

Myth Beyond 461

Chapter 461 - Flame Of Vengeance (11)

"No! You come up immediately. This is an order!" Yun Lintian yelled angrily. How could he let Tu Feng face this beast alone?

Tu Feng gave a silly smile at Yun Lintian and said. "Sorry. I don't understand what you said, Boss."

The gorilla arrived before Tu Feng and immediately punched him. However, Tu Feng was cleverly avoided its attack by lowering his body. Following that, he shot forward and hugged the gorilla's waist, pushing it away with all his might.

The gorilla instantly lost its balance and was easily pushed away by Tu Feng.

"F*ck!" Seeing this, Yun Lintian cursed and prepared to jump down. However, Xia Yao and Lei Hao quickly held him down.

"Let me go!" Yun Lintian tried to push Xia Yao and Lei Hao away, but he couldn't get rid of them in the end.

"Boss, calm down." Lei Hao said with an unsightly expression.

Yun Lintian glared at him and said. "What? Are you telling me to leave Ah'Hao here?"

Lei Hao took a deep breath and said. "Listen to me first. There are bombs here." He took a small tablet from Donkey out and showed it to Yun Lintian. "This place has a self-destructive function that couldn't be stopped once it started. This bastard had already activated it before I could catch him. We now have around eight minutes to leave this place."

Yun Lintian's face turned ugly as he looked at the tablet. Everything in this mission went wrong from the beginning. As a team leader, he was responsible for every loss today. It was he who led everyone into this situation. It was he who made Xiao Kai die.

Xia Yao could perceive Yun Lintian's mood. She reached out to hug him and said softly. "It's not your fault. We are responsible for our own lives. It's not like we don't know about the danger of our work."

"But..." Yun Lintian wanted to say something, but he was interrupted by Xia Yao first.

"Instead of thinking about this. Why don't we find a way to get out of this situation first?" Xia Yao said.

Her words were like a hammer waking Yun Lintian up. He took a deep breath and said. "You're right." He then glanced at the eight minutes and twenty-two seconds displayed on the tablet and said. "Since there are eight minutes left, we will kill this beast in two minutes."

Lei Hao was startled for a moment and nodded his head firmly.

Yun Lintian glanced at Xia Yao and saw the latter smile at him, indicating she supported his decision.

Yun Lintian checked the weapons on his body and found a few grenades and a combat knife left. As for the gun, it was useless now. He had already run out of the bullet.

Xia Yao checked her gun and saw there were ten bullets left. She handed it to Lei Hao and said. "I'll leave this duty to you. Trying to aim its eyes."

Lei Hao grabbed the gun and responded solemnly. "I'll try my best."

Yun Lintian grabbed the combat knife and said. "We can try to attack its joints. Let's go." He quickly jumped down, along with Xia Yao and Lei Hao afterward.

At this moment, the battle between Tu Feng and the gorilla had become intense. In terms of agility, Tu Feng was much better than the gorilla, but he was definitely weaker than it when it came to brute force.

Tu Feng managed to stab the gorilla with his combat knife, but this did not harm it much as its body was too tough. Every time he hit the gorilla, he would feel as though he punched at a steel wall.

"Roar!" The gorilla roared angrily, trying to catch Tu Feng, but the latter managed to dodge its palm all the time. This made it frustrated, and swung its arms more frantically.

Tu Feng found a chance to make another attack, but he didn't expect the gorilla to stick its hand into the wall and pull the entire wall toward him.

A large piece of the broken wall immediately smashed toward Tu Feng, leaving no way for him to avoid it.

Bang!

Tu Feng was slammed onto the opposite wall heavily. A loud cracking sound could be heard clearly. Evidently, his bones were broken.

The gorilla was delighted to see this. It stepped forward while reaching its hand out, intending to catch Tu Feng.

Bang! Bang!

At that instant, Lei Hao accurately shot at the gorilla's eyes, causing it to scream painfully and sway backward.

Yun Lintian and Xia Yao rushed forward and seized this chance to arrive at the gorilla's side. Both of them grabbed their combat knives tightly and slashed at the area behind the gorilla's knees with everything they had.

Blood splashed out, and the gorilla was utterly lost its balance before falling to the ground with a loud thud.

Yun Lintian and Xia Yao didn't let this opportunity go. They took grenades out and forcefully stuffed them into the gorilla's mouth as it was opening wide from screaming.

The two quickly withdrew while dragging the injured Tu Feng away toward the end of the corridor.

Boom!

The explosion immediately blasted the gorilla's face away, but it couldn't take its life away. It was still madly swinging its arms around as though it were trying to grab the attackers.

"So tough." Lei Hao muttered in shock.

Yun Lintian's face turned grimed when he saw this. He didn't hesitate to throw all of his grenades toward the gorilla.

Another loud explosion occurred once again. This time, the gorilla seemed to suffer serious injury. It was still moving, but its sluggish movement was apparent.

"Still not die?" Lei Hao asked in amazement. He then raised his gun up, trying to finish this undying gorilla.

However, Xia Yao raised her hand to stop him first. "We should leave this place now."

Lei Hao glanced at Tu Feng, whose right arm was broken, and nodded his head. He quickly climbed up, followed by Xia Yao.

Yun Lintian checked on Tu Feng's broken arm and said. "Thankfully, the bones aren't shattered... Can you go up?"

Tu Feng grunted slightly and grabbed the rope with his left hand. Yun Lintian slowly pushed Tu Feng up as he climbed up along with him. With the help of Xia Yao and Lei Hao, they managed to pull Tu Feng onto the sewer in the end.

"How much time left?" Yun Lintian asked.

"Five minutes and forty-nine seconds." Lei Hao glanced at the tablet and said.

"Let's go!" Yun Lintian nodded, and everyone quickly set off.

Chapter 462 - Flame Of Vengeance (12)

Far away from the factory, Zhu Ding handed the suitcase to a middle-aged man in a professional suit beside him and said. "Here. Take it away."

The middle-aged man checked the content in the suitcase briefly. He took the hard disk out and connected it to his laptop. A moment later, a frown appeared on his face as he said. "There's something wrong with this data. Are you sure this is the real Project Eve?"

Zhu Ding's brows raised slightly. He turned to look at two soldiers that brought the suitcase out of the factory earlier. "What's going on?"

The two soldiers looked at each other and shook their heads. "This is what we got from the scientist named Donkey. We have confirmed with the data you gave, and there was nothing wrong with it."

The middle-aged man interjected. "No. You come to look at this." He walked toward the two soldiers and pointed at a messy formula on the screen. "Did you see it? These little numbers here are wrong."

The two soldiers discovered the numbers were indeed wrong compared to the data set they obtained. Sweats immediately appeared on their foreheads. They knew they had made a big mistake.

"It's Leader Liu who checked it. Not us." One of the two soldiers quickly tossed the pot on Liu Jian's head.

Zhu Ding's face darkened immediately. He uttered coldly. "Trash! How did you make such a simple mistake?... Go back and get that bastard Donkey or whatever out!"

The two soldiers hesitated and said. "But he... he should be dead by now."

"I don't f*cking care about it. You better get the item out. Otherwise, don't think about your family when you go back." Zhu Ding yelled angrily.

The two soldiers didn't dare to stay here anymore. They hurriedly rushed back to the factory under Zhu Ding's cold gaze.

"It seems the cooperation between us has to end here, Mister Zhu." The middle-aged man said calmly after witnessing the whole operation.

Although Zhu Ding was angry, he didn't dare offend the other party much. He said regretfully. "I'm sorry, Mister Roth. I didn't expect my subordinates to be this disappointed."

The middle-aged man, Roth, waved his hand with a smile. "It doesn't matter. Although Project Eve is good, it's not our top priority."

Zhu Ding smiled faintly and reached his hand out. "I hope we can cooperate again in the future."

Roth shook hands with Zhu Ding and replied. "Definitely."

Before Roth walked away, he suddenly paused his step and turned to Zhu Ding. "Mister Zhu, I would like to give you a piece of news... Lynn Wintercrest is about to reach here soon."

Zhu Ding's face changed slightly. He nodded his head and said. "Thank you, Mister Roth."

Roth smiled and got into a car.

After watching Roth's car disappear from his sight, Zhu Ding turned to look at his subordinate nearby and said. "You can start the plan."

The man hesitated slightly and said. "But Unit Leader Liu is still...."

Zhu Ding smiled coldly. "What do you think why I send all newly recruited people in?"

The man felt a chill running down his spine upon hearing this. Before coming here, he was always curious about why Zhu Ding took all the newly recruited members to this important operation. Now he understood everything. It was because they were easy to be disregarded at any time.

Zhu Ding waved his hand impatiently. "Go!"

The man hurriedly stepped back and rushed to the side, preparing to start the next plan.

Zhu Ding glanced at the factory and muttered coldly. "Since I don't get it, no need to waste time here further... Hehe. What are you going to do now, Yun Lintian?"

At this moment, Yun Lintian's group had already climbed out of the sewer. There were around three minutes left before the whole factory exploded.

"Check our weapons first. Zhu Ding's people are definitely waiting for us on the outside." Yun Lintian said.

"I have five bullets here and two grenades." Lei Hao raised the magazine up.

Xia Yao and Tu Feng were even worse. They only had combat knives, and a few flashbangs left, which were not helpful in a long-distance battle.

Yun Lintian grabbed a smoke grenade out and thought for a moment before asking. "Do you remember the control cabinet's position?"

From his judgment, Xia Kai must be somewhere around that place before his death. Yun Lintian didn't want to leave Xia Kai's body behind.

Lei Hao nodded. "It's around the second entrance."

"We will use that entrance then." Yun Lintian made a decision right away.

Just as they were about to move, Yun Lintian suddenly noticed a movement ahead of him. Without thinking further, he instinctively threw the combat knife in his hand toward the target.

"Argh!" A painful scream rang out, along a figure fell to the ground.

Yun Lintian quickly rushed forward and grabbed on the person's neck. "Who are you?"

Lei Hao recognized this person and hurriedly stepped forward. "He's a Chinese scientist, Boss. His name is Sun Lie. He was abducted by the Hell Church. I met him when I was trying to find you."

"Oh?" Yun Lintian loosened his grip slightly and asked. "Why don't you leave this place?"

Sun Lie was so miserable. First, he was shot on the right shoulder, and now he was stabbed in the left shoulder. Both of his arms were basically powerless right now. He looked at Yun Lintian and then at Lei Hao. With a nervous expression, he said. "I-I don't know where to go after leaving this place. So I decide to wait for you here."

Yun Lintian stared at Sun Lie for a moment and pulled the knife out of the latter's shoulder, causing him to scream again.

"There are enemies waiting for us on the outside. You can decide it by yourself." Yun Lintian didn't have time to take care of this Sun Lie. He said nothing further and rushed toward the second entrance.

Sun Lei hesitated briefly and decided to follow Yun Lintian's group.. Anyway, he didn't dare to stay in this place longer.

Chapter 463 - Flame Of Vengeance (13)

"There's a forest on the left side when we go out. I think we should go there." Standing a few meters away from the opened iron door, Lei Hao took a look at the outside and made a suggestion.

Yun Lintian thought for a moment and said. "I'll distract their attention. All of you just rush into the forest all the way. Ah'Kai said he had contacted Lynn, and she would arrive here soon. We just need to hold until then."

Lei Hao shook his head. "Leave this duty to me, Boss." Without waiting for Yun Lintian to say anything, he added. "I'm faster than you."

Yun Lintian opened his mouth slightly, but no word came out in the end.

Xia Yao looked at Lei Hao and said. "You must promise us. You have to run away without looking back."

Lei Hao's gaze kept switching between Yun Lintian, Xia Yao, and Tu Feng for a while, and he finally said. "I promise."

Yun Lintian took a deep look at Lei Hao and said. "Remember your promise." He took a deep breath and said further. "Let's go."

Everyone glanced at each other and started rushing toward the entrance.

Before they could reach the entrance, the iron door suddenly shook and slowly closed. Yun Lintian's expression abruptly changed and urged everyone to increase their pace.

Boom!

Just as they were about to reach the entrance, a loud explosion rang out from the ground beneath them.

Lei Hao was the fastest to react. He disregarded his own safety and pushed Yun Lintian, Xia Yao, and Tu Feng away with all his might.

The blasting explosion immediately swept over Lei Hao, sending him flying into the air, and landed heavily on the ground. If one looked closely, one would see both of his legs had been torn apart by the earlier impact.

"Ah'Hao!" Yun Lintian landed heavily on the ground as he shouted. He instinctively pulled himself up and rushed to Lei Hao.

"Look at me, Ah'Hao. Look at me!" Yun Lintian squatted beside Lei Hao and tremblingly pressed on the latter's bleeding thighs. His mind was in a mess, and he totally forgot what to do in this situation.

Lei Hao grunted painfully and gave a faint smile upon seeing Yun Lintian and others were safe and sound. "Thank goodness, you are fine, Boss."

"Idiot! Why did you do that?" Yun Lintian yelled angrily. He wasn't angry at Lei Hao but at himself. If he was faster, Lei Hao wouldn't have ended up like this.

Lei Hao grinned. "Told you, Boss. I'm faster than you."

Xia Yao and Tu Feng stood aside, looking at Lei Hao's missing legs with tear-filled eyes. They hadn't yet recovered from Xiao Kai's departure and now this.

Yun Lintian quickly removed his belt and tied it up on Lei Hao's thigh to stop the bleeding. Without waiting for Yun Lintian to ask, Tu Feng had also handed his belt to him, letting Yun Lintian tie Lei Hao's other thigh.

"Hey! The door is about to close now." Sun Lei didn't feel anything when he saw Lei Hao's tragic appearance. After all, they weren't allies in the first place.

"Shut up!" Yun Lintian bellowed, making Sun Lie shrink back. If it wasn't because Yun Lintian was trying to save Lei Hao right now, he would definitely kill Sun Lie on the spot.

Tu Feng looked at the iron door that slowly descended. His eyes flickered slightly before striding forward and using his left arm and shoulders to carry the iron door.

"Boss, we need to move now." Tu Feng gritted his teeth as he spoke. All of his muscles bulged up as he used all of his strength to resist the iron door.

Yun Lintian glanced at Tu Feng and then quickly carried Lei Hao onto his shoulder before rushing toward the entrance.

Since Lei Hao could no longer perform his duty, Xia Yao immediately took this role over. She took the gun from Lei Hao and threw the smoke grenades, attracting the Dragon Team's attention.

Bang! Bang!

It was as everyone expected. The moment the smoke grenades started to release their smoke, several shots could be heard instantly.

Xia Yao found a chance to rush out. She used the smoke as a cover and made a few shots randomly before rushing into the forest.

Yun Lintian wanted to stop Xia Yao, but it was too late. He could only grit his teeth and rushed toward the forest with Tu Feng while carrying Lei Hao on his shoulder.

As for Sun Lie, after leaving the factory, he didn't follow Yun Lintian but chose to hide behind the factory. In his mind, following Yun Lintian was no different from suicide. It was better for him to hide here for the time being.

"A group of idiots!" Sun Lei spat in dissatisfaction while watching Yun Lintian's group run away.

BOOM!

What he didn't expect was that. The factory suddenly exploded, forming a fire pillar rushing into the air. Everything in the surrounding area was immediately swept away by a sea of fire. Sun Lie didn't even have time to react. His entire body was instantly turned into ashes in a split second.

In the distance, Zhu Ding looked at Yun Lintian's disappearing back through the binocular with a satisfied grin on his lips. "I hope you satisfy with the gift I prepared for you."

At this moment, the soldier beside him took a step forward and said. "Leader, Lynn Wintercrest will arrive here in one minute."

Zhu Ding put the binocular down and said regretfully. "What a pity. Look like I don't have a chance to see Yun Lintian's despair face with my own eyes." He turned around and walked toward the prepared car nearby and said. "Let's leave."

The soldier hurriedly followed, and the car immediately set off afterward.

A minute later, after Zhu Ding left, a row of cars appeared nearby the factory. Lynn stepped out of the car and looked at the burning factory with a worried expression.

"Spread out. Find Yun Lintian's group for me. As for others... Don't let anyone escape.." Lynn said coldly.

Chapter 464 - Flame Of Vengeance (14)

"Hang on, Ah'Hao. We will get out of here soon." Yun Lintian was anxious upon seeing Lei Hao was still bleeding. He scanned the surroundings desperately, trying to find a way to get out of this forest safely.

Suddenly, his gaze landed on a figure leaning against the tree. Yun Lintian's entire body immediately froze on the spot, staring at the figure in a daze.

Tu Feng had also paused his movement and followed Yun Lintian's gaze. His body trembled violently upon seeing the figure. "B-brother Kai?"

Coming back to his sense, Yun Lintian quickly rushed toward the figure. His whole body shook as he confirmed this figure was indeed Xiao Kai. He reached his trembling hand out to touch Xiao Kai's lifeless body with red eyes. "Ah'Kai..."

Silence blanketed the three. Even Lei Hao had completely forgotten the pain on his thighs. They kept staring at Xiao Kai without uttering a word.

Yun Lintian suppressed the grief in his heart and began to check Xiao Kai's body. His brows were involuntarily knitted together when he saw the fatal wound on the latter's chest. Judging from the injury, Xiao Kai should be shot in close range.

Yun Lintian quickly looked around and discovered a small figure lying on the ground nearby. This small figure was clearly a kid. But when Yun Lintian saw the gun in the kid's hand, his face immediately turned cold. He seemed to understand everything now.

"This... this kid was among the group we rescued back then." Lei Hao said with an ashen expression. He didn't expect the one who killed his brother was actually the kid he saved.

Tu Feng's eyes turned red as he saw this. Guilty gradually occupied his heart. If he didn't leave Xiao Kai to take care of the group of children. Perhaps everything wouldn't have ended like this.

Yun Lintian was silent for a moment and turned to Tu Feng. "Can you carry Ah'Kai? We will send him home."

Tu Feng wiped the tears from his eyes and stepped forward, carefully picking Xiao Kai's cold body up.

As they were about to leave, Lei Hao suddenly noticed a movement in the distance. He notified Yun Lintian and Tu Feng, and the three of them quickly hid behind the trees nearby.

Soon, a slender figure swiftly shuttled through the forest path and appeared before Yun Lintian.

"It's Yaoyao." Yun Lintian heaved a sigh of relief when he saw Xia Yao was safe and sound. He quickly stepped out and said. "Here, Yaoyao."

Xia Yao halted her step and raised the gun toward Yun Lintian's position. A moment later, she let out a long breath and walked toward him. However, when she saw Xiao Kai's body on Tu Feng's shoulder, her body froze on the spot for a moment before regaining her sense.

Yun Lintian stepped forward and said. "Are you alright?"

Xia Yao smiled faintly. "I'm fine. They gave up halfway. I bet Miss Lynn has already arrived here."

Yun Lintian slowly nodded his head. However, he somehow felt something wrong, but he could not pinpoint out.

Xia Yao glanced at Lei Hao's wounds and said. "Let's go out. We need to treat Ah'Hao as soon as possible."

Yun Lintian nodded and led everyone out of the forest by taking the previous path.

The moment they were about to reach the edge of the forest, Yun Lintian suddenly felt uneasy and hurriedly shouted. "Get down!"

Xia Yao and Tu Feng didn't doubt Yun Lintian's command. They hastily got down onto the ground.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Consecutive explosions suddenly occurred around the forest. The explosive flames quickly spread out, forming a ring of fire that surrounded the entire forest.

Yun Lintian's face became unsightly. Undoubtedly, Zhu Ding had calculated everything and specially prepared this trap for him.

The fire burned vigorously and constantly narrowed down. Coupled with the strong wind blowing, it won't be long before the fire could reach Yun Lintian's position.

Lei Hao saw this scene. He turned to look at Yun Lintian and said. "Boss, leave me here. You have to bring Sister Rain and Ah'Feng out now."

"What the hell are you saying? I won't leave anyone here. Shut the hell up and leave everything to me." Yun Lintian yelled angrily. His mind spun rapidly as he looked at the firewall in the distance.

Lei Hao opened his mouth, wanting to say something, but no word came out in the end. He knew very well it was easy for Yun Lintian to get out of this place by himself. However, it was entirely different if Yun Lintian had to carry him along.

"Boss, why don't you let me lead in the front? You and Sister Rain just run after me." Tu Feng expressed his idea. His idea was simple. He would act as a shield for Yun Lintian and Xia Yao. Although it probably won't be much of help, it was better than nothing.

Yun Lintian shook his head. "No. Let me do it." He stood up and used a rope to tie Lei Hao on his back before saying. "Protect your head as much as possible, understand?"

Lei Hao nodded his head and said nothing.

Yun Lintian found a small bottle of water that was reserved as an emergency supply and poured it on Lei Hao's head. Meanwhile, Xia Yao and Tu Feng had also done the same.

What Yun Lintian didn't know was that, at this moment, someone was aiming a rifle at his group from a small hill not far away from the forest. This person was no other than the middle-aged man Zhu Ding had specially arranged for him to do this job. His name was Chi Yuan, one of the top snipers in the Dragon Soul team.

He glanced at a tablet nearby him to check on Yun Lintian's position before turning his gaze back to the scope. The reason why he could pinpoint Yun Lintian's position was that there was something on Xiao Kai's body.

That was right.. The Dragon Soul team had discovered Xiao Kai's body a long time ago and secretly hid a locator in his body.

Chapter 465 - Flame Of Vengeance (15)

Boom!

The moment the explosions rang out, Lynn was startled for a moment and hurriedly ordered her people to deal with the fire. She didn't have to use her brain to think about it. Yun Lintian must be there.

"Master, shall we contact the local fire station?" The secretary asked.

"Go ahead. Hurry up!" Lynn replied anxiously. She personally grabbed an extinguisher and rushed toward the forest even though she knew it won't help anything much.

In the forest, Yun Lintian glanced at Tu Feng and Xia Yao and said. "Follow closely."

Xia Yao and Tu Feng nodded their heads and prepared to rush out.

On the hill, Chi Yuan carefully aimed the rifle at Xia Yao's head. His lips trembled slightly as sweat ran down his cheeks. He knew the moment he pulled the trigger and killed Xia Yao, he would definitely be hunted by Yun Lintian for the rest of his life, but it couldn't be helped, as his family was in Zhu Ding's hands.

"I'm sorry." Chi Yuan muttered and pulled the trigger.

Bang!

The sharp and ruthless bullet traveled through the air, heading toward Xia Yao's head.

At this moment, it was unknown why Tu Feng suddenly perceived something coming toward Xia Yao. His body instinctively moved and jumped out to block the bullet's trajectory.

The bullet mercilessly pierced through Tu Feng's heart, leaving a large hole in his chest before he landed heavily on the ground.

Everything happened too fast, to the point Yun Lintian couldn't even react. It was until Tu Feng landed on the ground did Yun Lintian come back to his sense.

"Ah'Feng!!" Yun Lintian screamed in despair as he arrived beside Tu Feng. He used both hands to press on Tu Feng's chest, trying to stop the bleeding even though he knew it was useless.

It was a miracle that Tu Feng hadn't lost his last breath yet. He turned his head in difficulty and said. "B-boss...I... will... leave first...."

"No! Ah'Feng! No! Stay with me... You have to stay with me! I won't allow you to go!" Yun Lintian desperately pressed the wound on Tu Feng's chest. All the medical knowledge in his mind didn't seem helpful at the moment.

"Let... me be... your little brother... again." Tu Feng's eyes gradually closed as soon as he finished his sentence. His breath stopped, indicating that he had left this world forever.

"No!" Yun Lintian shouted hysterically and tried to pump Tu Feng's missing heart.

Xia Yao stood tremblingly, covering her mouth as two streaks of tears flowed down her cheeks. She was aware that this shot was aimed at her, yet it was Tu Feng who lost his life in the end. It should be her instead of him... She didn't know what to think or feel any more at the moment.

Lei Hao was no exception. He looked at Tu Feng's lifeless body blankly, as though he had lost his soul. A second later, he grabbed Yun Lintian's arm and said. "B-boss. Stop it. Don't let Ah'Feng sacrifice in vain."

Yun Lintian's body shook and stopped his movement. He didn't say anything and picked Tu Feng's body up.

Xia Yao wanted to say something, but she knew it was not the right time. She carefully picked Xiao Kai's body up and waited for Yun Lintian.

In the distance, Chi Yuan was stunned for a long time. He didn't expect Tu Feng to react this quick. It was clearly not a human speed. At the same time, he didn't know why he felt relieved by this failure. Perhaps in his opinion, the guilt of killing Tu Feng was lighter than killing Xia Yao.

Chi Yuan started to hesitate once again. He didn't know whether he should go on or stop at this. Just as he was hesitating, a tall figure slowly emerged from the darkness behind him and approached Chi Yuan without him knowing.

Before Chi Yuan could react, the tall figure in black had already cut his throat, sending him to the forever darkness.

The tall figure kicked Chi Yuan's body away and got into his position, grabbing the rifle and aiming at Yun Lintian. His breath was even, looking extremely calm. Just this alone, it could be seen he was far stronger than Chi Yuan.

Yun Lintian glanced around the place for a moment and shot toward the firewall. His speed wasn't fast as he carried two people at the same time.

A wave of scorching heat immediately greeted Yun Lintian, but he didn't seem to fear it at all. He rushed into the burning fire without hesitation, followed closely by Xia Yao.

Because Yun Lintian was focused on running, he didn't notice that the silver necklace on his neck had released a pale golden light to cover his entire body, including Xia Yao in the back. It was precisely because of this that the fire didn't harm them much.

A minute later, Yun Lintian found the end of the fire path and quickly rushed out of the forest along with Xia Yao.

"Lintian!" Lynn was startled for a moment when she saw two figures running out of the forest. She hurriedly shouted and walked forward. However, her step immediately froze on the spot when she noticed Lei Hao's appearance and Tu Feng's body.

Yun Lintian did not have any emotion on his face. He walked toward Lynn and put Lei Hao and Tu Feng down. "Please take care of them."

Lynn came back to her sense and quickly shouted at her people. "Medic. Hurry up!"

Xia Yao carefully placed Xiao Kai beside Tu Feng and turned to look at Yun Lintian. "Are you..."

As she spoke halfway, Yun Lintian turned to look at her with a calm expression. "You stay here. I have something to do."

Xia Yao wanted to say something but gave up in the end. She nodded her head and spoke softly. "Be careful."

Yun Lintian nodded and walked to Lynn's bodyguard. He didn't say anything, just took the latter's gun and spared magazines away before rushing toward the hill.

Lynn stared at the disappearing Yun Lintian for a while and turned to Xia Yao. "It's Zhu Ding's work, right?"

Xia Yao glanced at her briefly and turned away. Her eyes were filled with worries as she stared in Yun Lintian's direction.. A moment later, she walked to Lynn's other bodyguard and asked for a gun before following Yun Lintian behind.

Chapter 466 - Flame Of Vengeance (16)

"Master, we..." One of the bodyguards said uncertainly.

Lynn thought for a moment and said. "Spread out and see whether there are Hell Church's remnants nearby. Also, find someone to stall those official people's time."

"Yes." The bodyguards immediately spread out.

"Interesting... I have been looking forward to playing with you for a long time now." On the hill, the tall figure watched Yun Lintian rushing toward his position with a playful smile. He had the chance to kill Yun Lintian earlier, but he let it go as he felt it would be too easy.

His name was Sin, one of the most fearful figures among the Hell Church. This time, he was secretly sent by the Hell Church to finish Yun Lintian if Reaper couldn't do his job.

Yun Lintian sped toward the hill at full speed. He clenched his teeth hard, nearly shattering some in the process. His face was icy, overflowing with killing intent. He believed that the culprit who killed Tu Feng shouldn't be far away from the place.

Entering the dense jungle on the foot of the hill, Yun Lintian didn't lower his speed at all. He tore through the foliage like a raging tornado, entirely different from a person who was exhausted a while ago.

As he was about to reach the top of the hill, Yun Lintian's body tensed up and instinctively jumped to the side.

Bang!

A loud shot resounded from the path ahead of Yun Lintian. The sharp bullet passed through a tiny gap between two trees and precisely hit Yun Lintian's previous position. If he hadn't voided it timely, he might become a corpse by now.

Yun Lintian didn't wait for the enemy to reload for another shot. He swiftly shot back while approaching the top of the hill.

Sin smiled slightly upon seeing Yun Lintian perfectly dodge his shot... This should be his peak state, right? He thought.

Just as Sin was about to put the rifle away and prepared to fight Yun Lintian in close range. He suddenly noticed another figure rushing toward the hill.

Upon seeing this, a cruel smile gradually formed at the corner of his mouth. Sin ignored Yun Lintian completely and aimed the rifle at the newcomer, which was no other than Xia Yao.

Yun Lintian rushed out of the forest and arrived at an open area on the top of the hill. His gaze instantly landed on Sin, and he quickly raised his gun up. In that instant, his entire body suddenly froze as he noticed that Sin was aiming at somewhere else.

Yun Lintian's gaze inadvertently followed Sin's gaze direction and saw Xia Yao running toward the hill.

Yun Lintian's heart stopped beating. He raised his gun and pulled the trigger while shouting. "No!"

Bang! Bang!

It was as if time had frozen, and the world had fallen into silence. Yun Lintian clearly saw the bullet from his gun traveled much slower than the rifle's bullet from Sin. He tried his best to turn his head toward Xia Yao's direction, as though he wanted to push her away with his gaze... Unfortunately, all he could do at the moment was pray... Pray to the god that Xia Yao could avoid the bullet.

Puff!

Sadly, the god didn't seem to hear his prayer at all. The sharp bullet ruthlessly pierced through Xia Yao's chest, destroying her organs immediately. Meanwhile, Yun Lintian's shot precisely hit Sin's shoulder, causing him to roll away from his rifle.

"Yaoyao!" Yun Lintian yelled on top of his lungs. He didn't care about Sin at all and rushed toward Xia Yao with all his might. Wood, grass, and flowers were sent through the sky as he passed through the forest.

In a few breaths, Yun Lintian arrived at Xia Yao's side and hurriedly pressed on the wound on her chest.

"Yaoyao!" Yun Lintian was too panicked to the point he didn't know what to say. His entire body was trembling non-stop, and tears kept flowing down from his eyes as he looked at Xia Yao's pale face.

Xia Yao coughed up blood painfully, but the gentle smile on her face didn't recede in the slightest. Did she regret following Yun Lintian here? The answer was no. If it wasn't because of Tu Feng, she would be dead a long time ago. The only thing she regretted was that it seemed she could not accompany her beloved man anymore.

"Why..." Yun Lintian was choking as he tried his best to stop the bleeding on Xia Yao's wound. Unfortunately, the wound was too fatal. The bullet was precisely cutting her aorta. Unless he could perform an operation right now, there was no way he could save her life.

Xia Yao raised her hand in difficulty to touch Yun Lintian's face. Her eyes were filling with endless tenderness and affection. She stared at him as if she wanted to engrave his appearance into her soul so that she could remember him even when she went to the netherworld.

"I'm sorry." Xia Yao said softly. She couldn't bear to see Yun Lintian crying.

"No. Stop talking. You will be fine. Believe in your man. You will be fine." It was unknown whether Yun Lintian wanted to reassure Xia Yao or comfort himself. He kept muttering, and his eyes seemed to lose focus.

"Right! Lynn... Lynn!" Yun Lintian regained his sense. He hurriedly picked Xia Yao up and desperately rushed back to find Lynn. As long as he reached there, Xia Yao would be safe.

Feeling the warmth in Yun Lintian's embrace, Xia Yao leaned against his chest and said. "Can you promise me?" Seeing that Yun Lintian didn't answer, she continued. "You have to live well from now on, okay?... Do whatever you want. No more revenge and fighting."

Tears seemed to pour out of Yun Lintian's eyes more than before as he listened to her. He could clearly feel Xia Yao's body gradually turning cold... She didn't have time left now.

"Cough!... Can I see your face once again?" Xia Yao coughed another mouthful of blood and said weakly.

Chapter 467 - Flame Of Vengeance (17)

Yun Lintian stopped his movement and lowered his head to look at her face. Even though she lost a lot of blood, her face was still beautiful as before.

Xia Yao smiled faintly and said. "Promise me, okay?"

Yun Lintian's lips were shaking, and his pupils filled with despair. He felt his throat was completely dried. A second later, he responded in a choking voice. "I promise. I will live well."

The pale smile on Xia Yao's face grew wider as she spoke. "Thankfully, there's Ah'Hao to accompany you. At least you won't be alone when I'm gone."

"No!" Yun Lintian shook his head forcefully. Unwilling and hopelessness were written all over his face.

"Can I ask you a favor? Can you bury me on the Rain Mountain so that I can watch you every day?" Xia Yao said weakly.

"No..." Yun Lintian fell onto his knees as his mind went blank... It was funny. He always believed he was smarter than anybody, but at this moment, he couldn't come up with anything to save the most important woman in his life.

Xia Yao carefully wiped the tears on Yun Lintian's cheeks and struggled to speak. "Lintian... I will... always... love you... whether in this life or the next life... Don't miss me too much... We will... meet...again."

Tears flowed out of her eyes as her consciousness was gradually fading away... If God was real. Please protect him and let him live in peace throughout his life. That's all I can ask for...

Xia Yao's hand gradually fell down like a fallen leaf. Yun Lintian didn't let her hand fall entirely down. He caught her cold hand and pressed it on his cheek.

"Ah... AHHH..." His body seemed to trigger a function to relieve his pain by uttering a sound out. The lights in his eyes were wholly dimmed, replacing with endless despair as he stared at Xia Yao's lifeless face blankly.

Dead...

She's dead...

Because of me...

Everything happened because of me...

Blood gradually seeped out of his eyes and mouth. He tightly hugged Xia Yao while constantly blaming himself in his heart. If he didn't come to seek revenge, Xia Yao wouldn't have died like this... If he didn't insist on doing this mission, everyone would still be alive and fine...

Yun Lintian was completely lost in the world of guilt and despair. He didn't even notice that Sin had picked up the rifle and aimed at him at this moment... And even if he did aware of it, what's else to care about out there? His entire world and everything was gone already...

Sin looked at the bleak and sorrowful Yun Lintian through the scope with a grin. "Heh, you can't blame me, right? She's seeking death by herself." He chuckled slightly and continued. "Since you love her so much, let me send you to her in a moment... Alas, I thought it would be fun to fight with you. I didn't expect you would be this fragile."

Sin touched the trigger and looked at Yun Lintian one last time before pulling it.

Bang!

The explosive bullet flew through the air toward Yun Lintian's head. However, when the shot was about to hit the target, a bright golden light suddenly shot out of Yun Lintian's body and formed a barrier around him. The bullet was immediately turned into ashes upon touching the golden barrier.

Instantly, more than a hundred meters around, Yun Lintian turned into a sea of golden flame, burning everything into ashes.

Lynn and her people were alarmed by the situation. They quickly retreated until they saw the golden flame did not continue to expand further.

"Lintian!" Lynn came back to her sense and looked in Yun Lintian's direction worriedly. She had no idea what was going on right now.

"What the..." Sin was shocked upon seeing this scene. He couldn't comprehend the situation before him... Did he use a kind of weapon? That's not right. The fire didn't burn Yun Lintian at all. What the hell was going on here?

At this moment, Yun Lintian slowly stood up from the ground. He still hugged Xia Yao close to his chest, but the vacant in his eyes had long disappeared. It was replaced with a burning golden light instead.

As Sin observed Yun Lintian, he suddenly saw the latter abruptly turn around to look in his direction. Sin instantly felt his entire body turn freezing cold, as though he had been thrown into an abyss of ice. His instinct madly screamed at him, telling him to run for his life.

However, before Sin could react, he discovered Yun Lintian's body suddenly blurred and disappeared from the spot. When he regained his sight again, Yun Lintian had already stood in front of him.

"What are you...ARGHH!!" Sin was thoroughly shocked to the core when he saw Yun Lintian appear in front of him like a ghost. In the next moment, his entire body and soul were engulfed with burning pain. He had been transformed into a human torch and desperately rolled on the ground while screaming painfully.

Yun Lintian stared at Sin without the slightest emotion on his face. The burning golden light in his eyes continued to shine brightly. It was even more vigorous than before.

Sin continued to struggle. His scream was gradually weakened until he was reduced into a pile of ashes. Until his death, he couldn't even figure out what monster he had provoked.

Yun Lintian stood motionless in the middle of the golden flame. He seemed to lose his soul, not knowing what to do next.

In the far distance among the group of clouds, two women shrouded in white mist standing in the air, looking at the scene calmly.

"It's not the right time for his awakening." The woman on the left side said. She pointed her finger at Yun Lintian, and a streak of golden light immediately shot out toward him.

Yun Lintian, who was struck by the golden light, seemed to lose all of his strength immediately and fell onto his knees. Despite that, he was unwilling to let Xia Yao go and used the little strength he had to hold her closer to his chest.

"She..." The woman on the right wanted to say something as she looked at Xia Yao in Yun Lintian's arms with a trace of pity.

"Fate is unpredictable. We cannot interfere with it." The woman on the left said softly.. She waved her hand, and the two of them immediately vanished from the spot.

Chapter 468 - After Rain (1)

The sea of golden flame gradually receded, leaving a scorching ground behind. Lynn ignored all the potential dangers and quickly rushed to find Yun Lintian with her people.

When they arrived at the small hill razed into charcoal, Lynn saw Yun Lintian sit on his knees and holding Xia Yao in his arms. There was no injury on his body, but he was shrouded with a gloomy despair aura, as though he was abandoned by the world.

Lynn took a step forward and suddenly noticed Xia Yao's current state. Her entire body shook violently as she covered her mouth in shock. "How could it be...."

Her mind was in a mess. She didn't know what to do or say at this moment. As someone who loved Yun Lintian, she was well aware of how important Xia Yao was to him.

Both of them had grown up as childhood sweethearts. While Xia Yao was an orphan, Yun Lintian was not much different. Although he had a father, he was often left alone. Whenever his father returned, he would force Yun Lintian to train. That was why the relationship between them wasn't good.

Xia Yao was like a brilliant moonlight shining into his dark and lonely world. She was the one and only woman he cared about the most... And now she was gone.

"Sister..." Lei Hao arrived at the scene with the help of Lynn's people. His lips shook as he stared at the lifeless Xia Yao. Tears involuntarily flowed out from his eyes, and his mind started to collapse.

To him, Xia Yao was like a blood-related older sister. She was far more important than his life. He blamed himself for not preventing her from chasing after Yun Lintian earlier. Otherwise, the result wouldn't be like this.

Sadly, there was no 'if' in this world...

Lynn took several deep breaths before stepping forward and saying. "Lintian... we should move now."

Yun Lintian didn't react. His vacant eyes stared blankly at Xia Yao's face without blinking. It was as if his soul had already left his body. His current appearance was no different from a wooden statue.

Lynn felt her heart was pierced by a sharp knife. She could feel the pain and despair Yun Lintian had at the moment just by looking at him. She carefully reached her hand out to touch Yun Lintian's shoulder and said softly. "Let's send her home, shall we?"

Yun Lintian's pupils quivered slightly. A clarity slowly returned to his mind. He looked at Xia Yao again and lowered his head, kissing her cold lips... He wished this kiss would last forever...

Tears continued to flow down on Yun Lintian's cheeks while smiling. This smile of him was completely different from before. It was a smile that belonged to the woman before him alone.

"During these years, I've tried my best to live well as you told me. You see, I read a lot of novels and even opened a fried-rice stall that we are dreaming of." Yun Lintian said softly as he looked at the illusory Xia Yao before him. "As for revenge, I never looked for it even once. Your husband is good, isn't he? I did everything I promised you back then."

Xia Yao smiled without saying a word. However, the meaning in her eyes was evident. She was relieved to see Yun Lintian living well during this period.

Yun Lintian wiped the tears out of his cheeks and said helplessly. "Unfortunately, they didn't let me go." He laughed slightly and continued. "You can't blame me on this, you know? It's not that I'm looking for trouble, but trouble found me instead."

A worried expression appeared on Xia Yao's illusory face. Her lips moved a few times as though she wanted to say something, but no sound came out in the end.

Yun Lintian shook his head gently. "You don't have to worry about me... Soon... Soon, I'll be with you."

Xia Yao shook her head anxiously. She grabbed his hand tightly, trying to express her disagreement.

Yun Lintian smiled and said softly. "I'm tired. I don't want to live in the world without you anymore... Can you let me rest here with you?"

Xia Yao was about to express something. Her complexion suddenly changed as she looked over Yun Lintian's shoulder. Her body gradually faded away and disappeared from Yun Lintian's sight as if nothing had appeared here before.

Behind him was no other than Ross and his people. They had just arrived here after cautiously following Yun Lintian.

"Nowhere to run now?" Ross stepped forward and pointed his gun at Yun Lintian. His gaze swept around the place in puzzlement. He didn't understand why Yun Lintian chose to come here instead of running away.

However, when his gaze landed on the jade tombstone in front of Yun Lintian, he immediately recalled Xia Yao, Yun Lintian's most beloved woman, was buried here.

"So you come here to see your ghost lover for one last time?" Ross let out a ridiculous sneer. "Oh well. If I remember correctly. She died in my Senior Sin's hand, didn't she?"

The smile on Yun Lintian's face gradually disappeared and was replaced with an icy cold expression. He slowly turned around to face Ross and said coldly. "Did you miss him?... Don't worry. I will send you to meet with your beloved senior soon."

Ross grinned wickedly. "With just you? Even God is here. You won't be able to escape death today." Before this, he wasn't confident as Yun Lintian was too tricky. However, this place was an open space. Even if Yun Lintian had ten lives, he wouldn't be able to escape with several guns aiming at him.

"Are you sure?" Yun Lintian asked with a faint smile.

Ross frowned slightly as he looked around again to ensure there was no trap around here. "Do you think you can deceive us with such a naïve trick?"

Yun Lintian shook his head slightly. "No, no. I'm not trying to play any trick here... Didn't you just say even God is here, I won't be able to escape today?"

"What do you mean?" Ross frowned deeper.

A grin appeared on Yun Lintian's face as he said. "What I mean is that... The god you are talking about is standing before you right now."

Instantaneously, burning golden light emerged in the depth of Yun Lintian's eyes, and his figure disappeared from the spot!

Chapter 469 - After Rain (2)

"What the..." Ross was shocked to the core. He hurriedly moved his gun around, but he couldn't find a trace of Yun Lintian.

Puff!

"Ugh!" In that instant, Yun Lintian suddenly reappeared behind a man beside Ross and cut his throat mercilessly.

Blood gushed out like a fountain, splashing all over Ross. The warm sensation made Ross's body jolt awake in shock. He abruptly turned around, but Yun Lintian was nowhere to be seen now.

Puff!

In the next moment, another man on the leftmost had also suffered the same treatment from Yun Lintian. He clutched his throat with a look of horror written all over his face and died on the spot.

"G-ghost!" Ross's men couldn't help shouting aloud upon witnessing this bizarre scene and started randomly shooting. Bullets flew in all directions and almost hit each other.

Ross avoided the bullets and scolded angrily. "Are you trying to kill me? Stop shooting and form a circle formation!"

Ross's words were surprisingly working. His men immediately regained their composure and formed a circle with their backs against each other.

Ross took a deep breath to suppress the shock and fear in his heart while pointing the gun around, waiting for Yun Lintian to appear. At the same time, his mind kept replaying the unbelievable scene earlier over and over again. Yun Lintian's movement was genuinely beyond his comprehension now.

Before this, he always believed Yun Lintian was at best reaching the fastest speed that humans could achieve. It didn't seem to be the case now. This was obviously beyond human capability.

"He's here!" One among them suddenly shouted and pulled the trigger as soon as he saw Yun Lintian appear before him. However, the shots didn't hit the target as he expected because Yun Lintian had already disappeared once again.

Puff!

While everyone turned their head to look in that direction, Yun Lintian reappeared behind another man beside Ross and killed him on the spot before disappearing once again.

"Argh!" The same scene kept replaying one after another until only Ross left. He looked at his comrades' corpses with trembling legs. His face was ghastly pale, and his teeth kept grinding together involuntarily.

Overwhelming fear shrouded his heart as Ross suddenly recalled the report he received a long time ago. It was said all the Hell Church members in that base were slaughtered mercilessly without knowing who the enemy was... Could it be... it was Yun Lintian's works?

"You are the last one now...." Yun Lintian's cold voice suddenly resounded behind Ross, causing him to abruptly turn around and pull the trigger. However, nothing could be found as soon as he turned around. All the bullets were wasted once again.

Freezing cold gradually pierced into Ross's skins. He didn't know whether it was coming from the heavy rain or the fear in his heart. His mind was in a mess, not knowing how to deal with the situation before him.

Ross started regretting coming here. He was too eager to get merit and believed it should be an easy mission with the help of Zhu Ding. Turned out he was wrong. Everything was wrong from the beginning.

It was also at this time did he realize Zhu Ding was likely to hide some information from him. He couldn't help feeling both angry and bitter at the moment.

"Why don't you come out and fight with me in a fair and square manner?" Ross mustered his courage and shouted.

"Are you sure?" Yun Lintian's voice drifted into Ross's ears from a distance.

Ross didn't waste his energy to look at Yun Lintian but gritted his teeth and said. "Yes! Aren't you a dignified Cloud Shadow team leader? Why don't we go with the old rule?"

As his voice fell, Ross threw the gun and other weapons on his body away. He took out the combat knife and posted a close combat stance.

Yun Lintian's figure gradually appeared a few steps from Ross with the combat knife in his hand. He looked at Ross and said with a smile. "It seems you still have some dignities left after shamelessly attacking me with people for all this time."

Ross's face flushed red in embarrassment. He couldn't stand Yun Lintian's sarcastic remarks and hurriedly shouted. "Come!"

Following that, he slowly moved in a circle while staring at Yun Lintian cautiously. He knew that if he didn't take the initiative to attack first, he would definitely die without a chance to fight back.

Ross took a deep breath and rushed forward at full speed. He quickly stabbed the knife toward Yun Lintian's chest as soon as he arrived before him. His eyes glowed with ecstasy when he saw Yun Lintian didn't move away... Could it be he run out of his strength now?

However, Ross's fantasy immediately interrupted with a sharp pain in his wrist. He didn't even scream as he was too shocked to see his hand was already disappearing.

"Sorry. It's too fast, right?... I'll slow down then." Yun Lintian grinned and reached out to grab Ross's arm. He pulled the latter close to him and stabbed deep into his belly.

"Seriously... you shouldn't come to me. I have already washed my hands and choose to stay dormant forever." Yun Lintian whispered.

"Ugh!" Ross came back to his sense and grunted painfully. He struggled to get rid of Yun Lintian's grip, but it was futile.

"Alas... Looks like you have been deceived by Zhu Ding. He should have told you that I have never left my hometown since that day. So, anything that happened to your Hell Church has nothing to do with me." Yun Lintian continued and twisted the knife a few times.

Ross shivered in pain and turned his head to look at Yun Lintian with difficulty as if he wanted to see whether what Yun Lintian said was true.

Yun Lintian smiled faintly and said. "I have no reason to lie to you. Zhu Ding clearly wants to get Project Eve in my hand, but he couldn't find a reason to confront me head-on... Well, I should say that he didn't dare instead... And your Hell Church is an easy target to use as a scapegoat. You should understand what I mean now."

Ross coughed up fresh blood, and the light in his eyes gradually dimmed.. He immediately understood everything, but sadly, it was too late to regret now.

Chapter 470 - After Rain (3)

"Goodbye." Yun Lintian stared straight into Ross's eyes and moved the knife to cut his throat, sending him to the netherworld.

Arrows of blood gushed out from Ross's throat, splashing all over Yun Lintian's body. He didn't even flinch in the slightest as he stared blankly at Xia Yao's tombstone.

The burning golden light in Yun Lintian's eyes gradually dimmed along with his strength that slowly left his body.

Yun Lintian's vision started to blur. He tried his best to stay focused as he took a step forward, walking to Xia Yao's tombstone with the biggest wish in his heart — he wanted to see her again.

Step by step, the distance between Yun Lintian and the tombstone gradually reduced. The bloodstain on his body had long been washed by the heavy rain, as though someone had meticulously cleaned him up.

Xia Yao's illusory figure appeared before the tombstone and watched Yun Lintian approaching her with an endless tenderness in her eyes.

A smile once again appeared on Yun Lintian's somewhat tired face. His pace unknowingly increased. He couldn't wait to embrace the peerless woman before him.

Bang!

Just as Yun Lintian was about to reach the tombstone, a loud shot resounded from a distance, sending an explosive bullet to penetrate Yun Lintian's chest. This shot immediately shattered Yun Lintian's aorta, causing him to lose his strength and fall down on the ground directly.

"Cough! Cough!" Yun Lintian coughed up blood, but he didn't seem to be in pain. He still reached his hand out, trying to grab Xia Yao's illusory figure.

"Tsk, tsk, tsk! I didn't expect to catch our renowned Cloud Shadow leader so easily like this." At this moment, a ridiculed voice rang out from afar, along with a few figures walking toward Yun Lintian. Leading in the front was no other than Zhu Ding, and behind him were naturally the Dragon Soul team.

To reach this step, Zhu Ding had meticulously laid out everything by himself. First, he sent his team to mess with Hell Church and made it like Yun Lintian was the one who did it. Afterward, he lured Hell Church into China by offering a hand, helping them smuggled into the country, and providing various conveniences, such as weapons and vehicles.

As someone who studied Yun Lintian's behavior for years, Zhu Ding naturally understood Yun Lintian's ability well. It was impossible to take him down with just a second-rate troop from Hell Church. Hence, Zhu Ding had arranged another layer into it by cutting all Yun Lintian's helpers out.

And now, Zhu Ding was about to reap the reward after painstakingly planning everything.

The Dragon Soul team spread out and surrounded Yun Lintian. Even though Yun Lintian had lost all of his strength, they didn't dare to be careless in the slightest after witnessing his abnormal movement earlier.

Yun Lintian didn't seem to hear or see anything around him. His eyes were always fixated on the anxious Xia Yao. He mustered all of his strength to crawl forward bit by bit.

Zhu Ding frowned slightly upon seeing this. He glanced at Xia Yao's tombstone and let out a sneer. "Oh, I see. You want to touch your ghost lover's tombstone for one last time?"

Zhu Ding walked forward unhurriedly and arrived before Xia Yao's tombstone. He looked at the exquisitely carved tombstone and chuckled. "Tsk. It's so beautiful. You probably spend a lot of fortunes to create this, right?"

He turned around to look at Yun Lintian and said. "Honestly, I also feel pity that a beautiful woman like her died so young. I haven't had a chance to taste her yet... Alas."

Yun Lintian's pupils quivered slightly but returned to normal in the next moment. He still crawled forward, ignoring Zhu Ding completely.

Zhu Ding's brows knitted slightly. He wanted to vent the accumulated anger by humiliating Yun Lintian before killing him. However, seeing no reaction coming from Yun Lintian, he suddenly got furious, as though he was being humiliated instead.

Zhu Ding took a deep breath and said with a smile. "Fine. You want to touch this so much, right? Let me help you then." Following that, Zhu Ding kicked the tombstone with all his might and successfully knocked it down.

"Ah...AH..." Yun Lintian became anxious upon seeing this. As much as he wanted to rush forward, he didn't have the ability to do it at this moment. His hands frantically grabbed on grasses and pulled himself ahead while making an urgent sound.

Zhu Ding stopped his movement and turned to look at Yun Lintian with a grin. He found a way to humiliate Yun Lintian now. "Hey, hey. Why are you so anxious? I'm about to bring this tombstone to you now."

He motioned with his chin toward his subordinates. The few men nearby glanced at each other with complicated feelings. They knew very well that this mission was purely a personal grudge between Zhu Ding and Yun Lintian. If possible, they didn't want to participate in it. Especially humiliating Yun Lintian.

Sadly, who let them be his subordinates? In the end, they had no choice but to comply with Zhu Ding's command.

Four people stepped forward and carried Xia Yao's tombstone up. They immediately carried it away toward the cliff with Zhu Ding's order and stood there, waiting for the next instruction.

"Ah...AHH!" Yun Lintian's anxiety soared up. He hurriedly crawled forward with all he had, but he was stopped by Zhu Ding's kick.

Bang!

Yun Lintian flew backward and landed heavily on the ground. However, he disregarded everything and struggled to crawl toward Xia Yao's tombstone once again.

Zhu Ding arrived by Yun Lintian's side and squatted down. He grabbed Yun Lintian's hair and looked into his eyes with a cruel smile. "I wonder how do you feel right now? Can you tell me a bit?"

Seeing Yun Lintian's ignoring him, Zhu Ding raised his hand and slapped heavily on his face, and said coldly. "You know what? What I hate you the most is that you are too arrogant.. How dare you ignore me again and again? I am a dignified young master of the Zhu family, while you are just a bastard without a mother. How dare you compare to me, ah!?"
