

Mysterious 181

Chapter 181: Treatment!

As long as it was not illegal, he would do anything.

Wang Zhiqiang could tell that Qin Xi did not have any ill intentions. Moreover, he felt that the aura on her body was very familiar. He asked with puzzlement, "You haven't diagnosed me yet. How do you know what is wrong with me?"

Qin Xi raised her eyebrows and said with a smile, "What's so strange about that? I'm a Chinese doctor. I can tell at a glance that you have an underlying illness."

Because there was a black fog hovering above Wang Zhiqiang, after absorbing it, she got to know about what happened to him and his team.

From the second level of the mystic medicine technique, the Yin energy and black fog that Qin Xi saw would be automatically absorbed by her at will. It was equivalent to the advancement of the Qi Observation Technique.

Just now, she saw that the black fog on Wang Zhiqiang was very strong. She wanted to read the information in it, but Wang Zhiqiang was too vigilant and would definitely be suspicious if she reached out her hand. Unexpectedly, just as she thought of this, the black fog was actually absorbed by her.

This was the secret Qin Xi mentioned.

Wang Zhiqiang pondered for a moment before looking at Qin Xi and asking seriously, "Is it true that you can cure me? Also, our identities are a little special and will bring you a lot of trouble. Even so, you still want to take us in?"

Seeing that he was considering it, Qin Xi was delighted. She immediately laughed and said, "Don't worry, even without you, I'll have a lot of trouble in the future all the same. However, with you guys, I'll be like a tiger with wings. And if you follow me, I naturally won't treat you badly. How about it? Have you made up your mind?"

Wang Zhiqiang gritted his teeth and nodded. "Sure, I'll follow you!"

Qin Xi immediately smiled, revealing her two canine teeth. "Alright, I'll find a place to treat you."

Wang Zhiqiang scratched his messy hair in embarrassment. His rough face was filled with embarrassment. "Um, I don't have a place to stay and always live in the truck. Let's just treat me here."

Qin Xi thought for a moment and asked, "Where are the others in your team?"

Wang Zhiqiang pursed his dry lips and said with difficulty, "They're in the suburbs. It's my turn to work these two days. Also... the condition of the others is similar to mine. Some of them are even worse than mine."

"It's fine, as long as they can still breathe, I can cure them." Qin Xi looked confident. She thought for a moment and said, "Let's go. I'll treat you first before going to treat the others."

“Okay!”

When they returned to the hotel, Qin Xi asked Wang Zhiqiang to take off his clothes and check the injuries on his back.

Han Shi frowned, his face filled with displeasure. He resisted the urge to chase Wang Zhiqiang away and stared at him intently.

Wang Zhiqiang was speechless. How awkward!

He ignored Han Shi’s murderous gaze and took off his shirt, revealing his firm and tight muscles. However, there were countless wounds on his back. It was obvious that some were new while some were old.

One of them almost spanned his entire back.

Han Shi was shocked. Although he knew that Wang Zhiqiang’s identity was not simple, he was still shocked.

“The meridians on your back are all twisted, which is the reason you are constantly in pain. I’m going to use a special method to help you adjust your meridians. It’ll hurt a lot. Bear with it.”

The meridians on Wang Zhiqiang’s back were in a mess. If Qin Xi wanted to unravel them, she had to clear them one by one. The pain was unimaginable for ordinary people.

Wang Zhiqiang said seriously, “I can take it. Just do it!”

Qin Xi nodded and placed her palms on his scarred back. She took a deep breath and the True Qi instantly erupted from her palms.

Chapter 182: Including Killing People?

Throughout the whole process, Wang Zhiqiang only frowned and clenched his fists tightly without letting out a wail.

At the same time, Qin Xi increased the infusion of True Qi. Within the range of pain he could withstand, she cleared his meridians one by one. When she retracted her hand, five minutes had gone by.

Although it was only five minutes, not everyone could withstand this pain. If it were an ordinary person, they would probably die on the spot.

“Alright! Stand up and feel it.” Qin Xi took a wet towel from Han Shi and wiped her hands.

Previously, when Wang Zhiqiang walked, his back was hunched and his waist was caved in, looking like he was always on the verge of collapse.

Now, when Wang Zhiqiang stood up, the sound of bones cracking could be heard from his back. He felt that the feeling of being restrained at all times had disappeared. In its place was a sense of relief that he had never felt before.

He was extremely shocked, not only because Qin Xi had healed his back so quickly, but also because Qin Xi was actually an ancient martial artist.

“How do you feel?” Qin Xi asked with a smile.

Wang Zhiqiang suppressed his excitement and said nothing about the ancient martial arts. He revealed a rare foolish smile. “It doesn’t hurt anymore.”

Qin Xi did not want to waste too much time. She stood up and said, “In that case, let’s go and find your teammates immediately!”

“Okay!”

At this moment, Tong Tong ran over and hugged Wang Zhiqiang’s feet. She looked up and said in a childish voice, “Daddy! Big Daddy, it doesn’t hurt anymore!”

Wang Zhiqiang was 195 centimeters tall, half a head taller than Han Shi. In comparison, Tong Tong looked so tiny like a doll.

He bent down and gently picked up Tong Tong in his arms.

For some reason, three words suddenly flashed across Qin Xi’s mind: Loli and Beast!

It didn’t take them too long to reach the temporary residence of Wang Zhiqiang’s team. However, this place was actually a landfill. The ground was filled with trash and the stench made Qin Xi and Han Shi retch.

Qin Xi said in disbelief, “Do you guys live here?”

Wang Zhiqiang nodded. He wasn’t picky about living conditions. He pointed at an abandoned bus. “They’re inside!”

Qin Xi looked at Wang Zhiqiang and then at Tong Tong, who was dressed like a little princess. She felt quite sad.

They didn’t even have a place to stay, but they took care of a little girl like a princess.

When Wang Zhiqiang brought Qin Xi and Han Shi to the abandoned bus, Qin Xi was shocked by the scene in front of her.

In the abandoned bus sat seven burly men. From their sitting posture and aura, it was not difficult to tell what their true profession was.

In particular, their eyes were filled with killing intent. One could tell at a glance that they were well trained.

When the seven burly men saw the strangers, they immediately became vigilant. Although they could not move for the time being, from their sharp eyes and defensive postures, as long as Qin Xi and Han Shi dared to make a move, these people would definitely kill them.

When the seven burly men saw Wang Zhiqiang, they shouted, “Boss!”

Wang Zhiqiang nodded and looked at Qin Xi. "They are all my brothers who have gone through thick and thin with me. If you can treat them, we will all be at your service in the future. No matter what you want us to do, we will do it."

Qin Xi raised her eyebrows and said playfully, "Including killing people?"

Wang Zhiqiang nodded without hesitation. "Sure."

Chapter 183: Being Sold by Their Boss

"Boss, they are..."

The seven burly men were stunned and looked at Qin Xi in unison. A trace of confusion flashed across their eyes. Why did they feel like they were being sold?

"She will be our master from now on," Wang Zhiqiang said firmly, giving no room for negotiation.

Oh! It seemed like they were right that their boss really sold them, including himself!

At this moment, an excited voice was suddenly heard. "Boss, is your waist... healed?"

After that, everyone noticed that Wang Zhiqiang was not hunchbacked anymore. They were pleasantly surprised. "Yes, Boss is fine now. This is unbelievable!"

Wang Zhiqiang also revealed a happy smile. "Yes, I'm fine now. She cured me."

He pointed at Qin Xi and suddenly said seriously, "Her name is Qin Xi. She's... a Chinese doctor. In the future, we'll follow her. She will be your boss as well as mine. Let her take a look at your injuries."

Initially, he wanted to say that she was an ancient martial artist, but on second thought, he thought that they would automatically know when she treated them.

What?

Everyone looked at Qin Xi, who had a baby face and was looking at them with a smile. No matter how they looked at her, she did not strike them as a Chinese doctor at all.

However, they could sense that Qin Xi was giving off an extraordinary aura.

Since Wang Zhiqiang had said so, the seven burly men could only help each other up with difficulty.

They felt a little bad about being sold just like that, but it was their duty to obey orders.

Qin Xi was shocked to see that they were all at least 190 cm tall and well-built.

However, looking at the serious injuries on their bodies, it was not difficult to tell that the people who injured them did not want them to die immediately. Instead, they tortured their bodies and nerves bit by bit, letting them die slowly from torture and pain.

What a cruel method. What a perverted heart.

After they stood up, Wang Zhiqiang introduced them one by one. "Goshawk, SabRE, Thunderkill, Berserk, Black Ghost, Blood Stealer, Lone Wolf, and Bane. My code name is Skeleton!"

Qin Xi snapped her fingers and pointed at Goshawk. "I'll start with you!"

**

It took Qin Xi four hours to save the eight of them. Fortunately, she had advanced to the second level. Otherwise, the True Qi in her body would have long been exhausted.

Han Shi looked at them with jealousy written all across his face, making them feel very awkward.

"Wifey, how are you? You must be exhausted!"

Facing Han Shi's concern, Qin Xi's face turned slightly red. "I'm not tired. I'm just a little hungry."

Indeed, she had only eaten two buns and a bowl of porridge in the morning. She was already on an empty stomach when she was treating Wang Zhiqiang. Now that she consumed a large amount of true Qi, she was practically starving.

"Alright, let's go eat," Han Shi said.

Qin Xi nodded and looked at Wang Zhiqiang and the others. She said with a smile, "Let's go and eat together. After dinner, we'll go back to the hotel."

The group found a noodle shop nearby and ate a couple bowls of noodles each before feeling full.

The noodle shop owner smiled so widely that his eyes could not be seen.

"It feels good to be full!" Thunderkill rubbed his stomach and smiled foolishly.

Blood Stealer rubbed his legs and said, "It feels better to be able to walk!"

"Hahahaha..."

Everyone looked at each other and laughed heartily. Although they were laughing, their eyes were filled with tears.

Chapter 184: Lady Boss

After eating and drinking their fill, everyone returned to the hotel to discuss what to do next.

"I need a transport team. You should all know how to drive light trucks, right?"

Qin Xi looked at the nine of them and said faintly, "Although it's a waste of your talent to be a truck driver, I only believe in you."

"Of course, in the meantime, you're free to recruit talents from all walks of life. As long as it's talent, I'll accept it. Moreover, I'll take in as many people like you as there are!"

Wang Zhiqiang asked hesitantly, "Master, we..."

Qin Xi quickly gestured for him to stop and said with a smile, "Don't call me Master. Just call me Boss. Master sounds strange!"

Before he could call her 'Boss', Han Shi interrupted, "It's Lady Boss!"

Han Shi looked at Qin Xi aggrievedly and said in an unhappy tone, "Wifey, have you forgotten me? If they call you boss, what am I?"

Qin Xi was speechless. Didn't he act like a domineering CEO a while ago? She thought he was going to stop acting!

Why was he playing the fool again? Was he going to continue his act forever?

Qin Xi did not intend to expose him. She said to Wang Zhiqiang and the others, "Call me Lady Boss from now on. He's your boss. Oh, I forgot to introduce him. This is my husband, Han Shi."

"What? Husband?" Thunderkill widened his eyes. "Lady Boss, are you already married at this young age?"

Han Shi stood up and glared at Thunderkill. He said angrily, "My wife is an adult. She'll be 20 in October. She's not young anymore!"

Thunderkill scratched his head and said suspiciously, "But according to the law, Lady Boss hasn't reached legal marriage age yet!"

At the side, Lone Wolf stepped on Thunderkill's foot, warning him not to be nosy. Otherwise, the Boss would pick on him from now on.

Thunderkill stopped talking.

If Thunderkill did not mention it, Han Shi would have forgotten the most important thing. Although he and Qin Xi were married, they had yet to register their marriage for various reasons!

In other words, they were not legally married, and Qin Xi could cancel the marriage whenever she wanted.

This realization made Han Shi a little at a loss, because he still didn't know what Qin Xi thought of him. She never mentioned registering their marriage. Was it because she didn't like him?

It made sense. Qin Xi was so outstanding. Not only was her medical skills superb, but she also knew ancient martial arts and mystic techniques. It was as if there was nothing she did not know.

As for Han Shi?

Apart from pretending to be stupid and acting cute, he seemed to know nothing else. Even the few burly men were all talented. If this continued, she would be snatched away by someone better sooner or later.

Thinking of this possibility, Han Shi could not help but feel terrified. He was not in the mood to bicker with Thunderskill and became dejected.

Qin Xi sensed that something was wrong with him. She raised her eyebrows and asked with concern, "What's wrong?"

"Wifey, why did you keep them?" Han Shi asked dejectedly.

Qin Xi said without thinking, "Because they're all capable people. Not only are they loyal, but they're also trustworthy. Why are you suddenly asking this?"

Han Shi smiled. "Oh, nothing. I'm just asking! Wifey, I want to go home!"

Qin Xi was stunned for a moment before saying, "Alright, let's go home tomorrow, okay?"

Han Shi nodded, feeling a little down.

Qin Xi didn't know what was wrong with him and wanted to ask him in private later. However, the most important thing now was to solve the problem at hand.

She looked at Wang Zhiqiang and the others, took out a black iron ball from somewhere, and handed it over. "Since it's a transport team, what we need first is light trucks. This is the money for you to buy light trucks."

Chapter 185: Night Pearl

Looking at the black iron ball in his hand, Wang Zhiqiang was a little confused. "Lady Boss, what is this?"

He did not believe that the thing Qin Xi took out was just an iron ball.

Qin Xi smiled. "You'll know when you open it."

"Open it?"

Wang Zhiqiang studied it carefully and looked left and right, but he had no clue how it could be opened. He couldn't help but wonder if Qin Xi was joking.

Seeing this, the taciturn Lone Wolf stretched out his hand and said with a serious expression, "Boss, show me!"

Wang Zhiqiang handed the iron ball to him and Lone Wolf studied it carefully.

Finally, he understood. He stood up and walked quickly to the bathroom. He filled the sink with water and placed the iron ball in it. After waiting for half a minute, small bubbles emerged from somewhere.

He was not in a hurry to take out the iron ball. Instead, he waited patiently for more than half an hour. While everyone was discussing the transportation plan in the living room, they heard Lone Wolf shout in surprise, "It's open!"

The others were stunned. Bane blinked and asked in confusion, "So be it. Why is he so excited?"

Blood Stealer shrugged his shoulder and teased, "I don't know. It's rare to see him show any emotions. Could it be that there's a big treasure inside that ball?"

“You’re right. It’s indeed a big treasure that can dazzle the eye!” Berserk was an impatient person. When he heard Lone Wolf’s shout, he rushed to the bathroom. When he saw the rays of light shining forth, he walked over and saw a night pearl the size of a baby’s fist lying quietly in Lone Wolf’s palm.

“Wow, we’re rich now!” he exclaimed.

“What is it?” Seeing this, the others couldn’t sit still anymore and squeezed into the bathroom.

They were big and tall. When five to six people squeezed into the bathroom, it instantly became crowded.

“Wow, it’s a night pearl. This thing should be worth a lot of money. Not to mention five trucks, I think we can buy 50 trucks with it!”

“Lady Boss is really generous. The first thing she gave us already blew our minds.”

“This thing should be worth at least 1,000,000 yuan. Having so much money, what’s the point of building a transport team? She can easily enjoy a comfortable life.”

“Does Lady Boss look like someone who has no ambitions? I think she wants to do something big.”

“I suddenly can’t wait to work for her...”

“Why are you so excited? We’re not going to rob, burn, and kill. We’re just going to drive trucks. Don’t get excited so early.”

The few burly men hid in the bathroom and chatted. When Wang Zhiqiang heard their conversation, the corners of his mouth twitched. He stole a glance at Qin Xi’s face and saw that she was only smiling and did not show any signs of anger. He felt a little relieved.

However, later on, Wang Zhiqiang realized that the more his lady boss smiled, the more dangerous she was.

Seeing that the time was right, Qin Xi tapped her fingers on the table and said,

“This is a natural night pearl. The task I’m giving you is to sell this thing within two days at the price of no less than two million yuan. Take the rest of the money and buy some useful clothes and necessities. Also, prepare five light trucks and 1000 boxes for storing fruits. When everything is ready, go to Shangwan Village in Qinglin Town to find me. Can you do that?”

Wang Zhiqiang immediately stood up and answered seriously, “Lady Boss, don’t worry. I promise to complete the task in time.”

Qin Xi nodded. “Go ahead!”

Chapter 186: Nurturing a Domineering CEO Out of Him

“Wifey, aren’t you afraid that they will run away with the night pearl?”

When only Qin Xi and Han Shi were left in the room, Han Shi frowned. Seeing how much his wife trusted them, he couldn’t help but feel a little jealous.

“They won’t. They’re all unyielding soldiers. Soldiers won’t betray their integrity for such a small profit. They’re the most trustworthy people in the world,” Qin Xi said proudly and confidently.

Han Shi pouted and did not say anything. Instead, he leaned against Qin Xi and placed his head on Qin Xi’s shoulder. He said in a low voice, “Wifey, I can’t help you with anything. Am I very useless?”

Qin Xi’s heart skipped a beat. She immediately understood why he looked dejected just now. She held his handsome face and said earnestly, “How can that be? Stone has helped me a lot. You even helped me punish the hooligans who were rude to me. Besides, I am not cut out for business. I was thinking about handing the business to you and nurturing you into a domineering CEO. I’ll be your woman and take care of the family at home while you are earning money.”

Han Shi said gloomily, “But I don’t know anything!”

“Don’t belittle yourself. You’re very smart. As long as you study hard, I believe that you will one day build your own business empire and become the richest man in the country, and I’ll be the wife of the richest man.”

Qin Xi did think so because she knew that Han Shi was destined to be an extraordinary man.

Her goal was nothing more than to encourage him to take the first step bravely. As long as he came into contact with the outside world, he’d slowly grow into a towering tree.

Han Shi asked, “What about you? What will you be doing if you let me manage the business?”

“Of course I’m going to heal people. Stone, have you forgotten that I’m a mystic doctor?”

Qin Xi said with a smile, “I actually know nothing about business. What I’m most interested in is treating illnesses and saving people. When I see those people who have been cured by me, I feel satisfied.”

Ever since she inherited the mystic medicine technique, Qin Xi knew that she was destined to walk the path of treating illnesses and saving lives.

Moreover, she wanted to bring Chinese medicine to greater heights and let people know its true value.

Hearing her lofty ambition, Han Shi suddenly felt proud of his wife. He nodded seriously. “I’ll work hard to become the richest man and earn a lot of money so that you can buy whatever you want.”

To Qin Xi’s surprise, not only did Han Shi really achieve what he promised, but he even exceeded her expectations.

Of course, that happened later.

The next day.

Qin Xi and Han Shi planned to go out for a walk. To be honest, Qin Xi had been to Luoping City three times and had never had the chance to explore it. She could take this opportunity to take a walk with Han Shi.

Han Shi held Qin Xi’s soft hand and asked, “Wifey, where are we going?”

“To the amusement park!”

Qin Xi said happily, “I heard from Xia Tangxin that there’s a large amusement park in Luoping City’s New District. I’ve never been to an amusement park before!”

The reason why Qin Xi chose the amusement park was because she wanted Han Shi to have fun. Also, she wanted to ride the Ferris wheel with Han Shi.

In her previous life, she had read a book in which there was a legend about the Ferris wheel.

Lovers who rode the Ferris wheel together would eventually end up breaking up. However, when the Ferris wheel reached its peak, if she kissed her lover, they would be able to go on forever.

Although it was just a legend, she still wanted to give it a try.

Chapter 187: Jumping Down!

The amusement park in the 80s was even smaller than Qin Xi had imagined.

No pendulum, no jumper, no roller coaster, no spacewalk, no bumper cars...

There was only a carousel, a pirate ship, a hurricane chair, and an exaggeratedly small train!

Moreover, the Ferris wheel here was only eight to nine meters long. It was so small that it was unbearable to look at. Even so, the laughter and clamor in the amusement park could still be heard from afar.

Qin Xi was speechless. Indeed, she shouldn’t have any expectations for the 1980s!

Seeing that the small amusement park was filled with people, Qin Xi facepalmed. She turned her head and wanted to say something to Han Shi, but she saw him looking around with excitement written all across his face.

Only then did Qin Xi remember that just because she had experienced the amusement park in the future didn’t mean that Han Shi had.

Moreover, this amusement park that looked like a public fitness square was definitely attractive to people of this era.

Then, she smiled and said to Han Shi, “Do you want to play? Which one do you want to try first?”

At this moment, Han Shi seemed to have returned to his carefree and innocent five-year-old self.

In fact, in terms of personality and temperament, Han Shi was still the same Han Shi from before. It was only because he had swallowed the memories of others that he could grow up in a short period of time.

“Yay, I want to try that!” Han Shi pointed at the pirate ship and smiled happily when he heard the screams. Under the sunlight, his already handsome face looked even more dazzling.

For a moment, Qin Xi blushed. At the thought that such a handsome man was hers, she felt inexplicably excited.

She took the initiative to hold Han Shi's hand and squeezed into the crowd. She threw ten yuan to the staff and said generously, "Give me two tickets!"

Not long after, Qin Xi and Han Shi got on the ship. When the pirate ship swayed, Han Shi smiled happily like a child.

On the other hand, Qin Xi didn't look good.

This was because she had forgotten something. She was carsick. Although this was a pirate ship, when it swung back and forth, it gave her a similar feeling as carsickness, and she was in extreme discomfort.

Sometimes, she was really puzzled. She had the mysterious mystic medicine technique and was also an ancient martial artist. Why couldn't she overcome her car sickness?

Just as she was complaining about having transmigrated into a bad body, she suddenly heard screams and cries not far away.

Qin Xi took advantage of the height of the pirate ship and looked over. She saw a child stuck in the tracks of the train, surrounded by a crowd. It seemed like the crowd wanted to lift the train up to save the child.

Qin Xi's pupils were constricted. Without thinking, she unbuckled her seatbelt and instructed Han Shi, "I'll go and save that child. Stay here and wait for me to come back. Don't leave."

Then, she took out 50 yuan from her pocket. "This is the ticket money. Wait for me to come back."

As she spoke, Qin Xi jumped down, causing the staff member to almost panic and faint.

Seeing Qin Xi land steadily and quickly run into the crowd, Han Shi immediately lost the mood to continue playing.

Chapter 188: Spine Damage

"Come, come, come. I'll count to three, and we lift it up together. Okay, one, two, three..."

When they heard "three", everyone used all their strength to lift the iron train up.

The moment the train was lifted up, the rescue team quickly pulled the boy out of the tracks.

"The child's out... Quick, see if the child is injured."

"The child's condition isn't good. He's fainted. Call an ambulance!"

"Kai, Kai, my poor son, please save my child. I only have one son. Please save him..."

A young and fashionable woman was hugging her child and crying on the ground. When she asked for help, her eyes were filled with despair and helplessness.

At this moment, a beautiful and young woman walked over from the crowd. She squatted down and comforted gently, "Madam, I've been a doctor for six years. Can I take a look at your child?"

Hearing that it was a doctor, the beautiful woman immediately laid the child on the ground. Her tear-stained face was filled with anticipation as she begged, "Doctor, please, please save my son!"

"Don't worry, I'll do my best!"

The female doctor said to the beautiful woman. Then, she began to check the child's injuries. Just as she was about to turn the child over to check, Qin Xi finally squeezed in and quickly stopped the female doctor. She said, "His waist and spine were crushed. If he is turned over rashly, he'll suffer additional injuries."

The female doctor turned to look at Qin Xi unhappily and asked suspiciously, "Are you a doctor too?"

When Qin Xi saw the female doctor, she was stunned. This person was a little familiar. Then she remembered that this was the orthopedic doctor who was on the same train with her last time.

"Yes, I'm a Chinese doctor." Qin Xi nodded.

"Chinese doctor?"

Xie Min's face immediately darkened. She reprimanded in a low voice, "Nonsense, can Chinese medicine treat illnesses these days? If you don't know, don't talk. Also, do you have a medical license? You don't look old enough to have one."

'Medical license?'

This was the second time Qin Xi's medical skills were questioned. In this era, a piece of credential really spoke louder than actual ability.

Therefore, she really had to find a way to get a medical license.

She shook her head and said calmly, "I don't have a medical license, but I've been studying Chinese medicine since I was young. I can be responsible for what I say."

Xie Min hated people who caused trouble at the critical moment without caring about the patient's life.

She said coldly, "What a joke. You don't even have a medical license. How can you be responsible? Can you afford to be responsible? Now, lives are at stake. If you don't have a medical license, don't disturb me. Get lost."

As she spoke, she slapped Qin Xi's hand away angrily and was about to turn the child's body over.

Qin Xi stopped her again and reminded her kindly, "I advise you not to turn him over. His spine is injured. If you exert more force, it's very likely that his entire spine will break. Once it breaks, the child will be paralyzed for the rest of his life. Think about it. Can you bear the responsibility?"

Xie Min did not care at all, but the beautiful woman beside her was so frightened that she broke out in cold sweat. When Xie Min insisted on turning over the child, she stopped her in a panic. She looked at Xie Min with tears in her eyes. "Doctor, if what she said is true, my son will be doomed for the rest of his life."

After being stopped time and time again, Xie Min finally flared up. She stood up and looked at Qin Xi and the beautiful woman coldly. "If you don't trust me, find someone else!"

Chapter 189: Chance Meeting Again

Just as Xie Min was about to turn around and leave, the beautiful woman panicked. She quickly grabbed her hand and apologized pleadingly, "I'm sorry, I'm sorry. It's my fault. It's not that I don't trust you. I'm just... just afraid that my son will really be paralyzed..."

As she spoke, tears streamed down her face again. It was obvious that the beautiful woman's identity was not simple, but she was willing to bow to people for the sake of her child. This motherly love moved Xie Min.

Of course, Xie Min did not really mean to leave. After all, she was a doctor. It was her duty to save lives. If she turned a blind eye to a life because of personal grudge, what was the point of studying medicine? This went against her beliefs.

"Doctor, please save this child. The child's mother said that because she's worried sick."

"Yes, it's understandable. Save the child. He's done nothing to deserve this."

"You're a good person. Don't make things difficult for a mother."

Seeing that the beautiful woman was crying sadly and the people around her were kind enough to put in a good word, Xie Min stopped being stubborn. She glanced at Qin Xi and squatted down to continue treating the child.

Qin Xi said at the wrong time, "I've said it before. If you don't control your strength well, he will be paralyzed for the rest of his life. If you don't believe me, I can wake the child up immediately and he can tell you where it hurts. If his back doesn't hurt, I have nothing to say. How about that?"

Xie Min sneered. "It seems that you still haven't given up!"

When the surrounding people saw Qin Xi was still challenging the female doctor, they pointed at her and criticized her.

"Young lady, why are you being such an annoyance? You said that you're a doctor, but you don't have a medical license. If you accidentally cause the child's injury to worsen, how are you going to compensate him?"

"That's right. Given how young you are, you don't seem trustworthy enough."

Qin Xi ignored the criticism and looked at Xie Min. "Speaking of which, I met you once. Some time ago, on the train, a human trafficker was rolling on the ground in pain. You thought that she was pretending to be in pain, right?"

Xie Min quickly recalled the scene. Because she had been fooled by the human trafficker twice, she had a deep impression of that incident. "Yes, it turns out that she was indeed pretending, and she did it flawlessly."

Qin Xi shook her head with a smile. "No, she's not pretending. Her leg really hurts. Besides, I'm the one who caused her leg to hurt."

“You?”

Xie Min’s face immediately turned livid. She reprimanded, “Why did you do that? What right do you have to do that? Did you study medicine to just take the piss out of others?”

When she said this, her eyes were filled with disgust, as if Qin Xi was a black sheep in a flock of pure sheep. Wasn’t medicine supposed to be used to treat and save people? How could she do such a vicious thing so leisurely?

Of course, this was just an excuse. In fact, the reason why Xie Min was angry was that she could not figure out the reason why the human trafficker’s leg hurt.

“Doctor, are you sympathizing with a human trafficker?” Qin Xi said with a faint smile, “Those who sell humans for money should be punished by death. Instead of pitying those children who are sold and beaten up, you pity a human trafficker. Don’t you think you’re being ridiculous?”

“Also, shouldn’t you be asking yourself why you couldn’t figure out the cause of her leg pain?”

Chapter 190: Qin Xi Takes Action

Xie Min was speechless for a moment. She knew that she had fallen into Qin Xi’s trap, but she couldn’t refute it because what Qin Xi said was the truth.

When everyone saw this, they stopped criticizing Qin Xi, especially when Xie Min spoke up for a human trafficker. Everyone’s impression of Xie Min immediately plummeted.

Xie Min also felt the change in the gazes of the people around her. She bit her lip and retorted, “I wasn’t pitying the human traffickers. I just felt that what you did was an insult to the medical profession. Everyone, no matter what they do, deserves to have human rights. What you did was selfish.”

Qin Xi sneered. “Humans indeed have human rights, but she’s a beast. Do you think I’ll give human rights to a beast? You’ve never lost a child before, so you naturally don’t know the pain, so don’t stand there and talk about it. Also, a life is at stake now. I don’t want to talk nonsense with you. I’m going to wake the little boy up and let him tell you personally where he hurts. Do you have any objections?”

Xie Min blushed and said, “No!”

Actually, she knew very well that if what Qin Xi said was true and the child’s spine was injured, she would not be of any use. After all, Western medicine required the help of complicated instruments.

If she treated the child rashly, she might very likely do a disservice.

In particular, the beautiful woman’s identity was obviously not simple. It would be fine if the child was saved, but if he was not saved, wouldn’t she be in trouble?

Xie Min thought she might as well throw Why not throw this hot potato to Qin Xi.

At the thought of this, she didn’t stop Qin Xi anymore. Instead, she stood at the side and looked at Qin Xi quietly to see how she was going to wake the child up.

Qin Xi squatted down and took out the acupuncture bag. When she opened it, batches of silver needles appeared.

“Looking at the acupuncture bag she carries with her, she must be a Chinese doctor.”

“Indeed, Western medicine still needs instruments. Without the instruments, they can’t do anything. Sigh...”

Listening to these discussions, Xie Min’s cheeks burned.

Just as the onlookers said, without instruments, good devices, and a clean place, Western medicine was hardly useful. On the other hand, Chinese medicine could be done under both difficult and simple conditions. There was no need for instruments at all.

However, most of the Chinese doctors were old and experienced. It was not something a young girl like Qin Xi could be.

However, the truth brutally smacked Xie Min in the face, making her face burn.

After Qin Xi inserted a few needles, the child slowly woke up. As soon as he opened his mouth, he cried out loud. “Waa... Mom, it hurts. My back hurts. Sob...”

“This girl is really amazing. She doesn’t even need to take his pulse to know his condition. It seems like she really is a Chinese doctor.”

When the beautiful woman heard her son’s miserable cries, her tears fell like pearls. She wanted to hug her son tightly, but she was afraid of injuring him again. She was so anxious that she did not know what to do. “What should I do?”

Seeing that the child was crying miserably, Qin Xi’s heart softened. She reached out and touched the pulse on the boy’s neck.

The little boy stopped crying and his head drooped down. When the beautiful woman saw this, her eyelids twitched and her face instantly turned pale. She thought that the child was dead. Just as she was about to reach out her hand, she heard Qin Xi say, “Don’t worry, I’m just letting him fall asleep temporarily to prevent him from going into shock from pain.”
