Chapter One

Jewels POV

Today is a very rainy day, I love days like this, the rain feels as though it's cleansing the world as it falls and washes away, well my human side loves the rain, Jade my wolf, not so much as the feel of wet fur and the smell of wet dog is not a sexy look or feel at all. I am kind of bummed that today of all days is my birthday and it's raining like crazy but the Pack is going nuts because today the Alphas son Drew will be returning from his two-year training and re-join the rest of us at school along with his chosen Beta Jahmal, yippiee note the sarcasm but Jade seems kind of uneasy and excited at the same time for some reason, I on the other hand cannot be bothered, as I doubt he'd be any different to the others that like to poke fun at me for no reason.

I do have to admit that Drew is indeed good looking but not my cup of coffee plus he's a man whore first of all and total jerk, to me at least.

Pardon my manners for just starting my rant without even introducing myself, my name is Jewel Stuart, today is my nineteenth birthday, I have red hair and green eyes compliments of my mom, I am the eldest of four children, my other siblings look like our dad while I look like my mom, which makes them say I'm my parent's favourite which I'm sure isn't true! I am a warrior just like them, so we have a lot more in common, which also makes me fairly well built and kind of sort of a tom-boy, rough around the edges and stuff but I'm sure you get the picture.

I like wearing loose comfy clothing because it keeps unnecessary attention off me and keeps my curves hidden, I'm not one of the attentions seeking type of female in case you hadn't noticed, I am very well built with a beautiful body shape and perfect curves and butt which obviously no one notices because even when I train, I wear track pants and t-shirts rather than sports bra and tights like the other girls do. The girly girls of the pack say I probably don't have a mate and if I do, they are sure it'd be a woman, but I Can't be bothered honestly whether I have a mate or not, I mean I'm a whole year late in regards to that, most people find their mates after their eighteenth birthday and today is my nineteenth so.

My sisters Lacey and Lana are quite popular in school even though they are younger than I am, they also have lots of friends and most people found it hard at first to believe that we're related let alone sisters because they are blonde with blue eyes and I am a red head with green eyes, they are feminine and prissy and I am rough and rugged, no make-up, no heels... nada! anyway back to the matter at hand.

It's 7:10 AM and I am showered, dressed and everything, I'm headed down stairs to have my breakfast then head out to school which is a 20-minute drive from our house as we do not live in the pack house because my parents like privacy and I love it, especially since I don't have to be bothered by hundreds of people at a time buzzing around all the time and long lines when it's time for food, plus pack blunts live in the pack house, I'm not sure I'd be able to keep Jade at bay if I see and hear them 24/7 like that, just thinking about that is bringing on a headache.

I make my way to the kitchen my dad is the first to scoop me up and kiss me on my cheek wishing me happy birthday, he then gives me my gift and then puts me down, my mom hugs me and does the same followed by my siblings. My mom goes all out when it's any of our birthdays at breakfast and dinner, she loves cooking, and so do I which may be the only feminine trait I possess that my sisters do not.

Today is chocolate chip with blueberry pancakes with ham, eggs, bacon, and sausage my my, I top it off with Orange Juice and a nice cup of Cocoa with whipped cream, by the time we are all done is 7:35 AM, I quickly helped my mom clean up then headed to my car, I guess I'll have to break a few speeding limits, I snort to myself because I know damn well we have no such things here at our pack, at any pack for that matter but I will drive like a maniac to make it to school on time.

Right time to rally the children.

" Kids! let's get goinggggg! " I shout to my siblings; they hate it when I call them that haha! they scurry out the door one by one and into my Audi, we zoom off to school barely making it! 7:52 AM and we sprint to our various classes just as the bell rings after saying bye to each other.

later that day

It's lunch time now and I make my way into our school cafeteria, seeing as I had a big breakfast I'm not exactly hungry, So I only have a bottled Water with two slices of Pizza and make my way to my usual table, just after sitting down my siblings join me, for some reason they always eat lunch with me, it makes me feel like a bit of charity case but I know they do it out of love as no one other than the other warriors I train and work with would associate with me and they have lunch at a different hour due to their courses, either way I love my little ones for being so considerate of me although it is unnecessary but ohhh well.

The constant gossip that started last week about Drew and Jahmal returning this evening is going even stronger than before * roll eyes *... the Queen pack blunt is the center of this conversation. I have no idea how and why my sisters tolerates let alone hangs out with her, not that I'm eavesdropping or anything but my wolfy hearing allows me to hear persons conversations even when I don't mean to or want to.

" OMG guys! I cannot wait for them to return, I bet they are both so big and buff in all the right places " they all giggle *gag * .

" But still Quinn, how can you be so sure either of them will go for you? what if they want to wait for their mates? "

" ohpaleazeee Jamie! have you seen me? Us? who can resist all of this? Plus I for sure know that Drew is definitely not waiting for his mate as I have already ridden that horse more than once but that was years ago so I can only imagine now "

" Well I hear you, but back then they were not of age to sense their mates but now they are so you never know "

" Don't you worry about that because I am certain that I will be Drew's mate and who knows perhaps one of you may be Jahmal's and the other Dukes', we'll be Alpha, Beta and Gamma females! Wouldn't that be just amaze-balls?! "

" Of bloody course it would "

I couldn't help but chuckle and ended up choking on my water a bit, this she wolf thinks herself to be the goddess of beauty and seduction, I can feel their eyes on me probably glaring holes in my back by now but they won't say anything in my sibling's presence because they don't want to lose friendships, but Lacey gives me a light tap on my nose and mouth "BEHAVE" to me while stifling a smile of her own and I send a playful glare her way, they've tried their luck with my brother Jace but my parent's raised him, all of us well and respectfully so he's never taken any of them or any female serious in that sense, thank Goddess for that!

Or I may have sent him back to meet her myself.

After having lunch we all walk out of the cafeteria at the same time but begin branching off to head to our individual classes " you know, it's not nice to eavesdrop on people's conversation Jewel " Quinn's annoying voice rings out behind me " tell you what Quinn, at those moments when you don't want others to hear your birdie voice and ceaseless banter, please do the world a favor and use your mind link to speak to each other hmm? I know I most certainly would appreciate that kind gesture, I am after all a were wolf and what do were wolves have? heightened senses that's what "

I roll my eyes and continue on to my class " stupid dyke! " I suppose that's the best her Two and a half brain cells could come up with, they must have hugged each other really hard to achieve that one.

None of my siblings say anything as I have told them more than once never to get into anything between myself and these idiots as I most certainly can handle them on my own, this time however I really don't have the time to spare or the excess energy to even turn back let alone answer their dumb remark, so we all kept on walking.

" Such a pity you didn't take after your sisters, soft and delicate rather being rough and manly so that no one here would want you for a mate! " Quinn snickered and her two goons joined in and laughed, my brother angrily turned and shouted "hey! you ju-" " it's fine Jace, what have I told you? " " yes I know what you said Jewy but come on! I can not ignore this! " " like I said, it's fine for I'd much rather be rough and manly and be able to fight, defend, be tactical and protect myself than having to run and cower away and depend on another person to keep me safe, who may or may not even be able to do so, so as I said, it's totally fine, let's head out before we're late for class "

I cast a glance at my sisters just to make sure they aren't offended at my statement and I see that they aren't and are actually smiling. We head out and go our separate ways to our classes for the afternoon, I had class with one of the goons but on her own she never says a word to me nor even breathes in my direction, they both need to be in Quinns' presence to have backbone and neck, it is what it is really.

It was brought to my attention that readers are having trouble with the punctuations marks I chose as well as some of the wording, I will slowly begin to edit and make changes where necessary, it'd take a bit of time as I'm currently working on another book but I will get it done, thanks for your understanding.

Chapter Two

Finally! another school is over and I am on my way home to get ready to attend the party being held for Drew and Jahmal after all the Alpha made It mandatory that all pack members attend to welcome their Alpha and Beta to be, home, yayyy right?

My sister has been driving me nuts about my outfit but as per usual I wear what I feel comfortable in, I'm clad with my favorite white button up shirt and jeans with my brown leather strap sandals, at least I didn't wear boots! I look pretty hot to me, it's not like I'm dressing to impress anyone or anything, I head downstairs and my sisters roll their eyes at me, they're wearing pretty dresses and make up with heels, meh! Jace leaves the comfort of the couch and comes over to me so we can take a selfie together to post to his Im then as routine when we are all dressed up together we pose for a picture together for my Mother's photo album, I tell you it's thicker than a dictionary, after out photoshoot we all head out, my parents drive their jeep with Lacey while the twins ride with me.

We pull up to the pack house and the music is quite deafening, there are wolves everywhere, chatting and having a good time, everyone separates into their cliques except for Jace, who is still hugging me around the shoulder, which is a habit of his I've grown accustomed to, he may fan off for a bit to speak to his boys but he always finds his way back to me, he's a sweetheart. You'd think being the eldest I'd be the tallest but nope! Jace is a whopping 6'7'' while I'm average werewolf height at 5'11 and my sisters are shorter than I am, it's probably a male wolf thing to be huge in height cause my dad is a lot taller than my mom as well as most other males in the pack, natural protectors I suppose.

Jace and I head to the bar and grab ourselves some punch and make our way to the back yard where the brunt of the festivities are set up, I can hear parents whispers and mumbles about me and my outfit and it's going against our nature to be like this, I have no idea what makes them all automatically assume I'm into women by the way that I dress and even if I was so what?!

Not once has any of them seen me hit on a girl, or anyone for that matter for them to just think because I dress roughly by their standards I'm gay, it's so crazy to me, I train a lot so I prefer looser clothing to feel more free to move around, that's it!

My brother gives my shoulder a reassuring squeeze, I think this is the main reason why he sticks to me this much when we're at public gatherings like this, to keep me from cursing people out and starting trouble because for damn sure they don't have the power or capability to lower my esteem and make me feel like I'm any less than I am, we look around to find a spot to sit and make our usual idle conversation and laugh, occasionally a few of his buddies would come over and make small talk, one or two she wolves hoping to get his attention would flit by and wave or cast bashful flirty glances at him which cringed the hell out of me.

During our conversation about soccer a slightly strong wind blows by us and I catch the very faint smell of Cinnamon and Watermelon, it's an odd combination I must say but it smells so damn divine. I however know what that means just for the mere fact that Jade is so excited by it and Jace doesn't seem to smell it, It's my mate! oh goddess I can't stick around for the possible chance of rejection right now, but who the heck could it possibly be? that acutally doesn't matter right now because I need to leave right away. I tell my brother I'm not feeling well and give him my keys so he could drive the others home when the party's over. I need to get out of here fast, I make my way to the woods and shift into my wolf and make a dash for my house. It's a hard and difficult battle because Jade wants us to go find our mate but I convince her to wait and we'd look for him when he may be alone just in case he rejects us.

Hopefully he's not someone visiting from another pack just for the arrival party tonight and will leave tomorrow because then we'd most certainly be doomed, me moreso than Jade as she will drive me mad to go out and look for him if that turns out to be the case and I know I would have to because I don't want her to go ferral on me.

It would be way too embarrassing to have it done in everyone's presence especially my parents and Jace who might hurt them for my sake and get into trouble with the Alpha, I don't want that to happen at all and Quinn and her goonies would not let me live it down which will eventually make me frustrated and lash out possibly hurting one of them so no, that's the way I comfort myself by thinking I'm saving all of us from imaginary problems.

" ANY WOLF THAT REJECTS US WILL BE VERY FOOLISH JEWY, I MEAN FIRST OF ALL, WE'RE INTELLIGENT, KIND, LOVING AND NOT TO MENTION FING SEXY, BEAUTIFUL AND HELLO A MYSTIC WOLF! "

" THAT MAY BE SO JADE BUT HE WON'T KNOW THAT NOW, WOULD HE? I HAVE NO INTENTION OF SHARING THAT FACT UNLESS I KNOW HE'S HERE FOR US AND NOT OUR POWER "

DREWS POV

I'm in my room with Jahmal just chilling, my mom thinks it's better to wait until the moment I was born to make my way to the party which is 11:28 PM, it's now 10:20 PM and I am getting restless and not to mention hungry.

I make my way over to my window just to have a look out at the crowd. I see a lot of sexy ass she wolves in the mix that makes me growl lustfully, damn a lot of maturity and puberty happened while we were away, just as I was scanning the crowd making mental note of all the faces of girls I intend to meet horizontally, that is if I don't meet my mate tonight, the smell of Vanilla and Peony lightly tickles my nostrils and my wolf begins to stir, I want it, whatever that scent is, I want it right now but where is it coming from?

I crane my neck looking wildly through the window and sniffing the air, the scent is moving away should I chase it? it's my mate, I'm sure it is but why is she leaving? doesn't she want us? Zed whimpers slightly at that thought, no! no! impossible I am an Alpha who wouldn't want me? right?

" SHE CAN'T TELL FROM OUR SCENT THAT WE'RE ALPHA'S DREW! PLUS, WE DON'T EVEN KNOW IF SHE SCENTED US, WE ARE HIGH UP AFTER ALL " the scent disappears and I make my way to my bed and lay down waiting for the hour to come before I can mingle and hopefully find her, I'm sure she'd come back I say to myself reassuringly.

" YES, YOU'RE RIGHT SHE PROBABLY DIDN'T SMELL US BUT AT LEAST WE KNOW SHE'S HERE IN THE PACK, I'M POSITIVE WE'LL FIND HER IN NO TIME "

Jahmal is out cold sleeping the time away, he's earned it because a Beta has to train twice as hard as an Alpha to be able to stand in and be strong in the event of anything.

After some time of just thinking different things to myself, there's a light knock at the door and I rise to my feet, It's finally time! I wake Jahmal and we make our way down to the party and I can see and smell the lust and arousals from the she wolves all around us, however the scent I'm looking for is nowhere to be found which is a little disheartening.

She's not here anymore my wolf Zed whimpers don't worry Zed we'd find her, I'm sure, after all there's nowhere in this pack she can go or hide that I won't find her, MY MATE.

My parents take me around, introducing me to different members of our pack as well as Alphas and Lunas of visiting packs. I mix and mingle but still keeping my eyes and nose open looking for her, whoever she is, while I'm distracted a pair of arms wrap around me and pull me into a hug, a familiar scent.

" Hey Drewy, it feels like forever since I've seen and felt you " Goddess what is her name again? ah yes! " hey Quinn, how've you been? " I ease out of her grip trying not to be rude or obvious about it, just in case my mate comes back, our first encounter won't be me being seen by her in the arms of another woman, but Quinn doesn't seem to get it at all, I mean sure I've rolled around with her numerous times before but now I know my mate is here, I most certainly can't do this.

I mean her boobs are still as huge and delectable as I remember them and all, she presses them against me and I gulp and step back a bit holding her hands in mine at a distance as she smiled up at me suggestively biting her lips.

" Would you like to make a swing by my room for a bit? " she presses her chest against me again batting her fake eyelashes and exposing her D cup breasts, thankfully I hear my mom call out to me before I could answer Quinn, thank you mommy dearest! " sorry Quinn I have to go, my mom needs me now, see you later " she called out as I almost broke into a jog away from her headed towards my mother " you can count on it Drew! " sigh

" Drew I will be keeping my eyes on you son! You are older and I expect you to be more responsible and stop messing around with these she-wolves like you did before, okay?! you are now at the age to find your mate don't let her catch you with other she-wolves scent on you! " yes mother " Zed also silently nods in my mind in agreement to her statement " good! Now let's go, your dad wishes to speak with you privately" I follow after her silently, I still cast glances through the crowd with hopes of spotting or sniffing my mate once more.
