

My Woman 591

Chapter 591 (Two Little Scammers)

The fact proves that success lies in working with the right people.

But are you sure you're working with the right person, Jiu Ye?

The next morning, Ye Hua slowly opened his eyes and looked down at Qing Ya who was sleeping soundly in his arms. Fortunately, she hadn't drooled in her sleep.

Thinking back on the time spent with Qing Ya, Ye Hua felt that it had been quite interesting. They had fought and bickered, which had annoyed him quite a bit. But now, things are different. The silly woman had become much more obedient and knew how to serve him.

Qing Ya let out a low moan.

She was already a mother, but she still acted like a little girl sometimes.

Ye Hua patted Qing Ya's perky butt. "Get up, you're still sleeping."

"Don't move, let me sleep for five more minutes." Qing Ya softly said, then found a comfortable position to continue sleeping.

Ye Hua stroked Qing Ya's hair. These two women were definitely not a wrong choice. Their vision was quite sharp.

"Five minutes are up."

"Ye Hua! Can't I sleep a bit longer? You stayed up until 4 o'clock yesterday... I'm tired." Qing Ya pouted and didn't want to move.

"But you kept saying you wanted to, wanted to, wanted to, didn't you? My waist is still sore."

"I said I didn't want to! You twisted my words!" Qing Ya opened her beautiful eyes and pinched Ye Hua's face.

Ye Hua held Qing Ya's hands and chuckled. "But your expression was very comfortable."

"Go die! I'm not talking to you!" Qing Ya was teased until she blushed.

Although they had been married for a long time, when it came to intimate topics, Qing Ya still acted like a little girl, blushing at the slightest mention.

In front of Ye Hua, Qing Ya got up and exposed her beautiful body to the air. Ye Hua leaned against the bed and admired her beauty. She was really beautiful, every piece of her skin was so delicate and perfect.

How come he didn't realize women had such charm before? It was really a wasted life.

After Qing Ya finished dressing, she blew a kiss and said, "I'm going to feed the baby in Voidless Realm. Will you come for lunch?"

"Okay, I'll see how things go after Jue Tian and come over." Ye Hua nodded.

"Alright."

After Qing Ya left, Ye Hua got up and went to Qing Yutong's room.

Qing Yutong had been living in the Voidless Realm these past few days and had abandoned Ye Zizi. But Ye Zizi had stopped going to school because Ye Hua's purpose had already been achieved, and there was no need for her to go anymore.

"Your Honor, why are you here?" Ye Zizi had gotten up early and was playing games while holding the comatose Juetianzhi in her arms.

"How is Jue Tian doing?" Ye Hua asked calmly, picking up Jue Tian by his neck to observe. He seemed to be recovering quite well. It was good that he hadn't died.

Ye Zizi pursed her lips. "It might take a long time for him to fully recover. That old woman was too ruthless."

It wasn't that Brittany was too ruthless. She had wanted to die with Jue Tian at the time, but she hadn't expected things to turn out like this.

"You can keep holding him." Ye Hua placed Jue Tian into Ye Zizi's arms. Ye Zizi's blood can help Jue Tian recover.

"Your Honor, when will you give me a task? I'm so bored," Ye Zizi pleaded. She was really bored and couldn't wait for something to do.

Ye Hua could tell and didn't want Ye Zizi to fall ill from boredom. "Alright, I'll consider it."

"Thank you, Your Honor, kisses~" Ye Zizi was overjoyed.

Ye Hua sighed and prepared to check on how things were with Brittany.

Upon arriving at Jue Tian's mansion, Ye Hua walked onto the wooden bridge. Brittany was obediently inside the mansion. He wondered if these three women would fight.

Entering the hall, Ye Hua saw three women sitting, the atmosphere was a bit tense. However, Brittany's face wasn't as cold, it was Dongfang Yuer and Guan Yanxin who had cold expressions.

The three women saw Ye Hua and stood up to bow: "Greetings, Your Honor!"

"Rise," Ye Hua said lightly.

"Thank you, Your Honor!" The three women were grateful.

Ye Hua took a deep breath and asked, "Is Jue Tian alright?"

The three women instantly breathed a sigh of relief upon hearing his question. As long as Jue Tian was okay, nothing else mattered.

"Brittany, it's probably not going to be peaceful for a while, so you'll have to take over here while Jue Tian is away."

"I obey!" Brittany responded respectfully.

Ye Hua nodded. "You three get along well. The disturbance has passed, just live your lives as you wish."

"Yes!" The three women wouldn't dare disobey the Supreme Overlord's words.

"I'm leaving."

"Farewell, Your Honor!" they said respectfully.

Ye Hua disappeared from the hall and went back to check on the two little ones.

With Ye Hua gone, the atmosphere became unnatural again. Brittany didn't know how to talk to them, and Dongfang Yuer and Guan Yanxin didn't want to talk to Brittany either. After all, Brittany almost killed Jue Tian. She was too cruel...

As soon as he returned to the realm of nothingness, before even entering the door, he heard Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi scolding their children again. They must be teaching them a lesson.

Ye Hua walked into the room and saw the two little ones already transformed, standing obediently in front of their mother, keeping their heads down and not speaking.

Donghuang Li and Ye Yan saw their father and immediately ran into his arms, one on each side.

'What are they doing so early in the morning? Do they want to kill the children?' Ye Hua stood by the children's side, being their strong support.

Donghuang Baizhi snorted and pulled out her phone. "Ye Hua, look what they're doing!" She opened Douyin and found a video.

The familiar sound rang out from her phone. "We're so pitiful. We've been alone without parents since we were young. My little brother is about to starve to death. It's so sad..."

Ye Hua's mouth twitched slightly as he put down the two little ones and picked up the phone. Inside, Ah Li and Yan'er were doing the same thing as yesterday. They were begging outside the door of KFC!

Two little guys saw their father's face change and immediately felt something was wrong. Their strong backing suddenly felt unstable.

Donghuang Li grabbed his little brother and ran outside.

Ye Hua waved his hand and the two little guys were frozen in place.

They actually said they had no parents! How bold!

"You two, come here!" Ye Hua coldly shouted. Donghuang Li and Ye Yan were so scared that they trembled all over. Mom was indeed strict, but Dad was even scarier when he got angry. He showed no mercy.

This time, Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi didn't say anything. These two kids were too mischievous, they even learned how to lie!

And they came up with such a ridiculous excuse.

"Dad, don't blame sister, it's Yan'er who was hungry..." Ye Yan's big eyes immediately filled with tears.

Ye Hua said in a deep voice, "If your tears fall, I'll make your butt swell!"

Ye Yan immediately stopped his tears.

"Dad, it's all Ah Li's fault. You can punish Ah Li, but my little brother is too young to be hit." Donghuang Li honestly stretched out his chubby little hand, ready to be punished.

Chapter 592 (So Disrespectful!)

Upon hearing his sister's concern, tears filled Ye Yan's big eyes, but he managed to hold them back, fearing that his father would lose his temper.

"Daddy, if you want to hit someone, hit me instead of my sister... Please don't hit her," he said, extending his small white hand.

The sight of the little one looking so sad made Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi feel hopeless. Every time they made a mistake, they used the same trick of protecting each other, acting cute and pitiful, and then forgetting everything they said an hour later and returning to what they were doing.

But as they watched their daughter and son take care of each other like this, the parents felt comforted.

Ye Hua took out a feather duster and lightly hit Ah Li's hands. It wasn't heavy, but it still startled Ah Li, who screamed as if it hurt.

Donghuang Baizhi couldn't bear it anymore. It was usually just a scare, so how could they hit them for real? But looking at Ye Hua now, she realized how fierce he was.

Donghuang Baizhi hurriedly held her daughter in her arms and said in a coquettish tone, "Ye Hua, what are you doing?"

Qing Ya was also afraid that Ye Hua would hit their son, so she held him in her arms too.

"Put them down!" Ye Hua shouted angrily. He was so mad that he wanted to teach them a lesson.

"How dare you act so rudely! Do you not recognize your father anymore?" Ye Hua said. He was so angry that he felt like exploding.

"Ye Hua, please calm down," Qing Ya said, feeling that he was not joking around. Children make mistakes, so just educate them properly.

"I'll say it one last time. Put them down!" Ye Hua said coldly.

This time, Ye Hua was really angry. Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi didn't dare to offend him, or they would all get beaten up.

The two little ones were put down by their mothers and stood in front of their father with their heads lowered.

"How dare you! Who am I to you?" Ye Hua shook the feather duster and asked.

"Father," the two little ones replied softly.

"Do you even know who your mother is?" Ye Hua asked.

Donghuang Li and Ye Yan both pointed to their mother behind them, looking pitiful.

"Then where did the 'no father, no mother' come from? Are we not good enough for you? If you think we're not, then leave! I don't have children like you!" Ye Hua severely criticized them. He had indulged them too much, allowing them to say such disrespectful things!

When they heard their father ask them to leave, Donghuang Li and Ye Yan were shocked. They burst into tears and knelt down, hugging their father's legs.

"Daddy, Ah Li knows she's wrong. Please don't chase Ah Li away. Ah Li won't say that again," Donghuang Li said, hating herself for saying such things that had made her father angry.

Ye Yan was also crying loudly, chokingly saying, "Daddy, Yan'er will promise to be good in the future. Yan'er doesn't want to leave mommy and daddy. Wahhh..."

After giving the two wives a lesson, Ye Hua signaled to them, and they both understood.

"Mommy, don't throw away Ah Li. Daddy won't forgive Ah Li. Ah Li won't repeat it."

"Yes, Yan'er, won't repeat it either."

Ye Hua took a deep breath. Was he really going to drive his children away? Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi would go crazy if that happened.

"Put your hands out!"

The two little guys obediently put out their hands.

Ye Hua took a feather duster and gave each of them a smack. "If you dare to do it again, don't bother coming home!"

Donghuang Li and Ye Yan quickly nodded, promising never to do it again and to avoid embarrassing their parents.

If the news got out that the Supreme Overlord's children were begging outside KFC, where would they show their faces?

"Brother-in-law, you're teaching the little guys a lesson again." Qing Yutong, wearing a purple dress, walked over gracefully, with beauty no less than that of her sister, Qing Ya.

Ye Hua looked at his little sister-in-law. It would be false to say that he was not tempted, but he was mindful of Qing Ya's thoughts, so he didn't do anything. However, Qing Yutong was becoming more and more tempting, making him really troubled. It would be better to see her less often.

"I'm going out for a walk." Ye Hua stood up and said lightly.

"Are you coming back for lunch?" Qing Ya asked.

Ye Hua sighed lightly. "No, I'll come back at night." Then he left the Voidless Realm directly.

Qing Yutong was puzzled when she saw her brother-in-law leave. Recently, whenever she appeared, her brother-in-law would slip away faster than anyone else. What was he trying to say? It was really strange.

Who cares? Qing Yutong pinched Ye Yan's little face. "Yan'er, what bad things did you do again? You're crying so much."

"Wahh..." Ye Yan directly cried in his mother's arms.

Qing Ya patted her son and smiled lightly. "Both kids were hit by your brother-in-law."

"I see, he really hit them. Brother-in-law can even be tough." Qing Yutong exclaimed. It used to be all talk and no action.

Donghuang Baizhi sighed lightly, feeling quite a headache. Now that she is pregnant, three little troublemakers would make a mess together, which would be a big headache.

At this moment, a guard knelt outside and shouted, "Your Majesty!"

Donghuang Baizhi walked out of the room holding her daughter and asked calmly, "What's wrong?"

"A message was sent this morning mentioning the Voidless Realm!" The guard said in a heavy voice, thinking to himself, how could there be so many reckless people? Could they afford to provoke the Voidless Realm?

"What message?" Donghuang Baizhi asked in confusion.

"Yesterday, a thousand people who disappeared were said to have been killed by people from the Voidless Realm." The guard said tremblingly.

"Oh, I know. You may leave," said the emperor.

"Understood!" The guard was surprised. Could it be true?

Donghuang Baizhi was very puzzled. She thought that no one knew about it last night, so how did someone find out? It was strange!

"Baizhi, should we tell Ye Hua?" Qing Ya asked seriously while surfing a website to read books.

"Don't bother him with such a small matter. We can handle it ourselves," Donghuang Baizhi didn't want to rely on him for everything and appear like a vase. [Decorative vase. Just good for showing off, with no practical value.]

Qing Ya agreed with Donghuang Baizhi, some things could be handled by themselves, and Qing Yutong was a great helper.

Ye Hua went back to the bar and planned to buy a fried pancake at the alley entrance, wondering if the vendor was there today.

Since the Lunar New Year, he noticed that the vendor was acting strange. She used to sell her pancakes every day, but now she only comes out three times a week, sometimes just once. It was frustrating for him to try his luck to get the pancakes.

As he walked downstairs, he saw Gorefiend mopping the floor with a serious expression, as if causing trouble for the world.

"Your Honor, I pay my respects," he prostrated himself on the spotless ground.

Chapter 593 (Aunty)

"Get up."

"Thank you, Your Honor!" Gorefiend stood respectfully on the side, bowing his head slightly and not daring to look directly at the master.

"How's business recently?"

"Reporting to Your Honor, business has been very good recently," said Gorefiend with his head bowed.

Ye Hua nodded, touched the table, which was really clean: "Not bad, keep up the good work."

Gorefiend was overjoyed, he actually received the praise of Your Honor, which was more fulfilling than causing harm to the world.

"Thank you, Your Honor!" Gorefiend shouted loudly, feeling that his whole body was full of energy and he had to clean the hygiene again! Clean it to the point where he could lick it!

Ye Hua took out a cigarette and walked out of the bar.

As Gorefiend watched his back, his eyes revealed an admiring look. He had such a good bearing even when smoking, why couldn't he learn it himself? He was so stupid...

Walking out of the bar, Ye Hua looked towards the alley and Aunty was actually selling fried pancake rolls today. His luck wasn't bad!

"Give me a fried pancake roll with an egg added," Ye Hua said faintly standing next to her.

Aunty turned her head and looked at Ye Hua, squeezing out a smile and said, "Okay."

But when she turned around, the smile disappeared. Ye Hua frowned and waited quietly.

"Eat it while it's hot." Aunty wrapped up the fried pancake rolls in her hand and handed them to Ye Hua. Ye Hua scanned the WeChat QR code on the window and turned to leave.

But after walking a few steps, Ye Hua turned back to Aunty and sighed softly before walking back.

When did he become a good person? It was really annoying.

Aunty saw Ye Hua coming back again and asked curiously, "What's wrong? Is it not delicious? I'll make another one for you."

"No need," Ye Hua said faintly.

Aunty looked at the handsome man in front of her with a puzzled expression. Over the years, she had witnessed his transformation from being aloof to now.

"Why has it been intermittent this year?" Ye Hua asked aloud.

Aunty also sighed lightly with a tired look on her face and the worry in her heart.

"Don't worry, it's just a trivial matter. You should go back and spend time with your wife and child," Aunty said with a light laugh.

This Aunty was even better at pretending than him. It was obvious that she was burdened with something.

"Tell me, maybe I can help," Ye Hua said. This was enough face he was giving her. With his helping her with her problems, even the most significant issue could be resolved.

Aunty showed gratitude, "Thank you, but you really can't help with this matter."

"Don't you think I'm capable?" Ye Hua asked coldly. This was the first time he actively helped someone, and he was refused. If this were to be spread out, where would he put his face?

Aunty was amused by Ye Hua's manner and said, "Young man, I know you are a good person, but you really can't help me with this."

Heh! Was there something that he, the Almighty, couldn't do? What a joke!

"Tell me! If I can't help, I'll give you twice the money for this fried pancake roll in the future!"

Wow, the deity was so generous, he was even willing to pay twice the price.

The Aunty was quite speechless. This young man was stubborn, and she had experienced it before.

"It's actually my son. He used to work outside, but when he came back last year, he became strange. He locked himself in the room all day long, and recently he joined that so-called Peace Association and became a manager. You see how chaotic the world is now. If something happens, what am I going to do?"

Ye Hua thought it was something big and said calmly, "What do you want to do?"

"I just want my son to have a stable life, not to be out there killing people. But... sigh... he hasn't come home for a month now. I went to look for him, but..." The Aunty looked very upset, feeling like her son had become a different person.

How could a mother hope for her child to go out and kill people? And now he hasn't come home, she went to find him herself, but he wouldn't even come out, and only had someone relay a message as if her appearance was a disgrace to him.

This is what made the Aunty heartbroken.

"To be honest, I have some experience in disciplining children, maybe I can help you." Ye Hua felt confident, after all, his own child was always obedient, and he had just disciplined them.

But can a child and an adult be compared? And this was someone else's child.

The Auntie fell silent for a moment and finally agreed, "Young man, then it's up to you."

"I charge a lot."

"Ah..."

"After it's done, these pancake fruit rolls have to be free."

The Auntie was stunned for a moment, but readily agreed, "No problem, if you really convince my son, you can have everything for free from now on."

Ye Hua was very satisfied with the Auntie's attitude. 'You should have had this kind of attitude a long time ago.'

"Lead the way."

The Auntie closed her stall early and pushed her cart towards home.

Ye Gua thought the Auntie's house shouldn't be far, but they actually walked for an hour!!!

She actually walked for an hour!

"Why do you come here to set up a stall in the morning if your home is so far away?" Ye Hua couldn't help but ask curiously.

The Auntie bit her lip and whispered, "It's just a habit. I moved to a new house bought by my son, but I still think the old one is better."

Ye Hua understood this. When you get used to living in a certain place, it's hard to get used to another place.

"What about your husband?"

"We've been divorced for a long time." The Auntie smiled bitterly. Her husband ran away with a lot of debt when their child was born, and she had to sell pancake fruit rolls every day to pay off the debt and support her child's education.

Ye Hua nodded and took out a cigarette to light up.

Soon, the two of them arrived at the entrance of a high-end residential area.

The security guard opened the door. He seemed to be very puzzled by this pancake fruit roll seller. The houses here start at a million, but she still comes to sell pancake fruit rolls early in the morning.

The Auntie came to the garage downstairs and opened the door. Inside, there was even a Porsche 911 parked. The Auntie put her tools aside and smiled, "That rascal is at home."

"Perfect." Ye Hua said calmly.

Auntie's house is on the top floor with an excellent view, but of course, the house price is not cheap.

Standing in the elevator, Auntie said softly, "I don't know how my son got so much money. I'm afraid he stole it."

"Don't worry too much. A man's ambition is to explore the world," Ye Hua said lightly. From his perspective, if a man acts like a goodie goodie, there's no future. He should be willing to fight and create achievements.

Aunty chuckled lightly, "Is this how you young people think?"

"Nowadays is a good time to make achievements," Ye Hua said lightly.

"Actually, Aunty understands. I just hope my son sees me as his mother," Aunty sighed deeply.

Ye Hua could understand. If his own child looked down on his mother, he could do something drastic. What use was there for such a person to exist!

Looking at what happened this morning, if they weren't strictly disciplined, they would become more presumptuous in the future. They wouldn't even put their own father in their eyes.

Chapter 594 (Teach You How to Be a Son)

Exiting the elevator, the Aunty pulled out her keys and opened the door.

Inside, a handsome young man was on the phone. When he saw the two at the door, he furrowed his brows and walked towards the balcony, looking like he was bothered by their presence.

Ye Hua thought that this young man was quite impressive for daring to show an impatient expression to his own mother when she returned home.

"No need to change shoes," the Aunty forced a smile, feeling helpless.

Ye Hua didn't stand on ceremony either and walked straight into the house with the woman. He took a quick glance around and saw that the decoration was pretty good. Then he carefully examined the young man on the balcony, finding him somewhat interesting. He was not that bad, no wonder he could be a manager at the Peace Association.

The Aunty poured a cup of tea for Ye Hua. He took it and sat with the demeanor of a great figure, while the woman sat upright on the sofa.

The woman's attitude made Ye Hua feel that she was more like a nanny than a mother.

"What's your son's name?" Ye Hua asked casually.

"Wu Li."

The name was interesting, sounding like "helpless".

Wu Li finished his call outside and walked into the house, shouting, "I've told you many times not to set up a stall! Why don't you listen and keep embarrassing me?"

As a manager of the Peace Association, face was important. If others knew that his mother was setting up a stall on the street in the morning, where would he put his face?

Ye Hua felt that if this were his son, he would have slapped him already. Wu Li was simply a scoundrel! He even complained that his mother embarrassed him.

What a hypocrite!

He had a moon and a star imprinted on his chest. No wonder he was so arrogant.

"Mom, aren't we having lunch at home? I'll cook for you," Wu Li's mother said eagerly, hoping her son would stay for lunch.

Wu Li was annoyed and said in a low voice, "I'm not eating! And who is this? How could you bring him home?"

Wu Li took a quick look at Ye Hua, who only looked good and didn't have any imprint on his chest. He was just a rookie.

Wu Li's mother didn't know how to introduce Ye Hua.

Ye Hua said calmly, "Who I am is not important. What's important is that I don't like your attitude!"

Wu Li laughed disdainfully and said, "Who are you? Do you know who you're talking to? Look! I'm a Moon-level powerhouse with a star imprint! Mind your attitude!"

Ye Hua didn't expect that someone would dare to act arrogantly in front of him, but he had no intention of killing him.

After all, he came to help the Aunty, not to kill her son. He felt like he was looking for trouble.

But this would be the only time. Ye Hua thought he was repaying this woman's kindness for all the years she had made him pancakes. He seemed to owe her money and didn't remember, so he would pay her back now.

"A Moon-level powerhouse is indeed impressive," Ye Hua said calmly.

"Hehe, there are still things you haven't seen, I really don't know where you get the courage to teach me a lesson!" Wu Li snorted, he was a man who didn't know his place, probably brought here by his own mother, what exactly was this she thinking! She even called an outsider to teach him a lesson, was she crazy!

Ye Hua was curious: "There are still things I haven't seen?"

"Hehe, how could you frogs in the well have seen it, why don't I show you today!" Wu Li now intends to teach this man a lesson, but it seems inappropriate to do it in front of his mother, so he chooses to go outside.

Ye Hua stood up and whispered, "Okay, I'm curious now."

"Okay, wait for me." After saying that, Wu Li went into the room and took out a few pieces of clothing.

Seeing her son's actions, the mother sat weakly on the sofa, unable to do anything to stop him.

Ye Hua patted the mother's shoulder and said, "Don't worry, your son will definitely come back tonight."

"Thank you, thank you so much, but please be careful too." The mother thanked him with concern, her son's temperament had changed and he could do something out of line.

Ye Hua nodded and walked out of the room.

Downstairs, Wu Li opened the garage door: "Porsche 911, you probably haven't seen it, get in!"

Ye Hua didn't say anything, he sat in the passenger seat, and Wu Li started the sports car and drove out of the community.

Ye Hua, in the passenger seat, took out a cigarette and lit it.

"Don't make a mess in my car!" Wu Li coldly shouted.

Ye Hua exhaled a mouthful of smoke and said coldly, "If you weren't the Aunt's son, you would be dead by now."

"Hehe, show me how you'll kill me."

"Do you really think your "status" is hidden from everyone?" Ye Hua flicked off the ash from his cigarette and said.

Squeak, squeak, squeak...

The tires and the ground made a piercing friction, fortunately it wasn't in the city, otherwise they would definitely be rear-ended.

"Who are you? How do you know my secret!" Wu Li turned his head and questioned Ye Hua, even with the intention of killing him.

"I'm just someone who often buys cakes from your mother and lent her a hand." Ye Hua said softly.

"What do you want to do for her?"

"Teach you, a disobedient son, how to be a person." Ye Hua's words were meaningful, he himself hadn't learned it yet, but he's teaching others now.

Wu Li burst into laughter after hearing Ye Hua's words, as if he had heard the funniest thing in the world.

"Do you know what era it is now? This is an era of action, do you think just saying things will work?"

"Who told you I'm planning to just talk?" Ye Hua looked at Wu Li, who shrank as soon as he felt Ye Hua's gaze.

What kind of look was this, it was too terrifying! Who was this guy!

Unable to figure out Ye Hua's strength, Wu Li decided to go to the company, where there are many people, and this man wouldn't dare to do anything rash.

Thirty minutes later, they arrived at the company of the Peace Association. Ye Hua pinched his head after getting out of the car, this sports car was uncomfortable to ride in, his family's Audi A8 was much better.

"Come on, let me show you around," Wu Li's tone changed slightly, perhaps due to his fear of Ye Hua.

The two walked up the stairs, and Ye Hua noticed that there were many people inside, mostly stars, and rarely saw any moons. It seemed that they were all newcomers. Ye Hua's decision was correct. Without newcomers, how would they continue to play?

After all, Ye Hua still had a few years to go.

Some martial artists among the stars bowed to Wu Li, which made him feel very pleased.

"Do you see that? This is the treatment of a moon-level strongman," Wu Li proudly said.

"Believe it or not, I'll slap you to death." Ye Hua said coldly. Did Wu Li really think he was powerful? He hadn't seen someone more powerful yet.

For some reason, since their first encounter, Wu Li felt a little afraid of this man.

What's going on here?

As for Ye Hua, it was his first time coming to the Peace Association, and he was also preparing to observe the internal situation of the enemy.

Chapter 595 (Voidless Realm is Not Worth Mentioning)

Wu Li brought Ye Hua to the second floor, where a five-star warrior was shouting declarations.

"Overthrow the Voidless Realm!"

"Overthrow the Voidless Realm!"

"Overthrow the Voidless Realm!"

Hearing this slogan, Ye Hua was stunned. What did the members of the Peace Association mean? Were they going to attack the Voidless Realm?

"Are you curious?" Wu Li chuckled.

Ye Hua asked calmly, "Why does your Peace Association want to overthrow the Voidless Realm?"

"Because the Voidless Realm killed thousands of people last night, so we must retaliate!" Wu Li said righteously, oblivious to the fact that this was the rhythm of marching towards death.

"Oh? Do you know about the Voidless Realm?" Ye Hua might not care about others, but since this was Wu Li's mother, he would try to save him. However, how did they know about what happened last night?

"The Voidless Realm used to be the boss in the north, but times have changed, and those who cannot keep up with the times will eventually be eliminated," Wu Li said lightly, and even adjusted his hairstyle after speaking.

Ye Hua felt a bit emotional. It was they who couldn't keep up with the times.

"Wu Li, if it were anyone else, I wouldn't bother persuading them, but since you are the son of that aunty, I'll advise you not to participate. Otherwise, your mother will be left alone in her old age!"

"Who are you trying to scare? The Voidless Realm is not even worth mentioning!" Wu Li snorted. The people above had said that the Voidless Realm was just a paper tiger, and there was no need to fear them. They had the advantage of numbers.

Ye Hua wouldn't advise a second time. Whether Wu Li could understand or not depended on himself. He just felt sorry for the aunty.

The two entered a spacious classroom, and Wu Li whispered, "I'll show you what a strong person looks like. This is Xin Ba, the most outstanding young person in our Peace Association. He won the championship in the North-South Martial Arts Competition last year! His strength is impressive."

Ye Hua looked at Xin Ba on the stage. How could he not recognize him? He was the young man he valued highly and was even cultivating to become his future opponent. However, he was still too weak now.

But compared to before, Xin Ba had grown and matured, and didn't disappoint him.

'Wasn't there also a young man named Qi Xuewen?' Ye Hua wondered how he was doing. He hoped he wouldn't disappoint the original body.

"How about it, can you understand?" Wu Li chuckled slowly. He couldn't even understand it himself, so how could this novice understand it?

Xin Ba on the stage looked very natural as he taught, with a gentle smile on his face, which was very infectious, making everyone feel close to him.

On Xin Ba's chest were two moons and two stars, which were already impressive among young people.

During the lecture, Xin Ba swept his eyes over the crowd and continued speaking.

But his brows furrowed when he saw a familiar figure during his scan just now!

Xin Ba looked back at the door again and his gaze suddenly changed drastically. That figure was too familiar!

During the South-North Martial Arts Competition, that man sat on the high platform with an overwhelming presence, as if he controlled the lives and deaths of everyone in the world. Even the empress was just a foil, and then there was that divine being!

Why would he appear here? What is he doing here?

At this point, Xin Ba had completely lost interest in teaching, and the people sitting below were also puzzled.

Of course, Ye Hua knew why Xin Ba was like this, and he didn't care because it was normal.

"How was it? Did you learn something?" Wu Li asked with pride.

Ye Hua whispered, "How do you see your own mother?"

"What does that have to do with you?" Wu Li instantly became unhappy. After all, Ye Hua wasn't his father.

Ye Hua looked at him sideways, his death stare frightening Wu Li. He felt like his heart was about to stop beating, so he immediately lowered his head and remained silent.

"I've been eating at your mother's stall for almost six years. Rain or shine, she always comes out to set up her stall. You should know better than me who she's doing this for. Kid, you should be grateful to have a mother like her!" Ye Hua said, pausing briefly at the thought of who his own parents were.

What kind of parents could a skeleton have? Ye Hua felt he was overthinking it.

However, Ye Hua didn't think too deeply. What was a skeleton if not a human being?

After hearing Ye Hua's words, Wu Li remained silent, too scared to argue. The man's gaze was too ferocious and too terrifying!

As for reasoning, Wu Li didn't listen because he was too scared. He didn't even hear what Ye Hua said.

Xin Ba had no mood to teach, so he ended the class early.

Wu Li seemed to want to curry favor with Xin Ba, so he stood outside waiting for him.

But Xin Ba didn't dare to come out. The man waiting outside was none other than the man next to the Empress of the Voidless Realm!

Inside the Peace Association, people were shouting slogans to overthrow the Voidless Realm. If this man became angry, wouldn't everyone die?

After thinking for a while, Xin Ba felt he should go out and take a look. He couldn't just stand there forever.

As soon as he walked out of the classroom, Xin Ba saw the man standing next to him, and his heart almost stopped.

Madman felt Xin Ba's discomfort and shouted, "Xin Ba! Stay calm. There's nothing to be afraid of!"

"Master, this man..."

"Xin Ba, don't worry. You have me with you!" Madman growled in a low voice.

Hearing his master's words, Xin Ba felt a little more at ease. After all, his master was a powerful divine being, so he shouldn't be afraid of him...

But he was terrified.

"Minister Xin Ba!" Wu Li respectfully called out.

Ye Hua stood next to him, his gaze fixed on Xin Ba, even seeing the old man's soul.

His master said a few words.

Upon hearing his master's words, Xin Ba felt much relieved. His master was a powerful god and should not be afraid of him...

At this moment, the crazy old man's mind was in turmoil, feeling as if the man in front of him had seen him, which was impossible!

How could he have seen him? If he really did, then things would be bad!

This was the first time Xin Ba had seen Ye Hua up close and he felt that Ye Hua was very elusive, like a mystery.

"Xin Ba, we meet again," Ye Hua said lightly.

Xin Ba swallowed his saliva and didn't know how to address him, so he could only call out, "Lord Ye Hua."

Wu Li, who was beside him, was dumbfounded. The department head Xin Ba actually called him Lord Ye Hua!

What exactly was this man's background? How did his mother know him? Why didn't she tell him about such a resource earlier! He must go back and ask her clearly tonight.

"Xin Ba, come over and chat for a bit," Ye Hua said lightly.

Xin Ba dared not refuse and respectfully said, "Okay."

Ye Hua turned to look at Wu Li and said, "Go home and keep your mother company tonight. Remember what I said, whether you live or die, it's up to you."

If Ye Hua was speaking up for someone, it was probably only for Wu Li. He was just doing it out of respect for Wuli's mother, otherwise he wouldn't bother to care.

Chapter 596 (Happy Cooperation)

Xin Ba obediently followed behind Ye Hua, which made many people curious. How could Xin Ba show such an expression?

The two walked into the nearby emergency exit, where Ye Hua took out a cigarette and lit it. Xin Ba stood trembling on the side, not understanding why Ye Hua called him here. Was Ye Hua planning to kill him?

"I actually have high hopes for you, and I don't want you to die so soon," Ye Hua said in a light tone, exhaling smoke.

"Lord Ye, have you misunderstood something?" Xin Ba gulped nervously.

"Xin Ba, your ability to win the North-South Martial Arts Championship shows that you've worked hard. If your hard work is wasted because of a group of idiots, then I would be disappointed. You should understand what I mean," Ye Hua said.

Hearing this, Xin Ba couldn't help but feel skeptical. The Peace Association was currently fueling hatred against those in the Voidless Realm, waiting to wipe them out.

Xin Ba originally thought that there were only a few people in the Voidless Realm, and with over ten thousand people on his side, there was hope of winning against them. But after hearing Ye Hua's words, Xin Ba doubted whether it was really possible to win.

Xin Ba bowed his head in silence, not daring to say anything grandiose. In front of Ye Hua, he was just a primary school student.

"The Peace Association and the Justice Alliance are just a joke. You should have your own sky. Maybe in the future, I will be your opponent," Ye Hua said.

"Your opponent?" Xin Ba was confused.

Even the crazy grandpa was shocked. Did he really see correctly?

"Xin Ba, promise me quickly! We'll make our choices later!" The crazy grandpa didn't have time to think and could only avoid Ye Hua's sharpness. If Xin Ba became stronger in the future, there was still a chance for them to fight!

Xin Ba, of course, obeyed his master's words. "Lord Ye, I understand!"

"You're a smart guy. Develop yourself well. I look forward to your growth." Ye Hua finished speaking and disappeared in place.

Xin Ba felt his legs go weak. This man was too terrifying. Just standing there made him feel like a coward.

"Xin Ba, quickly leave the Peace Association and don't get involved with them anymore!" The crazy grandpa urged him. Developing oneself was the most important thing.

Xin Ba had already thought of this, and after seeing Ye Hua, he felt that there was no hope left.

"Master, should we tell the others?" Xin Ba asked out of good intentions.

"You can't change their views. Go first!"

"Okay."

Xin Ba didn't even bother to resign and chose to leave immediately.

Meanwhile, Wu Li drove back home and asked his mother what was going on.

Ye Hua's promise had been fulfilled, and Wu Li did go home to accompany the aunt.

However, Wu Li did not give up his current position and chose despair...

Back at the Leisure Bar, Ye Hua saw Gorefiend wiping the tables again. He really liked cleaning.

"My Lord!" Gorefiend exclaimed, seeing Ye Hua return.

"Make a few dishes," Ye Hua said.

"Yes!"

Ye Hua walked over and pushed open Qing Yutong's room. Ye Zizi was still playing games.

"Your Honor, is it a task?" Ye Zizi threw Jue Tian, who was in her arms, onto the bed. Jue Tian was really pitiful, being tossed around by Ye Zizi all day.

Ye Hua lay on his little sister-in-law's bed and said lightly, "It should be soon."

"Yiyiyi~ Thank you, Your Honor~" Ye Zizi threw herself into Ye Hua's arms and acted like a spoiled child. This had happened before and was within the normal range of interaction.

Patting Ye Zizi's head, Ye Hua said calmly, "Do you miss our old life?"

"Uh... it's okay, both have their own advantages." Ye Zizi felt that playing games every day was not bad, and occasionally going out to kill people was also a good way to stretch her muscles.

"When we go back, we have to maintain this low-key attitude." Ye Hua lightly laughed. The previous high-profile approach was really boring. Only a low-key approach was the way to go.

"Why? Why don't we just kill them all?"

Ye Hua knocked on Ye Zizi's forehead impatiently.

"Hey~ Your Honor, I'm so stupid, it's all because of you knocking me." Ye Zizi pouted and rubbed her forehead.

"If you dare to mess up my plan, I'll spank your butt!"

"Uh-huh, I won't mess up Your Honor's plan. Can you tell me about it? I promise to keep it a secret."

Ye Hua glared at Ye Zizi and said, "With your big mouth, you probably would have told Lie Gu to listen."

"Haha, no way. My mouth is pretty small, look at me, Your Honor." Ye Zizi opened her mouth wide, and her little tongue moved around inside. It was really exciting, coupled with her two ponytails at the back of her head, it was enough to make one want to commit a crime.

Patting Ye Zizi's butt, Ye Hua said lightly, "Let's go eat."

"Okay~" Ye Zizi put on her shoes and carried the unconscious Jue Tian, walking downstairs.

Meanwhile, on the other side, Bai Cixin, the spokesperson of the Justice League, was having lunch with the spokesperson of the Peace Association, Jiu Ye.

The excellent steak was flown in today and still maintained its freshness.

"Jiu Ye, have you made up your mind?" Bai Cixin cut a piece and slowly chewed it.

"Master Bai, the Voidless Realm is not easy to deal with. Isn't what we're doing too hasty?" Jiu Ye smiled.

"What do you suggest then?" Bai Cixin was determined to bring down the Wuxu Realm.

Jiu Ye put down his knife and fork and said lightly, "We should try negotiation before war, Master Bai, you should know this."

"So, Jiu Ye means we should negotiate first?" Bai Cixin frowned slightly. Although it was a bit strange, the idea was good. It was a way to test the Voidless Realm's intentions.

Jiu Ye nodded, but he was actually very wary, especially of the owner of the Leisure Bar. Who knows how powerful he really was? Although they had a numerical advantage, they still couldn't rest easy.

"Indeed, the Voidless realm has killed so many of us, it must pay a price."

"Jiu Ye is right, killing must be punished, even if the Voidless realm is powerful, it cannot withstand the attacks of all forces!" Bai Cixin had an idea in mind, to unite everyone to eliminate the Voidless realm, but there were still many things to do in between.

Jiu Ye nodded: "Of course, the only one who can match us in the Voidless realm is the Empress, but no matter how powerful she is, we also have our own experts."

Bai Cixin cut another small piece of food and thought to herself that they indeed had many experts, especially Qing Tiandi, who was still a mystery. Perhaps he could even kill the Empress!

Once the Empress dies, then there will be only one Empress in the world!

"Jiu Ye, then let's work together happily." Bai Cixin extended her white delicate hand.

Jiu Ye smiled and held Bai Cixin's delicate hand, feeling that it was soft and smooth.

"Happy cooperation." Jiu Ye hooked a sly smile, it seems that he also has his own plans.

Jiu Ye is a smart person!

Chapter 597 (Another One)

After having lunch with Ye Zizi, Ye Hua returned to the Voidless Realm and felt a bit bored. He felt that he needed to do something to keep himself occupied.

Since the North-South martial arts competition last year, there have not been any big events. Xin Ba and Qi Xuwen probably had not made much progress since then.

Now, he could only rely on the Justice League and the Peace Association.

As soon as Ye Hua arrived at the Voidless Realm, he heard the sound of a flute, which scared him a bit. When he went to the palace, he saw his son holding a flute almost as long as he was, playing it vigorously.

Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi sat beside him, watching with a touch of tenderness on their faces. Donghuang Li also sat in her mother's arms, watching his brother play the flute.

They clapped and cheered from time to time, and these three were really good at cheering. Ye Yan's smile never left his face, and he became more and more energetic as he played.

Now, Ye Yan enjoyed playing the flute, especially when he heard praise from his mother and sister. He felt as if he were playing a divine melody.

But Ye Yan lacked musical talent, and his playing sounded more like wailing ghosts and howling wolves.

This was probably due to genetics. Ye Hua and Qing Ya did not have much musical talent, and they never sang together.

When he saw his father, Ye Yan stopped playing and stood up straight. Donghuang Li also jumped out of her mother's arms and lowered her head.

"Okay, Dad's not angry anymore," Ye Hua said lightly as he sat on a stone bench. Donghuang Baizhi poured him a cup of tea.

When they heard that their father was no longer angry, the two little ones smiled and cuddled up to Ye Hua.

"Go and play," Ye Hua patted his children.

"Dad, Yan'er is learning to play the flute. It sounds so good," Donghuang Li said.

"Yes, he plays very well," Donghuang Baizhi said, giving face to her brother.

Ye Hua did not stop his son's interest, "Well, not bad."

Now that he had his father's approval, Ye Yan became even more excited. He stepped back a few steps and began his solo...

Well, although Ye Hua approved of his son's interest, his skill still needed improvement. He looked at the black jade flute in his son's hand and realized it was lacking a bit.

"Yan'er, take this," Ye Hua immediately found a black jade flute called the Dragon Abyss. This was a primitive artifact that attacked with sound waves. Ye Hua had forgotten how he got it, but it was still useful for his son to practice.

Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi were already used to their husband's habit of casually producing terrifying things, so they did not say anything.

Ye Hua also applied a seal to the Dragon Abyss to prevent Ye Yan from causing any destruction.

Ye Yan immediately ran over and took the Dragon Abyss from his father's hand, his eyes filled with joy. "Thank you, Dad."

Ye Hua nodded. 'Being polite is important in life, and it should be instilled from a young age. Ah Li is well-behaved and polite, thanks to Baizhi's guidance. Even my son is the same. Even if one has to kill, one should do it with courtesy.'

It must be said that the sound of the Dragon Abyss instrument was very moving. If it weren't for Ye Yan's lack of skill, he could definitely mesmerize people with it.

He could even blow someone to death with it.

"Baizhi, I just heard that the Peace Association wants to go after us," Ye Hua asked casually while sipping tea.

"Ye Hua, you already know?" Donghuang Baizhi planned to handle it without telling her husband.

Ye Hua nodded. "It seems like yesterday's incident has been discovered, and they are using it as an excuse."

What puzzled Ye Hua was who had discovered it. No one who was present had been left alive, so it was really strange.

"I really hope they don't make any mistakes," Donghuang Baizhi sighed softly. Why must they pick a fight with us for no reason? Are they seeking death?

Ye Hua took out a cigarette and lit it. "Some things are really unstoppable."

Qing Ya chuckled softly. "Yes, some things are really unstoppable."

Ye Hua noticed Qing Ya's expression and felt that something was not right. Curious, he asked, "What is unstoppable?"

"Duh, Ye Hua, Qing Ya is also expecting her second child," Donghuang Baizhi said with a smile.

"What?!" Ye Hua was shocked. She was pregnant again so soon!

"Ye Yan will also have a little brother," Ye Yan said, putting down his flute with a smile.

"I will have three younger siblings, haha. Ah Li is the eldest sister," Donghuang Li said.

Ye Hua was always the last to know. They all knew already.

Suddenly, Ye Hua thought of a problem. Both of his wives were pregnant again, and according to their habits, they definitely wouldn't let him touch them!

Baizhi had already stopped having sex, and now Qing Ya was taking a break too. This was too much to bear.

Why was Ye Hua always finding things that would cause him trouble lately?

Watching her husband's gloomy expression, Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi couldn't help but laugh quietly. They were definitely feeling gloomy right now.

But Ye Hua was still happy that Qing Ya was pregnant again. However, they would have to take some safety measures in the future, or it would be too painful.

After they gave birth to this child, they wouldn't have any more for the next ten years. The dream of having two wives together was still not fulfilled, and he couldn't wait any longer.

Ye Hua gently held Qing Ya's hand and Donghuang Baizhi's hand. He was grateful to them for continuing his bloodline.

"You've worked hard," Ye Hua said earnestly.

Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi smiled sweetly, saying nothing.

The two little ones stood beside their parents, looking at their father and mother with smiles on their faces.

What a beautiful and warm picture this was! A family of five, and two little ones in their mothers' wombs.

Ye Hua had gone from a lonely life to what he had now, and he was truly the biggest winner in life. He had a beloved wife and cute children, and nothing was more important than this.

"Um... Did I come at the wrong time?" came Qing Yutong's voice from the side.

Ye Hua turned to look at his younger sister-in-law. Both of his wives couldn't take care of him, so should he ask her to help out? That was a question...

"Your sister is pregnant with her second child," Ye Hua smiled.

Qing Yutong was stunned for a moment, then immediately rushed to her sister's side. "So soon?"

Qing Ya nodded with a gentle smile.

"Wow, brother-in-law, you're really amazing, always hitting the mark!" Qing Yutong couldn't help but praise him. He was truly unparalleled. His ability to have children was also exceptional.

Qing Ya patted her sister's hand. "You should also consider yourself."

"Sister, why are you here again?" Qing Yutong sighed. She was being pressured every day, as if she couldn't get married.

Ye Hua sat in silence. There were too few men in this world who could match Qing Yutong.

Meanwhile, Qing Yutong turned around and blinked mischievously at her brother-in-law, as if saying, "Brother-in-law, why don't you make a move? I might get married soon."

Ye Hua sighed in his heart. This Yutong was really something. She even tried to seduce her brother-in-law. If her sister found out, it would be a huge mess.

Chapter 598 (Negotiation Conference)

With Qing Yutong joining, Voidless Realm became more active.

As a grown-up, Qing Ya could still play with two children. She felt helpless. In the future, when her sister has children, it will probably be the same, which is really worrying.

In the next week, Ye Hua really enjoyed himself. Because his two wives seemed embarrassed, now the three of them sleep together.

Ye Hua hugged one on the left and one on the right, finally enjoying it...

Although he didn't do anything bad, he still took a step forward. Will he go further in the future?

But now there is a problem!

Every morning before dawn, the sound of his son practicing playing the flute can be heard. That ghostly cry is really unbearable.

At first, Ye Hua thought it was his son's high interest, and it would be okay in a few days.

But Ye Hua underestimated his son's interest, and the torment had just begun!

The people in the Voidless Realm were suddenly in a difficult situation. They also thought that the little prince was only interested for three minutes, from the joyful smile at the beginning to the despair at the end, the change in between was really ridiculous.

As Ye Yan said, he could blow the flute to death.

That day, Ye Hua was sleeping with his two wives, and suddenly heard his son's playing.

Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi next to him also opened their eyes instantly.

"This Yan'er." Qing Ya was really helpless. Her son was so enthusiastic about playing the flute. If she goes over and asks him to stop, wouldn't it be too depressing for the child?

Ye Hua sighed deeply, "Let's go back to Leisure Bar to sleep tomorrow. I can't stand it anymore..."

"Someone has also reported Yan'er's matter in the Voidless Realm, and people in the Voidless Realm can't stand it anymore." Donghuang Baizhi smiled bitterly. This little guy, Yan'er, was too good at causing trouble. He could play the flute and make people feel like this.

In order not to suppress his son's interest in learning, Ye Hua said softly, "Let's set a time for Yan'er to practice in the future, this can't go on."

Qing Ya also thought so, it was too disturbing.

The eerie sound of the flute continued in their ears. The three parents were almost desperate, let alone other people in the Voidless Realm, who were living in dire straits.

Soon, the three of them got up, found Ye Yan who was practicing, and asked the little guy to practice during the scheduled time in the future and not start early in the morning.

After hearing this, Ye Yan felt that it was acceptable and compromised.

It seemed that he played too well, so he played it when everyone woke up.

However, at noon during the meal, a guard rushed in to report, "Your Majesty! Just received news that the Justice League and the Peace Association requested a negotiation."

"Negotiation?" Ye Hua put down his chopsticks.

"Yes, it will be held the day after tomorrow, and they even said that if they cannot reach an agreement, they will attack the Voidless Realm together, claiming to be acting for heaven."

Ye Hua chuckled lightly, it's interesting.

Donghuang Baizhi raised her hand and the guard bowed and left.

Ye Hua picked up his chopsticks again and said lightly, "I'll handle this matter."

Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi didn't say anything.

Ye Yan stood on the stool and said in a childish voice, "Daddy, Yan'er can help you too."

"When Yan'er grows up, there will be plenty of things for Yan'er to do," Ye Hua said softly. As his son, there will be more things to do in the future.

"Ah Li can also help Daddy," Donghuang Li also wanted to share the burden for her father.

Ye Hua said calmly, "Your current task is to grow up well. You will have plenty of opportunities in the future."

Donghuang Li and Ye Yan nodded, hoping they could grow up quickly and help their father with his work.

After dinner, Ye Hua returned to Leisure Bar and found Ye Zizi. She wanted a task, so he handed the negotiation to her.

Ye Zizi was very happy. Finally, she could do something, and Your Honor had said that she could negotiate however she wanted, as long as she didn't kill everyone.

Ye Zizi understood and finally had her chance to shine.

'Three days later, at the Seaport City, hehe...'

Three days passed quickly.

The International Building in Seaport City was the stronghold of the Justice League. This negotiation conference would also be held here, including two big shots, Jiu Ye and Bai Cixin.

There was only one person from the Justice League present, and of course there was also Wang Dabao. When his wife came to negotiate, as her husband, he had to cheer her on.

The entire hall was filled with high-level people from both sides, all wearing badges with two moons and stars.

And they were waiting for the representative of Voidless Realm, whispering and guessing.

"Who do you think will come from the Voidless Realm this time?"

"Maybe the Empress will come."

"The Empress? I haven't even seen what she looks like yet."

"Her appearance is so mesmerizing that once you see her, you'll find other women completely unattractive."

"Isn't that exaggerated?"

"Whoever sees her will know."

At this time, Bai Cixin and Jiu Ye sat at the top of the round table. This situation was like the meetings of the old gangsters, with the subordinates standing at the door to intimidate while the bosses sat down.

"Jiu Ye, will someone from Voidless Realm come?" Bai Cixin was also uncertain. If the Empress did come, what should she do?

But thinking that this was her territory, Bai Cixin felt more at ease. After all, there were still Qing Tiandi and Feng Tian behind her.

Jiu Ye smoked his cigar and squinted his eyes. He couldn't figure it out either, but he said, "Don't worry, even if they don't come, it doesn't matter. We can only increase the negative impact, which is beneficial to us."

Bai Cixin's face darkened. Voidless Realm was really hard to deal with. When could she get revenge?

Just as the crowd whispered among themselves.

Ding!

The elevator doors opened, and everyone's gaze turned towards the entrance. Has someone from the Voidless Realm arrived?

As the elevator doors opened, everyone gasped in shock!

A small figure appeared inside the elevator, but that wasn't the focus!

What caught everyone's attention were the two Tier-2 powerhouses floating beside her! They were not dead, but struggling desperately, their feet weakly kicking.

The crowd realized that these two people were probably the guards from below!

Today, Ye Zizi appeared in splendid attire, wearing a pink princess dress, paired with a big pink hat, very stylish, and with her cute ponytail, she was simply a lovely little girl that everyone loved to see.

Of course, this was during normal times. Now, even with her smile, Ye Zizi was not cute at all. Her smile was that of death!

The small heels under Ye Zizi's feet clacked on the floor as she blinked her crimson eyes and surveyed the area.

When Wang Dabao saw Ye Zizi appear, his brow furrowed, feeling like he had seen her somewhere before! But he couldn't remember where... Where had he seen her before?

Chapter 599 (Boredom to the Extreme)

Suddenly! Wang Dabao seemed to have remembered something!

The girl in the coffin!

Wasn't there a coffin dug up last year when they fought over the ancient divine artifact? She's almost identical!

At that time, almost everyone who witnessed Ye Zizi's appearance had died, and only Wang Dabao was still alive, so he had doubts.

But Wang Dabao was not sure either, maybe she just looks like that girl.

But looking at the current situation, it is obviously not a good thing!

A moon-level expert from the Justice League stood up and shouted, "Who are you? Let the person go!"

Ye Zizi didn't say anything, a strand of hair slipped out quietly, penetrated the man's head in the midst of everyone's surprise, and lifted him up directly!

Ye Zizi yawned lightly and said, "Even ants dare to look at me."

The three people hanging in the air were sucked dry, and the corpses were thrown aside by Ye Zizi.

As for this "cattle feed", Ye Zizi no longer cares, it's easier to suck deities.

A little girl running to such a scene, killing three people at the first disagreement! How arrogant!

Well, that's just what they were thinking. No one dares to speak out now because they are too intimidated. Even looking at her will make you die.

Bai Cixin and Jiu Ye were also shocked. Who is this?

"Isn't there a negotiation? Where are the people?" Ye Zizi didn't even walk over, stood still and shouted.

Negotiate?

This little girl is here to negotiate!

So, this little girl is the person from Voidless Realm!

Voidless Realm is really not a good entity. They kill people indiscriminately. Such an organization should be wiped out!

Everyone just thinks so, but still no one stands up, because everyone is afraid of death. Even the moon-level experts died without resistance.

So terrifying!

Ye Zizi took out a lollipop and put it in her mouth. "Are we not going to have the negotiation conference?"

Feng Di sneered, "You? A yellow-haired girl? Is the Voidless Realm out of people?" ["Yellow-haired" carries a derogative connotation to describe a person as young, inexperienced, immature, silly, rash, and the like.]

Ye Zizi looked at Feng Di, and a wicked smile appeared on her lips. "Do you have any objections, little brother?"

"Hmph! You're pretending to be a deity." Feng Di twisted his fist and exuded a strong killing intent.

Ye Zizi suddenly opened a small pink umbrella, and smiled, "Come here, little brother."

As the leader of the Justice League, Feng Di couldn't stand such ridicule, and punched with a tiger's roar, attacking Ye Zizi.

The clothes on Ye Zizi's body danced wildly, showing how violent this punch was.

The people standing next to her exclaimed.

"What a powerful punch!"

"Indeed, this is the most awesome punch I have ever seen."

"I estimate that everything will turn into dust under this punch."

Everyone was saying one thing or another, as if Ye Zizi was about to die under this punch.

Ye Zizi shrugged her shoulders. Why did they think like that? She was really unhappy.

For such a person, Ye Zizi didn't need to use all her strength, she didn't even need to use a bit of it. Just one strand of hair could handle him!

Boom!

Her punch seemed to have hit the air, leaving everyone amazed. But only Feng Di knew that the punch had hit something!

Feng Di's gaze focused on a thin strand of hair that had caught her off guard. He was stunned for a moment as he realized that Ye Zizi had used that strand of hair to block his punch. How could that be possible?

"You're not that good, little boy. I'm disappointed," Ye Zizi said, her hair sharp as a knife as it pierced through Feng Di's head at an invisible speed, and then returned.

To everyone else, Feng Di and Ye Zizi were just standing there, not moving at all.

Feng Di only felt a chill on her forehead, a bit of a headache, and then ringing in his ears. Blood dripped from his forehead, making everyone panic.

Nothing had happened just a moment ago, so why was Feng Di bleeding from his forehead?

Could it be this little girl? But that's impossible. No one had seen her move.

Feng Di stared blankly at the little girl in front of him, his vision turning red, and his consciousness becoming blurred. He fell back directly.

Ye Zizi licked her lollipop and said, "Who's next?"

Everyone turned away. Feng Di was a strong person with three moons. He died without any explanation!

Were they really opponents for someone like Ye Zizi? Everyone had this question in their hearts. This little girl was just too abnormal! No one could resist her.

"Who is here to negotiate? If you don't speak, I'll beat you up," Ye Zizi said. She felt that the task given to her by Your Honor was too simple and unchallenging. If she had known it would be so boring, she wouldn't have come. It would have been better to stay at home and play games.

'In the future, I should take on fewer tasks like this. Killing people isn't a good option. It's really boring. Sigh~'

In fact, Ye Zizi hadn't changed much. She was still bloodthirsty as ever, perhaps the only difference was that she had become a little more mature and thoughtful. She wouldn't be as reckless as before and would think about the problem.

Feng Di's death left Bai Cixin and Wang Dabao stunned. He was the younger brother of Feng Tian!

But what could they do now? There was nothing they could do.

Jiu Ye and Bai Cixin breathed a sigh of relief as they stood up. This person from the Voidless Realm really didn't play by the rules. She killed people the moment she arrived, and they could only negotiate face-to-face. In terms of face, it was very deprecative.

But what could they do? This was a world where the strong were respected, and the weak had no right to speak.

Ye Zizi saw the two of them approaching and had no intention of killing them because they were "important" figures.

"What do you want to talk about?" Ye Zizi's crimson eyes frightened Jiu Ye and Bai Cixin. At this point, negotiations seemed like a joke.

"The Voidless Realm..." Bai Cixin didn't even finish her sentence when Ye Zizi cut her in between.

"What business do you have in meddling with the affairs of the Voidless Realm? Do you really think the heavens have changed?" Ye Zizi chuckled softly, her sweet melody was so pleasant to listen to that it made people feel like sleeping.

Everyone thought to themselves, 'Wow, this little girl is so dominant?'

Bai Cixin, summoning her courage, said, "Even the Emperor is subject to the law, let alone the Voidless Realm."

Ye Zizi sneered, "Voidless Realm is the law!"

Everyone gasped in shock, 'Wow, that was a bold statement, isn't she afraid of getting in trouble?'

Jiu Ye remained silent, pondering in his heart, letting Bai Cixin speak for him.

"Are you saying that if the Voidless Realm killed a thousand of us, it would just be swept under the rug?" Bai Cixin still had some courage and was able to speak such words in this situation, a true heroine among women.

"Voidless Realm must face the corresponding punishment, or suffer the consequences!" Bai Cixin shouted in a high-pitched voice. Wang Dabao next to her was ready to come out and protect his wife at any moment, his vest already drenched in cold sweat.

Chapter 600 (Ye Zizi vs. Feng Tian)

Ye Zizi grinned, "You're not the first person to say something like that. The last person who said that died. Do you want to follow in their footsteps?"

There were always those who wanted to test the limits. When they truly reached those limits, they would know how terrifying despair could be. Unless they were the kind of person who treated despair as breakfast.

"This is not just a Northern matter anymore. It concerns both the North and the South. Does anyone in the Voidless Realm dare to kill so many people without fearing divine punishment?" Bai Cixin was also furious. The fact that she had been forced out of the North by the Voidless Realm was still on her mind. If she couldn't take revenge, she would never be at peace in this lifetime.

"Divine punishment? Actually, I am divine punishment," Ye Zizi said lightly. Her crimson gaze became even more intense. She really wanted to kill the woman in front of her who thought too highly of herself. Who had the courage to say such things? Was it Liang Jingru? [This sentence is used to express someone who gets an unknown power to do something incredible or something that they would not normally be able to do. Liang Jingru is a famous singer, one of her popular songs is 'Courage' in which there is a lyric: Love really needs courage. Once I made the decision, I would not care what other people say.]

Baici Xin was so angry that she couldn't speak. This was simply the most absurd negotiation ever. It was more like a declaration of war by the Voidless Realm!

Jiu Ye remained silent, looking like he didn't want to provoke anyone.

"The negotiations are over. The Voidless Realm welcomes you," Ye Zizi said with a low laugh. She was actually looking forward to the day when Your Honor would wipe out everyone, just like he did in Tianfu last time. If that were the case, it would be interesting.

No one dared to speak any further. They never expected that one person from the Voidless Realm could suppress all of them and kill without reason, hiding her ferocity behind an innocent appearance.

Just as Ye Zizi was about to go out to find something to eat, a figure suddenly appeared!

It was Feng Tian!

Looking at his younger brother lying on the cold ground, Feng Tian walked over with a blank expression, his gaze filled with a cold and sinister air. "Who did this?"

Ye Zizi turned around slowly and smiled, "Me."

Feng Tian looked at Ye Zizi, and his eyes under the mask began to spin. A killing intent suddenly emanated from him, causing everyone to take three steps back involuntarily!

"Do you want to fight me too?" Ye Zizi asked curiously, batting her beautiful eyes.

How could Feng Tian endure this? He was full of killing intent, "I'll make you die!"

"Okay, let's go somewhere else to play." Ye Zizi was overjoyed. Finally, she had met someone who could fight a little. It felt good.

After saying that, Ye Zizi disappeared from her original spot, and Feng Tian followed suit.

Everyone present hoped that this little girl would be killed. She was too terrifying!

On the vast grasslands thousands of miles away, Ye Zizi's figure appeared, and soon Feng Tian appeared as well.

"Wow, the air here is really good." Ye Zizi tilted her head back and closed her beautiful eyes, taking a deep breath. It was really comfortable.

Feng Tian's hands were trembling, and a mighty spiritual pressure emanated uncontrollably from him. He slowly clenched his mask in his right hand!

Snap!

Feng Tian directly removed his mask because he wanted to use his cruelest side to kill the person in front of him!

At the moment when Feng Tian took off his mask, the sky suddenly changed color. Dark clouds covered the sky, thunder roared and rumbled, and a terrifying spiritual energy swept through the world, forming a strange scene. The powerful spiritual energy seemed to tear through the air, while Feng Tian, with his mask off, lowered his head, appearing lifeless.

Ye Zizi held a pink umbrella and murmured, "This is pretty strong."

Suddenly, white gloves appeared on Feng Tian's hands, and the surging spiritual pressure rose again. The grass seemed unable to withstand such power and cracked one after another.

Feng Tian's body suddenly disappeared with a maniacal laughter, and Ye Zizi frowned and leaned her head slightly to the right.

A fist appeared at the left side of Ye Zizi's face. She slightly hesitated and jumped lightly.

'This person's speed and strength are pretty good, much stronger than those deities,' Ye Zizi thought.

Ye Zizi looked up after jumping high and saw no one there. Suddenly, she felt a burst of violent force above her head. She felt her bones loosen and recalled how satisfying it was to fight with Your Honor half a year ago. Now that she finally encountered someone who could fight, she was eager to take him on.

Ye Zizi clenched her small fist and punched towards the direction above her head.

Boom!

The collision between fists shook the entire sky, and a huge shock wave spread out, even producing a dazzling light.

"Haha! Not bad, you actually blocked my punch," Feng Tian's face appeared particularly twisted and distorted, like a madman.

Ye Zizi smiled slightly, "You're not bad either."

"Then let me see how many punches you can take from me!" Feng Tian shouted wildly. His spiritual energy grew even stronger, and he simply punched and withdrew without any technical content.

At this point, everything else became unimportant. One punch could destroy the heavens and earth.

Ye Zizi used her left hand to hold the umbrella and her right hand to resist the attacks, with each punch producing a terrifying spiritual energy wave. A spatial crack was slowly forming.

As Feng Tian punched faster and harder, Ye Zizi adjusted her strength according to his level of power, so as not to blast him into pieces with one punch.

"This punch is good, very tricky. If it were a little faster, it could have grazed my clothes," Ye Zizi said as she fought, not stopping her constant teaching and guidance.

Combining speed and power is the key, and this is perfection. But you are not good enough here, and not good enough there. Everywhere is flawed, making Feng Tian seem useless.

From the beginning, Feng Tian was furious, but as the fight went on, his expression grew darker. A skilled fighter always holds back a little, not using their full strength from the start.

But now, Feng Tian gradually released his true power, but Ye Zizi seemed like a bottomless pit, no matter how he adjusted, she could always catch his punches.

This situation left Feng Tian speechless. His crazed and ferocious expression sank as if he had been struck with autism. Ye Zizi closed her small umbrella and chuckled lightly, "Alright, I'll fight seriously with you now."

"What! Weren't you serious enough just now?" Feng Tian didn't dare to be careless and stared firmly at Ye Zizi.

In the blink of an eye, Feng Tian saw Ye Zizi's small fist grow infinitely larger. He quickly defended himself, but was knocked back several tens of meters.

Ye Zizi waved her fist and said, "Hold on tight! Here I come!"

After speaking, Ye Zizi disappeared from her original position. Feng Tian didn't dare to let his guard down and used all of his strength.

Occasionally, a burst of energy erupted from the grassland, and the torn space grew larger and larger. A terrifying aura emanated from within, as if a powerful creature was about to move. If the space was torn open a bit more, the terrifying being inside could appear and destroy the world!
