

My Woman 321

You Cannot Afford To Offend My Woman

Chapter 321: Intelligence team

Qing Yutong was waiting for a chance to stir up trouble, but she didn't expect that Ah Li would be so talented in stirring up trouble.

From the looks of it, in the future, Qing Yutong, Ye Zizi, and Ah Li will be able to go and stir up trouble while teamed up together.

As the head of an aristocratic family, if Chu He were to make things difficult for a child, it would make him lose a lot of face. After all, there are currently a lot of people present at the location.

"Little friend, that uncle is just joking around with you, therefore, you shouldn't take that uncle's words too seriously." Chu He squeezed out a smile on his face.

This scoundrel son of mine, causing trouble for me again!

"I took it seriously." Donghuang Li pouted her mouth and said.

"I wasn't joking around, I was being serious!" Chu Bo responded too.

Ye Xiao laughed lightly, "Old Chu, your son's bearing is out of the ordinary."

Chu He wished to just slap this damn son of his to death.

If I had known that this would happen, I wouldn't have brought him out with me! My face has all been thrown away by him!

"Suit yourself, do whatever you want!" After finished speaking, Chu He turned around and left while panting with rage.

Ye Xiao took a look at Qing Ya, then turned around and left too.

Not every man in this world was fond of beautiful women. Perhaps, Ye Xiao was just merely admiring Qing Ya's looks?

Seeing that his father have left, Chu Bo laughed lightly, "Alright, there is no one here to disturb us anymore!"

"Uncle, your father has become angry at you, are you sure that you can make a decision on your own without your father's permission?" Donghuang Li asked curiously.

The question that Donghuang Li asked made the atmosphere become awkward.

Chu Bo patted his folding fan onto his chest, and with a corner of his mouth raised, he said impressively, "Uncle is in charge of his own life, uncle can make his own decisions!"

"If that's the case, Ah Li can be at ease then."

Everyone was speechless.

Why do I have this strange feeling that this little fellow has already dug out a hole for that Chu Bo to jump into, and that Chu Bo is currently trying his best to jump into the hole?

Those people guessed correctly, Donghuang Li had indeed already dug out a hole for Chu Bo to jump into.

As the representative of the buried love family, Donghuang Li has already begun taking in underlings while she was only three years old. When Ye Hua was at Ah Li's age, Ye Hua was still playing with mud.

It must be said, the daughter surpasses the father.

Using Donghuang Li's words, she would say, "Since daddy has so many subordinates, Ah Li has to start preparing to take in underlings."

Donghuang Li could be seen to have a confident smile on her face, and this smile of hers was very infectious.

Looking at Donghuang Li's confident smile, Chu Bo felt quite pressured. Where did this brat get her confidence from?

Donghuang Li was not battling alone as there was an intelligence team backing her up.

Donghuang Li shouted out in her own mind, "Uncle Wei, are you ready? Ah Li is going to begin competing. If Ah Li loses, Ah Li is going to have to become someone else's underling~"

Far away at an apartment that was located in Long'an City, Wei Chang received the Little Honor's message.

"Little Honor, Uncle Wei is ready!"

Within the apartment's living room, the living room could be seen to be filled with people!

The people that were in the living room consisted of...

Lie Gu and his three women, Yi Ran, Wen Xia, and Bai Xiaozhen.

Jue Tian, who had rushed over from Zijin University.

Death Mage and Xun Fang.

The green and red brothers, and of course, Zi Shan.

Naturally, Wei Chang and Tang Wei were present in the living room too.

Ye Zizi was the only one that wasn't present in the living room...

Pitiful Ye Zizi, no one even bothers bringing her along to have fun anymore.

Everyone in the living room was helping Donghuang Li to think up answers.

Therefore, it must be said that, Chu Bo totally had no idea just what kind of a team he was facing against.

Although Chu Bo was going to end up losing, at the least, he could feel proud of losing.

In actuality, the first sentence that Donghuang Li spoke was thought up on her own, and starting from, "Since ancient times, when has there ever been a person who doesn't die?", the answers were thought up by the people in the living room.

That poem was too hard for Donghuang Li who was just a three-year-old child.

Back then when Ah Li was thinking up of an answer to that poem, she felt very anxious, and because she wasn't allowed to request for help on the spot, she anxiously requested for help in her own mind, hoping that a god would somehow take pity on her and quickly help her think up of an answer to that poem.

The god that Ah Li was hoping to appear did not appear, but Wei Chang managed to sense Donghuang Li's request for help.

Because Wei Chang was worried that the Little Honor may get injured or come into trouble, he specially created a magic spell where if the Little Honor were to request for help in her mind, Wei Chang would be able to sense it and immediately begin helping out the Little Honor.

Ye Hua was completely not worried about his daughter at all. Don't belittle Ye Hua's daughter just because she was only three years old. If Ah Li were to get into a fight, all those special fires that she controlled were more than enough to enable her to eliminate her enemies.

Just now, right when Wei Chang was about to go to sleep, he sensed the Little Honor's request for help, and after hurriedly asking what was going on, he immediately let out a breath of relief.

However, the poem sentence that followed by caused Wei Chang to feel that his head was going to explode.

If the answer that the Little Honor wanted was just a normal poem sentence, Tang Wei who was a university student would know how to answer to the poem sentence immediately, but because the Little Honor wanted an answer that stood out from a normal answer, Tang Wei had difficulty coming up with an answer for the Little Honor.

Without choice, Wei Chang straightforwardly gathered everyone in his living room, and furthermore, he described the situation as "extremely urgent" to the others.

At this timing, everyone was more or less prepared to go to sleep. Looking at everyone in the living room, everyone including Death Mage was wearing pajamas, and Jue Tian was even wearing a sleeping hat...

As expected of the saying, "there is strength in numbers". The first person to come up with an answer was Lie Gu's wife, Yi Ran. And the second person to come up with an answer was Cloud Sect's previous sect master, Xun Fang.

This was also the reason why Ah Li took so long to answer, because she was waiting for the answers.

Right now, everyone in the living room had their brows tightly wrinkled as they prepared to listen to the next question!

The naïve and foolish Chu Bo still did not know that the little fellow in front of him was secretly cheating, and behind the little fellow, there was an intelligence team that possessed the power to cause absolute mayhem currently helping her.

From this, it could be seen that, one should not ever belittle Donghuang Li as they would never know just how big of a backing this little fellow possessed.

Chu Bo was serious this time, he did not intend to go easy on Donghuang Li anymore.

After opening his folding fan, Chu Bo said with a smile, “Why when people part, the moon is full and bright?”

“Shameless!” Everyone immediately exclaimed in their own mind.

Even I myself also am not able to continue that poem sentence, and yet this Chu Bo expects that little child to continue that poem sentence? Shameless! Truly shameless!

Chu He who was standing not far away shook his head.

This son of mine has truly thrown away Chu Family’s face, to actually be so serious when competing against a child!

“This guy is practically a scum.” Both Qing Ya and Qing Yutong had an unhappy look on their faces as they thought to themselves.

Donghuang Li was silently muttering to herself, and it seemed like she was pondering to herself. But in actuality, she was telling the question to Wei Chang.

After receiving the Little Honor’s question, Wei Chang stood up and shouted out to everyone, “Why when people part, the moon is full and bright? What’s the next sentence to that poem sentence? The answer has to stand out from a normal answer!”

Lie Gu rubbed onto his temples with his hands, he felt that his IQ was not coming online at all.

Jue Tian had a calm look on his face, but his eyes were filled with confusion.

Recently, Jue Tian had started working at Zijin University as a professor who teaches hypnotism, and ever since he had become a professor, he had been trying to raise his literacy skills. Currently, Jue Tian was still busy memorizing nursery rhymes, and he still hasn’t come into contact with profound poems.

The green and red brothers? They wouldn’t have any problem if they were asked to breakdance.

Death Mage? He wouldn’t have any problem if it was regarding fishing games or sports betting.

A group of men that possessed the capability of causing absolute mayhem had no choice but to depend on the women. After all, the literacy skills of Ye Hua’s male subordinates were very low, and Ye Hua’s female subordinates, on the other hand, possessed more than enough literacy skills.

“Xun Fang, do you have an answer?” Wei Chang asked hurriedly.

Just now, this Xun Fang was the one who thought up an answer, and the Little Honor was very satisfied with her answer.

With her willow brows wrinkled, Xun Fang began revolving her mind at high speed, trying to think up an answer that could stand out from a normal answer.

The three celebrities were also trying their best to think up an answer.

After waiting for a minute and seeing that there was still no one who had an answer, Wei Chang began feeling extremely anxious.

At the scene.

With a confident smile on his face, Chu Bo swayed his folding fan and said, “Ah Li, you have already been thinking for quite a while, have you thought up of an answer yet?”

Donghuang Li pouted her mouth and snorted, “You... don’t you look down on Ah Li. Give Ah Li a little bit more time.”

“Uncle Wei, quickly, Ah Li is going to lose soon if Ah Li still doesn’t have an answer... If Ah Li loses, Ah Li will end up throwing away daddy’s face, and if daddy finds out about that, daddy will definitely fly into a rage.”

Wei Chang felt that his head was going to explode.

If His Honor finds out that we weren’t able to even protect the Little Honor, His Honor will definitely fly into a rage, and at that time, every one of us is going to get scolded by His Honor.

“I got an answer!” Tang Wei’s beautiful eyes lighted up.

Upon hearing that, Wei Chang became exulted.

With a slight smile, Tang Wei said, “Why when people part, the moon is full and bright? I know celestial meteor punch.”

After listening to Tang Wei’s answer, everyone felt that the answer was pretty good.

Chapter 322: Want to live a good life

Very quickly, Donghuang Li received an answer from Wei Chang.

“Little Ah Li, it is already more than two minutes, if you still don’t have an answer, I will count it as you have lost.” Chu Bo said with a carefree and relaxed expression on his face.

I have finally won back my face. I have been engrossed with studying for tens of years, from nursery rhymes to profound poems, there is not a single nursery rhyme or profound poem that I do not know of.

Studying allows me to grow, studying allows me to be happy, no one is able to stop my adoration for knowledge.

Qing Ya and Qing Yutong were very worried for Ah Li.

I really want to beat that narcissistic guy into a pulp, to actually dare to bully my Ah Li!

Donghuang Li pursed her lips, then said as she assumed a pose with her striking out her fist, “I know celestial meteor punch~~”

Chu Bo was startled, and after silently muttering that sentence twice, his expression immediately sunk.

The crowd exclaimed in surprise, the crowd was surprised by Ah Li too.

Although this little fellow’s sentence isn’t really completely correct, it could still be counted as a way to continue the previous poem sentence. Towards a child who is only a few years old, such an answer makes a lot of sense when coming out of the child’s mouth. After all, these days, if a family could afford television, which family’s child doesn’t watch cartoons?

The crowd began praising Ah Li, and Ah Li was enjoying this moment.

Uncle Wei is truly great!

Both Qing Ya and Qing Yutong let out a breath of relief. However, both of them felt that it was very strange.

When did Ah Li learn all those things?

Chu Bo’s brows were currently tightly wrinkled. This won’t do, I have to raise the difficulty!

“If I say you can, it means you can. Even if you can’t, you still can!” Chu Bo said gravely.

Everyone had a look of disdain on their faces.

This Chu Bo actually sneakily tried to go from competing in poem sentence continuation to competing in antithetical couplet. This Chu Bo’s shamelessness has already reached a whole new realm that we do not know of...

Meanwhile, Donghuang Li’s face was filled with confusion.

This isn’t poem sentence continuation, right? This bad uncle is actually blatantly bullying a child! Shameless!

Qing Ya couldn’t help but say, “Shameless.”

Meanwhile, Qing Yutong straightforwardly shouted at Chu Bo, “You are so shameless!”

Chu Bo said while swaying his folding fan, “There is no difference between poem sentence continuation and antithetical couplet, no matter what is said, both are still poems at the end of the day. In the world of poetry, the only difference there is is the level of literacy skills that different people possess.”

When a person’s shamelessness reaches a realm that others could not even comprehend, that person could indeed be said to have become undefeatable.

Currently, Wei Chang has told the question that he had just received to everyone, and after listening to the question, everyone remained silent.

This question is very difficult...

Lie Gu silently turned his body away from everyone, seemingly like he was telling everyone, "Do not ask me if I know anything about the question. However, if any of you have any questions regarding positions on the bed, feel free to ask me."

Jue Tian, on the other hand, straightforwardly pulled down his sleeping hat and covered his eyes with the sleeping hat.

If I am not able to even think up of an answer for poem sentence continuation, there is no way that I would be able to think up of an answer for antithetical couplet. I have truly failed as the brains of the group...

Meanwhile, the green and red brothers felt very ashamed for not being able to help Ah Li.

Wei Chang could only place his hope onto the few women in the living room.

Zi Shan could be seen sitting silently at a side, appearing very unsociable with the group. From the start till now, Zi Shan has not said anything.

Looking at those people, Zi Shan felt that those people were very strange.

Those people are obviously very formidable, especially those two who are called Lie Gu and Jue Tian, and yet they are actually living their lives mundanely.

Looking at them dressed up in pajamas, they do not look like how an expert should look like at all. That Jue Tian is even wearing a sleeping hat too, and there even seems to be an eye mask in that Jue Tian's pocket... My god...

Those people are practically a bunch of devils who possess chuunibyou syndrome.

Yi Hong stealthily moved closer to Zi Shan and asked lightly, "Zi Shan, do you have an answer to that question?"

After hearing Yi Hong's question, Zi Shan let out a breath.

Zi Shan was a deity who has lived for more than a thousand years, and she has studied quite a bit on poetry in her spare time.

Shortly after, Zi Shan nodded her head.

Upon seeing that, Yi Hong became exulted.

"If you say you can't, it means you can't. Even if you can, you still can't."

Everyone looked towards Zi Shan.

Her answer is pretty good, it is neat and precise. As expected of a deity, she has skills.

Yi Hong evidently felt very happy towards being able to help Ah Li, and he said with a smile to Zi Shan, "Thank you."

"No need." Zi Shan said calmly.

If it weren't for Yi Hong requesting me for help, I wouldn't have bothered helping those people.

Both Lie Gu and Jue Tian looked toward Zi Shan.

It has been so many days already and this Zi Shan still hasn't laid down that pride of hers as a deity. It seems like His Honor is going to be in for a disappointment.

In actuality, Jue Tian understood His Honor's intention. Towards Zi Shan, His Honor was trying to test and see if a deity's way of thinking could be changed or not, and as to how to change Zi Shan's way of thinking, it was all going to depend on little brother red.

Wei Chang hurriedly passed on the answer to Donghuang Li.

And upon receiving the answer, Ah Li smiled and placed her hands behind her back, displaying a look on her that she was very knowledgeable.

This caused Chu Bo to have an ominous feeling. Could it be that, this child is actually able to answer this question? If so, is this child really truly a child?

"If you say you can't, it means you can't. Even if you can, you still can't."

Looking at Donghuang Li's small figure, everyone couldn't help but give it to her.

A drip of cold sweat flowed down from Chu Bo's forehead, and he currently had a very grave look on his face.

How could such a small child be able to be so talented! When I was her age, I was still drinking milk!

After closing his folding fan, Chu Bo said gravely, "Not bad, Ah Li."

"Thank you, uncle, for the praise." Donghuang Li even imitated the adults and cupped her hands at Chu Bo.

"However, Ah Li took too long to answer the question. How about this, let's have one last question! And for this question, Ah Li is allowed to only think for 5 seconds!"

Upon hearing that, the crowd immediately gasped.

This Chu Bo is too despicable!

Qing Ya shouted out coldly, "Just what are you trying to do!"

"Lady, don't be angry. After all, because Ah Li is just a child, there is no way that I would be serious and not go easy on her." Chu Bo has once again shown the others just how shameless he was.

The crowd wanted to say a few mocking sentences at Chu Bo, but when all was said and done, Chu Bo was still the eldest son of an aristocratic family, and an aristocratic family was not something that they could afford to offend.

"Alright, one last question then." Naturally, Donghuang Li wouldn't cower.

Chu Bo smiled gratifiedly, "Good! Ah Li's courage is applaudable. No matter what the result turns out to be, Ah Li will still have uncle's admiration."

“Ah Li also admires uncle, to actually be so serious when competing against a child.” Donghuang Li pouted her small mouth. There is no way that I would believe the nonsense that comes out of your mouth.

Chu Bo remained silent with a smile, and after opening his folding fan once again, he said leisurely, “If you want to live a good life, you have to carry a bit of green on your body.”

This was a sentence that Chu Bo would say every time after he had managed to steal away a man’s wife.

Upon hearing that sentence, Chu He shook his head. Although the strength of this eldest son of mine is not below that of mine, he doesn’t like killing and fighting, and he only likes stealing away others’ wives and fiddling with his subpar poetry skills.

If not for Donghuang Li stopping them, Qing Ya and Qing Yutong would have already begun giving Chu Bo a lesson.

Meanwhile, Donghuang Li hurriedly passed on the question to Wei Chang.

Upon hearing what Donghuang Li said, Wei Chang was startled. We only have five seconds, and two seconds have already passed by!

“Quickly, there are only three seconds left!” Wei Chang was anxious to the point that his viciousness aura was being emitted out from his body, and the windows began creaking continuously because of the aura.

After hearing the question, big brother green’s eyes immediately lighted up and he hurriedly raised his hand, “I have an answer!”

“Speak!”

“If you want to live a good life, you have to grow a bit of grass on your head.” Big brother green said hurriedly.

Upon hearing big brother green’s answer, everyone looked towards big brother green in disbelief, and big brother green scratched onto his head and smiled embarrassedly.

Back then, not too long after big brother green got cheated on, when he came across that sentence on the internet, that sentence became imprinted in his mind, and today, that sentence could finally be put to good use.

Little brother red patted onto his big brother’s shoulder, consoling his big brother like how a brother would console another brother.

Wei Chang hurriedly passed over the answer to Donghuang Li, and after getting the answer from Wei Chang, Donghuang Li immediately uttered the answer.

Just nice, Donghuang Li answered right before 5 seconds had passed.

Upon hearing Donghuang Li’s answer, the crowd exclaimed in surprise.

This little fellow is truly a child prodigy!

Right at this moment, Xiao Yi recalled his son.

That son of mine, he is still trying to memorize nursery rhymes, and this daughter of CEO Qing's is already this formidable.

Xiao Yi couldn't help but applaud

You Cannot Afford To Offend My Woman

Chapter 323: The unordinary auction

Along with Xiao Yi's applaud, shortly after, everyone followed along and began applauding.

Towards everyone's applaud, Donghuang Li courteously expressed her thanks to everyone.

Both Qing Ya and Qing Yutong let out a breath of relief.

Alright, this is enough already, I cannot allow Ah Li to continue messing around.

Qing Ya carried Ah Li up from the ground.

Those fallacious reasonings must have been taught to Ah Li by Ye Hua. After returning home, I have to properly give Ye Hua a scolding, this isn't how he should be educating a child!

"Mommy Qing, don't tell daddy about this, if not daddy will definitely reprimand Ah Li." Seems like Donghuang Li also knew that she wasn't behaving like a good child just now, and thus, she pleaded with Qing Ya to not tell what happened to her father.

Qing Ya petulantly pinched onto Donghuang Li's cheek, "You also know you weren't behaving like a good child just now? You mustn't behave so mischievous again in the future, okay?"

Qing Yutong who was at the side hurriedly kept away her phone, having a look on her that she didn't do anything. And in actuality, she had already sent the video recording over to her brother-in-law.

Ah Li, don't blame Aunt Qing, you said it a few seconds too late.

Chu Bo had a blank look on his face.

As someone who possesses the title of "Immortal of Poetry", I didn't expect that I would actually lose to a little fellow. Furthermore, I lost to the little fellow while in front of a crowd... My face has all been thrown away...

After quite a while, Chu Bo said, "Ah Li, uncle has lost!"

Donghuang Li suddenly felt that this uncle was still decent, to dare to face against his loss.

Donghuang Li said with her tender voice, "Uncle, don't be discouraged, you should study more in the future and strive to one day be able to finally win against Ah Li."

The crowd had to give it to Donghuang Li. This fellow sure is sensible, she actually didn't mention about the bet! Formidable! Truly formidable!

Meanwhile, Chu Bo didn't expect that Ah Li would console him, and he felt like crying but didn't have tears to cry out.

However, as the eldest son of an aristocratic family, the words that I uttered are like water that had been splashed out.

“Since uncle has lost to Ah Li, uncle should become Ah Li’s underling from now on!” Chu Bo said after adjusting his mindset.

Losing was not scary, what was scary was not daring to face against one’s own loss.

If Chu Bo didn’t dare to face against his own loss, this incident will end up affecting his cultivation in the future.

Chu Bo’s words caused the crowd to go into a daze.

Immediately, the crowd’s image of Chu Bo seemed to have suddenly changed.

To actually be willing to fulfill his end of the bet while under such a situation... As expected of the eldest son of an aristocratic family, he has a sense of responsibility!

Ye Xiao who was standing outside of the crowd said faintly, “Old Chu, the temperament of this eldest son of yours is not bad. In the future, he is going to be able to take on huge responsibilities.”

“You think too much. Look at how he behaves, he doesn’t behave like someone who could possibly take on huge responsibilities. This eldest son of mine is truly making me blush with shame.”

Ye Xiao laughed, “It would be great if my son has your eldest son’s temperament. That son of mine, he only knows how to indulge in pleasure all day long. Right now, my Ye Family can’t even guarantee that it would be able to continue surviving through the next generation.”

Chu He felt the same as Ye Xiao, and he said gravely, “That’s right, the generations are getting worse with each generation. There is going to come a day where my Chu Family ends up getting eliminated.”

“Old Chu, in actuality, a big shot will be coming over tonight, and furthermore, north’s sixth aristocratic family is going to be born tonight!”

Upon hearing that, Chu He’s expression turned grave, “Brother Ye, are you saying that someone from Voidless Realm is going to come over tonight?”

“That’s right. Otherwise, why would Xiao Yi and Bai Cixin have come over here tonight? I was the one who informed them to come over to the auction. However, they still do not know about what is going to happen.”

A few days ago, Voidless Realm came looking for Ye Xiao and told Ye Xiao to find a chance to gather everyone. And just nice, Yuanlinglong’s auction, which was held once every year was going to be held today, and thus, Ye Xiao decided to gather everyone on this day.

However, to the other aristocratic families, the birth of another aristocratic family wasn’t something that they could be happy about.

After all, there was a limit to the resources that Voidless Realm distributes out to the aristocratic families, and with the addition of a new aristocratic family, it would mean that the current aristocratic families were going to have to end up receiving lesser resources than they used to be able to receive.

This was one of the reasons why Dongfang Family ended up being dragged down from the ranks of the aristocratic families back then.

During the year that Dongfang Family was dragged down from the ranks of the aristocratic families, the resources that Voidless Realm was distributing were longevity fruits.

Another reason was that Dongfang Family's strength was somewhat at the point of overpowering the combined strength of all five other aristocratic families.

As the saying goes, "people fear getting famous like pigs fear fattening up, and the shot hits the bird that pokes its head out".

"Brother Ye, counting the time, next year seems to be the year that Voidless Realm is going to distribute out longevity fruits again." Chu He's tone was cold, and it seems like he wants to let history repeat itself.

Ye Xiao nodded his head, "That's right. Just how many longevity fruits we are able to get is completely up to those families below us. However, next year, there is going to be one more aristocratic family."

Longevity fruit was a special local product of Voidless Realm's, and the longevity fruits only come to fruit once every 100 years!

About 1000 longevity fruits would come to fruit once every 100 years, and amongst the 1000 longevity fruits, Voidless Realm would keep 900 for themselves and distribute the longevity fruits to the disciples who have made contributions to Voidless Realm, and the rest of the 100 longevity fruits would be distributed to the aristocratic families.

However, the distribution wasn't an even distribution, the number of longevity fruits that each aristocratic family could get depends on the number of families that voted for them.

Of course, the families don't know anything about the longevity fruits distribution that happens once every 100 years. The families merely think that the votes were for an evaluation assessment of the aristocratic families.

Back then, as the strongest family, Dongfang Family had the support of 80% of the families and was able to obtain 80% of the votes, and this caused the other five aristocratic families to go green with envy.

Amongst the 100 longevity fruits, Dongfang Family was able to obtain 80 of the longevity fruits, and the remaining 20 longevity fruits were going to be split amongst 5 families, which meant that each family was going to be able to obtain only 4 longevity fruits.

Immediately, the five family heads couldn't just remain seated in their seats anymore. Therefore, the fall of Dongfang Family happened.

This was also the reason why Ye Xiao wanted to help Tang Wushuang snatch over the ancient godly item, it was so that he could make Tang Wushuang owe him a favor and get Tang Wushuang to vote for him when the time comes.

Also, in actuality, Ye Xiao wouldn't really help Tang Wushuang snatch over the ancient godly item, all Ye Xiao would do was act as if he had tried.

There was a reason as to why Voidless Realm decided on this kind of distribution, Voidless Realm wanted to make it so, in order to obtain other families' votes, the aristocratic families had to do more good deeds.

The more good deeds an aristocratic family did, the better the aristocratic family's image would be, and with a better image compared to the other aristocratic families, that particular aristocratic family would be able to obtain more votes than the others, right?

However, Dongfang Family precisely did too many good deeds, and ended up...

"That's right, another portion is going to be taken off from our portions again." Chu He let out a long sigh.

No one heard what the two were talking about, everyone was currently watching Ah Li take in an underling.

As Ah Li's guardian, Qing Ya definitely had to step out and speak, "My Ah Li is still small, the bet from earlier on is cancelled, you don't have to become Ah Li's underling."

Little Ah Li didn't protest after hearing her Mommy Qing say that.

Ah Li is an obedient child, and an obedient child has to listen to her mommy. However, it is a pity that I am going to have to let go of such a clever underling.

Sigh, and I was thinking of expanding my buried love family's strength...

Chu Bo had a resolute look on his face, seemingly like he won't allow Qing Ya to stop him from becoming Ah Li's underling.

"Lady, what you are saying is wrong, everyone is independent and has the right to speak for themselves. This matter has to be decided by Ah Li herself." Chu Bo was not afraid of losing.

Anyway, isn't losing a good outcome for me? After becoming Ah Li's underling, I will have to follow along with Ah Li every day, which means that, I will be able to see the two ladies every day too.

Both Qing Ya and Qing Yutong have never seen before such a shameless person.

It must be said that, Chu Bo's decision was correct, After all, just how fortunate would it be for a person to be able to become Donghuang Li's underling?

Don't belittle Ah Li just because she was still small right now. In the future, Ah Li was definitely going to become an extremely formidable existence.

However, different from the green and red brothers, Chu Bo wanted to join the buried love family because he was attracted by Qing Ya and Qing Yutong's looks and wanted to look for a chance to get close to Qing Ya and Qing Yutong.

Of course, every single woman that was within Ye Hua's group was not someone that Chu Bo could afford to offend, and they were also not the same as those women Chu Bo managed to swindle over with just some sweet words.

When Chu Bo learned about those in the future, he would most probably be filled with despair.

You Cannot Afford To Offend My Woman

Chapter 324: Auction is about to begin

“Mommy Qing, daddy already has so many underlings, and yet, Ah Li only has uncle green and uncle red...” Donghuang Li said while stammering.

Take a look, just take a look at this, Ah Li is only this small and she has already been brought astray by that father of hers! She is only this small, and yet, she is already thinking about taking in underlings!

Qing Ya almost fainted from anger.

In the future, along with Donghuang Baizhi, we have to properly watch after Ah Li, we mustn't allow Ah Li to continue being brought astray by Ye Hua!

However, Qing Yutong thought differently.

As expected of brother-in-law's child, Ah Li is currently only three years old, and she already knows to begin taking in underlings. When Ah Li grows up, she is definitely going to soar through the sky.

What Ah Li just said was heard by some people at the scene.

This little fellow's father has a lot of underlings! This is a very important clue, I have to make sure to remember this.

More importantly, this little fellow actually has two underlings. Isn't that absurd? I reckon that it is just two adults playing around with her.

However, this was what they were wrong about. The green and red brothers were buried love family's left and right protectors, and Donghuang Li was buried love family's boss. In the future, Donghuang Li was going to bring buried love family to great heights.

Qing Ya began guiding Ah Li with a tender voice, “Ah Li, it isn't right for a child to take in underlings.”

“Hmmm~ Hmmm~ Hmmm~ Ah Li wants underlings~ Ah Li wants underlings~ Ah Li wants underlings...” Donghuang Li straightforwardly began throwing a tantrum, and this caused Qing Ya to have a headache.

If Donghuang Baizhi were here, Donghuang Li wouldn't dare to throw a tantrum. After all, Donghuang Li was rather afraid of her mother.

However, since only Qing Ya was here, Donghuang Li dared to throw a tantrum.

Donghuang Li knew that Qing Ya wouldn't really scold her if she threw a tantrum, and even more, Qing Ya would most likely come to a compromise and allow her to take in underlings.

Humph, don't look down on Ah Li, Ah Li is very smart!

“That is out of the question!” Qing Ya didn't know how to coax Ah Li. After all, Ah Li has always been very obedient.

“Boohoo~ Boohoo~ Ah Li wants daddy~” Donghuang Li straightforwardly unleashed her ultimate attack, causing Qing Ya to become at a complete loss on what to do.

Not knowing what to do, Qing Ya looked towards her sister for help.

"Don't look at me." Qing Yutong said as she shrugged her shoulders.

"Lady, you should stop holding back the child and let the child fly on her own." Chu Bo said with a slight smile.

Qing Ya looked coldly at Chu Bo and shouted out, "Shut up!"

Faced against Donghuang Li who was bawling, Qing Ya let out a light sigh, "Don't cry anymore."

"Mommy Qing, have you agreed to let Ah Li take in underlings?" With her watery big eyes, Donghuang Li asked while looking pitifully at Qing Ya.

This was the first time that Qing Ya felt that it was really hard to look after a child.

"Mommy Qing will allow it if you are able to get your daddy's approval." Qing Ya had no other choice but to kick the ball to Ye Hua.

"Alright!"

If daddy knows that I have taken in another underling, he would definitely be happy about it.

"Uncle, quickly come over, my Mommy Qing has already agreed to allow me to take in underlings." Donghuang Li beckoned Chu Bo to come over.

Chu Bo immediately walked over.

"Uncle, lower your head." Right now, Donghuang Li was still being carried by Qing Ya. And while being carried by Qing Ya, Donghuang Li said with a smile to Chu Bo.

As an underling, it was only natural that Chu Bo had to listen to Donghuang Li's words.

After rubbing her hands, Donghuang Li placed her hands in the middle of Chu Bo's forehead, then pulled Chu Bo's hair to the sides.

Chu Bo who had his head lowered immediately knew what Donghuang Li was trying to do, and he had a helpless look on his face.

This Little Ah Li sure is mischievous...

"Uncle looks much more handsome looking like this." Donghuang Li was very satisfied with her masterpiece.

It must be said, center parting hairstyle fits Chu Bo rather well, the center parting hairstyle gave Chu Bo a slight unyielding look to him.

"Ah Li has uncle's thanks." While speaking, Chu Bo took a look at Qing Ya and Qing Yutong.

It must be said, after taking a close look at them, they are truly beautiful to the point that I don't even dare to have any thoughts toward them.

Towards other people looking at them and then being awed by their looks, both Qing Ya and Qing Yutong were already used to it. Moreover, they couldn't just dig out others' eyes just because others took a look at them, right?

Sigh, why do I look so beautiful? It is truly vexing to look so beautiful.

Looking at how his son was acting, Chu He felt dissatisfied with his son.

Of course, Chu He knew his son's motive, which was to get close to those two women.

In actuality, everyone thought more or less the same as Chu He.

This Chu Bo is not bad, he is rather meticulous. Craftily, he managed to infiltrate into the enemy's base and is now able to openly follow along with those two beautiful women.

Song Huang was feeling very gloomy.

The one who should be standing right next to them should be me! However, if I were to walk over and join them now, it would be very embarrassing for me.

Forget about it! Later on, when we entered into the auction, I will see just how they are going to look for seats to sit on. The people who were invited to the auction have their own seats, and since they were brought here by me, they do not have their own seats. If they don't follow me, they won't have any seats to sit on, and will just end up getting chased out of the auction.

On the other hand, Qing Ya and Qing Yutong have already completely forgotten about Song Huang.

"Guests, the time has arrived, please enter into the auction venue!"

Along with the sound ringing out, everyone began walking into the inner part of Yuanlinglong.

Within the crowd, Tang Wushuang was following behind Gui Chengren. From the beginning till now, the two did not converse with each other at all.

After entering the main hall, Gui Chengren had been sitting at the side and reading his novel, and Tang Wushuang silently accompanied by Gui Chengren's side.

On the other hand, Xiao Yi and Shu Nan watched Donghuang Li's performance, and when watching Donghuang Li perform, Shu Nan thought to herself, "I really want to give birth to a child who is as adorable as Ah Li."

Bai Cixin and her husband, Wang Dabao, also watched Donghuang Li's performance. Wang Dabao laughed to the point that his stomach was aching, while Bai Cixin's expression was as calm as a calm sea.

Currently, Bai Qi had a long face on his face, seemingly to still be brooding about what had happened just now. Bai Qi could be seen continuously chiding Dongfang Yuer, and Dongfang Yuer didn't talk back at all, she just remained silent and listened to Bai Qi chide at her, and this caused Bai Qi to become even angrier.

Qing Ya and Qing Yutong followed along with everyone and walked into the inner venue.

Chu Bo didn't follow along with his father, and instead, he was currently following along with Donghuang Li.

As an underling, it is only natural that I have to follow along with my boss, and it is also my duty to protect the boss and those two beautiful women.

Yuanlinglong's existence was solely for the auction that happened once every year, thus, besides from being opened during the yearly auction, Yuanlinglong was rarely opened.

Of course, whatever that Yuanlinglong was used for, it all depends on Ye Xiao. After all, Yuanlinglong was Ye Family's territory.

After passing through the main hall, everyone arrived at a spacious venue. The middle of the venue was cleaned up neatly, and the floor tiles that were made with jades were currently emitting out spiritual energy. Evidently, the jades that were used to make the floor tiles weren't any ordinary jades and were evidently spiritual jades. Ye Family truly doesn't hold back on spending money!

The seats have already been arranged, and the seats were split into three layers, upper layer, middle layer, and lower layer. The seats revolved around the middle of the venue, and the tables that were made with sapphires and redwoods looked impressive.

Fruits and desserts were arranged on the tables for the guests to enjoy, and on each table, there was even a servant girl standing by the side and waiting to serve upon the table's guests. Although the servant girls weren't exceptional beauties, they could still be counted as beauties.

The table that was on the platform was naturally where Ye Xiao was going to be seated.

A seat could be seen to have been set up right beside Ye Xiao's seat, and from the looks of it, that seat must be Chu He's seat.

Every seat had a name written on it, and even more, the locations of the guests' seats have already been marked on the guests' invitations cards.

While referring to their invitation cards, the guests began looking for their seats.

Although the seats were separated into three layers, it didn't mean that the higher one's seat was situated, the bigger one's identity was. Instead, the closer one was seated to Ye Xiao, the bigger the person's identity was.

Take for example, Xiao Yi, Tang Wushuang, and Bai Cixin, they were all outstanding family heads, and they were seated very close to Ye Xiao.

However, Song Huang was seated much closer to Ye Xiao compared to Xiao Yi and the others, and this allowed Song Huang to gain a lot of face.

This caused Song Huang's gloomy mood to turn into a good mood.

It feels the best when everyone looks at me with a look of envy on their face!

Meanwhile, while carrying Donghuang Li, Qing Ya stood at the entrance and observed what was going on.

This seems to be different from what I had imagined, the seats are all marked with names.

"Big sister, we have been played by that Song Huang!" Qing Yutong looked at Song Huang who was currently already seated in his seat and said while panting with rage.

You Cannot Afford To Offend My Woman

Chapter 325: Bosses

Qing Ya looked over to Song Huang, and as expected, Song Huang was currently sitting on a seat with a straight look on his face.

So, this is north's famous Sage Doctor? What a hypocritical man.

"CEO Qing, how about coming over and sitting at my table?" Xiao Yi walked over and asked. This time, it wasn't Shu Nan's suggestion, and instead, Xiao Yi took the initiative to walk over and asked.

"CEO Xiao, thank you for the offer, but it's fine." Qing Ya replied politely.

If Qing Ya had sat at Xiao Yi's table, wouldn't others end up thinking that Qing Ya was someone from Xiao Family?

Furthermore, Qing Ya didn't want Ye Hua to misunderstand. This was a matter of honor.

Shu Nan shook her head as she thought to herself, "Brother Xiao, why are you so stupid? This woman is someone who has a family, if she were to sit at the same table as you, what would others think of her?"

Xiao Yi went into a daze for a moment, then said, "Alright, please excuse me then."

"En." Qing Ya was very confused towards Xiao Yi's attitude towards her today. Perhaps, I should find a time to ask what is going on.

Tang Wushuang didn't invite Qing Ya over to his table, after entering the inner venue, he followed along with his master and head straight to their seats.

Bai Cixin also didn't invite Qing Ya over to her table, when passing by Qing Ya, she merely politely nodded her head at Qing Ya.

In the blink of an eye, most of the guests have already sat down on their seats.

"Qing Ya, come and sit at my table." Right at this moment, Chen Xuanzong suddenly walked over and said.

Although Qing Ya was very cold towards him, Chen Xuanzong had no intention of giving up, let alone cower.

Qing Ya could be heard saying faintly, "Fatty, I am already someone who has a family, so please keep your distance away from me."

"Qing Ya, what's the point in acting like this?" Chen Xuanzong wasn't able to understand what was even good about that Long Aotian.

"Swoosh." With a swoosh sound, Chu Bo opened his folding fan and walked over with a graceful posture.

While swaying his folding fan, Chu Bo said bluntly, "What are you even still rumbling about when you have already been told to scram? Quickly scram!"

Chu Bo was used to acting as a beauty protector and he was very experienced in how to act in situations like this.

Chen Xuanzong knew that this person was the son of an aristocratic family head and was someone that wasn't easy to push around.

I have to endure and be patient for now, after all, my current power is still too small.

"Qing Ya, I will go on ahead first then." Chen Xuanzong was still acting refined and courteous, and even more, he seemed very humble.

However, the more Chen Xuanzong acted like this, the more Qing Ya disliked him.

At such a time like this, the way to gain others' respect was to display one's strength. However, even if Chen Xuanzong were to display his strength, it still wouldn't be of any use as Qing Ya was no longer the same Qing Ya that she was in the past, the current Qing Ya has already awakened.

With Qing Ya's current strength, no one at the venue was able to withstand even a single blow from her.

After all, back when Qing Ya awakened, Wei Chang gave a primary judgment that Death Mage was not a match for Qing Ya.

And Death Mage himself was already formidable to the point that he could eliminate a person that belonged to a huge power in just a second, so let alone the aristocratic families. Death Mage could most probably eliminate an entire aristocratic family with just a puff.

Therefore, the biggest boss that was in the venue right now was Qing Ya.

In actuality, there was a hidden boss in the venue, and that hidden boss was Donghuang Li.

Donghuang Li has already learned how to play with fires, and the fires that she controlled were what that were truly known as special fires, and no one in the venue was able to resist against those fires. Back then, even Ye Zizi fainted after being burned by one of the fires.

Of course, there was a small boss in the venue too, and that small boss was Qing Yutong.

Back when Qing Yutong was working as a celebrity, after completing all of the missions that her system gave to her, the rewards that she had received brought her strength to a frightening level, which was more or less at the same level as Death Mage.

Otherwise, how would Qing Yutong have dared to go around creating troubles with Ye Zizi? It was all because she possessed the strength to back her up.

However, bringing Qing Yutong's strength to that level was already the system's limit, if Qing Yutong wanted to raise her strength further, she was going to have to depend on her luck.

After coming across Ye Hua, the system decisively gave Qing Yutong a mission.

Of course, there was also that mission to live stream, but Qing Yutong has already long forgotten about that mission.

With such a formidable brother-in-law as my backing, all I have to do is to behave cutely and fawn upon brother-in-law, what use is there in doing missions anymore? If I come across someone who I am not able to fight against, I can just call my brother-in-law for help.

Qing Yutong secretly took a glance at her big sister, and she discovered that her big sister seems to intend to cause trouble tonight.

Is big sister preparing to erupt? If big sister is going to erupt, there is going to be a great show to watch. Just that, with big sister's mentality, the most that she would do is scold at those people, she definitely wouldn't kill any of them.

Tagging along with brother-in-law and acting cool with him is indeed the best after all.

"Big sister, what should we do?" Qing Yutong was already ready to get into action.

Those seats and tables are all arranged very neatly and there isn't any space for additional seats at all. Therefore, adding seats is totally out of the question.

What are they going to do? Let big sister continue standing here like this? Or chase her out of the venue?

If either of that were to happen and brother-in-law finds out about it, everyone here is going to be done for.

Qing Ya has never come across this kind of situation, but she could sense that her blood vessels were telling her that those people weren't allowed to disrespect her.

"Humph, Ah Li is not happy, they are actually not giving us seats, I'm going to tell daddy about this." Donghuang Li pouted her small mouth, having a look on her that seemed to be saying, "If you don't give us seats, Ah Li is going to tell on you to daddy, and if daddy finds out about what happened, you are going to be done for."

Right now, Qing Ya already knew Ye Hua's strength.

For Ye Hua to be able to fight against that shadowed figure for that long, he is definitely more formidable than me, and those people here at the venue are definitely not a match for him.

If Ye Hua were to find out that the child and I suffered grievance, with Ye Hua's personality, he would definitely kill everyone that was present at the venue.

However, there are also good people here at the venue, and the reason we are in such an awkward situation is because we got tricked by that Song Huang.

Qing Ya consoled Donghuang Li, "Ah Li, be obedient, Mommy Qing will find a seat for you."

"No, Ah Li doesn't want to let Mommy Qing suffer any grievances." Donghuang Li was very obstinate. As she stretched out her little finger, a gorgeous purple color fire appeared on her fingertip.

Qing Ya and Qing Yutong's pretty faces were illuminated by the fire.

If that small fire were to be tossed out from Donghuang Li's fingertip, basically everyone that was at the venue would dissipate.

“Ah Li, how did you make this fire appear?” Chu Bo cried out in surprise. Because his strength was too weak, he wasn’t able to sense the aura that the fire was emitting out, and thus, he merely thought that the fire was just a normal fire.

Meanwhile, Qing Ya and Qing Yutong were able to sense the aura that the fire was emitting out.

“Uncle, do you want to play with it? Go ahead.” Donghuang Li did not know about the might of firmament ghost fire, and she even thought that she could let other people play with the fire.

Upon hearing that, Chu Bo actually really stretched out his hand towards the fire.

Upon seeing that, Qing Ya shouted out gravely, “Don’t touch it!”

Right when Chu Bo’s hand was about to come into contact with the fire, Qing Ya stopped him.

“Ah Li, quickly keep away the fire.” Qing Ya said while with her brows wrinkled.

Why does Ah Li know of such a frightening technique? No, I don’t even need to think too much about it, Ye Hua must have definitely been the one who taught her the technique.

I really don’t know what to say about this Ye Hua anymore, how can he teach such a dangerous technique to a child! If the child were to mess around with the fire, who knows what would end up happening!

Seeing that Qing Ya was a bit angry, Donghuang Li kept away the firmament ghost fire dispiritedly, “Mommy Qing, don’t be angry~”

Acting cute has always been something that Ah Li was good at.

“Ah Li, was this taught to you by your daddy?” Qing Ya asked.

Donghuang Li nodded her head.

“What else did your daddy teach you?”

Upon hearing that, Donghuang Li immediately wanted to show off what she had learned.

After Donghuang Li stretched out all of her fingers, ten different fires could be seen appearing on Donghuang Li’s fingertips, and upon seeing those fires, Qing Ya and Qing Yutong’s mouths twitched.

Qing Ya was speechless.

I must hold a family meeting when I get back home. In the future, the child’s education and the techniques that the child learns will all be handled by Baizhi and I, all Ye Hua is allowed to do is to play with the child.

“Ah Li sure is good at magic!” Chu Bo, who was at the side, said naively.

You Cannot Afford To Offend My Woman

Chapter 326: Jade immortal dew equals mineral water

“Alright, Ah Li, keep away the fires. In the future, you mustn’t anyhow play with fires, okay? It is very dangerous to play with fires.” Qing Ya was very attentive when guiding Ah Li, and Ah Li was willing to listen to Qing Ya’s words.

Ah Li felt that Qing Ya was much gentler compared to her mother, and also easier to speak to.

When her mother speaks to her, her mother would often have a stern look on her face, and it was only recently that her mother had become much easier to speak to.

Donghuang Li kept away the fires that were on her fingertips, “En, Ah Li understood.”

Right when the few of them were chatting, everyone had already sat down on their seats, and only Qing Yutong, Qing Ya, and Chu Bo were still standing.

The atmosphere was a bit awkward.

Chu Bo who was standing behind the two did not say anything.

Since this pretty lady is not willing to accept my help, I might as well follow her wish.

Meanwhile, Qing Yutong was itching to start acting cool.

Someone, quickly come and provoke us! I am ready! It has been quite a long time since I last stirred up trouble, my hands are already starting to feel a bit itchy!

However, Qing Yutong was destined to be disappointed.

Two attendants could be seen carrying a table over to them, and after placing the table by Qing Ya’s side, one of the attendants said, “Miss, this table is prepared for you by my family head.”

Qing Ya looked towards Ye Xiao who was sitting at the platform, and the latter nodded his head while with a smile on his face.

Upon seeing that, Qing Ya politely returned the greeting by nodding her head at Ye Xiao.

Qing Ya felt that this Family Head Ye was very gentleman-like, or perhaps, the family head may just be giving face to Chu Bo, but who knows?

The other family heads were very surprised.

Since Yuanlinglong has opened, something like this has never happened before. First, it was Xiao Yi, then it was Bai Cixin, and now, it is this Ye Xiao!

For this woman to be able to receive this kind of treatment, just what is the identity of this woman?

Meanwhile, Song Huang was feeling very dissatisfied.

Originally, as long as they are willing to lower their heads to me, I would let bygones be bygones, but I didn’t expect that something like this would happen! Today, all of my plans had been thrown into disarray!

In Qing Ya’s mind, since she was already here, she might as well finish watching the auction first before leaving.

Qing Ya and her sister sat by the table's side, while Chu Bo sat behind the table and boredly swayed his fan.

This auction is so boring, there isn't even a chance here for me to act as a hero and save the beauties.

As a family head, Ye Xiao was currently standing up and giving an opening speech. His voice wasn't loud, but his voice was able to enter into everyone's ears.

"Firstly, welcome everyone to the auction, I am very honored that you all showed up to the auction. Today's auction items will be provided by my Ye Family, and all of the profits will be donated to mountain villages that are in poverty."

After Ye Xiao finished speaking, an ardent round of applause began ringing out.

Chu He's expression changed slightly.

This Ye Xiao is trying to win over people's hearts by donating to the poor. Seems like he is intending to start laying out the foundation for next year's longevity fruits distribution.

From the looks of it, I have to start preparing to win over people's hearts. I reckon that the three other families are also going to start preparing to win over people's hearts.

"Big sister, should we join in on the bidding for some of the items?" Qing Yutong asked curiously.

Qing Ya asked faintly, "Do you even have any money?"

Qing Yutong paused for a moment, then rolled her eyes at her big sister.

Right now, all of my expenses are being covered by big sister and brother-in-law, I have no choice but to lower my head since I am living under their roof.

However, towards donating to the poor, Qing Ya felt that she had to do something.

Hmm, I might as well just learn from Ye Hua and donate all of my income to charity. In the future, I will just depend on Ye Hua to provide for me.

If Ye Hua were to know of what Qing Ya was currently thinking, he would definitely jump.

My Leisure Bar's business is not doing well, and you are thinking of donating all of your income? Do you want your entire family to starve?

However, Qing Ya felt that her idea was very good.

A man has to have some pressure on his shoulders, if not, he would just stay at home all day and do nothing.

I have to discuss this matter with Baizhi. In the future, Baizhi and I will stay at home to take care of the child, and Ye Hua will be in charge of going out to earn money.

If Ye Hua finds out that Qing Ya was thinking of making him, the Supreme Overlord, go outside and work, he would most probably die from anger.

Donghuang Li, who was eating an apple, said with a smile, "Aunt Qing, don't be sad, daddy is even poorer than you."

Pfft.

Qing Yutong laughed.

What Ah Li just said is indeed true. Although brother-in-law is very formidable, he finds it beneath his dignity to go out and earn money by himself.

However, no matter what, life still has to go on, and every time when I saw brother-in-law asking big sister for money, I find it so amusing no matter how many times I have already seen it.

However, big sister herself is basically a wife who pampers her husband very much. Recently, I heard that brother-in-law's daily allowance has been raised to 100 rmb.

"Yutong, when do you intend to start working?" Qing Ya asked.

"Big sister, can we not learn from others? All that everyone does is work, work, work. I, Qing Yutong, am precisely going to remain workless."

"Haha... You can prepare to starve to death then." Qing Ya laughed dryly.

Qing Yutong hugged onto her big sister's arm and said lovably, "Well, I have you, my big sister~ You wouldn't be willing to let your sister starve to death in the streets, right?"

Donghuang Li also hugged onto Qing Ya and said, "What Aunt Qing said is right! In the future, Ah Li is going to have to depend on Mommy Qing."

The two like-minded fellows, Qing Yutong and Donghuang Li, gave each other a high-five.

Qing Ya was feeling very helpless.

It seems like, only when I have no more money, then would they be able to have some ambition.

"Do you all need money? I have a lot of money, how much do you all need?" Chu Bo saw his opportunity.

Qing Yutong took a look at Chu Bo with disdain and said, "Even if I, Qing Yutong, have to starve to death, I still wouldn't want your money."

"That's right, that's right, even if Ah Li has to go and beg for money, Ah Li still wouldn't use her underling's money!"

Wow, those two sure are resolute... Chu Bo wants to express that those two have his admiration.

Right when they were chatting, the first auction item has already been carried and placed onto the auction stand by a staff member.

The person who was in charge of auctioning the items was an elderly man, and the elderly man seemed to be very experienced.

The cloth that was covering the auction item was lifted away by a staff member, and upon seeing the auction item, everyone gasped.

A small bottle could be seen being situated on the auction stand. The workmanship of the small bottle was exquisite and was gold in color. Although the bottle was sealed, an astonishingly delightful fragrance was still being emitted out from the bottle.

The elderly man said unhurriedly, "This item is called jade immortal dew and it is a product from Voidless Realm. Family Head Ye was fortunate enough to obtain this item as a reward from Voidless Realm, and today, he has decided to auction this item at today's auction!"

"Jade immortal dew has the effect of strengthening one's body, and it even has the reputation of being able to cure every illness. If a cultivator were to drink this jade immortal dew, the cultivator would be able to stabilize their strength."

"However, the best thing about jade immortal dew is that it is able to regulate a woman's body, thus slowing down the woman's aging and making the woman become more beautiful!"

The entire venue turned silent for a moment, and what followed by were the women's gasps of astonishment.

To the women, their looks were basically their lives!

And this small bottle of jade immortal dew was basically an antidote that was able to allow them to be reborn.

Which woman wouldn't want to become even more beautiful?

Which woman wouldn't want to remain youthful?

At the venue, even Bai Cixin was enticed by the jade immortal dew, so let alone the other women.

And in actuality, Tang Wushuang was enticed by the jade immortal dew too.

Qing Yutong mumbled, "Is it really that mystical?"

Qing Ya said tenderly, "Those meat are much more effective than this jade immortal dew by a thousand times."

Qing Ya knew that the so-called "jade immortal dew" was merely Voidless Realm's spring water.

I have drunk before this water, it is indeed effective, but compared to those meat that Ye Hua let us eat, this water pales a lot in comparison. However, towards the people here, this water could be counted as an utmost treasure to them, I guess.

Upon hearing their conversation, Chu Bo became dissatisfied.

This jade immortal dew is an utmost treasure, and yet they are speaking about it as if it is mineral water.

"Ladies, although I don't know what meat you two are talking about, this jade immortal dew is indeed very exceptional." Chu Bo felt that he needed to help them expand their knowledge.

"Ah, spicy~ This is so spicy~" Donghuang Li said while fanning her hand at her mouth.

Donghuang Li ate a piece of marinated duck meat, but who knew, the duck meat was super spicy.

Qing Ya suddenly recalled that she has a few bottles of jade immortal dew stored at home.

Although the quality of this jade immortal dew cannot be compared to those meat, it is qualified enough to be used as a substitute for mineral water.

Qing Ya stretched out her delicate hand into the void, then took out a water bottle from the void.

Upon seeing that, Chu Bo's expression turned grave.

She... she just fetched an item through the void!

You Cannot Afford To Offend My Woman

Chapter 327: The quantity of a bottle cap

It is recorded in my family history book that this kind of techniques only exist during the ancient times! And yet, this beautiful woman actually knows of such a technique!

Just who is this woman!

Qing Ya took off the bottle cap, and immediately, a fragrance fluttered out from the bottle.

Upon smelling the fragrance, the corner of Chu Bo's mouth twitched ardently.

Isn't this precisely the smell that jade immortal dew gives off?! Although I have only drunk a little bit of jade immortal dew in the past, the smell that jade immortal dew gives off is still fresh in my memory.

Chu Bo took a look at the small bottle that was on the auction stand, then looked towards the water bottle that Qing Ya had passed over to Donghuang Li. And in the next moment, he actually saw Donghuang Li straightforwardly drinking from the water bottle in big gulps.

Upon seeing half a bottle of jade immortal dew disappeared in just seconds, Chu Bo felt that his heart was aching.

"Aunt Qing, this water tastes very good, it tastes just like the water from Ah Li's home, you should drink some too." Donghuang Li passed the bottle over to Qing Yutong.

After taking over the bottle, Qing Yutong immediately began drinking from the bottle.

Not bad, this water tastes very sweet.

Looking at the empty bottle, Chu Bo was completely stupefied.

And yet, Qing Ya took out another bottle and placed it on the table, then said with a smile, "This water is good for quenching thirst, and it is also very effective in removing spiciness from the mouth."

My god! They are actually using jade immortal dew to quench their thirst and remove spiciness from their mouths!

Prodigal! They are truly prodigal! Such a thing like this can't be forgiven!

"Uncle, do you want a cup?" Donghuang Li asked with a smile.

“I...”

Seeing that Chu Bo was feeling embarrassed, Donghuang Li took the initiative to pour a cup of jade immortal dew for Chu Bo.

While pouring the jade immortal dew into a cup, Donghuang Li spilled a bit of the jade immortal dew onto the table, and upon seeing that, Chu Bo felt like crying.

“Thank you, Ah Li.” Chu Bo held onto the paper cup with both of his hands, seemingly as if he was holding onto an utmost treasure.

“You are welcome.” Donghuang Li smiled sweetly.

Looking at the cup of jade immortal dew that he was currently holding onto, Chu Bo couldn’t bear to drink it like how Ah Li and Qing Yutong drank it.

After hesitating for a moment, Chu Bo stretched out his tongue and licked onto the jade immortal dew.

This jade immortal dew tastes exactly as I remember...

And yet, this jade immortal dew is actually currently contained within a paper cup! This is basically an insult to the jade immortal dew!

Furthermore, so much of it was spilled onto the table!

With the jade immortal dew to remove the spiciness from their mouths, Qing Yutong and Donghuang Li began enjoying the spicy marinated duck meat.

Whenever they felt that it was getting too spicy for them, they would drink a mouthful of jade immortal dew, and immediately, they would feel incomparably refreshed.

“Big sister, this water is truly not bad, you should store some of it at home.”

Qing Ya said with a smile, “Alright, I will remember to store a barrel of the water at home.”

Chu Bo almost choked onto his own saliva.

A barrel of jade immortal dew... Can you all show some consideration for my feelings?

Ah... jade immortal dew tastes so good...

Covert appeared in everyone’s gaze as they looked at the small bottle of jade immortal dew, completely unaware of the fact that Qing Ya’s table was treating jade immortal dew as drinking water, and that Qing Ya was storing jade immortal dew in water bottles.

Even more, in the future, Qing Ya intends to store a barrel of jade immortal dew at home.

Seeing that the little fellow’s drinking speed was rather fast, Qing Ya took out all of the bottles of jade immortal dew that she had stored.

Looking at the few bottles of jade immortal dew on the table, Chu Bo has already gone numb.

This woman is very mysterious... No, I cannot say it like that, all of them are very mysterious!

"The starting bid for jade immortal dew is one spiritual stone!" The auctioneer shouted out.

Upon hearing that, everyone was confused, they didn't expect that this time's auction would be using spiritual stones.

One spiritual stone was roughly worth one million rmb.

In ordinary people's eyes, spiritual stones were merely stones and weren't worth any money, but to cultivators, spiritual stones were extremely useful.

Ye Xiao said with a slight smile, "The spiritual stones that are obtained in this auction will be converted into money and donated."

Chu He felt that Ye Xiao's motive was very unclear.

Spiritual stones are very scarce. Although spiritual stones have a price to them, there are very few people who would sell away their spiritual stones. After all, spiritual stones can be used for cultivating.

Could it be that, this Ye Xiao needs a large number of spiritual stones?

"10 spiritual stones!" Wang Dabao was the first to bid.

As expected of an extremely rich person, he immediately started off the bid with 10 spiritual stones.

In actuality, Wang Dabao was currently thinking in his mind, "If my wife were to drink it, she would become more beautiful, and then..."

How would Bai Cixin not know what her husband was currently thinking in his own mind? However, she didn't say anything and quietly watched the auction.

Upon hearing Wang Dabao's bidding amount, people began sighing.

This Wang Dabao is truly shameless, to actually raise the bid all the way to 10 spiritual stones in one go! Although 10 spiritual stones can be converted to 10 million rmb, if a person were to use 10 million rmb to try and buy 10 spiritual stones, who knows how long it would even take for that person to be able to buy all 10 spiritual stones?

Various family heads' wives began acting cute to them, promising them various kinds of alluring promises if they were able to obtain the jade immortal dew for them.

"20 spiritual stones!" Xiao Yi shouted out faintly.

Xiao Yi wanted to obtain the jade immortal dew for Shu Nan.

Shu Nan has been having it very hard during this period of time, having to run various errands for me, and even more, she was willing to die for me. How could I not pamper and cherish this adorable wife of mine? I definitely have to win the bid for jade immortal dew and give the jade immortal dew to Shu Nan!

While deshellng peanuts and reading a novel with a serious look on his face, Gui Chengren said to Tang Wushuang who didn't dare to bid for the jade immortal dew, "Wushuang, this bottle of jade immortal dew is very useful to you, it is able to have the effect of adding a finishing touch to something that is already beautiful.”

Add a finishing touch to something that is already beautiful?

Become even more like a woman...

Tang Wushuang began gasping heavily.

It is only a matter of time that I turn into a woman. Since that’s the case, if I am going to turn into a woman, I should turn into a woman who is beautiful!

“25 spiritual stones!” Tang Wushuang said while with his voice lowered.

Xiao Yi looked towards Tang Wushuang, he thought that Tang Wushuang was purposely going against him.

Seeing that the bidding price has already raised to 25 spiritual stones, some family heads have already given up. After all, 25 spiritual stones were already more or less half of how many spiritual stones they have!

For just a bottle of water, which could make a woman become more beautiful and remain youthful, all of the family heads felt that it wasn’t worth it to spend 25 spiritual stones.

However, that caused the family heads’ wives to become very unhappy.

“50 spiritual stones!” Wang Dabao shouted out imposingly.

50 spiritual stones were already the total amount of spiritual stones that some families possessed.

Everyone felt that Bai Family was indeed formidable, to actually possess so many spiritual stones.

Right when Xiao Yi was prepared to increase the bid amount, Shu Nan hurriedly pulled onto him, “Brother Xiao, don’t bid anymore, our family is currently under development and there are many more useful places to use the spiritual stones on.”

Indeed, take for example, if Xiao Family were to give a spiritual stone to another family, it would be counted as that family owes Xiao Family a debt of gratitude.

“Shu Nan, you have helped me so much, a few spiritual stones are nothing much compared to what you mean to me.” After finished speaking, Xiao Yi shouted out, “50 spiritual stones!”

Shu Nan was very touched, and she lightly leaned onto her husband.

Everyone felt that those three families seemed to be intending to have a fight with each other, and they felt that it would be best if they sat this one out.

“60 spiritual stones!” Chen Xuanzong suddenly shouted.

As for why he increased the bid amount, he did it because of Xiao Yi!

As long as I can make Xiao Yi suffer, paying a few spiritual stones mean nothing to me!

However, Chen Xuanzong didn't bring along with him a lot of spiritual stones when he returned to earth, and in actuality, he didn't expect that spiritual stones would be so scarce on earth.

Qing Yutong raised her head and drank another cup of jade immortal dew.

"I feel that I am about to become drunk." Qing Yutong was feeling a bit muddle-headed as she propped on her chin and said.

Qing Ya shook her head helplessly, and Donghuang Li could be seen to have already fallen asleep in her embrace.

Donghuang Li's face was red, making her look extremely adorable, and from time to time, she would purse her mouth.

The effects of Voidless Realm's spring water were indeed not bad, but if a person were to drink too much of it, the person would feel like they have become drunk.

A cup of Voidless Realm's spring water a day was enough to completely satisfy a person, and yet, because Qing Yutong and Donghuang Li used the spring water to remove spiciness from their mouths, each of them ended up drinking two bottles of the spring water.

Chu Bo has already finished drinking his cup of jade immortal dew, and currently, he was sneakily licking onto his cup, intending to not waste even a single drop of jade immortal dew.

Chapter 328: Voidless Realm

"65 spiritual stones!" Wang Dabao raised the bid amount again.

Everyone was incredibly surprised as they thought to themselves, "As expected of a prodigal."

Xiao Yi was intending to raise the bid amount again.

But this time, he was stopped by Shu Nan, "Brother Xiao, I know your feelings for me, but you cannot continue bidding anymore, it isn't worth it!"

"For you, anything is worth it." Xiao Yi said with deep affection.

"Brother Xiao, have you forgotten about Big Sister Nangong! Xiao Family is currently in a difficult time, you shouldn't spend resources on useless things like this jade immortal dew." Shu Nan had no choice but to bring up Nangong Xinyi, this was the only way to make Xiao Yi give up on the bidding.

Thinking back to Nangong Xinyi, who was currently still being kept frozen in his house's basement, Xiao Yi slowly lowered his hand, and a layer of mournfulness appeared on his tough-looking face.

"Brother Xiao, Big Sister Nangong would have also hoped that you would be able to bring Xiao Family to great heights."

Xiao Yi took in a deep breath, "I understand. Thank you, Shu Nan."

Shu Nan smiled sweetly in response.

Brother Xiao has changed a lot, he isn't as rushed as he used to be in the past, he has learned to endure.

"70 spiritual stones!" Tang Wushuang increased the bid amount once again.

Upon seeing that Xiao Yi was no longer bidding anymore, Chen Xuanzong stopped bidding too.

Right now, it was Wang Dabao vs Tang Wushuang.

Prodigal vs soldier king.

Incorrect, it should be, prodigal vs the soldier king who was about to turn into a woman soon.

Wang Dabao took a glance at Tang Wushuang who was sitting not far away from him, then shouted out coldly, "100 spiritual stones!"

Tang Wushuang's expression froze for a moment.

This is already one-third of the spiritual stones that my Tang Family possesses!

"101 spiritual stones."

Qing Yutong shouted out while feeling drunk.

Qing Ya pinched onto her little sister.

"Why are you even bidding, do you even have any spiritual stones?"

Qing Yutong stuck out her tongue, "I was drunk talking, that bid doesn't count..."

"102 spiritual stones!" Song Huang shouted out.

Upon seeing the Sage Doctor bid, everyone had a surprised look on their faces.

As expected of Sage Doctor, the moment he bids, he bids more than 100 spiritual stones.

Song Huang merely wanted to give Qing Yutong a lesson.

In any case, I merely added one spiritual stone to the bid amount, there's no way that Tang Family and Bai Family wouldn't continue bidding, right?

Right when Wang Dabao was intending to increase the bid amount once again, Bai Cixin said lightly, "That's enough."

Wang Dabao was an obedient boy, he was a man who listens to his wife.

Tang Wushuang was currently pondering.

One hundred spiritual stones are a huge sum, and I have to use spiritual stones too when I cultivate.

"102 spiritual stones one time!" The auctioneer began counting down.

Song Huang's expression was a bit strange.

What are you all doing? Go on and continue bidding!

I only added one spiritual stone to the bid amount and you all immediately stopped bidding? From the looks of it, you all are teaming up to mess around with me, aren't you!

“102 spiritual stones two times!”

“102 spiritual stones three times! Congratulations Sage Doctor Song Huang in winning the bid for jade immortal dew.”

An ardent round of applause began ringing out in the venue.

In response, Song Huang stood up from his seat and squeezed out a smile on his face, then cupped his hands at everyone.

And in actuality, Song Huang’s heart was in deep pain.

102 spiritual stones! After collecting for so long, I have only collected 103 spiritual stones!

And in the blink of an eye, I am left with only one spiritual stone!

This is all because of that Qing Yutong! This jinx! I must make her pay for my loss!

Even more, she is currently smiling and rejoicing at my misfortune! This simply can’t be tolerated!

“Mommy Qing, Ah Li feels very hot.” Donghuang Li who had her eyes closed mumbled.

Looking at Qing Yutong, her situation was the same as Donghuang Li, her forehead could be seen to have been filled with sweat.

Qing Ya had no choice but to take out the star clean fan that Ye Hua gave to her back then and lightly fanned the fan at Donghuang Li.

Donghuang Li felt a refreshing light breeze blowing onto her, and gradually, she fell back to sleep again.

Upon seeing her big sister took out the fan, Qing Yutong straightforwardly took out the gold delicate fan that her brother-in-law gave to her and immediately fanned the fan rapidly at herself, “I feel hot to death.”

It was fortunate that Ye Hua sealed the powers of the two fans, otherwise, with how Qing Yutong was currently fanning the fan, a huge disaster would have happened.

“Qing Yutong, do you have something that you are hiding from me?” Upon seeing her little sister took out the fan from nowhere, Qing Ya asked curiously.

Qing Yutong pouted her mouth and said, “Humph~ Who doesn’t have a few tricks up their sleeves?”

From the looks of it, this little sister of mine has been hiding her strength from me. Well, this is a good thing, lest I have to keep worrying about her.

Chu Bo already does not know just what to say anymore.

They... they are really people who others, including me, can’t afford to offend.

The auction was still going on, and everyone placed their gazes onto the second auction item.

When Qing Ya and Qing Yutong saw the second auction item, they couldn’t help but look at their own fan.

Why are today's auction items so similar to the things that I use!

The second auction item was a fan!

The elderly man could be heard saying unhurriedly, "The name of this fan is called ancient comb, and it is personally made by Family Head Ye. The feathers that are used belong to the feathers of a spiritual beast, and the framework is made using the skeleton of the spiritual beast. This fan has the effect of creating a cool breeze and making one's mind become relaxed. Furthermore, this fan itself is a spiritual tool and can be used in combat! The starting bid of this fan is one spiritual stone."

The two sisters took a look at their own fan, then continued fanning their own fan.

Spiritual beasts are nothing at all, back then at Voidless Realm, I have even seen before an ancient godly beast. Furthermore, these two fans are made using the parts of great desolate beasts, and great desolate beasts are existences that are even more powerful compared to ancient godly beasts.

Towards the fan that looked nice and was a spiritual tool itself, the family heads liked it a lot and they immediately began bidding for the fan.

However, to Bai Family, this spiritual tool was only so-so. After all, Bai Family already has the ancient godly item, Nine Demons Pagoda.

As for Xiao Yi, he possessed the ancient godly item, Xuan Yuan Sword. Therefore, he also wasn't interested in the fan.

Thus, in the end, a family head won the bid for the fan with 15 spiritual stones.

The auction was still going on, but Qing Ya and Qing Yutong were already feeling bored.

"Big sister, let's go back, I'm feeling tired already." Qing Yutong said as she let out a yawn.

Qing Ya was also feeling a bit tired already.

This auction is really boring, I don't understand what they are getting all excited for.

It was only natural for the family heads to be excited, after all, the items that were being auctioned were all rare items, and this kind of auction was only held once a year.

In order to raise the strength of their families, the family heads were giving it their all in bidding on the auction items.

However, right when the family heads were ardently bidding over a magical tool, an empty space within the air suddenly began distorting, and everyone raised their heads in confusion.

Qing Ya and Qing Yutong also looked curiously at the distorting space, and they seemed to intend to stay for a bit more and see what was going on.

When three figures walked out from the distorting space, the family heads were very confused, but Ye Xiao and Chu He immediately became startled and they could be seen hurriedly standing up from their seats and shouting out while with their hands cupped, "This humble one pays respect to Voidless Realm's envoy!"

The venue immediately turned silent for a moment, no one expected that Voidless Realm would show up here.

Soon after, everyone hurriedly cupped their hands and shouted out, "This humble one pays respect to Voidless Realm's envoy!"

Qing Ya was very surprised, she didn't expect that Voidless Realm would show up here.

I have come across this person once, he seems to be the one who evaluates the aristocratic families. Back then when Baizhi summoned him, I was present at the scene too. His position in Voidless Realm is just below of Yuan De and the other elders.

Three figures, an elderly man and two youngsters, were standing within the air. The elderly man's hair was white, and he was wearing a white moon robe. Although his eyes were squinted, shrewdness could be seen to be contained within his eyes.

The two youngsters who were standing behind the elderly man were most likely bodyguards, they were wearing white color armor and were currently sweeping their eyes over everyone while with a cold look on their faces.

While Yu Quan was increasing his prestige by sweeping his eyes over everyone while with a cold look on his face, his eyes swept over someone who he shouldn't have swept over, and he almost lost grip of the crutch that he was holding onto.

It is actually the empress's sister! Just now, I actually swept my eyes over her while with such a cold look on my face, that was simply unforgivable of me!

I must go and pay my respect to her right now and implore for her forgiveness.

Qing Ya seemed to know Yu Quan's intentions and she hurriedly transmitted over to him, "Pretend to not know me, you can go on and continue with whatever that you have to do."

Qing Ya didn't want her identity to get revealed, and it was mainly because she was afraid that others would fawn upon her father, and with how her father was, her father wouldn't realize it even if he got sold out by others.

Upon receiving Qing Ya's transmission, Yu Quan was able to finally put his mind at ease.

If the empress were to blame me for what I just did, the punishment that I would get would definitely not be light.

Chapter 329: Mysterious woman

All of the family heads had a surprised look on their faces.

For Voidless Realm to show up here, what exactly is going on?

However, no matter what is going on, to be able to meet with people who are from Voidless Realm, I have no regrets left in my life!

Although those three people are merely standing within the air and aren't doing anything, the auras that they are emitting out are indeed very frightening. The three of them are just like three high and mighty deities, and even Ye Xiao and Chu He also have to be respectful towards them!

If Voidless Realm's empress were to show up, how spectacle would the scene be, and just how much of an honor would it have been for me to be able to be in front of the empress's presence! If I'm able to even take a look at the empress, this life of mine would have practically been worth it!

However, those people would never know that the empress was currently lying within Ye Hua's embrace, and Ye Hua's hands were even stretched into the empress's nightclothes.

Even when Donghuang Baizhi was asleep, her pretty face could be seen to be a bit red.

Xiao Yi and Bai Cixin seemed to know what was going to happen today.

It is no wonder that Ye Xiao would take the initiative to invite us over to the auction, so today is the day that Voidless Realm is going to announce the sixth aristocratic family!

"By the empress's order, I should announce the family who is going to become the sixth aristocratic family!" Yu Quan, who was standing within the air, shouted out.

Yu Quan's imposing voice made the family heads to not dare to raise their head and look straight at Yu Quan.

However, upon thinking that they were going to be able to witness the birth of another aristocratic family, everyone was feeling very excited.

This is a historical moment that I am about to witness!

This sixth aristocratic family is going to be either Xiao Family or Bai Family, and I personally feel that Bai Family is most likely going to be the victor.

However, there is also a chance for a miracle to happen. After all, Xiao Yi's individual strength is very formidable!

Ye Xiao floated to the front of Yu Quan and said respectfully, "Envoy, how about taking a seat and having a drink first? The auction is about to come to an end soon, and I have already prepared a drink for you too."

It was only natural that Ye Xiao was going to fawn upon the envoy. After all, if the envoy were to be willing to say a few good words about Ye Family to the empress, it would be a great help to Ye Family.

Yu Quan disdained to drink the beverage that Ye Xiao has prepared for him, and he also couldn't be bothered to wait for the so-called auction to come to an end first before making his announcement.

Since Voidless Realm is here, whatever event that is going on at the venue should naturally come to a stop!

However, today's situation is a bit different, the empress's best friend is present at the venue. Perhaps, she is here to attend the auction?

I have already been disrespectful towards her just now, if I were to spoil her mood by stopping the auction, wouldn't I be basically adding fire to fuel?

Yu Quan nodded his head in response to Ye Xiao.

I will just wait for the auction to end before I make my announcement.

Ye Xiao became exulted.

It is great as long as I am able to have the chance to have a chat with this envoy. Later on, I will ask if this envoy has anything that he wants, and I will try my best to get him what he wants.

"Envoy, please follow me." Ye Xiao said respectfully.

Yu Quan said indifferently, "Just get me a seat at that spot will do."

Ye Xiao looked towards the direction that Yu Quan was looking at, and he discovered that the spot Yu Quan was looking at was right beside the two women.

What is the situation?

Although Ye Xiao was confused, he still said hurriedly, "Envoy, that spot is not suitable for someone of your status."

The empress's best friend is sitting right over there, if I were to sit at the seat that you have arranged for me, it would mean that I am being disrespectful to her! Are you trying to bring harm to me!

"Ye Xiao! When has it been up to you to make decisions for me?!" Yu Quan questioned coldly.

Ye Xiao's heart sunk, he completely did not understand why the envoy suddenly became angry.

Ye Xiao hurriedly said, "Envoy, I understand, I will immediately get a seat at that spot for you!"

Everyone was able to see that the two were speaking to each other, but they didn't know the content of their conversation. However, from Ye Xiao's expression, they were able to make out that Ye Xiao was feeling very terrified!

Very quickly, the attendants set up a table right beside Qing Ya's table, and furthermore, the table was situated at the same level as Qing Ya's table.

Yu Quan landed beside his table, and upon seeing that his table was situated at the same level as the empress's best friend's table, he almost shouted out, "Fools, all of you are trying to harm me!"

"The two of you, move the table backward by a bit."

The two bodyguards recognized Qing Ya, and upon seeing Qing Ya, the two of them almost knelt down to Qing Ya. Fortunately, the two were stopped by Yu Quan.

Immediately, the two moved the table backward by a bit.

Seeing that his table was now situated a bit behind Qing Ya's table, Yu Quan finally put his mind at ease and sat down on his seat.

After sitting down on his seat, Yu Quan raised his hand, signaling for the auction to continue.

However, Yu Quan's action caused everyone at the venue to become incomparably shocked.

Why did the people from Voidless Realm want to sit next to that beautiful woman? Just who is that beautiful woman!

This woman is truly mysterious.

Furthermore, looking at the attitude of those people from Voidless Realm, they seem to be very respectful towards the beautiful woman! This is truly mystical!

Song Huang was currently a bit stupefied.

Why did Voidless Realm's envoy choose to sit beside them? Is he trying to express something with his action?

Many people were thinking the same as Song Huang.

Indeed, is the envoy trying to express something with his action? Could it be that, this woman is actually someone from Voidless Realm?

Chen Xuanzong was very surprised too.

I have heard about this Voidless Realm not too long ago and its strength seems to be very formidable. Originally, I thought that cultivating up to a demon emperor was more or less enough for me to dominate over everyone, but I didn't expect that this world would have changed so much, and right now, having the strength of a demon emperor is not enough to dominate over this world!

Xiao Yi and Shu Nan were both deep in contemplation, the size of the information that they just learned of was too big.

Bai Cixin was also deep in contemplation.

From the looks of it, this woman is not simple at all!

Ye Xiao who was at the main platform did not have a good look on his face. After all, he had just been rebuked by Yu Quan and ended up giving Yu Quan a bad impression of him.

However, what is the reason that caused me to get rebuked by the envoy? There should be a reason for why he rebuked me, right?

"Brother Ye, what's going on? This envoy's actions are very strange." Chu He asked with a low voice.

This Voidless Realm's envoy has been acting very strange.

Ye Xiao shook his head, expressing that he had no idea what was going on.

Could it be that this elderly man took a fancy for those two women and wants to bring those two women back with him to Voidless Realm?

Upon seeing Donghuang Li who was within Qing Ya's embrace, Yu Quan became startled.

So, the Little Highness is here too...

From the looks of it, the empress has already become sisters with this female best friend of hers, or else, how would the empress have been able to put her mind at ease and let this woman take care of the Little Highness.

It is fortunate that I swept over the venue just now, if not, it would have been bad if I didn't notice that she was present at the venue!

Chu Bo was currently sitting upright in his seat, not daring to have the slightest movement at all.

Never in my dreams would I have expected that a big shot from Voidless Realm would be sitting right beside me, my head is feeling a bit giddy!

The auction was gradually coming to an end, and Bai Cixin seemed to be a bit nervous.

Whether if my Bai Family will be able to promote into an aristocratic family will all depend on tonight!

Tonight was going to be the night where Bai Family's fate was going to be decided!

Bai Cixin was an ambitious woman, her goal was not only to rise into the ranks of the aristocratic families!

And instead, her goal was to rise into the ranks of the big powers!

It has to be known that, one of the three big powers had been exterminated, thus, shouldn't an aristocratic family rise and take over the vacant spot, restoring the big powers from two big powers to back to three big powers?

With Voidless Realm present at the venue, the family heads were evidently feeling very excited, and the last few auction items ended up being bid way over the prices that they were worth.

Ye Xiao stood up from his seat and said with a smile, "Tonight's auction has come to an end, right now, we will have Voidless Realm's envoy announce north's sixth aristocratic family!"

Yu Quan didn't walk to the middle of the venue, and instead, he straightforwardly stood up from his seat and intended to make his announcement right at his current spot.

If a person were to observe attentively, they would discover that Yu Quan was standing behind Qing Ya.

From this, it was enough to understand Yu Quan's attitude towards Qing Ya.

However, Chu Bo, who was at the side, was feeling very nervous, and he didn't notice that.

As for the others, because of the distance, or because of the angle, they weren't able to see very clearly, and thus weren't able to notice that too. Furthermore, even if they had noticed it, they wouldn't put much thought into it.

Right when Yu Quan was about to announce the sixth aristocratic family, Xiao Yi suddenly stood up and shouted out, "My Xiao Family will withdraw from this time's competition!"

You Cannot Afford To Offend My Woman

Chapter 330: Full of changes

Xiao Yi's action caused an uproar in the entire venue.

Right when the announcement is about to be announced, Xiao Yi actually declared that his family will be withdrawing from the competition?

Did he know that his family wasn't going to be able to win and thus he took the initiative to withdraw from the competition so that he can save some face for himself? Or perhaps, does he have other motives for his action?

Everyone wasn't able to understand Act Cool King Xiao Yi's action, after all, withdrawing from something wasn't Act Cool King Xiao Yi's style.

Back then when this Xiao Yi was fighting over the Xuan Yuan Sword, he was extremely ruthless and resolute, he was practically willing to kill everyone who was standing in his path for the Xuan Yuan Sword.

I didn't expect that this Xiao Yi would change so much after that big incident that his Xiao Family went through, it is as if he has changed into a completely different person.

However, the current Xiao Yi is much more frightening. Even if a lion were to become injured, it is still a lion, and after the lion's injuries have healed, the lion would still be the hegemon of the area that he rules over.

Bai Cixin was very confused too.

Although Xiao Family's strength as an entire whole is not equal to my Bai Family, Xiao Yi's own individual strength is relatively stronger than both me and Wang Dabao's individual strength.

There is still a chance for Xiao Family to be able to win this competition and be promoted into an aristocratic family, and yet, he actually chose to withdraw from the competition! He is definitely plotting something!

Bai Cixin's brows were tightly wrinkled, she had an ominous feeling about what was happening.

"Wife, it is very suspicious for this Xiao Yi to suddenly withdraw from the competition out of the blue." Wang Dabao said in a low voice.

Bai Cixin let out a heavy sigh, "That's right, this Xiao Yi is acting differently from the Xiao Yi that I knew! He has become much more calm-minded and formidable than he used to be!"

From the looks of it, Bai Cixin was going to have to re-evaluate Xiao Yi.

However, as for now, Bai Cixin was finally able to put her mind at ease since it was definite that her Bai Family was going to win the competition.

Qing Ya and Qing Yutong were very confused too.

Why did this Xiao Yi suddenly withdraw from the competition? This is a great chance for him, isn't it? Yu Quan still hasn't announced the victor, so it is practically a 50-50 chance situation, isn't it? Furthermore, even if he failed to win this time's competition, there is still next time, right?

However, what Qing Ya did not know was that Ye Hua has already given his order, thus, how would Xiao Yi dare to not obey Ye Hua's order?

Yu Quan looked at Xiao Yi and asked gravely, "Xiao Yi! You have to think it through, if you take the initiative to withdraw from the competition, you won't be able to qualify to enter into the competition again in the future!"

"Envoy, I have already thought everything through!" Xiao Yi's tone was very resolute, and this caused everyone to feel that Xiao Yi's decision wasn't made on the fly and the decision was made after much thought.

This was the first time that Yu Quan has seen a family taking the initiative to withdraw from the competition.

After all, if Ye Xiao were to become an aristocratic family head, it would practically mean that the big powers were the only powers that he would have to bow his head down to.

Gui Chengren who was sitting beside Tang Wushuang said faintly, "Fk, I have finished reading up to the latest chapter again, this damned author actually dares to leave me hanging on a cliffhanger!"

"Master, disciple will go and capture that author for you." Tang Wushuang said respectfully.

Gui Chengren nodded his head, "After capturing him, break both of his legs, then lock him up in a room and make him focus on writing his novel. Also, he is only allowed one meal a day!"

"Alright."

After keeping away his phone, Gui Chengren looked towards Voidless Realm's Yu Quan, then asked Tang Wushuang, "Is that person from Voidless Realm?"

"That's right, master." There was envy in Tang Wushuang's gaze.

If I had an ancient godly item, I would have been able to join in on the competition too.

Gui Chengren paused for a moment, then asked, "Just now, did that Xiao Yi say that he will be withdrawing from the competition?"

"En." Tang Wushuang was very confused about Xiao Yi's action.

Since you didn't intend to fight over the chance to promote your family into an aristocratic family, why didn't you give the Xuan Yuan Sword to me back then? With the Xuan Yuan Sword, I would have been able to join into the competition.

"Do you want to try and compete with Bai Family?" Gui Chengren kept away the frivolous look that was on his face and asked solemnly.

Tang Wushuang became stupefied for a moment, then soon after, his eyes lighted up.

Could it be that, master intends to...

"Disciple does indeed want to try and compete with Bai Family!"

Gui Chengren smiled, and after patting onto Tang Wushuang's shoulder, he flipped over his hand, and on his hand appeared the dagger that pierced through Xiao Yi back then!

“Master! Didn’t you say that this ancient godly item was lent to you by someone else?” Tang Wushuang cried out in surprise.

Gui Chengren laughed lightly, “My foolish disciple, which family would dare to anyhow lend away their ancient godly item?”

That’s true, the aristocratic families treat their ancient godly items as utmost treasures, so how would they ever be willing to anyhow lend away their ancient godly items?

However, if master possesses an ancient godly item, why didn’t he form his own family?

Furthermore, with master’s strength, isn’t becoming an aristocratic family a very simple thing for him to do so? So, why does he want to help me instead? Strange... this is very strange.

“Wushuang, master is only able to help you up to this point, the rest is up to you!” Gui Chengren’s gaze was deep, and only he himself knows why he was doing this.

Tang Wushuang took over the ancient godly item with both of his hands, then said sincerely, “Disciple will never forget about master’s kindness towards disciple!”

“Very good, I hope, in the future, you will still remember what you have just said!”

“Yes!”

Tang Wushuang was indeed very grateful to his master, if not for his master, he would have long lost his will to continue fighting on and would have just lived the rest of his life in despair.

Right now, not only has his master taught him the martial technique that he was currently cultivating, but his master also gave him an ancient godly item, allowing him to be qualified to join into the competition to promote his family into an aristocratic family.

Tang Wushuang was truly indebted to his master.

“However, master, isn’t it too late for me to join into the competition now?” Tang Wushuang was a bit worried, after all, the reason Voidless Realm showed up here today was to announce the competition’s result.

Gui Chengren turned his phone back on again and began searching for other novels to read, “As long as you possess an ancient godly item, you are able to join into the competition so long as the result still hasn’t been announced!”

Upon hearing what his master said, Tang Wushuang felt reassured.

Tang Family will definitely rise to great heights by my hands!

Upon hearing Xiao Yi’s confirmation, Yu Quan let out a breath, “Since Xiao Family has withdrawn from the competition, north’s sixth aristocratic family will...”

Before Yu Quan finished his sentence, a loud voice suddenly rang out.

“My Tang Family wants to join into the competition too!”

Yu Quan wrinkled his brows as he looked towards Tang Wushuang who had stood up from his seat.

Qing Ya and Qing Yutong looked toward Tang Wushuang too.

Things are happening one after another. First, it was Xiao Yi announcing that he will be withdrawing from the competition, and now, this Tang Wushuang who doesn't possess an ancient godly item actually boldly said that he wants to join into the competition too... Does this Tang Wushuang not know that the consequences of his action will be very grave?

If it was placed in the past, Qing Ya may perhaps feel astonished, after all, big families and aristocratic families were involved.

However, it was different now, and it was all thanks to Ye Hua.

If Ye Hua didn't appear, Qing Ya wouldn't have experienced a lot of the things that she had experienced, and there was no way that she could have entered into the social circle that she was in right now. Even more, she would have felt proud if she were able to show up at today's auction.

Thinking about it, life was truly full of changes.

Ye Xiao and Chu He both stood up at the same time, they were both shocked by this sudden change of event.

And the person who was even more shocked was Bai Cixin. Right when the promotion to an aristocratic family has already been handed into her hands, a sudden change of event happened.

Xiao Yi was also looking in disbelief at Tang Wushuang.

Has this guy gone mad from thinking about becoming an aristocratic family?! To actually dare to say that when he doesn't possess an ancient godly item! Right now, I don't even have to do anything and this Tang Wushuang will be eliminated by Voidless Realm!

The family heads that were present at the venue were shocked too.

This Tang Wushuang is really tired of living, to actually talk big in front of Voidless Realm! Does he not know that this is enough of an offense to get his family exterminated?!

Wang Dabao felt that he was going to explode from anger.

We went to great difficulty to obtain an ancient godly item, and right when we were almost about to achieve our goal, everything was thrown into disarray by this Tang Wushuang!

Immediately, Wang Dabao jumped up from his seat and shouted at Tang Wushuang, "Tang Wushuang, you loser, do you even have an ancient godly item! Do you know the consequences of lying to Voidless Realm?!"

Tang Wushuang looked coldly at Wang Dabao, "When has it been up to a southerner's turn to butt into our north's matters, married-in groom!"

"You!!!" Wang Dabao was actually left speechless!

Qing Ya silently thought to herself, "If this Tang Wushuang was just merely talking big, he is going to have to be prepared to be destroyed by Voidless Realm. After all, rules are rules."

“Tang Wushuang! Do you know...” Before Yu Quan even finished speaking his sentence, Tang Wushuang kneeled onto the floor with both of his legs and held up the ancient godly item with both of his hands.

The ancient godly item’s aura swept through the entire venue, and this caused everyone at the venue to become stupefied!

When did this Tang Wushuang obtain an ancient godly item?!

Bai Cixin clenched her fists tightly.

Meanwhile, when Xiao Yi saw that dagger, killing intent began emitting out from his entire body.

Chen Xuanzong began sizing up the relationships of those people.

The enemies of my enemy are my friends.

Yu Quan waved his hand, and immediately, the ancient godly item that was on Tang Wushuang’s hands floated over to him.

When Yu Quan saw the dagger, his pupils dilated.

This... this is actually the ancient godly item that went missing a hundred years ago, Mound Pierce!

This ancient godly item originally belonged to Dongfang Family, it has disappeared for a hundred years, and yet, it actually appeared again right at this moment!
