

My Woman 571

Chapter 571 (You Really Know Nothing)

"Ye Hua, please take a seat," Qing Ya whispered. She noticed that her husband's expression wasn't good, probably due to her father.

Her father didn't know Ye Hua's true identity and only thought he was a bar owner. It was inevitable that he would underestimate him a little, especially since she was so perfect, beautiful, and rich. Sigh...beauty is also a sin.

If it weren't for the sake of her wife and younger sister's face, Ye Hua would have left based on Qing Huaxuan's expression alone. When has he ever been underestimated like this? Who doesn't tremble in fear at his feet?

Ye Hua sat down slowly without saying a word, which made Qing Huaxuan and the others unhappy. They should at least greet him. He didn't say a word since he walked in. How could that be? Were they still waiting for the elders to greet him?

Qing Huaxuan wanted this man to know that the Qing family was very powerful now!

"Little Ye, are you still running a bar?" Qing Huaxuan asked curiously, leaning back on the comfortable sofa.

Little Ye???

Ye Hua was stunned.

Qing Ya and Qing Yutong were also shocked.

The Supreme Overlord was actually called little Ye by an ordinary person? This has never happened before.

Ye Hua felt like he had been struck by lightning and was about to explode. If it weren't for him being Qing Ya's father, this man would have disappeared by now. He was so disrespectful to the Supreme Overlord!

Little Ye!!!

Ye Hua was infuriated.

Qing Ya quietly held Ye Hua's hand, asking him not to be angry. Her father didn't mean it.

With his wife's comfort, Ye Hua calmed down a bit.

Seeing Ye Hua's poor expression, Qing Huaxuan was quite satisfied. Compared to my Qing family, your little bar is nothing. It will go bankrupt in a matter of minutes.

"Little Ye, it's not easy to run a business nowadays. If your bar isn't making enough money, you can come to Qing Ya's company to help out," Qing Huaxuan said seriously. Although this man was lacking in some ways, he had to teach him well, since he was his child's husband.

Fortunately, Qing Huaxuan didn't say these words out loud, or Ye Hua would have exploded. But now it's almost the same. He actually said that the Supreme Overlord could earn a few pennies and asked him to work at his wife's company!

"Dad, we don't need it," Qing Ya hurriedly intervened to prevent her father from saying more, otherwise Ye Hua would definitely argue with her.

But how could Qing Huaxuan understand his daughter's meaning? And seeing his daughter defending a man like this made him even more angry.

"Little Ye, life is not easy. There are many things you young people don't understand. This world is not as simple as you two think." After speaking, Qing Huaxuan even struck a boss-like pose.

Why did Ye Hua feel like he was looking like himself?

Qing Yutong had a hard time suppressing her laughter when she heard her father's words. Her father was showing off in front of her brother-in-law. Haha! It's so funny!

Qing Ya also looked helpless. What should they do now? Her father was so proud of himself.

Suddenly, Qing Ya had an idea. As long as she pleased Ye Hua, everything would be fine. She secretly communicated with Ye Hua.

"What's wrong?" Ye Hua asked coldly.

"Husband~ Don't be angry, my dad didn't mean it." Qing Ya begged.

Ye Hua snorted. If he had meant it, he would have lost his temper already.

"Husband~ Don't be angry, I will serve you well tonight." Qing Ya could only promise Ye Hua what he wanted most.

Sure enough, when Ye Hua heard Qing Ya's promise, he calmed down a lot. "Any position is fine?" he asked.

"Um, as long as you're not angry, it's up to you."

"Okay, you said it!" Ye Hua felt better, but Qing Ya had no choice. As long as she pleased her husband, that was all that mattered.

Since Donghuang Bai Zhi announced her pregnancy, Ye Hua had been living a boring and miserable life.

Now that Qing Ya took the initiative to make love, Ye Hua was in a good mood and almost felt like granting a general amnesty.

Qing Huaxuan's gaze towards Ye Hua also became friendlier, as if to say that his daughter was doing a good job, making him very comfortable.

"Oh? Is there something I don't know?" Ye Hua followed Qing Huaxuan's words and continued to act cool in front of himself. Only you could still do this.

Qing Huaxuan laughed, as if he was laughing at Ye Hua's ignorance. But Ye Hua didn't care now. He just wanted tonight to come quickly. He had been holding back for over a month and was about to explode. His hands were already unable to fulfill his dreams.

"There are some things that telling you would be useless. I'm afraid it would scare you young people," Qing Huaxuan said.

"Pu!"

Qing Yutong couldn't take it anymore, clutching her stomach and bursting into laughter. 'Dad, can't you stop being so funny? Don't you know how embarrassing it is to brag in front of the Supreme Being?'

Qing Ya also laughed out loud. 'It's fine if my husband likes to show off, but even my father has started to do it. I hope our son won't follow suit and become a scientist in the future.'

Wang Muqing slapped his daughter in annoyance. "Yu Tong, why are you laughing at what your father said?"

"It's nothing. I just thought of something funny and couldn't help myself," Qing Yutong replied, laughing even harder.

However, this kind of smile looked like they didn't believe him. It seemed as if he had deceived them.

Ye Hua said calmly, "I've never been scared before. Why don't you try to scare me?"

"Okay! Let me show you young people something new," Qing Hua Xuan said seriously.

Qing Yutong laughed so hard she couldn't breathe.

"Yutong, you're so disrespectful!" Wang Muqing scolded his daughter.

Finally, Qing Yutong stopped laughing and prepared to hear how her father was going to scare them.

Qing Huaxuan glared at his daughter and said in a low voice, "There are people in this world who can perform spells. They're powerful! They can move heaven and earth, haha..."

Looking at Qing Huaxuan's serious expression, Ye Hua and the others were a little surprised. Such a small matter had been exaggerated by his expression. Not bad!

Qing Hua Xuan was very satisfied with this expression. It seemed that his words had already impressed these young people.

"Just in my North alone, there are many powerful forces! Our Qing family is also a pillar of the middle class."

Pu!

Even Qing Ya burst out laughing at this. When did the Qing family become a pillar of the middle class? Was her father just tricking children? It was too exaggerated.

The Qing family was not even a family now because Qing Huaxuan didn't know anything and couldn't be selected.

Seeing the attitudes of his two daughters, Qing Hua Xuan was very angry and said in a low voice, "Do you know that I have seen the most powerful person in the North? The Empress! Do you know who the Empress is? She controls the entire Northern forces and can change people's fate with just one word. You young people don't know anything!"

Hahahaha!

Chapter 572 (I'm afraid to scare you when I say it out loud)

Qing Ya and Qing Yutong were about to laugh themselves silly, even Ye Hua couldn't help but smile a little. Qing Ya's father was really amusing.

It turned out that ever since Qing Huaxuan had met the Empress during the last meeting, he had become inflated with pride. He boasted about his glorious history to everyone, and the Empress had even given him face. Those who were present at the time felt it too, and combined with Qing Huaxuan's words, it was hard not to believe him. As a result, everyone's attitude towards him had made a 180-degree turn.

"What are you laughing at? I have evidence!" Qing Huaxuan said in a deep voice, unable to believe that this young man didn't trust him.

Evidence?

Ye Hua and the others were stunned and curious about what evidence he had.

"Dad, let me see the Empress you're talking about," Qing Yutong asked coquettishly, but her smile grew even stronger. Her dad had changed.

Qing Huaxuan took out his phone and found the photo. "Take a look, this is a photo of me and the Empress."

Photo?

Ye Hua and Qing Ya were amazed. There didn't seem to be a photo that day. Was it taken privately? And the Empress say anything about it?

Qing Yutong grabbed the phone, and Ye Hua and Qing Ya looked over.

In the photo, the Empress Baizhi of the Voidless Realm stood tall and elegant, with Qing Huaxuan respectfully standing beside her.

But if you looked closely, the Empress Baizhi in the photo was a bit strange, like she had been photoshopped.

Qing Ya was so helpless. Her dad was actually fooling people with a photo like this.

In fact, Qing Huaxuan wasn't really fooling people. He just felt honored to have met the Empress and had someone photoshop a picture as a memento to prove that he had met her.

"Yar, if you had half the grace of the Empress, I would be at ease," Qing Huaxuan sighed lightly. His daughter's appearance was just as beautiful as the Empress's, but she fell short in terms of temperament.

Ye Hua laughed when he heard this. That was well said.

"Qing Ya, did you hear that? Learn from the Empress," Ye Hua patted Qing Ya and teased her.

When it came to temperament, Empress Baizhi was indeed slightly better than Qing Ya. The two women had also demonstrated their auras in front of Ye Hua before. Empress Baizhi had a strong aura, while Qing Ya didn't have that kind of intensity, probably because of her appearance.

Qing Ya was the gentle type. Even if she had a straight face, she didn't have that kind of strong effect.

Donghuang Baizhi is different. When she puts on a stern face, she's very scary, but when she smiles, it's like a completely different person. Ye Hua secretly made the Empress Baizhi put on a stern face, and then...

It was so satisfying.

Qing Ya gave Ye Hua an angry glare and often teased herself about this incident.

Ye Hua's attitude made Qing Huaxuan a little unhappy. He was teaching his daughter, so why was Ye Hua interfering?

"Little Ye, you need to change too. Ya'er is so outstanding, you need to become even more outstanding." [er means child]

Qing Ya felt great satisfaction. This was what a real father should be like.

"Ye Hua, did you hear that? You need to become even more outstanding," Qing Ya launched a counter-attack, which made Ye Hua very unhappy. Wasn't he already outstanding? There was no one else in the world as outstanding as him.

Ye Hua remained silent, quietly listening to their boasting. Today, he wouldn't bother.

Qing Huaxuan sighed softly, "Actually, it's better to be ordinary. We should participate less in that kind of world, the competition is too intense. I'm afraid it might scare you if I tell you everything."

Ye Hua and the others remained silent.

"Alright, I'll tell you guys, so you can be a bit more vigilant." Qing Huaxuan couldn't hold back anymore. Did they think he wouldn't scare them if he didn't speak? Don't be so naive.

"I heard that it's not safe for both the north and the south these days, especially in the north where many people have died. You guys need to be careful and not get involved!"

Suddenly, Qing Hua Xuan remembered something and asked in a low voice, "Qing Ya, Yutong, how did you two get involved in that big shot's event? Empress Baizhi asked me about it last time! You two need to explain clearly what happened that night!"

This had been bothering Qing Hua Xuan for a long time. Fortunately, the Empress Baizhi didn't pursue it last time, although it was strange. But it was still a good thing, otherwise the Qing family would have been in trouble.

Qing Yutong explained, "Dad, that night, the Doctor Shen took us to participate in an auction, but he ran away, which made me and my sister very embarrassed. He was really shameless."

"Then what happened? Did you see anything else?" Qing Hua Xuan asked.

Qing Yutong was a top-notch actress, and she hesitated before shaking her head.

Qing Huaxuan thought it was unlikely that his two daughters, who didn't even dare to kill a chicken, would go and kill someone. It was too unrealistic.

And this man, he probably wouldn't even dare to hold a knife, he was so weak...

After answering this question, Zi Han also began to ask.

"Your child has been born, and you have also received your marriage certificate. When are you planning to hold the wedding?"

"A wedding?"

If it weren't for her mother bringing it up, Qing Ya would have forgotten that Ye Hua still owed her a wedding. Ye Hua had also completely forgotten about it. He did owe Qing Ya a wedding, though.

Qing Ya held her son and looked a little angry. "Ask him," she said, indicating Ye Hua.

Everyone looked at Ye Hua. Qing Ya must have been angry with him again.

In fact, Ye Hua wanted to give them an unprecedented wedding, not just an ordinary one that was meaningless. Now, he not only had to give an explanation to Qing Ya's family but also to Qing Ya herself.

"Don't worry, there will definitely be a wedding."

Everyone nodded. A man should take responsibility.

Qing Ya was also very happy after hearing this. As long as Ye Hua promised, it would be realized in the future. Although it was no longer a wedding for just one person, she was already at ease. Ye Hua was such a powerful man, having two women was normal, but having another one was impossible!

Next, everyone chatted about everyday matters, and Ye Hua's attitude seemed to have been accepted. What could they do if they didn't accept it?

But everyone's attention turned to Qing Yutong.

"Yutong, now that your sister has a child, when do you plan to solve your personal problems?" Wang Muqing, as Qing Yutong's mother, was really worried.

But Qing Yutong didn't care and said, "It's okay. My brother-in-law will help me find someone. He promised me."

She was actually thinking, her butt belonged to her brother-in-law now, who else could she look for? She would hold onto her brother-in-law's thigh for the rest of her life.

Qing Huaxuan had to dispel his daughter's idea. What kind of people could this bar owner know? They were all insignificant people.

Of course, Qing Huaxuan didn't say this out loud. "Yutong, since it's the Lunar New Year, let me arrange something for you to meet someone!"

Chapter 573 (Spiritual Energy Recovery)

"I won't go on a blind date. I'm going upstairs to sleep. Bye~" Qing Yutong said and ran upstairs after speaking.

Wang Muqing sighed softly, feeling helpless.

"Ya'er, persuade your sister to stop acting like this. She'll be almost thirty in a few years, and no one will want her then," Zi Han said in a low voice.

Qing Ya chuckled, "With Yutong's looks, who wouldn't want her? Right, Ye Hua?"

"En, you're right," Ye Hua nodded, feeling that there was more to Qing Ya's words.

Everyone shook their heads helplessly. Yutong's personal problems were also a headache. Their daughter was so beautiful, and they were worried that someone would take advantage of her. It was really worrying.

At 9 o'clock in the evening, Ye Hua and Qing Ya returned to their room. Qing Ya was holding their son, feeding him.

Ye Hua took out the red envelope and counted the money inside. This family was quite generous, which pleased him. The first time he saw a check in a red envelope, it was interesting. It was indeed a wealthy family.

Just as Ye Hua was sighing, a small hand grabbed the money in the envelope.

"They're very generous. I packed a big red envelope for you," Qing Ya smiled and looked at Ye Hua, blinking her beautiful eyes. Their son Ye Yan had eaten enough and was sleeping quietly.

Ye Hua frowned, "What are you doing? Give it to me. This is mine!"

"Hmph, I'm not giving it to you. Men become bad when they have money," Qing Ya mercilessly took the check and didn't give Ye Hua any pocket money.

Ye Hua also mercilessly hugged Qing Ya's delicate body, "Where did you hear such nonsense?"

"What? Only you're allowed to have nonsense ideas, but I can't?" Qing Ya said coquettishly, her tone full of charm, which made Ye Hua's heart beat faster. Qing Ya was becoming more and more charming, every move and gesture exuded a unique charm.

"You promised me today that we would try all kinds of positions," Ye Hua said softly, unable to contain himself.

Qing Ya blushed, "Our son is still sleeping. Next time."

"Heh, as if this deity will allow you to have a next time," Ye Hua sneered, hugging Qing Ya and disappearing into their room, heading to the bedroom on the second floor of the Qing Bar.

Qing Ya hurriedly said, "Our son is still on the bed~"

"Don't worry, no one can hurt our son," Ye Hua said before kissing her passionately, revealing his strong desire.

Qing Ya and Ye Hua haven't been entangled for a long time. The fire in their hearts was ignited instantly, and they both fell onto the big bed, enjoying the pleasure crazily.

It wasn't until 3 o'clock in the morning that they returned to Qing Ya's home. Qing Ya was exhausted and didn't even want to move her fingers.

Ye Hua was still very excited and couldn't sleep at all. He even felt a little unsatisfied, but unfortunately, Qing Ya was too weak.

Maybe he should go find the Empress to relieve his desires, but it was too late.

Even if he went, the Empress wouldn't allow it. Pregnant women couldn't communicate at all.

Ye Hua leaned on the bed and looked at his wife and son. He was very satisfied with the current situation. If it weren't for the big revenge that hadn't been avenged, he would be happy to live like this forever.

Gradually, Ye Hua fell into deep thought.

Last year, there were many problems, and the cultivators in this world suffered heavy losses. Of course, this was not his fault. They were killing each other or simply reaping what they sowed. He only provoked a little bit.

But no matter what, he still had a macro perspective now, which was helpful for future battles.

However, the problem now was that with so many cultivators lost, how could he make up for the shortfall?

With fewer people, the game seemed less fun, and the entire world of cultivation was declining too much, which he had not expected.

How could he increase the number of cultivators? This was a problem.

As for that so-called Justice League, they probably wanted to form their own faction. He had to grant them a wish.

How could he increase the number of cultivators...

Ye Hua's mind quickly thought about it. The spiritual energy on Earth was depleted, and ordinary people couldn't feel it. The powerful cultivators absorbed the meager spiritual energy, causing a shortage of spiritual energy.

If he could cover the entire world with spiritual energy, then a large number of cultivators would appear.

Ye Hua thought this was a good idea. Cultivation was about strengthening the body and could prolong life.

'Humans, you should really thank the mercy of this deity.'

Ye Hua's mouth curved into a smile. He had already figured out how to do it.

He left a mirror image on the bed so as not to be discovered by Qing Ya. Some things still had to be done secretly. This deity never left a name for doing good deeds, and even if he did, it was only infamous.

At this moment, Ye Hua came to a height of ten thousand meters and looked down at the entire earth. As long as Ye Hua wanted, the falling sun and burning sky could turn this world into a sea of fire.

Ye Hua's hands began to gather a huge amount of spiritual pressure, and the whole sky seemed to be shaking. At this moment, many people felt the terrifying spiritual energy slowly condensing, even thinking it was the end of the world.

Because such spiritual pressure is simply not something that humans can withstand!

Ye Hua chuckled, "You should really thank me. I have given you longevity and health, of course, also death and despair. It depends on how you choose!"

"Spiritual energy, recover!"

As Ye Hua's hands clenched, the huge spiritual pressure in his hands burst open, forming a white spiritual energy that enveloped the entire world. After doing this, Ye Hua disappeared into the sky and slept with his wife and children, curious about what the world would be like tomorrow.

He was really excited...

However, at this time, a heavy rain began to pour outside, and of course, the majestic spiritual energy surrounded the air.

Ordinary people slept particularly soundly on this night. The rich spiritual energy was changing their physical constitution. Even if they didn't practice, their lifespan could double, and their immunity was also strong. They would never get a cold.

Of course, for the cultivation world, this was considered good, but overall, it was still quite bad.

For them, this amount of spiritual energy was sufficient. Giving more would be useless!

Everyone knows that the scarcity of a thing makes it valuable. If the spiritual energy was so abundant, wouldn't everyone be able to practice? Then where would their status be? Their special existence would return to a normal state. Wasn't that killing them?

Indeed, Ye Hua's actions made the cultivators very annoyed. Even the most ordinary cultivators were respected and admired. But now, that was just a normal thing. Who would still admire and respect them?

However, for the powerful cultivators, this was still a good thing. With more people respecting them, they no longer needed to abide by the rules set by the giants. They could appear on the streets of the city openly.

In one night, Ye Hua once again stirred up the situation in the cultivation world.

The moment of universal cultivation has arrived, and the world will be even more interesting in the future.

Chapter 574 (Consequences of Spiritual Energy Recovery)

~Ying Family~

Ying Jingshan had already left the room and was gazing at the sky with a furrowed brow.

'How did the spiritual energy recover? What's going on?'

'And that massive spiritual pressure, could it be an Overlord?'

'If it really is an Overlord, then this is too powerful. With just a wave of the hand, they can make the spiritual energy recover. It's terrifying!'

But whether this spiritual energy recovery is a good thing or a bad thing, Ying Jingshan didn't know. He just has a feeling that it's not a good thing.

~Voidless Realm~

Donghuang Baizhi was also awakened by the terrifying spiritual pressure, even though she had a barrier up.

This recovery of spiritual energy was too strange and sudden, with no warning at all. And who was releasing that terrifying spiritual pressure?

Was it a person or the heavens?

Donghuang Baizhi immediately thought of her husband, 'Could it be Ye Hua's doing? It couldn't be...'

'Is he really that powerful?' She'll ask Qing Ya tomorrow to find out.

But as for how to deal with this spiritual energy recovery, Donghuang Baizhi also didn't know. The situation had changed too quickly, and there was no time to prepare.

In the family villa, the members of the Justice League also felt it.

"So powerful, is this man-made or something else?" Wang Dabao muttered as he looked up at the sky.

Feng Tian also had a look of horror on his face. The spiritual pressure just now was suffocating, and it exploded in an instant. The majestic spiritual energy fell with the rain. What is going on?

Qing Tiandi looked up at the sky and remained silent.

"As for the current situation, I think this should be a good thing," Chen Xuanzong said calmly. The recovery of spiritual energy will bring about a large number of cultivators. Who's afraid of not having enough people then?

Bai Cixing also felt the same way. The more people, the more powerful they are.

Qing Tiandi sighed softly. This recovery of spiritual energy had disrupted all of his plans. Was it man-made or a variable? Even Qing Tiandi couldn't tell.

It seems that in the first round of the mental competition, Ye Hua also won a round, completely disrupting Qing Tiandi's plan.

"Now that spiritual energy has recovered, let's obey the will of heaven and completely promote the appeal of the Justice League! Let's gather heroes from all over the world!" Qing Tiandi exclaimed lightly, regaining his confidence.

Everyone nodded in agreement, and this idea was not surprising.

Qing Tiandi's surging expression gradually eased, and he curiously asked, "Is Meituan delivering today?"

Everyone: "..."

At the winery in Long'an City, Jiu Ye was not asleep at all. Instead, he stood excitedly in the heavy rain, his face a bit strange. He seemed nervous and excited at the same time.

After a while, Jiu Ye finally calmed down and raised his head slightly to look at the sky: "Heaven, you finally opened your eyes!!! Is this the taste of spiritual energy? My Jiu Ye has finally turned the tables! Hahaha!!!"

Jiu Ye ran madly in the pouring rain, as if he had gone crazy. He came to a big tree and pressed his palm on it, and a blue light swept over it.

Suddenly, the ground next to it sank, revealing a staircase, and a row of lights suddenly lit up.

Jiu Ye walked down the stairs, which were about ten meters long, and came to his secret room with a clap of his hand.

The voice-controlled lights all turned on. If someone was there at this time, they would surely be shocked by the things that Jiu Ye had collected.

Jiu Ye had collected so many treasures as rewards for serving various masters, and he thought he would never use them in his lifetime because some of them needed spiritual energy to activate. Now that spiritual energy had recovered, he had the strength to use these treasures!

Jiu Ye looked at his treasures with admiration and casually picked up an ancient sword.

Jiu Ye snorted, "An ancient divine weapon, I'm not interested in it!"

There were even fragments of ancient divine artifacts and artifacts from the chaotic era, as well as spiritual medicines and so on, all placed next to him.

These were all rewards given to Jiu Ye by his previous masters, which also indicated that his previous masters were indeed powerful, and they could casually give away such good things.

Jiu Ye also chose his masters carefully. Do you think anyone can be his master? You're thinking too much!

At the bottom of the Pacific Ocean, Qi Xuewen had turned into a small golden dragon, devouring various fish.

"When will this end? I owe so much debt, but luckily I got the longevity fruit, otherwise I would have been in big trouble. I originally wanted to get first place, but Xin Ba is just too strong."

Just as Qi Xuewen was feeling emotional, he suddenly felt a sense of crisis behind him and immediately used a move called "Dragon's Tail Swing!"

The sea suddenly boiled, and Qi Xuewen stared blankly at the strange creature in front of him.

"What the hell is this fish? Why does it have two heads and feet, and such a huge body? Why haven't I seen it before?" Qi Xuewen was stunned by this unidentified creature in front of him. According to the system feedback, this fish is of great value, and swallowing it can exchange for a huge amount of dragon energy!

However, this fish seems to look down on Qi Xuewen, a little golden dragon, and swims away. How could Qi Xuewen give up such a good opportunity? He quickly chased after it.

Gradually disappearing into the darkness of the sea.

However, just half a minute later, a small golden dragon was seen running crazily, followed by a group of those strange fish.

Ang!!!

Suddenly, a loud noise rang out as Qi Xuewen was running away. A large area of darkness enveloped him.

Qi Xuewen looked up and was scared out of his wits.

'What the hell is this!'

A giant whale hundreds of meters long appeared above him, suddenly opening its bloody mouth. The sharp teeth shining with silver light made people shudder.

It ate those strange fish in one bite.

Qi Xuewen's mind was already in a daze. When could whales come down to such a deep place, and be so long and huge?

With a panicked look on his face, Qi Xuewen felt that he had to hurry back home. But on the way, he saw many strange creatures that scared him to shiver. Have you ever seen a lobster the size of a tank?

Damn it, they're all mutated!

Xin Ba lived in Yangshan City, and at this time he was also staring blankly at the heavy rain.

"Master, what's going on?" Xin Ba asked dumbfoundedly, feeling the abundant spiritual energy around him.

His master said calmly, "Someone has opened the door of spiritual energy, and this person is terrifying!"

"Then we just don't provoke him."

"Xin Ba, now that the spiritual energy is abundant, you should focus on cultivation. The current situation is favorable to us!"

"I understand, Master. You can rest assured, I will cultivate well." Xin Ba nodded. This is his chance. The heavens have given him such strong spiritual energy, just to let him rise!

At this moment, various caves appear in the remote mountainous areas, and the dark deep forests are filled with the low hum of monsters. Wild tigers suddenly become huge and even more bloodthirsty.

Chapter 575 (A Big Bird Poop)

This is the recovery of spiritual energy. Humans are improving, and all animals are improving too!

On the Pacific Ocean, a luxurious cruise ship sailed in the darkness, emitting a unique light, like a candle in the dark.

In the control room, several crew members were checking the data to ensure safety.

Suddenly, the cabin door was pushed open, and a foreigner in pajamas walked in.

"Captain!"

"Captain!"

"Captain!"

The captain, wearing a heavy coat, looked around and asked, "Is everything safe?"

"Report, everything is safe."

The captain nodded, relieved. This was his last voyage, and he would retire afterwards. There could be no mistakes.

Beep... beep... beep...

At this moment, the radar suddenly sounded an alarm, which startled everyone. There should be nothing else in this area, except for other ships?

The crew immediately checked, and when they saw what the radar was showing, they were all stunned.

"What's going on?" the captain asked.

The frequency of the radar alarm became faster and faster, as if it was about to collide.

The captain panicked, rushed over, pushed aside the crew members, and put his hands on the radar console, his pupils suddenly dilated!

The radar was all in shadow, showing a huge creature approaching rapidly!

"What is this thing!" the captain exclaimed, and all the crew members were at a loss.

Just as everyone was panicking, the ship suddenly shook violently, and that huge creature was right under the ship!

The captain hurriedly ran out and stood on the deck. Then, with the help of the light, the boiling sea could be seen, and a giant creature could be vaguely seen swimming.

"Dear God, what is this thing..." the old captain exclaimed, sweating profusely and looking terrified.

"Captain! We have a problem! The cabin is filling with water!"

The captain furrowed his brows and shouted, "Close the valves! Call for rescue!"

"Yes, sir!"

The captain turned back to the dark sea, which had now calmed down as if nothing had happened.

It was a sunny morning on the third day of the Lunar New Year. Warm sunlight shone through the window and illuminated the bedroom. Qing Ya was snuggled up in Ye Hua's arms, and their son, Ye Yan, was even crawling on his father's chest with drool dripping from his mouth.

"Why are you still sleeping? Something happened!" Donghuang Baizhi suddenly appeared at the bedside.

Ye Hua slowly opened his eyes and saw his son, as well as the drool on his son's mouth.

'Oh my god... why is he drooling like his mother...'

"Waaah!" Qing Ya whimpered a few times and opened her beautiful eyes. "Baizhi, you're here so early in the morning."

Ye Yan also opened his eyes and saw his father's fierce gaze. He was so scared that he clung to his mother's arms.

"Look at this drool. He got it from you," Ye Hua said helplessly, pointing at the drool on his pajamas.

Qing Ya snorted, "He's your son too."

"I mean... did you guys hear what I said?" Donghuang Baizhi was speechless. Why were they discussing drools when something was happening?

Qing Ya sat up and asked, "What's wrong?"

"You'll know when you look outside." Donghuang Baizhi replied.

Yawning, Qing Ya picked up her son and opened the window.

Then... she was stunned. She rubbed her eyes as if she had seen a ghost.

"What a huge bird..." Qing Ya muttered.

They saw a giant magpie flying in the sky, as if it were a low-flying Boeing 747.

Ye Hua also stood by and watched. 'Damn, can spiritual energy recovery make birds this big?'

"What's going on here?" Qing Ya was very puzzled, completely unaware of what to say. Could she be dreaming?

Donghuang Baizhi covered her forehead and asked, "Ye Hua, Qing Ya, didn't you two feel anything?"

"Wow! The spiritual energy has become much denser," Ye Hua exclaimed. As someone who has won the Best Actor award, he was quite dramatic, but he hasn't acted in a long time.

Qing Ya also felt it and exclaimed, "This spiritual energy..."

"That's right! The spiritual energy has recovered." After saying this, Donghuang Baizhi looked at Ye Hua, seeming to ask if he had something to do with the revival of the spiritual energy.

Ye Hua calmly said, "I was with Qing Ya last night, you can ask her."

Qing Ya was not embarrassed and said, "Ye Hua was with me all night yesterday."

Donghuang Baizhi felt a little embarrassed after hearing this and gave her husband an apologetic look.

After all, Ye Hua's strength displayed on the Canglie Planet was too powerful, and Donghuang Baizhi could only think of this possibility.

Ye Hua turned his head to look at the magpies in the sky.

Suddenly, a magpie pooped and covered a passing car...

Ye Hua's mouth twitched. Fortunately, he didn't say it was his doing. The consequences would have been beyond his imagination.

"I'll go back and deal with it first. Everything is a mess." After saying this, Donghuang Baizhi left the bedroom.

Ye Hua and Qing Ya stood by the window, watching the bird poop like a bomb, it was terrifying!

At this time, Qing Yutong also rushed in and said, "Brother-in-law, sister, something big happened! Come and watch the news!!!"

Ye Hua and Qing Ya went downstairs and saw Qing Ya's whole family watching the news with shocked faces.

For example, the tigers in the zoo turned into terrifying monsters.

Although the monkeys did not become larger, they became extremely fast, and the supermarket was taken over by them.

A cruise ship was split open by an unknown creature, but fortunately there were no casualties.

Some people could push cars, and some could punch ATMs.

In short, everything was a mess!!!

This was an unexpected and unbelievable event. Nobody had thought it would turn out like this, it was too exaggerated.

"It's easy to start a fire, but hard to put it out."

"Everything's in chaos... financial crisis... we're going bankrupt..." Qing Huaxuan covered his forehead and let out a long sigh.

"Qing Ya, I need to go help Baizhi. Take care of our son for a few days. Yutong, come with me!"

After speaking, Qing Ya handed Ye Yan to Ye Hua, then hurriedly took her sister upstairs and rushed to the Voidless Realm.

Ye Yan hadn't even reacted yet and he was already in his father's arms. Did Mommy not want him anymore? She threw him into the midst of danger...

Terrified, Ye Yan wet himself...

Ye Hua's face stiffened, feeling a surge of heat, and looked down.

His son had actually wet himself.

'Oh, for f*ck's sake!'

Embarrassed, Ye Yan looked at his father. 'Daddy, you scared Ye Yan so much that he wet himself. Don't blame me...'

Just as Ye Hua was about to change his clothes, a news report caught his attention.

"This just in, a group calling themselves the Justice League has emerged. They have used their powerful abilities to help people eradicate evil, and individuals with similar abilities have appeared in various places. They call themselves... cultivators!"

Chapter 576 (First New Year Meeting)

On the TV screen, Wang Dabao was shown killing a giant rat with a bloody swipe, causing the camera to blur and making viewers feel nauseous. With a hand wiping the lens, Wang Dabao grinned and said, "Welcome to the Justice League. We are a team that upholds the safety of the world. Where there is danger, we will be there."

But before he could finish his sentence, he was snatched away by an eagle.

Not only the Justice League, but many others seized the opportunity to recruit powerful individuals to maintain public order. After all, they were all smart people and wouldn't give up such a good opportunity.

Qing Huaxuan, who was previously down on his luck, suddenly exclaimed, "Looks like our company has to switch to a new line of business!"

Ye Hua took his son upstairs to change clothes, feeling that this was not something they should get involved in. Even if they did, it wouldn't be effective. This was a large-scale disaster that couldn't be solved by a few thousand people in the Voidless Realm.

After putting a diaper on his son and dressing him, Ye Hua breathed a sigh of relief and then began changing his own clothes. His son, Ye Yan, sat on the bed, staring at his father with big eyes, looking less fierce than he thought. It seemed he wasn't a gift from topping up mobile phone credit after all.

With his son strapped to his chest, Ye Hua prepared to go to Voidless Realm and give them some practical advice.

In the desert outside of the Voidless Realm, a giant poisonous scorpion crawled slowly, along with a huge cobra that could scare people out of their wits.

Inside Voidless Realm, Donghuang Baizhi was discussing countermeasures with Qing Ya, and Qing Yutong had changed her playful demeanor, giving the most loyal suggestions.

At this time, Ye Hua appeared beside them, and the three women couldn't help but sneer at his appearance as a super dad.

Qing Ya saw her son with Ye Hua and stopped crying, feeling a bit more at ease.

"Don't bother discussing anymore. Many cultivators have come out to resist, and the crisis will be resolved soon," Ye Hua said calmly.

Little Ye Yan sucked his fingers and looked curiously, not making a fuss.

Donghuang Baizhi said in a low voice, "Even if the crisis in the city is resolved, what about outside? For example, these animals that have evolved into spiritual beings in the desert."

Ye Hua showed a look that said "You guys are idiots."

"This is the law of nature. Do you plan to eliminate all danger? You three women, along with a few thousand people in Voidless Realm? Dream on," Ye Hua mercilessly struck them with his words, not knowing what was going through their minds. His words hit the three women hard.

Pausing for a moment, Ye Hua spoke again: "The recovery of spiritual energy this time is a test for the people, and also indicates the beginning of a new era. People need to adapt to the new era, and so do you. You all are so foolish."

Ye Yan in his arms nodded in agreement, thinking that his dad was right.

Qing Ya looked at her son nodding and immediately felt uneasy. She had only left him with Ye Hua for a little over ten minutes, and he was already being influenced by his father.

"Why? I'm just spending time with my child and building a relationship with him." Ye Hua refused to give in, and Qing Ya was getting frustrated, feeling like her husband was trying to take their child away from her.

"Ye Hua, I still need to breastfeed him," Qing Ya insisted, but Ye Hua was still firm. Baizhi and Qing Yutong could only shake their heads.

"I can feed him too," Ye Hua said in a low voice.

"Wow, brother-in-law, you have that capability too?" Qing Yutong exclaimed.

Qing Ya stood on the side, biting her lip, looking like she was about to cry if Ye Hua didn't give their child back to her.

"You continue with the meeting. I'll take our son out to play," Ye Hua said before he left. Qing Ya was left stomping her foot in anger.

"Qing Ya, don't be upset. Can Ye Hua really take your son away?" Baizhi chuckled.

"Yeah, your husband can even breastfeed your child. I'm really curious how he does it," Qing Yutong added, trying to imagine the scene.

"Let's continue discussing our plans for the future," Baizhi said seriously, trying to refocus everyone's attention.

Qing Ya and Qing Yutong also became serious. This matter could not be taken lightly.

Meanwhile, Ye Hua had called all his subordinates to a representative conference at Qing Bar. The location had been moved from the bathroom to the main hall, which made Wei Chang and Lie Gu relieved.

"All subordinates, bow down to Your Majesty and little Majesty!"

Everyone respectfully bowed down.

Ye Yan blinked his big eyes, looking at his father's subordinates with curiosity.

"You can all rise," Ye Hua said calmly.

"Thank you, Your Majesty!"

Ye Hua took out a cigarette, paused for a moment, and put it away again. He still had his son with him, and smoking was not a good idea.

Sitting on the high chair, Ye Hua said calmly, "You all should know about yesterday's events."

All his subordinates nodded. They had felt something strange last night and knew that Your Majesty must have a new plan.

"In the new year, there must be a new atmosphere. I am giving spiritual energy as a gift to the world!"

"May Your Majesty be blessed with great fortune. This will be a great transformation for humanity." The subordinates shouted in unison again, as if they had already rehearsed their lines beforehand.

Ye Hua nodded his head. Ye Yan, who was in his arms, also nodded his head, but Ye Hua didn't see it.

"Speak up, what is your goal for this year?"

Uh oh! His Majesty is starting an exam!

Lie Gu and Ye Zizi immediately shut up and didn't participate in this kind of exam. If they didn't speak well, they would be scolded.

Seeing that the subordinates were not speaking, Ye Hua had to call on someone.

"Ye Zizi, you tell us, what will this lord do in the future!"

"Ah~" Ye Zizi exclaimed, "Why, Your Majesty, you know I'm lazy and not suitable for answering questions."

"What do you mean by 'ah'! Speak up!" Ye Hua lightly scolded.

Ye Zizi pouted and said in frustration, "Your Majesty wants to unify the world."

Everyone: "....."

Isn't unifying the world just a matter of time for His Majesty?

As expected, they shouldn't have asked Ye Zizi. That was a waste of time.

Seeing the disappointed expression on Your Majesty's face, Ye Zizi lowered her head in grievance. After all, she wasn't good at answering questions.

"Wei Chang, you tell us," Ye Hua asked calmly, feeling that after a year, his subordinates seemed to have become foolish.

Wei Chang paused, took a step forward and respectfully said, "Your Majesty wants to repeat the same trick."

"Is this lord such a boring person? Would I use the same trick twice?" Ye Hua frowned, very dissatisfied.

The subordinates felt Your Majesty's dissatisfaction and began to feel nervous.

Jue Tian felt that he should speak up.

But Brittany was even faster, bowing and saying, "Your Majesty's goal should be placed on the Justice League."

"Brittany is smarter than all of you, at least she touched upon the root of the problem!" Ye Hua said in a low voice.

The subordinates bowed their heads in silence and listened quietly. They didn't expect the first meeting of the new year to be like this, making Your Majesty unhappy.

They had failed in their duties.

Chapter 577 (Plans for the New Year)

Ye Hua continued, "The number of cultivators in the cultivation world decreased significantly last year, and this time we want to replenish with fresh blood. However, I didn't expect this situation to occur while adding fresh blood, but it's now under control."

"What makes this deity happy is that some people are planning to use this opportunity to establish their own sects. The Justice League was one of the first, and now there are even more people who don't care about the giants and aristocratic families." At this point, Ye Hua paused and looked at his subordinates.

Ye Zizi raised her hand and asked, "Is Your Honor asking us to kill those people?"

Ye Hua impatiently slapped the air, causing Ye Zizi to cover her head in distress.

"This deity wants to see how they fight. Wei Chang, have the giants release the ancient divine artifacts slowly and induce them into three pieces each. Do you understand?"

"Yes!" Wei Chang respectfully obeyed.

"Brittany, don't bother monitoring the Justice League anymore. If this deity knows everything, it'll be boring."

"Yes!" Brittany nodded.

Ye Hua stood up and emphasized, "Remember, we are law-abiding citizens and never kill people indiscriminately."

His subordinates smirked.

"Your Honor, we understand!" they said in unison.

"Brittany, stay behind. The rest of you can leave."

"Yes!"

Before leaving, Jue Tian took a glance at Your Honor. Could it be that Your Honor planned to persuade Brittany again? Your Honor was too good to him. He could only repay Your Honor's kindness by working hard.

"Sit down," Ye Hua said calmly.

"I dare not, Your Honor," Brittany replied respectfully, without any change in his expression.

Ye Hua didn't force her and asked softly, "What are you going to do while waiting for my next command?"

Brittany remained silent.

"You should also find a companion to accompany you. Look at them, they all have someone special in their lives."

After hearing this, Brittany's expression finally changed, and he said in a low voice, "Your Honor, I will never forgive Jue Tian!"

"When did this deity tell you to forgive Jue Tian?" Ye Hua chuckled.

Brittany raised his head slightly and said, "Your honor?"

"This deity has found you a husband. You will meet him in a few days and get married," he said.

Brittany was shocked and hastily said, "Your Honor, isn't this too hasty?"

"Hasty? Or are you going to disobey my orders!" Ye Hua's face darkened, emitting a cold killing intent.

Brittany quickly knelt down, looking frightened. "I'm sorry, Your Honor!"

"Alright, you may leave now. I will notify you when it's time to meet your future husband. Remember, I am not seeking your consent!" said Ye Hua.

"I will follow your arrangements, Your Honor!" Brittany felt that the lord was not joking and had to comply.

Ye Hua waved his hand and Brittany retreated a few steps before disappearing from the hall.

Pinching his son's little face, Ye Hua sighed. He always felt uneasy seeing Brittany sitting alone and isolated from the group.

This time he planned to pressure Brittany, but where could he find the male lead? It was a real problem.

"Yiyayiyaa~" Suddenly, Ye Yan yelled.

Ye Hua held his son, and the father and son had a deep gaze at each other. After a while, Ye Hua asked, "Are you hungry?"

The little one nodded.

Ye Hua had no choice but to send him to the Voidless Realm. He had wanted to feed his son spicy strips, but he had no teeth yet.

It seemed that he had to learn how to make milk.

A month passed in the blink of an eye, and Ye Yan was now a month old. The little guy had become mischievous and had learned to walk when he was only ten days old. Sister Ah Li took her little brother to play in the Voidless Realm every day, causing chaos.

Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi were worried sick.

At first, everyone just thought that the two little princes were mischievous, but after a while, it was no longer mischief. They were like little kings of destruction.

Now, the siblings were standing in front of their mother with their heads down.

Their faces were dirty, obviously having just done something bad, and there were chicken feathers in Ye Yan's hair.

Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi looked at their children sternly.

Ye Hua sat next to them, leisurely drinking tea, and the siblings kept sending him distress signals.

"Daddy, save me~"

Before, Ye Yan used to cry out for his mom to save him all the time. But now, everything has changed. Mom is the real culprit, and Dad is the warmest one.

"Ali! What's wrong with you? You're causing trouble with your little brother!" Donghuang Baizhi scolded, and Donghuang Li lowered her head to look at her toes.

Qing Ya then rebuked, "Yan'er, how did Mom teach you? You've been a month old already, and you still don't understand!"

Ye Hua almost sprayed out the tea in his mouth.

So, she expected the child to understand everything at just one month old? That was too high of an expectation.

"Kids don't understand everything in just one month," Ye Yan muttered softly.

"You dare to talk back!" Qing Ya, who had a violent temper, immediately grabbed a chicken feather duster from her hand.

Seeing her mother getting angry, Ye Yan immediately pounced into his father's arms. "Dad, Mom is going to hit me again."

Ye Hua put down his teacup and said lightly, "Qing Ya, your expectations are too high. Yan'er is still so young."

Ye Yan vigorously nodded his head. Mom's expectations were too high, making him memorize poems, recite them, and do other nonsense. He was only one month old. Other children at his age were still lying in their cribs, sleeping.

Qing Ya snorted coldly. "Ye Hua! Don't protect Yan'er. Watch me beat him up today!"

Donghuang Li couldn't help but smirk, which his mother caught.

"Ali! You're laughing too!" Donghuang Baizhi also took out a chicken feather duster from her hand.

Donghuang Li followed his little brother's example and pounced into his father's arms. "Dad, Mom is going to abuse us!"

"You two have had enough! What kind of mother beats her children at the drop of a hat!" Ye Hua's face turned cold. He couldn't bear to hit them himself.

Qing Ya snorted, shaking her chicken feather duster. "Tonight..."

Ye Hua sneered. He couldn't believe they were threatening him with this kind of thing. Did they think he would compromise?

"Ah Li, Yan'er, do you listen to your dad?" Ye Hua asked seriously, as if he was about to take the two little ones and leave home.

Donghuang Li and Ye Yan vigorously nodded their heads.

"Okay, then listen to Dad. Just let Mom hit you a few times."

Donghuang Li: "..."

Ye Yan: "..."

Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi walked towards them, patting their chicken feather dusters with a sinister smile, scaring the two little ones who trembled in fear.

"Little brother, run fast!" Donghuang Li grabbed his little brother and ran out.

Seeing the two little ones running away, Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi's tense faces suddenly broke into a smile. The little ones were too cute.

Chapter 578 (Tomb-Sweeping General: Dou Fushi)

"You two, don't be so strict. Children at this age should prioritize playing," Ye Hua advised with care, remembering when they used to say the same to her.

Qing Ya laughed sweetly, "You can't be like that. Children should be educated from a young age. Look at Ya'er, he's been causing trouble everywhere, and Ah Li has been corrupted by him."

It was true that Ah Li doted on her little brother, sometimes even helping him to take the blame. Having such a sister was great.

"Boys being naughty is normal," Ye Hua sighed softly. If Yan'er was quiet like a girl.

Baizhi also nodded, "What Ye Hua said is correct. Qing Ya, don't be too strict."

"You two..." Qing Ya grunted before sitting down to drink her tea.

"Let's talk about business. The Justice League has been gaining a lot of momentum lately," said Baizhi, sitting next to Ye Hua and pouring him a cup of tea with a worried expression.

In this past month, the Justice League had recruited many people and even received the Good Citizen Award. They were killing spirits everywhere, restoring order in major cities.

The problem was that many families had withdrawn from the management of the giants. Some joined the Justice League, while others started their own factions. In short, they didn't want to be controlled by the giants anymore.

However, Voidless Realm and Ying Family remained silent, giving the impression that they were acquiescing to the situation and causing more families to leave.

In addition to the Justice League, a new organization called the Peace Association had emerged, and they were now the two most powerful factions. They didn't distinguish between north and south, going wherever there was trouble and receiving praise.

The giants seemed to have disappeared from people's sight, and no one mentioned them anymore. Newcomers to the world didn't even know of their existence.

Furthermore, new laws were being introduced one after another in this short month, forcing people to adapt to the new environment.

For young people, this kind of world was too exciting, like a fantasy world from a novel where one could cultivate powerful skills and fly in the sky, destroy the heavens and the earth with a wave of one's hand, become a legendary hero, or a demon king.

Some businessmen also sought opportunities and opened various academies, hiring experts from the cultivation world as teachers. The whole world was slowly rising to a new height, and the benefits outweigh the drawbacks.

After a month, the level classification was introduced worldwide, avoiding confusion.

The strength levels were divided by stars, moons, and suns.

Five stars advanced to the moon, and five moons advanced to the sun. It was simple and easy to understand.

But don't underestimate these levels. They were the result of the consensus of all the "experts." There were no sun-level experts in the world yet, and even those at the level of three or four moons were rare.

"Wang Dabao and Bai Cixin are both only 2 moons. Feng Tian is a strong player with 4 moons and can be considered a pivotal figure. Qing Tiandi has also been tested and is a strong player with 4 moons, but Feng Tian and others do not believe it. This is clearly deliberately suppressing his own strength.

With 4 moons imprinted on their chests, they are respected when they go out. Nowadays, people look at their chests first, not their money.

Because no matter how much money they have, when they encounter powerful cultivators, they still have to kneel and kowtow.

Moreover, people nowadays like to team up to fight monsters. The animals have treasures on their bodies that can be made into spiritual weapons. Some people have even found some caves where powerful monsters are lurking.

It feels like playing a dungeon, but this kind of dungeon only has one chance. If one is careless, one will die, and people without any strength can only watch and dare not move.

In addition, the area around the Voidless Realm has already been designated as a prohibited area because there are too many ferocious beasts here, and once they come here, they are basically on a dead end.

Moreover, the sea is also quite dangerous. Without a few powerful people guarding it, they dare not go out to sea.

"I really don't know what you're worried about. What does the Justice League's strength have to do with us? You just need to do your own thing, why do you care about other people's opinions?" Ye Hua couldn't understand these two women.

Donghuang Baizhi has been the queen for so long and now has a sense of anxiety. She used to control the entire north, but now, no one cares. How can she be comfortable? Moreover, other forces are gradually growing and gaining everyone's recognition. How can Qingya and Donghuang Baizhi feel so frustrated?

In short, they were not happy about it.

Hearing Ye Hua's words, Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi became deflated like a balloon, looking listless.

"You two, you didn't compete for anything before, but now that others are competing, you act like this, haha, women..." Ye Hua teasingly ridiculed his two wives, showing off his masculinity.

Donghuang Baizhi retorted, "It's all because of you."

"What are you two women trying to do? Don't you understand the meaning of low-key? Why don't you learn from me? As a mother, you shout and kill every day. What kind of demeanor is that!" Ye Hua sternly scolded, this was jealousy from women, even Qingya and Donghuang Baizhi had this bad habit.

The two wives pouted and remained silent.

Fortunately, the little ones weren't around, otherwise, seeing their mother like this would definitely ruin their image.

"Rest assured, the Voidless Realm will always be a giant. No one can change that. They are just consoling themselves." Ye Hua said indifferently, and then walked out of the room, leaving these two women to calm down.

Because there was a big show to be staged today, Ye Hua was preparing to join in the fun. This matter was known to everyone except for Jue Tian!

It was none other than the blind date of Brittany!

It's today!

The blind date candidate!

Explore the world of tomb raiding!

Wei Chang couldn't find a reliable person, so he listened to the Death Mage who said there was someone who was quite reliable.

In fact, at first, Gorefiend wanted to show off and act as the date for this blind date. If they really did hit it off, with Brittany being so beautiful and sexy, they would have been a perfect match, a match made in heaven!

At first, Ye Hua only had this option, but the sudden appearance of Dou Fushi changed Ye Hua's mind because he was an outsider, which made things much better.

Dou Fushi was also surprised, since separating from his brother and sister-in-law, he started doing his old job of catching ghosts. As for tomb raiding, he gave up on it because it was all a scam for children, and someone else had already dug up all the tombs.

Suddenly, his brother found him again and said there was an important mission. After completing it, he could join the group!

Chapter 579 (Blind Date)

Upon hearing this news, Dou Fushi became very excited. He had long wanted to join the group, but he had not contributed enough.

Now, the opportunity was right in front of him. As long as he completed the task, he could worship the big shots. The thought of it made him ecstatic.

But suddenly, Dou Fushi felt uneasy. Why would they come looking for him? Wasn't the big brother powerful enough to handle anything? It must be a very dangerous task!

Dou Fushi felt that he had to fight for it. If he won the bet, he could join the group and worship the big shots. If he lost, he would cry his heart out.

When he heard about the bizarre task, Dou Fushi was stunned. He was actually asked to go on a blind date!

Although it was just for show, Dou Fushi was already satisfied. It was not even considered a task. It was a piece of cake.

However, Dou Fushi probably didn't know who his blind date was, and there was someone watching him closely.

At a coffee shop in Long'an City, Dou Fushi saw his blind date and was stunned by the person's looks and demeanor. Was this his blind date? Why was she so good-looking?

This was bad. His heart was beating so fast that he thought he was going to die.

This appearance, this figure, it was too perfect!

Meanwhile, Brittany was also observing Dou Fushi. With furrowed eyebrows, she couldn't understand why Your Honor had arranged for such a weak man. He was a million times worse than Jue Tian!

Looking at him like this, with no confidence at all, a grown man blushing, if it wasn't for Ye Hua's command, she would have left by now.

However, Ye Hua and the others were standing nearby, but others couldn't see them. Even Brittany didn't notice them, after all, this was Ye Hua's method. If Brittany could detect them, it would mean that her strength had reached its peak.

"Your Honor, this is too bad. He is not a match for Brittany at all." Lie Gu muttered from behind. Even if they were acting, they had to find someone stronger.

"It's precisely because he is weak!" Ye Hua said lightly.

Wei Chang nodded, understanding what Your Honor meant. Jue Tian must be infuriated. He didn't expect Brittany to find someone so weak, and Brittany would use him as a comparison.

Ye Hua was getting smarter and smarter. He not only cared about the big picture but also the personal lives of his subordinates. With such a leader, all his subordinates would worship him.

"Did you send the message?" Ye Hua asked calmly. If the male lead was missing in this matter, what was the point of playing?

Wei Chang respectfully said, "Don't worry, Your Honor. We have already revealed a little information in the group chat. Jue Tian must have already known."

"That's good. We can't let Jue Tian find out about this."

"Understood!"

Everyone looked at the two people on the blind date again.

Dou Fushi lowered his head, took a sip of coffee from the table, and whispered, "What do you usually like to do?"

Ye Hua and the others immediately covered their foreheads. Can't you ask some questions with substance? Should I teach you how to date?

Brittany almost couldn't help but slap him. He couldn't be compared to Jue Tian!

"Killing!" Brittany said coldly.

Pfft!

Dou Fushi couldn't help it and a little bit of coffee dribbled out of his mouth.

'This woman is too cold-blooded. She talks about killing people all the time. Can't she be a bit more subtle, like fighting?'

"I'm also good at killing," Dou Fushi steadied his mind. His mission was to win over Brittany's heart, but thinking that it was all fake made him a little sad.

What if Brittany really fell in love with him? When the time comes, he'll have to tell her that it was all fake. That would hurt her too much...

After all, Dou Fushi was also a decent man. Even his sister-in-law had feelings for him before...

It was a good thing he managed to hold back, or he would have let down his elder brother.

Brittany sneered, "How many have you killed?"

"Um... can we not talk about this bloody topic? Let's talk about the weather, or the world?"

"Not interested."

"Then how about we talk about food? There's a new hotpot restaurant that's really good. How about we go there?"

"Not interested."

"Then what are you interested in?"

"Killing."

Dou Fushi: "..."

This is simply impossible to communicate. They're not even on the same frequency.

Brittany suddenly furrowed her eyebrows and said lightly, "Come here."

"Huh?"

"I said come here!" Brittany's beautiful eyes turned cold, scaring Dou Fushi so much that he immediately sat next to her, and Brittany leaned lightly on Dou Fushi's shoulder.

Just like that, Dou Fushi panicked when he smelled the fragrance. "It smells so good... really good," he exclaimed.

'So, this is the scent of a woman?' he wondered.

"But wait, we were just talking about murder, wasn't it too hasty for you to do that?" Dou Fushi said, as he was not an ordinary man and couldn't be treated casually.

Suddenly, a man dressed in a white suit walked into the coffee shop. He looked terrifying, with a dark expression as if he could erupt at any moment.

It was Jue Tian who had arrived!

Upon seeing the content in the WeChat group, Jue Tian almost couldn't resist releasing his spiritual pressure. Brittany was actually having an affair!

"Whoever dares to make an appointment with Jue Tian's woman is asking for death!" he exclaimed, as he rushed over. He saw Brittany leaning on another man's shoulder with a cold and arrogant smile on his face. This smile was something that even Jue Tian had never seen before!

"Your Honor, will Jue Tian go berserk?" Wei Chang asked in a low voice, as Jue Tian was very unstable at this moment.

Ye Hua shook his head. "If he can still endure in such a situation, Jue Tian is considered strong."

"Thinking about being cuckolded is so exciting," said Lie Gu with a grin.

Tang Wei, who was on the side, said in a soft voice, "Brittany only likes Jue Tian."

This statement was accurate. Despite Brittany's stubbornness, he still held Jue Tian in high regard in his heart. He always compared others to Jue Tian, which showed Jue Tian's status in Brittany's heart.

At this moment, Dou Fushi saw Jue Tian come in and immediately felt hostility. Coupled with Brittany's recent actions, Jue Tian must be the ex-boyfriend!

'Hehe.'

'How could I, Dou Fushi, be afraid of this little white face!'

Dou Fushi didn't know Jue Tian's identity at all. If he knew, he would never have taken on this mission.

Jue Tian walked over with a calm face and sat directly across from them, staring intently at the two.

However, Dou Fushi made a shocking move, which stunned Ye Hua and the others. 'This kid has guts!' they thought.

Dou Fushi grabbed Brittany's shoulder and shouted at Jue Tian, "What are you looking at? Have you never seen a beautiful woman and handsome man before?"

"This kid is good, Your Honor. Where did you find this oddball?" Lie Gu admired him, as even he wouldn't dare speak to Jue Tian in such a way. But this kid was not afraid.

Chapter 580 (Jue Tian Gets Beaten Up)

Ye Hua calmly said, "Wei Chang brought him."

"Where did he find him?" asked Lie Gu.

Wei Chang said indifferently, "The Death Mage brought him."

Lie Gu turned to the Death Mage and asked, "Where did you find this guy?"

"Hehehe..."

Imperial translator: "It doesn't matter anymore. This guy needs to stay alive..."

On the other side, Dou Fushi stared at Jue Tian with his eyes wide open, showing his most ferocious side.

"Why do I feel like this expression is a bit like Lie Gu's from before?" Wei Chang interjected.

Lie Gu was puzzled and curious. "How is that possible?"

"The days when you were a dog," Wei Chang said.

Lie Gu: "..."

But it was true that Dou Fushi's fierce look at this moment was very much like a proud Husky.

He was about to back down...

Jue Tian coldly stared at Dou Fushi, ready to kill the lowly ant in front of him. He even dared to accompany Brittany on a blind date! He was too arrogant!

However, Dou Fushi was still unaware of Jue Tian's intentions. He thrust his chin forward, revealing a row of teeth, as if he was about to bite someone.

Brittany calmly said, "He was introduced by Your Honor. Do you dare to try anything?"

Jue Tian was suddenly shocked. Your Honor arranged this?'

How is that possible! Your Honor is on his side!

"Your Honor saw that I was too lonely, so he arranged a man for me," Brittany gently hugged Dou Fushi's arm and said sweetly.

Dou Fushi's ferocious expression looked a bit strange because there was a hint of shyness mixed in. This kind of expression made Lie Gu laugh out loud.

This guy is really funny. The Green-Red brothers were also very funny before, but they became more serious after getting girlfriends.

Feeling the fragrance emanating from Dou Fushi, he snorted coldly, "Who are you! Can't you see that we're on a date? Get lost quickly."

Everyone: "..."

Wei Chang sighed, "Even if this matter is over, the arrogance of Dou Fushi..."

He dared to shout "get out" in front of Jue Tian. The source of his arrogance was Brittany, who had a beautiful woman by his side. How could he not be confident? What if he was underestimated?

This man was handsome, stronger than him by the thickness of a fingernail, and had a bad attitude. He was obviously here to steal someone.

If Brittany was stolen, then his mission would be ruined! Joining the team would be pointless. No, he had to rise up!

Jue Tian's forehead bulged with veins, angered by the man's open insult and demand to leave. Jue Tian was not okay, but his reason overcame his anger, and he didn't kill Dou Fushi.

If Dou Fushi was really killed now, it would be pointless.

This incident would make Dou Fushi shiver in fear when thinking about it in the future. It was like walking round trip to the ghost gate.

"Brittany! Is this what you find amusing?!" Jue Tian questioned coldly, looking at Brittany hugging another man, feeling very unhappy. Every hair on his body stood up.

Brittany laughed softly, sliding his slender fingers across Dou Fushi's face. "He's much stronger than you."

Watching Brittany's frivolous movements, Jue Tian suddenly slapped the table. The table couldn't withstand his force and shattered into pieces. It scared the people around him.

Lei Guo touched his chin and said calmly, "It's the first time I've seen Jue Tian lose his temper."

Wei Chang silently nodded. It seemed like Brittany had really provoked this cold cat.

"Where is he stronger than me?!" Jue Tian questioned, his handsome face fierce and ferocious.

Brittany narrowed his eyes. "He knows how to protect me. And you?"

Jue Tian's face changed, unable to refute this. Over the years, he had never been good to Brittany. His most common words were rejection.

Watching Jue Tian's perplexed expression, Brittany suddenly felt a bit sad, but he didn't say anything.

But now it was time for Dou Fushi to speak!

Did you hear what the beauty just said? She said he knew how to protect her. His ego was through the roof!

Dou Fushi did another feat, surprising everyone.

"Kid! Where are you from? Do you even know who I am?!" Dou Fushi pushed Jue Tian, who was lost in thought, onto the sofa.

Lie Gu, who was standing behind, raised his thumb. This was a real man who would risk his life for a woman.

Yi Hong felt the same way. This harsh language was spot on.

Meanwhile, Zi Shan and the others were stunned. Dou Fushi had actually pushed Jue Tian down!

"You still dare to act so arrogantly, be more low-key, or you will die."

Ye Hua didn't think there was anything wrong. "It's good to push him. Jue Tian still needs to be taught a lesson."

Brittany saw Jue Tian being pushed down by Dou Fushi and secretly enjoyed it. "Jue Tian, you finally got what you deserve."

"Fushi, let's go book a hotel room." Brittany hooked her arm around Dou Fushi and even said such things, wanting to anger Jue Tian to death.

Dou Fushi felt happiness come too suddenly. 'Didn't we agree to just act? How did we end up booking a hotel room? Is this a bonus from the mission?'

Your Honor is too good to him, and he admires him in his heart.

"I know a hotel with a good waterbed." Dou Fushi showed an evil smile, which looked like a heinous criminal in Jue Tian's eyes.

"I'll listen to you," Brittany said in a coquettish tone, as if allowing herself to be bullied.

Dou Fushi felt so good, she even hugged Brittany's slender waist, which was a worrying move.

Because she was afraid that Brittany would lose control and have her way with Dou Fushi first.

Fortunately, in order to anger Jue Tian, Brittany didn't say anything, and even kept smiling, even coquettishly calling him a bastard.

This made Dou Fushi feel elated. The voice sounded so pleasant and it was too unbearable. I wonder if it will be even more enjoyable when they get to the hotel later?

"Stop right there!" Jue Tian shouted coldly.

The people in the coffee shop looked over again, including a few martial artists with a one-star emblem on their chest. They were curious and enjoyed watching the excitement, especially this kind of love triangle.

Dou Fushi stopped and whispered, "Your ex-boyfriend is so annoying."

"Yeah, can you help me beat him up? I'll make it up to you later," Brittany said softly.

Dou Fushi's face suddenly became excited, just based on the last sentence, she would go through fire and water for Brittany!

Suddenly, Dou Fushi did something earth-shattering again!

Even Ye Hua was stunned this time.

Dou Fushi turned around and walked towards Jue Tian. Jue Tian also looked at Dou Fushi, thinking about whether or not to disobey the order of the superior and take down this damn man!

Bang!

Just as Jue Tian was contemplating, he was hit in the face with a punch!
