You Cannot Afford To Offend My Woman

Chapter 261: Empress is very obedient

However, after thinking about it, it is a good thing that those people admitted to doing what we did. Since that's the case, I will just throw everything that we did onto those people's backs and let those people shoulder everything that we did. With this, those people are practically doing me a favor.

Haha, this is a bit interesting.

"Baizhi, what do your Voidless Realm plan on doing?" Qing Ya asked curiously.

Donghuang Baizhi shook her head, "Things like this are all up to the aristocratic families and families to decide on what to do, and only if the aristocratic families and families do not have a way to deal with the matter, then would the three big powers step in and deal with the matter."

"However, this matter is mainly a matter concerning the south, thus, the pressure that is on the south will be much heavier compared to the north. And even if there are people from the north that are intending on going to Dry Zen Sect's territory, those people are all going there for the purpose of seeking revenge." Donghuang Baizhi added.

Qing Ya was still a bit worried, "To be able to exterminate a sect in just a night, those people who did it must surely be very formidable."

"En, the strength of those people is at the least of the same level as an aristocratic family." Donghuang Baizhi agreed with what Qing Ya just said.

However, the two of them still thought too lightly of those people, the strength of those people had already surpassed the strengths of the three big powers. Those people only used less than five minutes to completely exterminate Dry Zen Sect.

"Don't chat while sitting down, come and chat while lying on the bed." Ye Hua said faintly. Although it is still not possible for them to both sleep together with me at night, it should be fine for them to lie down by my sides during the day, right?

Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi shyly rolled their eyes at Ye Hua, then lightly lied down at Ye Hua's sides.

My wish has finally been fulfilled by half! Right now, I have to work harder so that my wish can be fulfilled completely.

"I heard that when families want to rise into the ranks of aristocratic families, they have to receive your approval first?" Ye Hua asked curiously.

Donghuang Baizhi nodded her head, "That's right, for a family to rise into the ranks of aristocratic families, they have to first meet the requirement of possessing an ancient godly item, and afterward, they would have to go through the aristocratic families' inspection, then lastly, my Voidless Realm will make an evaluation on their strength and financial ability."

"I didn't expect that the authority that Baizhi possesses would be this big." Ye Hua laughed lightly.

Donghuang Baizhi's small face turned red. No matter how big my authority is, in the end, I still end up being bullied by you.

"Then, recently, is there any family that is about to rise into the ranks of aristocratic families?" Ye Hua was currently trying to get information out from his wife, Ye Hua was truly formidable.

"Originally, the family that had been decided to rise into the ranks of aristocratic families was Xiao Family, however, because Bai Family obtained an ancient godly item, the two families currently have to compete with each other to see just which of them will be the one that is able to rise into the ranks of aristocratic families." Donghuang Baizhi didn't really place the matter in her heart, after all, aristocratic families were basically just families that possessed an ancient godly item, and a family that possessed just one ancient godly item was of no threat to Voidless Realm.

Furthermore, even though Voidless Realm suffered great losses in the battle against Ying Family, the Voidless Realm right now was still not something that an aristocratic family could be compared to at all.

Right now, Donghuang Baizhi was waiting to see just which of those aristocratic families were going to prepare to go against her Voidless Realm, then proceed and destroy all of those aristocratic families that chose to go against her Voidless Realm.

Do not think that Donghuang Baizhi was an amiable empress, she only acts amiable in front of Ye Hua, and when she was in front of others, her attitude was completely different.

"What do you think about those two families?" Ye Hua asked.

Towards her husband's question, Donghuang Baizhi naturally wouldn't hide anything at all, "Looking at the data, Bai Family has a slight advantage over Xiao Family. Bai Cixin can be counted as a woman who possesses strong capabilities, and adding on with the help of her husband, Wang Dabao, Bai Cixin's already strong capabilities are raised to another level. Furthermore, because Bai Family has quite a number of financial groups attached to them, the amount of money that we would be able to get from Bai Family would be quite an amount."

"Do the aristocratic families have to hand in money over to your Voidless Realm?" Qing Ya asked curiously.

"En, the aristocratic families are required to pay a tribute every year. Therefore, the income that a family possesses is also one of the aspects that we assess. This time, Xiao Family's financial evaluation was lower than Bai Family's financial evaluation. After all, recently, many rich people left Xiao Family's side and joined Bai Family's side." While leaning onto Ye Hua's shoulder, Donghuang Baizhi mumbled.

Qing Ya held onto her forehead and said, "Seems like I am not the one who possesses the most money..."

"Qing Ya, you are counted as the strongest woman right now, even I am not a match for you." What Donghuang Baizhi just said was true. After Qing Ya awakened her bloodline, an earth-shattering change happened to her, and her strength had become incomparably strong

Ye Hua agreed with what Baizhi said, "Baizhi, you have to teach Qing Ya on how to use her power. Right now, Qing Ya practically possesses a huge amount of power, but she does not know how to use it."

"En, I got it." Donghuang Baizhi answered.

"Baizhi, I feel that Xiao Family is not bad, how about letting Xiao Family be the family to qualify to rise into the ranks of aristocratic families?" Ye Hua said.

Donghuang Baizhi went into a daze for a moment, then soon after, said tenderly, "I will listen to you~"

Sigh, I am not used to this woman being so obedient.

"Eh... Baizhi, you should just decide base on the established rules, I wasn't being serious with what I said." Ye Hua laughed lightly. Regarding this Xiao Family, I should get Wei Chang to order them to not fight for the spot to rise into the ranks of aristocratic families and just give the spot to Bai Family.

Everything is all under my control, this kind of feeling is very great.

"Ye Hua and that Xiao Yi had a conflict with each other in the past, and that Xiao Yi even tried to not pay up after losing money to Ye Hua. However, in the end, that Xiao Yi paid up the money that he lost to Ye Hua." Qing Ya laughed laughably. Thinking back to that time, it was rather exciting.

Donghuang Baizhi said helplessly, "Seems like I have missed a lot of good shows."

"From now on, you won't miss anything." Ye Hua said tenderly, and this caused Donghuang Baizhi to smile blissfully.

"Daddy, daddy, Ah Li finished watching Snow White." Ah Li could be seen running over, then took off her shoes, jumped onto the bed, and hugged onto her father.

Ye Hua laughed lightly, "Then, daddy will give Ah Li a test. What did Snow White tell us?"

Qing Ya smiled helplessly as she shook her head. Ye Hua has begun those fallacious reasonings of his again.

Donghuang Li tilted her head and pondered for a bit, then said happily, "Ah Li knows, Snow White tells us that Snow White does not like the seven dwarves, and only likes the prince."

"Haha." Ye Hua laughed heartily.

Qing Ya hugged onto Donghuang Li and said, "Don't listen to your daddy."

"But, Ah Li also do not like the seven dwarves."

This caused Ye Hua to laugh even more heartily, and even Donghuang Baizhi couldn't help but smile helplessly.

Donghuang Li could be seen lying on her father's body, and while listening to her father's heartbeat, she said sweetly, "However, not only do Ah Li not like the seven dwarves, Ah Li does not like the prince too, Ah Li only likes daddy."

As expected of my daughter, she sure knows how to make me happy and like her even more.

Donghuang Baizhi was very jealous. Why do you not like mommy? You are too biased.

“Ah Li likes mommy too~” Donghuang Li added, and this caused Donghuang Baizhi’s heart to feel balanced again.

Qing Ya caressed onto her small stomach. A few more months and my baby will come into this world, I feel a bit nervous just thinking about it.

At Bai Family, which was located in Zijin City.

Bai Cixin was currently tasting top-grade tieguangyin tea with Wang Dabao.

Suddenly, an envelope flew over at high speed. Wang Dabao stretched out his hand and caught onto the envelope, then handed the envelope over to his wife while with a smile on his face.

Bai Cixin placed the teacup that she was holding onto the table, then opened the envelope and looked at the note that had the latest news written on it.

After finish looking at the note, Bai Cixin burned the note.

“Wife, what is it?” Seeing that his wife’s expression was grave, Wang Dabao asked curiously.

Bai Cixin let out a breath, then said faintly, “Yesterday, Ying Family and Voidless Realm fought with each other.”

“Ah? You are saying that two of the three big powers fought with each other?” Wang Dabao cried out in astonishment. This is a big matter!

Bai Cixin nodded her head.

“What’s the result of the battle?” Wang Dabao asked hurriedly.

“Unclear.”

It was already not easy for Bai Cixin to be able to receive such a piece of information, so let alone receiving details of the battle.

“These two big powers definitely suffered great losses from the battle with each other. I wonder if those aristocratic families from the north have made any moves.”

Bai Cixin said faintly, “I presume that the north’s aristocratic families most probably all currently have their eyes on the unknown power that suddenly appeared within the south. After all, that unknown power exterminated a sect in just one night. Just that alone is proof that the strength of that unknown power is not to be belittled.”

You Cannot Afford To Offend My Woman

Chapter 262: This novel is too good

“Are those aristocratic families really not tempted at all? Right now, Voidless Realm’s strength is definitely greatly weakened, and if those aristocratic families were to all go against Voidless Realm, they would definitely be able to take down Voidless Realm.”

“Dabao, you are underestimating the strength of a big power, thousands of years of accumulation is not a joke, and the aristocratic families are all afraid of Voidless Realm’s accumulation. After all, a scrawny camel is still bigger than a horse.”

“Aiyo, as expected, my wife is truly intelligent.” Wang Dabao began bootlicking his wife once again.

Bai Cixin laughed lightly, “The appearance of this unknown power may perhaps be a good thing. We will just stay at the side and watch quietly.”

“Wife, are you not worried about the matter of our family rising into the ranks of the aristocratic families?”

“Dabao, our family will definitely be able to rise into the ranks of the aristocratic families. After all, our family wins in every aspect against Xiao Family.” Bai Cixin appeared to be very confident.

Xiao Family’s strength decreased significantly, and with a bunch of rich merchants leaving Xiao Family’s side, Xiao Family is no longer able to reach the aristocratic families’ requirements. Therefore, Xiao Family is no longer a threat to my Bai Family.

After hearing what his wife said, Wang Dabao felt extremely at ease about the matter of their family rising into the ranks of the aristocratic families.

Suddenly, Wang Dabao hugged onto Bai Cixin, “We should celebrate in advance.”

“How have your practice in sucking out river snails come along?”

“Wife, you can be at ease, right now, I do not even need to use my hands. I guarantee that you will be greatly satisfied.”

“This is more like it.”

Bai Family was celebrating in advance, while at Tang Family, the atmosphere at Tang Family wasn’t as good as the atmosphere at Bai Family.

Right now, Tang Wushuang was lying on a big bed, and his eyes were lifeless.

At Tang Wushuang’s sides were all of his wives, they were all here to accompany him. However, right now, Tang Wushuang could only look at them and was unable to touch them at all, because his manhood had been severed.

Tang Wushuang’s manhood being severed was not only a great blow towards Xiao Family, but it was also a great blow towards Tang Wushuang himself.

Tang Wushuang’s wives were all incomparably worried, because as of this moment, none of them have had a child with their man, and yet, their man’s manhood had been severed. This was practically no different from taking their lives away from them.

Quan Anrong who was at the side consoled, “Wushuang, with how advanced science and technology are nowadays, we will definitely be able to find some other ways to be able to have babies.”

“En, en, Wushuang, cheer up.” Mu Jieya also hurriedly consoled.

However, not only did their consoles not make Tang Wushuang felt better, it made him felt even angrier, because, in Tang Wushuang's eyes, their consoles were as if they were reminding him that he could no longer have sexual intercourse!

"Xiao Yi! Xiao Yi! I am going to kill you!" Tang Wushuang who was on the bed suddenly began going crazy, and his expression also became twisted. However, the moment Tang Wushuang moved, Tang Wushuang pulled onto his wounds, which caused him to feel painful to the point that he rolled his eyes backward.

How would the delicate wives be able to restrain their husband? None of them have any way to deal with their husband.

"All of you, go outside first." Gui Chengren who was wearing flip-flops slowly walked into the room.

The few women nodded their heads, then quietly left the bedroom.

"Master! You have to help your disciple seek revenge! I'm in this state all because of that Xiao Yi!" Tang Wushuang crawled on the bed and both of his hands were grabbing tightly onto the corner of Gui Chengren's shirt.

Gui Chengren silently took out an Alps candy and ate it. Hmm, this candy tastes pretty good.

"I have told you in the past to not underestimate your opponents, especially opponents who possess good brains. To have ended up in this state that you are in right now, you have only yourself to blame!" Gui Chengren sat on the chair that was at the side, then used his phone to read a novel.

Tang Wushuang tightly clenched his fists, and after a long while, Tang Wushuang said, "Master, as long as you help me to kill Xiao Yi, Wushuang will do whatever that you ask of Wushuang."

"Revenge only feels great when you do it by yourself. For a small character like that Xiao Yi, I am not interested in dealing with him myself."

"Master!" Tang Wushuang pleaded pitifully.

"However, I do have a martial technique that is very suitable for you. With the constitution that you possess right now, cultivating this martial technique will be half the work and twice the effect." Gui Chengren said faintly.

Hope flickered within Tang Wushuang's eyes, and without thinking too much, Tang Wushuang said, "I will learn it!"

"This martial technique is very special, it is more or less the same as the Sunflower Manual. If one wants to learn this martial technique, they will have to first castrate themselves!"

Gui Chengren paused for a moment, then continued speaking, "You have already achieved this precondition. However, this martial technique is much more vicious than Sunflower Manual, this martial technique's name is "xx"."

(Name of martial technique is not written in the raws, probably due to China's censorship of the words)

Tang Wushuang was a bit startled, however, upon recalling of Xiao Yi, Tang Wushuang's mind immediately became not able to think properly, "Master, I will learn it!"

"Are you sure? After cultivating this martial technique, your constitution and temperament will change completely, your chest will become big, and your voice will become delicate. You will truly become a woman, and even more, a womb will gradually form in your body, and you would be able to even bear children! However, you will also become many times stronger than you are right now, and even if Xiao Yi possesses the Xuan Yuan Sword, he still wouldn't be a match for you."

Become a woman! Struggle appeared within Tang Wushuang's eyes.

Right now, I am not a man, yet not a monster! Since that's the case, so what if I become a woman! As long as I'm able to kill Xiao Yi and exterminate the entirety of Xiao Family, I will be satisfied!

"Master, I am sure!"

"Good, as expected of my disciple, you possess courage! However, do you need to discuss this matter with your women first?"

"There is no need to discuss about this matter with them! I can decide on my own!"

"Not bad, you now know to make decisions on your own, I am very gratified. You should rest first for today, I will come again tomorrow to teach you the technique!"

"Thank you, master!"

Gui Chengren walked out of the room and arrived at a secret room. The secret room was completely dark, and there was only a computer in the room that was emitting out a faint light.

In front of the computer seemed to be a person. The person's legs were completely chopped off of his body, and his body was soaked within a medicinal jar. The scene looked extremely frightening!

Gui Chengren walked over and took a look, "No wonder the novel didn't update with new chapters, this guy actually committed suicide by biting off his tongue."

"What a pity. Looks like I am going to have to find someone to take over this novel again, this novel is just too good."

Xiao Manor.

Today, Xiao Manor was filled with vitality. Within the manor, servants were traveling back and forth around the manor, seemingly like a banquet was currently being held at Xiao Manor.

That's right, Xiao Family was holding a family banquet today to celebrate Xiao Family's rebirth after living through the calamity.

Right now, Xiao Yi's injuries have healed completely, and even Xiao Yi himself felt that it was unimaginable.

It is unimaginable that my injuries have already healed completely, but no matter what, this is a good thing!

Looking at his wives, Xiao Yi revealed out a smile.

It would be great if Xinyi were here too.

However, it's alright, I will definitely find a way to revive Xinyi!

Xiao Yi picked up the wine glass and said with a slight smile, "Come, cheers!"

While with a tender smile on their faces, the few wives stood up, and Xiao Yi's son, Xiao Yun, held onto a glass of fruit juice.

"Brother Xiao, you have just recovered from your injuries not too long ago, don't drink too much." While with a big stomach, Yu Qi reminded with a gentle tone.

Shu Nan smiled lightly, "Sister Yu Qi, you can be at ease, Brother Xiao's injuries have already healed completely."

Under the cheerful atmosphere, everyone except Xiao Yi's son drank a glass of wine.

Afterward, everyone began chatting about topics that were relaxing, and it seemed as if they had gone back to how it was in the past, and even Xiao Yi himself also felt rather relaxed.

However, Shu Nan, on the other hand, felt very uneasy.

"Shu Nan, what's the matter?" Xiao Yi asked tenderly.

Shu Nan said in a low voice, "Brother Xiao, I feel that this matter is still not finished yet."

"What's the matter?" Xiao Yi's expression became slightly grave as he asked in a low voice.

"I feel that the black figured person had a motive in his mind when he healed you." Shu Nan said gravely.

Xiao Yi nodded his head. I know that too, but, just what is that black figured person's motive?

Right after Shu Nan finished speaking, a black whirlpool appeared in the main hall.

All of the women became startled and hurriedly moved away from the whirlpool, while Shu Qi hurriedly protected in front of Xiao Yun.

Death Mage could be seen unhurriedly walking out from the black whirlpool.

This time, Death Mage did not bring along Xun Fang, after all, Death Mage was only here to inform Xiao Family of His Honor's new order.

However, within Xiao Family's eyes, this black robed skeleton was their enemy, an enemy who pushed Nangong Xinyi to her death.

**You Cannot Afford To Offend My Woman**

Chapter 263: How did my hands suddenly become healed?

With a vigilant look on his face, Xiao Yi looked at Death Mage.

Today was different from back then, back then, Xiao Yi was faced against death and thus had no choice but to beg. And right now, now that Xiao Yi escaped from death and recovered, as an immortal emperor, how could Xiao Yi kneel down?

However, Shu Nan was much smarter, she knew that their entire family's lives were all grasped within the hands of the black figured person, and thus, when it was time to lower their heads, they have to lower their heads.

"Brother Xiao." Shu Nan pulled onto her husband.

Xiao Yi's brows were tightly wrinkled, he was currently having a battle with his dignity.

Death Mage did not utter a sound at all and just stood there without doing anything, seemingly like he was waiting for Xiao Yi to decide on just what he was going to do.

Xiao Yi's decision was going to decide whether his entire family lives or dies! Because, Ye Hua had an additional order for Death Mage, which was that, if Xiao Yi wasn't respectful, there was no need to inform Xiao Family of their new order, and Death Mage could just exterminate the entire Xiao Family!

Right now, Xiao Yi still wasn't aware that his decision was going to decide the lives and deaths of him, his wives, and his son!

Dignity or his life, just which was more important to Xiao Yi?

Xiao Yi was going to have to choose one and abandon the other.

"Brother Xiao!" Shu Nan called out to her husband once again. Shu Nan's sixth sense as a woman was telling her that, if her man were to not be respectful towards the black robed skeleton, the consequences that would follow would be very grave!

After a long while, Xiao Yi let out a breath and lowered that prideful head of his!

The immortal emperor who managed to rebirth slowly kneeled down in front of Death Mage.

Upon seeing that, Shu Nan let out a breath of relief, then quickly followed along and kneeled down.

The wives that were behind Xiao Yi did not know just what the situation was, but they were not stupid. Upon seeing Xiao Yi and Shu Nan kneeled down, all of them followed along and kneeled down, and even Xiao Yi's son, Xiao Yun, also kneeled down curiously.

Death Mage was a bit disappointed with the outcome.

This is boring! However, after thinking about it, it is normal for the outcome to be like this. Under His Honor's grand and noble radiance, everyone would have to kneel down and pledge allegiance to His Honor!

Death Mage took out his phone and began typing on his phone, while Xiao Yi and the others waited quietly.

Text to speech rang out from the phone.

“Xiao Yi! Master has an order for your Xiao Family, give up on competing against Bai Family to rise into the ranks of the aristocratic families, then quietly wait for your next order.”

“Yes.” Xiao Yi said with difficulty.

I didn’t expect that there would come a day where, I, the immortal emperor, would kneel in front of others. This is truly a huge irony.

Ding!

Death Mage’s WeChat message notification rang out.

Everyone from Xiao Family was startled by the sound of the message notification.

After taking a look at his WeChat, Death Mage opened the voice message that he just received, and immediately, Xun Fang’s scolding voice rang out from the phone, “Damned skeleton, why are you still not back yet? Do you still want to accompany me to sleep or not?”

Everyone from Xiao Family was completely silent.

Death Mage immediately closed his WeChat.

I will properly give this woman a lesson when I returned back, to actually make me throw my face like this.

Looking at everyone from Xiao Family, Death Mage felt a bit awkward, and without saying anything, Death Mage walked into the black whirlpool and left Xiao Manor.

After Death Mage left, Xiao Yi and the others all let out a breath of relief as they slowly stood their bodies up.

“Brother Xiao, just what is going on?” Yu Qi hurriedly asked, and the other women were also all very puzzled.

Xiao Yi sat down and silently drown himself with alcohol, while Shu Nan began explaining to everyone about what happened back then.

Upon finding out that, in order to save Xiao Family, their man actually didn’t hesitate to use his life as an exchange, all of Xiao Yi’s wives became touched to death.

“Brother Xiao, from the looks of it, that black figured person is planning a board of chess.” Shu Nan was very worried, because right now, Xiao Family had already been dragged into the chessboard.

After placing down the wine glass, Xiao Yi said faintly, “I have already thought everything through, as long as you all are safe, I can do whatever that is asked of me.”

Within the bedroom that was located on the second floor of Leisure Bar.

While chatting with each other, Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi gradually fell asleep while nestling against Ye Hua’s body, and both of them could be seen to have a smile that was filled with happiness on their faces. Both of them were definitely having a sweet dream.

Right now, Ye Hua was feeling very complicated.

Such a chance like this is hard to come by, I really want to embrace them.

The more Ye Hua thought about it, the itchier he felt in his heart. With such beautiful wives like them, if I were not able to even touch them for a bit, it would really be living a life that is worse than death.

Alright, I will just stealthily place my hands onto their waists for a while, then stop.

Ye Hua gently placed his hands onto their willow waists, and upon touching their waists, Ye Hua thought to himself, "This feels so great and comfortable! Being a human is truly great! Being a human is much more interesting than being a skeleton."

However, soon after, just merely gently caressing onto their waists was no longer enough to satisfy Ye Hua's appetite, and Ye Hua's hands could be seen gradually moving into his wives' clothes.

This feel of touch... this smoothness... This is practically the peak of enjoyment for my palms.

The quality of Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi's skin sure is good, the more I caress their body, the more I do not want to stop.

Hmm~

Hmm~

The two wives seemed to have been turned on as they began letting out faint breathings. Soon after, the two opened their eyes at the same time, causing Ye Hua to become startled as he immediately closed his eyes and pretended that nothing happened. However, those wicked hands of his were still in his wives' clothes and caressing onto his wives' bodies.

Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi's pretty faces immediately became red, their chests were attacked by Ye Hua!

However, very quickly, the two women felt that something wasn't right.

Isn't Ye Hua paralyzed? Why are his hands able to move? And even more, not only are his hands able to move, but his hands are also currently doing bad things!

"Ye Hua, wake up!" Qing Ya's face was completely red because Ye Hua's hand was currently still grabbing onto her chest.

Donghuang Baizhi restrained that wicked hand that was grabbing onto her chest, and right now, Donghuang Baizhi's heart felt extremely itchy.

Ye Hua was completely aware of the fact that Donghuang Baizhi was very sensitive.

"Ah? What's the matter?" Ye Hua opened his eyes, and his eyes were filled with confusion.

Qing Ya feigned anger coquettishly, "Look at just what you are doing right now!"

Ye Hua said confusedly, "What? I am not doing anything right now."

"Look at where your hands are placed at!"

Soon after, Ye Hua looked to his left, then to his left, and while looking, he even squeezed his hands. Immediately after Ye Hua squeezed his hands, Donghuang Baizhi let out a moan, while Qing Ya bit onto her lips.

“Wow, my hands are able to move! My god! This is so mystical!” Ye Hua cried out in astonishment as he stretched out his hands from the two women’s clothes and looked at his hands. Ye Hua’s performance was on point.

While looking at his two beautiful wives, Ye Hua said while feeling extremely touched, “Thank you for healing my hands, I believe that it won’t be too long till my hands become completely healed.”

Seeing that Ye Hua was able to move his hands, Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi cried tears of joy. To finally be able to see the trace of hope of Ye Hua being able to recover completely, the two completely forgot about the matter where Ye Hua took liberties of them.

“However, I feel that I am still unable to exert strength in my hands as my hands are still in the process of recovering. Therefore, I am still going to have to need you two to take care of me.” Ye Hua said gravely. Ye Hua still wanted to live the life of not having to use his hands.

The two women would naturally be willing to take care of Ye Hua, and the two women could be seen hurriedly nodding their heads after they heard what Ye Hua said.

“Qing Ya, Baizhi, from this incident, it can be seen that, the two of you have to accompany by my side more, and that way, I may perhaps be able to recover even quicker.” While speaking, Ye Hua moved his hands toward the two women.

The two women hurriedly restrained Ye Hua’s hands.

Qing Ya said shyly, “Ye Hua, you can’t do this.”

“Qing Ya, Baizhi, thank you for using your bodies to heal me, we should proceed to try harder to heal me.”

Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi couldn’t bear it anymore and both of them ran out from the bedroom.

A slight arc appeared on the corner of Ye Hua’s mouth as he stretched his hand in front of him and smelled onto his hand.

Smells good.

While resting his hands on the back of his head, and being in an incomparably good mood, Ye Hua contacted Wei Chang.

“How has your investigation come along?”

“Your Honor, I was just about to report the investigation of the matter to you. The result of the investigation is a bit shocking...”

Ye Hua laughed lightly. For something to be referred to as shocking by Wei Chang, it must definitely be very shocking.

“Speak, what is it that is shocking.”

“That group of people looks exactly the same as everyone in our team did in the past!” Wei Chang said.

At the start, when I saw that group of people, I almost jumped from shock, especially that skeleton who wore a mage robe, that skeleton looks exactly the same as His Honor.

Ye Hua was somewhat startled too, “Look exactly the same as we did in the past? Could it be that, there is also someone who looks exactly the same as me?”

“Your Honor, there is indeed a skeleton who looks exactly the same as you.” Wei Chang said gravely.

Ye Hua’s brows became slightly wrinkled. Thinking back to what Ye Zizi said during the morning, is everyone in that group of people a knockoff of my team?

You Cannot Afford To Offend My Woman

Chapter 264: Some people are very anxious

“How are their strengths?”

Wei Chang replied respectfully, “Subordinate still hasn’t tested out their strengths, however, if I was to reckon, their strengths should be below Death Mage’s strength.”

“You mean that, just Death Mage alone is enough to destroy them?” Ye Hua asked faintly.

Originally, Ye Hua’s interest was piqued by a bit, but upon hearing that their strengths were weaker than Death Mage, Ye Hua immediately lost interest.

“Reporting back to Your Honor, if it is one versus one, Death Mage would indeed be able to destroy any one of them.”

This is a bit interesting, my interest is piqued again.

“Do the south’s powers have any movements?” Ye Hua asked.

“According to Xun Fang, some powers that are from the south lost their cool and are currently requesting the aristocratic families to deal with those people who destroyed Dry Zen Sect.”

Ye Hua sneered, “Those people really do not have guts at all, losing their cool just because a sect was exterminated. In the past, when we went to exterminate a city, reinforcements would come immediately right after we just began with the extermination of the city.”

“Your Honor, how would ordinary powers dare to deal with those people when those people were able to exterminate Dry Zen Sect in just a night. After all, those ordinary powers do not possess even one ancient godly item.”

“I understand now. So, from the looks of it, those aristocratic families won’t be a match for those people too, and in the end, it would be up to the big powers to deal with those people. Inform Xun Fang to not let Ying Family deal with this matter and let the other big power deal with this matter instead.”

Right now, the strengths of my wife’s power and Ying Family decreased greatly because of the battle they had with each other, thus, it is only natural that I can’t let Ji Family have it too easy.

I will let those counterfeits help me to destroy some people.

This should be counted as “making use of someone else to do your dirty work”, right?

“Subordinate understood, subordinate should go and arrange everything now.”

After cutting off the contact with Wei Chang, Ye Hua began pondering.

What’s the matter with those counterfeits that suddenly appeared?

Is the appearance of those counterfeits a mere coincidence, or is it planned by someone?

Judging from their strengths, those people merely possess strengths that are below that of Death Mage, this is truly strange.

Furthermore, those people are occupying someone else’s territory and waiting for others to come and deal with them. The way they do things is exactly the same as how we did things in the past. In the past, after exterminating a city, we would continue staying in the city and wait for more people to come and deal with us, then proceed to kill everyone that came.

This is truly an unexpected surprise. You all better not get killed by those humans! If not, I will be very disappointed.

Right now, south’s aristocratic family, Ding Family, was currently holding a meeting to discuss about the matter of Dry Zen Sect being exterminated!

All five of south’s aristocratic families were here.

Ding Family’s Family Head Ding Yuan.

Wu Family’s Wu Sheng.

Diao Family’s Diao Lang.

He Family’s He Tian.

Murong Family’s Murong Zhi.

The looks of the five aristocratic families’ family heads were not allowed to be doubted, all of them were handsome looking uncles, and each has his own style. It was reckoned that, back when they were young, they were definitely popular with the ladies.

Not the slightest bit of nervousness could be seen on the faces of those five family heads. Towards such a matter like this, those that needed to worry were always the weaklings.

A power that possesses an ancient godly item was able to easily exterminate a sect, and all of the family heads’ families possess an ancient godly item. Therefore, to them, this matter could not be counted as a crisis, and at the most, this matter could be counted as a small trouble.

While playing around with the matchbox that was in his hand, Diao Lang said faintly, “Originally, we were going to discuss about how we are going to deal with the north’s powers today, but because a group of people suddenly appeared last night and admitted the things that they did, things became much easier! Firstly, I will say, my Diao Family will not shirk away from this matter!”

“Diao Lang, I’m afraid that this isn’t good, right? I have a friendly relationship with that Hai Daisi, and since he is killed by that group of people, this matter should be handed over to me to deal with.” Murong Zhi tapped lightly onto the table and said, wanting to fight over for the task to deal with the unknown power that suddenly appeared.

“Murong Zhi, you and that Hai Daisi have only met with each other once, but that Guang Family’s Guang Tianlu is a distant relative of mine! Therefore, this revenge has to be sought after by me!” He Tian shouted out gravely, appearing very domineering

Wu Sheng laughed lightly and said unhurriedly, “Distant relative? He Tian, are you here to make us laugh? If that’s the case, I might as well say that Xun Yi is my mistress.”

“Enough!” Ding Yuan shouted out coldly.

“My son, Ding Yuanwu, has been missing for a few days already, and from the looks of it, he has most probably been killed, and the culprit is very likely that group of people! Therefore, this matter should be dealt with by my Ding Family!” Ding Yuan said while glowering. It pains my heart dearly that my most doted son has been killed, the culprit who killed my son should not live under the same sky as me!

Wu Sheng stroke onto his sideburn and said lightly, “Ding Yuan, who doesn’t know just what kind of morality and conduct that that small son of yours possess, it was only a matter of time that he would end up being killed.”

“That’s right, you are speaking without any evidence at all. Perhaps, that group of people may have not even been the one who killed your son.” Diao Lang said in disdain as he took out a matchstick from the matchbox, ignited the matchstick, then watched as the matchstick burned.

Murong Zhi paused for a moment, then stood up and said, “Since everyone wants to take this merit for themselves, let’s settle it by drawing lots. This way, it would be fair for everyone.”

The other four nodded their heads. Eliminating troubles was one of the ways to obtain merits, and if they had the chance to run for becoming a big power, the merits that they have accumulated will be very useful.

Diao Lang took out five matchsticks, then cut the matchsticks into different lengths.

“The one who draws the shortest matchstick should be the one to go and deal with that unknown power.”

The other four did not say anything. Everyone’s strength was more or less the same, thus, if someone were to cheat, the others would be able to discover it.

Soon after, all of them began drawing a matchstick one by one, then showed the stick that they drew.

Diao Lang let out a light sigh, then cupped his hands at Ding Yuan and said, “Ding Yuan, your chance to seek revenge is here.”

The other three shook their heads and sighed.

This Ding Yuan is truly lucky. This is truly disappointing!

Ding Yuan tightly clenched his fists and said faintly, "Tomorrow, I will hang the heads of those people at the front of my Ding Family's toilet!"

"I should congratulate you in advance then." He Tian congratulated with a mocking tone.

The five sat back down on their seats, the meeting still hasn't seemed to have ended.

"I'm sure that everyone has heard about what happened yesterday, right?" Diao Lang changed the frivolous expression that he had on his face and said solemnly.

Wu Sheng said faintly, "Yesterday, Ying Family fought with Voidless Realm, and although I do not know the result of the battle, I'm sure that both parties suffered great losses from the battle."

"Amongst the three big powers, the strengths of two big powers have been weakened. I wonder if this matter will cause those people to become dissatisfied, and thus pick two other powers to replace those two big powers." Murong Zhi said curiously.

Ding Yuan said gravely, "It is rumored that the three big powers were selected by those people, therefore, it is only natural that there would be a possibility for any of the big powers to get kicked out of the ranks of the big powers by those people. Just that, so much amount of time has already passed, and who knows if that kind of regulation still exists or not?"

The other four silently nodded their heads.

It was rumored that, the three big powers were selected by some other powers during a thousand years ago, and the functions of the three big powers were, firstly, to mutually put each other in control, secondly, to uphold the law and order of the world, and thirdly, to suppress some people who got too cocky.

One thing to note was that, the ancient godly items that were within the hands of the three big powers were handed to them by the powers that selected them!

That's right! The ancient godly items that the three big powers possessed were handed down to them. Just like when a student goes to school, the teachers in the school would hand them textbooks.

However, this was a matter that happened a thousand years ago, and no one knew if the other powers that selected the big powers still cared about the three big powers or not. After all, when the two big powers went into battle with each other, no one came to stop the two big powers.

Donghuang Baizhi did not know about all those things, mainly because her father died too suddenly, and thus didn't have the chance to tell her about some matters that she was unaware of.

However, Ying Family was aware of all those things, but they didn't report any information about those things to Ye Hua and the others, because even they themselves also didn't know if the other powers that selected them still existed or not.

And in Ying Family's mind, if those powers still existed, then great, they could get His Honor to exterminate those powers.

The five remained silent for quite a while. All of them wanted to climb upwards, if not, why would they want to take on such a troublesome matter like dealing with the unknown power that suddenly appeared? What they really wanted was the merit that they would get from after dealing with the unknown power.

After quite a while, the four others left Ding Family.

And after the four left, Ding Yuan began ordering Ding Family to prepare for battle!

In order to win this battle beautifully and marvelously, and thus cause the good reputation of his Ding Family to become more well-known, Ding Yuan dispatched everyone in Ding Family except for the elderlies and the frail.

This was all so that Ding Yuan could display just how strong his Ding Family's strength was!

Chapter 265: We have won

Tomorrow would probably be a wonderful sunny day.

But to Wei Chang, today was a terrible day for him...

It had been a few days since Wei Chang came to Leisure Bar, and today, when he arrived at Leisure Bar, he saw that the oil paintings that he had collected had all been torn into pieces and scattered around the floor.

Those oil paintings that I collected are all authentic...

Wei Chang was in so much pain that he felt like dying.

Madam Donghuang is too vicious... If you are angry, go and beat His Honor instead, why did you vent your anger out on my paintings... Originally, I was intending to sell away a few of those paintings, then pay the money that I owed, but right now...

However, to Ye Hua, every day was a good day for him, especially on this day where the empress was going to accompany him to sleep.

Today, Qing Ya went to sleep in her sister's room, and it was Empress Donghuang's turn to accompany Ye Hua to sleep.

Empress Donghuang's face has been red since afternoon, and when night arrived, Empress Donghuang looked even more beautiful. Looking at those watery eyes of Donghuang Baizhi, Ye Hua felt very itchy in his chest.

My women are all truly alluring.

Originally, Ye Hua was intending to caress Donghuang Baizhi's entire body, but in the end...

"Daddy, hug hug~"

In the end, Donghuang Li squeezed between the two of them, causing Ye Hua's plan to go into ruin. However, towards his daughter, Ye Hua did not feel angry at her at all.

Donghuang Li lied down between her parents, and the smile that was on her face seemed like it was about to blossom anytime soon. Donghuang Li kissed onto her left, then kissed onto her right, and words could not describe how happy Donghuang Li felt right now.

Compared to the past, Donghuang Li's life right now was practically just like a fairy tale. Now, she has both her father and mother to accompany her, and at night, all three of them were able to sleep together on the same bed.

I'm so happy right now~

"Daddy, mommy, you two have to quickly give birth to a little brother for Ah Li." Donghuang Li who was lying down in the middle said happily.

Tonight, Donghuang Baizhi was wearing thin nightclothes, and that faintly discernible body of hers caused Ye Hua to feel very unbearable.

While lying on her side, and her head rested on her arm, Donghuang Baizhi asked curiously, "Why do Ah Li want a little brother so much?"

"Because Ah Li is the smallest right now. After Aunt Qing gives birth to the baby, Ah Li will become the biggest. But even if that is the case, Ah Li would only be older than one person. Therefore, mommy, you have to quickly give birth to a little brother for Ah Li." Donghuang Li did not say her main motive for wanting her mother to give birth to a little brother for her. If I have a little brother, I would be able to bully my little brother~

After hearing their daughter's explanation, Donghuang Baizhi laughed, while a smile appeared on the corner of Ye Hua's mouth.

The number of family members in my family is gradually increasing. This is a good sign.

"Mommy, you have to quickly make a baby with daddy." The little fellow said pitifully, and the little fellow's words caused Donghuang Baizhi to become very shy.

Seeing that her mommy's face turned red and didn't speak, Donghuang Li began pleading with her father, "Daddy~ Mommy is not saying anything."

"Ah Li, the process of making a child cannot be seen by children."

Donghuang Li wrinkled her brows, then suddenly jumped up from the bed, "Ah Li won't disturb daddy and mommy in making a child then, Ah Li will go and sleep with Aunt Qing."

After finished speaking, Donghuang Li wore onto her slippers, then ran out of the bedroom. From the looks of it, Donghuang Li really wanted to have a little brother to bully.

"Ah Li..." Donghuang Baizhi shouted out tenderly.

My daughter is my shield, and now that my shield ran away, Ye Hua is definitely going to bully me to death.

"Baizhi, come over." Ye Hua said faintly.

Donghuang Baizhi's heartbeat began accelerating and she said in a low voice, "Don't want to~"

“Quickly come over, if not, I’m going to tell Ah Li that you are not cooperating with me.”

Donghuang Baizhi was completely speechless. This fellow actually used our daughter to threaten me, he is truly shameless...

Donghuang Baizhi slowly moved towards Ye Hua...

“This is more like it.” Ye Hua was very satisfied as he embraced Donghuang Baizhi’s willow waist with his big hands.

“Ye Hua~” Donghuang Baizhi moaned.

The fire in my body has been successfully ignited by this Baizhi, this Baizhi is truly an alluring empress.

“Baizhi, your figure is still as good as it used to be.” Ye Hua’s hands had long slipped into Donghuang Baizhi’s nightclothes.

Hmm, hmm, hmm~

Donghuang Baizhi couldn’t contain herself anymore.

A slight trace of smile appeared on the corner of Ye Hua’s mouth, “Baizhi, you are still as sensitive as you used to be.”

“Don’t mess around anymore~” Donghuang Baizhi shouted out shyly.

Donghuang Baizhi was having it hard, because Ye Hua would only ignite the flame within her body but wouldn’t help her extinguish the flame that he ignited.

After retracting back those wicked hands of his, Ye Hua lightly embraced Donghuang Baizhi’s impressive body, “Baizhi, after I recovered, let’s make a little brother for Ah Li.”

Donghuang Baizhi let out a breath of relief, then said, “En, as long as you are happy.”

Did anyone hear that? Those two women have already been subdued by me! After I become completely healed in a few days, I will... Eh... Is becoming completely healed in a few days a bit too fast? It would be bad if they end up seeing through my act because of that.

The feeling of hugging onto an empress to sleep is indeed different. It would be great if Qing Ya were here too, that way, everything would be perfect.

The night gradually went by, and daybreak arrived.

Above Dry Zen Sect, 3000 people could be seen to have gathered, and on a bunch of big flags, the word “Ding” was written on them.

While with armors worn on their bodies, everyone from Ding Family was gazing at the Dry Zen Sect that was below them.

Right now, Dry Zen Sect looked completely the same as it used to. There was no bloodstain or smoke, and only a faint aura of death was drifting above Dry Zen Sect. The aura of death made everyone in Ding Family to feel uncomfortable in their hearts!

Ding Yuan shouted out loudly, "Steel your minds!"

This group of people is truly formidable. Just this aura of death alone is enough to make others feel intimidated. It is no wonder that they were able to exterminate Dry Zen Sect in just a night!

Ding Yuan could be seen taking out a rainbow color bell from his body.

This was Ding Family's ancient godly item, Soul Absorbing Bell!

"People that are within Dry Zen Sect, listen! All of you have been surrounded by us! Those that are smart, lay down your weapons and walk out of the sect while with your hands hugged onto your head, and I should give you an intact corpse!"

Ding Yuan shouted out towards Dry Zen Sect. However, the sect was extremely quiet, seemingly like there was no one inside the sect at all.

"Family head, we can launch an attack at them and force our way into the sect!" Ding Yuan's eldest son took a step forward and said in a low voice.

Ding Yuan remained silent for a moment, then ordered, "Ding Hui, you should bring along a thousand people with you and launch an attack at them!"

"Yes!"

Ding Hui waved his hand, and a thousand people followed along with him and descended into the inside of Dry Zen Sect!

Everyone was very careful as they were afraid that they were going to be landing into the enemy's trap. However, there wasn't any trap or ambush at all after they landed in Dry Zen Sect.

Upon seeing that, Ding Yuan ordered everyone to charge forward!

Deafening shouts immediately began ringing out from the valley.

According to logic, the sounds of weapons colliding should have definitely rung out along with the shouts.

However, there were only shouts and no other sounds.

Without any effort at all, Ding Family occupied Dry Zen Sect!

"Family head, we have won!"

Not sure who was it within the group that shouted that out, soon after, everyone in Ding Family began cheering, and those who were carrying the big flags began waving the big flags!

A smile appeared on the corner of Ding Yuan's mouth.

Isn't this too easy? Is there no one in Dry Zen Sect anymore?

However, up till now, Ding Yuan still did not know just how many people were in the group that exterminated Dry Zen Sect, and he thought that there were definitely at least over a hundred people in the group.

Zi...

The main palace's two huge redwood doors slowly opened, and a man who wore a nightgown, hair that was fluffy, and had eye bags could be seen walking out from the main palace.

"It's early in the morning, what are you all making so much noise for, do you all still intend to let others sleep or not!" Greed took out a pair of eyeglasses from his nightgown's pocket and wiped onto the eyeglasses with his nightgown, then wore the eyeglasses.

Everyone from Ding Family looked towards Greed.

Why is there only one person?

Ding Yuan asked, "May I ask who your distinguished is?"

Greed sized up the human who was in front of him as he dug onto his eye boogers, then said unhurriedly, "Only this many of you came here?"

You Cannot Afford To Offend My Woman

Chapter 266: Everything is fake

After hearing what Greed said, everyone became on the alert as they pointed their weapons at Greed.

"You are the person who exterminated Dry Zen Sect?" Ding Yuan shouted out angrily as he raised the Soul Absorbing Bell that was in his hand.

Greed said with a smile on his face, "Don't act so overexaggerated, I merely killed some people to amuse myself."

"Arrogant fellow, don't be so cocky!" Ding Yuan immediately shook onto the Soul Absorbing Bell that was in his hand.

Along with the sound of the bell ringing out, a rainbow light that carried along a strange sound with it floated out from the bell and attacked at Greed.

"Achoo!" Greed suddenly let out a sneeze, then said faintly, "It is rather cold here in the mountains."

Everyone looked dazedly at Greed.

The ancient godly item's attack was actually blown away by a sneeze...

How is that possible!

Greed stretched out his hand and grasped, and the Soul Absorbing Bell that was in Ding Yuan's hand teleported and appeared in Greed's hand.

"This little bell is fine when used to amuse a dog, but to use it for killing people, it is still lacking a bit in quality." Greed lightly grasped onto the bell, and Ding Family's ancient godly item immediately burst into pieces.

The huge mass of energy that was produced after the ancient godly item burst into pieces sent everyone in Ding Family flying, and immediately, almost everyone in Ding Family was sitting on the ground.

Ding Yuan was stupefied.

This guy actually destroyed the ancient godly item with just his hand alone! Did my eyes see wrongly? How is this possible! This is definitely not possible!

"Everyone, calm down! This is merely an illusion!" Ding Yuan shouted out loudly, and sure enough, everyone from Ding Family calmed down.

"Arrogant fellow, you think you can scare my Ding Family away with just a mere illusion? Hand over your life!"

Greed let out a yawn, then said with a slight smile, "You humans just like to deceive yourselves."

"They still haven't woken up, so I will just deal with you bunch myself. All of you, end your own life!" After finished speaking, Greed turned around and walked back into the main palace. Greed was intending to go back to sleep.

"End your own life!"

Those four words resounded in everyone's ears.

Without the slightest bit of change in his expression at all, one person from Ding Family could be seen drawing out his sword and stabbing the sword at his own body. Even more, because the person didn't die after stabbing himself with the sword, the person drew out the sword from his body, then stabbed himself again with the sword.

"Everyone, don't panic, this is merely an illusion!" Ding Yuan shook his head, then shouted out loudly.

Ding Yuan's eldest son could be seen drawing out his own sword too, then slashed the blade of the sword at his own neck.

Blood immediately splattered in all directions, and Ding Yuan's face was filled with his son's blood.

"This is merely an illusion, everyone, stay calm!"

"I stabbed myself, this feels great!"

"Why am I not able to stab myself to death? Let me try stabbing myself a few more times."

Just like this, Ding Yuan watched as everyone killed themselves. All ten of his sons were currently already lying down on the ground, and before 10 minutes even passed, everyone from Ding Family was lying down on a pool of blood.

A dense bloody smell drifted around the air, and the pungent smell was enough to make one feel like puking. However, everyone that was lying down on the ground did not have any painful expression on their faces, and instead, there was a smile of relief on their faces.

"Illusion... this is merely an illusion..." Ding Yuan mumbled, not daring to believe everything that was before his eyes.

Greed merely used the simplest hypnotism that he knows of, and when one reached the power level that Ding Yuan was at, low-level hypnotisms were no longer effective on them, therefore, amongst everyone in Ding Family, Ding Yuan was the only one not affected by Greed's hypnotism.

Cling!

Ding Yuan drew out his sword while mumbling to himself, "This is merely an illusion... this is merely an illusion... everything is fake..."

Stab!

Ding Yuan stabbed the sword through his own heart.

Ding Yuan's lofty figure gradually collapsed onto the ground as blood spilled out from the corner of his mouth. While looking at his sons' corpses, Ding Yuan mumbled, "Illusion... illusion... this is merely an illusion..."

In the blink of an eye, Ding Family, one of south's five aristocratic families, was exterminated.

Ding Family saw their enemy, but they didn't manage to even touch till the corner of their enemy's clothing!

The other four aristocratic families should be glad that they didn't draw till the matchstick of death. Drawing the winning matchstick was no different from drawing a ticket to death. Originally, Ding Yuan wanted to take the merit for destroying the unknown power for his own family, but in the end, even up till death, he still wasn't willing to believe that everything before his eyes was real.

Some people were hiding in the dark and observing what was happening between Ding Family and Greed, and when they saw everyone from Ding Family committed suicide, they were scared to the point that their souls almost left their bodies.

After a long while, then did those people finally came back to their senses and hurriedly sent out the news of Ding Family had been exterminated to their respective powers.

Even an aristocratic family is not able to deal with that person! It seems like the big powers are going to have to be the ones to deal with this unknown power!

As expected, the moment the news was sent back, the entire cultivation world went crazy, and pretty much all of the powers within the south began to panic.

Ding Family who possesses an ancient godly item is exterminated just like this! Not a single person remained from everyone in Ding Family that went to deal with the unknown power, and furthermore, everything was done by just one person!

My god, just how did that person managed to do that! That person is not a human at all, he is practically a demon!

When the other four aristocratic families received the news regarding Ding Family, all of them had a stupefied look on their faces, then soon after, they patted onto their chests in relief.

It is fortunate that I didn't draw the winning matchstick, if not, I would have been the one that died.

Afterward, the remaining four aristocratic families held a meeting again. All four of the aristocratic families were definitely not going to go and deal with the unknown power, and there was practically only going to be one outcome from the meeting, which was to request for the big powers to deal with the unknown power!

Us aristocratic families are not a match for that unknown power.

In the bedroom that was on the second floor of Leisure Bar.

Donghuang Baizhi's pure white arms were placed on Ye Hua's chest, and she was currently nestled within the crook of Ye Hua's arm. To Donghuang Baizhi, it has been a very long time since she had last slept so well.

Suddenly, an urgent jade letter was sent to Donghuang Baizhi, causing Donghuang Baizhi to open her hazy beautiful eyes. Seeing that Ye Hua still hasn't woken up, Donghuang Baizhi stealthily gave Ye Hua a kiss, then checked onto the contents of the jade letter.

Slowly, Donghuang Baizhi's expression became grave.

Just a while ago, Ding Family was exterminated! And it was all done by just one person!

Just one person alone exterminated an aristocratic family! How is this possible! The strengths of those aristocratic families are all very strong, especially those family heads. And adding on with the help of an ancient godly item, how was it possible for Ding Family to be exterminated by just one person?

Furthermore, the amount of time it took for that person to exterminate Ding Family was so short!

"Baizhi, what's the matter?" Ye Hua asked faintly. Just a while ago, Ye Hua received news from Wei Chang.

That guy did a good job in exterminating that Ding Family.

However, those people are too stupid, they don't know how to act at all. If I was there, I would have definitely made it so that it seems that I won the battle with great difficulty, and everyone in my team would have to suffer grave injuries too. That way, the other humans would then be willing to come and attack us.

Instead, right now, now that those people used just one person to intimidate everyone, I dare to guarantee that even the big power, Ji Family, wouldn't dare to go and deal with them.

Those knockoffs sure are stupid.

However, thinking back to how I was in the past, I seemed to have indeed been as stupid as those knockoffs. The me in the past was indeed very stupid.

"Ye Hua, just a while ago, Ding Family was exterminated, and that was all done by just one person that the unknown power sent out!" Donghuang Baizhi said gravely, and worried could be seen flickering within her eyes.

Ye Hua pulled Donghuang Baizhi into his embrace, then said faintly, "What does this matter have anything to do with you."

"This matter of course has something to do with me. One of the jobs of the three big powers is to uphold the law and order of this world!"

While pinching onto the empress's cheek, Ye Hua said gravely, "Baizhi, your job is to properly be a wife and a mother."

"Ye Hua, be serious~"

"You forgot just what you should do after waking up in the morning?" Ye Hua reminded.

Donghuang Baizhi rolled her eyes petulantly at Ye Hua, then gave Ye Hua a sweet kiss.

This feels great!

After taking liberties of the empress, Ye Hua let go of his hands, then said calmly, "In any case, this is the south's problem and isn't a problem for you to care about."

Donghuang Baizhi who had turned incomparably red because of Ye Hua said gravely, "But, what if that group of people end up coming to the north?"

"Don't tell me, you are intending on going to the south and meddle in the south's matter?" Ye Hua asked gravely.

Donghuang Baizhi nodded her head, "If the south has no way of dealing with that unknown power, I will have no choice but to go!"

"You are not allowed to!" Ye Hua shouted out coldly.

My dear empress, why do you even have the ambition of upholding the law and order of this world? Aren't you practically going against me by having such an ambition like that?

Moreover, with that bit of capability that you possess, you are not a match for those people at all. Do you intend on sending yourself to your death?

Donghuang Baizhi pouted her small mouth and shook onto her husband's arm, "Ye Hua~ This is my job~ You should support me in my job~"

"No!" Ye Hua was determined in objecting to Donghuang Baizhi's idea.

If you were to go, in the end, I would have to be the one to come and save you. You are truly a foolish woman!

You Cannot Afford To Offend My Woman

Chapter 267: Frightening idea

"What's the matter?"

Qing Ya could be seen entering the bedroom with Ah Li.

Donghuang Li immediately jumped onto the bed, then kissed onto her father's cheek, "Daddy, time to wake up~"

Soon after, Qing Ya walked over and gave Ye Hua a sweet kiss. This made Ye Hua felt incredibly great.

While Ye Hua played around with Ah Li, Donghuang Baizhi began recounting what happened to Qing Ya.

After awakening her bloodline, Qing Ya became aware of her duty to protect the humans. Therefore, when Qing Ya came across such a matter like this, she wouldn't shirk away from the matter with dishonor.

"Baizhi, I will come along with you." Qing Ya said with a tender smile on her face.

"Qing Ya, thank you."

Donghuang Baizhi was very grateful towards Qing Ya, and because of Qing Ya's reaction, Donghuang Baizhi's impression towards Qing Ya became even more favorable.

"What do you mean that you will go along with her! Who allowed you two to go!" Ye Hua shouted out gravely. It has only been a few days since they have been obedient, and right now, they are beginning to be disobedient again.

Is this matter even something that you two should meddle in? What do those knockoffs killing others have anything to do with the two of you?

Donghuang Baizhi pulled onto Qing Ya, indicating Qing Ya to go and speak to Ye Hua.

After all, in the two women's eyes, Ye Hua was acting this way because he was worried about the two of them.

Qing Ya said tenderly, "Ye Hua, don't worry, we are able to take care of this matter."

"What do you mean that you two are able to take care of this matter? Do you two not know that it is very dangerous? In any case, you two are not allowed to go to the south." Ye Hua said gravely. Right now, although Qing Ya has become strong, she does not have any experience in fighting at all. With the way she is right now, even if she went to the south, it would be pointless.

Donghuang Li began acting as the judge, "What daddy said is right. Mommy and Aunt Qing, you two are not allowed to go to the south."

"Look, look, Ah Li is much sensible compared to the two of you."

Donghuang Baizhi smiled helplessly, "Ye Hua, it is not like I am saying that I am intending to go to the south right now, what I am saying is that, I will decide on what to do after seeing how the situation at the south goes."

"This is more like it. Carry me to the wheelchair, we will go out to eat breakfast, I know of a store that makes pretty good wontons."

"Ah Li will help daddy get off the bed."

"My Ah Li is the most sensible." Ye Hua rubbed onto his daughter's head.

Take a look at this daughter of mine, then take a look at those two women of mine, do those two women think that they are ultramen? To actually intend to head to wherever that has danger.

Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi shook their heads helplessly.

Ye Hua's temper is still as smelly as usual, only we would be able to withstand this temper of his.

Just like this, the four left the bar.

Two beautiful women, with one of the women pushing onto a wheelchair which has a man sat in it, and an adorable little child. The light that was emitted out from the combination of those four people caused everyone's eyes to become blind. Right now, no matter if it was male, female, old, or young, everyone was looking at Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi, and no one was even looking at Ye Hua...

Even more, the number of gazes that Little Ah Li received was higher than the number of gazes that Ye Hua received. This caused Ye Hua to be speechless.

In the future, I might as well just stay at home, when I leave the house with them, my limelight is pretty much completely stolen by them.

However, bringing them out with me does indeed help me to grow my face... What are you all looking at! Continue looking and I will kill all of you!

"Your Honor! Subordinate has a matter to report to you." Wei Chang's voice rang out in Ye Hua's head.

"What is it?"

Wei Chang said gravely, "Ying Family acted according to Your Honor's order and did not step forth to deal with the counterfeits. However, Ji Family also found an excuse to not step forth and deal with the counterfeits."

"Haha, this Ji Family is rather smart, they know that they are not a match for those counterfeits." Ye Hua sneered.

This Ji Family is much smarter than I had expected.

However, this Ji Family still has to be exterminated. In the south, there is Ying Family, and in the north, there is Voidless Realm, therefore, the existence of this Ji Family is unnecessary.

"Your Honor, this Ji Family is not acting according to common sense. Should we give this Ji Family a warning, or perhaps, just exterminate this Ji Family?" Wei Chang asked curiously.

Ye Hua pondered for a moment, then said faintly, "Leave this Ji Family alone for now. Instead of us dealing with this Ji Family ourselves, we might as well let others deal with this Ji Family. I reckon that, for Ji Family to shrink back instead of stepping forth to deal with those counterfeits, Ji Family will receive a lot of hate."

"Subordinate understood Your Honor's intention. I will make Ji Family's reputation become tarnished by getting Xun Fang to spread the news of Ji Family not intending to step forth to deal with those counterfeits."

"Good."

Wei Chang asked again, "Then, how should I deal with those counterfeits?"

"We will first see what they intend to do next before we decide on how to deal with them."

“Yes!”

Right now, at Ji Family’s main hall, 10+ Ji Family’s important members were currently holding a meeting together, and the topic of the meeting was regarding the unknown power that destroyed Dry Zen Sect.

Ji Family’s family head wore a gorgeous gown, which helped further amplify his unique temperament. To add on, Ji Family’s family head’s facial features were extremely outstanding, and when placed in the outside world, he could be considered a very handsome fellow.

Ji Family’s family head’s name was called Ji Zizhen.

Sitting at Ji Zizhen’s right and left sides were his two little brothers. The one sitting on the left was called Ji Ji. Ji Ji was Ji Family’s second eldest child. Ji Ji was tall and sturdy, and the sideburns that were on his face gave him a very unique look.

Sitting on the right side was Ji Family’s third eldest child, Ji Teng. Same as Ji Ji, Ji Teng was a tall and sturdy man.

Amongst the three brothers, Ji Zizhen was the only one who looked handsome and elegant. It was truly very strange.

The remaining people were Ji Family’s elders. Towards those people, Ji Zizhen didn’t really place them in his eyes, because in his eyes, those people were all people who already had a leg stretched into their own coffins.

“Family head, the four aristocratic families are requesting us for help. We cannot shrink back at such a time like this, if we were to shrink back, how would others look at us?” One of the elders spoke.

At this time, what our Ji Family should do is to step forth and deal with that unknown power! If not, what rights do we have to have those aristocratic families and families acknowledge allegiance to us?

Ji Ji laughed heartily, “Elder, you are over exaggerating, the correct thing for us to do right now is to not step forth!”

“What second brother just said is right. Right now, now that both Voidless Realm and Ying Family are greatly weakened, it is precisely the time for our Ji Family to rise up above them! If our power were to become weakened because we chose to step forth and deal with that unknown power, won’t we end up missing this good opportunity that is right before us?” Ji Teng said in disdain.

Suppressing the other two big powers is the matter that we should care about right now!

In spite of what those two said, the elder still said insistently, “Family head, with how things are right now, it won’t be good for us if we were to not step forth and deal with that unknown power. Dry Zen Sect was destroyed by that unknown power, followed by Ding Family being destroyed by that unknown power too. Ying Family let out words that they are not able to deal with that unknown power because their strength was greatly weakened. Therefore, the mission to deal with the unknown power is currently on our shoulders. Family head, if you were to choose to not step forth, it would be hard for our Ji Family to continue making those aristocratic families and families be willing to pledge allegiance to us!”

Ji Ji laughed lightly, "Elder, you have become old, you are afraid of everything. Would our Ji Family be scared of those aristocratic families and families? I would reckon that they wouldn't dare to do anything even if we chose to not step forth to deal with that unknown power!"

Ji Zizhen who had been remaining silent since the beginning said faintly, "I have already rejected their request for help. There is no need to discuss about this matter anymore because there is no point in further discussing about it."

"Family head!"

"Elder, I think that you should go back home and rest. The sun today is a bit big, be careful to not catch a heatstroke." Ji Zizhen said with concern, but obviously, his intention was to chase away this elder.

The elder stomped off.

This Ji Family will wither within the hands of those three brothers sooner or later!

After remaining silent for quite a while, killing intent gradually emitted out from Ji Teng as he said, "Big brother! When Voidless Realm and Ying Family fought with each other, it is rumored that someone came to stop the two from continuing on fighting. However, up till now, no one has shown up in our Ji Family. It is possible that those people have long disappeared, therefore, there is no need for us to do things according to the rules!"

"Third brother, let's wait a bit more. If no one shows up in our Ji Family within half a month's time, we will annex Ying Family! The south only needs just one big power! As for Voidless Realm which is located in the north, after we exterminated Ying Family, we will exterminate them! At that time, our Ji Family should unify the entire Cultivation World!" Ji Zizhen said indifferently, seemingly like what he just said was something that was very easy to do.

Everyone stood up, then cupped their hands and shouted out, "Unify the entire Cultivation World!"

A slight arc appeared on the corner of Ji Zizhen's mouth.

Right now, Ye Hua was currently eating wontons with his family.

"Boss! Give me another big bowl of wontons!" Ye Hua shouted out. The number of wontons in a bowl is really too little. Humans are precisely too stingy.

On the other hand, Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi ate the wontons gracefully. Just looking at them eat was an enjoyment on its own.

"Boss, Ah Li wants another big bowl of wontons too!" Donghuang Li still hasn't learned how to eat gracefully, and the way she eats right now was the same as how Ye Hua eats.

"Alright."

Ye Hua shouted out gravely, "Give us a bit more wontons this time."

You Cannot Afford To Offend My Woman

Chapter 268: Family of four

“Handsome fellow, this business of mine is just a small business, I will add just a few more wontons for you.” The boss was a straightforward person. However, the main reason that the boss was willing to give a few more wontons was because of the child, and of course, the two beautiful women.

Donghuang Baizhi took out a paper napkin and wiped onto the soup that was on the corner of her daughter’s mouth, “Ah Li, as a girl, you have to eat slowly.”

“But, if Ah Li were to eat like how mommy eats, Ah Li would have to take at least half an hour to finish a bowl of wontons.” Donghuang Li took a look at the bowls that were on the table. Daddy and I have already finished eating a bowl, and yet mommy and Aunt Qing still haven’t finished eating half a bowl.

Both Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi were women that were at the peak, therefore, when they were outside, it was only natural that they would pay attention to their images. How could they act as recklessly as how they would act when they were at home?

Towards how the two women act outside, Ye Hua was very pleased. As my women, this is precisely how they should act!

“Ah Li is still small right now, after she grows up, she would naturally feel embarrassed to eat like this.” Ye Hua didn’t really mind how Ah Li eats. As my daughter, Ah Li would naturally not be just a pretty face. In the future, Ah Li will be following along with me to kill enemies.

“Here are your wontons, be careful, they are hot.”

The boss carried two big bowls of wontons over to them.

Now that my hands are able to move, I am no longer able to enjoy their tender service. Although it is a bit disappointing, at the least, I am now able to touch them with my hands, and this alone is a rather great enjoyment too.

Donghuang Baizhi once again received Voidless Realm’s jade letter, and she could be seen letting out a light sigh.

“What’s the matter?” Qing Ya asked with concern.

“Ying Family let out words that they are not going to step forth and deal with the unknown power because they are recuperating. Ying Family’s reason is reasonable, but this Ji Family actually chose to not deal with that unknown power without any reason! This Ji Family is truly too much!” Donghuang Baizhi felt incomparably indignant. As one of the south’s big powers, when such a big matter happened, Ji Family actually chose to turn their heads away from the matter! This Ji Family’s action is simply hateful!

Ye Hua did not speak. From the looks of it, Wei Chang and the others did a good job with their intelligence. Right now, their intelligence is even ahead of Baizhi’s intelligence by a bit.

“This Ji Family is most probably planning to do something. Baizhi, you have to be a bit more careful.” Qing Ya was very concerned. After all, right now, they were all a family, and as a family, it was only right to care about each other.

Donghuang Baizhi let out a heavy sigh, “En, I will be a bit more careful.”

“Since those two are not intending to deal with that unknown power, you shouldn’t involve yourself with that unknown power, lest you end up falling into those two’s traps.” Ye Hua warned.

Donghuang Li said with her tender voice, “Mommy, you have to listen to daddy.”

“Alright, mommy will listen to daddy.” Donghuang Baizhi laughed lightly.

Donghuang Baizhi knew that those two families were forcing her to deal with that unknown power, and that if she were to really step forth and deal with that unknown power, she would be falling into those two’s traps. Donghuang Baizhi was not foolish.

Ye Hua felt a lot more at ease. As long as Donghuang Baizhi doesn’t involve herself with those counterfeits, everything will still be under my control. Although I am living very comfortably right now, I still need some entertainment to entertain myself.

As the family head, Ye Hua said faintly, “Today, we will accompany Ah Li to have fun. Shopping mall and amusement park, we will be going to those two places.”

“Yay, this is great! Thank you, daddy!” Donghuang Li immediately became excited, and she could be seen finishing the remaining wontons that were in her bowl in just two mouthfuls. Right now, Donghuang Li wished she could immediately fly to the amusement park and began having fun.

The two women naturally wouldn’t reject such a thing like this. While bringing the child out to have fun, it was also counted as a date with Ye Hua for them.

Up till now, Donghuang Baizhi still hasn’t gone on a date with Ye Hua, and only Qing Ya has enjoyed going on dates with Ye Hua.

The family of four arrived at Long’an City’s biggest amusement park, Fangte.

During the whole journey to the amusement park, the little fellow was extremely excited, and when they arrived at the entrance of the amusement park, the little fellow couldn’t contain herself anymore and began running all around the entrance, seemingly like she had been injected with a stimulant.

Without choice, Donghuang Baizhi carried her daughter, while Qing Ya took charge of pushing onto Ye Hua.

It was Ye Hua’s first time coming to an amusement park too, and he felt that it was a rather fresh experience.

Humans sure know how to play. However, is that roller coaster really that exciting? Those people that are riding the roller coaster are screaming so loudly.

“Daddy, mommy, Ah Li wants to ride the roller coaster!” Donghuang Li who was in her mother’s embrace shouted out.

Donghuang Baizhi said tenderly, “Ah Li is still not tall enough yet right now, the amusement park won’t allow Ah Li to ride the roller coaster.”

“Hmm~ Hmm~ Ah Li wants to ride the roller coaster~ Daddy, help Ah Li to convince those uncles to let Ah Li ride the roller coaster~” Seeing that it was useless to plead her mother, Ah Li began pleading her father for help.

While smoking a cigarette, Ye Hua said with a light smile, “Ah Li, some rules have to be followed, do you understand?”

Donghuang Li pouted her small mouth, having a look on her that was saying, I am angry right now, the kind of angry that can’t be pacified no matter what.

“Ah Li, look, that place is selling ice creams.”

Donghuang Li who had a look on her that seemed like she was about to throw a tantrum immediately become cheerful again, “Mommy, Ah Li wants to eat ice cream~”

“Alright, alright, we will go and buy ice creams together.”

Seeing Donghuang Baizhi carried their daughter to go and buy ice creams, Ye Hua grabbed onto Qing Ya’s small hand and asked, “What’s the matter? Envious?”

“Of course not.” Qing Ya smiled lovably.

“In a few more months, you are also going to become a mother, you have to prepare yourself.” Ye Hua said tenderly.

Qing Ya laughed lightly, “I have long already prepared myself. If our child is the mischievous type, there is going to be enough for you to suffer.”

“Haha, I like children that are mischievous. If our child is mischievous, in the future, he can follow along with me to conquer the universe!” Ye Hua laughed heartily, causing people who were around him to place their attention on him. However, those people’s attention moved onto Qing Ya in no time.

What a beautiful woman!

Qing Ya rolled her eyes at her husband, “You better don’t misguide my child. In the future, my child is going to become either a scientist or a doctor.”

“What future is there in becoming a scientist or a doctor? In the future, our family will be standing at the peak of the universe and overlooking everyone!”

“Don’t smoke anymore, your acting cool after smoking syndrome is acting up again.” Qing Ya took away the cigarette that was in Ye Hua’s mouth and threw it away.

“Daddy, Aunt Qing, here are your ice creams.”

Qing Ya pinched onto Donghuang Li’s tender cheek, “Ah Li sure is thoughtful.”

Receiving an adult’s praise, Ah Li became even happier.

On the other hand, Ye Hua was paying attention to his wives eating ice creams.

Donghuang Baizhi and Qing Ya could be seen licking and sucking onto the ice creams.

If... they were to... it should feel very great... right?

"You are Qing Ya?"

A voice could be heard ringing out, and Ye Hua turned his head around to take a look.

The person who spoke was... someone who could just barely enough be counted as a beautiful woman in Ye Hua's eyes.

Looking at the person who suddenly appeared, Qing Ya wrinkled her brows, then soon after, she cried out in surprise, "You are Yun Lan!"

"Qing Ya, it has been 10 years since I last met you, I almost couldn't recognize you anymore, you have become so beautiful." Yun Lan had a surprised look on her face.

Qing Ya appeared very polite, "You are being too nice. You still look the same as how you looked back then, you didn't change much."

The two were high school classmates, and at that time, Qing Ya was still expanding her business at Long'an City. It was only a few years ago then did Qing Ya's business began expanding at Zijin City. During Qing Ya's high school life, she studied at Long'an City.

"This is?" Yun Lan looked towards Ye Hua and asked, while thinking to herself, "This man sure is handsome, it's a pity that he is in a wheelchair."

"This is my husband, Ye Hua." Qing Ya appeared to be very gentle and didn't seem embarrassed at all.

"Hello." Yun Lan said with a smile as she stretched out her hand.

If it was based on Ye Hua's past character, he would definitely not shake Yun Lan's hand.

Right now, the only reason Ye Hua shook Yun Lan's hand was because he was giving Qing Ya face. After stretching out his hand and lightly shook Yun Lan's hand, Ye Hua immediately withdrew his hand, seemingly like the other person's hand was filled with germs.

Yun Lan felt that Ye Hua's attitude was very cold. Qing Ya is truly pitiful, she has money, and has the looks, and yet, she actually found herself such an arrogant man.

Looking at Donghuang Baizhi and Donghuang Li who were at the side, Yun Lan exclaimed in her own mind, "This woman's looks sure are outstanding, and this child, she is adorable to death."

You Cannot Afford To Offend My Woman

Chapter 269: Compare who had it worse

"This is?" Yun Lan asked curiously.

This woman sure is long-winded, I really want to just send her flying with a kick.

"My wife." Ye Hua said faintly.

"Eh....." Yun Lan was surprised for only a moment. This man actually has two wives. However, this is nothing too surprising, it is not like I have never come across someone who has two wives.

However, for such two beautiful women to match with this cold temperament man who sits in a wheelchair, it is truly a bit of a pity.

In actuality, Donghuang Baizhi's temperament was very similar to Ye Hua's temperament. If there were strangers present, Donghuang Baizhi's face would be filled with frost, and that empress aura of hers would faintly leak out from her.

"Qing Ya, since it is about to be noon, let's have lunch together. Qiu Yan will be there too, the three of us can reminisce of the past while we have lunch." Yun Lan put her mindset into order. This is other people's family affairs, it is better for me to not ask too much about it.

"Qiu Yan will be there too?" Qing Ya said with a slight smile. I remember that, during junior high school, my relationship with Qiu Yan was pretty good. Just that, during senior high school, Qiu Yan went to another city to study.

"That's right, she even found herself a very formidable husband, this matter is very interesting." Yun Lan began sharing this interesting information with Qing Ya.

Qing Ya asked curiously, "What about you?"

"Me? Nothing much, things are pretty much the same as usual for me. That fellow of mine went to buy water for me."

Qing Ya also really wanted to reminisce about the past with her old classmates, however, she had to first ask Ye Hua about his opinion, "Ye Hua, let's eat lunch together with them."

Originally, it should be a time of enjoyment for their family of four, and to speak the truth, Ye Hua didn't want others to insert themselves into their family of four's time of enjoyment. However, upon seeing that Qing Ya was so keen on having lunch with her old classmates, Ye Hua didn't reject Qing Ya's suggestion.

Ye Hua didn't say anything and merely nodded his head in response to Qing Ya's question.

Upon seeing Ye Hua's action, Yun Lan felt that Ye Hua was very cocky. If this man has a cigarette in his mouth, I'm sure that he would look extremely cocky.

Ye Hua silently took out a stick of cigarette.

Yun Lan, "....."

"Yun Lan, we have been searching for you for quite a while."

Two men and one woman could be seen walking over from the side.

The woman could be counted as a so-so beautiful woman in Ye Hua's eyes. After all, after looking at Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi every day, Ye Hua's judgment of women's looks have become picky.

Of course, in normal people's eyes, this so-so beautiful woman was a goddess.

As for the other two men, they can be overlooked, there was nothing much to say about those two men.

“Qing Ya!” The woman could be seen crying out in surprise, then immediately ran over and pulled onto Qing Ya’s delicate hands.

Ye Hua’s brows became wrinkled. To actually dare to touch my woman, are you tired of living!

“Qiu Yan, it has been a long time since we last met.” Qing Ya said with a slight smile. Qing Ya was very happy to be able to meet her old classmates.

However, Ye Hua, on the other hand, wasn’t feeling very happy.

Later on, I will have to properly give Qing Ya a scolding. Asides from me and my child, no one is allowed to touch my women!

However, before that, I should first have a talk with Donghuang Baizhi.

“Baizhi.”

“What’s the matter?” Donghuang Baizhi slightly arched her body forward and asked curiously.

Ye Hua said in displease, “Look at Qing Ya, what mistake do you think she had just made?”

My husband is giving me a quiz, and looking at his expression, he doesn’t seem to be very happy about something that Qing Ya did.

Donghuang Baizhi looked at Qing Ya.

Qing Ya doesn’t seem to have done anything wrong though? Why is Ye Hua suddenly angry?

“Mommy, Ah Li knows.” Donghuang Li raised her hand and shouted out.

“Ah Li, you are not allowed to tell your mommy the answer.” Ye Hua reminded.

Donghuang Li let out a sigh, “Mommy, it seems like Ah Li is not able to help you with this question.”

What mistake did Qing Ya make? I really don’t know.

“Is it that Qing Ya is chatting with her old classmates and neglecting you?” Donghuang Baizhi felt that this was the case. If this is not the case, what else is there for Ye Hua to be angry about?

Ye Hua shook his head, “Would I become angry because of such a thing like this? It’s something else.”

“Mommy, Ah Li will give you a hint, look at Aunt Qing’s hands.” Donghuang Li reminded her mother in a low voice.

Donghuang Baizhi was stupefied, “The mistake that you are talking about couldn’t have been that Qing Ya’s hands are being held by that girl, right?”

“This is precisely the mistake that I am talking about. Baizhi, aside from me and Ah Li, you are not allowed to have any physical contact with other people, not even women!”

Donghuang Baizhi laughed, and immediately, she looked incredibly beautiful, causing many people that were walking by to walked into each other.

This woman is too beautiful.

This Ye Hua is too petty, I am not allowed to even have any physical contact with other women.

“Alright, I promise you that I won’t have any physical contact with other people.” Donghuang Baizhi said tenderly. Donghuang Baizhi was very obedient.

“This is more like it. Just look at Qing Ya, she has been holding hands with that woman for so long already and she still doesn’t intend to stop holding hands with that woman.” Ye Hua said gravely and unhappily.

Qin Cong was Yun Lan’s husband, and the other that was called Tang Han was Qiu Yan’s husband.

When those two men saw Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi, both of them had a surprised look on their faces.

It was normal for those two men to react like that, after all, if a man saw Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi and doesn’t have a surprised look on his face, the man was most probably not straight.

Both parties began introducing themselves to each other.

Ye Hua and Donghuang Baizhi were still the same as usual, only nodding their heads and did not speak at all.

Meanwhile, Qing Ya was chatting and laughing with her two old classmates.

I, the Supreme Overlord, am very angry right now. Qing Ya, tonight, you can do as you see fit.

“Daddy, Ah Li won’t ever make you become angry at Ah Li~” Donghuang Li sat on her father’s legs and said stealthily.

Towards his daughter, Ye Hua was not worried at all, and towards Donghuang Baizhi, Ye Hua was not very worried.

Donghuang Baizhi is after all an empress, she is aware of just when she should exhibit her empress aura, therefore, I do not really have to worry much about Donghuang Baizhi. However, as for Qing Ya, she is very worrisome. I will have to slowly educate Qing Ya and get her to learn more from Donghuang Baizhi.

The few of them arrived at the amusement park’s restaurant and occupied a private room to eat lunch.

Sitting at the dining table, Qing Ya and her two old classmates were chatting very happily with each other, while the others were simply listening to the three of them chat with each other. In actuality, it was very awkward for the others that were not chatting.

After the three finished chatting about the past, they began chatting about the present.

Qiu Yan could be seen holding onto her man’s arm and began bragging about her man, “Qing Ya, my Tang Han is preparing to create a family this year. He has already handed in the required documentation, and if nothing unexpected happens, Tang Family will be formed next year, and at that time, a huge number of resources will be allocated to my Tang Han’s Tang Family.”

Tang Han revealed a light smile on his face, appearing very calm and steady.

Yun Lan also began bragging about her man, "My Cong Cong also applied to form a family, and if the application is successful, my Cong Cong will also be able to become a family head next year."

Qin Cong felt very awkward. Those women, the moment they get together, if they are not showing off their branded goods, they would be showing off their men. In any case, they simply have to compare things with each other no matter what.

"Qing Ya, your luck is very good, Qing Family has already taken root in Zijin City."

"That's right, that's right, we are still only Long'an City's small families."

Qing Ya remained silent while with a smile on her face. Why did the flow of the conversation suddenly move in this direction? What good is there in comparing things with each other?

Yun Lan let out a light sigh and said unhurriedly, "In actuality, my Cong Cong is pretty pitiful, he was abandoned when he was still small, and to climb to where he is right now, not only did he need to work very hard, but he also had to withstand against the evil powers within his family. I am truly fortunate to be able to have Cong Cong."

"That's right, my Tang Han is the same too, he was looked down on by the people in his family ever since he was small, and when he returned back from being a soldier, a few brothers of his even tried to kill him. Fortunately, my Tang Han is formidable and was able to eliminate everyone who tried to kill him."

Qiu Yan also began talking about her man, and while talking, tears even began flowing out from Qiu Yan's eyes. I really feel so heart-pained for my man.

Ye Hua and Donghuang Li had a sort of a strange look on their faces.

Are those two women trying to compete whose man has it worse?

I also had it very hard too in the beginning! Qing Ya, why don't you help me tell them about it.

When I first climbed out from the ground, everyone that I met would try to kill me, and because of that, I had to live while being afraid and on edge. Not once have I ever dared to slack off or be relaxed, and only after killing countless creatures and humans, and going through various kinds of hardships, then did I manage to climb to where I am today.

However, Qing Ya was not the kind of woman that likes to brag, Qing Ya merely smiled while listening to her two old classmates brag about their men.

You Cannot Afford To Offend My Woman

Chapter 270: Ye Hua's questions

While the two women were bragging about their men, the two men were feeling somewhat awkward.

"Qing Ya, do you have any acquaintance who is perhaps able to help us accept our applications more quickly?" Yun Lan asked curiously.

In actuality, even though Tang Han and Qin Cong submitted their applications to form a family, there was still a possibility that their applications would get rejected. After all, it was very difficult for one's application to form a family to get accepted. Just now, when Yun Lan and Qiu Yan bragged about their men, they could be counted to have overexaggerated some things that they have said.

Donghuang Baizhi was only in charge of overseeing which family was fit to raise into the ranks of the aristocratic families. And when all was said and done, all Donghuang Baizhi had to do was to merely take a look at the documentation, then sign onto the documentation.

However, to others, Donghuang Baizhi's signature could be an earth-shattering change for them.

Qing Ya said tenderly, "I don't think I know anyone who is able to help you all to accept your applications more quickly."

Ye Hua let out a breath. Qing Ya, why are you being so low-profile, you could have just said that I am able to help them with their applications.

Just a word from me, and I am able to even let them become a big power. And of course, if I want their families to become exterminated, it would also be but just a word from me.

Yun Lan and Qiu Yan didn't intend to just simply reminisce about the past, both of them knew that Qing Ya's family possesses quite some power, and thus, they wanted to try to get Qing Ya to help their husbands out with their applications. What Yun Lan and Qiu Yan did was normal and understandable.

Upon hearing Qing Ya's answer, both Yun Lan and Qiu Yan let out a light sigh. Originally, both of them thought that Qing Ya would be able to help them out a little bit.

"Qing Ya, you have to be a bit more careful when you are outside nowadays, I heard that it is not really safe nowadays." Although Qing Ya wasn't able to help her out, Yun Lan still reminded Qing Ya to be careful.

Qing Ya was very puzzled. How did they come to know about that? According to reason, this matter should be highly confidential.

"Why? What happened?" Qing Ya asked.

Qiu Yan paused for a moment, then said gravely, "We heard that recently, some people have been causing havoc, causing those families to become anxious and afraid."

"If that's the case, why are you all still trying so hard to squeeze into their circle? Isn't it good enough to be able to live peacefully and at ease?" Qing Ya was trying to persuade them from staying away from this circle.

The water in this circle is too deep, just being slightly careless is enough to attract disaster to befall on you.

Qing Ya was right, Ye Hua was an expert in the aspect of bestowing disaster upon those families.

Yun Lan laughed, "Well, now that there's a chance for us to join into this circle since the restrictions to form a family has been slightly relaxed, we might as well try our chances. After all, if we were to be able to get into this circle, there will be a lot of resources that we will be able to use."

"Being a family head is not a very easy thing."

Ye Hua suddenly said. This caused everyone that was at the table to become slightly dazed, especially Qing Ya's old classmates and those two men.

“Why?” Yun Lan asked puzzledly.

Ye Hua said faintly, “Those family heads that I have met, all of them have a huge number of wives and concubines.”

Wang Dabao, “I am being accused wrongly!”

Qin Cong and Tang Han were startled. We also want to have two wives! You yourself have two wives, and yet you are actually trying to destroy our plans of having two wives! What you are doing is truly hateful!

As expected, the moment the two women heard that, their brows became wrinkled.

“Take that guy for example... what is that guy called again? Qing Ya, you tell them.”

Qing Ya rolled her eyes petulantly at Ye Hua. The way that Qing Ya rolled her eyes at Ye Hua was very charming, causing Ye Hua’s chest to feel itchy again.

“I remembered, that Tang Wushuang, he has 7-8 wives, and that Xiao Yi, he seems to have 5-6 wives.” Ye Hua’s tone seemed like he was talking about some nobodies.

Seeing that the expression that was on the two women’s faces didn’t look really good, Ye Hua said faintly, “To be a family head, one would also have to shoulder the risks that would come with being a family head, and who knows just which day that a family head would end up being but a mere corpse in a street. This circle is very messy, it is best to just be an ordinary citizen.”

Because of Qing Ya, Ye Hua bothered to persuade those people to give up on the idea of forming a family, lest they end up getting caught in his plan in the future. If they were to end up getting caught in his plan, at that time, they would really end up dying without an intact corpse.

“What Ye Hua just said is right. Don’t see that those family heads look very impressive on the surface, in reality, those family heads have it very hard, especially nowadays, where pretty much all of them are being on edge all day long. Have you all heard of Ding Family?” Qing Ya said gravely, intending to give her old classmates a warning.

The four shook their heads, they have never heard before Ding Family.

“Then, have you all heard of aristocratic families?”

The four shook their heads once again.

Qing Ya said faintly, “Aristocratic families are above the families, and Ding Family is precisely one of the five aristocratic families. Just today, Ding Family was exterminated.”

The four immediately became stunned.

Right now, we still haven’t even thoroughly understood about those families, and yet, we have now come to learn about existences that are even more formidable than those families, the aristocratic families. Furthermore, an aristocratic family was actually exterminated just today.

If that’s the case, just how much worse do those normal families have it compared to the aristocratic families?

“Don’t divulge this matter, if not, you all may attract some unnecessary troubles to yourselves.” Qing Ya warned once again.

The four hurriedly nodded their heads.

A family being exterminated! This is something that I don’t even dare to think of!

“Qing Ya, your husband?” Yun Lan asked curiously.

Qing Ya let out a light sigh, “Above the aristocratic families, there are even more formidable existences. Ye Hua became wounded when he was battling against those existences.”

The four looked at Ye Hua while with a dumbstruck expression on their faces.

Originally, I thought that aristocratic families are already very formidable, but it turns out that, there are even more people above the aristocratic families!

And this man that is sitting in the wheelchair is actually able to survive after battling with those people. From this, it could be seen just how frightening his strength is. Such a warning like this definitely has to be listened to!

The four could be seen standing up and saying towards Ye Hua, “Thank you for telling us all of those things, we will never forget this favor.”

Ye Hua laughed dryly in his mind. In the past, I was specialized in killing people, and yet right now, I am actually persuading others to not put their lives in danger.

“There is nothing bad with being an ordinary citizen. At the least, with the conditions that you all possess, you all are able to live without worries. Therefore, it’s best for you all to stop thinking about other pointless things.” Ye Hua said lightly.

From this, it could be seen just how much Ye Hua had changed. Perhaps, this was the power of love.

Of course, Ye Hua still didn’t have any good impressions of humans. However, at the least, right now, Ye Hua’s impression of humans was much better than in the past.

Upon hearing Ye Hua’s words, the four silently nodded their heads. However, in the end, as for what choices they would choose to make, it was their own business.

When all was said and done, humans would always never be satisfied with their own current situation, and they would want to climb as high as possible, even if it meant that they may fall and die.

And perhaps, a few years in the future, Ye Hua may look at their corpses and say something along that line.

After lunch, the four left, and Ye Hua and his family continued having fun at the amusement park.

“Qing Ya, come over.”

“What’s the matter? Want to pee? Hold it in first, okay? I will help you with it once we returned back home.”

Ye Hua, “.....”

"Tell me, just what mistake did you make today? Quickly admit your mistake." Ye Hua chided with a solemn expression.

Donghuang Baizhi was carrying Donghuang Li who had fallen asleep, and with a smile on her face, Donghuang Baizhi watched the scene in front of her.

Not sure why, I just like seeing how Ye Hua looks when he chides at others, he acts just like a child when he chides at others.

Qing Ya was completely puzzled as she mumbled, "I didn't make any mistake today though? My big boss, what did I do that wasn't to your satisfactory this time?"

"As my wife, besides from me and Donghuang Li, no one else is allowed to touch you!"

Qing Ya recalled. I just merely held hands with a girl for a while, is there even a need to be angry at something like this? For Ye Hua to be angry at something like this, as expected, he is truly the jealousy king of the Cultivation World.

"Alright, alright, alright, in the future, I guarantee that I will comply with my husband's requests."

Ye Hua was very satisfied with Qing Ya's attitude when she was admitting to her own mistake. However, there were still a few questions that he needed to ask.

"Qing Ya, in the future, if you came across your female classmates, how should you greet them?" Ye Hua asked gravely.

Qing Ya was startled, and she hurriedly said, "I will just smile at them."

"Wrong! You should ignore them and walk past them!" Ye Hua raised his hand and smacked onto Qing Ya's butt. Luckily, no one saw it.

Qing Ya pouted her small mouth, appearing very pitiful.

"In the future, if I became angry because of you, what should you do!" Ye Hua asked once again.

Qing Ya pondered for a moment, then said hesitatingly, "I will coax you."

Ye Hua raised his hand and smacked onto Qing Ya's butt again, "Wrong! You shouldn't have even made me become angry in the first place!"

Donghuang Baizhi immediately memorized Ye Hua's questions and answers, so that in the future, if Ye Hua asked her those questions, she would know how to answer.

Qing Ya rubbed onto her butt pitifully, "Ye Hua, you are bullying me, I'm not going to play with you anymore."

After finished speaking, Qing Ya pulled onto Donghuang Baizhi and walked away, leaving Ye Hua alone in his wheelchair.

While looking at his wives walk away, Ye Hua thought to himself, "I have to give them a lesson again tonight and let them have a taste of my bone softening palms."

Ye Hua spread out his hands and congregated a formidable power into his hands, then grabbed onto the wheels and thrust the wheels forward.

“The both of you, come back!”
