Chapter 681 Ye Zhan's Analysis

Although the Fu family knew that the mastermind was Yun Piao, with the current situation of the Fu family, it was difficult to go against the Yun family.

Even so, Mr. Fu still did not want to let Yun Piao off. He narrowed his eyes and looked at Fu Fang. He asked, "By the way, I heard that Yun Piao is going to take an examination recently, right?"

Fu Fang nodded and looked at Mr. Fu suspiciously. "She's been preparing for her doctor's license for a long time. Dad, why are you suddenly asking this?"

"Nothing."

Mr. Fu did not want to tell Fu Fang his plan. Instead, he called Brother Huang to the study. The two of them did not talk for long before Brother Huang went out.

In the president's office of the Far Ocean International Consortium in the capital.

Su Lei's face darkened. It had been three days, but the people she sent out had yet to return. This finally made her realize that something had gone wrong.

At this moment, there was a light knock on the office door and Ye Zhan's voice came from outside.

"President Su, can I come in?"

"Enter!"

Su Lei was in a bad mood now, so her tone was naturally filled with hostility. She glanced at Ye Zhan and said coldly, "What's the matter?"

Ye Zhan's expression was solemn. "President Su, the new batch of goods was intercepted by some people. Moreover, they burned the goods at the dock."

Su Lei suddenly stood up. Her eyes were as cold as swords as she gritted her teeth and said, "What did you say?"

Ye Zhan lowered his head and repeated, "The new batch of goods that are going to be traded tonight has been destroyed. If our partner can't get the goods, our company will very likely have to compensate them with a huge penalty." The penalty was secondary. The most important thing was that this accident might very well implicate Su Lei in the competition for the head of the Su family.

In fact, Su Lei did not expect that someone would actually dare to destroy the Su family's goods. All these years, the Su family had been doing well in the capital and had never suffered such humiliation. Just as she was about to flare up, Ye Zhan spoke.

He analyzed tentatively, "President Su, I think the accident this time is not simple. First of all, everyone in the capital knows that this dock is our Su family's territory. There probably aren't many people in the capital who dare to cause trouble in our territory."

Secondly, the fact that they didn't take the goods away meant that they weren't short of money. Of course, if they were afraid that they would be found out if they took the goods away, then why did they still come to provoke the Su family? It was very likely that they were just taking revenge and weren't doing it for the sake of money.

"If this matter is found out by the elders in the Su family, who will be the biggest beneficiary?"

"That's why I think this is purely driven by infighting."

When Su Lei heard his analysis, she immediately narrowed her eyes and thought to herself, If it was really the members of the Su family who did it, it would make sense. After all, no one in the capital dared to touch the Su family's goods.

She suppressed her anger. "Then who in the Su family do you think can do such a thing?"

Ye Zhan pondered for a moment. "You might be blocking someone's way. President Su, think about it. Who covets your position the most?"

Chapter 682 Blackie Causing Trouble

In an old building in a certain community in the capital.

"Hahahaha, how satisfying. This time, Su Lei suffered such a huge setback. She will definitely be furious. Unfortunately, I won't be able to see her reaction with my own eyes."

Thunderkill smiled gloatingly. Then, he said regretfully, "By the way, why don't we sell those goods or steal from them?"

Wang Zhiqiang glanced at Thunderkill. "Who dares to buy the Su family's goods?"

Thunderkill pursed his lips. "That's true. Forget it. It's quite satisfying to burn it."

"What should we do next?" Saber looked at Wang Zhiqiang, waiting for his next instructions.

Previously, they took Su Lei's driver away without anyone knowing. After feeding him a Truth Pill, the driver told them everything he knew about Su Lei, which led to the matter of Su Lei's goods being destroyed.

"Didn't that driver say that the Su family is at a critical moment now? Let's sit it out and reap the benefits of their infighting. Of course, the premise is that they fight."

"Let's do this..."

There were only two days left until the new year. The goods had been prepared before the new year. Today, Qin Xi and Han Shi stayed at home and the family began to put up couplets.

At this moment, Han Shi held a brush and calmly wrote a big word on the red paper. The handwriting was majestic and powerful, giving off the aura of a king.

Han Dazhu stood at the side and observed. Seeing his smooth handwriting, he couldn't help but praise, "Good, good calligraphy!"

Although Han Dazhu could not read, he could still tell the quality of the handwriting.

On the other hand, Jiu Yuan, who was floating above Han Shi, pursed his lips and said, "It's barely satisfactory."

Han Shi glanced at him coldly. "You talk too much."

Jiu Yuan raised his chin arrogantly and snorted. He turned around and floated away. Han Shi couldn't be bothered with this big light bulb. If not for the fact that Qin Xi said that he might need a light bulb to write, Han Shi wouldn't have called Jiu Yuan over!

Just as he was about to put the paper up to dry, Blackie jumped out of nowhere and stood up. It placed its two front paws on the table, but it accidentally spilled the ink. Fortunately, Han Shi picked up the paper in time. Otherwise, such good calligraphy would have been ruined.

Han Shi was furious. He placed the paper on the stool and picked up the feather duster beside him to hit Blackie's butt. Blackie was already prepared. It jumped and dodged, perfectly avoiding Han Shi's attack.

Han Shi brandished the feather duster as he said angrily, "Stop right there, or I'll roast you tonight!"

Blackie bared its teeth. It was not afraid of his threat at all and would even teach Han Shi a lesson. When Blackie saw the paper on the stool, it had an idea and pounced at the paper.

Han Shi seemed to understand what Blackie was going to do and immediately shouted, "Blackie, if you dare..."

Before he could finish, Blackie stepped on the paper with its two front paws, leaving two dog paw prints.

Han Shi looked at the ruined paper and continued to chase after Blackie. The man and the dog turned the house upside down.

Chapter 683 I'm Getting Married

When Qin Xi came down from upstairs, she saw the mess caused by the two of them. The corners of her mouth twitched. "What happened? Did the two of you fight again?"

"Woof, woof, woof, woof..."

Han Shi immediately complained, "Wifey, look, Blackie is definitely cursing me. Why should we keep it? Why don't we just roast it tonight to add a dish to the table?"

As soon as he finished speaking, Luo Xiujian nudged him and said angrily, "You are the troublemaker. Blackie is usually very obedient. If you didn't always provoke it, it wouldn't have gone against you."

"Alright, Blackie, let's go. I'll make you a big bone. It's the new year. Everyone is in for a treat."

At this moment, the door of the villa opened. Black Ghost came with Tong Tong. As soon as Tong Tong saw Han Dazhu and the others, she immediately greeted them sweetly, including Blackie.

"Yo, did Tong Tong miss Auntie today?"

Luo Xiujian liked children very much. Last time they went shopping, Luo Xiujian had bought a few sets of princess dresses for Tong Tong. She didn't want to spend too much on herself, but when it came to buying things for Tong Tong, she wouldn't bat an eye.

It could be seen how much Luo Xiujian liked children.

"I miss Auntie the most. They said that Auntie bought me a lot of princess dresses. Is that true?" Tong Tong said in a childish voice, not forgetting to gesture with her hand.

Luo Xiujian smiled happily. "Of course it's true. I wanted to give you a surprise the day after tomorrow. I didn't expect Tong Tong to know so quickly. Do you want to see those beautiful dresses?"

Tong Tong nodded quickly and promised, "Yes, Auntie, bring me to take a look. I promise I won't touch it. I'll just take a look!"

Luo Xiujian said with a smile, "The dresses are all yours. You can touch them as you please. Let's go. I'll take you upstairs to look at the dresses!"

Tong Tong bounced around happily. "Let's go and look at the dresses!"

After they left, Qin Xi asked Black Ghost, "Is there any news from Wang Zhiqiang and the others?"

The corners of Black Ghost's mouth curled up slightly. "They called today and said that they intercepted Su Lei's goods and burned them at her dock, which made Su Lei very angry."

Qin Xi nodded. "Tell them to be safe. It's almost the Spring Festival. Tell them to rush back. It won't be too late to take revenge after the Spring Festival."

"Got it!"

At noon, Qin Xi went to the clinic and was surprised to find Gu Qing, whom she had not seen for a long time, sitting in the resting area. She raised her eyebrows. "Why are you here?"

After not seeing each other for more than a month, he seemed to have become a lot more mature, and the way he looked at Qin Xi was much more normal.

He stood up and said, "Of course I'm looking for you for something. Qin Xi, let's talk!"

Qin Xi frowned and sat opposite him. She asked curiously, "What do you want to talk about?" What could they talk about? Could it be that Gu Qing still had feelings for her?

Unexpectedly, in the next second, Gu Qing said, "Qin Xi, I'm getting married in May. Don't forget to attend the wedding."

"Wedding?"

Qin Xi was a little surprised. "When did you get a girlfriend? However, since you're getting married, I have to congratulate you."

Gu Qing pursed his lips. "Actually, the thing I wanted to talk about is not my marriage."

"Oh, then what is it?"

Chapter 684 Familiar Face

“Someone wants to see you!”

Qin Xi frowned even more. “Who wants to see me?”

“I don’t know who he is, but he found my father. He sent me to find you.”

Gu Qing frowned and looked at Qin Xi with some concern. “Although I’ve never met him, I’ve seen his back and feel that he’s very dangerous. It’s best if you don’t agree.”

“Dangerous?”

Qin Xi’s eyes narrowed as if she had thought of something. She asked, “What’s that person’s name? Where is he from?”

“I don’t know his name, but my father calls him Your Excellency. It’s said that he’s from the capital and has a powerful background.”

The capital?

Was he from the Su family? Or the Shi family? Or some hidden enemy?

If he were from the Su family, Wang Zhiqiang would definitely send her a letter.

As for the Shi family, Qin Xi was not afraid of them.

Qin Xi could wipe out the Yin family alone. Her strength was not to be underestimated.

She was only afraid of the hidden family clan behind the Shi family. To be able to own such a rare and precious herbal field, the power they had must be huge.

It was so huge that even she had to be wary of it.

Qin Xi suddenly asked, “When are we meeting?”

“Are you really going?”

Gu Qing frowned and said in disagreement, “I’m worried that person is up to no good. It’s better for you to refuse. Besides, that person looks a little familiar.”

Qin Xi said indifferently, “Since he’s here to find me, he will not leave without seeing me. Don’t worry, it’s fine. Go back and tell that person that I agree to meet him. Let him choose a place!”

She wanted to see who this person was.

Gu Qing said with a bitter smile, “He said he’ll wait for you at the Seven Stars Teahouse at five o’clock in the afternoon.”

Qin Xi smiled coldly. “Oh? It seems that you’re not here to tell me about this, but to inform me. If I don’t agree, what will you do?”

“I know you will go, even though I don’t want you to go,” Gu Qing said seriously.

Qin Xi shrugged. “Alright, I’ll be there on time in the afternoon. Go back and report!”

“Then... be careful.” Before leaving, Gu Qing reminded her again and again.

Soon, it was time to meet. After Qin Xi treated the last patient, she left the clinic. They got in a taxi and arrived at the Seven Stars Teahouse.

There was no one in the teahouse and it was extremely creepy. Qin Xi was still wondering if the other party was setting her up when she saw a middle-aged man walk up to her.

He asked, “Doctor Qin, right? There’s a gentleman waiting for you upstairs.”

Qin Xi was brought to a private room on the second floor by the middle-aged man. He said, “The gentleman inside is waiting for you. Go in!”

With that, he left.

Qin Xi pushed open the door and saw a man in a suit standing by the window with his back facing her. When he heard the sound, he slowly turned around with a faint smile on his face.

He was tall and strong, but his temperament was more refined. His eyes were deep and charming, and he exuded a sense of loftiness.

However, that face made Qin Xi’s eyes widened.

“Are you very surprised to see me?” The man said with a smile, “Should I call you Divine Doctor Qin or... Sister-in-law?”

Chapter 685 Tragic Scene

In the private room, the atmosphere was very tense.

Seeing this man, Qin Xi suddenly thought of something. Half a year ago, Han Shi was possessed by Jiu Yuan and there was a bloody ax in the Han family’s ancestral grave.

Suddenly, she looked at the man sharply, exuding an extremely strong aura. “Tell me, who are you?”

Han Hai narrowed his eyes slightly.

He did not expect Qin Xi to be so domineering. Her aura was not inferior to his at all, if not stronger. How was this possible? Wasn’t she just a doctor? How could a doctor have such a domineering aura?

However, no matter what, he had to rope this woman in today. If she dared to refuse, he would have no choice but be merciless.

A trace of ruthlessness flashed across Han Hai’s eyes before he smiled warmly and said, “You can probably guess who I am without me telling you. I’m here to seek cooperation with you. Sister-in-law, please take a seat!”

“Don’t call me sister-in-law. I don’t even know who you are yet. I’m afraid it’s inappropriate for you to call me that!” Qin Xi pulled the chair in front of her and sat down.

Seeing that she was talking nicely, Han Hai’s face immediately darkened. However, when he thought of his next plan, he decided to endure it.

"I'm sure you've seen it for yourself. I look very similar to your husband. There's no doubt that we both have the same blood flowing in our bodies. You can call me Cousin."

Before he could finish, Qin Xi waved her hand impatiently. "Sir, let's not talk about useless things. I just want to know why you wanted to see me. If you keep talking nonsense, I'm sorry. I'm very busy and don't have time to listen to your hypocritical pleasantries."

Talking nonsense?

Hypocritical pleasantries?

Qin Xi's words were like a slap to Han Hai's face, causing his smile to freeze. The dark aura around him could not help but spread out, and he seemed to be on the verge of going berserk.

Han Hai stared at Qin Xi and gritted his teeth. "I thought you were a smart person, but I didn't expect you to be so arrogant."

Qin Xi sneered and slapped Han Hai. "Do you really not understand human language? I told you to get to the point. You're just wasting your time. I don't have time to waste on mud."

Han Hai was caught off guard by the slap. He covered his face and looked at Qin Xi in disbelief, his expression extremely twisted. "You... How dare you hit me? How dare you!"

Qin Xi was annoyed by him. She slapped the other half of his face. "Now, are you convinced that I dare to hit you?!"

Han Hai's mind went blank. His ears were ringing, and his face was burning and swollen. This humiliation almost drove him crazy. He stared at Qin Xi like he wanted to eat her alive and said angrily, "Damn b*tch, I'm going to kill you!"

He roared like a ferocious beast and pounced at Qin Xi. He was no longer as elegant as before. Now, he looked like a lunatic in a mental hospital.

"Heh, kill me?" Qin Xi smiled disdainfully and raised her leg to kick him, sending him flying onto the table. The table couldn't withstand his weight and collapsed.

For a moment, the sound of glass breaking, the sound of the table breaking, and Han Hai's screams mixed together.

Han Hai lay on the ground in a sorry state. His handsome face was covered in blood, looking ferocious and terrifying. His hair, which had been combed with wax, was also disheveled at this moment, and his clothes were torn.

He looked miserable!

Chapter 686 History of the Han Family

Qin Xi walked over and stepped on his butt. She exerted a little force and Han Hai immediately screamed.

It was not that Qin Xi was using too much strength, but there were broken glass shards under Han Hai, and Han Hai was lying on his stomach. It was obvious that it was painful.

Han Hai was in so much pain that his face turned pale. He struggled to get up, but the more he struggled, the more painful it was. He almost fainted from the pain, his eyes filled with hatred.

“You deserve to die. I’ll kill you today.” Han Hai was furious and looked at the door. “Someone, come quickly! Chop this b*tch up!”

“Don’t waste your breath. Your people can’t hear you. I’ll give you two choices now.”

Qin Xi looked down at him. “First, tell me why you came to look for me and Han Shi’s background. Second, you don’t have to tell me, but I won’t show mercy.”

She exerted a little force on her feet, and Han Hai immediately let out a heart-wrenching scream.

“Ahhhhhh!”

Han Hai’s vicious eyes were filled with fear. He trembled in pain and said, “I, I’ll tell you. Y-You, take your foot away!”

“You wouldn’t have to suffer so much pain if you cooperated earlier.” Qin Xishui said, but her foot was still on his butt.

Seeing that Qin Xi still did not move her foot away, Han Hai said angrily, “Take your foot off me!”

“It seems that you still don’t know what’s good for you. If you don’t tell me, I’ll...”

“I’ll tell you, I’ll tell you, I’ll tell you, okay?”

Han Hai could tell that Qin Xi was not a pushover. He would not gain anything from going against her.

Moreover, after he shouted for so long, the people outside didn’t come in as if they couldn’t hear anything in the room. He was alone and was the one at a disadvantage.

He swore that when he escaped from this b*tch, he would definitely catch her and Han Shi and chop them up.

“Back then...”

Back then, when the country was in turmoil, the Han family, the number one family in the south, naturally couldn’t escape that crisis. Because of the scale of their family business, they were targeted by evil people and were forced to flee from the south to the north.

At that time, Han Dazhu was just born. On the way to escape, because Han Dazhu wouldn’t stop crying, his parents decided to separate from the family and flee in another direction.

They made an agreement with the head of the family at that time, Han Dazhu’s grandfather, to meet in the capital. However, Han Dazhu’s parents were unfortunately killed on the way, leaving Han Dazhu, who was hiding in the haystack, crying for food.

Later on, a kind-hearted person discovered Han Dazhu and gave him to a villager who had no children. Coincidentally, that family also had the surname Han. The family then gave the baby the name Han Dazhu.

Han Hai's great-grandfather was guilty that he couldn't protect Han Dazhu and his parents and died of regret. Before he died, he gave all his assets to Han Dazhu and asked everyone in the Han family to find Han Dazhu and his parents at all costs.

They thought that after their great-grandfather passed away, they would be able to split the money equally. Unexpectedly, Han Hai's grandfather insisted on fulfilling the wish of his father.

The older generation knew that Han Dazhu's parents fled in another direction because they didn't want to implicate the rest of the Han family, but the younger generation of the Han family did not think so.

Chapter 687 There's Someone Behind the Scenes?

The juniors of the Han family had never experienced that life-and-death situation, so they naturally could not understand the danger of it.

Therefore, while some people felt that this sum of money should be given to Han Dazhu, others were jealous.

Han Hai's father, uncle, and two aunts were determined to get the astronomical inheritance. They secretly recruited a lot of people to find Han Dazhu and his family.

However, finding a person who had been missing for decades was undoubtedly like finding a needle in a haystack. By chance, Han Hai's aunt encountered a hermit. That hermit used some unknown method to really find Han Dazhu's exact location.

Initially, they wanted to go all out and kill Han Dazhu's entire family, but they were stopped by the hermit.

The hermit said that Han Dazhu's fate was very good. If Han Dazhu's fate was transferred to them, they would be blessed with a smooth-sailing life. However, if they failed, they would be doomed.

Fortune and misfortune were intertwined.

They agreed.

Later on, they put the axe into Han Dazhu's ancestral grave as instructed by the hermit. However, they were actually deceived. The hermit was not transferring Han Dazhu's fate to them. He was in fact causing them trouble.

As for why the hermit did this, Han Hai did not know. However, Qin Xi felt that there was definitely something wrong with this hermit. That axe was clearly stained with something dirty and was injected with a Yin-gathering talisman. He wanted the Han family to be wiped out for some reason.

It seemed that the person behind this hated the Han family to the core. Otherwise, he wouldn't have wanted to kill them all.

"Why did you ask me to come here?" Qin Xi asked again.

Han Hai stammered and hesitated for a long time. Panic flashed across his eyes, but Qin Xi did not give him a chance to escape. Instead, she drew a talisman and slapped it on his head.

Immediately, Han Hai's eyes became glazed.

Qin Xi asked, "What's your purpose in coming to Luoping City?"

Han Hai replied readily, "Find Han Shi's wife and give her a sum of money to kill Han Shi and Han Dazhu."

Qin Xi asked, "Who asked you to come?"

Han Hai said emotionlessly, "Auntie Han Xia."

"Tell me about the current situation of the Han family."

In the following period of time, Qin Xi learned a lot about the Han family from Han Hai.

After knowing everything about the Han family, Qin Xi left. When Han Hai got up from the ground, he had already forgotten what he had done and said.

Suddenly, he felt a sharp pain on his face. He reached out and touched it, only to find that his face was covered in blood, looking especially terrifying.

In the Breeze Villa.

There was only one day left until the new year. Han Shi gave all the employees of Sunshine Pharmaceuticals a day off. Because the company had just been established, the medicines Qin Xi created were still under review. However, the review would pass soon.

Once it was approved, Sunshine Pharmaceuticals would be able to put the medicines into production. At that time, there would definitely be a place for Sunshine Pharmaceuticals in the market.

At night, the couple had an intimate time again. Han Shi hugged Qin Xi and said, "Wifey, my birthday is in seven days. What gift are you going to give me?"

Qin Xi rolled her eyes. "Gift? We're already an old married couple. Why do you want a gift?"

Chapter 688 New Posture

Actually, Qin Xi had already prepared a gift for him.

Last time, she found a master sculptor to carve a green jade. Two days ago, it was completed. Looking at the jade ring, she couldn't help but be stunned.

The dragon-shaped jade ring was green and translucent, as if it was alive. With just a slight turn, it glowed faintly.

When Han Shi heard that his wife did not prepare a gift for him, he hugged her and started wheedling.

“Wifey, you are wrong. Although we’re an old married couple, we still have to maintain a romantic atmosphere in our marriage! Only then can the marriage last long, right?”

“Oh, so if we don’t maintain the romance, this marriage won’t last long?” Qin Xi deliberately misinterpreted his meaning and glared at him.

Han Shi immediately said, “How is that possible? Didn’t you say that we can be together forever? How can it not last long? I just think that if you can give me a gift, I’ll love you even more.”

Qin Xi pouted. “Forget it. You don’t have to love me that much.”

Every time Stone “loved” her, he would make her body ache all over. The more she asked him to stop, the more excited he became.

“Wifey, we’ve been married for so long, but you’ve never given me a gift. I don’t want anything expensive. I’ll be happy even if it’s just a flower.”

Han Shi hugged her waist and refused to let go.

“Alright, I understand. The gift is ready. You’ll get it when the time comes.” Qin Xi reached out to pat the hand on her waist.

“Really? Wifey, you really prepared a gift for me? Take it out and show me.” Han Shi’s eyes lit up and he grabbed her shoulder excitedly.

“Don’t think about it. If I give you the surprise now, there won’t be any surprise on your birthday.” Qin Xi patted the big hand on her shoulder again.

Han Shi said evilly, “Wifey, you are right. Since there’s no surprise for now, let’s... create a surprise, okay?”

Qin Xi realized that something was wrong and immediately jumped off the bed. Han Shi followed closely behind and spoke in a very wretched voice.

“Hehehe, sweetie, don’t struggle. I have money, looks, and a good figure. I guarantee that I’ll satisfy all your needs. Little sweeties, come to me...”

Qin Xi rolled her eyes speechlessly. Why was this man getting more and more childish?

The two of them chased and ran for a long time, but in the end, Han Shi still managed to catch her. Unavoidably, the two of them made love again.

Early in the morning.

Qin Xi opened her eyes sleepily and realized that Han Shi was staring at her with deep love in his eyes.

She yawned and rubbed her sleepy eyes. “What are you doing? Why are you looking at me like that?”

Han Shi raised his eyebrows and chuckled. “You’re good-looking, so I’m looking at you.”

He leaned close to Qin Xi’s ear and whispered, “Wifey, I’m very satisfied with your performance last night. Why don’t we rehearse this morning? I think that posture...”

Before he could finish, Qin Xi's face was already burning. She kicked Han Shi off the bed and said angrily, "Han Shi, if you dare to spout nonsense again, I'll let you sleep with Blackie tonight."

Han Shi was kicked off the bed. He rubbed his butt with an aggrieved expression. "Wifey, yesterday, you were the one who said that you wanted to try the new posture..."

Qin Xi immediately pointed at Han Shi fiercely. "Do you not hear me?"

Chapter 689 Something Happened

The day before the new year, the clinic and Sunshine Pharmaceuticals closed for the holiday.

Qin Xi originally wanted to use this time to prepare the new year's gift for everyone. Unexpectedly, at this juncture, something happened to Xia Tangxin's grandmother, Xia Yongqing.

Xia Tangxin called Qin Xi with tears in her eyes. However, because she was too excited, Qin Xi did not hear clearly what she was saying. It was Xia Zhenguo who told her that the old lady was dying.

This frightened Qin Xi. Although she had not seen the old lady for a long time, the old lady had always been in good health. Why was she suddenly dying when it was almost the lunar new year?

When she asked the reason, she was told that it was because the old lady stepped on the snow and accidentally fell. The back of her head hit the side of the road. Now, she had been sent to the hospital. The doctor told them to cherish the little time they had to spend with the old lady.

Han Shi and Qin Xi immediately got into the car upon receiving the news. Han Shi drove as fast as he could and ran countless red lights.

Finally, the originally 25-minute route was shortened to 12 minutes by Han Shi. Qin Xi endured the discomfort in her stomach and quickly got out of the car to run to the operating theater on the fifth floor.

Hearing the wails in the corridor, Qin Xi's heart skipped a beat. She said, "Where's Grandma Xia? Where is she? Let me take a look."

Xia Tangxin's eyes were red and swollen from crying. When she saw Qin Xi, she staggered and threw herself into her arms, crying her heart out. "Xi, I'm going to lose my grandmother. What should I do? I don't have a grandmother anymore!"

Qin Xi was extremely anxious. She knew that Xia Tangxin was beside herself now. She immediately looked at Xia Zhenguo and asked anxiously, "Uncle Xia, where's Grandma Xia? Hurry up and take me to see her before it's too late."

Xia Zhenguo wiped his tears and looked like he had aged more than ten years. He pointed at the operating theater with a trembling hand. "She's inside."

Before he could finish, Qin Xi pushed Xia Tangxin into Xia Zhenguo's arms and rushed into the operating theater. When the people in the operating theater saw that someone had barged in, they were furious. Just as they were about to stop Qin Xi, they were knocked out by Han Shi.

"Wifey, leave these people to me. Save Grandma Xia."

With Han Shi's help, Qin Xi had nothing to worry about.

Han Shi said politely to the doctors who were trembling in fear, "Everyone, I have no choice but to do this. My wife is a very outstanding Chinese doctor. This old lady is her good friend's grandmother. Please don't disturb her."

"But, but the old lady has already stopped breathing..." A female doctor said softly.

Han Shi did not speak and looked at Qin Xi.

Qin Xi took out two medicinal pills from her pocket. These two medicinal pills had a rejuvenating effect. In addition, Qin Xi injected the True Qi into them.

"She's already dead. What's the point of doing that?"

The attending surgeon couldn't help but shout, "She is already dead. If you continue to torture her like this, she won't die peacefully."

Chapter 690 Exhaustion

"Shut up. If you disturb her again, I'll knock you out too."

Seeing that someone was disturbing Qin Xi from performing acupuncture, Han Shi shouted. The attending surgeon's face immediately turned pale and he did not dare to speak again.

As time passed, the atmosphere became extremely tense.

Qin Xi was tense. More and more cold sweat began to break out on her forehead, and her face gradually turned pale. Han Shi's heart ached. He took a towel to wipe Qin Xi's sweat.

Qin Xi frowned. Her fingers still quickly and accurately moved the Ice Soul Silver Needles. One silver needle after another landed on the corresponding acupoint.

The speed was so fast that everyone was dazzled. They seemed to only see the silver needles flash through the air and appear on the old lady's head.

Previously, they thought that Qin Xi was here to cause trouble, but when they saw Qin Xi's superb technique and incomparably skilled acupuncture technique, they knew they were wrong.

After Qin Xi's tireless efforts, the heart rate monitor that had stopped beeping started to make a sound again. Then, the instrument slowly returned to normal.

"How is this possible?"

The attending surgeon muttered to himself and looked at Qin Xi with wide eyes, his eyes filled with shock.

Qin Xi ignored the group of doctors and asked Han Shi to chase them out.

Although Han Shi did not know what Qin Xi was going to do, he knew that whatever decision Qin Xi made had a deeper meaning, so he chased the doctors out without hesitation.

After the door was closed, Han Shi came to Qin Xi's side. Seeing her pale face, he asked worriedly, "Xi, how are you?"

Qin Xi waved her hand. "I'm fine. The acupuncture technique I used just now consumed too much True Qi. I'll be fine after resting for a while."

With that, Qin Xi took a deep breath and slowly closed her eyes to adjust her breathing. A few seconds later, she suddenly opened her eyes and gestured in the air with her finger. A majestic Mystic True Qi froze in midair, forming a pattern similar to an array formation.

Then, she pushed this pattern to the bed and her fingers kept moving in the air. Then, this Mystic True Qi shot into the old lady's forehead and instantly disappeared.

The wound on the back of the old lady's head was gradually healing.

When the wound healed, the old lady's face turned red at the speed of light. Not long after, the heart beat monitor began to beep.

Qin Xi finally heaved a sigh of relief.

After doing all this, Qin Xi collapsed to the ground, panting heavily. Her face was even paler.

"Xi, what's going on?"

Han Shi quickly helped Qin Xi up and asked anxiously.

"I'm fine. I'll be fine after resting for a while." Qin Xi forced a smile.

Han Shi was worried. He hugged her and gently stroked her back, injecting his True Qi into her bit by bit. At this moment, someone knocked on the door of the operating theater violently. The sound was so loud that it was as if the operating theater was going to be demolished.

Fortunately, Qin Xi had finished performing the acupuncture. Otherwise, who should be responsible if the needle missed?

"Stone, open the door. You can tell Uncle Xia and Tangxin that Grandma is fine. Don't let them worry," Qin Xi said weakly.

Han Shi nodded and carried Qin Xi to a seat. He walked to the door and opened the door of the operating theater.
