You Cannot Afford To Offend My Woman

Chapter 57.1: Brother-in-law, I'm going to die~ 1/2

If Ye Hua's subordinates were to know that their honor was hurting his body because of a video game, who knows just what they would think about it. However, one thing that was certain was that they would definitely persuade Ye Hua and say, "Your Honor, it is just a game, there is no need to be so serious about it."

And when Ye Hua become serious, even he himself would become afraid of himself. It must be known that, in the beginning, Ye Hua started out as just a small and weak undead race, and walked up to the path of the strong one step by another step by relying on just himself. The hardships and death that he experienced in this journey of his, only he himself would be able to truly understand how it felt. However, he had never complain about the journey being hard, and had never felt that the journey was hard. Even more, he felt that the journey was a kind of enjoyment.

During the time where the computer still haven't arrive, Ye Hua silently watched his sister-in-law play the game and tried to learn and understand the characteristics of the game, although his sister-in-law would not be able to live more than 10 minutes every time.

If Qing Ya was a moaning monster, this sister-in-law is a trembling monster. Every time when she suddenly got killed, her entire body would tremble, and her gaze would become blank, then afterward, she would turn her head around and look at me pitifully. The expression of hers when she is requesting for console is simply formidable. This sister-in-law is indeed not the same. Qing Ya would never reveal this kind of expression.

At the other side, Qing Ya was currently sitting together with the company's higher-ups in the conference room and eating a lunchbox. Of course, the reason they were eating in the conference room was to speed up the speed of the meeting.

Looking at the entire conference room, within the entire higher-ups, there were only two middle-aged women, and the rest were all men. Although it was a meeting, to the men, it was also a beauty appreciating event. Even when they were eating their food, they would time to time secretly take a look at the female CEO that was sitting at the main sit.

Why is there such a beautiful woman in this world! In the past, although the CEO was also very beautiful, but she wasn't as stunningly beautiful as she is today. No matter how good the food in front of me taste, it still doesn't feel as good as secretly taking a peek at the CEO's beauty.

And as for Qing Ya, after eating a few bites, she couldn't eat it anymore. It wasn't that the food was not delicious, but just that she was feeling nauseous. Qing Ya felt that this symptom of hers was because that she was pregnant and blamed it all on Ye Hua in her heart. If not for him, I wouldn't feel nauseous when eating food, especially today's food.

Not sure what is he doing right, does he not know how to give me a call and care about me for a bit? He doesn't even know how to act like a husband should act!

When Qing Ya saw the ring that was in her ring finger, her negative emotion immediately disappeared and started feeling happy in her heart, and a slight smile unknowingly appeared on the corner of her mouth.

Immediately! The sound of swallowing saliva appeared in the conference room, and everyone's eyes were about to pop out. So this is how CEO Qing looks like when she smiles. It is truly beautiful, beautiful to the extreme!

Qing Ya swept her eyes through the higher-ups and everyone immediately lowered their heads and eat their food.

Sigh, I was already beautiful enough, but right now, I have become more beautiful. It is quite a trouble when I look so beautiful. I will definitely be met with the jealousy of others, especially those upper-class women that are at the pinnacle. This is all Ye Hua's fault. In any case, everything is Ye Hua's fault, and he must carry all the blame.

Not sure what he is doing right now. He is definitely ordering food delivery again, and it is definitely crayfishes again. Furthermore, he is definitely going to get my sister to help him peel the crayfishes. Well, this is good too, once my sister cannot stand it anymore, she will naturally go back home.

The conference meeting continued all the way until afternoon 4 pm. Apart from the half an hour break for eating lunch, the meeting did not stop once. It must be said that, Qing Ya was very formidable and the reputation of her being an able woman was not undeserved.

"Meeting dispersed!" Qing Ya shouted out coldly, then carried her bag and straightforwardly walked out of the conference room, preparing to go back home to see just what Ye Hua was doing. Actually, Qing Ya was feeling very nervous in her heart. What if I opened the bedroom door, and discovered Ye Hua and my sister lying together on the bed? What should I do at that point?

All the higher-ups did not know why their CEO was being so hurried for. It was reckoned that only General Manager Liu Hang would be able to guess why Qing Ya was being so hurried, but he wouldn't dare to speak about it.

Driving her car, Qing Ya rushed back to the bar at top speed. The murderous aura in her eyes was greatly visible. This was definitely the attitude of a wife who was going to catch an adultery! If Ye Hua really dares to do something that would let me down, then I would... I would die together with him!

Qing Ya who was driving the car began to let her imagination run wild in her mind, and when the image of her own man and sister lying together on the bed appeared in her mind, her eyes turned red.

Sigh, no choice, the syndrome of a pregnant woman, loving to blindly think about things.

Chapter 57.2: Brother-in-law, I'm going to die~ 2/2

Parking the car in front of the bar, Qing Ya took in a few deep breaths, then walked into the bar. Nothing is different from when I left the bar. Walking upstairs secretly, Qing Ya's heart was jumping faster and faster, especially when she stood in front of the bedroom door, her entire person was nervous to the extreme and her delicate hand which was holding onto the doorknob was trembling.

After this door opened, if what I imagined in my mind really happened, what should I do? Don't open the door? Give Ye Hua a call first and tell him that I am reaching home soon? This way, I would be able to not know anything...

With a complicated feeling, in the end, Qing Ya chose to open the bedroom door. When she saw the neat big bed that was currently empty, the heavy feeling that was in her felt disappeared.

Could it be that this fellow is currently in his office watching Pleasant Goat and Big Big Wolf? How big is he already, really! In the future, he can bring up the child while watching cartoon I guess.

Opening the office door, Qing Ya discovered that the office was empty too. Where is he?

Qing Ya silently looked towards the direction of the storage room, which had now become her sister's bedroom. Ye Hua is actually in my sister's room! The heavy feeling that just disappeared a while ago appeared once again.

Qing Ya clenched both of her hands tightly while standing in front of the door. After taking in a deep breath, she abrupt pushed the door open!

Within the room, it could be seen that it was billowing with smoke, and the back of two people appeared in Qing Ya's eyes. On the table, there were two cups of instant noodle and a bag of empty spicy sticks, and the spicy sauce of the bag of empty spicy sticks even flowed out onto the table. How can these two be so sloppy!

"Brother-in-law, give me the extended mag."

"Exchange with your silencer."

"Brother-in-law, how can you be like this? Your marksmanship is so noob that you can't even hit the enemy."

"Exchange with your silencer."

"Shhh, someone is coming over, quickly crawl down, quickly crawl down..."

Qing Ya was not sure if she should cry or laugh. These two fellows are actually playing a video game together. Seems like Pleasant Goat and Big Big Wolf can no longer satisfy their childish heart.

Quietly walking into the room, Qing Ya stretched her head forward between the two of them and took a look at the screens curiously. It could be seen that both of their characters were crawling down on a patch of grass. My sister face is filled with nervous, while Ye Hua's face seems to be really strange, as if he had just eaten a housefly.

"Ah!"

Qing Yutong originally wanted to mock her brother-in-law for a bit, but who would have known that, right after she turned her head, she saw a head of black hair, and was scared to the point that her soul was about to flew away, and unconsciously, she clicked onto her left mouse button.

"Bang, bang, bang."

Ye Hua said in a deep voice, "Qing Yutong, what are you firing your gun for! Don't you know that you will reveal our location!"

"Big sister, you are annoying!!! To actually not emit out any sound when you walk!!!" Qing Yutong's tender fist landed onto Qing Ya's arm. Afterward, she immediately began to control her character. The enemy know my location now.

"Brother-in-law, cover me, I am going to fight with them to the death!"

Ye Hua said in a deep voice, "Fight what, run to the other side instead!"

Seems like after experiencing death a number of times, Ye Hua had learn how to use tactic. Thinking back to the past, Ye Hua had never use any tactic before, and had pushed straight forward since the beginning, believing that all schemes and tricks are but paper tiger when faced against absolute true strength.

"Ah, ah, ah, brother-in-law, I'm down, quickly come over and help me up~"

"Why are you so stupid!" Ye Hua couldn't help but said. What this game relies on is team spirit. If I had played this game a few hundred years earlier, there would have been no way that I would get eliminated by those bunch of humans.

"Brother-in-law~ Help me up, I'm about to die! I'm about to die! I'm about to die!" Qing Yutong violently shook onto her brother-in-law. This match's result is the best one we had, we are already in top 20, the chicken is right in front of my eyes!
