

Myth Beyond 1761

Chapter 1761 Defeat (1)

Although Yao Huang had suppressed his strength, it did not mean his perception was weakened. The fact that Yun Lintian could appear behind him without him knowing was unbelievable.

Yao Huang didn't even turn around as a black claw suddenly emerged from his back, shooting straight at Yun Lintian.

Bang!

The black claw mercilessly pierced into Yun Lintian's chest, but instead of blood, his entire body shattered into light particles once more.

At the same time, Yun Lintian reappeared in front of Yao Huang and swung his sword towards his head. The sword ignited with the Vermilion Bird flames, causing the natural barrier around Yao Huang's body to disperse immediately.

The dark gleam residing in Yao Huang's eyes condensed violently. His wrist shook as he swung the dark sword in his hand, slicing through the air.

BOOM!

There was a massive explosion, and Yao Huang was forced to take a few steps back. A burning sensation made him subconsciously glance at his hand, and he saw the Vermilion Bird flames burning vigorously on his sword.

Yao Huang raised his eyebrows in surprise and swiftly swung the sword, extinguishing the flames.

The dark aura gathered around the sword, devouring the Vermilion Bird flames entirely.

look at Yun Lintian and said.

An intense surge of dark energy erupted from his body, engulfing the light emitted by Yun Lintian. At this moment, the light on Yun Lintian's sword was no different from that of a tiny candle in the dark night.

Swoosh!

The Heaven Piercing Sword failed to hit its target, and Yao Huang disappeared into the darkness.

Yun Lintian was once again unable to locate Yao Huang's position.

"You're not bad, but again, this is my territory." Yao Huang's voice resounded as a massive commotion erupted in the darkness behind Yun Lintian.

Everything happened quickly, and Yun Lintian couldn't react in time.

Boom!

Yun Lintian's body exploded into pieces directly under Yao Huang's attack.

"Hm?" Yao Huang frowned slightly. He was confident that it was Yun Lintian's actual body. How could it become fake again?

He thought he had already seen through Yun Lintian's trick of combining the light element and the Shadow Step, but it didn't seem to be the case now.

Yao Huang's eyes suddenly constricted, and his pupils immediately enlarged, turning his entire eyes black. It was one of his techniques, Darkness Overseer.

Instantly, Yao Huang saw several figures appear before his eyes. Except for Hongyue and the others, at least fifty more people were spread around the arena. This scene confused Yao Huang even more.

At that moment, the figure closest to Yao Huang suddenly moved. Yun Lintian quickly appeared behind him, accompanied by a formidable surge of Vermilion Bird flames.

"What kind of technique is this?" Yao Huang lunged forward and swung his dark sword at Yun Lintian, instantly killing him.

When Yun Lintian "died," another figure immediately emerged before Yao Huang. This time, it brought forth Golden Crow flames.

Yao Huang frowned for the first time. No matter how he looked at it, Yun Lintian, who appeared in front of him, wasn't an illusion but his true body. But how did he manage to disappear every time?

Feeling the terrifying power, Yao Huang had no choice but to launch his attack on Yun Lintian. A similar scene happened once more. Yun Lintian was mercilessly cut in half and exploded into particles of light.

Outside the arena, Yao Jie was stunned by the scene. He had never thought that his master would be manipulated by Yun Lintian.

Meanwhile, Xian An glanced at Jin Long and asked. "Did you teach him?"

"No," Jin Long shook his head. "I'm merely helping him realize his potential."

In Jin Long's eyes, Yun Lintian was a raw gem that needed to be polished. He had the potential but never showcased his brilliance due to his lack of experience.

Jin Long simply taught Yun Lintian how to use his power more efficiently, and the rest was due to Yun Lintian's own efforts.

"What's going on?" Master Bai asked because he couldn't see the situation in the arena.

"Nothing much. Yun Lintian currently has the upper hand." Xian An replied.

Master Bai and Hongyue were surprised to hear this. Previously, it was evident that Yao Huang was superior in every aspect. How could Yun Lintian gain the upper hand now?

Yao Huang quickly calmed down. As someone who had lived for over a million years, there hadn't been much to surprise him for a long time.

He raised his sword, and devilish flames immediately lit up. Since he couldn't locate Yun Lintian's true body, he might as well kill all of his clones.

"Rupture." Yao Huang uttered, and the devilish flames on the sword instantly engulfed the arena.

Several of Yun Lintian's figures were instantly engulfed in flames and burned into nothingness.

When the flames subsided, Yao Huang gazed around but couldn't see anyone.

Suddenly, he sensed a threat from below and immediately realized that Yun Lintian had been lurking in his shadow all this time.

Instantly, Yao Huang stabbed the sword into the ground beneath him, unleashing a powerful surge of dark energy that erupted and shattered the earth.

"You guessed it wrong." Yun Lintian's voice resounded above as he swung the sword, enveloped by Vermilion Bird flames, towards Yao Huang's head.

Yao Huang's expression changed slightly when he realized he had been tricked again.

"That's enough!" Yao Huang spoke coldly.

Ripp—

At the same time, an irresistible suction force immediately enveloped the entire arena.

Instantly, Yun Lintian was pulled into the spatial rift that Yao Huang had cut open and disappeared completely into it.

Bang!

The spatial rift closed immediately afterward, and silence returned to the arena.

"This is bad." Xian An frowned when she saw this.

Meanwhile, Yao Jie was relieved to see this. As long as Yun Lintian was "devoured," he had no chance of making a comeback.

"Congrat—" Yao Jie was about to speak, but his expression suddenly changed when he saw Yun Lintian appear behind Yao Huang, holding the sword high above his head.

"Wrong again."

Chapter 1762 Defeat (2)

As Yun Lintian appeared, a white light immediately shone brightly around the Heaven Piercing Sword and shot into the sky, illuminating the entire area.

Before Yao Huang could react, the light pillar had already descended upon him as Yun Lintian swung the sword down.

BOOM—

Yao Huang was engulfed in a brilliant light, followed by a terrifying explosion that shook the entire Devil Valley.

"Master!" Yao Jie was shocked and wanted to take action. However, Jin Long had already appeared in front of him.

"Get out!" Yao Jie's arm transformed into a menacing claw as he lunged at Jin Long.

Golden flames lit up in Jin Long's eyes. His arms transformed into dragon claws as he struck forward.

Roar—

A deafening cry of a dragon reverberated throughout the entire space, causing the ancient beasts outside to tremble.

BOOM—

The dragon and fiendish claws collided, causing the surrounding space to distort wildly.

Yao Jie's figure could be seen soaring through the air before crashing heavily to the ground. His eyes widened in disbelief as he gazed at Jin Long.

Hongyue stared attentively at the arena, trying to get a clear view.

At this moment, the arena had already been shattered into a pile of debris, and the protective barrier had long disappeared.

A figure could be seen standing tall amidst the dust clouds. This person was none other than Yun Lintian.

Yun Lintian shook the numbness out of his hand and turned to look at Yao Huang, who had retreated several meters away. "You lose."

Yao Huang's arms were currently drenched in black blood. His sleeves were torn into pieces long ago. In that critical moment, he accidentally unleashed a power beyond the Divine King Realm to defend himself against Yun Lintian's attack. Otherwise, he would be even more miserable by now.

Yao Huang stared at Yun Lintian for a while and then let out a sigh. "You win."

"Master?" Yao Jie felt both relieved and confused. He couldn't believe that Yao Huang had actually been defeated.

Yao Huang glanced at Yao Jie and the others lurking in the dark and spoke. "Stand down."

As his voice fell, the terrifying pressure that had enveloped the entire area immediately dispersed.

Yao Huang looked at Yun Lintian and asked. "Can you tell me about your technique? It must be more than just a simple light element and the Shadow Step."

Yun Lintian put away the Heaven Piercing Sword and the other two swords and explained generously. "Truthfully, it was nothing more than what you had said. I used the light element to give you the illusion that I need to create a shadow in order to use the Shadow Step. However, the darkness itself is, in fact, a shadow."

Yao Huang immediately understood everything. Basically, the darkness he created was similar to a shadow realm for Yun Lintian. He could hide himself anywhere within the dark world.

"As expected from a True God's divine art." Yao Huang said gently.

Although he inherited the legacy of the Primordial Heaven Devouring Devil God, there were many things he didn't know, such as a mysterious true god like the Shadow God.

"Honestly, I didn't expect to win like this." Yun Lintian said calmly. "I thought I had to use everything in this battle. I don't think I could have won if you hadn't suppressed your strength.

"You're too modest." Yao Huang said. He had paid for his arrogance in this battle. "Even now, you still have no idea how strong you can be."

"You have said something like this a few times now. You seem to know about me, but then again, you don't." Yun Lintian said with puzzlement.

"It's just my guess. I cannot be sure." Yao Huang responded.

"What is it?" Yun Lintian asked further.

"We can talk about it later." Yao Huang said and opened his palm. Immediately, a black-as-ink orb appeared in the air.

The moment the orb appeared, the surrounding darkness began to stir with excitement and quickly gathered around it.

"This is the Dark Pearl." Yao Huang said and pushed it towards Yun Lintian.

"Master..." Yao Jie wanted to say something but was interrupted by the cold gaze of Yao Huang.

Yun Lintian was, in fact, surprised by Yao Huang's behavior from the beginning to the present. This person didn't look like someone who had colluded with the Great Devils and slaughtered millions of people at all. Why was that?

Hongyue and Master Bai were also surprised. They thought Yao Huang was simply putting on an act to deceive them and that he would definitely resort to force if he lost. Unexpectedly, he actually gave up the Dark Pearl so easily.

Yun Lintian could feel a strong connection between himself and the orb. Without a doubt, the black orb was the authentic Dark Pearl.

He reached out to grab the Dark Pearl, and the Beyond Heaven King's Crown immediately appeared on his head on its own.

Buzz—

When Yun Lintian touched the pearl, the surrounding dark energy immediately swarmed towards him and engulfed him completely.

Yun Lintian could feel every pore on his body opening and greedily absorbing the dark energy.

At that moment, a massive torrent of dark energy flooded Yun Lintian's body and spread throughout every corner.

Yun Lintian's Divine Core spun rapidly, exerting its utmost effort to refine the foreign power.

Yun Lintian's eyes and skin turned completely black. He looked like a godly devil at this moment.

Yao Huang looked at the scene thoughtfully. He had been attempting to refine the Dark Pearl for personal use over the years but ultimately failed. He truly admired the Beyond Heaven King and Goddess Yao Xi for creating such a powerful artifact.

Hongyue immediately came to Yun Lintian's side and erected a protective barrier.

"Big Brother Yun has become ugly." Qingqing looked at Yun Lintian strangely as she saw his veins wriggling like maggots beneath his skin.

Linlin jumped down from Hongyue and sat beside Yun Lintian, staring vigilantly at Yao Jie and the others.

"Mo Tian." Master Bai's face darkened.

Chapter 1763 Change In Situation

A group of newcomers was none other than Mo Tian and the other great devils. They had been hiding in the vicinity, waiting for Yun Lintian and Yao Huang to collide. Unexpectedly, Yao Huang chose a peaceful way to resolve the conflict.

However, Mo Tian didn't think it was a bad thing. He was waiting for Yun Lintian to obtain the Dark Pearl and attempt to refine it before revealing himself.

A murderous intent flashed across Master Bai's eyes. He frequently battled the Great Devils in the past because the White Owl God Realm was situated on the border between the Great Devil Realm and the Divine Realm. It could be said that they were mortal enemies.

"You have finally appeared, huh? I thought you would hide in the latrine and let your lackeys do everything like usual." Master Bai said disdainfully.

Mo Tian looked at Master Bai calmly and said, "I know you wouldn't die easily. This is also good. My people often said they could never forget the taste of white owls."

Master Bai's face darkened, and his body trembled with anger. The Great Devils played a significant role in the downfall of the White Owl God Realm. They took advantage when everyone focused on the Primordial God Tribe and launched a surprise attack.

Master Bai could still vividly remember the tragic scene from that day. Countless innocent people, including members of his White Owl Clan, were killed and devoured in front of him, leaving him completely powerless.

"Relax." Mo Tian smiled when he saw Master Bai trembling. "I didn't come here to reminisce about the past with you."

He glanced at Yun Lintian and then at Yao Huang. "This is not what we agreed upon. Do you want to say something, my lord?"

Yao Huang glanced at Mo Tian and said. "I have already agreed to force the Beyond Heaven King's successor to come out. Two of my people have lost their lives in the process. It's time for you to fulfill the agreement."

Mo Tian shook his head and said. "It seems you have misunderstood it. I clearly stated that you have to subdue him. Not giving him the Dark Pearl."

"Presumptuous!" Yao Jie uttered coldly, and his aura immediately spread, enveloping Mo Tian and the others.

However, Mo Tian's expression remained unchanged despite the terrifying pressure. He merely glanced at Yao Jie and said. "I am talking to your master. It's not your turn to intervene. Know your place. A servant should behave like a servant."

Yao Jie's face darkened. He was about to make a move, but Yao Huang stopped him.

Yao Huang looked at Mo Tian and said. "You are not going to do it?"

Mo Yan, who was standing beside Mo Tian, curled her lips and said. "Since my lord has not completed the agreement, we naturally cannot give it to you."

"Very well." Yao Huang nodded slightly. "I was initially willing to talk with all of you for the sake of our ancestors. There won't be a second time."

As his voice fell, the surrounding darkness began to stir, and everyone could feel the change in the environment. It felt as if the world was on the brink of destruction.

Mo Tian looked at Yao Huang with a smile and asked. "Are you sure you want to do this, my lord?"

"You can try." Yao Huang said calmly.

Mo Tian took a deep look at Yao Huang and raised his hand slightly. Immediately, a black scroll appeared in the air before unfolding, revealing rows of mysterious runes.

Master Bai and Hongyue frowned deeply as they examined the scroll. They could sense a terrifying aura emanating from it but couldn't tell what it was.

"Decree of Darkness." Yao Jie uttered solemnly.

"What is that?" Master Bai asked.

"It is a decree left behind by the Primordial Heaven Devouring Devil God to command all the devils in the world." Yao Jie explained. He had no idea that Mo Tian had such a thing in his hand.

"No wonder master was willing to reach an agreement with them." Yao Jie muttered under his breath.

Yao Huang raised his eyebrows. Cold flames immediately appeared in his eyes, and the Decree of Darkness in Mo Tian's hand began to shake.

Mo Yan's and the others' expressions changed slightly when they saw this.

However, Mo Tian remained as calm as ever. On the contrary, the smile on his face had become even brighter.

A moment later, the decree in Mo Tian's hand stopped shaking thoroughly. Mo Yan and the others immediately sighed with relief.

"I didn't expect it to be true." Mo Yan said to herself.

Yao Huang frowned deeply when he saw this. He tried to exert more strength, but the decree didn't shake in the slightest.

Originally, he was confident that he could take the decree back from Mo Tian's grasp by relying on the inheritance of the Primordial Heaven Devouring Devil God... Unexpectedly, he could not do it.

"I won this bet." Mo Tian suddenly said. "You have only inherited a small portion of the Devil God's legacy. Hehe. I have to admit that your acting is very good. You are not the true inheritor at all but rather someone who got lucky."

Yao Huang's face fell. What Mo Tian had said was true. He wasn't the true inheritor but rather someone who managed to comprehend a portion of the legacy through his own talent.

"Master..." Yao Jie's face turned pale. He knew that the consequences would be unimaginable once the decree was activated.

"It's all thanks to the Heavenly Desolate God Emperor." Mo Tian smiled mysteriously. "Without him, I wouldn't have had the courage to make this bet."

"Is he...?" Yao Huang's expression changed slightly. He suddenly thought of a bold possibility regarding Ren Yuan's true identity.

"Don't ask me. I don't know either." Mo Tian chuckled. "But I guess you are right."

"No wonder... No wonder..." Yao Huang muttered to himself repeatedly. His expression kept changing as if he was struggling to make a decision.

"What now?" Mo Tian didn't let go of a chance to press forward.

Master Bai, Hongyue, Xian An, and Jin Long quickly surrounded Yun Lintian. They knew that something big was about to happen.

Chapter 1764 Battle of Gods (1)

"I know none of you devils are honest." Master Bai scoffed. A white light flashed as he transformed into a human form.

Roar—

Ear-piercing roars could be heard everywhere as Yao Huang's command stirred all the ancient beasts in Devil Valley. They came over and surrounded the entire area, sealing off every possible escape route.

The twenty Divine Emperors heard this and quickly steered the Fleeting Cloud Profound Ark towards Yun Lintian's direction. However, they were completely blocked by a herd of ancient beasts.

Instantly, a war broke out.

Xian An glanced around briefly and then communicated through a sound transmission. "Find a way to break out. We will block them."

Hongyue frowned slightly but knew it wasn't the time to be willful.

"Take him away. Leave this place to us." Master Bai glanced at Hongyue. "It's time for me to settle the blood debt."

"Be careful," Hongyue said solemnly.

"You can hand him over, and I can guarantee that none of you will be hurt here." Yao Huang spoke calmly. "We only need the power within his body. He will be fine afterwards."

"Stop your bullshit and fight already!" Master Bai shouted.

He waved his hand, and numerous white feathers instantly scattered throughout the area, shooting off in every direction.

"Where are you going?" Mo Yan curled her lips and waved her hand, creating a massive black wall to block Hongyue's path.

Seeing this, Qingqing pouted, and a horrifying windstorm instantly surged out of her body, sweeping over everything around her.

Mo Yan and the others sneered coldly. They threw punches forward, causing the space to shatter. The windstorm was immediately dispersed by the powerful force.

"Ah?" Qingqing was stunned.

At this moment, Master Bai appeared before Hongyue, wielding a long white sword in his hand. A brilliant white radiance burst forth as he swung it forward, illuminating the entire space.

Mo Yan and the others couldn't help but take defensive stances.

BOOM—

A powerful explosion occurred, and the impact quickly sent Mo Yan and the rest flying several kilometers.

"Go." Master Bai said.

Hongyue didn't say anything and transformed into a red light, dashing away instantly.

Yao Huang looked at the scene and sighed. "Why must you choose this path?"

"Stop pretending to be a saint." Xian An pursed her lips. "You can deceive a child like Yun Lintian, but not us."

Yao Huang briefly looked at Xian An and Jin Long. "I can see that neither of you belongs to this world. Do you know the consequences of intervening in the world's affairs?"

"Cut the crap." Xian An uttered.

Her body was enveloped in a stunning divine light, and a long green spear appeared in her hand. She looked like a goddess of war at that moment.

Xian An's aura was incredibly powerful, intimidating all the ancient beasts and Mo Yan's group in the vicinity.

Mo Tian looked at Xian An with a frown. Xian An and Jin Long appeared out of nowhere, and their origins were unknown. Moreover, their strength was not inferior to that of Yao Huang or those people from the Primordial God Tribe at all.

If it weren't for them, Mo Tian was confident that Yun Lintian would have no chance of escaping today.

"What are you waiting for?" Mo Tian glanced at Yao Huang. He wouldn't hesitate to use the Decree of Darkness if Yao Huang refused to take action.

Yao Huang glanced at Yao Jie and the other two lesser gods in the darkness.

All of a sudden, a surge of auras filled the air, pressing down upon Xian An and Jin Long.

"I will leave them to you." Jin Long glanced at Yao Jie and the other two.

"Sure." Xian An responded and stepped forward.

She unleashed her aura as she thrust the spear at Yao Jie, who was the closest target.

The spear seemed to transcend time and space, arriving at Yao Jie's chest in the blink of an eye.

The power of a lesser god that did not belong to the Divine Realm was displayed instantly.

BOOM—

A dull-sounding explosion occurred as the spear struck Yao Jie's arms. To everyone's surprise, Yao Jie's arms were instantly ripped apart and snapped like twigs.

The spear thrust forward and pierced Yao Jie's chest, impaling his heart.

"Bye." Xian An uttered coldly.

BANG!

Another surge of energy erupted inside Yao Jie's body, causing it to disintegrate into fragments instantly.

Yao Jie's head flew high into the air. His eyes widened in disbelief... He couldn't believe that he was about to die from a single strike.

Yao Huang, Mo Tian, and the others looked at the scene in a daze. Their brains seemed to momentarily cease functioning as they struggled to comprehend the situation before them.

Especially Mo Tian and the Great Devils. They were aware of Yao Jie's strength. That was a genuine lesser god they were talking about!

How could a god emperor like Xian An kill him with a single strike? It didn't make sense at all!

Mo Tian regained his composure and hurried towards Yun Lintian. His arms transformed into demonic claws, seizing hold of Hongyue and Yun Lintian.

He knew that this was his only chance to capture Yun Lintian.

Master Bai's expression changed. He wanted to make a move, but Mo Yan and the others quickly came to block him.

"Get lost!" Master Bai roared. An intense divine energy gathered around the sword as he swung it horizontally towards Mo Yan.

"Kill!" Mo Yan's eyes turned completely black. Her soul aura burst forth, shooting into Master Bai's mind.

"Ugh!" Master Bai was too careless when he tried to stop Mo Tian. He failed to protect his soul and allowed Mo Yan to successfully attack him.

His movement froze for a second, but that was long enough for the other devils to attack him.

"Go to hell."

Chapter 1765 Battle of Gods (2)

When Master Bai recovered, the attacks of the other five devils had already arrived. It was too late for him to defend himself.

BOOM—

The five consecutive attacks from the Devil God Emperors slammed into Master Bai's chest, causing his chest to burst open upon impact.

Master Bai was sent flying like a broken kite, with blood trailing behind him, before crashing to the ground with a loud bang.

The commotion immediately captured the attention of Jin Long and Xian An. They didn't expect Master Bai to be defeated so quickly.

At the same time, Mo Tian's claws were about to reach Hongyue and Yun Lintian. Even if Jin Long and Xian An wanted to make a move, it would be impossible now.

A red light flashed in Hongyue's eyes. Her aura surged, and several red beams instantly shot out from her body, rushing towards Mo Tian.

Mo Tian's eyes narrowed slightly. He clenched his fist and punched forward, meeting the oncoming red beams head-on.

BANG!

There seemed to be a thick layer of black barrier as Mo Tian punched out, blocking all the red beams directly.

Hongyue glanced briefly at Master Bai before swiftly running away with everything she had. She couldn't save Master Bai in this situation. The best thing she could do right now was to take Yun Lintian away as soon as possible.

"Hmph!" Mo Tian snorted coldly. He took out a peculiar black flag, and a sinister aura swiftly enveloped the area, creating a prison to trap Hongyue and prevent her from escaping.

Hongyue's expression turned solemn. With her current strength, breaking the prison was very difficult. Furthermore, she didn't have any god emperor artifacts in her possession.

Hongyue looked at the necklace around Yun Lintian's neck and said. "Lend me a hand. Otherwise, we won't be able to leave this place."

Buzz—

The necklace immediately shone and transformed into the Heaven Piercing Sword.

Hongyue quickly grabbed it and unleashed her aura as she swung towards the barrier in front of her.

THANG—

The barrier shook violently, and hundreds of tiny cracks appeared around the impact point.

Mo Tian's face darkened when he saw the scene. He infused more dark energy into the flag to reinforce the barrier as he hurried towards Hongyue.

Hongyue was thrown back by the impact but quickly regained her balance. She twisted in mid-air and shot towards the barrier, slashing at it. A terrifying red light flashed across space, tearing apart the darkness.

BANG!

This time, the barrier was cut open directly, and Hongyue didn't hesitate to rush out.

"Damn it!" Mo Tian cursed and gave chase.

The Red Moon Princess was known not only for her ruthlessness but also for her speed. In the past, she was considered the fastest God Emperor under the Beyond Heaven King.

As long as she wanted to run, no one could catch up to her speed.

"Finish him." Mo Yan saw this and quickly followed Mo Tian. She didn't forget to tell everyone to kill Master Bai.

Master Bai struggled to get up. The injury on his chest was not light at all. It was already a miracle that he was still alive.

Mo Wu and the rest had already made another move. This time, they made sure that Master Bai couldn't survive again by aiming for his head.

"Shit." Master Bai cursed and unleashed everything he had.

A dazzling white light burst out of his body, transforming his figure into a hundred-meter-tall white owl. His appearance immediately frightened the nearby low-level ancient beasts.

Master Bai spread his wings, and his eyes glowed a bloody red. The entire space was instantly filled with a bloody stench and an aura of death.

Mo Wu and the others froze in place. Their faces turned pale when they looked into those pair of demonic eyes. They would never be able to forget this scene for the rest of their lives.

"It's time for all of you to pay your blood debts!" Master Bai roared.

All of a sudden, the space around Mo Wu and the others cracked, and countless pairs of bloody hands stretched out from the rifts, grabbing onto Mo Wu and the others.

"No!" Mo Wu and the others shouted in terror. They struggled hard to free themselves from the restraints, but it was all in vain. The more they moved, the tighter the restraints became.

Two streams of blood flowed from Master Bai's bloodshot eyes, staining his pristine white feathers crimson. He looked like a demonic beast from hell at that moment.

"Pact of Death?" Yao Huang looked at the scene in surprise. He didn't expect Master Bai to make a pact with death. The price Master Bai had to pay was, naturally, his soul.

A moment later, Mo Wu and the others were dragged into the rifts... More precisely, they were pulled into hell and vanished amidst their screams.

She glanced at Master Bai and pursed her lips. "Idiot. You actually exchanged your life for this?"

When the rifts vanished, Master Bai's gigantic body shook and slowly shrank, returning to its normal size. His entire body was drenched in blood, and his vitality was gradually leaving him.

Master Bai couldn't see anything now. His eyes were completely blind. He mumbled to himself. "Everyone, I have finally avenged you. Hehe. I can face all of you now... I'm sorry, Huian. I have no choice but to do this."

"Yun boy... Don't give up, no matter what... Otherwise, this master will come back to life to peck you to death..."

Master Bai could feel that his life was coming to an end. For someone who had nearly died before, death wasn't frightening. His only regret was that he couldn't live to see Yun Lintian ascend to the top and kill Ren Yuan.

Roar—

Several ancient beasts let out roars and rushed towards Master Bai. His body was considered the most exquisite delicacy in the world in their eyes. As long as they could devour him, their strength would improve by leaps and bounds.

A golden light flashed in space at that critical moment, followed by a dragon's cry.

"Roar!" An image of the Five-Clawed Golden Dragon appeared in the air and swallowed all the approaching beasts in one gulp.

At the same time, Jin Long had arrived beside Master Bai. He placed his hand on Master Bai's body, and his expression was not good. Master Bai was clearly dying...

Chapter 1766 Death Messenger

"It's useless." Yao Huang spoke. "He made a pact with death, exchanging his soul for the ability to kill the enemy he harbors a deep enmity towards... I'm curious. How did he visit the Nether Realm in the first place?"

Xian An frowned slightly. She had heard about the Nether Realm before. It was a mysterious place and a final destination for the deceased.

She looked at Yao Huang and asked. "Do you know how to stop it?"

"There is no way." Yao Huang shook his head. "The laws of the Nether Realm are not something we can interfere with."

Xian An stared at Yao Huang for a moment and asked. "You don't care about your butler at all?"

Yao Huang smiled and waved his hand. Instantly, an intense dark aura gathered around Yao Jie's head, and a miraculous scene appeared before Xian An.

Yao Jie, who was supposed to be dead, quickly regained his physical body. A moment later, he opened his eyes and bowed to Yao Huang. "Thank you for bringing me back, master. I was too careless just now."

Xian An was shocked. Yao Jie was clearly dead. How could he come back to life?

"Curious?" Yao Huang said with a faint smile. "I can tell you about it. He is a servant of darkness, created by the power of the Primordial Heaven Devouring Devil God. I can bring him back at any moment."

Xian An furrowed her brow. The power of the Primordial God was beyond her comprehension. No matter how hard she racked her brain, she couldn't understand or gain insight into it.

"We can start again." Yao Jie looked at Xian An coldly.

Xian An tightly grabbed her spear and prepared to fight.

Meanwhile, Jin Long tried his best to stabilize Master Bai's injuries. Even though it was useless, he didn't want to give up.

"Save your strength for the enemy," Master Bai uttered weakly. "Please help Yun Boy... Don't let anything happen to him..."

After finishing his sentence, Master Bai's breath gradually ceased... He departed from this world forever...

Jin Long's expression turned unsightly for the first time. He knew how close the relationship was between Yun Lintian and Master Bai. He didn't know what to say when Yun Lintian found out later.

Buzz—

All of a sudden, the space above Jin Long's head split open, releasing an aura of death that intensified the already frigid atmosphere.

Under everyone's gaze, a dark figure slowly emerged from the rift. This individual was dressed in a black robe from head to toe, which made it difficult to discern their features.

However, everyone could feel the terror of this person. Even Jin Long and Xian An couldn't help but shiver.

"Death Messenger." Yao Huang said in a low voice. This was the first time he had seen it with his own eyes.

The black figure ignored Jin Long and approached Master Bai's side. It pressed its dark hand against Master Bai's body and extracted his soul.

Master Bai's soul glanced at the figure in the black robe briefly before turning to Jin Long. "Don't forget what I said earlier."

Following that, the black-robed figure immediately pulled Master Bai's soul into the rift and vanished from the scene.

Yao Huang let out a long breath and said. "This must be a figure in the God Ascension Realm."

Xian An and Jin Long frowned slightly. The Death Messenger was undoubtedly in the God Ascension Realm, as its aura was similar to that of Xiao Ju, Lan Qinghe's maidservant.

The difference was that its aura was filled with death. It was several times more terrifying than Xiao Ju.

"Does he...?" Xian An frowned deeply. She felt that there was a way to save Master Bai.

"As long as you have the ability to go to the Nether Realm and snatch him back from the clutches of the Death God. Then, it's not possible to bring him back." Yao Huang spoke.

Xian An and Jin Long glanced at each other but said nothing. Unless Lan Qinghe came forward personally, it would be completely impossible for them to rescue Master Bai.

"He spent his life well." Yao Huang further stated. "One exchanged for five. It's worth it."

Xian An pointed her spear at Yao Huang and said. "Bring it on."

Yao Huang shook his head and said. "There's no point in fighting anymore. You can go."

Xian An frowned. "What do you mean?"

"I mean what I said." Yao Huang spoke. "I had no choice but to make a move under the threat of the Decree of Darkness. But now, I am certain that Mo Tian doesn't dare to use it here."

Jin Long picked up Master Bai's body and arrived by Xian An's side. He looked at Yao Huang and said calmly. "Your goal is to make us stay here. Why?"

Yao Huang smiled and asked. "How much do you know about the Divine Realm?"

Jin Long and Xian An remained silent at Yao Huang's question.

"Whoever allowed both of you to come here clearly wants to tie you with Yun Lintian's fate. I can say that this person's intentions are not good." Yao Huang looked at the two with pity.

"Explain it clearly." Xian An said coldly. She didn't believe that Lan Qinghe would harm her. There must be a reason behind this.

"Don't you think Yun Lintian's fate is strange?" Yao Huang asked. "He is clearly unaware of himself and lacks a clear life goal. All he has done so far is follow the path someone set up for him."

"What I said previously isn't wrong. He is someone who has everything handed to him on a silver platter. Even if he raises a question, no one can answer why he has to do all of this. He has no choice but to continue eating more in the hope of finding the answer."

"What are you trying to say?" Xian An was dissatisfied.

"Simple. He is merely a vessel, waiting to be taken away once he has completed his duty." Yao Huang said calmly. "And those who tie their fate with him will not end well."

"Is this the reason you easily gave away the Dark Pearl?" Jin Long seemed to have figured something out.

"Yes." Yao Huang revealed a cold smile for the first time. "Don't you think it's interesting when he realizes the truth? To see everything crumble before him. His faith, his life, everything is a lie."

Jin Long and Xian An immediately felt a chill running down their spines...

Chapter 1767 Crazy

It was at this moment that Jin Long and Xian An realized that everything Yao Huang had shown from the beginning to the present was an act!

Everything was an illusion he created to make people believe that he wasn't strong and was forced to make a choice by Mo Tian.

Jin Long stared solemnly at Yao Huang and asked. "How did you know? Was it because of the inheritance of the primordial devil god?"

The smile on Yao Huang's face grew wider as he replied. "Too bad, none of you have any clues about what is going on behind the scenes. And now you are tied with him. Hehe. Oh. What a pity. What a pity."

Xian An furrowed her eyebrows. "What is your goal exactly?"

"My goal?" Yao Huang chuckled. "Of course. To become a god who rules over the entire Primal Chaos. To achieve it, I am bound to step on some people's heads. For example, Yun Lintian and everyone here in the Divine Realm. They will become my sacrificial lambs."

"You are crazy." Xian An's face sank.

"Crazy?" Yao Huang looked at Xian An with a playful smile. "Have you ever been imprisoned for millions of years? Do you think I won't go crazy after all of this?"

As his voice fell, the surrounding darkness stirred wildly. Space began to collapse, giving birth to numerous spatial rifts.

"Listen, my children!" Yao Huang's voice echoed throughout the entire space. "It's time for us to show what we are capable of. Show them who we are. Show every single blade of grass and living being in this filthy world the immense pain and humiliation we have endured throughout the years!"

"Go. Let the world plunge into darkness forever!"

Roar—

Frenzied roars could be heard everywhere, causing Jin Long and Xian An to shiver. They could see that every ancient beast here had gone completely crazy.

Jin Long was the first to react. A golden flame erupted from within his body as he threw a punch. A gigantic Five-Clawed Golden Dragon emerged from the darkness, letting out a deafening cry.

Xian An had also made her move. She spun the spear, releasing a terrifying divine light as she thrust it towards Yao Huang.

"How naive." Yao Huang sneered. He didn't even bother to move his arms as two spatial rifts appeared before him, devouring both attacks from Jin Long and Xian An.

Jin Long seemed to anticipate this. As soon as he punched out, he had already retreated with Xian An towards the Fleeting Cloud Profound Ark, where his people were currently engaged in battle.

"Where do you think you're going?" Yao Jie quickly followed and swung a giant hammer at Xian An.

A power released by a lesser god should not be underestimated in the slightest. Xian An knew that she had no choice but to crash head-on.

Xian An's aura erupted. She thrust the spear forward to meet the oncoming attack. Several divine lights exploded from the spear, swarming towards Yao Jie.

BOOM!

A massive explosion occurred, causing the entire area to shake violently.

Jin Long seized this opportunity to pull Xian An over and activated his movement technique, quickly retreating to the profound ark in a few seconds.

"Get on!" Jin Long shouted at the twenty Divine Emperors, and everyone quickly returned to the profound ark.

Yao Jie wanted to give chase, but he was stopped by Yao Huang.

"No need to chase after them. They are not important." Yao Huang spoke. He raised his head slightly and gazed into the void. "Let them fight."

Yao Jie was slightly surprised but soon understood what Yao Huang was talking about. He followed Yao Huang's gaze and stayed silent.

Hongyue rushed all the way to the Moon God Realm after leaving the Devil Valley. Her speed was incredibly fast. Anyone who saw her at this moment would witness a red light streaking across the starry sky, resembling a meteor.

Behind her were Mo Tian and Mo Yan. They were moving at the fastest speed possible, but the distance between them and Hongyue did not shorten in the slightest. On the contrary, it was becoming wider and wider.

"We have been tricked." Mo Yan said with an unsightly expression. She now realized that Yao Huang had no intention of fighting Yun Lintian's group from the beginning.

Mo Tian had a gloomy expression on his face. He knew that his plan had failed miserably this time. The only thing that could save it was to capture Yun Lintian.

Buzz—

All of a sudden, a black flame erupted from within Mo Tian's body, and his speed increased significantly.

Mo Yan was startled. She didn't expect Mo Tian to burn his blood essence directly.

"What are you waiting for? We cannot let them escape." Mo Tian's cold voice startled Mo Yan awake.

Mo Yan gritted her teeth and burned her blood essence as well. Her speed increased significantly, and the gap between them and Hongyue quickly narrowed.

After this, their strength would temporarily falter. It was clearly unwise, but they had no choice.

Rumble—

All of a sudden, numerous golden thunderbolts descended from above, engulfing Mo Tian and Mo Yan in a fierce storm.

Mo Tian glanced at the thunderbolts and waved his hand, brushing them away effortlessly without slowing down.

Linlin continued to shoot lightning bolts at them in the hope of hindering their movement speed, but it was futile.

Hongyue knew there was a high chance that Mo Tian and Mo Yan could catch up to her. She didn't hesitate to contact Yue Hua and ask for help.

"Hmm?"

Suddenly, Hongyue noticed something ahead that made her heart sink even more.

At this moment, a group of people was standing in the path ahead. They were none other than Qin Juehai and his people!

Qin Juehai looked at Hongyue and spoke calmly. "Unexpectedly, you are still alive."

He shifted his gaze onto the Heaven Piercing Sword in Hongyue's hand, and a hint of greed appeared in his eyes.

"Go. Capture them." He spoke calmly, and Jian Lu and the other five Sword Adjutants quickly swarmed towards Hongyue...

Chapter 1768 Blood Moon In The Sky (1)

Mo Tian and Mo Yan's expressions didn't look good when they saw Qin Juehai's group appear. These people's presence would reduce the chance of capturing Yun Lintian.

The two of them quickly halted their tracks and observed the situation from a distance.

"What should we do now?" Mo Yan asked.

Mo Tian didn't say anything but continued to stare at Hongyue. Evidently, he would find an opportunity to take Yun Lintian away from her.

Seeing Jian Lu and the others approaching, Hongyue's expression grew cold. Her aura burst forth as she swung the Heaven Piercing Sword, creating a stunning crimson arc in space.

Jian Lu and the five Sword Adjutants didn't dare to underestimate Hongyue. They formed a sword formation and simultaneously struck their swords towards the oncoming attack.

BOOM—

The terrifyingly sharp auras from both sides collided, causing the entire area to tremble.

At that moment, Linlin leaped into the air and transformed into her true form. Golden lightning sparks burst forth from her body, transforming the entire area into a lightning field.

"Don't kill it." Jian Lu blocked the lightning bolts and glanced at Linlin. "We will extract her blood origin later."

The five Sword Adjutants immediately spread out and rushed towards Linlin in a flash.

"Big Sister Linlin," Qingqing shouted and soared into the sky. Her entire body transformed into a powerful tornado, unleashing numerous wind blades towards everyone.

Facing the combination of thunder and storm, the Sword Adjutants had no choice but to take a defensive stance.

They quickly crossed their swords, causing a massive divine barrier to materialize around them. This barrier effectively blocked the wind blades and thunderbolts completely.

Meanwhile, Jian Lu drew closer to Hongyue and swung the sword in his hand at her, unleashing a terrifying sword aura.

Hongyue felt a sharp pain in her soul, but she managed to endure it and swung her sword at the oncoming attack.

CLANG!

An ear-piercing sound echoed throughout the entire area, followed by an explosion.

Jian Lu was immediately sent flying by the impact. It was the first time he had experienced the terror of Hongyue.

"Die." Hongyue's cold voice resounded in Jian Lu's ears, and suddenly, a sharp red light flashed in the space before him.

Bang!

Jian Lu was sent flying once again, and a deep, cutting wound could be seen from his shoulder to his waist. Blood splashed in the air as Jian Lu managed to regain his balance several kilometers away.

Jian Lu's face was pale at this moment. If he had been a split second slower, his head would be flying in the air now.

At the same time, he felt ashamed in his heart. As Qin Juehai's protector, he was defeated by a single strike from Hongyue. This was unacceptable.

Jian Lu glanced at Qingqing and Linlin, who were surrounded by the Sword Adjutants, and didn't hesitate to rush towards them. Once Linlin and Qingqing were captured, it would definitely have a significant impact on Hongyue.

Hongyue was naturally aware of this fact. Her figure transformed into a streak of red light and appeared behind one of the five Sword Adjutants.

The Sword Adjutant hurriedly twisted his body and lifted his sword to block the incoming attack.

Crack! Bang!

The Heaven Piercing Sword instantly shattered the target's sword and cleaved through the Sword Adjutant's shoulder, all the way down to his waist. His body was almost severed in half from the strike.

"Argh!" The Sword Adjutants screamed in agony as blood gushed out like a leaking water bucket. He was rendered powerless directly by this attack.

Jian Lu quickly arrived beside Hongyue and swung his sword at her.

Hongyue didn't even look at him. She gently shook her wrist, causing the Heaven Piercing Sword to quickly shoot out of her hand and pierce Jian Lu.

Boom!

Jian Lu was once again sent flying several kilometers away.

In that instant, Linlin and Qingqing unleashed another onslaught of lightning and tempest upon the remaining four Sword Adjutants.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The Sword Adjutants tried their best to block the relentless attacks from Qingqing and Linlin. They were soon forced to step back.

Hongyue was about to take Linlin and Qingqing away, but suddenly, an overwhelming pressure emerged from behind.

Qin Juehai appeared behind her and swung his sword at her head. His action was so swift and powerful that it cut through space directly, splitting it in half.

Hongyue's expression changed. In that split second, her entire body emitted a crimson moonlight, creating a formidable shield to protect her and Yun Lintian in her embrace.

Rip—

Qin Juehai's sword struck the barrier and ripped it open. Although his attack couldn't reach Hongyue, the impact was enough to send her flying.

Qin Juehai moved swiftly and delivered another slash towards Hongyue.

Chi—

Qin Juehai's sword mercilessly cut through the wind and lightning barrier and struck Linlin.

Puff!

Blood splashed in the air as a horrifying wound appeared on Linlin's chest.

"Big sister!"

Qingqing cried in shock. She instinctively released a gust of wind towards Qin Juehai to push him away, but Qin Juehai reacted quickly. He threw a punch at Qingqing before she could fully unleash her power.

Bang!

Qingqing was sent flying, and her body contorted in an exaggerated shape. Her face turned ghastly pale, and she appeared as if she could die at any moment.

At that moment, Hongyue seized the Heaven Piercing Sword and forcefully swung it towards Qin Juehai's head.

Boom!

The collision between the two god emperors was capable of destroying stars. The impact instantly swept both of them away in opposite directions.

Hongyue groaned in pain as her arm was drenched in blood. However, she didn't care about it. She quickly used her divine power to pull Qingqing and Linlin over, preparing to leave.

At that crucial moment, Mo Tian and Mo Yan silently appeared above her and reached out to grab the unconscious Yun Lintian.

Hongyue's eyes immediately turned red upon seeing this. Her aura exploded, and a terrifying red moon appeared in the starry sky.

"Die!"

Chapter 1769 Blood Moon In The Sky (2)

It was as if time stood still. The entire world was painted in a bloody hue, filled with a terrifying aura of death, as if a god of slaughter had descended from hell.

The smell of death woke Mo Tian and Mo Yan from their trance, and they didn't hesitate to unleash everything they had to block whatever was coming.

Immediately, their entire bodies were enveloped in an intense dark aura, giving them the appearance of black cocoons.

Ripp—

The next moment, several menacing red lights flashed across space like an intricate net. Mo Yan and the others could feel a searing pain coursing through their bodies. It felt as though they were about to be shredded into pieces.

"Uwahhhh!" The Sword Adjutants were mercilessly sliced into minced meat by the terrifying power.

Jian Lu was fortunate to have Qin Juehai, who came to his aid in that split second.

Meanwhile, the barriers around Mo Tian and Mo Yan were ripped apart, revealing several cutting wounds on their bodies.

A wave of exhaustion flooded over Hongyue. She couldn't stay here any longer and took the opportunity to escape. Her speed was even faster than before. Obviously, she had burned everything she had.

Qin Juehai glanced at the remains of the Sword Adjutants with a gloomy expression. Losing five peak Divine Emperors at the same time could easily damage the foundation of the Sword God Realm.

A part of it was his fault. Qin Juehai planned to surround Hongyue and restrict her movement. Unexpectedly, Hongyue didn't hesitate to unleash her ultimate move, Blood Moon Slaughter.

However, he knew this meant Hongyue was now at the end of her rope. As long as he could catch up with her, she wouldn't be able to use the same trick for a second time.

Qin Juehai stepped onto the sword and shot towards Hongyue.

Jian Lu wanted to follow, but his injury held him back. He could only gather the remains of his comrades and hastily departed the scene.

As for Mo Tian and Mo Yan, they had completely lost the qualifications to pursue Hongyue.

"Damn it!" Mo Tian lost his composure completely. Everything had never gone according to his plans. There would always be an unknown factor that appeared whenever they got closer to capturing Yun Lintian.

"We should leave now." Mo Yan said solemnly. It would be unwise to stay in the Divine Realm any longer, given their current conditions.

Mo Tian clenched his fists in anger. He wanted to activate the Decree of Darkness several times but refrained from doing so. It wasn't the right time to use it.

Roar!

Suddenly, ferocious roars could be heard from all directions. Mo Tian and Mo Yan immediately noticed a horde of ancient beasts in the distance.

"He..." Mo Yan immediately understood that Yao Huang had given the order to these ancient beasts.

Mo Tian's eyes flickered slightly. He took a deep breath and said. "As expected from an old devil. We have been tricked by him like fools."

The appearance of the ancient beasts allowed Mo Tian to see everything clearly. Yao Huang must have known that Mo Tian wouldn't dare to use the Decree of Darkness here, so he used him as a hunting dog to corner Yun Lintian into a dire situation.

Moreover, it was something Mo Tian couldn't refuse. He had to chase after Yun Lintian no matter what, even though he knew he had been tricked.

"We should ask our ancestors about this." Mo Yan said cautiously.

Following that, they transformed into a streak of black light and disappeared into the void.

At the forefront of the horde of ancient beasts, the Fleeting Cloud Profound Ark was moving forward at the fastest speed possible.

Jin Long and Xian An stood on the deck and discovered signs of a battle in the path ahead. Clearly, a few people had lost their lives here.

Xian An glanced at Jin Long and asked. "What do you think about his words?"

Jin Long frowned slightly and said. "It's not something we can decide. Saintess Orchid will tell us herself."

"Before this, you told me it would be better to have no association with Yun Lintian. Why do I see that you have become fond of him lately?" Xian An asked.

"I believe in the vision of the Dragon Ancestor." Jin Long replied calmly. "Our ancestor bestowed upon him his soul, marrow, and blood. For us dragons, giving one of these three things to someone else is a form of trust."

He explained nothing further because he knew Xian An would understand it.

Xian An lowered her head slightly and spoke after a brief moment of contemplation. "If Yun Lintian's fate is as Yao Huang had predicted, I feel sorry for him. He doesn't seem to be aware that he is being used by someone."

"It's not necessarily true." Jin Long spoke. "Maybe he is fully aware of it but chooses to follow through."

Xian An raised her eyebrows slightly in surprise. "Are you sure?"

Jin Long offered no answer, but his expression was clear. He believed his own judgment.

Seeing this, Xian An glanced at the numerous ancient beasts behind her and raised her hand, gathering her divine energy. "I trust you on this one."

As her voice fell, several divine lights shot out of her hand and rushed towards the ancient beasts.

Rumble—

Many ancient beasts were slain by the divine lights, yet they appeared indifferent to the fate of their fallen comrades. They continued rushing forward and started spreading out, heading towards other realms.

"A bunch of crazies." Xian An muttered under her breath when she saw this scene. It seemed that millions of lives were about to perish soon.

Jin Long looked at the ten Divine Emperors behind him and said. "Do your best."

"Yes, master." The Divine Emperors responded in unison and quickly leaped out, charging towards the group of ancient beasts.

Xian An also said to her subordinates. "Go. Save as many people as you can."

"Yes." The ten female Divine Emperors flew off the profound ark and joined the battle.

Xian An turned her head to look at the path ahead and said. "I hope we can catch up to them in time."

Chapter 1770 Fallen

Outside the Moon God Realm, Yue Hua stood in the starry sky, gazing at the Everlasting Soul God Emperor, Ling Yongheng, with a serene expression.

"Please go back, senior." Ling Yongheng said calmly. He came here specifically to prevent Yue Hua from leaving the Moon God Realm and help Hongyue.

Yue Hua said expressionlessly. "Are you aware of the consequences?"

Ling Yongheng responded in a respectful manner. "Please forgive me, senior. I have to do it to ensure the prosperity of my own life and future generations."

Yue Hua went silent for a moment and let out a soft sigh. "I thought you would realize the truth over the years. In the end, you are still blinded by your own greed."

Being reprimanded like this, Ling Yongheng's expression didn't change at all. He replied admittedly. "There is no choice for me. In order to pursue a higher realm, the only way for me is to break out of this cocoon."

"Priestess..." Yue Qing, a female Divine Emperor standing behind Yue Hua, gave a reminder. Hongyue had been sending messages for help constantly for a while now. Her situation must be extremely bad.

To everyone's surprise, Yue Hua smiled and said to Ling Yongheng. "If you consider this the right path, you can go back now. I'm not leaving."

Ling Yongheng's eyes narrowed slightly. He stared at Yue Hua attentively and discovered that she didn't appear to be lying about it. Although he was puzzled, he fully believed in Yue Hua's words.

"Thank you for understanding this junior. Please take care of yourself." Ling Yongheng bowed slightly and vanished into the void.

Yue Hua briefly looked towards the west and said. "Let's go back."

Yue Qing wanted to say something but ultimately decided to remain silent. She couldn't understand Yue Hua's intentions at all, but she still obediently followed her back to the Moon God Realm.

Hongyue glanced at the transmission jade intermittently while she traveled through space. She furrowed her brows in frustration when she realized that no one had answered her.

Without a doubt, something must be happening in the Moon God Realm at the moment.

Hongyue immediately became more vigilant upon realizing this.

A moment later, she abruptly halted in her tracks. Her face turned incredibly cold as she spoke. "Ren Yuan."

At this moment, a figure emerged from the void. It was naturally the Heavenly Desolate God Emperor, Ren Yuan.

"I know it. A rat like you will never miss this chance." Hongyue said sarcastically. Her mind raced as she desperately searched for a solution to escape this predicament.

"When you died under my hands last time, I could sense that something was wrong. My intuition didn't lie to me, after all. You were not truly dead." Ren Yuan said calmly.

"I wouldn't be surprised if Cai Xieren and Xia Nongyue are still alive as well. This is getting interesting. I wonder who that mysterious person is to move under my nose perfectly."

Hongyue sneered. "Don't try to play your tricks here... It's good that you finally emerged from a sewer. I have been looking forward to this."

Her aura gradually gained momentum. It was as though a volcano that was about to erupt at any moment.

Ren Yuan smiled faintly and said. "Don't waste your efforts."

As his voice fell, an overwhelming pressure instantly enveloped Hongyue, rendering her unable to move.

Hongyue's expression changed dramatically. She tried to release her aura but discovered that there seemed to be something blocking her profound vein. She couldn't even harness her power in the slightest.

"You..." Hongyue stared at Ren Yuan with an unsightly expression. She immediately understood that Ren Yuan had now perfectly mastered the Heavenly Desolate Orb.

Back then, the power of the Heavenly Desolate Orb could only suppress one's strength to a certain extent. But this time, it could actually block one's profound vein directly... This kind of power shouldn't exist in the world!

"Do you expect me to not improve at all over the years?" Ren Yuan asked calmly.

Hongyue's heart grew cold. There was no way out for her... What should she do now?

Swoosh—

At this moment, Qin Juehai arrived at the scene. He glanced at Ren Yuan calmly as if he had anticipated his appearance beforehand.

"I need the swords." Qin Juehai spoke directly.

Ren Yuan glanced at him and said teasingly. "Your obsession with Jian Yun is quite something. No wonder you haven't had any women in your life."

Qin Juehai's face darkened. "Although I cannot fight you, it should not be difficult to create a chance for her to escape. Do you want to try?"

Ren Yuan smiled and waved his hand. Immediately, the Heaven Piercing Sword in Hongyue's hand and the seven elemental swords in Yun Lintian's body flew towards Qin Juehai.

A hint of delight appeared in Qin Juehai's eyes. He stretched out and grabbed the Heaven Piercing Sword.

Clang!

The Heaven Piercing Sword struggled violently and unleashed a frighteningly sharp aura. It left a deep, cutting wound on Qin Juehai's hand when he touched it.

The seven swords had also unleashed their power upon Qin Juehai.

"Hmph!" Qin Juehai snorted coldly. His aura erupted as he forcefully suppressed the swords.

Chi—

All the swords emitted ear-piercing sounds as they fiercely struggled to break free from Qin Juehai's suppression.

However, they could only last a few minutes, and their auras were eventually weakened.

Qin Juehai smiled coldly and tightly gripped the Heaven Piercing Sword. "Even your proud swords have fallen into my hands in the end. I wonder how you would feel, senior brother?"

Hongyue looked at the scene with an ugly expression. The worst situation had finally happened.

Qin Juehai nodded with satisfaction and turned to gaze at Hongyue. "Honestly, I don't understand why you chose to show up at this moment. Clearly, you haven't fully recovered."

Hongyue glared at him with a murderous intent, without saying anything.

Ren Yuan ignored them and waved his hand. Immediately, Yun Lintian flew out of Hongyue's embrace and came to Ren Yuan's side.

Ren Yuan looked at Yun Lintian and said. "It's time to harvest ripe fruit."

He fixed his gaze on the crown and reached out to touch it.

Buzz—

The moment Ren Yuan touched the crown, a bright black and white light shone upon it, dividing the world into a realm of black and white...
