

Myth Beyond 761

Chapter 761 Strange Ship

In the training room, a gentle orange and green flame revolved around Yun Lintian's body. The flame constantly gave off a tranquil aura, entirely different from the usual violent property of the flame.

Puff!

When Yun Lintian's eyes snapped open, the flame instantly dispersed, leaving a soft brilliance of light behind before slowly fading away.

"Not bad," Hongyue's voice resounded. "But it's still far from enough. The Vermilion Bird's flame has another name, Flame of Life. What does it mean? It means you can use it to save a life, but you can also take life away. Right now, you're more inclining toward the former side. Your flame didn't even have the slightest of killing intent, which is wasting its potential."

Yun Lintian frowned and said. "I don't need it to kill anyone. There are plenty of other methods."

"You're not entirely wrong, but not correct, either. When you need to master something, you have to understand it thoroughly. You can't just use half of it. What if one day you want to use it to save one's life, but because your control ability is too weak, you end up killing that person instead?"

Yun Lintian lowered his head, falling into deep thought. What Hongyue said was true. He couldn't find a reason to refute. Perhaps because he was a doctor, he subconsciously treated the Vermilion Bird's flame as a life-saving tool instead of a killing tool.

"I understand." Yun Lintian said while adjusting his way of thinking.

Knock!

At this moment, a knocking sound rang out, and Yun Lingwei entered the room. "We're about to reach the Southern Continent, but there's something interesting below. Do you want to take a look?"

"Sure." Yun Lintian was curious and walked out of the room with Yun Lingwei.

Walking to the deck, Yun Lintian discovered the skyship was floating still on the spot without moving forward.

"Look, there's something wrong with that ship." Yun Lingwei pointed at a tiny dot floating on the Endless Sea below.

Yun Lintian glanced down and used his profound energy to enhance his vision. Soon, he saw a shabby wooden ship that looked as though it hadn't been maintained for decades.

What was interesting was the ship crews seemed lifeless. They were walking back and forth like robots that had been programmed. Furthermore, their strength wasn't low at all. With a glance, Yun Lintian could tell the weakest among them was at the middle level of the Saint Profound Realm, and the strongest one was actually at the peak of the Monarch Profound Realm.

"It's like they are under mind control techniques." On the side, Mu Qiuxue said.

Yun Lintian shifted his gaze from them and looked at another iron ship sailing ahead of the bizarre wooden ship. From its movement, the iron ship was obviously running away from the wooden ship at full speed.

"Gold Coin Trading Group?" Yun Lingwei muttered as she read the name on the iron ship's flag.

"It's a relatively well-known trading group on the Central Continent." Mu Qiuxue said in surprise.

"Oh? You know them?" Yun Lintian asked.

? Mu Qiuxue nodded. "Although they are not considered a large trading group, they aren't small either. They are famous for their reasonable price and good quality. I don't know their background, but I once heard that the group was established by a top powerhouse. No one dares to provoke them."

Yun Lintian touched his chin and looked at the wooden ship drawing closer to the iron ship. "Should we be busybodies?"

"It's up to you." Mu Qiuxue thought for a moment and said. "They have a good connection. Judging from their direction, they are clearly heading to the Southern Continent. Perhaps you can earn something from them."

Yun Lintian turned to look at Yun Ruanyu and asked. "What do you think?"

Yun Ruanyu replied. "It's okay to help them. We can exchange information with them. The problem is, what's wrong with the wooden ship?"

Yun Lintian thought for a moment and asked Mu Qiuxue. "You're a well-known figure. Do you think they can recognize you?"

"Likely." Mu Qiuxue replied uncertainly.

"Then, we go together." Yun Lintian said and jumped out of the skyship, flying toward the iron ship, followed by Mu Qiuxue.

"Hurry up! Don't save the Profound Stones!" On the iron ship, a middle-aged man in his forties shouted loudly at the crews while anxiously looking at the incoming wooden ship.

The crews didn't hesitate to use the high-grade Profound Stones and released their profound energy, trying to push the ship forward as fast as they could.

"We can fight." A short-haired young woman looked at the wooden ship solemnly. Her face could be described as pretty. Her body exuded a noble aura. Evidently, she was born with a powerful background.

"Young Miss, you should take a small boat and leave. We cannot fight them." The middle-aged man said anxiously.

"How could I leave all of you behind? Stop talking and prepare to fight. This is the only way." The young woman said coldly. A long iron bow appeared in her hand as she aimed at the wooden ship and loosed the arrow.

The arrow cut through the wind, transforming into a sharp ice beam, and went straight toward the wooden ship.

Bang!

The ice beam fiercely pierced into the wooden ship's bow, creating a large hole. However, the wooden ship didn't seem to slow down at all. Its speed was even faster than before.

Wooooo!

A loud horn reverberated throughout the area, and the lifeless crews on the wooden ship suddenly flew out and jumped onto the iron ship.

"Fight!" The middle-aged man gritted his teeth and took his long sword out before rushing toward a man not far away from him.

As if he noticed the middle-aged man's presence, the man abruptly turned his head, producing a terrifying cracking sound that made everyone's hair stand up.

His eyes were vacant, as though he didn't have a soul. When he saw the middle-aged man rushing toward him, he suddenly raised his thin arms up, and a bizarre black profound energy immediately shot out from both hands toward the target.

Chapter 762 Dark Lord Cult?

Boom!

The middle-aged quickly conjured a profound barrier, but it was too late. The black beam was too fast and directly shattered his incomplete barrier, tearing a chunk of flesh on his right shoulder.

"Argh!" The middle-aged man screamed painfully. However, his scream blended with several shrill cries that resounded everywhere on the ship.

The iron ship's crews were mercilessly slaughtered by the group of robotic people as the gap in their strength was too large.

The middle-aged man tried his best to endure the pain and looked for his young miss. At this moment, he saw his young miss was surrounded by two Monarchs and was in fatal danger.

"Young Miss!" The middle-aged man shouted anxiously and used all his power to rush toward her.

The young woman tried her best to fend off the two Monarchs, but her strength was too low. All she could do was avoid their attacks. When she heard the middle-aged man call out, she turned around to glance at him, and her face turned pale because she saw the enemy silently appearing behind him and swinging the sword down.

"No!" The young woman screamed in despair. She seemed to see the middle-aged man being cut in half already.

All of a sudden, a streak of ice beam shot down from the sky, instantly turning the enemy behind the middle-aged man into an ice sculpture.

Bang!

The ice sculpture shattered into countless ice particles as Mu Qiuxue gracefully landed on the ship.

On the other side of the ship, Yun Lintian casually threw seemingly ordinary fireballs at the enemies and successfully forced them away.

Meanwhile, Linlin, who was sitting leisurely on Yun Lintian's shoulder, merely glanced at the enemies and yawned boringly. "Big Brother Yun, they are using dark energy. Likely to have something with Poison Valley."

Yun Lintian nodded and controlled a fire sword to kill the nearby Saint Profound Realm's enemy. "But it's much weaker than the usual. Additionally, they didn't seem to have souls. What's wrong with them?"

"They are puppets." Hongyue's voice resounded in Yun Lintian's mind. "Now, their master should have noticed you. You better finish them off quickly."

"Oh?" Yun Lintian was surprised. It could be said this was the first time he came into contact with puppet techniques.

Since that was the case, Yun Lintian summoned more fire swords and started killing.

On the other side, the middle-aged man and the young woman stared at Mu Qiuxue blankly. When they returned to their senses, all the surrounding enemies were already dead.

"Thank you, Senior, for saving us." The young woman cupped her fists and said with gratitude.

Mu Qiuxue nodded her head gently and looked at the wounded crews. "You should treat them first."

"Let me come." The middle-aged man said and quickly went to help his people. It was at this moment did he notice Yun Lintian.

Yun Lintian casually threw a few high-grade healing pill bottles to the middle-aged man and said. "Take them."

The middle-aged man hesitated slightly. He was unsure about this young man's identity. However, he believed there was no reason for Yun Lintian to harm everyone. "Many thanks."

Yun Lintian used his profound energy to pull some enemy's corpses over. He opened Eyes of Heaven and saw black strings tying on the corpses' soul gates. The strings were tracing back to the wooden ship. Obviously, there was something at the end of them over there.

Yun Lintian turned to Mu Qiuxue and said. "You wait here. I will take a look at it."

Without waiting for Mu Qiuxue to reply, he quickly flew toward the wooden ship.

When Yun Lintian landed on the ship, he was immediately surrounded by a brooding atmosphere, making him feel as though he was currently walking in a graveyard in the middle of the night.

"There shouldn't be ghosts here, right?" Yun Lintian said jokingly. Lightning sparks flashed around him as he walked down into the shabby cabin.

When he arrived at the cabin, he subconsciously blocked his nose, as a horribly pungent smell was everywhere. A disgusting scene appeared in his vision. Countless bones, corpses, and human flesh could be seen all over the place.

"What the hell? Are they cannibalism or something?" Yun Lintian said in disgust. He quickly opened Eyes of Heaven and searched for the black strings.

In the next moment, Yun Lintian saw the black strings gathering on something at the end of the cabin. He covered himself with profound energy to avoid the mess on the ground and walked forward.

Soon, he saw a young woman's naked body pinned by a sharp wooden pole. Her skin was pale as though she had never been exposed to the sun for decades. A strange circle symbol was engraved on the ground. It was clearly written by her blood.

After confirming the black strings were gathered on the woman's soul gate, Yun Lintian asked. "Hongyue, do you know this symbol?"

"It's a Dark Lord's demonic symbol... I didn't expect it to appear in this world." Hongyue said calmly.

"Dark Lord? Who is that again? Is this world a gathering place of all demons and gods?" Yun Lintian didn't know what to say anymore. Previously, it was a Forsaken God Tribesman, and now this so-called Dark Lord.

"Well, you can think of it as a Satan of a satanic cult." Hongyue chuckled. "But don't worry, he's not as scary as you think. Judging from the rough symbol on the ground, it should be a work of an amateur who tried his skills out."

"I see." Yun Lintian nodded slightly. "How to destroy it, then?"

"Just burn it," Hongyue replied.

"Alright. That's easy." Yun Lintian didn't think about it further and threw a few fireballs at the pitiful woman.

"Argghhhh!" As the fire burned, a terrifying scream mixed with male and female voices echoed throughout the cabin.

Under the Eyes of Heaven, Yun Lintian saw the black strings slowly dissipate and vanish completely. At the same time, he saw countless illusory figures appearing around him. They took a deep bow at Yun Lintian, expressing their gratitude before slowly fading away.

Yun Lintian clasped his hands together and closed his eyes. "Amitabha. Rest in peace, everyone."

Chapter 763 Overall Situation Of The Southern Continent

Somewhere deep in the sea, a man that was no different from a bag of bones opened his eyes. His pair of gloomy and hollow eyes penetrated the dark sea and gazed in Yun Lintian's direction.

"Who is it? Dared to mess with my work?" His voice was hoarse and dry like he had never had water for ages.

At this moment, an eerie black figure slowly appeared beside him, and he said. "Go. Take a look at it."

The black figure swayed faintly and disappeared from the place.

The man kept staring for a while and closed his eyes, continuing to meditate.

After burning the ship, Yun Lintian flew back to the iron ship, and the young woman stepped forward. "Greetings, Senior. My name is Xu Yudie. Thank you for saving my people and me."

Yun Lintian smiled faintly and said. "No need to be polite. We helped you because we need something from you."

The young woman, Xu Yudie, was taken aback. She didn't expect Yun Lintian to be so straightforward as this. She said. "Please ask away. I will try my best to satisfy Senior's request. If I can't do it, my Gold Coin Trading Group should be able to do it."

The middle-aged man behind her looked at Yun Lintian cautiously. He was afraid Yun Lintian would put in an excessive request.

Yun Lintian waved his hand. "It's nothing big. Don't be nervous. I just want to ask about the Southern Continent. This is the first time we have come to this place."

Xu Yudie was surprised slightly. At first, she thought Yun Lintian and Mu Qiuxue were coming from the Southern Continent. After all, she didn't see any ship nearby. How could Yun Lintian fly across the Endless Sea?

She thought for a moment and said. "How about this, Senior? Two Seniors can come with us. We're heading to the Southern Continent for business. I can slowly tell you about the Southern Continent along the way."

"Quite clever." Yun Lintian chuckled. "Are you looking for a free bodyguard?"

Xu Yudie laughed gently. "I won't hide anything from Senior. I indeed need two seniors' help."

"No wonder you can do a business well." Yun Lintian nodded and asked curiously. "I don't quite understand. Judging from your look, you seem to have high status in the group. Why would you travel without top experts?"

Hearing this, the middle-aged man behind was frustrated. He had to admit that his strength was too low. If Yun Lintian and Mu Qiuxue didn't appear, his Young Miss would definitely die here.

Xu Yudie saw this. She patted the middle-aged man's shoulder and said softly. "Don't blame yourself, Uncle Ren. It's my fault for being willful."

The middle-aged man, Ren Haiyang, shook his head. "Don't comfort me, Young Miss. I am indeed weak. I can't even protect you. I will receive a punishment when I go back."

Xu Yudie wanted to say something but held back in the end. She let out a soft sigh. "It's alright. Uncle should go inside to treat your wound first."

Ren Haiyang hesitated briefly and walked into the cabin.

Xu Yudie turned to Yun Lintian and said. "It's because I didn't inform anyone when I came out."

"In other words, you are sneaking out?" The corner of Yun Lintian's mouth curved up as he spoke.

Xu Yudie smiled and said. "Shall we go inside?"

"Lead the way." Yun Lintian opened his hand and followed Xu Yudie into the cabin with Mu Qiuxue.

The cabin's interior naturally couldn't be compared to the Heavenly Cloud Profound Skyship, but it could be considered luxurious enough. Everything was made from expensive materials, whether a chair, table, or other furniture. This showed how wealthy the Gold Coin Trading Group was.

Yun Lintian unceremoniously sat down on the comfortable-looking leather chair and beckoned Mu Qiuxue to sit down beside him.

Ren Haiyang came over to pour cups of tea for them before retreating to the side.

Xu Yudie took a sip of tea and asked. "What do two seniors want to know?"

"Well, you can tell us the overall situation." Yun Lintian said and took a sip. Although the tea couldn't be compared to his own, it was considered top-quality. It seemed Xu Yudie wasn't stingy at all.

"The Southern Continent is the third largest continent after the Western Continent. Its geological position allows the place to a lot of volcanoes and rivers, resulting in abundant minerals. Most of the minerals we are using are usually imported from here." Xu Yudie explained.

"As Seniors might have aware of this, the continent is dominated by the Divine Phoenix Palace. They are located at the continent's center, surrounded by three mountains known as Divine Phoenix Mountain Range."

"Aside from the Divine Phoenix Palace, there are four major forces, namely, Driftsnow Pavilion, Eternal Sword Sect, Great Earth Sect, and Plum Mountain Sect. Plum Mountain Sect has the highest prestige among them, followed by Eternal Sword Sect, Great Earth Sect, and Driftsnow Pavilion."

"These four major forces are basically treating each other as an enemy. Because of the Divine Phoenix Palace's presence, they don't dare to go too as far as fighting to dead."

Xu Yudie paused for a moment and took a leather map out. She pointed at the northern part of the continent and said. "We will soon arrive in this Sunlight Port City. It is one of the biggest cities on the continent."

Yun Lintian nodded thoughtfully. He looked at the map for a while and pointed at a cyclone symbol between the Sunlight Port City and the Great Earth Sect. "What is this place?"

Xu Yudie glanced at it and explained. "This is the most dangerous place called Skymist Ancient City. It was said to be the most prosperous city in the past but later suffered from an unknown violent tempest. The city is now occupied by raging storms. Everyone always chooses to avoid this route."

She looked at Yun Lintian and asked curiously. "Senior wants to go there? I suggest that you should give up. It's too dangerous."

Chapter 764 Putting Small Thought Away

Yun Lintian shook his head. "I'm merely asking since it's quite strange."

Xu Yudie nodded in an understanding manner. "There's a rumor circulating that many priceless treasures were left behind in the Ancient City. Countless bravadoes had tried to enter the place, but they all ended up missing or reducing into pieces. Even the Divine Phoenix Palace Master has to make a continent-wide prohibition later."

"It's that dangerous?" Without a doubt, this place was where The Storm was located. Yun Lintian wasn't afraid of it, but he was still curious.

On the side, Ren Haiyang added. "In the past, there was a senior with the peak of the Monarch Profound Realm's strength who tried to enter the Ancient City. He managed to reach the city gate but ended up dead. No one knew how he died, but those experts said they saw him simply disappearing after letting out a shrill scream."

"I see." Yun Lintian touched his chin and pondered. It wasn't sure whether he could approach the place with his current strength.

"Heh. They simply were courting death. Among the Beyond Heaven Relics, The Storm is the most violent in nature. Except for the Beyond Heaven King himself, everyone can just forget about approaching it." Hongyue sneered.

"Would it be alright for me to go there?" Yun Lintian asked.

"What do you think?" Hongyue rolled her eyes as though she was saying, 'what kind of stupid question is this?'

Yun Lintian was speechless. He just wanted to know so that he didn't have to waste time preparing.

He changed the topic. "Can you tell me more about the Divine Phoenix Palace?"

"What does Senior want to know?" Xu Yudie was surprised slightly.

? "Well... For example, their hierarchy structure." Yun Lintian thought for a moment and said.

Xu Yudie explained. "Similar to the Frozen Moon Palace in the North, the Divine Phoenix Palace only accepts female disciples. It was said the Divine Phoenix despised men. I'm not sure about this."

"Wait a moment. How did they conceive a child then?" Yun Lintian interrupted. He remembered his fifth sister, Nantian Fengyu, was the daughter of the current Divine Phoenix Palace Master. How could she give birth to Fifth Sister without a man?

Xu Yudie shook her head. "As far as I know, it should be related to the Divine Phoenix power."

"I see. Please continue." Yun Lintian nodded thoughtfully.

"The hierarchy structure is similar to other palaces. There are Great Elder and Hall Elders below the Palace Master. However, when it comes to a successor, they will select a batch of candidates and send them through harsh trials before choosing one of them in the end. As for the remaining candidates, they will serve as generation elders afterward." Xu Yudie explained.

"Please forgive me, Senior. That's all I know." Xu Yudie smiled apologetically.

Her Golden Coin Trading Group was not bad, but it was a world apart when compared to the giant existence like the Divine Phoenix Palace. Their information-gathering ability was limited. Even though she was the young mistress of the group, it was still too far from her reach.

"No need to say this. It's very useful for me." Yun Lintian said with a smile. "How long do we need to reach the destination?"

"Two hours at most." Ren Haiyang replied on Xu Yudie's behalf.

"Two hours... Fine. I will stay here for the time being. We will part way when we reach the city." Yun Lintian pondered for a moment and said.

"Can Senior give us a chance to repay the life-saving grace?" Xu Yudie didn't want Yun Lintian and Mu Qiuxue to leave just like that.

Yun Lintian smiled meaningfully. "Put your small thoughts away. Don't think that I don't know what you want us to do."

Xu Yudie hurriedly explained. "It's not what Senior thinks...."

Yun Lintian waved his hand to interrupt her. "You don't have to explain. A runaway young miss like you is bound to encounter enemies on the way. I don't have much free time to be a bodyguard for you."

Xu Yudie wanted to explain, but she swallowed her words back in the end. "Understood, Senior. Please forgive me."

"Go get busy. We will stay here." Yun Lintian motioned with his chin and closed his eyes, meditating.

On the side, Mu Qiuxue looked at Yun Lintian thoughtfully and remained silent. She seemed to understand why Yun Lintian acted like this. Basically, he didn't want to further associate with Xu Yudie and the people behind her.

Xu Yudie sighed softly and walked away with Ren Haiyang.

"Why? She can be a good help for us." Mu Qiuxue asked.

Yun Lintian replied without opening his eyes. "The less they interact with me, the lesser trouble for them. The place where I plan to go is not something they can help me with. Besides, do you really think they treat us like saviors?"

"Are you planning to go to that ancient city?" Mu Qiuxue asked in surprise.

"Yes. I will go alone on this trip. You can stay on the ship with others and try to break through. As long as you step into the Divine Ascending Tribulation Realm, Du Huanfeng would have to think twice if he wanted to move you." Yun Lintian replied nonchalantly.

Mu Qiuxue went silent. She would do it a long time ago if it was that easy.

"Young Miss, I think it's better to stay away from them." After entering a private room, Ren Haiyang said.

Xu Yudie sat on a chair and responded. "Why?"

"Have you noticed his realm? He's only at the peak of the Ruler Profound Realm, but the power he showed is far stronger than that. A person hiding his profound strength is either having a lofty identity or...." Before Ren Haiyang could finish his sentence, Xu Yudie said.

"Or a criminal. That is what you want to say?" Xu Yudie said calmly.

Seeing Ren Haiyang nodding, she said further. "To me, he's inclining toward the former. Don't you think a woman beside him looks familiar?"

Ren Haiyang's brows creased together as he said uncertainty. "Come to think of it, she is indeed looking familiar."

"Snow Maiden, Mu Qiuxue." Xu Yudie said slowly.

Ren Haiyang's eyes wide open in shock. "It's her!?"

"Mhm." Xu Yudie tapped on the table and said. "Recently, I heard the news that the Myriad Pill Palace has dispatched their guardians to the Western Continent. And these two people are clearly coming from that direction. Don't you think it's too coincident?"

Chapter 765 Black Figure

"Young Miss, you mean...?" Ren Haiyang's expression turned solemn.

Xu Yudie nodded gently and leaned back while closing her eyes. "Tell everyone. Do not talk about what happened today. Especially about them... Although they don't want us to repay them, this is what we can do for them."

"Understood." Ren Haiyang replied readily and went out.

In the cabin, Yun Lintian closed his eyes while stroking Linlin's fur, seemingly losing in his thought.

All of a sudden, Yun Lintian opened his eyes and looked in the east direction as he perceived a terrifying aura coming.

Mu Qiuxue was also the same. She stood up and walked to the deck immediately, followed by Yun Lintian.

In the far distance, a black figure flew toward the ship with a long black mist trailing behind. As he passed by, several fish and weak sea creatures' remains could be seen on the sea's surface. They seemed to suffocate by the dark energy of the black figure.

"The peak Monarch?" Yun Lintian muttered. If he guessed correctly, this person should be the one behind the wooden ship that he destroyed previously.

"What's going on, Seniors?" Xu Yudie hurriedly arrived on the deck and looked at the black figure. "This..."

The black figure stood in the air, looking at everyone on the deck, and finally paused on Yun Lintian. "You've interrupted my Master's plan." His voice was deep and cold. Nothing resembled a human's voice.

As he finished his sentence, the black mist behind him swayed and morphed into two giant hands, going straight toward Yun Lintian.

"Step back!" Yun Lintian shouted and floated into the air, skillfully avoiding the black hands' grasps.

Four fire swords appeared around Yun Lintian, and he quickly controlled them to attack the black figure.

The black figure didn't seem to bother Yun Lintian's fire swords. When the fire swords swung down, the black figure suddenly spread out like the black mist, causing the attack to ultimately failed to harm him.

Yun Lintian's eyes narrowed slightly. He flicked his wrist, and a small lightning bolt swiftly shot at the black figure.

Puff!

The lightning bolt was clearly struck on the black mist, but it eventually passed through in the next moment as though nothing had happened.

The black mist gathered together and formed into the black figure once again. At the same time, the pair of giant hands abruptly enlarged and enveloped Yun Lintian in all directions.

Yun Lintian wasn't panicking. He frowned deeply as he tried to figure out how to deal with it. In the next split second, an idea flashed across his mind, and he quickly invoked the Vermilion Bird's flame.

The giant hands that were about to imprison Yun Lintian immediately stopped midair and retreated as though they had met their nemesis.

Yun Lintian's eyes lit up. He didn't let this chance go and performed the Phoenix Palm.

Scree—

A beautiful virtual Vermilion Bird flew out of Yun Lintian's palm and went straight to the black figure while carrying the Vermilion Bird's flame.

A sense of crisis arose in the black figure's heart. He quickly dispersed himself into several tiny groups of black mist and hurriedly rushed out in all directions.

Seeing this, the virtual Vermilion Bird spread its wings, sending a rain of fire feathers to cover the separate black mists.

The feather storm directly struck against the black mists, causing them to shake violently. At the same time, all the black mists receded back desperately before returning to the original black figure.

The black figure was shocking and horrified as his body was swiftly and forcefully shoved away by the barrage of feathers. Within his ears rang the voice of Yun Lintian, which was incomparably cold.

"Where are you going?"

Yun Lintian reappeared behind the black figure, and both his hands were lit up with the Vermilion Bird's flames, forming into a ring of flames around the black figure.

Boom!

When the ring of flames burst out, the black figure was instantly engulfed by it. A shrill scream could be heard, and it didn't last long before completely vanishing along the black figure.

Yun Lintian spread his Spiritual Sense out and confirmed there was nothing left. He slowly flew back to the ship and landed on the deck.

Xu Yudie took a deep breath and said. "Thank you again, Senior. Otherwise, we would certainly die today."

Yun Lintian waved his hand and asked. "Do you have any idea about this? Also, is this the first time you encountered the bizarre ghost ship?"

Xu Yudie shook her head. "I had never encountered it before, but I heard about it. From the news I got, there are a lot of these kinds of ships wandering around the Endless Sea. I didn't expect to meet one myself... As for who and what they are, I really have no idea."

Yun Lintian touched his chin, pondering over this matter. The energy the black figure emitted was similar to Jue Kong's. There should be some connections between them. Perhaps this person was Jue Kong's subordinate in the past.

"Never mind. We will think about it later." Yun Lintian pushed it aside first since he didn't know where to start at the moment. He looked at Xu Yudie and said. "Next time you encounter it, try to burn their ship."

Xu Yudie nodded thoughtfully. "I understand."

Yun Lintian didn't bother further and walked into the cabin with Mu Qixue.

Xu Yudie thought for a moment and took a transmission jade out. "Second Uncle, please spread my words out. If anyone encounters the ghost ship, try your best to burn the ship down."

She put the transmission jade away and followed Yun Lintian into the cabin.

Somewhere in the deep sea, the skinny man opened his gloomy eyes and glanced in Yun Lintian's direction. "Life energy?... Could it be...."

A terrifying black light flashed through the man's eyes, causing the surrounding water to sway madly. A black skull appeared in his hand, and he patted at it while mumbling something as though he was chanting a scripture.

The next moment, a pair of horrible eyes appeared in a vacant space before him. This pair of eyes resembled a dragon's.

The man was thrilled when he saw this. He hurriedly knelt and said respectfully. "Welcome back, My Lord."

If Yun Lintian was here, he would undoubtedly recognize the owner of the eyes. It was no other than Jue Kong!

Chapter 766 Deployment

"Mo Ya? You're still alive, huh?" Jue Kong's voice resounded.

"My Lord, I've been waiting for you." The man, Mo Ya, trembled uncontrollably out of joy.

"That's good. Tell me, why did you suddenly contact me? Did you hear any news about me?" Jue Kong asked.

Mo Ya shook his head. "No, My Lord. Earlier, I met a strange young man with the power of life. His power reminds me of you."

"Young man?... is he this person?" A black light flashed and went straight to Mo Ya's head.

Yun Lintian's image appeared in Mo Ya's mind, and he hurriedly replied. "Yes, My Lord. It's him."

"How could he leave the Western Continent unnoticed?... Heh, those trashes are surely unreliable." Jue Kong snorted coldly. "Where is he now?"

"He's about to reach the Southern Continent, My Lord." Mo Ya answered.

"Southern Continent... Do you have people there?" Jue Kong asked.

"What do you want to do with him, My Lord?" Mo Ya asked cautiously.

"Tell your people to pay attention to him and report his movement to me as soon as possible. Remember, don't approach him too close. He cannot be measured by your commonsense." Jue Kong said coldly.

"Understood, My Lord. Leave it to me." Mo Ya said solemnly.

"Report me as soon as possible." Jue Kong said and disappeared.

"Yes, My Lord!" Mo Ya responded and began to control his puppets.

"What a lively city." Standing on a harbor, Yun Lintian looked at a bustling scene in front of him in relish. Compared to Blue Tide City, this Sunlight Port City was more prosperous and full of life.

Far away on the left of the harbor, a beautiful long beach was laid all the way to the end of Yun Lintian's line of sight. The golden sand reflected the sun and the lively atmosphere made Yun Lintian feel like he had returned to Earth.

On the side, Xu Yudie followed Yun Lintian's gaze and explained with a smile. "The Sunlight Port City is well-known as an entertainment city. Usually, lots of people would come here to enjoy their life after going through stressful training."

"The long beach Senior sees right now is called Golden Sun Beach. It was established by the previous city lord Zhou Chong. This place is a no fighting zone. Anyone who causes trouble here would be punished hard or even given a death sentence."

"Ordinary people can set up stalls and engage businesses as much as they like, but they must first get permission from the city hall. Because the previous city lord has always advocated absolute fairness, no one can monopolize the whole business opportunity in this city."

Hearing this, Yun Lintian was interested in this Zhou Chong. It was rare to see such a person in this world. Of course, to be able to do this meant this person must be very strong. Otherwise, the so-called absolute fairness would be nothing but an unrealistic dream.

"Why did he step down from the position?" Yun Lintian asked.

Xu Yudie replied. "It is time for him to pass his authority to his son, Zhou Ye. Although he has stepped down, his prestige is there, and various operations are still under his hand."

"I see." Yun Lintian nodded his head in an understanding manner. It could be said this city was in a period of transferring authority.

He looked at Xu Yudie and said. "I will leave now. Take care."

Xu Yudie wanted to say something, but she held back. In the end, she said. "I wish Senior good luck. If Senior wants something, you can find me at our Gold Coin Trading building. I will stay here for two months."

Yun Lintian responded with a low hum and walked into the city with Mu Qiuxue under Xu Yudie's gaze.

"Young Miss, what's the next plan?" Ren Haiyang asked.

Xu Yudie thought for a moment and said. "Let's go to our group directly. I've already contacted my Second Uncle. There's no need to sneak around further."

"Understood." Ren Haiyang responded and gave instructions to the crew members before following Xu Yudie toward the city center.

After parting with Xu Yudie, Yun Lintian secretly contacted Yun Meilan. "Send our people out. Remember to take their safety as first priority."

On the skyship, Yun Meilan turned to look at 200 newly added Cloud Shadow Team members standing neatly behind her. They had been trained under Yun Meilan and the others for a long time and were more than ready to go out now.

"As we have discussed before. 200 of you will be divided into 3 teams. The first team of 50 people will station here in Sunlight Port City, and the second team will head to the southernmost city, Blue Lagoon City. As for the last team, all of you will need to infiltrate the Divine Phoenix City." Yun Meilan said plainly.

"Our Headmaster told me to remind all of you to take your safety as the first priority. Do you understand?"

"We understood!" The two hundred disciples replied in unison.

Yun Meilan's gaze swept over everyone and said. "Very well. Do not disappoint him... The first team."

"Yes, Team leader!" Fifty people stepped out and transformed into shadowy figures before disappearing from the skyship. Their goal was to gain a foothold in the Sunlight Port City in the short time possible.

Yun Meilan turned to Yun Lingwei, who stood on the side and said. "Let's head to the Blue Lagoon City first."

"Sure." Yun Lingwei nodded and contacted Yun Ci to control the skyship away.

Standing at the edge of the deck, Guchang looked at the scene in amazement. He couldn't believe his eyes when he first saw these people. Not only their profound strengths were almost identical, but their auras were also no different. He didn't understand what method Yun Lintian used to train them.

At this moment, Guchang completely understood why Yun Lintian was so confident and didn't seem to take Du Huanfeng seriously. With such a terrifying force behind him, Guchang believed the Myriad Pill Palace would regret later for making the enemy of Yun Lintian.

Chapter 767 Plum Mountain Saintess

"Little Forest? Not bad. At least there's no smoke word in it." Yun Lintian stood in front of a fancy restaurant called "Little Forest." He resumed his routine by looking for a restaurant and gaining information.

Standing on the side, Mu Qiuxue had already put a veil on her face in case someone might recognize her. She glanced at the green building in front of her and gave no opinion.

"Let's go." Yun Lintian beckoned and entered the restaurant.

Unlike other restaurants' regular operations, no waiter came forward to receive Yun Lintian and Mu Qiuxue. They could only look for an empty table nearby the window to sit down.

A moment later, a young waitress came to Yun Lintian's side and handed two menus to them. "Hello, esteemed guests. You can take a look at the menu first and call me when you're ready to order. Thank you."

Afterward, she quickly walked away to receive other guests.

Yun Lintian glanced at the menu and nodded inwardly. This was the first time he saw a restaurant that operated like the one on Earth.

"You can order what you want. No need to be restrained." Yun Lintian made a gesture to Mu Qiuxue and began to check the menu with Linlin.

As the peak Monarch, Mu Qiuxue didn't need to eat or sleep, but she was accustomed to having three meals a day after staying with Yun Lintian for a period. During her time with him, she always saw him eating and sleeping like a mortal. This made her wonder at first, but later she seemed to understand something and began to follow his habit.

A while later, Yun Lintian called the waiter to take an order and began to observe the dining hall.

The restaurant's interior was decorated with plants and vines, giving a forest vibe. Yun Lintian found it interesting as he discovered the grades of flowers and plants here were not low. Each one of them could be sold at a high price. Obviously, the owner must be very rich and powerful.

As Yun Lintian glanced around, he caught a glimpse of a beautiful figure clad in a pale green robe at the corner of the hall. Her face was covered with a thick green veil, making Yun Lintian unable to see her face clearly. However, her temperament was extraordinary. Otherwise, Yun Lintian wouldn't notice her in the beginning.

Two young women sat on her left and right with lower postures. Evidently, they possessed a lower position than the green robe woman. Yun Lintian believed she should have an unusual status.

It was as though the green-robed woman noticed Yun Lintian's gaze; she turned to look at him and nodded gently.

Yun Lintian wasn't surprised by this. He returned with a slight nod and polite smile before looking elsewhere.

"Have you heard it? The Plum Mountain Saintess arrived here yesterday." At this moment, a man in a decent blue robe said.

Plum Mountain Saintess?... Yun Lintian's interest was piqued immediately when he heard this. According to Xu Yudie, the Plum Mountain Sect was only second to the Divine Phoenix Palace. Why would such an important figure come to this city?

A man in a whiter robe sat opposite the blue-robed man asked curiously. "Really? Why did she come here?"

"You don't remember what happened a few months ago?" The blue-robed man lowered his voice.

"You mean... That incident?" The white-robed man said with a trace of fear in his eyes.

That incident?... Yun Lintian took a sip of tea and concentrated on their conversation.

"Yeah. Undoubtedly, she came here to investigate this matter. I also heard that the true successor of the Eternal Sword Sect, Wen Zishan, appeared here last night... If you don't have anything to do, you better stay at home during this period. I'm afraid something big is about to happen soon." The blue-robed man replied.

"It's not that serious, right? After all, it has nothing to do with us." The white-robed man said in doubt.

"You can decide by yourself. Don't say it later that I didn't warn you." The blue-robed man was lazy to convince his friend further.

The white-robed man was about to say something. He suddenly saw the woman beside the green-robed woman look over. His heart skipped a beat for a second as he perceived an unkind gaze from her. Not to mention she seemed to possess high strength. With his pitiful Earth Profound Realm's power, he would undoubtedly die if he offended her.

The blue-robed man saw his friend's face turn pale. He was curious and followed the latter's gaze. The next moment, his face froze, and his whole body instantly turned rigid.

"P... Plum Mountain Saintess!" The blue-robed man uttered in difficulty. His face was void of blood. He seemed to see a gate of hell appear before him.

The movement of the two immediately alarmed everyone. They were curious and looked over at the green-robed woman. Those with high status instantly recognized her. This woman was no other than the Plum Mountain Saintess, Tong Liya!

"Little Hong, don't scare people." Tong Liya said softly. Her voice was extremely pleasant to hear, like a gentle breeze in autumn.

The woman in a red robe lowered her head and replied. "I'm sorry, Saintess. I couldn't help when I heard they talk about you."

Tong Liya said. "They didn't say anything bad. You don't have to be angry. Have you forgotten what I told you before coming here?"

The red-robed woman, Little Hong, said timidly. "I was wrong, Saintess. I won't do it again."

A gentle smile appeared beneath the veil as Tong Liya looked at everyone in the dining hall. "I apologize to everyone on behalf of my maid for disturbing your meal. I will pay for this meal's consumption. Please do continue."

A loud cheer resounded as everyone expressed their gratitude to Tong Liya before continuing their meals.

The blue-robed man and white-robed man quickly apologized to Tong Liya and hurriedly left the restaurant under Tong Liya's helpless gaze.

Yun Lintian was slightly surprised when he discovered her identity. Who would have thought the protagonist in the earlier conversation was sitting here?

Just as Yun Lintian turned around and prepared to enjoy his meal, he suddenly heard Tong Liya's voice. "This gentleman, may I have a word with you?"

Chapter 768 The Incident

Yun Lintian was puzzled. He didn't understand why Tong Liya came to him.

It was not only him, but everyone in the dining hall also had the same reaction. They began to scan Yun Lintian from head to toe as though he were a monster.

Yun Lintian nodded slightly. "Sure, but can I finish my food first?"

Everyone was taken aback when they heard this. Especially those men. If they replaced Yun Lintian, they wouldn't hesitate to go with Tong Liya immediately. How could he still have the gut to eat first?

Tong Liya laughed elegantly. "Please. I will pay for this meal."

Under everyone's gaze, Yun Lintian waved his hand and said. "No need. I don't have a habit of making a lady pay for me."

"Alright. I will come back later." Tong Liya did not insist further and went back to her seat.

Yun Lintian turned around and began to dig in.

"Hmph! He's too arrogant." Little Hong snorted coldly after returning to her seat.

Another young woman opposite her looked at Tong Liya and asked. "Why do you want to interact with him, Saintess?"

Tong Liyan responded. "He's not ordinary." She turned to Little Hong and said. "Don't be rude, Little Hong. I am indeed wrong for interrupting his meal."

"But you're the Saintess...." Little Hong wanted to refute but was interrupted by Tong Liya.

"What about Saintess? It is nothing but a superficial title. Didn't I tell you before? This world speaks with strength. And he's the real deal. I can tell."

Little Hong opened her mouth and kept silent in the end. Meanwhile, the young woman, Little Lan, glanced at Yun Lintian thoughtfully.

"What do you think?" Yun Lintian stuffed a piece of fat meat into his mouth while asking Mu Qiuxue through a sound transmission.

Mu Qiuxue lifted her veil and gently nibbled at a crunchy vegetable. "Among everyone here, you're the only one who doesn't have much reaction to her identity. As for what she wants to talk about with you, I do not know. But I think it should be something related to the incident they were talking about earlier."

Yun Lintian fed Linlin and responded. "If that's the case, then this incident seems to require a lot of manpower to deal with it."

Mu Qiuxue didn't say anything further and continued to enjoy the meal.

While Yun Lintian was eating, somewhere in the city, a handsome young man with sharp eyebrows and eagle-like eyes was sitting in a private room, slowly enjoying a top spirit tea. He was the Eternal Sword Sect's true successor, Wen Zishan.

"Young Master, I've got the news about Plum Mountain Saintess. She's now having a meal at the Little Forest restaurant." A middle-aged man in a white robe walked into the room and respectfully reported.

Wen Zishan put the teacup down and asked. "What is it?"

The middle-aged man said further. "She invited a young man to discuss something."

Wen Zishan turned to look at him and asked. "Who is he?"

The middle-aged man lowered his head. "Please forgive me, Young Master. I cannot find his information. He's likely to arrive here recently."

Wen Zishan thought for a moment and said. "Let's go. It's time to meet her."

"Yes, Young Master." The middle-aged man replied and quickly followed Wen Zishan out.

Inside a private room, Yun Lintian sat opposite Tong Liya and enjoyed a tea she poured for him.

Putting a kettle down, Tong Liya asked. "What should I call you with?"

"My name is Yun Lintian." Yun Lintian put the teacup down and answered. He didn't bother to use a fake name since he didn't plan to stay here for an extended period. "Please go straight to the point, Saintess."

Tong Liya smiled faintly and said. "You can call me Tong Liya directly." She paused for a moment and continued. "I think Young Master Yun must be curious about the incident people talked about it earlier. I will tell you now."

"Three months ago, my junior sisters came here to participate in the Heaven Vault Island exploration, and they all disappeared without a trace. The only clue we got is that they met a strange person upon reaching Heaven Vault Island." Tong Liya explained.

"Heaven Vault Island?" Yun Lintian repeated in doubt. He had never heard such a name before.

Tong Liya nodded and explained. "The Heaven Vault Island is mysterious, locating not far away from this city. Usually, it is covered by a thick fog, and it will be opened on a full moon. Every time it opens, our Plum Mountain Sect, including Eternal Sword Sect, Driftsnow Pavilion, and Great Earth Sect, will send a group of juniors below the Saint Profound Realm to explore the island."

"I had visited the island once several years ago. Although the island is full of mysteries, it doesn't fill with dangers. This time, not only my junior sisters but also everyone on the trip has been mysteriously disappearing."

Tong Liya paused for a moment and said. "I came here this time to investigate this matter."

"So, you want me to investigate it with you? Or should I say, you are looking for free labor?" Yun Lintian asked sharply.

Tong Liya nodded admittedly. "I indeed have this intention. Young Master Yun has an extraordinary bearing, and your profound strength is much stronger than what people see."

Yun Lintian laughed mockingly as if he had just heard the funniest joke in the world. "Why do you think I will accept this task? Because it was asked by the lofty Saintess? If that is the case, I must say you think too much of yourself."

"Watch your words!" On the side, Little Hong couldn't bear it anymore. She released her aura and said coldly.

However, the temperature in the room abruptly dropped, and countless ice particles immediately appeared in the room.

Little Hong quickly turned to look at Mu Qiuxue, who sat calmly beside Yun Lintian in amazement. Her profound strength was already at the peak of the Monarch Profound Realm, but she was utterly suppressed by Mu Qiuxue!

Chapter 769 Charming Melody

"Don't be rude, Little Hong!" Tong Liya revealed a rare cold voice. She looked at Yun Lintian and said. "I apologize to you on her behalf. Please do not take offense, Young Master Yun."

Yun Lintian glanced at Mu Qiuxue, and the latter retracted her power. He turned to Tong Liya and said plainly. "I suggest you should get rid of her as soon as possible. She would bring you a disaster one day."

"You!" Little Hong was angry but quickly held back as she saw Tong Liya glare at her.

Tong Liya said apologetically. "I understand what Young Master Yun says, but please forgive me. Little Hong has been with me since I was young. I cannot simply chase her away."

Yun Lintian chuckled. "That's your problem. I just give you a suggestion." He suddenly stood up and said. "Thank you for the tea, Saintess Tong. I wish you good luck finding a coolie."

He hugged Linlin and walked out of the room without looking back.

Mu Qiuxue slowly stood up and said. "Does he look like he lacks something?" She shook her head slightly and followed Yun Lintian out.

Tong Liya watched Mu Qiuxue leave with a thoughtful expression. She wasn't frustrated about it but rather pitying for missing out on such a good candidate. As for Mu Qiuxue's words, how could she not see that Yun Lintian didn't need anything? She simply wanted to try out.

Tong Liya sighed softly and turned to Little Hong. "You have to restrain your temper next time."

Even though Little Hong was dissatisfied, she still obediently replied. "Yes, Saintess."

After leaving the room, Yun Lintian shook his head slightly. He didn't understand where Tong Liya's confidence came from to think he would agree with the request.

"Hmm?" At this moment, Yun Lintian saw a young man walk toward him. This person exuded a sharp aura that usually belonged to a sword practitioner.

The young man was naturally Wen Zishan, who had just arrived. Wen Zishan glanced at Yun Lintian, and his eyes flickered slightly.

As their gazes met, Yun Lintian felt as though countless blades were piercing every part of his body, causing a tingling pain to spread all over the place.

Yun Lintian narrowed his eyes slightly, and his pupils turned golden for a split second.

All of a sudden, Wen Zishan's pupils instantly constricted, and he spat out a mouthful of fresh blood.

"Young Master!" The middle-aged man hurriedly came to Wen Zishan's side, but he was stopped by the latter.

"I'm fine." Wen Zishan wiped the bloodstain out of the corner of his mouth while staring at Yun Lintian solemnly.

He cupped his fists and said. "Eternal Sword Sect's Wen Zishan. May I know your name, brother?"

Yun Lintian smiled faintly. "Misty Cloud Sect's Yun Lintian."

"Misty Cloud Sect?" The middle-aged man's brows knitted together. He had never heard the name before. Where could this sect be?

Wen Zishan said with a polite smile. "Can I invite you for a drink later, Brother Yun?"

"Sure. I will stay in this city for a few days." Yun Lintian nodded and walked away.

At this moment, the middle-aged man secretly spread his Spiritual Sense to probe Yun Lintian, but his movement suddenly froze as a bone-chilling breeze blew out.

He turned in the room's direction and saw Mu Qiuxue slowly walking over.

Mu Qiuxue glanced at the middle-aged man and Wen Zishan and walked past them by leaving a sentence. "You shouldn't have any wishful thinking."

The middle-aged man sweated profusely as he watched Mu Qiuxue disappear at the end of the corridor.

Wen Zishan smiled faintly. "Interesting. No wonder Tong Liyan wants to rope him in." As he spoke, he glanced at the middle-aged man. "Uncle Sun, don't you know it's rude to probe others like that?"

The middle-aged man, Sun Hao, smiled bitterly. "I was wrong."

"It's good that you know. Let's go in." Wen Zishan laughed slightly and walked into Tong Liya's room.

"Big Brother Yun?" After leaving the restaurant, Linlin tilted her head to look at Yun Lintian in doubt. If it was her, she would definitely slap Wen Zishan's head a long time ago for attacking her.

"You want to ask why I am being friendly with him?" Yun Lintian stroked Linlin's head and said further. "Compared to Tong Liya, I like a straightforward person like Wen Zishan more."

"Why do I feel strange about this sentence?" Following behind, Mu Qiuxue said calmly.

Yun Lintian's face twitched slightly. Why did this woman suddenly crack a joke?

"Well, at least he won't play a trick in front of me." Yun Lintian said while looking for a place to live.

Walking along the bustling street, Yun Lintian felt like he had returned to Earth. It had been a long time since he had experienced this atmosphere. He couldn't help but become relaxed.

"Clang!"

All of a sudden, a gentle melody of zither rang out from the end of the street. Yun Lintian was surprised slightly as he didn't expect to see a street show here.

He followed the sound and arrived at a spacious square with a moderate wooden stage in the center.

On the stage, a beautiful woman in a thin white dress with a veil covering half of her face was smoothly plucking the zither's strings. Her movement was soft and elegant, exuding a mesmerizing charm that was hardly resisted.

The audience below the stage were wearing the same expressions. They closed their eyes, absorbing the heavenly melody with calm smiles at the corner of their mouths.

"What a powerful artistic concept." Yun Lintian couldn't help praising.

Although he was an idiot when it came to music, as someone who grew up listening to Yun Ruanyu's music almost every day, he was able to differentiate the level of the music's artistic concept.

"Indeed." Mu Qiuxue nodded her head in agreement. Aside from her battle talent, she was also proficient in painting and music. This person's level wasn't something an ordinary person could have. She must be someone with a powerful background.

"Ding!" As the woman finished her last melody, she raised her head gently, and her pair of magnificent eyes quickly swept over the crowd. A trace of surprise appeared in the depth of her eyes when she saw Yun Lintian and Mu Qiuxue standing there unaffected.

Yun Lintian nodded his head politely to her and walked away with Mu Qiuxue under the woman's curious gaze.

Chapter 770 Endless Dream's Member

"Not bad. This inn is worth the money." Looking at a simple yet elegant decoration in a bedroom, Yun Lintian smiled in satisfaction.

Since he left the street, he found an inn nearby to settle in. This inn was called Dreamy Night Inn. The reason Yun Lintian chose this place was mainly because of the decoration. It was aligned with his taste.

Yun Lintian sat on the cotton bed and placed Linlin beside him. He planned to take a good rest for a while and continue to gather information later in the evening.

Knock! Knock!

As Yun Lintian was about to lie down, a knocking sound rang out, confusing him for a moment. He was sure Mu Qiuxue had no business with him at the moment.

He stood up and went to open the door. Immediately, he saw the woman, who had performed a music show on the street earlier, standing in front of his room.

Her pair of captive eyes glued on Yun Lintian's face for a moment, and she said. "Greetings, Young Master. I'm sorry to disturb your rest, but I really need to know something."

Yun Lintian frowned slightly. "Miss, we didn't seem to know each other, right?"

He couldn't think of any reason for the woman to come here. After all, he had just arrived in this city. What business could she have with him?

The woman's lips pursed slightly, and she said. "Endless Dream."

Yun Lintian's eyes flickered when he heard this. He didn't expect this woman to be someone from the Endless Dream Dancing Hall, his Second Sister Murong Xue's background.

"Please come in." Yun Lintian stepped aside and invited the woman into the room.

The woman didn't say anything further and sat on a chair without waiting for Yun Lintian to invite her.

Yun Lintian wasn't stingy. He took out his own top-grade spirit tea and poured a cup for her. "Tell me, why are you here?"

"Good tea!" The woman's eyes lit up after sipping the tea. She had tasted countless spirit teas before, but none of them could compare to this one. It was the best among the best.

She reluctantly put the cup down and stared at Yun Lintian. "I should be the one who asks the question. Tell me, how did you have Young Miss Murong's token with you?"

Shit! Second Sister, you harm me!... Yun Lintian couldn't help lament in his heart. He didn't expect the disciples from the Endless Dream Dancing Hall could notice the token even though he put it in his Interspatial Ring.

The woman seemed to see through Yun Lintian's thoughts. She chuckled gently. "You don't have to worry. Except for the Hall Master, Young Miss Murong, and I, I don't think anyone can perceive the token's aura."

Yun Lintian didn't feel relieved when he heard this. It would be best if no one couldn't perceive it.

"Shouldn't you introduce yourself first? Don't you think it's a bit rude?" Yun Lintian took a sip of tea and said calmly.

The woman curled her lips. "My name is Jun Rumeng. Satisfy? Now tell me."

"Who are you to my Second Sister?" Yun Lintian revealed the relationship directly.

"Your Second Sister?... Are you coming from the Northern Sky Throne Profound Academy?" The woman, Jun Rumeng, was taken aback.

"Otherwise?" Yun Lintian responded.

Jun Rumeng took a deep look at Yun Lintian and said. "No wonder she gave you her personal token. You must be very important to her."

Yun Lintian frowned but said nothing.

"You don't know?" Jun Rumeng asked in doubt. "If there's no mistake, Young Miss Murong will be the next Hall Master in the coming years. Having her token is equivalent to having her as your backup. It means the entire Endless Dream Dancing Hall must be obeyed your command."

Yun Lintian was surprised to hear this. Although he guessed that Murong Xue's background was extremely powerful, he didn't expect her to have such a high status. Furthermore, she actually gave him her personal token. It seemed she was genuinely concerned about him.

"What is your name? You're really lucky to have her as your senior sister." Jun Rumeng said in an envious tone.

"Yun Lintian." Yun Lintian replied. "How long have you been here?"

"Two years. Why?" Jun Rumeng was puzzled. In the next moment, she seemed to think of something. "Are you going to ask me about Heaven Vault Island?"

"Oh? Look like the intelligence network of your dancing hall is quite impressive." Yun Lintian smiled faintly.

Jun Rumeng said proudly. "Of course. The moment you were invited by Tong Liya, we've already kept an eye on you."

"Good. It is much easier, then." Yun Lintian nodded. "Why don't you tell me about Heaven Vault Island and the overall situation here?"

"Why should I?" Jun Rumeng snorted softly.

An exquisite blue plate appeared on Yun Lintian's hand as he said. "What about I use this?"

"You..." Jun Rumeng was speechless. Yun Lintian actually took the token out for such a trivial matter.

She had no choice but to comply. "Well, Heaven Vault Island appeared around two thousand years ago. It is covered by a thick fog all year round and will open on a full moon day. There's also a restriction over there. Only below the Saint Profound Realm can enter the place."

"In there, countless precious plants and materials could be seen everywhere. In addition to not-so-dangerous traps, there are four strange monuments at the island's center. It remains mysterious even now."

Jun Rumeng took a sip of tea and continued. "Tong Liya probably told you something already. On the last full moon, the disciples of the four great forces had mysteriously disappeared from the island. One of the Plum Mountain Sect's disciples managed to send a message back, saying they met a strange person clad in black from head to toe. And that's the only clue everyone has."

"The next full moon is a week later. This time, the four forces made an agreement to allow outsiders to get in. That's why she targeted you."

Yun Lintian nodded. "It doesn't matter. I'm not interested in it."

"Are you sure? According to our information, there are several kinds of Divine-rank treasures over there." Jun Rumeng curled her lips. She didn't believe Yun Lintian wasn't tempted.
