Chapter 301 Hubby, You're the Best!

Hence, when Qin Xi came down again, Han Shi had already knocked Blood Stealer down a few times!

Blood Stealer went from disbelief to despair. He was a little dazed and indignant, but he was more puzzled and muttered, "This is impossible. This shouldn't be the case!"

When they sparred with each other, Han Shi suppressed his cultivation to the same level as him and had no intention of taking advantage of him.

At first, he thought that Han Shi was being arrogant and was obviously asking for trouble. Unexpectedly, he underestimated his enemy. Han Shi was clearly pretending to be weak. His every move was lethal.

The reason why Blood Stealer was confident in himself was because he had been through so many years of fighting and lived constantly in danger.

As for Han Shi?

Putting aside the fact that he was a fool in the past, he had only cultivated for two months. How could he compare to him?

Blood Stealer was even sure that even if Han Shi used ancient martial arts, he might not be his match.

That was why he underestimated his opponent. However, he did not expect Han Shi, who looked like a fool, to be so ruthless. The places where he was hit just now hurt so much that he gasped. He felt like his bones were about to fall apart. This was also the reason why he gritted his teeth and endured it. Otherwise, not only would he lose the competition, but he would also lose his dignity.

However, he was also very glad that Han Shi was not an enemy. Otherwise, it would be very troublesome to deal with him.

Even Saber and Lone Wolf did not expect Han Shi to suddenly turn into a completely different person from the Han Shi who was needy and foolish in front of Qin Xi. Moreover, his every move was very strange. They did not know what cultivation technique it was, but they could not find any flaws.

Saber and Lone Wolf also wanted to spar with him, but at this moment, Qin Xi came down.

She raised her eyebrows and looked at Blood Stealer sympathetically. "Why are you sparing with him for no reason? If it's a real fight, even I might not be his match, let alone you."

Seeing that Blood Stealer and the other two were quite confused, her expression became serious.

She said, "I know that you've traveled extensively and have a lot of combat experience, but I can tell you that no matter how much combat experience you have, you're still a rookie in the face of experts. Besides, you underestimate your enemy from the beginning. If Stone was the enemy, do you think he would still give you a chance to live?"

"Didn't anyone tell you that no matter when, where, and who you meet, you can't let down your guard even when facing children? Unless you're so powerful that no one can hurt you, once you encounter a real enemy, you won't even know how you died. How stupid would that be?"

Blood Stealer's face turned red. Although he was still a little indignant, it was not because he was unwilling to admit defeat, but because he was being too cocky.

"Lady Boss, did you teach Boss these moves?" Saber asked.

In his opinion, Qin Xi was an unfathomable person. Not to mention her superb medical skills, just her mystic ability to draw talismans through the air was enough to make people fear her.

That was why he asked.

Qin Xi shook her head lightly. "Stone has a teacher, but not me."

The three of them were stunned and asked in unison, "Who is it?"

Qin Xi smiled mysteriously. "This person is a 'hidden expert'. It's normal for you not to know him, but he knows you!"

Han Shi walked to Qin Xi's side and wrapped his arm around her waist. He looked at her and asked for praise, "Wifey, was I good just now? Do you have anything to say?"

"Hubby, you're the best!"

Chapter 302 The Familiar Brother Dali

In the evening, after dinner, Qin Xi and Han Shi drove to a five-star hotel called Rising Sun.

When she came out of the sanatorium during the day, Qi Xiong gave her a note with the address and phone number. She did not choose to call. Instead, she went straight to the hotel with Han Shi.

The two of them were not bored. They chatted about the recent development of the village. The greenhouse had been built, and all the tea trees had been changed to the expensive varieties.

Just as Han Shi was chatting enthusiastically, he saw two people walking over from the entrance of the hotel, a young man and a young woman.

Coincidentally, Qin Xi and Han Shi both knew this woman. She was Xue Ya, the woman who used to be Sun Song's secretary in Qinglin Town.

"Brother Dali, congratulations. I didn't expect you to be promoted again in just two years." Xue Ya pouted and shook the man's arm coquettishly. She said, "Brother Dali, you've already become a leader. You have to buy me a branded bag. Otherwise, I'll punish you later!"

She gave him an indescribable wink, as if to say, "You know what I mean!"

The man seemed to enjoy Xue Ya's coquettishness. He tightened his grip on her slender waist and smiled evilly. "You little slut, you're already seducing me before we even get the room. It's just a bag. My little darling can have anything she wants, as long as you serve me well... Huh?"

"That's easy. I still have many tricks up my sleeve. Later, I'll make you wild with pleasure..."

"Tsk, ts, ts. Then I'll wait and see."

The two of them spoke very softly and shamelessly. The woman's eyes were filled with seduction and ambiguity, while the man's eyes were filled with eagerness and desire.

Initially, Qin Xi was not supposed to hear so much, but her ears were sharp, especially when Xue Ya called the man 'Brother Dali'. She turned around and saw Xue Ya and an ordinary-looking man in his thirties who looked short and fat.

Uh... was this the legendary Brother Dali? Qin Xi really wondered how Xue Ya managed to not puke while sleeping with him.

However, sometimes, if you didn't cause trouble, trouble would find you on its own.

From the corner of her eyes, Xue Ya accidentally saw Qin Xi. She immediately blurted out, "Why are you here?"

Her voice was sharp and ear-piercing, and her tone was filled with disgust and hatred.

No one knew how much Xue Ya hated Qin Xi. It was to the degree beyond description.

In the beginning, it was Qin Xi who helped her get the files back from the thief. However, later on, Qin Xi became a millionaire for no reason. Xue Ya felt inexplicably indignant and wanted to use her power to steal Qin Xi's money.

Chapter 303 Two Different Human Species

However, Qin Xi set her up, causing Sun Song to fire her.

Because of this, her father refused to take her home and threatened to cut ties with her.

She was an illegitimate daughter, and her father's current wife was not an easy person to deal with. If she wanted to enter the Xue family, she would have to face a lot of obstacles. After being set up by Qin Xi, it was impossible for her to return to the Xue family again.

Therefore, she hated Qin Xi for refusing to fork out the money back then. She hated Qin Xi for making Sun Song fire her. She hated Qin Xi even more for living a better life than her.

People were like this. When they made a mistake, they would never find fault with themselves. Instead, they would pin the blame on others.

"Ya, who is this?"

Seeing Qin Xi's flawless face, Lu Dali's eyes lit up. He straightened his back and asked in a friendly tone.

Xue Ya didn't notice the change in Lu Dali tone, but Han Shi did. Lu Dali stared at his wife without blinking, and the anger in his heart soared. He stood up and said coldly, "Move your dirty eyes away from my wife."

Han Shi was very tall. During this period of time, he had been eating well, sleeping well, and cultivating. His height kept increasing. He was already 187 centimeters tall, but now, like Blood Stealer and the others, he actually reached 190 centimeters.

Therefore, standing in front of Lu Dali, they were like a father and son.

“My friend, you have to watch your words. I saw that my girlfriend knows her, so I went forward to greet her politely. You don’t have to be so nervous, right?”

Seeing Han Shi’s handsome face and tall figure, Xue Ya was so jealous that she almost went crazy.

Fortunately, Han Shi was a poor and powerless fool. Otherwise, she really had the urge to kill Qin Xi. Han Shi to Lu Dali were simply like two different human species.

However, as long as it was about Qin Xi, she would be extremely hostile, so she jumped out and cursed without hesitation.

“You stupid fool, who do you think you are? How dare you talk to my Brother Dali like that? Do you know who my Brother Dali is? Don’t blame me for not reminding you. My Brother Dali is someone you can’t afford to offend.”

Not only did Xue Ya praise Lu Dali, but she also wanted to teach Qin Xi a lesson and let her know how easy it was for the people in the city to deal with her. It was as easy as crushing an ant.

Han Shi was actually already used to being called a fool and was not too affected by it. However, Qin Xi was different. As long as someone insulted Han Shi for being a fool, she would be furious.

“Say that again!”

Qin Xi walked out from behind Han Shi. Her eyes were cold and emotionless, like a sharp sword stabbing into Xue Ya’s heart.

Chapter 304 Bite Anyone She Sees

Anyone would be in a bad mood after being harassed for no reason. Qin Xi thought that after teaching Xue Ya a lesson last time, she would stop causing trouble, but apparently, she hadn’t learned her lesson yet.

Since she wanted to be slapped in the face that badly, how could Qin Xi not satisfy her?

Although Xue Ya was a little afraid of Qin Xi and Han Shi, when she thought of Lu Dali beside her, her confidence was boosted.

She raised her head and said sarcastically, “Am I wrong? Isn’t your husband a fool? And you, why did a village girl come to the hotel?”

Suddenly, she seemed to have thought of a possibility. She smiled maliciously and shouted loudly, “Oh ~ I understand now. You must be broken again. Everyone, come and take a look. This woman is a shameless vixen. She was born in the countryside and married a fool. Because her family is poor, she came to Luoping City to find a rich man. Last time, she earned a million yuan after staying in Luoping for three days. I really want to know what kind of job is so profitable. Do you want to know?"

Her voice was very loud, and the hotel lobby was very empty, so her shout echoed.

Although the hotel staff hated noisy people, when they heard that Qin Xi had earned a million yuan in three days, they were all interested and gathered around.

When Han Shi heard Xue Ya insult his woman, his eyes narrowed and he raised his leg to kick her.

Xue Ya screamed and was sent flying a few meters away.

Her face instantly turned as pale as paper, and a trace of blood seeped out of the corner of her mouth. It was so painful that her face twisted and she covered her chest in cold sweat.

No one expected a man like Han Shi to attack a woman. Moreover, from the looks of it, he was going to kill her. They looked at Han Shi with fear and mockery.

Any man who used violence on a woman was not a good person. Although Han Shi was handsome, his actions and ruthlessness still displeased everyone.

Of course, although they were displeased, no one dared to go forward to argue. After all, what Han Shi had shown was too frightening. If they went up and were beaten up, it would be too embarrassing.

"You... How dare you hit someone? Security guards, where are the security guards? Arrest this person!"

Lu Dali's heart skipped a beat. He was afraid that he would be the next person to be kicked away. He retreated and shouted at the security guard standing at the door.

He looked like a coward!

The security guards naturally saw the situation and immediately surrounded Han Shi. They took out their batons and looked at Han Shi warily.

"Are you going out on your own, or should we get you out and send you to the police station?"

"Why are you wasting your breath on him? Catch him. He needs to be punished for hitting my woman."

How could Lu Dali let it go? He pointed at Han Shi with hatred in his eyes.

Han Shi sneered. "Your woman? I think she's just a dog. A rabid dog that bites whoever it sees!"

"Catch him and send him to the police."

Lu Dali did not care what he said. Seeing that the security guards were hesitating, he immediately revealed his identity.

"I'm Lu Dali from the Land Bureau, the new director. If you don't listen to me today, I'll get your leader to fire you."

He just wanted to catch Han Shi and find some connections to make him suffer in the police station.

Of course, this was not his ultimate goal. The reason why he dealt with Han Shi like this was because he wanted Qin Xi to come and beg him. At that time, no matter what conditions he offered, he believed that in order to save Han Shi, she would definitely make some sacrifices.

Chapter 305 Amputation

Lu Dali looked at Qin Xi with undisguised lust, as if Qin Xi was his.

The revelation of his identity seemed to have worked. At the very least, the security guards who were hesitating approached Han Shi step by step.

“What happened here?”

A dignified voice came from behind the crowd. Everyone subconsciously turned around and saw an old man in a wheelchair surrounded by people. The person who spoke just now was the middle-aged man pushing the old man.

Someone in the crowd gasped and exclaimed softly.

“Isn’t he Old Master Qi, the richest man in Luoping? And that the person pushing the wheelchair, Qi Mingting, the chairman of the Qi Corporation and the current head of the Qi family.”

“He’s Old Master Qi? I heard that Old Master Qi built his business from scratch. In just a few decades, he rose to the top of the rich list and became a business giant in Zhejiang Province.”

“That’s right. However, two years ago, Old Master Qi was harmed and paralyzed. He basically doesn’t show up anymore. Why is he here today?”

“I heard that Master Gao from the Capital Medical Association is here in Luoping. Could it be that Old Master Qi is here for Master Gao?”

“I think so. Old Master Qi has been seeking treatment for so many years, but he hasn’t been able to find someone who can treat him. I think if Master Gao helps, nothing will go wrong.”

Qi Mingting’s gaze swept across the security guards with batons in their hands before landing on Lu Dali and Han Shi. His eyes were cold. “What happened here?”

“Hello, Old Master Qi and President Qi. I’m Lu Dali from the Land Bureau.” Lu Dali quickly took out a business card from his pocket and handed it to Qi Mingting.

Qi Mingting did not take Lu Dali’s business card. Instead, he waited for Lu Dali to explain.

Lu Dali retracted his hand awkwardly and straightened his back. His expression returned to normal as he pointed at Han Shi and criticized, “It’s like this, President Qi. This is a very rude guy. Not only did he hit my girlfriend, but he also spoke ill of me and threatened me. That’s why I asked the hotel security guards to catch him and send him to the police station.”

Qi Mingting looked at Han Shi and asked, “What do you have to say?”

Qi Mingting frowned. He originally thought that Han Shi was wronged. Now that Han Shi had admitted it, he had nothing to say.

“Don’t you know that you are not allowed to hit people here?”

Lu Dali was about to say something when he saw the lobby manager running over with a solemn expression.

Just now, he was receiving an honored guest from the capital upstairs. Over the past few days, the hotel had been extremely busy. Many big shots were staying here. The managers were all afraid that they would offend them.

Therefore, for the past two days, the hotel had been very careful and strict with the employees. No one wanted to make a mistake at this juncture.

However, what he was afraid of came true. When he heard that someone was causing trouble downstairs, his heart skipped a beat. He wished he could jump straight down to the lobby..

“Forget it, deal with it yourselves!”

With that, Qi Mingting was about to push Old Master Qi away.

At this moment, a lazy voice sounded. “This old man’s spondylitis has already worsened to the extent of neuropathy. Now, it has triggered complications. It’s basically impossible to treat him. If he’s not careful, he will be paralyzed for the rest of his life. Of course, even if it’s treated, he will still be disabled for the rest of his life. If necessary, his legs will have to be amputated!”

Chapter 306 Reason

As soon as she said that, everyone looked in the direction of the voice, which was Qin Xi.

Qi Mingting was also shocked, but he was more vigilant and guarded. He looked at Qin Xi sharply and asked coldly, “Who are you? How do you know about my father’s illness?”

Old Master Qi was the spiritual pillar and leader of the Qi family. His accident had dealt a heavy blow to the Qi family. Although the Qi family had nothing to fear in Luoping City, if Old Master Qi really died, it would be bad news for the Qi family.

Therefore, Old Master Qi’s illness had been well-hidden. Although the upper-class circle knew that Old Master Qi was harmed, they didn’t know his exact condition.

However, today, this secret was brought out in the open by a little girl. If word leaked out and reached their competitors, the Qi family, this huge pie, would most likely be divided up.

What was this little girl up to? Or was she just a tool used by someone behind the scene?

For a moment, Qi Mingting thought about a lot of things. The way he looked at Qin Xi became colder and colder, and there was even a faint killing intent.

Others could not sense the killing intent on his body, but Qin Xi and Han Shi were both cultivators and were very sensitive to the surrounding aura. They naturally felt the faint killing intent on Qi Mingting.

A strange look flashed across Han Shi's eyes, and the aura around him changed.

Qin Xi smiled faintly and tugged at Han Shi's hand. The latter understood and retracted his aura. She walked forward to look at Qi Mingting and introduced herself politely. "Mr. Qi, don't be nervous. My name is Qin Xi. I'm a Chinese doctor. This is my medical license."

However, when Qi Mingting saw Qin Xi's medical license, he was still on guard. In his opinion, it didn't matter if she had a license or not. It was normal to get a fake or spend money to buy one these days.

Qin Xi did not care about his attitude. Instead, she went straight to the point. "I can treat Old Master Qi's illness. If nothing works out at the end of the day, feel free to come and find me. The address is XXX Road Ji Ding Hall. Perhaps I can help."

Of course, Qi Mingting did not believe what a little girl said. He just looked at her in silence, his eyes dark.

Qin Xi knew that her words were not credible. Even if she said it, people would most likely misunderstand her for being arrogant. Therefore, after saying that, she went to the front desk with Han Shi to ask for the room number and left.

"Sir..."

The assistant wanted to say something, but Qi Mingting waved his hand and interrupted, "Let's go. Don't waste time. Master Gao won't wait for us."

On the other side.

The two of them got into the elevator. Han Shi held Qin Xi's hand and said with a smile, "Let me guess why you want to treat Old Master Qi."

He pretended to think for a moment and said, "There are three reasons. Firstly, your clinic is about to open for business. You want to increase its popularity and make Ji Ding Hall famous throughout Luoping City, and the richest man in Luoping is the best candidate. Secondly, as you said, you want to build connections to pave the way for the future. After all, having one more friend means having more helpers. Thirdly..."

Han Shi smiled wickedly and whispered into Qin Xi's ear, "The Qi family is a big pie. It doesn't make sense not to take a piece of it! Wifey, how is it? Am I right?"

Qin Xi glared at him. "You're right. Unfortunately, there's no prize! However, you're wrong about one thing. If the Qi family goes to the clinic for a consultation, with the fixed price, we won't be able to take too much of the pie."

Chapter 307 Disdain

Han Shi said with a cheeky smile, "That's not necessarily true. Old Master Qi has offended his enemy. Treating him will put us at risk, so we naturally have to charge him some additional fee. Of course, if the Qi family is good and worth befriending, we don't have to charge this fee. We can use this opportunity to befriend them. Don't you think so, Xi?"

With a ding, the elevator opened and the two of them walked out.

At this moment, Qin Xi suddenly sneered and said meaningfully, "Do you think they're clean to be able to become the richest people in Luoping in just a few decades?"

At this moment, the two of them came to the room number provided by Qi Xiong and rang the doorbell.

The person who opened the door was a young and handsome man. There was a hint of arrogance in his eyes and the corners of his mouth curled up slightly. He looked like a hooligan.

"Who are you looking for?"

His eyebrows were raised high, and his tone was supercilious.

"You're Fu Yu."

In the information provided by Qi Xiong, it was said that these guys were wild and difficult to tame, Qin Xi specially noted down their information and recognized him as Fu Yu at a glance.

Fu Yu narrowed his eyes and sized Qin Xi up. His eyes were filled with disdain and his tone was frivolous. "Are you the new instructor Old Master Mu found for us? Young girl, are you even an adult?"

As he said 'adult', he looked at Qin Xi's chest and smiled maliciously. "Are you sure you're here to be an instructor and not to serve us?"

In the room, the few people who were playing poker heard Fu Yu teasing someone. However, knowing what kind of a person Fu Yu was, they only laughed and did not think too much about it.

In the end, a figure flew in, accompanied by screams of pain. When they looked at Fu Yu again, he was already lying on the ground in a sorry state. His expression was filled with pain, and blood was flowing out of the corner of his mouth. He struggled to get up a few times, but he could not even move. It could be seen how heavy the kick was.

"Who is it?" With a shout, everyone threw away the poker cards and looked at the door warily. Their expressions were solemn, and the atmosphere was filled with killing intent.

Qin Xi and Han Shi walked in unhurriedly and glanced at everyone present. They sat on the guest sofa on the other side and waved their hands with a smile. "Everyone, don't be nervous. We don't come with any ill intentions. Take a seat!"

"I think you should have guessed who I am. Then let's not waste time. To be precise, I'm very dissatisfied with your ability, especially this person."

She crossed her legs and looked lazy. Her gaze landed on Fu Yu, who was helped up by someone. She shook her head and said disdainfully, "You're too useless!"

Qin Xi's words made the hot-blooded youths of the security team feel humiliated. They all glared at her.

The young man in the lead was the captain of the team, Zhou Lei.

He was handsome and his expression was cold as he retorted, "You're the instructor Elder Mu hired? A woman? What are you going to teach us? Show us how to cry?"

His words were filled with disdain and mockery for women.

It was not that they looked down on women, but they were provoked by Qin Xi's words and simply wanted to embarrass her.

Chapter 308 Disappointment

For them, who had won the all-round martial arts championship in the past, being despised by a woman was undoubtedly a great humiliation. Not to mention, Elder Mu actually asked a woman to be their instructor. This made them feel even more indignant and aggrieved.

Therefore, they naturally wouldn't treat Qin Xi with friendliness. When the people in the room heard their captain's words, they all gloated. Some of them even laughed out loud.

"Hahaha, Captain, perhaps after 'Instructor' teaches us how to cry, the enemy will show mercy to us!"

"Huh ~ If that's the case, I might as well die! It's too disgusting!"

"What else can we do? We can't possibly wear a flowery dress, put on red lips, and high heels to become undercover agents!"

"Hahahaha ~"

"Is it funny?"

While everyone was making fun of her, Qin Xi calmly interrupted them. Not only was she not angry, but she also looked at them with a smile. "Do you think you're very capable?"

Zhou Lei shrugged. "At least better than you."

His expression suddenly became solemn. He stared at Qin Xi and warned sternly, "I don't know how you tricked Elder Mu into becoming our instructor. I just want to tell you that this is a battlefield, a battlefield for men. It's not a place for you to do whatever you want."

"Now, you have two choices. Either go back and nurse your child like a woman should, or compete with us to see if you are up to take the job or not. However, if you lose, don't cry and say that we bullied you. Heh, do you dare to compete with us?"

Qin Xi waved her index finger gently, her eyes filled with disdain and mockery. "You're not qualified to compete with me!"

Zhou Lei was furious at being provoked. He clenched his fists and wanted to rush over and teach Qin Xi a lesson.

The corners of Qin Xi's mouth curled up slightly as she raised her eyebrows at him. "Why? Are you still not convinced?"

A young man in the team pointed at Qin Xi and said angrily, "Woman, don't be so cocky. If not for the fact that we don't hit women, our captain would have beaten you up long ago."

"That's right. If Elder Mu hadn't asked us to come, do you think we, the elite security guards, would have anything to do with a woman like you?"

"Alright, stop talking. If she goes back and complains to Elder Mu that we bullied her, won't we be punished?"

"Sigh, this is the bad thing about women. Not only do they like to hold grudges, but they're also petty. If they go back and make things difficult for us, we might be kicked out of the team."

"To be honest, you really disappoint me. I originally thought that the people around a legendary figure like Old Master Mu were a group of brave warriors. However, it turns out that other than being arrogant, you're absolutely useless. It seems that I had too high hopes for you or that Old Master Mu is too muddle headed to trust you. Actually, you're really not worthy."

Zhou Lei did not stop his team from mocking Qin Xi. He wanted them to express their discontent.

He did not expect Qin Xi to say such a thing. He frowned and felt very uncomfortable, especially when Qin Xi said that Old Master Mu was too muddle headed to trust them. His heart felt heavy, and he subconsciously clenched his fists tightly.

Chapter 309 Transfer

"Old Master Mu said that you're wild and difficult to discipline, but you're all talents. He asked me to take care of you."

Qin Xi looked at them with a faint smile.

"I want to ask you, what right do you have to be arrogant in front of a woman? Are these words supposed to come out of a member of the security team? If I were someone you can't afford to offend, do you know the consequences of your words and actions today?"

"As members of the security team, your mission is not to show off, exaggerate, or overestimate yourself. You don't even have the most basic work ethics. What right do you have to call yourselves elites?"

"Members of the security team should serve the people and obey the order. As for you... you will only tarnish Old Master Mu's reputation."

"You can challenge me if you want. However, before that, I'm your instructor. Regardless of whether I am capable or not, shouldn't you be obeying orders and respecting your superior? But what did you do? You mocked me openly, provoked me, and threatened me. To be honest, I feel that it's a waste of time to teach you."

Hearing Qin Xi's reprimand, Zhou Lei and the others trembled and immediately blushed. Yes, they were indignant and aggrieved, but they forgot the undeniable fact that Qin Xi was the instructor.

They lowered their heads. The humiliation and anger they felt just now gradually disappeared, replaced by deep shame and self-blame.

Zhou Lei took a deep breath and said apologetically, "Instructor, we were wrong. We brought disgrace to Elder Mu. Please forgive us!"

Clearly, the reason why he said this was not because he was sincerely convinced of Qin Xi's ability, but because he really did not want to embarrass Mu Tianzheng and the security team.

Qin Xi could tell that they weren't convinced. She did not mind, but she had an idea that was outside the plan.

Han Shi did not speak the entire time, but he looked at Zhou Lei and the others with pity and mockery. These fools actually refused an ancient martial artist like Qin Xi in order to protect their ridiculous pride. If they knew who Qin Xi was, they would probably regret it.

"I can tell that you're not convinced by me, but it doesn't matter. You're indeed not qualified to follow me." Qin Xi mocked bluntly, "So, I'll transfer you to the other male instructors. When you defeat them, come back and find me!"

Qin Xi deliberately emphasized on the word 'male instructor', as if she was deliberately mocking them.

Zhou Lei and the others were even more furious at being kicked around like a ball. Not to mention their positions, they were all children of high-ranking officials and wealthy families. They were all proud and arrogant people. This was the first time they were openly despised.

However, they couldn't say anything. After all, they were the ones who said that they didn't want a female instructor. Now that their wish had been fulfilled, if they continued to be picky, even they would feel ashamed.

"Looks like you have no objections. Alright, pack your things and follow him!"

Qin Xi said, "A beautiful place!"

Chapter 310 Spar

Therefore, when Han Shi brought them back to Shangwan Village to see Wang Zhiqiang and Berserk, Zhou Lei and the others were immediately dumbfounded.

They had no clue how this place in the middle of nowhere would have a bunch of ferocious people.

This time, the tables had turned around. It was Wang Zhiqiang and Berserk's turn to despise Zhou Lei and the others.

Berserk asked bluntly, "Boss, these boys look weak. Are you sure they're really elites? You must be fooling us!"

Han Shi held back his laughter and nodded seriously. "They are indeed the elites among the elites. You can spar with them to see for yourself."

"Uh... Really? If we break their legs or arms, they won't blackmail us, right?" Berserk frowned and sized up Zhou Lei and the others.

When Zhou Lei and the others were scanned by his gaze, their bodies tensed up and their hearts raced. They were all people who had been to the battlefield and could naturally sense the bloodthirsty and dangerous aura emanating from Berserk. This made them uneasy, but at the same time, their fighting spirit was also aroused.

"Oh, look at how eager you are to fight me. It's fine. Let me know what you are made up of."

During this period of time, Wang Zhiqiang and the others had been cultivating internal force, which was also an internal cultivation technique. Usually, the few of them would spar. Because they knew each other too well, they were always on par with each other. They did not know if they had improved or not. After all, they were together every day. If they improved, they would improve together.

Therefore, the arrival of Zhou Lei and the others today was a good opportunity for them to test their current strength.

Zhou Lei and the others had been suppressing their anger. Berserk's words angered them even more. If looks could kill, Berserk and Wang Zhiqiang would probably be cut into pieces.

Although they knew that these two people were not to be trifled with, they still bit the bullet and accepted the challenge. Zhou Lei snorted. "Don't just trash talk. Let's see who's stronger!"

As he spoke, Zhou Lei took a step forward and stared at Wang Zhiqiang. "Do you dare to fight me?"

Berserk was stunned for a moment. He looked at Zhou Lei, who was not afraid of death, with sympathy. He opened his mouth and teased, "Kid, no matter what, I admire your courage to challenge our captain. However, our captain won't accept your challenge easily. For your own good, fight me!"

Zhou Lei ignored Berserk and continued to stare at Wang Zhiqiang. He pursed his lips and said firmly, "I want to fight you!"

Of course, he knew that Wang Zhiqiang's aura was stronger than Berserk's, but he was the captain. He could tell that Wang Zhiqiang was also the captain, so he naturally wanted to find an equal opponent. If he chose Berserk, not to mention his teammates, even he would look down on himself.

Berserk shrugged and took a step back without saying a word. He just watched Zhou Lei court death quietly.

The teammates behind Zhou Lei began to cheer. In their hearts, Zhou Lei's strength was unquestionable. Although Wang Zhiqiang looked very strong, they were more confident in Zhou Lei.

Wang Zhiqiang had nothing to say. He nodded and said in a hoarse voice, "Sure."

The two of them stood in the middle of the circle and their aura instantly spread out. Fu Yu and the others held their breaths and stared at the two of them nervously, cheering for Zhou Lei in their hearts.

At this moment, Zhou Lei roared and charged at Wang Zhiqiang like an arrow. He kicked his legs and jumped high, punching out with a powerful punch.
