

Myth Beyond 871

Chapter 871 Little Naughty Girl (1)

Boom!

A huge commotion immediately startled everyone in Tang Suyin's courtyard. They looked at the sky and saw a pillar of golden lightning beaming down, followed by a deafening rumble.

Shen Liqiu recovered from the initial shock and hurriedly said. "It's Yun Lintian! He might encounter that Hei Lei."

Xiao Weiyuan was as shocked as Shen Liqiu. The oppressive power from the golden beam earlier caused his entire body to shake all over. He would die under such an attack without a doubt.

"We have to find him." Shen Liqiu said and stood up, preparing to leave.

"I'll go with you, Miss." Xiao Weiyuan had also stood up.

Tang Suyin glanced in the city's center direction and said. "Make sure to enter the trial."

Shen Liqiu nodded heavily. "Understood, Senior. We will come back later."

Xiao Weiyuan cupped his fists and quickly followed Shen Liqiu out.

Watching the two left, Tang Suyin turned to Little Qing and said softly. "If he succeeded, perhaps you could see your father again."

Little Qing lowered her head and said nothing.

Somewhere in the north, Hei Lei struggled to escape from Yun Lintian and found a place to hide. His whole body was drenched in blood. Several hideous wounds could be seen all over the place. For him to be alive until now could be described as a miracle.

He stuffed a handful of healing pills into his mouth and chewed it angrily. His eyes were full of deep hatred as he said. "Yun Lintian! This hatred. I will return it to you soon!"

He took a few deep breaths to calm down and began to heal his wounds. Abyssal Energy gradually enveloped him, transforming him into a black sphere. His injuries gradually recovered at a visible rate.

Half an hour later, Hei Lei recovered more than fifteen percent of his original strength. If he wanted to fully recover, he would need a month or two. Obviously, he didn't have such a luxury time. He had to move now before Yun Lintian could find him.

Hei Lei carefully scanned the surroundings with his Spiritual Sense and was relieved as he didn't find any trace of Yun Lintian around here. Without thinking further, he looked at the north and quickly moved.

Hei Lei traversed for another half an hour and suddenly saw a majestic divine palace in the distance. An ancient aura could be felt in this place. Undoubtedly, this place should be the Skymist Emperor's residence.

Hei Lei became ecstatic upon seeing this. He cautiously looked around the place for a while before walking forward.

Standing in front of a majestic gate, Hei Lei could feel an ancient aura sweep past him as though he had been checking out.

Creak!

In the next moment, the gate slowly opened, and Hei Lei quickly checked the inside through his Spiritual Sense. A trace of disappointment appeared on his face as he discovered the palace was completely empty. Although this place was constructed from valuable materials, he didn't care about these useless things.

Nevertheless, Hei Lei still walked into the palace. The interior was spacious, could easily contain tens of thousands of people with no problem. At the center of the hall, an ancient-looking throne could be seen standing imposingly. It exuded an oppressive aura yet was attractive at the same time.

Hei Lei looked around again, and he couldn't find anything special except for the throne. He didn't think about it further and walked up to it.

As soon as Hei Lei arrived before the throne, a bright light suddenly lit up, transforming into an illusory gate behind the throne.

Hei Lei's eyes narrowed slightly, and a smile appeared on his lips. He knew this gate would certainly lead to the secret of this place.

He didn't hesitate to step forward, and his figure gradually disappeared into the illusory gate.

While Hei Lei entered the palace, Yun Lintian was busy searching for The Storm. He followed the faint connection in his heart for an hour, but he discovered that The Storm was actually moving away from him, as though it was playing hide and seek with him. This gave Yun Lintian a headache.

"Hehe!"

Just as Yun Lintian was helpless, he suddenly heard a giggle coming from behind. It sounded like a giggle from a happy little girl.

Yun Lintian quickly turned around and saw a small figure hiding behind the shade of a building in the distance. This figure was a seven or eight-year-old-looking girl with long hair to her waist that was bright green. She wore a green robe that seemed to be made of the finest silk.

She had a face that seemed like it was carved from jade. Within its perfection, there was an immaturity that belonged to a child. A cute, exquisite nose that pointed upward slightly and watery tender lips. Below her green eyelashes were a pair of star-like eyes that made anyone fond of her upon looking into it.

"Ah!" The petite girl exclaimed cutely and hurriedly slipped away when she saw Yun Lintian looking toward her. A happy giggle could be heard along the gentle breeze as she ran away.

"That... The Storm?" Yun Lintian was stunned.

"It is." Hongyue's voice resounded. "Judging from her look, her age should be lesser than five hundred years old. She's indeed a little brat."

"Five hundred years old is considered a child?" Yun Lintian was speechless.

"The age of spirit is different from us. Five hundred years old is similar to our five years old." Hongyue replied casually. "Hurry up and catch her."

Yun Lintian took a deep breath and looked in the little girl's disappearing direction before executing the Shadow Step to follow her.

Yun Lintian checked the connection in his heart from time to time and discovered the little girl's location kept changing from left to right, as though she could teleport. Even though his speed was fast, it was unrealistic to catch her.

"It seems there's the only way." As he spoke, Yun Lintian's pupils changed into beast-like ones resembling Linlin's eyes. His long-black hair gradually turned white, exactly the same as Linlin's fur.

With golden lightning sparks underneath his feet, Yun Lintian's speed increased twice as before. His figure flashed from place to place, drawing increasingly closer to the little girl.

Chapter 872 Little Naughty Girl (2)

"Got you!" Yun Lintian flashed forward with lightning speed and released a lightning cage to catch the little girl, who was fleeing from him happily.

"Ah! Bad Uncle!" The little girl exclaimed as she saw a lightning cage appearing around her.

Before Yun Lintian could smile, the little girl's body suddenly swayed and transformed into a powerful gust of wind, slipping out of the lightning cage and reappearing in the distance. This scene made Yun Lintian dumbfounded.

Normally, the lightning element was a bane of any spirit, but this little girl could actually escape from his lightning cage. How to catch her, then?

"Hehe! Come catch me, Bad Uncle!" The little girl giggled and ran away.

Yun Lintian touched his chin, thinking of a way to catch this little girl. Since the lightning element didn't work, he had no other way to confine her.

"Big Brother Yun. Although she's a spirit, The Storm is, after all, the Beyond Heaven Relic. Big Brother Yun can try to use the Beyond Heaven King's Crown to control her." Linlin expressed her idea.

Yun Lintian slapped his forehead and said. "Why can't I think of it?" He rubbed Linlin's head and praised him. "Linlin is awesome. Big brother will reward you with a big meal later."

"Hehe." Linlin closed her eyes, enjoying Yun Lintian's warm palm.

Yun Lintian searched for the little girl's location and quickly rushed toward her at full speed.

Soon, he caught up to her once again. He didn't hesitate to summon the Beyond Heaven King's Crown this time.

"Ah!" The little girl seemed to perceive danger. She exclaimed in fright and hurriedly waved her hand.

Before Yun Lintian could make a move, he was immediately sent flying by a terrifying windstorm.

"@#%^*!" Yun Lintian landed on the ground several kilometers away and cursed inwardly.

He forced himself to calm down and chased after the little girl once again. This time, the little girl seemed to know how to deal with Yun Lintian. Every time he drew closer to her, she would immediately summon a windstorm to send him away.

Yun Lintian was sent flying time after time until he stopped chasing after her and sat down, taking a rest.

"You're so pathetic." Hongyue ridiculed. "You can't even deal with a little girl."

Yun Lintian's face twitched. He had to admit that he was incompetent on this one. He tried every means he could think of, but it was impossible to catch the little girl.

"Never mind. Rest first." Yun Lintian muttered and took out a set of a table, a chair, and a tea set. He didn't forget to take out roasted meats for Linlin.

The two began to dig in why thinking of a way to approach the little girl. The main problem was that he couldn't withstand the windstorm she had summoned. If he could fix this problem, he could certainly catch her.

Of course, Yun Lintian tried to use the bottle gourd already, but the result wasn't good. The energy within the windstorm was too tremendous. It was beyond the bottle gourd's capability to absorb all of it. If he insisted on using it further, the bottle gourd would definitely break.

At this moment, the little girl appeared behind a small building not far away from Yun Lintian's position. She stuck her head out, looking at Yun Lintian curiously. More precisely, she was looking at the food on the table.

She didn't understand what they were, but seeing Yun Lintian and Linlin eating happily, she subconsciously licked her lips and slowly approached Yun Lintian.

Yun Lintian didn't notice this. He calmly took a sip of tea while feeding Linlin from time to time.

"Big Brother Yun, she's here." Linlin's perception was better than Yun Lintian's. She immediately noticed the little girl and sent a sound transmission to Yun Lintian.

Yun Lintian was taken aback for a moment and quickly calmed down. He pretended to not notice the little girl and waited for her to come closer.

The little girl saw that the two didn't seem to realize this. A smirk appeared on her lips as she shot forward, aiming at the food on the table.

Yun Lintian's reaction was quick. The Beyond Heaven King's Crown appeared on his head as he immediately released a majestic aura to wrap around the little girl.

"Ah!" The little girl panicked and hurriedly summoned the windstorm. However, she was late by a split second. Yun Lintian had already tightly bound her with the crown's absolute controlling power, making her unable to make a move.

"Uwahhhh! Don't kill me!" The little girl knew that she was in danger. Her previous playful side had vanished completely and was replaced with a pitiful look. Tears started to emerge within her eyes as she looked at Yun Lintian pleadingly.

Yun Lintian heaved a sigh of relief upon seeing this. He didn't expect it would end up like this after trying several times.

Looking at the little girl, Yun Lintian smiled and said. "Let me introduce myself first. My name is Yun Lintian. I am here to get The Storm in your body."

The little girl sobbed and said. "I'm sorry. Please let me go."

Her current appearance could easily evoke everyone's pity, but Yun Lintian didn't buy it, even though he liked children. In his heart, this little girl was more like a five hundred-year-old adult.

Yun Lintian took another chair out and placed the little girl on it. He pushed the grilled meat plate toward her and said. "Do you want to try it?"

The little girl stopped crying and asked in surprise. "I can?"

"Yes." Yun Lintian nodded. "But can you eat it? Aren't you a spirit?"

"Spirit? What is that? Is it edible?" The little girl tilted her head cutely.

Yun Lintian was speechless, but he didn't blame her. After all, this little girl had been living alone in this place for so many years. She naturally didn't have the world's concept.

Yun Lintian handed a piece of the roasted meats to her and said. "Try it."

The little girl hesitated and grabbed the meat. She sniffed slightly and put it into her mouth. Soon, her eyes lit up as she exclaimed. "So delicious!"

Yun Lintian looked at her in puzzlement and asked in his mind. "Hongyue, is she really a spirit?"

Chapter 873 Coaxing Skill

Yun Lintian stared at the little girl chewing the roasted meat in relish in doubt. No matter how he looked at her, she didn't seem to have a characteristic of a spirit. She was like a genuine little girl with flesh and blood.

"She's a spirit that achieved a true body. That's why she's no different from a human. No wonder, The Storm's power has regressed to this extent." Hongyue replied.

"Achieved a true body?" Yun Lintian frowned.

"This is quite troublesome. You cannot directly absorb The Storm into your body like you used to do with other relics. You have to gain her trust first and let her allow you to absorb the core of The Storm." Hongyue said with a soft sigh.

Yun Lintian asked. "What would happen to her if I succeeded?"

"She will naturally disappear," Hongyue replied calmly. "Of course. There's a way. You just need to turn her into a true spirit."

"How to do that?" Although Yun Lintian didn't know the little girl personally, he couldn't stand watching her disappear.

"You gain her trust first, and I will tell you later," Hongyue responded.

Yun Lintian nodded slightly. He released the wood element and asked the little girl. "Do you want more?"

"Mhm!" The little girl replied eagerly. Her eyes were fixated on the roasted meat plate without even blinking.

Yun Lintian meticulously fed her a few more pieces and asked. "What is your name?"

"Name? What is that?" The little girl asked confusedly while chewing the meat.

"It is a word to call a person." Yun Lintian explained. "My name is Yun Lintian. You can call me Big Brother Yun. And this is Linlin. You can call her Big Sister Linlin."

The little girl tilted her head and said. "Big Brother Yun? Big Sister Linlin?"

Perhaps because of the wood energy emitted from Yun Lintian, the little girl subconsciously relaxed her body. Yun Lintian could feel that he didn't have to use much strength from the crown to suppress her further.

In order to gain her trust, Yun Lintian gradually lessened his power until he let go completely. Surprisingly, the little girl didn't run away but kept looking at him in confusion.

"Yes. From now on, I will be your big brother, and she will be your big sister... Since you don't have a name. How about let me give you one?" Yun Lintian said shamelessly.

The little girl thought for a moment and nodded. "Mhm!"

Yun Lintian thought for a moment and said. "You seem to like the green color. How about I call you Qingqing?"

"Qingqing... Qingqing?" The little girl murmured to herself for a while before smiling. "I am Qingqing. Hehe."

She pointed at Yun Lintian, Linlin, and herself. "Big Brother Yun. Big Sister Linlin. Qingqing. Hehe."

Yun Lintian smiled with satisfaction. "That's right. We're family from now on."

"Family?" The little girl, Qingqing, was confused.

"Family means a group of people that belong together. From today onward, Qingqing will follow big brother and Big Sister Linlin. We will bring you to see the outside world. Do you want it?" Yun Lintian asked gently.

"Family... Outside world?" Qingqing was even more confused. She had been living in this place alone and had never been to other places. The concept of the outside world had never appeared in her mind.

"The outside world is the other places besides here. There are many beautiful terrains and rivers for you to see." Yun Lintian smiled. "Of course. There are many delicacies, too."

Qingqing's eyes lit up, and she subconsciously licked her lips. She seemed to understand the concept now. Especially the delicacy part. She couldn't wait to taste every dish in the world.

"His coaxing children skill is really good. No wonder he likes children so much." Hongyue curled her lips. "This little girl has already fallen into his pit."

"But he really needs to change his naming sense." Yun Huanxin couldn't help saying.

"Indeed." Yun Ruanyu laughed gently.

? "Try this." Yun Lintian took out a bowl of mashed potato and placed it before Qingqing. "Use this spoon to scoop it up like this."

Under Yun Lintian's guidance, Qingqing quickly familiarized herself with the spoon and slowly stuffed the mashed potato into her tiny mouth.

Her eyes immediately lit up as she said happily. "Delicious."

Afterward, Yun Lintian continued to serve Qingqing more dishes. With the concept of conquering a little girl through her stomach, the relationship between them grew increasingly closer in a short time. He could feel that the vigilance in Qingqing's heart had disappeared completely now.

"Burp!" Qingqing let out a cute burp while patting her bulging tummy satisfyingly.

She looked at Yun Lintian and said with an innocent smile. "Thank you, Big Brother Yun."

Yun Lintian was taken aback for a second. This little girl actually knew the gratitude concept?

He smiled and patted her head dotingly. "Between us, no need to say this. Big brother is willing to share everything with you."

A foreign feeling arose in Qingqing's little heart. She didn't know what it was, but she liked this warm feeling very much. The smile on her face grew brighter as she leaned forward, letting Yun Lintian pat her.

"She has opened up. You can use this chance to control The Storm within her body." Hongyue suddenly said. "Once you gain full control, she will no longer resist you."

Yun Lintian frowned and shook his head. "It's not good. This is no different from betraying her."

Hongyue wanted to say something, but she gave up in the end. Considering Yun Lintian's attitude toward Qingqing, she knew it was useless to convince him further.

Naturally, Yun Lintian didn't give up on The Storm. He chose another way to approach her instead. "Qingqing, do you know why big brother come here?"

Qingqing tilted her head and said naively. "To give Qingqing food?"

Yun Lintian chuckled. "That's one thing." He paused for a second and continued. "Big brother actually came here to find something."

"What is it? Do you need Qingqing's help?" Qingqing asked.

Yun Lintian patted her head and praised her. "Qingqing is so good. You already know how to help others."

He retracted his hand and said with a serious expression. "Big brother, of course, needs Qingqing's help. Because what big brother finding is in your body."

Qingqing blinked a few times and raised her hand up. A deep green orb enveloped with a wind appeared on her palm as she asked. "Big brother means this?"

Chapter 874 The Storm

Yun Lintian glanced at the green orb and immediately determined it was The Storm. He looked at Qingqing and said. "That's right. Big brother comes here to find this."

Surprisingly, Qingqing suddenly handed the orb to Yun Lintian and said with an innocent smile. "Qingqing gives big brother."

Yun Lintian was stunned... That's it? He had prepared several sentences to convince her, but she actually gave him just like that.

Yun Lintian didn't take it right away. He placed his palms on her shoulders and said seriously. "Qingqing, listen to big brother first. This thing is called The Storm. It is a powerful treasure that relates to Qingqing's life. If big brother took it away, your life would be bound with big brother forever. Are you really willing to give it to me?"

Qingqing blinked her eyes and asked curiously. "Is Big Brother Yun going to give Qingqing delicious food and play with me?"

Yun Lintian nodded heavily. "Of course."

Qingqing smiled brightly and pushed The Storm into Yun Lintian's chest. "Then I want to be with you."

Buzz—

Yun Lintian's mind went blank immediately as terrifying wind energy gushed into his body, spreading to every corner of his body. The deep green jewel on the crown gradually lit up and shot out a green beam toward the sky.

A windstorm began to brew around Yun Lintian and soon transformed into a wind pillar, releasing an oppressive might to spread throughout the ancient city.

In the courtyard, Tang Suyin calmly looked at the green light pillar in the distance. Her hollow eyes seemed to penetrate everything in the world as she muttered. "He's truly the heaven-chosen one. This world still has hope."

In the distance, Shen Liqiu and Xiao Weiyuan halted their steps and looked at the enigmatic scene in shock. The oppressive aura that enveloped the entire city gave them the urge to kneel down and submit to it.

"Let's go." Shen Liqiu regained her sense and hurriedly rushed toward the light pillar, followed closely by Xiao Weiyuan.

At this moment, Yun Lintian felt that everything inside his body was turning upside down. The terrifying wind energy continued to ravage everything, making him unable to protect himself.

Blood gradually leaked out of Yun Lintian's mouth and ears. His face frowned tightly. He was miserable to the extreme.

Linlin, who was shielding herself with a lightning barrier, looked at Yun Lintian worriedly. She wanted to help him but simply had no idea. Integrating with the Beyond Heaven Relic wasn't something she could deal with.

Meanwhile, Qingqing stood calmly in the windstorm and looked at Yun Lintian concernedly. When she saw blood leaking out of his mouth, she hurriedly stepped forward and placed her tiny hand on his chest.

Instantly, the ravaging wind energy within Yun Lintian's body gradually weakened, allowing Yun Lintian to gain control over it.

Without thinking further, Yun Lintian began to circulate his profound energy according to the Primordial Beyond Heaven Scripture. All his Profound Entrances immediately opened up, absorbing the wind energy, and sent it to his Origin Core.

The symbols of The Sun, The Moon, The Thunder, and The Tree of Life within Yun Lintian's Origin Core shone brightly as if they were welcoming a long-lost friend, and the core also started to rotate, madly absorbing the enormous wind energy.

"I didn't expect this outcome." Hongyue looked at the scene in surprise. "Why is this little girl giving The Storm away so easily?"

Although Qingqing was naïve, Hongyue didn't believe The Storm's spirit would accept a stranger, who didn't even know each other for more than an hour, this easily. Wouldn't this mean anyone could get it as long as they coaxed her well?

"You might not know this, Princess Hongyue. Us, the Beyond Heaven Relics' spirits, are innately fonding of the Beyond Heaven King. Even though Qingqing is a newborn, she must feel particularly intimate with His Majesty." Lauya suddenly said.

"For example, she had never intended to hurt him from the beginning to the present. With her power, inflicting a serious injury on him was not a problem, but she always held back. Not to mention she hadn't yet fully controlled her power. For her to try her best to control the degree of her power in order to avoid hurting him has said it all."

"But why did she help the enemy?" Yun Huanxin asked in doubt.

Lauya shook her head. "I do not know. It can be her playful personality. My guess is that she didn't understand the concept of ally and enemy. Perhaps she thought they were playing and didn't want to let it end too soon."

Yun Huanxin nodded slowly.

Hongyue turned to Lauya and asked. "So, you always know what happened to him all the time?"

Lauya knew that the "him" in Hongyue's sentence wasn't referring to Yun Lintian but someone else. She replied softly. "Yes."

A cold glint flashed through Hongyue's eyes as she said. "You know yet still letting him do it?"

Lauya sighed softly and said. "I cannot disobey his will."

Hongyue stared at Lauya for a long time and returned to her previous state. "Forget it. There's no point in saying this now."

On the side, Yun Ruanyu and Yun Huanxin glanced at each other in confusion. They didn't understand what they were talking about.

"He's about to break through. It's impossible to suppress his realm further now." Hongyue suddenly said, attracting everyone's attention.

Crackle—

Yun Lintian's bones and muscles began to break apart and constantly reconstructed. Even though his physique had stepped into the Monarch Profound Realm, it was still unable to withstand the immense wind energy in his body.

At this moment, Yun Lintian felt his Profound Vein had reached its limit. It could not contain the massive wind energy further. The long-lost feeling he hadn't felt for a long time emerged again. He knew this was the time to break through.

Yun Lintian ignored all the pain and concentrated his mind on breaking through. He tried his best to maintain the circulation of the profound energy, supplying enough energy to the Profound Vein.

Soon, his Beyond Heaven Profound Vein swelled madly as though it was about to burst out. Yun Lintian's Origin Core rotated frantically, releasing the fire, water, thunder, wood, and wind energy into every corner of his body.

At the same time, his aura sharply rose to the sky, causing the green pillar of light to grow brighter.

Chapter 875 Breakthrough

Yun Lintian's eyes were shut, and with every breath, a faint wisp of incredible white mist rotated around him, like a snake flicking its tongue to a fantastical rhythm. His aura rose sharply, causing all the nearby buildings to tremble nonstop.

Swoosh!

At this moment, Shen Liqiu and Xiao Weiyuan arrived in the distance and looked at Yun Lintian, who was sitting in the center of a windstorm, in shock.

"This..." Shen Liqiu didn't know what to say at the moment.

"His physique... Incredible." Xiao Weiyuan's eyes were sharp. He could see that Yun Lintian's physique had reached the Monarch level now. It was an entire level different from the last time he saw him. This progress speed could only be described as heaven-defying.

"Where is the enemy?" Shen Liqiu regained her sense and scanned the surroundings quickly.

Xiao Weiyuan had also searched briefly and said. "There's no sign of him here." His gaze stayed on Qingqing, and he said in confusion. "That little girl..."

Shen Liqiu stared at Qingqing, who was placing her hand on Yun Lintian's chest and silently used her secret technique.

"Ouch!" In the next moment, Shen Liqiu covered her eyes in pain. An incredible expression appeared on her face. She didn't expect this little girl to possess such a high strength. Even her secret technique that could be used against Tang Suyin was to no avail in front of her.

Linlin glanced at them and warned. "Do not approach him."

Hearing this, Xiao Weiyuan shifted his gaze onto Linlin, and an incredible expression immediately appeared on his face. For some reason, the lightning barrier around Linlin gave him an unbreakable feeling. Even though his realm was higher than Linlin's, his intuition told him he wasn't her opponent.

Shen Liqiu recovered and opened her eyes with difficulty. She looked at Linlin and said solemnly. "We will help guard this place."

As she spoke, she and Xiao Weiyuan quickly spread out and created isolating barriers to cover the entire area.

Time flowed by, and soon, a whole day had passed. Yun Lintian remained in this state throughout the period without a sign of breaking through. However, everyone could see his body was constantly breaking and reconstructing all the time.

As someone who had experienced it once, Xiao Weiyuan knew that this was a crucial moment for Yun Lintian to step into the Saint Profound Realm.

As everyone knew, the Saint Profound Realm practitioners would gain the ability to regrow their limbs and organs. It was mainly because of an enormous amount of vitality that came after breaking through the shackle of heaven.

Buzz—

Yun Lintian's breathing suddenly boomed like thunder. He opened his eyes, a flash of brilliance in the depths of his profound gaze, like the edge of a knife or a crackle of electricity. It flickered briefly, then disappeared.

He had officially stepped into the first level of the Saint Profound Realm!

Crackle—

Suddenly, a crisp sound emanated from Yun Lintian's bones and tendons as if he were chiseling out the barriers within his physical form. His profound energy coursed through him like a surging river.

Yun Lintian's body now resembled an impenetrable fortress towering into the heavens. His entire being brimmed with a profound, indescribable charm brought by the power of Saint.

The surrounding windstorm, as well as the light pillar, gradually faded away. Extremely rich, profound energy flowed toward him and fused into his body. Everything suddenly turned silent as a spring breeze and gentle rain.

Yun Lintian's strength had reached an unprecedented height. Compared to the Ruler Profound Realm, he felt that his current strength had increased at least ten times. It was exaggerated to the extreme.

He believed that he could deal with Hei Lei within three moves if they were met again.

Yun Lintian looked through his inside body vision and saw a deep green-colored cyclone symbol appear in it. Without a doubt, he had successfully integrated with The Storm.

At the same time, Yun Lintian felt an abundance of vitality and profound energy flowing over every corner of his body. This refreshing feeling was something he had never felt before.

"So this is the power of Saint?" Yun Lintian clenched his fist, producing a terrifying crackling sound.

"Congratulations." Shen Liqiu arrived beside Yun Lintian and said sincerely. She somehow felt fortunate to meet Yun Lintian in this state. Having a relationship with him now would definitely bring unimaginable benefits to herself in the future.

"Congratulations, Young Master Yun. Your talent is truly exceptional." Xiao Weiyuan praised from the bottom of his heart. He had a powerful inheritance like the Tyrannical God Divine Art, but it was nothing in front of Yun Lintian. This young man was destined to be a figure that could shake the world.

"Thank you." Yun Lintian smiled. "By the way, how did you come here, Senior Xiao?"

Xiao Weiyuan narrated the incident, allowing Yun Lintian to understand the whole situation.

Yun Lintian nodded slightly and said. "I was about to finish him previously, but he managed to slip away. I don't know where he goes now."

"Are you talking about that bad guy, Big Brother Yun?" Qingqing suddenly asked. Her existence immediately attracted Shen Liqiu and Xiao Weiyuan's attention.

"She is...?" Shen Liqiu asked curiously.

"Her name is Qingqing. She's my little sister." Yun Lintian didn't explain much. He turned to Qingqing and asked. "Do you know where he is?"

Qingqing placed her finger on her lips, tilted her head slightly, and replied. "He has entered a big house... That direction." As she spoke, she pointed toward the north.

Yun Lintian, Shen Liqiu, and Xiao Weiyuan glanced at each other knowingly. Hei Lei must have entered the Skymist Ancient Clan manor.

"Since that's the case. Let's go." Yun Lintian thought for a moment and said. Although he wasn't yet familiar with the newly gained power, he didn't want to further waste time here in case Hei Lei managed to secure the Skymist Pearl before him.

Linlin quickly jumped onto Yun Lintian's shoulder and asked concernedly. "Are you alright, Big Brother Yun?"

Yun Lintian rubbed her head dotingly and said. "Thank you. Big brother is fine."

"Can you lead the way, Qingqing?" Yun Lintian turned to Qingqing and asked.

"Mhm!" Qingqing nodded, and her figure immediately transformed into a gust of wind, leaving Shen Liqiu and Xiao Weiyuan dumbfounded.

Chapter 876 Skymist Trial

"She..." Shen Liqiu didn't know what to say. According to her knowledge, this Qingqing was clearly not human. She looked at Yun Lintian eagerly, waiting for the answer.

Yun Lintian had no choice but to explain. "She's a spirit's true body."

"A spirit's true body?" A bold idea flashed through Shen Liqiu's mind as she said in disbelief. "Is she...?"

Yun Lintian knew that Shen Liqiu had already figured out Qingqing's identity. He simply nodded and offered no further explanation.

Xiao Weiyuan seemed to think of something. Seeing Shen Liqiu's expression, he immediately confirmed his guess. This Qingqing was definitely the origin of the windstorm that destroyed this city thousands of years ago.

Shen Liqiu had a thousand questions in her mind, but she knew it wasn't the time to ask him. She could only bury her curiosity in her heart and hurried after Yun Lintian to the Skymist Ancient Clan manor.

Boom!

Within the trial space, Hei Lei was killing several profound beasts in front of him to replenish his vitality. Countless profound beast remains could be seen scattered all over the place. Each one of them was dried to the bones. Obviously, their vitality had been sucked away.

Hei Lei's injury had now recovered more than eighty percent thanks to these profound beasts. When he entered this place, there was a sound telling him to kill all the thousands of beasts in this place, and he would pass to the next level.

If it was others, they would definitely feel despair facing a large horde of profound beasts, but Hei Lei was different. This situation was like a paradise for him. He could simply rob all of their vitality to recover.

"Haha! Whoever you are, I appreciate your kindness." Hei Lei laughed heartily as he absorbed the vitality of the profound beast he had just killed.

"Very well, you've passed the first stage. Do you want to continue right away?" An aged male voice resounded throughout the space.

Hei Lei glanced around and didn't see any profound beast anymore. He didn't agree right away but asked instead. "Are you the so-called Skymist Emperor? Why did you bother to set up such a boring trial? Why don't you just give the Skymist Pearl to me directly? You know, there's no one suitable than me."

There was no response to Hei Lei's questions. Instead, a white portal gradually appeared before him.

"You can enter when you're ready." The aged voice resounded and went silent afterward.

Hei Lei curled his lips and walked into the portal fearlessly.

"What an imposing palace." Standing in front of the Skymist Emperor Palace, Shen Liqiu couldn't help exclaiming. With her discerning eyes, she could recognize all the materials to build this majestic palace. All of them were highly precious and difficult to find nowadays.

Yun Lintian carefully scanned the palace and turned to ask Qingqing. "Did he enter this place?"

"Mhm!" Qingqing replied crispily.

"How to open it?" Xiao Weiyuan cautiously touched the palace door a few times and discovered it was impossible to open it with force.

As soon as Xiao Weiyuan's voice fell, the door suddenly trembled and slowly opened. Everyone hurriedly checked the inside with their Spiritual Sense but didn't find anything strange except the white portal behind the majestic throne.

"That should be the trial entrance." Shen Liqiu said as she walked into the hall.

Yun Lintian observed the portal carefully and asked. "Did Senior Tang tell you anything further?"

Shen Liqiu shook her head. "She didn't add anything from the previous conversation... The only thing she talked about this was encouraging me to enter the trial. I really don't know why she kept saying this."

Yun Lintian thought for a moment and asked in his mind. "Hongyue, can I bring Linlin and Qingqing into this trial?"

A moment later, Hongyue replied. "The space inside is not infinite. It's merely a small space condensed by spatial stones. In short, all of you will eventually meet each other inside."

"I see. Thank you." Yun Lintian was relieved upon hearing this. He didn't want to leave Qingqing and Linlin outside in case Hei Lei came out later.

He turned to Xiao Weiyuan and asked. "Do you want to try, Senior Xiao?"

Xiao Weiyuan hesitated and nodded. "Although I'm not interested in the treasures inside, I am more curious what kind of trial the Skymist Emperor created. I think I will try it."

"Let's enter together. There's a chance we could see each other inside." Yun Lintian said.

Everyone looked at each other and nodded their head before walking up to the portal.

Yun Lintian carefully hugged Linlin to his chest and held Qingqing with another hand. He didn't forget to remind them to protect themselves well in case they were separate later.

As they vanished into the portal, everyone's vision instantly turned white, and soon, they found themselves standing in a forest with howling and screaming sounds echoing from all directions.

Yun Lintian quickly lowered his head and saw Linlin and Qingqing lying in his arms, looking around curiously. He heaved a sigh of relief and began to observe the vicinity.

Shen Liqiu and Xiao Weiyuan were nowhere to be found. Clearly, they were sent to another place, but it shouldn't be far away from his position.

"Welcome to my trial grounds. In this trial, there will be a total of three stages. Where you are now is where the first stage will be held. All you have to do here is defeat at least ten thousand profound beasts in this place, and the entrance for the next stage will naturally open. I wish you the best of luck." Suddenly, an aged male voice resounded in everyone's mind.

"Ten thousand?" Yun Lintian frowned slightly. From the aura he could perceive, those profound beasts nearby were by no means weak. He could even see the Monarch-level ones.

"We can help, Big Brother Yun." Linlin suddenly said.

"Yes, yes. This looks fun." Qingqing's eyes were shining with excitement. This was her first time seeing so many creatures.

Yun Lintian thought for a moment and said. "Fine. But you two must stay with me. Do not run around too far, understand?"

"Yes!" Linlin and Qingqing replied in unison and jumped out of Yun Lintian's arms. They couldn't wait to fight the enemy right away.

Chapter 877 Training Ground

Yun Lintian didn't worry about Shen Liqiu much. Looking at how clever she was, she would never fight the enemy foolishly. As for Xiao Weiyuan, this stage was like walking in a park for him.

Puff!

"Hehe!" An early-level Monarch Profound Beast was cut in half by a sharp wind blade, accompanied by a cheerful giggle. Qingqing was having a good time "playing" around.

Meanwhile, Linlin was no different. She had always been restrained from taking action in order to conceal her identity. As a result, she didn't have many chances to exercise her power. In this place, she didn't have to worry about anything and could release her strength to the fullest.

What surprised Yun Lintian was that every beast Qingqing and Linlin killed was actually counted as his. The trial seemed to regard the three of them as one. Even if Yun Lintian didn't do anything, he could easily pass this stage.

Naturally, Yun Lintian wasn't going to stand and watch. With the newly gained strength, this was an excellent opportunity for him to familiarize himself.

Roar!

Yun Lintian rose into the air and slammed his fist onto the ground, releasing fire, lightning, and wind dragons to swallow several beasts in the area.

He watched the scene and said in amazement. "Power of Saint is really something."

Aside from several times abundant profound energy, Yun Lintian could see his bones, tendons, and meridians were brimming with enormous vitality, a whole different level from the Ruler Profound Realm.

"At the Saint Profound Realm, your body will begin regenerating vitality. As long as your foundation of all the previous realms is solid enough, you can live up to two thousand years like the general Monarchs with no problem." Hongyue's voice resounded.

"You're saying my current vitality is equal to Monarch's?" Yun Lintian was surprised.

"Better than that... Now, you know why everyone wants to get the Primordial Beyond Heaven Scripture even though they don't have the Beyond Heaven Profound Vein." Hongyue replied casually.

Before this, Yun Lintian might be aware of how powerful the scripture was, but he hadn't experienced it by himself. This time, he understood it deeply. As long as his profound strength wasn't inferior to the opponent than three full realms, he was confident of keeping himself alive or even fighting back.

"You're still inexperienced. You will understand your true strength once you meet an actually powerful enemy." Hongyue said further.

Yun Lintian nodded slowly. He shifted his gaze onto the profound beasts in the distance, and a deep green light immediately lit up on his hand. As he waved, a terrifyingly sharp wind blade instantly shot out, silently cutting the target into halves.

Yun Lintian locked onto the next target. It was the early-level Monarch Profound Beast that resembled a lion.

"Hah!" As he let out a battle cry, crimson flames abruptly around his body. He leaped up high, dashing toward the target. His entire body transformed into a phoenix shape, producing a deafening phoenix cry as he slammed his fist down.

"Phoenix Break!"

Scree—

The flames on Yun Lintian's body exploded. The enormous blazing phoenix flew from Yun Lintian's fist, passed through the lion's head, and then exploded. In the rocketing blaze, the lion's entire being was sent exploding into the sky as its body was reduced to ashes.

Yun Lintian landed on the ground and smiled in satisfaction. The move he used earlier was called "Phoenix Break," deriving from the first layer of the Divine Phoenix's [Burning Heaven Record]. Compared to the gentle yet powerful Vermilion Bird Flame, the Phoenix Flame was much more aggressive and oppressive. It was more suitable to use in attack than the former one.

Yun Lintian'd just mastered this Phoenix Break today, and his proficiency grew increasingly as time passed.

The three were immersed in killing the profound beasts for the entire day, and their killing counts had long surpassed ten thousand.

"Congratulations. You have passed the first stage. You can proceed to the next stage right away when ready." The aged voice resounded, causing Yun Lintian to stop his action.

At this moment, a white portal appeared before Yun Lintian. However, he wasn't in a hurry to enter the next stage. If it was possible, he would like to wait for Shen Liqiu and Xiao Weiyuan first.

Yun Lintian looked at Qingqing and Linlin, who were having a great time in the distance, and shouted. "Linlin, Qingqing, take a rest first."

Swoosh!

Qingqing and Linlin quickly arrived beside Yun Lintian upon hearing him. Their faces flushed red in excitement, as though they didn't have enough fun.

"Come. Let's eat first." Yun Lintian took out a set of a table and chairs along with food and drinks.

Qingqing didn't say anything and quickly sat down, picking up the spoon and fork before digging in.

Linlin was no different. Perhaps she had spent too much energy today. Her appetite seemed to increase drastically as she quickly nibbled the roasted meat without waiting for Yun Lintian.

Yun Lintian took this chance to communicate with Shen Liqiu. Soon, he discovered that her position wasn't far away from his. After a few contacts, Shen Liqiu found a way and arrived within his area.

"While I almost died from the exhaust, yet you guys are actually eating heartily here. Oh, heaven is unfair." Shen Liqiu gnashed her teeth angrily when she saw Yun Lintian and the two girls feasting happily. Her current appearance was messy. Blood and dirt were all over her robe. It could be seen how brutal the battle she had gone through was.

Shen Liqiu unceremoniously sat down and poured herself a tea before gulping it in one go.

"Hah! Do you have a wine?" Shen Liqiu placed the teacup on the table with a thud and asked Yun Lintian.

Yun Lintian's face twitched slightly, but he still took a wine jar out. "This is a medicine wine. It's quite strong. Be careful when you dr...."

Before Yun Lintian could finish his sentence, Shen Liqiu had already snatched the wine jar away and poured it directly into her mouth. Her drinking posture was heroic without a trace of a noble.

Soon, Shen Liqiu put the jar down, and her face turned rosy instantly. Her mind began to blur as she looked at Yun Lintian with a charming smile. "Good wine!"

Yun Lintian was speechless. Without a doubt, this woman was drunk now.

Chapter 878 Binding Life

"Hah! So refreshing." Shen Liqiu let out a satisfied sigh after eating and drinking everything on the table.

She used her profound energy to help digest the medicinal wine and asked Yun Lintian curiously. "I didn't expect you to master a medicinal wine brewing. I'd tasted countless so-called top wines before, but none of them can be compared to yours. Really, you don't want to consider my proposal? How good it would be if I could drink this kind of wine every day."

Yun Lintian ignored her nonsense and said calmly. "Hurry up and practice. Although it can't help you break through, it is enough to assist you in consolidating your foundation."

Shen Liqiu curled her lips and obediently did according to his suggestion. She closed her eyes and began to run her profound art.

Yun Lintian wasn't at all concerned about Shen Liqiu upon seeing her energy run smoothly. He glanced at Qingqing, who was sleeping soundly on his lap and stroked her head gently.

"Hongyue, since she gave me The Storm, where did her energy come from?" Yun Lintian asked in his mind.

"Of course, from you. You're now sharing profound energy with her." Hongyue replied calmly. "Initially, I planned to let you establish a spiritual contract with her, binding her with you. Who would have thought she took the initiative to do it herself. Now, her life is completely bound with yours. You died. She will die as well... Your coaxing skill is more effective than I thought."

Yun Lintian looked at Qingqing in surprise. He obviously didn't do anything much to make her trust him to this extent. Perhaps it was because of the Beyond Heaven Profound Vein in his body that gave off a familiar feeling to her.

On the side, Linlin looked at this scene in jealousy. She felt like her love had been robbed away from her, but she didn't express anything about it.

Yun Lintian seemed to perceive Linlin's mood. He smiled and patted her head. "Both of you are equally important to me. You don't have to be jealous of her."

"Mhm." Linlin let out a low hum and closed her eyes, enjoying Yun Lintian's big palm. Her tail wiggled from side to side, showing that she was happy to hear this.

"Tsk. He is really suitable to be a nanny." Hongyue clicked her tongue as she watched this scene.

Yun Ruanyu and Yun Huanxin were amused. They knew how much Yun Lintian cared for children. Otherwise, he wouldn't risk everything in order to rescue those children from the Peng clan back then.

Shen Liqiu maintained a practicing state for the entire day before opening her eyes. She let out a foul breath and couldn't help looking at Yun Lintian. "Do you have more? I feel like I can make a breakthrough as long as I drink a few more barrels."

Barrels my foot!... Yun Lintian's lips twitched uncontrollably, and he almost scolded out. Although he had unlimited medicinal ingredients, brewing wine wasn't something he could just make whenever he needed. It took a lot of time to produce a high-quality one.

As if she saw through Yun Lintian's thoughts, Shen Liqiu quickly changed the topic. "I wonder where Uncle Xiao is?"

She pretended to look around and moved farther from Yun Lintian.

Yun Lintian curled his lips. At least you know how to escape.

"Miss!" At this moment, Xiao Weiyan emerged from the forest and shouted in surprise as he saw Shen Liqiu.

"Uncle Xiao." Shen Liqiu nodded with a smile. She wasn't at all worried about Xiao Weiyuan from the beginning to the end.

"Young Master Yun." Xiao Weiyuan greeted Yun Lintian while walking over.

Yun Lintian smiled and asked. "Have you completed the task, Senior?"

? "Yes." Xiao Weiyuan nodded and turned to Shen Liqiu. "How about you, Miss? Do you need my help?"

He didn't ask Yun Lintian about it as he knew Yun Lintian must finish the objective a long time ago.

Shen Liqiu sighed helplessly. "Sadly, I have yet to complete it. There are more than five thousand left."

"How about we go now?" Xiao Weiyuan nodded and asked.

Shen Liqiu looked at Yun Lintian and asked. "What about you? Why don't you start moving yet?"

Yun Lintian's face twitched slightly. This woman is really shameless.

He sighed helplessly and stood up while hugging Qingqing. "You two stay here. Let me try something."

As Yun Lintian's voice fell, white mists gradually appeared around the area before expanding out with the help of a strong wind.

Shen Liqiu wasn't surprised about this as she had witnessed Yun Lintian's Cloud Domain before.

However, Xiao Weiyuan was different. His mouth opened wide as he looked at the scene in horror.

Usually, when practitioners wanted to open their domains, there would be a surge of energy, but Yun Lintian wasn't. His domain was so silent that he couldn't even react. Furthermore, this white mist could actually block his perception. Even if he wanted to escape, he didn't know which way to go. He was like a blind person who was lost in a maze.

"What are you doing, Big Brother Yun?" Qingqing, who'd just woken up, asked curiously while rubbing her eyes.

"Well, big brother wants to bring those profound beasts to this place. Do you want to help me?" Yun Lintian asked gently.

"Leave it to me!" Qingqing's eyes lit up when she heard this. She jumped down from Yun Lintian's arms and made a grasping gesture.

Swoosh!

Instantly, a few profound beasts were forcibly dragged away by a terrifying gust of wind and landed several meters away from Yun Lintian's position.

Seeing this scene, a surprise flashed through Yun Lintian's eyes. It seemed Qingqing was completely unaffected by his Cloud Domain. It was as though his domain was hers.

Qingqing didn't stop at that. She continued to bring more profound beasts in while giggling happily.

Thud! Thud! Thud!

Soon, thousands of profound beasts were piling up into mountains. They let out a miserable howl, struggling to get rid of the binding winds around them, but their efforts were futile.

Yun Lintian looked at the pile of profound beasts and turned to Shen Liqiu. "It's all yours."

Shen Liqiu's mouth opened in an "O" shape as she was too stunned to speak... What did I struggle for all this time?

Chapter 879 Second Stage (1)

Although Shen Liqiu was speechless, she didn't forget to launch her attack on the profound beasts. Under Qingqing's binding wind, these pitiful beasts could only accept their fate, getting slaughtered one-sidedly.

Time passed. Shen Liqiu tried her best to kill all the profound beasts until she completely exhausted her profound energy. She slumped on the chair and complained. "Ah. I'm tired to death. Bring me some wines."

Yun Lintian rolled his eyes and brought a small bottle of wine out. "Take it. We will leave after you recover."

Shen Liqiu's eyes brightened. She hurriedly uncorked the bottle and took a sip of wine. "So good!"

"I don't know how Hei Lei is now." Xiao Weiyuan frowned. "Hopefully, this trial is not about the speed."

"Of course not." Yun Lintian said while sipping tea. "If we have to compete in a speed, wouldn't Monarchs have an advantage in this? If that's the case, I don't think the Skymist Emperor would need to go through all this trouble. He could just pick the strongest Monarch under him to inherit his inheritance."

Xiao Weiyuan nodded thoughtfully. "Indeed." He couldn't help asking. "What do you think about the second stage, Young Master Yun?"

Yun Lintian shook his head. "It's early to judge... However, if this first stage is about testing our battle prowess, the second stage should be testing other aspects. For example, our soul."

He paused for a moment and continued. "I don't know much about the Skymist Emperor's personality. I can't guess about his criteria in choosing a successor."

Shen Liqiu put the wine bottle down and wiped the trace out of her lips. "It was said he was an upright person, but why did he allow the Poison Valley remnant like that Hei Lei guy in?"

Yun Lintian shrugged his shoulders. "Who knows?"

"Well, we will see it later." Shen Liqiu took another mouthful of wine and began replenishing her profound energy.

Two hours later, Shen Liqiu had fully recovered her profound energy and was ready to set off.

Everyone stood before the white portal and glanced at each other.

"See you later." Shen Liqiu said with a smile and stepped into the portal, followed by Xiao Weiyuan.

Yun Lintian tightly hugged Qingqing, and Linlin then said. "If we are separate, don't run around restlessly. Understand?"

"Mhm!" Qingqing and Linlin replied obediently.

Yun Lintian took a deep breath and stepped into the portal. His vision turned white for a while, and when he recovered, he had already found himself in a familiar bedroom.

"This place..." Yun Lintian was stunned because this place was his rental room when he was on Earth.

Looking at a clean and neat bed that he had slept on for years, Yun Lintian subconsciously touched it, and the soft sensation immediately shook his soul. "This... This is too real."

Yun Lintian thought it was an illusion or something, but it was too perfect. Everything was too real to be an illusion, whether the smell in the air, sunlight or a sensation.

Yun Lintian turned and saw a familiar desk with a small digital clock. The date on the clock clearly stated it was 24 July 2015. His heart shook, and he quickly opened the door.

Pop!

"Happy birthday to you~" As soon as Yun Lintian stepped out of the room, a crackling sound rang out, followed by a pleasant singing.

Yun Lintian looked at the woman before him as if he had just lost his soul. No matter how many years had passed, every frown and movement of her could never be erased from his mind and soul.

"Yaoyao..." Yun Lintian said in a hoarse voice. His eyes turned red as tears began to flow down.

The woman, Xia Yao, was stunned by his reaction. She hurriedly put the cake on a table nearby and hugged Yun Lintian. "What's wrong? Tell me."

Xia Yao patted Yun Lintian's back. Her face was full of confusion and worry. She didn't understand why Yun Lintian had such a reaction. It was definitely not coming from a joyful mood.

Yun Lintian trembled. The scent and warm hug he had longed for day and night appeared in front of him again. Even though he knew this might be an illusion, he didn't want to part with it. At least, not now.

Xia Yao didn't inquire further. She gently patted Yun Lintian and placed her head against his chest, listening to his powerful heartbeats. Time seemed to freeze at the moment, or perhaps it was Yun Lintian's wish.

Bang!

"Haha! Boss! We are here to..." At this moment, the front door was pushed open, and a loud voice immediately resounded as three figures appeared behind it. They were no other than Lei Hao, Tu Feng, and Xiao Kai.

The three were frozen on the spot when they saw this scene. Lei Hao hurriedly pushed Tu Feng and Xiao Kai away and said with a knowing smile. "I'm sorry, Boss and Sister Yao. We will come back later."

As he spoke, he quickly closed the door. However, he didn't go anywhere but leaned closely against the door while making a silent gesture to his brothers.

Yun Lintian regained his sense and gently grabbed Xia Yao's shoulder. He looked at the peerless beauty in front of him without blinking. He even forgot to breathe for a while.

Xiao Yao was puzzled by Yun Lintian's strange action. She couldn't help touching his forehead. "You didn't get a cold, right?"

Yun Lintian grabbed her soft hand gently and lowered his head, kissing her.

Xia Yao's eyes widened open in shock and then slowly calmed down. She closed her eyes and used her left arm to hook his neck, immersing in a blissful moment.

A while later, Yun Lintian reluctantly left her lips and stared at Xia Yao's beautiful face. "I miss you, Yaoyao."

Xia Yao blushed slightly and quickly retorted. "I am here with you every day. Why did you suddenly miss me? Don't tell me you had a nightmare of that night again?"

Hearing this, Yun Lintian was puzzled. "That night?"

Xia Yao's brows perked up as she looked at him suspiciously. "Don't you remember? It was the night we went to retrieve Project Eve. We almost lost our life there."

Yun Lintian was even more confused... What was going on here? Wasn't that night everyone....?

Chapter 880 Second Stage (2)

"Did you really forget?" Xia Yao frowned as she saw Yun Lintian's confusing expression.

Yun Lintian patted his head and said. "I'm confused now. Why don't you tell me about it?"

"Do you need to go to the hospital for a check?" Xia Yao asked worriedly. She thought that something had happened to his head.

Yun Lintian shook his head and said with a smile. "This might be a short-period memory loss. Once you tell me, maybe my memory will return."

"Alright..." Although Xia Yao was concerned and found it strange, she still carefully narrated what happened that night.

After listening to her, Yun Lintian immediately realized. The illusion world he was in right now took a different timeline. It turned out no one died that night, and they managed to escape from the lab with the help of Lynn, who came to the rescue in time.

Following that, everyone exchanged Project Eve with the country for protection, and now they were living happy life.

Yun Lintian looked at the candles on the cake in a daze. His mood became complicated. No one died, and everyone returned to their peaceful life. This was clearly what he wanted it to be.

"Are you sure we don't need to go to the hospital?" Xia Yao asked worriedly.

Yun Lintian regained his sense and shook his head. He looked at her with a smile. "I remembered everything now. Sorry for making you worry."

Xia Yao stared at him attentively for a while and heaved a sigh of relief. "That's good."

Yun Lintian changed the topic. "I will blow it now." As he spoke, he quickly blew out the candles.

Xia Yao was happy and shouted. "How long are you three going to stand there?"

Her voice immediately startled Lei Hao and the others. They quickly opened the door and smiled embarrassingly.

"Sister-in-law, we've brought a lot of special dishes here. Let's feast, shall we?" Lei Hao hurriedly changed the topic and turned to Tu Feng and Xiao Kai. "Ah'Feng, go bring some dishes and bowls. And you, Ah'Kai... You..."

"I will check the TV's signal." Xiao Kai pushed the glasses bridge and went to the TV.

Xia Yao rolled her eyes at this trio... Why do you need to check a signal?

When she turned to Yun Lintian, she saw the latter look at the scene in a daze again. Her face sank slightly. It seemed she had to drag him to the hospital later.

Yun Lintian looked at his iron brothers in a complicated mood. Guilty and happy intertwined as he didn't know which one he should feel right now... How good would it be if this was a reality?

Soon, the party started, and everyone enjoyed the feast. Yun Lintian used this chance to inquire about his brothers' lives. He was surprised to hear Lei Hao was about to get married while Tu Feng already had a daughter. Even a nerd like Xiao Kai also had a wife.

"Boss, what happened to you today? You don't seem... What should I say? You looked like a different person." Lei Hao couldn't help asking after facing so many questions from Yun Lintian.

Everyone immediately put their chopsticks down and looked at Yun Lintian silently.

Yun Lintian smiled and said. "Do you believe that I have gone to another timeline?"

Everyone glanced at each other in confusion.

Xiao Kai pushed his glasses and said calmly. "The paralleled universe theory is possible. I do believe it, Boss."

Lei Hao frowned slightly and said in doubt. "Although I feel it unreal, I believe you, Boss."

Meanwhile, Tu Feng looked at Yun Lintian with a serious expression. Even though he didn't say anything, his gesture had already told everything that he trusted Yun Lintian unconditionally.

Yun Lintian's heart was warm. Throughout the year, his brothers would always support him no matter what he did. It was a trust that he could never get it from anyone again.

"Tell me about it." Xia Yao grabbed Yun Lintian's hand tightly and asked.

Yun Lintian patted her hand and began to tell everything from the beginning to the end. The more everyone listened, the more surprised they got.

"Are you telling us that everyone here except you and I died that night? And you were hunted by Zhu Ding later?" Lei Hao saw Yun Lintian nod. He couldn't help saying angrily. "Boss, why didn't you let me face it with you? Even though I don't have legs, I can definitely kill hundreds of them."

Yun Lintian was taken aback and laughed. "I thought you would think that I am crazy. It turns out you are angry with this?"

Lei Hao snorted. "Do you think I can live further after you've gone, Boss?"

The smile on Yun Lintian's face receded. He let out a sigh and said. "I don't want you to die with me."

? Seeing that Lei Hao was about to retort, Xia Yao glared at him and said. "Enough. Even if it was true, you really don't understand his mood at that time?"

Lei Hao immediately shut his mouth.

Xia Yao said further. "What if you swapped the role with him? Do you want to see him die with you?"

Lei Hao quickly responded. "No!"

Xia Yao sighed softly and said. "That's it. Whether you, me, or everyone here. No one wants to see any of us die."

Everyone immediately went silent. Their hearts were clear since day one. They would do everything to ensure that no one died in front of them, even if they had to exchange their life.

Xiao Kai tried to clear up the solemn atmosphere by asking. "Put that aside. I'm more interested in the Xianxia world you've gone to, Boss. Everyone could fly with swords?"

Yun Lintian chuckled and said. Those on top can easily break mountains and rivers there... Well, except that I rarely encountered a courting-death young master."

Lei Hao couldn't help laughing. He was the same as Yun Lintian, in his free time. He fully understood what Yun Lintian meant by the last part.

While everyone was talking, no one noticed that Xia Yao's eyes were strange. It was as though she had just woken up from a dream.
