

Myth Beyond 171

Chapter 171 - Childhood Sweetheart

Zhang Yuhuang was taken aback for a moment. Of course, she was aware Yun Lintian was special, but she didn't know he could actually resist the golden lightning bolt that even a Saint Profound practitioner might not be able to do it.

"For real?" Zhang Yuhuang asked in disbelief.

Ding Yang nodded. "I've seen with my own eyes. He can control the golden lightning." He referred to when he saw Yun Lintian was shrouded with the golden lightning.

This time, Zhang Yuhuang was shocked. "How is that possible? As far as I know, even Young Master Lei cannot do it."

Although Zhang Yuhuang said this, she had already believed Ding Yang's words in her heart. After all, Ding Yang never lied to her before, and there was no point in him doing so.

Ding Yang shrugged his shoulders. "You asking me this? Who am I going to ask then?" He poured himself another cup of wine and continued. "Now you understand why I said he's not someone you can mess with?"

Zhang Yuhuang subconsciously nodded her head. Her expression changed slightly as she said. "Since he can control the golden lightning, doesn't it mean he can enter the valley? What do you think if I ask him to bring me in?"

Ding Yang looked at Zhang Yuhuang blankly for a moment and said. "Are you stupid? Who are you to him?"

Zhang Yuhuang waved her hand. "It doesn't matter. Aren't both of you talking happily earlier? Why don't you ask him to help me?"

Ding Yang was speechless. He wondered how the Zhang clan gave her a chance to become the head of the clan. With Zhang Yuhuang's IQ, he believed the Zhang clan would be ruined sooner or later.

Zhang Yuhuang glared at Ding Yang angrily. "What the hell with that face? Do you think I am stupid?"

Ding Yang nodded his head vigorously. "Yes."

Zhang Yuhuang threw a bunch of peanuts at Ding Yang furiously. "F*ck you, fatty!"

Ding Yang hurriedly grabbed some of the peanuts and threw them into his mouth. "Don't throw my food, you stupid woman!"

The two quarreled for several minutes before calming down. Ding Yang looked at the emptied plate and then the scattered peanuts on the ground with heartache. He planned to save them for later, but now everything was gone.

Zhang Yuhuang puffed angrily, crossing her arms before her flat chest, and looked at Ding Yang. "Says, are you going to help me or not?"

Ding Yang raised his head to look at Zhang Yuhuang, trying hard to suppress the anger in his chest. He took a deep breath and said. "He has his own secret, and it might be exposed by helping you. Using your brain and think about it. If it was you, were you willing to reveal your secret to a stranger?"

Zhang Yuhuang naturally knew this, but she just wanted to try her luck. The result of this trip would determine her future, and she didn't want to lose this chance.

Seeing Zhang Yuhuang went silent, Ding Yang sighed and drained the cup of wine in one go. The relationship between him and her could be described as a childhood sweetheart. They grew up together since they were young and always stuck with each other wherever they went. It was until the day Zhang Yuhuang's father wanted her to compete for the clan's head position. Both of them gradually separated.

Of course, Ding Yang wanted to help Zhang Yuhuang, but he was helpless. The reason why he took part in this trip was mainly to help her. When he discovered Yun Lintian, he thought of several methods to make Yun Lintian help Zhang Yuhuang. However, from the conversation between him and Yun Lintian, Ding Yang knew he could not ask him for help, and using force was also out of the question.

Zhang Yuhuang let out a long sigh and grabbed the wine gourd on the table, directly drinking from it.

"Hah!" Zhang Yuhuang put the wine gourd down and wiped the wine stain out of the corner of her mouth. She looked at Ding Yang and said. "I know that I'm not suitable for the clan's head position, but...."

Ding Yang interrupted her. "I know. It's been hard on you during this time."

Zhang Yuhuang's gaze softened a bit when she heard this. She looked at the fat man that once almost became her fiancé before her and said. "I think I'll give up."

Ding Yang stared straight into Zhang Yuhuang's eyes and said. "Let's go. We will follow him."

Zhang Yuhuang was surprised and asked. "Are you sure?"

Ding Yang stretched his body lazily while replying. "Of course. We can tell him honestly. Perhaps he will help us."

Zhang Yuhuang felt warm in her heart. She didn't expect Ding Yang would still care for her even though they weren't as close as they had been in the past.

"Thank you." Zhang Yuhuang said from the bottom of her heart.

Ding Yang waved his hand. "Hurry up." Following that, both of them immediately rushed toward Yun Lintian's direction.

Two kilometers away from Ding Yang, Yun Lintian had arrived nearby the lightning dome.

"So intense?" Yun Lintian muttered while looking at the colossus lightning dome before him. He could perceive the enormous lightning elements that resided within this place. It was no wonder those profound beasts didn't dare to approach this place. Yun Lintian believed even a Monarch might not be able to come here.

"This connection..." As he approached this place, Yun Lintian discovered the faint connection between him and something behind the dome had become more apparent. The surrounding lighting element here did not harm him. Instead, it had nourished his body as he felt his strength slowly rising.

Mumu stared at the lightning dome without blinking. A wisdom light flashed across its eyes as though it recalled something in the past. A while later, Mumu poked Yun Lintian with its white paw and pointed at the lightning dome, telling him to touch it.

Yun Lintian looked at Mumu and asked curiously. "How do you know I won't get zap to death?"

Chapter 172 - White Dragon Spear

In fact, Yun Lintian was always curious why did Mumu seem to be familiar with this place. Not to mention it could detect the Gate of Beyond Heaven in his body. Was there a connection between Mumu and the Beyond Heaven King? This question appeared in Yun Lintian's mind several times.

Mumu rolled its eyes and pointed at Yun Lintian's forehead again.

Yun Lintian nodded. "I see. It's because of the plot armor."

Mumu tilted its head in confusion. It did not understand what the plot armor Yun Lintian was talking about was.

Yun Lintian didn't bother to explain and drew closer to the lightning dome.

A zip zap sound grew intense as Yun Lintian approached. Surprisingly, Yun Lintian did not feel any threat from the lightning dome. Instead, he felt as though it welcomed him.

With this feeling, Yun Lintian's confidence increased significantly. He took a deep breath and reached out his hand to touch the dome.

Woosh!

Yun Lintian was surprised when he saw his hand sunk into the dome without any resistance. "Oh?" He retracted his hand and repeated the process. The result was the same. His entire arm could easily pass through it.

Yun Lintian turned to Mumu on his shoulder and said. "Shall we go in?"

Mumu nodded its head and urged Yun Lintian to go in already.

Just as Yun Lintian was about to enter, he suddenly heard someone shouted from afar.

"Hold on, Brother Yun!" Ding Yang shouted while rushing toward Yun Lintian, followed by Zhang Yuhuang.

A frown appeared on Yun Lintian's face. He turned around to look at Ding Yang vigilantly.

Ding Yang stopped several steps away from Yun Lintian and said while panting heavily. "Ha... Brother Yun, I have no ill intention. I just want to ask you for help."

Yun Lintian's brows raised slightly, and he turned to Zhang Yuhuang.

Ding Yang took a breather and said. "This is my childhood sweetheart. Zhang Yuhuang, the Eldest Miss of the Zhang clan."

Zhang Yuhuang cupped her fists and greeted. "Hello, Young Master Yun."

Yun Lintian nodded his head in reply and shifted his gaze back to Ding Yang, waiting for his explanation.

"It's like this, Brother Yun. Yuhuang is now competing for the clan's head position. Her grandfather gave her a mission to unravel the secret of Thunder Valley. The result will be used to determine her future." Ding Yang explained truthfully.

Yun Lintian didn't have to listen until the end to determine their purpose, as he had already understood.

"Why do you think I will help you?" Yun Lintian didn't look at Zhang Yuhuang but stared at Ding Yang. There was a trace of dissatisfaction in his voice.

Yun Lintian did not fear them at all. If they wanted to make a move, he could simply enter the valley. Right now, he was dissatisfied with Ding Yang as he had already made it clear before leaving last time, but Ding Yang still chose to follow him.

Before Zhang Yuhuang could say anything, Ding Yang spoke first. "It is indeed my fault for doing this, but I hope Brother Yun could give her a chance. I can guarantee with my life, she won't compete for any treasure in there. She only needs to know what's the secret behind that lightning wall."

"Of course, Brother Yun can take this gourd away. You can count it as compensation." Ding Yang did not hesitate to throw his Saint-rank artifact at Yun Lintian.

Zhang Yuhuang looked at Ding Yang with complicated emotion. She didn't expect Ding Yang would go to this extent in order to help her. As his childhood sweetheart, she naturally knew the importance of the gourd to Ding Yang. It was actually a memento of Ding Yang's late mother.

Zhang Yuhuang wanted to stop him, but Yun Lintian had already caught the bottle gourd. Coupled with a signal from Ding Yang, she then reluctantly shut her mouth.

Yun Lintian looked at the smooth white bottle gourd in his hand with surprise. Back then, when he met Ding Yang for the first time, he could see the extraordinary of this gourd through his Eyes of Heaven. He didn't expect Ding Yang would be this generous, giving it away just like that.

"Is it worth it?" Yun Lintian asked with a faint smile.

Ding Yang replied with a chuckle. "Of course, it's worth it. I will ask for compensation when she takes the clan's head position later."

Yun Lintian said nothing and turned to Zhang Yuhuang.

Zhang Yuhuang did not know what to say for a while. She took a deep breath and said. "Please return the gourd to him. It is my problem. I should be the one to pay the price."

"Shut up, stupid woman!" Ding Yang scolded.

Zhang Yuhuang did not faze as she took a long majestic white spear out. The spear had approximately 230 centimeters in length, at least 250 kilograms in weight. Its shaft was made with one of the rarest materials, White Meteorite Divine Iron. A majestic dragon pattern was engraved on the shaft. When Zhang Yuhuang grabbed the spear, the dragon pattern instantly shone in white light, and a virtual white dragon immediately appeared, coiling around the spear.

"This is my personal weapon, White Dragon Spear. It was created by the renowned divine blacksmith, Tie Mutian, when he was young. Although he failed to make it Divine-rank, its power isn't inferior to any Divine-rank weapon." Zhang Yuhuang explained.

Yun Lintian was immediately attracted by the spear's appearance. Until now, Yun Lintian hadn't made a decision about his primary weapon. When he was on Earth, he loved playing with any type of gun. After coming to the Azure World, he first planned to make a gun, but he later realized there wasn't any profound art to support it. Hence, he chose to practice archery in the end.

As a novel fan, Yun Lintian was naturally interested in a sword and spear. Because he wasn't talented enough back then, Yun Lintian could not master sword art. Instead, he was doing well with spear art. Since then, he was always using two weapons, a bow and a spear.

Facing such a beautiful spear, it would be a lie if he wasn't tempted.

Chapter 173 - Land Of Treasure

Yun Lintian nodded his head. "Good. Throw it over."

Zhang Yuhuang hesitated. "Are you sure? It's quite heavy." She feared that Yun Lintian might not be able to handle it. After all, his strength was too low.

"Don't worry. Just throw it over." Yun Lintian smiled confidently.

Zhang Yuhuang glanced at Ding Yang, and the latter gave her a slight nod, indicating she should do it according to Yun Lintian's request. Seeing this, Zhang Yuhuang did not hesitate anymore and threw the White Dragon Spear at Yun Lintian.

Roar!

The moment Yun Lintian reached out to grab a hold on the spear, the virtual white dragon suddenly let out a deafening roar. It wasn't intended to hurt Yun Lintian, but it just wanted to test its soon-to-be new master.

Facing the dragon's roar, Yun Lintian did not have a slight fear. On the contrary, he smiled and executed the Dragon Fist in return.

Roar—

A virtual silver dragon shot out from Yun Lintian's fist, and it went straight at the virtual white dragon. Instantaneously, both dragons were intertwined together, roaring, biting, until the white dragon was entirely subdued by the silver dragon.

Yun Lintian firmly grabbed the spear and swung it a few times before nodding his head in satisfaction. Although he could not display the White Dragon Spear to the fullest with his current strength, this weapon in his hand undoubtedly increased his survival rate when facing a powerful practitioner in the future.

Ding Yang and Zhang Yuhuang were opened their mouth wide as they stared at Yun Lintian in shock. They could see that Yun Lintian didn't even use his profound energy to swing the White Dragon Spear. All he used was purely his brute force that should not exist in an Essence Profound practitioner.

Furthermore, they could not even measure the fist profound art that Yun Lintian displayed earlier. One had to know both of them possessed a strong background that allowed them to see hundred or thousand of profound arts, but they found out those profound arts were nothing compared to Yun Lintian's Dragon Fist.

Yun Lintian looked at Ding Yang and Zhang Yuhuang and said. "Why are you trusting me so much? Are you not afraid I will run away?"

Ding Yang regained his composure faster than Zhang Yuhuang. He replied with a smile. "I believe in Brother Yun's character." He then pointed at Mumu and continued. "I don't think anyone can gain approval from the Divine Beast if they have an evil character."

"Fair enough." Yun Lintian chuckled.

At first, Yun Lintian planned to enter the valley after getting the bottle gourd, but when he saw Zhang Yuhuang took out the White Dragon Spear, he could see both were sincere enough. Hence, he would give them a chance. Moreover, he didn't even know if he could bring them in. Who knows, maybe they would get zapped to death directly.

Yun Lintian put the bottle gourd, and the spear away said further. "I'll be frank with you. I cannot guarantee that I can bring both of you in safely. You might die after contacting this lightning wall. So, you can decide your own fate."

Ding Yang and Zhang Yuhuang looked at each other. Ding Yang was worried and did not want Zhang Yuhuang to take a risk, but when he saw a determination in her eyes, Ding Yang could only sigh inwardly and turned to Yun Lintian.

"Please, bring us with you." Ding Yang replied.

Yun Lintian nodded his head and waved his hand. "Come here."

Yun Lintian had no idea how to bring them in. He believed that he only needed to hold their arms while walking in as it was the same as Mumu.

Ding Yang and Zhang Yuhuang looked at the lightning wall in front of them nervously. This was the first time they came close to this place. From the look of it, the chance of them surviving after touching the lightning wall was zero. However, they understood the principle of taking a risk in order to advance.

Yun Lintian glanced at Mumu and asked. "Are you sure?"

Mumu nodded its head firmly in return.

Yun Lintian turned to Zhang Yuhuang and said. "I'll have to offend Miss Zhang. I need to hold your arm."

Zhang Yuhuang replied while raising her arm. "Please."

Yun Lintian grabbed her arm and then Ding Yang's arm. He turned to the lightning wall, taking a deep breath, and said. "Ready?"

Before Ding Yang and Zhang Yuhuang could respond, Yun Lintian immediately dragged them into the lightning wall.

"No..." Ding Yang and Zhang Yuhuang turned pale when their entire beings were about to hit the lightning wall.

Surprisingly, they discovered they could actually pass through the lightning wall with like nothing.

"Phew... I thought both of you would turn into ashes. Fortunately." Yun Lintian heaved a sigh of relief when he saw Ding Yang and Zhang Yuhuang were safe and sound.

Both Ding Yang and Zhang Yuhuang were relieved when they found themselves being alive. However, when they were about to reply, they were immediately attracted by an enigmatic scene behind Yun Lintian.

Seeing they stood in a daze, Yun Lintian was curious and turned around. Instantly, his expression was no different from Ding Yang and Zhang Yuhuang's.

Yun Lintian was shocked to find that this place was actually a flat land. At the center was an ancient altar, stood approximately two meters, and surrounded by six lightning pillars. A thick golden lightning chain was beamed from each pillar, shooting straight at a brilliant golden lightning ball on the altar.

What made him even more surprised was there were a ton of various magical plants on the ground. Yun Lintian could recognize many of them with a glance, and none of them was below the mythical rank.

"Cleansing Spirit Jasmine, Star Soul Flower... Divine Thunder Tree!?" Yun Lintian exclaimed in astonishment as he looked at these magical plants. Especially the Divine Thunder Tree, Yun Lintian remembered this thing should not exist in the Azure World according to the Record of Life.

Chapter 174 - Digging The Tree

Ding Yang had also recognized some of the magical plants on the ground. Each of them could easily cause a bloodbath when exposed to the public, but this place actually had all of them, and the number was not low either.

Meanwhile, Zhang Yuhuang wasn't interested in medical profound art, but she still had some knowledge of magical plants. From her estimation, just selling one or two of them could easily send her Zhang clan to the top of the wealthy ranking of the Northern Continent.

Yun Lintian regained his composure and turned to Ding Yang and Zhang Yuhuang. "Do you want them?"

Ding Yang was almost shouted 'Yes' loudly, but he knew he had promised Yun Lintian before coming here. He reluctantly shook his head and said. "No, Brother Yun. We've said before we won't compete for any treasure."

Yun Lintian nodded his head with a smile and went to pick up all the magical plants one by one.

Zhang Yuhuang sent a sound transmission to Ding Yang. "Are we going to watch like this? You know you can ask him for a portion. I don't think he would mind."

Ding Yang turned to look at this stupid woman and replied solemnly. "You ungrateful woman! Do you still have the face to say this? Without him, you won't be able to enter here in the first place."

Zhang Yuhuang stuck her tongue out apologetically. She knew she was shameless by saying this, but who could resist such a temptation? Even though the Zhang clan was wealthy, it was only a speck of dust compared to the value of the magical plants here.

Ding Yang rolled his eyes and said. "Don't forget your purpose in coming here. Go, do what you need to do." Following that, he took out a set of tables and sat down, enjoying the scenery.

Zhang Yuhuang nodded her head and took an imaginary record stone out. Of course, she avoided recording Yun Lintian and the magical plants. All she focused on was the strange altar and pillars at the center.

Yun Lintian saw Zhang Yuhuang recorded the scenery. He frowned slightly and thought it was too risky. However, he didn't intend to stop her. As long as she didn't record him, Yun Lintian didn't mind about it. After all, he was satisfied with the White Dragon Spear she paid.

Yun Lintian speedily harvested the surrounding magical plants and finally arrived in front of a golden tree filled with lightning sparks. This tree was no other than the Divine Thunder Tree.

The Divine Thunder Tree was around three meters high and two meters wide. Yun Lintian stood close to the tree and looked up to see many strange golden rounded fruits hanging down from the branches. He recalled the Record of Life information and found these Divine Thunder Fruit were already matured, ready to be picked.

Without hesitation, Yun Lintian revolved his profound energy and sent it out to pick one of the Divine Thunder Fruits down. Holding the fruit in his hand, Yun Lintian could feel abundant lightning energy within it. It was plentiful to the point his hand turned numb.

Yun Lintian believed just one of this Divine Thunder Fruit could allow him to break through to the Spirit Profound Realm instantly, and it might even bring him to the peak of Spirit Profound Realm. However, he wasn't hurried, as he needed to find a way to take this tree away first. Not to mention he needed to check the ancient altar.

Yun Lintian circled around the Divine Thunder Tree for a while before taking the White Dragon Spear out. He activated Eyes of Heaven to see the roots and exerted his strength to dig the ground beneath the tree.

Ding Yang noticed Yun Lintian's movement and was taken aback. He never thought Yun Lintian would be this greedy, but it was understandable. After all, who would want to leave such a peerless treasure behind for others? He hesitated briefly and decided to help Yun Lintian.

"Do you need my help, Brother Yun?" Ding Yang said cautiously for fearing he might offend Yun Lintian.

Yun Lintian glanced at Ding Yang and shook his head. "No need... Right, Brother Yang, you can take some of them. I can see that your bottle gourd has meaning for you."

Ding Yang wasn't a hypocrite and readily accepted Yun Lintian's generosity. "I won't be polite then."

Although Ding Yang felt pain for losing his mother's memento, he thought it was worth it. He believed he, Zhang Yuhuang, and Yun Lintian were the first group to enter this place after thousands of years. This achievement alone was valuable than any saint-rank artifact.

Ding Yang skillfully harvested a small portion of magical plants, and he intended to share some of them with Zhang Yuhuang later.

If it wasn't because the Land of Beyond Heaven could multiply these magical plants, Yun Lintian wouldn't be this generous. He also had another intention of giving Ding Yang this. When all of them went out later, Ding Yang and Zhang Yuhuang would become his shield. All the attention would go to them while he was slipping away.

An hour later, Yun Lintian successfully dug out the Divine Thunder Tree and stored it away under Ding Yang and Zhang Yuhuang's astonished gaze. At first, they thought Yun Lintian's storage ring wasn't enough to contain the tree, but now, it did not seem to be the case. They wondered what kind of storage ring Yun Lintian had.

Yun Lintian wiped the sweat out of his forehead and turned his gaze to the ancient altar in the distance. When he arrived at this place, he could first perceive a strong connection between him and the strange golden ball on the altar. This made him believe it was the lightning element source.

Yun Lintian did not go over right away as he was thinking about how to take it away without summoning the crown.

Buzz—

All of a sudden, the six pillars around the altar shook violently, randomly shooting brilliant lightning sparks all over the place.

Chapter 175 - Primordial White Tiger God (1)

Yun Lintian, Ding Yang, and Zhang Yuhuang all perceived enormous lightning energy overflowing from the six pillars. It was too intense and overwhelming to the point the three of them had to conjure profound defense around their bodies.

"What's going on?" Zhang Yuhuang moved closer to Ding Yang and asked.

Ding Yang rolled his eyes annoyingly. "You asked me then who am I going to ask?" He then subconsciously glanced at Yun Lintian and found Yun Lintian's expression was calm, as though he had expected this to happen. This made him wonder further about who on earth was this man?

Although Yun Lintian was calmed on the surface, he was actually confused in his heart. The source of confusion was coming from the apparent connection between him and the golden orb on the altar. Of course, he believed it was the lightning element source, but he felt there was something more than that.

"Do you know anything about this?" Yun Lintian asked Mumu, who was standing on his shoulder.

Mumu did not reply to Yun Lintian but continued to stare at the altar. In fact, it had been staring like this since they entered this place.

Seeing Mumu didn't reply, Yun Lintian pondered briefly and decided to check it out by himself. Anyway, he was confident in his plot armor.

When Zhang Yuhuang saw Yun Lintian walked toward the altar, she hurriedly said. "Young..."

However, before she could finish her sentence, Ding Yang interrupted her first. "Don't say anything."

Zhang Yuhuang looked at Ding Yang questioningly.

"Don't you see he is not afraid of lightning?" Ding Yang said.

Zhang Yuhuang turned to Yun Lintian and saw he was indeed unharmed. The overwhelming lightning seemed to avoid him, paving the way for him.

"Who is he exactly?" Zhang Yuhuang was lost for a word after witnessing such a bizarre scene.

As Yun Lintian approached the altar, he could feel the connection between him and the golden orb become stronger. This confirmed his guess. The golden orb was no other than the lightning element source.

Yun Lintian quickened his steps and arrived before the altar. The lightning chains were continued to connect with the golden orb, and Yun Lintian could see it clearly, the orb had greedily absorbed the lightning like a black hole.

While Yun Lintian hesitating whether he should touch it directly or waiting until it finished absorbing, Mumu suddenly jumped up from his shoulder and landed on the altar, standing beside the golden orb. Its gaze never left the orb once, and there was a trace of melancholy in the depth of its eyes.

Yun Lintian was taken aback by Mumu's action and prepared to pull it back, but seeing it was safe, his hand stopped midair, and he decided to leave it there. For some reason, Yun Lintian always felt Mumu was familiar with this place, but he clearly remembered Lin Xinyao said this was her first time coming here. How could Mumu be familiar with this place then?

Mumu stared at the golden orb for a moment and suddenly reached its paw to touch the orb. Before Yun Lintian could react, he was blinded by a brilliant golden light coming out of the orb.

Instantaneously, the entire area had turned into the golden world. Yun Lintian couldn't see anything except for the bright golden light. A moment later, a white figure appeared in his vision. This figure was a female clad in a long white robe. Her facial features could be regarded as perfect. Just her appearance and temperament alone could easily crush Lin Xinyao as the latter was still too young, but the woman in front of Yun Lintian was brimming with matured women's charms.

"You are here." The woman in a white robe said. Her voice was soft and gentle.

Yun Lintian was a bit dizzy and hadn't yet recovered from the blinding golden light earlier. He subconsciously uttered. "Who?"

The woman did not reply right away. She stared at Yun Lintian for a long time before saying. "My name is Bai Xiaoyun. There is a connection between you and me, but I can't tell you right now."

Yun Lintian shook his head to get rid of the dizziness and regained some clarities. He looked at the peerless beauty in front of him and asked. "Are you the one who was calling me back then?" It was at this moment Yun Lintian noticed the voice of the mysterious person back then was similar to this woman.

Bai Xiaoyun smiled faintly and said. "Indeed, it was me."

Yun Lintian nodded and looked around to find Mumu. However, he discovered except for him and Bai Xiaoyun, there was no one around here.

"Where did they go?" Yun Lintian asked. "Is this place my conscious world?"

Bai Xiaoyun replied softly. "Yes. This is your conscious world... Don't worry. They are safe."

Yun Lintian didn't care about Ding Yang and Zhang Yuhuang, but Mumu was different. It was, after all, Lin Xinyao's companion. If something happened to it, Lin Xinyao would definitely kill him.

"Are you the same as Senior Yan? Staying here to guard the lightning element source?" Yun Lintian looked at Bai Xiaoyun and asked curiously. He guessed she was the same as Yan Qi, volunteering to guard this place.

Bai Xiaoyun replied with a smile. "You mean that little boy? No, we are not the same."

Yun Lintian was surprised slightly. He remembered Yan Qi was at least three thousand years old, yet he was called a little boy by Bai Xiaoyun. How old was she?

"Can you elaborate more?" Yun Lintian asked.

Bai Xiaoyun looked at Yun Lintian for a moment. Suddenly, her figure distorted and slowly transformed into a giant creature. More precisely, she had turned into a huge white tiger!

The tiger stood approximately twenty meters. Its fur was silky white, looking ethereal and brimming with a majestic aura. In front of the giant White Tiger, Yun Lintian suddenly felt as if he were as minuscule as a single grain of sand in front of this mountain.

Being stared at by a pair of incomparably gigantic golden eyes that seemed to see through anything in this world, Yun Lintian was shocked to the core and subconsciously exclaimed. "White Tiger? The legendary White Tiger?"

Chapter 176 - Primordial White Tiger God (2)

"That is something humans calling us." The white tiger, Bai Xiaoyun, replied. "Let me introduce myself again. I am the Primordial White Tiger God, Bai Xiaoyun. What you see currently is a mere wisp of a residual soul left behind by me."

Yun Lintian regained his composure and asked. "A residual soul? You mean...."

Bai Xiaoyun understood Yun Lintian's thought and replied. "Yes, I am already dead."

Yun Lintian's mouth opened and closed several times, but no words came out in the end. Countless questions appeared in his mind, but he didn't dare to ask, as it was too rude. He felt disappointed and sorrowful upon knowing she was already dead. After all, he was looking forward to meeting the divine beasts in mythology and never thought he would meet one in this situation.

Bai Xiaoyun naturally saw through Yun Lintian's thoughts. She said softly. "You don't have to be sad for me. I've already lived long enough."

Yun Lintian adjusted his moods and asked. "The previous roar is yours?"

Bai Xiaoyun replied. "Yes. I did it to suppress all the profound beasts in this place." She transformed back into a human form and continued. "As you have guessed, when you took away The Thunder, the barricade in this place will disappear."

Yun Lintian's expression turned serious. "What should I do then?"

Bai Xiaoyun smiled faintly and asked back. "What is your decision?"

Yun Lintian immediately understood. Whether he wanted to let the profound beasts out or leave it like this, the decision was in his hands. If he chose the first choice, people within Thunder City would face a disaster, but he couldn't take the lightning element source away if he chose the second choice.

Bai Xiaoyun said nothing and watched Yun Lintian calmly. At the same time, her mind seemed to drift to the distant memory.

Yun Lintian fell into deep thought for a long time before coming up with a decision. He raised his head to look at Bai Xiaoyun and said. "I'll have to trouble Senior Bai protecting the lightning element source for me first. I'll come back next time."

Bai Xiaoyun didn't seem to surprise by Yun Lintian's decision. She asked curiously. "Are you certain? The Thunder could give you the strength you urgently needed. Are you going to give up for the sake of people who didn't even know you?"

Yun Lintian replied firmly. "Yes. I've decided. In the worst case, I can just stay in the Land of Beyond Heaven and come out a decade later."

Bai Xiaoyun curled her lips. "I didn't expect a cold-blooded killer who used to treat human life as a grass to come with this decision."

Yun Lintian's pupils shrank as he stared at Bai Xiaoyun coldly. However, it only lasted for a second. Since Bai Xiaoyun could see all of his secrets, he wasn't surprised if she could see his past.

Both of them went silent for a period before Bai Xiaoyun broke the silence. "Actually, you don't need to do this. I have a solution for you. However, you need to promise me something first."

Yun Lintian asked. "What is it?"

Bai Xiaoyun took a deep look at Yun Lintian and said. "I want you to take care of my daughter."

"Your daughter?" Yun Lintian was surprised.

Bai Xiaoyun waved her hand, and a small white tiger appeared beside her. The small tiger resembled Bai Xiaoyun's tiger form, but it was a miniature version. It was laid on a comfortable quilt, sleeping soundly.

"This is my daughter. I haven't named her yet." Bai Xiaoyun said softly while caressing the small tiger affectionately.

Yun Lintian looked at the mother-daughter pair and went silent.

Bai Xiaoyun turned to Yun Lintian and asked. "Are you willing?"

Yun Lintian didn't know why she trusted him so much. He asked. "We just met for a short time, right? Why are you so confident I won't mistreat her? Not to mention, you've seen my past."

Bai Xiaoyun laughed slightly. "Of course, I didn't trust you." She pointed at Yun Lintian's forehead, and suddenly, the Beyond Heaven King's Crown flew out from Yun Lintian's body, landing on Bai Xiaoyun's palm. "I trusted this. The Beyond Heaven King's Crown never chooses a wrong person as its master."

Yun Lintian was stunned when he saw the crown landed on Bai Xiaoyun's palm. Although he could still feel the connection between him and the crown, Yun Lintian was still shocked, as someone could actually summon the crown out of his body.

Bai Xiaoyun stroked the crown with a trace of melancholy in her eyes as she replied. "As I said before, you and I have a connection... And it is this."

She looked at the crown for one last time and let it flew back to Yun Lintian. "In the past, the previous Beyond Heaven King helped my White Tiger God Clan from the catastrophe. In order to repay his gratitude, I've been sent to his side to become his companion."

Yun Lintian was surprised and hurriedly asked. "You know the previous Beyond Heaven King? Where is he now? Is he still alive?"

Before, he had speculated that his father might be the previous Beyond Heaven King, and now Bai Xiaoyun said she was his companion. How could he not be excited?

"I know what you think, but I can say that he is not your father. As for your question, it's not the right time for you to know." Bai Xiaoyun replied.

"Not my father?... How...?" Yun Lintian was confused. How could his father have the Gate of Beyond Heaven with him then?

Bai Xiaoyun smiled faintly. "You will understand one day."

Yun Lintian furrowed his brows. What was this bullshit again? Why couldn't she tell him directly? He hated this kind of situation the most.

Bai Xiaoyun didn't care about his mood and asked. "Tell me, are you willing to take care of my daughter?"

Although Yun Lintian was dissatisfied, he did not burst out on the spot, as he understood there might be something preventing Bai Xiaoyun from telling him everything.

He put all the messy thoughts aside, looked at the cute tiger cub, and said. "I promise you."

Wasn't this the pet he was looking for all this time? He would be an idiot if he rejected this.. This was not an ordinary pet. It was the legendary White Tiger!

Chapter 177 - Linlin

Bai Xiaoyun could see Yun Lintian's real intention, but she did not care about it. She said. "Very well."

Bai Xiaoyun pointed her finger at Yun Lintian's forehead, and a golden streak of light immediately shot out of the tip of her finger, drilling into Yun Lintian's forehead.

"Ugh!" Yun Lintian grunted in pain as he was caught off guard.

A moment later, Yun Lintian suddenly felt a connection between him and the little white tiger. A trace of intimacy was slowly formed. It was as though both of them were inseparable. This feeling was strange, yet it was comfortable.

"This..." Yun Lintian understood what it meant, but he was lost for a word.

Bai Xiaoyun lifted her daughter up and walked toward Yun Lintian. She placed the little white tiger in Yun Lintian's arms and said. "From now on, your life and hers would be inseparable. If you die, she will die with you. It goes both ways."

Yun Lintian firmly held the little tiger and frowned. "You...." He wanted to ask why she would do this. This was no different from the life and death slave contract.

"This is her fate." Bai Xiaoyun replied with a smile. "Besides, I don't think you would die that easily, right?"

Yun Lintian subconsciously nodded. With the Land of Beyond Heaven, he did not think he would have a short life.

Bai Xiaoyun changed the topic. "Why don't you name her for me?"

Yun Lintian was taken aback. "Aren't you her mother? This should be your duty, isn't it?"

Bai Xiaoyun shook her head. "I'm not qualified to name her."

"What do you mean?" Yun Lintian was confused.

Bai Xiaoyun went silent.

Yun Lintian was even more puzzled by her silence. He sighed softly and said. "Alright, I'll take this honor then." He pondered for a while and said. "How about Linlin? Lin from the forest 'Lin'."

"Linlin...." A trace of surprise flashed across Bai Xiaoyun's eyes. She smiled warmly and said. "Yes. From now on, she is Linlin... However, she will use your surname."

Yun Lintian furrowed his brows. "This is not appropriate, right?" What did she want to do? Not only letting him name her but also want to use his surname?

Bai Xiaoyun did not answer Yun Lintian and said. "Alright, it's time for you to go." Afterward, she waved her hand, and a brilliant golden light immediately blinded Yun Lintian.

"Wait!" Yun Lintian hurriedly stopped Bai Xiaoyun. He had a ton of questions to ask her. How could he leave like that?

However, no matter how Yun Lintian shouted, Bai Xiaoyun did not seem to stop, and he suddenly found himself standing before the altar in the next moment.

"Hey! You haven't told me the solution yet!" Yun Lintian yelled angrily. Compared to Yan Qi, Bai Xiaoyun basically gave him zero information. He didn't even know whether he should take the lightning element source away.

Yun Lintian took a deep breath, as there was no response from Bai Xiaoyun. He looked around and found Ding Yang and Zhang Yuhuang unconscious, lying motionless on the ground in the distance.

"Mumu?" Yun Lintian did not see Mumu nearby.

"What the hell is going on?" Yun Lintian couldn't help but feel annoying. The only thing that proved he had indeed met Bai Xiaoyun was Linlin in his arms, but what was he going to do next?

While he was thinking, Yun Lintian suddenly felt a movement in his arm, making him lower his head to look at Linlin. What greeted him was a pair of brilliant golden eyes, ninety percent resembling Bai Xiaoyun's eyes when she was in her White Tiger form.

Linlin blinked her eyes as it was still hazy from the long slumber and looked at Yun Lintian curiously. She was confused and could not comprehend the situation she was currently in.

"Are you my master?" A gentle female voice suddenly rang out in Yun Lintian's mind, causing him to startle for a moment.

Yun Lintian hadn't reached the Spirit Profound Realm yet. Hence, he could not send a sound transmission through his mind. He replied. "Yes. Don't call me master. Just call me big brother."

"Big brother?" Linlin responded in confusion.

Yun Lintian nodded his head. "Mhm, you can call me Big Brother Yun. Also, you are Linlin. Yun Linlin is your name."

"Linlin? My name is Linlin?" Linlin mumbled. "Understood, Big Brother Yun." She didn't know what was going on at this moment, but she could feel the man in front of her was the closest person to her in this world. Therefore, she did not upset or fear when facing this unknown situation.

Yun Lintian hesitated for a moment before stroking Linlin's head. Linlin's fur was silky smooth, easily made Yun Lintian addict.

Linlin blinked her round golden eyes cutely and then closed them, yawning comfortably.

Seeing Linlin's adorable appearance, Yun Lintian smiled warmly. Finally, he had a companion like those protagonists in the novels, and his companion was not ordinary at all. She was the legendary White Tiger!

A sense of accomplishment emerged in Yun Lintian's heart. It was as though he got first place in the exam and couldn't wait to show it to an aunt neighbor.

Yun Lintian pulled himself from the delightful moment and looked at the golden orb on the altar. How was he going to do with it now? Take it away? Bai Xiaoyun said she had a solution for the profound beasts on the outside, but she never told him what it was.

As their minds were connected together, Linlin seemed to understand Yun Lintian's worry. She slowly got up from Yun Lintian's arms and looked at the golden orb.

"What's wrong, Linlin?" Asked Yun Lintian when he saw Linlin stood up.

"Big Brother Yun, that golden ball is The Thunder. You should take it away quickly." Linlin replied.

"The Thunder? So the lightning element source is called The Thunder?" Yun Lintian seemed to remember Bai Xiaoyun mentioned this name before, but he didn't ask about it back then.

Chapter 178 - Taking The Thunder

"Linlin, if I take it away, this place will disappear, and all the profound beasts that are residing here will break out. I can't deal with them." Yun Lintian explained.

Linlin tilted her head cutely and said. "Don't worry, Big Brother Yun. Nothing will happen."

Yun Lintian was curious. "How do you know?"

Linlin shook her head. "I don't know, but I feel nothing will happen."

Yun Lintian's brows raised in surprise... Maybe I should trust her? She is Bai Xiaoyun's daughter, after all. She might know something. He thought.

Yun Lintian struggled to make a decision for a long time before finally decided. At worst, he would contact Han Bingling to prepare for the possibly profound beast tide as soon as possible.

"Linlin, can you stay on the ground for a while? Big brother will take The Thunder away." Yun Lintian said softly.

Linlin blinked her eyes and jumped down from Yun Lintian's arms. It was because she slept for a long time; she had forgotten how to walk as she stood unstable on the ground.

"Are you alright?" Yun Lintian hurriedly squatted down and helped Linlin.

Linlin replied cheerfully. "I'm fine, Big Brother Yun. You should hurry to take The Thunder away."

Yun Lintian made sure Linlin was fine before standing up, taking a deep breath, and reached out his hand to touch the golden orb.

"Argh!" Instantly, Yun Lintian was electrocuted as an enormous tide of lightning energy streamed into his body.

A wave of pain emanated from a force flushing into every corner of his body. All of his muscles bulging as though they were about to burst at any time. His entire being started to shake tremendously, as his vision also became blurry until it ultimately became a shade of golden.

Lightning sparks flashed everywhere around Yun Lintian. His current appearance was similar to the Electro from a particular comic. Although he was in pain, Yun Lintian could feel his Beyond Heaven Profound Vein had greedily absorbed all the flushing energy and started to expand its size.

The indescribable pain continued for ten minutes without a sign of stopping. At this moment, two figures were floating above Yun Lintian. One of them was no other than Bai Xiaoyun, and another one was a young girl in her sixteen, dressing in a white snow robe.

The young girl had an immature face, slightly round and filled with baby fat. On her cream-colored face was a cute, exquisite nose that pointed upward and watery tender lips that were gently closed. Between her brows was a round purple sigil that resembled the moon. If Yun Lintian saw this, he would immediately recognize it as it was precisely the same as the Lunar Jade that Mumu intended to give him back then.

Her pair of purple-colored star-like eyes were currently fixated on Yun Lintian below with concern. She said. "Is he okay?"

Bai Xiaoyun glanced at her with a smile. "Why? Don't tell me you are falling in love with him? I didn't expect you little girl to be like this."

The young girl glared at Bai Xiaoyun and pouting. "Hmph! I'm ignoring you, Aunty Bai."

Bai Xiaoyun chuckled slightly. Afterward, her expression turned back to the original calm as she said. "He is no ordinary. His fortitude is several times higher than average humans. You don't need to worry about him." She turned to the young girl and said. "Why don't you tell me more about your current master, Mumu?"

The young girl was no other than Mumu in her human form. She replied softly. "My current master's name is Lin Xinyao. She possesses the Divine Moon Profound Vein. Her aptitude is not bad. It's competent enough to be ranked among the top talents in Divine Realm. Unfortunately, she didn't have a proper profound art, and her power is currently sealed."

"Divine Moon Profound Vein? Did she come from that place?" Bai Xiaoyun asked interestingly.

Mumu nodded her head gently without saying a word.

Bai Xiaoyun turned to look at Yun Lintian and laughed elegantly. "Fate is truly marvelous!"

"Indeed." Mumu was agreed with Bai Xiaoyun's statement.

"By the way, Aunty Bai. Are you really going to do it? With him here, you will have a chance to reform your body. Although it might take thousands of years, it is worth waiting, don't you think?" Mumu asked with a serious expression.

Bai Xiaoyun was silent for a moment before letting out a soft sigh. "This is my fate. I can't go against it."

Mumu took a deep look at Bai Xiaoyun and sighed sadly.

Bai Xiaoyun reached out her hand to stroke Mumu's head and said with a smile. "You don't have to feel sad for Aunty. On the contrary, this is good for me. I can finally rest."

Mumu suddenly hugged Bai Xiaoyun and sobbed.

Bai Xiaoyun patted Mumu's back while looking at Yun Lintian. Her mind drifted to the unforgotten memory when she first met the previous Beyond Heaven King.

"Ughhhh....!" Yun Lintian groaned painfully. He was now drenched in sweat, looking miserable.

In Yun Lintian's mind, countless lightning sparks intertwined together constantly nourished his soul. He could obviously feel the change in his soul as his mind gradually became clearer, overflowing with immense mental power. Yun Lintian believed he could open Eyes of Heaven for two hours with no problem with his current strength.

So, lightning could nourish a human's soul as it was written in the Record of Life. Yun Lintian thought. He recalled the information related to the lightning element in the record.

Typically, practitioners would use a lightning element-based treasure to temper their souls. That was why Thunder Grass was ranked among the top of the precious magical plants.

Seeing it was the right time, Bai Xiaoyun said softly. "It's time."

"Little girl, take care of your sister. Don't let him bully her." Bai Xiaoyun smiled gently. She looked at Linlin, who was standing beside Yun Lintian. Her gaze was filled with love, affection, and endless tenderness.

A moment later, Bai Xiaoyun transformed into her White Tiger form.. Suddenly, nine brilliant golden-colored droplets flew out of her forehead and shot straight at Yun Lintian, slowly drilling into his body.

Chapter 179 - White Tiger God's Blood Origin

"What the hell!?" Yun Lintian exclaimed loudly when he felt a golden torrent flushed into his body.

Unlike the lightning energy from the Thunder, this newcomer was in a liquid form. The energy density of these nine golden droplets was evidently more potent than the Thunder. Yun Lintian did not know what was going on, but he could vaguely feel this was something similar to Blood Origin he once read before.

Golden droplet? Don't tell me it's Bai Xiaoyun's Blood Origin!? Yun Lintian was shocked upon thinking of this. As a novel enthusiast, fusing bloodline was nothing new to him, but he didn't expect the Blood Origin within the Thunder.

Obviously, Yun Lintian didn't know these nine golden droplets were coming from Bai Xiaoyun herself. He immediately calmed himself, sitting down, and submerged his entire consciousness within his inner body.

With his profound energy fully released, Yun Lintian began the slow and challenging process of fusing with the White Tiger God's Blood Origin. As he felt the tremendous bloodline power hidden within the White Tiger God's Blood Origin, he believed it could bring him to an unprecedented height.

The Thunder brought him a stabbing pain, while the White Tiger God's Blood Origin brought him a burning sensation, exploded within his body at the same time. Yun Lintian was sweating profusely. Every droplet of his sweat was instantly vaped upon surfacing from his skin. He was now shrouded in a white mist.

"Aunty?" Mumu was surprised when she saw this. She didn't expect Bai Xiaoyun would send her Blood Origin to Yun Lintian.

Bai Xiaoyun lowered her head to look at Mumu and said. "This is my selfishness. I don't want my bloodline to disappear from this Primordial Universe." She then turned her gaze to Linlin and said softly. "I hope she can continue our bloodline and revitalize our Primordial White Tiger God Clan."

Mumu opened her mouth, wanting to say something, but no word coming out in the end. She understood Bai Xiaoyun's intention, but this was clearly a taboo. Primordial Beast Gods weren't allowed to pass their bloodline into a human. Especially to a human with a primordial god's inheritance like Yun Lintian.

"Little girl, I will leave this thing to you. You can give it to him later when he is capable enough to handle it." Bai Xiaoyun raised one of her hands, and a transparent golden sphere appeared in her palm. It was moving vividly, as though it was alive.

Mumu's expression changed drastically when she saw this. "Aunty Bai, you...."

"This will help him in the near future. Although his current soul is strong, it still insufficient to face the Illusion Witch." Bai Xiaoyun said calmly.

Mumu's complexion turned solemn upon hearing the 'Illusion Witch' name. She took a deep breath and said. "I understand, Aunty Bai. I'll give him when the time comes."

"Good." Bai Xiaoyun smiled and sent the golden sphere to Mumu.

Mumu carefully put it away and looked at Bai Xiaoyun with sorrow.

In twenty minutes, Yun Lintian finally made a breakthrough. From the previous ninth level to the tenth level of Essence Profound Realm, and touched the threshold between the Essence Profound Realm and Spirit Profound Realm.

When practitioners break through to the Spirit Profound Realm, their souls transform and give birth to the Spiritual Sense. Currently, Yun Lintian could feel his mind was extremely clear, brimming with immense soul power, and was made him surprised was he could actually perceive everything around his body. It was as though he had eyes around his body.

This is... Spiritual Sense? Yun Lintian was surprised. The feeling of having Spiritual Sense was new to him, making him unable to adapt for a while.

Yun Lintian once again submerged his consciousness into his inner body, focusing on breaking through. When the amount of profound energy within Yun Lintian's body reached the limit, he immediately guided all of the profound energy toward his Soul Gate.

Boom!

A small explosion occurred within Yun Lintian's body as he greedily absorbed the surrounding profound energy until a mini-tornado was formed around him.

At this moment, the energy from both the Thunder and White Tiger God's Blood Origin was like a flood bursting through a dam. It flushed to every corner of his body while his Beyond Heaven Profound Vein constantly absorbed it.

First, second, and third levels, Yun Lintian continuously broke through and arrived at the tenth level of the Spirit Profound Realm. However, it did not seem to stop at that. Yun Lintian could feel the energy from the Thunder and White Tiger God's Blood Origin was only absorbed by half. He suddenly hesitated whether he should suppress it or continue to breakthrough.

"Don't suppress it. Let it flow." Suddenly, Bai Xiaoyun's voice rang out in Yun Lintian's mind, causing him to startle for a second before doing as she said.

Yun Lintian completely let go of the intent to suppress, and his Beyond Heaven Profound Vein seemed to change the gear, madly absorbing all the energy.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Several explosions could be heard within Yun Lintian's body. At Yun Lintian's heart, profound energy was slowly gathered together and formed into a rounded, small orb. When Yun Lintian saw this, he immediately understood this was his Origin Core.

When profound practitioners wanted to break through to the Origin Profound Realm, they first needed to form their Origin Core. In this process, they would need excessive amounts of profound energy, and they could use some treasures, such as Origin Pill, Core Forming Pill, or Origin Fruit, to aid them.

However, the amount of energy from the Thunder and White Tiger God's Blood Origin was sufficient for Yun Lintian to form his core even though his Profound Vein and Profound Art were different from ordinary practitioners.

An hour later, the small orb had become more apparent. Its body was mixing between golden and red energy.. Observing it for a while, Yun Lintian immediately understood, the golden was representing the lightning element while the red one was the fire element. His Origin Core turned out to be dual element core!

Chapter 180 - Rapid Improvement

A lightning spark and a burning fire intertwined together within Yun Lintian's Origin Core. At this moment, Yun Lintian could feel his affinity with the lightning, and the fire element had reached the limit. It was as though he could command and control them at will.

However, Yun Lintian understood it was his wishful thinking to control them completely. He was still unable to take on lightning or fire element attacks if they were stronger than him. For example, if Lei Jun were to use full power to strike him with the lightning element attack, Yun Lintian would still be harmed, but the damage would be reduced at least by half. This was his current understanding of this matter. He still needed to prove it in a real battle.

When the Origin Core was successfully formed, Yun Lintian discovered his profound energy had gone under a complete transformation. If the previous profound energy was water mixing with mud, his current profound energy was crystal clear like the sky in the summer.

Origin profound energy! This name appeared in Yun Lintian's mind. As practitioners reached the Origin Profound Realm, their profound energy would be transformed by their Origin Core, turning it into origin profound energy that was more vital.

Linlin stared at Yun Lintian worriedly for all this time. When she saw black muds expelled from Yun Lintian's body, she was taken aback and quickly moved away from him with her paws covered her nose.

Yun Lintian was oblivious to the outside world. He did not notice his body started to expel the impurities as he was immersed in a wonderful feeling.

Boom!

With another explosion, Yun Lintian had officially stepped into the Origin Profound Realm. Who would believe he had broken through from the ninth level of the Essence Profound Realm to the first level of the Origin Profound Realm in two hours? This speed couldn't be described by a word anymore!

Just as Yun Lintian felt complacent, his strength actually continued to rise. Second, third, fourth, and finally stopped at the fifth level of the Origin Profound Realm! 17 years old, the fifth level of the Origin Profound Realm. Even those direct disciples from the nine palaces could not achieve this!

Bai Xiaoyun looked at Yun Lintian and frowned. "Only fifth level? I've underestimated the Beyond Heaven Profound Vein. Even with the combination of my Blood Origin and the Thunder could only give him this much. I don't know how many resources he would need in the future."

Mumu was also nodding her head in agreement. If giving this to ordinary practitioners, she believed they would go straight to the peak of the Heaven Profound Realm or even step into the Ruler Profound Realm in one go. However, it could only bring Yun Lintian's strength to the fifth level of the Origin Profound Realm. This showed how many resources were needed for Yun Lintian to raise his strength.

"According to his plan. He is going to the Moon next. I'm not sure if he could take it away with his current strength." Mumu said.

Bai Xiaoyun asked. "Who is the guardian?"

Mumu replied. "Moon Fallen."

"It's her?" Bai Xiaoyun was surprised. "If that's the case, it's indeed difficult, even with your help. After all, that girl is too playful. Who knows how many traps she comes up with during this period."

Both of them went silent for a while. When Bai Xiaoyun saw Yun Lintian had completely consolidated his strength, she took a deep look at Linlin for one last time and said. "It's time for me to go. Take care of yourself."

Mumu hurriedly shouted. "Aunty!"

Bai Xiaoyun smiled at her and released a powerful lightning aura. She opened her mouth wide and roared.

"Roar!!"

Instantaneously, the deafening roar reverberated throughout the entire Thunder Valley, piercing into everyone's soul.

All the profound beasts suddenly woke up and let out a painful scream, as though their souls were directly shattered by the roar. In the next moment, all of them fell onto the ground, utterly losing their lives.

Yun Lintian was also woken up by the deafening roar. He looked around confusedly for a second before seeing the entire space was shaking violently. The lightning wall around this place was slowly dissipated bit by bit.

Coming back to his sense, the first thing Yun Lintian did was move to Linlin's side, lift her up, and go to Ding Yang and Zhang Yuhuang. He kicked them a few times to wake them up.

"Ugh... What's going on?" Ding Yang clutched his head and asked in confusion. He turned to Yun Lintian and was taken aback by the discovery. "You.... How?"

Ding Yang was shocked to find Yun Lintian's strength was already reached the fifth level of the Origin Profound Realm.

"If you don't want to die, just hurry up and leave this place." Yun Lintian said urgently.

It was only at this time did Ding Yang discover the entire space was starting to fall apart. Without further ado, he quickly picked the unconscious Zhang Yuhuang up and asked. "Where to go?"

"Wherever, just get out of here!" Yun Lintian responded. His eyes abruptly turned cold as he said. "Right, you didn't see me here. Understand?"

Ding Yang could feel a killing intent from Yun Lintian. He nodded his head firmly. "Don't worry. I won't tell anyone. You can find me if something happens."

Yun Lintian retracted his killing intent and looked around, trying to find Mumu.

"Mumu! Where are you!?" Shouted Yun Lintian.

Shortly, Mumu appeared behind him in a flash, jumped onto his shoulder, looked at Yun Lintian, and blinked cutely.

Yun Lintian heaved a sigh of relief upon seeing Mumu. He did not have time to ask where she went as he executed the Shadow Step, rushing toward the opposite direction of the Thunder Valley entrance.

Ding Yang hesitated whether he should follow him, but seeing Yun Lintian's direction, he immediately understood Yun Lintian's intention.. Without hesitation, Ding Yang carried Zhang Yuhuang and rushed to the Thunder Valley entrance.
