

Mysterious 121

Chapter 121: Chicken That Doesn't Lay Eggs

"Disciple?"

Everyone was shocked. If they remembered correctly, Qin Xi had never gone to school and she didn't even know how to count to 100. How could such a person be the disciple of a Chinese doctor? Wouldn't she accidentally kill people during treatment?

Li Guihua was also stunned. Then, she laughed loudly and pointed at Qin Xi. "You want to take her in as your disciple? I think you're getting old and stupid. She doesn't know shit. If you want a disciple, you have to take in someone like my granddaughter!"

"Your granddaughter?"

Liu Dequan suppressed his anger and mocked, "You want your granddaughter to be my disciple? She's not even qualified to be my servant girl. Also, apparently, she is very skilled with the rolling pin. She must have done it a lot. Hmph, I wonder why the Lin family wanted their son to marry a chicken that can't lay eggs!"

Qin Lan looked like she had been struck by lightning. Her already pale face turned even paler and her body wobbled. If not for Lin Keke and Xu Wan supporting her, she would have collapsed.

Zhang Cuiyun felt her heart skip a beat. She glared at Liu Dequan. "What do you mean? Explain it."

"What's there to explain? Isn't it obvious?" Liu Dequan said coldly, "Your daughter's private life is messy. In her early days, she must have had an abortion, and the abortion medicine is causing some side effects. I'm afraid she won't be able to have children in this lifetime."

Everyone was in an uproar!

"I thought the daughter from the Qin family was a decent girl, but it turns out she's actually so wild."

"That's right. In the past, I thought she was an obedient and gentle girl. Now, it seems that it was all an act she put on."

"I didn't believe that she had an affair with Feng Laosan, but now I do..."

Hearing everyone discussing how awful she was, Qin Lan was both humiliated and furious. She glared at Qin Xi, who was in the crowd, wishing she could tear her and bite her to death.

"Shut up, all of you, shut up. I'm going to kill you. I'm going to kill you..."

As she spoke, she charged into the crowd like a lunatic. After pushing down the two aunties who were mocking her, she went straight for Qin Xi.

She wanted to scratch Qin Xi's face with her sharp fingernails. She wanted Qin Xi to go back to living in the cow shed like an animal and let her trample on her, crush her, and humiliate her. She wanted Qin Xi to be kneeling before her, begging for mercy, instead of acting high and mighty in front of her.

However, before she could approach Qin Xi, she was kicked away by Han Shi.

Li Guihua lost her balance and fell to the ground.

She was dizzy from the impact. Her bones seemed to have broken apart, especially her back. What followed a crisp sound of dislocation was her cry of pain. "Ouch, ouch... My back... Quick, pull her away... It hurts..."

On the willow tree, Tao Po was laughing her head off as she watched the show. She had not seen such a lively scene for decades, but today, she had enough fun.

The women from the Qin family wanted to pull Qin Lan up, but how could the two aunties who were pushed to the ground by Qin Lan let them do as they pleased? Without thinking, they pushed the women from behind. This time, not only Qin Lan, but Lin Keke, Hu Xiaofeng, Zhang Cuiyun, and Xu Wan also fell on Li Guihua.

The scene was spectacular.

"Ahhh, my hand, who is stepping on my hand..."

"My foot... my foot is twisted!"

"Who is pulling my hair? Let go..."

"Ah, who is pinching me... It hurts."

Screams echoed in the surroundings. Li Guihua's voice was like that of a pig being slaughtered, and it was jarring to the ears.

On the ground, the women were crying and howling.

When Han Shi heard the voice, he hid behind Qin Xi in fear.

Qin Xi was speechless, thinking to herself, how does he manage to turn from a fierce-looking beast to a timid puppy so quickly?

Chapter 122: A Farce

This farce ended quickly with the women of the Qin family scurrying away in a miserable state.

When Qin Guobiao and the other men of the Qin family returned from the fields, they received all kinds of strange gazes from the villagers, making them feel uncomfortable!

He wanted to ask what was going on, but the villagers ran away from them like they were a plague!

This made the Qin family men very angry. Qin Guobiao knew that the women must have caused trouble again!

As soon as he stepped into the house, he heard moans and curses.

“What’s going on?”

Qin Guobiao saw that the women on the bed all had injuries on their faces. Their faces were bruised and swollen, looking much uglier than usual.

“Old Qin, you’re finally back...” Li Guihua was so excited that she hurt her back again just as she was about to sit up. It was so painful that she rolled her eyes.

Hu Xiaofeng’s injuries were the lightest among them. After all, she weighed the most. If she could be that easily hurt, then all the food that she had eaten would be a waste.

She quickly explained what had happened. Of course, she twisted the fact and didn’t mention anything about them setting Qin Xi and Liu Dequan up. She said that Qin Xi was taking revenge on Qin Lan and Shi Zhen and made them do something embarrassing.

In this era, women weren’t supposed to reveal too much of their body. Otherwise, people would point an accusing finger at them. However, today, Qin Lan was pretty much seen naked in front of dozens of villagers.

“This is unacceptable. If I had known that she was so troublesome, I would have drowned her to death back then!”

Qin Gang looked similar to Qin Ling. They both had the same square face and thick black eyebrows. Unfortunately, they got their small eyes from Zhang Cuiyun. If their eyes could be a bit bigger, they would be considered handsome.

“How dare that little b*tch bully my sister? I’ll break her legs and make her kneel down to apologize!”

He was about to walk out in a rage with Qin Feng when Qin Guobiao shouted coldly, “Stop, no one is allowed to go!”

At this moment, Qin Ling walked in with a walking stick. Seeing the mess in the room, he was also angry.

“Grandpa, that b*tch needs to be punished. Not only did she make me like this, but she also bullied Lan. Grandpa, we have to think of a way to get rid of her. Otherwise, she will continue to cause us trouble in the future.”

Actually, Qin Ling knew what Li Guihua and the others had gone to do. However, his leg injury had yet to recover, so he had been waiting at home for good news. In the end, he saw Li Guihua and the others coming back in a miserable state.

Of course, he did not know what exactly happened. He just thought the plan had failed and that Han Dazhu had beaten up these women.

If he knew how much of an embarrassment Qin Lan made herself to be today, he would be too ashamed to shout.

Qin Guobiao's face was ashen, and his chest heaved with anger. "Alright, let me think about this!"

"Dad, we can't afford to waste time. It's about time we need to fulfill the promise we made to the old bachelor. If we don't think of a way, Lan will suffer!"

Zhang Cuiyun was as anxious as an ant on a hot pan.

Everyone in Shangwan Village knew that not only was Qin Lan wild, but she was also a hen that could not lay eggs. Once Lin Guosheng heard about this, he would be displeased. Moreover, most of the villagers had seen Qin Lan's naked body today. The Lin family was not stupid. This marriage... was probably going to be terminated!

However, she was indignant. She didn't want to lose such a good son-in-law, and the person who caused Qin Lan to become like this was Qin Xi.

Therefore, even if Qin Lan was divorced, she would make Qin Xi pay a painful price!

Chapter 123: Wifey, I'll Lift You Up!

"Don't worry, I won't let him take Lan away. As for Qin Xi, she has to go even if she doesn't want to. If necessary, we'll

Although Qin Guobiao did not make it clear, the ruthlessness in his eyes said it all.

However, changes were always unexpected and caught people off guard.

In the middle of the night when the wind was strong, two figures stood outside the Qin family. To be precise, there were three figures, but the third one was floating.

"Tao Po, are you ready?" Qin Xi asked softly.

Tao Po nodded excitedly. "It's been prepared for a long time. Hurry up. I can't wait anymore."

During the day, Qin Xi reached an agreement with her. Qin Xi would help her find Ma Peng and she would help Qin Xi scare the wits out of the Qin family.

To be honest, she did not want to do such a bad thing. However, what happened during the day made her realize that no one in the Qin family was good, so she agreed willingly.

Qin Xi nodded and took out a talisman. After chanting the incantation, she raised it and an invisible wisp of Mystic Qi entered the space between Tao Po's eyebrows. Tao Po's body immediately became solidified. "Tao Po, you only have three minutes. Have fun. I'll wait for you outside!"

Tao Po nodded and floated in happily.

Han Shi tugged at Qin Xi's clothes and leaned against her in fear. She asked with a trembling voice, "Wifey, why can this old woman fly?"

Qin Xi smiled awkwardly and said in all seriousness, "Didn't I tell you before we came? She is a master. She's like Money King on TV who can ride the clouds and transform into anything in the world. Isn't she amazing?"

Han Shi seemed to have thought of something and immediately raised his head to look at her with sparkling eyes. His voice was mixed with admiration and excitement. "That's awesome. I want to be as awesome as her so that I can protect you in the future."

Looking at his bright eyes, Qin Xi nodded subconsciously.

Without warning, Han Shi landed a kiss on her cheek. "That's great. I can finally protect my wife. In the future, if anyone dares to bully you, I'll definitely beat them up."

Qin Xi was stunned. She touched the place where Han Shi had kissed her and her face turned redder and redder. Her heart was pounding, and the words she wanted to say were stuck in her throat.

Suddenly, Qin Xi thought of the soul sealed in the bracelet and was struck by a very good idea.

At this moment, sharp screams echoed through the quiet night, causing the dogs to bark.

"Ahhh... Help..."

"Don't come after me. It wasn't me... It was her. It was this old woman who insisted on going. It wasn't me..."

"Zhang Cuiyun, how dare you betray me? I'm going to kill... Ah, my back..."

"Ghost... Mom, Mom, help me... I'm afraid..."

"No, no, no, no. Don't come over. Don't come over..."

At this moment, the Qin family was like a boiling kettle.

Qin Xi smiled so widely that her eyes narrowed into a line. She wanted to stand on her tiptoes to see what was going on inside, but she realized that she was not tall enough. Just as she was about to climb up the wall, her body suddenly felt light and her waist tightened. Han Shi had lifted her up.

"Wifey, I'll lift you up."

Chapter 124: Nemesis

Qin Xi leaned into Han Shi's arms and felt sweet inside. A color resembling evening glow slowly appeared on her face again.

For some reason, she realized that as long as she was with Han Shi, she would blush easily, and her reaction and thinking would be much slower.

He was just a guy with the intelligence of a five-year-old, but he could also make her shy and nervous. What was weird was that Qin Xi seemed to be addicted to this feeling, especially when she went to bed at night...

"Wifey, what's wrong?"

While Qin Xi was absent-minded, Han Shi suddenly asked. Qin Xi replied without thinking, "What do you mean what's wrong?"

“Ah... you little brat, where are you touching?” Qin Xi cried out and quickly jumped out of his arms. Her face was red to the neck and her entire body seemed to be on fire. She glared at Han Shi angrily and shyly.

Seeing his expression, Qin Xi’s anger inexplicably disappeared. She felt that Han Shi was her nemesis.

At this moment, the courtyard was in chaos, but outside the wall, the vibe was lovey-dovey.

Seeing that three minutes was almost up, Tao Po threatened the Qin family, “Hmph, this is the price you pay for doing that kind of thing in my house. Now, I want to live in your house. Let’s see who dares to snatch it from me.”

With that, she flew straight into the house and did not come out again.

The Qin family thought Tao Po had occupied their house. No one dared to enter and could only squat in the courtyard, trembling.

The same thing happened to the Shi family too. That night, Shangwan Village was bustling with activity. All the dogs in the village were barking, waking up the villagers.

When the villagers arrived at the Qin family, they saw the Qin family hiding in the cowshed, trembling. It was where Qin Xi used to live.

The villagers thought to themselves, ‘It’s really true that what goes around comes around!’

Just as everyone was asking what happened to the Qin family, they heard an ear-piercing scream coming from the direction of the Shi family.

They were shocked and ran towards the Shi family in a group. Liu Shuan was woken up by the noise when they passed by his house.

However, when the villagers arrived at the Shi family, they saw that the Shi family had either fainted from fear or were hiding. Compared to the Qin family, they were much more miserable.

Seeing this, Liu Shuan walked forward and wanted to ask something, but the Shi family was so frightened that they could not speak properly. They pointed at the house and shouted, “There’s a ghost... Tao Po is coming after us.”

Ghost?

Liu Shuan frowned and looked into the house. He did not believe in ghosts and gods, but he heard that the Shi family and the Qin family had caused a scene at Tao Po’s house today in order to harm Qin Xi. They probably thought Tao Po was angry with them and came to seek revenge.

When he thought about Qin Xi’s ability, he sneered in his heart. Qin Xi was the last person they could afford to offend.

“Chief, are we... not going to do something?” A villager asked.

Liu Shuan asked, “How? It’s their fault. What can I do? They actually dared to do such a nasty thing while I went to town. They should already be thankful that I didn’t settle the score with them. If any of you want to get involved, be my guest. Hmph!”

With that, he snorted and left.

Before Liu Shuan left, he saw Qin Xi and Han Shi at the back of the group. When he passed them, he said, “Come and find me tomorrow!”

Chapter 125: Land Contract

The next morning, Qin Xi and Han Shi came to the village office.

Although it was called an office, it was actually three large thatched houses. In the middle was the village secretary and the village chief’s office.

Now that Shangwan Village was very behind in terms of development, the position of village secretary was almost non-existent.

When they arrived at the village chief’s office, Liu Shuan greeted them warmly, “Come in and take a seat!”

Before the two of them could grab a seat, he continued excitedly, “Yesterday, I went to the town to see the mayor. I told him that you wanted to buy the hill. The mayor agreed.”

“However, the country explicitly prohibits the sale and transfer of land. It can only be bought in the form of contracting. The duration of the contract is 30, 40, 50, 60, and 70 years.”

Qin Xi nodded. This was the same as in her previous life. “What’s the price?”

“Well... The area of that hill is 259,000 square meters. Given that it’s a 30-year contract, it’ll be at least 280,000 yuan. This is the price I got from bargaining with them for a long time.”

This was also the acceptable price range that Qin Xi had thought about.

“280,000...”

Qin Xi thought that the price was indeed very cheap. As long as she did well, Shangwan Village would definitely attract more talents.

In 30 years, the soil of the hill that was nourished with Vitality Pills would also undergo a transformation. At that time, even without the Vitality Pills, the vegetation here would grow very well.

At the thought of this, she wanted to seize this opportunity even more. She took a deep breath and looked at Liu Shuan solemnly. “Village Chief, I’ve thought about it. If I want to sign a contract of 70 years,

I hope the town can lower the price for me. It's best if it's 680,000 yuan. If possible, we can sign the contract immediately. How about that?"

Liu Shuan suddenly stood up in shock. He did not even notice that he had spilled the tea. He gasped and said in disbelief, "680,000? Are you sure?"

"Positive."

Qin Xi nodded seriously. "Village Chief, to be honest, I saved a rich man in the city. He gave me 700,000 yuan as reward. I want to use the remaining 20,000 yuan to buy some fruit seedlings. I want to use a special method to speed up the ripening of these fruits. If the survival rate is 80%, our village will definitely become the number one village in this area this year."

Liu Shuan was deeply shocked by her words.

Not to mention 700,000 yuan, he had never even seen 50,000 yuan in his life, but this little girl in front of him made it sound like 700,000 yuan was nothing. Moreover, she bought the land as if she was doing some grocery shopping. Even he could not help but admire her decisiveness.

Liu Shuan wiped the cold sweat off his forehead nervously and excitedly. He slowly sat down and said with a trembling voice, "Then, then I'll go and talk to them later!"

Qin Xi gave him a reassuring smile. "Uncle Liu, when the matter is settled, we need to introduce landlines into the village. Otherwise, it will be difficult to communicate in the future."

"Oh, okay, uh, what, landline?" Liu Shuan was shocked again.

Qin Xi interrupted him and said, "Village Chief, I'll pay for this. After all, you are the village chief and most likely, you'll need to help me with a lot of things."

Liu Shuan said seriously without thinking, "Of course. As the village chief, I will do my best to share your burden. Your matter is the most important one now."

"With you helping me, I'm very relieved."

Qin Xi smiled and said, "When the time comes, please help me tell the villagers that I'll pay anyone who goes up the hill to work!"

Chapter 126: Han Shi Was Displeased

After leaving the office, Han Shi pulled Qin Xi to the river downstream to catch fish.

Qin Xi couldn't talk him out of it, so she went with him. At the entrance of the village, she saw a car drive into the village and stop beside her.

The car window was lowered, revealing Xia Tangxin's gentle and charming smile. "Xi, I'm here to find you!"

"Hi, Tangxin. Why are you here?" Qin Xi was a little surprised.

Xia Tangxin glared at her and got out of the car. She was dressed in a simple white dress, making her look slender and beautiful like a lily in bloom.

"If I didn't come to look for you, you would've forgotten about me. I waited for you for three days but you didn't come to find me so I had to come over to look for you. It just so happens that I finished all the veggies. I came to buy some more."

She was originally an introverted girl who did not talk much in the past. However, after meeting Qin Xi, she became more talkative.

Qin Xi touched her nose in embarrassment and smiled. "I've been a little busy these past few days, so..."

"So you forgot about me, right?"

Xia Tangxin pouted and habitually wanted to hold her arm, but was pushed away by a pair of big hands.

She looked over in shock and noticed Han Shi, who was looking at her with hostility.

"Uh... who is this?"

"Stone, don't be rude. She's my friend."

Qin Xi warned gently, then looked at Xia Tangxin and introduced, "This is my husband, Han Shi."

"This is my new friend, Xia Tangxin. You have to get along well with her in the future."

Xia Tangxin asked with a raised voice as if she was dumbfounded by the news, "Husband? You're married? You are just my age. How?"

Before she could finish, she met Han Shi's cold and dark eyes. Her neck seemed to be strangled, making her lose her voice abruptly.

Qin Xi raised her eyebrows and turned to look at the man beside her, only to see Han Shizheng looking displeased. He didn't seem to like Xia Tangxin.

She chuckled and scratched Han Shi's palm. "Alright, stop being so gloomy. I don't have any friends in this village. It's not easy for me to make a friend. Don't scare her away."

"Alright, let's not block the village entrance. Let's go play together." Qin Xi smiled and held their hands as they walked towards the river.

As a matter of fact, Qin Xi had never really strolled around Shangwan Village. Not to mention her, even the Host did not have the chance to walk around.

It was not that the Host did not want to come out, but the Qin family was afraid that she would embarrass the family.

Of course, the Host was also afraid of going out. In modern terms, the host had social anxiety.

Although the Qin family always bullied her, she didn't think too much of it because she was used to that kind of life. As long as they did not kick her out, she would do anything.

“Hey, Miss...” Seeing that Xia Tangxin was walking away, the driver, who was also the bodyguard, panicked and quickly shouted.

Xia Tangxin waved her hand. “Uncle Yang, wait for me at Xi’s house. I’ll go back after hanging out for a while.”

The driver was a little worried. “But...”

Looking at her bright smile, the driver stopped saying anything. He drove into the village and asked around to find Qin Xi’s home.

Seeing that they were getting further and further away, Xia Tang asked, “Where are we going?”

Han Shi, on the other hand, still looked displeased.

Chapter 127: I Like Him Too

“What is this...”

By the river, Xia Tangxin saw Han Shi take off his shoes and walk into the water barefooted. The water level was not high, only reaching Han Shi’s knees.

He walked to a large rock that was exposed to the water and took out a pipe-shaped fishing net. There were several palm-sized trout inside.

This fishing net was made by Han Shi. It was covered in spikes. As long as the fish entered it, it would be difficult for them to swim out. Once they swam out, they would be pierced by the spikes.

Xia Tangxin asked curiously, “Why are there so many spikes on it?”

Han Shi glanced at her with deep disdain.

Qin Xi held back her laughter. She combed up her hair and teased, “I don’t think so. My Stone won’t do that. You’re the one who’s ignorant and inexperienced.”

“You, the two of you joined forces to bully me! As expected of a couple.” Xia Tangxin pretended to be angry and stomped her feet.

Qin Xi didn’t feel embarrassed.

She raised her chin proudly and said smugly, “Exactly. We’re a couple, so of course we’ll be united against the enemy.”

Xia Tangxin was speechless, thinking to herself that she must have made a fake friend!

Han Shi poured the fish in the net onto a big square rock and counted. There were seven fish in total. His eyes were as bright as stars as he looked at Qin Xi expectantly and asked, "Wifey, how do you want to eat them?"

"Roast it. It's quicker that way." Qin Xi was also eager to try when she saw the fish.

"Okay!"

After Han Shi left, Xia Tangxin sat opposite Qin Xi and looked at the lively fish, pouting.

Qin Xi poked the fish with a tree branch. Seeing that Xia Tangxin wanted to say something, she asked with a smile, "What's wrong? Just say it."

"I think he..."

Xia Tangxin pointed at her head. "Don't you think you're not a good match?"

She knew that she shouldn't ask so much, but she really treated Qin Xi as a friend and didn't want her to be unhappy.

"You know, in this village, only he and his family treated me well. In the past, I was a little afraid to be with him, afraid that they would also take pleasure in abusing me. But later, I started to like being with them."

"Although Stone only has the IQ of a five-year-old, he treats me extremely well and puts me first in everything. I like him very much. Moreover, I'm confident that I can treat him. After I treat him, he will become smarter and more excellent. At that time, we will naturally be a good match."

Seeing that Qin Xi really wasn't forced to marry, Xia Tang was more or less relieved. However, when she thought of Han Shi's cold gaze, she shivered for no reason. She felt that such an oppressive warning gaze should not belong to Han Shi.

She thought for a moment and asked tentatively with a frown, "Uh... Xi, do you think..."

"I'm back!"

Xia Tangxin was interrupted by Han Shi, who had run back. She touched the side of her skirt awkwardly, feeling guilty about being caught talking bad about him.

Qin Xi did not think too much about it. Instead, she started a fire with Han Shi. Han Shi took out a bag of salt and chili from his pocket.

"You're quite well-prepared." Qin Xi smiled and patted his head as a form of praise.

Xia Tangli was speechless. She was still here. Could they please take her feelings into consideration?

Chapter 128: Here Comes the Gift!

The weather at the beginning of August was still hot. The sunlight that shone on the water was sparkling and colorful.

Under the shade of the tree, the sunlight became mottled as it shone through leaves and spread out on the ground.

Soon, the fish was ready.

It was obvious that Han Shi was an expert at grilling fish as it looked juicy and salivating.

Just as the three of them were eating with relish, Luo Xiujian came over, panting.

Recently, Luo Xiujian had been using the facial mask Qin Xi had made for her. Every night, before she went to bed, she would apply a little bit of it. The next morning, her skin would become tender and fair. Even her wrinkles would decrease a lot. Now, if Luo Xiujian said that she was 27 years old, people would believe her.

“Mom? Why are you here? Did something happen?” Qin Xi asked in surprise when she saw Luo Xiujian running over.

Han Shi was deboning the fish for Qin Xi with all the attention he could gather. He only took a glance at his mother and did not plan to greet her.

Although Luo Xiujian did not know Xia Tangxin, the bodyguard who went to buy vegetables had already explained her identity. Seeing that Xia Tangxin was gentle and decent, her eyes lit up and she praised generously, “Hello, hello. This must be Miss Xia. You are really beautiful!”

However, she thought to herself, “But not as beautiful as my daughter-in-law.”

Xia Tang smiled shyly. “Thank you for your praise, Auntie.”

Qin Xi knew that Luo Xiujian must have something important to say. Otherwise, she wouldn't have come all the way here. She asked again, “Mom, what's the matter?”

After being reminded by Qin Xi, Luo Xiujian immediately remembered something. She said anxiously, “Quick, go back. Someone from the capital wants to see you. He's at home now!”

“The capital?”

Qin Xi was stunned. The only person she knew from the capital was Deng Xinhe. She thought that he must have succeeded and sent someone to inform her!

“Okay!”

When they returned to the village, they saw a big truck parked at the entrance of the Han family's house from afar. Many villagers were gathered around, watching.

Qin Xi walked closer and saw that the truck was filled with brand new furniture and expensive appliances. A few people dressed like removal men were moving them into the courtyard.

The furniture was made of pure first-grade wood, yellow rosewood. In the future, this would easily cost millions. Although it was not worth that much now, it was not cheap either.

However, the thing was that there was no place to put so much furniture.

Qin Xi felt like it was about time to rebuild the house.

"She's back, she's back!" Someone among the villagers shouted.

Everyone looked over and made way for Qin Xi. At this moment, the villagers looked at Qin Xi differently.

They never expected that a little girl who had lived in a cow shed since she was born would one day become so capable.

Not only did she become Doctor Liu's disciple, but she also saved a rich man in the capital. Looking at the furniture and appliances, it was obvious that it would cost a few thousand yuan!

As soon as Qin Xi entered the house, she was stunned by the scene in front of her.

A car was parked in the most eye-catching place in the Han family's courtyard. It was the latest Santana, costing about 100,000 yuan. Beside it were all kinds of men's and women's clothes, shoes, branded bags, and cosmetics.

Qin Xi was suddenly lost for words.

Chapter 129: Guests

Qin Xi looked past the pile of items and at the few people under the shade of the tree.

There was Cheng Haizhong, who had come once, and a man in his thirties who looked decent. There was also a man in a suit and leather shoes. The last person was Xia Tangxin's driver slash bodyguard.

"You must be Miss Qin. Hello, I'm Old Master Deng's trusted aide. My name is Liang Jiaming!"

Liang Jiaming recognized her at a glance. This was because his young master had used two words to describe Qin Xi: Baby-faced and devilish!

"Hello, Mr. Liang."

She shook hands with Liang Jiaming and said with a smile, "I have to congratulate Old Master Deng on his victories!"

Liang Jiaming was taken aback, and his tone became even more respectful. "Miss Qin, you're indeed a master. I'm exactly here to tell you the good news. Not only did Young Master Deng get his revenge, but he also took over most of the Qi family. The Deng family's status in the capital has risen to another level, so Old Master and Young Master Deng sent me to inform you."

"At first, Young Master wanted to come along, but recently, he has been busy annexing the Qi family, so he couldn't come. Master Qin, please don't blame him."

Qin Xi forced a smile and thought to herself, "Fortunately, he didn't come. If he did, I would skin him alive."

Cheng Haizhong laughed heartily and said, "Miss Qin, I'm here to buy vegetables again. You won't kick me out, will you?"

Qin Xi said seriously, "Of course not! I have as many veggies as you want!"

Cheng Haizhong pointed at the young man in his thirties and said, "Let me introduce you. This is Zhao Dan's husband, Zheng Zhou. He's here especially to thank you."

Qin Xi immediately understood what was going on. She smiled and shook his hand. "Hello, Mr. Zheng."

Zheng Zhou shook her hand gratefully. His eyes were red and his voice was trembling. "Thank you, Miss Qin. If not for your reminder, Dan might not have been able to escape the tragedy."

"You're welcome. Aunt Zhao and I were fated to meet, so naturally I should remind her," Qin Xi said humbly.

Zheng Zhou said solemnly. "If not for your reminder, Dan might have been involved in a series of car accidents on the highway. I heard that no one survived the car accident."

If not for Qin Xi's reminder, Zhao Dan might be one of them. Just thinking about it made Zhengzhou shudder.

At this moment, Han Shi suddenly interrupted. He stared at two shaking hands and said sourly, "Let go of my wife's hand if you're done!"

Zheng Zhou reflexively let go of Qin Xi's hand. He looked a little embarrassed and apologized, "I'm sorry, I-I didn't mean to."

Han Shi snorted childishly. Then, in front of everyone, he held Qin Xi's hand and rubbed it hard. It was as if there was something dirty on it.

The corners of everyone's mouths twitched. They wanted to laugh but didn't dare to.

At this moment, Han Dazhu interrupted, "Alright, let's talk inside. Don't stand under the scorching sun!"

Qin Xi nodded and said to Han Shi, "Stone, go and pick a few cucumbers and carrots to entertain the guests!"

Liang Jiahui, Cheng Haizhong, Zhengzhou, the driver thought to themselves, This is the first time I've heard of people serving guests with cucumbers and carrots!

However, seeing how serious Qin Xi was, they could only shut their mouths.

Chapter 130: Befriend Qin Xi

“Master Qin, those things outside are a gift for you from Old Master Deng for giving him the calligraphy. Also, this is for saving Young Master Deng and the Deng family. Old Master Deng asked me to give it to you in person.”

Liang Jiaming took out a check from his pocket. On it was a million yuan. He placed it in front of her respectfully.

Cheng Haizhong, Zheng Zhou, and the others gasped. They were considered rich people, but they had never seen a million yuan.

Not to mention Han Dazhu and Luo Xiujuan. If not for their good health, they would have fainted from shock and excitement.

Qin Xi frowned and did not look at the check. Instead, she said, “The calligraphy is a birthday gift from me. There’s no need to return the favor. As for Deng Xinhe, he has already given me the reward. Take the things back!”

Liang Jiaming explained with a smile, “Old Master Deng knows that Master Qin is a righteous person. He said that it’s a gift for you. In the future, he might still need your help.”

Qin Xi understood that Old Master Deng was taking out a million yuan to befriend her. At the thought of this, she did not refuse. “If that’s the case, I’ll accept it.”

The smile on Liang Mingxin’s face became brighter. This was because he knew that Qin Xi had agreed to become friends with the Deng family. In the future, the Deng family would have the help of a mysterious master.

Seeing that Liang Mingxin had offered a sky-high check of 1 million yuan, Zhang Zhou immediately felt the hand that was holding the 5,000 was shaking. Before he came, he thought that 5,000 yuan was already a lot. However, he was caught off guard and felt like digging a hole to hide.

He thought that it was best for him to take out the 5,000 Yuan right before he left. This way, it would be less embarrassing.

Liang Jiaming did not stay for long. Qin Xi asked Han Shi to get some vegetables for him.

Liang Jiaming’s mouth twitched and he left with a pile of vegetables in his arms.

As soon as he left, the big truck also left. The villagers wanted to go into the courtyard to ask around, but Cheng Haizhong, Zheng Zhou, Xia Tangxin, and the others had not left yet. It was time for lunch, so they could only go home to cook.

Seeing that the time was right, Zheng Zhou took out the 5,000 yuan in embarrassment. “Well, although it’s not much, this is a token of my appreciation. Miss Qin, please take it.”

Qin Xi shook her head and said, “Since I call her Auntie Zhao, I don’t treat her as an outsider. Uncle Zheng, take the money back!”

Zheng Zhou said seriously, "That won't do. If it weren't for your reminder, Dan would definitely die in the car crash. This is a small token of appreciation from me and Dan. Please take it unless you think it's too little."

5,000 yuan was too little?

Qin Xi shook her head. "It's not that I think it's too little, but I have a plan to tell you."

Cheng Haizhong and Zhengzhou said in unison, "What plan?"

"It's like this. I plan to plant fruit trees on the hill. I want Uncle Cheng to help me find out if there are any mature trees for sale. It's best if the trees can bear fruit this year."

Cheng Haizhong slapped his thigh. "Oh, Miss Qin, you've asked the right person. Two days ago, a big farmer said that he wanted to sell his plantation. He's also my supplier, so he mentioned it to me. If you need it, I'll ask him."

Qin Xi was overjoyed. "That would be great!"
