Chapter 661 Making a Living

At the same time, Qin Xi and Han Shi had already appeared in front of the snipers.

The two snipers were hiding on the tree. Before they could react, Qin Xi and Han Shi kicked out at the same time. With two bangs, the two unlucky snipers were kicked off the tree.

Not only did they fall to the ground, but there was also the sound of bones breaking. Two miserable screams resounded in the sky above the villa. Even Wang Zhiqiang and the others in the house heard them.

Qin Xi and Han Shi flew down and landed in front of the snipers. Qin Xi frowned and kicked the sniper who was still wailing. She asked, "Tell me, who sent you?"

Actually, she had some guesses. In the past six months, she had made too many enemies. Could it be that the old man of the Shi family had noticed that she stole herbs from him?

Just as she was feeling puzzled, Han Shi patted the dust off his body and looked at the person lying on the ground who was moaning in pain. He sneered. "Speak! Why aren't you speaking?"

"I, I'll tell you..." The sniper said with a painful expression, his voice very weak. "You, come closer and I'll tell you..."

Just as Qin Xi and Han Shi were focused on the sniper, another sniper took out a gun from somewhere and pulled the trigger, aiming it at Qin Xi's head.

The bullet brushed past Qin Xi's ear and shot into the grass, causing smoke and dust to rise.

Seeing that he did not succeed, the sniper's heart skipped a beat and he fired a second shot. Han Shi quickly pulled Qin Xi behind him and used his arm to block the bullet.

Before the sniper could fire a third shot, Han Shi kicked him in the head.

In a fit of anger, Han Shi did not hold back the power of this kick. With a crack, the sniper's head was smashed into pieces. Blood splattered everywhere and his brain exploded. The entire scene was shocking.

Blood immediately splattered on the face of the other sniper. He was first stunned, then right on the heels of that, he was overwhelmed by fear.

Han Shi turned to look at that sniper with an extremely cold gaze. "Now, can you tell me?"

"I, I, I, we were sent by the Su family. You can't kill me..." The sniper's eyes were filled with fear as he said with a trembling voice.

"The Su family?" Qin Xi's eyes lit up and her clenched fists immediately relaxed.

"You were all going to kill me. Why can't I kill you? What an idiot."

Han Shi curled his lips in disdain. Then, he walked to the sniper and squatted down. He picked up the sniper rifle on the ground and sized it up. "Tsk, tsk, tsk. This thing looks quite good. Wifey, do you want to play with it?"

Qin Xi raised her eyebrows and took the sniper rifle. "Sure, I've never touched this thing before. Let me try it."

She smiled at the sniper on the ground who was so frightened that his face turned pale. "I can't guarantee your safety later. If your head explodes, don't blame me. I'm a newbie after all!"

The sniper was speechless.

"Please let me go. I have a family. I came out to earn a living..." He begged with tears streaming down his face.

The corners of Qin Xi's mouth curled into a devilish smile. "Trying to make a living? If killing people is considered a way to make a living, then I really want to try this career."

Chapter 662 Confession

Qin Xi pulled the trigger. With a muffled bang, the bullet pierced through the sniper's kneecap, causing blood to splash out.

He let out a heart-wrenching scream, sounding especially gruesome in the deep villa.

Fortunately, this was a villa and there were no residents around. Otherwise, such a scream would definitely attract a lot of attention.

The sniper hugged his bleeding knees. His hands were covered in blood, and it was so painful that he almost fainted.

"Yo, I missed it. I wanted to hit his foot, but I didn't expect it to hit his knee," Qin Xi said casually.

Han Shi chuckled and patted her head dotingly. "It's fine. Try it again. Anyway, we have a lot of bullets to practice with."

The sniper was about to cry. Were these two demons? Was it really appropriate to say this in front of him?

However, he had really had enough of this heart-wrenching pain. He quickly begged for mercy, "I, I can tell you about the Su family. Please let me go. I'm already a cripple and can't threaten you anymore. Please let me go!"

Qin Xi threw the sniper rifle to Han Shi. Han Shi had never held this thing before and began to play with it with interest.

"Then tell me about the Su family. The more detailed the better. Perhaps I'll consider letting you go."

The sniper was overjoyed. He endured the pain in his knee and told the story of the Su family.

The Su family was the number one ancient martial arts family in the capital. If the Su family claimed to be number two in the capital, no one would dare to claim to be number one.

However, although the Su family seemed to be harmonious on the surface, only the people in the Su family knew that it was time for the members of the Su family to fight for the position of the family head. Whoever was the family head would get to enjoy endless wealth and power.

To the ambitious men of the Su family, this was undoubtedly the most fatal temptation.

The Su family was divided into three factions.

One was formed by the elders of the Su family who supported the rightful heir.

The other was formed by the collateral relatives of the Su family. Although they were collateral relatives, they were in charge of 70% of the Su family's business chain. This was a rule set by the ancestors at that time. The direct descendants only needed to cultivate diligently and did not need to worry about anything else, so this situation slowly formed.

The last one was formed by the young elites of the Su family selected by the organization. To put it nicely, they were selected, but in fact, they were just puppets for the organization to control the entire Su family.

As for why the organization was allowed to participate, the reason was actually very simple. If the organization really fell out with the Su family, although the organization would suffer a lot, it would not go downhill.

On the other hand, if the Su family did not have the protection of the organization, they would become a pile of scattered sand.

To put it bluntly, the relationship between the Su family and the organization complemented each other and restrained each other. Of course, the organization was definitely the strongest. If they really angered the organization, the organization would not tolerate them even if it meant losing the ancient martial arts inheritance of the Su family.

Chapter 663 Women Are Troublesome

Qin Xi also had a rough understanding of the Su family.

However, she did not care about the Su family. What she cared about was the woman called Su Lei, who was the mastermind behind the prosecution of Wang Zhiqiang's team.

In the past, she also felt that the Su family was her greatest enemy. However, after understanding the Su family through the sniper, she realized that the Su family's ancient martial arts level was generally not high.

She had already thought it through. They had to take revenge on Su Lei. If the Su family really wanted to protect Su Lei, she would not back down.

After dealing with the sniper, Qin Xi and Han Shi went to see Wang Zhiqiang and the others.

As soon as she entered the house, she saw a few people wailing on the ground. She took a closer look and realized that they had been tortured.

Seeing that Qin Xi and Han Shi were here, they immediately restrained their aura and greeted respectfully, "Hello, Lady Boss and Boss!"

Qin Xi nodded and asked, "Your whereabouts have been leaked. Do you know who did it?"

Before anyone could speak, Thunderkill took a step forward and said with a sad face, "Lady Boss, this has something to do with me. I'm sorry for causing trouble for everyone."

Qin Xi waved her hand and said indifferently, "It's not a big deal. Besides, the Su family has a grudge against us to begin with. We'll confront each other sooner or later. There's no need to apologize. But tell me first, why is this matter related to you again?"

Thunderkill was still thinking about how to put it when he heard Blood Stealer say casually.

"What else can it be? It's that woman's fault. That foreign woman who is close to Thunderkill went to the capital with her team. I heard that she had a photo of Thunderkill on her. One of the lackeys of the Su family accidentally saw it and reported it. Later on, Su Lei sent her subordinates to check and found out that we were all alive and kicking."

"That's why women are troublesome sometimes."

Just as Blood Stealer muttered, he heard Han Shi sneer. "Speak louder if you have the gut. Let your lady boss hear it too."

Blood Stealer's expression changed drastically. He did not dare to speak anymore and hid behind Wang Zhiqiang like a quail.

Qin Xi frowned and reminded, "Since Su Lei has suffered such a huge loss this time, she definitely won't let the matter rest. You have to be more vigilant. Don't let others take advantage of you like today."

Wang Zhiqiang nodded solemnly. "Understood."

Blood Stealer quickly stuck his head out from behind Wang Zhiqiang and patted his chest. "Don't worry, Lady Boss. We were careless this time. We've been living too well recently and let our guard down. From today onwards, we'll definitely be on guard. Nothing like today will happen."

Qin Xi sneered. "Do you think you had the upper hand today?"

Chapter 664 Narrow-minded Blood Stealer

"Isn't that so? We caught these assassins?"

Blood Stealer scratched his head and looked at Qin Xi in confusion.

Not only was Blood Stealer puzzled, but even Wang Zhiqiang, Black Ghost, and the others looked at her in confusion.

"Actually, you've long been drugged. If not for the fact that the medicinal pills I usually give you are mixed with antidotes, you would probably be dead by now."

Qin Xi shook her head helplessly.

From the moment she entered, she felt a strange smell infiltrating the air. If not for the fact that Qin Xi's attainments in medicine had already reached the peak, even she would not be able to smell it.

As for why Wang Zhiqiang, Blood Stealer, and the others weren't affected, it was all thanks to Han Shi's blood.

Han Shi had the golden blood toad and was immune to poison. Previously, Qin Xi had used Han Shi's blood to refine pills for Wang Zhiqiang and the others so that they could also be immune to poison.

Hearing Qin Xi's words, the expressions of Wang Zhiqiang, Blood Stealer, Black Ghost, and the others changed drastically. They did not expect these assassins to use such a ruthless method.

Blood Stealer was so angry that he kicked the assassin on the ground. He cursed in his heart. He had just shamelessly promised the lady boss, but in the next second, he was slapped in the face. If not for the fact that he was thick-skinned, he would probably be too ashamed to face anyone.

A trace of fear flashed across the eyes of Wang Zhiqiang and the others. Previously, they had already felt that something was wrong. These assassins had been arrested, but why were they still so arrogant? They thought that it was because of the Su family that they had nothing to fear. It turned out that they were waiting for the drug to take effect and fight back.

"Lady Boss, I want to go to the capital." Wang Zhiqiang was silent for a moment before he suddenly said, "I want to go to the capital to find out more about the Su family."

Qin Xi frowned and thought about what the sniper had just said. Although she had a rough understanding of the Su family, the sniper was not a real member of the Su family after all. With his status, he should not be able to come into contact with the core members of the Su family. If the information he gave was wrong, the consequences would be unimaginable.

Thinking of this, she nodded. "Sure. Who do you want to bring with you?"

As soon as she finished speaking, Blood Stealer jumped out.

"Take me with me." He had just made a fool of himself in front of the lady boss. Now, he urgently wanted to save his last bit of dignity, so he couldn't wait to jump out.

Wang Zhiqiang ignored him and looked past him at the others. "Saber, Thunderkill, and Goshawk, go with me. The rest of you, stay at home and protect Elder Han."

"What about me? What should I do?" Blood Stealer was dumbfounded and instantly looked at Wang Zhiqiang aggrievedly.

He had already proposed to go. Why did Wang Zhiqiang treat him like air? Was he that bad?

He originally wanted to argue, but when Wang Zhiqiang gave him a threatening look, Blood Stealer immediately stopped and retreated silently.

"Alright, deal with these people. Rest well tonight. Tomorrow, we'll have a small gathering at home. After the gathering, if you want to leave, leave as soon as possible, but you have to come back before the new year. Do you hear me?" Qin Xi instructed with a smile.

“Roger that,” they said in unison.

After Qin Xi and Han Shi left, Blood Stealer looked at the assassins on the ground with a dangerous glint in his eyes.

“What are you looking at?” Thunderkill nudged Blood Stealer and asked curiously.

Blood Stealer grinned and took out a small container that was a few millimeters long. He shook it and said, “By the way, I’ve never tried Lady Boss’s Thousand Year Intoxication!”

Chapter 665 Complaining

Qin Xi called the staff at the clinic over for the gathering, including Liu Dequan and his son’s family.

When Xia Tangxin heard that Qin Xi was having a gathering, she immediately left the Sweet Dew Fruit Store and ran over. Of course, she did not forget to call Zhao Dan and Zheng Zhou.

They were already very familiar with each other. After coming, they would help Luo Xiujuan work in the kitchen. They cleaned the table, set up the wine glasses, and cut the fruits. They treated this place as their home.

Qin Xi and Xia Tangxin were making fresh fruit juice in the kitchen. Seeing that Xia Tangxin had been living a good life recently, she immediately teased, “You’ve been glowing recently. Why? Have you established a relationship with Mars?”

In front of Qin Xi, Xia Tangxin did not feel embarrassed at all. She nodded with a smile.

“Yes, before he left, we established a relationship. He said that after he’s done with the work in the Medical Association, he’ll settle down here with me. By the way, he also said that he wants to learn Chinese medicine from you. I even laughed at him. Why would a foreigner learn Chinese medicine? Even Chinese people have a hard time learning Chinese medicine, let alone him.”

Qin Xi shook her head and laughed. “Mars is indeed very talented in medicine, but Chinese medicine is not something that can be mastered overnight.”

Not to mention Mars, even Liu Dequan, who had been a doctor his entire life, did not know much about Chinese medicine. As a foreigner who could not even speak Chinese, how could he understand Chinese medicine, let alone learn it?

Xia Tangxin shrugged. “I’ve told him everything, but he’s stubborn and won’t back down until he fails.”

“It doesn’t matter. If he wants to come, he can come. I can teach him. Let’s see how long he can stick to it.”

Qin Xi was not too concerned about this matter, but she did not forget to tease, “In any case, you’ll get married in the future, and it’s only right for me to help him.”

Xia Tangxin held her cheeks and said smugly, “Of course. You’re the one who matched us.”

She leaned closer to Qin Xi, as if she wanted to whisper something to her. However, before she could say anything, she saw Han Shi standing behind them, frightening Xia Tangxin out of her wits.

“You, why are you standing behind us without saying a word? Are you trying to scare me to death?” Xia Tangxin patted her chest and glared at him.

Han Shi ignored her and cleverly pushed her to the side. Then, he took over Xia Tangxin’s place. He picked up the fruits and started to wash them while saying sarcastically.

“Who knows if that man has ulterior motives towards you or not. Perhaps he’s just after your money.”

Xia Tangxin was so angry that her face turned red. However, she knew that she was not as argumentative as Han Shi. She turned to look at Qin Xi and complained.

“Xi, look at him. He’s bullying me again. Teach him a lesson.”

Qin Xi looked at her coldly and said in the gentlest voice, “Be good and stop fooling around. This is my man. I can’t teach him a lesson, even if you’re my friend.”

Xia Tangxin widened her eyes and pouted, pretending to be hurt. “So this is your true colors, Qin Xi. I treated you as my friend, but you two actually bullied me together!”

Chapter 666 Jealous of Blackie

After making Xia Tangxin leave, Han Shi looked at his wife dotingly. The more he looked at her, the more he loved her. He couldn’t help but kiss her on the cheek.

Qin Xi rolled her eyes. “If anyone sees you doing this, you’ll sleep on the ground tonight!”

“Don’t worry, wifey. No one saw us.” As soon as he finished speaking, he felt someone stepping on his foot. He looked down and met Blackie’s big black eyes.

Han Shi said fiercely, “What are you looking at?”

Blackie woofed at him, its voice loud and clear, as if it was saying, “So what if I’m looking at you?”

This was at least how Han Shi interpreted it in his heart. He was immediately furious and kicked Blackie’s butt. “Get lost. Don’t get in my way. I get angry when I see you.”

Blackie seemed to understand and began to bare its fangs at him, like a ferocious beast that would bite Han Shi at any time.

Qin Xi stroked Blackie’s head and glared at Han Shi. “Can you not be so childish? Blackie didn’t do anything to you. Why are you always targeting him?”

Seeing that his wife only cared about the dog, Han Shi felt extremely aggrieved. He pointed at his feet and complained.

“Wifey, can’t you see that he stepped on me first? It’s not like you don’t know how painful it is to be stepped on by his big claws. I haven’t settled the score with him yet, but he’s already barking at me. Wifey, you can’t be biased!”

Blackie was immediately obedient after being touched by Qin Xi. He kept rubbing Zeng Xi’s calf. Han Shi’s face darkened. He grabbed Blackie by the scruff of its neck and walked out. Before he left, he did not forget to peck Qin Xi on the mouth and threatened fiercely, “You’re not allowed to touch it in the future, especially in front of me.”

Just like that, Han Shi carried Blackie, who was struggling with all its might, out of the kitchen, leaving Qin Xi standing there shaking her head helplessly.

Because there were many people, lunch was extremely sumptuous. Even Qin Xi did not expect Luo Xiujuan to be so good at cooking. Moreover, looking at the delicious feast, she suddenly felt that she did not know her mother-in-law very well.

Xia Tangxin looked surprised. "Wow, I didn't expect Auntie Luo to be so capable. Even a three-star Michelin chef can make some of these dishes."

"That's right. Just looking at it makes me drool. Auntie Luo, you're too talented. Could it be that you were a chef in the past? If so, you must be working at a five-star hotel!"

"It makes me hungry."

Luo Xiujuan burst with joy at the praise. She touched her hot face. "If you like it, eat more. There's still soup in the pot. It'll be ready soon."

"Auntie Luo, let me help you." Xia Tangxin followed Luo Xiujuan into the kitchen.

Seeing that everyone was praising the delicacies on the table, Han Dazhu smiled smugly.

"Let me tell you something. Your Auntie Luo's ancestor used to be an imperial chef. However, when her father was around, there was a famine. Almost all of the Luo family was wiped out. She learned the cooking skills bit by bit from the notes left behind by her ancestor. In the past, our family was so poor that we didn't have any ingredients for her to practice with. Now, she can showcase her skills. I didn't expect her to know so much."

Qin Xi was shocked. "Mom actually has such a background."

Chapter 667 The Descendant of the Imperial Chef

Qin Xi never expected Luo Xiujuan to be a descendant of an imperial chef. It was no wonder why she could prepare a table full of delicacies.

She had always thought that Luo Xiujuan was ingenious, but she did not expect her background to be so prestigious.

For some people, no matter how much they learned, even if the recipes were extremely detailed, they could make it. For the talented people, they could make a dish by just looking at the process once.

Qin Xi did not have such talent, but the food she made was edible nonetheless.

"Alright, stop looking. Hurry up and eat. It won't taste good if it gets cold." Seeing that they were staring at the food on the table without eating, Han Dazhu quickly reminded them.

Everyone looked embarrassed. Liu Dequan laughed heartily and patted Han Dazhu on the shoulder. "The juniors won't sit before us. Don't talk so much. Hurry up and take a seat. Otherwise, these children will be hungry."

Han Dazhu was enlightened. He quickly sat down and picked up his chopsticks. "Alright, just treat this place as your home. Take whatever you want to eat and drink."

Only then did everyone pick up their chopsticks. As they ate, they said to Han Dazhu, "Don't worry, Grandpa Han. We won't stand on ceremony. There's so much delicious food today. I won't go back until I eat my fill."

"Hahaha, okay, go ahead and eat. There is enough food!" It had been a long time since the house was so lively. Han Dazhu couldn't hide the joy on his face.

After the meal, everyone's stomachs were obviously much fuller. Even Blackie, who was locked outside by Han Shi, was full and lay in the courtyard to bask in the sun.

After eating and drinking their fill, everyone began to clean up the house. In less than half an hour, everything was cleaned up. After that, it was time to have some fun.

After discussion, dozens of people began to sit on the ground and play cards.

Soon, the Lunar New Year passed. Wang Zhiqiang, Cang Yi, and Thunderkill took a plane to the capital.

Before leaving, Qin Xi gave them a lot of things, including talisman papers and pills. In order to prevent the things from being detected, she even used a special method to hide these things.

Only after seeing them board the plane did Qin Xi and Han Shi leave.

After the new year, Qin Xi went back to the clinic. Han Shi was also very busy. Apart from working with Mu Di, he also had to organize the pharmaceutical company. Previously, the company was called Yaohui Pharmaceuticals. Now, it was called Sunshine Pharmaceuticals.

Sunshine symbolized hope and light. It was the dawn of the future. It was a company that really worked for the benefit of the commoners.

Chapter 668 Public Display of Affection

As soon as she returned to the clinic, Qin Xi saw Lin Feng and Pan Lingling displaying affection in public.

"Hey, the two of you, keep a low profile. You haven't even established a relationship yet, but you're already so clingy. Show some concern for the single people."

Hu Jingyun agreed with her. Her pretty face was filled with indignation. "Lady Boss, hurry up and discipline them. The two of them are too much. Yesterday, they were like this at the gathering."

During this period of time, Hu Jingyun had been dealt a lot of blows. Be it going to work or getting off work, eating or working, the two of them were like a married couple. They did not care about the others. Moreover, the two of them were not really together yet. If they really got together, they would probably even go to the bathroom together.

This made Hu Jingyun, who was single, want to tear them apart.

Pan Lingling did not feel anything when Hu Jingyun saw her being intimate with Lin Feng, but in front of Qin Xi, she felt inexplicably guilty. Her face quickly turned red, and she was so embarrassed that she wished she could find a hole to hide in.

Lin Feng did not care about that. His skin was as thick as the city wall. He grinned and said, "What can I do? We're on good terms. If you don't like it, you can find yourself a boyfriend. It's time for you to find a boyfriend anyway. Don't keep snatching my girlfriend from me. By the way, if you don't have anyone you like, you can tell me. I have a lot of bros who are single. If you..."

Before he could finish, Hu Jingyun was so angry that her face turned red. She reached out and stepped on Lin Feng's foot. It was so painful that he gritted his teeth, and his handsome face was twisted with pain.

It was obvious how much strength Hu Jingyun used.

"Don't talk nonsense. If you dare to spout nonsense in front of Lady Boss again, I'll crush your feet." Hu Jingyun threatened angrily.

Lin Feng covered his feet and begged aggrievedly, "I won't do it again. I won't do it again..."

Hu Jingyun was like a victorious heroine. She immediately put her hands on her hips, raised her chin, and snorted. "At least you know what's good for you!"

"Alright, I don't care about what the two of you do in other places, but don't let your relationship affect the work in the clinic. Pan Lingling, you have to be cautious when you're getting the herbs. If anything goes wrong, I won't show mercy. And you." Qin Xi looked at Lin Feng, who was smiling cheekily. "If you make any mistake during the treatment, I'll throw you back to where you came from, understand?"

"Yes, Lady Boss!" Lin Feng immediately said seriously.

Qin Xi said with a faint smile, "Jingyun, watch over the two of them from now on. If anything goes wrong, come and find me. Do you hear me?"

Hu Jingyun immediately glanced at Lin Feng and was overjoyed. She quickly patted her chest and promised, "Don't worry, lady boss. I'll definitely monitor them for you."

Qin Xi chuckled and turned to go upstairs.

After returning to the lounge upstairs, Qin Xi began to take care of the rare herbs she collected.

Chapter 669 Medicinal Cuisine restaurant

When Qin Xi heard yesterday that Luo Xiujian was the descendant of an imperial chef, she immediately had the idea of opening a restaurant.

Actually, she had thought about it in the past. At that time, she only wanted to open a smaller restaurant for Luo Xiujian. After all, she was so good at cooking that it was a pity not to open a restaurant. Moreover, she realized that Luo Xiujian was a person who couldn't stay idle. She would feel uncomfortable when she had nothing to do.

Qin Xi asked her to come over to help with the matters in the clinic, but she refused. Helpless, Qin Xi could only let her be in charge of the daily vegetable test to see if there were any rotten vegetables.

Although work was easy, she was extremely busy.

Now that Qin Xi knew that Luo Xiujuan was so capable, how could she not let Luo Xueyan make use of her skills? She spent the entire night thinking about opening a medicinal cuisine restaurant and was now looking at the medicinal cuisine recipes she had recorded.

After the entire morning, Qin Xi had filled half of the notebook with step-by-step medicinal cuisine recipes.

In addition to the cooking steps, there were also things Luo Xiujuan needed to pay attention to. For example, mutton and beef were the most taboo for customers with epilepsy. Therefore, Qin Xi wrote many corresponding food therapy plans for such special customers.

Of course, if Qin Xi really opened such a restaurant, she would have to get the customers to check their health in advance. However, if that was the case, not many people would come to eat medicine cuisine.

This was not only because it was troublesome, but also because they could not accept their privacy being known.

Even if she was very confident in the medicinal cuisine recipe, not many customers would be willing to try it.

However, Qin Xi had also thought about the solution to this problem. As long as the location of the medicinal cuisine restaurant was next to Ji Ding hall, it would be convenient for customers to check their health first. Moreover, the medicinal ingredients in the medicinal cuisine restaurant could be obtained from just next door.

Most importantly, if anything unexpected happened, the staff of Ji Tripod Hall would be able to rush over immediately.

On the other side, Wang Zhiqiang, Saber, Goshawk, and Thunderkill had just landed in the capital. Looking at the familiar and yet unfamiliar city, Thunderkill sighed and said, "Sigh, I wonder how our old friends have been all these years."

Goshawk sneered. "Old friends? When we were forced into a corner, who stood up for us? I don't want to be friends with them."

Thunderkill felt that Goshawk was exuding a cold aura. He frowned and explained, "What could they do?. Even the organization has given up on us. No matter how capable they were, they couldn't change anything. You're being too critical of them."

Goshawk looked at Thunderkill coldly. "Have you forgotten the days when we were constantly running and couldn't see the light of day. Did any of them treat you as their brother? Can you not be stupid? Do you need me to teach you what it means to be stray dogs?"

Thunderkill touched his nose awkwardly and muttered softly, "Why are you so angry at me? I didn't say anything. I just felt emotional back in the capital again."

“Cut the crap. Since they want to keep a distance from us, don’t get too close to them.” Goshawk snorted.

Just as Thunderkill was about to retort, he heard Wang Zhiqiang say expressionlessly, “Alright, let’s find a place to settle down first. This place is not suitable for conversation.”

Upon hearing that, Thunderkill and Goshawk fell silent at the same time and did not dare to continue arguing.

Saber said, “Yes, we’re too conspicuous. Su Lei has already set her eyes on us. With her ability, she’ll know that we’re here in the capital soon. Before that, we have to do what we have to do and keep a low profile.”

Chapter 670 Su Lei

After arriving in the capital and finding a hotel, he called to inform Qin Xi that they were safe.

When Qin Xi received the call, she only reminded them, “Remember, no matter what, safety first. If you’re in danger, I’ll come and save you.”

Knowing Qin Xi cared about their safety more than the task, Wang Zhiqiang felt inexplicably touched.

“Don’t worry, Lady Boss. We will be careful.”

With the talismans and pills Qin Xi gave them, Wang Zhiqiang was sure that the task could be carried out smoothly.

However, Wang Zhiqiang would not let Su Lei off so easily. Over the years, not only had they suffered physical torture, but they had also suffered a mental and psychological torture. Therefore, Su Lei had to pay the price.

Now that they finally had the chance to deal with her personally, they would definitely not miss this opportunity.

Of course, that was not the important reason why they wanted to take revenge. The most important reason was that they wanted to avenge their Eighth Brother. If their Eighth Brother had not put himself in danger back then, they would probably have died in that explosion.

For the sake of their Eighth Brother and his daughter, Tong Tong, they would give Su Lei the punishment she deserved.

Wang Zhiqiang’s eyes were filled with killing intent as he clenched his fists tightly.

“Su Lei, are you ready to live in hell? We are back. We will make you repay the humiliation and pain you brought to the assault team ten times or a hundred times over!”

At the same time, in an international beauty salon in the capital.

A voluptuous woman with fair skin was lying on the massage bed with a look of enjoyment. Beside her, four male masseurs were kneeling on the ground and carefully massaging her.

The woman looked to be in her twenties. Her skin was as smooth as a baby's, and her figure was well-endowed. She was wearing a low-cut V-neck dress, revealing her proud figure. Coupled with her beautiful face, she exuded an indescribable charm.

This person was Su Lei, a woman in her forties. The reason why she could maintain her youth so well was because of her Shifu.

Just as she was enjoying the massage with her eyes half-closed, a series of urgent knocks on the door woke her up. A fierce look flashed across her beautiful eyes as she said in a low voice, "Come in!"

The person who opened the door was Su Lei's assistant, Ye Zhan.

He was dressed in a suit and leather shoes. He looked refined and had gold-rimmed glasses on the bridge of his nose. He exuded the charm of a mature man. The corners of his mouth curled up, looking evil.

"Why are you here?" Su Lei raised her eyebrows and glanced at the man lazily. "Are you done with your work at the company?"

Ye Zhan glanced at the four young masseurs beside Su Lei and said coldly, "Get out. I have something to say to President Su alone."

The four young men quickly closed the door gently and left.

After the door was closed, Su Lei raised her eyebrows and said with a faint smile, "Chase my boys away. Ye Zhan, who gave you the guts to do that?"

The corners of Ye Zhan's mouth immediately curled up into an evil smile. He took off his suit and bent down to begin massaging her. The massage was neither light nor heavy, but it made Su Lei feel comfortable.

Gradually, Su Lei relaxed and closed her eyes. She could not help but smile. "Tell me, why are you looking for me?"

"There's still no news of the people you sent out."
