

My Woman 711

Chapter 711 (Restrain By The True Self)

Donghuang Baizhi didn't really think in that direction. She just thought that Lie Gu's hand was different.

"Ye Hua, is Lie Gu also a skeleton?" Donghuang Baizhi curiously asked.

"Yes," Ye Hua nodded and then asked, "Baizhi, do you like skeletons?"

"Skeletons? I wouldn't say I like them. They feel creepy," Donghuang Baizhi pursed her cherry lips. Although she didn't dislike skeletons, looking at them was still uncomfortable.

Upon hearing the Empress's words, Ye Hua felt a bit depressed. She actually doesn't like skeletons, but he is a skeleton too.

Actually, Donghuang Baizhi was talking about others. If Ye Hua were a skeleton, she would definitely need some time to get used to it at first, but it would only be a momentary discomfort. After all, Ye Hua was her husband, and no matter what form he took, it would be the same.

At the scene, Yue Hua was being burned fiercely by Lie Gu's Dragon Flame. From the outside, only one person could be seen standing within the Dragon Flame.

Lie Gu secretly glanced at Your Honor and noticed that Your Honor's expression wasn't good. He had been careless and let his future wife torment him a little.

'But under my Dragon Flame, no matter how powerful the water is, it will be extinguished!'

"Yue Hua, surrender now and obediently become my wife," Lie Gu shouted into the fire.

Yue Hua within the raging fire did not immediately respond. She simply said, "Water Flash: Gather and Split!"

Lie Gu was suddenly startled. Countless water blades appeared within the Dragon Flame, densely packed. The sight of them made Lie Gu's scalp tingle. It seemed he had a fear of crowded things.

Lie Gu didn't plan to confront them directly with his body; he immediately started to run!

However, those countless water blades chased after Lie Gu relentlessly, no matter what difficult poses he made, those water blades continued to pursue him!

This stunned Lie Gu. If it weren't for the concern of exposing his body, could things have turned out like this?

Yue Hua let out a soft shout, and the surrounding Dragon Flame suddenly disappeared. Looking at Yue Hua, there was not a single mark on her.

Seeing Yue Hua like this, Ye Hua wondered if using a different fire would be effective.

However, Lie Gu's Dragon Flame was already close to the power of different fires. Yet, Yue Hua was able to withstand it. She was truly impressive!

Each member of the Nanwu Banner is truly unique. I'm curious about the abilities of the others.

Lie Gu didn't have time to think about it anymore. He rushed toward Yue Hua's body, his left claw shining with a cold light.

With a gentle swing...

Three icy rays attacked Yue Hua.

Boom!

The entire Nanwu Banner shook as the three icy rays pierced through Yue Hua's delicate body, plunged into the ground, and emerged from below the Nanwu Banner!

If it were a person with flesh and blood, under such circumstances, they would have a 99% chance of death.

But today, Lie Gu was facing Yue Hua, whose body was made of water!

Yue Hua's body was divided into three parts, clearly visible to the naked eye. Her body was filled with flowing water!

It truly embodied the saying: "So much water..."

Seeing Yue Hua like this, Lie Gu felt a sense of satisfaction. This should be considered a victory, right?

However, what came next from Yue Hua made Lie Gu's scalp go numb...

The three divided parts of Yue Hua... began to grow...

And they transformed into three Yue Huas standing upright!

This left Lie Gu dumbfounded. The countless water blades behind him struck his back forcefully, causing Lie Gu's entire body to be slammed into the ground as if hit by a truck.

At this moment, Ye Hua was also astonished... This woman actually possesses such talent. Lie Gu's attacks have no effect on her. She was just one person a moment ago, and now she has become three!

I don't know if having multiple clones like this will affect her strength. In Ye Hua's impression, splitting into multiple bodies like this would only divide her power, and it would be better to remain as one.

Lie Gu stood up from being struck to the ground, with his bones already exposed, looking terrifying.

"You! You! How did you turn into three!" Lie Gu pointed at Yue Hua and asked.

The three Yue Huas silently looked at Lie Gu, and the one in the middle calmly said, "There are just three of us."

"What the hell! Can there be even more?" Lie Gu was excited. This time, he struck gold! He truly struck gold. If Yue Hua possessed such ability, wouldn't he be overjoyed?

Countless images of Yue Hua lying in bed and beckoning to him flashed in his mind. That scene would definitely be extremely pleasurable.

Even in such a miserable state, Lie Gu was still fantasizing. Truly worthy of being a dragon.

But now, Lie Gu encountered a problem. How could he defeat this woman? She is impervious to his attacks, completely countering him!

As a dragon, Lie Gu used to have powerful magic, but after becoming undead, he couldn't use magic anymore. The only thing he could use was his "thick phlegm."

Although he couldn't use magic anymore, his strength received a boost, dominating the air.

However, facing Yue Hua, Lie Gu felt that he had no advantage at all. He was completely restrained by his opponent!

What should he do? The Death Mage could achieve a draw, but he couldn't settle for a draw. After all, he is one of the Seven Deadly Sins. A draw would be too embarrassing. He needed to come up with a solution!!!

Ye Hua also started to worry about Lie Gu. 'Yue Hua's talent truly counters Lie Gu. After all, Lie Gu is a melee fighter, and his aerial combat strength is formidable. But this isn't an aerial battle, so Lie Gu's advantage is nullified.'

'Moreover, this Yue Hua seems to be immune to physical attacks, which is quite annoying. If only I hadn't brought two pure physical attackers as subordinates. I should have replaced Lie Gu with Wei Chang. That would have been more reliable.'

'It was my fault!'

"Ye Hua, this woman is strong," Donghuang Baizhi couldn't help but say.

Ye Hua nodded, "If I had known earlier, I should have given Lie Gu something to use."

"Doesn't Lie Gu have anything himself?"

"He... he only likes gold and women," Ye Hua said helplessly. Lie Gu's biggest interests are collecting shiny things and women.

Donghuang Baizhi was speechless. Someone who likes gold and women... isn't that a dragon?

"It seems like your subordinate isn't up to the task," Kai Yun opened a bottle of Wahaha calcium milk and drank from it. ["Wahaha" is a popular Chinese beverage brand.]

Ye Hua sneered, "Your subordinate doesn't seem capable either."

"Cough, cough, cough." Kai Yun choked and was almost driven to madness by Ye Hua.

"Hmph!" Kai Yun could only coldly snort, expressing his unhappiness. 'I'll stew your subordinates later.'

She thought that way, but she was also amazed. The man before him wasn't wearing any protective armor, yet he could withstand Yue Hua's attacks. Even though he was a bone dragon, he hadn't revealed his true form. If he did, his attack and defense would increase a hundredfold!

'But my Yue Hua hasn't revealed her true form either.'

'Being restrained by the true self is the most troublesome. At their level of power, being restrained is a fatal blow.'

Just like how Lie Gu had no way to deal with the Death Mage earlier.

Now Lie Gu has no way to deal with Yue Hua at all.
