

Myth Beyond 101

Chapter 101 - Lunar Jade Rabbit

The rabbit became anxious and let out a noise trying to explain something, but Yun Lintian did not understand. Upon seeing that Yun Lintian didn't intend to help, the rabbit briefly glanced at the woman before its eyes turned resolute.

Buzz—

Suddenly, the rabbit's body glowed in purple light, and the area between its brows slowly opened, revealing a small purple jade with a terrifying aura kept emitting from it.

Yun Lintian was shocked because the rabbit's current appearance resembled a figure that he found in the book.

"Lunar Jade Rabbit?" Yun Lintian uttered in disbelief.

The novel wasn't the only thing Yun Lintian loves to read, but he also read many legends and folklore. During these past months, aside from studying the Record of Life and the Myriad Formation Scripture, Yun Lintian would occasionally find a book related to the mythical beast in the legend. And the Lunar Jade Rabbit was one of them.

According to the legend, the Lunar Jade Rabbit was a companion of the Moon Goddess, Chang'e. It was said the Jade Emperor had disguised himself into a poor, starving old man and begged for food from a monkey, otter, jackal, and rabbit. While others did not care about him, rabbit though, could only gather grass and knew well enough that grass couldn't be offered as food to humans. Hence, the rabbit decided to offer its own body, sacrificing itself in the fire the man had started.

Later, the old man revealed himself as the Jade Emperor and was touched by the rabbit's selfless sacrifice. He decided to send the rabbit to the moon to become the immortal Jade Rabbit.

Yun Lintian did find the information related to this immortal Jade Rabbit and was surprised when he discovered it was called 'Lunar Jade Rabbit' here in this world. It could be regarded as the Divine-rank Profound Beast, slightly inferior to the four mythical beasts, Azure Dragon, Phoenix, White Tiger, and Black Turtle.

The tiny purple jade on the rabbit's forehead suddenly fell out and landed on the rabbit's paw. The rabbit lifted its paw weakly to Yun Lintian as though it was trying to offer the purple jade to him.

Yun Lintian was shocked when he looked at the purple jade that radiated with a powerful aura. He remembered this jade was called 'Lunar Jade,' and the Lunar Jade Rabbit could only take it out once in their lifetime. When the jade was taken out, the Lunar Jade Rabbit would lose its power and become an ordinary beast.

"You..." It was rare to see Yun Lintian stuttered. He looked at the rabbit in front of him with complicated feelings.

Yun Lintian did not intend to force the Lunar Jade Rabbit to this point. He just wanted to know why the rabbit thought he was a good person and wanted to learn the woman's identity. From the look of it, the rabbit wasn't stupid enough to not know that asking for help from a stranger was risky.

The rabbit was anxious and tried to give the purple jade to Yun Lintian while pointing at the woman.

Yun Lintian was extremely touched by the rabbit and decided to help out. "You put the jade back. I'll help her."

The rabbit didn't retract its paw but stubbornly gave it to Yun Lintian.

Yun Lintian shook his head, ignoring the rabbit, and went to the woman's side. He squatted down and carefully examined her body.

The woman's figure could be described as mesmerizing beauty. Whether it was her slender waist, breasts, and buttocks, every feature on her body was almost perfect, as though the god himself personally carved with utmost care.

What a beautiful girl. Yun Lintian thought. This was the first time Yun Lintian admired other women's beauty beside Yun Qianxue.

Observing with his naked eyes, Yun Lintian did not find anything out of the ordinary on her. It was as if she just simply faint for no reason.

Yun Lintian used his hand to grab her wrist and quickly retracted his hand as he felt an incomparably cold from her body.

"What is this?" Yun Lintian frowned and searched in his mind for relevant information. There were too many ailments that could make a person's body turn cold. He could not figure it out for the time being.

Yun Lintian looked around, thinking this place was unsuitable for performing a thorough examination and decided to bring her to the cave behind the waterfall.

He turned to the rabbit and said, "Follow me. I'll bring your master to my place first. I don't know if I can help her, but I'll try my best. You should put that jade back."

The rabbit hesitated for a while before it put the purple jade back to its forehead.

Yun Lintian circulated his profound energy to protect his body, lifted the woman, and speedily brought her to the cave.

When he arrived in the cave, he took a bed out and laid her on it. Yun Lintian then activated the Eyes of Heaven to examine her, and his face immediately turned solemn by the discovery.

"Abyssal Energy? How come?" Yun Lintian muttered to himself. This was the first time he saw Abyssal Energy within a human.

According to the Abyssal Energy record, ordinary people who took the Abyssal Energy in would almost instantly lose their lives. However, this woman before him was clearly alive despite having a large portion of Abyssal Energy within her... How could she still be alive? This question appeared in Yun Lintian's mind.

Yun Lintian's golden pupils continued to stare at the woman's body, trying to find a clue. Suddenly, he saw a tiny crescent moon symbol on her Foundation Gate around the belly area.

Yun Lintian turned to the rabbit and then the woman. "Don't tell me, both of you are the legendary Chang'e and the jade rabbit?"

He shook his head, getting rid of his messy thoughts, and focused on the crescent moon symbol within the woman's body. All of a sudden, Yun Lintian thought of something and exclaimed in shock. "Wait a minute, this is the Divine Moon Profound Vein!?"

Chapter 102 - Divine Moon Profound Vein

Divine Moon Profound Vein was an extremely scarce Profound Vein. It was said only a descendant of the Divine Moon clan could have it. Yun Lintian remembered the record said the Divine Moon clan had gone extinct for a long time ago. How could this woman appear here in the Azure World?

This woman definitely has a cliché plot behind her. Maybe her parents hide her here? Yun Lintian thought.

The rabbit was anxious and let out a low cry, bringing Yun Lintian out of his own thought.

Yun Lintian didn't know how to deal with the Abyssal Energy within her body, as she could be considered a new case. He hesitated for a second before taking out a cup of Profound Spirit Liquid and gave it to her.

A strange light flashed across the rabbit's eyes when it saw the Profound Spirit Liquid. It stared at Yun Lintian for a while and turned to its master afterward.

"She's already the peak of Origin Profound Realm?" After giving her the Profound Spirit Liquid, Yun Lintian discovered the woman's strength had already reached the peak of the Origin Profound Realm, which could be considered a terrifying talented individual compared to her age.

"Seventeen years old, the peak of Origin Profound Realm... The Divine Moon Profound Vein is indeed terrifying." If it was the past, Yun Lintian would envy her, but now he had the Beyond Heaven Profound Vein that was better than the Divine Moon Profound Vein. It was only a matter of time before his strength could rise.

Yun Lintian used the Eyes of Heaven to observe the change within her body, but a while later, he didn't see any change at all.

"It's not working?" Yun Lintian muttered.

The Abyssal Energy within her body didn't seem to decrease at all. The Profound Spirit Liquid could only give her a small amount of vitality and nothing more.

Yun Lintian pondered for a while before he came up with a new idea. He took out a big wooden tub and filled it with Profound Spirit Liquid before turning to the rabbit and said. "I'll seal her power first in case she wakes up and tries to kill me."

Without waiting for the rabbit to reply, Yun Lintian used the silver needles to seal all of her power before wrapping her with a thick cloth and placing her in the wooden tub.

Yun Lintian's idea was simple. He thought of the time when he cleaned the Stone Rhino's heart with the Profound Spirit Liquid. At that time, he needed to draw Abyssal Energy out first. Without further ado, Yun Lintian took a long silver needle out and pierced it on the woman's heart currently occupied by the Abyssal Energy.

A moment later, the Abyssal Energy was madly poured out along with the silver needle and quickly purified by the Profound Spirit Liquid in the wooden tub.

"It worked." Yun Lintian saw the Abyssal Energy within the woman's body slowly decrease. He didn't expect this simple method was actually worked. Even a person with no medical knowledge could do it easily.

However, Yun Lintian didn't forget that ordinary people would be long gone since Abyssal Energy had successfully entered their bodies. He was curious why did this woman be still alive until now. Was it because of the Divine Moon Profound Vein?

While waiting for her to recover, Yun Lintian used this time to check on the crescent moon symbol. This symbol didn't match any knowledge within his mind, but he could feel it was a kind of seal. Perhaps it was the seal to cover the identity of the Divine Moon Profound Vein from being revealed.

The rabbit could perceive the change within its master's body, and it heaved a sigh of relief before looking at Yun Lintian's back with gratitude.

It took an hour before all the Abyssal Energy within her body dissipate completely. Yun Lintian lifted her up and placed her on the bed.

Looking at her soaked clothes that highlighted her curves, Yun Lintian hesitated and turned to the rabbit. "Can you change your master's cloth by yourself?"

The rabbit tilted its head, looking cute, and nodded its head slightly.

Yun Lintian was relieved and took a white robe out, placing it on the bed, and went out of the cave. It wasn't because Yun Lintian was a gentleman, but rather he didn't want to offend the woman. Although Yun Lintian could suppress her with the killing formation, what was the point of doing that? He wasn't a lustful man who would take advantage of this situation.

He often read this plot where the protagonist 'accidentally' saw the female lead's naked body, and later she tried her best to kill him. Even though they would fall in love with each other in the end, Yun Lintian wasn't delusional enough to think it would happen to him. Additionally, he didn't feel for this woman at all, even though he was certain she was a devastating beauty that might surpass Yun Qianxue.

Yun Lintian sat on a boulder beside the cave entrance and pondered how to send this woman and the rabbit away after this.

Suddenly, the alarm formation sent a signal to Yun Lintian, causing him to frown and became vigilant. He carefully rechecked whether he left a trace behind. After confirming he didn't leave any trace behind, he retreated to the cave, activating the conceal formation, and stared in the forest's direction, waiting for the intruder to appear.

The rabbit finished changing its master's cloth and came to Yun Lintian's side, looking at him as though it asked, 'What happened?'

Yun Lintian made a silent gesture and pointed at the forest. Soon, there were four figures walked out of the forest. Leading was a tall woman and followed by three men. All of them wore black robes, and their faces were covered with black masks.

"How could she manage to escape? She is clearly infected with the Abyssal Poison." The lead woman said with dissatisfaction.

One of the three men looked around and said, "Don't all of you feel this place is a bit strange?"

Hearing this, all of them immediately checked the surroundings with their powerful Spiritual Senses and felt there was something in this place, but they could not pinpoint it out.

Yun Lintian's heart was tightened because he suddenly discovered these people were at least a saint!

Chapter 103 - Beautiful Beyond Words

Yun Lintian could only pray in his heart his formation wasn't detected by them. Although his current level was only the Ruler-level Profound Formation Master, he was fifty percent confident it could hide from a saint's Spiritual Sense. If he was discovered by them, Yun Lintian would enter the Land of Beyond Heaven right away.

"I feel like we've stepped into a grand formation... But I can't detect it. And who the hell would lay a formation in this barren place?" The tallest man among them said.

"Formation?" The woman frowned and used her Spiritual Sense to sweep through every corner of the surroundings, but she found no clue in the end. "I didn't see anything around here."

Hearing this, Yun Lintian was relieved inwardly and turned to the rabbit to see it looked at the four of them with hatred. At this moment, Yun Lintian remembered the conversation between the four of them... They are chasing after a girl... Is it her?

Yun Lintian made a gesture with his hand by pointing at the group of four and then pointed at the woman on the bed to the rabbit, and the rabbit nodded its head, confirming his guess. These four people were indeed chasing after the woman.

Realizing this, Yun Lintian's brows creased together involuntarily. It seemed he just picked up a hot potato unknowingly.

While Yun Lintian was thinking about escaping from this predicament, the leading woman suddenly frowned, and her expression abruptly changed. "Not good! They've come. We need to go now."

The tallest man asked in frustration. "Are we going to give up like this? If we can get that girl, that old hag would definitely compromise us."

The woman said coldly. "What else we can do now? Who knows what method she uses to escape from us. Let's go!"

Following that, the woman quickly rushed forward, and the three men immediately followed. However, before they were departing, the tallest man's gaze swept over Yun Lintian's direction, causing Yun Lintian's heart to tighten once again until a moment later did he withdraw his gaze and went away.

Seeing all of them disappeared from his sight, Yun Lintian did not relax his vigilance at all. He knew they might come back anytime. What he needed to do right now was to get out of this place as soon as possible.

Yun Lintian made a silent gesture to the rabbit and went to the woman's side. However, when he approached the bed, he was immediately stunned by the woman's facial features.

The woman had a beautiful face that could not simply describe by a word. Yun Lintian remembered the words he had read when an author described a woman's beauty as 'Beautiful to the point that made the heavens and earth, stars and moon, all pale in comparison.' And the woman before him was exactly like that.

She had curvy eyebrows with a perfect arch, vermilion lips that were like the world's most delicate petals. Her skin was exceptionally white as pure snow, with no flaw. Every feature on her face was simply a perfect piece of art. Although her eyes were currently closed, it could not make her beauty decrease in the slightest.

Yun Lintian always showed contempt for those protagonists in the novels when they were stunned on the spot just because they saw a heavenly beauty. Now, he had encountered it by himself and immediately understood the feeling when you meet a beautiful woman that could stun you.

Yun Lintian regained his composure and turned to the rabbit. "Your master is so beautiful. No wonder she is always wearing a veil." He saw a wet veil placed on the bed and understood the rabbit did not have a spare veil to put on her. That was why Yun Lintian could see her face clearly.

Although the woman was beautiful, Yun Lintian did not have any feelings for her. He just simply appreciated her beauty and nothing more. While Yun Lintian was thinking about how to bring her out of this place. Suddenly, the woman's eyelids trembled slightly before she slowly opened her eyes in a daze.

When she saw Yun Lintian stood in front of her, she abruptly got up and tried to circulate her profound energy but discovered her power had been sealed away.

"Who are you!?" The woman said coldly. Her voice was incomparably cold, but somehow Yun Lintian found it attractive.

Yun Lintian looked into her pair of indescribably magnificent eyes and said, "I was the one who saved you. I sealed your power because I reckoned you would attack me when you wake up, and I was right."

At this moment, the rabbit was overjoyed upon seeing its master woke up, and it immediately jumped onto the bed, snuggling into the woman's arms.

The woman saw the rabbit was safe and sound; she heaved a sigh of relief and communicated with the rabbit through her mind. After listening to the rabbit's explanation, she turned to Yun Lintian and said sincerely. "Thank you for saving me."

Yun Lintian was surprised at how she could understand the situation. Naturally, he didn't know she could communicate with the rabbit through her mind.

He waved his hand and said, "You should thank your pet instead. It even willing to give me its lunar jade in order to ask me to help you."

The woman was shocked and turned to the rabbit. "Why did you do that? Don't you remember what I said before?" She then turned to Yun Lintian and said with a pleading tone. "This... Can you give the jade back? Since you seem to know this rabbit is the Lunar Jade Rabbit, you should understand what it means for it to lose the jade, right?"

She knew her request was unreasonable. The man in front of her clearly saved her, and the jade was his reward, but she could not bear to see the rabbit lose its power.

Seeing Yun Lintian was silent, she grew anxious and said. "I am willing to compensate you."

Yun Lintian's brows raised slightly, and he said playfully. "Oh? How are you going to compensate me?"

The woman frowned and hesitated for a moment before she said. "I have a saint-rank artifact with me. Can you unseal my power first?"

Chapter 104 - Lin Xinyao And Mumu

"Saint-rank artifact? Mhm, it's good." Yun Lintian was surprised upon hearing this. He had to evaluate the woman's identity once again... A seventeen-year-old girl with a saint-rank artifact and the Lunar Jade Rabbit. Her background is definitely terrifying. Could it be she is someone from the Frozen Moon Palace? If that is the case, then it makes sense. He thought.

Just as the woman was relieved, Yun Lintian suddenly said, "But I can simply snatch it from you right now. Why would I want that? Also, your strength is higher than mine. Wouldn't you attack me if I unseal your power?"

The woman's expression froze, and thought it was reasonable. Why would Yun Lintian take a risk when he could simply rob her? After all, she had no way to resist him.

The rabbit saw Yun Lintian bullied its master; it bared its white teeth at Yun Lintian, looking hostile.

Yun Lintian was amused. "Oh, little guy. You changed your face really fast, huh?"

The woman was silent, did not know what to do at the moment.

Seeing this, Yun Lintian didn't continue to tease her further and said, "You don't have to give me anything. I have rejected the jade from your pet. You can check it by yourself."

The woman was taken aback and communicated with the rabbit. A moment later, she understood everything and glared at the rabbit with resentment... Why don't you tell me earlier?

However, the woman still insisted on giving Yun Lintian a reward but was rejected by him again. "As I said, you don't have to give me anything. I did save you because I am touched by your pet. It was willing to sacrifice its life in order to save you. Although it's kinda stupid as it didn't even know if I can save you, it's still admirable."

The woman went silent and suddenly thought of something. She asked, "How did you deal with the Abyssal Poison?" To her knowledge, even her master did not have a way to deal with it, but the young man in front of her could actually accomplish it... What kind of identity he had?

Yun Lintian frowned and said, "You call it Abyssal Poison?... As for how I dealt with it, you don't have to know about it."

Yun Lintian's attitude was a bit tough, and the woman also knew her question was related to his secret. Hence, she didn't ask further and said, "Can you unseal my power now?"

Yun Lintian considered for a moment before he took silver needles out and decided to unseal her power. However, it had a countermeasure by secretly holding the escape talisman if the woman tries to attack him.

The woman regained her power and quickly took a new veil out and put it on. She said. "Again, thank you for saving me. My name is Lin Xinyao, and this is Mumu."

"Lin Xinyao..." Yun Lintian repeated her name and glanced at the rabbit. He chuckled. "So you called Mumu?"

The rabbit, Mumu, let out a low cry in response while staring at Yun Lintian with its big cute eyes.

Yun Lintian was particularly fond of Mumu because it reminded him of the cat he raised back on Earth. With this, he decided to find his own pet in the future.

Lin Xinyao was about to say something. Suddenly, her stomach growled loudly, and her face immediately turned red in embarrassment.

"Aren't you already Origin Profound Realm? Why did you still hungry?" Yun Lintian didn't find it was funny, but he was puzzled instead.

Lin Xinyao hesitated slightly before she replied, "I think you should have seen the seal on my body already, am I correct?" Seeing Yun Lintian nodded, she said further. "Because of this seal, I cannot convert origin profound energy to nourish my body."

"So you still need to eat." Yun Lintian understood and was wondering what kind of the seal it was. He then took a table out and placed several delicacies on it. "Go ahead. You can eat it."

Mumu's eyes lit up and speedily jumped onto the table, drooling at the food.

"Mumu, don't be rude." Lin Xinyao reprimanded her pet but also secretly glanced at the food with desire.

Yun Lintian chuckled and picked some braised chickens on a small plate for Mumu. "Eat as you want."

Mumu didn't care about its master anymore and wolfed down the braised chicken with joy. While Lin Xinyao received a bowl of rice from Yun Lintian and started eating elegantly after removing the veil.

During this period, Lin Xinyao observed Yun Lintian's profile quietly and found he was different from many men she had encountered. In the past, any man who saw her face would become fascinated and eager to curry favor with her.

However, Yun Lintian didn't even look at her after seeing her face once, and even if he did, there wasn't any lust or desire within his eyes... What kind of background he has? Is he coming from one of the nine palaces?

"Right, who are those black-clothed people chasing after you?" Yun Lintian suddenly asked. He had a hunch they were a member of the Poison Valley since they knew Abyssal Energy.

Lin Xinyao put down her chopsticks and asked, "Have you ever heard of the Poison Valley?"

Sure enough, it's them... Yun Lintian thought. He replied. "I heard about them before."

"They are a despicable group of people. This time, I have fallen into their trap. They want to use me against my master." Lin Xinyao replied vaguely. She did not go through the Poison Valley details, as she thought Yun Lintian already knew about them.

"Your master?... I see." Yun Lintian understood the situation.

Lin Xinyao's master should be an influential figure in the Northern Continent. Otherwise, the people from the Poison Valley wouldn't pay attention to Lin Xinyao in the first place... However, it seems they didn't know this Lin Xinyao has another secret within her body. Yun Lintian thought.

Although Yun Lintian's medical profound art was high, he clearly could not break the seal and recognize her Divine Moon Profound Vein. Lin Xinyao believed that. Unfortunately, Lin Xinyao could not imagine her secret had already been exposed to Yun Lintian through his Eyes of Heaven.

Chapter 105 - The News Of The Mythical Realm

"You must come from the Frozen Moon Palace's territory, right?" Yun Lintian asked.

Lin Xinyao didn't admit or deny, only looking at him questioningly.

Yun Lintian took her silence as a yes and asked further, "I want to ask you if there is any mythical realm related to the moon here?"

Lin Xinyao was surprised slightly. If Yun Lintian had a prominent background, he should not be oblivious to the mythical realm in the Northern Continent. This made Lin Xinyao doubt Yun Lintian's background further.

She slowly nodded her head and replied. "There is indeed the mythical realm, as you said. It's called the Frozen Moon Mythical Realm."

"Oh? The Frozen Moon Mythical Realm?" Yun Lintian noted it down in his mind. "Can you tell me more about it? How can I enter this mythical realm?"

Lin Xinyao felt strange. She didn't know why Yun Lintian wanted to go there, but she still replied truthfully. "There is the only way to enter the mythical realm. You have to join one of the seven factions within the Frozen Moon Palace's territory. The first one is, of course, the Frozen Moon Palace, but the palace won't recruit a new disciple anytime soon."

"Another five are five sects, namely, White Feather Sect, Violent Gale Sect, Thunder Sword Sect, Heavenly Fist Sect, and Serene Heart Sect. Among them, only the Thunder Sword Sect is recently recruiting a new disciple."

"Lastly, it's the Sky Throne Profound Academy. I recommend you to give this place a try if you really want to enter the Frozen Moon Mythical Realm. The Academy will soon recruit a new batch of students." Lin Xinyao looked at Yun Lintian and said with a serious expression. "You have six months to enter the Spirit Profound Realm to be obliged to the academy's assessment."

Speaking to this point, Lin Xinyao was also puzzled by Yun Lintian's strength. No matter how she looked at him, his talent was average at best, but he could deal with Abyssal Poison, which made her extremely confusing.

Yun Lintian touched his chin, leaning on the chair and pondering for a while before he asked. "Is there any way to enter the mythical realm without joining these factions?"

Lin Xinyao thought for a moment and answered while shaking her head. "Since the Frozen Moon Mythical Realm is mainly controlled by the Frozen Moon Palace. Unless you can use your strength forcing them to let you enter, there is no other way."

Yun Lintian had already expected this answer. He just tried his luck in case Lin Xinyao really had a secret way. "I see. Thank you for the information."

Lin Xinyao said nothing and continued to eat. The meal went on for half an hour before everyone was full. Lin Xinyao thought it was time for her to leave. She stood up and said to Yun Lintian. "I'll leave now. Thank you for the meal."

Yun Lintian nodded and said. "Alright, good luck."

Lin Xinyao hesitated briefly and handed Yun Lintian a delicate map. "This is the Northern Continent's map. I think it's useful to you."

Yun Lintian looked at the map and saw it was highly detailed. He raised his head to look at Lin Xinyao and said. "Thank you. It's indeed useful to me."

Lin Xinyao gave a light nod and called Mumu. "Let's go, Mumu."

Mumu glanced at Yun Lintian and suddenly arrived on his shoulder in a flash before it pecked on Yun Lintian's cheek and went back to Lin Xinyao's side.

Yun Lintian was taken aback and then said jokingly to Mumu. "Did you fall for my handsomeness?"

Mumu rolled its eyes as though it wanted to say, "Narcissist!"

Lin Xinyao was surprised by Mumu's unusual behavior. Mumu had grown up along with her since she was born, and she had never seen it close to anyone. Even her master could not fully gain Mumu's trust. However, it seemed Yun Lintian was an exception.

Thinking of this, she suddenly traced back to the time when Mumu asked Yun Lintian for help. It was quite strange. How did Mumu know Yun Lintian was not a bad person? Could it be a coincidence? But she quickly denied it, as she knew Mumu was not stupid enough to ask a random stranger for help for no reason, even when her life was in danger. There must be a reason behind this, and she decided to ask Mumu later.

Lin Xinyao took a deep look at Yun Lintian one last time before going out of the cave with Mumu on her shoulder.

Yun Lintian watched both of them slowly disappearing from his sight and fell into deep thought. He glanced at the map again, more precisely, at the moon symbol on the top corner of it... This should be the Frozen Moon symbol. It means she is really someone from the Frozen Moon Palace. Poison Valley... Frozen Moon Palace, Lin Xinyao's master.

Yun Lintian seemed to connect all the dots correctly. If he wasn't mistaken, Lin Xinyao's master could possibly be the current Palace Master of the Frozen Moon Palace — if not, a high echelon.

What made Yun Lintian terrified more was the Poison Valley's intelligence network. Presumably, Lin Xinyao was a direct disciple of the Frozen Moon Palace Master; it was impossible her master would let her travel alone. However, the Poison Valley could pinpoint Lin Xinyao's position accurately and even set a trap for her under the protection of the Frozen Moon Palace's experts. This proved they always knew every step of Lin Xinyao beforehand.

From the conversation between the Poison Valley members earlier, they discovered a group of people had arrived nearby. Undoubtedly, this group of people was the Frozen Moon Palace's experts. Until now, Yun Lintian hadn't seen any of them appear nearby this place, which meant the Poison Valley members had been notified in advance for an hour away at the least.

All of this Yun Lintian's analysis had pointed to one conclusion that Poison Valley had already lurked into the Frozen Moon Palace!

Chapter 106 - Being Watched

Yun Lintian put everything aside and decided to leave this place as soon as possible. He looked at the map again and confirmed his next destination. It was a town two hundred kilometers away from this place.

Storing everything into his interspatial ring, Yun Lintian carefully observed the surroundings for a while before removing all the formations and quickly headed north as fast as possible.

What Yun Lintian didn't know was that someone actually watched him from the sky at the moment. No matter how careful Yun Lintian was, he couldn't be aware of the person because this person was a monarch!

This person was a beautiful woman. Her beauty hadn't relied on her facial features but her figure instead. She wore a loose blue robe, revealing her shoulders, making her appear extremely seductive. Even the robe was loose; it could not hide her abundant chest beneath it. When the wind blew against her skirt, her long white-snow legs would occasionally expose to the air — it was a mesmerizing pair of legs.

"Being the Ruler Profound Formation Master at such a young age... What an interesting boy." The woman said faintly with a smile that could make any man losing their soul. Her sharp, seductive eyes stared at Yun Lintian attentively while her index finger touched her thin red lips, appearing allure to the extreme.

The woman watched Yun Lintian passing through the forest for a while before she turned to Lin Xinyao's departure direction. Her figure started to blur and instantly vanished from the spot.

Yun Lintian, who didn't know there was a woman with a figure that surpassed Yun Qianxue, stared at him for all this time, was rushing toward the town while constantly looking for a profound beast along the way.

Since staying in the forest was risky being encountered with the Poison Valley member, he better stay in the town, using his wealth to buy profound beast's remains. Although this method would hinder his battle experience, he had no choice but to play it safe since he had no way to fight the Poison Valley at the moment.

At this moment, a kilometer ahead of Yun Lintian, there were two people, a man, and a woman, struggling against a pack of Grey Wolves. A tattered armor on the man's body was full of claws, biting marks, and blood constantly seeping out underneath it.

Meanwhile, the young woman, estimating around fifteen years old, hid behind the man and looked at several Grey Wolves in terror.

"B... Big brother. Just leave me here and run away." The young woman, who looked timid, apparently said this. She grabbed her brother's left arm, looking at his face as though it was going to be the last time she could see him.

The man roared angrily. "Don't talk nonsense! Do you think I would leave you alone!?" His right hand gripped a long iron blade tightly, staring at the pack of wolves vigilantly.

"Awooo!" The Alpha Grey Wolf suddenly howled loudly, and the surrounding wolves gradually narrowed the gap between them and the brother-sister pair. They looked at their prey while salivating. It seemed they were going to have a big meal soon.

"Little Mi, listen to me. I'll open the path for you, and you have to run with all your might. Understand?" The man said with a severe expression.

The woman tightened her grip and shook her head vigorously. "No! Big brother, I won't leave you. If we are going to die, we will die together!"

The man gritted his teeth, thinking of a way to send his younger sister out of this place. He calculated the direction and strength he needed to throw his younger sister away. Without a doubt, after throwing her away, he would have a small amount of power left to stall time for her to escape.

"Grrr!" The Alpha Grey Wolf growled aggressively, preparing to pounce on the brother-sister pair.

Yun Lintian happened to arrive not far away from the scene and saw this. He paid attention to the man, waiting to see his decision before he could decide whether to help them. It wasn't because Yun Lintian was heartless, but rather being cautious. He didn't know if there were other people nearby.

Yun Lintian climbed into a tall tree nearby, taking out an iron bow and arrow, searching the surroundings briefly before aiming at the Alpha Grey Wolf and waiting for the opportunity. In fact, he could use Dragon Fist to kill all of them, but he preferred to keep it secret as he was aware the Dragon Fist was too eye-catching, easily arousing people's greed when they saw it.

"Blazing Blade!" The man suddenly shouted, and a terrifying flame ignited on his blade. He dragged his younger sister with him as he charged at the Alpha Grey Wolf and swung his blade on its head.

When other wolves saw this, they quickly rushed at the man at high speed. Just as the blade was about to hit the target, the man used all of his strength to throw his younger sister away in Yun Lintian's direction. Because the Alpha Grey Wolf was under threat, other wolves didn't care about the woman and charged the man.

"Big brother!!" The woman cried out loudly when she found herself being tossed away. Her tearful eyes stared at her brother, who did not care whether she would get injured when she landed on the ground.

Yun Lintian saw this and immediately released the arrow at the Alpha Grey Wolf.

Puff!

When the man was about to get bitten, he suddenly saw the sharp arrow pierced through the Alpha Grey Wolf's skull, reaping its life instantly. He was startled for a second and quickly reacted, slashing his blade at the surrounding wolves with all his might.

Yun Lintian jumped down from the tree and constantly shot several arrows at all the wolves — one arrow, one kill. His arrow was insanely lethal.

The woman, who just landed on the ground, staring at Yun Lintian in shock, completely forgot her injuries. Soon, her shock turned to joy, as she knew her brother could be saved now.

Chapter 107 - Chu Siblings

After finishing all the Grey Wolves, Yun Lintian put his bow down and observed the surroundings briefly before going to the woman's side and handed a healing pill to her. "Take it."

The woman was startled for a second and hurriedly received the healing pill with gratitude. "Thank you, Senior. You've saved our lives."

Yun Lintian said nothing and turned to look at the man who was slowly approaching him.

The man cupped his fists and said, "Thank you, Senior." There was a trace of vigilance in his eyes while he sent a signal to her sister, indicating she shouldn't eat that pill.

Yun Lintian wasn't angry, as it was understandable. This world was too cruel to trust anyone easily, even though that person was your savior. He asked, "Why are you two out here? Don't you aware of the profound beast tide?"

The man glanced at her sister and replied, "It's because of the profound beast tide that's why we have to come here." Seeing Yun Lintian's puzzled expression, he explained further, "The profound beast tide causes a food shortage problem throughout the entire Spring Wind Nation. We cannot eat the profound beast's meat since it has poison within it. Hence, the only thing we can eat is domestic crops."

"However, with a huge amount of populations, the crops we cultivating are simply not enough to feed everyone. Not to mention the price of those spirit crops is ten times higher than a normal price. The ordinary people could not afford them. As for why we come here, we want to hunt these profound beasts and sell their remains for food."

Listening to this, Yun Lintian immediately understood the general situation. He was puzzled slightly at first. Since the Spring Wind Nation had no snow, it should be easier to plant more crops, but he later understood. With the Profound Beasts rampaging everywhere, the ordinary farmer simply could not protect their own land. As for profound practitioners, only a few of them were willing to become a farmer or protecting someone's land without a reward.

"What's about the royal clan? They never help out at all?" Yun Lintian asked.

The man shook his head. "We never heard any news from them again since last month."

Yun Lintian's brows furrowed as he thought it was strange... Could it be the Poison Valley do something on them?

The man went to the woman's side, checking her wounds, and whispered, "Let's go back."

The woman was confused and did not understand why her big brother was so cautious toward their savior. She looked at the healing pill in her hand and became hesitant.

The man snatched the healing pill away and turned to Yun Lintian. "Senior, we are going back to the town. Do you want to go with us?"

Their actions did not escape Yun Lintian's eyes, but he said nothing about it. He turned to the Grey Wolves' remains and said, "I'll take care of these remains first."

The man nodded his head and offered his help. "Do you want our help?"

Yun Lintian replied. "Sure."

Following that, the three of them were busy extracting valuable parts from the Grey Wolves' remains. It took them an hour before they completed all the works.

Yun Lintian handed Grey Wolf's bones and eyes to the man and said, "I don't want these things. You can have them."

The man hesitated before finally accepted them. It would be a lie if he said he didn't want them.

Seeing Yun Lintian only picked the Grey Wolf's meat, the man reminded, "Senior, I think you should throw them away. They contain potent poison. If you are careless for a second, your life will be in danger."

Yun Lintian smiled and said, "Don't worry. I know what to do... By the way, is there profound beast's meat on sale over there in the town? I want to buy a lot of them."

The man was confused. Why would Yun Lintian want these poisoned things? He replied, "There is, but no one willing to buy it... May I ask why would Senior want to buy it?"

Yun Lintian came up with a lie. "I am studying medicine. Right now, I am trying to figure out a cure for this poison. That's why I need a lot of samples."

The man immediately understood, and a trace of admiration was born within his heart. "I wish Senior good luck on your research."

"Let's go." Yun Lintian beckoned and let the siblings lead the way.

Along the way, Yun Lintian learned the siblings' identity. The man was Chu Heng, and the woman was Chu Mi. Both of them was a native of Hazy Breeze Town. Their family was poor, but both were quite talented and were qualified to enter the profound ways. They had become the only hope of the family since then.

Yun Lintian could still see the vigilance from Chu Heng's body language and secretly nodded his head inwardly. With this trait, Chu Heng's survival rate in this cruel world would increase tremendously.

An hour later, Yun Lintian's group had arrived at the Hazy Breeze Town. It was a relatively large town, similar to the Snow Wind Town in the War Song Nation. When Yun Lintian passed through the giant iron gate, he suddenly felt someone was staring intensively at him. He glanced sideways in that person's direction and saw a bald man with a big belly standing there with his eyes fixated on his group.

Yun Lintian drew closer to Chu Heng and whispered, "Do you have any enemy here?"

Chu Heng was puzzled slightly and coincidentally to see the bald man in the distance. He immediately understood the situation as he replied in a low voice, "That man is Hei Fu, the boss of the biggest food supplier in the town. He's always suppressing everyone by demanding a high price for food."

"So, he is a local tyrant, huh?" Yun Lintian spoke.

Chu Heng nodded his head and quickly brought Yun Lintian away through the narrowed streets.

The bald man, Hei Fu, stared at Yun Lintian's group until they disappeared from his sight before he turned to a stout man on his side. "Send someone to watch that man earlier."

Chapter 108 - Trouble Comes To The Door

Chu Heng led Yun Lintian to a simple wooden house in a relatively remote place in the town.

"Father, Mother, We're back." Opening the door, Chu Heng shouted loudly.

A while later, a middle-aged man and woman walked into the living room from the backyard. Both of them wore farming attires; evidently, they just came back from the field.

The middle-aged woman approached Chu Heng and Chu Mi, looking up and down with worry, and heaved a sigh of relief after discovering there was no fatal wound on them. "Thank god, both of you've returned safely. Mom thinks both of you shouldn't go out again from now on. The vegetables in the backyard should be enough for the four of us."

Chu Heng patted his mother's hand and said, "Don't worry, Mother. We've gained a lot of rewards this time. It should be enough for one year's worth of food." Following that, he placed a large leather bag on the ground.

Chu Heng's father was relieved after seeing his son and daughter returned safely. It was this time did he notice there was a person behind his son's back. "Son, who is this young man?"

Chu Heng stepped to the side and introduced. "This is Senior Ye. He has helped us along the way here." He did not intend to hide Yun Lintian's merit, but he didn't want his parents to worry.

Yun Lintian also understood this point and said nothing about this matter. Helping Chu's siblings was a matter of raising hands for him. He put the bag full of the Grey Wolf's meat aside and greeted. "Hello uncle and aunty, my name is Ye Xiu. You can call me by my name directly."

Chu Heng's mother smiled brightly and grabbed Yun Lintian's hand. "Thank you for helping my son and daughter. I don't have anything to repay you, but I can give you a good meal."

Yun Lintian smiled and said politely, "You don't have to, Aunty. I have my own ration."

Chu Heng's mother shook her head with a smile that never faded away from her face. "How could it be? You are our guest. Just take a seat here. I'll prepare the food right away." She quickly went to the kitchen afterward, giving Yun Lintian no chance to refuse.

Chu Mi came to Yun Lintian's side and said, "Please accept our gratitude, Senior."

Yun Lintian had no choice but to accept their hospitality.

Chu Heng told Chu Mi to clean herself, and he accompanied Yun Lintian with his father.

"Young man, may I ask where are you come from?" Chu Heng's father poured a cup of water for Yun Lintian and asked.

Yun Lintian received the cup politely and replied, "I come from the Sky Fall Nation on the south. I am currently traveling to gain experience and happen to pass by here."

"Sky Fall Nation... Isn't it very far from here?" A frown appeared on the wrinkled face of Chu Heng's father as he said. He lived in this Hazy Breeze Town for all his life, but he had read the Northern Continent's geography book before. He could remember vaguely the Sky Fall Nation was extremely far away from here.

Yun Lintian answered, "Indeed, it's far from this place. It's located next to the War Song Nation."

Chu Heng's father took a sip of water and pointed at the leather bag at the door. "Why don't you toss it away? Don't you know the meat can't be eaten?"

Yun Lintian replied, "I know this, Uncle. I am proficient in the medical profound art, and right now, I try to find a cure for the poison. So I need these meats to do an experiment."

"You are studying medicine?" Che Heng's father was surprised. "That's good. If you can find a cure for this poison, everyone here doesn't have to suffer anymore... I wish you success, young man."

"I'll try my best, Uncle." Yun Lintian replied humbly. Of course, he already knew how to deal with this poison, but he would never take the Profound Spirit Liquid out. Perhaps he could develop a detoxifying pill in the near future.

Yun Lintian and Chu Heng's father talked on various topics until Chu Heng's mother came out with several dishes and called them to eat.

Looking at various dishes on the table, Yun Lintian knew Chu Heng's mother must empty her family's preserved supply. He was distressed as it was actually unnecessary for her to do this, but he couldn't say anything further as the foods were already made.

"Come, try this." Chu Heng's mother picked up a roasted carrot and put it in Yun Lintian's bowl.

Yun Lintian smiled politely and took a bite of it. A moment later, he exclaimed. "Delicious!" He didn't try to be polite, but this roasted carrot was genuinely delicious.

Chu Heng's mother smiled from ear to ear upon hearing this, and she beckoned him to eat more.

Bang!

Just as everyone was enjoying eating, the front door was suddenly blasted away with a loud bang. Yun Lintian reacted quickly and used his profound energy to grab the flying door before putting it down.

"What are you guys eating? Why don't you give me some?" A stout man appeared at the entrance and said playfully while looking at Yun Lintian from head to toe.

"What do you mean by doing this, Mo Changfei!?" Chu Heng stood up and shouted angrily.

"What do I mean? Of course, I come to pick up some interests." The stout man, Mo Changfei, chuckled. He glanced at the leather bag nearby the door and frowned. "Who the hell putting this here? Do you want to die?"

He discovered the profound beast's meat in the bag and didn't understand why Chu Heng would take it back with him.

"It's me who put it there. Do you have a problem?" Yun Lintian said calmly. From Mo Changfei's aura earlier, he could see this person had strength at the tenth level of Essence Profound Realm. Yun Lintian was confident he could deal with him.

In Yun Lintian's right hand were three silver needles. He could throw them at Mo Changfei at any time if he rushed at him.

"Problem? Yes, I have it." Mo Changfei squinted at Yun Lintian and smiled disdainfully. He observed Yun Lintian earlier and discovered Yun Lintian was only the first level of Essence Profound Realm. Mo Changfei was confident he could kill Yun Lintian with one slap.

Chapter 109 - Treat Enemy With Kindness

After knowing Yun Lintian's strength, Mo Changfei laughed arrogantly. "Why don't you guess what's my problem?"

Yun Lintian looked at Mo Changfei as though he had seen an idiot. He touched his chin and looked at Mo Changfei up and down, then said. "Are you impotent?"

Mo Changfei was slightly stunned. It wasn't only him; Chu Heng and his parents were also stunned by Yun Lintian's remark.

Mo Changfei instantly got angry. "Bastard! You don't want to live anymore!?" In fact, Yun Lintian was on point. He was indeed impotent. It was because of the profound art he was practicing.

Yun Lintian chuckled. "It seems I am correct." Before Mo Changfei could launch an attack at him, Yun Lintian said further. "I can cure your illness. Do you want to try it?"

Mo Changfei, who had gathered his profound energy, was taken aback and looked at Yun Lintian questioningly.

Yun Lintian smiled and said, "If I'm not mistaken, your illness should come from the profound art you are currently practicing. Am I correct?" Seeing Mo Changfei silent, he said further. "You have a water-based Profound Vein which is suitable to practice Yin-related profound art. However, since you started practicing this profound art, your body gradually turns cold every day, and the thing between your legs has slowly lost its function. When you've realized this, it's already too late to go back."

Mo Changfei had lost his momentum as the profound energy within his hand had dissipated entirely. He asked uncertainly, "H... how did you know?"

"I am a doctor. Whether you believe me or not, curing your current illness is as easy as flipping my hand. How about it? Do you want to try?" Yun Lintian shrugged his shoulders.

Mo Changfei went silent once again. He was convinced Yun Lintian could cure him since he could identify his illness accurately. Ten years ago, Hei Fu gave him the profound art called 'Freezing Wind', and since he started practicing it, his body gradually turned cold, as Yun Lintian said, and became impotent later.

He struggled for a while before asking hesitantly. "C-can you help me?"

After saying this, Mo Changfei was embarrassed as he came here to make trouble on these people, but how come he ended up asking Yun Lintian for help instead. However, which man doesn't want healthy manhood? It had been several years since he tasted happiness from the combination of Yin and Yang. When the opportunity for regaining his manhood's ability had appeared in front of him, how could he not tempt?

"Sure. Sit here." Yun Lintian accepted Mo Changfei's request and pulled the chair for him.

Chu Heng and his parents were dumbfounded by the development. This was clearly out of the script... Shouldn't they fight each other?

Mo Changfei sat on the chair, facing Yun Lintian. Suddenly, he saw several silver needles appeared in Yun Lintian's hands, and before he could say anything, all the silver needles were already pinned on his body. The speed of Yun Lintian's hands caused everyone in the room to look at him in shock. Now, they were thoroughly convinced Yun Lintian was a real doctor.

"Relax. Don't circulate your profound energy during this period. Otherwise, your Profound Vein could break at any time." Yun Lintian said and calmly injected a trace of his profound energy through all the silver needles.

Mo Changfei hesitated briefly. He knew his life was in Yun Lintian's hands at this moment. If Yun Lintian wanted to kill him, he could simply do it by breaking his heart's vein. However, for some reason, he believed Yun Lintian didn't lie to him. Thinking of this, his body soon relaxed, letting Yun Lintian's profound energy travel within his body freely.

A moment later, a cold mist slowly expelled from Mo Changfei's body through the silver needles. Mo Changfei could feel his body gradually warmed up — his blood circulation had become smoother.

Mo Changfei looked at the man in front of him with gratitude. Without a doubt, Yun Lintian did cure him as he said.

A while later, Yun Lintian retrieved all the silver needles back and said, "Congratulations. You will regain your ability in a week."

Mo Changfei abruptly stood up and said excitedly, "Thank you, Young Doctor!"

Yun Lintian waved his hand and said, "Now I've cured your illness. How are you going to repay me?"

Mo Changfei calmed down and said, "If Young Doctor needs anything, just say it. I'll try to satisfy your request."

Yun Lintian sat on the chair nearby and said, "Why don't you tell me more about your master, that bald guy?"

Hearing this, Mo Changfei became hesitant. One was his master, and another was his benefactor. He was in a dilemma.

Yun Lintian didn't expect this Mo Changfei could be this loyal. He said, "If I guess correctly, he is the one who gave you the profound art, right?"

Mo Changfei gave the nod in reply and vaguely felt something was not right.

"Don't you know, that profound vein is incomplete? I guess he doesn't want you to become powerful and deliberately take some parts of the profound art out before giving it to you." Yun Lintian expressed his analysis. It was understandable. The bald man didn't want his underlings to get stronger than him for fear he could not control them.

Although Mo Changfei was arrogant, he wasn't a complete idiot. He understood everything instantly... No wonder there are so many missing details in the book, and all of them seem to be a crucial part. He recalled when he first received the profound art book from Hei Fu and found there were many details gone missing.

Realizing this, Mo Changfei did not hesitate anymore. He cupped his fists to everyone and said, "First, I want to apologize for offending everyone here. I know I'm a bastard. I'll try my best to compensate everyone later."

Chu Heng and his parents glanced at each other in amazement. They didn't expect this famous arrogant Mo Changfei had actually said this. Why did everything turn out unexpectedly like this? Was this the legendary 'Treat your enemy with kindness'?

Chapter 110 - Finding A Clue

Yun Lintian turned to Chu Heng, waiting for his reply.

Chu Heng realized this, he hurriedly said. "You don't have to. Since you've apologized to us, everything in the past has been written off."

Mo Changfei shook his head, "Chu... Brother Chu. I've caused your family so much trouble in the past. I'll repay it back later. You have to accept this."

Chu Heng was about to say something, but his father grabbed his shoulder and shook his head at him.

Chu Heng's father moved to the front, looking at Mo Changfei, and said. "We will gladly accept it."

He had more experience than Chu Heng. He knew if his family still insisted on refusing Mo Changfei's repayment, it could become Mo Changfei's heart demon in the future. Since Mo Changfei had already repented, he needed to give him a chance.

Mo Changfei looked at Chu Heng's father with gratitude. When he was about to say something, Chu Mi, who just finished cleaning up, appeared in the living room and quickly rushed to her father's side.

"What are you going to do, Mo Changfei!?" Chu Mi shouted angrily and prepared to attack Mo Changfei.

Chu Heng hurriedly held his sister back and said. "You've misunderstood, Little Mi."

Chu Mi stopped her action and looked at Chu Heng with confusion. "Misunderstood?"

Chu Heng briefly explained the situation, and Chu Mi immediately understood. However, she did not believe an evil person like Mo Changfei had truly repented. She still stared at him vigilantly.

Mo Changfei smiled wryly. He admitted he was indeed a scum in the past, but after knowing the truth, he had genuinely repented of his action and wanted to start a new life.

He took a deep breath and turned to Yun Lintian. "Let's talk about Hei Fu."

Yun Lintian motioned with his chin, indicating Mo Changfei can go on.

"Hei Fu is the owner of the Hei Trading Firm only on the surface. There's actually a person behind him. However, I never met that person before. The only clue I have is he's someone from the Spring Wind Capital City, and his influence should not be small." Mo Changfei said.

Yun Lintian's expression did not change in the slightest, as he had already expected this. Although he just arrived in this town a while ago, he could see quite a number of Spirit Profound practitioners in the town. How could a mere tenth level of Essence Profound Realm like Hei Fu become a local tyrant with no one dare to resist? The only explanation was he had a strong background.

"Is suppressing everyone through the food's price his own plan?" Yun Lintian asked.

Mo Changfei shook his head, "Although he's greedy, he did not come up with this plan by himself. It is the person behind the scene's instruction."

Yun Lintian nodded his head. "What is his intention by sending you here?"

Mo Changfei answered truthfully, with a trace of embarrassment. "He wants me to watch you. It is my own action to get in here."

"Watching me? Why?" Yun Lintian was puzzled. He didn't think he dresses like a wealthy man. Why would Hei Fu want to stare at him? Was it because he appeared with Chu Heng?

Mo Changfei answered, "At first, I don't know as well. He always sent me to watch the newcomers. Later, I seem to understand, he wants to find someone."

"Finding someone?" A frown appeared on Yun Lintian's face.

He recalled his actions during these past months. There were two major confrontations: the Black Eagle Bandit group's incident and the Feng clan's. Both of them related to the Wang clan of the Sky Fall Nation, which should have nothing to do with people in Spring Wind Nation.

As for the conflict between him and Ye Xiaolong, it could be ruled out as he believed Ye Xiaolong wasn't stupid enough to leak his information. Therefore, the person Hei Fu was looking for should have nothing to do with him.

Mo Changfei replied, "I don't know a specific detail on this. It's only my guess." Suddenly, he thought of something and turned to look at the leather bag at the door. "Wait. Everyone I've monitored in the past all has a lot of profound beast's meat with them. Is it because of this?"

Yun Lintian's eyes narrowed slightly upon hearing this. His mind spun rapidly, thinking of the reason behind Hei Fu's purpose... Why would he want to find people who have profound beast's meat with them? Could it be he wants to find someone that could erase Abyssal Energy? Or someone that could survive after infecting with Abyssal Energy?

There were too many possibilities in this one. Yun Lintian could not pinpoint out, but the only thing he could confirm right now was he could not simply buy all the profound beast's meat in this town as he planned anymore. Otherwise, he would become a prime target instantly. It seemed he had to earn them by himself.

Yun Lintian had a headache. He felt the plans he came up with recently always ended up with a problem. Could it be he had to stay in the Land of Beyond Heaven for real? But he still needed a lot of profound beast's meat to practice. Not to mention his people, they had also required it.

Mo Changfei interrupted Yun Lintian's thought process as he said, "Young Doctor, I think you should toss this bag away as soon as possible. Do you want me to do it for you?"

Yun Lintian shook his head. "No. I can do it by myself." Suddenly, an idea flashed across his mind. He asked, "Where do I have to throw them away? Is there a specific location here in this town?"

Mo Changfei nodded. "There is a place in the southernmost of the town. Do you want me to bring you there?"

Yun Lintian smiled. "Have you forgotten your identity? You are still Hei Fu's underling right now. Just tell me the location. I'll go by myself."

Mo Changfei scratched his head. He indeed forgot he was still Hei Fu's underling. What would happen if he appears on the streets with Yun Lintian, the target he had to monitor? Hei Fu would instantly know he had betrayed him.
