

My Woman 341

Chapter 341: Exposed

Xiao Yi gradually kept away his fierce aura, however, within Qing Ya's eyes, Xiao Yi was pretending to stay calm, and even more, she felt that what Xiao Yi was going to say next would most probably be fake.

"CEO Qing, I'm very sorry regarding that matter, it is my fault for not fulfilling my promise on time, I hope that CEO Qing would be magnanimous enough to forgive my mistake." While speaking, Xiao Yi even stood up and cupped his hands at Qing Ya to express his apology.

Not only did Xiao Yi lose money from the bet, had his wife get forced to death, and had to be ordered by his enemy, right now, he even had to apologize for this matter!

Just what happened to this world?

Originally, Qing Ya was just merely curious and wanted to see just what Ye Hua did to cause those people who originally looked down on her to suddenly become so respectful towards her.

Of course, within Qing Ya's heart, she was happy about what Ye Hua did, after all, Ye Hua did it for her, so that she wouldn't receive harm or get looked down on by others.

To be able to have such a caring husband, Qing Ya felt that she was very fortunate.

However, from the looks of things, Qing Ya felt that things weren't that simple.

Upon thinking of Ye Hua's strength, Qing Ya thought to herself, "Could it be that, he used violence? Ye Hua may have used violence against Xiao Family, and the others were scared by Ye Hua's violence against Xiao Family."

Qing Ya didn't want to continue on probing on the matter anymore, because she was afraid of knowing some things that weren't pleasant. After all, after awakening her blood vessels, Qing Ya obtained a strange sense of benevolence, or perhaps, a strange sense of pity towards others.

Protecting the living was a duty of Nuwa's descendants. Nuwa's descendants wouldn't show any mercy toward the wicked, but toward people who were weak, they would feel pity for them.

Therefore, Qing Ya didn't want to continue probing on the matter anymore.

Standing up from her seat, Qing Ya said with a smile, "CEO Xiao, you are being too serious, that matter is already a matter of the past. I still have things back home that I have to get back to, so I should stop bothering you anymore and take my leave."

"CEO Qing, let me see you off." Xiao Yi said with a forced smile on his face.

Qing Ya nodded her head.

However, right when Qing Ya was about to leave!

Yu Qi suddenly knelt down on the floor and pleaded, "CEO Qing! Please save our Xiao Family!"

Seeing that a pregnant woman was kneeling down on the floor and pleading with her, Qing Ya's expression changed.

Just what happened for those people to be so afraid? Looking at the frightened look that is currently on their faces, it seemed as if they had just witnessed something scary.

“Yu Qi! What are you doing! Quickly get up!” Xiao Yi straightforwardly shouted out coldly.

Yu Qi’s action is no different from self-immolation! The situation right now is very evident, Qing Ya doesn’t know about those matters at all!

If the mastermind really is the Leisure Bar’s boss, it means that he has been keeping everything a secret from Qing Ya.

But with Yu Qi’s kneel, everything will become exposed.

Why did that boss want to keep everything a secret from this Qing Ya? Isn’t it basically because he was afraid of letting Qing Ya know of the dark things that happened?

If Qing Ya ends up finding out what happened, our Xiao Family is going to have to face against frightening consequences.

Thinking up to here, Xiao Yi and Shu Nan didn’t dare to continue thinking about what would happen!

However, as far as it was concerned to Yu Qi, what other choice did she have?

She was just an ordinary woman who was pregnant with a child.

During this period of time, she had been very scared and on edge, afraid that what happened on that night would happen again.

It was fine if she died, but she was worried about her own child. As a mother, it wasn’t wrong for her to beg for her unborn baby’s life, right?

“Yu Qi, quickly get up!” Shu Nan hurriedly persuaded.

Yu Qi, don’t speak anymore!

In actuality, Yu Qi who was on edge all day long was already a bit depressed. Yu Qi straightforwardly knelt to the front of Qing Ya and grabbed onto Qing Ya’s ankle, “CEO Qing, I’m begging you, please spare my child’s life, the child is innocent.”

Xiao Yi shouted out gravely, “You all, quickly bring Yu Qi back to her room to rest!”

Xiao Yi’s wives stood up, but suddenly, all of them knelt down on the floor and pleaded, “CEO Qing, I beg you, please spare our Xiao Family.”

Xiao Yi and Shu Nan were dazed.

Same as Yu Qi, Xiao Yi’s other wives have been feeling very scared too, they were afraid that something bad would happen to their husband.

Now that Qing Ya was here, they have their hope placed on Qing Ya. They thought that as long as they begged Qing Ya, those bad people wouldn’t make things difficult for Xiao Family anymore.

However, they were totally oblivious to the fact that Ye Hua didn't tell any of the matters that happened to Qing Ya, and he also doesn't intend to tell Qing Ya.

To Ye Hua, it was already lenient of him to not have massacred the entire Xiao Family. Even more, he felt that there was no need in telling Qing Ya about such a small thing like this.

Looking at the actions of Xiao Yi's wives, Qing Ya's willow brows became tightly wrinkled.

Just what horrible thing did Ye Hua do to actually make them kneel down and beg me to spare their family!

It is no wonder that Xiao Yi would act so respectfully towards me, I finally understand why now.

"All of you, get up from the floor." Qing Ya said gravely.

Xiao Yi's wives were crying endlessly. The life of living under heavy pressure has placed a huge strain on their mental.

Qing Ya sat on the seat that was at the side, and Xiao Yi sat on the main seat while with a grave look on his face.

What other choice did he have right now? Now that the situation has been exposed, all he could do was to rely on Qing Ya.

"Just what happened?" Qing Ya asked faintly.

Everyone remained silent and looked at Xiao Yi.

Xiao Yi took in a deep breath, then opened his eyes that had become bloodshot, "This matter began from that bet."

Qing Ya nodded her head. Indeed, it all began from that bet.

"CEO Qing, originally, I wasn't intending on paying up the money that I lost from the bet, and because of that, someone came to my house to collect the debt. That person had a battle with me, and it ended with me losing. In the end, not only did I pay up the money, but I also ended up paying a life as interest!" Xiao Yi said with a relaxed tone, but when he recalled the death of his beloved wife, his heart felt like it was being sliced by a knife.

Qing Ya was very shocked, and she was in disbelief, "The life was Nangong Xinyi's life?"

Xiao Yi nodded his head, "My beloved wife was forced to death by him. He said that this was the interest and told me to pick one of my wives to die."

The sound of the women weeping began ringing out in the main hall.

Just how sad and helpless were they back then? They had to watch as Nangong Xinyi die in front of them.

Qing Ya was very shocked.

It is normal to collect debt, but to actually force a person to death, I'm a bit unable to bear such a thing like this.

“Who is the ‘he’ that you all are referring to?” Qing Ya was a bit nervous.

Please don’t be Ye Hua, Ye Hua wouldn’t do such an outrageous act like this.

Xiao Yi didn’t shoot his mouth off, “A skeleton that wore a black robe.”

Qing Ya let out a breath of relief.

It is fortunate that it is not Ye Hua. Although my Ye Hua likes to act cool, he wouldn’t go as far as to do such a thing like that.

“There was also a lump of black fog.” Yu Qi added.

“A lump of black fog?” Qing Ya said in confusion.

Xiao Yi explained, “That lump of black fog seemed to be the black robed’s master. They...”

Xiao Yi hurriedly held back his tongue.

I can’t say anymore already.

“What about them!” Qing Ya questioned coldly.

“They are very strong, but they seem to take orders from someone else.” Right now, all Xiao Yi could do was to place all of his hope on Qing Ya.

Without even Xiao Yi saying who that “someone else” was, Qing Ya was still able to guess it.

Back then, Ye Hua brought back all of those transfer agreement documents, which meant that, the person that is behind those people is most likely Ye Hua!

Right now, Qing Ya was feeling very complicated, she did not know what she should do.

Why would Ye Hua use this kind of method to collect the debt? Is this still the Ye Hua that I know?

Isn’t he just someone who likes to smoke, drink beer, and brag?

Why would he choose to force a woman to death? Even more, a mother?

Qing Ya really couldn’t understand why.

“What else did this black robed do?” Qing Ya asked gravely.

“The reason I withdrew from the aristocratic family election this time was because of the black robed’s order.” Xiao Yi said bluntly.

Why didn’t this Xiao Yi tell Qing Ya about the matter of the black robed helping him? Does Xiao Yi even know the consequences of defaming Ye Hua?

At this moment, Qing Ya had no idea just what Ye Hua was trying to do.

Chapter 342: Family crisis incoming

"I heard that this black robed even did an improper act to Cloud Sect's sect master, causing Cloud Sect's sect master to get chased out of Cloud Sect. Furthermore, the black robed was also present back then when an ancient godly item appeared in the south."

An improper act?

Qing Ya's expression turned grave.

Not only did Ye Hua's subordinate force a mother to death, but his subordinate also brought harm to a woman?

Does this matter have anything to do with Ye Hua or not? Is it just his subordinate one-sidedly acting outrageously, or did that subordinate gotten Ye Hua's permission to act as he did?

Qing Ya would rather believe that everything was that black robed's own doings, and Ye Hua was unaware of what the black robed had done!

"I got it, you all can put your minds at ease, I will handle it." Qing Ya appeared to have a lot on her mind, and after she finished speaking, she left the main hall.

Xiao Yi hurriedly followed after Qing Ya and went to see Qing Ya off.

At the gate, Xiao Yi was feeling very complicated as he watched Qing Ya drive off in her car.

Xiao Yi really wasn't sure if placing Xiao Family's hope on Qing Ya was right or wrong, but in any case, Xiao Family's fate was hanging on a thread once again.

Qing Ya didn't go straight home, instead, she went and bought a roast duck before heading back home.

"Big sister, why did you take so long just to buy a roast duck, we are already about to starve to death." Qing Yutong who was hugging onto Ah Li said mischievously.

While looking at Qing Yutong, the two mothers shook their heads. This child is already this big, and yet she still behaves like a child.

"Aunt Qing, Ah Li's stomach is about to shrivel from hunger." Donghuang Li rubbed onto her small stomach and giggled.

Qing Ya laughed, "Come, let Aunt Qing touch Ah Li's stomach and see if it's true. There was a traffic jam just now, that's why it took a bit long."

Qing Yutong rolled her eyes at her big sister, "The traffic jam went on for 2 hours? You didn't go and secretly met up with your secret lover, right?"

Qing Ya knocked onto her sister's head, "Go and eat your roast duck."

On the other hand, Zi Han's eyes lighted up.

Could it be that, she went and met up with Chen Xuanzong?

Upon returning home, Qing Ya appeared very normal and there wasn't any peculiarity in her behavior.

And that was because Qing Ya currently felt that Ye Hua was wrongly accused. She knew that Ye Hua wouldn't do such a thing like that!

However, she didn't dare to go and directly question Ye Hua, she was afraid that she would receive a different answer, and at that time, she really wouldn't know just what she should do.

Just like this, time went by one day after another.

In the blink of an eye, a week had passed.

Ye Tai and Song Huang still haven't been found, no one knows where they ran to, it was as if the two of them just disappeared completely from thin air. This caused Ye Family's family head to feel a bit uneasy.

Meanwhile, Voidless Realm issued the outcome, they will be allowing Tang Family to join in on the aristocratic family election, and this caused Bai Family to go mad with anger.

In order to prevent casualties from happening, Voidless Realm warned both Tang and Bai Family that before the result comes out, both families weren't allowed to get into any fights, whichever family that dares to go against their warning will get withdrawn from the aristocratic family election.

To Tang Family, that was a good thing, but to Bai Family, that warning practically made their situation become even worse.

As for Qing Ya, originally, she said that she would return home after a week, but even after a week had passed, she still hasn't returned home.

Qing Yutong had even urged Qing Ya a few times to return back home, but Qing Ya would always say, "Let's stay for a bit more and accompany our parents."

But in actuality, it was because Qing Ya didn't dare to go back home.

Recently, Ye Zizi has become a lot more well-behaved. She hasn't been late to school and also hasn't caused any trouble at school. This caused Ye Hua to become rather happy as he thought to himself, "Ye Zizi has grown up."

However, Ye Hua was currently feeling a bit gloomy.

This Qing Ya, she doesn't even intend to come back home anymore after she went to her parents' house.

However, with Donghuang Baizhi there to accompany him every day, Ye Hua's mood was able to become slightly better. Just that, their plan to have another child still hasn't been carried out yet.

Right now, Ye Hua didn't feel that urgent to make another child, but Donghuang Baizhi, on the other hand, was starting to feel urgent.

Within a day, she would at least ask Ye Hua two times, "Ye Hua, when are we going to start making another child?"

And Ye Hua was very cocky as he looked at the empress who was requesting to make a child, "I'm precisely going to take my time and make you feel urgent."

During this day, Ye Hua really couldn't take it anymore and he took his phone and gave Qing Ya a call.

"You have to come back home today, or else I will come over and capture you back home!" Ye Hua issued an irrefutable order. It has already been half a month since he last saw Qing Ya, and he was sort of missing Qing Ya already.

Upon hearing Ye Hua's familiar voice, Qing Ya said tenderly, "Alright, alright, alright, we will come back home today."

"That's more like it. We will be eating crayfish tonight."

Qing Ya, "....."

After keeping away his phone, Ye Hua laughed lightly, evidently being in a good mood.

I will watch the television for a bit, then head over to the airport to pick them up.

Donghuang Baizhi walked over to Ye Hua's back, then stretched out and placed her delicate hands on Ye Hua's shoulders, "Is Qing Ya preparing to come back home?"

"En, if she still doesn't come back home, I would be personally going over to capture her back home!" Ye Hua said with a faint smile.

Donghuang Baizhi said tenderly, "Alright, I'm feeling jealous now~"

"Oh? The empress is feeling jealous? Let me take a look, I want to see just how the empress looks when she is feeling jealous."

"Annoying~"

While speaking, Ye Hua embraced the empress and began caressing the empress.

Meanwhile, the empress was very vexed.

This Ye Hua, he keeps on igniting my flame, but doesn't extinguish the flame that he ignites, he always stops halfway...

When Donghuang Li found out that they were going to be going back home, she appeared to be very happy. She has been staying at Zijin City for quite a while already and she misses her daddy and mommy.

Both Zi Han and Wang Muqing were helpless toward the fact that their daughters were going to be returning back to the south.

Zi Han and Wang Muqing saw their daughters off at the airport and they were very reluctant to part with their daughters. After all, the next time where their daughters would come back home would probably be during the new year.

At the other side, Ye Hua and Donghuang Baizhi came to Long'an City's airport to pick up Qing Ya and the others.

When Ye Hua saw Qing Ya, Qing Yutong, and Ah Li walking out of the airport, a light smile appeared on his face.

It has been half a month since I last saw Qing Ya, and she is still as pretty as usual. Her stomach is slightly bulging now too.

“Daddy~ Mommy~” When Donghuang Li saw her parents, she dashed over like a superheroine, then jumped directly into Ye Hua’s embrace.

While hugging his daughter, Ye Hua asked lightly, “Has Ah Li been obedient during this half a month?”

“En, Ah Li has been very obedient.” While speaking, Ah Li kissed onto her father’s cheek, then stretched out her hands toward her mother.

Donghuang Baizhi carried over her daughter, and the two began chatting with each other.

Meanwhile, Ye Hua looked towards Qing Ya.

Aren’t you going to come over to my embrace yet?

Qing Ya slowly walked over to the front of her husband, then hugged onto her husband and said tenderly, “Ye Hua, I missed you so much.”

This was most possibly the longest time the two had been separated from each other.

While hugging lightly onto Qing Ya, Ye Hua said tenderly, “I missed you too.”

Listening to Ye Hua’s tone, Qing Ya felt a bit more at ease. After all, a man who possesses love wouldn’t be able to do such a horrible thing.

Qing Yutong, who was standing at the side, was feeling very unhappy.

Why isn’t anyone welcoming me? They are being too heartless.

Seeing that his sister-in-law was sulkily standing at the side, Ye Hua let go of his lovely wife, then opened his arms to his sister-in-law.

Don’t misunderstand, this is just merely a brother-in-law’s concern and care towards his sister-in-law. I, the Supreme Overlord, never lie.

Qing Yutong became exulted.

My butt didn’t get beaten by brother-in-law for nothing.

Immediately, Qing Yutong hugged onto Ye Hua.

Ye Hua observed the expressions of the surrounding men, then sneered in his mind, “My luck with women is not something that you all will be able to enjoy.”

The surrounding men were very envious of Ye Hua.

Those two beautiful women are being hugged by the same guy, god is truly unfair!

“Let’s head back home.”

With his left hand holding onto Qing Ya’s waist, his right hand holding onto the empress’s waist, and his sister-in-law following behind him, Ye Hua began to head back home.

I, the Supreme Overlord, am precisely a winner of life.

If there is anyone who doesn't agree with me, feel free to step up.

I, the Supreme Overlord, should teach you how to behave in mere minutes.

When they returned to Leisure Bar, it was already 7 pm night.

Because Ye Hua knew that Qing Ya was going to be returning home tonight, the bar wasn't opened for business tonight.

Tonight, they were going to have dinner together and properly enjoy this reunion.

When Qing Yutong saw Ye Zizi who was wearing a school uniform, she immediately began teasing Ye Zizi.

Looking at the cocky look on Qing Yutong's face as she teased Ye Zizi, even Ye Hua couldn't help but want to give Qing Yutong a smacking, so let alone Ye Zizi.

Various kinds of Great Desolate Beasts' meat, adding on with crayfish and cold coca cola, it was truly a wonderful dinner.

Chapter 343: Crisis ignited

"Daddy, I still want to eat more meat." Donghuang Li didn't even bother peeling the crayfish and straightforwardly demolished two big pieces of meat, and looking at her face, she still hasn't had enough of eating the meat.

While drinking alcohol, Ye Hua said faintly, "Ah Li, this kind of meat can't be eaten too much."

Donghuang Li pouted her small mouth and wrinkled her brows, having a look that was basically saying, "If you don't give me meat, I am going to cry."

Ye Hua naturally wouldn't spoil his child too much. After all, Ah Li was still small and could only eat a moderate amount of meat.

Seeing that her daddy really wasn't intending to give her more meat, Donghuang Li said towards Qing Yutong, "Aunt Qing, share with Ah Li a bit of your meat."

While speaking, Ah Li even picked up her plate and held it to the front of Qing Yutong, causing everyone to laugh endlessly.

"Ah Li, you have to listen to your daddy. Aunt Qing's situation is also the same as yours. Eat slower next time, it will be fine once you get used to it." Qing Yutong said with a smile on her face as she protects the meat that were on her plate from Ah Li.

"Stingy~" Donghuang Li pouted her small mouth, then looked towards her mommy.

Donghuang Baizhi naturally dotes on her daughter and was currently about to share some of her meat with her daughter.

Upon seeing that, Ye Hua said faintly, "Baizhi."

Since her husband has spoken, no matter how much Donghuang Baizhi wanted to share her meat with her daughter, her hands were tied.

At the same time, Donghuang Baizhi knew that although those meat were good, eating too much of those meat was bad for a person.

Spoiling a child too much was a bad thing, this point was something that Donghuang Baizhi was able to understand.

Donghuang Li became even more upset, "Ah Li is angry now, the kind of angry that won't go away no matter how much you all coaxed me."

Everyone ignored Donghuang Li.

A few minutes later, Donghuang Li had no choice but to come to terms with the fact that she wasn't going to be able to eat more eat, and thus, she began peeling crayfish, then began fawning over her daddy and mommy by giving them the crayfish meat that she peeled.

Ye Hua was very gratified. My daughter is very sensible.

"Qing Ya, did anything happen during those days that you were away?" Ye Hua asked.

Qing Ya placed a piece of crayfish meat into Ye Hua's bowl, then said tenderly, "Nope, nothing much happened except bringing Ah Li to some places to have a stroll."

"That old friend of yours didn't come and visit you?" What Ye Hua mainly wanted to ask was this.

Ye Hua's title as the cultivation world's king of jealousy wasn't for nothing.

Qing Ya laughed lightly, "With you, the jealousy king, present in my life, who would dare to come and pay me a visit."

"Qing Ya, please pay attention to your usage of words, I am merely concerned about you." Ye Hua said faintly.

Jealous? Have I, the Supreme Overlord, ever been jealous? She must be indulging in fantasy. Even if the sky collapses, I would never become jealous.

"Alright, alright, alright, you were merely being concerned about me." Qing Ya laughed helplessly.

Seeing that Ye Zizi was remaining silent, Qing Ya asked curiously, "Zizi, is school fun?"

"Yes, I'm having a great time at school." Ye Zizi said.

What Ye Zizi said sounded too fake, couldn't she at least let out a smile when she said that?

"Ah Li wants to go to school too. In the future, Ah Li wants to become a doctor." Donghuang Li shouted out.

Ye Hua's brows became slightly wrinkled, "Why do Ah Li want to become a doctor?"

"Because Ah Li wants to save the dying and heal the injured."

Upon hearing that, Ye Hua felt that it wasn't appropriate.

My daughter does not need to save the dying and heal the injured.

However, when Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi heard what Donghuang Li said, the two of them were very gratified.

Ah Li sure is a good child.

Ye Hua said faintly, "What good is there in being a doctor? In the future, daddy will bring you to conquer the world!"

As expected, when Donghuang Li heard that, she became very excited, "Daddy, then when will we go and conquer the world?"

"Once Ah Li grows up, we will go and conquer the world."

Donghuang Baizhi said with a smile, "Alright Ye Hua, Ah Li is still small, don't teach her about this kind of stuff."

"A child should be taught from young. I will handle Ah Li's education, you all don't have to be concerned about anything." Ye Hua displayed the aura of a family head.

Everything should be decided by me, the Supreme Overlord.

Using Ye Hua's own words, "You all just have to be in charge of properly attending to me, and I, the Supreme Overlord, will stay at home and teach our child how to conquer the world."

Upon talking about the upbringing of Ah Li, Qing Ya wanted to give her own opinion, "Ye Hua, Ah Li is currently still small, you shouldn't teach her dangerous martial techniques, or else, if an accident were to happen, she would end up harming the innocent."

Donghuang Baizhi still did not know about the martial techniques that Ye Hua taught Ah Li, and thus asked confusedly, "What martial techniques?"

Donghuang Li began showing off as she released ten flames on her fingertips, "Mommy, aren't they pretty?"

Donghuang Baizhi was startled as she sensed the frightening auras of the flames and said hurriedly, "Ah Li, quickly keep away those flames!"

Donghuang Li silently kept away the flames.

Why do mommy and the others have this expression on their faces when they saw my martial techniques, daddy is the only one who is happy about my martial techniques.

"Ye Hua, those martial techniques are too dangerous, a bad accident would happen if Ah Li lost control of her martial techniques." Donghuang Baizhi said.

This Ye Hua, to actually teach Ah Li such dangerous techniques. Those flames are evidently used for huge area attacks, if Ah Li were to lose control of the flames, the consequences that would ensue would be unimaginable.

Ye Hua was indifferent about it as he said faintly, “Ah Li’s control of those martial techniques is very good, there is nothing to worry about.”

“En, Ah Li is very smart.” Donghuang Li wanted to make her mommy become happy, just like how a child who scored full marks on her test would want to receive their parents’ praise.

With her willow brows wrinkled, Donghuang Baizhi said, “Ah Li, you mustn’t anyhow use those flames, do you understand?”

“Baizhi, why can’t Ah Li use those flames as she wants?” Ye Hua questioned gravely.

Are the martial techniques that I taught Ah Li weak?

Donghuang Baizhi explained, “Ye Hua, Ah Li is currently still small, you shouldn’t teach her dangerous martial techniques like those flames. What will we do if she ends up injuring others?”

Ye Hua placed his chopsticks down and said gravely, “What is wrong with me teaching my child powerful martial techniques?! This is also so that Ah Li is able to possess the capability of protecting herself! Why do you all think that what I did is bad!”

“Daddy, mommy, don’t fight, Ah Li won’t use those flames anymore in the future.” Seeing that her parents were quarreling because of her, Donghuang Li hurriedly persuaded them to stop quarreling.

Ye Hua looked towards his daughter and said faintly, “Ah Li, don’t be afraid! Use those flames whenever you need to, don’t let others think that we are pushovers!”

“Ye Hua! How can you teach a child like this!” Donghuang Baizhi shouted out.

Ye Hua was practically intending to turn Ah Li into a demon queen, and that was something that Donghuang Baizhi wasn’t going to allow.

After all, Donghuang Baizhi was the north’s big power, and Voidless Realm’s duty was to stabilize all of the north’s powers and prevent large-scale casualties from happening.

Voidless Realm’s goal was more or less the same as Nuwa’s descendants, which was to protect the living, and Donghuang Baizhi had been taught of this ideology since she was young.

Donghuang Baizhi naturally hopes that her daughter would be able to inherit her family’s tradition and that her daughter would do good deeds often, and not break the law and commit crimes.

However, based on what Ye Hua just said, he was basically intending to groom their daughter into a delinquent girl.

In actuality, Donghuang Baizhi thought too lightly, Ye Hua was intending to groom their daughter into a true queen, a queen who everybody will worship!

Not a doctor who saves the dying and heals the injured!

“Alright, I don’t want to argue with you all, you all don’t have to care about Ah Li’s education, I will handle it all.” Ye Hua said coldly.

Qing Ya who had been keeping quiet all this time said lightly, "Ye Hua, I feel that we have to have a proper discussion about how we should go about Ah Li's education."

"There is nothing to discuss about!" Ye Hua shouted out gravely.

What is with these two women today? They are intending to go against me again? It hasn't even been long since this family has become peaceful!

"Daddy, mommy, don't be angry anymore, Ah Li will be obedient." Donghuang Li was anxious to the point that her eyes became red, she didn't know just who she should listen to.

"Big sister, brother-in-law, calm down, the issue regarding Ah Li's education should be discussed slowly, you all don't have to be so rushed about things." Qing Yutong persuaded.

Originally, I thought that the appearance of the rival-in-love would make brother-in-law become angry, but who would have thought, they ended up quarreling because of their different views on how the child should be educated.

This problem seems to be even more troublesome. As a Supreme Overlord, brother-in-law's view on things is definitely different from normal people, but big sister and Baizhi are both people who are kind, so how would they possibly allow the child to become a delinquent girl?

In actuality, Ye Hua didn't want to quarrel with them too as he felt that it was tiring to quarrel with them.

Chapter 344: Supreme Overlord is disappointed

What should have originally been a happy occasion immediately turned and became an unhappy occasion, the atmosphere was currently a bit stifling.

Ye Hua appeared to be very fretful.

Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi were remaining silent.

Right now, Qing Yutong and Ye Zizi naturally wouldn't try to anger Ye Hua.

And as for Donghuang Li, she was feeling afraid, she was afraid that her daddy and mommy would begin to always quarrel like they used to back then.

After a long while, Qing Ya suggested, "Ye Hua, I feel that we should hold a family meeting."

"Agreed." Donghuang Baizhi wanted to properly discuss about their child's upbringing. After all, Ah Li's upbringing concerns her future, therefore she felt that it was a must to solve this problem once and for all.

Ye Hua felt that he indeed had to have a proper discussion with his wives on Ah Li's upbringing, and thus, he said gravely, "Alright!"

Soon after, Ye Hua said towards Qing Yutong, "Yutong, you bring Zizi and Ah Li and head upstairs first."

Qing Yutong nodded her head, "Alright, you guys should indeed have a proper discussion with each other, a family will prosper only when it is harmonious."

After finished speaking, Qing Yutong brought Donghuang Li upstairs, and Ye Zizi silently followed behind them while with an expression on her face that seemed to be saying that there was nothing to live for in this world.

The three of them sat at the dining table, and Ye Hua took out and ignited a stick of cigarette, "What do you all have to say."

As Donghuang Li's mother, Donghuang Baizhi took the lead to speak, "Ye Hua, can you hand over Ah Li's upbringing to me?"

"As Ah Li's father, am I not allowed to educate her?!" Ye Hua questioned gravely.

Today, I definitely have to let them understand one thing, which is that, my words shouldn't be questioned!

Donghuang Baizhi wrinkled her brows, "But those things that you teach to the child is useless in helping her grow, even more, they may end up causing Ah Li to walk towards an improper path."

Qing Ya has been pondering things for quite some time already, especially the matter regarding a child's upbringing. In a few more months, her baby was going to be birth, and it was time for her to start preparing in advance.

"Ye Hua, how about this, can you hand over the children's upbringing to us?" Qing Ya also wanted to have a proper discussion with Ye Hua, and naturally didn't hope to end up quarreling with Ye Hua.

"What you all are saying is that, I can't teach our children?" Ye Hua questioned, and his anger was slowly rising.

They are making it seem as if I am a criminal, to won't even allow me to educate my children.

Qing Ya said earnestly, "It's fine for you to talk about those fallacious reasonings of yours with us, but those fallacious reasonings of yours are not good for a child's growth."

"That's right." Donghuang Baizhi agreed.

Bang!

Ye Hua ruthlessly slammed on the table and said coldly, "Why are those reasonings of mine fallacious! This is a world where the weak are eaten alive by the strong! What do you all intend to raise our children into? Weak and feeble philanthropists?!"

"That's at least better than raising them into devils who would do all sorts of bad things." Donghuang Baizhi said faintly.

When those words landed into Ye Hua's ears, Donghuang Baizhi was basically talking badly about him in a roundabout way, because in the past, Ye Hua was precisely the kind of person who would do all sorts of bad things.

"Enough!" Ye Hua bellowed.

Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi's bodies froze for a moment, they did not know why Ye Hua suddenly became angry, they were merely discussing about their children's upbringing and didn't do anything bad to anger Ye Hua.

The two of them did not go against Ye Hua's anger because they didn't want to quarrel with him because of this matter. However, they were still going to strive to get Ye Hua to let them handle their children's upbringing.

Qing Ya pleaded in a low voice, "Ye Hua, can't you consider it for a bit?"

"There is no need to consider, this topic ends here, family meeting adjourned!" Ye Hua said coldly, then stood up and was prepared to head upstairs.

Donghuang Baizhi let out a deep sigh, seemingly to be very dejected.

Everything about Ye Hua is good, just that, he is too overbearing. He wants everybody to listen to him, and if anyone doesn't listen to him, he will get angry.

"Just what is going on with Xiao Family?"

Ye Hua who was preparing to leave suddenly paused for a moment, then turned his head around and looked towards Qing Ya, "What is it that you want to say?"

Qing Ya asked calmly, "How did you obtain the bet money from back then?"

Confusion appeared within Donghuang Baizhi's eyes. After all, she wasn't present back then and did not know about the bet that happened.

Ye Hua let out a breath, then said faintly, "Didn't I tell you before in the past? I ordered someone to go and collect the bet money that those people owe us."

"Was collecting the bet money the only thing that you ordered the person to do?" Qing Ya asked faintly. In actuality, she was currently feeling very nervous, she did not hope that Ye Hua had something to do with Nangong Xinyi's death.

While gazing at Qing Ya, Ye Hua asked gravely, "Qing Ya, just what is it that you want to say?"

"Does the death of that Nangong Xinyi have anything to do with you?" Qing Ya asked, and her heart began beating fast.

Naturally, Ye Hua remembers who Nangong Xinyi was, and he asked gravely, "If you have something that you want to say, say it straightforwardly, don't speak in a roundabout way."

"I heard that your subordinate forced Nangong Xinyi to her death as interest for paying late. Was that your order, or did your subordinate act on his own initiative?"

Donghuang Baizhi who was at the side was startled.

Such a thing actually happened?

Ye Hua looked at Qing Ya in disbelief.

What is the meaning of this? Is she blaming me?

Ye Hua's anger which had just calmed down a moment ago immediately began soaring.

"That's right! That was my order! Owe money, pay money, that is how things work! Back then when I gave them three days to pay up the bet money, they were the ones who didn't cherish the chance that I gave them! It is already very benevolent of me to not have killed their entire family!"

Originally, Ye Hua didn't have the intention of keeping things a secret, therefore, it was only natural that he wasn't going to keep things a secret now, there was no need for that.

Upon hearing the answer, disappointment appeared in Qing Ya's eyes. She didn't expect that it was really Ye Hua's order, and her mind was currently a bit messy.

Meanwhile, Donghuang Baizhi didn't know what to say, so she remained silent.

Looking at the disappointed look on Qing Ya's face, Ye Hua was feeling very uncomfortable in his heart.

Ye Hua questioned, "Qing Ya, are you blaming me? Do you think that I should not have dealt with them in such a way?"

Qing Ya wasn't blaming Ye Hua, and she said tenderly, "Ye Hua, although they were in the wrong, we could sit down and have a proper chat with them, there is no need to force a child's mother to death, right?"

Upon hearing that, Ye Hua sneered, "Qing Ya, you are blaming me for willfully killing the innocent?"

"Ye Hua, I am not blaming you, I just hope that in the future, you could put yourself in others' shoes and don't let your emotions affect your decisions." Qing Ya persuaded.

In actuality, Qing Ya merely didn't want to see Ye Hua willfully kill the innocent. Take this time's debt collection for example, if Xiao Yi was the one who was killed, Qing Ya wouldn't say anything, but for an innocent mother to be killed, Qing Ya felt that she must talk about this matter with her husband so that such a thing like that wouldn't happen again in the future.

"Qing Ya, you are too naïve, if I was the one who was weak, do you think that Xiao Yi would let me off? Do you think that he would let you off? Let me tell you! He won't! Even more, he would use a similar method to make me suffer!"

How would Qing Ya not understand that?

Qing Ya said faintly, "Ye Hua, I know what you are trying to say, but let's not do those unrepresentable things anymore, alright?"

Qing Ya would rather Ye Hua openly go and deal with his enemies, and not sneakily use the lives of innocent to torture his enemies.

"You are saying that I am unrepresentable?!" Ye Hua was really angered by Qing Ya.

Donghuang Baizhi hurriedly said, "Ye Hua, Qing Ya didn't mean it like that, you misunderstood her."

"Didn't that subordinate of yours did an improper act to a sect master?" Qing Ya didn't like how Ye Hua was acting, evidently being in the wrong, yet acts like everything he does was correct.

Donghuang Baizhi was very shocked.

Ye Hua's subordinate did an improper act to a sect master?

The two wives looked at Ye Hua with a questioning look on their faces.

Half of Ye Hua's heart turned cold.

Am I that kind of person in your eyes?

Ye Hua said coldly, "If I say that they are currently in love with each other, do you believe me?"

The two wives remained silent.

Evidently to not believe in what Ye Hua said.

At this moment, Ye Hua's heart was deeply hurt by the two women in front of him.

As his wives, they did not even believe in what their husband said, just how disappointing was such a thing?

"Alright! You all don't believe, right? I will call them to come over right now!" While speaking, Ye Hua contacted Wei Chang and told Wei Chang to notify Death Mage and Xun Fang to come over.

Chapter 345: Scram

While sitting on the chair, a vicious aura was being emitted out from Ye Hua's body, and this caused Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi to feel very worried.

However, they had no choice, they had to make Ye Hua change and make him stop treating human lives as trifling matters.

Right now, Ye Hua was very disappointed with Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi, very, very disappointed.

As the Supreme Overlord's wives, not only did they not properly do their duties as wives, but they are also helping outsiders to reprimand me!

Even more, they do not even believe in what I said. This is something that definitely cannot be endured.

They can forget about me planning another big show just for them, that is definitely impossible.

I was indeed in the wrong back then, thus, in order to reconcile our relationship, I gave in. However, this time, they can forget about me giving in!

The three of them sat in the hall and didn't speak, and Ye Hua smoked one cigarette after another.

After quite a while, the void began distorting, and Death Mage and Xun Fang appeared within the hall.

"Jiejie..."

Imperial translation: "Boss."

Xun Fang shouted out respectfully too, "Boss."

Wei Chang has already reminded them to call His Honor as boss.

Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi looked towards the black robed, and they didn't expect that the black robed was actually a skeleton!

Immediately, they felt their hair standing on its end.

After all, just how did a skeleton actually manage to do an improper act to the beautiful woman who was at the side?

Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi were a bit stupefied.

"Go on and ask your questions!" Ye Hua said coldly.

Xun Fang said to the two women, "Madams, I am Xun Fang, Cloud Sect's previous sect master."

Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi were very puzzled.

How could such a beautiful woman possibly get together with a skeleton? They are not acting, right?

"Madams, if you all have any questions, feel free to ask me. He has to type on his phone if he wants to converse, so it will take a while if he were to answer your questions." Xun Fang said tenderly.

Death Mage took out his phone and typed a few words, then showed his phone screen to the madams.

"I am unable to speak."

This caused the two women to become even more startled.

How is a skeleton that is unable to even speak get himself such a beautiful woman? What is wrong with this world?

Qing Ya looked toward Ye Hua, she felt that she didn't have enough brain cells to be able to comprehend what was going on.

"Xun Fang, has he done any improper acts to you?" Qing Ya asked curiously.

Xun Fang nodded her head, "Yes, he did."

Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi's expressions immediately changed, however, Xun Fang continued and said, "However, I voluntarily allowed him to do those improper acts to me."

The two madams' expressions became confused.

Seeing that the two madams were confused, Xun Fang naturally understood why they were feeling confused.

In actuality, back at Ying Family, there were a lot of people who were confused as to why such a beautiful woman would willingly get together with a skeleton?

In actuality, Xun Fang wants to say, "What to do, this little skeleton's entire body is hard as a rock, and I'm unable to beat him in everything."

“Madams, you all should be feeling very confused, right? In actuality, I myself also don’t know why I would end up liking this skeleton. He doesn’t have good looks, doesn’t even have a single piece of meat on his body, and it doesn’t feel comfortable to hug him.”

“However, he is able to make me laugh and make my mood become good when I’m feeling gloomy. Isn’t this kind of feeling what we women had always wanted? Race does not matter in love.”

“Although there are times where he would make me become angry, he would always be able to successfully coax me. This is something that I feel that he should be praised for.”

Looking at the happy smile on Xun Fang’s face, the two women felt that Xun Fang didn’t seem to be telling lies. However, they still felt that it was unimaginable.

“Look at others, then look at you two!” Ye Hua who was sitting at the side said coldly.

Look at just how good my subordinates’ wives are, always lovey-dovey with each other and never quarrel with each other. Meanwhile, look at my wives.

Alright, Qing Ya felt that she has misunderstood Ye Hua on this matter, and she was finally able to let out a sigh of relief in her heart. After all, Ye Hua didn’t act as fuel for evil.

However, Donghuang Baizhi had a solemn expression on her face as she asked, “Ye Hua, I have always been wanting to ask you, those things in the storage room, where did you get them from?”

Back then when Donghuang Baizhi saw those things, she felt very astonished. However, in the end, she didn’t end up getting to the heart of the matter, and during this period of her honeymoon, she completely forgot about that matter.

Now that she suddenly recalled that matter, she decided to ask Ye Hua about it.

Ye Hua pointed to Death Mage, “Those things were given to me by him.”

Donghuang Baizhi looked toward Death Mage and asked, “Where did you get those betrothal gifts from?”

Death Mage was very honest. After all, it was the madam who was asking him a question, thus, he was naturally going to have to be honest.

Death Mage typed on his phone, then showed his phone screen.

Two words.

“From snatching.”

Upon seeing that, Ye Hua said faintly, “You did a good job!”

Jiejiejie...

Imperial translation: “Thank you, Your Honor, for the praise.”

Donghuang Baizhi’s pretty face immediately sunk, “What happened to those people?”

Death Mage continued typing on his phone.

One word.

“Killed.”

Ye Hua said faintly, “Good job.”

My husband’s subordinate killed my subordinates, and yet my husband is actually complimenting his subordinate’s action?

Donghuang Baizhi shouted out, “Ye Hua! Are you not going to give me an explanation?!”

Ye Hua stood up and gazed at Donghuang Baizhi, “What explanation do I have to give you? Without my permission, you actually went and send betrothal gifts! It is fortunate that my subordinate snatched away those betrothal gifts by chance, if not, you would have ended up gifting me a green hat!”

Upon hearing that, Donghuang Baizhi actually had nothing to retort against what Ye Hua said, but she still felt uncomfortable in her heart about her subordinates having been killed, “But your subordinate killed all of my subordinates!”

“Baizhi, if you didn’t send the betrothal gifts, would your subordinates have ended up getting killed? Don’t tell me that you want my subordinate to bear the blame for what happened?” Ye Hua shouted out coldly.

This Baizhi, she doesn’t act any bit like how a Supreme Overlord’s madam should act at all!

Donghuang Baizhi gazed at Ye Hua, seemingly wanting Ye Hua to give her an explanation.

No matter what is said, I am still Voidless Realm’s empress! I ought to seek justice for my subordinates if they were wrongfully killed, right?

In actuality, if Ye Hua were to just apologize now, everything would become fine. He just had to give in a bit to his wives, and his wives would be back in his embrace once again, and his life of acting cool would resume.

However, this time, Ye Hua wasn’t intending to spoil them anymore!

“Baizhi! What’s with that expression on your face! Don’t tell me, not only do you want my subordinate to bear the blame, but you also want him to be punished?!” Ye Hua shouted out strictly.

“Should he not be punished then?!” Donghuang Baizhi asked in return.

Ye Hua was angered rather severely by those two women today, and he said gravely, “Qing Ya, Baizhi, let me tell you, that is something that is never going to happen! Whatever that I, Ye Hua, do, I do not need to inquire with you about it first!”

“You!!!” Donghuang Baizhi was also angered by Ye Hua.

Qing Ya pulled onto Donghuang Baizhi, then said lightly to Ye Hua, “Ye Hua, let’s all calm down for a moment, okay?”

“Calm down? I do not need to calm down in this entire life of mine, I can do whatever that I want to!”

Seeing that Ye Hua was currently very emotional, Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi talked with each other in a low voice for a bit.

In the end, Qing Ya said, "Ye Hua, Baizhi and I will be staying at Voidless Realm for a period of time. While we are away, you should take the time to think things through. Once you thought things through, you can come over to Voidless Realm to find us."

Ye Hua was angered to the point that he laughed.

Want to leave again, right? You two are really treating my doting for the two of you as donkey liver, huh!

Ye Hua shouted out coldly, "Alright! Scram! Do you two really think that I will die without you two?!"

Looking at how Ye Hua was acting, Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi suddenly felt that they couldn't steel themselves to leave Ye Hua for a period of time.

After all, Ye Hua has put in a lot of effort for them.

However, at the same time, Ye Hua truly has a lot of bad habits. For the sake of their future, Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi felt that there was a need for them to let Ye Hua think things through.

Donghuang Baizhi said calmly, "Ye Hua, I will be bringing Ah Li back to Voidless Realm for now. You can come over and fetch us back home once you have thought things through."

"Ye Hua, in actuality, many things can be solved properly without violence." Qing Ya advised.

Ye Hua extinguished his cigarette butt, then said gravely, "Qing Ya! Baizhi! I will prove to you and show you that your theories are all utter rubbish!"

When the two women saw that Ye Hua was still acting like this, they both let out a sigh, then disappeared from the hall.

Seeing that his wives disappeared, Ye Hua picked up a bottle of wine and smashed it on the floor.

Those two foolish women actually really left!

If I, the Supreme Overlord, were to really go and look for the two of you, I will admit that I am a coward!

Chapter 346: Do not need benevolence

Death Mage and Xun Fang silently took their leave.

His Honor is definitely in a bad mood right now, and I heard that when His Honor is in a bad mood, he would threaten his subordinates to break up...

"Brother-in-law, Ah Li was taken away by her mother." Qing Yutong suddenly ran over.

"I got it, she can do as she pleases!" Ye Hua shouted out gravely.

"Erm... where is my big sister?" Qing Yutong asked feebly.

“Both of them have left this home!” After finishing speaking, Ye Hua lighted up a cigarette as he went upstairs.

While sitting on the office’s sofa, Ye Hua decided on a matter.

I am going to let them see just how laughable that so-called benevolence of theirs is!

In actuality, Ye Hua should be feeling glad.

After all, Qing Ya merely discovered a small portion of Ye Hua’s secret. If all of Ye Hua’s secrets were to have been discovered, Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi wouldn’t have said that they will wait for him to think things through.

However, that wasn’t important anymore.

Ye Hua extinguished his cigarette butt, and his gaze began turning deep and eerie.

I am going to make you all beg me to let you all come back home! Furthermore, I am going to let you all understand that benevolence does not exist in this world!

Ye Hua waved his hand, and immediately, the office began distorting and gradually changing into another location.

Not sure when, the sofa turned into a throne, and the throne was made using a pile of skulls. Amongst the skulls, there were the skulls of humans, skulls of beast men, skulls of rare elves, and even the skulls of gigantic dragons. The skulls intertwined together and formed into a frightening and sinister looking throne.

Currently, Ye Hua has already changed out from his corporeal body and revealed his most original form. However, very quickly, a seven-colored mystical lights hard armor appeared on his body, and the surrounding darkness was lit up by the mystical lights.

The mystical lights lingered around the surrounding like surging raging flames, the auras that were being emitted out from the mystical lights seemed as if it was going to swallow the heavens and earth.

Meanwhile, when the surrounding was illuminated by the mystical lights, the appearance of a palace appeared. This palace was Ye Hua’s previous meeting hall, the long passageway was extremely long, and the end of the passageway could not be seen.

A bright red carpet was laid out on the floor, and the floor was made using the bodies of young ancient crystal dragons. The extremely long passageway was basically the result of slaughtering crystal dragons’ entire race.

As for those huge pillars, they were the bodies of ancient pythons that had become petrified.

Looking at those countless pillars, who knows just how many ancient pythons had died?

The entire palace was built using various kinds of bizarre corpses, and an eerily cold aura was being emitted out from the palace.

If a normal person were to come here, they would definitely get scared to death.

Because, even though those mythological beasts have already died, their remaining might pressure was still present!

Ye Hua sat on the skull throne, and his finger was tapping onto an elf skull.

If I didn't remember wrongly, this skull is an elf queen's skull.

"Wei Chang! Lie Gu! Jue Tian! Ye Zizi!" Ye Hua called out gravely.

Upon hearing His Honor's tone which sounded different from normal, the seven sins' four sins didn't dare to have the slightest bit of negligence and all of them quickly hurried over!

Seeing that this time's meeting wasn't held at Leisure Bar's toilet and was instead held at the palace, the four subordinates' hearts sunk.

Seems like His Honor has really been angered this time.

"Subordinate pay respect to Your Honor!" The four sins didn't dare to be careless in the slightest bit as they shouted out respectfully to Ye Hua who was sitting on the throne.

Viciousness was subconsciously emitting out from Ye Hua's body, and even when dead, those corpses seemed to be still afraid of Ye Hua.

"Your Honor, please quell your anger." The four hurriedly knelt down on the floor and persuaded.

For His Honor to be angry, it is definitely us subordinates' fault.

Ye Hua slowly let out a breath, "Originally, I thought that there would be a few days of good days to live, but I was expecting too much!"

The four remained silent.

After quite a while, Wei Chang said coldly, "Xiao Family has to take complete responsibility for this matter. If Your Honor allows it, subordinate will immediately go over and exterminate the entirety of Xiao Family, then present their skulls to Your Honor!"

Ye Hua took a look at Wei Chang, then said gravely, "No! My target this time isn't Xiao Family, instead, it is Voidless Realm!"

The four sins were startled, not being able to understand just what His Honor meant.

"Your Honor, Madam Donghuang is Voidless Realm's empress, and Your Honor's target is Voidless Realm?" Jue Tian still didn't know what happened and he was currently still confused.

Lie Gu and Ye Zizi didn't say anything, they were afraid that they would say the wrong things.

Ye Hua snorted coldly.

And Jue Tian immediately bowed to express his apology.

"The two madams still do not understand just how deep the water of this world is. Since that is the case, I should properly give them a lesson!" Ye Hua's tone was just like the springs of hell, causing one to have one's hair stand on its end.

“Originally, I was intending on letting the north and south fight with each other, but since the south has suffered great losses, I have a new plan!”

The four sins’ eyes lighted up, especially Ye Zizi’s.

Ye Hua said coldly, “I will make all of north’s powers willingly to go and attack Voidless Realm!”

Lie Gu hurriedly said, “Your Honor, are we going to go on stage and show off our acting skills again?”

“No! This time, we will stay still!”

The four were immediately stupefied, they were unable to understand just what His Honor’s intention was.

“I am going to let them understand one thing, which is that, no matter how good they treat others, for the sake of benefits, others would still take a bite off them! That so-called benevolence of theirs is nothing in front of benefits!”

Jue Tian finally understood His Honor’s intention.

The madams are definitely people who are kindhearted, and their kindheartedness has angered His Honor. Therefore, His Honor is thinking of giving the madams a lesson and make them understand the true meaning of blood.

“Your Honor, leave this matter to subordinate.” Jue Tian bowed and said, willing to be the leader of this time’s plan.

Ye Hua was able to put his mind at ease with Jue Tian leading the plan, “Jue Tian, you can have no qualms when leading this time’s plan! Let them know what cruelty is! What betrayal is! And just what human nature is!”

“Subordinate understood!” Jue Tian decided that he was going to lead this time’s plan well and make His Honor become pleased.

Ye Hua said faintly, “We will begin from Xiao Family! I want Qing Ya to take the initiative to exterminate the entire Xiao Family!”

“Also! Go and check on the case regarding Dongfang Aristocratic Family that happened 100 years ago! I want to see just how many people they are going to be able to protect!” Ye Hua was serious this time.

If there was one thing that Ye Hua has learned, it would be that women shouldn’t be spoiled too much.

This time, Ye Hua’s intention was very simple, but executing it would be very difficult.

For example, if Ye Hua wants Qing Ya to take the initiative to exterminate Xiao Family, there had to be a reason for Qing Ya to have to do that, right? Also, various details and relations have to be thought thoroughly through.

Not only was this a lesson for the two wives, but this could also be counted as a test for Ye Hua himself.

“Subordinate should solemnly follow with Your Honor’s order!”

Ye Hua slowly stood up from his throne, then reminded, "Don't treat them as madams! Whatever that you have to do, do it! I won't allow them to throw their temper around anymore!"

"Understood!"

"If they aren't able to even get over this bit of difficulty, it would mean that they aren't fit to be madams." After finishing speaking, Ye Hua disappeared from the palace.

After Ye Hua left, the four sins looked at each other.

In the past, our targets were enemies, and this time, our targets are the two madams.

Furthermore, we are going to have to make the two madams have a taste of various kinds of feelings, the difficulty of this time's plan is rather hard.

"I still have to go to school tomorrow, so I will be going to sleep already." After finished speaking, Ye Zizi disappeared.

Lie Gu let out a sigh, "His Honor has really been angered this time."

"That's right, and this time's plan is going to be harder than putting on a performance." Wei Chang let out a sigh too.

Jue Tian's expression didn't have much change as he said indifferently, "His Honor's decision is correct, the two madams' benevolence is basically them being cruel to themselves. Furthermore, we do not need madams who are benevolent!"

Wei Chang and Lie Gu nodded their heads, expressing their approval of Jue Tian's view.

Chapter 347: Won't forgive easily

"Alright, you two who have the brains can slowly discuss with each other on what to do, it will be better for me to go back home and be a hero in bed instead. If there is any big movement, feel free to notify me." After finishing speaking, Lie Gu disappeared from the palace too.

It sure is nice to return back to this familiar place, the bloody smell here sure is addictive, just the smell alone is making me become restless.

Only Wei Chang and Jue Tian remained in the empty palace.

"Oh yeah, if you all need manpower, feel free to tell me." Lie Gu was very magnanimous.

Recently, Long'an City's demons and ghosts have more or less been cleared up by Ye Hua's subordinates, and Lie Gu's women were currently extremely free.

Jue Tian replied, "Alright."

"The mission that His Honor has given us this time is very hard, you are going to have to pay more attention to things." Wei Chang couldn't help but advised.

Jue Tian also knew that His Honor's plan was going to be difficult to execute, "You can be at ease, have you forgotten what I used to do back then?"

Wei Chang laughed lightly.

That's right, in the past, Jue Tian's job was to bring despair to the humans, just that, this time's targets were actually the madams.

His Honor is really serious about giving the madams a lesson this time, I hope that the two madams will be able to get over this crisis that will be coming to them.

"Alright, I will be taking my leave now, I still have classes to teach tomorrow." Jue Tian said faintly.

Wei Chang teased, "There should be quite a number of beauties in Zijin University, right? Not going to consider chasing after any one of them?"

"I'm not interested in women." After finishing speaking, Jue Tian left.

Jue Tian's cold temperament was even colder than Ye Hua's cold temperament, Jue Tian could be said to be a true aloof prince charming.

Wei Chang laughed.

In the past, I was also not interested in women, but after coming into contact with Tang Wei, my way of thinking changed.

Ye Hua was currently standing by the window and smoking a cigarette. While looking at Long'an City's night sky, coldness was being emitted out from his gaze.

"Brother-in-law?" Qing Yutong knocked on the door and called out lightly.

Ye Hua silently took a look at his sister-in-law, then turned his gaze away and looked toward the night sky again.

Qing Yutong pursed her lips.

I feel that brother-in-law seems to have reverted back to that state he was in back then.

During this past period of time, with great difficulty, brother-in-law managed to change a bit, and I was able to even see him smile from time to time. From now on, I reckon that it is going to be very hard to be able to see brother-in-law smile.

"Brother-in-law, why not tell big sister and Baizhi your identity? They will definitely be able to understand."

Qing Yutong naturally didn't want to see her big sister and brother-in-law fight with each other. After all, they were all a family, what was there to even really fight about? Even if there were disagreements, wouldn't it all be fine if both parties gave in a bit to each other?

Ye Hua said coldly, "My identity? So what if I told them my identity? If I were to bring them out with me, I would practically be throwing my face away!"

"Isn't big sister just merely being affected by her blood vessels?"

"Humph! Blood vessels? Even without those blood vessels affecting her, she would still be the way she is, softhearted!" Ye Hua extinguished his cigarette butt, then sat on the sofa. Looking at him, his face was filled with coldness.

I definitely won't let them off easily this time!

Qing Yutong sat at Ye Hua's side, then said attentively, "In the past, big sister has never come into contact with this kind of stuff, and she only knew how to do business. Only after getting together with you, then did big sister learned of some stuff. Everything has to have a course of events, right?"

"Right now, I am precisely going to give them a course of events, a course of events that they will never forget!"

Qing Yutong didn't want her big sister to have to go through massive suffering, and she pulled onto her brother-in-law's arm and began acting cute, "Brother-in-law~ You know that big sister still loves you~ As the bigger person, just give big sister a small punishment will do~"

Ye Hua turned his head around and gazed at his sister-in-law, then said gravely, "Do you want to experience the course of events with your big sister?!"

"Aiyo, I forgot to turn off my computer! Brother-in-law, do rest early, treat it as I did not say anything." After finishing speaking, Qing Yutong ran away.

Big sister, don't blame me, I have already tried to plead for you, but this time, you have really pissed off brother-in-law.

However, Qing Yutong was aware that her brother-in-law wouldn't harm her big sister too much. After all, all her brother-in-law wanted to do was to make her big sister understand some things. Although it was a bit cruel, it was going to be beneficial for her big sister.

If Qing Ya was half as sensible as her little sister, Ye Hua wouldn't need to have such a headache.

Seeing that his sister-in-law left the room, Ye Hua leaned on the sofa and began pondering.

I have to make Qing Ya and Baizhi understand that their benevolence will only end up being used by their enemies.

"Wei Chang!" Ye Hua called out.

Very quickly, Wei Chang's figure appeared within the office.

"Subordinate pays respect to Your Honor."

"Remove the control over Xiao Family!"

Although Wei Chang was very confused, he didn't dare to ask too many questions, "As you bid, subordinate should immediately go and pass over your message."

After Wei Chang left, Ye Hua lighted up another stick of cigarette, "Since Xiao Family took advantage of your kindheartedness, I should let you see Xiao Family's true colors!"

Xiao Yi hasn't had a good sleep in the past few days as he was afraid that something bad would happen.

Sitting at the pavilion that was situated in the courtyard, Xiao Yi who was wearing high-quality silk nightclothes was currently drinking tea.

“Brother Xiao, still haven’t slept?” Shu Nan leisurely walked over.

Standing behind Xiao Yi’s back, Shu Nan began massaging Xiao Yi’s shoulders.

Xiao Yi let out a light sigh, “Was what I did wrong or right?”

“Brother Xiao, what has happened has already happened, there is no point in thinking about whether it is right or wrong anymore.” Shu Nan said tenderly.

It has to be known that, Ye Hua used Xiao Family because he felt that Xiao Family had a bit of use to him. With that, it also meant that Xiao Family obtained Ye Hua’s protection.

Just how much of an honor was it to be able to obtain the Supreme Overlord’s protection? Unfortunately, Xiao Family didn’t want to be in a lower status, or perhaps, they didn’t want to be controlled by others.

The consequences of Xiao Family’s action were going to be very grave.

Right when the two were chatting about this matter, the void began distorting.

Xiao Yi and Shu Nan’s expressions sank, and Xiao Yi hurriedly stood up from his seat.

A lump of black fog appeared in front of the two.

Right now, Wei Chang really wanted to just straightforwardly behead the two people who were in front of him.

Back then, these people came over and plead with us, and yet, they actually have the audacity to stab His Honor in the back! These people really ought to die!

Shu Nan pulled onto her husband, and Xiao Yi helplessly knelt on the ground.

“I merely came over to pass over a message. From now on, I won’t care about Xiao Family’s matters anymore, best of luck to you all!”

Upon hearing that, Xiao Yi and Shu Nan immediately became very surprised.

It really worked!

Could this lump of black fog actually be Qing Ya’s husband? The boss of that Leisure Bar? And right now, he is just merely unwilling to show his face to us?

They thought too much, Ye Hua disdained coming over to pass the message to them.

However, no matter what, Xiao Family has achieved their goal.

Xiao Yi said gravely, “Thank you!”

Wei Chang stretched out his palm, and Xiao Yi immediately sensed a movement within his body.

A thread of black fog could be seen coming out of Xiao Yi’s body and merged into the lump of black fog.

After finishing doing that, Wei Chang left.

Whatever that His Honor gave to you, His Honor can take it back too!

Xiao Yi suddenly propped his hands on the ground as his complexion turned pale, and his breathing became rapid.

When that thread of black fog came out from my body, I immediately felt a lot of strength leaving my body.

Right now, my strength has dropped back to my original strength.

“Brother Xiao!” Shu Nan held onto her husband.

Xiao Yi said weakly, “It’s fine. At the least, we don’t have to be in others’ control anymore.”

Shu Nan remained silent. However, Shu Nan felt that Xiao Family has done a very foolish thing, has a strong power to rely on, and yet chose to separate from the strong power.

Within Voidless Realm, Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi were sitting in Ah Li’s courtyard.

Both of them had a grievance look on their faces, seemingly just like a wife who left home, and yet their husband actually didn’t come and chase after them.

Both of them have indeed gotten a bit cocky, they thought that because Ye Hua cared a lot for them, Ye Hua would continue spoiling them no matter what, and would change for them.

Even more, they believed that, after they left home, Ye Hua would come over and fetch them back home in no time.

Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi have already thought of what to say when Ye Hua came over to fetch them back home.

However, after waiting for two hours, Ye Hua still hasn’t come over to fetch them back home.

“Mommy~ When will we be returning home?” While dripping with sweat, Donghuang Li who was playing at the side ran over and asked.

Donghuang Baizhi smiled tenderly, “Soon, daddy will come over and fetch us.”

“Alright, Ah Li will play for a bit more then. Ah Li’s body is full of sweat, Ah Li has to go back home and take a shower.” Donghuang Li said while pouting her small mouth, then went and play with the maids.

Chapter 348: Battle between husband and wives

“Sigh...”

Donghuang Baizhi let out a deep sigh, then said, “Qing Ya, were we a bit too impulsive?”

Qing Ya was currently very confused too.

Before I left, I remember that I told Ye Hua that if he were to come and fetch me, I would definitely return home with him. But, so much time has already passed and he still hasn't come and fetch me.

"Let's wait a bit more, Ye Hua probably just isn't able to let go of his face, give him a bit more time."

2 more hours passed, and right now, it was already midnight, and Donghuang Li has already fallen asleep in her mother's embrace.

Meanwhile, Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi were still foolishly waiting for Ye Hua.

"Qing Ya, you understand Ye Hua a bit more than me, why hasn't he come over and fetch us yet?" Donghuang Baizhi asked.

Back then when Donghuang Baizhi found out that her subordinates were killed by Ye Hua's subordinate, she felt very angry, and furthermore, because Ye Hua wasn't willing to apologize to her, she felt that it wasn't fair.

Right now, after thinking things through, in actuality, I was in the wrong too. Who told me to send those betrothal gifts while I was in a fit of rage? If those betrothal gifts really ended up being delivered, wouldn't everything had been done for...

Therefore, now that Ye Hua wasn't coming over to fetch her back home, she was beginning to feel melancholy.

If Ye Hua doesn't come and fetch me, wouldn't that mean that I am going to be put on the spot? And if I were to go back home by myself now, it would be so embarrassing...

Qing Ya let out a light sigh, "Seems like Ye Hua is really angry this time."

"Ah! What do we do then?" Donghuang Baizhi cried out in surprise.

"With my understanding of Ye Hua, he is definitely thinking up a plan to make us go back home by ourselves." Qing Ya understood Ye Hua rather well, and she managed to guess correctly.

Donghuang Baizhi pouted her mouth, "I am not going to go back home, unless he comes and fetches us back home."

"He is definitely sure that we wouldn't take the initiative to go back home, and thus he is definitely currently thinking up a plan." Qing Ya laughed bitterly.

We are your wives, can't you just give in and coax us for a bit?

"What plan is he going to come up with?"

Qing Ya said, "Do you know why Xiao Family suddenly withdrew from the aristocratic family election?"

"Why?"

"Ye Hua was the one who ordered Xiao Family to withdraw from the aristocratic family election."

Donghuang Baizhi was startled, "Does he have nothing better to do? Why would he interfere in Xiao Family's matters?"

"I'm also unsure just what he is thinking of in his mind." Qing Ya let out a breath, then stood up.

"That's right, I remembered something, during that day, Ye Hua even told me to allow Tang Family to enter into the aristocratic family election." Donghuang Baizhi suddenly recalled what happened that morning.

This caused Qing Ya to recall that night's auction, "Ye Hua was the one who told you to allow Tang Family to enter into the aristocratic family election?"

"That's right, back then when Ye Hua told me to allow Tang Family to enter into the aristocratic family election, I felt that it was a trivial matter, so I followed along with his opinion."

Donghuang Baizhi wrinkled her brows, she felt that Ye Hua was secretly planning something.

Why did Ye Hua want Xiao Family to withdraw from the election, then planned on letting Tang Family join the election?

The two women were very puzzled.

"Qing Ya, Ye Hua couldn't be setting up his own chess pieces, right?" Donghuang Baizhi asked gravely.

"But he has to have a purpose for doing that, right? You are the empress, and you wield over the entire north. And since you are his wife, there is no need for him to do those things."

Qing Ya was completely clueless as to what Ye Hua was trying to do.

Donghuang Baizhi began speculating, "Ye Hua likes to stay at home, and he doesn't seem like the type who is fond of authority, so why is he interfering in the aristocratic family election?"

"That subordinate of Ye Hua's from just now has also interfered in south's matters before, for example, that time when the south was fighting over for an ancient godly item. During that day, I was out camping with Ye Hua. Now that I think back of it, going out camping wasn't Ye Hua's main purpose."

The more Qing Ya thought of it, the more bizarre things seemed.

"Qing Ya, you are saying that not only did Ye Hua interfere in the north's matters, but he also interfered in the south's matters?"

Donghuang Baizhi didn't dare to believe it. The more they speculated, the more confused they become about Ye Hua.

Qing Ya shook her head, "I don't know."

"Then, what if that is really the case?" Donghuang Baizhi's hypothesis made Qing Ya become a bit stupefied.

After quite a while, Qing Ya said gravely, "If everything was really done by Ye Hua, I will slowly change him, I won't leave his side. What about you?"

Donghuang Baizhi laughed lightly, "Ah Li is already this big, and she was only able to find her daddy after great difficulty, therefore, I naturally won't be leaving his side too."

The two women looked at each other and smiled.

Since Ye Hua was willing to throw his life aside for them, they naturally wouldn't leave Ye Hua, they were willing to take the time to slowly change their husband.

Ye Hua wants to express that he wasn't going to shoulder the blame.

However, Jue Tian was after all Ye Hua's subordinate, therefore, it wasn't possible for Ye Hua to not shoulder the blame for the massacre of sects and families.

"Then, what do we have to do to change Ye Hua's temper? At the least, we have to make him drop those fallacious reasonings of his." Donghuang Baizhi asked.

"I reckon that Ye Hua is going to want to prove those fallacious reasonings of his, thus, he will be setting his hands on those families. What we have to do is to let Ye Hua understand that this world isn't as he thinks. Although there are bad guys in this world, the majority of people are all good people."

Donghuang Baizhi's eyes lighted up, "Qing Ya, are you saying that, we should team up to stand up against Ye Hua?"

Qing Ya smiled, "Isn't that exciting?"

"A little. But what if we lose?"

"If we lose, we will obediently return home and beg for his forgiveness, and if we win, Ye Hua will become an obedient little baby."

Donghuang Baizhi smiled sweetly, immediately causing her to look extremely beautiful, "I love it when Ye Hua acts like an obedient little baby."

"Me too."

The two like-minded wives were preparing to turn the demon king into an obedient little baby. Their courage was truly applaudable.

However, they thought too simply.

Qing Ya, a businesswoman who only knows how to do business, and Donghuang Baizhi, an empress who hasn't experienced gale and storm, how could the two of them possibly be a match for Ye Hua, a man who has experienced countless battles and stands atop piles and piles of dead bodies.

This was going to be a battle between husband and wives, with the entire south and north as the chessboard.

Looking at the current situation, Donghuang Baizhi has the upper hand. After all, she was Voidless Realm's empress, and whatever she wanted to do with the aristocratic family election, all she had to do was speak.

And if Ye Hua wants to interfere in the aristocratic family election, he was going to have to set his hands on a family.

Donghuang Baizhi was intending to promptly collect all the information she could and adopt measures according to the information she obtained.

Right now, Donghuang Baizhi was guessing that Ye Hua was going to set his hands on Tang Family!

If Ye Hua knew about Donghuang Baizhi's guess, he would definitely shout out, "Foolish woman, how could I possibly be that obvious? Even if I sit at home and don't move, I am still able to properly give you two a lesson!"

This night, Ye Hua was destined to have to go to sleep while hugging onto a quilt.

If I had known that this would happen, I should have done the deed with Donghuang Baizhi during those past few days and let her know just how formidable I am!

If you two have the capability, don't come crawling back home!

I am definitely going to show them just how formidable I am and make them obediently acknowledge their mistake. Afterward, if they were to serve upon me together, I may perhaps let bygones be bygones!

Zijin City was at the heart of China, and Zijin University was a long-established university that was famous even in the entire world.

Zijin University was a university where many students yearned to attend, and there were even quite a number of foreign students at Zijin University.

Early morning on the campus, a floral scent that was able to refresh one's mind filled the air, and modern school buildings could be seen everywhere in the university.

Youthful students that were filled with vitality were walking around the campus while with a smile on their faces. This kind of carefree and worriless university life will end once they graduated, and their lives of despair will then begin.

"Quick, quick, quick, look over there, two beauties!" A freshman student pointed at two girls that were not far away from him and shouted out.

"As a freshman student, you should focus on your studies and shouldn't keep on thinking about girls!" A senior student criticized the freshman student, but his gaze was pointed at the two girls.

Chapter 349: Aloof prince charming Jue Tian

"Why does that girl seem so delicate? She makes me want to really protect her." The freshman student let out a sigh.

This is my first time seeing such a kind of girl, just looking at her makes me want to pamper and protect her.

"There are plenty of people who wants to protect her, with or without you, it won't make a difference." The senior student said in disdain.

The two weren't the only ones talking about the two girls in a low voice, other students were also doing that too. Because this girl innately has a face and aura that made others want to protect her and couldn't bear to see her suffer even a tiny bit of harm.

This girl was precisely Dongfang Yuer, and the girl beside her was her dormitory bestie, Song Xiaoxiao.

Compared to Dongfang Yuer, Song Xiaoxiao wasn't that outstanding. However, beauties always have to have other people by their sides to offset them, right?

It wasn't that Song Xiaoxiao wasn't good-looking, just that she wasn't as good-looking when compared to Dongfang Yuer.

Of course, the two's relationship was very good, the two were pretty much like sisters with each other.

"Yuer, our school hired a super, super, super aloof professor." Song Xiaoxiao who was holding onto Dongfang Yuer's arm said exaggeratedly, and she even made a gesture with her hand.

Dongfang Yuer was pondering about something in her mind and didn't hear what Song Xiaoxiao was saying.

"Yuer, later on is going to be the aloof prince charming professor's public lesson, so let's go early and occupy seats for ourselves. I heard that the aloof prince charming's classes are always full, and the students who attend his classes are all girls." Song Xiaoxiao said while with an infatuated look on her face.

Those few days when the professor was holding public lessons, I went to his lessons a bit too late and there weren't any seats left. Therefore, I was only able to look at the prince charming professor's gracefulness in the school forum.

The prince charming professor is so aloof and handsome~

There still wasn't any response from Dongfang Yuer, Dongfang Yuer seemed to have something heavy on her mind.

"Yuer, what are you thinking about?" Song Xiaoxiao asked while shaking onto Dongfang Yuer.

Dongfang Yuer came back to her senses, and she let out a slight smile, "Oh, nothing."

"Why have you turned foolish right after summer vacation ended? Let me bring you to go and see a handsome guy, I heard that looking at handsome guys can help to stimulate the brain cells, and thereby attain longevity."

Dongfang Yuer said gently, "I won't be going, you can go by yourself instead."

This summer vacation was practically a nightmare for Dongfang Yuer. Not only was she sold to Bai Family by her mother, but she also had to get verbally abused by Bai Qi. She was only able to have a bit of peace when she was back at this school that she was currently attending.

Listening to that tone of Dongfang Yuer's, Song Xiaoxiao immediately became melancholy.

My voice is loud, and Yuer's voice is very low and gentle. Even when Yuer is quarreling with other people, her tone would still always be low and gentle, causing her voice to possess no lethality at all.

However, I guess that that is why she is able to cause the guys to have the desire to want to protect her.

"You have to accompany me, I'm scared of going alone." Song Xiaoxiao pleaded, and the look on her face was practically saying, "if you don't come with me, I am going to cry".

Seeing that her close friend was pleading with her, Dongfang Yuer didn't have the heart to reject her close friend.

This was the kind of girl Dongfang Yuer was. She would rather see herself get injured than see others get injured. This was also why when her mother sold her to Bai Family, she didn't say anything about it.

"Alright." Dongfang Yuer smiled lightly.

"Great! Let's start running, or else we won't be able to get any seats." While speaking, Song Xiaoxiao pulled onto Dongfang Yuer and began running.

This immediately caused the boys who were looking at them to begin drooling saliva.

The sight of beautiful ladies running was truly a sight to behold. Long hair fluttering in the wind, and the objects that were bouncing up and down...

"Xiaoxiao, slow down." Dongfang Yuer's face turned red after running for a bit. Her weak physical strength was somewhat unable to keep up with running for too long.

All the way until the two reached the outside of a classroom, then did they stop running.

"It is fortunate that we ran fast enough, or else there won't be any seats left already." Song Xiaoxiao said as she patted onto her chest, while Dongfang Yuer had a helpless look on her face.

Dongfang Yuer wasn't interested in handsome guys, only studying was able to let Dongfang Yuer forget about a lot of things.

Looking within the spacious classroom, it could be seen that 70% of the seats have already been occupied, and right now there was still half an hour until the class starts.

Right when the two were about to sit down, a pretty-looking girl wrinkled her brows and shouted, "There is already someone sitting here!"

Song Xiaoxiao wasn't like Dongfang Yuer, "This seat isn't occupied at all, you are evidently occupying this seat for someone else!"

"That's right, I am occupying this seat for someone else, what are you going to do about it?"

Dongfang Yuer pulled onto Song Xiaoxiao and said lightly, "Let's just sit at the side."

Song Xiaoxiao took a glare at the girl, then sat on the seats that were located at the side with Dongfang Yuer. The seats that they were going to sit down on just now were located at the middle, and the view at the middle was the best.

Suddenly, the clicking sound of high heel shoes rang out, and everyone couldn't help but turn their heads over and took a look.

Turns out, it was actually the school belle, Guan Yanxin!

This girl possessed the height of a model, her skin was white, her face was pretty, and her figure was explosive. The red color skintight skirt of hers that she was currently wearing seems to be worn specially for the upcoming lesson, and the expression on her face was extremely haughty, seemingly like she was an empress.

Some freshman students could be heard discussing in a low voice.

"I heard that this Guan Yanxin's background is very big."

"I heard about her not too long after I came to this school, I heard that those people who provoked her have all withdrawn from the school."

"Lower your voice a bit, if she hears you talking about her, you will definitely be in for a trouble."

Guan Yanxin could be seen sitting on the seat that Song Xiaoxiao was going to sit on just now. The pretty girl at the side seems to be Guan Yanxin's follower.

"Tsk, what is she being cocky about." Song Xiaoxiao pouted her mouth.

Dongfang Yuer said lightly, "Alright, don't be angry."

All Song Xiaoxiao could do was pent up her anger. From her angle, she was going to only be able to see the side of the prince charming professor's face.

After quite a while, the aloof prince charming professor finally arrived.

With a dashing hairstyle, Jue Tian could be seen wearing a pure white western suit and a pair of gold frame eyeglasses. Adding along with the ice-cold aura that was being emitted out from his entire body, the students immediately went crazy when they saw him.

When Jue Tian walked into the classroom, he coldly swept his eyes over the classroom.

As expected, the students who are here for my class are all females. In the past, why didn't I notice that I possess such enticement toward the opposite sex?

When the students saw that Jue Tian arrived in the classroom, faint breathings began ringing out in the entire classroom.

Meanwhile, Jue Tian didn't care about it in the slightest bit as he slowly walked toward the lectern.

Not only did Jue Tian's action not cause the girls to have the feeling of dislike, but it also caused the girls to adore Jue Tian even more.

Looking at the female students, Jue Tian didn't want to waste time and speak nonsense. After all, Jue Tian was currently very busy as he had to formulate a series of plans for His Honor's plan.

"Do you all know what you all are here to learn today?" Jue Tian placed his hands behind his back and asked, and this action of his caused the female students to become dazed.

With her fists raised to her chin, Song Xiaoxiao said infatuatedly, "So handsome... so handsome..."

Dongfang Yuer remained unmoved, all she wanted to do was to listen to Jue Tian's class.

Guan Yanxin was behaving very calmly, but there was a strong feeling of wanting to control in her gaze, seemingly as if she wants to train the man in front of her into a little kitten.

“You, answer my question.” Jue Tian said as he pointed at Guan Yanxin.

Guan Yanxin slowly stood up from her seat, and looking at her graceful posture, it could be seen that she possessed a good upbringing.

“Professor, the reason I’m here is just to see you.” Guan Yanxin’s guts were very big, she immediately began flirting with Jue Tian.

All of the female students had a look of disdain on their faces.

Shameless woman, to actually try to seduce my prince charming!

Jue Tian took a look at Guan Yanxin and indicated her to sit back down, then pointed at Dongfang Yuer and asked, “What are you here for?”

Jue Tian was evidently asking Dongfang Yuer, but Song Xiaoxiao who was beside Dongfang Yuer ended up being the one who became extremely excited.

Dongfang Yuer stood up from her seat, then said gently, “I’m here to listen to your class.”

Upon hearing that, the female students clicked their tongues.

Even that Guan Yanxin also admitted that she was here solely for the professor, and yet you actually said that you are here to listen to his class? Are you even a woman?

This Dongfang Yuer is definitely trying to attract the aloof prince charming professor’s attention by saying that she is here to listen to his class, what a brilliant move.

Chapter 350: Entered my body

Jue Tian nodded his head, and the latter slowly sat back down on her seat.

Dongfang Yuer didn’t feel that Jue Tian was handsome at all.

“Within your eyes, what is hypnosis?” Jue Tian asked faintly.

A female student could be heard shouting out, “Professor, I’m willing to get hypnotized by you, then have you do illegal things to me!”

Tsk, tsk, tsk, this girl’s guts were even bigger.

The sounds of hissing filled the entire classroom.

Just how shameless is this student to actually say that to my prince charming?

Jue Tian didn’t get angry and said faintly, “Hypnosis is a part of science and requires knowledge. Take for example, in actuality, you have already been hypnotized by me, but you aren’t aware of it.”

Jue Tian was quick in learning how to teach a class, in just a few days of teaching, he was already rather good at teaching classes.

With just two sentences, Jue Tian immediately managed to stir up the atmosphere and shift the topic onto hypnosis.

All of the female students didn't believe in what Jue Tian said.

Jue Tian looked toward Guan Yanxin and asked faintly, "Do you believe?"

"I don't." Guan Yanxin shook her head.

Jue Tian then looked toward Dongfang Yuer and asked, "What about you?"

Dongfang Yuer shook her head.

"The two of you, come up to the stage."

Dongfang Yuer and Guan Yanxin were a bit confused as to what Jue Tian was going to do, but they still stood up from their seats and came up to the stage.

Two school belles being present at the same stage wasn't a scene that could often be seen.

"Professor, are you going to try and hypnotize us?" Guan Yanxin was poised, while Dongfang Yuer who was at the side appeared to be very quiet.

Jue Tian didn't look at Guan Yanxin, and instead, looked toward the students, "Just as I have said, they have already been hypnotized by me, just that they are unaware of it."

"Professor, you can't be all talk and no action!"

"That's right, that's right, at the least, you have to make our two school belles perform a bit of something."

"How about making them kiss with each other? If they do that, we will believe you."

Jue Tian didn't respond to any of them, and instead, he looked toward Dongfang Yuer and Guan Yanxin and said, "Lift up your hair."

The two school belles lifted up their hair, and there wasn't any peculiarity in their expressions, they seemed very normal.

"Professor Jue, isn't that too fake?"

A middle-aged man could be seen walking toward the stage. This middle-aged man was also a hypnosis professor, just that, no one really attends his lessons, while Jue Tian's lessons were always full of students. Therefore, he was here today to give Jue Tian a lesson.

Jue Tian said faintly, "Professor Liu, do you have any advice that you want to give to me?"

"I wouldn't dare to say that I have any advice for you. I just don't want to see the students get bluffed." Professor Liu said in a loud voice, seemingly like he was going to expose the fact that Jue Tian was a swindler.

Jue Tian didn't really care as he said faintly, "How are you going to prove that I am a swindler?"

"With hypnosis, of course!" Professor Liu said with confidence.

"Sure."

Seeing that Jue Tian agreed, Professor Liu looked toward the two school belles.

These two girls are so pretty, this Professor Jue sure knows how to have fun, to only call the school belles and not the other students. If I am able to touch their bodies for a bit after I have hypnotized them, it would be great.

"They have already been hypnotized by me, so you better find someone else from outside of the classroom."

Professor Liu was amused by what Jue Tian said, "This is the reaction of someone after they have been hypnotized? You should go and bluff primary school students instead."

"Come over." Jue Tian gestured his finger at the two school belles.

After Dongfang Yuer and Guan Yanxin walked over to Jue Tian's back, Jue Tian said faintly, "Help me massage my shoulders."

And as expected, the two school belles began massaging Jue Tian's shoulders.

"Alright, go back to where you two were standing."

During the entire process, there wasn't any peculiarity with the two school belles, they seemed very normal.

"Oh, how much money did you give them?" Professor Liu didn't believe that there was such a kind of hypnosis.

"Since you don't believe, you can go ahead and give it a try with your own hypnosis."

"Don't mind me then!"

While speaking, Professor Liu walked up to the stage, then took out a pocket watch and told the two school belles to lie down.

"Relax, relax your whole body, then close your eyes."

Jue Tian said faintly, "He is molesting you."

Right after Jue Tian finished speaking, the two school belles opened their eyes, and both of them gave Professor Liu a slap on his face.

Slap!

Slap!

"Old pervert!"

"Damn hoodlum!"

Right after, the two school belles ran off the stage, and the female students below were pointing at Professor Liu and bawling at him.

“Report him! To actually use hypnosis to take advantage of students!”

“That’s right, I saw this old pervert being touchy toward the two school belles!”

Professor Liu was completely stupefied.

What is going on, I had only spoken a sentence just now and didn’t do anything!

“Professor Liu, I have already told you, they have already been hypnotized by me.” Jue Tian gazed coldly at the old man in front of him.

If this is placed in the past, I would have long killed this old man already.

“You!!! Just you wait!”

While speaking, Professor Liu fled from the classroom. From now on, he was going to have to live with the title of being an old pervert.

Guan Yanxin said to Jue Tian, “Professor Jue, you have entered my body just now, you have to take responsibility~”

Immediately, the sounds of hissing rang out in the classroom.

Song Xiaoxiao said in a low voice, “Yuer, from the looks of things, Professor Jue has also entered your body just now.”

“What are you saying!” Dongfang Yuer said with her face red.

“I’m so envious, I also want Professor Jue to enter my body.”

In no time, the lesson came to an end, and Dongfang Yuer pulled onto Song Xiaoxiao who was still reluctant to leave and left the classroom.

Meanwhile, Guan Yanxin walked toward Jue Tian and said sweetly, “Professor Jue, are you free tonight?”

“No.”

Guan Yanxin blocked Jue Tian’s path and said sweetly, “Professor Jue, you have already entered my body just now, so how can you be so heartless to me right after?”

“Moreover, there is going to be a banquet tonight, and I want you to be my partner.” Guan Yanxin said sweetly, and that tone of hers was filled with unbounded enticement.

Jue Tian asked, “Family gathering?”

“From the looks of it, Professor Jue, you are also someone from the inner circle.” Guan Yanxin went into a daze for a moment, then said with a smile.

“Alright, come over and pick me up tonight.” After finishing speaking, Jue Tian left.

Looking at Jue Tian's aloofness, Guan Yanxin licked onto her red lips.

I precisely like aloof men that are like this, conquering men that are like this is pleasurable.

Jue Tian was currently living in the teachers' dormitory, and upon returning back to the dormitory, Jue Tian reported this news to His Honor.

Ye Hua only had one request, which was that, his two wives weren't allowed to obtain anything that could be used against him, even if they knew that he was the one plotting behind the scenes, they couldn't do anything if they don't have any proof.

Jue Tian expressed that he understood.

During the night, a red color Ferrari came to a stop outside of the school.

Jue Tian was still wearing the same white color western suit. After opening the Ferrari's door, Jue Tian entered the Ferrari.

The person who was driving the Ferrari was Guan Yanxin. Girls who were in their youth looked extremely enticing, every inch of their skin was emitting out fragrance.

However, Jue Tian was completely unmoved, if not for the fact that he needed a logical identity to use, he wouldn't have bothered to even be here.

"Professor Jue, you sure are handsome." Guan Yanxin was wearing a V-neck gown, and that deep chasm was enough to make one gasp in amazement.

Jue Tian said faintly, "Let's go."

"I precisely like men that are like you." Guan Yanxin teased, then stepped on the pedal.

Booming sounds rang out from the engine, resonating throughout the street, and the Ferrari began speeding on the road.

International Hotel was one of Zijin City's iconic buildings, International Hotel was a building where two straight buildings connected with each other at their tips, forming into a triangular building. The design concept of International Hotel was relatively fresh.

The moment the Ferrari arrived at the hotel, a manager immediately ran over and shouted out, "Miss Guan!"

"Park the car properly." Guan Yanxin threw her car key into the manager's embrace, and the manager hurriedly caught onto the car key.

Jue Tian got off the car, then adjusted onto his eyeglasses.

This Guan Yanxin's background seems to be not that simple.

Guan Yanxin could be seen walking to the front of Jue Tian, then actually embraced onto Jue Tian's arm and said sweetly, "What do you think? This hotel is opened by my family."
