Chapter 481 Python

After walking for another 20 minutes, Jun Yaohui was tired and sweating. Just as he said, the deeper they walked, the hotter it became. They were already wearing a lot of clothes to begin with. After walking for a long time, they were out of breath from the heat.

In addition, Jun Yaohui did not exercise much usually. Every time he came, it was torture, but this time, he was really tired.

Previously, when he went up the mountain, he had time to stop and rest. This time, he did not dare to stop for a moment. He did not even have a sip of water. He was weak, hot, tired, and thirsty, so his speed naturally slowed down.

"I can't take it anymore. I'm really too tired. Let's rest for a while!" After holding on for another five minutes, Jun Yaohui almost fell to the ground from exhaustion. He sat on the ground and panted heavily, looking extremely miserable.

"Sure, rest here. I'll go in first." At this moment, Qin Xi could already see the light approaching quickly. She knew that Jiu Yuan had returned.

Qin Xi quickened her pace, not seeing the murderous look in Jun Yaohui's eyes and the cruel smile on his face. Jun Yaohui thought to himself, B*tch, when we reach our destination, it will be the time of your death.

Jiu Yuan approached Qin Xi and immediately explained the situation in the depths. He was a little excited.

"There's indeed a herbal field ahead. It looks like it's filled with extinct herbs. Moreover, I can tell that they're all of a certain age. I also saw an immortal herb that looks like the one I ate back then. If it's really the herb, its value is definitely immeasurable."

"However... I know what Jun Yaohui is up to. There's a python guarding there. Although it's sleeping, I can feel that the python is very strong. There's also the venom of the python around it. You have to be careful not to get infected."

Qin Xi chuckled, but her eyes were cold. "I originally planned to let him live, but he wouldn't repent. Since he wants to die so badly, how can I not do as he wishes?"

"What do you want to do?" Jiu Yuan asked curiously.

Qin Xi took out the Chain of Darkness. The Chain of Darkness flew out like a black dragon in the dark.

Jiu Yuan felt his hair stand on end, but he could not resist the curiosity. He quickly followed the chain to take a look.

Jun Yaohui did not know that danger was approaching. When the dark chain locked him up, he wanted to shout in fear...

However, just as he opened his mouth, a strange flame suddenly rose from the Chain of Darkness. Before he could make a sound, he was swallowed by the black fire. Wisps of green smoke floated into Qin Xi's skin like silk.

She closed her eyes and received all of Jun Yaohui's memories. This was the function of the Dark Fire after it was upgraded. Not only could it absorb vitality, but it could also absorb the memories.

This time, Jiu Yuan was very glad that he had submitted to Qin Xi. Otherwise, he would be the one experiencing this outcome.

After a minute, Qin Xi arrived at the place where the python was resting. The temperature here was about 4 to 50 degrees Celsius, just as Jun Yaohui had said. Fortunately, Qin Xi's True Qi protected her body and she could not feel the scorching temperature.

As for Jiu Yuan, who didn't have a body, he couldn't feel anything.

According to Jun Yaohui's memory, Qin Xi quickly circled around the python and arrived at the herbal field.

Chapter 482 Bug

This was the center of the entire mountain. This place seemed to be a natural karst cave, one that was divided into several levels.

It was like a meandering green python that coiled up to the top of the mountain. Directly below it was a green viscous swamp that was bubbling. Due to the high temperature, the steam formed a natural poisonous miasma.

Looking at the magnificent scene, Qin Xi fell into deep thought.

Although this karst cave looked like it was natural, there were traces of man-made modification everywhere, especially these rare herbs.

What surprised her even more was that there was an array formation in this huge cave that even she could not break. If she forced her way in, she was very likely to be killed by the array inside.

It seemed that the person behind this was definitely not as simple as a hidden family clan. However...

She looked at Jiu Yuan. Since she couldn't enter, she would let someone who could enter do it.

Jiu Yuan felt uncomfortable under Qin Xi's gaze and quickly retreated a few meters. Thinking of how ruthless she was just now, he swallowed his saliva with difficulty and said nervously, "You, you, you, why are you looking at me like that? I, I'm your husband's teacher. You can't be ungrateful!"

Qin Xi was speechless. "What are you thinking? Who is ungrateful? I want to ask you for a favor. What are you afraid of?"

"Oh, gosh. You scared me to death. That look in your eyes just now was like you were going to eat me up. It was scary!" Jiu Yuan patted his nonexistent chest in relief.

"I need to borrow your eyes to see this herbal field."

Jiu Yuan was frightened again. He quickly distanced himself from her warily and shouted in shock, "What? You want to gouge out my eyes?"

Qin Xi was speechless. She couldn't be bothered to explain.

Qin Xi found a place and sat cross-legged. She first set up a defensive array formation around her. Then, she quickly formed hand seals with both hands and injected a trace of her consciousness into Jiu Yuan's mind. Jiu Yuan immediately felt that his body was not being controlled.

"Hey, hey, hey, what's going on? Why is my body out of control? What did you do to me?" Jiu Yuan was shocked. He was already in a miserable state. Why did she have to steal his body?

Qin Xi shouted angrily, "Shut up. If you keep making noise, I'll seal you here."

Jiu Yuan pursed his lips, feeling sorry for Han Shi for having married such a woman!

Qin Xi said coldly, "My consciousness is in your mind, so I can hear what you're thinking."

Jiu Yuan was dumbfounded.

He was so embarrassed that he wanted to find a hole to hide in. Unfortunately, his life was not in his hands!!!

As for Qin Xi's original body, it had already fallen into an unconscious state. In order to protect her body, she first set up a defensive array formation to prevent herself from being harmed.

After controlling Jiu Yuan's body, Qin Xi floated into the array formation. Fortunately, this large killing array was only targeted at living creatures, and Jiu Yuan was just a floating soul that could not be dispersed. He was not even considered a dead thing, so this array formation was useless against him.

The person who set up the array formation probably never expected that there was such a bug.

Chapter 483 Adventure

After successfully passing through the array formation, she arrived at the first level of the herbal field. This place was like a hall.

When Qin Xi saw the herbs that only existed in her memory, she was overcome with excitement.

With a whoosh, she pounced into the herbal field. When she saw that there were only three petals on the small purple flower, she cried out in surprise.

"Purple Flame is a very precious herb. Not only can it refine the muscles and bones, but it can also expand the meridians. It's a rare treasure that's almost extinct. I didn't expect to see it here, and there are more than ten of them. I'm going to get rich..."

This was the first time Qin Xi lost control of her emotions. If not for the fact that she was afraid of waking up the sleeping python, she really wanted to roar at the sky.

Before she could calm down, she looked up and saw a green lotus that looked like a flower but was not.

Qin Xi held her breaths and her body trembled uncontrollably. Her heart was pounding and her breathing was rapid, as if she was about to faint from excitement.

The green lotus was an indispensable herb that could repair broken meridians.

Looking at more than 20 stalks, she felt like she was short of oxygen.

Qin Xi felt like she was in a dream. She felt light-headed, as if she was in heaven.

With the pills refined by these herbs, her, Han Shi and the others would definitely become stronger. It was not impossible for them to break through to the Connate Realm.

As long as she reached the Connate Realm, no matter how strong the person behind the scene was, she was confident that she could deal with him.

However...

Before knowing the other party's strength and identity, Qin Xi decided to be careful. After all, the person behind the scene was definitely a monstrous existence.

Even so, Qin Xi did not intend to give up. In any case, she had many enemies and it wouldn't hurt to have one more. Since she had chosen this path, she had to be fully prepared. Only when she became stronger could she better protect her family and not be afraid of anyone provoking her.

"What do you want to do? Take everything away?" At this moment, Jiu Yuan broke the silence and asked.

Qin Xi shook her head. "No, I'll only take a few stalks that I need. This way, no one can tell something is missing."

Jiu Yuan was puzzled. "Why?"

He clearly felt Qin Xi's ecstasy. Why didn't she just take everything?

Qin Xi said with a sigh, "It's not that I don't want to take them away, but... I don't have the confidence to defeat the person who owns this herb field."

Just this sentence stunned Jiu Yuan. He blurted out, "Is there anyone stronger than you? Is that human?"

Qin Xi floated to the green lotuses and carefully plucked one. She then flattened the soil and restored it to its original state, as if this place had always been like this.

"There's always someone better. I'm not arrogant enough to think I'm invincible. Take the array formation as an example, if I barge in, not only will I be sensed by the person behind the scenes, but I'll also be minced. How can I fight such a powerful enemy?"

Jiu Yuan gasped and said in shock, "Since you know that the other party is powerful, why are you still taking the risk?"

Qin Xi smiled faintly. "I believe that these herbs can help Wang Zhi and the others reach their desired strength. If it were you, what would you choose to do?"

Chapter 484 Planting the Rare Herbs

After leaving the cave, Qin Xi used the Dark Fire to burn Jun Yaohui's car to ashes. She left quickly without leaving any traces.

When she returned to the clinic, it was already dark. Pan Lingling and Hu Jingyun were about to close the door.

"Lady Boss, you're back. Are you here to pick up Boss?" Pan Lingling quickly explained, "I saw that you weren't back and it was so dark, so I had no choice but to close the shop for the time being."

Qin Xi patted her shoulder and took out a 50-yuan note from her pocket. "Thank you for your hard work. I'll stay here tonight. You haven't eaten yet, right? It just so happens that I haven't eaten either. Go and buy some food. Don't cook it yourself. It's quite troublesome."

Pan Lingling quickly took the money and smiled. "Thank you, Lady Boss."

With the money in hand, she skipped to the kitchen and shouted, "Jingyun, stop cooking. The lady boss is treating us to a meal. Let's go to the restaurant next door."

Qin Xi laughed. She turned around and went upstairs. She pushed open the door of the lounge and saw that Han Shi was sleeping soundly. She did not go over to disturb him. Instead, she placed a few precious herbs on the table.

She wondered if she should plant these herbs at home and water them with Vitality Pills. This way, she would not have to take risks every time.

As soon as this idea came up, Qin Xi decided to do it. He moved the flower pot over and plucked all the flowers inside. She then carefully planted the green lotus into the flower pot. There were no Vitality Pills for the time being, but she could set up a spirit gathering array.

When the planting was almost done, Qin Xi placed the jade Huang Bo gave her last time on both sides and drew a spirit gathering array in the air. Wisps of spiritual energy gathered and surged into the flower pot.

Of course, if she wanted to cultivate more spiritual herbs quickly, Vitality Pills were indispensable. With this in mind, she put down the tools in her hand and picked up the flower branches on the ground.

When she reached the bottom of the stairs, she bumped into Hu Jingyun.

"Lady Boss, it's time to eat. You... Uh, these flowers..." Seeing the flower branches in Qin Xi's hand, she couldn't help but ask curiously.

Qin Xi smiled awkwardly. "Oh, it's nothing. I thought these flowers didn't look good, so I replaced them with other varieties. By the way, don't touch the flower pots upstairs or water them. I'll take care of them myself."

Those precious herbs were not easy to take care of. If they did something bad out of goodwill and watered the flowers to death, Qin Xi would probably cry.

"Oh, okay." Hu Jingyun nodded in agreement.

After dinner, Qin Xi began to refine the Vitality Pill. Although the herbs used for the Vitality Pill were very common, it was very time-consuming and energy-consuming.

That's right. Every time she refined it, she needed to inject Mystic True Qi into the herb bit by bit to gradually form the Vitality Pill. When a batch of Vitality Pills was refined, the Mystic True Qi in Qin Xi's body would be exhausted.

As Qin Xi's cultivation level increased, the Mystic True Qi in her body became purer, and the effect of the Vitality Pills she refined became even better.

It was not until late at night that Qin Xi finished. At this moment, Pan Lingling and Hu Jingyun were already asleep. She dissolved the Vitality Pill in water and sprayed it on the herbs. Then, she dragged her tired body to take a shower and lay on the bed to sleep.

Chapter 485 Encounter

In the latter half of the night, Qin Xi, who was sleeping soundly, felt a warmth on her neck and an itch. She frowned slightly and turned around to continue sleeping.

However, just as she was about to fall asleep, she suddenly felt a chill on her body. Qin Xi suddenly woke up and was about to swing her hand when she heard the man's low and hoarse voice. "Xi, I missed you so much!"

Qin Xi felt a pair of big hands suddenly reach out to her waist and hug her tightly. Then, right on the heels of that, her lips were kissed.

Qin Xi couldn't breathe from the kiss. She tried to push him with her hand. However, Han Shi grabbed her hand and locked it above her head.

The man's large palm moved up and down her waist, and a numbing feeling spread throughout her body. Gradually, Qin Xi fell into a daze.

The man's lips slowly moved up and blew gently into the woman's ear. Qin Xi felt a moist and warm breath beside her ear, and the sensitive spot on her earlobe instantly turned red.

"Don't... don't kiss my ear!" Qin Xi whispered.

Han Shi did not stop what he was doing. The corners of his mouth curled up into a wicked smile as he nibbled on the girl's earlobe. Qin Xi's body trembled and gradually softened. She couldn't help but lean into the man's arms and put her hands around his neck.

[... 10,000 words are omitted here!]

After they finished doing it, Qin Xi lay on the man's chest and took a deep breath. Her face was red, and her eyes were watery. She was so beautiful that people couldn't help but want to taste that sweet taste again.

Han Shi hugged the soft body in his arms in satisfaction and kissed her cheek. He stroked the girl's smooth black hair with satisfaction and love in his eyes. "Go to sleep. It's too late today!"

When Qin Xi heard that, she did not answer. She just raised her head and pecked the man on the lips. Then, she turned around, closed her eyes, and fell asleep.

Han Shi felt a coolness on his lips and couldn't help but laugh. He hugged her and fell asleep.

The next morning, the sunlight shone into the room through the curtains and onto Han Shi's face. His eyelashes fluttered and he slowly opened his eyes. He stared at the sleeping girl in his arms with gentleness in his eyes.

Looking at the time, it was already past eight in the morning. The clinic downstairs was already open. Han Shi carefully took out his hand and opened the cabinet. There were his spare clothes inside.

It was a high-grade down jacket. It was all designed by Qin Xi. Although the design was simple, it enhanced one's aura.

Now that Han Shi had cultivated ancient martial arts, he exuded a natural noble aura. Coupled with Han Shi's handsome appearance, he looked like an immortal who had walked out of a painting.

After putting on his clothes and washing his face, he went downstairs and went out to buy breakfast for Qin Xi. He asked Pan Lingling to heat it up in the pot.

Han Shi reminded Pan Lingling in a low voice, "I'll go back first. When Xi wakes up, ask her to call me. Also, don't go up and wake her up. Let her sleep a little longer."

Pan Lingling nodded repeatedly and said in a low voice, "Got it, Boss."

Han Shi nodded and turned to leave the clinic. The door was pushed open, and a tall young man walked in with a gentlemanly smile.

"May I know if Qin Xi is here?"

Chapter 486 Bitterness

"May I know if Qin Xi is here?"

Han Shi did not pay much attention to it at first because there were so many people coming to the clinic every day to look for Qin Xi.

However, Han Shi could tell that there was a hint of love in the man's tone when he said "Qin Xi". This caused Han Shi to glance at the man.

The young man's face was handsome, and he exuded an extraordinary aura. His eyes were especially deep and charming.

He was tall and wore a well-ironed suit. His hair was combed neatly. His arms and legs were long. He looked like a prince who had walked out of a manga.

A trace of vigilance and wariness flashed across Han Shi's eyes.

When Han Shi looked at Gu Qing, Gu Qing also noticed Han Shi.

Han Shi was an existence that could not be ignored, especially his looks and temperament. He was even more outstanding than Gu Qing. He could not help but look at him with scrutiny.

“Why are you looking for Xi?” Han Shi suddenly asked calmly.

Gu Qing asked in puzzlement, “Xi?”

The corners of Han Shi’s mouth curled up as he said indifferently, “Oh, aren’t you looking for Qin Xi? I’m asking you, why are you going to look for her? However, no matter what it is about, you have to wait!”

“Why?”

Gu Qing didn’t understand. Also, who was this man who suddenly appeared out of nowhere?

For some reason, he had a bad feeling.

“Because she’s tired, I asked her to sleep a little longer! Is there a problem?” Han Shi saw the shock in his eyes and smiled evilly. “Comrade, if you want to look for my Xi, please come back in the afternoon. Don’t disturb her rest.”

Gu Qing was stunned, and his face turned slightly pale. Disbelief and coldness appeared on his handsome face. “Don’t you think it’s too much to say that?”

Han Shi smiled back. “Oh? How is it too much? Tell me.”

“Don’t you think she’ll be angry if she heard you say this?” Gu Qing still had a trace of hope in his heart, hoping that the young man in front of him was not as close to Qin Xi as he thought.

Han Shi smiled brightly and evilly. He said in a low voice, “Young comrade, aren’t you being too nosy? Why would my wife be angry with me?”

“Wife?”

Qin Xi’s beautiful face flashed across Gu Qing’s eyes, and his heart skipped a beat. He felt like his heart was being stabbed by a needle, and the pain spread throughout his body.

Was that outstanding woman already married?

Han Shi wanted to say something to agitate this man who was coveting his wife, but from the corner of his eye, he saw a figure standing at the top of the stairs. It was Qin Xi.

Qin Xi leaned against the stairs with her arms crossed and looked over teasingly. Han Shi swallowed his words and grinned. He quickly put on the face of a good man and walked to the stairs.

“Wifey, you’re awake. Are you hungry? I just bought you a few buns and porridge. Oh right, there’s also your favorite pickled vegetables. Come down and take a bite!”

The way he called Qin Xi ‘wifey’ was so cloying that it made people have goose bumps. Gu Qing’s originally calm expression was cracking inch by inch, and his heart was broken. His dark eyes flickered with disappointment and pain, and the light in his eyes became dimmer and dimmer, while his mouth was filled with bitterness.

Chapter 487 Strange Patient

Qin Xi walked downstairs and glanced at Han Shi. She looked at Gu Qing and said calmly, “Why are you looking for me?”

Gu Qing tried his best to calm down. He stared at Qin Xi, as if he wanted to see through her. His voice trembled slightly as he said, "You..."

He wanted to ask Qin Xi, "Are you really married?"

However, for some reason, this question seemed to be stuck in his throat and he could not bring himself to ask her. Perhaps he was afraid of hearing an answer that he didn't want to hear, or perhaps he was just trying to escape.

"Can you help me treat someone?" Gu Qing said after taking a few deep breaths. "There's a strange patient in the hospital. I couldn't treat him, so I came to find you."

If he had known that Han Shi would drop this bomb on him, he would not have set foot here.

"A strange patient? How so?" Qin Xi ignored the pain and sadness in Gu Qing's eyes, looking no different from usual.

"Everything about this patient is normal, but his brain is shut down. According to the patient's family, he lost consciousness for no reason. They tried countless methods, but the patient just couldn't wake up. This special state is very different from a vegetative state. At least a vegetative person has their consciousness, but this patient... is like a body without a soul. It's very strange."

Speaking of this, Gu Qing's expression became serious. "Science can't explain this phenomenon, so I came to see if you have any clue."

Qin Xi's expression darkened slightly as she pondered. "No soul... It's indeed quite strange. How about this? I'll go and take a look after breakfast."

Gu Qing nodded and stood there awkwardly. He wanted to ask something, but because Han Shi was present, he could only force a smile. "Then, I'll go back and wait for you."

After he left, Han Shi held Qin Xi's hand and said in all seriousness, "Xi, who is this person? I think he's looking at you improperly. You have to be careful. The people in the city are different from those in our village. They're good at sweet-talking. Don't be fooled."

Qin Xi looked at Han Shi speechlessly. "...What are you thinking? He's a doctor and a friend of mine. He's not as scheming as you think."

Han Shi touched his nose in embarrassment and muttered softly, "You treat him as a friend, but he might not treat you as a friend. Also, you have to be wary of him. That man has the potential to be a gigolo. Don't fall for his appearance!"

"What are you talking about..." Qin Xi couldn't be bothered with him and walked towards the small kitchen. "Have you eaten? If not, eat with me."

Han Shi followed her. "Ok!"

The Vitality Water was not effective on these spiritual herbs. After being watered last night, they did not seem to have grown at all. Helpless, Qin Xi decided to return to the herbal field to get more herbs another day.

Since the Vitality Water was useless, Qin Xi could only increase her strength as soon as possible before the mastermind discovered that the herbs were missing. It was best if she could reach the fifth level, which was a major realm.

As for Han Shi and the others, it was best if they could reach the Connate Realm. This way, they would have the strength to help her..

**

At Qingshan Private Hospital.

Qin Xi got out of the taxi. There were many small cars parked at the entrance of the five-story private hospital. It seemed that most of the people here were rich people!

Just as she was about to walk in, she was stopped by two security guards at the door.

When the security guards saw that she had alighted from the taxi, they looked down on her.

The people who came to Qingshan Hospital to get treated all came in cars with chauffeurs. However, they were definitely not people who took taxis.

Chapter 488 Taking the Initiative to Knock on the Door

Qin Xi looked at the security guard in front of her and raised her eyebrows. "What do you mean? Aren't people allowed to enter the hospital?"

"It's not that people are not allowed to enter, but people like you are not worthy of entering."

The security guard raised his chin high and said arrogantly, "Young lady, it's not that I want to make things difficult for you, but the fees in this private hospital are high to begin with. If you don't pay the fees in time, you'll still be chased out. I'm doing this for your own good. A poor person should go to a poor place to get treated. I know you're here to treat illnesses, but those who don't know might think that you're here to hook up with a rich man!"

Qin Xi chuckled. "Does the dean know that you're discriminating against people?"

"Dean? Don't use the dean to scare me. Let me tell you, my brother-in-law is an attending physician specially hired by Qingshan Hospital. He's an expert overseas. You can't scare me."

The security guard laughed at her for overestimating herself and mocked, "I reminded you out of kindness. I've seen many women like you. Although you say you're here to see a doctor, you're actually just to seek your prey. When you see a rich man, you'll pounce on him. Hmph, shameless. I despise women like you the most. You keep dreaming of becoming a phoenix."

Qin Xi's face gradually darkened.

She was here to help, but she did not expect to be mistaken for a gold-digger. No one could tolerate such an insult.

Qin Xi's tone was cold as she emphasized, "I'm a doctor. I was invited by Gu Qing to treat a special patient. If you stop me again, I'll leave. As for what happens next, it's none of my business. Now, you can go and inform Gu Qing, or I'll leave immediately."

Seeing that Qin Xi was confident, the security guard started to waver. As Qin Xi took out her medical license, the security guard was completely speechless. He smiled awkwardly. "I'm sorry, wait here. I'll make a call and ask."

As he spoke, he quickly entered the hall and used the phone at the front desk to call the dean's assistant.

"Hello, I'm the security guard at the door..."

At this moment, a nurse who looked like an assistant was on the phone. "Oh, okay. I'll go and ask the dean. Wait a moment!"

The nurse turned around and ran out. When she opened the door, she bumped into a beautiful woman in a white coat and apologized profusely, "Ah, it's Doctor Xie. I'm sorry, I'm sorry. I didn't see you."

Xie Min rubbed her arm and asked unhappily, "What's the matter? Why are you in such a hurry?"

"Oh, the security guard at the door asked me to ask Director Gu if he invited a doctor to treat a special patient. From what the security guard said, he suspects that that woman is up to no good," the young nurse said in a low voice.

Xie Min did not pay much attention to it at first, but for some reason, a figure suddenly flashed across her mind. It was Qin Xi, the woman who had once shown off her ability at the medical exchange.

She asked casually, "Do you know the name of that doctor?"

The nurse shook her head in embarrassment. "I heard from the security guard that it's a young girl. She seems to be a doctor of Chinese medicine..."

"A doctor of Chinese medicine?" Xie Min's heart skipped a beat. She immediately knew that this person was definitely Qin Xi.

For some reason, she had a feeling that what happened to Qiu Juan and Tang He had something to do with Qin Xi. That was why she had been quiet during this period of time and did not cause trouble for Qin Xi.

However, she did not expect Qin Xi to take the initiative to come knocking on her door.

Chapter 489 Conspiracy

"I'm really sorry, Doctor Qin. Um, you, you can go in now..."

When the security guard heard the answer on the other end of the phone, his attitude immediately changed drastically. He forced a smile, afraid that she would bear a grudge against him for discriminating against her.

Qin Xi couldn't be bothered with such a person. As soon as she entered the hall, a nurse ran over and came to Qin Xi anxiously.

“Is this Doctor Qin? The patient’s condition isn’t good. Come with me to take a look!”

Qin Xi raised her eyebrows. Although this nurse had an anxious expression and acted like she was in a hurry, Qin Xi still saw the guilty look in her eyes.

She narrowed her eyes. “Oh? Who asked you to pick me up? How do you know what patient I’m visiting?”

The nurse was already feeling guilty. When she was asked this question, her heart immediately thumped. She gritted her teeth and said in a panic, “Um, aren’t you here to help? Come with me. The patient is really dying. No one can bear the responsibility if we delay it.”

Qin Xi smiled faintly. “Then let’s go!”

The nurse heaved a sigh of relief. She was afraid that Qin Xi would ask more, so she quickly turned around and jogged to lead the way for Qin Xi. During the way, she kept urging, “This way, Doctor Qin, please hurry up...”

Qin Xi did not care at all. She did not stop walking and asked leisurely, “What’s your name?”

The nurse’s expression froze and she blurted out a random name. “My name is Suli, Wang Suli. Doctor Qin, this way...”

On the third floor, the nurse came to an intensive care unit and pointed at the door. “This is it. Doctor Qin, go in and take a look. I’ll go back to work first.”

As if afraid that Qin Xi would ask her questions, she turned around and ran away. In the blink of an eye, she was gone.

Qin Xi pouted and pushed open the door carelessly. In an instant, the faint smell of disinfectant that was unique to the hospital assaulted her. She went to the bed and looked at the beeping sound of the equipment beside her with a deep gaze.

The person on the bed was a young man. The young man was handsome and his face was pale. His head was wrapped in thick gauze and his eyes were closed. His expression was very peaceful. There was black fog floating over the young man. After absorbing the black fog, Qin Xi immediately understood what was going on.

However, the corners of Qin Xi’s mouth curled up evilly as she muttered, “It seems like you want to frame me. Then let’s see if you have the ability to do it.”

Her gaze landed on the young man’s face. “And you, I’ll settle the score with you when you wake up!”

She took out the Recovery Pill she had prepared previously. Although giving away this pill made her heart ache a little, at the thought that this was a life, she did not hesitate. She then took out Ice Soul Silver Needles and inserted them into the young man’s bandaged head, chest, and sole. Her slender hand gently touched the silver needles, making them vibrate.

After doing all of this, the instrument beside her let out sharp whistles. Even though Qin Xi did not know anything about Western medicine, she had seen it on television. This was an alarm triggered when the patient’s heartbeat stopped.

In an instant, the alarm that was connected to the nurse station sounded. The door of the intensive care unit was pushed open violently. The person was wearing a white coat and had long and beautiful legs.

Seeing this person, Qin Xi raised her eyebrows and smiled sarcastically. "You came very quickly!"

Xie Min strode in. When she saw the silver needles on the young man, she shouted, "What are you doing? Who allowed you to come in? Do you know that you killed someone?"

Chapter 490 Framing

"Are you sure I killed him?"

Xie Min frowned. Seeing that Qin Xi was still calm and fearless, she sneered in her heart. No matter who it was today, they wouldn't be able to protect her.

"If not you, who did it?" She pointed at the silver needles on the young man's body angrily. "You treated the patient without permission. Do you know the patient's condition? He..."

"Isn't it just a tumor in the brain and a lesion not long after the surgery? I can tell just by taking his pulse. What's so difficult about that?"

Before Xie Min could finish, Qin Xi told her about the young man's symptoms, making Xie Min speechless.

"What's going on?" At this moment, a group of doctors in white coats came to the door of the ward and immediately asked in a low voice.

The corners of Xie Min's mouth immediately curled up, and a sinister glint flashed across her eyes. She turned around and changed her expression. Her eyes were red from anger as she choked on her words. "Doctor Cao, it's this person. She barged into the ward and did something to the patient. The patient..."

Doctor Cao was the young man's attending doctor. The day before yesterday, he operated on the young man. Initially, the young man had a 40% chance of recovering, but now, it was all ruined.

A few doctors walked in and glared at Qin Xi. Their voices were as cold as knives as they reprimanded, "Who are you? Why did you barge into the ward? Do you know what kind of heinous crime you've committed?"

Qin Xi opened her mouth and was about to say something when a few more people ran in.

There was a middle-aged man with a cold face and a haggard woman. These two people were the young man's parents, followed by a few relatives of different ages.

"My Miaomiao... My Miaomiao!"

When the woman heard the ear-piercing and long beeping sound of the electrocardiogram in the ward, she swayed and burst into tears.

"Madam Pei, I'm very sorry. Your son was initially getting better, but this person..." Xie Min pointed at Qin Xi with a sad expression and said angrily, "Madam Pei, it's all because of this person. She came out of nowhere and inserted needles into your son, causing your son to..."

“I-I’m sorry for your loss!”

“What? My son was killed by someone?” When Madam Pei heard that her son was killed, she felt as if she had been struck by lightning. Her heart ached as if it was being pricked by needles.

When the young man’s father heard this, he trembled in anger. His eyes were filled with killing intent as he looked at Qin Xi as if he wanted to kill her.

Seeing that her plan had worked, Xie Min immediately took the opportunity to apologize. She said pretentiously, “Madam Pei, Mr. Tan, I’m sorry. It’s our hospital’s fault. I didn’t expect someone to dare to sneak in and harm the patient. I apologize to you on behalf of the hospital. This person... We’ve decided to call the police. What do you think?”

Madam Pei was already heartbroken. She pushed Xie Min away and staggered to her son’s bed. Seeing that he was covered in silver needles and they were vibrating, she was about to pull them out.

“If you want your son to die, pull it out...”

Qin Xi’s faint voice made everyone look over, their eyes filled with anger.

Seeing that there was an opportunity, Xie Min pointed at Qin Xi and said to the grieving Madam Pei, “Madam Pei, did you see that? This vicious woman is the culprit who killed your son. Not only did she kill your son, but she also wants to threaten you. We’d better call the police now. Otherwise, who knows what else she will do.”

The other doctors nodded in agreement.

Suddenly, Qin Xi chuckled and mocked, “How interesting...”
