Chapter 421 - The Shocked Wang Jue

Yun Lintian glanced at the sky and muttered. "This Hongyue did it again." He was dissatisfied with Hongyue's arrangement. It hadn't been two hours since the second round started yet.

A moment later, white light slowly enveloped Yun Lintian and Hua Wanru, sending them to the pagoda area.

Yun Lintian swept his gaze over the crowd, and he was surprised to see there were only thirty-nine people left... More than thirty-four people had been killed in the second round. This situation was severe more than he imagined.

Yun Lintian paused on Wang Jue and saw the latter had a proud smile on his face, which made Yun Lintian feel weird.

"There are twenty-six villagers and doctors left. We also don't know how many traitors are among us. This situation is not good." Yang Mengli said with a grim expression.

Yun Lintian didn't say anything and had a thoughtful expression on his face. No one knew what he was thinking at the moment.

"Welcome back, everyone. The second round is so exciting, don't you think so?" Hongyue stood with her arms crossed and looked at the crowd playfully.

The crowd glanced at each other, did not know what to say. However, compared to the first round, everyone was calmer this time.

Seeing everyone was silent, Hongyue clapped her hands and said. "Everyone knows the rules. Let the vote begin!"

Silence blanketed. No one spoke and kept looking around, waiting for someone to say first.

"What should we do now?" Hua Wanru asked through a sound transmission.

Yun Lintian replied instantly. "Just vote for Wang Jue. Tells everyone this."

Hua Wanru glanced at Lin Xinyao and saw the latter nod her head. She then hurriedly told her fellow sisters about it.

At this moment, Wang Jue suddenly said with a grin. "Yun Lintian! Do you have any last word?"

Yun Lintian swept his gaze over eight people besides Wang Jue. These people were Supreme Hall students. Obviously, they would support Wang Jue. Yun Lintian could see where Wang Jue's confidence came from.

He smiled faintly and said. "Me? Last word? Are you misunderstanding something? It should be you instead."

"Hahaha. Ignorant! Your death door has appeared before you, yet you are still acting cool. How ridiculous." Wang Jue laughed heartily. He turned to the crowd and said. "You might not know this. I have twenty votes in my hand right now. Do you think you can still win this?"

The expression of the crowd changed drastically. They glanced at each other and saw some of them avoided their gazes guiltily. Seeing this, they immediately understood what Wang Jue said was true.

"Ma Xuan! I didn't expect you to do this! Have you gone insane? Do you think he will spare you just because you joined him?" A slender girl scolded a tall man beside her. She was the Sky Hall student.

The tall man, Ma Xuan, lowered his head guiltily and said. "I have no choice. He threatened me to kill you."

"You! How can you be this stupid!?" The slender girl was furious to the point that her body trembled. She didn't know what to say anymore.

Wang Jue grinned satisfactorily and turned to Yun Lintian. "See? Everything is in my hand now. Do you think you can win this?" He glanced at the Frozen Moon Palace's disciples and continued. "All of you should obediently submit to me. Otherwise... hehe."

A few men beside Wang Jue cast their greedy gazes on the Frozen Moon Palace's disciples and started to fantasize about something unhealthy in their minds. They couldn't wait to start the third round now.

Yun Lintian looked at Ma Xuan and the other four Sky Hall students briefly. He was wondering how these people could enter the Sky Hall. Did Principal Tian blindly select them?

Yun Lintian turned to the slender girl and sent a sound transmission to her. "This sister. You can vote for Wang Jue with peace of mind. We will win this for sure."

The slender girl had a surprised look on her face and glanced at Yun Lintian in doubt. Although she had heard about Yun Lintian's deeds before, she didn't fully believe he could get out of this predicament so easily as he said.

Hongyue leaned on the lynching pole and looked at everyone boringly. Somehow, she felt the game wasn't fun anymore and said lazily. "I'll give all of you five seconds to confirm your vote. I will kill anyone who didn't confirm it."

Under Hongyue's threat, everyone hastily confirmed their votes and waited for the result.

Hongyue nodded her head with a satisfied smile and said. "Very well. I'll announce the result now... Oh? Interesting..." She took a glance at Wang Jue and Yun Lintian before saying. "The result is..."

As usual, Hongyue deliberately dragged her voice, causing everyone's body to tense up. They looked at her nervously.

Hongyue quickly turned to Wang Jue and said. "Congratulations to Mister Wang Jue. You got the first rank this time with a total of twenty-five votes!"

As her voice fell, everyone went silent and looked at Wang Jue blankly. Didn't he say he had twenty votes in his hand? How come he got twenty-five votes in the end?

"I-impossible! There must be something wrong!" Wang Jue couldn't believe in his ears and yelled angrily.

Hongyue squinted her eyes and said with dissatisfaction. "Are you doubting me?"

Wang Jue regained his composure and hurriedly shook his head. "N-no, Princess Hongyue. I'm not doubting you, but can you please recheck it? I think there is something wrong with this."

Hongyue snorted coldly. "Hmph! You really got twenty-five votes. Why don't you ask your people about it?"

Wang Jue's face was unsightly. He swept his gaze over the people beside him and finally paused on Li Na. "It's you! It's must be you!"

Facing Wang Jue's bellow, Li Na did not feel afraid of him in the slightest. On the contrary, a charming smile appeared on her lips. She looked at Wang Jue as if she saw a clown. "Yes. It's me."

Chapter 422 - Gone Mad

In everyone's eyes, Li Na was the most loyal subordinate of Wang Jue. They didn't expect her to betray him like this.

Meanwhile, a strange light flashed across Lin Xinyao's eyes. She took a glance at Yun Lintian and seemed to understand something.

Li Na touched her face gently and continued. "Since you already know I'm not a werewolf, do you think I will be stupid enough to help you?"

"You! How could you...." Wang Jue pointed at Li Na ramblingly. He had a lot of harsh words in his mind, but he knew it was useless now.

"Do you want to know how I did it?" Li Na smiled faintly. She released her mental power and said. "I just used my charm a little, and your underlings couldn't wait to climb onto my skirt. Hehe. They are so obediently, don't you think?"

Wang Jue ground his teeth in hatred. He glared at Li Na and said. "Do you know the consequence of this? Do you think my clan will let you go?"

Li Na covered her mouth and laughed elegantly. "I don't think your Wang clan will go against my Red Lotus Dancing Hall because of a mere third-rate young master like you. You know it well in your heart."

Wang Jue's face was alternated between red and blue. He could only point at Li Na and do nothing.

"Hey. Have you finished your last word?" Yun Lintian crossed his arms and looked at Wang Jue boringly.

Wang Jue turned his head to look at Yun Lintian and roared. "Shut up! My brother won't let you go. You better wash your neck cleanly!"

Yun Lintian scratched his ear and waved his hand impatiently. "Okay, okay. You hurriedly die then so I can leave this place faster." He turned to Hongyue and said. "Can you hurry up?"

Hongyue gave a fierce glare at Yun Lintian and waved her hand, bringing Wang Jue to the front of the lynching pole. "You have one minute to defend yourself."

Before Wang Jue could say anything, Yun Lintian interjected first. "You don't need to waste everyone's time. Be obedient and accept your death."

Wang Jue stared at Yun Lintian as if he wanted to eat him alive. He calmed down and turned to look at his underlings. "All of you have disappointed me."

A few people under Wang Jue lowered their heads and said nothing.

"However, I am not a petty person. As long as all of you help me, I am willing to forgive you. When we go out, I promise to give you more resources." Wang Jue said calmly. However, even a kid could see he was actually nervous deep down.

No one said anything, keeping their mouths shut.

Seeing this, Wang Jue was agitated. "You all should know me. Have I ever broken my promise?"

Li Na suddenly laughed aloud, as if she had just heard the funniest joke in the world. "You still have the audacity to say this? What did you say before? You would help me, wouldn't you? Didn't you plan to kill me in the end? Please, don't make your clan lose more face further. If today's story goes out, I'm afraid, your father will personally smash your corpse and erase you from the clan's lineage instead of avenging you."

"Shut up, bitch!" Wang Jue roared furiously. Deep down, he knew what Li Na said was likely to happen, but in order to survive, he couldn't just stand and do nothing.

Wang Jue swept over everyone and shouted. "If I died today, all of you can forget about your lives. My brother would never let all of you go!"

His words weren't entirely unreasonable. Yun Lintian, Lin Xinyao, and Li Na might not be afraid of his threat, but others were different. They were ordinary students without a solid background. There was no guarantee whether Wang Jun would spare them.

Yun Lintian seemed to see through their hesitation. He said. "You don't have to fear him. Wang Jun indeed has a powerful background, but trust me, he wouldn't dare to do anything recklessly in the academy... Of course, unless he doesn't want to live anymore."

Hearing this, everyone subconsciously felt it was true, as Yun Lintian said. The academy had a strict rule over this. Even if Wang Jun genuinely wanted to kill them, he would have to wait until they leave the academy. At most, they could just stay there to avoid him.

Wang Jue saw the confident look on everyone. His body turned cold instantly. He knew his life was over now. No matter how he tried, these people would never help him.

Hongyue shook her head boringly as she watched this scene. She felt Zhao Yebai was better than this idiot Wang Jue.

"It's time. Confirm your vote." Hongyue didn't care about Wang Jue anymore, even though he still had a few seconds left.

Everyone looked at Wang Jue and silently confirmed the votes.

"Since that's the case. Go die!" Before Hongyue could announce the result, Wang Jue suddenly roared and took out a metallic orb. He swiftly injected his profound energy into it, and the metallic ball immediately erupted with terrifying force, covering the surroundings instantly.

Li Na's face changed and hastily retreated while yelling. "It's Sky Destroying Bead!"

Although the crowd didn't know what the Sky Destroying Bead was, they knew they had to retreat as far as possible. Without hesitation, they hastily utilized their profound energy and executed every movement technique they had to escape from the place.

"Hahaha! Die! Die! All of you deserve to die!" Wang Jue roared madly, looking at the fleeing people with a hideous expression.

While everyone was escaping, Yun Lintian stood calmly in the place and glanced at Hongyue. "How long are you going to watch?"

Hongyue curled her lips and said. "Don't you think it's more exciting like this?"

Yun Lintian rolled his eyes and turned to look at the glowing metallic ball in Wang Jue's hand.. He wondered why Wang Jue didn't take it out to kill him before this. Was it because its area of effect was too large?

Chapter 423 - Forcibly Stopping The Bead

The terrifying pressure blanketed the entire space, and the air turned chaotic, followed by a horribly scorching heat. All the surrounding snow instantly vaped, filling the place with white mist.

"What are you doing, Brother Yun!?" Yang Mengli had retreated several meters away with her fellow sisters and saw Yun Lintian standing there as if he was in a daze. She couldn't help but shout aloud to remind him.

Yun Lintian turned to look at her with a smile and sent a sound transmission. "Don't worry about me. Just go."

Yang Mengli hesitated briefly and gritted her teeth, rushing out with everyone. Although she didn't know what Yun Lintian was going to do, since Yun Lintian said this, there shouldn't be any problem.

"Why don't you run?" Hongyue glanced at Yun Lintian and asked with a playful smile. "Do you really believe I will stop this?"

Hongyue stared at Yun Lintian deeply, as if she understood what he meant.

Amidst the white mist, Wang Jue's mad laughter could be heard. He was utterly lost his mind right now. The Sky Destroying Bead in his hand had turned into a mini sun and directly melted his entire arm. However, Wang Jue didn't seem to feel pain at all.

The mini sun gradually left Wang Jue and rose into the sky, illuminating the entire space with crimson light. Its body kept changing shape as if it was about to explode at any moment.

Yun Lintian glanced at the bright mini sun in the sky and frowned slightly. He was quite sure its area of effect could be more than a thousand kilometers once it was exploded. It was difficult to say whether these people could escape safely with their speed.

Thinking of this, the White Dragon Spear silently appeared in his hand. However, before he could make a move, Hongyue suddenly said. "It's useless. No need to waste your energy. Even if you use everything you have, it is impossible to stop it."

Yun Lintian glanced at Hongyue briefly and ignored her. Immediately, a powerful aura burst forth, and his entire body was instantly covered with a layer of fire and lightning.

"Hah!" Yun Lintian let out a loud cry and stomped on the ground while wielding the spear forward.

It was as if the White Dragon Spear had accepted its master's call. It immediately produced a resonant dragon's cry. A virtual white dragon showed up and coiled around the spear, staring at the mini sun in the sky.

Zzzii—

At this moment, countless lightning bolts suddenly appeared out of nowhere and formed into a giant lightning cage surrounding the mini sun.

A rare look of surprise appeared on Hongyue's face. She stared at Yun Lintian attentively while thinking to herself... What a surprise. He could actually control The Thunder to this extent in a short period.

The veins on Yun Lintian's right arm bulged out while his brows sank. He pulled the spear backward and exerted all of his strength before throwing it toward the mini sun.

The moment the spear left Yun Lintian's hand, it instantly transformed into a mighty fire dragon, accompanied by a ferocious dragon's cry. Its mouth widely opened and went straight into the mini sun.

Rumble—

As though an asteroid had exploded, an indescribable, apocalyptic storm radiated out to the surrounding space. The people who fled away felt as though they were hit by a heavy hammer and were directly sent flying.

In the sky, the fire dragon fiercely bit on the mini sun, intending to forcibly devour it. The crimson flame that was radiated from the mini sun gradually shrank its size and retreated back.

At the same time, the surrounding lightning cage swiftly reduced to the fire dragon's size, and the pressure had also reduced. A few breaths later, all the scorching heat and pressure had wholly vanished. Everything returned to its original calm.

Yun Lintian was currently drenched in sweats. His face was pale as a white sheet, and he forced himself to stand still while using his profound energy to retrieve his spear back.

Clap! Clap! Clap!

"Well done!" Hongyue clapped her hand and praised Yun Lintian. However, judging from her face, she didn't seem to impress much. It was as though she had already expected this result.

Wang Jue's laughter abruptly died down at this moment. He stared at the sky with his eyes widened open. Disbelief was written all over his face.

Thud!

Yun Lintian grabbed hold of the White Dragon Spear and pierced it to the ground, using it as a stretcher to help him stand steady. He glanced at Wang Jue and said. "What now?"

Yun Lintian's words brought Wang Jue back from his daze. He tremblingly turned around to look at Yun Lintian and tried to say something, but no sound came out. The Sky Destroying Bead was his last straw, and now that last straw had gone.

Swoosh!

One by one, all the people who fled away earlier had returned to the square and looked at Yun Lintian in amazement. They were clearly aware of what Yun Lintian had done. It turned out the rumor about him was true.

The twelve werewolves among the crowd looked at Yun Lintian with fear. They seemed to see their fates already. Sadly, no matter how desperate they were, they couldn't possibly escape from this.

Hongyue glanced at Wang Jue and said. "It's time."

Without waiting for Wang Jue to react, Hongyue waved her hand and hung him directly. Wang Jue was so lifeless as if his soul had left his body the moment the Sky Destroying Bead disappeared. He didn't even struggle a bit until his last breath. The young master of the Wang clan died just like that.

Silence descended after Wang Jue's death. It wasn't because they didn't want to make a sound, but they didn't know what to say at the moment. While villagers and doctors were relieved, the werewolves were completely opposite.. They had discussed via the sound transmission, preparing to kill the villagers and doctors as much as possible.

Chapter 424 - The First Princess

Hearing this, Yun Lintian chuckled and said. "I'm not surprised about this at all. You have ruined the essence of the game since the moment you decided to give werewolves the ability to detect their own kind."

Hongyue's brows raised slightly and said. "I want to make werewolves advantage and kill more of villagers. Why is it wrong?"

Yun Lintian shook his head. "You probably heard about this werewolf game from somewhere else and never played it by yourself before. Am I correct?" Seeing Hongyue was silent, Yun Lintian said further. "The true essence of this game is relying heavily on the secret of the role. You have to let everyone figure out the opposite party's role by gathering the clue bit by bit. That will make the game more interesting."

"What you did is not only destroy the charm of the game but also make everything easier. For example, I have attached something to Li Qiang, a werewolf, and let him find other werewolves. After that, I can secretly follow him and deal with all the werewolves he met. Don't you think it's too easy?"

Hongyue pursed her lips and said annoyingly. "That's because your strength is ridiculously strong."

Yun Lintian spread his arms with an innocent look on his face. "Since you know this, you shouldn't do this in the first place. I thought you let me win the game."

Hongyue snorted and waved her hand. "Don't play this game anymore. We will move to the next stage right away."

Hearing this, the werewolves immediately let out a sigh of relief. They didn't have to wait for their deaths anymore.

"Since you appeared before, you have never told us what's the reward is. Why should we participate in this stupid game of yours?" Yun Lintian asked directly. He looked around briefly and said. "Did anyone encounter a treasure in this place?"

The crowd glanced at each other and shook their head one by one. Before coming here, they had learned that there were countless treasures in this place, but they didn't find a single trace of them until now.

Yun Lintian turned to Hongyue and said. "You must hide them somewhere, right?"

Hongyue gave a fierce glare at Yun Lintian and said. "Of course, I have a lot of treasures here." Following that, she waved her hand, and several stacks of precious magical plants and materials appeared before everyone.

This massive amount of treasures immediately blinded everyone and invoked their inner greed. As long as they got a single stack of them, their strength would undoubtedly increase by leaps and bounds.

"As long as you pass the next stage, these will be your rewards." Hongyue crossed her arms and nodded her head in satisfaction upon seeing the greed in these people's eyes.

Sure enough, people die for wealth, and birds die for food. They had instantly forgotten the earlier horrible experience when they saw the treasures.

Yun Lintian looked at these stacks of treasures and sneered. "Are you kidding me? These things didn't worth much at all compared to what you have done to us."

Hongyue frowned slightly and said in dissatisfaction. "What do you want, then?"

Yun Lintian smiled faintly as if he had waited for this sentence for a long time. "Simple. I want everyone to have the right to leave this place as they want. Of course, on the premise that they could pass the next stage."

Everyone's eyes lit up when they heard this. They secretly gave Yun Lintian a thumb up in their hearts. Not everyone loves treasures. If it was possible, they would choose their life over a treasure.

Hongyue went silent for a moment and said. "Very well. I agree with it. But..." A playful smile appeared on her face as she said further. "But the next stage will be ten times more difficult. I hope everyone can pass it. Hehe."

The expression of the crowd changed drastically. They subconsciously looked at Yun Lintian, hoping he could say something about this.

However, what surprised them was that Yun Lintian actually nodded his head. "Sure."

The smile on Hongyue's face grew wider when she heard this. She quickly waved her hand, and Wang Jue's corpse, along with the lynching pole, immediately disappeared from the spot.

She then glanced at the crowd and said. "Follow me." Afterward, the pagoda's gate slowly opened, and Hongyue gradually disappeared into the pagoda.

The crowd glanced at each other, did not know whether to follow.

"Go. Do we look like we have a choice?" Yun Lintian chuckled and quickly followed Hongyue into the pagoda.

Lin Xinyao said nothing and followed suit with Yang Mengli, Hua Wanru, and her fellow sisters.

Seeing this, the crowd did not hesitate anymore and swiftly walked into the pagoda.

When Yun Lintian stepped into the pagoda, he appeared in a spacious hall with several doors on both sides. The interior was decorated with an ancient stone mixing with countless precious jades that Yun Lintian didn't know.

There was an exquisite throne at the innermost of the hall, with a moon symbol carved on the wall behind it. Yun Lintian could feel a majestic aura exude from it, making him want to kneel down.

Plop!

Some people among the crowd could not stand its aura and directly knelt down on the ground. Their entire bodies were drenched in cold sweats, and they could not raise their heads no matter how hard they tried.

While others were suffocating by the majestic aura, Lin Xinyao did not seem to be affected at all. On the contrary, she felt the aura was extremely familiar, but she still could not pinpoint out.

Of course, she had thought about her mother's origin, but the information she had was too small to connect the dot between this place and the Divine Moon Clan.

At this moment, Hongyue walked toward the throne and sat down comfortably. She swept her gaze over the crowd and said with a smile. "Welcome to the Moon Palace. Let me introduce myself again. My name is Hongyue, the first princess of the Divine Moon Clan."

Chapter 425 - Fighting Own Shadow

While Yun Lintian and Lin Xinyao looked at each other in shock, the rest had confused expressions on their face. They had never heard about the Divine Moon Clan before.

Hongyue did not intend to explain anything. She changed her sitting posture to be more comfortable and said. "Do you see the doors in this place?"

Everyone put their confusion aside and looked at several doors on both sides.

"The next stage is simple. You have to choose one door to enter and conquer the thing inside." Hongyue said expressionlessly. Her gaze swept over Yun Lintian and Lin Xinyao briefly, as if she had something on her mind.

A tall man behind Yun Lintian suddenly raised his hand and asked cautiously. "Princess Hongyue, can you tell us what kind of thing is in there?"

Hongyue curled her lips and said. "I can only tell all of you this. It will be something you fear the most."

Yun Lintian's brows raised slightly. He could roughly guess about it. It should be a kind of illusion trial.

"Since everyone is ready, you can start now." Hongyue waved her hand impatiently.

The crowd looked at each other with hesitation. No one dared to step out.

Yun Lintian thought for a moment and turned around to look at the crowd. "Everyone should prepare yourself first before choosing the door. I'll enter first."

Before walking away, Yun Lintian sent a sound transmission to Lin Xinyao, Yang Mengli, and Hua Wanru. "This should be a kind of illusion trial. You should pay attention to your mental power."

The three women did not know how Yun Lintian knew about it, but they still nodded their heads and sat down, adjusting their conditions to the best.

Looking at several doors on the wall, Yun Lintian didn't even carefully check on it and randomly chose one to enter under Hongyue's playful gaze.

Yun Lintian opened the door and walked into it. A moment later, he found himself standing in a white room with no ventilation.

Just as he looked around, the room suddenly turned completely dark before returning to its original state again. However, Yun Lintian found a person standing not far away before him this time. He was instantly taken aback upon seeing this person's features.

"This is too cliché, right?" Yun Lintian's mouth twitched. The person who stood before him had everything similar to him. It was as if he had stood in front of a mirror.

Before entering this place, Yun Lintian had already expected this. According to the novels he had read, when it came to the illusion trial, the protagonist would always face his clone, followed by the cliché narration like 'He never fears anything, except himself.'

Yun Lintian wanted to protest that he feared many things, such as ghosts or flying cockroaches. Why did Hongyue give him this clone?

Without waiting for Yun Lintian to lament further, a spear that was a hundred percent resembled the White Dragon Spear silently appeared in the clone's hand. Yun Lintian's clone skillfully wielded it a few times before pointing it at Yun Lintian with a wicked grin on his face.

Yun Lintian was speechless and wanted to complain that his grin wasn't as ugly as this. However, when he was about to make a move, the clone had already thrust the spear toward him while releasing a horrible crimson flame.

"Shit! Using a big move in the open right away? That's not me at all." Yun Lintian hastily dodged to the side with Shadow Step as he recognized this move from the clone. It was no other than one of his trump cards, Imperishable Flame.

The clone seemed to predict Yun Lintian's move beforehand. When the latter executed Shadow Step, the clone had also done the same and reappeared beside Yun Lintian like a ghost.

Yun Lintian was amazed by the clone's swift reaction. It was like the clone could read his mind. Without hesitation, Yun Lintian took the White Dragon Spear out and lung forward to the incoming spear.

Boom!

The collision between the two spears ended up a draw, and both of them were sent flying. When they were about to land, both of them pierced their spears on the ground, serving as a pole for stabilizing themselves.

Following that, they executed Shadow Step simultaneously and met in midair. The spears in their hands were brought forward and burst out with tyrannical dragon's cries.

Roar—

Two lightning dragons immediately intertwined, trying to bite each other off. Once again, the result ended up a draw. Yun Lintian and the clone bounced off and landed steadily on the ground.

A frown appeared on Yun Lintian's face. After two crashes, he could feel the clone's execution was more perfect than his. The only reason he could draw with the clone was that he had a better physique.

Yun Lintian swung his spear and muttered. "Let's see how strong you are."

Yun Lintian didn't intend to drag this battle on. His mind moved, and lightning sparks instantly appeared around him. He was going to finish the clone with The Thunder.

In the next moment, a look of shock appeared on Yun Lintian's face as he saw the clone had also similarly mobilized The Thunder.

When the clone took the White Dragon Spear out, Yun Lintian did not feel anything as it was an item. However, The Thunder was entirely different. It was a unique existence in the whole world. This made him wonder whether the clone could summon the Gate of Beyond Heaven.

There was no time to think further. Yun Lintian immediately injected all of his profound energy into this attack.

The whole space rumbled, and countless python-like lightning danced wildly in the air. At this moment, Yun Lintian and the clone were like thunder gods. They stared at each other, waiting for the opposite part to act first.

"Since you don't move, then let me." Yun Lintian curled his lips and pointed his finger toward the sky.. Instantaneously, all the lightning pythons accepted his command and rushed toward the clone.

Chapter 426 - One-Tenth Power

Facing the overwhelming lightning tide, the clone did not flinch in the slightest. He suddenly pointed his finger toward the sky in a similar fashion as Yun Lintian. Immediately, the lightning pythons on his side swarmed forward and directly crashed with Yun Lintian's.

Zzzii—

Lightning sparks flashed, producing numbing noises to fill the space. Yun Lintian's expression was solemn as he looked at the lightning tides crashing with each other. Droplets of sweat could be seen on his forehead. He suspected Hongyue had secretly done something again. The clone was clearly weaker than him in terms of physique, yet he could endure the heavy energy consumption of The Thunder this long.

Hongyue! Just you wait! Yun Lintian roared angrily in his heart. He suddenly threw the White Dragon Spear in the air and swung his leg, performing a powerful kick on the bottom of the spear's shaft and sending it to the clone.

The clone hastily retreated with Shadow Step and wielded his spear to the front before thrusting it at the incoming white dragon.

Bang!

The clone successfully swashed the White Dragon Spear away, but his pupils instantly shrank upon seeing two golden beads appear a meter away from him.

"Goodbye, Brother Clone!" Yun Lintian laughed heartily and vanished into the Gate of Beyond Heaven.

Rumble—

The Thunder Beads instantly exploded, making the surrounding space distorted. The clone did not do anything and let himself swallow by the explosion.

In the hall outside, Hongyue grabbed the armrest and gnashed her teeth furiously upon seeing this scene. "This shameless brat!"

It was as Yun Lintian thought, Hongyue had secretly done something on his clone. She had personally controlled Yun Lintian's clone and even injected a portion of her power into it. However, she didn't expect him to use such a method to win.

Hongyue panted a few times and let out a sigh. "Forget it. I'll let him go once."

At this moment, Yun Lintian was sitting in the living room and leisurely sipping an ice tea. He gently stroked Linlin's back while listening to Yun Ruanyu, who sat opposite him.

"Principal Tian's idea is good. Not only can you get out of the limelight but also have an opportunity to go to the Central Continent. However, you have to create a new identity to avoid suspicion from others. You have created enmity with the Wang clan, after all." Yun Ruanyu said after hearing Yun Lintian's next plan.

On the side, Yun Meilan added. "We are lacking a new generation Cloud Shadow team. I plan to recruit another one hundred people in a while."

Yun Lintian put the teacup down and said. "It seems we need to take more people in if we need to expand further."

With the addition of the children he saved from the Peng clan, there were around one thousand and five hundred people in the Misty Cloud Sect now. Yun Lintian believed this number was not enough. He would definitely go to other continents and establish more intelligence networks in the future. Hence, he must take more people in and train them into the Cloud Shadow team members.

Yun Lintian glanced at Yun Ruanyu and said. "We will talk about this later. It's time for me to go out now."

"Leave it to me." Yun Ruanyu nodded her head.

"Are you leaving now, Big Brother Yun?" Linlin got off of Yun Lintian's laps and asked sadly.

Yun Lintian smiled and said. "Don't worry. Big brother will come back soon."

Linlin reluctantly nodded and watched Yun Lintian vanish into the Gate of Beyond Heaven.

In the next moment, Yun Lintian found himself in a familiar white room. Except for some traces of the battle, there was nothing to be seen here.

Creak!

Suddenly, the door was gradually opened, and Yun Lintian did not hesitate to walk out of the room. Soon, he appeared in the hall and saw Hongyue glare at him fiercely.

Yun Lintian shrugged his shoulders. "You can't blame me for this."

Hongyue snorted coldly. "Hmph! It was this princess who let you go. Otherwise, you can forget about leaving that room."

Yun Lintian gave a chuckle. He looked around and did not see anyone here. Evidently, he was the first one to come out.

Since there was no one around, Yun Lintian felt it was the time to talk about Hongyue's background. He turned to look at her and asked. "You are the first princess of the Divine Moon Clan. I'm curious. How did you appear here? Why is this small world contains so many powerful figures?"

A strange light flashed across Hongyue's eyes. She smiled faintly and said. "Why don't you tell me your thoughts on this matter?"

Yun Lintian thought for a moment and said. "The person who arranged everything must be someone you know."

Hearing this, Hongyue laughed slightly. "Isn't it obvious? Of course, we know this person very well... Oh right. Except for that mortal who guarded The Sun. What's his name again? I forgot already."

"Yan Qi." Yun Lintian replied.

Hongyue nodded her head. "Right. Yan Qi. If it wasn't because that Old Bastard Huo had died early, he wouldn't be lucky like this."

"You called that lucky?" Yun Lintian was speechless. If he was Yan Qi, he would never agree to take this duty. Who would want to throw their life away like that?

"Of course. It's lucky." Hongyue curled her lips. "Forget it. You are an ignorant brat, after all. Wait until you leave this world. You will understand what I said today."

Hongyue adjusted her sitting posture and changed the topic. "I saw how you use The Thunder earlier. I admit you are quite capable." Just as Yun Lintian was about to smile proudly, Hongyue said further. "To be able to draw one-tenth of The Thunder's power out in such a short time isn't easy at all. Even the previous Beyond Heaven King couldn't do it."

Yun Lintian was stunned for a moment... What did he hear again? One-tenth? That was only one-tenth of it? How strong was full power then?

Chapter 427 - The Pinnacle-Level Treasure

Seeing Yun Lintian's expression, Hongyue mocked. "Sure enough. You are just an ignorant brat. Do you think the universe's lightning element source is weak? How naïve you are."

Yun Lintian was taken aback and repeated in shock. "Universe's lightning element source?"

Before this, Yun Lintian had always thought The Sun and The Thunder were at most one of the top element sources, not the pinnacle level one, as Hongyue said.

However, he couldn't be blamed for this since there was no information related to it in the Library, and Lynn's database had somehow been deleted.

Yun Lintian's heart grew heavy. This was the first time he felt this way since he received the Beyond Heaven King's inheritance. Although he was aware there was a huge conspiracy behind this arrangement, he believed he could handle it. But now... Universe-level? Wouldn't he become a target of everyone in the universe later?

Hongyue seemed to see through Yun Lintian's thought. She chuckled and said. "Now you know what you have in your hand. Hehe. It won't be too long before you become a common target for every lifeform in the universe... So, you better stop playing around and strive for greater power."

Yun Lintian sighed helplessly. "It's not like I don't want to increase my strength, but you see. I have to suppress my strength in order to enter this place. Tell me. How am I supposed to do?"

"That's your concern. Not mine. Figure it out by yourself." Hongyue responded casually.

Yun Lintian's mouth twitched. This little girl was truly irresponsible. He changed the topic. "How can I obtain The Moon?"

When Yun Lintian walked into the hall, the first thing he did was look for The Moon, but he didn't find anything likely to be it here.

"Why are you so hurrying? There is the last stage I specially prepare for you. If you can pass it, The Moon will eventually appear before you." Hongyue curled her lips. Her eyes flashed with a conspiracy.

Yun Lintian stared at Hongyue for a moment and said. "Look like you have stayed in the place for too long."

Hongyue laughed slightly. "I have been in a sleep state for thousands of years. Of course, I have to entertain myself a bit after waking up."

Yun Lintian didn't say anything further because he knew Hongyue would never answer his question related to the Beyond Heaven King or the mysterious person who created this place.

Creak!

At this moment, Lin Xinyao gradually walked out of the room on the right side. Judging from her dainty appearance, it seemed she didn't spend much effort in defeating her opponent.

Lin Xinyao didn't feel surprised seeing Yun Lintian here. She simply walked to his side and looked at Hongyue silently. However, the look in her eyes expressed everything. She wanted to know about the Divine Moon Clan badly.

Hongyue tilted her head to look at Lin Xinyao, and her expression softened slightly. "What is your mother's name?"

Lin Xinyao hurriedly replied. "My mother is Yue Xiqian, Your Highness."

"Yue Xiqian? That little girl?" A look of surprise appeared on Hongyue's face. However, she didn't offer any further explanation, making Lin Xinyao lower her head in disappointment.

Creak!

Suddenly, many doors opened one by one, and Yang Mengli, Hua Wanru, and others gradually stepped out of the rooms. They did not seem to suffer much, which made Yun Lintian speechless. Looked like he was the only one who faced a powerful opponent.

Hongyue swept her gaze over everyone and said with a faint smile. "Congratulations. All of you have passed the test. You can take these treasures and choose to leave now." She paused for a moment and continued. "Of course. If anyone wants to stay further and accept the next test. I don't mind about it. Naturally, the rewards will be greater."

The crowd immediately became hesitant upon hearing this. They didn't spend much effort on the earlier test, which boosted their confidence significantly... Perhaps they could earn more?

However, not everyone thought the same. More than ten people retrieved their rewards and expressed their desires to leave. A while later, only seventeen people were left in the hall, including Yun Lintian, Lin Xinyao, Yang Mengli, and Hua Wanru.

Yun Lintian turned to Yang Mengli and said. "Sister Yang, you should leave with Sister Hua and your fellow sisters. Trust me. It's not worth it."

Yang Mengli pondered for a moment and nodded her head. She looked at Lin Xinyao and asked. "What about you, Senior Sister Lin?"

Lin Xinyao responded. "You can leave first. I will stay here. When you go out, immediately contact Master and tell her about the situation here."

Yang Mengli stared straight into Lin Xinyao's eyes and saw a firm determination in them. She didn't say anything further and left the mythical realm with Hua Wanru and seven fellow sisters.

In the end, there were only seven people left in the hall. Excluding Yun Lintian and Lin Xinyao, the other five mainly came from Supreme Hall and Starlight Hall.

Hongyue glanced at the five people behind Yun Lintian and said with a playful smile. "Good! There are five bravadoes here. I can enjoy the show a bit more."

The five men immediately glanced at each other. They suddenly felt they had just made the worst decision in their life.

"Very well. Let's the game begin." Hongyue didn't explain anything about the next stage but simply raised her hand. Instantly, Yun Lintian and others felt their heads heavy before slumping unconscious onto the ground.

Hongyue looked at the unconscious Yun Lintian and muttered faintly. "I hope you can realize what you have lost."

Swoosh!

Yang Mengli and Hua Wanru appeared at the Frozen Moon Mythical Realm's entrance. They quickly walked toward Han Luo to report the situation.

"The first princess of the Divine Moon Clan?" After listening to Yang Mengli's brief narration, Han Luo frowned in confusion. She had never heard anything about this before.

The slender woman beside her suddenly interjected. "Sister Luo, we should report Palace Master right away. Wang Jue had lost his life here. I'm afraid the Wang clan would come to us for an explanation."

Chapter 428 - Cloud Shadow (1)

China, Hangzhou City, 2018

At the end of spring and summer's arrival.

This season, the temperature difference between Hangzhou City's day and the night was huge. During the day, even if one was wearing shorts, he could heat up like a hot dog; yet during the night, he had to curl up on his bed, freezing like a cold bird.

Five o'clock in the evening was exactly when people came to buy ingredients for their dinners. At this moment, the market street was bustling with people. Hawkers continued to shout while customers tried to bargain for a few yuan discount.

At the end of the street, a small group of people gathered in a circle, looking at an old man in his seventies lying on the ground with his hand clutched on his chest. Although they felt the old man was genuinely in pain, no one dared to help him recklessly. After all, there were countless cases where people were deceived by a swindler.

"Please... call an ambulance." The old man spoke pleadingly with difficulty. He didn't get angry seeing the crowd do nothing as he understood their thoughts. However, he was indeed in pain. If he hadn't reached the hospital in time, he might lose his life here.

Right now, he was regretting coming here by himself. He planned to stroll around after staying home for several months, but he didn't expect his old wound would act up at this moment.

Before the crowd could react, a tall, handsome man squeezed through them and arrived by the old man. The first thing he did was press the old man on the ground and check his pulse. Later, he pressed his ear on the old man's chest and closed his eyes slightly, appearing concentrating on something.

A moment later, he raised his head to glance at the crowd and shouted loudly. "What are you guys doing? Call the ambulance!"

People were jolted awake by his roar and hurriedly took their phones out, calling for the ambulance.

The man ignored the crowd and turned to the old man. "Old man. Your heart is clearly having a serious problem. Why did you come out alone? And where is your rtPA pill?"

The old man immediately realized that the young man in front of him was a doctor. He replied with difficulty. "I have sneaked out myself and forgot to take the pill with me."

The man was speechless. "How old are you now? Why did you still sneak out? Your family shouldn't lock you up in prison, right?"

The old man wanted to say something, but he saw the man raise his hand to stop him. "Don't talk. All you need to do right now is take a breath slowly. Come on. Inhale.... And exhale."

The old man subconsciously did as the man said, and he felt the pain in his chest had reduced a bit.

Five minutes later, a siren sound could be heard from afar. The crowd gradually stepped aside, letting a white ambulance pass through.

The ambulance's door opened, and two beautiful female doctors stepped down hurriedly. Leading one was a mature woman in her early thirties. Her figure could be described as seductive. The loose white gown she wore could not hide her sexy curves. Especially the two bountiful mounds in the front. They were truly extraordinary.

Following behind her was a young woman in her twenties. Judging by her movement, she should be an intern.

The matured woman walked toward the old man and squatted down, trying to check his pulse. However, she heard the man on the side say. "His pulse is fine. You should take him to the hospital and clear the blood clot on the right ventricle as soon as possible. Otherwise, he would be beyond help."

It was at this moment did the matured woman noticed the man. She raised her head to look at him, and her eyes immediately widened open in shock. "You... Lintian!?" The matured woman uttered in disbelief.

The man, Yun Lintian, smiled warmly as he responded. "Long time no see, Sister Ye. You are as beautiful as ever."

The matured woman, Ye Ling, quickly adjusted her mood and asked. "How did you appear here? You are clearly...."

Yun Lintian quickly waved his hand. "This is not the time to start a conversation. We should take the old man to the hospital first."

Ye Ling nodded her head in embarrassment. "Right." She turned to look at the young intern and said. "Little Cai, go get the portable stretcher. We need to move the patient now."

Although the young intern, Cai Yaoyao, was curious about Yun Lintian's identity, she could not ignore her duty and quickly went to the ambulance to pick up the stretcher.

A few seconds later, she returned with a long stretcher and quickly put it down.

Yun Lintian and Ye Ling hurriedly lifted the old man onto the stretcher without fastening the belt before moving him to the ambulance.

After arranging the old man, Ye Ling turned to look at Yun Lintian and said while showing a QR code on her phone. "Can you give me your new WeChat?"

Yun Lintian smiled faintly and took his phone out to scan the QR code. He said. "Sister Ye. This old man needs to do an operation as soon as possible. I believe you understand what I mean."

Ye Ling's expression immediately turned serious. She nodded her head firmly. "Don't worry. I will send his information to you later."

Ye Ling took a deep look at Yun Lintian for a while before getting into the ambulance and setting off.

Yun Lintian patted the dust out of his old jeans while looking at the disappearing ambulance with a faint smile. Following that, he turned around and walked away toward a small street on his left side.

What Yun Lintian didn't know was that everything he did was being watched by a few people hiding in the crowd...

Chapter 429 - Cloud Shadow (2)

In the ambulance, Cai Yaoyao couldn't hold her curiosity further and asked cautiously. "Sister Ye, who is he? Why do I feel he is familiar?"

Ye Ling stared at the monitor beside her and remained silent. A look of recollection appeared on her face as if she was thinking of something in the past.

A while later, she turned to look at Cai Yaoyao and said. "His name is Yun Lintian."

Cai Yaoyao slowly nodded her head while repeating Yun Lintian's name in her mind. Suddenly, her complexion abruptly changed, and her mouth was agape. "Y...Yun Lintian? That genius surgeon Yun Lintian!?"

Ye Ling smiled faintly. "It's him."

Cai Yaoyao's mouth parted and closed many times, trying to say something, but no word came out in the end. Her mind was in a mess as she recalled the legend of Yun Lintian.

Yun Lintian graduated from the top medical university and started his journey as a surgeon at 21 years old, which was extremely young compared to an ordinary doctor.

Throughout his seven years of service, he had operated more than a thousand cases, and none of them ended up with a failure. He was probably the only one in this world who had a one hundred percent success rate.

Since then, his legendary deeds had been madly circulated in the medical circle. Countless young doctors had him as an idol to look up to.

However, three years ago, he suddenly decided to quit, giving himself a retirement, and disappeared from the circle. Many forces had been looking for him, but none of them could find him. No one knew why he chose to retire at such a young age.

There was a rumor said he had offended a powerful family and was forced to leave his job. Other stories were that he had been recruited into the country's secret organization. In the end, he had become history and faded into the passage of time.

Cai Yaoyao was a die-hard fan of his. It could be said she became a doctor, mainly because of him. When she was young, her mother had been diagnosed with Heart Valve Regurgitation. Her condition at that time was severe; no doctor dared to operate on her as they believed she was deemed to die.

Amidst despair, Yun Lintian had popped out of nowhere and brought her mother into the operation room right away. The operation that was deemed to fail was successful in his hand, and her mother had completely recovered.

Later, Cai Yaoyao learned that Yun Lintian happened to visit the hospital that her mother was in for regular medical knowledge exchange and coincidentally saw her mother's case. Since then, His tall and handsome appearance has been imprinted deeply in Cai Yaoyao's heart until today.

Cai Yaoyao calmed down and asked. "Sister Ye. Why did his...."

Before Cai Yaoyao could finish her sentence, Ye Ling interrupted. "You want to ask why did he look different from the past?"

Cai Yaoyao nodded her head gently. Although Yun Lintian was still handsome as before, the difference between him and his image in her mind was too significant. If the previous Yun Lintian was described as a clean, attractive man full of confidence, the current Yun Lintian was shrouded with a gloomy aura, filled with vicissitude. It was as though he had been through countless despairs to the point he grew numb about it.

A look of reminiscence flashed across Ye Ling's eyes. She sighed while shaking her head. "Actually, I don't know as well. I lost his contact since he left last time."

Cai Yaoyao didn't linger on this topic further and asked curiously. "Judging from the conversation earlier. You two seem very close. Can you tell me more about him, Sister Ye?"

Ye Ling looked at Cai Yaoyao's eager expression and smiled softly. She naturally knew about Cai Yaoyao's mother's incident back then. It was understandable why Cai Yaoyao was so excited.

"He and I can be considered close co-workers. We entered the hospital at the same time. Of course, I was newly graduated at that time while he was a dazzling genius who was four years younger than me...." Ye Ling began to narrate the past between her and Yun Lintian. Besides Cai Yaoyao, the old man had also carefully listened to Ye Ling and secretly noted Yun Lintian's name in his heart.

Passing through the crowd and entering a small alley, Yun Lintian hummed in a good mood while looking at several uncles and aunties busy setting up their stalls.

"Little Tian? You come early today, huh?" An uncle with a white tank top greeted Yun Lintian with a kind smile.

"It can't be helped, Uncle Xu. I have to earn more for my rent this month." Yun Lintian laughed slightly as he replied.

"Are you short of money? Here, Uncle will give you a few thousand." Uncle Xu was surprised and hurriedly said while rummaging in his trouser's pocket.

Yun Lintian hurriedly stopped. "Don't! Uncle Xu. I was joking."

Uncle Xu stopped his movement and took a deep look at Yun Lintian. He said with a serious expression. "Fine. However, if you are short of money, you can ask your Uncle Xu for it. Although your Uncle Xu is not rich, I still have a lot of savings. Enough for you to pay rent for ten years."

Yun Lintian was moved. He nodded his head with a cheeky smile. "Don't worry, Uncle Xu. If I don't want to work hard anymore, I will worship you as a father and lie around all day."

Uncle Xu burst into laughter and waved his hand. "You kid. Go, go. Take care of your business."

Ten minutes later, Yun Lintian arrived at a long wooden stall with a sign "Number one fried rice in the world" hanging on it. The stall was covered around five meters with a small space for tables and chairs in the front.

At this moment, there was a handsome young man in his twenties sitting behind the stall. His hands were busy with vegetables in front of him. If one looked closely, one would see he was actually sitting in a wheelchair with his legs missing.

"Why did you come here so early today, Ah'Hao?" Yun Lintian greeted with a smile.

Chapter 430 - Cloud Shadow (3)

The young man, Lei Hao, lifted his head and revealed a bright smile upon seeing Yun Lintian. "Aren't we short of money, Boss? I can't be lazy, can't I?"

Yun Lintian shook his head with a chuckle and went to a stainless steel sink beside the stall, washing his hand with a cheap soap.

"Speaking of this." Lei Hao paused his movement and said. "Why don't we ask Sister Lynn to transfer some money for us, Boss? At best, you can just sacrifice your body a bit."

Yun Lintian's face darkened. He gave a fierce glare at Lei Hao and scolded. "Don't talk about that girl here if you want to live a good life."

Lei Hao pursed his lips. His facial expression clearly told, 'Come on, don't be a hypocrite.'

"What's with that look? I told you before, I have nothing to do with Lynn." Yun Lintian's face sank.

Lei Hao nodded his head in 'an understanding manner.' "Yes, yes. You two are pure... Even though you two have slept in the same room, same bed, for many years."

"Is your butt itchy for a kick, ah?" Yun Lintian adjusted his jeans, preparing to perform a kick.

Lei Hao hurriedly waved his hand. "I was joking, Boss. Please, don't kick me."

Yun Lintian snorted and walked to Lei Hao's side. He rummaged through various ingredients on the table and took a kilogram worth of pork up before putting it on a solid wood chopping board. He then skillfully sliced it into a thin piece.

Lei Hao watched Yun Lintian's slicing the pork while losing in his thought.... What a pity. Those hands and a knife skill should be used to help people. Not for cutting pork like this.

Yun Lintian noticed Lei Hao's absentminded gaze. He asked. "What's wrong? Fascinate by my handsome face?"

Lei Hao rolled his eyes. "Boss, please stop playing a homo joke. The reader will really think you are a gay."

Yun Lintian chuckled and continued to slice the pork. An hour later, all the ingredients were ready, and the Number One Fried Rice In The World stall had officially opened... Sadly, no customer came to his stall. Looked like Yun Lintian and Lei Hao were going to return with empty hands again today.

Looking at the passersby with their hands full of food, Yun Lintian shook his legs restlessly and wondered why no one paid attention to his stall. He turned to Lei Hao and asked. "Ah'Hao, did you install a stealth device here?"

Lei Hao, who was swiping on TikTok boringly, raised his head to look at Yun Lintian as though he were looking at a retard. "Boss, I think you should go check your brain tonight. Where am I supposed to find the stealth device?"

"Alright. Why are you so serious?" Yun Lintian chuckled. He glanced at Lei Hao's phone and saw a video of a young woman dancing sexily displaying on it. He then ridiculed. "Oh? Still looking to harm a girl?"

Lei Hao snorted angrily. "Even though I don't have legs, my little brother is still working fine. Can't I look for a girl? Also, if we are going to debate this topic, it should be you, Boss, who are harming more women than me. Do you remember when we went to Colombia? How many Latinas have fallen in your hands, Boss? And there was a time in Russia...."

Yun Lintian couldn't listen to it anymore. He quickly waved his hand. "Alright, alright. I was wrong, alright?"

How could Lei Hao stop? He grinned wickedly and said further. "And there's Sister Yang. Boss, I really don't understand why you keep avoiding her? She is a dignified young miss of the Yang clan, yet she lowers herself to chase after you. Honestly, if it were me, I would have accepted her love a long time ago."

Yun Lintian's expression changed slightly when he heard 'Sister Yang' word. A beautiful figure immediately appeared in his mind. She was so gentle and full of care when she looked at him. Without a doubt, she was the most beautiful woman he had ever seen so far.... It's just that....

Yun Lintian shook his head with a wry smile. "Don't mention about her."

Lei Hao stared at Yun Lintian for a good while before returning his gaze to his phone and continuing to swipe the short video.

Except for the bustling sound in the alley, the two did not utter a sound for a long time until Yun Lintian's phone rang out. When he looked at it, he saw an unknown private number displayed. His brows sank slightly while stuffing earbuds in his ears and pressed the accept button.

"Hi~ Dear Lintian. Do you miss me?" As soon as the call connected, a seductive female voice instantly rang out from the other side, causing Yun Lintian's body to stiffen.

Lei Hao seemed to faintly hear it. He raised his head to look at Yun Lintian and gave him a snicker with a gloating look in his eyes.

Yun Lintian raised a middle finger at Lei Hao while helplessly replying. "Long time no see, Lynn. How are you?"

"Heh, what is that standard response? Are you treating me as an outsider? Hmph! Men are all the same. Ignoring as soon as they got into a girl's skirt." Lynn Wintercrest pouted angrily.

Yun Lintian had a wry smile on his face as he responded. "Why are you calling me?"

"I can't call you if I don't have anything? Lintian, you have changed!" Lynn replied irritably.

For some reason, the wry smile on Yun Lintian's face suddenly changed into a gentle, caring smile, and a trace of nostalgia flashed across his eyes.

Lynn seemed to perceive Yun Lintian's mood even though they were on the opposite pole of Earth. It seemed their relationship wasn't ordinary at all.

She changed her tone as she said. "I won't joke with you anymore. I really have something important to tell you this time."

"Go ahead." Yun Lintian beckoned.

"Do you remember the Hell Church?" Lynn said calmly.

Yun Lintian's complexion gradually turned serious upon hearing this.
