

Myth Beyond 1031

Chapter 1031 Life And Death (3)

Thousands of kilometers north of the original location, a white light flashed, and Yun Lintian's figure appeared on the ground.

He wiped the sweat from his forehead while letting out a long breath. "Phew. Thanks to the star energy."

When Yun Lintian was in a dire situation previously, he suddenly remembered that his Beyond Heaven Profound Vein could absorb any energy in the world, and the star energy was no different. Without hesitation, he controlled his Origin Core to quickly absorb the energy and used it to mobilize The Thunder and The Moon.

With the combination of them, even if it couldn't deal with Xing Guiren, it was enough to force him to retreat.

Yun Lintian scanned the vicinity and suddenly saw a massive mountain range in the distance. This mountain range spanned thousands of kilometers, and the top of the mountain was covered with a thick layer of cloud, making it unable to see anything.

The mountain range was extremely lush, brimming with vitality. For a second, Yun Lintian thought that he was standing in the Land of Beyond Heaven. This place was not inferior to the fairy-like scenery inside at all.

"This place... Heavenly Cloud Mountain Range?" Yun Lintian recalled a piece of information.

The Heavenly cloud Mountain Range was one of the forbidden places yet to be unraveled. As far as Yun Lintian remembered, the barrier around the place seemed to slowly weaken day by day. Perhaps it won't be long before the mystery inside the mountain range gets exposed to the whole world.

"This place doesn't belong to this world." Lauya's voice suddenly resounded. "Similar to the Moon Garden. This entire mountain range is an artifact... And it's a high-level one."

"Oh?" Yun Lintian's interest was piqued. Since he had already arrived here, it would be a pity if he didn't take a look at it.

Yun Lintian immediately dismissed the idea of entering the Land of Beyond Heaven and decided to move toward the mountain range.

However, the moment he took a step forward, a sense of fatal danger suddenly appeared in his heart, causing all the hairs on his body to stand. All the nerves in his body tightened as well.

This frightening feeling was more tightening than the earlier battle with Xing Guiren!

Buzz--

Before Yun Lintian could react, a violent noise erupted from behind, and a thick deep blue glow had already arrived a meter away from his chest. It had traveled at a speed that he had no chance to react to and could not even comprehend.

Bang! Splurt!!

In that split second, a figure suddenly appeared between Yun Lintian and the blue glow with a profound energy shield. However, the power of the blue light was obviously not something the energy shield could handle. It directly broke the shield and went straight to the figure's chest.

The blue glow shot through the figure's chest and came out from behind before hitting Yun Lintian's back and sending the two flying by several hundred meters.

Puff!

Yun Lintian spat out a mouthful of blood as a small bloodied hole appeared in his chest. Fortunately, his heart was safe. Otherwise, he would undoubtedly die on the spot.

However, Yun Lintian had no time to care about his own injury, as he felt someone lying on his back. This person clearly blocked the attack for him.

He gritted his teeth and turned around. Instantly, his entire body froze. His eyes widened in disbelief.

"Lin Xinyao..." Yun Lintian uttered tremblingly as he looked at the peerless woman lying in a blood pool. On the left side of her chest, a huge bloodied hole appeared... Her heart had been completely destroyed.

Her face paled white, and her eyes unfocused. Her lips were trembling with difficulty. "Thanks goodness... you're fine..."

Her eyes lost any signs of life, and she fell silent.

It was like there was a bang in Yun Lintian's head. His face lost all colors as he stretched his trembling hands out to hold her. "You... How could...?"

The scene where Xia Yao died in his arms suddenly overlapped. Yun Lintian's soul shook as he stared blankly at her body that had suffered from what was basically a fatal injury and her quickly weakening aura that had almost completely disappeared.

"Yao... Yao..." Yun Lintian uttered in a daze, while his eyes were already filled with tears.

"What are you doing? Hurry up and leave this place!" Hongyue roared in his mind.

Her roar immediately woke Yun Lintian from the trance. He hurriedly hugged Lin Xinyao and executed the Shadow Step, rushing toward the Heavenly Mountain Range madly.

"You'll be fine. Yaoyao, you will be fine. I won't let you die this time." Yun Lintian murmured while injecting all the wood energy from the Tree of Life into Lin Xinyao's body, trying to prolong her life as long as he could.

At the same time, he tried to summon the Gate of Beyond Heaven and prepared to enter the Land of Beyond Heaven.

Buzz--

Before Yun Lintian could call the gate, another similar deep blue glow suddenly traversed through the space and went straight onto his already injured back.

Bang!

Yun Lintian's mind was fully occupied by Lin Xinyao, and his awareness of the surroundings was greatly reduced. However, his instinct was working well this time. Before the blow glow could hit him, he suddenly twisted his body and let it hit his left shoulder.

Blood splashed everywhere, and a huge hole could be seen on his shoulder. It was a frightening sight to look at.

The impact carried by the blue glow instantly sent Yun Lintian flying toward the mountain range.

"Quickly! Open the gate!" Hongyue shouted anxiously as she perceived the connection between Yun Lintian and the Gate of Beyond Heaven had weakened. Evidently, Yun Lintian's soul was about to collapse.

Yun Lintian didn't seem to hear anything. His eyes were fixated on Lin Xinyao, whose vitality continued to leak at a frightening speed.

"You must live. Do you hear me, Yaoyao? You must live. I won't allow you to die." As Yun Lintian spoke, his eyes abruptly turned green, and the Tree of Life inside the Land of Beyond Heaven suddenly swayed fiercely.

In the next moment, an enormous vitality instantly poured into Lin Xinyao's body like a broken dam through Yun Lintian's hands. The bloodied hole in her chest quickly recovered at a visible rate, and her aura gradually grew stronger.

Chapter 1032 Life And Death (4)

Hongyue looked at the scene for a moment and closed her eyes. The bad premonition she had previously was actually this.

"Princess Hongyue..." Mu Qiuxue couldn't help saying. She believed there must be a way to help Yun Lintian.

On the side, Yun Qianxue and Han Bingling stared at the scene silently. Although they didn't know who Yaoyao was that Yun Lintian cried out, they could see how important the name was to him.

"There's nothing we can do. His emotion is horribly unstable, and it affects his soul badly." Hongyue said calmly. "You can see he's willing to give his life to her and doesn't care about anything else. Even the enemy has been completely ignored by him."

Mu Qiuxue and the others went silent upon hearing this.

In the outside world, Yun Lintian hugged Lin Xinyao, and the two were free falling down from the sky toward the Heavenly Cloud Mountain Range.

Yun Lintian didn't even spend the slight energy to stop them from falling, as he used every ounce of his profound energy to save Lin Xinyao's life.

His energy depleted extremely fast, and his vision started to blur. He had exhausted his mental power to borrow the Tree of Life's power, and now he was no different from a dummy target with no defense.

Buzz—

All of a sudden, another deep blue glow appeared from above and went straight to Yun Lintian.

Although Yun Lintian's mind began to blur, his instinct was still working as he tried to use his body to protect Lin Xinyao. This time, he would be dead for certain once the blue glow hit him.

At this moment, a small figure, who had been hiding in the group of clouds for all this time, was about to make a move to rescue Yun Lintian.

However, when she was about to channel her profound energy, a strange scene occurred first.

The transparent barrier that was covering the Heavenly Cloud Mountain Range suddenly shook and expanded out like a giant pair of hands toward Yun Lintian and Lin Xinyao.

Bang!

The blue glow that was about to hit Yun Lintian was completely blocked by the barrier and disappeared instantly.

At the same time, the barrier quickly pulled Yun Lintian and Lin Xinyao into the mountain range before returning to their original state as if nothing had happened.

Yun Lintian didn't know what had just happened. All he knew right now was Lin Xinyao's injury had completely recovered.

Seeing this, he was relieved, and his vision turned black. He had completely lost consciousness.

He slowly fell from the sky while hugging Lin Xinyao tightly. This action seemed to derive from his subconsciousness, as he was unwilling to let her go no matter what.

Bang!

Yun Lintian and Lin Xinyao crashed into a thick tree. They slowly fell along its branches before landing on the ground safely in the end.

On the outside, Xing Chen stood in the group of clouds and looked at everything that had happened calmly.

Standing beside him was an old man in white. From his aura, this person's strength was even more terrifying than Xing Guiren, and he was the one who launched a series of attacks just now.

The old man retracted his hand and said. "This is strange. The barrier around this place has weakened for a while now, but no one has successfully passed through it."

Xing Chen thoughtfully glanced at the position where Yun Lintian fell into the Heavenly Cloud Mountain Range. "Obviously, it's related to his secret."

The old man turned to look at Xing Chen in doubt. "Are you sure?"

Xing Chen replied calmly. "Otherwise?" He then glanced somewhere in the far distance and said. "Besides, even if this didn't happen, someone would eventually rescue him... What a pity. The final trap I laid for this person is useless now."

If Yun Lintian was here, he would be terrified by Xing Chen's calculation. He had even planned to this extent. Once someone appeared to rescue Yun Lintian, that person would undoubtedly fall into his trap and might even lose their life.

"Well, it doesn't matter now. I have already seen his depth. The next time he appears again, it will be the day he loses his life." Xing Chen said plainly.

The request from Xing Tengfei was obviously to capture Yun Lintian alive, but Xing Chen had no interest in following it. After testing Yun Lintian to this point, he made a firm decision to kill him completely.

In his opinion, someone like Yun Lintian should not be left alive for even a second. Otherwise, he could bring a disaster to them later.

"Send someone to watch this place." Xing Chen said and disappeared from the place.

The old man took a look at the mountain range for one last time and left.

Meanwhile, the tiny figure in the clouds continued to stare at the mountain range for a long time.

This person was a twelve-year-old-looking girl. Her appearance was seventy percent resembled Little Qiu, but she was much younger. She was the strongest practitioner under Wu Liwei, Little Xia.

"Master, something has happened...." She quickly explained everything.

A moment later, Wu Liwei's voice resounded from the other side. "Keep an eye on it."

"Understood." Little Xia replied calmly and vanished from the place.

Inside the Land of Beyond Heaven, Hongyue could feel the connection between this place and Yun Lintian had completely disappeared. Although she was willing to believe that Yun Lintian was alive, she couldn't help but worry.

"My King will be fine. Otherwise, this place would have collapsed a long time ago." Lauya said calmly.

Hongyue was surprised and asked. "Really?"

Compared to Lauya, who was the Tree of Life's spirit, Hongyue was far inferior regarding the Beyond Heaven King's relics.

Lauya smiled and said. "We should stay calm and wait for his profound strength to recover."

Hongyue went silent for a moment and turned to Yun Qianxue and the others. "Come with me. I will personally teach you during this period."

***

Time passed by quickly. Yun Lintian didn't know how long he had been sleeping. When he opened his eyes again, he saw a ceiling made of bamboo and found himself lying on a bamboo bed.

"Where is this?"

Chapter 1033 Cloud Village (1)

The room where Yun Lintian was staying right now was wholly built with bamboo. Whether it was the floor, ceiling, or walls, there was no other material mixing in between.

Yun Lintian's mind gradually became clearer, and the first thing he thought of was Lin Xinyao.

He looked around the room and didn't see anyone. The anxiety in his heart grew increasingly as he asked in his mind. "Hongyue, what happened during this period?"

However, there was no response after waiting for a few seconds. This made Yun Lintian confused for a moment.

He hurriedly looked into his mind and found out he was unable to do so. Furthermore, he couldn't even feel the connection between him and the Gate of Beyond Heaven, and the worst thing was that he had no profound energy!

"Am I... crippled now?" As a doctor, he naturally knew what his current condition was right away. His already pale face turned paler upon realizing this.

It took Yun Lintian ten minutes before he managed to calm down and accept reality. Although he was crippled now, it didn't mean he would stay like this forever. There must be a way to recover.

Moreover, he had already checked that his profound vein was still intact. It was just that it had entirely dried up, and there was no sign of recovery.

Yun Lintian let out a long breath and looked at the rough bandage on his chest and shoulder, wondering who was the one who treated him.

"Thankfully, I have prepared everything for the worst. Everyone should be fine." He said to himself.

At least he didn't have to worry about everyone's safety during this period. Especially the Northern Continent. With the Long Clan's people, Qingxuan, and Lu Bo, even if the Star Gazing Palace and the Azure Palace wanted to do something, they would have to think twice.

"Who was that person?" Yun Lintian thought of the one who attacked him in the dark. This person's strength was definitely the highest he had ever seen among the enemies.

Creak!

At this moment, the door slowly opened, and a twelve-year-old-looking little girl walked into the room with a small water basin in her hand. Her face was delicate, and her pair of pupils sparkled like the stars in the night sky. It could be expected that she would definitely be a mesmerizing beauty when she grew up.

The little girl was surprised to see Yun Lintian sitting on the bed. "You have woken up?"

Yun Lintian observed the little girl briefly. Judging from her aura, she was a mortal through and through.

"Thank you for saving me... May I know where my friend is?" He said gratefully.

"Don't worry. That beautiful big sister is safe and sound. It's just that she hasn't woken up yet." The little girl replied with a bright smile. "My name is Yun Niu. Big brother can call me Nui'er directly."

Yun Lintian was surprised slightly and said. "What a coincidence. My surname is Yun, too. I am Yun Lintian."

Yun Niu's eyes brightened up as she said. "So, it's Big Brother Yun."

She stepped forward and placed the basin on a bamboo table nearby before asking. "Are you hungry, big brother?"

Yun Lintian shook his head slightly and tried to get up. A sharp pain immediately flared up, causing him to let out a cold hiss.

Yun Niu hurriedly stepped forward and helped him sit back on the bed. "Grandma said you can't get up during this period. Your injury is really severe. It is a miracle that you can stay alive until now."

Droplets of sweat appeared on Yun Lintian's forehead as he took a few deep breaths to calm down.

He looked at the delicate girl, who looked like a porcelain doll, attentively and asked. "Grandma?"

Yun Niu nodded her head. "Mhm! Grandma Yun is our village head. She is a kind person. Without her, our village would have gone a long time ago."

"Village? Can you tell me where this place is?" Because his mind was fully occupied by Lin Xinyao's life and death, Yun Lintian didn't even know that he had fallen into the Heavenly Cloud Mountain Range.

"This place is called Cloud Village. It is located on the Heavenly Cloud Mountain Range." Yun Niu answered. She hesitated briefly and asked. "Big Brother Yun, did you come from the outside world?"

A strange light flashed through Yun Lintian's eyes when he heard this. It turned out he had somehow entered the Heavenly Cloud Mountain Range, but how? As far as he knew, there was a barrier around the place, preventing people from entering.

He tried to recall what had happened but couldn't think of anything in detail. All he knew was that he was falling from the sky while trying to save Lin Xinyao. What happened afterward was completely blank.

Yun Lintian thought for a moment and said. "Yes. We came from the outside world."

He looked at Yun Niu and asked curiously. "You haven't left this place before?"

Yun Niu shook her head slightly and said sadly. "Grandma said that we cannot leave this place." She changed the topic. "Can you tell me about the outside world? What is it looking like?"

Hearing this, Yun Lintian seemed to understand something. Since Yun Niu had no profound strength, she probably had no idea about the world.

He rubbed on the interspatial ring on his finger and discovered that he couldn't use it. However, it actually stayed invisible. This made him puzzled a bit.

Yun Lintian thought for a moment and decided to tell her truthfully. "Well, the outside world is not beautiful as you think. In fact, it is a cruel world. Everyone keeps killing each other for a petty benefit."

Yun Niu's face turned pale. Her imagination about the outside world instantly shattered.

Yun Lintian had no intention of comforting her. He said further. "Look at my injury. Someone was trying to kill me in order to rob my belongings."

Hearing this, Yun Niu bit her lips and muttered in a low voice. "No wonder Grandma has always prevented us from going out."

Yun Lintian's brows raised slightly as he asked. "You can go out?"

Yun Niu nodded her head. "That's what Grandma said."

Yun Lintian was surprised and said. "Can you bring me to see your grandma? However, I want to see my friend first."

Chapter 1034 Cloud Village (2)

Inside a room on the right side of Yun Lintian's room, Lin Xinyao was unconscious on a bamboo bed.

Her injury had completely healed. However, her breathing was still weak, and she didn't show any signs of waking up any time soon.

Unfortunately, Yun Lintian couldn't use his Spiritual Sense at the moment. Otherwise, he would be able to check her condition clearly.

"Her injury has obviously recovered. But why she hasn't woken up yet?" Yun Niu looked at Lin Xinyao in confusion.

"There should be a hidden injury somewhere. Maybe on her soul." Yun Lintian said calmly.

"Soul? We can look at people's souls?" Yun Niu was shocked.

Looking at her appearance, Yun Lintian asked curiously. "There's no profound practitioner here?"

"Profound practitioner?" Yun Niu tilted her head slightly, appearing confused. "Big Brother Yun means a warrior? There's Uncle Hei. He's the most powerful warrior in our village. I heard that he can fight a wild boar by himself."

"I see." Yun Lintian immediately understood. Looked like this Cloud Village was a pure mortal village.

"Let's go." Yun Lintian said and slowly followed Yun Niu out.

When the two walked out of the bamboo hut, Yun Lintian saw several similar houses forming a few rows with simple gravel paths in between. Several children could be seen jumping and running around happily. Their faces were full of innocent smiles, seemingly unaffected by the world.

With a glance, Yun Lintian believed there were more than five hundred people in this village. This number couldn't be considered small, but it was not large either.

Many adults were walking around with farming tools in their hands. When they walked past this place, they would cast a strange gaze on Yun Lintian. It wasn't rude, as they were looking at him out of curiosity, just like when Yun Niu looked at him.

"Grandma is in the field behind the hut. Why don't you sit here first, and I will call grandma over, Big Brother Yun?" Yun Niu dragged a bamboo chair over and said.

Yun Lintian hesitated briefly as he felt it was inappropriate to let a senior come to him. Not to mention it was in their own territory.

However, the pain in his chest and shoulder was a bit unbearable, and the wounds started to fracture as he walked. He didn't know how long the distance to the field was. Perhaps he would die out of bleeding first.

"Alright. I will have to trouble you." Yun Lintian didn't refuse in the end.

Yun Niu poured him a cup of water and quickly rushed toward the field behind the hut.

Yun Lintian took the water cup and saw his reflection inside. At this moment, he understood why people kept looking at him earlier. It turned out his current appearance was extremely haggard.

His hair was disheveled, and his face looked like he hadn't slept for a whole month. Throwing him to a street, they would think he was a beggar for sure.

Yun Lintian shook his head and bottomed up the cup before letting out a satisfied sigh. He leaned back slightly and looked at the clear sky, falling into deep thoughts.

A while later, Yun Niu returned with an old woman in her eighties. Her hair was completely white, but she tied it neatly, unlike any people in her peers.

Her eyes were thin as wrinkles above them drooped slightly, but in Yun Lintian's eyes, it was a pair of magnificent eyes that weren't inferior to anyone he had encountered.

With Yun Lintian's perception, this person was by no means ordinary.

What puzzled him was that she exuded no profound aura. Though Yun Lintian was 'crippled' at the moment, it was not difficult for him to identify one's profound strength.

She is either a powerhouse or really a moral... It should be the former... Thought Yun Lintian.

The old woman glanced at Yun Lintian and placed a hoe nearby before asking. "How are you? Still hurt?"

Yun Lintian got up from the chair and bowed his head slightly. "This junior thanks senior for saving my friend and me."

The old woman waved her hand and said. "What senior? My name is Yun Xia. You can call me Grandma Yun or Grandma Xia directly... Also, sit down first. Your wounds are not light."

"Alright, Grandma Yun. My name is Yun Lintian." Yun Lintian said and sat back in the chair.

The old woman, Yun Xia, was surprised slightly by Yun Lintian's surname. It was too coincidental.

She then walked up and looked at Yun Lintian's wounds that were started bleeding again and said. "You should lie down during this period. I'm afraid it would take a few months to recover."

She paused for a moment and said further. "I'll ask Yun Hei to find some herbs for you later. Maybe it can help you recover faster."

"Thank you." Yun Lintian said gratefully. He could see that Yun Xia's kindness was genuine.

"Niu'er, go fetch some water and put it in the pot. Grandma will make a meal in a while." Yun Xia turned to her granddaughter and said softly.

"Oh." Yun Niu didn't think about anything and quickly walked away with a bucket in her hand.

Watching Yun Niu disappear from her sight, Yun Xia's eyes turned sharp as she looked at Yun Lintian. "Your strength before reaching this state shouldn't be low. It seems your enemy is really strong."

A strange light flashed through Yun Lintian's eyes when he heard this. Sure enough. She should be an expert.

Yun Lintian nodded and said. "I won't hide anything from you, Grandma Yun. I have a lot of enemies, and all of them are the current rulers of this world."

Yun Lintian looked at Yun Xia's face attentively, trying to find any change, but he was destined to be disappointed.

Yun Xia didn't seem to surprise in the slightest. She responded calmly. "Then you are lucky enough to survive."

Yun Lintian hesitated briefly and asked cautiously. "Grandma, can you...?"

Yun Xia naturally understood what he wanted to say. She shook her head slightly. "I can't help with your and that little girl's injury... Besides, I'm not a practitioner... Not anymore."

Yun Lintian nodded his head slowly. "I understand."

"Grandma! I have already set the fire." At this moment, Yun Niu's voice rang from the open kitchen behind the hut.

Yun Xia smiled faintly and said. "You can stay here with peace of mind."

As she spoke, she turned around and walked toward the kitchen under Yun Lintian's thoughtful gaze.

Chapter 1035 Cloud Village (3)

"Thank you." Yun Lintian said while receiving a bowl of porridge from Yun Niu.

As he was 'crippled' and lost all of his profound strength, he required a lot of nutrition intake for recovery.

"I'm sorry, Big Brother Yun. We don't have anything special here." Yun Niu smiled apologetically and sat in her seat beside Yun Lintian.

Yun Lintian looked at the simple vegetable porridge and said with a smile. "It looks delicious."

Following that, he took a wooden spoon and scooped a mouthful of porridge into his mouth. The taste was plain, but Yun Lintian could see the quality of the rice and vegetables was extremely good.

It seemed the environment here was very good. He would definitely take a look at it later.

"Although the quality is good, it can't be considered a spirit plant. It won't be much help on your soul's injury." Sitting opposite, Yun Xia said calmly.

Yun Lintian smiled and said. "This is more than enough."

"If you want anything, you can tell Niu'er directly." Yun Xia said and slowly ate her porridge.

"Yeah. No need to be polite, Big Brother Yun." Yun Niu echoed happily. Perhaps it was the first time she had a guest at home. She had become so enthusiastic.

"Alright." Yun Lintian nodded with a smile and continued to eat.

After the meal, Yun Xia went out to find some herbs for Yun Lintian, and Yun Niu was responsible for cleaning. Yun Lintian wanted to help, but he was pushed out by her.

In the end, he had no choice but to go to Lin Xinyao's room.

Looking at the breathtakingly beautiful woman sleeping soundly, Xia Yao's image seemed to overlap her again. Yun Lintian recalled the scene where she looked at him in relief after seeing he was fine, and he couldn't help but feel strange.

Obviously, Lin Xinyao's appearance was entirely different from Xia Yao's. But why did they give off a similar feeling to him?

"Are you really Yaoyao's reincarnation?" Yun Lintian stared at her peerless countenance and muttered to himself.

A moment later, he laughed in a self-deprecating manner and said. "Yun Lintian, what are you thinking? Why are you so delusional?"

Perhaps it was because the scene where Lin Xinyao was lying in a blood pool had invoked Yun Lintian's memory of Xia Yao. He subconsciously thought they were the same person.

"Phew..." Yun Lintian let out a long breath and prepared to leave.

Buzz—

Suddenly, a purple-colored moon symbol appeared between Lin Xinyao's brows, illuminating the whole room in purple.

Yun Lintian was taken aback and quickly looked at the symbol. Immediately, he seemed to think of something. "Mumu?"

He still remembered the first time he met Mumu, the Lunar Jade Rabbit. This moon symbol was pretty much similar to the Lunar Jade on Mumu's forehead... What was going on here?

At this moment, he realized that he didn't seem to see Mumu before everything had happened. Normally, it was very rare for her to leave Lin Xinyao's side.

Thinking of this, Yun Lintian reached out to touch the moon symbol on Lin Xinyao's forehead.

"Big Brother Yun!" Suddenly, a clear young girl's voice resounded in Yun Lintian's mind. "It's me, Mumu. I used my power to protect her soul."

"Mumu?" Yun Lintian was surprised. Looked like his guess was correct. "How is her condition?"

"She was supposed to be dead, but you forcibly brought her back. Even though her body has recovered fully, her soul is damaged. If I hadn't used my power to protect her soul, she would be nothing but an empty shell." Mumu replied.

Yun Lintian's brows knitted tightly. There were plenty of heavens and earth treasures inside the Land of Beyond Heaven. If he could use his profound strength, healing Lin Xinyao's soul wasn't difficult at all.

"However, you don't have to worry. I can prolong her soul for twenty years. You should try your best to recover your strength first." Mumu said calmly.

Hearing this, Yun Lintian heaved a sigh of relief. "I understood. Thank you for your hard-working. If it wasn't for me, she wouldn't be like this. I was too careless."

"It's okay. She's my master, after all... If you really feel sorry, just prepare a big meal for us later." Mumu said casually, trying to comfort Yun Lintian.

"No problem." Yun Lintian nodded.

"I'll go first." As Mumu spoke, the purple light immediately disappeared, and the room returned to its original state.

Yun Lintian looked at Lin Xinyao attentively and said. "Wait for me."

With that, he turned around and left.

What Yun Lintian didn't know was that Yun Xia had been staring at the scene from the backyard the moment Mumu's power appeared.

She took a deep look at Lin Xinyao and said to herself. "Divine Moon Clan's descendant?... Lunar Jade Rabbit God?"

A strange light flashed through her eyes while speaking this. No one knew what she was thinking at the moment.

***

Yun Lintian's 'demise' had spread throughout the entire Central Continent, and many spies from various forces quickly reported to their masters when they got the news.

The turmoil brought about by Yun Lintian's departure wasn't small. After all, it was said he was the one who killed the Wang Clan's patriarch, Wang Zedong, and the generation's genius, Wang Lin, despite he possessed the strength of the Saint Profound Realm.

When the rumor was confirmed to be true, many people couldn't help but sigh in pity. Such a heaven-defying genius had gone just like that.

Inside the Long Clan's ancestral hall, Long Jinwei and the others were currently discussing this matter. If it wasn't for the letter from Wu Qingcheng, everyone would have thought that Yun Lintian had already gone.

"I didn't expect the Star Gazing Palace to hide such a trump card very well. They could actually tame that Blue Demon." Long Ying said solemnly.

"Senior, who is this Blue Demon?" Shen Liqiu, who was allowed to participate in the meeting, asked curiously.

Long Hu explained. "This Blue Demon's real name is Lan Cao. He's an old monster who shook the world thousands of years ago. Similar to Xing Tengfei and Weilan Jian, his profound strength has long surpassed the Divine Ascending Tribulation Realm."

He frowned slightly as he continued. "We thought that he had already left this world along with the Longevity Monarch back then."

"No wonder Lintian couldn't fight back." Shen Liqiu said in a low voice.

This Blue Demon was the one who secretly attacked Yun Lintian previously.

Chapter 1036 Unexpected Appearance

"Since they have decided to reveal Blue Demon, it means they are determined to kill Lintian. This shouldn't be Xing Tengfei's style. After all, he should rather be interested in Lintian's secrets than kill him." Shen Liqiu expressed her doubt.

"It's Xing Chen who laid the grand scheme out. This person is several times scarier than Xing Tengfei when he was young." Long Jinwei explained.

"Xing Chen... I think I heard his name before. He is Xing Renshu's brother, isn't he? I didn't know before that he's this scary." Shen Liqiu frowned deeply.

"It won't be long before they shift their focus to us." Long Hu suddenly said. "With the appearance of Blue Demon, I think we should revise our plan."

Everyone seemed to agree with Long Hu's words.

At this moment, Jiang Yingyue, who sat beside Lin Zixuan, stood up and bowed deeply. "My apologies, Seniors. It's all my fault."

Long Feiyan grabbed Jiang Yingyue's hand and said calmly. "It's not your fault, Big Sister Yingyue. Everyone is willing to help you."

"Yes." Long Guang added. "What you should worry about right now is your family. Now, they have lost an oasis like the Wang Clan."

Hearing this, Jiang Yingyue replied indifferently. "Their life and death have nothing to do with me from the moment they killed my mother. I decided to come back this time because I was afraid they would unite with the Wang Clan and trouble the Northern Continent... Who would have thought I caused a huge problem to Junior Brother Yun and everyone instead?"

"Are you sure?" Long Guang took a deep look at her.

Jiang Yingyue said nothing, but the look in her eyes expressed everything. She genuinely didn't care about the Jiang Clan anymore.

Long Guang nodded slowly and didn't linger on this topic further.

"They are likely to go to the Northern Continent later. However, there shouldn't be a problem with Big Brother Shen over there." Long Hu said. He turned to Long Jinwei and asked. "How's the Poison Valley movement recently?"

"After they took over the Western Continent, they surprisingly went inactive. We couldn't find any clues about them." Long Jinwei replied with a frown. His intuition told him the Poison Valley was about to make a big move soon. But what was it?

Long Hu went silent for a moment and said. "All we can do right now is take a passive stance as planned and wait for Young Master Yun's return."

Long Ying and the others nodded their heads in agreement. It would be unrealistic for them to take the initiative to attack the Star Gazing Palace and the Azure Palace. Unless they were courting death.

"Hmm?" Suddenly, Long Jinwei and the other Dragon Council's elders frowned slightly and looked toward the hall entrance.

At this moment, a beautiful figure gradually walked into the hall. The surrounding formations didn't seem to pose any threat to her.

"Qing Xiaoting?" Long Ying was surprised to see her here.

"I know all of you are still alive." The woman, Qing Xiaoting, said while looking at everyone.

She paused for a moment and said. "I come here to tell everyone something... It's about the Heavenly Cloud Mountain Range."

As she finished her sentence, a white-haired old man clad in a green robe appeared behind her. This person held a wine gourd, looking like he was drunk all the time.

When Long Ying and the other elders saw the old man's face clearly, their expressions changed drastically. A surprise was written all over their faces. It was as if they couldn't believe their eyes.

"Yo! Long time no see, everyone... Eh? Why are all of you so young? What kind of elixir did you take? Why don't you share it with this old man?" The old man raised his hand, greeting everyone casually.

Apparently, he seemed to be an acquaintance of Long Ying and the other elders.

"Why did that lunatic bastard Xing Chen try to kill him? This is clearly breaking our agreements." In a spacious room, Du Huanfeng frowned deeply.

Sitting opposite him were Du Renjie, Lei Huizong, and Lei Jun. All of them gathered here to discuss Yun Lintian's matter.

They also knew that Yun Lintian could still be alive after falling into the Heavenly Cloud Mountain Range.

"This little guy Xing Chen is decisive enough. He knows that someone like Yun Lintian shouldn't be kept alive." Lei Huizhong said while stroking his beard.

Du Huanfeng frowned, but he didn't dare to express his dissatisfaction here.

"It's fine. No one knows whether Yun Lintian is alive or dead. We still have a chance." Du Renjie interjected. "What we should focus on right now is the Heavenly Cloud Mountain Range. From my investigations, its barrier is going to break soon. At that time, whoever is faster will certainly gain a lot of benefits."

He turned to Lei Huizhong and asked. "How about we go together, Brother Lei? We will share half each."

Lei Huizhong thought for a moment and said. "I have to ask Palace Master first."

"Sure." Du Renjie said with a smile. "After all, your Palace Master has just taken over the position recently. It's understandable that he doesn't want to take a risk."

Lei Huizhong laughed and said. "I believe he would agree in the end. Anyway, no one can refuse the money. Don't you think so?"

Du Renjie burst into laughter.

Two weeks passed by in a blink of an eye. Yun Lintian's wounds were getting much better than before during this period. At least he could walk around without causing a fracture to them.

It all thanked Yun Xia and Uncle Hei, who were gathering precious herbs for him.

"Are you going to Uncle Sun's house, Big Brother Yun?" Yun Niu asked when she saw Yun Lintian carry a small book while walking toward the hut's entrance.

"Yes. I will help him teach new students today." Yun Lintian replied with a smile.

During this period, Yun Lintian had familiarized himself with the villagers, and Uncle Sun, in Yun Niu's words, was the one and only doctor here.

When Yun Lintian knew this, he thought it would be great to help Uncle Sun cultivate more doctors. Hence, going to Uncle Sun's house had become his routine.

"That's great! I want to learn it, too." Yun Niu's eyes lit up. She quickly went to her room to fetch her small book and followed Yun Lintian.

Chapter 1037 Momentarily Tranquil

Cloud Village's atmosphere was harmonious and full of joy. Everyone would greet each other whenever they met, and children were running around with carefree smiles on their faces.

It was a pure land Yun Lintian had never seen before after coming to this world.

"Where are you going, Little Lintian?" An aunty in her forties greeted Yun Lintian with a smile while carrying a basket of vegetables on the way home.

"I'm going to visit Uncle Sun, Aunty Si." Yun Lintian smiled and glanced at the plump cabbages in the basket. "They look delicious."

"Do you want some? You should eat more. Your wounds can heal faster." Aunty Si said while pushing the basket forward.

"Thank you, Aunty. We have them at home. We will go first. See you later." Yun Lintian politely declined and walked toward Uncle Sun's house at the end of the street under Aunty Si's kind gaze.

Uncle Sun's real name was Yun Sun. His late parents were powerful folk doctors. Yun Sun naturally inherited their practice after they had unfortunately passed away a few years ago.

When Yun Lintian and Yun Niu arrived at a large bamboo house, they were immediately attracted by the strong scent of medicines. Obviously, someone was concocting medicines right now.

Yun Lintian and Yun Niu didn't enter the house. They walked around and went to the backyard.

Soon, they saw a middle-aged man in a coarse robe carefully checking the fire while stirring a medicinal liquid in a clay pot. His expression was serious and extremely focused to the point Yun Lintian and Yun Niu didn't dare to disturb him.

A while later, the originally pleasant medicinal scent suddenly turned bad and black smoke began to float.

The middle-aged man quickly took the pot out of the stove and placed it on the ground before throwing a bunch of dirt into it. The black smoke gradually disappeared afterward.

He sat back in his chair and let out a disappointed sigh. "Failed again."

Yun Lintian glanced at some stalks of herbs on the ground briefly and seemed to figure out what kind of medicine the middle-aged man wanted to concoct.

He smiled and said. "Uncle Sun."

The middle-aged man, Yun Sun, wiped the sweat off his forehead and turned to look at Yun Lintian. "Oh, Little Lintian? Little Niu? Come, come. Take a seat first."

Yun Lintian pulled nearby bamboo chairs over for Yun Niu and himself before asking. "Are you making a potent healing pill, Uncle Sun?"

A surprise appeared on Yun Sun's face when he heard this. "Yes. How did you know?"

Yun Sun had met Yun Lintian a week ago when he went to see Yun Xia. After that, Yun Lintian asked whether he could follow him to learn medicine.

Yun Sun didn't think about it much and was happy to teach. After all, he always taught a bunch of children in the village. Adding Yun Lintian wasn't going to change anything.

However, Yun Lintian rarely expressed his opinion during the class, and Yun Sun had no idea whether he was talented or not. Who would have thought that Yun Lintian could identify the pill he was trying to make with a glance?

Yun Lintian didn't reply but explained. "In fact, the method you used earlier wasn't wrong. It is just that the temperature of the fire is not enough to get rid of the impurity of the herbs... Can I try?"

"Temperature is not enough?... Sure." Yun Sun touched his chin and nodded slightly.

Yun Lintian walked to the earthly stove and added more firewood to it. After the fire was settled, he turned to Yun Niu and said. "Come, Niuniu. Big brother will teach you how to select the herbs."

"Okay!" Yun Niu happily rushed to Yun Lintian's side and squatted down, listening to his teachings attentively.

Yun Lintian picked the herbs up and began to explain what to keep and what to remove, including how to discern the quality of herbs.

On the side, Yun Sun had an astonished expression when he listened to Yun Lintian. The more he listened, the wider his eyes became.

Although what Yun Lintian said was basic knowledge, his methods and details were easier to understand. Any children would understand what he said one or two times, which was entirely different from what Yun Sun had taught them.

Yun Niu listened to Yun Lintian in relish while noting down her small book from time to time.

Later, Yun Lintian began to put the herbs into the clay pot and stirred the pot in a circle, letting the herbs spin inside.

A moment later, a pungent smell of the impurity gradually flew out. Yun Lintian used his other hand to fan the fire as fast as possible, increasing the temperature to the limit.

Soon, the pungent smell was replaced by a fragrant scent of the medicines, causing Yun Sun's eyes to widen in shock. Although his talent was far inferior to Yun Lintian, he still knew the quality of the herbs in the pot currently. It was definitely more than ninety percent of purity!

Looking at the herbs that were without impurity, Yun Lintian frowned in dissatisfaction. Because the earthly stove couldn't provide enough fire, he couldn't make these herbs reach one hundred percent purity. As a top spirit doctor, this was a failure for him.

Yun Lintian put his dissatisfaction aside and poured a small amount of water into the pot while stirring nonstop. At the same time, he didn't forget to teach Yun Niu the techniques and principles behind his actions.

Twenty minutes later, Yun Lintian took the pot out of the stove and placed it on the ground, letting it cool down.

"After everything cooled down, we can scoop it out and make a pill by hand." Yun Lintian wiped the sweat off his forehead and said with a smile.

Yun Sun stepped forward and looked at the thick but not too sticky medicine inside the pot in astonishment. "Little Lintian, this..."

Yun Lintian nodded gently. "This is a potent healing pill you are looking for, Uncle Sun."

Yun Sun didn't hesitate to dip his finger in the pot and taste the medicine. His eyes lit up as he said. "This is it!"

Yun Lintian was about to say something. Suddenly, an anxious shout rang out from the front yard, along with hurried footsteps sounds.

"Uncle Sun! Are you there? Please save my brother!"

Chapter 1038 Doctor Yun

At this moment, three men rushed to the backyard while carrying an injured man whose leg was pierced by a sharp piece of wood to the opposite side.

Everyone carried a hunting knife. Obviously, they were a hunting squad.

Cloud Village had three hunting squads managed by Uncle Hei, Yun Hei. Every day, they would venture to a mountain behind the village to hunt some pheasants for everyone.

Yun Sun put the matter of the healing pill aside and pointed at a wooden bed nearby. "Put him there."

The man who shouted earlier quickly explained. "We have encountered a wolf pack, and he accidentally fell into a crater. Thankfully, Uncle Hei was nearby. Otherwise, we wouldn't be able to help him."

Yun Sun nodded and examined the wound on the injured man's calf carefully. A moment later, he said. "The wood has unfortunately destroyed his nerves and muscles. It is difficult to make him recover fully after a treatment."

The three men glanced at each other in sadness and turned to the injured man, looking at him with sympathy. He was so young, yet his leg was about to be disabled. This was too cruel.

The injured man was a young man in his early twenties. His initially pale face became paler when he heard Yun Sun's words. He still had a great future. How could he be willing to accept this?

"Let's treat him first. Otherwise, he will die from bleeding." Yun Sun took a medicine box nearby and prepared to remove the wood from the man's calf.

The three men had no other choice. They could only comfort the injured man.

"This big brother is so pitiful." On the side, Yun Niu said in sympathy as she looked at the injured man's calf. She couldn't imagine what he felt right now. It must be extremely terrible.

Meanwhile, Yun Lintian observed the wound and thought of a way to deal with it in his mind. Judging from its look, the wooden stick was perfectly piercing through his gastrocnemius muscles. It was far from making him a cripple.

Seeing that Yun Sun was about to pull the stick out, Yun Lintian quickly stopped him. "Wait a minute, Uncle Sun. His injury is not severe as you think."

Yun Sun stopped his movement and turned to Yun Lintian. "Oh? Please tell me."

Since he had witnessed Yun Lintian's proficient medicine concoction earlier, he believed that Yun Lintian's medical skills must be above his. Hence, he was willing to listen to him.

The four men were surprised and looked at Yun Lintian suspiciously. They, of course, knew about Yun Lintian's identity, but they had no idea that he knew about the medicine.

Seeing their doubts, Yun Sun quickly explained. "Don't look at him like that. Let me tell you. His medical skills are definitely better than mine."

The four men looked at Yun Sun in disbelief. After all, Yun Sun was the best doctor in the village. How could there be someone better than him?

Yun Lintian turned to Yun Niu and said. "Go fetch white willow barks for me. Do you know it?"

Yun Niu nodded heavily. "I know it."

Following that, she quickly ran to an herb storage room in the distance and returned with a handful of the white willow barks.

Yun Lintian took them from Yun Niu and quickly smashed them into a small pot before handing them to the injured man. "Eat this."

The injured man couldn't help but look at Yun Sun, and the latter said. "It will help you relieve the pain. Take it."

The injured man hesitated briefly and stuffed the smashed barks into his mouth, trying hard to swallow them.

Soon, he immediately felt the pain in his leg reduce significantly. This made him look at Yun Lintian in amazement.

Yun Lintian didn't say anything further. He picked a few silver needles from Yun Sun's medical box and swiftly pierced them into the man's leg.

His movement was extremely fast, leaving shadows behind. This scene stunned everyone present. Especially Yun Sun. His jaw dropped unknowingly.

"Niuniu, prepare boiling water and clean clothes for me." Yun Lintian said while checking the direction of the wooden stick again to make sure.

Yun Niu recovered from the shock and hurriedly prepared what Yun Lintian said.

"I will count to three and pull it out. Are you ready?" Yun Lintian grabbed the wooden stick and asked.

After applying the silver needles plus the earlier barks, the injured man felt as though his leg was missing. He didn't feel any pain at all.

He nodded and said. "Go ahead, doctor."

Yun Lintian said. "One."

As he spoke, he immediately pulled the wooden stick out, shocking everyone in the scene... Didn't you just say count to three?

Yun Lintian quickly disinfected his hands with hot water while letting Yun Niu press the wound with clean clothes.

A moment later, Yun Lintian let Yun Niu step aside and look at the wound carefully, scanning for any piece of wood that was left behind. He then skillfully removed them all.

"Look carefully, Niuniu. I will show you a stitch technique." Yun Lintian picked a needle and natural fiber up.

Yun Niu hurriedly nodded and found herself in the best position to watch.

Yun Sun was no different. He wanted to see what kind of divine technique Yun Lintian was going to use.

In the next moment, Yun Lintian began to stitch the damaged nerves and blood vessels one by one.

Even though he had no profound strength currently, his eyesight was better than any modern technology scope on Earth. Coupled with his proficiency, which had been practiced countless times on Earth, treating this kind of injury was easy for him.

Yun Lintian's hands once again became shadows, and everything inside the wound was getting repaired at a visible rate.

It took ten minutes for Yun Lintian to finish everything. He put the needle aside and disinfected the wound one last time before saying. "Don't let the wound touch water. Eat and sleep well. Don't run around. You will recover in a month or two at most. Depends on your behavior during this period."

The injured man looked at the treated wound on his leg in amazement and turned to Yun Lintian. "Thank you, doctor. Thank you for saving my life."

He was crying out of joy.

Yun Lintian nodded and turned to ask the three hunters. "I heard that powerful beasts frequently appear lately. Is it true?"

Chapter 1039 Cloud Temple

During this week, Yun Lintian often heard the villagers talking about how many uncommon wild beasts had recently appeared near the village. There should be something stimulating them to come here.

His intuition told him this matter wasn't simple as it appeared.

The man who led the team nodded. "Yes. It's true. It actually started a month ago. Several wild beasts we usually see in the deep forest have come out more often than before. Uncle Hei did try to go deeper, but he couldn't find anything in the end."

"Maybe something happened to the Cloud Temple." The injured man suddenly interjected.

"Cloud Temple?" Yun Lintian was puzzled slightly.

"Doctor Yun is new here. It's normal for you to not know this." The man said. "Cloud Temple has existed for thousands of years. It's located at the top of the Heavenly Cloud Peak. Every year, we will go up and clean the temple."

"Grandma Xia said that the temple is existed to protect us all. We don't know what happened, but the atmosphere around the temple has changed this year. We cannot pinpoint it, but it has indeed changed in a way. Perhaps those wild beasts are affected by this."

"I see." Yun Lintian's interest was piqued by this so-called Cloud Temple.

Judging by their words, this temple definitely played a crucial role in the entire Heavenly Cloud Mountain Range. It was coincidentally aligned with the news he got before that the barrier around this place had somehow weakened.

Obviously, there was a connection between them.

"Alright. Please take him back for a good rest." Yun Lintian said.

"Thank you, Doctor Yun." Everyone bowed toward Yun Lintian and quickly brought the injured man out.

On the side, Yun Sun was entangled for a while and said cautiously. "This little... Oh, no. I mean, Doctor Lintian. Can I worship you as my teacher?"

Yun Lintian was taken aback and quickly said. "Uncle Sun. You can call me Little Lintian as before. As for accepting a disciple, I don't dare to accept you... However, we can exchange knowledge."

"This... Alright." Yun Sun was disappointed, but he understood his talent wasn't high. It was impossible for Yun Lintian to accept him.

"The medicine has cooled down now. Let's make a pill." Yun Lintian changed the topic and lifted the pot, placing it on the table.

In fact, it wasn't because Yun Lintian looked down on Yun Sun but because he was too embarrassed to accept him as his disciple. And he didn't plan to hide anything from Yun Sun. He was willing to teach him as much as he could.

Speaking of a disciple. I feel sorry for Chenyu. I don't know how she's doing right now. Thought Yun Lintian.

He felt sorry for his newly recruited disciple. He didn't even have proper time to talk with her, yet the situation had become like this.

***

Inside the Land of Beyond Heaven, Yun Qianxue, Mu Qiuxue, and Han Bingling spar with each other nonstop for the entire two weeks.

Although they were worried about Yun Lintian, they didn't want to stop improving themselves.

In the pavilion by the lake, Yun Chenyu was sitting while staring at the intense battle between the three attentively.

Her complexion and appearance had improved drastically compared to when Yun Lintian met her. Although she still looked malnourished, her overall condition was getting much better.

She was dressed in Yun Lintian's signature white and blue robe that Yun Qianxue personally made for her. Her hair was done simply in a ponytail style, revealing her fair countenance.

"Yuyu, do you want to eat this?" At this moment, Little Girl Doudou walked into the pavilion with a plate of watermelon.

Since she regained her legs, Doudou had become more cheerful and always ran around with her friends every day.

With her friendly attitude, she approached Yun Chenyu and became her good friend in a short time.

Yun Chenyu turned around and replied expressionlessly. "Thank you."

As she spoke, she reached out to pick a piece of watermelon and nibbled on it while returning her gaze to the battle.

Doudou sat down opposite her and looked toward the battle in the lake. "They are so amazing. I want to be as powerful and beautiful as these big sisters."

"Me too." Yun Chenyu said. A look of yearning appeared in the depth of her eyes. Her terrible past experience made her realize how important one's strength was. She didn't want to experience it again.

"I heard that Big Brother Yun has accepted you as his direct disciple. You are so lucky." Doudou said enviously.

Yun Lintian's figure appeared in Yun Chenyu's mind. She still remembered that pair of hands that brought her out of the hell gate, including that warm embrace.

"I don't know where Master is right now. I hope he is safe and sound." Yun Chenyu revealed a rare emotion on her face. She was genuinely concerned about him.

"Hmph! How could something bad happen to Big Brother Yun? You don't know how powerful he is, Yuyu... Let me tell you this...." Doudou, who was Yun Lintian's die-hard fan, immediately recounted Yun Lintian's deeds to Yun Chenyu, including the time he descended like a superhero, rescuing her and her fellow sisters from the Peng Clan's evil claws.

Yun Chenyu retracted her mind from the battle and listened to Doudou's narration in relish.

"She's more lively than I thought." In the distance, Han Bingling looked at the two little guys talking happily and said.

Mu Qiuxue did a black flip and landed a few steps away from Han Bingling. "What I am curious about is her background. She's obviously not a commoner."

Yun Qianxue retracted her palm after performing the Phoenix Palm and said. "It doesn't matter. She's now Lintian's disciple."

"Come with me. There's a sign of Lintian." Suddenly, Hongyue's voice resounded in their minds.

They glanced at each other in surprise and quickly rushed to the villa.

When they arrived in the living room, they were immediately attracted by the projection that usually displayed what Yun Lintian saw in the outside world.

At this moment, the projection was displayed from time to time. It was like a signal was unstable.

Hongyue glanced at them and said. "It seems he's recovering well."

Chapter 1040 Immortal Mountain?

"Can we contact him?" Han Bingling hurriedly asked.

Hongyue shook her head. "No. From the look of it, his soul has been injured deeply. It would take a long time to recover... If it wasn't for the White Tiger God Soul in his body, he would have become a complete cripple by now."

Han Bingling and the others heaved a sigh of relief when they heard this. They glanced at Linlin, who was lying on the sofa, looking at the projection attentively, and were grateful for her.

"Practice well. You have already seen how powerful his enemies are. Your current strength is not enough to challenge them." Hongyue said. "I'll let Lauya prescribe some pills to aid your training later."

Yun Qianxue nodded slightly and went out, followed by Han Bingling and Mu Qiuxue.

As the three left, Hongyue's expression turned solemn. What she had just shown them earlier was made up by her in order to stabilize their minds.

In fact, Yun Lintian couldn't possibly project the scenery outside yet. And his injury was more severe than everyone thought. Hongyue had to admit that she had no idea what extent his injury was.

"The fact that this place is stable like this has proven His Majesty's life is safe. He needs time to recover." Lauya said softly.

Hongyue frowned deeply and said nothing. There was nothing wrong with Lauya's statement, but she couldn't help worrying.

"Besides, the place he went in isn't ordinary. If I'm not mistaken, it should be that famous Heavenly Cloud Immortal Mountain." Lauya said further.

Hongyue's expression changed slightly when she heard this. Obviously, she had heard about the Heavenly Cloud Immortal Mountain before.

"Are you sure?" Hongyue asked in doubt.

Lauya shook her head. "I can't be sure, but its aura has been recorded within the Tree of Life. And this mountain range's aura is very similar to the record."

"Why did it appear here?" Hongyue was puzzled. If it was truly the immortal mountain in the legend, it should have nothing to do with this world and the previous Beyond Heaven King.

Lauya had no idea as well. She was the second generation Tree of Life's spirit, after all. She had never encountered the immortal mountain by herself.

"This is not a bad thing. If he can take over this immortal mountain, he doesn't have to be afraid of those greedy bastards from the Divine Realm when the time comes." Hongyue's brows relaxed.

Lauya said nothing in response. She also held the same opinion as Hongyue and was looking forward to seeing it.

***

Another week passed by. Yun Lintian's injury was getting much better compared to the last week. He could walk and run without having his wounds fractured anymore. However, he still needed to refrain from exerting too much strength.

At this moment, he was teaching a lot of children archery. Before Yun Lintian could awake the Beyond Heaven King's inheritance, he always relied on his archery for hunting and fighting. Hence, his skills could be considered top-notch.

"Relax your mind and follow your heart when you release it." Yun Lintian helped some children correct their postures while teaching them. "Strength is important, but the control of your heart and mind is more crucial. Without it, you won't be able to hit the target, no matter how many times you try."

He swept his gaze over the children, who were aiming at dummy targets fifty meters away, and said. "Shoot it when you are ready."

Swoosh!

Many children quickly let loose the arrows as Yun Lintian's voice fell. However, none of them managed to hit the targets in the end. It was because they were in a hurry to shoot, wanting to compete for the first rank.

Meanwhile, Yun Niu closed her eyes for a moment, and when she opened them again, her whole body seemed to relax at once. Her shoulders weren't stiff like before, including her aiming posture.

A moment later, she breathed out and let the arrow loose. The arrow shot toward the target steadily before hitting the bull-eyes. It was a perfect score.

Yun Niu jumped up happily and said to Yun Lintian. "How is it, Big Brother Yun? I didn't lose your face, right?"

Yun Lintian chuckled and rubbed her head. "Very good. I will reward you with a delicious meal later. You can tell me what you want to eat."

"Yay! I want braised pork." Yun Niu smiled sweetly.

"Sure." Yun Lintian nodded and went to correct the other children's posture, letting them try it again.

At this moment, a sturdy middle-aged man walked into the training grounds and looked at the scene in satisfaction. He wore soft leather armor, but it couldn't hide his bulky muscles. His eyes were sharp like an eagle's, and his entire body exuded a powerful aura.

When Yun Lintian saw this, he smiled and greeted him. "You're back, Uncle Hei."

The middle-aged man, Yun Hei, nodded and said. "Thank you for your hardworking. Your technique is much better than ours. In the future, these children will definitely become an elite sharpshooters."

Yun Lintian chuckled. "Just an elite one? I think they will become the most frightening sharpshooters in history."

"Hahaha! I like your boast." Yun Hei laughed heartily.

Yun Lintian smiled and changed the topic. "Again?"

Yun Hei nodded and let out a sigh. "This time, it's a silver wolf pack. Thankfully, we have laid traps in advance. Otherwise, we would have a hard time dealing with them."

He paused for a moment and said worriedly. "I'm afraid more and more powerful beasts will come in the near future."

Yun Lintian nodded slowly. Yun Hei was the best warrior in the village, but his strength was only at the ninth level of the Foundation Profound Realm. He couldn't gather profound energy to enhance himself.

Once a powerful beast appeared, he alone might be unable to protect the village.

What Yun Lintian found weird was that the profound energy in this place was extremely shallow. It was as though something was blocking the energy's flow, preventing the villagers here from stepping into the profound path.

"How about this, Uncle Hei? Let me go with you next time. Perhaps I can find some clues." Yun Lintian said.

Yun Hei frowned slightly and briefly looked at the wounds on Yun Lintian's body. "Are you sure? It's dangerous, you know?"

Yun Lintian smiled as he responded. "Don't worry, Uncle Hei. Ordinary wild beasts cannot hurt me."
