

Myth Beyond 701

Chapter 701 Elf?

"Wow, are you sure this place is not heaven, father?" Fan was fascinated by the paradise-like scenery here.

In this forest, countless fifteen-meter-high trees were arranged randomly like a maze. Every time the wind blew, it would release a pleasant rustling sound like a melody from heaven, soothing everyone's soul.

Yun Lintian observed these ancient trees carefully and found out their quality was no less than the Serene Bamboo and Heavenly Sandalwood within the Land of Beyond Heaven. In short, every tree and plant in this place was akin to a heavenly treasure.

"These trees... I had never seen such a divine quality like them before. How could they still exist here until now?" Guchang was both puzzled and amazed at the same time.

In the past, countless profound practitioners had come to this place to try their luck. According to commonsense, these trees should be long gone by now. After all, a piece of them was equal to a city-worth fortune. It was hard to believe they could survive until now.

Yun Lintian also doubted it. "Perhaps this place is not the same as the forest everyone knows?"

Guchang nodded his head slowly. "It's possible."

"Do you feel something odd here?" Mu Qiuxue suddenly asked. Seeing everyone turning to her, she said further. "The wood element in the air is unstable... What should I say? It's constantly decreasing at an almost unnoticeable rate."

Mu Qiuxue's talent was well known throughout the Central Continent. Her strength relied on her extraordinary perception and comprehension. She was highly sensitive when it came to elements in the air.

"Decreasing?" Yun Lintian repeated in surprise and began to concentrate. A moment later, he perceived the surrounding wood element was indeed decreasing.

Thinking of this, Yun Lintian shot into the sky, planning to gain a bird's eye view of the whole forest.

Bang!

Before Yun Lintian could pass the top of the tree's level, he suddenly hit an invisible barrier, causing him to bounce back and fall onto the ground heavily.

"Are you alright?" Mu Qiuxue asked.

Yun Lintian got up from the ground and patted the dust off his robe. "I'm fine. It seems this is no flying zone."

Guchang frowned slightly and flew into the air. When he reached the position Yun Lintian had been earlier, he reached his hand out and, surprisingly discovered an invisible barrier. "This doesn't seem to be a formation.... What is it?"

"Well, we can only move forward first." Yun Lintian said. He had no idea about the Tree of Life's position. He could easily guess it should be located at the forest's center.

"Yeah." Guchang nodded in agreement as he returned to the ground.

Swoosh!

As Yun Lintian's group was about to continue forward, they suddenly caught a movement several meters ahead. At the same time, two figures in green appeared in their sights.

Yun Lintian was stunned on the spot when he saw these two figures because he was extremely familiar with their appearances.

The two figures were beautiful women with slender shapes. Their long hairs were bright green in color, blending into the surroundings. The most notable feature on their faces was their pointy ears. They were ninety-nine percent resembled the legendary western fantasy character, an elf!

"Who are you?" The elf girl with the ponytail hairstyle aimed her arrow at Yun Lintian's group. She had a pair of sharp eyes emerald in color. Her face features were unlike any human in the Azure World. They were inclined toward the westerner of Earth with high nose-bridge and long brows.

Guchang and Mu Qiuxue didn't answer. They turned to look at Yun Lintian, waiting for him to decide.

"These two sisters, we have no ill intention." Unexpectedly, Fan spoke first.

Guchang's face was cramped, and he quickly said. "Shut up!"

Fan looked at his father in confusion, as if he was asking, what did he do wrong?

Yun Lintian was surprised that these two "elf" girls spoke the same language as his. This made things easier.

Yun Lintian raised his hand and replied truthfully. "My name is Yun Lintian. I am here to find the Tree of Life."

Guchang and Mu Qiuxue looked at him in a dumbfounded manner... Aren't you too honest? At the same time, it was the first time they had learned Yun Lintian's true name.

,m Sure enough, the expressions of the two elf girls turned cold instantly. They tightened their grips on the wooden bows, and the ponytail girl said coldly. "You should leave this place."

Yun Lintian shook his head slightly. "Unfortunately, we won't leave."

The atmosphere became intense as his voice fell. Both sides stared at each other without moving.

"What are you going to do?" Mu Qiuxue couldn't help asking Yun Lintian through a sound transmission.

"Wait and see." Yun Lintian replied simply.

He looked at the elf girls and said calmly. "On the way here, I saw this place slowly getting swallowed by Abyssal Energy. I don't know exactly what happened and how Abyssal Energy appeared here, but I can see this forest is in a bad situation. Once the white mist outside disappeared, countless people would rush here. At that time, you will face a great calamity that is even worse than Abyssal Energy you're facing right now."

He paused for a moment and said. "If you trust me, I can help you."

The ponytail girl frowned and responded coldly. "Everyone said humans are full of deceptions. It seems everything is true... Leave!"

Yun Lintian nodded in agreement. "Yes, I agree with that statement. Humans are indeed deceptive. The problem is that there are two kinds of deceptions. One is for ourselves, and another is for others...."

The long-haired girl said coldly. "Leave now!" She didn't want to listen to Yun Lintian's nonsense further.

Yun Lintian sighed, and his figure disappeared from the spot before reappearing behind the ponytail girl. Before she could react, Yun Lintian had already held her neck.

"You!" The long-haired girl was shocked and prepared to shoot at Yun Lintian. However, Mu Qiuxue had already appeared behind her and completely controlled her.

"What are you going to do?" The ponytail girl said coldly. Even though her life was in Yun Lintian's hands, there was no slight trace of fear in her eyes.

Chapter 702 Gaining Trust

Yun Lintian was surprised slightly to see the ponytail girl's reaction. He glanced at the long-haired girl and said calmly. "I didn't mean to hurt you two. I'm merely proving that I can easily kill both of you."

The two elf girls weren't stupid. They immediately understood the meanings behind Yun Lintian's words.

Yun Lintian looked at Mu Qiuxue and motioned with his chin. Both of them gently released the elf girls. At this time, the elf girls didn't raise their bows anymore. After all, it was useless.

"How did elves appear here, Hongyue?" Yun Lintian asked in his mind.

"Do you think there are only two or three races in this vast universe?" Hongyue curled her lips.

"Of course not. What I am asking is how did they appear here in the Azure World? They shouldn't be a native, right? Also, they are the guardians you talked about before, right?" Yun Lintian rolled his eyes annoyingly.

"Yes, they are the guardians I told you before. How is it, surprised?" Hongyue replied lazily. "Their origin is complicated. In short, they come from a realm called the Heavenly Wood Spirit Realm. With their high affinity with nature and the ability to heal, they have become the most sought-after species in the Divine World."

"You're saying they were hunting down and somehow escaped to this place?" Yun Lintian asked curiously.

"As expected from a mad novel reader like you. You can even guess about the plot correctly." Hongyue laughed gently. "It's almost the same as you said. It is just that they didn't escape to this place, but they were following the Tree of Life to this place."

"I see." Yun Lintian said in an understanding manner.

Seeing Yun Lintian remained silent, the elf girls were uneasy. The ponytail girl couldn't help asking. "What are you going to do?"

Yun Lintian returned to his sense and smiled faintly. "Why don't you introduce yourself first?"

The two elves glanced at each other and became hesitant. The ponytail girl thought for a moment and replied. "My name is Naela, and she's Aemma. We are the guardians of this forest."

"Naela and Aemma. It's elven enough." Yun Lintian nodded his head while muttering.

Naela looked at Yun Lintian weirdly. She didn't understand what Yun Lintian was saying.

"Can you tell me how did Abyssal Energy appear here?" Yun Lintian asked.

Naela went silent for a moment before replying. "We have to trace back to four thousand years ago. At that time, the Abyssal Beasts were rampaging, and one of its leaders, the Dragon of Death, tried to break into this place. Fortunately, it was subdued by our queen."

She took a deep breath and said solemnly. "Our queen cannot kill it because it was too powerful. Her Majesty could only seal it in this land with the help of Lord Tree of Life... Unfortunately, Lord Tree of Life is gradually declining and couldn't no longer suppress the Dragon of Death.... It will be fully awake soon."

"Oh, what a typical plot." Yun Lintian muttered.

"What?" Naela looked at Yun Lintian in confusion.

"Nothing." Yun Lintian responded. "Why did you tell me the truth all of a sudden? I thought you would come up with lies."

Aemma interjected. "We are not like you human. We're disdain to lie."

"I see." Yun Lintian nodded. "Did you say your queen is just now? Why don't you bring us to see her?"

"Impossible!" Aemma quickly said. "Even if we have to die here, we will never bring any outsider to see Her Majesty!"

Meanwhile, Naela didn't say anything, but the meaning in her eyes was obvious—it was impossible for her to bring him there.

Yun Lintian wasn't annoyed by their attitude. It was totally understandable. After all, they were enemies in a sense.

"Hongyue, is there a way to gain their trust?" Yun Lintian asked in his mind.

"Easy. Let Linlin show her true form. These elves pretty much respect a true divine beast." Hongyue replied casually.

"Oh? It seems I have to study more later." Yun Lintian had no idea about this. He quickly sent a sound transmission to Linlin. "Linlin, big brother has to trouble you showing your true form."

"Mhm!" Linlin replied readily and jumped out of Yun Lintian's head. Her figure quickly expanded and became a giant white tiger.

Linlin's sudden change in her appearance stunned everyone in the scene. Especially Guchang. He always thought Linlin was an ordinary snow tiger all this time.

"This... White Tiger God?" Naela and Aemma's eyes were wide open as they stared at Linlin in disbelief.

"Yes. Her name is Linlin." Yun Lintian answered.

"She's a divine beast?" Mu Qiuxue asked in astonishment.

Linlin lowered her head to look at Mu Qiuxue, and a fierce golden lightning spark flashed through her eyes, causing Mu Qiuxue to subconsciously take a few steps back.

Meanwhile, Guchang and Fan felt their bloodline was totally suppressed by Linlin's presence and had the urge to kneel down.

"We greet Lord White Tiger God." Naela and Aemma hurriedly knelt on one knee and greeted Linlin with the utmost respect.

Linlin glanced at them and said. "Can you trust Big Brother Yun now?"

"Yes! Our queen said a person who could gain complete trust in Divine Beast Gods is trustworthy. We will never doubt him again." Naela and Aemma answered loudly.

Yun Lintian watched the scene and sighed inwardly. Having Linlin was indeed convenient. Otherwise, he had no idea how to gain the trust of these elves in a short time.

Linlin nodded and returned to her miniature size, hopping onto Yun Lintian's shoulder.

"Now, can you bring us to see your queen?" Yun Lintian asked.

This time, Naela and Aemma didn't hesitate anymore. "Yes, please follow us."

Yun Lintian smiled and beckoned Mu Qiuxue and others to follow.

As Yun Lintian's group followed Naela and Aemma away, Du Huanfeng's group gradually emerged a few kilometers away from Yun Lintian's original position. They were currently observing the vicinity in amazement.

"This is not where we came last time." Du San frowned.

Du Huanfeng's eyes flashed with excitement as he looked at the surrounding precious woods.

"Undoubtedly, this place is the real Misty Forest. It means the Tree of Life is here." He turned to look at his subordinates and said. "Hurry up! Take these trees down."

"Yes, Young Master." The subordinates accepted the task readily and started chopping the trees.

"Finally..." Du Huanfeng looked in the forest's center direction with a grin.

Chapter 703 Sacred Tree

"Try to stick closer to us as much as possible. Once you get lost here, it's difficult for you to find a way back." Naela gave a warning.

Yun Lintian and others looked around and seemed to understand something. This forest was like a maze full of traps. Once you went the wrong way, you would be stuck in this forest forever.

Hearing this, Fan quickly increased his pace and almost stuck to Aemma's body, making the latter frown.

Guchang saw this scene and covered his forehead helplessly. "Can you not embarrass me for a second?"

Fan turned to look at his father with a confused expression. "What's wrong, father? Don't you hear what she said earlier?"

Guchang wanted to say something but sighed in the end. It was his fault for not giving his son a good education.

Yun Lintian opened Eyes of Heaven and observed the vicinity with great interest. Under the Eyes of Heaven's vision, he soon discovered current profound energy flowing in one direction, heading toward the supposed to be a center of the forest.

Meanwhile, in the other places with no profound energy flow, there seemed to be a kind of illusory formation that could easily deceive anyone who came by and lead them in the wrong direction.

Swoosh! Swoosh!

As they moved forward for an hour, several figures suddenly appeared around them, aiming their wooden bows at Yun Lintian's group with hostility.

Surrounding by killing intents, Yun Lintian wasn't panicking. Without a doubt, these people were elves.

"Naela, Aemma. You've failed your duty." A short-haired elf with a cold face said in a deep voice as she stared at Naela and Aemma. Judging from her appearance, she seemed to have a high prestige among them.

Naela and Aemma quickly bowed their heads. "Please listen to our explanation first, Team Leader Yavanna."

"I'm all ears." The short-haired female elf, Yavanna, looked at them coldly.

Naela and Aemma heaved a sigh of relief upon hearing this. Naela quickly explained. "They are not bad people. They have a Divine Beast God accompanying them."

Naela knew she had to stress out the most crucial point right away. Otherwise, Yavanna would attack Yun Lintian's group in the next second.

A strange light flashed through Yavanna's eyes. She turned to look at Yun Lintian and Linlin on his shoulder in doubt. "You mean...."

Before she could finish her sentence, Linlin suddenly jumped out of Yun Lintian's shoulder and returned to her true form. Golden lightning sparks immediately filled the surroundings, causing all the elves here to panic.

Yavanna was shocked by the scene. Cold sweat appeared on her forehead as she hurriedly knelt on one knee. "Please calm your anger, Lord White Tiger God. We have no intention of offending you."

"Hmph!" Linlin snorted coldly. "If it wasn't because Big Brother Yun told me not to harm you, I would have killed all of you here a long time ago."

"Thank you for forgiving us." Yavanna hurriedly said. The hostility she had earlier was long gone at the moment.

"Hurry up and bring us to see your queen. We have an enemy trailed behind. You've wasted our time here." Linlin said coldly and returned to her miniature form, jumping onto Yun Lintian's shoulder.

Yavanna didn't dare to be neglected anymore. She looked at Yun Lintian with respect. To be able to gain Linlin's trust, this person must be extremely extraordinary. "Please follow me, Sir."

Yun Lintian didn't want the relationship between him and the elves to be too stiff. He smiled gently and said. "No need to be polite. My name is Yun Lintian, and these are Mu Qiuxue, Guchang, and Fan."

Yavanna nodded respectfully. "My name is Yavanna. I am the scout team leader. Please do not get offended by our behaviors earlier."

"It's okay. I understand." Yun Lintian replied.

"This way, please." Yavanna made an inviting gesture and led Yun Lintian into the forest.

Soon, Yun Lintian's group arrived at a small village with houses built on trees. The first thing that came to Yun Lintian's vision was a gigantic tree that could not see the top as it pierced into the clouds. The tree was surrounded by an ethereal atmosphere, seemingly detaching from the world.

"That... The legendary Tree of Life?" Guchang's gaze was glued to the sacred tree, unable to look elsewhere. His heart was full of awe and shock. He didn't expect he would have a chance to see the legendary Tree of Life with his own eyes like this.

Mu Qiuxue's reaction wasn't different from Guchang's. With her sharp perception, she could feel an enormous vitality within this ethereal tree. It was more than anything she had seen in her entire life.

"Hongyue?" Although Yun Lintian was certain this was the Tree of Life, he still asked Hongyue for confirmation.

"Yes. Without a doubt, it's the Tree of Life." Hongyue replied calmly. "Unfortunately, it's dying."

"What do you mean?" Yun Lintian's expression abruptly changed. "Is there a way to restore it?"

"You must absorb it as soon as possible," Hongyue replied. "However, once you take it away, the so-called Dragon of Death will awake immediately. You have to find a way to deal with it."

Yun Lintian fell into contemplation. A moment later, he asked. "Can these elves be trusted?"

"Why? Are you going to take them in?" Hongyue asked in surprise. "Don't tell me you are fascinated by their looks?"

Yun Lintian's face darkened. "Nonsense! They have been protecting the Tree of Life for so long. I can't leave them dying here, right?"

"Cheh! Don't think that I don't know your filthy idea. Are you men from Earth always fantasizing about elves?" Hongyue sneered. "Well, the legend said they possess nature's purest souls and hearts. As long as you can gain their trust, I don't think there's a problem for you to take them in... Don't forget that you have full authority in the Land of Beyond Heaven. Anything inside is basically in your hands."

Yun Lintian had a thoughtful look as he looked at Guchang, Fan, and Mu Qiuxue. "The problem is, how to avoid them?"

"That's your problem," Hongyue replied lazily and went silent.

Chapter 704 Elf Queen

"We welcome Sir to our humble village," Yavanna said respectfully and made a gesture, inviting Yun Lintian's group into the village.

"Thank you." Yun Lintian replied politely and started observing the village.

The village was full of trees and flowers. All the buildings were integrated with trees, arranged neatly with the Tree of Life at the center. At this moment, several children could be seen running around happily. When they saw Yun Lintian's group, they hurriedly stopped their movement and looked at him curiously.

What Yun Lintian surprised the most was he didn't see any male elf here. Could it be... there were only females here? Wasn't that perfect?

While Yun Lintian was thinking crookedly, a little girl with a twin-tail hairstyle ran forward and shouted happily. "You're back, Sister Yavanna!"

She had an exquisite appearance, like a porcelain doll. Her blue eyes were full of intelligence, compatible with her long emerald hair. Judging from her clean white dress, she seemed to have a high status here.

A gentle smile appeared on Yavanna's cold face. "Why are you here, Princess Nienna?"

"Hehe. I'm bored." The little girl, Nienna, shifted her gaze onto Yun Lintian and asked curiously. "Who are they, Sister Yavanna? Are they the legendary humans?"

"Yes. They are our guests." Yavanna replied.

Nienna stepped forward and lowered her stance. She greeted Yun Lintian's group politely. "Hello, esteemed guests. My name is Nienna. Welcome to our Wood Spirit Village."

Yun Lintian smiled and replied. "Hello, Princess Nienna. My name is Yun Lintian, and this is Linlin."

Guchang and others then quickly introduced themselves one by one.

Nienna smiled happily and turned to Yavanna. "Are you bringing them to see Queen Mother?"

"Yes." Yavanna nodded.

"Leave it to me then," Nienna said and turned to Yun Lintian. "Dear esteemed guests, please follow me."

Yavanna hesitated briefly and decided to follow along. In case something happened to Nienna.

Walking along the way, Yun Lintian encountered several villagers. From his estimation, this place should have around two or three hundred people. What puzzled Yun Lintian the most was their strength.

According to Eyes of Heaven, their strength seemed to be around Heaven Profound Realm, but the profound energy within their bodies differed from what he had seen in other practitioners.

"It's normal. They are using a different system from yours. For example, this Yavanna girl. Her strength can be compared to a human's Saint, but her ways of utilizing profound energy are entirely different. If I remember correctly, her realm should be called Grandmaster Realm." Hongyue's voice resounded in Yun Lintian's mind.

"Grandmaster Realm? I see...." Yun Lintian immediately understood. After all, there were countless cultivating systems in this universe.

"You called it profound energy, but they called it nature's essence," Hongyue added.

Yun Lintian nodded thoughtfully.

A while later, Nienna led Yun Lintian's group into a huge residence built in a colossus tree. It could be compared to a castle in the outside world.

In a spacious hall filled with gorgeous flowers and butterflies, a beautiful fire could be seen leaning sideways on a wooden throne with her eyes closed. Her sitting posture was lazy and casual, without a queen's demeanor.

She was clad in a deep green floral dress, and the hem of her skirt was pulled a little upward due to her sitting posture to reveal a bit of ankle. Her ankles looked soft, silky, and so flexible they might as well be boneless.

Her long hair stretched all the way to her waist, and it had a kind of gentle green light lingering around it.

As soon as Yun Lintian's appeared in the hall, her eyes gradually opened, revealing a pair of magnificent eyes filled with infinite gentleness. Her countenance couldn't be easily described by words. If Lin Xinyao was regarded as the most beautiful woman Yun Lintian had ever seen after coming to this world, the woman before him could be counted as the most elegant woman in this world.

She looked at Yun Lintian and then at Linlin while curling her lips. Her smile was more gentle and beautiful than a blooming flower. It contained an indescribable charm that not even a sea of flowers could ever exude.

"Welcome Lord White Tiger God and her followers to our humble abode. My name is Iryena, the current Heavenly Wood Spirit Queen." The charming woman Iryena, said humbly. Her voice was like a melody of nature, easily calming any listener's soul.

Linlin glanced at her and responded casually. "Mhm."

Regarding outsiders, Linlin had always held an arrogant attitude toward them. Especially to the people Yun Lintian hadn't yet approved. No matter what status they possessed, she would never lower her stance.

Iryena wasn't dissatisfied with Linlin's attitude, as she felt it should be like this. How could a Divine Beast God communicate with an inferior existence like her?

What she was curious about right now was Yun Lintian. Judging from Linlin's appearance, this human youth had certainly gained complete trust from her. This was something extremely scarce, as everyone in the Divine World knew how prideful Divine Beast Gods were.

"May I know your name?" Iryena stood up and asked. As she moved, her bountiful assets were jiggled slightly, causing Yun Lintian to inadvertently glance at them.

Yun Lintian quickly shifted his gaze onto her face and said politely. "Greetings Her Majesty Queen Iryena. My name is Yun Lintian, and she is Linlin. These are my friends, Mu Qiuxue, Senior Guchang, and his son, Fan."

NO v el Next. CoM

Iryena swept her gaze over everyone briefly and said with a smile. "Since you are here, I guess your purpose is Lord Tree of Life. Am I correct?"

Yun Lintian didn't hide anything. "Yes. More precisely, it's my goal alone. I am here to take Tree of Life away."

Mu Qiuxue and Guchang were startled by Yun Lintian's answer... How could he answer so honestly? While thinking of this, their bodies tensed up and prepared to enter the battle at any moment.

A strange light flashed across Iryena's eyes. She observed Yun Lintian from head to toe and didn't find anything special about him. This made her curious. Why did Yun Lintian say this?

Yun Lintian saw through her thoughts. He smiled and opened his palm gently. The next moment, three colored balls of light immediately appeared above his palm. They represented The Thunder, The Moon, and The Sun, respectively.

Iryena's eyes were wide open in shock upon seeing this scene. Her lips trembled as she uttered. "You are... The Beyond Heaven King's successor!"

Chapter 705 Trace Of The Past Event

Yun Lintian's power showcase did startle not only Iryena but also everyone in the place. Especially Mu Qiuxue. Before this, Yun Lintian had shown the fire and lightning elemental techniques. She didn't expect him to be proficient in the water element too.

"Fire, Lightning, and water. All contradictory elements exist in one person...." Yavanna muttered while staring at the three elemental balls in Yun Lintian's palm in astonishment.

"Beyond Heaven King's successor?" Guchang looked at Yun Lintian in doubt. He had lived for a long time, but he had never heard anything about this Beyond Heaven King before.

Iryena took a deep breath, looking at Yun Lintian solemnly. "It's my honor to meet his successor here. However, the current Tree of Life is not in a good state. I'm afraid it might affect you."

"Hongyue?" Yun Lintian's expression was calm while he secretly asked Hongyue in his mind.

"It's true, but can you wait for another thousand years?" Hongyue replied casually.

Yun Lintian's face twitched slightly. He thought for a moment and said. "I understand your point, but I can't wait for it to recover. Furthermore, isn't the Dragon of Death locking up here? It's impossible for the Tree of Life to recover in this state."

Iryena went silent for a long time before asking. "Can you take us in?"

N0 v el Next. CoM

Yun Lintian was taken aback. He was thinking about how to rope Iryena and all the elves in. Unexpectedly, Iryena took the initiative to mention this herself.

Iryena thought that Yun Lintian didn't trust her, she hurriedly explained. "Forty thousand years ago, my mother brought everyone to pledge our loyalty to the Beyond Heaven King. The fact that he entrusted the Tree of Life in our hands has proven his trust in us."

Yun Lintian touched his chin, looking at Iryena thoughtfully. "I'm curious. Since I entered this place, everything seemed smooth-sailing to me. I start to feel like I'm getting deceived. Besides, the one you pledged your loyalty to is him, not me. It might sound ridiculous, but forgive me. I can't trust you just yet."

He couldn't be blamed for this, as he possessed a cautious nature. In his opinion, there must be something wrong with anything that went too smoothly.

In the Land of Beyond Heaven, Hongyue wanted to laugh loudly at Yun Lintian's statement. It was indeed ridiculous. Before this, he tried to gain the trust of Iryena, but the situation reversed instead.

"You don't have to think too much. I can guarantee she can be trusted unconditionally." Hongyue couldn't help saying.

"Why?" Yun Lintian frowned.

"Because I know her mother." A trace of sadness flashed across Hongyue's eyes as she spoke.

"Oh? Tell me more." Yun Lintian was surprised. No wonder Hongyue said this.

"There's nothing to tell you. Go ahead and take them in." Hongyue replied nonchalantly and went silent.

"Tsk. Stingy as always." Yun Lintian clicked his tongue in dissatisfaction.

He looked at Iryena and said. "Let's talk about the Dragon of Death first. Where is it right now?"

"He is locked up under the Tree of Life currently. His strength is recovering day by day. Until recently, he shows a sign of recovery and starts moving, as you can see when you came in." Iryena replied with a serious expression. "Once you take the Tree of Life away, he will surely bring calamity to this world."

"What's his strength?" Yun Lintian asked curiously.

From his judgment, Iryena's profound strength was at least the first level of the Divine Ascending Realm. Since she couldn't kill the so-called Dragon of Death, it meant the latter's strength was far higher than hers. If it came out, his current strength was insufficient to deal with it. He had to find a solution for this.

"In this world's system, his strength is roughly equal to the ninth level of the Divine Ascending Tribulation Realm," Iryena answered.

Yun Lintian and others were shocked to the core upon hearing this.

"Ninth level...." Guchang's face became unsightly. If that was truly the case, only Tianqi Zongwei could be rivaled by this Dragon of Death. They would be simply courting death here.

Iryena said further. "Thanks to the Tree of Life's power. Otherwise, this tiny world would have been conquered by him four thousand years ago."

"Four thousand years ago? Don't tell me he is...." Guchang seemed to think of something.

Iryena looked at him and nodded her head gently. "You possess the Crimson Ox bloodline, which means you must experience the incident back then... Yes, the Dragon of Death is one of their leaders."

Even though he had expected this answer, Guchang still trembled in horror. He took a deep breath to calm down and asked. "I have never heard his name before. Could it be he was hiding from everyone all the time?"

Iryena shook her head. "When he arrived in this world, the Dragon of Death felt the Tree of Life's presence and immediately came all the way here. Fortunately, I managed to suppress him in the end."

Guchang nodded heavily. "The result would be otherwise if he freely moved back then." He suddenly bowed his head toward Iryena. "Thank you for saving us."

Iryena waved her hand, and a wisp of gentle breeze immediately straightened Guchang's body. "I did what I should do. Besides, the Dragon of Death still exists."

Listening to the conversation, Yun Lintian picked up a few words from them. First, the Dragon of Death had "arrived" in this world. Basically meant it didn't belong to this world in the first place. Then where did it come from?

Secondly, the battle in the past clearly consisted of several Divine Ascending Tribulation realm experts on both sides. Why didn't Yan Qi mention this to him? Perhaps he was afraid he would be overwhelmed by the information?

According to the information above, what was precisely the level of the Endless Sea Sovereign's strength? Was Han Bingling intentionally hiding this information from him, or was she genuinely clueless?

Several questions kept appearing in Yun Lintian's mind. He hadn't thought about these things before. More precisely, he didn't have time to think about it, as he constantly moved from place to place. However, one thing he was certain of right now was that someone tried to hide the information about these Abyssal Beasts' origin from the world.

Chapter 706 Tree Of Life And Dragon Of Death (1)

Everything in the past gradually resurfaced as Yun Lintian pondered further. The human side didn't seem to know much about the Abyssal Beasts and Poison Valley. Meanwhile, everyone on the Western Continent seemed to be aware of everything. What was going on here?

On the side, Mu Qiuxue was simply clueless. She hadn't come into contact with the past incident. She only knew something terrible had occurred thousands of years ago. It was said that the incident had changed the world's structure.

Yun Lintian couldn't help asking. "Queen Iryena, what's the origin of those Abyssal Beasts?"

Surprisingly, Iryena shook her head. "I don't know. Since I arrived in this world, I had never gone out once. One thing I know is the Dragon of Death's aura doesn't belong to this world."

Yun Lintian was disappointed, but he still asked further. "How did people outside know about the Tree of Life?"

Before Iryena could reply, Nienna spoke first. "It's my fault. I was curious about the outside world back then and mistakenly took a group of people in. Unexpectedly, they were blinded by greed and tried to take everything here away."

Iryena touched her daughter's head gently and added. "We, Heavenly Wood Spirit, are kind in nature. Even those people committed a crime. We can't make up our minds to kill them and let them go in the end."

Yun Lintian nodded his head slowly. "So that's how the rumor started."

Iryena said further. "We had created an illusion formation to deal with those greedy people. However, the Dragon of Death's movement directly destroyed it. We have no choice but to summon a natural formation to protect this place." She paused for a moment and looked at Yun Lintian. "Aside from your group, another group of people is heading to this place."

"It must be Du Huanfeng." A killing intent appeared in Mu Qiuxue's eyes as she spoke.

"How did he come in?" Although Yun Lintian could guess more or less, he still asked for confirmation.

"He used a divine artifact," Iryena replied.

"As expected. That cauldron is not ordinary." Yun Lintian recalled the scene where Du Huanfeng manipulated the Soul Suppressing Cauldron to nullify Huoyun Yurou's attack. It would be great if he could have it.

"Where's he now?" Yun Lintian asked further.

"Don't worry. He won't be able to find a way here for a long time." Iryena replied with a gentle yet confident smile. She asked curiously. "Are they your enemies?"

"Well, he tried to kill me a few times in the past. Sadly, I didn't have a chance to pay back." Yun Lintian responded calmly.

"I can lock them in a place if you want," Iryena said.

Yun Lintian shook his head. "Not now. Please bring me to the Tree of Life first."

Iryena had no objection. However, she gave a deep look at Mu Qiuxue, Guchang, and Fan, as if she wanted to say something.

As a former patriarch of the Crimson Ox Clan, how could Guchang not know the meaning of this? He cleverly said. "Our strength hasn't recovered yet. We will have to trouble Queen Iryena to arrange a place for us."

Iryena smiled and turned to Yavanna. "I'll leave this duty to you."

Yavanna accepted the task readily. "Please reassured, My Queen." She turned to Guchang and said. "Please follow me."

Guchang nodded and pulled the confused Fan away.

Meanwhile, Mu Qiuxue hesitated briefly and followed Yavanna behind.

"Please," Iryena made an inviting gesture.

Yun Lintian simply nodded and followed Iryena out.

Under Iryena's guidance, Yun Lintian walked along a flowery corridor for a while and arrived at an open space with several people standing in a circle around the Tree of Life.

Seeing the Tree of Life up close, Yun Lintian was astonished by its majestic size. This was definitely the biggest tree he had ever seen throughout his two lifetimes.

The ethereal aura he perceived at the far distance was actually a life aura that he had never seen before. As he moved his gaze around, he discovered this place was basically brimming with vitality. Just by living here, Yun Lintian believed his lifespan would gradually increase without doing anything.

"My Queen!" Several female guards solemnly saluted upon seeing Iryena. At the same time, they glanced at Yun Lintian with caution. If Yun Lintian tried to do something, they wouldn't hesitate to bring him down immediately.

Iryena smiled gently and let them lower their guard. "This is my guest."

"Understood!" The guards shouted in unison and took a step back, opening a path for Iryena and Yun Lintian. However, they were still looking at Yun Lintian cautiously.

Yun Lintian took a good look at these guards and was shocked inwardly. From their aura, none of them here was lower than the Divine Ascending Tribulation Realm. The highest one was even stronger than Huoyun Yurou. This was the first time he encountered such a powerful lineup.

Iryena didn't seem to notice Yun Lintian's expression. She looked upward at the Tree of Life and brought her hands together. "Oh Lord Tree of Life. This lowly one has brought the Beyond Heaven King's successor here. Please forgive this lowly one for disturbing your rest."

As her voice fell, the Tree of Life suddenly swayed gently and extended its long branch toward Iryena. Iryena and all the guards immediately knelt on one knee and respectfully lowered their heads.

Yun Lintian's brows raised slightly as he looked at the Tree of Life in doubt. It seemed the Tree of Life possessed a spiritual consciousness. This was entirely different from The Sun, The Moon, and The Thunder.

The Tree of Life's branch gently touched Iryena's head and emitted a green light that seemed to fill with vitality, as if it was acknowledged by Iryena's words.

"Thank you, Lord Tree of Life," Iryena said solemnly, and there was a trace of joy within her voice. She seemed to receive something precious from the touch.

In the next moment, the Tree of Life's branch shifted from Iryena's head and extended toward Yun Lintian.

Yun Lintian hesitated briefly and reached his hand out to touch it. Instantly, he heard a gentle female voice resounded in his head.

"You've come, My King."

Chapter 707 Tree Of Life And Dragon Of Death (2)

Yun Lintian abruptly stiffened. He stared straight at the tree branch and asked. "My King...?"

The gentle voice's owner did not answer, but a trace of vitality gradually flushed into Yun Lintian's body, heading toward the Beyond Heaven King's Crown that resided between his brows.

The crowd gently shook, and Yun Lintian immediately felt a warm sensation spread over his body as if he were lying in a comfortable hot spring.

Yun Lintian didn't resist because this warm current was not only completely friendly and kind but also so vast and boundless that he was totally powerless against it.

"You're His Majesty's successor. We're obligating to regard you as our new king." The gentle voice resounded.

Yun Lintian couldn't resist the urge and asked directly. "Can you tell me who he is? And where is he now?"

"My apologies, My King. Everything has been arranged by His Majesty. I cannot tell you this." The gentle voice echoed in Yun Lintian's mind. "I've presumptuously looked into your memories earlier. I hope you can forgive me."

Yun Lintian was shocked. He simply had no clue about it. How did she do it so swiftly?

"It's fine. I can feel you have no ill intention." Yun Lintian calmed down. "By the way, what is your name? Also, are you the Tree of Life's spiritual consciousness?"

"My name is Lauya, and I am indeed the Tree of Life's spiritual consciousness." The gentle voice owner, Lauya, replied gently.

"Lauya..." Yun Lintian nodded slightly. "You're the first one I met so far."

"Actually, every Beyond Heaven Relic has its own spirit. Unfortunately, they have been wiped out when they arrived here." Lauya suddenly said. The regret in her voice was obvious.

Although Yun Lintian was curious about what happened in the past, he knew she would never tell him, just like Hongyue. This frustrated him a bit.

He put this matter aside and asked. "What should I do now?"

"Before absorbing me, can you satisfy my little wish?" Lauya said softly.

"Please do tell." Yun Lintian didn't agree right away.

"My King may doubt about these Heavenly Wood Spirits' loyalty. However, I hope My King can give them a peaceful life... They've accompanied me for several generations. Their ancestors had sacrificed themselves in order to protect me. I cannot simply watch them disappear." Lauya said pleadingly.

"You mean you want me to take them into the Land of Beyond Heaven?" Yun Lintian asked the obvious question.

"Please," Lauya responded.

Yun Lintian thought for a moment and replied. "I can, but I have a condition. They have to let their status go and integrate with my people. From the moment they step into the Land of Beyond Heaven, they will be a part of my Misty Cloud Sect."

"Thank you, My King. There's no problem with the condition you proposed." Lauya replied gratefully.

"You can tell them first." Yun Lintian said and looked at Iryena.

At this moment, Iryena seemed to communicate with Lauya, and her face immediately lit up with excitement. She quickly knelt on one knee before Yun Lintian and said loudly. "Disciple Iryena greets Sect Master Yun."

On the side, Nienna and the guards were stunned for a moment and did not know what to do.

Iryena turned to look at them and said solemnly. "From now on, he will become our master. Do you understand?"

Nienna seemed to understand everything. She quickly followed her mother's gesture and said. "Disciple Nienna greets Sect Master Yun."

Seeing this, all the guards didn't hesitate to follow. Soon, the solemn voices echoed throughout the village, causing the villagers outside to startle.

"Get up." Yun Lintian waved his hand, sending gentle profound energy to help everyone. "Since you've decided to join my sect, we will be a family from now on... I know all of you don't like wars and killing. I can promise you here that I will never let you fight."

"Thank you, Sect Master!" Iryena and others looked at Yun Lintian gratefully. The Heavenly Wood Spirit's nature was kind and merciful. They were a peace lover, floating above worldly affairs. If it wasn't because their ancestors had vowed to serve Beyond Heaven King, they would find a corner somewhere in the universe to live secludedly a long time ago.

"Let's not talk about this now. We need to deal with the Dragon of Death first. Where is he?" Yun Lintian waved his hand dismissively.

Hearing this, Iryena's face became serious. She turned to a tall female guard that seemed to be the leader here and motioned with her chin.

The guard leader quickly shouted. "Everyone in your position!"

Several guards immediately spread out, returning to their position. Their expressions were solemn as they aimed their arrows at the ground beneath the Tree of Life.

Iryena told Nienna to step back, and she walked toward the Tree of Life. Standing a few meters away from the tree, she brought her hands together and said. "Oh Lord Tree of Life. Please bestows me a power of nature to deal with the darkness."

The Tree of Life swayed gently, emitting a bright green light filled with vitality. At the same time, Iryena's long hair began to flutter, and her body glowed brightly.

Rumble—

All of a sudden, the ground underneath the Tree of Life shook violently and gradually spread apart, revealing a completely dark hole in it.

Instantaneously, the green light from the Tree of Life quickly formed into a curtain of life and surrounded the entrance of the dark hole, wholly sealing anything that might come out later.

Yun Lintian's brows knitted together. The split moment the ground spread apart, he could clearly perceive a deadly aura leaking out of the hole. Although it was faint, it was enough to make all the hairs on his body stand up.

As Yun Lintian stared into the hole, he suddenly saw a bloody red dot appear in it. More precisely, it was a pupil of a hideous creature. When he looked straight at the red pupil, Yun Lintian felt like he had been drawn into a bottomless abyss, instantly sending his body to become rigid.

Chapter 708 Tree Of Life And Dragon Of Death (3)

A chill ran down Yun Lintian's spine. He had encountered countless life and death situations before, but none of them could give him this overwhelmingly dreadful feeling.

Suddenly, a wisp of gentle current flushed into Yun Lintian's body, making him calm down and return to his sense.

"Heh, this boy is interesting." A hoarse voice suddenly rang out from the dark hole as the red pupil enlarged slightly.

"You better be honest." Iryena signaled with her hand, and several wooden arrows immediately went straight into the red pupil.

Puff!

A black liquid gushed out from the red pupil, but the owner didn't seem to feel any pain as it was laughing. "Kekeke... Wait until I get out of this place. I will turn all of you into my dead puppets."

His voice was incomparably cold. Even though his aura could not break the seal, everyone on the scene involuntarily trembled just by hearing this.

"Hongyue." Yun Lintian called in his mind.

"This guy is undoubtedly standing at the ceiling of this world's profound strength. Fortunately, he chose to come here instead of going to other places. Otherwise, this world would cover in darkness by now." Hongyue said calmly.

"The ceiling of this world? How am I going to deal with him, then?" Yun Lintian smiled wryly. He felt powerless all over. His progress speed could be considered a miracle already, yet his profound strength could not catch up with the opponents he faced.

"His aura is filling with death power. I didn't expect there would be someone who caught a glimpse of the Laws of Death here. As long as he could ascend to the Divine World, he would certainly become a fearsome figure." Hongyue said further.

"Can you stop praising him and give me an idea?" Yun Lintian was speechless. There was no need to explain it to him, right?

,m Hongyue rolled her eyes. "What I am saying is the solution."

"What do you mean?" Yun Lintian asked confusedly.

"Since he possesses the Laws of Death, we can simply use the Laws of Life to kill him." Hongyue curled her lips.

"Laws of Life?" Yun Lintian looked at the Tree of Life and said. "You mean I can use the Tree of Life to kill him?"

"You're not entirely stupid." Hongyue laughed slightly. "Go integrate with the Tree of Life, and you will have a chance to finish him... However, I must give you a warning first. The Tree of Life is entirely different from other Beyond Heaven Relics you've encountered. Because its spirit still exists, you will need a long time to absorb it. It may take a month or a whole year. So, you better prepare yourself first."

"That long?" Yun Lintian was stunned. As someone from Earth and barely reaching fifty years of living in two lifetimes combined, a year was too long for him.

"There's no other way?" Yun Lintian tried his luck.

"No. Whether it is The Sun, The Moon, or the Thunder, all of them are in a 'dead' state without their own will. That's why you can easily absorb them, just like moving into a vacant house. However, the Tree of Life is like a house with a housekeeper. Not only do you need to take care of the house, but you also need to take care of the housekeeper." Hongyue explained.

"But Lauya should fully allow me to enter the house, right?" Yun Lintian asked in doubt.

"She has indeed regarded you as her new master now, but don't you have to get to know her first? Are you going to treat her like a randomly hired housekeeper that you can fire at any time?" Hongyue pursed her lips.

"I seem to understand now." Yun Lintian immediately understood what Hongyue tried to convey. Basically, he needed to get along with Lauya well in order to occupy the house—the Tree of Life. This kind of process was undoubtedly taking time.

In order not to waste his time further, Yun Lintian glanced at the red pupil and said to Iryena. "Close it."

Iryena immediately brought her hands together, praying again, and the ground around the dark hole gradually drew closer to each other.

The red pupil fixated its gaze on Yun Lintian as a cold voice resounded. "Three contradictory elements coexist peacefully in one body. Kekeke,... Look like you have a lot of secrets on you. Boy, we shall meet again soon."

"No, thanks." Yun Lintian replied casually as the dark hole fully closed.

"What's your next plan, Sect Master?" Iryena quickly integrated into her new role. She didn't have a slight dissatisfaction with calling Yun Lintian this. On the contrary, she was relieved and full of gratitude toward him. At least her Heavenly Wood Spirit Clan would regain a peaceful life soon.

Yun Lintian thought for a moment and said. "First of all, you have to take care of Du Huanfeng's group. Do not let him approach this place or leave this forest. Can you do it?"

"No problem," Iryena responded with a confident smile.

"No need to kill him. He has a high status in the outside world. Killing him here will cause trouble for my friends on this continent. We better capture him alive." Yun Lintian said further.

Iryena nodded her head gently. "I understand."

"Secondly, I will have to trouble you to take care of my friends. Find a place for them to practice during this time." Yun Lintian said. "Lastly, I am going to integrate with the Tree of Life. It may take a long time. During this time, tell everyone to stay in the village. I will personally arrange a formation around here, just in case."

"Please leave everything to me." Iryena accepted the instruction readily.

Yun Lintian nodded. He took countless best-grade Profound Stones, buckets of Profound Spirit Liquid, and various pills out and placed them on the ground nearby. "Share these things among yourself. During this period, everyone should try their best to increase their strength."

Surprisingly, except for Nienna, Iryena and the guards didn't seem surprised when Yun Lintian took these heavenly treasures out. It was as though they were used to such a scene.

"Thank you, Sect Master." Iryena smiled and beckoned the guard leader to take the items away.

Chapter 709 A Deal From Darkness

While Yun Lintian was preparing to absorb the Tree of Life, Du Huanfeng's group was currently lost in the forest maze.

"Can't find the way yet?" Sitting on the Soul Suppressing Cauldron, Du Huanfeng looked at Du San and others with dissatisfaction. He had been walking around this place for hours now. Whichever direction he chose, he would return to the original position in the end.

The expressions of Du San and others were unsightly. On the Central Continent, each one of them could be regarded as a top powerhouse, yet they couldn't find a way to break this illusion formation. If this matter spread out, people would undoubtedly laugh at them.

"Young Master, this formation is clearly on another level. The Western Continent is full of mysteries. I'm afraid this should be something left behind since the ancient era." The old man, Du Shi, said helplessly.

"So what? Are you finding excuses for your incompetence? My Myriad Pill Palace has spent countless fortunes raising all of you. I don't care whatever ancient formations are. You have to find a way to break it for me." Du Huanfeng shouted angrily.

Du Shi and others were speechless and sighed inwardly. There was nothing they could do in this situation.

"Kekeke..."

All of a sudden, a peal of hoarse laughter resounded in everyone's ears, causing them to raise their guard and look around vigilantly.

Du Huanfeng's body tensed up. His palm was tightly pressed on the cauldron, ready to escape at any moment. He asked loudly. "Who are you to pretend to be mysterious here?"

"I can see your heart is full of darkness. You're really suitable to be this king's pawn." The voice resounded once again. If Yun Lintian was here, he would definitely recognize the owner of this voice. It was no other than the Dragon of Death.

The moment when Iryena unsealed the entrance of the dark hole, the Dragon of Death had secretly sent a wisp of his consciousness away and ended up discovering Du Huanfeng's group.

At first, he wanted to turn these people into his puppets, but when he noticed the Soul Suppressing Cauldron, he immediately changed his mind and tried to manipulate them instead.

"Why don't you show yourself?" Du Huanfeng said coldly.

Swoosh—

Suddenly, a group of black mist appeared several meters away from Du Huanfeng's group, slowly taking a human form.

"Let me introduce myself. My name is Jue Kong, the Dragon of Death." The black figure said. His voice was hoarse, easily shaking any listener's soul.

"Dragon of Death?" Du Huanfeng's brow creased tightly together. The moment Jue Kong appeared, he had already perceived the Abyssal Energy within him. Undoubtedly, this Jue Kong was related to the Poison Valley.

Jue Kong seemed to see through Du Huanfeng's thoughts. He laughed gently and said. "Kekeke... It seems the later generations are still aware of our Abyssal Emperor's army."

"Abyssal Emperor?" Du Huanfeng had never heard such a name before. "Are you a Poison Valley member?"

"Poison Valley? What is that?" Jue Kong was slightly confused. "I've been locked up in this place for more than four thousand years. Look like this world has changed a lot."

Du Huanfeng's eyes narrowed. He seemed to figure out something. This Jue Kong must be one of the Abyssal Beasts that appeared in the incident four thousand years ago.

Thinking of this, he probed. "How did you end up in this place?"

Jue Kong obviously saw Du Huanfeng's intention, but he didn't care much. "I've been suppressed here by the Tree of Life. I see that you are similar to me when I was young. Why don't we join forces to take down the Tree of Life? Of course, you can take it away when the time comes. It's useless to me."

Du Huanfeng's eyes flashed with a strange light. He thought for a moment and said. "You're obviously stronger than us here. You can kill us at any moment. Why should I help you?"

"Heh, greedy bastard... But I like it." Jue Kong laughed. Talking with a clever and greedy person was indeed easy.

"As you can see, I am just a wisp of my true body's consciousness. All I can give you right now is my profound art. You can check it out and decide whether you want to cooperate with me." Jue Kong opened his palm, and a small black bead appeared. He flicked his wrist slightly, and the black bead went straight to Du Huanfeng.

"Be careful, Young Master!" Du San quickly appeared before Du Huanfeng and conjured a profound barrier.

However, the black bead simply penetrated his barrier, passing through his shoulder before going straight to Du Huanfeng's hand.

? Du San and others were dumbfounded by the scene. They couldn't understand what was going on.

"Tsk, you humans have become this weak? You don't even know you cannot use profound energy to block my memory sphere." Jue Kong looked at Du San as if he was looking at a fool.

At the same time, he could roughly gauge the human's current strength. Compared to four thousand years ago, the current humans seem to severely lack profound knowledge.

This is good as well. I can dominate this world by myself at this rate. All I have to do now is get rid of that little bitch Tree of Life.... Jue Kong thought.

At this moment, a current of knowledge flushed into Du Huanfeng's brain, causing him to involuntarily close his eyes. Countless runes and ancient descriptions appeared in his mind. It was as if someone had imprinted knowledge directly into his soul.

"Young Master?" Du San called out worriedly.

Du Huanfeng didn't respond. He continued to absorb the knowledge for a full hour before opening his eyes. A trace of excitement flashed through his eyes as he looked at Jue Kong. "This is all you have?"

Jue Kong laughed. "Kekeke! This is just an appetizer. Wait until you help me get out. There are a lot of good things waiting for you."

Du Huanfeng stared at Jue Kong for a while, and a grin appeared on the corner of his lips. "You better bring me out of this place first and we can talk about it."

"Simple." Jue Kong responded. "However, that little bitch is monitoring you right now. It's better to wait for a week."

Hearing this, Du Huanfeng had no objection. "Deal!"

Chapter 710 Start Absorbing

A week passed by quickly. Yun Lintian spent this time meticulously laying a killing, isolating, and protective formations around the village. As long as Du Huanfeng dared to come, he would need to spend everything.

"Your formation art is not bad, Sect Master. However, compared to a genius in the Divine World, you're still lagging behind." Iryena said with a smile after watching Yun Lintian deploying the formations.

Yun Lintian was taken aback by her remarks and couldn't help asking. "Still lag behind? Although I can't say I am a heavenly genius, I shouldn't be that far behind, right? After all, I'm nineteen this year."

"Sect Master, do you know the average age of the Monarch level Formation Masters in the Divine World?" Iryena asked. "It's ten years old."

"Ten? What the hell? Are they studying formation profound arts since they are in the womb?" Yun Lintian's eyes wide opened in shock.

Iryena covered her mouth and laughed, causing her bountiful assets to jiggle up and down, extremely pleasant to watch. "It's not like that. The formation arts over there are common knowledge that everyone has to learn besides battle profound arts. With the unique environment in the Divine World, they have a high chance to enter an enlightening state. That's why they could learn things extremely fast."

She paused for a moment and said further. "I believe if Sect Master is born in the Divine World, your achievement would definitely surpass all of them."

Yun Lintian waved his hand and said grudgingly. "No need to comfort me. Hmph! They are simply lucky."

Iryena laughed once again as she found Yun Lintian's current appearance cute.

"Alright, there shouldn't be anything to worry about now. I will start right away." Yun Lintian glanced at Iryena's trembling chest and quickly walked toward the Tree of Life.

"Leave it to us, Sect Master," Iryena replied and watched Yun Lintian walking away.

"My King." As soon as Yun Lintian arrived under the Tree of Life, Lauya's voice immediately resounded.

Yun Lintian looked at the Tree of Life and asked. "I'm ready. Where should I start?"

Swoosh—

Suddenly, several tree branches extended toward Yun Lintian and enveloped him before bringing him to a freshly formed vine basket in the middle of the tree.

"You can start here by summoning the Beyond Heaven King's Crown," Lauya said softly.

Yun Lintian was now sitting in the vine basket and glanced at the scenery of the whole forest briefly before saying. "Linlin, do you want to go down or stay with big brother here? It may take a long time. Big brother is afraid that you will get bored."

"I'll be here with you." Linlin climbed down from Yun Lintian's shoulder and laid on the ground beside him, appearing she was preparing to practice, too.

"Alright." Yun Lintian smiled and took out a lot of Profound Stones and snacks. "Take these. If it's not enough, you can take it out of this ring by yourself."

"Mhm!" Linlin replied with a bright smile and started licking a cream cake.

After settling Linlin, Yun Lintian took a deep breath and closed his eyes. Instantly, the Beyond Heaven King's Crown appeared on his head, releasing gorgeous three-colored lights to envelop the whole village.

"During this period, you cannot perceive anything that happens in the outside world. Please prepare yourself." Lauya reminded.

"Let's start." Yun Lintian was confident there wouldn't be anything that happened to the village during this period.

"We will start now, My King."

As Lauya's voice fell, a gentle green light gradually surrounded the whole vine basket, forming into a green sphere. If one looked at it from the outside, one would see a green ball of light floating in the middle of the tree.

At this moment Yun Lintian's consciousness gradually blurred and completely vanished into darkness....

In the Land of Beyond Heaven, Hongyue looked at the scene and muttered. "I hope you can forgive yourself when you wake up."

"Father, there's no meat here. Are we really going to eat these green plants and fruits forever?" In a spacious room somewhere nearby Iryena's residence, Fan asked his father while chewing a green apple.

Black lines appeared on Guchang's forehead as he glared at his son. "You only know how to eat. Go away. Start practicing for me!"

"Ah?" Fan was stunned and could only walk out of the room with a bitter expression.

Watching his son leaving, Guchang sighed helplessly. His son was a good person and filial enough. Unfortunately, God didn't give him enough IQ.

Knock! Knock!

While Guchang was lamenting, a knocking sound suddenly occurred. He frowned slightly and went to open the door.

"Miss Mu?" Guchang was slightly surprised when he saw Mu Qiuxue. "Do you have anything?"

,m Although Guchang didn't know much about Mu Qiuxue as they had just met not long ago, since she came with Yun Lintian, it meant there was no problem with her character. Hence, he didn't raise his guard against her.

Mu Qiuxue said politely. "I'm sorry to disturb your rest, Senior Guchang. I indeed have something to discuss with you. Can I go in?"

"Of course, please come in." Guchang nodded and led Mu Qiuxue to the living room.

After serving her a tea, he asked. "May I know what kind of business Miss Mu wants to discuss with me?"

Mu Qiuxue took a deep breath and said. "Can you become a sparring partner with me?"

Guchang was taken aback. There were plenty of female practitioners here. Why did she ask him this?

Seeing Guchang's doubt, Mu Qiuxue quickly explained her background and the reason she came to this continent.

After listening to Mu Qiuxue's narration, Guchang couldn't help sighing. "It's been hard for you, Miss Mu. This Du Huanfeng is really sinister."

Speaking of this, the scene where his clansmen were getting slaughtered emerged in Guchang's mind. He subconsciously clutched a teacup in his hand as boundless killing intent appeared in his eyes.

Mu Qiuxue waited for a while until Guchang regained his composure and said. "Although people in this place are powerful, they don't possess a killing intent. I don't think I can get a serious battle from them. That's why I have to trouble Senior for this."

Guchang took a deep breath and said. "I understand. Do you want to start now?"

"Yes, please." Mu Qiuxue said with a serious expression.
