

Mysterious 211

Chapter 211: Wang Zhiqiang Is Here

As for Qin Xi, she left happily with the fingerprinted contract. As for how the Qin family would react, it was none of her business.

As soon as she walked out of the Qin family, Qin Xi heard the honking of a big trunk. The ground seemed to be trembling.

Such a spectacular scene made everyone in the village crane their necks to look out. If they couldn't see, they would climb to the top of the wall and tip their toes on the eaves to look. Dust spread out, and five brand new military green trucks stopped beside Han Shi.

Wang Zhiqiang got out of the front passenger seat with Tong Tong in his arms and walked to Han Shi's side. He asked calmly, "Boss, where's the lady boss?"

"Brother Boss..." When Tong Tong saw Han Shi, she called out happily.

Han Shi glanced at Yu Tong and reached out to touch her head. He then looked at Wang Zhiqiang. "Let's go. Xi asked you to park the trunks at the foot of the mountain. Follow me."

Wang Zhiqiang nodded and waved at the convoy before slowly arriving at the foot of the orchard.

When Da Jun and Tie Jun saw this, their eyes widened. They had never seen so many brand new trucks appear at the same time. The shocking scene made the father and son inexplicably nervous, especially when they saw the nine burly men.

Even Han Dazhu and Luo Xiujuan, who were picking fruits in the garden, ran out in shock.

"Stone, who, who are these people?"

Han Dazhu was a hunter and was the most sensitive to bloodthirsty auras. Therefore, he immediately sensed the strong murderous aura on Wang Zhiqiang and the others and asked Han Shi warily.

Although Luo Xiujuan did not sense any danger, their height was enough to give her a strong sense of oppression. She was so nervous that her face turned slightly pale.

"Grandpa, they were saved by Xi by chance. Although they look fierce, they're all good people. Moreover, from now on, they'll work for Xi, so you don't have to worry," Han Shi explained.

Han Dazhu was shocked and said in disbelief, "What? These are all Xi's people?"

Han Shi nodded. "Yes. In the future, they'll be our transport team, specializing in transporting these fruits."

He then looked at Wang Zhiqiang and the others and introduced them briefly. "This is my grandfather and this is my mother."

Wang Zhiqiang and the others stood up straight and raised their heads. They shouted loudly, "Hello, Old Master and Madam!"

The high-pitched voice and righteous aura shocked Han Dazhu and Luo Xiujian. Even Da Niu and Tie Niu were shocked.

The scene became awkward.

At this moment, a child's voice sounded. "Hello, Grandpa and Auntie!"

They subconsciously looked at the source of the voice and saw a baby sitting in Wang Zhiqiang's arms. If she did not speak, Han Dazhu and the others would think that Wang Zhiqiang was hugging a cloth doll!

Han Dazhu was stunned for a moment when he saw a girl with a group of iron men. "Uh... this is..."

Wang Zhiqiang touched Yu Tong's head and explained, "This is my daughter, Yu Tong."

"Oh... you're so obedient!" Han Dazhu was so embarrassed that he did not know what to say.

At this moment, Luo Xiujian took out cherries the size of Yu Tong's fist from the basket. She wiped it with her apron and handed it to the child with a loving and gentle expression. "This is for you. It's very sweet."

Yu Tong did not take it. Instead, she looked at Wang Zhiqiang with a questioning gaze. After receiving a nod from Wang Zhiqiang, Yu Tong took the cherry with both hands. Her pink face was like a blooming sunflower as she smiled brightly. "Thank you, Auntie!"

Chapter 212: Daydreaming

The little girl smelled the sweetness of the cherry and hugged it in her arms.

She looked at the basket behind Luo Xiujian and asked in a childish voice, "Pretty Auntie, what are you carrying? I think I saw a big ball."

Luo Xiujian was stunned for a moment before turning to look. There was a big peach on it. She smiled and said, "That's not a ball. It's a fruit."

She placed the basket on the ground. When they saw the fruits in the basket, the corners of Wang Zhiqiang and the others' mouths twitched.

It was also at this moment that Wang Zhiqiang and the others finally understood why their lady boss wanted them to 'escort' these fruits. These big fruits looked very tempting. They did not know what kind of fruit they were, but even they, who were experienced and knowledgeable, were at a loss.

Luo Xiujian took out all kinds of ripe fruits and handed them to them. She said in embarrassment, "Um... try them. We grow these ourselves. They're quite delicious. Don't stand on ceremony. Take whatever you like."

Wang Zhiqiang and the others did not stand on ceremony. They really wanted to try the taste. They took a big melon. The melon was really big. If not for the fact that this was a melon, Wang Zhiqiang would have thought that it was a watermelon.

He weighed the melon in his hand. It was heavy and emitted a unique sweetness.

Wang Zhiqiang broke the melon in half using brute force. He distributed half of it to Lone Wolf. The big melon was distributed to six people. The remaining three people only chose a few relatively small fruits, such as cherries and green plums.

When they took the first bite, they were instantly dumbfounded. They had never eaten such delicious fruit in their lives.

It was sweet but not much, fragrant but not turbid, crisp and juicy. It melted in their mouths and left a fragrance. After eating it, they felt like their fatigue was swept away.

Wang Zhiqiang and the others looked at each other, their eyes filled with shock. This was because they could feel subtle changes in their bodies. This feeling was as if they had been injected with an extremely tiny force. Although it was very subtle and difficult to detect, they could tell that these fruits were extraordinary.

One could imagine how this special fruit would make people go crazy if it was sold to the public and how sensational it would be.

No wonder Qin Xi would entrust the transportation task to them. She was probably worried about what would happen during the transportation!

It seemed that their task was indeed very difficult.

At this moment, Han Shi suddenly saw Qin Xi walking over and shouted in surprise, "Wifey!"

Then, under everyone's gaze, he ran to Qin Xi's side like a happy bird. He habitually held her hand and said, "Wifey, I've done what you asked me to do. Is there any reward?"

He said very softly, his burning eyes filled with anticipation, making Qin Xi blush. She looked away and muttered softly, "Let's talk when we get home. There are many people around now."

Hearing her answer and seeing how shy she was, Han Shi was secretly delighted. He put a fawning smile on his face and whispered into her ear, "Alright, let's talk under the blanket tonight..."

Then, he laughed. It sounded like he was up to no good.

Qin Xi blushed. She could tell that Han Shi was teasing her. She glared at him and snorted. "Stop daydreaming. Hmph!"

Seeing Qin Xi, Wang Zhiqiang quickly ate the melon in his hand and wiped his mouth. He took out a passbook from his pocket and said seriously, "Lady Boss, the mission was successfully completed. This is for you!"

Qin Xi took the passbook with a smile. She was not in a hurry to open it. Instead, she handed him a note.

Chapter 213: Teach Them a Lesson

Wang Zhiqiang opened the note and was stunned. He asked in confusion, "Lady Boss, what is this?"

Qin Xi nodded and said casually, "It's nothing. Given that you don't have a place to stay, I bought you a place."

A trace of joy immediately appeared on Wang Zhiqiang's face. Just as he was about to thank her, he heard Qin Xi say, "Don't be happy too early. Although I bought this house, the people haven't moved out yet. These people are very difficult to deal with, so I need you to deal with them yourself."

"No problem, leave it to us." Wang Zhiqiang grinned. This was the first time he smiled from the bottom of his heart.

In their hearts, they only wanted a house of their own. Even if they did not have a family, they would be satisfied as long as they had a simple house.

Unfortunately, after being discharged from the army, they could not even make a living, let alone buying a house.

Fortunately, they met Qin Xi and were given a chance to make their lives better.

At the side, Han Shi glanced at the note and was very surprised to see Qin Guobiao signing it. "Wifey, you actually bought the Qin family's house? Then where do they live?"

Qin Xi shrugged. "It's not my business where they live."

She looked at the time and said to Wang Zhiqiang, "Alright, it's almost time to gather. Take down the boxes!"

Then, she arranged some work for Da Niu and Tie Niu to do. At this moment, Han Shi came to Wang Zhiqiang's side and said with a smile, "Do you know who the house Xi gave you belongs to?"

Wang Zhiqiang shook his head. "I don't know!"

Han Shi's eyes were deep and dark. His voice was cold as he said, "The Qin family. They used to be Xi's family. However, they treated Xi badly and often beat and scolded her. They even forced Xi to sleep in the cowshed."

"A while ago, Xi's brother poisoned her. If not for the fact that Xi was smart, I'm afraid she would have died long ago..."

Wang Zhiqiang gasped and said in shock, "How is that possible? Lady Boss is so capable. She doesn't look like someone who would let others bully her."

"If you don't believe me, you can ask around in the village," Han Shi said. "There's no need to lie to you about this."

Wang Zhiqiang thought about it and agreed. Han Shi indeed had no reason to lie to him.

At the same time, he understood that Han Shi did not say this for no reason. "What do you want me to do?"

Han Shi gave him an approving look. "It's very simple. Don't show mercy. Show your true colors!"

"That's it?" Wang Zhiqiang frowned.

“What do you think I want you to do?” Han Shi rolled his eyes. “As long as you teach them a lesson, my wife will handle the rest herself.”

Wang Zhiqiang was speechless. Since the lady boss knew how to handle it herself, why did she tell him to handle this?

Han Shi seemed to know what he was thinking and said confidently, “I just don’t like them and want to use you to teach them a lesson.”

“Alright, I’ll find a chance to do it.”

In less than half an hour, the villagers were queuing up to walk up the mountain. When they saw the five trucks, they touched them curiously.

Liu Shuan came to Qin Xi’s side. “Xi, almost everyone is here.”

Qin Xi thanked him and walked up to the villagers. She stood in front of them and shouted, “Everyone, I’m sure the village chief has already told you why I asked you to come here today. Then I’ll talk about the price. A box of fruits will be 30 cents. You are not allowed to damage the fruit or eat it. However, after it’s done and you receive your salary, I’ll give you fruits for free. If you eat or waste them, I won’t hire you in the future.”

Chapter 214: The Goods Are Here

“If you can’t carry the box, you can find someone to cooperate with you. Of course, other than cooperation, you can also supervise. As long as you see anyone wasting or stealing fruits, you can report it and be rewarded 30 cents.”

Qin Xi’s goal was very simple. She wanted to prevent waste from happening.

When the villagers heard this price, they whispered to each other, their faces filled with joy. Clearly, they were very satisfied with this price.

Qin Xi put away her smile and said seriously, “There’s one more thing I have to mention. Because we’re all from the same village and see each other every day, I’ll make it clear first. If anyone wants to harm the orchard, I won’t hire them or their family or their friends from now on.”

“I hope everyone can understand this!”

“Alright, if anyone can’t stand the rules, you can leave. If no one objects, get to work!”

After waiting for a few seconds, seeing that everyone was eager to start, she smiled and clapped her hands. “Let’s get to work!”

**

Luoping City, Sweet Dew Fruit Store.

According to the blueprint given by Qin Xi, the Sweet Dew Fruit Store was decorated in a clean and bright style.

Moreover, the store was very big. It was more than 500 square meters and had three floors.

The first and second floors were dedicated to selling fruits. For example, some common fruits were placed on the first floor, while some more expensive ones were placed on the second floor. As for the third floor, it was the staff's office and resting area.

Xia Tangxin was wearing a neat suit today. Her long hair was tied behind her head, and her fair and exquisite face was serious.

She glanced at the salespeople, cashier, and the manager and said, "Get ready. At five in the afternoon, we'll receive a batch of fruits. These fruits are very special, so you have to be careful when you move them. Also, remember the price. We'll open tomorrow morning."

The store manager was a woman called Su Fang. She was in her thirties and was smart and eloquent. However, when she saw the price of the fruit, she said with uncertainty, "Miss Xia, isn't the price of the fruit... a little too high?"

No, that was not a little high, but ridiculously high.

In her opinion, no matter what kind of fruit it was, it was still a fruit.

However, looking at the price list Xia Tangxin gave her, Su Fang felt that this young lady was just joking.

The other shop assistants also looked worried. If they sold it according to the price list, they felt like they would close the store without selling a single one.

"CEO Xia, the price is so expensive. Can we really sell it?"

"That's right. I've never seen such an expensive fruit. What if no one buys it?"

Seeing their worried expressions, Xia Tangxin smiled confidently. "Don't worry, you probably won't believe anything I say now. However, when the fruit comes and you taste it for yourself, you can rethink if the price is reasonable."

"Besides, don't worry about whether you can sell it or not. What you should be most worried about is whether we have enough stock."

"Listen carefully. Like what I said before, each stall must be guarded by five people."

Hearing Xia Tangxin's words, everyone looked at each other, not knowing what to say. They could only wait patiently.

Xia Tangxin did not care what the shop assistant thought. She went to another branch and said the same thing. After walking around, it was almost time.

At around 3 pm, five trunks stopped at the entrance of five branches.

Wang Zhiqiang led the way and shouted at the Sweet Dew Fruit Store, "The goods are here!"

Chapter 215: Fruit King

“The goods are here!”

Hearing this voice, Xia Tangxin quickly jogged down from the third floor. When she saw that the truck was filled with cardboard boxes, she smiled happily.

“May I know who CEO Xia Tangxin?” Wang Zhiqiang jumped out of the trunk and asked.

Xia Tangxin quickly said, “I’m Xia Tangxin. How many boxes are there? What kind of fruits are there?”

Wang Zhiqiang took out a small notebook and handed it to Xia Tangxin. “The lady boss said that she wants you to sell it sparingly. The rarer something is, the more expensive it is. Don’t take it all out at once. Also, the fresh expiration date of the fruit is about half a month, so you don’t have to be afraid that they will go bad. This trunk is loaded with about a week’s amount of fruits. Take a look.”

Xia Tangxin nodded and took the small notebook to read it seriously.

It was the middle of September, and there were many fruits during the season, such as pears, figs, pomegranates, oranges, hawthorns, grapes, and so on.

Even the winter fruits, sugar oranges, and so on were included. This made Xia Tangxin extremely excited.

“Xi really said that the fresh expiration date of the fruit is about half a month?” she asked Wang Zhiqiang.

“Yes.”

Xia Tangxin nodded, indicating that she understood. Then, she looked at the porters and waved her hand. “Move!”

She reminded them again, “Remember, you have to be careful. Try your best not to bump into anything.”

Everyone shouted in unison, “Yes!”

An hour later, all the fruits were taken out of the trunk. Because CEO Xia repeatedly reminded them to be careful, they were very careful when moving the boxes, afraid that they would hit the ‘priceless’ fruits inside, so they slowed down.

Xia Tangxin couldn’t wait to open a box. Inside was a large string of lychees. Each lychee was the size of an adult fist. The alluring red color made her swallow hard.

A staff member was shocked when he saw the lychee in the box. He asked with a strange look, “Miss Xia, what is this?”

Xia Tangxin snapped a lychee and peeled it with a smile. She couldn’t wait to suck the juice of the lychee. When the juice entered her mouth, she let out a satisfied moan. “Ah, it’s so delicious!”

When the other staff saw this scene, their jaws dropped. They asked with uncertainty, “Is that Lychee?”

“I think so...”

“Is it King Lychee? But even King Lychee can’t be so big!”

“I don’t know. What variety is this?”

“No wonder CEO Xia said that the fruits are a little special. At that time, I was puzzled. Aren’t they all fruits? Why are they special? Now, I finally understand...”

“Besides, from CEO Xia’s expression, I can tell that this fruit is definitely very delicious.”

“I wonder if we have a chance to try it!”

Before one of the staff could finish, Xia Tangxin instructed Su Fang, “Get a few people to cut this box of fruits into small pieces and put toothpicks on them. Set up a stall at the door and let passers-by try it for free. Remember, put a few fruit samples on it and show them what a fruit king is.”

Su Fang nodded and instructed someone to set up a stall.

This was also an idea Qin Xi gave her. Xia Tangxin objected at first, but Qin Xi said that only by doing so could the fruits sell well.

At the thought of this, Xia Tangxin patted the apple box beside her and called for staff to come over.

Two female shop assistants walked over and wanted to carry the box into the house, but Xia Tangxin said with a smile, “It’s fine. Each of you can carry two apples.”

The two female shop assistants were stunned. What did she mean? How could two apples be enough for the passers-by to try?

Then, Xia Tangxin opened the box in front of them.

Chapter 216: Auntie Is Going to Mutate!

When the female shop assistant saw the apple, her first thought was: Big! Super big!

“CEO Xia, is this apple fake? How can there be such a big apple in the world?”

The female shop assistant looked at the four apples in the box in disbelief.

No wonder CEO Xia said that fruits were special. This was not only special, but it was simply a wonder. Anyone who saw an apple the size of a watermelon would be awestruck.

Seeing the female shop assistant’s reaction, the other staff were also very curious. They surrounded the box and fell silent.

Everyone had an unbelievable thought. If this was not a hybrid type, it must be a big watermelon covered in apple skin!

“When you cut it open later, you’ll know if it’s real or fake.”

Xia Tangxin was very satisfied with their reactions. “I’ve said it before. This batch of fruits is a little special. You have to learn to get used to it. Alright, set up the stall. When we open for business tomorrow, cut open the big fruits and sell them. Be quick and wrap them in plastic wrap. Don’t let the nutrients of the fruits go to waste, understand?”

“Got it.”

Not long after, a small stall was set up in front of the Sweet Dew Fruit Store. Beside it were three big apples in the shape of a pyramid. On the other side, there were cut apple pieces.

As soon as the apple was placed on the table, many passers-by surrounded it. They looked at the basin-sized apple in front of them and started to suspect if they were sleep-walking.

An auntie could not help but touch it and find that it was not fake. She could not help but be puzzled. “Miss, is this really... an apple?”

Su Fang smiled and picked up a piece of apple with a toothpick and handed it to the auntie. “That’s right, Auntie, this is an apple. Our apple is a little special. It’s a new variety that has been cultivated. These are fresh from the apple tree. We will open for business tomorrow, so the boss decided to let people try it for free. Don’t worry, our apple is juicy and sweet. I guarantee that you will want to take a second bite after taking the first bite.”

When the auntie heard that it was a new variety and that it was free to try, she immediately took it and put it into her mouth happily.

The others did not dare to try it and watched the auntie’s reaction. In the end, after taking a bite, the auntie screamed, scaring the people around her. They reflexively retreated, thinking that there was something wrong with the apple and that the auntie was about to mutate. They were so frightened that they did not dare to make a sound.

Unexpectedly, the auntie waved her arms excitedly and could not even bear to chew the apple in her mouth. She held it in her mouth like a candy and shouted, “It’s too delicious. It’s really too delicious. I’ve never eaten such a delicious apple. Can I have another piece?”

When Su Fang and the others saw her reaction, they were overjoyed and quickly gave the auntie another piece. The auntie did not eat it and held it in her hand.

“I remember you said that you will open tomorrow, right?” The auntie grabbed Su Fang’s hand and asked excitedly, “What time will you open tomorrow?”

Su Fang said with a smile, “Eight o’clock in the morning. Auntie, don’t get too excited. Other than apples, we have other fruits. If you think it’s delicious, you’re welcome to come to our shop tomorrow.”

“I’ll definitely come.”

With that, the auntie ran away with a small piece of apple. She had to go home quickly and let her husband try it.

Seeing the auntie’s exaggerated reaction, someone couldn’t help but ask, “It can’t be true. She must be someone hired by the store to attract customers.”

“That’s right. It’s just an apple. How delicious can it be?”

When Su Fang heard that, not only was she not angry, but she even smiled. “As long as you take a bite, you’ll know!”

Chapter 217: Jaws Dropped to the Ground!

The next day, when it was still dawn, Su Fang arrived at the fruit shop 40 minutes early.

It was not only because of the opening today, but also because of her responsibility as the manager. She had to be prepared before the opening.

However, when she arrived at the fruit shop, she saw that there was already a long queue at the entrance.

When the first auntie who tried the food for free yesterday saw her, she immediately waved her hand excitedly and shouted, "Hey, hello. When will your shop open? We've been waiting for a long time."

"That's right, that's right. I'm still in a hurry to go home and cook for my child. Can you open the door early?"

Many people echoed, hoping that Su Fang would open the door soon.

Su Fang looked at the time. It was not even five in the morning, more than three hours before eight.

If it were any other time, she would have opened the shop early without following the rules. However, today was the opening day. The opening day and the opening time had to be accurate.

Hence, she could only explain apologetically, "I'm sorry, everyone. Today is the first day of the shop's opening. Besides, the shop assistant is not at work yet. Even if I open the door, I won't be able to handle it alone. Why don't you come back at eight?"

Everyone thought about it and agreed. The staff was not even at work yet. They might as well go back and do their own things and come back when it was about time. Anyway, it was the first day, so there shouldn't be too many customers, right?

At the thought of this, more than half of the people left unwillingly. A small portion of them found a breakfast shop nearby to eat and wait. There were still a few aunties who did not leave. Instead, they sat under the shade of a tree and started chatting.

Su Fang returned to the shop and began to check the preparations for the day. On the other side, Xia Tangxin woke up early and came to the fruit shop after dressing up.

At 7:30 pm, all the employees arrived.

Xia Tangxin had nothing else to say. She had already said what she needed to say yesterday. She asked the male staff to set up the firecrackers. As long as the time was up, they would set it immediately.

When it was almost eight o'clock, Qin Xi called and hung up after saying a few things.

At this moment, a car stopped in front of the fruit store. The person in the lead was none other than Xia Tangxin's father, Xia Zhenguo.

Seeing Xia Zhenguo, Xia Tangxin was overjoyed. "Dad? Why are you here?"

Xia Zhenguo laughed heartily. “My daughter’s store is opening today. As her father, of course I have to come and support her. Not only me, but also your Uncle Yang and Uncle Fan.”

The Uncle Yang and Uncle Fan he mentioned were both his business partners. Their net worth was not inferior to his.

As soon as Xia Zhenguo finished speaking, Yang Minghua and Fan Jun got out of the car at the same time. When they saw the large fruit store, they smiled and praised, “Like father, like daughter. Congratulations!”

Xia Tangxin smiled and said humbly, “Uncle Yang, Uncle Fan, you flatter me. I don’t know anything about business. It’s just a fruit store.”

A few of them entered the shop while chatting and laughing. When they saw the simple but elegant interior design, their eyes lit up.

Even Xia Zhenguo did not expect his daughter to design the store so well. Just as he was about to praise her, he saw the fruits on the shelves.

Xia Zhenguo’s expression froze for a moment, but he quickly returned to normal. After all, it was not surprising to him that a pear the size of a football would appear after eating a carrot the size of an adult’s arm...

He could still remain calm, but Yang Minghua and Fan Jun were so shocked that their jaws almost dropped to the ground.

Chapter 218: Open for Business

What did they all see?

They saw an unbelievable scene. Yang Minghua walked to a grape the size of a baby’s fist and bent down to take a closer look. After confirming that it was a grape, his mind was blown away.

He asked Xia Tangxin in disbelief, “Niece, what variety is this? Why is it so big?”

Xia Tangxin said with a smile, “This is a new variety cultivated by my friend. Not only is the fruit big, but the flesh and juice are also very abundant. It’s even very good for the body. It can also prevent colds and fevers.”

“Is it really that magical?” Fan Jun was a little skeptical.

Xia Zhenguo patted his shoulder and said with a smile, “Of course it’s true. How can my daughter lie? Besides, the test report clearly states that these fruits contain very strong vitamins. It’s good for the body.”

This time, the two of them believed her.

Xia Tangxin looked at the time and said to Xia Zhenguo, “Dad, it’s time to open for business. Take Uncle Yang and Uncle Fan around and eat whatever you want. I’ll get busy first!”

“Alright, go ahead. Don’t worry about us.”

At eight o’clock, the store officially opened for business. The sound of firecrackers outside the door resounded through the entire street, and the lively atmosphere immediately enveloped the Sweet Dew Fruit Store.

When the door of the fruit store opened, the passers-by who had tried the fruits yesterday could no longer hold back. They rushed into the store one after another. When they saw the fruits on the shelves, they were clearly stunned, but they quickly returned to normal and began to search for their favorite fruits.

However, when they saw the price on it, they were still shocked. Many people wanted to give up. However, when they heard the shop assistant say with a smile, “Everyone, don’t worry. In order to ensure that customers can buy the amount you want, we can sell the fruits in pieces. Moreover, the expiration date of the fruits is about 15 days. Don’t worry.”

Everyone’s eyes lit up.

Someone pointed at the peach the size of a basin and asked tentatively, “I want this peach. Can you cut a quarter for me?”

The shop assistant took out a fruit knife and smiled. “Of course!”

As she spoke, she quickly cut the peach into four pieces and wrapped them in plastic wrap. She weighed it and handed it to the man. “It’s 13 yuan in total.”

13 yuan sounded like a lot, but smelling the peaches in the air, they actually felt that 13 yuan was worth it.

“I forgot to remind you that because the fruits in this store are carefully cultivated, they are much more effective than ordinary fruits. For example, peaches are very suitable for the old and constipated.”

The female shop assistant said mysteriously, “Let me tell you a secret. Eating a lot of it can also help you lose weight.”

“That can’t be. Is it really that magical?” Someone clearly did not believe it.

When a young man who was tortured by constipation heard that, his eyes lit up and he asked eagerly, “Really? Can it really treat constipation?”

“Of course. If you don’t believe me, you can buy one and give it a try. In less than half an hour, I guarantee that you’ll be able to empty your bowels,” the female shop assistant promised.

She was not bragging. Yesterday, when CEO Tang gave them apples, she had experienced it firsthand.

This was because she had the habit of having bloated stomachs. As long as she ate something, her stomach would feel uncomfortable.

However, after eating the apple, her stomach didn’t bloat and she felt relaxed. Later on, CEO Xia said that these fruits were made of pure Chinese medicine and were beneficial to the body.

Chapter 219: Crazy Buying

Without another word, the young man bought a peach and ate it. As he ate, he praised, "Delicious, it's too delicious!"

Because of long periods of constipation, it had been a long time since the young man had eaten so much. Although he did not know if it would work or not, the peach was too delicious. Even if it did not work, he felt that 11 yuan was worth it!

At the thought of this, he wolfed down the peach like a hungry ghost.

Seeing that, everyone couldn't help but swallow their saliva. A young girl saw the lychee beside her and asked curiously, "Is this lychee? Can I buy one first to try it?"

"Of course."

The shop assistant smiled and grabbed one for her. At the same time, she introduced, "Lychee can nourish the spleen and relieve pain. It can also nourish the mind. It's very suitable for girls, but you can't eat too much of it. If you eat too much, you'll get inflamed."

"One lychee for 4 yuan."

The girl was not short of money. She took out four yuan from her pocket and peeled the lychee shell under everyone's gaze. Looking at the fair and tender flesh, everyone subconsciously swallowed their saliva.

The girl took a small bite tentatively. The flesh seemed to melt in her mouth, and the sweet juice instantly filled her mouth. As the rich fruit juice flowed down her throat, she unknowingly revealed an intoxicated expression.

A happy smile spread across her face. She couldn't help but take a second bite.

This time, she did not hesitate and finished the fruit in one go. She did not know if it was her imagination, but the bleeding brought about by her period actually eased bit by bit and might even disappear.

She touched her lower abdomen. Although she was too embarrassed to say this, she bought seven lychees without hesitation.

At this moment, the young man who had been eating peaches held his stomach and looked at the shop assistant in embarrassment. His face was red as he said, "Um, is there a bathroom? I can't hold it anymore!"

The female shop assistant seemed to have expected this. She smiled and pointed at the bathroom. "Over there. There's toilet paper. Don't worry."

The young man did not hesitate and quickly went into the bathroom. Just as the shop assistant had said, he emptied his bowels successfully.

When he came out again, he looked happy.

**

When they returned to Shangwan Village, it was already evening.

Wang Zhiqiang and the others arrived at the Qin family's house according to the address. They looked at the iron door and began to smash it.

In the cowshed, the Qin family, who were already frightened, were shocked when they heard the sudden knocking on the door. They thought that it was Feng Laosan again. They were so frightened that they curled up in the corner. No one dared to make a sound or open the door.

"Brother, are they asleep?" Sabre asked suspiciously.

Wang Zhiqiang snorted. "Don't worry about it. Continue knocking. If they don't come out in three minutes, climb over the wall and enter."

"What? Is that appropriate? We are new here. Will the villagers kick us out if we behave so rudely?" Blood Stealer said worriedly.

They were not afraid of being kicked out, but they were worried that they would cause the lady boss unnecessary trouble. After all, they were used to living a life of bloodshed and they found it hard to adapt to a comfortable life..

Wang Zhiqiang said, "No, these people once bullied Lady Boss. Boss said we don't have to show mercy."

"What? How dare you bully the lady boss? Then what are we waiting for? Barge in!"

Berserk's eyes turned sharp. He waved his fists and smashed them on the door.

Chapter 220: Barging In

The loud sound made the Qin family tremble in fear. The women's faces were pale as they covered their ears and screamed.

"Open the door. Open the door. If you don't open the door, I'll barge in."

Hearing that it was not Feng Laosan, the Qin family was relieved. In the end, Qin Gang stood up and came to the door.

When he saw the fist mark on the iron door, he was so frightened that his legs went weak. He asked with a trembling voice, "W-Who are you?"

"Cut the crap. I'm here to take the house. Hurry up and pack up." Berserk cursed.

Qin Gang subconsciously asked, "Take... take house? Whose house?"

"Of course your house. You've already sold the house. I'm here to take it. Hurry up. I'll give you a minute. If you don't get out, I'll throw you all out."

His voice was very loud, so his words were clearly heard by Qin Guobiao. Although he was beaten up by Feng Laosan during the day, he could still manage to move around.

Therefore, when he heard Berserk say that, he reflexively sat up from under the blanket. His bruised face was filled with shock before it turned into anger and hatred. "It's her. It's that little b*tch. She lied to me and stole my house. Damn it, damn b*tch!"

Perhaps because he was too agitated, the wound on the corner of his mouth hurt so much that he took a few deep breaths.

Zhang Cuiyun and the others did not know what had happened during the day. At that time, they were unconscious. Only Li Guihua and Qin Hongtao knew what had happened.

Li Guihua said in disbelief, "What? That b*tch sold our house to them? Why? Didn't she say that as long as we give her the house, she would give us the property rights to the orchard? How can she go back on her word?"

Stupid, stupid!

Qin Guobiao was so angry that his head was about to explode. At that time, Qin Xi had indeed promised him that, but the premise was that he didn't spread the news that she had killed people. However, it turned out that she didn't kill any of them.

Later on, when they woke up, Qin Guobiao no longer had against Qin Xi, so the house naturally became hers.

Now that he thought about it, Qin Guobiao knew what a stupid mistake he had made. What was even more hateful was that Qin Xi actually sold the house. Now that the people had come to take the house, what should they do?

"Grandpa, what should we do now?" Qin Feng was no longer as arrogant as before. Instead, he looked timid.

After being tortured by Qin Xi, his mind was filled with the scene of his hand being chopped off like a fish on the chopping board.

Qin Guobiao was filled with anger and had nowhere to vent it. He was on the verge of losing his temper. "What should we do? How do I know what we should do?"

Although he wanted to cut Qin Xi into pieces, the most important thing now was what to send the people outside away.

He regretted signing the contract. Even if Qin Xi gave him 3,000 yuan, it could not make up for the deep emptiness in his heart.

It was as if when this house was gone, his home would fall apart.

Seeing that the time was up and this family was still not coming out, Berserk sneered. "If you're not coming out, don't blame me for being rude."

As he spoke, he took a few steps back and kicked the iron door hard. With a bang, another part of the iron door caved in. Because the lock could not withstand the strong force, the door was pushed open.

Qin Gang was really scared out of his wits. He fell to the ground and looked at the burly man outside the door in fear.

“You, who are you? We’re not selling the house anymore...”