

My Woman 601

Chapter 601 (Being Dogs Is Actually Not Bad)

A figure fell from the sky, leaving a large deep pit on the ground. However, the figure then rose back up into the sky again.

Then it fell back down, and rose back up again.

Countless deep pits appeared all over the ground. Ye Zizi got bored and stood in the air, weakly waving her fists. Feng Tian was like a sandbag, going up and down.

But no matter what, he still kept rushing forward without hesitation, and that kind of determination was admirable.

Ye Zizi sighed lightly. The gap in strength was still so big. Only Your Honor could defeat her. It was really distressing.

Looking down at Feng Tian lying in the big pit, Ye Zizi slowly descended and stood beside the pit.

Inside the pit, Feng Tian's body was injured, his eyes were big and small, and his arms were twisted into a strange angle.

Ye Zizi lightly exhaled. 'How miserable.'

This scene seemed familiar. Initially, Feng Tian had looked at the Gorefiend in the pit like this. He hadn't expected that a few months later, he would experience it himself.

Feng Tian's gaze was a little dull. He stupidly looked at the sky, as if he had not accepted this cruel reality.

From his expression, he was really traumatized, as if he had begun to doubt the meaning of life.

But Ye Zizi did not plan to kill this man. He was already in such a pitiful state, and would probably become a waste. Sigh...

It was all because she was too powerful, and finding an opponent was difficult.

Ye Zizi opened her umbrella, and suddenly a strong wind swept over, carrying a fierce air.

The enormous pressure made the ground tremble. Ye Zizi turned her head to look.

It was so big... such a big... a Husky...

Ye Zizi's description was quite accurate. It was similar to a Husky, but its size was astonishing. Ye Zizi was like a small dot compared to it.

This was a prehistoric beast, Yun Lang! [Based on the literal meaning of Yun Lang, a possible name for a beast could be "Cloudwave" or "Waves of Clouds". These names could evoke the image of a creature that is swift, elusive, and perhaps associated with the skies or the elements.]

It was of the same level as the Fiery Nether Dragon summoned by Ye Hua. Its appearance here today was completely unexpected.

"Aw-woo-woo-woo~" Yun Lang howled as it looked up, finally seeing the light of day after being trapped in nothingness for so long! It hated it so much!

'Tiny humans, all of you can go to hell. How could you possibly be my opponent?'

Ye Zizi saw the Husky snarling and looking fierce, just like in the videos, as if it wanted to fight with Tibetan Mastiffs. It was as if it had been let off the leash...

Feng Tian lying in the pit also saw the Husky, but still had no expression, having been beaten so badly that he didn't even know how to be afraid.

Ye Zizi felt like she was missing a dog. This Husky didn't seem very "Husky". It would be perfect if it wagged its tail.

"Ao-wooooo!" Yun Lang roared angrily at Ye Zizi. 'Kneel down, you lowly humans!'

Ye Zizi snorted softly. "Who said only you can howl!"

She took a deep breath and released all her energy. Then she opened her mouth wide and shouted, "Ao-wooooo!"

This was not the voice of a little girl. It was even more ferocious than the prehistoric beasts.

Speaking of it, Ye Zizi's true form is not human-like at all, and is more like a beast. Moreover, when her aura is fully released, it is indeed very intimidating.

"The fur on Yun Lang's body was blown by the wind caused by the leaves, his eyes widened in shock. Such an expression on a Siberian husky's face felt natural and normal.

Ye Zizi wiped her mouth and took out a lollipop, popping it into her mouth.

Yun Lang swallowed nervously and couldn't even think of running away. The aura just now was terrifying to the extreme, even more so than being banished to oblivion.

"What are you standing there for? Shrink!" Ye Zizi snapped impatiently, "You're really stupid."

Yun Lang dared not say much and shrank directly to the size of a dog. A purebred Siberian husky appeared.

"Wag your tail," Ye Zizi ordered.

Yun Lang lowered his head in fear and could only obey, wagging his tail.

"Haha, it's fun," Ye Zizi exclaimed excitedly. This dog was much more fun than the cat.

Yun Lang felt so hopeless, suddenly realizing that oblivion was not that bad, although it was a little darker, at least no one treated him like a dog.

Why was he so unlucky to run into someone like her as soon as he appeared?

Wait! He should be grateful that he wasn't killed by someone like her. In fact, being a dog wasn't bad. He heard that they slept and ate all day.

Thinking of this, Yun Lang felt a little relieved. It's good to be a dog.

Feng Tian in the big pit didn't know what had happened, but felt a terrifying aura and then disappeared...

But this was not a big deal. He was actually tortured by a little girl, mercilessly, without any mercy!

Feng Tian seemed very foolish.

After Ye Zizi reported back to her mission, Ye Hua was quite satisfied. At least Ye Zizi controlled herself well and only killed three people.

If she guessed correctly, they should attack soon. Then she should also prepare and think of a good way to show off. She had used all the old tricks before and had no new ideas. She needed something unique.

"Ye Hua, how did it go?" Donghuang Baizhi came over and asked curiously.

"It failed. They want you to apologize," Ye Hua said truthfully. They actually wanted her woman to apologize. Don't they know that his woman can't be provoked?

Donghuang Baizhi looked furious, of course, this was her performance in front of her husband. If it were in front of others, she would remain cold.

"Baizhi, what do you think we should do? They may come to attack soon, and there will be many of them," Ye Hua asked curiously, wondering what Donghuang Baizhi's decision would be.

Killing a hundred people and killing tens of thousands of people were two completely different things.

Donghuang Baizhi pondered for a while, her gaze cold, "If they come to invade my Voidless realm, then they are enemies. There is nothing to discuss about how to deal with enemies!"

"That's my good woman!" Ye Hua hugged Donghuang Baizhi tightly, feeling gratified. It's not easy to open her mind.

"Oh, don't hold me too tightly. Be careful of the baby," Donghuang Baizhi pouted, afraid of hurting her baby.

Although knowing nothing would happen, as a mother, it is normal to worry about it.

"Making a fuss over nothing. I'll be right back," Ye Hua said softly and returned to the Leisure Bar.

In fact, he wanted to buy a Jianbing Guozi (Deep-fried dough sticks rolled in a thin pancake is a popular Chinese street food originating in Tianjin.) and ask how Auntie's son was doing. After all, it was something he had promised.

Walking out of Leisure Bar, Ye Hua came to the alley. Although it was already ten o'clock in the morning, Auntie was still setting up her food stall, and there were quite a few people buying Jianbing Guozi.

It was probably because they were having it for lunch.

"I'll have a Jianbing Guozi," Ye Hua said calmly as he approached.

Auntie was delighted to see Ye Hua and said, "Thank you so much."

Upon hearing this, Ye Hua also knew that Wu Li had probably gone back.

"I told you I could help."

"Yes, yes, from now on, whenever you come, it's all free!" Auntie was so happy that she even held Ye Hua's hands to express her gratitude.

Chapter 602 (Very fierce! Extremely fierce!)

Seeing the gentle smile on the Auntie's face, Ye Hua nodded, hoping that her son wouldn't do anything foolish.

Otherwise, it would be so painful to leave his own elderly mother in the world.

"Here's your Jianbing Guozi, eat it while it's hot." The Auntie handed the freshly-made Jianbing Guozi to Ye Hua.

Ye Hua held it in his hand, feeling the heat, let out a sigh of relief, and walked back to the bar.

Meanwhile, the Auntie looked at Ye Hua's back with gratitude. He was truly a good person.

Was Ye Hua a good person? Clearly not. He had already done his utmost for the Auntie, but if her son continued to be stubborn, Ye Hua wouldn't continue to persuade him. Whatever happens, happens.

It was just a pity for this kind-hearted Auntie.

Eating the Jianbing Guozi, Ye Hua returned to the bar and happened to see a dog running in the lobby, with Gorefiend chasing after it with a mop. He seemed to want to make dog meat hotpot tonight.

Ye Hua immediately recognized the dog's breed at a glance, feeling a bit surprised. How did such a prehistoric beast end up here?

Perhaps Yun Lang was running too happily and accidentally ran towards Ye Hua, but the dog was looking back at Gorefiend.

It seemed like he was teasing Gorefiend.

Bang!

Yun Lang hit Ye Hua's lower leg with his head and let out the unique howl of a husky before falling to the ground.

But Yun Lang was not afraid and immediately stood up, looking at Ye Hua warily and growling as if he was about to attack.

"Your Honor, this dog was stealing food in the kitchen, peeing, and biting the table." Gorefiend hurriedly accused the husky of his crimes. This meant one thing: this was an authentic husky.

Ye Hua lifted his foot and kicked the dog. How dare he bare his teeth at him, he had a lot of courage!

Yun Lang once again let out his unique howl, but he was fine. He stood up and ran upstairs while barking like a dog, as if saying, "You wait for me, I'm going to call big brother, oh no, big sister." [Subordinate can call their superiors as big brother]

Ye Hua didn't bother to pay attention to him and sat at the bar. Gorefiend respectfully poured him a drink. This Jianbing Guozi went well with alcohol.

Soon, Yun Lang brought the big sister down.

Ye Hua glanced at her and said lightly, "Is this the dog you brought back?"

"Your Honor, how does this husky look, cute or not?" Ye Zizi pinched Yun Lang's ear and smiled.

Yun Lang was a bit dizzy at this point. 'What kind of world was this? The big sister actually called this man "Your Honor". Could he be a Supreme Overlord? Even if he was a supreme being, I, Yun Lang, wouldn't be afraid!'

Ye Hua had raised dogs before, but this breed seemed a bit inferior. "Zizi, don't bring everything into the house."

'Thing? He actually called me, Yun Lang, a thing?'

'Sister, shout at the top of your lungs!'

Ye Zizi sat directly in Ye Hua's arms and coquettishly said, "Your Honor, isn't it because I'm too bored? If there's a dog, I can also take it for a walk outside."

'Wow! Sister, how could you do this? Where is your dignity? You are actually being coquettish in this man's arms.'

"Besides, I'm also thinking of everyone. We can have dog meat during the Chinese New Year." Ye Zizi grinned.

Yun Lang's mouth twitched violently. Did he just hallucinate? 'They must be talking about someone else. I, Yun Lang, am a prehistoric beast. Do you know what a fierce beast is? It's the kind that's very fierce! Extremely fierce!'

"Sit down." Ye Zizi shouted at Yun Lang.

Without hesitation, Yun Lang sat down.

"Show your tongue!"

Yun Lang stuck out his tongue and exhaled.

"Your Honor, isn't this husky very silly?"

Yun Lang: "....."

Ye Hua rubbed his nose and took a sip of wine. "Look for yourself."

Seeing that His Majesty agreed, Ye Zizi suddenly kissed Ye Hua's cheek and sat on Yun Lang's back.

"Husky, take me upstairs to play games."

Wuwuwu~

Yun Lang was still very cooperative, carrying Ye Zizi upstairs.

Ye Hua shook his head helplessly and watched as Gorefiend carefully cleaned the glasses, his focused attitude was like he was doing something important.

Gorefiend was quite interesting. He was causing havoc before, but now he's quite skilled in sanitation work.

"Your Honor, are you having lunch here at noon? I'll go prepare." Gorefiend respectfully asked as he put down the glass in his hand.

"No." Ye Hua still planned to go back to the Voidless Realm to accompany his wives and children. He's now a man with a family, and there have been a lot of changes in the past year. Last year at this time, he was still a solitary man.

"Okay." Gorefiend replied respectfully.

At this time, Feng Tian in the big pit was stupidly looking at the blue sky and white clouds, not even noticing the sudden appearance of Qing Tiandi beside him.

Qing Tiandi muttered to himself, "He's been hit into stupidity."

With a sigh, he took Feng Tian away and put on the mask. Back at the base, he treated Feng Tian's injuries, which were only minor skin injuries, making it much simpler.

Wang Dabao and Bai Cixin stood beside him, looking serious. Feng Tian was actually beaten into stupidity by that little girl.

"Brother Qing, what about Feng Tian?" Wang Dabao couldn't help but ask.

With a long sigh, Qing Tiandi shook his head. "It's probably difficult to fix it all at once. His self-esteem has been destroyed."

"How terrible is that?" Bai Cixin whispered, hitting someone to the point of losing their self-esteem. Is it really that terrifying?

Qing Tiandi smiled slightly. "This shows that the little girl is very powerful, able to beat someone with such a strong self-esteem."

"Can you beat her, Brother Qing?" Wang Dabao tentatively asked.

Qing Tiandi hesitated for a moment, then said, "It's hard to say. We won't know until we fight."

Hearing this, Wang Dabao and Bai Cixin fell silent. The Justice League is now counting on Qing Tiandi to hold the fort, but even Qing Tiandi isn't confident, and their confidence waned.

"Don't be so pessimistic. Let's order some takeout first. The roasted pig feet are not bad, very tasty. Get me two of them, and let Feng Tian think about his life." Qing Tiandi smiled and walked out of the room.

Wang Dabao and Bai Cixin looked at each other, feeling a bit confused.

When they came downstairs, they saw Qing Tiandi watching TV leisurely, seemingly not putting the problem behind him.

Bai Cixin sat next to him, while Wang Dabao was in charge of ordering outside.

"Brother Qing, what should we do about the Voidless Realm situation?" Bai Cixin still wanted to clarify the situation. They couldn't be careless.

Qing Tiandi was watching the dating show and had a smile on his lips. "Just keep stirring up trouble and wait for the right time to attack."

"Do we have a chance to win?" Bai Cixin was very worried. The appearance of Ye Zizi had left her without confidence, and Feng Tian was beaten into this state.

Qing Tiandi said lightly, "No."

Bai Cixin: "..."

Chapter 603 (Jiu Ye's Master)

Wang Dabao was stunned. If there was no reason, why would they still go? Isn't that seeking death?

Bai Cixin was puzzled and asked, "Since there's no reason, why do you still want to go?"

"Do you think there's a difference between killing a hundred people and killing tens of thousands?" Qing Tiandi slowly looked at Bai Cixin, causing her heart to tremble. She didn't dare to look directly at him. His gaze was so terrifying.

Wang Dabao slapped his thigh suddenly and exclaimed, "Brother Qing! Are you saying that..."

"That's right! That's what I mean!" Qing Tiandi chuckled lightly.

However...

What did he mean exactly???

Bai Cixin glared at her husband fiercely, thinking to herself, "Why are you making a fuss here when you don't understand anything?"

Wang Dabao scratched the back of his head, feeling a little embarrassed. He didn't expect that Brother Qing would be so unpredictable, which was quite awkward.

"Brother Qing, don't hide it anymore. What do you mean?" Bai Cixin asked heavily. She couldn't figure out what Qing Tiandi was planning to do. Since there was no chance of winning, why would he still go?

Qing Tiandi took out a tissue and wiped his palms and back of his hand casually, saying, "If Voidless Realm really killed tens of thousands of people, what's the difference with a few hundred people?"

Bai Cixin and Wang Dabao opened their mouths wide. At this moment, they finally understood Qing Tiandi's intention!

Suicide!

Let these people go to die as cannon fodder!

This kind of approach was simply outrageous!

Qing Tiandi continued, "To provoke hatred, we don't need to sacrifice our lives. What else can we use if not lives?"

The couple shivered all over after hearing Qing Tiandi's words. His relaxed expression seemed as if he was playing a game and he didn't care about human lives at all.

"Normal people can't bring down Voidless Realm. We need to lure out some old monsters. However, these old monsters won't come out unless they have no choice. You should understand what I mean." Qing Tiandi yawned. He had to take things step by step and not rush, otherwise it would backfire.

"Old monsters?" Wang Dabao asked in confusion.

Qing Tiandi folded the tissue in his hand and placed it aside, saying, "Feng Tian is also considered an old monster, but his strength is relatively weak. These people are hidden among the crowd and don't interfere with the secular world. As long as there are no major events, they won't take action. By the way, I am also one of these old monsters."

Wang Dabao and Bai Cixin were shocked. It was the first time they had heard of such a thing as old monsters, and Qing Tiandi turned out to be one of them. Oh my god!

"How many p;d monsters are there in this world?"

"Alright, take your time to digest this news, but don't forget to cultivate hatred," Qing Tiandi instructed, then continued watching TV, looking like he didn't want to be disturbed.

Wang Dabao and Bai Cixin were also tactful and didn't continue to ask. The two couples went to the garden outside and spoke quietly.

"Wife, we..." Wang Dabao said worriedly.

Bai Cixin knew what her husband wanted to say and said in a gentle voice, "I know, don't worry."

Revenge is important, but one must also have a way out. From Qing Tiandi's behavior, it seems that there is no trust, so one has to save oneself!

Even if the plan goes wrong, there is still a chance to escape.

At this moment, Jiu Ye did not rush back to Long'an City, but walked on the street, holding his 8848 titanium phone.

Because another owner sent a message saying that they wanted to meet, Jiu Ye is now on his way there.

Speaking of old monsters, Jiu Ye has many owners with quirks, but he is used to it.

Standing outside a Starbucks, Jiu Ye was a little surprised. Meeting here? Isn't that too hasty?

But these owners all have quirks, and he has gotten used to it.

Entering Starbucks, there were a few young people and a waiter sitting inside.

Jiu Ye observed these young people and felt that something was not right. Did he come to the wrong place? No, it was definitely this Starbucks.

"Sir, would you like to order something?" A waiter asked with a smile.

Jiu Ye breathed a sigh of relief. Maybe the master hasn't arrived yet.

"I'll have a latte," Jiu Ye said lightly.

"Okay, please wait a moment."

Jiu Ye choose a seat and waited quietly, occasionally taking out his phone to check. 'Master didn't forget, did they?'

"Your coffee, sir." The waiter brought the coffee over and smiled.

Jiu Ye nodded and took a sip of coffee, furrowing his brow. He realized that he still wasn't suitable for drinking these.

The waiter didn't say anything since Jiu Ye didn't either and went back to their work station.

As time passed, Jiu Ye was getting sleepy sitting there. Leave? That was impossible. The master asked him to come, so if he left, it would be like he was asking for death.

Jiu Ye has gotten to where he is today with his strong instincts. The master is definitely testing his patience. Maybe they're spying on him with a telescope.

The master is such a prankster.

As night fell, the master still hadn't arrived, and Jiu Ye had already fallen asleep...

He had ordered countless cups of coffee and was still able to fall asleep.

He didn't know how long had passed when he heard a voice from a young lady saying, "Sir, we're closing now."

"Jiu Ye slowly opened his eyes, looked around in confusion, and then glanced at his watch. It was so late...

It seemed that his master had forgotten about him. Sigh...

Jiu Ye stood up and walked out of Starbucks. It was still a bit cold in the late night port city, so he raised his collar and called a taxi.

"Sorry to keep you waiting."

Jiu Ye's gaze suddenly sharpened! Was the voice behind him his master?

Slowly turning around, Jiu Ye's mouth twitched. Wasn't this the waiter from earlier?!

'Damn it!!!'

Jiu Ye swallowed his saliva and took a good look at him.

Just an ordinary long-sleeved shirt, jeans, and a worn-out bicycle. Judging by his age, he looked like he was only in his early twenties!

Was this his master???

No way!

"Don't be fooled by my appearance."

Jiu Ye was still a bit nervous and asked tremblingly, "Master, how should I address you?"

"Just call me Chu Ying."

'Chu Ying???'

'Such a feminine name, master!' [The term "Chu Ying" is written in Chinese characters, but it is a Japanese term. The term is pronounced "hatsu sakura" in Japanese, and it means "first cherry blossom" or "early cherry blossom". In Japan, the blooming of cherry blossoms is a significant event, and people often gather together to enjoy the beauty of the cherry blossoms during the springtime. "Chu Ying" can be used as a name for a person or as a title for a piece of art, such as a painting or poem, that celebrates the beauty and symbolism of cherry blossoms.]

'Did you name yourself too hastily?!'

Jiu Ye could only think this in his heart, and dared not address his master by name.

"Master, may I ask why you called me here?" Jiu Ye asked with his head lowered.

Chu Ying propped up his bicycle and took out a can of Ruiou from a plastic bag, "Do you want to drink?" [Rượu cần is a fermented rice wine indigenous to several ethnic groups in Vietnam, in areas such as Tây Nguyên or Tây Bắc. It is made of fermented glutinous rice mixed with several kinds of herbs from the local forests.]

"Thank you, Master." Jiu Ye accepted it with both hands, and Chu Ying also opened a can.

Jiu Ye reminded him, "Master, it's not safe to drink and drive."

Chu Ying, who was just about to take a sip, paused for a moment and looked at his own bicycle before laughing, "You're right. I won't drive after drinking."

Jiu Ye smiled and also opened the Ruiou in his hand, finding the taste quite good.

This master is really easygoing, offering him a drink as soon as they meet, and being so friendly. 'He's really down-to-earth.'

Chapter 604 (Preparations for Battle)

Chu Ying put Ruiou in a plastic bag and then rode his bike, saying, "There's nothing for you to do here today, so go and do something else."

"What? The thing you mentioned earlier, about dealing with the Voidless Realm?" Jiu Ye quickly asked. He didn't have any confidence now, as that woman from the Voidless Realm had already intimidated everyone.

Chu Ying rode away on his bike and waved his hand, saying, "Deal with it on your own."

Watching his master disappear down the street, Jiu Ye was a bit confused. He was the least flashy of all his masters, and now he had left him to deal with such a big issue on his own.

A Maybach pulled up beside Jiu Ye, and a Moon-level powerhouse quickly got out to open the door for him.

Jiu Ye thought that all of his masters were low-key, yet here he was sitting in such a luxurious car. Was it too much?

But it shouldn't be too much, one should know how to enjoy life. This master was still working at Starbucks, which really made Jiu Ye's eyes roll.

Meanwhile, in the Voidless Realm, Ye Hua and his two beautiful wives were getting ready for bed.

Although they were all sleeping together, Ye Hua didn't force anything. He could, but it wouldn't feel right unless they were willing.

Holding the most beautiful and sexy women in the world, Ye Hua felt quite pleased, even though he couldn't actually do anything. It was still satisfying to touch them. Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi didn't say anything either.

"You need to be prepared. The Justice League and Peace Association won't give up easily," Ye Hua said as he touched them. The two wives sleeping beside him blushed, as if they could feel what he was saying.

"I'm asking you a question, why aren't you answering?" Ye Hua asked in confusion, turning to look at them.

These two women wanted it so badly, yet they were still holding back. Why?

They were an old married couple, so why were they still so shy?

"Is it comfortable?" Ye Hua couldn't help but tease them.

Donghuang Baizhi and Qing Ya were so frustrated that they could only hold onto their husband's big hand tightly and prevent him from doing anything.

Donghuang Baizhi quickly changed the subject, "They're really coming this time, and we won't let them go."

Qing Ya nodded beside her. They had already come to their doorstep, so why should they continue to endure?

Ye Hua was satisfied with his wives' attitude. It seemed that their compassion for others had disappeared.

"Good! This time, we'll let the world see that if they come to the Voidless Realm, they won't leave alive!" Ye Hua said with a light shout. His eyes flashed with bloodthirsty intent. Since this was their choice, he would give them death!

A month passed quickly and the day was approaching. However, the whole world seemed to have adapted to the new environment, and there were more and more practicing warriors. The number of people in the Justice League and Peace Association was also growing day by day.

Moreover, a sneak attack was quietly erupting, and the two major forces had decided to attack the Voidless Realm!

This was exciting news. With hundreds of thousands of people attacking the Voidless Realm, they could definitely crush the entire realm. Just thinking about it made one feel great. It was said that there were many treasures in the Voidless Realm, and they could definitely plunder a lot of them.

In short, there were many benefits to destroying the Voidless Realm. This was a heroic feat of slaying demons and monsters and upholding justice!

Everyone was eager to move, wishing to kill and plunder the Voidless Realm, implementing the Three Red Lines policy. [The "Three Red Lines" policy is a set of guidelines issued by the Chinese government in 2017 to control the expansion of debt in the real estate sector. The policy aims to prevent excessive borrowing by property developers, which could lead to a housing market bubble and financial instability. It refers to three key indicators that property developers must adhere to when borrowing from banks and other financial institutions. These indicators are: 1) Liability-to-asset ratio: The total liabilities of a property developer should not exceed 70% of its total assets. 2) Net debt-to-equity ratio: The net debt of a property developer should not exceed its equity. 3) Cash-to-short-term debt ratio: The cash held by a property developer should be at least twice its short-term debt.

If a developer violates any of these guidelines, it may face restrictions on future borrowing and be subject to penalties. The policy has been effective in reducing the growth of debt in the real estate sector, but it has also led to a slowdown in housing construction and sales.]

In Wang Dabao's villa, Qing Tiandi and others were watching TV as usual. There was a bucket of braised beef instant noodles in front of them, and the room was filled with the smell of instant noodles.

Wang Dabao and Bai Cixin were also making do with instant noodles. They were very busy recently, arranging various personnel.

Suddenly...the stairs made a sound, and the three looked towards the stairs, only to see Feng Tian coming down!

This was the first time he had come down this month.

Feng Tian looked disheveled, with stubble all over his face and uncombed hair. He really looked like he couldn't take care of himself.

Feng Tian sat down slowly and muttered, "I'm hungry..."

Everyone: "..."

Wang Dabao quickly went to prepare instant noodles and gave it to Feng Tian.

Feng Tian picked up the instant noodles and gulped it down fiercely. "Another bucket," he said.

Feng Tian ate one bucket after another, and it seemed endless.

After finishing eating, Feng Tian sighed, stood up, paused for a moment, and walked back upstairs. Everyone could hear the sound of the bedroom door closing.

Was he recovering? Or continuing to be in seclusion?

Qing Tiandi laughed and didn't pay attention to it, drinking the soup, which was really delicious.

"How is your preparation going?" Qing Tiandi curiously asked.

Bai Cixin's eating manners were still very elegant. It took some effort to eat instant noodles like that, and she was a woman who knew how to take care of herself.

"Well, everything is arranged. We will attack together with the Peace Association in a week," Bai Cixin said coquettishly, wiping her mouth with a tissue.

"Good, you also pay attention to safety, and come back after you finish. Don't stay there," Qing Tiandi said with a low laugh.

The couple naturally agreed. They didn't plan to stay, and now that Qing Tiandi had said so, it was evident how powerful the Voidless Realm was.

The imminent war made the two of them nervous, and of course, they also felt guilty. After all, this was sending people to their deaths. There were tens of thousands of people, not just a few hundred!

"This is completely betraying our comrades. Just thinking about it gives me goosebumps."

On the other side, the mother was packing clothes for her son.

"Wu Li, how long will you be gone on this business trip?" the mother asked her son in the living room.

Wu Li was on the phone, and when he heard his mother's question, he covered the phone and shouted, "I'll be back in a week!"

After he finished speaking, he continued to make his phone call. It seemed that he had changed a bit after that day.

But the mother knew that her son wanted to win over that young man, so he was trying to please him. Even so, the mother was very happy. At least her son was back to his old self.

After packing her son's clothes, the mother took out a bag.

"Have a meal at home before you leave," the mother said softly, afraid of disturbing her son's business talk.

Wu Li nodded with a smile, and his mother was also pleased. She went into the kitchen to make food for her son.

"Mom, where did you put my toothbrush and toothpaste?" Wu Li asked loudly.

The mother cooking laughed, "They're in the pocket over there."

"Oh, I see."

Soon, the three dishes and one soup were brought to the table by the mother.

Wu Li walked over from the sofa and exclaimed, "Wow, they're all my favorite dishes."

The mother was happy to hear that and served him the food, saying, "Eat more."

"Okay."

The mother sat across from her son, but she didn't eat herself. She watched her son eat greedily.

Wu Li paused and picked up some food for his mother. "Mom, why are you just looking at me? Eat some too."

"Okay, okay," the mother smiled and answered. Finally, she had been waiting for this day. If her son brought home a wife, it would be even more perfect.

Chapter 605 (Don't Lose Face of the Deity)

The mother and son enjoyed their time in different ways. The aunt's eyes were full of doting love, and her smile was so gentle.

After a while, Wu Li held his stomach and said, "I'm so bloated..."

"Silly child, don't overeat," the aunt scolded with a smile. Wu Li was already so grown up, yet he acted like a child.

"Mom, you cooked so deliciously," Wu Li wiped his mouth and chuckled softly.

The aunt smiled tenderly and said, "From now on, Mom will cook for you every day. You have to come back often."

Wu Li seemed to be infected by his mother's love and didn't object for once, nodding his head.

Standing up, Wu Li picked up his luggage and walked towards the door, with the aunt following behind, reluctant to part.

Wu Li changed his shoes and opened the door.

"Be careful, Wu Li. Mom will be waiting for you at home," the aunt worriedly shouted. She felt a heavy burden in her heart.

Wu Li turned around and smiled, "Mom, I know."

The aunt nodded and watched her son leave the house.

Wu Li, who was dragging his luggage, paused for a moment. The aunt looked at him, wondering if he had forgotten something.

Wu Li turned back and hugged his mother tightly. "Mom, thank you."

If the aunt remembered correctly, this was the first time her son had hugged her like this. Tears flowed from her eyes.

"Good boy."

After hugging his mother tightly, Wu Li walked out of the house without looking back, closing the door behind him.

The aunt watched her son's figure disappear before her eyes. She reached out to grab him but withdrew her hand...

In the Voidless realm, Donghuang Baizhi had received the news. A week later, tens of thousands of people gathered to attack the Voidless realm.

This news made the empress dizzy for a while. They really came!

"Ye Hua, do we really have to do this?" Donghuang Baizhi seemed a little hesitant. After all, it was tens of thousands of lives at stake! Last time, they only killed a few hundred people, but this time, it was a much larger number. How many families would be destroyed because of this?

Ye Hua had fewer concerns than Donghuang Baizhi. The enemy was already at their doorstep. Should they still welcome them with open arms?

Indeed, they should welcome them, but with a butcher's knife in hand!

Qing Ya was much calmer now, just like Ye Hua, seemingly devoid of any mercy.

"Baizhi, you are the empress of the Voidless Realm. Several thousand people are relying on you. Do you plan to surrender?" Ye Hua asked in a low voice, saying such foolish words before the big battle could demoralize their subordinates.

Donghuang Baizhi hurriedly shook her head, "Of course, I will not surrender."

Ye Hua said coldly, "It seems that they haven't learned their lesson from last time. Do they really think that having more people will solve the problem? That's a pipe dream!"

Qing Ya agreed with her husband's statement that having more people doesn't necessarily solve problems. After all, even a single strong person could drown a weak person with their spit.

"Donghuang Baizhi, don't you think this is a conspiracy?" Donghuang Baizhi had also considered this possibility. If they fell into someone's trap, it would be very foolish.

Qing Ya agreed with Donghuang Baizhi this time and said softly, "Yes, there were no survivors that night."

"Qing Tiandi," Ye Hua said calmly.

Donghuang Baizhi and Qing Ya were slightly surprised, "Him?"

Ye Hua nodded and lit a cigarette, "It's highly likely. He's a clever opponent."

"Why didn't you just kill him, Ye Hua?" Donghuang Baizhi asked curiously.

Ye Hua was taken aback. If he killed him, what was the point of playing? Finally, he said helplessly, "I couldn't find him, so I had Brittany withdraw."

Donghuang Baizhi shook her head and pouted, "At such a critical moment, you..."

Qing Ya smiled lightly and said nothing.

"Now, everyone is watching your decision, Baizhi. We can't lose face," Ye Hua said lowly, standing up and walking out. He used to worry about Qing Ya, but now that she was fine, Donghuang Baizhi had become indecisive.

Donghuang Baizhi heard Ye Hua's words and pursed her lips, feeling a little aggrieved. She didn't dare to lose face for him.

Qing Ya picked up her tea cup and took a sip, "Baizhi, don't you know men? They're vain creatures."

"I know, but I don't think I've lost face. He makes it sound like I've already lost his face," the empress said, feeling helpless.

Qing Ya walked over and patted Donghuang Baizhi's shoulder, "Ye Hua has a bad temper and speaks bluntly sometimes. Don't take it to heart."

"I know. This guy always bullies us and says I'm embarrassing him," Donghuang Baizhi said, holding Qing Ya and looking very aggrieved.

Well, Ye Hua's words did hurt Donghuang Baizhi's feelings a little.

As a wife, embarrassing her husband was a serious matter. Ye Hua had just said something that made Donghuang Baizhi very upset.

Qing Ya smiled helplessly and followed Donghuang Baizhi's hair, "Okay, I'll teach him a lesson for you."

"If you do, you have to do it in front of me."

"Okay, why do you sound like Yan'er?"

Donghuang Baizhi pinched Qing Ya's arm impatiently, "As sisters, you should comfort my broken heart."

"Okay, okay, I'll comfort you. But next time if someone bullies me, you have to do the same." Qing Ya laughed softly.

"Okay."

Fortunately, the two kids were not around. Otherwise, they would be stunned to see their mothers acting like this. Do mothers behave like this? This was an eye-opener.

The two women comforted each other in the room, while Ye Hua went to Leisure Bar.

As for why he went there, of course it was to hold another mobilization meeting!

He called all his subordinates to the meeting, including the Yun Lang and Dou Fushi.

The deal with Dou Fushi was promised by Ye Hua. If he could deal with Jue Tian and Brittany, he would join him.

Although the process was a bit violent, at least it was done. As the Supreme Overlord, he could not break his promise.

He hated liars the most!

As for Yun Lang, he had become Ye zizi's subordinate. Isn't his subordinate's subordinate his own subordinate?

This was also helpless.

Dou Fushi was a little restrained during his first attendance at the meeting, but he was also shocked!

He was confused throughout the whole meeting.

He realized that his subordinate had someone above him!

And his subordinate's subordinate had someone above him!

Oh my god! How was this possible!

He also felt weak standing at the back of the team, with so many beautiful women and handsome men...

His own appearance suddenly felt inadequate, and he was so sad he wanted to cry...

But at the same time, Dou Fushi was also very excited. It was so strong! This was a gathering of the strong!

It felt great!

Chapter 606 (Young people are ignorant)

Yan Lang, who was squatting next to Ye Zizi, also had this feeling. He couldn't even feel their auras. How powerful they were! It scared the heck out of Yan Lang, making him want to cry.

However, being able to follow such powerful figures, Yan Lang felt great too. His silver-white tail kept wagging, making him look more and more like a husky.

"Subordinates pay our respects to Your Honor!" Everyone shouted in unison, with extraordinary momentum, as if they were going to war.

This is what it means to have momentum. Compared to Donghuang Baizhi, who only lowers the momentum.

Ye Hua raised his hand, and everyone was lifted by an invisible force.

Dou Fushi, who was standing at the back, was so excited that he was sweating. He had indeed followed the right person. Following Your Honor meant having the best food and drinks, and not being bullied. 'I, Dou Fushi, still has a bright future ahead!'

What a great feeling!

Ye Hua first lit a cigarette and said in a deep voice, "There will be a small-scale battle in a week."

Yes! In Ye Hua's eyes, a battle with tens of thousands of people is just a small-scale battle. The battle in Tianfu was only a medium-scale battle. In fact, large-scale battles are rare.

"Your subordinates are willing to help Your Honor overcome any obstacles!" Wei Chang was the first to shout loudly and kneel on one knee.

With Wei Chang's shout, everyone shouted in unison, "Your subordinates are willing to go through fire and water for Your Honor!"

Ye Hua was very satisfied with his subordinates' attitude and said, "I called this meeting not to discuss the battle, but to discuss the results after the battle."

Brittany bowed and said, "Your Honor, I believe that any conspiracy is just a paper tiger in Your Honor's eyes, and is no more than a mirage!"

Ye Hua listened carefully to what Brittany said.

"Brittany is right. This deity is not afraid of any conspiracies," Ye Hua praised.

After being praised by Your Honor, Brittany felt a little relieved. She also wondered if Jue Tian had woken up or not.

Ye Hua paused and continued, "However, I don't want to crush the enemy with force. It would be too bullying."

Everyone was stunned for a moment, and then shouted in unison, "Your Honor is merciful!"

Dou Fushi at the back was a bit unaccustomed to this rhythm. 'So this is mercy, huh? It seems that I need to redefine the meaning of mercy.'

"Therefore, no one knows what will happen after this small-scale battle! I'm looking forward to it!" Ye Hua said with excitement.

As Ye Hua's words fell, his subordinates once again exclaimed, "Being able to relieve Your Honor's fatigue is the greatest honor!"

They are really a group of skilled flatterers, this is so sycophantic.

But it's not all flattery. For the people of the Seven Deadly Sins, this is normal, nothing wrong with it.

However, others have a pleasing intention, such as green and red brothers, who they have not met before, so they mistakenly think this way of speaking is flattery.

"Although this is only a small-scale battle, it is considered large-scale here. This time, I want everyone to move out and give the enemy a shock!"

As soon as they heard the order to move out, the crowd was stirred up, with bloodlust in their bones.

Your Honor's orders for everyone to move out are not many. The first time was when they won, and the second time was apparently against the deities. This might be the third time, but compared to the second battle against the deities, this one is much inferior.

But at least they can move out with Your Honor, which makes everyone very excited.

"Your subordinates obey Your Honor's command!" The crowd exclaimed, almost flipping the roof.

"I called you over to think about how to line up, how can we show that we are an invincible team!" Ye Hua himself couldn't think of a good idea. He didn't want to use the previous high-profile methods, he wanted to change things up.

However, this question stumped everyone because it was very serious!

His requirements are so high that general plans are certainly not enough, and judging from Tianfu's high-profile style, this one certainly cannot be lower.

Seeing everyone silent, Ye Hua asked in a deep voice, "What, no good ideas? Do I have to come up with everything every time? What's the use of you all!"

The crowd was shocked and hurriedly knelt down, "Your subordinates are useless and foolish!"

"Get up when you have an idea!" Ye Hua said coldly. Besides being able to fight, what else do they know? It's like he's taking care of a child.

The crowd remained silent, because even if they answered, Your Honor would not be satisfied, so keeping quiet is the best choice. They could always be scolded, but being scolded with so many people around wouldn't be so embarrassing.

"Your Honor, um... I know..." Dou Fushi, who was kneeling at the back suddenly raised his hand.

Ye Hua gestured for Dou Fushi to speak.

The crowd shook their heads. 'Young man, you are too young. You don't understand Your Honor at all.'

Dou Fushi was a bit nervous and said cautiously, "Your Honor could sit on a small stool in front of the army. It would be so imposing, and I imagine such a scene would make people want to worship."

The crowd shook their heads again. A small stool? That's too cheap...In the previous battle at Tianfu, Your Honor trampled on the fiery nether dragon, and now he's going to sit on a small stool?

Young people really don't understand anything.

However, after hearing this, Ye Hua fell into contemplation. 'A small stool?'

He couldn't help but imagine that scene - The deity sitting in front of the army, with an ordinary small stool, a cigarette in his mouth, smoke rising repeatedly, and his eyes coldly staring.

It seemed like a good scene. He was used to being high-profile before, so sitting on a small stool this time might be good.

"Good! Well said!" Ye Hua couldn't help but shout.

The subordinates looked confused, not knowing what was good about it. What's so good about it?!

Dou Fushi heard Your Honor's praise and quickly knelt down to thank him, "Being able to relieve Your Honor's worries is our duty as subordinates!"

The subordinates were angry... How could they let a newcomer steal the spotlight?! Damn!

Yun Lang rubbed his paws. He actually wanted to say the same thing earlier, but he couldn't speak human language, and was afraid that Your Honor wouldn't understand, so he kept his opinion to himself. Sigh~

This husky is still quite smart.

Ye Hua looked at his subordinates and said, "Look at Dou Fushi! It's his first time attending a meeting, and he already knows so much. You guys have to work harder and study!"

Everyone was a little envious of Dou Fushi. Your Honor had never praised anyone like this before, let alone saying that everyone should learn from him.

Dou Fushi was feeling quite excited. Did these big shots really want to learn from him? How thrilling.

Young people should be low-key and not try to steal the spotlight. Sigh...

Chapter 607 (Deep Water in the Team)

[The title is a common expression used to describe a situation where there are hidden complexities or difficulties within a team or organization. The phrase is often used to convey the idea that the situation is not as simple or straightforward as it appears on the surface. It suggests that there may be hidden agendas or power struggles within the team or organization, and that navigating these waters requires skill and awareness.]

"Subordinates will remember it!" The subordinates respectfully shouted.

Ye Hua nodded, "Don't disappoint me again next time!"

"Yes, sir!"

With a stern face, Ye Hua returned to the Voidless Realm, leaving behind his subordinates.

Dou Fushi was a little disappointed when he saw that Your Honor had left without speaking to him. He thought Your Honor would talk to him alone.

As Dou Fushi was lost in thought, he suddenly noticed many hostile looks directed towards him.

Lie Gu walked over with a stern face and said to Dou Fushi, "Newcomer, you don't know the rules!"

Dou Fushi swallowed hard and looked at everyone's fierce gazes, feeling scared. "Big brother... I really don't know the rules..."

Ye Zizi snorted, "You don't know the rules but you still talk!"

Dou Fushi's scalp went numb. He realized that he had stolen the limelight and received praise from Your Honor, which made these brothers and sisters jealous...

This was too deep for him... He wanted to go back to the countryside...

"Big brothers and sisters, let me explain!" Dou Fushi thought he still had a chance to save himself.

"Who's your big sister? Am I that old?" Zi Shan retorted.

Dou Fushi: "..."

Dou Fushi slowly squatted down and weakly said, "Please don't hit my face..."

Lie Gu coldly snorted, "Everyone, let's teach the newcomer what the rules are!"

Dou Fushi's screams of agony filled the hall.

'Even the big brother is teaching you, so bear with it,' Death Mage let out a sinister laugh.

"Learn from your big sister!" Zi Shan also punched him.

"I want you to learn from me too." Tang Wei also threw a punch.

"I want you to learn from me as well." Wei Chang also came over and punched him.

After a while, Dou Fushi covered his face and said, "You didn't keep your promise. You said you wouldn't hit my face..."

Dou Fushi's face was swollen and he looked so miserable. This was the consequence of being a naive newcomer.

Yun Lang shook his tail and glanced at Dou Fushi before walking away with arrogance.

'As a newcomer, why do you have to be so ostentatious? Look at me, even I, Yun Lang, tuck my tail between my legs like a dog.'

'You are still too young after all.'

Gorefiend also shook his head and looked at himself. He thought that they must work steadfastly and honestly to gain everyone's recognition. Showing off will only lead to one's death.

Dou Fushi wanted to cry but had no tears left. Even a dog was laughing at him. He would never dare to speak rashly again.

This farce ended just like that, making Dou Fushi realize the "warmth" of team.

Look at how humble Green and Red Brothers were when they joined the team. They stood silently and only answered when asked by Your Honor.

On the other hand, Dou Fushi actively answered the questions of Your Honor, which was seen as showing off his intelligence. He became the object that everyone wanted to suppress!

We all lack intelligence. What use is it for you to have intelligence? Quickly dispel your crazy idea.

Ye Hua returned to the Voidless Realm and probably did not know that a group of subordinates was bullying the newcomer.

After entering the luxurious palace, Ye Hua saw Donghuang Baizhi teaching her daughter how to write with a brush while Ye Yan was practicing beside them.

"Mom, look, it's a picture of a little chicken pecking rice." Ye Yan showed his masterpiece.

Qing Ya, who was drinking tea, immediately sprayed it out. She frowned and scolded, "Yan'er! I told you to practice writing, not to draw!"

Ye Yan pouted, feeling a bit sad that his work didn't get praised by his mother.

"It's a nice drawing." Ye Hua walked in and said lightly.

Ye Yan immediately smiled happily and shouted, "Daddy~"

Ye Hua touched his son's little head. At this age, children need to be praised, or else they will easily get discouraged.

Donghuang Baizhi saw her husband return and immediately left, sitting aside gloomily.

"Mom will take you out to play." Qing Ya knew what was going on and took the two little ones out so as not to bother them.

Hearing that they could go out to play, Donghuang Li and Ye Yan were both very happy. After all, they were just children. Who wouldn't want to play?

When Qing Ya passed by Ye Hua, she whispered, "You've made Baizhi angry. Go and appease her."

Ye Hua was confused. When did he provoke the Empress? He couldn't remember. But when he looked at Donghuang Baizhi, she seemed to be angry...

Ye Hua walked slowly towards her, wanting to touch her hair. Unexpectedly, Donghuang Baizhi snorted and said, "Don't touch me, I'll only lose your face."

Now Ye Hua finally understood that it was his unintentional words that had provoked the Empress.

"How could you lose my face like this?" Ye Hua chuckled, thinking to himself that there was no difference between the Empress and a child; they both had a temper.

"Well, I already have lost your face. You don't have to bother with me anymore," the Empress said, tilting her head back with a look that said "let me suffer on my own."

But Ye Hua knew how to handle women now. He simply hugged the Empress, who was still angry, and sat down with her. Then he lifted her chin and said softly, "Look at the face of my wife, no other woman in this world can compare to her."

The Empress, whose anger had softened, hmped and moved away. Ye Hua then touched her lips, which were very soft, and said, "With a woman like you, wherever you go, it's a testament to my honor!"

The Empress's angry face softened, and she was pacified. "So why did you say I lose your face?" she asked, pounding his chest with her small fist.

"Be decisive when it comes to battle, like your usual style," Ye Hua said in a deep voice.

The Empress nodded silently.

"You don't look like an Empress when you're frowning like that."

"It's because of you!"

"Okay, okay, it's my fault."

Since her husband had apologized, the Empress was no longer angry and leaned against his embrace. Ye Hua whispered, "I'll take care of this matter. Don't feel guilty."

"I can do it!"

Ye Hua's eyes gleamed. "Alright then! We'll all go together this time and let everyone see what happens when they mess with my woman!"

Upon hearing her husband's bold words, the Empress felt as sweet as honey. She had found herself a great man!

So, Ye Hua had changed a lot. He used to be abusive and never knew how to pacify his wife. But now, he was so good at it. A few minutes ago, the Empress was still angry, but now, looking at her expression, it seemed like she wanted to be intimate with him.

Ye Hua wouldn't allow that though, as his dignity was at stake.

But in the midst of their happiness, the Empress softly said, "Honey, let's make love." Ye Hua had to put his dignity aside and enjoy the moment, which had been a long time coming.

Chapter 608 (Divine Punishment)

In the blink of an eye, a week had passed.

It was April 28th, a sunny day and the day when the Peace Association and the Justice Alliance launched their final attack. Each side sent out 150,000 people, totaling 300,000!

Even a code name was given for this unprecedented scale of operation: Divine Punishment! As the name suggested, it was to do justice on behalf of the heavens!

Everyone was excited, eagerly awaiting the moment to trample the Voidless Realm without mercy!

Meanwhile, inside the Voidless Realm...

All of Ye Hua's subordinates appeared, even the Gorefiend who was responsible for cleaning the bar. Of course, Dou Fushi was there too, with bruises on his face that hadn't healed yet. He stood at the back and dared not speak.

Ye Hua had just asked about his face out of curiosity, but Dou Fushi didn't dare to tell the truth and said he fell.

Ye Hua laughed lightly, "If falling can leave you with bruises like this, you are quite talented."

Qing Ya and Donghuang Baizhi didn't say anything when they saw Ye Hua's subordinates. They would just stand by their husband later.

Donghuang Lí and Ye Yan stood beside them. The two little ones had also been carefully dressed up by their mother today and couldn't afford to lose face.

The two little ones couldn't wait to make their appearance and looked up at their father's broad back.

Ye Yan silently thought to himself that he would definitely become a man like his father in the future.

"Wait for my command!" Ye Hua held a bamboo stool and shouted.

"Yes!" Everyone replied in unison.

After speaking, Ye Hua walked through the barrier with the small stool, which was effortless.

There was no sign of preparation for war in the Voidless Realm at all, and everyone still lived their lives as usual.

Of course, such a big event had to be paid attention to. Today was the glory of the Voidless Realm!

Ye Hua walked out of the barrier and arrived at the Yellow Sand Land outside. He put the small stool on the ground and sat down, lighting a cigarette.

It was really interesting. He had never been so low-key before. Occasionally being low-key was quite interesting.

Now he was just waiting for those people to arrive!

At the border of the Yellow Sand Land, the 300,000 troops had already gathered.

Leading the way were of course two big leaders, Bai Cixin and Jiu Ye!

In fact, both of them knew in their hearts that these people were all here to die, and they couldn't bear it.

"Jiu Ye, isn't it getting late?" Bai Cixin said softly.

Jiu Ye nodded. "The Yellow Sand Region is now a restricted area, and I've heard that the Voidless Realm is in the center of the Yellow Sand Region. We have to cross the Yellow Sand Region first!"

Wang Dabao stood behind and chuckled. "Even if it's dangerous, there are 300,000 Moon-level powerhouses here. They're not afraid of anyone!"

Jiu Ye chuckled and said nothing.

There is a reason why the Yellow Sand Region is called a restricted area!

Looking at the 300,000 people behind him, their momentum was sky-high, and they exuded a strong killing intent. In the front row, someone was even holding a banner with the words "Divine Punishment". How imposing!

"Let's go!" Jiu Ye shouted.

The crowd of 300,000 stepped onto this path of no return, death quietly descending upon them. However, all they could think of in their minds was the treasure inside the Voidless Realm!

In the team, there was a familiar figure.

That was Wu Li.

This time, he was a captain in charge of a hundred people, a disguised promotion.

"Wu Li, what kind of good treasure is in the Voidless Realm?" a little brother next to him asked curiously.

Wu Li chuckled lightly. "Don't worry, there will naturally be benefits for us."

"Yeah, when we get our share of the money this time, I'll buy a villa for my parents and get them a Golden Retriever, so they can live a good life," the little brother's mouth curled up in anticipation of the future, as if he was already fantasizing about their triumph.

In Wu Li's mind, there was also the image of his mother with graying temples. When he went back this time, he would spend more time with his family and apologize for the stupid things he had done before.

Just as Wu Li was lost in thought, the sand beneath his feet suddenly stirred!

Many people felt it, the yellow sand on the ground was wriggling!

Just as everyone was wondering.

Boom!

A giant blood-red scorpion rushed out from under the yellow sand, its huge mouth swallowing dozens of people in one go!

The huge impact sent Wu Li flying, and the little brother who had just imagined buying a big house for his parents had already been swallowed up by the scorpion!

The sudden appearance of the giant scorpion disrupted the entire team.

Bai Cixin also considered this situation, and shouted in a delicate voice, "Be prepared for battle!"

All three hundred thousand people revealed their weapons at once, and dozens of giant scorpions emerged from the entire formation.

Wang Dabao and Bai Cixin frowned tightly. They had considered this situation, but the number of scorpions was a bit too much!

In just a moment, hundreds of people would probably die!

Jiu Ye coldly shouted, "What are you staring at? Attack!"

With the participation of the high-ranking members, the situation quickly stabilized and was no longer chaotic!

However, the defense of the giant scorpions was unexpectedly terrifying, especially their tails. With just one sweep, dozens of people would die. There was no way, the team was too densely packed!

Fortunately, there were many ancient divine weapons on both sides. After tens of thousands of people died, they finally killed these dozens of giant scorpions. The scorpions' bodies were full of treasures; their hard shells could be used as armor, and their incredibly hard tails could be made into top-notch spiritual weapons. Although tens of thousands of people died, they couldn't resist the scramble for such valuable loot.

All dozens of giant scorpions were stripped clean, and everyone received their first harvest, looking very excited.

It was indeed correct to come to this desert. Even though tens of thousands of people died just now!

Bai Cixin ordered the team to reorganize and remain alert, and continue to set off in ten minutes!

At this moment, Wu Li was already injured, with a deep cut on his left arm. Fortunately, he had prepared a healing potion and received magical treatment, which made him feel much better.

However, as the leader of this small team, he was the only one left to command. Just now, a giant scorpion appeared on his side, and the entire team of a hundred people died except for himself!

This made Wu Li's heart sink. He hadn't even seen the Voidless Realm yet, but tens of thousands of people had already died!

This was just the first wave!

They saw a man holding a pen and paper, and everyone was holding them dumbfounded.

"What is this for?" Wu Li asked.

The man saw Wu Li's arm badge and was respectful: "Captain, these are for writing last letters!"

After speaking, the man continued to distribute them. In fact, this was also Bai Cixin's intention. Even if they were all going to die, they should leave a message for their families.

Wu Li tightly held the white paper stained with blood, his hand trembling a little, his gaze struggling.

Looking around at the people, the excitement just now had disappeared. Tens of thousands of people had died and hadn't even had the chance to write their letters. Although they had obtained some treasures, the price was too heavy!

Wu Li took a deep breath. Desertion was impossible!

He picked up the pen and began to write on the white paper.

"Dear mother, if you receive this letter, it means your son couldn't fulfill his filial duties. I'm sorry..."

Chapter 609 (Where is the Voidless Realm?)

Wu Li wrote down all the words he wanted to say, expressing his longing and guilt towards his mother. "If there is another life, I will definitely stay by your side."

After five minutes, the man started to collect again. However, many people expressed disdain, thinking that they would not die. It was a joke!

Wu Li handed his suicide note to the man and said in a low voice, "Please take care of it."

The man nodded heavily.

Ten minutes passed quickly, and the huge team moved forward again. Due to the lesson they had just learned, they spread out a lot and were not so dense!

However, they hadn't walked for more than ten minutes!

Suddenly, a vortex appeared, instantly swallowing thousands of people. Many people were sucked in, and the screams were earth-shattering!

All those who could fly soared high, watching the chaotic team below.

"Spread out! Spread out!"

Faced with such a vortex, it seemed that there was no way to escape.

Suddenly, a huge centipede rushed out of the sand, and its dense legs made people shudder. Its long tentacles seemed to carry strange spiritual fluctuations!

"Oh my God! Is this the Touching Dragon God?"[For picture: http://news.17173.com/content/2015-04-02/20150402104903543_1.shtml]

"Big brother, what is the Touching Dragon God?"

"Have you played Legend? You don't even know about the Touching Dragon God." [Legend is a popular MMORPG (massively multiplayer online role-playing game) in China. It was first released in 2001 and has since gained a large following in China and other countries. The game features a fantasy setting with various classes and quests for players to complete. The game has gone through multiple iterations and updates over the years. The game is commonly known in English as "Legend" or "The Legend". However, in the context of video games, it often refers to the game "Legend of Mir", which is a popular MMORPG in China.]

"Uh...I really haven't played it."

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The surrounding spiritual fluctuations fluctuated again and again! Suddenly, two huge vortices appeared, swallowing countless lives. Two centipedes broke out of the ground, bringing a terrifying aura.

And there were dozens of giant scorpions appearing at the same time!

Everyone unconsciously swallowed their saliva. This was a tough battle!

Bai Cixin and Jiu Ye frowned in the air. This time, they came to fight with people from the Voidless Realm, not to fight against these mutated animals!

But how could they reach the door of the Voidless Realm without killing these creatures?

These monsters seemed to be the guardians of the Voidless Realm, obstructing the way for them!

"Fight!" Bai Cixin shouted, her ancient divine weapon flashing with a terrifying pressure, and her delicate body rushed towards the ground!

Jiu Ye breathed a sigh of relief, and a hammer condensed in his hand!

When the hammer appeared, the whole sky darkened and thunder rumbled towards it.

Thick and powerful lightning gathered on Jiu Ye's hammer, and Jiu Ye himself was like a thunder god, shouting loudly.

The hammer suddenly burst with dazzling light, and the huge lightning seemed to penetrate all things in the world.

The thunder immediately hit the centipede's body, and it was visible to the naked eye that the electric current on the centipede's body was destroying it!

In an instant, the centipede lost its life and collapsed with a loud bang.

Seeing this situation, the crowd was first dumbfounded, and then erupted into cheers.

As expected of the president of the Peace Association, he can kill a centipede with one blow!

Under Jiu Ye's attack, the morale of the whole team increased and they attacked without fear!

Jiu Ye could only use this powerful move once, it would be great if he could use it infinitely.

Everyone joined the melee, but the remaining two centipedes were very tenacious, and every attack killed hundreds of people.

There was also the threat of the giant scorpion around them, and the death toll was staggering!

After an hour of fighting, they finally defeated these mutated animals!

However, the loss went from ten thousand at the beginning to a hundred thousand!

In just one hour, a full one hundred thousand people lay in the yellow sand.

They didn't even get to see what the Voidless Realm looked like!

And now Bai Cixin, Wang Dabao, and Jiu Ye were all injured. This place was really too terrifying! It was simply a place to die!

The problem was that these heads were not meant for the mutated animals! They were meant for the Voidless Realm!

At this moment, Wu Li lay on the sand, blood flowing from his mouth. As the team leader, he had medical personnel by his side.

However, Wu Li had already lost his legs.

The medical personnel checked him and shook their heads, unable to do anything. His injuries were too severe!

Just as the medical personnel were about to leave to save others, Wu Li reached out and grabbed one of them, using all his strength to say, "Please, tell my mother that I'm sorry."

Wu Li looked at the medical personnel with a tight frown.

The medical personnel nodded heavily.

Seeing the nod, Wu Li seemed to lose all his strength. The hand he was holding dropped, and his eyes looked up at the sky, where his mother's warm smile appeared.

Wu Li's lips curled slightly, as if he had returned to his mother's embrace, which was warm and comfortable.

The medical staff breathed a sigh of relief and reached out to wipe Wu Li's eyes.

However, looking around, there were already countless bodies lying around, and the yellow sand had turned into a sea of blood! It was extremely terrifying!

Jiu Ye and Bai Cixin felt heavy-hearted upon seeing this scene!

They came here with a mission, and if they didn't complete it...

Wang Dabao tightened his blood-stained long knife and muttered, "110,000! All gone..."

Jiu Ye and Bai Cixin fell silent.

All of this was just to blame Voidless Realm!

Looking across the entire Yellow Sand area, there were bones everywhere, a gruesome sight!

Bai Cixin silently wondered whether all of this was really worth it. Was it really necessary to give Voidless Realm an unfounded accusation?

The remaining 190,000 people were harvesting spoils of war. The giant centipede was covered in treasures, but some people were rummaging through the bodies, perhaps looking for their brothers or others, while others were holding bodies and crying loudly.

Bai Cixin looked towards the endless Yellow Sand area and wondered where the Voidless Realm was and why they still couldn't see it!

Meanwhile, Ye Hua was still waiting, smoking one cigarette after another. The ground was littered with cigarette butts.

'Why haven't they come yet? Are they really coming or not?'

'This deity has been waiting for over an hour, and this deity hasn't even seen a single hair of them.'

It feels a bit awkward, as his wives and subordinates are all waiting to make their appearance.

Sigh...

However, it would probably take half a day for these 190,000 people to reach Ye Hua, but if they really walked for half a day, how many of them would be left? They would probably all die in the Yellow Sand area without even seeing Ye Hua.

Jiu Ye and Bai Cixin once again gathered the 190,000 people and prepared to move forward, but many of them already wanted to go back.

But the thought of what would happen if they encountered those things again on the way back made them realize that it was a dead end!

Now there was still a glimmer of hope in moving forward, but going back was a dead end.

If they could choose again, many people would probably not come to this Yellow Sand area. Although treasures were important, life was even more important.

As the army continued to move forward, everyone remained alert, paying attention to the surrounding environment, and immediately leaving if they encountered whirlpools.

There were also those sudden giant scorpions, and even more unknown creatures.

However, before walking for more than ten minutes, another incident occurred! Everyone was in despair at such a situation.

Five giant centipedes, nearly a hundred giant scorpions, and even three rattlesnakes emerged! There was also a terrifying lizard!

Chapter 610 (Sudden Incident)

This is simply a dead end!

A sense of despair spread throughout the entire team as they looked at these huge creatures in front of them, feeling deeply powerless.

Even Jiu Ye and Bai Cixin felt despair. This vast expanse of yellow sand was unexpectedly terrifying! This was beyond their expectations!

They had wanted to flatten the Voidless Realm, but they didn't even know where it was. It was simply a joke.

"What do we do? So many of them suddenly appeared!!" The crowd in the team murmured, showing fearful expressions.

"Run!"

"How do we run? We're surrounded!"

Some of the cultivators who could fly couldn't bear the fear anymore and flew into the sky to escape.

Many people saw this situation and morale hit an all-time low. There were at least tens of thousands of people, and the sky was covered in a dark mass!

However, at this moment, it seemed like something covered the earth, causing everyone to look up!

Dozens of huge vultures blocked the entire sky, with a fierce aura heading towards the ten thousand people.

Facing dozens of vultures, the ten thousand people were wiped out in an instant. Almost all of them were swallowed by the vultures in the sky.

Everyone's expressions froze. This was simply a team that combined land, sea, and air. Now the air and ground were all under the control of the other side!

Bai Cixin and Jiu Ye were desperate. With their strength, they simply couldn't break out. The combat power of dozens of vultures was too terrifying.

Thankfully, after eating tens of thousands of people in the air, the vultures left and didn't plan to join the battle.

This made everyone breathe a sigh of relief.

Jiu Ye and Bai Cixin looked at each other, looking very helpless.

"Wife, let's fight." Wang Dabao whispered.

Bai Cixin nodded and shouted, "Everyone listen up! We have no way out now! We can only fight to the end for peace and justice!"

Bai Cixin raised the ancient divine weapon in her hand high, and the pressure emitted from it caused the remaining 180,000 people to show a fierce fighting spirit, sweeping away their previous despair.

Ancient divine weapons were good things. They could inspire morale.

Jiu Ye and Wang Dabao also raised the ancient divine weapons in their hands. A majestic spiritual pressure swept across the earth, causing the surrounding mutated beasts to tremble.

"Kill!" Jiu Ye shouted, leading the charge.

Wang Dabao and Bai Cixin also shouted and charged forward without hesitation. At this point, they couldn't care about anything else; they could only bring back as many as they could.

The battle was about to start, and the rate of casualties was increasing every second, making people shudder.

Outside the Voidless realm, Ye Hua's face was grim. He had already smoked a pile of cigarette butts under his feet. 'Could these people have gotten lost?'

'They couldn't even find the entrance to the Voidless realm. What were they even doing here?'

The people inside the Voidless realm were curious. It had been several hours, and even if they were walking, they should have arrived by now. Although they couldn't see Your Honor's expression, judging from the cigarette butts, his mood should not be good.

"Sister, are the bad guys not coming?" Ye Yan tugged at his sister's clothes.

Donghuang Li held her little brother's hand. "Uh...they should be here by now."

"They didn't fall asleep, did they?" Ye Yan muttered, his excitement turning into impatience. They had been waiting for so long, and he felt like he could fall asleep.

Donghuang Li rubbed her brother's head. She didn't understand either.

The subordinates were getting anxious waiting. What was going on with these people? Were they planning to stand up Your Honor?!

They must have nerves of steel.

This wasn't standing someone up. The others were fighting for their lives.

The battlefield was already a gruesome sight, with the number of people dropping to 100,000 in just a few hours!

In just a few hours, 200,000 people disappeared! It was a heavy blow, leaving people breathless.

And the fighting hadn't stopped yet. The number of deaths was still rising, and these mutated animals were terrifying!

Another hour passed, and the scene was no longer bearable to look at. The once mighty army was now reduced to a mere 30,000 people!

The rest had all perished!

What kind of concept was this? 270,000 people were left behind in this yellow sand!

The remaining 30,000 people stood there foolishly, even without going to collect spoils of war, because they didn't even know if they could make it back.

Jiu Ye, Bai Cixin, and Wang Dabao were already seriously injured, breathing heavily.

If there was no rescue, they probably wouldn't even be able to escape. Jiu Ye sat on a bloody sand dune, breathing heavily, his gaze heavy.

Wang Dabao is bandaging his wife's wound, looking at the tender skin marked with scars, he feels a pang in his chest.

Bai Cixin also bandages her husband and whispers, "Dabao, perhaps I should have listened to you earlier and not participated in this conflict."

Wang Dabao was taken aback for a moment, then smiled and said, "Wife, whatever you do, I will support you."

"Dabao, thank you. Over the years, you have suffered a lot of criticism for me. As your wife, I have not been fulfilling my duty," Bai Cixin said softly.

Wang Dabao gently embraced his wife and said, "Okay, don't say that. We won't die."

"Dabao, if we can still live, let's have a child," Bai Cixin snuggled in her husband's arms and said softly. After all these things, she realized that living a simple life is a blessing.

Wang Dabao was delighted in his heart. They had been married for so many years, and Bai Cixin had never wanted a child because a child's crying would disrupt her rhythm of becoming stronger. But now that he heard his wife's words, he was instantly excited.

"Okay, after this is over, we will go home and have a child."

People always have regrets, especially when their lives are threatened. Some things they will regret not doing. But if they survive a disaster, they may gain insight, or they may go back to their old ways.

Now they were just expressing their desires.

"Let's go back!" Jiu Ye said in a deep voice. The remaining 30,000 people were useless, let alone going to trample on the Voidless realm, all of them were trampled by these mutant animals.

Bai Cixin and Wang Dabao did not object. It was meaningless to move forward now, they would just be wiped out!

Jiu Ye stood up and shouted, "Retreat!"

The 30,000 people were slightly stunned, and then burst into excited roars. They felt as if they had won a victory and were finally able to retreat. They never wanted to come back, not even if they were killed!

The 30,000 people once again collected the bodies of the mutant animals. Thinking that they could sell them when they returned, they were thrilled.

But they couldn't carry them all.

However, as the crowd retreated, the sky suddenly changed!

A white light came crashing down, leaving everyone stunned. And when the white light descended, Jiu Ye, Bai Cixin, and Wang Dabao disappeared on the spot.
