Chapter 741 My Dear Xi, I'm Here!

There was no need to talk about the ending of the Lu family. The possibility of them entering the jail was out of the question.

Although this engagement banquet didn't end well, it was better than marrying into the Lu family.

On the way home, Fu Lan kept scolding the Lu family and Lu Cheng. Of course, when she scolded them, she did not forget to mention Yun Piao.

Yun Piao was the daughter of Mrs. Fu. She had yet to settle the score with Yun Piao for drugging her daughter. In the end, Yun Piao actually got involved with her future son-in-law.

Although Lu Cheng was no longer her son-in-law, Yun Piao's actions were simply outrageous.

She thought for a moment and said to Fu Lan, "Don't get too close to Yun Piao in the future, or you'll be led astray, understand?"

Fu Lan said indignantly, "Of course I know. Not only did that woman drug my sister, but she also had an affair with that bastard Lu Cheng. She's simply evil. Who wants to play with her? However, if Second Aunt finds out, will she kick up a fuss with you?"

She asked worriedly.

Fu Lan did not like her second aunt very much. Not only was her second aunt selfish, but she was also a vain woman. In the past, her second aunt didn't interact with them much. However, ever since Fu Lan was engaged to the Lu family, she had changed. Her solicitous attitude made Fu Lan disgusted. If not for the fact that her second aunt's mother-in-law was sick today, she would have come to humiliate her sister.

"If she wants to cause trouble, so be it. I'm not afraid of her." Mrs. Fu said in a huff.

Mr. Fu patted Mrs. Fu's hand and said, "Alright, she probably doesn't have the face to come and cause trouble. After what happened today, Yun Piao will probably be too ashamed to appear before us again."

"That's true." Mrs. Fu heaved a sigh of relief.

At this moment, Fu Fang, who had been silent all this while, said, "Dad, Mom, I have to thank Qin Xi for her help this time. If not for her, I'm afraid the rest of my life would have been ruined by the Lu family."

Fu Lan was immediately interested. Her eyes lit up as she asked, "Oh right, Sister, tell me, how did Qin Xi get Lu Cheng to reveal all his secrets in public? This is unbelievable."

Mr. and Mrs. Fu also looked at Fu Fang curiously, but Fu Fang shook her head with a serious expression. "I don't know either."

Three days later, the medicinal cuisine restaurant opened for business.

On the day of the soft opening, dozens of small cars were parked in front of the door. As far as the eye could see, there were many familiar faces.

There was no need to mention Wan Shiyue, Meng Chang'an, and the others. Elder Wang, Wang Zexuan, Wang Zekun, and his sons were all present. Xu Linyuan, Gu Qing, the Fu family, Huang Shuyao, and Huang Shuxuan, Qi Mingting, Ma Shouhua from the sanatorium, Deputy Dean He Xu, Feng Du, Tan Jingyu, and Tan Miao, as well as Xia Zhenguo, Xia Tangxin, Mars, and Ruth, who had returned from abroad.

Just as Qin Xi and Han Shi were entertaining these people enthusiastically, a red sports car drove over from afar.

Qin Xi and Han Shi had good eyesight and could see the person's face through the glass.

Although Han Shi didn't know this person, he knew that this person was definitely after Qin Xi.

He looked at Qin Xi resentfully and whispered into her ear, "Wifey, how many men did you bewitch?"

Qin Xi rolled her eyes at him. "I didn't bewitch any of them. They're just your imaginary enemies!"

Unexpectedly, as soon as she finished speaking, the man in the car got out and smiled brightly at Qin Xi. "My dear Xi, I'm here!"

Chapter 742 Good-looking but Useless!

Han Shi squeezed out a few words between his gritted teeth. "Are you sure he is just my imaginary enemy?"

Qin Xi touched her nose awkwardly and looked at the person who came. Her face darkened and she shouted, "Deng Xinhe, if you shout again, I'll skin you alive."

Yes, the person who came was Deng Xinhe, whom she had not seen for more than half a year.

Back then, when the Deng family was in trouble, Deng Xinhe was forced to go to Luoping. It was Qin Xi who helped him solve the problem. Now that the Deng family was doing well, Deng Xinhe took the time out of his busy schedule to come to Luoping to give Qin Xi a surprise.

He quickly patted his chest and put on a frightened expression. "I was just joking. Don't be so serious. Smile!"

Han Shi walked up to him with a fake smile and reached out his hand. "So it's Mr. Deng. Hello, I'm Qin Xi's husband. Nice to meet you!"

"What? Husband?" Deng Xinhe was dumbfounded.

Seeing his reaction, Han Shi sneered in his heart, thinking to himself, now, let's see if you still have the ball to tease my wife.

Unexpectedly, Deng Xinhe shook Han Shi's hand and whispered into Han Shi's ear, "Brother, I admire you. You're a hero. An absolute hero."

Han Shi was stunned and subconsciously asked, "What do you mean?"

Deng Xinhe gave him a pitying look. "You actually dare to marry a witch. What a hero you are. You're so young, but why... Sigh. Take care of yourself."

The corners of Han Shi's mouth twitched. He felt that this fellow was not even worthy of being his imaginary enemy.

Deng Xinhe, who thought that he spoke very softly, did not see the murderous look that flashed across Qin Xi's eyes.

"Why are you here?" Qin Xi looked at him from the corner of her eye, clearly not welcoming him.

Deng Xinhe said, "I heard that you're going to open a shop again, so I rushed over. I've been overworking myself for the past six months. If I don't come out and have some fun, I'm afraid I'll suffer from depression!"

Qin Xi said angrily, "You came to my place to have fun?"

Deng Xinhe chuckled. "Of course not. I'm here to give you a gift. My father is still thinking about you!"

Qin Xi narrowed her eyes at him. "Are you sure he's thinking about me and not my things?"

She did not forget that this kid had bought a lot of talismans from her. After half a year, he suddenly came to visit again. Who would believe that he was just here to send her a gift?

Deng Xinhe felt guilty for a moment and said with a smile, "Let's not talk about this. Today is the soft opening of your restaurant. By the way, what's the signature dish in the restaurant? In order to eat your medicinal cuisine, I didn't eat at all last night. I wanted to eat a lot today."

Qin Xi sneered and exposed him mercilessly. "You did so much physical work last night. You indeed need something nourishing."

Deng Xinhe took a few steps back in fear. He looked at Qin Xi and then at Han Shi. Without saying a word, he quickly ran into the medicinal cuisine restaurant.

Qin Xi snorted proudly. "Who was jealous just now?"

Han Shi touched his nose in embarrassment. "I was wrong about him. Who knew that he was just a good-looking but useless thing?"

Qin Xi was amused. "You and Grandpa Wan really think alike!"

Chapter 743 Soft Opening

The moment all the guests entered the restaurant, they felt amazed because the renovation style here was from Qin Xi's previous life.

It was elegant and luxurious. Every piece of furniture was personally chosen, giving people a sense of home.

"Xi, the renovation style is very unique. Who designed it?"

In a private room, Wan Shiyue, Han Dazhu, Liu Dequan, Elder Wang, and other respected elders sat at a table that could accommodate 30 people.

The person who asked this was Elder Wan.

Deng Xinhe immediately said, "Indeed, who designed this? Introduce this renovation team to me. I want to renovate my house into something similar."

Han Shi smiled coldly. "Then I don't think you can afford it."

Deng Xinhe was stunned. "Why is that?"

The corners of Qin Xi's mouth twitched. This was not designed by her at all. It was all stolen from her previous life. In order to avoid being asked about the renovation style, she quickly changed the topic and said, "Thank you for coming. I know your time is very precious. Alright, let's cut to the chase and serve the dishes!"

As soon as she finished speaking, a few beautiful girls pushed over the dining carts. On them were plates and bowls of delicious food and soup.

For a moment, the room was filled with the fragrance of food. Just smelling it was enough to make one salivate.

"Wow, this is too fragrant. When I smell this fragrance, I'm drooling subconsciously. I really wonder what it will taste like!"

"I can't wait to try it!"

Everyone at the table muttered to themselves. They stared at the delicacies on the table like hungry wolves, but before the elder took a bite of the food, they didn't dare to pick up their chopsticks.

The oldest people here were undoubtedly Wan Shiyue, Elder Wang, Han Dazhu, and Liu Dequan. Seeing that everyone was looking at them, the four old fellows looked at each other and did not put on airs. They picked up their chopsticks and quickly picked up a piece of meat to send into their mouths.

Seeing this, everyone quickly picked up their chopsticks and started eating. As they ate, they didn't forget to praise, "Delicious, delicious! It's too delicious!"

Seeing this, Qin Xi was very satisfied.

Qin Xi smiled and said, "Everyone, tell me how you feel after tasting it!"

Wan Shiyue thought for a moment and said, "Xi, I don't know if it's my imagination, but after eating these things, I feel warm all over. Moreover, I'm energized, feeling like I have endless strength. What's going on?"

Xia Tangxin said in surprise, "Yes, yes, I think so too. This medicinal cuisine is really magical. I feel like after eating it, I'm full of energy."

Deng Xinhe quickly asked, "Hey, hey, hey, although I also feel energetic, why do I feel like there's fire burning in my lower abdomen and sweat on my forehead... What does this indicate?"

Chapter 744 The Effect of Medicinal Cuisine!

The corners of Qin Xi's mouth twitched as she looked at him strangely. "Are you sure you want me to tell you in public?"

Deng Xinhe was dumbfounded. "...I'm suddenly not very sure!"

Han Shi rolled his eyes and whispered into his ear, "This is what every man wants. Take it easy tonight!"

What he said was already very explicit. Deng Xinhe understood it and his eyes lit up. "That's great. Brother, thank you for telling me!"

Qin Xi said to everyone with a smile, "This medicinal cuisine is very beneficial to everyone. For example, it's good for health, removing fatigue, strengthening the immune system, longevity, beauty, and so on. If you eat it often, the effect will surprise you!"

"Can it help us live longer?" Wan Shiyue was shocked.

"Of course, these are all secret recipes I carefully concocted. They can regulate the various functions of the body and help the body reach the optimal state, thereby prolonging one's life."

"Xi, I heard from you that it's also good for beauty," Fu Fang asked expectantly.

Qin Xi said, "Not only can it nourish your skin, but it can also slow aging..."

"Since it's so magical, I'll come to eat it every day in the future!" Huang Shuyao said excitedly.

Qin Xi waved her hand. "You don't have to come every day. It'll be very effective if you come twice a week. It's also a very good remedy for minor illnesses and pains!"

Elder Wang said with a smile, "I didn't expect Xi to know something about this as well. You are really amazing. When I go back, I'll tell my friends about it. In the future, we'll be your regular customers Hahahahaha!"

"Then I'll thank Grandpa Wang in advance!"

The soft opening day went very smoothly. Although fewer people came the next day, Qin Xi believed that everyone who had tasted the medicinal cuisine would come back again, so she was not in a hurry.

In May, the construction of the winery was finally completed.

Qin Xi had already prepared the recipe for the wines, so everyone couldn't wait to start work the next day.

One was medicinal wine, and the other was fruit wine. The brewing method of both wines was very simple. One only needed to put the herbs that had been mixed long ago into a large container and steam the wine with a distillation device.

The winery began to operate. Han Guofa and Han Tao were so busy that they couldn't take a break. Qin Xi and Han Shi came over twice and tasted it. The taste was still a little different from what they expected. After Qin Xi suggested improvements, the rich smell of the wine made Qin Xi, who didn't drink, feel a little intoxicated.

Because the cannery was producing drinks, Qin Xi decided to ask Cheng Haizhong to move the cannery here.

Cheng Haizhong did not refuse. After all, the winery was bigger. Not only was there a big canteen, but there was also a staff apartment. There was no reason for him not to move the cannery over.

Cheng Haizhong had the experience of being the factory manager. Qin Xi asked him to be in charge of all the matters in the winery. Han Guofa didn't mind. He knew very well that he did not have the ability to manage the winery yet. He could only continue to learn and work hard to accumulate more knowledge.

During this period of time, Qin Xi would go to the winery whenever she had nothing to do. From time to time, she would design packaging bottles and choose the name for the wine. Because Sweet Dew was too popular, Qin Xi did not want to use it to advertise. After all, the highest trees get chopped down first.

Chapter 745 Sweet Dew Partner

Qin Xi was right. In the past six months, Sweet Dew had been too popular. This made many people in the industry feel unprecedentedly threatened.

Among them, the Jiaxing Food Processing Factory was the most threatened.

Not only did the Jiaxing Food Processing Factory supply a large number of food to Zhejiang Province and the other two neighboring provinces, but it also supplied a large number of food to the Southern market and the foreign market. It could be said that Jiaxing Food Processing was representative in the food industry. Almost every family knew about Jiaxing.

The rise of the Sweet Dew last year did not make Jiaxing feel threatened. After all, they had been in the business for so long and there was no reason to feel threatened by a small brand.

However, as time passed, Sweet Dew became more and more popular. When the previous business partners with Jiaxing saw an opportunity, they all set their sights on Sweet Dew.

Working with a big company like Jiaxing, these small business partners could only get a small piece of the pie, so they were naturally displeased.

Therefore, when Sweet Dew started to make a name for itself, these small business partners had the intention of working with Sweet Dew.

After the Sweet Dew winery had been built, it was also used as the headquarters of the Sweet Dew.

In the meeting room, Han Shi sat at the head of the table, surrounded by business partners who were here to discuss cooperation. There were a total of 12 of them, two of whom were women.

Previously, they only knew that the founder of Sweet Dew was very young and thought that he was only in his thirties. Later on, Han Shi went on television once, so people realized that the founder was not even 25 years old.

Now that they saw him in person, they felt that Han Shi was an extraordinary young man. Not only was he handsome, but his words and actions were also calm and domineering, giving people an irresistible pressure.

“Hello, big bosses. I’m the person-in-charge of Sweet Dew Company. My name is Han Shi. I’m very happy to discuss cooperation with you.” Han Shi stood up and shook hands with everyone.

A middle-aged man with an imposing aura said with a smile, “Indeed, heroes come from the young. Director Han used only half a year to build a Sweet Dew Food Series with great potential. I really have to admit that the new generation surpasses the old. Sigh, I’m getting old. The world now belongs to you young people!”

This person’s name was Hong Zhao. His company had the highest status and market value among the others. He was also considered a representative of these companies.

“President Hong, you’re flattering me. I was just lucky!”

After exchanging pleasantries for a while, the meeting began to get to the point. Hong Zhao said, “According to the market research, the beverages and canned food your company makes are very well-known. It’s said that even some countries overseas are full of praise for them.

I’m not going to beat around the bush. I know that Sweet Dew is a company with endless potential. I just want to ask Director Han, if we cooperate with your company, what will the profit ratio be?

To be honest, although we’ve made some money over the years, that small profit is not enough to support the entire company. If not for the fact that the profit can no longer support the company, we wouldn’t have considered seeking cooperation elsewhere. I hope that Director Han can understand our situation.”

Chapter 746 Developing New Food

Hong Zhao was indeed a smart and capable businessman. First, he praised the Sweet Dew series and flattered Han Shi. Then, he started to explain the difficult situation of his company.

If an ordinary person was praised like this, they would definitely be smug.

Unfortunately, Han Shi did not care about Hong Zhao’s flattery. He had a faint smile on his face.

Hong Zhao observed the expression on Han Shi’s face from time to time. Seeing that he was indifferent, his heart sank. He knew that he had met a tough nut to crack. That was right. Being successful at such a young age, Han Shi was definitely not someone who would be affected by flatteries.

Fortunately, Hong Zhao knew when to stop. He changed the topic and said, “May I know what your ideal profit ratio is?”

Seeing that he finally went to the point, Han Shi glanced at the nervous business partners and said calmly, “5% of the market price ~”

“Five percent?”

“That’s too low. It was 8% in Jiaxing before!”

“That’s right. Jiaxing is a big company after all. It’s understandable that they want so much, but Sweet Dew is just a rising company. Aren’t you asking for too much?”

Hearing their whispers and the indignant look on their faces, Han Shi smiled casually. “These are the most basic shares for you, but there will be rewards.”

Everyone's expressions immediately darkened.

5% was low, but if the sales went up, it was very likely that they would get 10%.

However, they still couldn't accept this. Back in Jiaxing, they had at least 8% of the profits, but in Sweet Dew, they only had 5%. Wasn't Han Shi a profiteer?

Did they look like fools?

Hong Zhao was also furious. He sneered and said, "Director Han, you're insincere. It seems that we have to give up on our cooperation. We won't disturb you anymore. Goodbye."

As he spoke, Hong Zhao stood up, followed by the other business partners.

"President Hong, are you in such a hurry to leave?"

Han Shi clapped his hands with a smile. The door of the meeting room was pushed open and a small dining cart was pushed in. On it was a series of products, including the latest fruit juice, soda, milk tea, mineral water, and other drinks. There were also canned fruits, jam, and meat provided by Qin Xi.

"Everyone, it's not too late to leave after tasting our Sweet Dew products. Don't worry, it'll definitely satisfy you."

Han Shi distributed food to everyone.

"I think everyone here has tried the Sweet Dew food before and has a rough understanding of the Sweet Dew. I dare to say that our Sweet Dew is definitely an unprecedented high-end food in the food industry. The reason why I ask for this profit ratio is because I want to tell you the truth. This price is definitely worth it. I guarantee that this cooperation will help both sides. Now, please try the food."

"First is the newly developed Sweet Dew Soda. Everyone, please try it."

Chapter 747 Disappointment

Soda?

What was soda? Was it also a kind of drink?

The business partners were hesitating, but they still gave it a try.

When the soda entered the mouth, it was cold and could cool people down. If one drank it in summer, they would definitely fall in love with it.

The business partners looked at each other and saw shock in each other's eyes. This soda was indeed a delicacy!

Han Shi looked at everyone confidently and said with a smile, "How do you feel?"

Hong Zhao sat back down with a sigh. "To be honest, Director Han, the taste of this soda is very unique. It gives people a refreshing feeling. It makes people feel like they're on ice. To be honest, it's even better than drinking wine!"

The others also praised the soda.

Han Shi nodded. "It's good that you like it. Then, let's try this fruit juice. It's mainly for the children, pregnant women, and the elderly. You've also heard that our Sweet Dew fruits are very beneficial to the body. This fruit juice can also increase your immunity."

In other words, drinking Sweet Dew Juice from time to time will be helpful in preventing colds, fevers, and coughs. Not only that, but it also has a certain antioxidant effect on the skin. It's very effective in moisturizing the skin.

Of course, the most important thing is that it can promote absorption. For example, children don't like to eat. If you give them this drink, their appetite will increase greatly."

Everyone was in disbelief. This sounded more like a health product than a juice.

Seeing that they did not believe him, Han Shi said with a smile, "Everyone, if you don't believe me, you can give it a try. I wonder if any of you have constipation?"

In the meeting room, a woman raised her hand in embarrassment. "I... I've been constipated these past two days."

The woman was in her forties. Her name was Huang Mei, and she ran a small sales company.

Han Shi smiled and asked his assistant to take out a bottle of hawthorn juice. "President Huang, you can drink this bottle. I guarantee that your constipation will go away soon."

Although Huang Mei was skeptical of Han Shi's words, she still took a bottle and drank it all. No matter what the effect was, the taste was indeed top-notch. It was sour and sweet, and the juice was thick.

Everyone waited for a few minutes, but seeing that Huang Mei did not have any reaction, they were immediately disappointed.

Han Shi was speechless. "Everyone, you didn't treat my drink as laxative, did you?"

Hearing this, they smiled awkwardly. "I'm sorry, we were too anxious."

Chapter 748 Milk Tea

"Here, next is milk tea! There are many types of milk tea, and each type has its own effect."

Han Shi said, "For example, this original-flavored milk tea can protect women during their period. Not only can it alleviate the pain, but it can also replenish the protein and nutrients missing in the body."

The eyes of the only two women in the meeting room lit up at the same time. "If it really has this effect, that would be great!"

"Director Han..." The woman sitting with Huang Mei was called Bao Haiyan. She said awkwardly, "Can I drink a bottle?"

Han Shi was a smart person. He immediately knew that this woman was on her period. He smiled and said, "Of course, but please shake it before drinking the milk tea. This way, the milk tea will heat up on its own."

Bao Haiyan was stunned. "Automatic heating?"

She took a bottle. Feeling that the cold milk tea bottle in her hand was gradually warming up, Bao Haiyan shook it even harder. When the temperature was about right, she opened the lid and took a sip. In an instant, the rich fragrance of milk tea filled her mouth. Bao Haiyan's body trembled, and her eyes were filled with sparkling stars. When she swallowed the milk tea, she felt a warm sensation all over her body, especially her stomach. The pain of her period had clearly eased.

Bao Haiyan couldn't wait to take another big sip and raised her thumb at Han Shi. "It's magical, it's magical. I feel very comfortable in my stomach. I think girls will love this milk tea."

"Is it really that exaggerated?" The other business partners were also tempted.

"Of course. If you don't believe me, try it yourself!"

The assistant had already poured the milk tea into disposable cups and handed it to everyone.

If one were to ask Han Shi why he was so stingy and only gave them one small cup, Han Shi would say that there were still many products to be tasted. If they drank too much, how could they continue drinking?

Everyone took a sip. It was mellow and fragrant. The milky fragrance was sweet and lingering. When it slid down their throats, it warmed their body. Most importantly, the taste was unique. It was very different from the milk tea on the market. It had the taste of ice cream that girls liked. Which girl wouldn't love hot ice cream?

The business partners couldn't help but praise, "The taste is mellow and strong. Wonderful, really wonderful!"

Although Hong Zhao did not drink sweet milk tea much, he could tell that this was a huge business opportunity. Moreover, he could tell that Bao Haiyan and Huang Mei liked the taste of milk tea very much.

At this moment, Huang Mei frowned slightly and her stomach rumbled. Clearly, the hawthorn juice she had drunk earlier had taken effect. Her face froze and she held her stomach as she spoke to everyone.

"Everyone, please excuse me!" As she spoke, she ran out of the meeting room without looking back.

Chapter 749 Sweet Dew Water

Someone immediately realized that it was probably the hawthorn juice taking effect. A trace of shock immediately flashed across their faces.

It had to be noted that although constipation was not a serious illness, it was still very troublesome to treat. It was mainly because one had to endure a series of reactions like bloating, abdominal pain, and soreness. The most difficult thing was that once one had constipation, the feeling of only being able to eat but not dump was simply a torture.

If it was serious, it would cause gastroenteritis, acute appendicitis, gallstones, and even gastric perforation.

A few minutes later, Huang Mei walked back with a relaxed and happy expression. Seeing that everyone was looking at her, a trace of embarrassment flashed across her face, but she still said honestly, "I've already tried it. This fruit juice does have the effect of promoting the movement of the stomach. I feel great now!"

The business partners immediately began to whisper to each other. Their faces were undoubtedly filled with approval and praise for Sweet Dew. At the same time, they were also thinking to themselves that if these things went on the market, it would bring them profits.

Seeing that they were already discussing, Hong Zhao cleared his throat and the business partners immediately quietened down. He said, "Everyone, don't be in a hurry. Let's put the discussion aside for now. Next, we still have to ask Director Han to introduce us to the other food."

"Yes, yes, yes. There are still so many things. I can't wait to try them."

Han Shi smiled and pointed at a bottle of mineral water. "Next, let's talk about this bottle of mineral water."

Everyone turned to look at the mineral water. Someone couldn't help but ask curiously, "Isn't this just ordinary mineral water? What's so special about it?"

Han Shi shook his index finger. "No, this is not ordinary mineral water. It's one of the main drinks developed by Sweet Dew. It's called Sweet Dew Water. As for what it's used for, I won't tell you. Try it yourself. After you try it, please tell me how you feel."

The assistant poured another glass for everyone.

Huang Mei was completely at ease with the products Han Shi took out. She took a small sip of the Sweet Dew Water. Her first reaction was, "Yes, it's sweet but not too much!"

Right on the heels of that was Bao Haiyan. After tasting it, she said, "Fresh!"

Then, there were the others. They praised the water repeatedly.

The last bald man touched his hairless head and said in embarrassment, "I feel like my head is clear after drinking it."

As soon as he finished speaking, Han Shi snapped his fingers. "Yes, President Xu is the only one who hit the nail on the head. Didn't you notice that after drinking the Sweet Dew Water, your head becomes clear?"

"That's right. Now that I think about it, that does seem to be the case. I was a little tired before, but now, the fatigue seems to have disappeared. This is too magical!"

“I think so too. It doesn’t make sense for a bottle of water to be able to refresh one’s mind. Could it be that there are other harmful medicines in it?”

Han Shi smiled. “There’s indeed medicine inside, but it’s not the kind you’re talking about. As for whether it’s harmful to the body, after you leave, I’ll give you some samples. You can examine them in the lab when you go back!”

Chapter 750 If They Leave, So Be It

With Han Shi’s words, everyone was relieved.

Han Shi knocked on the table gently. After everyone quietened down, he said, “Next, let me introduce the canned food series. In order to save time, we won’t introduce them one by one.”

He looked at his assistant. “Open all the canned food and give everyone a portion.”

The assistant nodded and did as he was told.

When everyone saw that there was actually canned meat, they were clearly stunned. “Is this canned meat?”

Han Shi made an inviting gesture. “This is also a new product we’re launching. Try them and see if they suit your taste! There are four flavors here: spicy, salty, sweet, and sour. You can try them according to your taste.”

“I didn’t expect Director Han to be so thoughtful.” Hong Zhao admired Han Shi’s business acumen.

Han Shi laughed and said, “Everyone has their own taste, and the taste of each region is different. In order to cater to the needs of the market, this is the only way!”

Hong Zhao nodded. “Director Han is right.”

He looked at the drumstick in the can and smelled the fragrance. He couldn’t help but swallow his saliva. Then, he picked up a piece with his chopsticks and put it into his mouth.

After taking the first bite, their expressions were surprisingly the same. Their eyes were wide open in shock. “This meat... is too tender and smooth!”

“That’s impossible. The meat of a farmed chicken isn’t that delicious,” someone said with certainty.

Han Shi said, “Indeed, farm chicken won’t be so delicious. This is a chicken, duck, and goose that grew up drinking Sweet Dew Water. Don’t worry, after the meeting, we’ll give each of you a chicken. I believe that even those who don’t know how to cook will be able to cook it.”

As for the other canned foods, they were already on the market, so they didn’t have to try them one by one.

The meeting quickly ended. All the business partners' faces were filled with joy and excitement because they knew that as long as the cooperation went smoothly, they would definitely be making a lot of money.

At the same time, in the meeting room of the Jiaying headquarters.

As the owner of Jiaying, Zhang Heng said with a dark expression, "Can someone tell me why these business partners terminated their contracts?"

"What else can it be? Of course it's greed. We've already done our best to give them 8%. I didn't expect them to join forces to ask to increase the profits to 10%. They are simply asking for too much."

"I think so too. They're just some insignificant small business partners. If they leave, so be it. Anyway, there are many people who want to work with us."

"Indeed, for the sake of these small business partners, I think President Zhang is making a mountain out of a molehill to hold a meeting!"

Zhang Heng said seriously, "Make a mountain out of a molehill? Do you know who these business partners are working with now?"

Everyone frowned in confusion. "Who?"

"Sweet Dew!"
