

Mysterious 381

Chapter 381 Challenge the Famous Doctor

At nine in the morning, famous doctors from Zhejiang Province arrived one after another. There were a total of seven famous doctors on stage, two of whom were from the Zhejiang Provincial Medical Association.

Seeing that the audience was almost full, the famous doctors began to make long and dull speeches.

Qin Xi listened the entire time and was more and more disappointed. Although she had long expected this outcome, she still felt very upset.

She shook her head and said in a low voice, looking somewhat dejected, "Gao Huiren, let's go. There's no need to stay for this medical exchange."

Gao Huiren also felt that it was boring and immediately agreed. Just as the two of them stood up and were about to leave, the person on the stage suddenly stopped them.

"Excuse me, it's time for the speech. Please keep quiet and don't make a noise. Thank you for your cooperation." What the person meant was that they should quickly sit back down.

Everyone subconsciously turned around to look at Qin Xi and Gao Huiren and frowned in displeasure.

Qin Xi did not care if they were happy or not. In any case, she was in a bad mood and could not force herself to sit down and listen to their pretentious speeches. She was already furious. She turned around and looked at the person on the stage.

Those who were scanned by her subconsciously felt an indescribable pressure. Qin Xi raised her chin and asked firmly, "You said that you're all famous doctors in Zhejiang Province and are all specialists in your own line of work. Then let me ask you, do you have the ability to complete a surgery without any surgical tools?"

Everyone was in an uproar!

"Isn't this nonsense? How can anyone perform surgery without any tools? Is she here to cause trouble?"

"I think so. Otherwise, why did she deliberately make noises?"

"I think she's crazy about becoming famous. She even dares to question the experts."

Qin Xi did not care about their sarcastic remarks. Instead, she looked at the so-called experts on the stage and said, "Then let me ask you again. Can you accurately determine what illness the patient has without the help of any medical equipment?"

"Miss, we're Western medicine doctors. What you're saying is clearly infeasible." A man in his forties was wearing a white coat and looked gentle.

He did not answer directly, but his tone was filled with disdain.

Qin Xi laughed instead of getting angry. "Let's be honest. How many of you really know what you just said? Also, did you write that yourself? Aren't you ashamed of yourself for using other people's work?"

“If this is what medical exchange is about, I might as well stay at home and read it online. Those who don’t know might think that you were sharing your original work that you’ve put in enormous effort to study and research.”

Everyone was rendered speechless. Indeed, although it was called a medical exchange, it was mainly just the so-called famous doctor reading an essay that even they could not understand. The rest of the people didn’t even get to ask a question.

On second thought, the audience felt what Qin Xi said made sense.

“Miss, let me ask you a question. Do you know anything about medicine? Can you tell the anatomy of the human body?”

It was still that gentle-looking middle-aged man in his forties who spoke. His name was He Xu, the deputy director of the People’s Hospital. He was respected and well-educated and could be considered an important figure in the medical world.

Qin Xi crossed her arms and looked at him with confidence.

“I do. Not only do I know the anatomy of the human body, but I can also perform a surgery without using any tools.”

Chapter 382 Gao Huiren Acting Cold

When everyone heard Qin Xi’s boastful words, they no doubt treated her as a lunatic who would forget to take her medicine.

On the stage, He Xu and the other top doctors all laughed. They looked at her as if she was an idiot. They smiled arrogantly. “Miss, although I don’t know how you sneaked in, I can make an exception. If you want to leave, leave. This place is indeed not suitable for you.”

In his mind, he thought, “Go back and take your medicine. Don’t embarrass yourself.”

Qin Xi did not care about his sarcasm, but it did not mean that Gao Huiren did not care. He snorted coldly and looked at the people on the stage.

“Sneaked in? Do you think a medical exchange like this is worth sneaking in. You’re just a bunch of old people who are fishing for fame. All you know is to show off your intelligence using other people’s work. You’re stupid and shameless. I feel sorry for you. Pfft!”

Gao Huiren looked down on these old people, especially when they spoke rudely to his shifu.

The doctors were all famous figures. When had they ever suffered such humiliation? Their faces were as ugly as if they had eaten flies.

“I think you’re here to cause trouble on purpose. You don’t know anything, but you talk big. You’re not welcome here. Please leave. Security, security, get these two out.”

The people from the Medical Association couldn’t stand it anymore and called for security. To be honest, if not for the fact that the news media was here, they really wanted to scold Qin Xi and Gao Huiren.

After saying that, someone suddenly exclaimed.

“Master Gao? Isn’t this Master Gao? I heard that he came to Luoping to treat a big shot some time ago. I didn’t expect to see him in person today. Oh my god, I’m really honored.”

“Who is Master Gao? Is he very famous?”

“You don’t even know Master Gao? He is the vice president of the Capital Medical Association. He’s a master in both Chinese medicine and Western medicine. I heard that he was originally the president. However, he doesn’t like to be restrained, so he stepped down.”

“No wonder he’s so angry.” The people below the stage were all medical industry insiders, and a large number of them were medical students.

Their voices naturally reached the ears of the famous doctors on the stage. When they heard that the person they had just spoken harshly to was actually the famous Master Gao, their hearts skipped a beat. They quickly stood up and looked at Gao Huiren in disbelief. They asked with uncertainty, “Are you really Master Gao Huiren?”

Gao Huiren snorted and placed his hands behind his back coldly. He said indifferently, “It’s me.”

After his identity was confirmed, everyone was in an uproar. The cameras immediately focused on Gao Huiren. Everyone stood up and wanted to rush forward.

“Master Gao, I admire you very much. Can I have your autograph?”

“Master Gao, I’ve read the summary of your experience in bone setting and bone reconnection. I want to ask you something about bone reconnection!”

“Master Gao...”

Even the few doctors on the stage wanted to learn something from Master Gao and squeezed into the crowd. Unfortunately, everyone was quite excited. No one made way for them.

Seeing that the situation was about to go out of control, Gao Huiren’s face darkened and he immediately stopped them. “This is a medical exchange, not a market. Go back and sit down!”

Chapter 383 Reprimand

Gao Huiren and Qin Xi went on stage together. The staff quickly brought two chairs over. Seven famous doctors respectfully invited the two of them to take a seat.

“Master Gao, I’m sorry. We didn’t know that you would come. Please...”

The person who spoke humbly was a member of the Medical Association of Zhejiang Province called Qu Manzhang. He was considered an elder of the association. Usually, in the association, other than the president and vice president, he did not care about anyone else, let alone apologize to someone in front of so many people.

Although he was a big shot in the association, in front of the respected Gao Huiren, he was nothing.

Gao Huiren did not sit, so none of them dared to sit.

Before the person could finish, Gao Huiren interrupted impatiently, "Alright, enough with that. I'm disappointed with this medical exchange."

These big shots, who were usually looked up to, could only lower their heads like primary school students being reprimanded by their parents. They did not dare to make a sound. The scene was very comical.

Gao Huiren asked calmly, "Let me ask you, have you invited the Chinese doctors?"

"Uh... Chinese doctors? They, they didn't participate in it in the past..." Qu Manzhang wiped the cold sweat off his forehead nervously and said carefully.

Gao Huiren frowned and slammed the table angrily, scaring the few doctors so much that they did not even dare to breathe. "I'm asking you if you have invited them. I'm not asking if they're going to participate or not."

"... No, no, no."

He Xu smiled awkwardly and stammered. He couldn't help but look at Gao Huiren and add in a low voice, "They didn't want to come..."

Gao Huiren looked at him sideways. "Did they not want to come, or did you not want them to come?"

Everyone was embarrassed and blushed.

Just as Gao Huiren was about to lecture them again, Qin Xi said faintly, "Alright, if you want to lecture, do it in private. We are in a meeting now. Don't waste everyone's precious time."

Gao Huiren's gloomy expression was instantly gone. He smiled and said, "Shifu, you're right."

Then, he waved his hand and snorted. "What are you waiting for? Go back to your seats and do what you need to do. As for your speech, cut that crap. No one wants to hear nonsense."

Everyone felt that their ears were playing tricks on them. Just now, Gao Huiren called the girl standing behind him "Shifu". Their eyes were filled with disbelief.

Chapter 384 Mental Illness

No one dared to ask why Gao Huiren would call Qin Xi shifu. They could only pretend that their ears were playing tricks on them.

The seven of the doctors quickly took their seats. Qu Manzhang hesitated, not knowing where to start. He said into the microphone, "Uh... that's all for the speech session. Next is our on-site diagnosis. Let's bring on the stage the first patient."

On one side of the podium, a man and a woman in tattered clothes walked out.

To be precise, it was a mother and son. The mother was dispirited and her legs were paralyzed. The son was taking care of her at the side. It was said that the mother's leg disease could not be cured at all. She traveled all over the country and spent all the money in the family to no avail. The son worked hard outside just to treat his mother. Later on, when he heard that there would be a medical exchange here, he brought his mother over.

The seven doctors went forward to check on the woman one by one. With the help of various medical equipment, they asked about the basic situation and returned to their seats with solemn expressions.

In the end, Gao Huiren also went over to check. He returned with a solemn expression too. Clearly, the woman's illness was a little troublesome.

Looking at everyone's expressions, the man's heart skipped a beat and his face turned pale. "Doctor, doctor, how's my mother?"

The seven doctors frowned and shook their heads in embarrassment. At this moment, Qu Manzhang looked at Gao Huiren and asked carefully, "Master Gao, our medical knowledge is limited. I wonder if you can tell anything? Can you enlighten us?"

"From the pulse, there's no hidden illness in this lady's leg. Instead, she's depressed, her Yin and Yang are out of whack, her liver is failing, and her heart and lungs are weak. This is caused by too many suppressed emotions accumulated in her heart. As for her leg illness, I don't think she's sick. What's sick is her heart."

Gao Huiren's words stunned everyone present, including the seven doctors.

"What do you mean by what's sick is her heart?" He Xu asked subconsciously.

Gao Huiren stood up and came to the woman's side. He said, "The real reason why she can't walk is psychological."

He looked at the woman's son. "When your mother fell sick, did anything serious happen to your family?"

The woman was called Li Mei, and Li Mei's son was called Lu Chuan. Lu Chuan's expression immediately changed and he said truthfully, "Could it be because of my father? He was a miner. Three years ago, the coal mine collapsed and my father was buried. My mother cried for the entire night. After my father was buried, she became like this. Oh right, when my father was dug out, his legs were gone. Could it be because of this?"

Li Mei rolled her glazed eyes, as if she had sensed something. Coincidentally, Gao Huiren saw it and shook his head with a sigh. "Your mother's illness is a mental illness and needs to be treated by a psychiatrist. However, your mother's health is not good now. She's suffering from accumulated depression. In the long term, there will be problems. I'll prescribe you some medicine. With the help of the psychiatrist, your mother will recover soon."

Just as he was about to prescribe medicine, Qin Xi walked forward and said with a faint smile, "Medicine is needed. As for the psychiatrist, he might not be able to cure her. Why don't you let me try?"

"Shifu?" Gao Huiren knew that Qin Xi was a divine doctor, but could a divine doctor also treat mental illnesses? Why didn't he know?

Lu Chuan frowned at her, as if he did not believe in Qin Xi's medical skills. However, when he heard Gao Huiren call Qin Xi 'Shifu', he was slightly less suspicious.

He took a step back and took the initiative to make way. "Thank you!"

Chapter 385 Sealing Herself

He Xu, who was about to say something, opened his mouth but didn't say anything in the end.

Qin Xi took out Ice Soul Silver Needles and pierced it into Li Mei's acupoint. Seeing this, everyone gasped. Even Gao Huiren's eyes widened.

The silver needle emitted a faint cold light that was especially terrifying under the spotlight. Everyone's hearts tightened and they did not dare to breathe loudly, afraid that they would disturb Qin Xi.

Li Mei fell into a dream.

In her era, marriages were mostly arranged and the couple couldn't get to see each other before marriage. It was not until the two of them entered the bridal chamber that they met for the first time.

Just like that, Lu Shi and Li Mei got together. Although Lu Shi was taciturn, he doted on Li Mei very much. Although Li Mei was a little shy, as his wife, she took care of him wholeheartedly and his parents.

That day, when Li Mei realized that she was pregnant, she immediately went to tell Lu Shi the good news. Unexpectedly, that day, the gentle old cow suddenly went crazy and hit her father-in-law. There was a bloody hole in his thigh. She was so frightened that she almost fainted. She staggered to call the villagers for help. Later on, the old cow was stopped by the villagers. Some experienced people said that the old cow had eaten a kind of mushroom and was delirious.

The old man was seriously ill and they did not have the money to pay for a doctor. The burden on the family became heavier. Li Mei had no choice but to hide the fact that she was pregnant. She had to take care of her father-in-law and work in the fields. She was overfatigued, which led to a miscarriage. Her father-in-law blamed himself so much that he jumped into the river to commit suicide. The old lady was afraid of becoming a burden to her son, so she ended her life too.

In the blink of an eye, the family was destroyed.

Fortunately, Lu Shi was a responsible man. He knew that his wife had suffered a lot for this family and treated her twice as well. Two years later, they had another child, Lu Chuan.

In order to let the mother and son live a good life, Lu Shi chose to become a miner.

The day before the coal mine collapsed, Li Mei asked Lu Shi to quit his job. Although this job was profitable, it was also dangerous. Li Mei did not want Lu Shi to be in danger, so Lu Shi readily agreed.

However, time could not be reversed, and there was no medicine for regret in the world. Lu Shi still died.

Li Mei felt that the sky was about to collapse. She wanted to cry, but not a single tear could come out. After the funeral was over, her mind completely turned black, and her consciousness collapsed at that moment.

In other words, her heart was dead.

She sealed herself in the black world. There, Lu Shi was still looking at her with a smile. "Mei, you should go back. Our son can't live without his mother. I'll wait for you here, forever..."

Chapter 386 The Bracelet Vibrated

“What joy is there in life? What sorrow is there in death? The living are alive, and the dead are gone. Why should you be troubled? Life and death are just fleeting clouds. Come back. Don’t let the person who loves you be sad.”

When Qin Xi said this, her voice was soft and mellow, echoing in the huge hall.

Li Mei, who was originally in a daze, seemed to have been woken up. She subconsciously stood up. Because she had not walked for a long time, she could not stand steadily. However, her eyes were no longer blurry.

“Chuan, Chuan...” The first thing Li Mei said when she woke up was to call her son.

When Lu Chuan saw that his mother could walk, he was so shocked that tears welled up in his eyes. He covered his mouth in disbelief. In the end, when he heard his mother calling him, he shouted shakily, “Mom!”

When Li Mei saw Lu Chuan, who had already grown up, she hugged him with heartache. Tears streamed down her face as she choked, “My son, it’s been hard on you all these years...”

“It’s not hard, Mom. As long as you can recover, anything I do is worth it.” Lu Chuan carefully wiped Li Mei’s tears and smiled.

“Sigh, I was too stubborn all these years and neglected your feelings. Now that I have recovered, we can rely on each other in the future. Your father will be able to rest in peace when he sees us happy.”

Li Mei was enlightened. Previously, she had sealed herself in her beautiful memories. Now, she wanted to bury these memories with her own hands.

The first patient was miraculously treated by Qin Xi. No one could believe their eyes.

Some people still did not believe it and muttered softly, “Could it be that they are hired actors? It feels so fake.”

A young doctor immediately replied, “No, I met this mother and son two years ago. They once visited our hospital, but we couldn’t help. If they were actors, they would have to put on the act for three years.”

“Yes, they came to our hospital too. At that time, the person who received them was the director of our department. He checked her many times, but he couldn’t find anything wrong with her. In the end, he gave up.”

“From what you said, I think I’ve seen them before. I think it’s in a newspaper. It was from last year. I didn’t expect her to be cured today... It’s unbelievable!”

“Yes, she’s a divine doctor!”

The discussion became louder and more intense.

No one suspected Qin Xi’s ability. After all, many doctors had treated Li Mei before, but they couldn’t even find out the cause of the illness.

“Alright, let’s invite the second patient!” Seeing Qin Xi give him a look, Gao Huiren quickly stopped everyone from discussing.

As soon as the second patient appeared, Qin Xi’s bracelet vibrated violently.

She frowned. This was the first time the bracelet had such a strong reaction. It had to be noted that there was someone called Liu Yun in this bracelet. She had been waiting for a man called Huang Bo for ten years.

At the thought of this, she looked at the second patient.

This patient was already an old man in his sixties. There was a man and a woman beside him. From the looks of it, this man and woman were the old man’s grandchildren.

She did not ask for his name directly. Instead, she first calmed the bracelet down and waited for an opportunity.

“Everyone, this is the second patient we have today. Go and take a look at him!”

After Gao Huiren spoke, the seven doctors quickly lined up to check the patient.

Chapter 387 Stroke

“This is because he doesn’t have enough blood in his brain. He can be treated, but it takes a lot of time and effort. Moreover, even if he’s cured, the illness will come back in a year or two.”

“The patient has cerebral palsy caused by a stroke. It’s difficult to treat. If it’s in the beginning stage, he might still have a chance. Now, it’s too late. Sigh... I’m helpless!”

“Western medicine doesn’t have a good solution for stroke. Perhaps Chinese medicine can help...”

“I also think Chinese medicine can work...”

Previously, these self-proclaimed famous doctors were looking down on Chinese medicine. Now, they decided to push the hot potato to Gao Huiren and Qin Xi.

“Master Gao, I’m sorry. We’re not familiar with Chinese medicine. As you know, Western medicine is divided into different subjects. I’m just an orthopedic surgeon and am not suitable for treating strokes. Do you have any good ideas?”

Gao Huiren didn’t mind taking the hot potato. This was because he had been learning the Five Elements Acupuncture Technique from Liu Dequan recently and was lacking a chance to showcase it. He subconsciously looked at Qin Xi, who nodded at him with encouragement in her eyes.

With Qin Xi’s encouragement, Gao Huiren immediately began to treat the patient. He took out the silver needles and took a deep breath. He held his breath and focused as he pierced the needles into the acupoints of the patient.

As time passed, the old man’s grandchildren were nervous and worried. They clenched their fists and looked at the silver needles in Gao Huiren’s hand without blinking, afraid that if Gao Huiren’s hand trembled, their grandfather would be finished.

No one present knew what Gao Huiren's acupuncture technique was. They just felt that it was very powerful. Moreover, during the acupuncture process, Huang Bo did show some reaction.

After the acupuncture was done, he took Huang Bo's pulse. He felt that Huang Bo's pulse was indeed getting stabler. A smile finally appeared on his face.

"Doctor, how's my grandfather?" Huang Bo's grandson, Huang Yongliang, asked anxiously.

Gao Huiren put away the silver needles and revealed a kind and comforting smile for the first time.

"Don't worry, I can treat your grandfather's illness. However, I still need to perform another session of acupuncture. This is the first one. Tomorrow, go to Ji Ding Hall on XXX Street and I'll perform the second acupuncture on him. By the third acupuncture, your grandfather will be good to go."

"Really? Doctor, is what you said true? Can my grandfather really recover from the stroke?" Huang Bo's grandchildren were so excited that they were incoherent with tears in their eyes.

Gao Huiren knew how they felt. He nodded with a smile. "Don't worry, your grandfather will be fine. Remember to come and find me tomorrow."

Seeing that Gao Huiren could even treat a stroke, the people below the stage could no longer remain calm.

It had to be noted that the chances of a stroke being cured were low under normal circumstances, especially a stroke in the head. In this era, it was as difficult as ascending to the heavens to completely cure it. But now, Master Gao actually did it in a matter of a few minutes.

This was too shocking.

Initially, He Xu wanted to ask something, but after being stared at by Qu Manzhang, he gave up on it. The third patient came up.

This was a patient with severe bronchial asthma, a woman in her thirties. The woman's voice gave off an uncomfortable feeling, as if she had a phlegm stuck in her throat.

Qin Xi could tell at a glance that if this patient could not be treated today, she would die within three days. Judging from the fact that she was out of breath constantly and that her phlegm was already stuck to her throat, she would be at the jaws of death in less than three days.

Chapter 388 You Won't Understand Even If I Tell You

Bronchial asthma was neither easy nor hard to treat. The key was that the current medical level was not as advanced as in the future, so it was difficult at this moment.

First, the patient had to undergo a surgery.

However, as soon as she heard the word "surgery", the woman was so frightened that her face turned pale. She asked, "Doctor, I-I'm..."

Before she could say "afraid", He Xu glared at her.

"How can I treat you without surgery? Your asthma is already very serious. If you delay it any further, your life will be in danger," He Xu reprimanded.

The woman was even more afraid. Her body was trembling as she looked at the other doctors for help. Without exception, they all agreed with He Xu's suggestion.

Although it was very uncomfortable to not be able to breathe properly, she panicked at the thought of having to undergo surgery. Just as she was hesitating if she should undergo surgery, Qin Xi said, "You don't have to undergo surgery. You can recover in a minute. Do you believe me?"

Everyone's mind was blown away. A minute? Only an immortal could treat bronchial asthma in a minute. How dare she say that she could?

The woman looked at Qin Xi. She had always thought that Qin Xi was just a staff member. Hearing that it only needed to take Qin Xi a minute and that she didn't have to undergo a surgery, the woman immediately agreed.

"This... uh..."

Qu Manzhang went forward and was about to say something when he remembered that he did not seem to know her name.

"Qin Xi? Why are you here?"

At this moment, Gu Qing, who had arrived late, suddenly entered through the side door. He saw the woman he was yearning for at a glance and walked up to her in surprise. A trace of gentleness bloomed on his face. "Why are you here? I thought..."

"Do you think I won't participate in the medical exchange because I'm a Chinese doctor?" Qin Xi continued with a smile.

"That's right. If I had known that you would come, I would have picked you up." As Gu Qing spoke, his eyes never left Qin Xi. Those with discerning eyes immediately understood what was going on.

Qu Manzhang looked at Gu Qing in surprise. "Dean Gu, do you know this... doctor?"

"Not only do we know each other, but we're also friends." Gu Qing looked at the others and said apologetically, "I'm sorry for coming late. I had two surgeries today. Please forgive me!"

"The surgery is more important. You don't have to apologize. Alright, we still want to ask Doctor Qin. You said that you can treat bronchial asthma in a minute. Is that true? May I know how you want to treat it?"

Qin Xi thought for a moment and said, "You won't understand my method even if I tell you. Let's not waste each other's time."

Qu Manzhang's face darkened. Then, he remembered that she was a Chinese doctor and immediately remained silent. Just as Qin Xi had said, he really did not know anything about Chinese medicine. Even if she did tell him, he would still be confused. Instead of embarrassing himself, he might as well shut up and just watch.

Qin Xi walked to the woman's side and comforted her, "Don't worry, it'll be over soon."

She walked behind the woman and pressed her index and middle fingers against the back of the woman's spine. She injected the Mystic True Qi into the woman's trachea and forced the filth in her trachea up to her throat.

The woman's face turned purple, but she forced herself not to scream because she could feel something coming out of her body. Her intuition told her that as long as that thing came out, she would recover.

Just as she thought, Qin Xi slapped her on the back...

Chapter 389 It's Quite Lively

With a puff, the woman spat out a large mouthful of yellow phlegm. Moreover, there were a lot of unknown things mixed in it. It was a little disgusting to look at.

The moment the woman spat it out, she felt that her breathing was instantly smoother and she was no longer panting. She seemed to have shed a hundred kilograms of weight. She looked radiant and much more relaxed.

"I, I'm fine now?"

She touched her throat in disbelief and tears welled up in her eyes. She widened her eyes and looked at Qin Xi.

Qin Xi smiled faintly. "You are fine, but you still need to take some Chinese medicine to repair your trachea. I'll give you a prescription. Go back and take it three times a day. You just need to take it for three days. Don't eat inflammatory food. You can completely recover in a month."

The woman covered her mouth and tears streamed down her face. She had waited for this moment for many years. She even thought of ending her life, but for her daughter, she braced herself and held on to life.

Today, she finally got what she had dreamt for. She was so excited that she could find words to express her gratitude.

"Thank you, Doctor. Thank you..."

The woman cried uncontrollably as she bowed and thanked Qin Xi repeatedly.

This medical exchange did not end until two in the afternoon. Qin Xi's appearance caused a sensation in the Chinese medicine world.

**

In the vice president's office of Yao Hui Pharmaceuticals.

"Tang He, if you don't deal with that woman today, I'll divorce you." Qiu Juan roared on the phone.

Tang He looked tired and his eyes were dark. He pinched his eyebrows, his eyes flickering with a terrifying ruthlessness, but his voice was gentle.

“Qiu Juan, I’ve said it before. That woman is not someone I can deal with just because you want me to. Not only does she know the Xia family, but I heard that she also knows Minister Meng and Secretary Wan. Do you think such a person can be dealt with easily?”

“I don’t care. I want to destroy her face. I want her to have a taste of what it feels like to lie on broken porcelain. I want her to kneel in front of me and be humiliated. I want her to die...”

Qiu Juan seemed to have gone crazy. When she saw the wounds on her body, she wanted to kill that woman.

She wanted to torture that woman in the most vicious way possible. She wanted to skin her alive and make her kneel on the ground and beg for mercy.

“Qiu Juan, can you calm down?”

When Tang He heard Qiu Juan’s hysterical roar, he couldn’t help but rub his temples in frustration.

He knew that once Qiu Juan went crazy, no one could stop her. If not for Qiu Juan having an influential family, he really did not want to serve such a lunatic.

“How can I calm down? Look at me and the wounds on my body. How can I calm down? Tang He, you have to avenge me. Otherwise, I won’t let my father support you anymore. You better know what to do!”

Qiu Juan’s attitude was abnormally firm, leaving no room for negotiation.

Hearing Qiu Juan’s threat, killing intent instantly filled Tang He’s eyes. He clenched his fists tightly, his veins popping out, and his expression darkened.

“Alright, I’ll handle this matter.”

After hanging up the phone, the more Tang He thought about it, the angrier he became. He stood up and kicked the chair. He then swept the documents on the table to the ground. His eyes were filled with hatred as he gritted his teeth and said, “Qiu Juan, you b*tch. When this is over, I’ll teach you a lesson!”

At this moment, Jiu Yuan floated in from somewhere. His arrival made the ghosts hanging on Tang He shiver and feel under pressure.

In particular, his body was emitting a dazzling light, making them feel extremely uncomfortable.

“Wow, there are so many of you. It’s quite lively!”

Chapter 390 Cuties

Jiu Yuan greeted the ghosts with a smile. It had been a long time since he saw so many of his kind. He couldn’t help but want to greet them. “Hello, cuties!”

However, just as he smiled, the ghosts let out a cry and quickly ran away like rats seeing a cat.

They ran through the wall and jumped out of the window. In the blink of an eye, they were gone.

Oh, there was another one hiding under the table, trembling. He closed his eyes and muttered in horror, “I can’t be seen, I can’t be seen...”

Jiu Yuan was speechless, thinking to himself, "Why are ghosts so timid nowadays?"

The moment these ghosts left Tang He's body, he felt his body suddenly relax. The feeling of being pressed down by a mountain and unable to breathe miraculously disappeared.

He frowned, not understanding what was going on. Could it be that he had bumped into something unclean?

At the thought of this, he quickly shivered and touched the jade pendant on his neck. He remembered that when he asked for this jade pendant back then, the expert said that he had sinned greatly. If he did not repent early, he would not end up well.

At that time, he was not superstitious. Now that he thought of what had just happened, he immediately had goosebumps.

He couldn't help but feel a little worried. He knew better than anyone that more than five people had died in his hands all these years. If they came back haunting him...

Humans were like this. The more they thought of a bad ending, the more afraid they were.

Tang He immediately picked up the phone on the ground in a panic and took out a small notebook from the drawer. His hands were trembling as he flipped the small notebook. Finally, he flipped to a certain page. On it was written: Master Yang and contact numbers.

He wiped his cold sweat and dialed the number with trembling fingers.

While waiting, Tang He's heart was pounding like a drum, nervous and afraid.

"Hello!" A dignified voice suddenly sounded.

Tang He quickly lowered his voice. "Master Yang, it's Tang He. I want to ask if you're free. I encountered something here. Can you come over? Or I can go over."

"So it's Mr. Tang. Why are you looking for me?" As if he did not notice Tang He's urgent tone, Master Yang asked slowly.

Jiu Yuan, who had just caught the little ghost hiding under the table, raised his eyebrows and quickly floated to Tang He's side. Hearing the familiar voice coming from the other end of the phone, he immediately remembered who it was.

"Master Yang, I suddenly felt cold and heavy yesterday. It was as if hundreds of kilograms of weight was added on me. However, just now, that weight suddenly disappeared. Do you know what's going on?" Tang He quickly asked.

Master Yang did not speak. Instead, he sighed, making Tang He's heart skip a beat. Tang He's voice trembled with nervousness. "Master Yang, the life-saving pendant you gave me is still with me!"

Master Yang thought for a moment and said, "In the situation you described, those unclean things must have clung to you. The pendant I gave you previously is no longer useful."

"Then, then what should I do? Master Yang, save me!" When Tang He heard that it was useless, his expression immediately changed drastically.

“You have to know that if I interfere in your matter, your karma will affect me, then...”

Master Yang pretended to be mysterious and said, “The karma on you will also be connected to me. At that time, some trouble will also befall me!”

“Master Yang, as long as you can help me chase those things away, I’ll give you as much money as you want!” Tang He knew what he was up to.