

Myth Beyond 1501

Chapter 1501 True Divinity

"Come. I'll use fifty percent this time." Yue Chuntao said, and a thick moonlight barrier appeared before her.

Yun Lintian turned toward Tian Yuhan and said. "You two retreat first and tell everyone to stay away from this place."

Tian Yuhan didn't say anything and took Ning Yue away from the mountain.

"Don't hold back. Let me see the legendary Heaven Piercing Sword Art." Yue Chuntao said with a serious expression.

Yun Lintian nodded firmly as he decided to use the ultimate move, Rending Heaven, directly.

He tightened his grip on the Heaven Piercing Sword, and his aura gradually surged. Clouds of dust arose, slowly forming into a vortex as he pointed the sword toward the sky.

Immediately, the sharp blade emitted a golden light, shooting into the sky like a golden pillar. The clouds stirred, and everyone in the secret land could feel a terrifying sword intent brewing in the air.

"Go." Yun Lintian uttered and swung the sword down. The golden pillar cut through the sky and descended toward Yue Chuntao, creating a golden curtain to blind everyone.

Yue Chuntao's eyes narrowed slightly. She pushed the barrier forward to meet the incoming golden sword fearlessly.

BOOOM—

The entire space trembled violently, and countless spatial rifts could be seen all over the place. The forest around the mountain was directly blown away, razing to the ground.

The commotion lasted a full minute until everything returned to its original state. The golden curtain gradually faded away along with the dust clouds.

Yun Lintian panted heavily as he stared at the moonlight barrier.

At this moment, a few cracks could be seen in the barrier. They were deep but not enough to break the barrier completely. This meant his ultimate attack was useless in front of a peak Divine Emperor.

"Although your sword intent is still weak, it's more than enough to threaten any Divine Sovereigns." Yue Chuntao dispersed the barrier and said. "The Heaven Piercing Sword Art is really exaggerated as it was recorded. I couldn't imagine how powerful Senior Sword God was in the past."

In the far distance, Tian Yuhan looked at the scene with a solemn expression. It was as he had expected; Yun Lintian with a sword was several times stronger. With this attack, she was certain that no one in the Divine Sovereign Realm could survive.

She brought Ning Yue over and said. "You didn't use the bloodline power."

Yun Lintian released the sword, letting it fly on its own, and said. "The bloodline power could indeed increase my strength, but I need to burn the blood origin to achieve it. It would take a long time to recover here. Furthermore, it would still be useless against a top Divine Emperor."

"Anyway, I roughly understand my current strength now. Thank you for helping me." Yun Lintian said sincerely.

"Wait until you reach the Divine King Realm. You should be able to use the bloodline power without burdening yourself much." Yue Chuntao said.

"What you've inside your body comes from the blood origin. It's the purest source of one's bloodline. The higher realm you reach, the stronger your bloodline becomes. But it also means a higher energy consumption."

"The Divine King Realm is the threshold of the divinity. Any divine practitioner in the world is not considered a true divine practitioner until they reach the Divine King Realm. It starts with creating a foundation, strengthening a spirit and Divine Core, going through tribulation, and entering a transforming process. The first five realms in the Divine Profound Realm are just a process of becoming a true divinity." I think you should take a look at

She paused briefly and said further. "Only when you become a Divine King can you control your power well. Both bloodline and a high-level profound art."

"I see." Yun Lintian nodded slowly. He felt as if he was listening to Hongyue's teachings at this moment.

Thinking of this, Yun Lintian looked at the tightly shut gate in his mind. He tried to push it open, but it didn't even budge an inch. Unfortunately, he still couldn't contact the Land of Beyond Heaven.

"I'll continue practicing now." Yun Lintian didn't want to waste time further. He built a simple hut and started practicing directly.

Seeing this, Yue Chuntao and the other two glanced at each other and went away.

***

While Yun Lintian was practicing, the Land of Beyond Heaven underwent another transformation. Yun Lintian's entry to the Divine Origin Realm caused a significant increase in the heaven and earth aura, including all eight elements, here.

Hongyue looked at the dark sky that was about to rain with a hint of surprise. "It seems he didn't slack off over there."

Standing on the side, Lauya looked at the lush green, towering tree in the distance with a hint of surprise. "The tree has grown a lot. He must have reached the Divine Origin Realm now."

"That's fast." Madam Leisure was surprised.

One had to know that Yun Lintian didn't obtain any relics even now. Theoretically, his progress should be very slow. It wasn't even been a year since he left for the Divine Realm, but he had already reached the Divine Origin Realm. This speed was faster than any heavenly genius she had seen.

"Seniors, when could he contact us?" Yun Qianxue, who was training inside the Land of Beyond Heaven, asked.

"He must at least step into the Divine King Realm," Lauya answered. "It should be a few years unless he discovers another relic."

Yun Qianxue was disappointed to hear this. While Yun Lintian's progress was fast, it was still far away from the Divine King Realm. This meant she wouldn't be able to see him for a long time.

"Hmm?" Suddenly, Lauya caught something. Her figure flashed and reappeared under the towering Tree of Life.

She gently touched the tree and closed her eyes. A moment later, she opened her eyes and said in surprise. "The World Tree? How could it still be alive?"

"The World Tree?" Madam Leisure came over and happened to hear it. She hurriedly asked. "What do you mean?"

Lauya thought for a moment and said. "The Tree of Life told me there's the World Tree on My King's side."

"What!? How is it possible?" Madam Leisure's face changed drastically.

The World Tree was originally a heavenly treasure in the Primordial Era and was rumored to be destroyed in the Primordial God War... How could it appear beside Yun Lintian?

Chapter 1502 Turmoil (1)

"Wait a minute..." Madam Leisure suddenly thought of something. "Could it be...?"

Lauya and Hongyue looked at her curiously.

"My master once brought a strange withered tree branch back. She said this branch held the fate of the Divine Realm in it. At that time, I didn't feel anything special in it at all. She planted it in the garden and let me take care of it. However, there was no slight improvement in those thousands of years." Madam Leisure explained.

"Yao Xi really said that?" Hongyue frowned deeply.

Madam Leisure nodded firmly. "I asked her about it, but she didn't explain anything. Knowing my master, she would never speak anything meaningless. I understand it now. That branch must be the World Tree's remnant."

"How could it appear beside Lintian?" Hongyue asked in doubt.

Madam Leisure frowned slightly. "When Ren Yuan attacked our Yaoxi Palace, we decided to escape separately. If I remember correctly, it should be my second sister who took everything inside the garden away."

"Ning'er?" Hongyue said.

While Madam Leisure was the mountain spirit of Yaoxi Palace, her second sister, Ning'er, was a mortal girl who lost her parents to war. Fortunately, Yao Xi happened to pass by and pick her up. Since then, she became Yao Xi's servant and took care of the palace's daily operations.

"How was her strength at that time?" Hongyue asked.

"The tenth level of the Divine Emperor Realm." Madam Leisure replied.

Unless she was hunted down by a God Emperor, there should be nothing happened to her. Hence, it was almost impossible for the belongings she took away to fall into other people's hands. The World Tree was likely to be with her.

Hongyue folded her arms before her chest and said. "Could it be she discovered Lintian's identity and deliberately approached him?"

"Impossible. My second sister doesn't like to interact with men. She would never take the initiative to approach a man. Especially the Beyond Heaven King's successor. You also know how much she hated him for hurting our Master." Madam Leisure shook her head.

"There's nothing certain," Hongyue responded. "If she wants to find her Master, Lintian is the best shot she got."

Madam Leisure frowned slightly and said nothing as it was indeed possible.

Lauya interrupted their train of thought. "What I am talking about is an alive World Tree. Since it can move, it means the World Tree has attached to something or someone. It's even possible that it has come back to life because of My King."

She touched the Tree of Life and said further. "Unfortunately, I couldn't take a look at it."

The Tree of Life could only send a message to her from time to time, depending on Yun Lintian's actions. With the connection being sealed, it was already a miracle that the Tree of Life could tell her this.

Hongyue and Madam Leisure glanced at each other and said nothing in the end. It was hard to guess at this time. Perhaps it wasn't Ning'er, but someone else who coincidentally picked the World Tree's branch up, or it could be Yun Lintian himself.

"Maybe I really should go there," Hongyue muttered. She was annoyed by the fact that she couldn't observe the situation on Yun Lintian's side like she usually did.

"Waiting is the only way for us in this situation." Madam Leisure sighed softly. As much as she wanted to return to the Divine Realm, surviving there was difficult with her current strength.

***

The Divine Realm was greatly shocked by the news of the Beyond Heaven King's successor, and Yue Hua's warning did not ease the situation. I think you should take a look at Countless profound practitioners flocked over and camped outside the moonlight barrier she created with a fluke mentality. In their opinion, it was almost impossible for Yun Lintian to escape. Perhaps they could share some soups after those God Emperors ate meat.

At the starry sky outside the moonlight barrier, several profound ships gathered and connected, forming a base camp. Countless people were talking and laughing as if they were on vacation.

"Tell me, who are you going to bet on?" A lean man named Feng Xiang asked.

There was a betting board a hundred meters away from him. Since everyone had nothing to do here, they opened for a bet, guessing who would be the one that got Yun Lintian in the end.

Sitting opposite him, a tall man named Xie Lang touched his chin with a thoughtful expression. "I heard that even the Thousand Faces God Emperor and the Violet Thunder God Emperor were forced to leave. Besides from the Heavenly Desolate God Emperor, I think the Everlasting Soul God Emperor has the best chance."

Feng Xiang rolled his eyes. "You've been thinking for a long time and come up with this answer?"

"Am I wrong?" Xie Lang responded annoyingly.

"There's nothing wrong with your thinking, but everyone can think of it, too." Feng Xiang said. "You go look at the bet and see the odds there. The Everlasting Soul God Emperor's odds are so low that we won't get much in return, even if we win."

"Is it?" Xie Lang glanced at the betting board in the distance and said in surprise. "Shit. Who are we going to bet on then?"

"That's why I'm asking you earlier." Feng Xiang wanted to slap his friend badly.

"Hmm?" Just as Xie Lang was about to say something, he suddenly saw a gigantic black divine ship fly toward them.

Feng Xiang frowned slightly and followed Xie Lang's gaze. His expression changed drastically upon seeing the ship. "That... The Dark Sea Divine Ark!"

"Dark Sea Divine Ark...?" Xie Lang was puzzled.

"Idiot! It's the Dark Sea God Emperor's divine ark!" Feng Xiang cursed.

"Shit! Are we in trouble now?" Xie Lang suddenly panicked.

Feng Xiang glared at him and said nothing further. He already decided to cut ties with this idiot later.

At this moment, the Dark Sea Divine Ark shuttled past a group of "campers" toward the moonlight barrier.

When everyone thought the ark would be repelled by the barrier, a burst of dark energy shot out of the ark, blasting into the barrier.

BOOOOM—

A massive explosion rang out, and all the profound ships nearby hurriedly activated their defensive mechanisms. Even so, they were blown away tens of kilometers directly.

"That old hag still has some strength left, huh?" Inside the ark, a young man in black looked at the unscratched barrier with a faint smile.

He took a sip of tea and said. "Continue. I want to see how long she can last."

Chapter 1503 Turmoil (2)

The young man in black was Nie Wuji, the crown prince of the Dark Sea God Realm. In the past, the Dark Sea God Emperor had a conflict with the Beyond Heaven King and was defeated thoroughly.

After hearing the news about the Beyond Heaven King's successor, he couldn't sit still and send his son over. If it wasn't for his injury, he would come here personally by now.

As soon as Nie Wuji's voice fell, two divine cannons on the Dark Sea Ark charged up and sent powerful bullets toward the moonlight barrier, causing another round of explosions to sweep the nearby area.

However, the moonlight barrier was still unscratched, and Nan Wuji signaled his people to continue without rest.

In the far distance, Xie Lang looked at the terrifying power of the cannons and said in shock. "What kind of cannon is that? I think its firepower is enough to erase any middle-realm stars in one blow."

"That's the Dark Sea God Cannon. It's a well-known divine cannon of the Dark Sea God Realm. I heard that it was made according to a cannon from the Primordial Era." Feng Xiang said with a solemn expression. Even though he was far away, the cannon's power could make his entire body shake involuntarily.

"My god! With this cannon, who would be their opponent?" Xie Lang exclaimed.

"Ignorant." Feng Xiang glanced at his soon-to-be-former friend and muttered to himself.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Rounds after round, the moonlight barrier shook nonstop by the bombardment, and a small crack could be seen appearing in it.

"Oh? Finally, can't hold it anymore?" Nie Wuji said in surprise. He thought it would take a few days to pry open a crack in the barrier. "Come. Blast it away and go in."

"Young Master, I think there's something wrong with it. We shouldn't hastily go in." A middle-aged man on the side stepped forward and said. He was one of the Dark Sea God Kings, the strongest guardian under the Dark Sea God Emperor, Nie Xu.

"Give me a reason." Nie Wuji glanced at him and said calmly.

"Yue Hua's profound strength may not be great, but the barrier she created should not be this easy to break. I'm afraid she has deliberately opened it." Nie Xu said.

As one of the oldest Dark Sea God Kings, his understanding of Yue Hua was higher than anybody. He had witnessed her heaven-defying divination countless times. She possibly already knew about their arrival a long time ago.

"So, you're saying we should completely give up this opportunity and go back like a defeated dog?" Nie Wuji asked with a half-smile.

Nie Xu shook his head and said. "We naturally won't give up, but we should investigate the situation first. We have yet to understand why the Thousand Faces God Emperor mysteriously retreated. It would be too risky to go in without knowing."

Nie Wuji's brows raised slightly. He pondered for a moment and said. "Well, you're right... Go. Send the Violet Thunder God Emperor a message that I will visit his realm."

Nie Xu was relieved inwardly upon hearing this. "Yes, Young Master."

"Oh, at the same time. Send our people in. I want to see what that old hag is doing right now," Nie Wuji said further.

Nie Xu glanced at two black-robed men behind him, and the two immediately disappeared from the place, rushing into the barrier through the crack.

"Also, contact Nie Gu. Tell him to visit the Divine Moon God Realm." Nie Wuji said with a faint smile. "Since she doesn't want to go back, we will give her a reason."

Nie Xu hesitated slightly but still complied in the end. The Divine Moon God Realm might be declined, but their strength was not low. Especially their Moon Guardians. Nie Gu, who was also a Dark Sea God King, might be unable to handle them alone.

Nie Wuji took one last glance at the moonlight barrier and said. "Let's go." "I think you should take a look at Afterward, the Dark Sea Ark turned around and left for the Violet Thunder God Realm.

"Eh? Where did they go?" Xie Lang was puzzled when he saw this. The barrier was obviously breached, yet the Dark Sea Ark chose to leave just like that.

Meanwhile, Feng Xiang felt something was wrong. He glanced around the place and saw many people flock into the gap in the barrier. These people didn't want to let this chance go, even though they knew it was risky.

"Hey, do you want to go in?" Xie Lang turned around and asked.

Feng Xiang hesitated slightly and said. "No. We will wait here."

"What? Why were we here in the first place, then?" Xie Lang didn't understand.

Feng Xiang was too lazy to explain. He steered his profound ship toward the crack in the moonlight barrier but stopped tens of kilometers away.

Just as Feng Xiang halted his ship, the crack in the barrier suddenly closed, returning to its original state.

Buzz—

All of a sudden, a dazzling moonlight shone within the barrier. It was so bright that Feng Xiang couldn't look at it and had to turn his head away.

"Arghhhhh!" Following that, shrill screams could be heard from the inside. It was a scream of someone being obliterated in an excruciating way.

When the moonlight slowly disappeared, Feng Xiang slowly turned to look at the barrier and saw blood mist scatter all over the place, making him shiver uncontrollably.

Xie Lang, who stood far away, looked at the scene and whispered in trembling. "God... I've just escaped death."

Feng Xiang returned to his sense. He didn't care about anything now and turned the ship, rushing out without looking back.

"Brother Feng! Where are you going?" Xie Lang was startled by his good brother's sudden action. He quickly steered his ship and followed Feng Xiang.

A similar scene happened everywhere outside the moonlight barrier. They didn't dare to stay here anymore.

***

In the beautiful garden, Ren Yuan calmly read a book while sipping tea. It was as if the commotion in the Eastern Divine Region had nothing to do with him.

A moment later, he said. "Since you're here, why don't you show up?"

As his voice fell, a slender woman emerged from the void. Her face was extremely beautiful, but her gloomy eyes simply ruined it.

She looked at Ren Yuan coldly. "Is it fun?"

Ren Yuan closed the book and looked at the woman. "How many times have I told you before that I don't like this face of yours, Qian Guimo."

Chapter 1504 Development

The woman in front of Ren Yuan was no other than Qian Guimo. He had changed from a little boy's appearance to a beautiful woman.

"Why? Didn't you like her back then?" Qian Guimo said with a sarcastic smile.

The face he used currently was Ren Yuan's first lover when he was still a weak young master of the Ren Clan. Qian Guimo happened to know this and went to kill her in order to disgust Ren Yuan. However, Ren Yuan didn't seem to care about it. He didn't even try to avenge her.

"Heh. What a poor woman. She did everything to protect your worthless life back then, but who would have thought that the man she loved so dearly didn't even care about her in the end?" Qian Guimo laughed ridiculously.

Ren Yuan said expressionlessly. "If you are here just to disgust me, you should go back now."

Qian Guimo put away the mockery and asked. "You know about that Yu Wuying beforehand, right?"

Ren Yuan poured Qian Guimo a cup of tea and said. "Not a single woman around Yun Tian is normal. Throughout those years, Yu Wuying received his teachings directly from him. Even a fool like Zi Wei could become much more powerful just by listening to his preaching a few times."

Qian Guimo unceremoniously sat down and drank the tea in one go. "Why did you let her go?"

Ren Yuan took a sip of tea and said expressionlessly. "The Divine Realm still has many enemies. Who would work hard for me if I killed her?"

"Heh. Suit you well. This answer." Qian Guimo sneered. "What about that old hag?"

"She won't live long." Ren Yuan replied nonchalantly. "This is her last struggle."

"The new priestess should have been selected by now. Are you sure it won't be a problem later?" Qian Guimo asked.

"It seems Yu Wuying left a shadow on your heart. If it were you before, you wouldn't ask such a stupid question." Ren Yuan said calmly.

Qian Guimo curled his lips. "Why don't you try getting your arm cut by that woman? Do you know how terrible it is?"

"Master." At this moment, Chun Yue walked over and was surprised to see Qian Guimo. She bowed gently and said. "Master's maidservant Chun Yue greets Thousand Faces God Emperor."

Qian Guimo seized Chun Yue up and down and clicked his tongue. "This face and figure. I really want to put her in my collection."

Ren Yuan ignored him and looked at Chun Yue. "What's wrong?"

Chun Yue quickly replied. "The Dark Sea God Emperor's son went to the Eastern Divine Region and currently visits the Violet Thunder God Realm. At the same time, there is a strange movement in the west... A large number of profound beasts have become active."

"Looks like Nie Shen is no longer hiding." Qian Guimo chuckled. "But why did he send his stupid son over?"

Ren Yuan didn't care about Nie Wuji's news. His mind was on the latter part. "What's Qilin God Emperor's reaction?"

"There's no response from them, including the Heavenly Fox God Emperor and the Ash Serpent God Emperor." Chun Yue replied.

"Pay attention to them. Tell me when they make a move." Ren Yuan said calmly.

"Understood." Chun Yue responded readily. "I think you should take a look at

"Could it be those devils?" Qian Guimo said with a frown. "Perhaps they heard the news about Yun Tian's successor."

He looked at Ren Yuan and asked. "Is this within your plan?"

Ren Yuan calmly sipped the tea, offering no comment.

Seeing this, Qian Guimo got a conclusion. He got up and said. "Well, I should go back and prepare to see a good show."

As his voice fell, his figure vanished from the place without a trace. This scene made Chun Yue's heart turn cold. Although she was weaker than Qian Guimo, it wasn't to the point where she couldn't perceive his trace. Especially when he made a move right before her like this... It could be seen how powerful he truly was.

She turned to Ren Yuan and knelt on one knee. "Chun Yue deserves to die."

She was ashamed that Qian Guimo could come here without her knowing. If he had malicious intent, her master would be in danger.

"Get up." Ren Yuan said expressionlessly. "His Ghost Step is an inheritance from the Primordial Era. It's normal for you to not notice it."

Chun Yue got up and said solemnly. "Thank you, Master."

Ren Yuan waved his hand and said. "Tell our people to watch Ling Yongheng's movement closely. He won't give up that easily."

"Understood." Chun Yue responded and left directly.

Ren Yuan raised his head to look at the dark sky about to rain and muttered to himself. "Things are getting more interesting now...I truly want to see the next move of those pawns you left behind, Yun Tian. I hope you won't disappoint me again."

***

Twenty years passed in a blink of an eye inside the Heavenhold Secret Land. During this period, Yun Lintian had never stopped practicing even once, but his strength barely reached the peak of the Divine Origin Realm.

All the resources he had were gone in the first two years. Absorbing the heaven and earth aura here was the only way for him. There was no further booster anymore.

However, his battle prowess had improved by leaps and bounds compared to the first time he stepped into the Divine Origin Realm. Right now, he could leave a crack in Yue Chuntao's ten percent barrier using his divine energy purely.

"This is bad." Yun Lintian opened his eyes and sighed. Throughout his journey on the profound path, this was the first time he hit the so-called "bottleneck." He now understood how frustrated and desperate those practitioners were.

If it went on like this, it would be impossible for him to reach the Divine Transformation Realm in the next thirty years. Even the Divine Tribulation Realm was in question now.

"Brother." Suddenly, a mellow female voice resounded, and a beautiful figure appeared before Yun Lintian.

Yun Lintian raised his head to look at her slightly and smiled. "Congratulations. You've finally stepped into the Divine Spirit Realm."

The beautiful woman was naturally Ning Yue. After twenty years, she had grown into a peerless beauty who seemed to walk out from a painting. She stood approximately one hundred and seventy centimeters, and her curves developed exceptionally well.

The original youthfulness on her face had disappeared and was replaced with a feminine charm that could steal any men's soul.

Chapter 1505 Doubt

Seeing Ning Yue, Yun Lintian asked with a smile. "Why are you here?"

"Oh. It's nothing. I saw brother had stopped training, and I came here to take a look. Are you going to take a rest?" Ning Yue asked softly. During these twenty years, she didn't spend much time with Yun Lintian. She suddenly wanted to see him slack off like before. At least they could still have a meal together.

Yun Lintian let out a long breath and said. "Yeah. I'll take a rest for a few days."

"Really?" Ning Yue's eyes lit up. "Do you want to eat now?"

"Sure." Yun Lintian naturally could see through her thoughts in the past years, but he had no choice here. The enemy won't wait for him forever.

Yun Lintian got up and walked out of the hut with Ning Yue.

"The aura here is getting thinner." Yun Lintian looked at the bright sky and said.

"Sister Taotao said that we have consumed the aura more than what it can produce. At this rate, it would be emptied a few years later." Ning Yue said worriedly.

Yun Lintian nodded slightly. With two Divine Emperors here, the consumption rate was indeed terrifying. Not to mention Yun Lintian himself. He needed twenty times more energy than anyone in the same realm, and his absorption rate was unbelievably fast. It would be a surprise if the secret land could produce an aura faster.

The two arrived nearby the waterfall and saw Yue Chuntao lying on the rocking chair, leisurely sipping orange juice.

"Oh? Finally, come out of the cave?" Yue Chuntao glanced at Yun Lintian lazily and teased.

Yun Lintian sat in a vacant rocking chair beside her and poured himself a cup of tea. "How's the situation outside?"

"Nothing much happened. There were some idiots sneaked in." Yue Chuntao said. She had contacted Yue Hua from time to time during this period. While twenty years had passed here, it was only three months in the outside world.

Yun Lintian was relieved to hear this.

"But you shouldn't be complacent. This secret land is going to end soon." Yue Chuntao said further.

Yun Lintian took a sip of tea and leaned back, watching Ning Yue busy cooking.

Seeing Yun Lintian remain silent, Yue Chuntao asked. "Have you thought of a plan?"

Yun Lintian shook his head. "My time in the Divine Realm is too short, and I have never gone out of the Heavenhold Realm. I don't know much about the influence of those God Emperors. It's difficult to think of a way right now."

"However, I will leave as soon as possible. I don't want to implicate this place."

"Too late," Yue Chuntao curled her lips. "Even if you leave, they will never let this place go."

Yun Lintian raised his eyebrows slightly. It was indeed as she said. Whether he stayed here or not, they would still come.

Yue Chuntao said further. "However, there's a way. You will leave with me and deliberately show yourself. With this, a large number of those greedy idiots will certainly chase after you instead." "I think you should take a look at

"No," Yun Lintian responded immediately. "I don't want to trouble your Divine Moon Clan further."

From Yue Chuntao's words, the Divine Moon Clan didn't even have a God Emperor, currently relying on Yue Hua's prestige. The consequence would be severe once those God Emperors decided to attack them.

"Who said I will bring you there?" Yue Chuntao pursed her lips. "Do you know how many women were fascinated with the Beyond Heaven King back then? Some of them are still alive out there. You can go to them."

Yun Lintian frowned slightly. "This is not a good idea. It's true that they love him, but I am not him. It's hard to guess what they are going to do with me."

He didn't give Yue Chuntao a chance to speak as he continued. "I will expose my position and let them chase after me. However, my destination is the Sea of the Stars."

Yue Chuntao's expression changed slightly when she heard the forbidden land's name. "Why would you go there? Do you know how dangerous that place is?"

"Wait," She suddenly thought of something and asked. "Don't tell me there's the Beyond Heaven King's relic inside?"

Yun Lintian didn't hide it. "Indeed. This secret land is good, but as you can see, without resources, my progress is extremely slow. As I told you before. Most of my progress came from absorbing the relics. I indeed started practicing at a young age, but my progress didn't go anywhere until I was sixteen. That was when I received the first relic."

He looked at her and said. "So, a normal training way is not for me."

Yue Chuntao nodded thoughtfully.

Yun Lintian sighed. "Initially, I thought I could continue to stay in the Heavenhold Realm until I reach the Divine King Realm at the very least. I really have no idea how my whereabouts leaked out."

"I asked Grandma Hua about it, and she said it was Qin Juehai, the current Sword God title holder, who found your whereabouts." Yue Chuntao explained. "More precisely, he met the Dragon Princess somewhere in this Eastern Divine Region and guessed about it. Coincidentally, the Heavenhold Realm has sealed up."

"He met Qingxuan?" Yun Lintian was surprised.

He knew Qingxuan would return to the Divine Realm one day, but he didn't expect her to appear in the Eastern Divine Realm and even encounter Qin Juehai. Did she do it on purpose to make things difficult for him?

"Qingxuan? Since you mentioned her name directly without a title, it seems your relationship is very deep." Yue Chuntao took a deep look at Yun Lintian.

No one dared to say Long Qingxuan's name directly in the entire Divine Realm. Even God Emperors would call her by her title.

Yun Lintian didn't answer as he was thinking of Qingxuan's reason behind this.

Yue Chuntao said further. "The rumor said she had disappeared before the demise of the Dragon God Clan. I didn't expect her to escape to the lower realm where the Beyond Heaven King's successor resided. Her obsession with the Beyond Heaven King is indeed something."

Yun Lintian looked at her and asked. "Can you tell me how did the Dragon God Clan fall?"

Yue Chuntao shook her head. "I wasn't even born yet when everything happened, and Grandma Hua didn't tell me. From the records I found, it seemed to have something to do with the foreign forces and the Heavenly Desolate God Emperor."

"Foreign forces..." Yun Lintian muttered thoughtfully. He suddenly thought of the mysterious man's words—the fateful enemies. Could they be related?

Chapter 1506 The Best Choice

While Yun Lintian was thinking, Yue Chuntao said further. "Many clans, including Dragon God, Divine Phoenix, Vermilion Bird, White Tiger, and Beyond Heaven King, have mysterious downfalls. There are not many people in the entire Divine Realm who know what exactly happened at that time."

"I have been asking Grandma Hua for ages, but she never slips out a single word. The only thing I know for certain is the Heavenly Desolate God Emperor is one of the culprits behind everything."

Yun Lintian frowned deeply. "Why would they never tell us clearly? I never understand this point."

Yue Chuntao shrugged her shoulders. "Perhaps they are afraid that we can't handle the pressure."

"It doesn't make sense." Yun Lintian shook his head. "There is the saying goes, if you know the enemy and know yourself, you need not fear the result of a hundred battles. If you know yourself but not the enemy, for every victory gained, you will also suffer a defeat. If you know neither the enemy nor yourself, you will succumb in every battle... Think about it. What are we, and who is the enemy right now?"

Yue Chuntao nodded. "I raise both hands and agree with you on this one."

Yue Chuntao grew inside the Divine Moon God Realm being protected by everyone like a baby. There weren't many people who dared to play with her. That was why she loved teasing others for fun when she went out.

And because of the overprotection, she wasn't allowed to know about the true enemy who caused the downfall of the first Moon Princess, Yue Hongyue. This frustrated her every time thinking about it.

She looked at Yun Lintian and changed the topic. "The Sea of the Stars' location is random. How are you going to find it?"

Yun Lintian touched his chin and said. "I'll ask someone to find it."

"Who?" Yue Chuntao asked curiously.

"Shen Yan, the Mystic Auction House's young miss." Yun Lintian replied.

"Oh? No wonder that woman from the auction house followed you back then." Yue Chuntao talked about Qin Mei, who left midway to the Heavenhold Sect under Shen Yan's instruction.

"Well, if it's her, it's possible to find it." Yue Chuntao nodded slightly. "But the problem is. How are you going to travel?"

Yun Lintian thought for a moment and took his profound skyship out. "Is this alright?"

Yue Chuntao's figure flashed and arrived on the skyship's deck. She scanned it briefly and shook her head. "It's too slow, and the protection is too weak."

"Can you help me modify it?" Yun Lintian asked.

"I'm not good at this, but I can ask Yue Qi. He should have a way." Yue Chuntao replied.

"Thank you." Yun Lintian said gratefully.

Yue Chuntao returned to her seat and said. "Too bad I can't give you our Eclipse Ark."

"Eclipse Ark?" Yun Lintian was curious.

"It is our Divine Moon Clan's fastest skyship. Its speed is not inferior to the Heaven Vanishing Ark of the Heavenly Desolate God Emperor at all." Yue Chuntao explained. "However, I have no right to use it."

"You have no right? Who has it, then?" Yun Lintian looked at Yue Chuntao strangely. She was the Moon Princess but had no right to use the clan's ark. What kind of joke was this?

Yue Chuntao said sadly. "Grandma Hua is afraid that I will drive away for fun." "I think you should take a look at Yun Lintian was speechless, but when he thought of Yue Chuntao's previous playfulness, he felt that Yue Hua's decision was correct.

"What are you two talking about?" Ning Yue walked over with a tray full of delicacies before placing it on the table.

"Your culinary skill has improved again, Yueyue." Yue Chuntao drooled when she saw various dishes.

Ning Yue covered her mouth and laughed gently. "Then eat more."

She looked at Yun Lintian and handed him a rice bowl. "Let's eat, brother."

"Mhm." Yun Lintian picked up chopsticks and began to eat.

In the past twenty years, Yun Lintian taught Ning Yue a lot of delicacies from Earth. And because of her outstanding alchemy talent, her cooking had improved by leaps and bounds. She had even surpassed Yun Lingwei.

Swoosh—

Suddenly, Tian Yuhan appeared in the scene and looked at Yun Lintian. "The secret land is about to completely exhaust. We should be able to leave in a few days."

Yun Lintian stopped his movement and looked at her. "Would it shut forever?"

Tian Yuhan shook her head slightly. "No, but it will take a long time to recover."

Yun Lintian was relieved and said. "That's good to hear."

"Will you leave right away?" Tian Yuhan asked.

Yun Lintian thought for a moment and said. "I'll help Elder Hualing and Palace Master Tian Jia first. I'll leave after that... I'm sorry. I've implicated you."

Tian Yuhan thought for a moment and said. "In fact, you don't have to leave. I'll ask Rain God Emperor for help when we go out. At worst, we will leave together."

Yun Lintian looked at her in surprise. He didn't expect Tian Yuhan to sacrifice the Heavenhold Realm for him.

He looked at her deeply and said. "Thank you, but there's no need for you to do this. The Heavenhold Realm is your home. If something happens, I will never be able to close my eyes for the rest of my life."

Without giving her a chance to speak further, he continued. "My enemy is basically the entire Divine Realm. Even the Rain God Emperor would be in trouble. I don't want anyone to be in that situation because of me. You don't need to say it anymore."

Tian Yuhan went silent. The joy brought by the breakthrough had long dissipated the moment she knew about Yun Lintian's true identity. In these twenty years, she had already stepped into the second level of the Divine Emperor Realm, but it was far from enough to help him.

Yun Lintian said further. "When we go out, you have to announce to the world that I'm no longer your disciple. I appreciate your goodwill, but you must consider your people more. Cutting ties with me is the best way for both of us."

"Naturally, we're not truly cut the ties. We will still be friends."

Tian Yuhan took a deep breath and bowed her head. "Thank you for everything you did. I'll become stronger as soon as possible."

Yun Lintian smiled and said. "Come. Let's eat together."

Chapter 1507 News (1)

Three days later, the heaven and earth aura inside the Heavenhold Secret Land had reached the bottom, no longer suitable for practicing.

At this moment, everyone stood at the entrance, waiting for it to open. Although it was short, everyone's strength had improved significantly. Especially those elders in the Divine King Realm. Many of them had successfully stepped into the Divine Sovereign Realm one after another. It's all thanks to the top-quality pills Yun Lintian provided.

Buzz—

A white vortex slowly appeared in front of everyone, and Tian Jia immediately led everyone out with Yun Lintian and others at the back.

When everyone came out, Tian Hualing had already been waiting outside. She stepped forward and was about to greet them; she was immediately startled by Tian Yuhan's aura. Her eyes widened as she uttered in shock. "Sect Master..."

Tian Yuhan signaled her to stop first and let everyone leave.

Just as Tian Jia was about to leave, Tian Yuhan suddenly said. "Come with me."

Tian Jia was slightly puzzled and obediently followed Tian Yuhan and the others to the Sacred Hall.

"How's the situation?" Tian Yuhan asked after sitting down on her throne.

Tian Hualing quickly replied. "There was a commotion three months ago. Many Divine Emperors flocked over and started attacking our realm. Fortunately, Senior Yue Qi contacted his people to stabilize the situation."

She looked at Tian Yuhan and said solemnly. "However, I still couldn't find the reason behind their action."

"What!?" Tian Jia was shocked upon hearing this. Unlike Tian Yuhan, she was oblivious to all of this.

Tian Yuhan explained. "I've already known about this. You don't have to worry... What about other things?"

Tian Hualing replied. "We have discovered the Dark Sea Palace's people lurking around. They have been dealt with by us. However, there should be others hiding somewhere."

Tian Yuhan nodded thoughtfully. Once the Heavenhold Realm opened, these people would flood in, and it would be difficult to check them individually.

Tian Hualing took a deep breath and said. "Congratulations, Sect Master. It won't be long before we become an upper realm."

Tian Yuhan glanced at her and said. "We will apply for it right away."

Hearing this, Tian Hualing was puzzled. "But we still need another Divine Emperor."

To become an upper realm, there must be at least two Divine Emperors. She didn't understand why Tian Yuhan wanted to ask for an evaluation right now.

Tian Yuhan turned to Yun Lintian and said. "I have to trouble you about this."

Yun Lintian nodded slightly and turned to Tian Hualing. "Please come here. I'll help you break through."

Tian Hualing was stunned and subconsciously looked at Tian Yuhan. Seeing the latter nod, she quickly calmed down and walked toward Yun Lintian.

"Sit." Yun Lintian beckoned and took a set of silver needles out.

Under everyone's gaze, Yun Lintian swiftly pinned the needles onto Tian Hualing's profound entrances and began to inject the wood energy. "Concentrate on your profound art."

Tian Hualing closed her eyes and focused on running the Heavenhold Divine Art.

Buzz—

A muffled sound rang out from her body, and Tian Hualing suddenly felt the thin layer of a barrier within her body snap. Immediately, the surrounding heaven and earth aura rushed toward her like a tsunami, pouring into her body through the needles.

BOOM—I think you should take a look at

Tian Hualing's aura burst out as a torrent of energy flushed to every corner of her body. Her meridians and profound vein constantly expanded at an unbelievable rate, as well as her soul.

The entire process lasted for two whole days until Tian Hualing finally stepped into the first level of the Divine Realm.

At this moment, Tian Hualing opened her eyes, and her temperament changed completely. She had become more detached as if the entire world was beneath her.

"This is the power of the Divine Emperor...?" Tian Hualing clenched her fist in astonishment.

The feeling between the Divine Sovereign and the Divine Emperor was worlds apart. She immediately understood why those Divine Emperors she had seen before were so arrogant. It was because nothing in the world was worthy in their eyes.

On the side, Tian Jia looked at the scene enviously. Despite no longer feeling jealous of Tian Hualing, she still envied her. Who wouldn't want to be a Divine Emperor?

Yun Lintian retracted the silver needles and turned to Tian Jia. "You come over."

Tian Jia was stunned. She pointed at herself in disbelief. "Me?"

"Two Divine Emperors are not enough." Yun Lintian stated calmly.

Tian Jia's mood instantly became complicated. She didn't know whether she should be happy or ashamed. She had targeted him before, but he actually wanted to help her.

She took a deep breath and bowed her head sincerely. "I will remember this gratitude for the rest of my life."

Yun Lintian waved his hand. "Let's do it."

***

A week later, the news about Tian Yuhan becoming a Divine Emperor spread throughout the Heavenhold Realm, and a celebrating scene could be seen everywhere.

It wasn't that they were loyal to her, but rather benefited from this. As long as the Heavenhold Realm successfully became an upper realm later, they would be able to receive better resources.

Inside the Mystic Auction House of the Great Xia Dynasty Capital City, Yun Lintian calmly sipped the tea with Ning Yue, Yue Chuntao, and Yue Qi by his side.

Sitting opposite him was Qin Mei. She looked at him and said. "Your strength has improved significantly. I'm afraid I'm no longer your opponent."

Yun Lintian smiled and said. "Let's get into the topic. Can you contact your young miss? I have something to ask her."

Qin Mei thought for a moment and said. "I won't hide it from you. We do have a secret channel to contact each other. But I'm afraid she's not available right now."

"Oh?" Yun Lintian was curious.

"The Shen Clan is currently holding a clan gathering event. In fact, I have to go there, but as you can see, I can't leave." Qin Mei replied.

"Clan gathering?" Yun Lintian was surprised.

Qin Mei nodded and explained with a serious expression. "This year's clan gathering is very important for young miss. The outcome will decide a true heir position."

Yun Lintian nodded slightly. "What's her chance?"

Qin Mei sighed softly. "Very slim. As you know, she was punished back then, and because of that, her position fell to the bottom among the candidates."

"Why did she get punished in the first place?" Yun Lintian asked.

Qin Mei took a deep look at him and said. "It was because of a descendant who recently returned to the clan. Her name is Wu Qingcheng."

Chapter 1508 News (2)

Yun Lintian slowly put the teacup down upon hearing Wu Qingcheng's name. His face became serious as he asked. "Tell me about it."

Qin Mei slowly said. "It seems this person has something to do with you."

During these three months, the hottest news was naturally about the Beyond Heaven King's successor, and Qin Mei could guess more or less about Yun Lintian's identity. It was no wonder her young miss attached so much importance to him.

Yun Lintian didn't hide anything. "She's my fourth sister."

Ning Yue was surprised to hear this but didn't ask anything.

Qin Mei nodded slowly. "No wonder. Looks like young miss has foreseen ahead of everyone."

She paused briefly and explained. "More than a year ago, Miss Wu had returned to the clan with her father. The news was extremely shocking at that time. Even I, a low-level member, could feel about it."

"However, Miss Wu and her father were not welcomed by the other clan members. If it wasn't for young miss who spoke for them, they would definitely be imprisoned and even killed."

A cold glint flashed through Yun Lintian's eyes when he heard this. He asked calmly. "From your young miss' words, the Mystic God Emperor and the Shen Clan's patriarch seem to care about them. Why would they let it happen?"

Before Qin Mei could reply, Yue Chuntao, who was sipping orange juice boringly, spoke first. "How could you talk about feeling in a family that runs the business as a main priority?"

Yue Chuntao curled her lips and said disdainfully. "What kind of value could your fourth sister and her father bring to the clan except for a humiliation and unpleasant scandal?"

Yun Lintian frowned slightly. "What about her mother, then?"

Qin Mei's lips twitched slightly, and she didn't say anything.

Yue Chuntao looked at Qin Mei and said. "Let me guess. Her mother should be the Mystic God Emperor's daughter, Shen Yifei. Am I correct?"

Qin Mei nodded slowly.

Yue Chuntao chuckled and turned to Yun Lintian. "Hehe. It's a miracle that your fourth sister and her father are still alive."

Yun Lintian frowned deeply, waiting for her further explanation.

"Decades ago, Shen Yifei married Hidden Mountain God Emperor's eldest son, Shan Jinhao. Mystic Auction House is known for auctioning, Hidden Mountain for gathering information, and bounty hunting. They are not much inferior to the most famous assassination organization, Bloody Tomb Society." Yue Chuntao explained briefly.

She took a deep look at Yun Lintian and said further. "I also heard that Shen Yifei gave birth to a son for him. In your opinion, what's the use of having your fourth sister and her father around?"

Yun Lintian's eyes drooped slightly upon hearing this. He might look calm on the surface, but everyone could feel a cold killing intent around him. Even Yue Qi, who was a genuine Divine Emperor, couldn't help but look at him solemnly. He could tell that there were numerous bodies under Yun Lintian's hand.

Yun Lintian's heart was blazed with a flame of fury at this moment. It was fine if Wu Qingcheng and her father were under house-arrested, but it was different now. Their lives were basically hanging on a thin thread right now. As much as he wanted to avoid the limelight, watching Wu Qingcheng and her father die was impossible. I think you should take a look at

A moment later, Yun Lintian raised his head slightly to look at Qin Mei. "Do you know the shortest way to go there?"

Qin Mei involuntarily shuddered when her gaze met Yun Lintian's eyes. It was a pair of icy eyes that she would never forget for the rest of her life.

She took a deep breath and handed a silver token to him. "You can take this token to the Rising Sun Realm's capital city. There will be a grand teleporting formation directly to the Mystic God Realm over there."

Yun Lintian took the silver token from her and left directly.

Seeing this, Ning Yue hurriedly followed him. Her face was full of worries as it was the first time she saw him getting angry like this.

Yue Chuntao didn't leave right away. She looked at Qin Mei with a smile. "Your young miss is very good at business. She has perfectly inherited her grandfather's bloodline."

Qin Mei went silent and lowered her head slightly as if avoiding Yue Chuntao's gaze.

"The moment she knew about Wu Qingcheng's identity and background, she could immediately come up with this plan. Her vision is worthy of praise." Yue Chuntao chuckled.

Qin Mei raised her head slightly and said. "Do you believe she has no such an intention from the beginning? Even if she did know Yun Lintian's identity from Wu Qingcheng, it was impossible for her to guess his whereabouts."

"You should ask this question to yourself. Do you really believe it?" Yue Chuntao stared into Qin Mei's eyes with a faint smile.

Qin Mei opened her mouth, but no word came out in the end.

"Your young miss could easily deduct his whereabouts from the direction Wu Qingcheng came from. I bet all of your people in this Eastern Divine Region were told to look for an abnormal practitioner during this period. Tell me. Am I wrong?" Yue Chuntao's smile grew wider.

Qin Mei remained silent. Yue Chuntao simply nailed it.

"Why are you silent? Don't you feel happy for your young miss? She's about to reap the benefit she invested in, after all." Yue Chuntao asked.

Qin Mei sighed and said. "To tell you the truth, I don't agree with this approach from the moment I know his identity. But who am I to persuade her?"

Yue Chuntao stared at Qin Mei for a while and asked. "Do you know why you are still alive?"

Qin Mei thought for a moment and shook her head. The moment Yun Lintian knew the truth, she had already prepared to die. Surprisingly, he just left without saying anything. This puzzled her a bit.

Yue Chuntao smiled and said. "Of course, he wants you to notify your young miss... Well, maybe you should tell her to wash her neck clean."

She got up from her seat and prepared to leave. Just as she was about to step out of the room, she turned around and said. "Although he had never shown anything to me much during these twenty years we spent together, I can tell you that your young miss has made a huge, huge mistake by touching his people."

As she finished her sentence, she turned around and left directly, leaving behind Qin Mei, whose face turned pale...

Chapter 1509 Regret

Qin Mei sat in silence for an hour before making a decision. She hesitated on whether she should inform Shen Yan about it, and she chose to do it.

She opened a drawer and took a strange triangular jade out, and said while injecting her divine energy into it. "Young miss, Yun Lintian is on his way to you... He knows everything."

As she finished her sentence, she slumped in her seat, looking at the ceiling in a daze. Her energy was completely drained whenever she thought of the potential destruction of the Mystic God Realm. She could only pray that such a thing wouldn't happen.

***

Mystic God Realm, the Shen Clan.

Inside a dilapidated courtyard at the edge of the Shen Clan manor, Wu Qingcheng sat on a stool with a haggard look. Her robe was messy, as well as her hair. Her eyes were full of sadness as she looked at her father, whose appearance was so decadent.

A year ago, both of them left the Azure World for the Divine Realm and finally arrived at the Mystic God Realm. Wu Qingcheng was so excited to see her mother, but the reality blew her mind away.

Her mother was the daughter of the Mystic God Emperor, and her name was not Xuan Jinghua but rather Shen Yifei. Wu Qingcheng and her father could overlook the fake name, but not the fact she had married another man and even given birth to a son.

Moreover, Shen Yifei didn't want to admit the relationship between them at all and even wanted to get rid of them directly. If it wasn't for Shen Yan, Wu Qingcheng, and Wu Leiwei would become nothingness by now.

However, Wu Qingcheng wasn't a fool. She had been in business since she was young and knew there was no such a free thing in this world. Shen Yan must have an ulterior motive behind her action.

Unfortunately, Wu Qingcheng tried her best to resist, but her profound strength was no different from an ant in front of her. Shen Yan used a direct method to get information about Yun Lintian from her.

It was at that moment Wu Qingcheng knew what Shen Yan's goal was.

"I'm sorry." Wu Liwei, who lost his usual majestic appearance, looked at her daughter apologetically. If he didn't insist on finding his wife...No, his ex-wife, his daughter, wouldn't have to face this situation.

"What's the use of saying it now?" Wu Qingcheng sighed and said. "I am now sorry for my junior brother. I have implicated him."

Knowing Yun Lintian's personality, Wu Qingcheng was certain he would come here after knowing her situation. She wanted to tell him to leave her but had no way to contact him.

She looked at her father and asked softly. "Are you better now?"

"Heh, heh." Wu Liwei let out a dry chuckle and said. "I have been waiting to reunite with her for half of my life, and the result is like this. Who would have thought that everything was fake? The affection she showed me in those years was fake. Everything she did was for your junior brother."

The sorrow in Wu Liwei's heart couldn't be described in a word. He felt as if his heart was being dug out and smashed into pieces again and again. It was already a miracle that he could manage to retain his sanity.

"..." Wu Qingcheng looked at him silently. Although she often fought with him, she genuinely felt sad for him this time.

"It would be good if I came here alone... I regret it." Wu Liwei sighed and closed his eyes in pain. I think you should take a look at

At this moment, a young man walked into the courtyard and looked at them with a faint smile. This person possessed a good demeanor, but one could see the arrogance in his bones.

Wu Qingcheng's face turned cold upon seeing him. This young man was no other than her "half-brother," Shan Lou.

Facing her cold gaze, Shan Lou said leisurely. "My dear sister and uncle, both of you should dress up and prepare for the clan gathering. Your current appearances are not pleasant to look at. I'm afraid Grandpa will scold you two."

He paused for a moment and continued. "Of course, you're not going with an identity of my mother's daughter and husband, but a servant. I see that both of you have nothing much to do. So, I found a cleaning job for you... Don't worry. The salary is not bad. Two low-graded Divine Stones. How about it? Not bad, right?"

Wu Qingcheng gnashed her teeth in anger upon hearing this. Even though it wasn't the first time Shan Lou did this, she could never hold her anger back.

"Leave." Wu Liwei glanced at Shan Lou and said in a hoarse voice. "My strength is not good as you, but do you believe I have a way to hurt you?"

Shan Lou looked at Wu Liwei with an interesting smile. "Why don't you show me, uncle? I really want to see how a dog fights."

"Bastard!" Wu Qingcheng roared, and her aura surged. Just as she was about to rush toward Shan Lou, a female voice suddenly resounded from a distance.

"That's enough!"

Shan Lou frowned slightly and turned to look at the newcomer with a smile. "Why are you here, Sister Yan?"

The newcomer was no other than Shen Yan. She stared at Shan Lou coldly and said. "Get out before I change my mind."

Facing Shen Yan's aggressive stance, Shan Lou didn't seem to care about it. He chuckled and said. "Hehe. Why are you so mad, Sister Yan? I'm just teasing these two dogs for fun. There's nothing wrong with it, right?"

Boom!

Suddenly, Shen Yan's aura burst, and Shan Lou was caught off guard. He was directly sent flying out of the courtyard and crashed to the ground with a thud.

Shen Yan looked at him coldly and said. "Get lost."

"You..." Shan Lou was so furious but couldn't fight back as his strength was inferior. He could only glare at Wu Qingcheng and Wu Liwei angrily. "You two just wait!"

As he spoke, he quickly got up and rushed out.

"Heh. I don't know why Young Miss Shen came to our humble abode this time?" Wu Qingcheng glanced at Shen Yan and sneered. "Don't tell me you want to treat us well so you can use this excuse to save your life when my junior brother comes?"

Chapter 1510 A Deal

Facing Wu Qingcheng's ridicule, Shen Yan responded calmly. "You can say so... Both of you can be said to be a part of our Mystic Auction House and should know that interest comes before anything. What I am doing is nothing but an investment."

"So, you came here to preach to us about business?" Wu Qingcheng curled her lips. "Every investment has a risk. Why did I feel you couldn't afford the risk and come here?"

Shen Yan nodded admittedly. "Indeed. I didn't expect the Moon Princess would be by his side. She singlehandedly exposed my plan... Yun Lintian should be extremely furious right now and wish to tear me into pieces. You are one of the talismans that could protect my life."

Wu Qingcheng stared into Shen Yan's eyes for a while and asked. "Why should I help you?"

"We are businesswomen," Shen Yan answered calmly. "Everything can be a negotiation."

Wu Qingcheng didn't say anything, waiting for Shen Yan to speak further.

"The upcoming clan gathering will determine a true heir's position. At first, I wanted to borrow Yun Lintian's power to help me get the position, but it was difficult now," Shen Yan continued. "I want you to pacify him for me and let him help me get the position. Once I become the heir, I will make you a true young miss of the Shen Clan."

"Perhaps you don't understand what it means to be the true heir. Anyone who got it would have all the authority over the clansmen in their hands. That includes your mother. Even if she wants to object to it, she will have to obey my words."

She took a deep look at Wu Qingcheng and said further. "I know you want revenge and make your mother regret it. This is your chance."

Wu Qingcheng frowned slightly and turned to look at her father. Sure enough, there was a glimmer of hope in Wu Liwei's eyes at this moment.

Wu Liwei looked at Shen Yan and asked. "At the end of the day, the Mystic God Emperor has the highest authority. Shen Yifei is his daughter, and she married that man for benefits. I doubt a mere true heir position can do what you said."

Even though he wished for revenge, Wu Liwei was sobered enough and didn't fall into the cake Shen Yan drew.

Shen Yan shook her head and said. "Indeed, Grandpa will still have the highest authority in his hand, but he won't interfere in this matter. Otherwise, both of you won't have a chance to stand in front of me right now... You should also know the principle of our Mystic Auction House. We will never change the contract. I will do what I said."

"The marriage between your wife and Shan Jinhao is nothing but a mutual benefit exchange. Even if your daughter becomes a true young miss of the Shen Clan, it won't affect anything much."

Wu Liwei fell into deep thoughts immediately. Knowing it was difficult to take revenge, he and Wu Qingcheng would continue to live at the very least. That was far more than enough.

Meanwhile, Wu Qingcheng frowned deeply. She didn't care about revenge, but rather Yun Lintian. She didn't want to implicate him even if she had to die. The problem was, she couldn't stop him from coming. Not when he knew her situation.

With Yun Lintian's identity in concern, Wu Qingcheng was afraid that it would be a luring turtle into the urn plan. No matter how powerful Yun Lintian was, it was impossible for him to fight a God Emperor, right? At least not in a year's time.

Shen Yan seemed to see through Wu Qingcheng's thoughts. She said. "By the way, I have to tell you that Yun Lintian's identity as the Beyond Heaven King's successor has spread to every corner of the Divine Realm already. He's currently in the center of the storm. As long as I can get the position, I will have a way to protect him. Though temporary, it should be long enough for him to take a breather."

Wu Qingcheng looked into Shen Yan's eyes attentively and believed the latter didn't lie. She thought for a moment and said. "We can make a deal, but I can only save your life. As for whether he wants to help you, I have no power." "I think you should take a look at Wu Liwei looked at his daughter deeply and said nothing about it.

"That's more than enough." Shen Yan nodded slightly. She was confident in making Yun Lintian help her.

"We can sign a soul contract." Wu Liwei suddenly said.

Shen Yan nodded. "No problem."

Following that, the three quickly made a soul contract. The condition was simple. Wu Qingcheng would talk with Yun Lintian and tell him to spare Shen Yan's life, while Shen Yan would give her a young miss position when she became a true heir. And whether Yun Lintian helped her or not, Shen Yan would make sure that Wu Qingcheng and Wu Liwei would leave the Mystic God Realm with their lives intact.

After signing the soul contract, Shen Yan looked at the dilapidated courtyard and said. "Come with me. I will bring you to live in a better place."

Wu Qingcheng and Wu Liwei had no objection and followed Shen Yan out.

However, the three of them had no idea that two people were hiding in the void, watching everything. One was a silver-haired old man, and the other was a middle-aged man in white. They were the Mystic God Emperor Shen Huang, and the current Shen Clan's patriarch, Shen Feng.

"Alas, this little girl is good at everything but has overestimated herself this time." Shen Feng sighed softly, watching his daughter walk away.

Shen Huang stroked his long beard and said nonchalantly. "At least she knows how to keep her life."

"What's your thought on this, Father?" Shen Feng asked.

Shen Huang glanced at the gloomy sky and said. "If we want something, we need to pay something in return."

As he finished his sentence, he immediately vanished from the place.

Shen Feng stood silently in the place for a long while and sighed. "I should stop you back then, sister. You're in trouble this time."

***

On Heavenhold Peak, Yun Lintian calmly sat on a rocking chair and looked at the gloomy sky silently.

"Brother..." Ning Yue wanted to say something but was interrupted by him.

"You will go to the Divine Moon Clan, and I will find you there later."
