany one to the end, she would even be fine with playing all night.

Last round again, Ye Hua has heard the two saying 'last round' countless times already. I really cannot endure it anymore, no matter how childish it is, I am still going to do it today!

"Ye Hua!"

"Brother-in-law, how could you do that..."

After pulling out the power cord, Ye Hua's face became relaxed, "Even if you don't want to eat, the child still has to eat!"

"Didn't I say that this was the last round? You sure are petty." Qing Ya pouted her mouth and returned to her room to change her clothes. After all, she can't leave the house while wearing her nightclothes right?

Qing Yutong looked at her brother-in-law and said lovably, "Brother-in-law, are you still not going to leave? Could it be that, you want to watch your sister-in-law change her clothes?"

Ye Hua took a look at Qing Yutong, and Qing Yutong immediately covered her chest with both her hands and said shyly, "Brother-in-law, big sister is still in the house, don't look at people like this~"

"Your looks are pretty good."

"Naturally."

"Just that, you are a bit stupid."

"Brother-in-law, you....."

Ye Hua turned around and left. After the sister-in-law returned, there was now a bit more merriness within this household.

Qing Yutong who was in the room stomped her foot, then mumbled, "How am I stupid!"

"Master, you are indeed a bit stupid."

"You are the one who is stupid, you are the most stupid system within all the systems."

"Master should understand the saying of a person changes depending on who they mix around with."

"Alright! All of you are bullying me now, I will remember this."

"Master, you better write it down in a notebook, I'm afraid that you would forget about what you just said."

Qing Yutong clicked her tongue, don't bring up my black history.

After Qing Ya changed her clothes, she said towards Ye Hua, "You go and change your clothes too. It's summer right now and you are still wearing a western suit, where is the short sleeve shirt from yesterday?"

"It looks very childish to wear."

"Don't be pesky, go and change into the short sleeve shirt." Right now, Qing Ya did not want Ye Hua to look too stylish, to avoid some wild bees who are not afraid of death to come flying to Ye Hua.

Qing Ya walked downstairs, and discovered that Leisure Bar was about to open for business, and everyone was currently getting busy.

"Madam." Wei Chang walked over and shouted out respectfully.

Qing Ya smiled tenderly, "Wei Chang, what is it?"

Wei Chang took a look at Tang Wei who was currently wiping onto a table and said with a low voice, "Madam, Wei Chang has a matter that he wants to request of you."

"Oh? What is it? If I'm able to help, I will definitely help you." Qing Ya smiled.

Wei Chang said respectfully, "Actually, it is nothing big too. Madam should know that subordinate is currently going out with Xiao Tang right?"

Qing Ya went into a daze, this Wei Chang, calling himself subordinate, it sounds so strange. However, after associating it with Ye Hua's identity, she became relieved. He should be Ye Hua's underling right? Which means that he is also my underling now. When my husband's underling is facing a difficult situation, I naturally have to help out.

"I know, didn't you already say that last time? Is it that Ye Hua is too stingy? I will go and talk to him about it." Upon recalling that, in the past, Ye Hua used to buy things with Wei Chang's pay, Qing Ya felt helpless about it.

Wei Chang was greatly startled, I did not say that His Honor is stingy, "Madam has misunderstood, subordinate is not talking about this matter."

"Then what is it?"

"Subordinate has been dating Xiao Tang, and right now, subordinate feels that subordinate's relationship with Xiao Tang can be moved one step further. However, subordinate does not know how to go about it." Wei Chang was very embarrassed. If I asked others, I would feel that it is very faceless for me. But, asking His Honor is practically the same as not asking. Therefore, I can only ask madam about this.

In actuality, for Wei Chang to ask Qing Ya about this, it was also practically the same as not asking. After all, Qing Ya was a beginner in this aspect too.

It was the first time that Qing Ya had come across this kind of question, and right now, she still hasn't clearly understood what Wei Chang was talking about.

"Moved one step further? One step further to where?" Qing Ya asked.

Wei Chang let out a breath, then asked with a low voice, "What I'm saying is, reproducing offsprings."

Pfft... Reproducing offsprings. These two words gave Qing Ya a shock. Wei Chang's usage of words was too close-fitting.

Qing Ya paused for a moment. This question is a bit difficult. Thinking back to my own experiences, it seems like there weren't any procedures too, all that happened was Ye Hua pushing me over, then everything after that followed by naturally.

With that, standing from Ye Hua's viewpoint, I can summarize a strategy for Wei Chang.

With an experienced look on her face, Qing Ya said, "Wei Chang, as a man, you have to be a bit more initiative, just straightforwardly push over your girlfriend will do."

Wei Chang who had a face filled with anticipation immediately froze. His Honor was like this, and yet, even the madam also gave me the same answer. The both of them are really not romantic at all, just take a look at idol dramas, that romantic atmosphere within those idol dramas...

Seems like His Honor and the madam are both unromantic, both of them just heads straight to the main subject.

I, Wei Chang, am a man who is romantic, how can I be that casual with this matter? Seems like, regarding this matter, I can only rely on myself.

"Thank you madam for the pointers."

Qing Ya was really not used to this kind of behavior, do people in the cultivation world all talk like this? My goosebumps are all coming out.

Chapter 112.2: The madam and His Honor are both the same 2/2

"Big sister, what are you two chatting about?" Qing Yutong hopped and jumped down the stairs. When Qing Ya saw her sister's face, she became embarrassed, do you feel that happy when you dress up as me?

Wei Chang arched his back, which was counted as him giving his greetings. Afterward, Wei Chang retreated.

Qing Ya's brows were wrinkled, "Why are you dressing up as me again?"

"Because big sister is pretty~" Qing Yutong held onto Qing Ya's arm and said with a beaming smile.

What Qing Yutong said was correct, but towards her sister's reply, Qing Ya replied with just a snort.

Without long, Ye Hua came downstairs. It was still the first time that Qing Yutong had seen her brother-in-law wore a short sleeve shirt, upon seeing Ye Hua was wearing a short sleeve shirt, Qing Yutong teased, "Brother-in-law, you are so childish~"

Ye Hua took a glare at Qing Ya, my image is all gone because of you.

Qing Ya walked over with a smile and held onto her husband's arm, "Alright, let's go and eat steamboat."

Qing Yutong immediately held onto her brother-in-law's other arm, "Alright~ Let's go and eat steamboat~"

"Qing Yutong! What are you doing!"

"What do you mean what am I doing? Big sister, don't you know that holding onto a person's arm is just an etiquette? Big sister, you are out of touch already."

Ye Hua would naturally grab onto the chance to take revenge, "You are indeed out of touch."

"Both of you just wait!"

The three walked out of the bar while chattering with each other. Wei Chang looked at his His Honor, and thought to himself, "His Honor has truly changed a lot, and it is all thanks to the madam."

At this moment, Tang Wei walked over unhurriedly and called out tenderly, "Uncle Wei~"

"Xiao Tang, what's the matter?"

"Uncle Wei, my house's lightbulb spoiled."

“Lightbulb spoiled? That’s fine, after we get off work, Uncle Wei will go to your house and help you fix it.”

“Eh... alright.”

Leaving the bar and walking out of the alley, there was a steamboat store not far away. The steamboat store was called Song Prince Mansion Steamboat Store. The two words ‘Prince Mansion’ was not named for nothing. In the past, only nobles would be able to afford to eat in the store. And right now, everyone was able to experience for themselves the delicious food that only the nobles were able to afford to eat in the past.

It was fortunate that Ye Hua and the two left the bar early, if they arrived at the steamboat store a bit later, they would have to queue up outside.

And even if it was like this, all of the private rooms had already been occupied, and they were only able to eat in the hall.

If it was based on Ye Hua’s behavior in the past, he would definitely not be willing to sit in the hall, since it would devalue his identity. However, it was different now.

After all, compared to just sitting in the hall, he had already done things that devalued his identity even more. For example, when he bought a Chinese crepe, for the purpose of adding one more egg, he was even able to argue with an aunt for half a day. The plot went like this.

“Add an additional egg for me.”

“One egg is 2 rmb.”

“I have to pay extra if I want an additional egg?! For me to eat at your store, you should feel honored!!”

“Young fellow, for you to be able to eat my Chinese crepe, you should be the one to feel honored instead.”

Ye Hua expressed he was unwilling to accept defeat, and after half an hour of senseless dispute, the aunt said in the end, “Don’t think that just because you are handsome, you can do whatever you want. There was a time where even aunt was beautiful too.”

Ye Hua almost flipped out, but in the end, he restrained himself. I won’t argue with you since you are just a mere aunt. Ye Hua took a bite of the Chinese crepe. This Chinese crepe is actually rather delicious.

Chapter 113.1: Little brother, are you okay? 1/2

After the three sat down, they immediately became the focal point of the entire hall. This man, bringing along such beautiful twins with him, this man practically has no humanity, and furthermore, the twins are just too fking beautiful!

Qing Yutong picked up the menu and mumbled, “This store’s main dishes are top quality beef slices, prawn paste, overlord tripe... Just listening to the name of these dishes is enough to make my saliva drip.”

“Order whatever you want, big sister’s treat.” Qing Ya was very generous. No matter what, I am after all someone who is poor to the point that I have nothing but money left.

Qing Yutong rolled her eyes at her big sister, “Even if I eat in this store for my entire life, I also wouldn’t be able to spend finish all your money.”

“Yutong, since you are done with shooting for the advertisement poster, if you still intend to stay at your brother-in-law’s place, you will have to start paying living expenses.”

“Big sister, why are you the same as brother-in-law, so petty.” Qing Yutong pouted her little mouth. You have so much money and yet you still want to collect living expenses from me.

Ye Hua was basically shot while lying down, “When have I ever been petty!”

“Are you saying you are not petty? Brother-in-law, if you are not petty, take out the meat that you brought out on that day and let me eat it.”

“The meat can only be eaten once a week.” Ye Hua said faintly.

“I don’t want to eat it once a week, I want to eat it every day~”

The customers who were sitting in the hall, when they heard Qing Yutong’s complaints, they almost flipped their table.

I cannot endure it anymore! The sister-in-law wants to eat meat, and yet, as the brother-in-law, the guy actually said that she is only allowed to eat it once a day. And even yet, the sister-in-law was not satisfied with eating the meat once a week, and she wants to eat the meat every day! And the important point is that, that big sister is just sitting there and remaining silent while smiling. How can they fool around like this!

Damn it, where is my Italy cannon at, I am going to bombard these two who are showing off their affection in public!

Ye Hua said faintly, “I’m not giving.”

As expected! The sounds of chopsticks snapping in half rang out in the surroundings. The sister-in-law is sexually unsatisfied, and yet, as the brother-in-law, he is not giving it to the sister-in-law.

Let go of the sister-in-law and let me take over!

However, although they were feeling indignant, when they saw that man who had an indifferent look on his face... Damn it, this man simply has no humanity at all. I want to ask, how could a person even be able to resist the enticement of such a beautiful sister-in-law?

In actuality, Ye Hua wants to express that, as long as you are hugged onto a woman like Qing Ya every night when you sleep, you would naturally be able to gain immunity towards such enticement.

Some people did not start out at the starting line, and instead, they started out at the finish point.

Right when the three were waiting for their food to be served, a boy suddenly ran into the steamboat store, and after looking around for a bit, the boy headed straight to a table that was not far away from Ye Hua’s table. At the table that the boy headed to, there was a male and female sitting there.

Qing Yutong said sneakily, "From what I see, this boy is definitely here to catch an adultery."

"How do you know that? Ye Hua asked faintly.

Qing Yutong pointed outside, "Just now, I saw that he arrived here by riding a bicycle."

Right after Qing Yutong's finished what she said, at the table not far away, the sound of the boy shouting rang out, "You! Why are you treating me like this! I used my bicycle to fetch you for three years! And yet, when this man fetched you with his Ferrari for just three days! You want to break up with me! Do you think it's fair for me!"

The girl apologized, "I'm sorry. Actually, during the first day he fetched me, I already..."

The boy held onto his chest and retreated backward helplessly. I didn't expect that I had overestimated myself, so in the end, there was no need for three days, just one day was enough!

Ye Hua who had witnessed what happened said faintly, "The story of Snow White told us one thing, which was that, seven losers cannot be compared to a kiss of a Mr Perfect."

Qing Ya rolled her eyes at Ye Hua, "Humph, humph, what can I be described as then."

"I can only say that, you have good taste." Ye Hua said faintly.

"Narcissistic."

"Brother-in-law, you have watched Snow White before too?" Upon talking about an animated film, Qing Yutong's interest was immediately piqued.

Ye Hua said faintly, "Watched before. It was too realistic, thus, I didn't watch it again after watching it once."

You Cannot Afford To Offend My Woman

Chapter 113.2: Little brother, are you okay? 2/2

Bang!

Right when Ye Hua was about to discuss Snow White's storyline with Qing Yutong, the boy was knocked down onto the floor by the Mr Perfect's fist, and that girl merely could not bear to look at the boy and thus looked towards the window.

"Ye Hua, that boy is so tragic."

Ye Hua took a look at the boy. The weak are unworthy of sympathy. If the boy who got knocked on to the floor struck back, Ye Hua would feel that the boy was not bad. However, the boy did not, and instead, the boy was currently holding onto his own face with one of his hands and using his gaze to kill the Mr Perfect. The boy did not strike back.

"Qing Ya, keep that sympathy of yours." Ye Hua had begun to start his lesson again.

Qing Ya snorted lovably, "Why do you not have the least bit of sympathy at all, did that dog of yours get stewed by you?"

"I have long wanted to stew that dog." Ye Hua said faintly. Just that, the taste of dragon bone stew is not really good at all, I have tried it before.

Suddenly, Qing Yutong slammed onto the table, giving both Ye Hua and Qing Ya a shock. Qing Yutong could be seen standing up with a face full of righteousness as she pointed to the second generation rich and shouted out, "Why did you hit the boy! Even if he is uglier than you! It is wrong to hit someone!"

The corner of Ye Hua's mouth twitched, while Qing Ya immediately covered her face with her hands. Are you trying to help the boy, or are you trying to throw stones at the boy while he is down?

The master's stupidity is acting up again...

"Yutong, what are you doing, sit down." Qing Ya persuaded, afraid of her sister causing trouble again.

The boy who was on the floor originally didn't feel that it was humiliating, however, after hearing what Qing Yutong said, he immediately felt his face getting red and wished that he could find a hole to hide in.

Ye Hua said indifferently, "Alright, if Yutong wants to act cool, let her do it."

"You! Forget it that you are not helping, but why are you indulging her and letting her act recklessly around like that."

"You can go and act cool with your sister if you want. Back then when we went to buy house, weren't you very good at acting cool too?" Ye Hua laughed lightly, causing Qing Ya to become rather angry. The child that was within Qing Ya's stomach, when it comes to this world, it would definitely possess the attribute of fire.

"Ye Hua! Do you want to quarrel with me here?"

"Do you still remember what you called me during that night?"

Qing Ya immediately admitted defeat and scolded Ye Hua for being shameless, this Ye Hua, always bringing up this matter to use against me!!!

Qing Yutong walked forward and help the boy whose face was red up. And when the boy saw that such a beautiful woman was willing to stick out for him, he felt that he was in cloud nine. Just that, the words that came out of Qing Yutong's mouth next almost caused the boy to spit out blood.

"Little brother, don't be afraid, with these short arms and short legs, you are definitely not a match for him, let me take on him instead!"

"I....."

"Don't speak, I know how you are feeling right now. Although you are poor, and short in every aspect... If not, your girlfriend also wouldn't have left you for someone else. I will help you out this time. In the future, once you get used to it, everything will be fine." Qing Yutong pat onto the boy's shoulder and said sincerely.

The boy's mind was about to collapse. Big sister... can you please leave... I would rather endure punches, and not be described so miserably by you... Don't pull onto me, I want to leave... I want to go home...

"Ye Hua, quickly go and bring her back to our table." Qing Ya couldn't stand looking at it anymore. Do you all not see that the boy's face is turning between red and white? I'm really worried that the boy would suddenly collapse and die.

Aiya, Qing Ya suddenly recalled the emergency first aid technique that Ye Hua taught her. That guy from before who was spitting out blood endlessly, in the end, wasn't he cured by me too? Seems like, if the boy were to collapse later on, I will have no choice but to help him out.

Ye Hua was amused by the sister-in-law, "It's fine, Yutong is very warm-hearted."

"How can she even be counted as warm-hearted, she is being more of a hindrance than a help." Qing Ya held onto her forehead, this is really giving me a headache.

The boy's ex-girlfriend couldn't bear it anymore and said, "This beautiful lady, don't make it any more difficult for him, in actuality, he is also not that short."

After finish speaking, even the girl herself also went into a daze for a while. That wasn't what I wanted to express...

You Cannot Afford To Offend My Woman

Chapter 114.1: A storm is surging 1/2

Not only the girl, everyone who heard it also went into a daze. So it was not a matter of money, it was because the boy was really short...

The boy couldn't endure it anymore and began crying tears of sadness. This is even more painful than breaking up. I originally thought that she was vain, but it turns out that she was not, she was just unsatisfied with me... and furthermore, she even said it out loud...

Qing Yutong seemed like she had realized something. While feeling a bit awkward, she said while stammering, "That... Don't feel too discouraged. Think of those men who have erectile dysfunction, don't you immediately feel better after thinking about that?"

Immediately, the expressions of a few middle-aged men froze.

The boy seemed like he had been struck by lightning. My girlfriend left me for a Mr Perfect, and furthermore, she didn't leave me because of money. This is a man's humiliation. Furthermore, not only was I exposed, but I was also even 'saved' by a 'kind-hearted' beautiful lady. I originally thought that it was already despairing enough, but I didn't expect that I have underestimated just how despairing the despair would be.

The boy held onto his face and ran away with all his might. The boy was even more wounded than when he first entered the store.

"Eh... Excuse me." Qing Yutong turned her head around and walked back to her table. Originally, I wanted to stick out for the boy. But in the end, it turns out that the boy has some problem with his hard drive, the boy is so tragic.

Returning back to her seat, Qing Yutong's pretty face was slightly red, appearing incomparably beautiful. However, within Qing Yutong's beauty, there was a little bit of stupidity in it. On the other hand, Qing Ya was different, her beauty was grandeur.

"Feeling embarrassed now huh? What are you even worrying about others' family affairs for." Qing Ya reprimanded, this sister of mine, only knows how to create trouble.

Qing Yutong pouted her cherry lips, "I am just trying to help others out."

"You are not helping, what you are doing is just stabbing them in their backs with a knife." Ye Hua added.

"What Ye Hua said is right. Can you change this temper of yours?" Qing Ya poked onto her sister's forehead petulantly, and the latter rubbed onto her forehead pitifully.

"Humph~ In any case, you two are basically joining hands to bully me this single dog."

Qing Yutong could only take out her resentment on the food, causing herself to seem like she had not eaten for a few days, and causing others in the hall to become dazed when they looked at her. A beautiful woman is indeed a beautiful woman, even when she eats like this, she still looks beautiful, beautifully bold and unconstrained!

Qing Ya was different, she was grandeur and graceful. Qing Ya had to help Ye Hua this big boss to cook his food, and it seems like this was already a habit that she had formed. On the other hand, all Ye Hua had to do was eat the food that Qing Ya cooked for him.

Not bad, not bad, Qing Ya still hasn't deviate from my aspiration.

While the three were busy eating steamboat, the surrounding customers left, and another batch of customers entered. Just that, this batch of customers made both Ye Hua and Qing Yutong felt a little bit curious. Why did so many cultivators suddenly appeared. Or perhaps, they were ability power users, or ancient martialists. In the end, who even knows? In any case, within Ye Hua's eyes, they were but just humans.

But just a bunch of slightly higher-grade humans.

Sitting at their side were four middle-aged men, and currently, the four middle-aged men were discussing something with each other in high spirits.

"I heard that a lot of disciples from various southern sects came to Long'an City."

"Not only sect disciples, people from the ancient martial families, ability power world, and cultivation world will more or less all come over to Long'an City within these two days."

"I wonder if the north will meddle in this matter. If they do meddle in this matter, it would most likely be another bloody battle."

"The people of the north dare?! Back then when the ancient godly item appeared, didn't we southern people not meddle in it!"

“How would us small characters even be able to know how what happened behind the scenes. Even if some southern people did meddle in the previous ancient godly item that appeared in the north, we wouldn’t have been able to know about it.”

“Ancient godly item, just listening to the name is enough to make me feel excited. Not sure just what kind of anciently god item would appear this time. Would it be a weapon, equipment, or magical tool?”

“Do you all know? I heard that Xiao Yi won a pyrrhic victory last night, and it was even under the circumstance that he took out the Xuan Yuan Sword. The battle site seemed as if Judgement Day had descended.”

“Who even knows what kind of formidable people Xiao Family’s family head had provoked. Luckily, Xiao Yi wasn’t killed, if not, the north would have been in a disorder.”

“I even heard that Nangong Xinyi declared that Xiao Yi was going to recuperate at home, and the ownership of a few companies that were under Dragon God Corporation had been transferred. This was told to me by a brother of mine who is a higher-up within Dragon God Corporation. I’m absolutely sure that there is an astonishing big secret within these matters.”

“Sigh, isn’t the world of the rich still the same no matter what? Xiao Family’s family head is definitely living blissfully every day.”

“Do you think that the people who have money would be living as happy as you imagined? No, you are wrong, the happiness of the rich, it is something that you cannot imagine at all.”

When Ye Hua, Qing Ya, and Qing Yutong heard the last sentence, they felt that it made a lot of sense. All of you are totally not able to imagine that, the world of the rich would be that, ordering food deliveries every day, and trying to eat chicken after waking up.

However, it was still the first time that Qing Yutong had heard of this matter. With a face full of curiosity, Qing Yutong asked, “Brother-in-law, did Xiao Yi really paid up?”

“Ask your big sister.”

“Big sister, what happened? I only left for a while, and such a big matter actually happened.” Qing Yutong asked anxiously. Would a person like Xiao Yi even pay up? Does this Xiao Yi not want his face any more?

Qing Ya said faintly, “He paid up, he paid with the ownerships of three companies.”

“Wow! Brother-in-law, you are formidable.” Qing Yutong exclaimed. This Xiao Yi, in the past, he would often act cool and bully people in various ways, but who would have thought that, he would suffer a defeat under my brother-in-law’s palm in the end.

Ye Hua picked up a piece of beef that Qing Ya passed to him, “It is but a small matter.”

“Brother-in-law, you are acting cool again. Tell me about the course of events. You didn’t even call me when you went to collect the debt, you are no fun at all.”

Ye Hua said faintly, "For a small matter like collecting debt, just leave it to the underlings will do."

Qing Ya and Qing Yutong took a look at each other, he is acting cool again.

"Ye Hua, the ancient godly item that those people are talking about right now, is it the treasure that the others talked about last time?"

"Ah! Big sister, what treasure are you talking about? Why are you two keeping me in the dark about things, both of you are leaving me out and not bringing me along to play at all." Qing Yutong pouted her small mouth, seemingly just like a child.

In actuality, Ye Hua was also a bit curious about this ancient godly item. After all, Ye Hua has the hobby of collecting things. Within that ring that was on his finger, there were lots of weapon and equipment, and all of them were spoils of wars that Ye Hua had collected. Don't think that Wei Chang's hobby of collecting things was cultivated out by himself.

However, if Ye Hua was to know of Xuan Yuan Sword's strength, he would rather choose to stay at home and watch Pleasant Goat and Big Big Wolf.

"Do you two want to go and take a look?" Ye Hua asked faintly.

"Yes!"

"Yes, yes, yes, yes, yes, I want to!"

Ye Hua thought for a moment, "We will treat it as an outing then."

"Wow, brother-in-law, for such a big matter, you are actually treating it as an outing, you are acting cool pretty well right now." Qing Yutong acted cute and laughed.

Ye Hua couldn't help but stretched out his hand and knocked onto Qing Yutong's head, "Impudent."

"Brother-in-law~ It hurts~" Qing Yutong rubbed onto her head and said pitifully.

Qing Ya smiled sweetly, "You deserved it, to actually dare to tease your brother-in-law when he is acting cool."

Knock~

Qing Ya suffered a knock onto the head too. Immediately, Qing Yutong laughed, "Haha, laugh at me more. Brother-in-law, well done."

"Ye Hua! Just you wait!"

"Wait what? Quickly go and pay the bill, time to head back home!"

"Humph!"

The surrounding men looked at Ye Hua, then looked at the tigress that was in front of them. That guy's wife and sister-in-law sure are nice, letting the guy hit them however he wants, and even after being hit, they would still act coquettishly towards the guy. However, these two women both belonged to that guy!!!

After the meal, the three began taking a stroll on the street. While taking a stroll, Qing Yutong bought some small accessories, and happily wore the accessories.

On the other hand, Ye Hua was like a big boss, holding onto Qing Ya's willow waist, while Qing Ya's face was filled with frost, still feeling very unhappy about Ye Hua knocking onto her head. This group of three was truly a very weird combination.

Chapter 115.1: The game still hasn't begun, all of you, don't die yet! 1/2

Returning back to Leisure Bar, it was about to be 10 pm. However, right after Ye Hua walked into the bar, he felt that the business was pretty good today, almost all of the seats were occupied, just that, most of the people that were on the seats were men, and there were very few women. The situation was very different from how it was like in the past.

"You two go up first." Ye Hua said faintly.

"Brother-in-law, what are you planning to do, bring me along with you to have fun~"

Qing Ya pulled onto her sister and said with disdain, "What else can he do, he is definitely planning to act cool again. Let's go upstairs and eat chicken together. See if Little Ah Li is online or not, Little Ah Li is much more reliable compared to him."

Listening to his own woman talking about Little Ah Li again, Ye Hua's mood immediately turned bad, to get carried by a child to eat chicken...

You all totally do not know that, if I were to release my true strength, even if I myself would feel afraid!

Right now, I am just playing around with the constitution of an ordinary human, and I am just not willing to cheat. However, Little Ah Li is definitely cheating. If she was my child, I would definitely beat her butt! To actually have to cheat when you are playing a computer game with humans, humiliating!

Walking into the bar counter, under others' peculiar gazes, Ye Hua mixed a completely black color alcoholic drink for himself. The alcoholic drink looked just like cola.

Alright, in actuality, it was indeed cola... What was different was that, there was alcohol in the cola.

Holding onto this glass of special cola, Ye Hua sat at the empty seat that was at the side and began sizing up everyone. Very evidently, some of those people that were in the bar were not ordinary people.

"Your Honor!" Wei Chang walked over unhurriedly.

"Call Lie Gu over, I have a matter that I want to talk about."

"Yes!"

Five seconds later, a handsome little boy who was wearing a school uniform walked into the bar. The handsome little boy's face was brimming with strong confidence. However, when the handsome little boy saw Ye Hua, his face immediately turned into a humble smile.

"Your Honor~" Lie Gu called out.

Ye Hua sized up Lie Gu for a bit, then wrinkled his brow and said, "What have you been up to again recently?"

"Subordinate have been complying with Your Honor's orders and have been going around experiencing humanity. Studying is also a very good way to experience humanity." Lie Gu said in a low voice, evidently lacking a bit of confidence with what he said.

Wei Chang added, "The reason Lie Gu went to school is just because he wanted to expand his harem."

"Gluttonous Monster, you are wrong here, what I am doing is just honest dating."

Wei Chang laughed lightly, "Only after a few days of attending school, you got into fights, and even fought over female students. As your father, it is really giving me a headache."

"What do you mean by that?" Ye Hua asked curiously.

Wei Chang said, "Your Honor, since Lie Gu got into a fight right after only few days of attending school, wouldn't the school have to call the student's parents? Subordinate and Xiao Tang just so happened to be on a date together at that time, and thus, we went to the school and pretended as Lie Gu's parents."

"Haha!!!" Ye Hua laughed.

Lie Gu said while panting with rage, "I swear, I will withdraw from the school tomorrow, this is meaningless!"

Ye Hua coughed lightly, "Whatever you want to do. However, the matter that I wanted to talk about is that, in a few days later, let's all go on an outing together. It has been five years already, and we have yet to go out together. Thinking back to the past..."

Wei Chang's and Lie Gu's expression changed, they knew that Ye Hua was thinking back to the memories in the past. Back then when the eight of us traveled to every corners of the world and made our evil reputation spread throughout the world, just how great did it felt. His Honor has been staying at this small bar for five years already. And before the madam appeared, His Honor didn't even bother leaving the bar. Only after the madam appeared, then did His Honor began to bother to leave the bar from time to time. Right now, His Honor even has the thought of going out together, I feel so truly touched.

"Your Honor..."

"Your Honor..."

In actuality, both Wei Chang and Lie Gu understood that Ye Hua definitely missed the other five sins very much. In actuality, it is not that His Honor does not want to go and find the other five sins, it is just that His Honor is afraid that he would feel disappointed when he found them.

Ye Hua took out a stick of cigarette and lighted it up, "Recently, there has been quite a lot of people coming over to Long'an City. Those people are all here for something called Ancient Godly Item. For this coming outing, on one hand, it would be for relaxing, and on the other hand, it is also for the sake of seeing just what thing is this Ancient Godly Item supposed to be."

Lie Gu's face turned cold, "Your Honor, since they are all gathering together, how about we take this chance to kill all of them in one go."

Wei Chang stretched out his hand and knocked onto Lie Gu's head, "Do you think that His Honor is still the same as he is back in the past!"

"Subordinate knows his wrong."

Ye Hua picked up the glass of alcohol and took a sip, then said faintly, "Instead of us killing them, we might as well let them massacre one another instead."

"Your Honor is brilliant!"

"Your Honor is brilliant!"

Both Wei Chang and Lie Gu thought of something. If His Honor had this kind of brain back then, there was no way that we could have been eliminated, and His Honor would have long played those humans around in his palm.

You Cannot Afford To Offend My Woman

Chapter 115.2: The game still hasn't begun, all of you, don't die yet! 2/2

The sound of wine glass shattering rang out. A man could be seen standing up and shouting, "Fk, what kind of garbage music is this, put on some high energy music for me!"

Ye Hua silently took a look at that table, then stood up and said faintly, "Both of you, take care of those people, they most likely came here for the sake of trying to probe us out. Don't be too ruthless when dealing with those people, if you two deal with them too ruthlessly, we won't be able to have a chance to play around with those people anymore in the future."

"Understood!"

"Understood!"

Ye Hua walked upstairs unhurriedly. When I entered into the bar just now, I immediately felt that it was strange. Thinking back to what happened last night, I'm guessing that those people are sent by some other people to try and probe us out. If that's the case, I will go ahead and play with them. Instead of killing, it's much more satisfying to see those looks of astonishment on their faces or those looks of disbelief on their faces!

This was a kind of ascension. Ye Hua's hands were already filled with the blood of countless amount of humans. Killing could no longer give Ye Hua any joy. Playing those humans in his palm, and enjoying the looks of astonishment on their faces, only this kind of feeling was able to trigger a trace of billow within Ye Hua's heart.

No matter was it Xiao Yi, or was it Long Aotian, Ye Hua was waiting for them to grow stronger. When they felt that they were strong enough, they would then discover that, their despair had only just begun!

Wei Chang and Lie Gu looked at Ye Hua's imposing back, and couldn't help but worship Ye Hua in their heart. His Honor has become more and more human-like. I believe that, don't need too long, when the seven sins are all assembled, we will head back! And when we head back, we will play those complacent Overlords within our palms. That will be much more satisfying than just killing them straight away!

“Gluttonous monster, how about we have a contest with each other?”

Wei Chang smiled, “Contest in what?”

“Don’t humans like to act cool? We will a contest on who would be able to act the coolest.” Lie Gu grinned, revealing out his white teeth.

“Sure, but don’t mess up His Honor’s plan. If everyone was to become afraid of us, His Honor would definitely stew you.”

Lie Gu scratched onto the back of his head, “His Honor has been saying that he would stew me for hundreds of years already, but only thunder would rumble, and rain wouldn’t fall.”

“Oh? How about I help you pass what you just said to His Honor then?”

“Aiyo, I’m just joking around. Look at you, to actually take what I said seriously, tsk, tsk, tsk...”

Leisure Bar was a bit in a disorder right now. Some security guards went over to try to stop the man, however, how would the security guards be a match for the man? The security guards were immediately pushed onto the floor by the man.

“People who are of no significance, scram, if not, be prepared to bear the consequences!” The man shouted out arrogantly.

This shout was indeed useful, after the shout, all of the ordinary people that were in the bar left the bar. However, half of the people that were in the bar did not leave, and the man also did not continue on shouting out arrogantly, evidently aware of what was going on with those who chose to continue to stay in the bar.

“Hey! How can you act like this! This is a leisure bar, if you want to go disco dancing, go to other bars instead.” Tang Wei could be seen suddenly rushing out to the man, and said while standing in front of the man.

The man was 2 meters tall, and Tang Wei was only 1.65 meters tall. The obvious comparison made others felt that Tang Wei seemed just like a little doll.

“Gluttonous Monster, this girlfriend of yours has quite the personality.” Lie Gu rubbed onto Wei Chang’s shoulder and laughed.

Wei Chang looked at this girlfriend and laughed, “En, Xiao Tang indeed has quite the personality. Although she seems gentle and delicate on the outside, she is filled with courage on the inside.”

“Your girlfriend is about to be bullied, as the boyfriend, aren’t you going to step out?” Lie Gu asked curiously.

While looking at the beautiful figure, a black light began flickering within Wei Chang’s eyes, “Xiao Tang is already no longer considered as a human.”

“Fk, Gluttonous Monster, you are so sickening...”

“That three celebrities of yours are the same too, they are nourished by that dragon aura of yours to the point that...” Wei Chang teased.

Lie Gu spread out his hands, “What else can I do about the side effect. I will just take it as cultivating three subordinates who can both fight and warm bed. After all, His Honor is only just taking a vacation here in this world.”

A thirst for blood was emitted out from both Wei Chang’s and Lie Gu’s eyes. The game has still yet to begin, we are only just warming up now!

The burly man looked at the tiny thing in front of him, and an evil smile appeared on the corner of his mouth. The man stretched out his filthy hand, wanting to touch onto Tang Wei’s cheek. I’m sure that it would feel very nice to touch this woman’s tender white skin. The burly man’s three other friends revealed out a mocking smile. Something like taking liberties of women is often done by us, especially when it comes to such a pure looking beautiful woman like this. Just a while ago, I remember seeing two super beautiful women entering into the bar and walking upstairs, perhaps, we can try to take liberties of them too.

However, they tried to take liberties of the wrong person this time. If it was placed in the past, Tang Wei would inevitably be taken liberties of by that study man. However, the Tang Wei right now was Wei Chang’s girlfriend, and her identity had raised up by a tremendous amount. Furthermore, because Wei Chang had helped to refine a primordial spirit into Tang Wei’s body, Tang Wei’s strength right now was strong enough to even exchange blows with Death Mage.

Looking at the filthy big hand, Tang Wei subconsciously used her hand to block onto the incoming big hand, and furthermore, she did it while closing her eyes.

The entire bar turned silent, if a fine needle was to drop onto the floor now, everyone would be able to hear it.

While closing her eyes, Tang Wei did not felt anything disgusting touching onto her face. Carefully opening her eyes, she discovered that everyone was looking at her in complete astonishment. Immediately, Tang Wei was confused.

The sturdy man that was in front of her just a while ago had disappeared. Tang Wei was very confused, did the man ran away?

The sturdy man’s three other friends regained their consciousness and one of them shouted out, “Brothers, attack!”

Tang Wei’s face revealed out panic as she took a step backward. However, the three other sturdy men had already approached near her.

“Ah!!!”

Tang Wei let out an ear-piercing scream, and all of the wine glasses shattered. The expressions of the three study men came to a froze, and blood began dripping out from their ears. Evidently, the three sturdy men were injured. However, they still continued and attacked towards the 'weak' Tang Wei.

After screaming, while with her eyes closed, Tang Wei began throwing kicks and punches, seemingly just like a girl who had seen a ghost and was hitting onto the air.

The entire bar became silent once again. After the moment of silence, some people began to talk in a low voice.

"If I didn't see wrongly, are that four study men Jiangnan's four marshals?"

"That seems to be the case. I heard that their strength is not bad, how did they get sent flying by a girl?"

"This bar is indeed mysterious."

"Could it be that, this girl is the black gowned person who fought with Xiao Yi?"

"Brother, don't speak anymore, I'm feeling afraid..."

Lie Gu sighed, "Gluttonous Monster, can you at the least teach your girlfriend some moves, isn't it too humiliating like this?"

"I feel that this fighting technique of Xiao Tang's is pretty good." Wei Chang laughed lightly, then walked forward unhurriedly.

Coming to Tang Wei's side, Wei Chang patted onto Tang Wei who was currently still in a panic.

Unexpectedly, right after Tang Wei felt that someone patted onto her, she responded with a punch to the person who patted her. Wei Chang easily grabbed onto the incoming fist, "Xiao Tang, it's me."

"Ah... Uncle Wei~" Tang Wei straightforwardly threw herself into Wei Chang's embrace, evidently that she was feeling afraid to death.

Jiangnan's four marshals expressed that they were the ones that were feeling afraid to death right now, you this murderer...

Wei Chang lightly stroked onto Tang Wei's back, "Alright, alright, you don't have to be afraid anymore."

"Uncle Wei, was I very violent just now?"

The surrounding people all let out a gasp.

Miss, can I ask you, if you are not counted as violent, then what is counted as violent? Look at those people, they are all hard stuck in the wall right now because of your attacks.

Wei Chang consoled, "You are not violent in the least bit at all. Go and gather the waiters and security guards, the bar will be closed for business early today."

"Oh... Alright."

After a short while, all of Leisure Bar's security guards and waiters left the bar. Lie Gu leaned onto the bar counter and watched as Wei Chang perform. I will give the first round to him.

Wei Chang looked at the 20+ people that were in the bar and questioned, "Are all of you here to cause trouble?"

Everyone remained silent. Just a while ago, you grabbed onto that girl's fist so easily, so right now, who would even dare to say that they are here to cause trouble?

Looking at the 20+ people, all of them were sitting up straight right now. It was reckoned that, back when they were studying, they didn't even sit up so straightly, so seriously, and also, so scaredly.

After all, those people were all but a bunch of small fries, they were all merely sent here to probe out the bar. However, none of them would want to be stuck in the wall.

You Cannot Afford To Offend My Woman

Chapter 116.2: The most childish threaten 2/2

Lie Gu shook his head helplessly, what else is there even to fking play, those bunch of adults are all acting like a bunch of small students right now.

Lie Gu shouted out coldly, "Who sent you guys here? Let them come over to pick you guys up. If not, don't even think about seeing tomorrow's sun."

"What if it rained tomorrow?" Wei Chang turned his head around and asked.

Lie Gu went into a daze, this is truly a question, "You say, what do we do then if it rained tomorrow?"

"How about saying, 'don't even think about seeing tomorrow's sun and rain'? How's that?" Wei Chang suggested.

Lie Gu slightly wrinkled his brows, "Then, what if it is a cloudy day tomorrow?"

Everyone, "....."

"Don't wait till tomorrow then, it is too troublesome, how about we give them just an hour instead?" Wei Chang said.

"That is a good idea."

The 20+ people were all completely dazed. Big brothers, what are you two doing? One of you said that you would be giving us till tomorrow, why are you suddenly changing your mind now, and why do you even bother caring about if tomorrow would rain or be cloudy?

"We are from Cloud Sect!"

"We are from Traceless Pavilion! I dare you to try and touch us!"

"We are from Raising Thunder Sect! If you are smart, let us leave now!"

"We are from Dry Zen Sect, we want to go back home now!"

"We are from South Alliance! I forgot to turn off my house's gas stove when I left my house, if my house caught fire, are you going to take responsibility for it!"

The people from Cloud Sect really knew how to lead the tempo. In a moment, the atmosphere became ardent, and all of the 20+ people were currently acting like if Lie Gu and Wei Chang don't let them off, they would die in front of them.

Wei Chang took in a deep breath, "That person there, what is your house's address? I will help you call the firefighter, you don't have to worry about your house."

"If you all want to go back home, your guardian has to come and pick you up. If your guardian doesn't come to pick you up, you will die." Wei Chang continued on and said.

Lie Gu placed both his hands into his pants' pockets and walked to the middle and said, "How about you all recognize me as your boss, I will teach you how to comb middle parting hair."

After finish speaking, Lie Gu fixed onto his hair. My hairstyle cannot become messy.

The 20+ people were about to collapse. Just what kind of strange bar is this, the way that they talk is so childish, but on the other hand, the frightening aura that the two are releasing out is making those childish words of theirs to become so threatening. This is too scary!!!

Lie Gu shouted out coldly, "What are you all still being in a daze for? Waiting for me to treat you all to a bowl of hot spicy soup? Start calling now!"

Everyone did not dare to go against Lie Gu and immediately began to call for people to come and pick them up. You two will regret it later!

In actuality, these five powers were all very formidable existences within the south. There was no need to speak too much about Cloud Sect, Cloud Sect belonged to the cultivation world, and their location was located at Long'an City's perimeters.

The members within South Alliance were all ability power users, this was a power that shouldn't be belittled.

Traceless Pavilion was located in the southwest. This was a power that was known for cultivating poisonous gu insects. This was a power that even people within the social circle also wouldn't dare to come too much into contact with, being afraid that they would get a gu insect planted into their body when they let their guard down.

(蛊虫: gu insects – basically extremely poisonous insects)

Raising Thunder Sect was an ancient martial sect, their techniques were mystical and formidable. Their sect master was someone who was able to fight against Xiao Yi. Of course, the precondition was that Xiao Yi doesn't use his Xuan Yuan Sword.

Dry Zen Sect belonged to the cultivation world too. Dry Zen Sect's strength wasn't anything much, however, the people from Dry Zen Sect were all experts in using medicines.

Of course, these were just the sects, pavilion, and alliance. In the south, there were still formidable families whose strength could be compared to Xiao Family, take for example, Wang Dabao's family. Just that, Wang Dabao didn't come today. As for why he didn't come. Perhaps, he had heard wind of some information. Meanwhile, these five powers foolishly ran to the bar to try to probe out the bar, acting as others' cannon fodders.

The calls went through, but they still had to wait for those people to come to the bar. Lie Gu was feeling very bored right now, normally at this timing, I would be lying on the bed and enjoying the celebrities' services.

"Gluttonous Monster, want to play Fight the Landlord?"

"We are lacking one player though." Wei Chang said.

Lie Gu looked at the 20+ people, "One of you come over and play Fight the Landlord with us, if you win, I will let you leave."

The 20+ people first went into a daze, then began to fight for the chance to come over and play Fight the Landlord. While fighting for the chance, the almost started to get physical with each other.

Wei Chang and Lie Gu took a look at each other with a smile. Humans are indeed still the same as usual, they have not changed at all, for the sake of living, they can do anything.

You Cannot Afford To Offend My Woman

Chapter 117.1: New style of Fight the Landlord 1/2

After a moment of fighting over who gets to play, a person that belonged to Dry Zen Sect emerged as the victor. This person was comparably thin and feeble, however, to be able to emerge as the victor amongst the 20+ people, it could be seen that he was definitely formidable in some other aspects.

Lie Gu arranged the seats, and Wei Chang took out the poker cards. Afterward, the three sat down on the seats.

Wei Chang asked with a smile, "What's your name?"

"My name is Xiong Yong."

(The name Xiong Yong could be interpreted as Brave Bear. 熊: Xiong – Bear, 勇: Yong – Brave.)

Lie Gu laughed, "This name of yours is not matching with your body build."

Xiong Yong rubbed onto his nose embarrassedly, "I was very robust in the past, but became thin after I started refining medicines."

.....

Wei Chang began to shuffle the cards, while Lie Gu took out a comb and combed once on both right and left side of his hair, then took out a small mirror to take a look at his hairstyle. After feeling satisfied with his hairstyle, Lie Gu kept the comb and small mirror and said, "You know how to play Fight the Landlord right?"

"Of course, of course, when I am bored, I would even play a few rounds with my brothers." Xiong Yong laughed simple-mindedly.

Wei Chang took out three bottles of beer, one bottle for each person. Xiong Yong was feeling very touched, I didn't expect that they would be so nice, there is actually even beer to drink while playing the card game with them, and furthermore, the beer is Harbin Beer.

After finish shuffling the cards, Wei Chang laughed, "If you win, we will let you off."

"Thanks a lot... thanks a lot..." Xiong Yong was exulted, I won't ever come to this bar anymore in the future, this bar is basically a bandit den.

"But, what if we win?" Lie Gu asked, then took off the beer cap and drank a small mouth of beer.

Burp~

Xiong Yong was startled, not knowing how to answer to that question.

Lie Gu patted onto Xiong Yong's shoulder, "How about this, if we win, we will chop off one of your limbs, and if you win, we will let you off."

Xiong Yong's expression changed greatly. When the 20+ other people heard what Lie Gu said, they couldn't help but took a step backward, those two are too cruel! Do you two know that, if you two act like this, it is very easy for you two to offend people.

Xiong Yong was starting to somewhat regret about coming out, however, the arrow was already pulled, and there was no choice but to shoot the arrow. Take a gamble, and a bicycle could become a motorcycle.

"Then, you two cannot cheat."

Lie Gu spread out his hands, "Do we look like the kind of people that would cheat?"

Looking at that sincere look on Lie Gu's and Wei Chang's face, Xiong Yong believed them.

The first round began, and Xiong Yong seemed to be very nervous, his hands that were holding onto the poker cards were currently trembling. Meanwhile, 20+ people who were watching the three play did not dare to let out a single sound, and the Jiangnan four marshals who were stuck in the wall straightforwardly pretended like they were dead, you all can't see me...

Xiong Yong picked up the card that was flipped. I am the landlord this round, however, I have to see if my cards are good or not!

Wei Chang and Lie Gu looked at their own cards and wrinkled their brows, whereas when Xiong Yong saw his own cards, a smile appeared on his face. The king bomb and a bunch of other strong cards are in my hands, I will see just how you two are even going to win!

Xiong Yan began his performance, throwing out cards after cards, while Lie Gu and Wei Chang kept on passing their own turn, seemingly like they had decided on letting Xiong Yong off.

"Two." Lie Gu finally threw out his first card.

"King bomb, haha, I only have one more card left now. Big brothers, thank you for letting me win this round." Xiong Yong finally let out a breath of relief, even the god also wants to let me off.

Wei Chang shouted out gravely, "Wait!"

Xiong Yong went into a daze, and the spectators also went into a daze, could it be that, they are intending on going back on their words?

"Double red king bombs!" Wei Chang threw out a pair of red color twos.

Asides from Lie Gu, everyone was stupefied, what kind of manipulation is this!!!

Xiong Yong tightly held onto the two within his hand and squeezed out a smile, "Big brother, this isn't good right?"

Lie Gu drank a mouth of beer, "We asked you if you know how to play Fight the Landlord or not just now, and you said that you know how to play it. What's the matter, you want to go back on the bet? Do you believe that I can kill you right away right now!"

"Don't, don't, don't, I understand, I understand." Xiong Yong could only hope that Lie Gu and Wei Chang have individual cards within their hands.

Wei Chang and Lie Gu were not fools, knowing that Xiong Yong has a two left in his hand, how would they even play an individual card? Without any suspense, Xiong Yong lost the first round.

Chapter 117.2: New style of Fight the Landlord 2/2

"Gluttonous Monster, where did you place the knife at?"

"Oh, there is a fruit knife under the bar counter."

Lie Gu found the fruit knife and placed it onto the table, "Do you want to do it yourself, or do you want us to help you?"

Xiong Yong gasped heavily, how is this possible, I can't win them in a fight, and if I were to retaliate, I will die. However, if I chop off one of my arms, I will at the least still have another chance to win. Since I have already started betting, I have no choice but to continue betting.

"Help me instead." Xiong Yong took out a pill and prepared himself for staunching the bleeding later on.

Lie Gu picked up the fruit knife and fancily spun the fruit knife. A silvery light flickered, and Xiong Yong's left arm fell onto the ground, and blood began to spurt out crazily.

Xiong Yong was also indeed a man, he did not utter a single sound after his left arm was severed. With his right hand, he struck onto his acupuncture points in succession, then ate the pill. After that, he took out a small bottle and sprinkled the fine powder that was within the small bottle onto his wound.

Wei Chang thought that it was some kind of godly medicine, but it turns out to be Yunnan Baiyao.

After finish doing all those, Xiong Yong's pale face gradually gain back some colors.

Fear appeared in the eyes of the 20+ spectators, these two people totally don't have the intention of letting the guy off at all, and instead, they are intending on killing the guy by severing off his limbs one by one. What's worse is that, the guy actually believed that the two are going to let him off!

In the next round, it was Lie Gu's turn to shuffle the cards.

Because Xiong Yong could only hold onto the cards with one hand, he was a bit slow. However, Wei Chang and Lie Gu expressed that they understand. Don't rush, take your time.

Xiong Yong was the landlord once again, and furthermore, his cards were extremely good too. Having king bomb, and also double king bombs, an existence more formidable than king bomb! Furthermore, it was double black king bombs. Even if Lie Gu and Wei Chang have double king bombs in their hands, it would also be just double red king bombs, and double black king bombs wins against double red king bombs!

The atmosphere of the hall was extremely weird, it was enough to make one tremble with fear!

Xiong Yong felt that he was definitely going to win this round, there are two bombs in my hand, and also a pair of threes.

"King bomb!" Xiong Yong shouted out gravely, appearing imposing and out of the ordinary!

Lie Gu threw out a pair of twos, "Double red king bombs!"

"Double black king bombs!" Xiong Yong's expression was malevolent, this feels so good, now you two have nothing else to say right!!!

Wei Chang and Lie Gu did not say anything, seems like they had recognized this kind of playstyle. This caused Xiong Yong to let out a breath of relief. If I rush to the hospital now, I can still attach back my arm.

"Pair of threes." Wei Chang threw out a pair of threes.

The bar turned silent. What kind of fking Fight the Landlord is this?!?!

Lie Gu let out a breath of relief, "It's fortunate that you have a pair of threes, I only have a single three left."

Blood began spilling out from Xiong Yong's wound, and his expression turned pale once again, "Why can a pair of threes eat a pair of twos!"

"If a pair of threes doesn't eat a pair of twos, what does it eat then?" Lie Gu revealed out an expression like he was looking at an idiot.

Fking hell, Xiong Yong was actually unable to dispute against that answer.

A silvery light flickered, and a leg fell onto the floor. Xiong Yong repeated the sequence of actions that he did just now. However, this time, colors did not return back to his face, and his face was still pale. Even more, even his lips were pale right now.

There was a puddle of blood accumulated under the table, causing a faint smell of blood to spread throughout the air, which in turn caused the atmosphere to feel stifling.

"I will shuffle the cards this time!" Xiong Yong said gravely.

Wei Chang magnanimously allowed Xiong Yong to shuffle the cards.

Xiong Yong began shuffling the cards. Although Xiong Yong was slow, Wei Chang and Lie Gu did not rush him at all. What a pitiful person, to not even know how to play the new style of Fight the Landlord, this guy is really out of touch with the trends.

Thinking back to those days where His Honor would play Fight the Landlord when he was bored, His Honor felt that Fight the Landlord was too monotonous, and one has to know how to be flexible. And in the end, Wei Chang and Lie Gu lost continuously to Ye Hua. Wei Chang almost lost all of his savings to Ye Hua, while Lie Gu almost got stewed by Ye Hua.

After that, the two swore that they would never play Fight the Landlord with Ye Hua anymore.

For this round, Xiong Yong was the landlord again. If it was possible, Xiong Yong did not want to be the landlord. However, when he saw that he has the king bomb, double king bombs, and also a pair of threes, Xiong Yong's confidence returned back to him.

"King bomb!"

Wei Chang and Lie Gu shook their heads, and Xiong Yong was overjoyed.

"Double red king bombs!"

"Double black king bombs!"

Right now, Xiong Yong only had a pair of threes left in his hand. Xiong Yong shouted out, "A pair of threes!"

Lie Gu unhurriedly took out two cards, "Pair of fours."

Pfft...

Xiong Yong spurt out a mouth of blood, dyeing the poker cards red. With his eyes opened wide, Xiong Yong collapsed onto the floor and twitched for a bit. After that, Xiong Yong stopped moving.

Lie Gu took out his comb and combed onto his hair, "A guy actually died from playing Fight the Landlord."

Wei Chang sighed, "He said that he knows how to play this game."

Everyone was collapsing right now...

Chapter 118.1: Little Ah Li is online 1/2

Lie Gu raised his head and drank a mouth of beer, then shouted out, "Is there still anyone who wants to play?"

Everyone revealed out fear within their eyes, and all of them crowded together into a pile. No one was willing to come out. If any of us were to come out, it would basically be a fate worse than death!

Look at how smart those Jiangnan four marshals who are stuck in the wall are, they straightforwardly pretended like they were dead.

Wei Chang asked, "How about we change to another game."

Lie Gu remained silent for a while, then said, "Let's play mahjong then, four players, whoever wins, we will let you leave."

Everyone gasped, if playing Fight the Landlord was already so terrifying, wouldn't it be even worse when playing mahjong!!!

Seeing that no one came out, Wei Chang shouted out coldly, "Is there not a single person who knows how to play mahjong!"

With a frightened expression on their faces, everyone shook their heads with all their strength.

"Gluttonous Monster, I think it's better to play something that is simple, the kind that everyone would know how to play."

"Lie Gu, are you talking about that?" Wei Chang's eyes lighted up.

Lie Gu revealed out an unfathomable smile.

Wei Chang walked to the storage room, and very quickly, he brought back a big box with him. While holding onto the big box, he said to everyone with a smile, "Happy airplane chess, come and try it out?"

Upon seeing that gentle smile, everyone knew that this was definitely not happy airplane chess, and that this was most likely death airplane chess.

It was very seldom that Wei Chang and Lie Gu would have the mood to play games. For such an easy game like this, anyone would be able to play it. Since all of you are not willing to come out, we will just pick two people by ourselves then...

Another frightening spectacle was happening in the bar again, and the three who were upstairs were totally unable to hear it at all. The two sisters were currently eating chicken with Little Ah Li. Whereas when Ye Hua entered into the room and heard that Little Ah Li was playing, he decisively chose to lie on the bed and play with his phone.

Qing Ya smiled and remained silent. This man just dead on want face. Looking at that sulky look on his face, I really want to pinch onto his face, he looks just too adorable...

"Little Ah Li, is your mother not at home today?" Qing Yutong asked curiously.

"En, a lot of people came to find mother today, therefore, mother won't be able to attend to Ah Li today." Ah Li's tender voice rang out from the earphones, her voice was very pleasant sounding.

Qing Ya asked curiously, "Little Ah Li, did your mother not beat your little buttocks last night?"

"How would mother be willing to beat Ah Li, mother only punished Ah Li to kneel on the keyboard, it hurts so much~" Ah Li said pitifully, how tragic the sight must have been.

When Qing Ya and Qing Yutong heard that, they felt heart pain for Ah Li, and their maternal love immediately overflowed out from them as they criticized Ah Li's mother.

"Aunts, actually, Ah Li's mother has it very hard too, Ah Li is able to understand mother."

“Little Ah Li sure is sensible.” Qing Ya’s heart was melting. Just how big is this child, and yet she is already so sensible. If my child is able to be as sensible as Little Ah Li, it would be great.

Qing Yutong said lovably, “Ah Li, if there is a chance, aunt will treat you to Mc Donald.”

“Mc Donald? What is that?”

Qing Yutong went into a daze, “Could it be that, Ah Li has never eat before Mc Donald?”

“Mc Donald can be eaten? The name of this food sounds so strange though?”

Qing Ya asked, “Little Ah Li, where do you stay at?”

“I also don’t really know where I stay at.” Ah Li said puzzledly.

If it was not for Ah Li being so sensible, Qing Ya and Qing Yutong would have thought that Little Ah Li had been kidnapped.

“What do your surroundings look like?” Qing Yutong asked.

“En... there are clouds... waterfalls... palaces... and also mountains... and people... However, they would not play with Ah Li, they are all afraid of Ah Li.”

What kind of freaking place is this, the sisters were both completely confused, could it be that Little Ah Li is joking around with us?

“Then, why are they afraid of Ah Li when Ah Li is so adorable.” Qing Ya asked.

“Ah Li don’t know why too. Perhaps, it could be because of mother.”

Right now, Qing Ya and Qing Yutong were like children, with a face full of curiosity on their faces. Women’s desire for gossiping was insatiable.

“Is Ah Li’s mother very formidable?” Qing Yutong asked.

Speaking of her mother, Ah Li’s tone was filled with pride, “Of course, Ah Li’s mother is not only pretty, she is also very, very, very formidable.”

Both Qing Ya and Qing Yutong smiled. The child would of course always side towards their mother.

Chapter 118.2: Little Ah Li is online 2/2

“However, Ah Li would only be able to see mother once every day during the night. During the day, mother does not have time to take care of Ah Li. Mother wouldn’t let Ah Li go out to play too. Ah Li really wants to go out and take a look at the world outside. Aunts, is the world outside fun?”

Qing Yutong immediately began to boast, speaking of various fun things and delicious food, enticing the Little Ah Li.

And when Ah Li listened to Qing Yutong’s descriptions, her desire for wanting to go out and take a look at the world outside grew even more.

Qing Ya glared at her sister, "Ah Li, don't listen to her, you have to listen to your mother do you understand?"

"En, Ah Li understands. That's right, where did uncle went to today?"

Qing Ya laughed, "Little Ah Li is too formidable already, uncle doesn't dare to play with Ah Li anymore."

Ye Hua immediately wrinkled his brows and gazed at Qing Ya. I dare you to say it again, I will make sure I beat your butt till it swells.

"Ah, so that is the case. Ah Li can be not that formidable and let uncle have the chance to perform then."

Ye Hua of course heard what Ah Li said. Do I even need a little child to let me? What a joke.

"Ah Li, uncle still don't dare to play with Ah Li." Qing Ya laughed lightly.

Ye Hua snorted, "Who said that I don't dare!"

"Aunt, is uncle coming to play with us?" Ah Li asked curiously.

"En, uncle is coming, we can play together as four."

"That's great, Ah Li likes to play with uncle."

Ye Hua's expression sunk, I do not like to play with a brat like you.

Next, Little Ah Li began bringing Ye Hua to eat chicken again. The people upstairs were playing ardently, while the situation at the downstairs was hell.

The smell of blood within the air was particularly strong, and the white color dice was dyed red by blood. Within the surroundings, there were various severed arms and legs, the spectacle was simply too horrible to endure. Right now, two men who only had one arm left on their bodies were currently holding onto their last breath.

Such a frightening scene was enough to make one's mental collapse completely. The 20+ people were not afraid of death, but after seeing this kind of death, they finally knew what a fate worse than death was. Amongst the 20+ people, there were a few women who were driven crazy by this frightening spectacle.

While drinking beer and playing the game, Wei Chang and Lie Gu waited for those peoples' backup to arrive. Both Wei Chang and Lie Gu did not pity those 20+ people in the least bit at all. To dare to come and try to probe out His Honor's territory, it would be counted lucky if any of you can die with no missing body parts.

Suddenly, the sounds of cars coming to a stop rang outside of the bar, followed by the sounds of hurried footsteps. Everyone rejoiced, their backups were finally here to save them!

"Cloud Sect's elder, Xing Kai, has arrived!"

"South Alliance's elder, Gao Shuang, has arrived!"

"Dry Zen Sect's elder, You Yinguang, has arrived!"

“Raising Thunder Sect’s elder, Wen Rui, has arrived!”

“Traceless Pavilion’s elder, Tu Rong, has arrived!”

The disciples of the various powers could be seen walking in first and shouting out their elder’s name. Their aura was imposing, and their voice was resonant. However, when they saw the spectacle within the bar, their chest began contracting in and out.

Puke...

Even the elders that followed by and entered into the bar also wrinkled their brows. The people of this bar are simply too savage, they have no humanity at all, their methods are simply ruthless to the point that it is making my hair stand on its end!!!

Furthermore, these two are totally not placing us in their eyes at all. A small bar like this actually dares to be so arrogant?! However, after thinking about the matter that happened last night, the elders’ anger came to a froze. The reason that I sent people over to the bar was to try and probe out the bar. Looking at the situation right now, the black gowned person from last night is most likely one of the two there.

Even Xiao Yi could only win a pyrrhic victory against the black gown person, therefore, the five of us added together also wouldn’t be a match for the black gown person. If the sect master came, he would be able to fight against the black gown person. However, the sect master has something more important to deal with right now, where would he even have the time to take care of such a small matter like this.

It seems like, for now, all I can do is to request for peace. I will think about the rest after I brought my people away from this bar.

Chapter 119.1: I added my body odor 1/2

“Elder, save me... I want to go back home...” One of the two who was currently playing happy airplane chess crawled slowly towards his elder, leaving a long trace of bloodstain on the floor. However, before he was even able to crawl to the front of the elder, his breathing came to a stop. The other person was the same too.

The five elders were feeling indignant within their hearts, how many years has it been! There was no one who would dare to kill their disciples in front of their faces! Even Xiao Yi would only dare to only give their disciples a lesson, and wouldn’t dare to straightforwardly kill their disciples!

Looking at the scene, there were three corpses, and not a single one of them was intact. From this, it could be seen how ruthless Wei Chang’s and Lie Gu’s methods were. Also, amongst the 20+ people, there were a few female disciples who were scared to the point that they went crazy. From this, it could be seen how frightening the spectacle just now must have been.

Wei Chang and Lie Gu discussed with each other in a low voice.

Lie Gu, “Should we kill them all to attract bigger fishes to come to the bar?”

The Wei Chang right now had learned how to think over things and thoroughly understand His Honor’s thoughts, “What His Honor want is not to kill them. If we killed them, what meaning would it even have?”

"Is that so? In the past, don't we always just wipe out all the enemies?"

"How can the past be compared to the present? We are humans, it is wrong to kill people, killing people will cause us to get imprisoned!!!" Wei Chang shouted in a low voice.

Lie Gu looked at the three corpses that were on the floor and silently nodded his head. I feel that what Gluttonous Monster just said makes a lot of sense.

"Why did you two killed my disciple!" Dry Zen Sect's elder You Yinguang shouted out.

Lie Gu drank all of the remaining beer that was in his hand in one gulp, then stood out and said, "Burp... Why? Old fellow, your people came to our territory and behaved atrociously. It is already very nice of us that we only killed three people. What's more, the three of them died because we were waiting for you all to come."

You Yinguang's expression changed, "Waiting for us?"

"Of course, if not, what did you expect?" Lie Gu took out his comb once again and combed onto both the left and right side of his hair. That strange smile was enough to make one's heart feel cold, and that strange middle parting hairstyle was enough to make one tremble in fear.

South Alliance's Gao Shuang said gravely, "Just what are the two of you up to!"

Wei Chang walked over unhurriedly, "Actually, we are also not up to anything, we just merely wanted to give everyone a warning. This is a leisure bar, not a club!"

Traceless Pavilion's elder Tu Rong asked faintly, "We have received your warning, so, we can leave now right?"

"Leaving just like this, this isn't good right?" Lie Gu smiled.

Raising Thunder Sect's elder Wen Rui shouted out coldly, "What do you want then? Don't think that we are afraid of you!"

Lie Gu spread out both his hands and said unhurriedly, "We will give you a chance to take revenge."

Everyone was immediately startled, just what are these two people planning to do! Are they lunatics! Or could it be that they are just that confident about their own strength!

Wei Chang smiled slightly, "The visitors are guests, bring forth your capabilities and have a go with the two of us. Between the two of us, you all can choose whoever that you want. No matter the result, you all can bring your people and leave afterward."

The disciples that had been in the bar since the beginning were greatly startled. Elders! Please don't ever agree to their request! These two are simply shameless! They are simply shameless to the point that they have no bottom line at all!

However, if they wanted to leave, they still had to rely on their elders, thus, all the disciples remained silent and did not speak.

"I will go first!" Dry Zen Sect's elder, You Yinguang, stepped out.

The other four elders let out a breath. Although You Yinguang's strength is not that great, he is indeed an expert in using medicines, and furthermore, he is greatly skilled in using poison. Seems like these two people have been careless. Just nice, with You Yinguang stepping out, we can see just how strong these two really are!

With a smile on their faces, Lie Gu and Wei Chang for You Yinguang to take his pick.

"You!" You Yinguang pointed to Lie Gu and shouted out.

Lie Gu patted onto Wei Chang, "Gluttonous Monster, I will go first then~"

Wei Chang shook his head helplessly.

"Old fellow, how do you want to go at this, you draw the theme!" Lie Gu asked indifferently while fixing onto his hair.

With a grim expression, You Yinguang said, "My sect, Dry Zen Sect specializes in refining medicines and concocting pills! I have a rather small accomplishment within the aspects of refining medicines and concocting pills. Today, I will compete with you on the effects of medicines!"

"This is a bit interesting, sure thing!" Lie Gu's interest was greatly piqued, this game seems more fun than Fight the Landlord.

You Yinguang said gravely, "I will take out a poison pill, and you will have to swallow the pill that I take out. After you swallowed the pill, you will only have an hour to concoct an antidote, if not, your entire body will start rotting and you will die!"

Lie Gu understood, "From what you said, I can give you a poison pill too?"

"That's right." You Yinguang said indifferently, appearing very confident.

A little brat also dares to compete against me in medicinal knowledge, he truly does not know the immensity of heaven and earth. Meanwhile, that security guard that is behind this little brat seems much calmer and more collected.

This was also the reason why You Yinguang chose Lie Gu instead of Wei Chang, little children always seem to be much easier to deceive.

You Yinguang could be seen taking out an exquisite small box from his sleeve. With a proud look on his face, You Yinguang said, "This pill is known as Six Scattered Yin Soul Pill, it is colorless and tasty. When one took in the pill, they would still be safe and sound for an hour. However, after an hour passed, their seven apertures would start bleeding, and afterward, their body would begin to start rotting. Soon after all that, their soul will scatter."

Everyone gasped, cultivators pay particular attention to souls. If one does not have a soul anymore, it would mean that their next life would cease to exist too. This pill is too malicious!

"This pill was concocted by me after using a total of 49 days. The medical ingredients that were used to concoct this pill took me an entire year to find. To speak the truth, even I myself also do not know how to concoct the antidote for this pill." You Yinguang added.

The brows of the four other elders wrinkled. What does this You Yinguang mean by that? Does he not want to kill that young fellow?

You Yinguang of course wanted to kill Lie Gu. However, as an alchemist, he much more wanted to see others tremble before the pills that he concocted. For him, this kind of satisfaction was even more satisfying compared to killing people.

Lie Gu laughed, then stretched his hand into the inside of his shirt. It seems like he was trying to scratch onto something. Everyone was a bit dazed upon seeing Lie Gu's action.

After scratching for about a minute, Lie Gu took out a black color pill. After coughing lightly, Lie Gu said, "This pill is concocted by me. Although the time it took to concoct this pill wasn't long, the effect of this pill is still pretty good. I even thought of a name for this pill, I Want It Everyday Pill. The medicinal ingredients that were used to concoct this pill are very rare. This pill will take effect after a minute that the person had swallowed it. If the person is not able to dissolve the medicinal effect after an hour, the person will die from their body exploding."

You Yinguang laughed in disdain. This brat is merely exaggerating. There is not a pill that I cannot dissect in this world. However, looking at the black color pill within this brat's hand, why do I feel that the pill seems so disgusting?

How could the pill not be disgusting? This black pill was formed with great difficulty by Lie Gu. Lie Gu scratched onto his own armpit for an entire minute to form this black pill. This black pill of mine is very effective, if you don't believe it, you can try it, I guarantee that you will be able to see its effect working right after a minute.

The two people could be seen exchanging their pills. Lie Gu opened the small box, and within the box, there was a gold color pill. The gold color pill seemed very appetizing. Without thinking, Lie Gu threw the pill into his mouth and chewed on to the pill for a bit. This pill taste quite decent.

"Hehe, do you taste a peppermint flavor when you chewed onto the pill? I added a bit of peppermint flavor to the pill." You Yinguang laughed lightly and said. Soon after, he took in Lie Gu's pill and attentively savored the pill. However, why is there a disgusting taste? What kind of medicinal ingredients would give off such a taste?

Lie Gu smiled, "Do you taste an unpleasant taste? That is the taste of my body odor."

Everyone, "....."

"You!!!" You Yinguang stretched out his slender finger and pointed at Lie Gu. You Yinguang was feeling a bit nauseous right now.

Lie Gu opened a bottle of beer and waited nonchalantly.

"Are you not planning on trying to save yourself?" You Yinguang drank a mouth of water and sneered.

"No rush, I want to see just how you are going to save yourself."

You Yinguang snorted coldly. Immediately after snorting, You Yinguang felt a quantity of heat coming from his dantian. So this pill is a yang strengthening pill, this is nothing at all!

You Cannot Afford To Offend My Woman

Chapter 120.1: You murderer! 1/2

It could be seen that, after You Yinguang ate the pill, he sat onto the floor with his legs crossed and began revolving his martial skill to quickly dissolve the medicinal effect.

After a while had passed, You Yinguang stood up and laughed, "I'm done."

"Are you sure that you are done?" Lie Gu drank a mouth of beer and looked towards You Yinguang's crotch.

Everyone couldn't help but looked towards You Yinguang's crotch. Immediately, they were startled. I didn't expect that this old fellow would be rather packed.

You Yinguang's face turned pale with fright. I actually didn't sense it until he mentioned it to me! Suddenly, the heat that disappeared just a while ago returned with a heat that was a few times hotter than before!!!

You Yinguang's entire body was bright red right now. Not daring to be careless, You Yinguang ate a few pills in succession, then sat down cross-legged and refined the pills.

However, not only was doing that useless, You Yinguang felt like his body was about to explode. Furthermore, his body was starting to swell up!

"How could this be! Why would this happen! Just what kind of pill is this!!!" You Yinguang questioned angrily, he felt that he was going to explode any time soon.

Lie Gu said leisurely, "Didn't you said it yourself just now? This is a yang strengthening pill."

The four elders were startled. I didn't expect that the medicinal effect of that black pill would be so exceptional, to actually be able to allow an elderly who is over 90 years old to regain his youth, this is too mystical...

"You! You! You are shameless!"

"Don't speak nonsense already, your antidote is right over there." Lie Gu pointed to the few women who were by the corner. Those women were the women who were scared to the point that they went insane.

You Yinguang was someone who has his own dignity, therefore, how would he be able to do something like this? Having his reputation destroyed at such an age was not a good thing!

"Where is the toilet at?" You Yinguang asked gravely, he couldn't endure the medicinal effect anymore.

Wei Chang pointed to the passage at the side, "The toilet is right to the left of the passage."

You Yinguang moved, and in a blink of an eye, he had already entered into the toilet. The others were even able to hear the sound of the toilet door closing.

The other elders wrinkled their brows and turned their faces to the side. Vulgar! This is truly vulgar!

However, is the medicinal effect of that pill really that good? That You Yinguang practically seemed like he had completely regained his youth.

A comfortable moan rang out from the toilet, and without long, with a comfortable expression on his face, You Yinguang walked out of the toilet. You Yinguang's old face was rosy, seemingly like he had cured an ineradicable disease that had been troubling him for years.

A trace of envy appeared on the faces of the other elders. When they got to such an age, hardly anything could pique their interest anymore. However, when they saw You Yinguang's expression, they couldn't help but think back to the time when they were young. However, the mightiness and vigor they had once possessed were now but a thing from the past.

"Oh, old fellow is rather quick huh."

You Yinguang's brows wrinkled, what do you mean by quick, I obviously took more than three minutes, and yet you are saying as if it took me only a few moments.

"You think that a mere yang strengthening pill would be able to make me embarrass myself? You overestimated your capabilities." You Yinguang stretched out his right hand and stroke onto his beard. The numerous disciples couldn't help but feel disgusted.

Lie Gu laughed lightly, "Old fellow, you are looking down too much on my I want It Everyday Pill."

Right after Lie Gu finished speaking, You Yinguang felt that a certain part of his body was having a reaction again, and his expression turned pale, "You! You! Just how did you concoct this pill!"

"What? Are you thinking of selling this pill of mine? I'm not going to tell you."

You Yinguang gasped heavily. The medicinal effect is coming too quickly! This won't do! I have to go back into the toilet and settle it!

Three minutes later.

You Yinguang slowly walked out of the toilet. And this time, his expression didn't seem to be looking great. However, right after coming out for a few moments, he immediately ran back into the toilet.

Two minutes later.

You Yinguang slowly walked out of the toilet. This time, his right hand was somewhat trembling and his breathing was urgent. However, before he had even walked back to the bar, he ran back to the toilet again.

A minute and a half later.

You Yinguang slowly walked out of the toilet while holding onto the wall. His face was still flushing, and even his legs were trembling right now. However, only after a few moments of coming out, he immediately ran back into the toilet again.

A minute later.

You Yinguang was more or less crawling out of the toilet right now. This is practically a torture, if this continue on, don't need for my body to explode, I will die from exhausting up my life force.

"Antidote... Give me the antidote..." You Yinguang stretched out his skinny and bony right hand, and on his right hand, there was actually some sparkling and translucent liquid on it. Upon seeing that, everyone couldn't help but feel sick in their stomach.

The 20+ disciples knew that this would be the result. Elder! Why are you so naïve! These two are basically big swindlers!

You Cannot Afford To Offend My Woman

Chapter 120.2: You murderer! 2/2

You Yinguang felt like his chest was on fire, and because he could not release the fire within his chest, his body was gradually swelling up again. Without long, You Yinguang who was still skinny and bony just a while ago swelled up to the point that he looked just like a 100kg fatty. This kind of change caused everyone to become astonished.

Forget whatever new style of Fight the Landlord, or whatever Happy Airplane Chess, this is what a true torture is really like, a fate worse than death!

Lie Gu sighed, "Old man, didn't I told you already? The antidote is right there, and yet you stubbornly want to use your hand instead, is it even worth the trouble?"

Everyone looked towards the few insane women who were hiding at the corner, then looked at the You Yinguang whose body was still continuing on swelling up. Just what is this place, why is this place so frightening and eerie, these two are practically demons!

You Yinguang of course understood what Lie Gu meant, however, once I did a thing like that, my reputation will be tarnished! If words of it were to spread out, what face would I even have anymore!!!

Also, just what is this fking yang strengthening pill, to actually be able to allow the person's mind to maintain cool-headed and allow the person to think over things just like a normal person. If it was the kind of yang strengthening pill that makes one lose all their cool, I wouldn't have the need to think so much now.

But... but... if I lose my life here, what use would keeping my face even do for me!!!

You Yinguang turned his head around and looked towards the few women who were trembling at the corner, then rushed towards them, not caring about anything else anymore. Because of the placement of the lights, the corners were comparatively dim. Everyone was not able to clearly see what was happening in the corner, however, everyone was able to clearly hear the wonderful melody that was playing in the corner.

"This old fellow sure is dissolute." Lie Gu laughed.

The faces of the elders were solemn. This You Yinguang is too shameless, to actually undergo such an act in public, do you not want that old face of yours anymore!

After quite a while, Cloud Sect's elder, Xing Tian, felt that it was more or less enough already, no matter how strong the medicinal effect is, it should have been dissolved already. Thus, while with one of his hands still placed behind his back, Xing Tian waved his other hand towards You Yinguang.

You Yinguang who was still busy detoxifying the poison suddenly fainted onto the floor.

Lie Gu was very unhappy as he asked gravely, "What are you doing? The old man was still busy detoxifying the poison!"

"It's more or less enough already." Xing Tian said coldly. That sound that they are making in the corner is making my stomach feel sick. Alright... In actuality, I'm just feeling jealous.

"What do you mean by it's more or less enough? You truly do not understand this I Want It Everyday Pill of mine. Originally, the old man was busy detoxifying the poison, and yet you actually suddenly break him off while he was busy with detoxifying the poison!" Lie Gu sighed, seemingly like he was feeling sorry for the old man.

Wei Chang said calmly, "You murderer."

"!!!!" Xing Tang opened his eyes wide. I have never seen someone so shameless before, to actually say that I am the murderer!

Lie Gu said, "Everyone saw it just now right? I pointed the right path to the old man with kindness, and yet, this guy actually stopped the old man from trying to save his own life. May I ask, if this person is not a murderer, what is he then?"

"A bunch of nonsense!" Xing Tian shouted out angrily.

Traceless Pavilion's elder, Tu Rong, said, "Elder Xing, regarding this matter, you are indeed the one who is in the wrong."

"Elder Xing, although Elder You's action was unsightly, he did it in order to save his own life. Why did you have to go and cut him off." South Alliance's Gao Shuang spoke out too.

"That's right, since Elder You chose to do that, I'm sure that he understood the consequences that would follow by afterward. Elder Xing, isn't this action of yours basically severing Elder You's chances of surviving?" Raising Thunder Sect's elder, Wen Rui, said lightly.

Xing Tian's eyes were opened up wide. I didn't expect that during such a crucial moment, those people would suddenly attack me! However, after thinking about it, it makes sense! My sect discovered a treasure, and yet, my sect chose to secretly dig out the treasure. It would be strange if they didn't hate us for doing that. Furthermore, the action that I just did just so happened to give them a chance to attack me!

Wei Chang and Lie Gu were not very clear about the details of those peoples' situations, the two just felt that it was very interesting to watch those people fight amongst themselves. Wei Chang and Lie Gu could be counted as having achieved Ye Hua's requirement, which was to get those people to fight amongst themselves.

Lie Gu held onto the bottle of beer and laughed, “Elder Xing, it’s not like that the old man is unsavable anymore. Since you were the one who broke him off while he was busy detoxifying himself, you should go and help him detoxify the poison now.”
