Chapter 411 Coming After Him

Under the temptation of money, Master Yang agreed eventually. After he left, a ghost silently stalked him.

It was a dark and windy night.

Qin Xi, Han Shi, and the lamp man, Jiu Yuan, came to Master Yang's residence.

"Master, if we help Tang He, will that master come after us?" The disciple asked worriedly.

Master Yang took a sip of tea and looked at the stacks of cash on the table with greed in his eyes. "What's there to be afraid of? We'll leave Luoping City tomorrow morning. Even if that master finds out, he won't be able to track us down. This 500,000 yuan is enough for us to live a carefree life for a few years."

When the disciple heard that, he beamed with joy.

Master Yang pointed at the big black bag. "Put the money in it. Tomorrow, we'll find a place to keep it safe before heading to Yunbei."

"Alright." The disciple began to pack the money excitedly.

Qin Xi and Han Shi looked at each other and smiled. Seeing the two of them smile, the corners of the little lamp man's mouth twitched. "I feel that the two of you are up to no good."

"How can you say that? Because of him, Stone was almost possessed by you. Now that we've finally met him, do you think you'll let him off without asking for some interest?"

Qin Xi said it matter-of-factly. Han Shi also nodded seriously as he listened.

Jiu Yuan's face darkened. "I've been taking care of the orchard for you without getting paid a penny, and you still blame me for what I did in the past."

"Besides, don't use me as an excuse to do anything evil. We're already so familiar with each other. I know what you are up to."

Han Shi glanced at him and nodded. "You're right, so go in and reunite your old friend!"

With a wave of his hand, Han Shi pushed Jiu Yuan into the house.

Master Yang and Jiu Yuan had worked together before, so Master Yang could still see Jiu Yuan.

When he saw Jiu Yuan, who was brighter than the light bulb in the room, Master Yang was shocked. He quickly stood up and knelt on the ground. He said with fear, "My lord, you're back. Where have you been? Why..."

He wanted to ask why Jiu Yuan was so bright. Also, wasn't he possessing Han Shi previously? Why did he give up halfway and went missing suddenly?

Master Yang had a lot to ask, but he was too afraid of Jiu Yuan to ask.

Jiu Yuan waved his hand impatiently and asked coldly, "Cut the crap. Let me ask you, where did the blood you used last time to perform the Blood Guidance Technique come from? Do you know Han Shi long ago?"

Master Yang was frightened by Jiu Yuan's aura and quickly stiffened his body. Just as he was about to reply, he saw his stupid disciple exclaim in confusion, "Master, who are you talking to? Also, why are you kneeling on the ground?"

Master Yang turned around and reprimanded through gritted teeth, "Shut up and go back to your room. You're not allowed to come out without my orders."

His silly disciple was stunned and asked stupidly, "Why, Master?"

"Get lost!" Master Yang said.

Chapter 412 The Mastermind

The disciple was frightened by Master Yang and ran back to his room.

Master Yang wiped the cold sweat off his forehead and carefully answered Jiu Yuan's question, "My lord, I don't know Han Shi. However, the blood you mentioned was actually given to me by an old friend of mine. As for how he got it, I-I didn't have time to ask at that time. If you want to know, I'll call and ask."

Master Yang asked tentatively.

Jiu Yuan nodded. "Then ask. It's best if you can find out who gave you the blood, what his motive is, and who the blood belongs to. You have to ask in detail."

"Yes, yes, my lord!"

Master Yang wiped his cold sweat again and walked to the landline. He took out a small phone book from his pocket with trembling hands and found the number of an old friend.

"Hello, Old Yang?" An voice came from the other end.

Master Yang asked solemnly, "Old Zhang, tell me honestly, the blood you gave me last time. Who did it belong to?"

Old Zhang was stunned. "What blood?"

Master Yang was as anxious as an ant on a hot pan. He asked anxiously, "The blood I used to perform Blood Guidance Technique. Let me ask you again, whose blood is that?"

Old Zhang fell silent. Master Yang stole a glance at Jiu Yuan, who had a murderous expression on his face. He blinked his eyes and quickly lowered his head. He urged, "Old Zhang, tell me the truth. Otherwise, we'll both be in trouble."

The person on the other end of the phone seemed to hear Master Yang's anxiety and uneasiness. His heart skipped a beat. He thought of the person's warning and gritted his teeth.

"I don't know who the person who gave me the blood is, but I know that he's from the capital. As for who the blood belongs to, I really don't know. He only handed the blood to me and asked me to find you. He told me not to tell anyone else, or my wife and children will disappear."

"Old Yang, what happened?" Old Zhang also looked nervous and terrified.

"Don't ask. It won't be good for you to know. By the way, have you seen him in person? Do you know his surname or identity?" Master Yang suppressed the anxiety in his heart and continued to ask.

Old Zhang said, "Yes, but that person covered himself from head to toe. I couldn't tell what he looked like at all. I could only tell that he was a man."

"Motive? What's his motive?"

Old Zhang suddenly said seriously, "I don't know much more than you do. Old Yang, although I don't know what trouble you're in, you have to believe me. That person is terrifying, no, very terrifying!"

Outside the door, Qin Xi and Han Shi looked at each other. "Wifey, do you think this person is the mastermind who instructed Ma Peng to plant the axe in my ancestral grave?"

Qin Xi nodded with a solemn expression. "Most likely. Moreover, Ma Peng said that the mastermind is a woman..."

"Looks like I have to go to the capital when I have the chance."

Han Shi's heart tightened. He instinctively wanted to refuse, but when he opened his mouth, he did not know what to say.

Qin Xi knew that Han Shi was afraid that once she went to the capital, she would be asked to go back to the Mu family. She smiled and squeezed his big hand. "We'll go together and come back together."

Han Shi suddenly relaxed and held her hand tightly. He swore to himself that he had to speed up the process. Although his agreement with Qi Xiong was three years, he had only given himself two years at most.

In two years, he would build a business empire for Qin Xi.

In the house, Master Yang hung up the phone and took a deep breath. "My lord, that's all he knows..."

Jiu Yuan could tell that he was sincere. He looked at the money bag. "I'll take this away. Do you have a problem with that?"

Chapter 413 Wonderful Night

Carrying the bag filled with 500,000 yuan, Qin Xi and Han Shi left arm in arm. The lamp man in front of them acted as a flashlight to disperse the darkness.

After returning to the Breeze Villa and washing up, Qin Xi remembered that she had obtained a treasure today. She quickly took out the Golden Blood Toad and placed it on the bed.

Seeing this, Han Shi, who had just come out of the bathroom, wiped his hair and sat on the bed. He asked curiously, "Wifey, where did you get such a golden toad? It looks ugly."

“What do you know? This is a treasure not inferior to Heavenly Fragrance Cardamom.” With that, Qin Xi mentioned the fight at Elder Cheng’s warehouse today.

Han Shi picked up the golden blood and looked at it. When he heard Qin Xi say that this thing had a heartbeat, he specially leaned close to it to listen and said in surprise, “There’s really a heartbeat. However, how do I use this thing? Don’t tell me we have to eat it just like Heavenly Fragrance Cardamom.”

He threw the toad onto the bed, looking like he despised it.

“Uh... I don’t know either. Forget it, I’ll leave this with you for now. It’s said that this thing can remove hundreds of poisons. I wonder if it’s true. When I have the chance in the future, I’ll find out how to use it.”

Qin Xi threw the Golden Blood Toad to Han Shi. The latter raised his eyebrows and looked at her teasingly. “Wifey, does this count as a token of love you gave me?”

“We’re already an old couple. Why do we need a token of love?” Qin Xi blushed and said coquettishly.

The blush on Qin Xi’s face was lethal to Han Shi. He immediately had a reaction. He pulled Qin Xi into his arms and stared at her red face with burning eyes.

“Wifey, since you said that we’re an old couple, shouldn’t we do something? I haven’t touched you for a few days. Don’t you miss me?”

Qin Xi’s face turned even redder. She wanted to break free. “Why do you think about this everyday? Can’t you think of something more serious?”

Han Shi was displeased. He held her wrist and complained, “Wifey, you can’t say that. It’s only right for me to sleep with my wife. Also, other than you, I can’t think of anything else.”

Hearing Han Shi’s shameless words, Qin Xi was so embarrassed that she wished she could find a hole to hide in. Just as she was about to break free from his arms, Han Shi turned around and lifted the blanket, covering the two of them.

After a while, Qin Xi’s angry voice came from under the blanket. “Stinky Stone, where are you touching? Let go of me!”

“No, you’re mine. Why can’t I touch you?”

“Ah, go away. You can’t touch that place...”

“Why not? I’ve seen every part of your body anyway.”

“Hahahaha, don’t tickle me. Go away. Don’t bite me... Hahahaha.”

Under the blanket, the two of them played intimately.

Not long after, the woman’s shy moans and seductive panting could be heard. The man was also breathing heavily.

The next day, it was snowing outside. The temperature was already below zero. Qin Xi and Han Shi put on their clothes and set off for Shangwan Village.

Chapter 414 Returning to Shangwan Village

When it was almost noon, they arrived at the village.

When Qin Xi saw eight topless young men training on the ground outside the village, she revealed a gratified smile.

At this moment, the eight of them were in the horse stance. Two sandbags weighing no less than 60 kilograms were hanging on their raised arms. Their muscles were bulging, and they gritted their teeth with determination in their eyes. They did not make a sound, despite the bean-sized sweat on their foreheads dripping down their bronze skin.

“Tsk, these eight people are quite enduring. Their mental toughness is not bad,” Qin Xi said with a smile.

Han Shi was amused. “They have to. Wang Zhiqiang and Berserk are standing there. These people are extremely obedient and are afraid of being beaten up.”

Qin Xi shook her head and laughed. “Back then, I wanted to teach them a cultivation technique. After all, there are many ways to improve their physique. I didn’t expect them to be so wild and difficult to tame. Fortunately, Wang Zhiqiang and the others have a way. It’s time to teach them something useful now.”

Han Shi parked the car in front of the eight of them. When they saw Qin Xi get out of the car, they immediately looked embarrassed.

Especially Zhou Lei. Back then, he mocked Qin Xi for being a crybaby. Now that he recalled his impetuous behavior, he wished he could find a hole to hide in.

Fu Yu was the same. Back then, he ridiculed Qin Xi for having small breasts. Little did he know that she was the real master.

During this period of time, when Berserk and the others mentioned Qin Xi, the faces of the eight of them would turn red as if they had been slapped.

“Lady Boss?”

Seeing Qin Xi, Berserk immediately perked up. He arrived in front of Qin Xi in three steps. Just as he was about to show off the increase in his cultivation, he saw Han Shi standing beside Qin Xi and looking at him quietly.

Having understood the message from Han Shi, Berserk stopped three meters away from Qin Xi. He grinned and said with a smile, “Lady Boss, you’re finally back. Look carefully. How am I different from before?”

Qin Xi naturally knew what he meant. She glanced at him and nodded in satisfaction. She praised generously, “Not bad, you’ve already advanced to the mid-stage of the golden class. At this speed, it won’t be long before you reach the late-stage. Not bad.”

Berserk immediately blushed. Fortunately, his skin was dark from the sun and wind. Otherwise, the jaws of these young men who had been tortured by him would drop to the ground when they saw his red face.

“How is it? Do you like the male instructor I found for you?” Qin Xi walked up to Zhou Lei and the others with a smile.

Zhou Lei was so embarrassed that he did not dare to look Qin Xi in the eye. His voice trembled slightly because he was carrying a heavy sandbag. He said in a low voice, “Miss Qin, we were wrong. Back then, we were stupid and blind. Please be magnanimous and forgive us.”

Qin Xi raised her eyebrows and glanced at Berserk, who scratched his head in embarrassment and said, “I didn’t say anything. I just told them that the lady boss is very capable and... that’s it.”

Of course, that was not the case. In order to make them train harder, Berserk told them how powerful Qin Xi was every day, saying that she could kill ten of them with one hand.

They felt that it was an exaggeration, but since even Wang Zhiqiang said so, they had no choice but to believe it. They wished they could train 24 hours a day so that Qin Xi could take them back.

Chapter 415 You’re A Single Dog

“Since you know your mistake and are willing to change, when I leave, you can come with me!”

Zhou Lei and the others were overjoyed. Even the 60-kilogram sandbag on his arm didn’t feel heavy anymore. “Thank you, Miss Qin. We’ll work hard.”

Qin Xi nodded and said with a smile, “Alright, I’m going home. Come to my house for dinner tonight.”

“Okay!”

When Qin Xi and Han Shi got home, Han Dazhu was playing in the courtyard with Blackie.

Blackie had grown a lot. When it stood up, it was more than a meter tall. Perhaps because of the cold weather, its black fur was extremely thick. It originally looked like a mutt, but now it looked like a Tibetan mastiff and was extremely ferocious.

Of course, this was also due to the food. The Han Family’s vegetables were all nourished by Vitality Pills, so they were naturally very beneficial to the body.

When he heard the sound of the car engine, Blackie ran to the door to look out.

When Blackie saw Qin Xi get out of the car, it barked excitedly and spinned around a few times. After stopping, it pounced on Qin Xi.

Unfortunately, before it could pounce on Qin Xi, Han Shi grabbed its thick tail and sent it flying to the side. Blackie rolled on the ground and stood up again, barking at Han Shi unhappily.

Han Shi looked down at it and mocked mercilessly, “This is my wife. If you want to hug someone, hug your wife. Oh, I forgot, you’re a single dog.”

Feeling insulted, Blackie immediately bared its teeth and stared at Han Shi fiercely. It looked like it was ready to pounce on Han Shi and bite his neck in the next second.

Qin Xi glanced at Han Shi speechlessly. She wanted to pinch the flab on his waist, but he was too lean and there was no flab on Han Shi's waist.

Han Shi was very tactful. In order to appease his wife, he stretched out his arm, indicating that she could pinch it.

Qin Xi rolled her eyes and hit his arm before entering the house. When she saw Han Dazhu, she immediately smiled. "Grandpa, I'm back!"

Seeing Qin Xi, Han Dazhu immediately smiled and patted her head dotingly. "Hahaha, it's good that you're back. I'll ask your mother to cook a few more dishes. By the way, we haven't finished the wild boar we hunted last time. Your mother made it into cured meat and pork knuckles..."

As he spoke, he shouted into the kitchen, "Xiujuan, Xi is back. Hurry up and bring out the cured meat and pork knuckle."

"Huh? Xi is back?"

In the kitchen, Luo Xiujuan hurriedly wiped the water off her hands. She didn't care about the stir-fried vegetables in the pot and ran out.

Seeing Qin Xi, Luo Xiujuan's eyes turned red. "Xi, you're back. You haven't eaten yet, right? What do you want to eat? I'll make it for you now."

During this period of time, Luo Xiujuan had been using the beauty pills that Qin Xi had made. Her figure was much better than before, and her skin was very smooth. When she stood with Qin Xi, they looked like sisters.

"Mom, you've become prettier again. Stone and I don't know if we should call you Mom anymore," Qin Xi praised sincerely.

Women all liked to look beautiful. In the past, Luo Xiujuan didn't have the luxury to dress up. Now that her life was better, she naturally had to dress up well.

Hearing Qin Xi's heartfelt praise, she felt very happy.

Chapter 416 Pregnant

At noon, Qin Xi and Luo Xiujuan cooked together. They made four dishes and a soup. Just as they placed it on the table, Blackie barked twice outside the door. Then, they heard a cute voice outside.

While Qin Xi was still puzzled, Luo Xiujuan walked out with a smile. "Tong Tong is here. You haven't eaten yet, right? Come, I made a lot of delicious food today."

"Auntie, I heard from Fourth Daddy that Pretty Sister is back. I'm here to see Pretty Sister."

The Fourth Daddy she was talking about was Berserk.

Luo Xiujian liked Yu Tong very much. Not only was it because Yu Tong was sweet-talking, but also because she felt that she was already old enough to be a grandmother. Qin Xi and Han Shi had yet to have a baby, so she poured all her grandmother's love to Yu Tong.

She carried Yu Tong into the house and placed her on the stool.

However, Han Shi seemed to have seen an enemy. His eyes were filled with vigilance and warning as he stared at Yu Tong, as if as long as she dared to pounce on Qin Xi, he would grab her immediately and throw her back onto the stool.

Towards the people who wanted to get close to his wife, he would be aggressive. He was simply protective of his wife to the core.

Han Dazhu could tell what Han Shi was thinking at a glance. He knocked him on the head with his chopsticks and said angrily, "Behave yourself. Don't scare Tong Tong to tears. If she cries, you'll sleep in a shed outside tonight."

Qin Xi was also very speechless about Han Shi's attitude. She couldn't help but wonder if Han Shi would stop her from hugging her own child in the future.

Han Shi, who was suppressed by Han Dazhu, could only watch helplessly as Yu Tong sat between him and his wife. She ate the pork trotter his wife picked up and drank the soup his wife scooped for her. He was filled with hatred!

Since he could not deal with the kid, it was not a bad choice to deal with the older ones.

Therefore, after finishing the meal, he went to Wang Zhiqiang and the others' places and wanted to spar with them.

Although Wang Zhiqiang and the others did not know what was wrong with him, they also wanted to test the progress of their training. Later, Zhou Lei and the others witnessed how Han Shi defeated Wang Zhiqiang and the others easily.

**

When Liu Shuan heard that Qin Xi was back, he came with his wife, Xiao Caiyun.

Ever since Xiao Caiyun recovered, her body had slowly been improving. In addition, after eating the vegetables and fruits Luo Xiujian sent over, Xiao Caiyun had gained more than 20 kilograms.

However, for the past two days, Xiao Caiyun had been feeling a little tired and liked to eat sour food.

When Qin Xi saw Xiao Caiyun, she smiled brightly. "Congratulations, Aunt Caiyun. Congratulations, Uncle Liu. It seems like your family will have a new member next year."

Originally, the two of them also thought of this possibility and were here to ask about it. Unexpectedly, before they could ask, they were given the answer they wanted. The couple thanked her excitedly.

Chapter 417 Strange Tree

After calming down, Liu Shuan started talking about the vegetables in the village.

“In a few days, every family’s vegetables will be ready. Xi, have you found a sales channel?” This was what Liu Shuan was most worried about. Although the vegetables were growing very well, without a sales channel, their efforts would be in vain.

“Don’t worry, Uncle Liu. Sweet Dew Fruit Store will be in charge of selling everything.”

Qin Xi explained, “As you know, Sweet Dew is very famous now and the number of people buying from it has increased. Moreover, they’re all rich people, so it’s most suitable to sell the vegetables at the Sweet Dew Fruit Shop.”

“Then how should we split the money?” Liu Shuan asked in embarrassment.

At the mention of money, Liu Shuan felt that it was very unfair to Qin Xi. After all, be it the vegetable greenhouse or the vegetable seeds, they were all provided by Qin Xi.

“Don’t worry, Uncle Liu. I won’t ask for much. Let’s do it 60-40. I’ll get 60% of the profit. After all, transportation fees, labor fees, and management fees of the Sweet Dew Store are all very expensive. After paying all that, I don’t earn much. What do you think?”

“Sure, I have no objections to that.” Liu Shuan quickly added.

Previously, he had discussed with a few villagers in private that as long as Qin Xi gave them 30%, they would be satisfied. However, now that Qin Xi offered 40%, how could Liu Shuan not be excited?

Qin Xi smiled. “When the vegetables are ready and sold, I believe it won’t be long before every family can afford coal.”

It was winter but the coal was too expensive. In the countryside, people were usually reluctant to buy coal and could only burn timber to keep themselves warm.

Moreover, there were only two months before the New Year. At that time, the New Year goods would also be a problem for the villagers. Now that they could earn a sum of money, it was undoubtedly a timely help for the villagers.

Besides, back then, she had promised Liu Shuan that she would let the villagers live a good life and transform Shangwan Village into the number one village in the world.

Now, the vegetables were just a small step. Next, as long as the tea trees were planted, the village would undergo a tremendous change.

After sending Liu Shuan off, Qin Xi and Jiu Yuan went to the orchard at the back of the mountain. She wanted to set up a spirit gathering array for the orchard.

It was winter now, and the fruit trees were in hibernation. Fortunately, they were nourished by vitality water, and the trees were bearing fruits despite the cold winter.

When they arrived at the orchard, Qin Xi asked Jiu Yuan to help protect her. She formed a seal with both hands and chanted the incantation. Her hands waved non-stop, and the True Qi in her body circulated crazily. Soon, a huge Spirit Gathering Array was formed.

Not long after, dense spiritual energy surged into the orchard, enveloping everything.

After doing all of this, beads of sweat appeared on Qin Xi's forehead. Such a huge spirit gathering array had almost consumed all the true Qi in her body. It would probably take her at least three to five days to recover.

Just as she was about to rest, Jiu Yuan, who was guarding her, was surprised to discover that a large and lush tree suddenly grew out of the depths of the orchard.

He muttered softly, "That place seems to be where the tree that doesn't bloom or bear fruit is planted."

"What happened?"

Qin Xi wiped the sweat off her forehead and asked weakly.

Jiu Yuan floated down and said, "Do you still remember that strange tree that doesn't bloom or bear fruit? I saw it grow into a towering tree."

Qin Xi raised her eyebrows, her eyes filled with curiosity. "Let's go and take a look!"

Chapter 418 Tree Spirit

Qin Xi quickly arrived under the tree. When she saw the small tree that was less than the thickness of a bowl instantly grow into a towering tree, she was a little stunned.

Then, she frowned and walked closer to the tree. "Why do I feel a familiar aura flowing in this tree? Am I hallucinating?"

She reached out and touched the tree trunk. The closer she got, the more obvious the familiar aura was. After thinking for a moment, Qin Xi circulated the Mystic True Qi in her body and slowly injected it into the tree trunk.

When a force was sucking away her True Qi, she was shocked and quickly retracted her hand, her face pale with shock. "What kind of tree is this? Why can it absorb my True Qi? Could this be a 'living tree'?"

Jiu Yuan floated down with a look of surprise. "Has this tree become a spirit? Should we cut it down?"

"I haven't figured it out yet. Let's keep it for the time being. Since it can absorb the spiritual energy of heaven and earth, it's definitely something extraordinary!" Qin Xi looked up at the sky above the tree, feeling that this tree would bring her an unexpected surprise.

After leaving the orchard, Qin Xi went to Lai Meifang's house.

Lai Meifang was the representative of women in Shangwan Village. Although she was short and fat, she had a high reputation among the women in Shangwan Village.

Because Shangwan villagers had always been making a living from tea trees, Qin Xi wanted Lai Meifang to help gather the women in the village to help pick tea.

However, as soon as she arrived at Lai Meifang's house, she heard a child crying in the house. He was crying non-stop, as if he was doing it on purpose. From time to time, he would curse.

When Qin Xi heard that, she frowned. She remembered that Lai Meifang's son was a very sensible child. Every time they met, he would politely call her "Auntie Qin". When did he learn to curse?

Just as she was wondering if she should leave first, Lai Meifang came out with a worried look.

She probably wanted to come out for a breather. When she saw Qin Xi standing at the door, she immediately put on a smile. "Qin Xi, you're here. What's the matter?"

She was too embarrassed to invite Qin Xi into the house. After all, the house was too messy, so they talked at the door.

Qin Xi did not mind and explained her purpose of coming. "Auntie Mei, please help me organize some people. Winter tea is very important. If you want to keep the fragrance of winter tea, you have to ensure the quality. Therefore, I want Auntie Mei to help me find some people who are familiar with tea. As for the pay, 20 yuan a day. What do you think?"

"20 yuan? Are you sure?" Lai Meifang gasped, her voice filled with disbelief. She thought to herself that the Han family had really earned a lot this time. 20 yuan was no small sum back then.

Qin Xi nodded. "I'm serious. I'll have to trouble you to help me find some people."

This was the first batch of tea leaves from the new tea trees. Qin Xi was not prepared to sell them. Instead, she would give them to Old Master Mu, Old Master Wan, Uncle Meng, and the other dignitaries as a gift.

She wanted to use this batch of tea leaves to compete for the special supply. It had to be known that the price of goods that could be specially provided was definitely high.

Moreover, this could help her build connections and make her status more stable. In the future, Han Shi could have a smooth-sailing path.

"That's not a problem. Um..."

Just as Lai Meifang was about to ask something, Qin Xi heard Lai Meifang's mother-in-law calling Lai Meifang in a panic.

"Meifang, hurry up. Xiong Xiong is acting up again. Oh my god, what should we do?"

Lai Meifang's expression changed drastically. She did not even have time to explain it to Qin Xi and quickly ran into the house.

Seeing this, Qin Xi followed.

Chapter 419 Slaughterhouse

In the dark room, a little boy who was not even ten years old was lying on the bed, twitching non-stop. His face was filled with pain, as if he was in great pain.

"Ah... It hurts. Mom, it hurts. Save me, save me..." The little boy trembled and whimpered.

Lai Meifang hugged her son tightly and cried. She kept comforting him, "My good son, don't be afraid. Don't be afraid. Mommy is here. Mommy is here!"

At this moment, her face was as pale as paper, and her eyes were filled with sadness. She kept praying in her heart that the heavens would open their eyes and not torture her son. She was willing to suffer all kinds of pain on behalf of her son.

Lai Meifang's mother-in-law was also teary-eyed and extremely anxious. She kowtowed to the sky and muttered to herself, "Bodhisattva, please bless my grandson, Xiong Xiong, to recover quickly. Bodhisattva..."

Qin Xi could tell the cause of Xiong Xiong's illness at a glance. She immediately went forward and quickly touched his neck with one hand. Xiong Xiong, who was baring his fangs and brandishing his claws in pain just now, stiffened and fell to the bed weakly. This shocked Lai Meifang and the old lady.

"Qin Xi..."

Qin Xi asked with a serious expression, "Auntie Mei, Xiong Xiong is possessed. Has he been somewhere recently? Like a slaughterhouse?"

Lai Meifang frowned and thought hard. "Slaughterhouse? No."

Before she could finish, the old lady's heart sank and she added with a pale face, "Yes, he did. I was the one who brought Xiong Xiong there, but we only stood at the door for a while and didn't go in!"

Qin Xi nodded. "That's right. A place like the slaughterhouse is filled with Yin energy and those animals died tragically, so it's naturally filled with resentment. If it were an adult, they would be able to withstand it. However, children are weak and lack Yang energy, so they were taken advantage of by the unclean things. The reason why Xiong Xiong acted up is also because of those things. However, don't worry, it's very easy to treat him. Auntie Mei, go to the kitchen to get a kitchen knife and put it under Xiong Xiong's pillow."

"That's it?" Lai Meifang and the old lady looked at Qin Xi in disbelief. Clearly, they did not believe her.

Qin Xi smiled. "You'll know after giving it a try. Anyway, you won't lose anything."

The old lady thought about it and agreed. She quickly went to the kitchen to get a kitchen knife. During this period of time, Qin Xi drew a low-level Exorcism Talisman where Lai Meifang could not see.

Previously, he had consumed too much True Qi to set up the Spirit Gathering Array. Now, she could only draw low-level talismans. Although it was a low-level talisman, it could still easily drive away the evil things on Xiong Xiong.

After putting the kitchen knife under the pillow, Qin Xi said, "Alright, let him sleep for a while. He'll be fine when he wakes up, Auntie Mei."

Was it that simple?

Although Lai Meifang and the old lady were skeptical, they had no better solution at the moment and could only trust her.

Qin Xi knew very well that Xiong Xiong would be fine after waking up, so she did not stay long. Feeling that there was nothing else to do, she walked towards where Wang Zhiqiang and the others lived.

At this moment, Han Shi had just knocked down Berserk. He hooked his finger at the five of them. "All of you, come at me together. I'm in a hurry to go back and spend time with my wife."

The five of them looked at Berserk, who was lying on the ground, baring his teeth and unable to stand up for a long time. They knew that Han Shi's cultivation had been rising rapidly recently, but they did not know that he was so strong that he could defeat Berserk in three moves. This was an outcome they did not expect.

Facing Han Shi's provocation, they also wanted to find out more about him.

The five of them looked at each other and rushed forward like cheetahs.

Chapter 420 Han Shi's Strength

Black Ghost was best at speed. He was the first to rush to Han Shi. Wang Zhiqiang, who was best at close combat, whooshed over and threw a punch at Han Shi.

They knew very well that Han Shi's current movement was unpredictable. Therefore, they chose to encircle him from all directions.

After arriving at their respective positions, Bane and Goshawk attacked Han Shi's lower-half, while Thunderkill jumped three meters high and attacked Han Shi from above.

From the looks of it, Han Shi was surrounded by five people. He had no way out and was facing the frontal attack of the five experts.

The corners of Han Shi's mouth curled up as he calmly faced Wang Zhiqiang's iron fist. Wang Zhiqiang frowned. He knew very well that Han Shi's cultivation level was much higher than theirs, especially since he had seen Han Shi shatter a stone with a punch. Although it was just a spar, it was inevitable that they would clash. His mind raced as he turned his fist into a palm that wrapped around Han Shi's wrist like a snake, wanting to grab Han Shi's wrist and throw him over his shoulder.

However, how could Han Shi give him a chance? When he turned his fist into a palm, Han Shi had already guessed it. He fainted and dodged. His body tilted slightly, and the fist landed on Black Ghost's face. He also took the opportunity to kick him away.

The five of them did not expect Han Shi to react so quickly. Not only did he dodge Wang Zhiqiang's attack, but he also dodged Bane and Goshawk, who were about to attack his lower body. None of them expected that the first one Han Shi attacked was not Wang Zhiqiang or Black Ghost, but Thunderkill, who had jumped high and had yet to land on the ground.

It had to be noted that it was very difficult for a person to change direction and trajectory in midair. Hence, Thunderkill was tragically kicked away.

This kick was not ruthless. After all, it was just a sparring session. When Thunderkill was kicked away, Han Shi easily jumped out of the encirclement and appeared behind Black Ghost at an extremely fast speed. He threw a punch at Black Ghost. Fortunately, Han Shi restrained his strength and only forced Black Ghost to take a few steps back.

Zhou Lei and the others felt their blood boil as they watched from the side. They felt that they weren't sparring but it was more like they were fighting in the arena.

Zhou Lei clenched his fists nervously, his eyes filled with excitement.

At this moment, Han Shi feinted and swept his leg. It was supposed to be a kick aimed at Bane who was launching a sneak attack from behind, but as Bane dodged it, Han Shi placed a hand on the ground and used his arm strength to support himself. He changed the direction of the kick, catching Goshawk off guard.

Hearing the sound of fists hitting flesh in the courtyard, Qin Xi raised her eyebrows and stood on the outer wall to look in. What she saw shocked her.

She knew how strong Wang Zhiqiang and the others were. If she suppressed her cultivation, she would not be a match for Wang Zhiqiang and the others at all. After all, she did not have combat experience and would not be able to gain any advantage against them.

However, what she did not expect was that Han Shi had unknowingly become so powerful that he could easily win a one-on-five fight.
