Chapter 291 Inexplicably Jealous

Mu Yali was about to say something when she was stopped by Mu Sheng's cold gaze. She pouted angrily and did not dare to make a sound.

Actually, she was not deliberately targeting anyone. She just felt that how could a girl who was younger than her have such high medical skills and even surpass Master Gao? She felt inexplicably uncomfortable and could not help but refute. She was very unwilling to admit it, but she did not know what to say.

She was famous for being a talented girl in the capital. How could she be inferior to a girl who was younger than her who was from a small place?

Therefore, before they met, she was already jealous of this young divine doctor.

After waiting outside the operating theater for more than an hour, the door finally opened and an expert walked out. The Mu family immediately surrounded him.

"Doctor, how's my father?" Mu Sheng asked anxiously.

The specialist took off the mask on his face and smiled humbly. "Mr. Mu, don't worry. Old Master Mu's surgery was very successful. The doctors are finishing up the surgery inside. I believe he'll be out soon. He just needs to rest for the rest of the day."

The Mu family heaved a sigh of relief and thanked him repeatedly. "Thank you, Doctor."

"This is what we should do. Besides, this is all thanks to the young divine doctor. We just did some auxiliary work," the expert said.

Mu Sheng was more and more interested in this mysterious young divine doctor. His eyes flickered as he said, "Then I really have to thank her. May I know her name and can I talk to her in private? I need her to give me a recovery plan for my father."

"The young divine doctor's name is Qin Xi. As for whether the young divine doctor can talk to you or not, that will depend on her. I'll help you ask later." The expert did not dare to promise too early. If Qin Xi did not want to talk to Mu Sheng, he would be put in an awkward spot.

Mu Sheng did not think much of it. After all, she was a divine doctor. It was normal for her to put on airs.

However, Mu Yali, who was beside him, was a little jealous. A trace of dissatisfaction flashed across her face, but she did not dare to say anything, afraid that Mu Sheng would ask her to leave.

When the expert returned to the operating theater and saw that Qin Xi was taking off her scrubs, he told her that Mu Sheng wanted to see her. "Young divine doctor, Mr. Mu is outside. Do you want to see him? He said that he wants to know something about Old Master Mu's future treatment."

Qin Xi shook her head decisively. She wasn't ready to return to the Mu family yet, so she naturally wouldn't meet the others.

At the thought of this, she put the scrubs back on. She said to the expert, "I won't be meeting him. Can you help me tell them what they need to pay attention to?"

The expert did not think too much about it and immediately nodded. "No problem!"

After that, Qin Xi joined the auxiliary nurses and followed them out. Outside the operating theater, she glanced at the Mu family members.

Because Mu Tianzheng had once told her every member of the Mu family in the family photo, she recognized all of them at a glance.

However, when she retracted her gaze, she met a pair of dark and sharp eyes that were filled with fatal temptation.

His eyes flickered with a hint of casualness and playfulness, and the corners of his mouth curled up slightly. He exuded a noble aura, giving people the feeling that he was difficult to get close to but wanted to.

This person was the second young master of the Mu family, Mo Di!

Chapter 292 Mu Di's Interest was aroused

Qin Xi only took a glance before retracting her gaze. Her gaze was very calm, as if the person in front of her was just a stranger.

In fact, for now, Mu Di was indeed a stranger.

Qin Xi did not stay in the sanatorium for long. However, before she left, Qi Xiong found her and gave her a phone number. "Miss Qin, Old Master asked me to pass this to you. He said that the people you want are already here. They're under your command."

After putting away the phone number, Qin Xi took out two pills with a smile and instructed, "Tell Old Master Mu later that if he can't get anything out of those people, he can feed them these pills."

Qi Xiong took the pill in confusion and asked hesitantly, "Miss Qin, this is..."

"It's called Truth Pill. It can make people speak the truth. However, this pill does have a time limit. It will lose its effect after five minutes."

"That magical?" Qi Xiong widened his eyes in shock.

Qin Xi smiled and said, "I'll come to visit Old Master Mu in two days. Please inform him."

Looking at Qin Xi's departing figure, Qi Xiong was extremely excited. He knew that with Qin Xi's ability, if she could return to the Mu family, the Mu family would change because of her. Even the status of the Mu family would change drastically.

Unfortunately, Qin Xi and Old Master Mu had their own plans. He was just a subordinate and was not qualified to be part of it.

He turned around and was about to return to the ward when he saw Mu Di standing behind him with his arms crossed and leaning against the wall. His eyes were curved as if he had seen through everything. He seemed to be joking, but he also seemed to be implying something. "Uncle Qi, I've never seen anyone who can make you treat them so respectfully. Uncle Qi, is that the young divine doctor you mentioned?"

Seeing that he was asking the obvious, Qi Xiong did not say anything else. He just nodded. "The young divine doctor is still young and doesn't want to be in the limelight. Besides, she has something to do, so she left first."

Mu Di looked in the direction Qin Xi left and said meaningfully, "Uncle Qi, don't you think this little divine doctor looks like someone I know?"

The reason why he said that was because he wanted to test Qi Xiong.

He had an inexplicable sense of closeness with Qin Xi, especially when they looked at each other just now. He seemed to have seen that pair of eyes somewhere before, but he couldn't remember where.

That was why he followed her out. However, Qin Xi was wearing a mask the entire time, so Mu Di did not really see her face.

Qi Xiong was very guarded against his second young master, who looked cynical but was actually very smart and meticulous. No matter how much Mu Di tried to probe, he only smiled and did not answer or dodge. He knew that the more he said, the more mistakes he would make, so he did not say anything. As for what Mu Di could guess, it was none of his business.

Of course, even if Mu Di could guess something, he wouldn't go around shouting. Qi Xiong knew that Mu Di was someone who wouldn't push his luck.

Mu Di looked at Qi Xiong deeply and felt bored. He shrugged and turned to leave.

Seeing him leave, Qi Xiong heaved a sigh of relief. As long as Mu Di did not ask further, he would pretend not to know!

Qin Xi did not know that Mu Di was already interested in her. Of course, even if she knew, she would not take it to heart.

At this moment, she could not wait to get into the car arranged by Wan Shiyue. When she arrived at the newly renovated clinic, she looked at the plaque above her head and was excited.

Chapter 293 Ji Ding Hall

Ji Ding Hall, which was the name Qin Xi gave to the clinic

Looking at the big and low-key door, Qin Xi was bouncing off the walls. She took out the key, opened the door, and walked in.

This was a two-story clinic with a clear layout. The left side was for treatment, the right side was for getting herbs, and there was a hidden compartment at the back to provide some privacy for patients with high status.

Just as Qin Xi was about to go upstairs to take a look, an old voice came from the door. "Is anyone there? Is there a doctor here?"

Because Qin Xi was standing at the corner of the stairs, the old man did not see her. Seeing that the clinic was empty, he shouted.

"Old man, are you here to see a doctor?" Qin Xi quickly went over and asked.

Seeing that Qin Xi was so young, the old man thought that she was an apprentice. He said with a worried expression, "Hey, little girl, where's the doctor here? I want the doctor to treat my wife. I wonder if he has time."

"Old man, I'm the doctor here. Although Ji Ding Hall hasn't opened yet, I happen to have time today. I'll go with you to see the patient! However, before we do that, are you not going to treat your illness? If this continues, something big will happen!"

Qin Xi could tell at a glance that the old man had serious rheumatoid arthritis. The joints in his limbs hurt, and when he walked, he would stumble now and then. If it rained or snowed, the illness could be excruciating.

"What? You're a doctor?"

The old man automatically ignored the second half of Qin Xi's sentence. He was only suspicious if Qin Xi was actually a doctor. Seeing that she was so young, he was immediately disappointed.

"Old man, do you not believe me because I'm young? It's fine. I have a medical license." As she spoke, Qin Xi took out an ID from her collar. On it was a photo of her and her Chinese medical license.

Qin Xi knew very well the importance of her medical license, so she brought it with her wherever she went. Therefore, when she took out her medical license, the old man was really shocked. However, he still had a lot of doubts about her medical skills.

Seeing his undisguised suspicion, Qin Xi was not angry. Instead, she helped him to the consultation table and sat opposite him. "Old man, I know you don't believe me. After all, I'm young. I can understand that. However, since I can get a medical license and open this clinic, it means that I really have medical skills. Besides, I know that you have serious rheumatoid arthritis, right?"

The old man widened his eyes and said in a weak voice, "You can tell that I have rheumatoid arthritis?"

Then, after thinking for a moment, he realized that 90% of the old people had rheumatoid arthritis. This did not seem to be surprising. He looked dispirited again. Thinking of his wife's illness, how could he waste time here? He quickly stood up and walked out with difficulty.

"Sigh, old man, I can tell you very responsibly that only I can cure your rheumatoid arthritis. If you don't believe me, there's nothing I can do."

Hearing her overconfident remark, the old man stopped in his tracks. He was conflicted and did not know if he should listen to the little girl or not.

However, in order to treat his wife's illness, all the savings in the family had been squandered. He could not afford to be hospitalized anymore. What should he do in the future?

Since the little girl was so sure that she could treat his rheumatoid arthritis, why not give it a try? There was no harm if she couldn't treat it, but what if she really could? Did that mean that she could also treat his wife's illness?

Chapter 294 Free

At the thought of this, the old man sat back down and looked at Qin Xi in disbelief. “Doctor, can you really treat it?”

Qin Xi took out the acupuncture bag and said with a smile, “You’ll know after a while. Extend your arm, please.”

Seeing how confident she was, the old man subconsciously reached out his arm. By the time he reacted, there were already silver needles on his elbow.

He widened his eyes in shock, not understanding how this little girl did it. He had just stretched out his arm and did not see her do anything. Why were there silver needles on his arm?

Before he could figure out what was going on, a warm current suddenly came from the joint of his arm. Moreover, the warm current flowed through his entire joint. The bone joints that used to feel cold actually started to heat up bit by bit. The old man was so shocked that he forgot to breathe. His voice trembled as he said, “This, this is unbelievable...”

Qin Xi smiled but did not say anything. Actually, she was even more shocked than the old man.

It was not that she was shocked by her speed, but she was shocked by her cultivation. Because she had eaten the Heavenly Fragrance Cardamom last night, she specially checked her cultivation in the morning. However, at that time, her cultivation did not change much. Now, she actually found something useful. As long as she circulated the True Qi in her body, her cultivation would soar like a rocket.

It had to be noted that the mystic medicine technique she cultivated circulated on its own and did not need her to cultivate it herself, so she would only circulate it when she used True Qi. If she cultivated it herself, she would definitely discover this secret. Han Shi must have discovered the secret too.

At the thought of this, she couldn’t wait to circulate the true Qi in her body. However, when she saw the old man staring at her, she thought better of it.

Qin Xi said with a smile, “Do you feel a warm current flowing slowly in your body and the coldness in your body gradually dissipating?”

The old man was so excited that he was incoherent. He nodded repeatedly. “Yes, yes, yes. This is the feeling. It’s warm and comfortable. It’s really magical. Doctor, can my rheumatoid arthritis really be cured?”

“You’ll know later.” Qin Xi did not give him an accurate answer.

Fifteen minutes later, the silver needles on the joints were removed. Qin Xi said calmly, “Old man, move your arm and feel it.”

Without needing Qin Xi to say anything, the old man had already started to move. He stretched a few times and felt no pain like being pricked by needles. He began to spin his arm a few times. Indeed, there was no pain at all. The old man was so excited that tears streamed down his face. “It doesn’t hurt anymore. I’m really cured. You’re really a divine doctor...”

Qin Xi smiled humbly and asked, “Since it doesn’t hurt anymore, I’ll continue to treat you!”

“Alright, alright...”

The old man wiped his tears and was as happy as a child.

He did not expect to stumble across a divine doctor. When he thought of the possibility of his wife recovering, he was suddenly wild with joy.

After another fifteen minutes, the old man could already walk on two legs. Although he couldn't run yet, he was close to it.

However, at the thought of the medical fees that would definitely be very high, all his excitement was instantly gone. He asked in embarrassment and nervousness, “Young, young divine doctor, how much... Do I have to pay you?”

Qin Xi could tell that the old man's family background was not good. She thought for a moment and said with a smile, “Old Man, my clinic is not open for business yet, so this one is free.”

Chapter 295 My Grandson Is Very Handsome

“For free?”

The old man perked up. He seemed to have thought of something and suddenly looked worried. “Young divine doctor, I know I shouldn't push my luck, but I have no choice. I want you to treat my wife. Can... Can you treat my wife for free too?”

He was so embarrassed that he did not know what to do. “My wife is very sick. I don't have much money left...”

“I know I'm asking too much, but I have no choice. Please help me...”

As the old man spoke, he was about to kneel down to Qin Xi when Qin Xi stopped him. “Old man, you don't have to do that. It doesn't matter if I treat one or two. Besides, I've already said that my clinic hasn't opened for business yet, so everything is free. If you trust me, I'll treat her.”

The old man was so touched that he did not know what to say. His lips were trembling, and his muddy eyes were filled with gratitude. He kept saying in his heart, “Young divine doctor is a good person. Bodhisattva will definitely bless her and make her happy for the rest of her life...”

Because the old man's house was a little far away, Qin Xi hailed a taxi. Ten minutes later, the two of them arrived at a very old city area. The condition here was obviously much worse than in the city center. The houses were closely next to each other, looking very oppressive.

“We're here. Young divine doctor, my house is a little messy. Don't mind it!”

Seeing that Qin Xi was fair and beautiful and had such good medical skills, the old man was worried that she would despise this place for being dirty, so he kept stealing glances at Qin Xi nervously.

However, seeing that Qin Xi did not look uncomfortable at all and was even very curious, he was more or less relieved.

Actually, what he did not know was that when Qin Xi saw this old city area, she started to have designs on this place. As for what was on her mind, only she knew.

When Old people and children basking in the sun on the street saw Qin Xi, they couldn't help but throw glances at her.

At this moment, an old man suddenly asked.

"Old Jin, where did you go? Also, you seem to be in a good mood today. What's so happy?"

"Hey, I noticed it too. Old Jin, are your legs... normal now?"

"That's right. Look at how agile he is. Old Jin, how did you do it?"

When the old people saw this, they came forward to ask questions, causing the old man to sweat profusely. He looked at Qin Xi helplessly.

The old man had his own concerns. It was not that he did not want to say it, but he wanted to ask Qin Xi first. If she did not mind, the old man had nothing to hide.

"Old Jin, I'm asking you a question. Why are you looking at that girl?"

"That's right. By the way, I haven't asked you who this young lady is. She looks like a flower, but she's a little too young. If she's a bit older, I'll probably introduce her to my grandson."

"Your grandson is not qualified, but my grandson is quite a good match for her!"

When an auntie saw Qin Xi, her eyes lit up and she went to Qin Xi's side.

"Young lady, whose family are you from? What's your relationship with Old Jin? Are you his relative?"

"Miss, are you married? If not, let me introduce you to someone. My grandson is very handsome and is a good match for you..."

"Go away, go away. Do you think we don't know what kind of person your grandson is? He has an ugly face and yet you still have the cheek to say that he's a good match. Don't lie through your teeth."

"That's right."

Chapter 296 Senior Customers

Qin Xi felt her head buzzing. Her mind was filled with questions. Who am I? Where am I? What am I doing?

Seeing her standing rooted to the ground with a dumbfounded expression, Old Jin was extremely anxious, afraid that these people would scare away the divine doctor.

"Stop asking. This is not my relative. This is a doctor. She's a doctor I hired to treat my wife..."

"Doctor?"

Everyone sized Qin Xi up in disbelief. No matter how they looked at her, she did not look like a doctor who saved the dying and helped the injured. Instead, she looked like a junior high school student from the school next door.

The auntie who wanted to matchmake Qin Xi said in disbelief, "That's impossible. How old is this girl? She looks like a junior high school student. How can she be a doctor? Old Jin, are you lying to us and want to introduce her to your son?"

"Old Jin, this is not right. We all know what kind of a person your son is."

"Alright, that's enough. Is Old Jin that kind of person? It's not like you don't know that Old Jin cut ties with his son a few years ago. All these years, he hasn't come back to visit his parents. Sigh, I think Old Jin is most likely telling the truth. Otherwise, he wouldn't have brought her home!"

"But is this young lady really a doctor? Could Old Jin have been fooled?"

Old Jin knew that these people were not bad people. It was just that they were too bored and had a big mouth. However, he was afraid that these people's words would offend the young divine doctor. If the young divine doctor did not treat his wife in a fit of anger, he would be sad.

Therefore, he shouted, "Don't talk nonsense. This is the divine doctor I invited. Didn't you just ask me how my arms and legs are healed? She did it. She only gave me a few acupuncture needles, and all my old illnesses are gone. She's a really capable divine doctor. I invited her here to treat my wife. If you make her angry, I won't let you off."

"What? She's really a doctor?"

After being shocked, everyone surrounded her again. This time, they asked Qin Xi to treat them.

"Doctor, I've had shoulder periarthritis for many years. Give me acupuncture too!"

"Me too. My legs the waist have been torturing me so much that I can't sleep every night. Young divine doctor, help me..."

"And my granddaughter-in-law. She wants to get pregnant, but she can't. Can you get my granddaughter-in-law pregnant?"

The corners of Qin Xi's mouth twitched. Get your granddaughter-in-law pregnant? Why did that sound so strange?

However, seeing that the situation was getting more and more out of hand, Qin Xi cleared her throat and said, "Everyone, listen to me. It's true that I'm a doctor, but I don't deserve the title of divine doctor. If you have any serious illnesses, go to Ji Ding Hall on XXX Street in three days. That's a clinic I run. If you really go, I'll give you a 50% discount."

"Really? That's great..."

While everyone was happy, they heard an anxious voice shout, "Old Jin, go back and take a look at your wife. She's dying..."

Hearing this, the old man's head buzzed and his vision darkened. His legs went weak and he almost fell. Fortunately, Qin Xi quickly helped him up. "Old man, don't waste time. Bring me there! Perhaps we can make it in time."

The old man instantly reacted and grabbed Qin Xi's arm excitedly. "Yes, yes, yes. Young divine doctor, save my wife!"

Chapter 297 Can You Treat Cancer Too?

Qin Xi couldn't care less about the old man. She shouted at the person who came over, "Bring me there quickly. I'm a doctor."

That person was so anxious that he ignored Qin Xi's age and led the way. As he ran, he shouted, "Quick, over there."

However, his words were stuck in his throat because Qin Xi ran faster than him. She even grabbed him as she ran. Just as she was about to run past Old Jin's family, the man pointed anxiously. "This is the one..."

As soon as he finished speaking, Qin Xi threw him to the side. The man lost his balance and almost fell. He looked at Qin Xi who rushed into the house like a whirlwind.

As soon as she entered the house, she smelled a strong smell of medicine and mildew. Perhaps due to poor air ventilation all year round, the walls were moldy from the humidity.

Qin Xi walked straight into the old woman's bedroom and saw that the old woman was panting heavily. Her sallow face was ashen, and the light in her eyes gradually dissipated. Qin Xi quickly took out silver needles. She used Qi to control the needles and injected them into the acupoints on the old woman's chest.

Because of Heavenly Fragrance Cardamom, the more she circulated the Mystic True Qi in her body, the higher her cultivation level became. However, Qin Xi was all occupied with trying to pull the old woman back from death.

After an unknown period of time, the old woman finally took her first breath. The paleness on her face gradually receded, and her breathing became smoother.

Hurried footsteps came from outside the door. Qin Xi did not turn around to look. Instead, she quickly drew a Soul Fixing Talisman in the air and placed it on the old woman. Just now, the old woman had already stepped into the gates of hell. Her soul was unstable, so the Soul Fixing Talisman could help her stabilize it.

When Old Jin and the others rushed in, the old woman's face was no longer as ugly as before. Her droopy eyes landed on Old Jin's face. She forced a smile and said in a weak voice, "Old Jin, I, I think I dreamed of you!"

Seeing that the old woman had woken up, Old Jin couldn't hold it in anymore. Tears streamed down his face. He grabbed the old woman's hand and cried, "Wife, don't leave me. If you leave me, how can I live..."

When had she ever seen her husband cry? The old woman's eyes were filled with tears as she said weakly, "You have to live well. You have to live well for me. Old Jin, living is a torture for me. I'll take my leave first and watch over you from the sky. You, you have to live well and happily."

"No, I can't live without you. Wife, don't go. I really can't live without you..."

The old man had already made up his mind that as long as his wife stopped breathing, he would commit suicide by drinking poison.

At this moment, Qin Xi said hesitantly, "Um... this granny is fine now. You don't have to die with her..."

Old Jin stopped crying and looked at Qin Xi with a stunned expression. Even the old woman's eyes were much wider as she looked at Qin Xi..

Qin Xi was embarrassed to be stared at. She rubbed her nose and said, "Just now, she had breathing difficulties, so I helped her breathe smoother, and now she's fine. However, she has stomach cancer that is more difficult to treat, but don't worry, I can treat it."

"Really? This is cancer. Can you treat cancer?"

Chapter 298 First Patient

"Yes!"

Qin Xi smiled faintly and said in an absolutely confident tone, "I've already given your wife acupuncture. You can ask her if it still hurts, and whether or not she is hungry."

As if to prove what Qin Xi said, the old woman's stomach instantly growled.

"Is, is this true?" The old man asked excitedly, still in disbelief.

Qin Xi nodded helplessly. "Of course."

The old woman moved her body and immediately said with a trembling voice, "Old Jin, I-I'm indeed a little hungry. Besides, it really doesn't hurt anymore. Just now, just now, I thought I was dead. I really couldn't breathe. However, when I saw you, I thought I was dreaming, so I forgot about the pain."

"What a miracle..."

"I didn't expect this young lady to really be a divine doctor."

"That's right, that's right. It's said that cancer is a terminal illness that can't be cured. I didn't expect the young divine doctor to say that it can be cured! If she isn't a divine doctor, then who is?"

"By the way, the young divine doctor just said that she opened a clinic. What street is it located on? And the name of the clinic..."

"Ji Ding Hall on XXX Street. She said that it will open in three days."

"Then let's go and support the young divine doctor in three days!"

"Alright, bring me along!"

"Let's go together!"

Then, the neighbors who were blocking the door began to discuss. However, their voices were not loud. After all, they were in someone else's house and there was a patient in the house. They had to consider the patient.

After knowing that she did not have to die, the old woman's eyes lit up. Everyone was afraid of death, and no one was willing to die. If not for the fact that they were plagued by illness, no one would want to leave the people closest to them.

She tried to sit up.

She felt a little dizzy when she sat up. However, this was normal. After all, she had not eaten anything recently. It was inevitable for her to be weak.

Old Jin quickly put a pillow behind her back. He asked excitedly, "What do you want to eat? I'll get it for you now."

The old woman did not speak. Instead, she looked at Qin Xi, as if asking, "Can I eat? Or what can I eat?"

Seeing her reaction, Old Jin remembered Qin Xi. He looked at her and asked, "Young divine doctor, can my wife eat now?"

Qin Xi nodded and instructed patiently, "She can eat some liquid food. It's best not to eat anything heavy or oily. Also, I'll prescribe you a set of medicine. After three days, come to the clinic to find me. At that time, I'll give her acupuncture. After three times, she will be all good."

As she spoke, she took out her notebook and wrote down a prescription. She tore it off and handed it to Old Jin. "Remember, come and find me after three days."

Old Jin carefully took the prescription and thanked her gratefully. "Thank you, young divine doctor. If not for you, we..."

Before he could finish, Qin Xi quickly interrupted him. "Go and get some food for your wife. You've already said your thanks. Besides, I'm a doctor. This is what I should do. You don't have to thank me."

"Then, then the money..." The old man looked at Qin Xi awkwardly.

Although Qin Xi had said that it would be free, he felt that it was impossible for it to be free.

Qin Xi pointed at the door with a smile and said, "Old man, I said it's free and I meant it. Besides, you helped me get so many customers. I can't thank you enough!"

Chapter 299 Kiss At Night

Breeze Villa.

The first thing Qin Xi did when she returned to the villa was to call Liu Dequan and ask him to come to Luoping City to help as soon as possible. After all, if she was alone in such a big clinic, she would be dog-tired.

Just as she was thinking about how to find an apprentice who knew a little about medicine, the sound of a car engine came from the door.

She raised her eyebrows and heard Dong Xiaoxuan say with a smile, "Boss is back. He's been coming back and forth these past two days. Lady Boss, you two are really close!"

Qin Xi's fair face suddenly turned red. When she thought of how Han Shi looked silly on the surface, but in fact, he was not only evil but also passionate on the inside, her face started to burn.

She felt so sweet inside that Han Shi did not mind driving so far away just to see her.

Qin Xi's current state was very similar to that of a little girl who had just started dating. She was shy and clumsy. Whenever Han Shi's name was mentioned, her face would subconsciously blush and her heart would race.

"Wifey, wifey, are you at home?"

As soon as Han Shi got out of the car, he started shouting into the villa. His voice was filled with excitement and surprise, as if he had won five million yuan.

In fact, he was even more excited than winning five million yuan.

"Wifey, Xi, I leveled up. Hahahaha, I leveled up..."

Qin Xi stopped in her tracks and the corners of her mouth twitched.

Han Shi quickly entered the villa and saw Qin Xi standing in the middle of the living room. He ignored the gazes of Blood Stealer and the others behind him and placed his hands under Qin Xi's armpits to raise her up. He spun around happily and hugged her again before lowering his head to kiss her.

Qin Xi widened her eyes. When she was lifted up, she was already in a daze. Before she could react, they were already kissing?

When Blood Stealer, who had followed in, saw this, he even covered his eyes. However, he opened his fingers and revealed his big and sneaky eyes. "Aiyaya, I didn't see anything. I didn't see anything! Continue, continue!"

Saber and Lone Wolf looked at each other and blushed. Although they had never personally experienced kissing, they had more or less seen it on television, but they had never seen it in reality. Now that their boss and lady boss were kissing in front of them, they felt embarrassed and flustered.

Of course, they still did not know what dog food was. If they knew, they would probably be stuffed.

Hearing Blood Stealer's shameless words, Han Shi ignored him. Just as he was about to continue, he was pushed away by Qin Xi.

With a red face, Qin Xi shouted angrily, "What are you doing? It's broad daylight. Aren't you ashamed?"

Han Shi raised his hand in surrender. "Xi, don't be angry. I'm just too happy. Don't worry, I won't kiss you during the day. I'll kiss you at night."

Chapter 300 Han Shi Asks for a Reward

Pfft ~

Qin Xi was angry and embarrassed. Looking at Han Shi's innocent and pitiful eyes, she couldn't bring herself to scold him.

“Wifey, don’t be angry. I’ll stop talking, okay? By the way, I want to tell you that I’ve leveled up. Look at me, I’m already at the late-stage of the golden class. I’ll be able to enter the mystic class soon.”

Qin Xi was stunned for a moment before looking at his cultivation level. Just as he said, he was already at the late-stage of the golden class. As long as there was an opportunity, he could successfully advance to the mystic class.

She cultivated different ancient martial arts from Han Shi,

She was from the mystic medicine lineage. Her mystic techniques and medical skills would improve together, so her cultivation was twice as good as that of an ordinary ancient martial artist.

Han Shi was different from Blood Stealer and the others. Han Shi had eaten a lot of pills created by Qin Xi and swallowed the soul of a king. Yesterday, he had also eaten Heavenly Fragrance Cardamom. His speed of advancement was as fast as lightning.

No wonder Han Shi was so excited.

“Stone, you’re really amazing. You actually advanced to a level that others can only advance to in ten or even twenty years in such a short period of time. That’s awesome!” Qin Xi praised with a smile, feeling a little proud. After all, Han Shi was her man.

After being praised, Han Shi did not feel embarrassed at all. Instead, he smiled and leaned over. “Xi, do you think I’ll be rewarded for working so hard?”

He said in a voice that only the two of them could hear, “It’s best if you can let me play with you longer... okay?”

At first, Qin Xi did not understand what was going on. She frowned and looked at him suspiciously. In the end, when she saw his eyes were shining with lust, she had an ominous feeling. It was as if she was naked in front of him. Not only did she feel uncomfortable, but she also recalled the man’s crazy look in the bathroom yesterday.

“Hey, Lady Boss, why is your face so red?”

Dong Xiaoxuan walked out of the kitchen. When she saw that Qin Xi’s face was even redder than the big peach on the plate in her hand, she subconsciously asked.

This time, Qin Xi was really too embarrassed to face anyone. She coughed awkwardly and said, “I, I’ll go upstairs to get changed. You guys chat first.”

With that, she rushed upstairs, looking like she was running away from something.

“Tsk, tsk, tsk. Lady Boss is actually shy. What a wonder!”

Bloodrinker opened his mouth and gave Han Shi a thumbs up. He said in admiration, “Boss, you’re the best. Only in front of you will Lady Boss act like a normal woman. In front of us, when she smiles, I get goosebumps all over my body.”

Han Shi glared at him. “You’re talking bad about my wife in front of me. Blood Stealer, do you want to be taught a lesson?”

Blood Stealer raised his eyebrows and grinned. " I'm not afraid of you. Although your cultivation is stronger than mine, you don't have as much experience as me. Hehe!"

He said this because he was very confident. It was not that he looked down on Han Shi, but he knew Han Shi's past and knew that he did not know any combat techniques.

However, what Blood Stealer did not know was that Han Shi was no longer the fool who knew nothing. He had a 'teacher'!
