

Myth Beyond 881

Chapter 881 A Little Bit Longer

"I want to live in that kind of world too. There must be many jade beauties." Lei Hao said with a longing expression.

Xia Yao rolled her eyes at him. "See if I tell Little Jie later."

"Don't, sister-in-law!" Lei Hao hurriedly said. His face was pale as a white sheet, and droplets of sweat could be seen on his forehead. Without a doubt, he was a member of the "respecting" wife club.

Xia Yao curled her lips and paid no heed to him further. She turned to Yun Lintian and asked. "Did you find a lover there?"

Yun Lintian was taken aback and hurriedly shook his head. "No, how could I find one? You know that my heart can no longer contain anyone besides you."

"Really?" Xia Yao smiled playfully. "What about Sister Ningchang and Sister Lynn?"

Yun Lintian's expression froze. He inadvertently glanced at Lei Hao and saw the latter cover his forehead, appearing somewhat sorry for him. Yun Lintian immediately understood there was something wrong here... Could it be I open a harem here?

Xia Yao seemed to see through his thoughts. She chuckled and said. "That's right. You have three wives here."

Yun Lintian's eyes widened open in shock. He knew very well that he didn't dare to accept Lynn and Yang Ningchang's feelings because he was wholeheartedly devoted to Xia Yao and didn't want to hurt them... What the hell? I am that brave?

Xia Yao didn't mention it further. She stared deep into Yun Lintian's eyes and said with a serious expression. "I always hope you can accept those who love you wholeheartedly."

Yun Lintian stared at Xia Yao's beautiful face for a long time and said with a sigh. "It is easy to say. My heart died the moment you left me. I don't want to lie to myself and them."

The atmosphere turned quiet. Lei Hao, Tu Feng, and Xiao Kai didn't speak any word as they looked at Yun Lintian and Xia Yao silently. Having been with the two for a decade, they knew how deeply these two love each other. It was understandable why Yun Lintian could not move on. They also believed Xia Yao would be the same if Yun Lintian left her.

Knock! Knock!

At this moment, a knocking sound rang out, and Lei Hao hurriedly stood up. As he opened the door, two peerless beauties appeared before him. They were none other than Lynn Wintercrest and Yang Ningchang.

"Ah? Two sisters-in-law, please come in." Lei Hao quickly invited the two in.

Lynn took off sunglasses, revealing a pair of charming blue eyes, and stepped forward to hug Yun Lintian. "Dear, I miss you so much. Mua!"

Yun Lintian was stunned by Lynn's sudden attack, but he quickly calmed down and patted her back. "It's been a while."

Lynn's body froze for a second. She hurriedly left Yun Lintian and stared at him suspiciously. "Who are you?"

Meanwhile, Yang Ningchang, who had just put her bag down, turned to look at Yun Lintian in doubt as well. At a glance, she could see Yun Lintian was different today.

"Two sisters-in-law, it's like this...." Lei Hao took the initiative to tell them everything about Yun Lintian's experience in another "timeline."

Lynn and Yang Ningchang were surprised and then became solemn. They seemed to be aware it wasn't an ordinary phenomenon.

"Do you want me to call doctors, dear?" Lynn sat beside Yun Lintian and said seriously.

Yun Lintian laughed slightly. "I'm a doctor myself. Why do I need them? Besides, you can treat it as a dream."

"But..." Lynn wanted to say something, but she was interrupted by Yang Ningchang.

"It's alright, Sister Lynn. He needs time to adapt." Yang Ningchang said calmly. Her character had always been like this, facing any problem with a calm and composed demeanor.

"Ningchang is right." Yun Lintian smiled and looked at this peerless beauty with guilty in his heart. The scene where she grew old and died lonely on the bed was vivid in his mind. Even though he didn't know whether it was true or false, it did leave a great impact on his heart.

"Are you planning to stay here?" Xia Yao helped Yun Lintian out of the situation.

Lynn nodded gently with a charming smile. "I won't leave again. How about we move to a seaside villa? I just bought one before coming here."

"That's great!" Lei Hao chimed in and looked at Yun Lintian enviously.

Lynn turned to Lei Hao and the others. "I also bought one for each of you so we can live together. It can be treated as your wedding gift."

"Wow! Thank you, sister-in-law!" Lei Hao was excited. He naturally didn't refuse such a good thing.

Tu Feng and Xiao Kai were stunned. Although they weren't short of money, buying a top seaside villa was something they couldn't come up with.

"Thank you, sister-in-law." They hurriedly said in unison.

Yun Lintian looked at Lynn in amazement. This woman was really domineering when it came to spending.

"I've already prepared cars. We can move right away." Yang Ningchang added.

Yun Lintian turned to Xia Yao and asked. "What do you think?"

Xia Yao smiled and replied. "Since Sister Lynn has already bought it, we don't have any other choice. Let's move there."

"Alright." Yun Lintian slowly nodded his head.

"Great!" Lynn was relieved upon hearing this. She had proposed to Yun Lintian to move out of this place once, but he said this place had a special meaning for him. She didn't expect him to accept it now.

Everyone began to pack up and got into the car, heading toward the villas. When the cars left the community, everything began to fade away and turned into nothingness...

In the car, Yun Lintian looked at the scenery calmly. Everything around him was too real to the point he couldn't muster his heart to break it... Just a bit longer. Let me stay here a bit longer.

Yun Lintian didn't know that his heart had already started to sway, and his mind gradually accepted everything. He seemed to forget that this place was an illusion bit by bit unknowingly...

Chapter 882 Bizarre Feeling

"Husband, you really don't consider anyone?" On the bed, Xia Yao lay in Yun Lintian's arms and drew a heart shape on his bare chest. Her face flushed red with droplets of sweat on her forehead. They had obviously just finished an exercise earlier.

Yun Lintian stared at the ceiling in a daze. The experience he had been through just now was too real. He couldn't get enough of it.

Hearing this question, Yun Lintian lowered his head slightly to look at the naked beauty in his arm and replied softly. "Why are you asking this again? I cannot love anyone besides you, whether it was this life or next life."

"But you can clearly love Sister Ningchang and Sister Lynn." Xia Yao retorted.

Yun Lintian was speechless. "Well... They too."

Xia Yao rolled her eyes. "Liar!"

"Liar?" Yun Lintian curled his lips. "See how a liar punishes you." As he said, his hand slowly approached her bountiful mounds and pinched gently, causing Xia Yao to moan softly.

Yun Lintian couldn't stop the fire in his heart. He rolled over and started another round of exercise.

Soon, the room filled with blissful sounds, causing Lynn and Yang Ningchang, who stood nearby the door, to blush in shame.

"He's so fierce." Lynn curled her lips. "I like it."

Yang Ningchang couldn't listen to it anymore and hurriedly slipped away.

Time passed by from day to month and month to year. In a blink of an eye, four years had passed. During this period, the three women gave birth to daughters, and they were all twins. Yun Lintian's life was very fulfilling and peaceful.

"Daddy, I want to eat braised porks you made." A three-year-old little girl, whose body seemed to carve out of pink jade, climbed onto Yun Lintian's lap and said cutely. She was Yun Lintian's eldest daughter, Yun Ningning.

Yun Lintian smiled softly while hugging her, preventing her from falling. "Sure. Today, dad will make it specially for you."

"Ah! Big sister is cheating!" At this moment, a group of five little girls ran into the living room and clamored upon seeing Yun Ningning sitting on their father's lap.

Soon, Yun Lintian was immediately surrounded by the six little girls. The smile on his face could never fade away. He was extremely happy with his current life.

Xia Yao walked into the room and looked at the scene with a smile. After giving birth, her charm had increased drastically. She said softly. "Girls, come here and let your dad go to the kitchen."

"Yes, mama." The six girls obediently climbed down from the sofa and let Yun Lintian stand up.

Yun Lintian walked to Xia Yao and kissed her cheek. "Thank you for your hard work."

Xia Yao pushed him gently and said. "Go, go. Cook some food for our daughters."

Yun Lintian grinned. "We are an old husband and wife. Why are you still shy?"

Xia Yao rolled her eyes and walked to the little girls.

Yun Lintian smiled and glanced through a window, looking at Yang Ningchang and Lynn, who were meticulously watering the flowers, before walking into the kitchen.

Yun Lintian took the ingredients out of the fridge and prepared to cook. He started by washing vegetables and cutting them into well portions.

Da! Da! Da!

Yun Lintian's hand transformed into shadows as he quickly chopped the vegetables while listening to his daughter's laughter.

In the next moment, he was distracted and accidentally cut his finger. A sharp pain went through his head as an electrocute, and the scene in front of him suddenly swayed.

"Wake up." A familiar female voice resounded in his mind like a bell, causing him to grab his head painfully.

Cold sweat appeared on Yun Lintian's forehead. He was in a confused state as he didn't know what was going on right now. He started to recall something, but there seemed to be a haze blocking his mind, preventing him from seeing it clearly.

"Husband?" Xia Yao walked into the kitchen as she noticed the chopping sound had stopped.

"Husband, what's wrong?" Seeing Yun Lintian clutching his head, Xia Yao hurriedly walked up and looked at him worriedly.

The swaying scene before Yun Lintian gradually stabilized and returned to its original state. Yun Lintian took a deep breath and looked at Xia Yao. At the same time, a strange feeling arose in his heart. This was clearly a woman he loved to his soul, but why did he suddenly feel like this? It was as though she was a stranger to him.

"I'm fine." Yun Lintian forcibly calmed down and said.

"Do you want to take a rest first?" Xia Yao asked concernedly while wiping the sweat out of Yun Lintian's cheeks.

"It's okay. I can do it. Perhaps I didn't get enough sleep lately." Yun Lintian didn't know why but wanted to chase Xia Yao out of this place as soon as possible.

Xia Yao slowly nodded her head. "Alright. Tell me if you need my help."

"Mhm!" Yun Lintian smiled faintly, watching Xia Yao walking out of the kitchen.

However, Yun Lintian didn't know that a strange light flashed through Xia Yao's eyes as she turned around. The smile on her face gradually receded and was replaced with a touch of coldness.

Yun Lintian picked the knife up again and looked at the tiny wound on his finger, falling into a deep thought... What was going on earlier? And what did I forget?

Yun Lintian shook his head gently and resumed cooking. He didn't notice that Lynn and Yang Ningchang were staring at him through a gap in a window with cold eyes.

"Why did he suddenly wake up?" Lynn said coldly.

"There must be someone interfering from the outside." Yang Ningchang said plainly. If Yun Lintian heard this, he would be surprised as their voices were exactly the same.

"Who could it be? Even that old man Skymist cannot interfere with our space. I don't think there's someone stronger than him left in this world." Lynn said with a frown.

A cold glint flashed through Yang Ningchang's eyes as she spoke icily. "It doesn't matter. As long as we can seize his soul, no one in this world could be our opponent. At that time, I will seek that old bastard revenge for locking us up here."

Chapter 883 Dream Catching Willow

After dinner, Yun Lintian coaxed his daughters to sleep and returned to his room. As he stood in a cold shower, Yun Lintian couldn't help thinking about what had happened previously. He was certain that it wasn't a hallucination, and the voice he heard was extremely familiar.

"Husband." At this moment, Xia Yao walked into the room naked and gently hugged Yun Lintian from behind.

The softness of her body immediately dispelled his scattered thoughts away. Yun Lintian turned around and gently kissed his beloved wife.

"What are you thinking?" Xia Yao asked softly, with her face flushed red from Yun Lintian's restless hands.

"It's nothing." Yun Lintian responded while squeezing her elastic buttocks before sliding his finger down.

"Ah..." Xia Yao moaned softly. Her hand wasn't idle as she slowly grabbed his hard root and stroked it gently.

"Let me serve you, husband." As she said, Xia Yao knelt on the ground and began to use her mouth.

"Hiss..." Yun Lintian sucked in a cold breath and was immersed in ecstasy brought by her soft and warm tongue.

Soon, the two changed positions and started a round of exercises. All the doubts that lingered in Yun Lintian's mind gradually vanished. He had never thought about the bizarre event in the kitchen again.

"Heh, no men can escape a flower tomb." Outside of the bathroom, Lynn curled her lips while listening to a blissful sound.

"He almost remembered." Yang Ningchang said with a frown. "I've checked about it but didn't find anything unusual. This is strange."

"It doesn't matter for now. Let's join the fun." Lynn said and stripped naked, revealing her voluptuous body before entering the bathroom.

"Well..." Yang Ningchang shook her head gently and followed Lynn.

Somewhere inside a dark space, Hei Lei looked at a corpse of a withering wood creature and snorted coldly. "Dream Catching Willow? A low-level creature like you dare to confuse me?"

Earlier, Hei Lei was brought into a dream world where he reigned supreme above all. However, he could maintain his sanity, unwilling to succumb to the tempting desires, and got rid of the enemy, a creature called Dream Catching Willow.

"Congratulations. You have passed the second stage. The door is open for you. You can proceed to the final stage right away." The aged voice resounded.

Hei Lei curled his lips. "Seriously, why bothered to set up such a low-level trial?"

In his heart, this Skymist Emperor's trial was nothing but a joke. Each stage could barely test anything.

Without thinking further, Hei Lei stepped forward and vanished into the white portal.

"Phew. I almost died to this." Shen Liqiu patted her chest in relief while looking at the Dream Catching Willow's corpse on the ground with a lingering fear on her face.

"But that dream is really... good." Her face suddenly turned red as she recalled the experience she had gone through earlier. She quickly shook her head and said. "How's that guy now? He should easily pass this stage, right?"

Shen Liqiu rested for a while before stepping into the portal.

"Huu." Xiao Weiyuan slumped on the ground with a pale face. He looked at the Dream Catching Willow's corpse on the ground solemnly. If it wasn't for his strong will, he would have lost his life long ago.

After he recovered from the shocking state, Xiao Weiyuan didn't think about it further and vanished into the portal.

When he regained his vision, Xiao Weiyuan found himself standing in an open space with a solid platform at the center.

"Uncle Xiao!" Shen Liqiu quickly shouted when she saw Xiao Weiyuan appear in this place. However, she was confined within a small space and could not move.

Xiao Weiyuan nodded gently and turned to look at a familiar figure in the distance.

"Oh? You are here too." Hei Lei grinned at Xiao Weiyuan. "Well, it's good. This time you can't run away again."

"And who this woman. Hehe. Your pretty face is in line with my taste. Don't worry. I won't kill you too soon." Hei Lei licked his lips.

Instead of getting angry, Shen Liqiu laughed and said. "And here I thought who you are. It turns out to be a cockroach that slipped away from Lintian's foot. Don't worry. This time, he will make sure that you can't slip away again."

Hei Lei's expression froze and turned gloomy. "Hehe. Very good. Where's he now? Don't tell me he's dead on the second stage?"

The smile on Shen Liqiu's face receded slightly. She was worried deep down that Yun Lintian could not make it.

Yun Lintian lay on the bed, exhausted. Looking at the three naked beauties on his side, a satisfying smile crept on his face. The aftertaste of cloud nine was still lingering on his body. He could never get enough of it.

"Do you want sons, husband?" Lynn curled her lips and played with Yun Lintian's root.

Yun Lintian couldn't help squeezing her breast gently and said with a grin. "Still not full?"

Lynn gave a flirtatious glance and slowly slipped down, causing Yun Lintian to suck in a cold breath.

Meanwhile, Xia Yao and Yang Ningchang didn't stand idle either. They began to tease him with her soft body. Being served by three heavenly beauties at the same time was definitely every man's dream.

"Wake up!"

While Yun Lintian was lost in ecstasy, a familiar female voice resounded again. It was like a bell ringing in his mind, sobering Yun Lintian up immediately.

This time, Yun Lintian immediately remembered everything and realized how dangerous the current situation was.

"What's wrong, husband?" Xia Yao asked as she noticed the change in Yun Lintian's face.

Looking at his beloved woman, Yun Lintian's eyes gradually turned icy as he spoke. "You are not her."

Xia Yao was confused. "What do you mean, husband?"

At this moment, Lynn and Yang Ningchang stopped their action and looked at him in confusion. More precisely, they were pretending to be confused. In their mind, they seemed to have a tacit understanding and were ready to take action at any moment.

Yun Lintian's pupils gradually became golden as he said coldly. "Dream Catching Willow?"

As his voice fell, the expressions of the three women slowly turned cold...

Chapter 884 Wish

Boom!

Yun Lintian's aura burst out, and the three women quickly retreated. He gradually got up from the bed and stared at them coldly. "You are very good. I almost let my soul become your food."

Xia Yao curled her lips. "What's wrong, husband? Don't tell me you did not enjoy it a while ago?"

As she spoke, her face changed drastically, and she hurriedly jumped away.

Boom!

A streak of lightning immediately shattered the ground where she stood earlier. Its destructive power could easily kill her in one shot.

"You're so strong, husband." Lynn smiled charmingly. Her seductive aura gradually spread out, enveloping Yun Lintian.

Yun Lintian snorted coldly and stomped on the floor. A virtual lightning dragon appeared around his body before rushing toward Lynn with its mouth wide open.

"I know all of your tricks." Lynn laughed and opened her hand. A fire lotus appeared above her palm and abruptly burst out, transforming into a demonic fire lotus.

Boom!

The lightning dragon roared madly as it was swept away by the explosion and disappeared.

Yun Lintian frowned slightly. Before he could act, Yang Ningchang had silently appeared behind him with a dagger in her hand. She ruthlessly stabbed toward his heart, aiming to reap his life.

Right at the moment the dagger touched his chest, Yun Lintian let out a battle cry, and his aura burst forth. At the same time, he slammed his palm that was covered with the Phoenix Flame down at Yang Ningchang's head, causing the latter to hurriedly retreat.

However, Yun Lintian had already expected this. He executed the Shadow Step beforehand and reappeared beside her while smashed down.

"No!" Yang Ningchang screamed in horror as her head was smashed into pieces by Yun Lintian.

"Die!"

Lynn appeared behind Yun Lintian and sent a punch out toward his head. Her current aura was equal to the peak Monarch. Her attack could definitely end Yun Lintian's life.

Pa!

What Lynn didn't expect was Yun Lintian could actually turn around and grab her fist at the crucial moment. Her expression changed drastically, and she hurriedly tried to get rid of Yun Lintian's palm, but it was futile. She found herself unable to move an inch.

"Know all my tricks? I don't think so." Yun Lintian smiled coldly and used another hand to punch out.

Scree—

A fiery Divine Phoenix shot out of Yun Lintian's fist and quickly wrapped around Lynn, burning her vigorously.

"Ahhhh!" Lynn screamed in terror, and her body gradually reduced to ashes in the end.

Yun Lintian ignored her and turned to look at Xia Yao. At this moment, his six daughters stood beside her, looking at him fearfully.

"Daddy... What's wrong with you? Why did you hurt Mama Lynn and Mama Ningchang?" Yun Ningning asked timidly. The fear in the depth of her eyes didn't look fake.

"Are you willing to kill your daughters?" Xia Yao asked coldly.

Yun Lintian's gaze was obviously softened when he saw his daughters' pitiful appearances. However, he knew that everything here was fake. It was impossible for him to let them go.

He sighed softly. "You should never mess with this part of my memory."

Xia Yao stared at Yun Lintian and said calmly. "The Dream Catching Willow always creates the target's most desired dream. Otherwise, it's difficult to swallow their soul... Besides, don't you feel good about it? Isn't this what you want deep down in your heart? You can stay here forever, you know?"

Yun Lintian went silent immediately. How could he not know about this? Unfortunately, no matter how he wished it to be true, it was nothing but a distorted dream.

Yun Lintian took a deep breath, and his eyes turned resolute. He looked at his daughters and waved his palm. "Although this is fake, I really wish you all could be my daughters."

A burst of flame erupted and instantly swept the six little girls away. Yun Lintian stared at the pile of ashes with a touch of sadness and pain in the depth of his eyes. His hands kept shaking uncontrollably. Even though it was fake, the feeling of killing them was unbearable.

"Is it hurt?" Xia Yao asked softly.

Yun Lintian subconsciously answered. "Yeah."

At this moment, a pair of soft hands suddenly wrapped around Yun Lintian, causing him to be stunned for a second.

? Xia Yao leaned against his chest and said softly. "Everything here is fake. You should not carry this burden with you when you go out."

"You..." Yun Lintian was confused and wanted to push Xia Yao away. However, he found himself unable to do it.

Xia Yao slowly raised her head to look at him and smiled brightly. "Husband, I'm really happy to be with you during this period. I wish it to be true, but sadly, it's impossible."

Yun Lintian didn't understand what was going on right now. Wasn't she the Dream Catching Willow? Why did she give off a different feeling? It was as though she was a genuine Xia Yao.

"Husband, I will ask this gain. You really don't want to consider others? You must know that there are many people who love you wholeheartedly out there. Are you really going to hurt them?" Xia Yao asked softly.

"I..." Yun Lintian didn't know what to say at the moment.

Xia Yao smiled brightly. "Don't worry. I'm not jealous. Because I will return to your side one day."

"What do you mean?" Yun Lintian asked confusedly.

"You will know when the right time comes." Xia Yao said mysteriously.

"My time is up. Don't forget what I said earlier. You should open your heart and accept those who love you. Do not make them sad. Understand?" Xia Yao said gently while patting Yun Lintian's cheeks.

She tiptoed slightly and kissed him. Amidst the confusion, Yun Lintian subconsciously closed his eyes and wrapped his arms around her.

The kiss lasted for a long time before they left each other. Xia Yao smiled at Yun Lintian and said softly. "Wait for me."

As her voice fell, Xia Yao's figure gradually faded away along with the surrounding scene. The next moment, he found himself standing in a dark space with a Dream Catching Willow's remains on the ground.

"What is going on...? She's not a Dream Catching Willow?" Yun Lintian muttered to himself.

In the Rain Village, thousands of kilometers away, Lin Xinyao gradually opened her eyes. A bright smile appeared on her face, startling Han Muxue and Han Muyue, who were protecting her in the dark.

Chapter 885 Two Strokes

"Congratulations. You have passed the second stage. You can proceed to the final stage." The aged voice resounded, bringing Yun Lintian back to his sense.

Yun Lintian shook his head slightly, trying to get rid of the complicated mood, and walked into the portal.

As soon as the white light faded, Yun Lintian found himself standing in an open space with a platform at the center. In this place, he saw Shen Liqiu, Hei Lei, and Xiao Weiyuan standing opposite each other.

"Big Brother Yun!" Linlin and Qingqing tugged Yun Lintian's hands, looking at him worriedly. "Where did you go?"

Yun Lintian suddenly realized he hadn't seen them earlier. Perhaps they didn't experience the second stage?

He smiled and said. "Sorry. Big brother is late."

Linlin and Qingqing didn't say anything further and leaned against him.

"Heh. I thought you were dead already." Hei Lei grinned at Yun Lintian. A deep hatred in the depth of his eyes was obvious.

"Lintian. It's good that you're safe." Shen Liqiu patted her chest in relief when she saw Yun Lintian appearing here.

Xiao Weiyuan simply nodded his head. He didn't believe a talented person like Yun Lintian would fall into a trap easily.

Yun Lintian smiled at them and turned to Hei Lei. "You were lucky enough to escape last time."

"Hmph! Did you really think you could kill me back then?" Hei Lei snorted coldly.

"Why don't you ask yourself that?" Yun Lintian curled his lips. He clearly saw that Hei Lei was out of depth in the previous encounter. It was impossible for him to protect his life.

Hei Lei's face turned gloomy. He simply had no way to retort.

"I'm curious how a character like you reaches this realm. No matter how I look at it. You don't have quality at all. Alas, the Poison Valley truly cannot be underestimated. They can actually raise a waste like you to the Monarch Profound Realm." Yun Lintian chuckled.

"You!..." Hei Lei was furious to the point his face turned red.

Seeing this, Yun Lintian shook his head slightly. This Hei Lei's quality was very low indeed. He got provoked so easily by such a simple word.

"Welcome to the final stage. In this stage, all of you have to kill each other, and the last standing person will naturally become a winner and get an opportunity to receive my inheritance." The aged voice resounded.

The expressions of Yun Lintian, Shen Liqiu, and Xiao Weiyuan changed drastically. They didn't expect the final stage would become like this.

"Hahaha! Good! Good!" Hei Lei burst into wild laughter. Just thinking about the scene where Yun Lintian's group killed each other, he couldn't help but become excited.

Yun Lintian frowned and asked. "How to choose the opponent?"

"The first one who steps onto the platform can choose first." The aged voice resounded.

Swoosh!

Yun Lintian's figure blurred and reappeared on the platform, a second faster than Hei Lei.

Hei Lei, who was forced to retreat by an invisible wall, stared at Yun Lintian gloomily. As soon as the voice fell, he quickly executed his movement technique, but he was late in the end.

Yun Lintian pointed at Hei Lei and said calmly. "You come up."

Before Hei Lei could respond, a terrifying force appeared around his body and brought him onto the platform.

"How convenient." Yun Lintian curled his lips. "What now? Want to escape again?"

"Bastard! Let's see how I kill you today." Hei Lei gritted his teeth with hatred. His aura immediately burst forth, covering the entire platform with black lightning sparks.

"Die!"

Hei Lei reappeared before Yun Lintian like a ghost and slammed his palm toward the latter's head. His speed was several times faster than the last encounter. It was as though he had long prepared for this moment.

Unfortunately, he didn't seem to notice that Yun Lintian wasn't the same as before. He had already stepped into the Saint Profound Realm.

As his palm was about to hit Yun Lintian's head, a cold smile appeared on Hei Lei's lips. He had secretly sacrificed a portion of his blood essence in order to perform this attack. He didn't believe Yun Lintian could escape his palm this time.

However, when Hei Lei saw a grin appearing on Yun Lintian's face, his heart immediately turned cold, but it was too late to withdraw now.

A deep green light flashed, and a sharp windstorm instantly burst out from within Yun Lintian's body, sending Hei Lei into the air. Under Hei Lei's disbelieving gaze, Yun Lintian simply pointed his finger up and made a cutting gesture.

Hei Lei's entire body was immediately enveloped with immense pressure, causing him to become sluggish for a moment, unable to move.

Ripp—

An ears-piercing ripping sound echoed throughout the entire space as Hei Lei's body was cut into three pieces. His head fell onto the ground and rolled for a few rounds, revealing an unwilling as well as fearful expression. Until the last moment of his death, he didn't even understand how Yun Lintian could become this powerful in a short time.

The entire area became silent as Shen Liqiu, and Xiao Weiyuan stared at Hei Lei's corpse in a daze. Especially Xiao Weiyuan. He knew how powerful Hei Lei was—A peak Monarch and an Abyssal Beast on top of it. Even if he reached the peak of the Monarch Profound Realm, Xiao Weiyuan didn't think he could kill Hei Lei in two strokes like this.

"He... He has become several times stronger than before." Shen Liqiu said to herself.

Before this, she believed that Yun Lintian could at most contend with the Monarch-level expert, but her judgment was immediately shattered by this move of his. She was certain that even a Divine Ascending Tribulation Realm expert was here. It was impossible to kill Hei Lei so easily as he did.

"Hehe. Big Brother Yun is the best!" Qingqing jumped excitedly below the platform. She was relieved that Yun Lintian didn't blame her for helping Hei Lei escape back then.

Yun Lintian didn't even glance at Hei Lei's corpse. He raised his head slightly and asked. "Can we give up the trial?"

Shen Liqiu and Xiao Weiyuan returned to their sense and looked up, waiting for the answer.

"No." The aged voice echoed emotionless, causing the three to fall into silence.

Chapter 886 Skymist Emperor

Yun Lintian went silent for a while and suddenly chuckled. His face was full of mockery. "Heh. People praised you for your benevolent character, but they probably would never imagine that you are nothing more than a cowardly old man. No wonder you could survive the invasion back then."

He curled his lips and continued. "In the first stage, you test our general combat ability, while the second stage aims for our will. As for this one, if I guess correctly, you're testing our heart."

He shook his head and said further. "Unfortunately, you're overthinking. To me, your inheritance is more worthless than grasses. You want me to kill my friend for such a thing? Heh. What a joke."

Shen Liqiu and Xiao Weiyuan immediately enlightened. According to the trial setup, only a greedy person would kill each other for the inheritance. However, each one of them here wasn't such a person. Although the Skymist Emperor's inheritance was definitely a top-notch one, they didn't lack any top profound techniques or resources. With or without, it didn't make any difference for them.

"That's right, Senior Emperor. Although my great-grandpa often praised you, your intention this time made me look down on you. You can take a look at us. Is any of us lacking a top inheritance?" Shen Liqiu said boldly.

At this moment, she seemed to understand why Tang Suyin kept saying she was suitable to enter the trial. It was because she didn't lack anything to the point she must get the Skymist Emperor's inheritance at all cost.

As for Xiao Weiyuan, he was the Tyrannical Monarch Mo Ming's successor, which was not inferior to the Skymist Emperor. Why would he want something that didn't give him much benefit?

"Your Majesty, I am willing to withdraw from this trial." Xiao Weiyuan said respectfully.

After a while, a soft sigh could be heard as an illusory figure gradually appeared before Yun Lintian. This person was dressed in a golden emperor robe, exuding an imposing aura. His face was dignified, but there was a hint of benevolence in the depth of his eyes.

"A younger generation cannot be underestimated, as they said. Your eyes are sharp enough." The old man, Skymist Emperor, said with a smile as he looked at Yun Lintian.

Yun Lintian shook his head. "You've flattered me, Senior. Besides, your trial is not difficult. I believe anyone with a firm mind could see it at a glance."

Skymist Emperor let out a sigh and said. "Unfortunately, I cannot complete the trial on time. The disaster came too abrupt." As he spoke, he inadvertently glanced at Qingqing as though he knew her true identity.

"This has nothing to do with her." Yun Lintian said upon seeing this.

"I know. I have no grudge against her." Skymist Emperor nodded gently. He turned to Shen Liqiu and said. "I didn't expect to see Brother Shen's descendant here. Your foundation is very solid, and your future is limitless. The Shen Clan is truly fortunate."

Shen Liqiu bowed her head respectfully. "Little Girl Liqiu greets Senior Emperor." She raised her head and said. "However, this Little Girl has nothing to do with the Shen Clan now."

A look of surprise appeared on Skymist Emperor's face, but he didn't inquire further. "I see. With your talent, sooner or later, your father will take you back."

Shen Liqiu snorted. "It depends whether he has the ability."

Skymist Emperor laughed amusingly. A moment later, he turned to Xiao Weiyuan and said. "The Tyrannical Monarch's successor?... I see. Your temperament is similar to him back then."

Xiao Weiyuan hurriedly bowed his head. "Junior Xiao Weiyuan greets Your Majesty Skymist Emperor."

"There's no need to be polite. I am nothing but a mere residual soul." Skymist Emperor smiled kindly and shifted his gaze back to Yun Lintian. "Throughout my life, I have never seen anyone as talented as you. I can feel a terrifying power within your body. It is a power that makes me afraid of it. Even if you were born in the ancient era, you could still be considered the most talented."

He paused for a moment and continued. "I naturally didn't dare to accept you as my successor. However, I don't think I can find anyone better than you, even if I had to wait for another thousand years. Hence, I've decided to leave my inheritance to you, as well as the Skymist Pearl."

"I only hope that you can give my inheritance to a suitable person one day." Skymist Emperor said with a serious expression. "This is my only request."

Yun Lintian's brows raised slightly. He could see the sincerity within Skymist Emperor's voice. He, of course, didn't mind about the latter's request.

"I can promise you, Senior." Yun Lintian said calmly.

"I believe in your judgment." Skymist Emperor nodded slightly.

The next moment, he waved his hand, and a golden storage ring appeared before him, along with a palm-sized azure-colored bead. The bead exuded a profound aura that made everyone feel comfortable.

"Sure enough. It's the Energy Condensing Bead," Hongyue said. "However, the quality is very good. It's more than enough to change the Land of Beyond Heaven's environment."

Yun Lintian was attracted by the azure bead. The Land of Beyond Heaven would become a true paradise for practitioners with this bead. In the future, every disciple could certainly break through into the Divine Ascending Tribulation Realm without a problem.

"Take them." Skymist Emperor waved his hand. The ring and the Skymist Pearl gradually fell onto Yun Lintian's hands. "There are jade slips recording my profound art, Skymist Divine Art, and the Skymist Ancient Seal, as well as some resources enough for one person to reach the Monarch Profound Realm. You can hand them to the right person you found in the future."

"As for this Skymist Pearl, you can keep it to yourself." Skymist Emperor said calmly.

Yun Lintian didn't check the content inside the ring but cupped his fists. "Thank you, Senior."

Skymist Emperor nodded gently. "I will tell you how to control the Ancient City. You take the Skymist Ancient Seal out."

Yun Lintian did as he said, and a golden seal with the word 'Skymist' engraved on it appeared on his palm.

Chapter 887 Establishment

The seal's body was engraved with mysterious runes, exuding a suppression aura. As Yun Lintian held it, he could feel his entire body was covered with an invisible force, making him unable to move elsewhere.

"It's rare to see a divine-level seal here. No wonder many regarded this old man as one of the strongest persons in the past." Hongyue's voice resounded.

"Divine-level seal?" Yun Lintian was surprised.

"He could easily suppress any Divine Ascending Tribulation Realm expert with this seal. However, I doubt he knows how to use it properly." Hongyue said further.

"My Ancestor found this seal in ruins under the Endless Sea. At first, he couldn't unravel the mystery behind it. It was not until he reached the ninth level of the Divine Ascending Tribulation Realm that he discovered a way to unlock the seal." Skymist Emperor explained calmly.

"When he activated the seal, there was a small object inside. Later, it became the ancient city where everyone stands right now." Skymist Emperor said further. "The seal and the ancient city are connected with each other. Owning the seal is equivalent to owning the ancient city. Therefore, my ancestor decided to create another four seals to conceal this secret."

"Senior Emperor, Senior Tang said you can summon other seals back at any time with this Skymist Seal. Is it true?" Shen Liqiu asked curiously.

Skymist Emperor nodded gently. "It's true." A hint of emotion appeared on his face as he sighed. "I have been aware of the Shi Clan's ambition, but I chose to close my eyes to it because their old patriarch was a good man. I don't want to completely eradicate his descendants. Alas, I'm not decisive enough."

"There's no need to belittle yourself, Senior Emperor. It's never been easy to rule people." Shen Liqiu comforted. As the daughter of the mighty Shen Clan, she had experienced this kind of situation several times. It was just that her clan was too powerful. Those with ulterior motives could only keep them in their hearts.

Skymist Emperor smiled slightly. He changed the topic. "Did you meet Little Girl Suyin?"

Shen Liqiu nodded. "Yes. She's currently living in her courtyard."

Skymist Emperor let out a long sigh. "I have no face to see her again. With her Imperishable Soul, she could leave this place and find a suitable body to regain her life, but because of me she stuck here."

Everyone fell silent. They fully understood the Skymist Emperor's intention of using the forbidden technique. However, it was also cruel to the citizens here. Especially to Tang Suyin. She had to endure loneliness for thousands of years. It was hard to imagine how suffering it was.

Skymist Emperor looked at Yun Lintian and said. "You first drip your blood onto the seal."

Yun Lintian thought for a moment and bit his finger, dropping his blood onto the seal.

Skymist Emperor waved his hand, and a wisp of ancient aura immediately enveloped Yun Lintian and the seal. Soon, a connection between Yun Lintian and the seal was established. With a move of his mind, a panoramic view of the entire city immediately appeared vividly in his mind.

"Now, the seal has recognized you as its master. You can use your mind to summon the other four seals when you go out." Skymist Emperor's illusory figure swayed slightly as if he was about to disappear. "Once my residual soul disappears, everyone in this city will be free. I hope you can give them a proper place to rest."

"Don't worry, Senior." Yun Lintian nodded heavily.

"As for Little Jin. His bones are rare treasures. If you want it, you can take it away at ease. I have already communicated with him." Skymist Emperor said. Little Jin in his words was no other than the Skymist Dragon.

Yun Lintian hesitated. He felt it was inappropriate to take the Skymist Dragon's bones away.

Skymist Emperor could see through his thoughts. He smiled and said. "You can be at ease. Instead of burying him here, it's better to forge an artifact with his bones so he can see the outside world with you."

Yun Lintian took a deep breath and said. "I understand."

Skymist Emperor turned to Shen Liqiu and said softly. "Tell Little Girl Suyin that I am sorry."

As his voice fell, his figure gradually faded away and vanished completely in the next moment. At the same time, Yun Lintian and the others suddenly found themselves standing in a palace hall.

Boom!

Before they could do or say anything, the sound of heavy objects falling could be heard from the outside. Yun Lintian and the other two glanced at each other and quickly walked out of the hall.

Several thick bones could be seen scattering in the yard. With a glance, they recognized the identity of these bones directly. It was no other than the Skymist Dragon's bones.

At the same time, countless living dead around the city began to fall down, becoming lifeless piles of bones.

When Tang Suyin saw this, she turned to Little Qing and said softly. "He succeeded."

Little Qing moved her skull gently, acknowledging her master's words.

"Don't worry. You will see your father soon." Tang Suyin said and turned to look in the city center's direction.

"What are you going to do with this city?" Shen Liqiu asked. Once the windstorm disappeared, this place would undoubtedly become the focus of attention of countless forces around the world.

Yun Lintian touched his chin and pondered for a moment. In fact, he wanted to throw this city into the Land of Beyond Heaven, but he felt it would be a pity to leave it rusting in there.

"You can place it on the Moon Garden and let people take care of it," Hongyue suggested. "In the future, when you establish prestige, you can turn it into your base on the ground."

"That's a good idea." Yun Lintian nodded inwardly. In the future, this city could become the capital of his Misty Cloud Sect. At that time, no one would dare to have an idea of it again.

Yun Lintian didn't answer but turned to ask Shen Liqiu. "What's your plan?"

Shen Liqiu replied without hesitation. "Of course. I'll be wherever you go. I have already found my potential husband. How could I let you go?"

Yun Lintian: "..."

Chapter 888 Recovering Body

"What about you, Senior Xiao?" Yun Lintian ignored Shen Liqiu's flirtatious gaze and asked Xiao Weiyuan.

Xiao Weiyuan smiled and said. "Since the windstorm is about to vanish soon, there's no point for me to stay here further. Besides, I believe people in the Yuan Campsite have already dispersed."

Yun Lintian nodded slowly.

"Why don't you come with us, Uncle Xiao?" Shen Liqiu asked and glanced at Yun Lintian. "He's very rich. You don't need to find resources by yourself with him here."

Yun Lintian's face twitched. Did you treat me as ATM?

Seeing Xiao Weiyuan hesitating, Yun Lintian said. "To tell you the truth, I have more than a thousand people in my sect, and all of them are like me, practicing Body, Essence, and Soul at the same time. I would like to invite Senior Xiao to their instructor."

Xiao Weiyuan and Shen Liqiu were surprised to hear this. They couldn't help being marveled in their hearts. What kind of existence of this sect allows everyone to practice like this? One had to know it required a lot of resources in order to practice body alone. Even wealthy factions like the Azure Palace and the Myriad Pill Palace didn't dare to do so.

"What is the name of your sect?" Shen Liqiu couldn't help asking.

Yun Lintian smiled faintly. "Misty Cloud Sect."

Shen Liqiu's expression changed drastically. "You... Are you Senior Yun's descendant?"

Yun Lintian shook his head. "I don't even know her. How could I be her descendant?"

"No?" Shen Liqiu frowned. "As far as I know, the Misty Cloud Palace, which is now the Misty Cloud Sect, is still using an old regulation of accepting female disciples only. How could you enter the sect if you're not her descendant?"

Yun Lintian replied casually. "I was picked up by the Sect Master."

"Picked up?" Shen Liqiu's expression turned even weirder.

Yun Lintian spread his arms. "It's up to you whether to believe it." He picked Qingqing up and asked. "Qingqing, can you do big brother a favor? Please help me gather the bones around the city and place them together at the square outside."

"Leave it to me!" Qingqing replied happily and jumped down from Yun Lintian's embrace.

A deep green light flashed through her eyes as she raised her arm up. Instantly, countless bones around the city were carried into the air by gusts of wind and flew to the spacious square outside the clan manor.

"This..." Shen Liqiu and Xiao Weiyuan were shocked. The power Qingqing displayed right now was no inferior to any early-level Divine Ascending Tribulation Realm experts. Moreover, her Spiritual Sense was extremely powerful to be able to cover the entire city.

"As expected from the source of the disaster back then." Shen Liqiu took a deep breath to calm down. She turned to Yun Lintian and said. "How about leaving her to me? I'm good at bringing children, you know?"

Yun Lintian rolled his eyes at her and walked toward the square after storing the Skymist Dragon's bones away.

Several stacks of bones piled up into mountains, making the atmosphere become solemn.

Yun Lintian stood before them and clasped his hands together. "I wish everyone's soul rest in peace."

Affected by the atmosphere, Shen Liqiu and Xiao Weiyuan also imitated Yun Lintian's action and closed their eyes, praying for the dead.

After a while, a massive column of Vermilion Bird Flame flashed out of Yun Lintian's hand and enveloped the bone mountains before reducing them into ashes.

Yun Lintian waved his hand, and the ashes immediately scattered all over the city.

"Let's go back to Senior Tan's courtyard." After watching the ashes vanishing into the wind, Yun Lintian turned around and said.

Shen Liqiu and Xiao Weiyuan had no objection. They quickly followed Yun Lintian toward Tang Suyin's courtyard.

Soon, the group arrived at the courtyard and saw Tang Suyin calmly welcoming them.

"Congratulations." Tang Suyin said softly.

Yun Lintian cupped his fists and said. "It's all because of your information, Senior."

"You don't have to be modest. I didn't contribute anything to this." Tang Suyin shook her head. "What's your plan?"

Yun Lintian didn't hide anything. "I will take the city away after summoning the seals back. And I would like to invite Senior Tang to come with me." He paused for a moment and said. "Of course. If Senior Tang wishes to leave, I fully respect your decision."

Tang Suyin thought for a moment and said. "My current body is not suitable to walk around, and it is almost impossible to recover. Thank you for inviting me. We will go with you."

Hearing this, Yun Lintian smiled mysteriously. "It's not entirely impossible to recover your body, Senior. Please take this."

As Yun Lintian opened his hand, two Primordial Fruit of Immortality immediately appeared on his palm. The appearance of the fruits instantly attracted everyone's attention.

"This is...?" Tang Suyin stared at the golden fruits in amazement. She could feel an immense vitality in them, which should be enough for her and Little Qing to recover their bodies.

"These are Fruit of Immortality. It can extend one's lifespan for two hundred years and maintain one's youthful appearance forever." Yun Lintian explained.

Shen Liqiu and Xiao Weiyuan sucked in cold air upon hearing this. Both of them were well aware of the meaning behind this.

In this world, a treasure that could extend lifespan was extremely scarce or did not exist at all. The fruits in Yun Lintian's hand could be regarded as a heaven-defying treasure. If this scene spread out, everyone in the world would definitely come after Yun Lintian.

"Little Friend Yun, this is too precious. I don't deserve this reward." Tang Suyin shook her head, refusing his offer.

Yun Lintian smiled and pushed the fruits into Tang Suyin's skeleton hand. "Please take them, Senior. I have plenty of it."

Tang Suyin grabbed the fruits and went silent for a while. She raised her head to look at Yun Lintian and said. "I will definitely repay this kindness."

As she finished her sentence, Tang Suyin called Little Qing over and gave her a piece before taking it through her mouth.

Buzz—

Tang Suyin and Little Qing were immediately wrapped with golden light. An enormous vitality gradually spread throughout the entire area, making dying grasses and trees nearby slowly recover their life.

Chapter 889 Portable City

Yun Lintian quickly threw several best-grade Profound Stones to the ground beside Tang Suyin and Little Qing. At the same time, he promptly set up an energy-gathering formation around them, providing them with the best environment for reconstructing bodies.

Time passed. Two hours later, the golden light gradually faded, revealing two naked beauties behind it.

Yun Lintian and Xiao Weiyuan were stunned and hurriedly left the courtyard.

Shen Liqiu quickly took new robes out and handed them to Tang Suyin and Little Qing.

"Thank you." Tang Suyin and Little Qing put on their robes and expressed their gratitude.

"Senior, both of you are so beautiful." Shen Liqiu couldn't help praising.

Tang Suyin's appearance could be considered otherworldly beauty. Her hair fell down straight to her waist, and her eyes were clear like a spring. Shen Liqiu didn't know many men fascinated by her look back then.

Standing beside Tang Suyin was a delicate woman in her twenties. She had a unique temperament, seemingly detaching from the world.

"You're beautiful as well." Tang Suyin said. She turned to look in Yun Lintian's direction. "Please come in."

Yun Lintian and Xiao Weiyuan glanced at each other in embarrassment and returned to the courtyard.

Little Qing suddenly knelt on the ground and kowtowed. "Thank you, Young Master Yun. I will repay this kindness in the future."

Yun Lintian was taken aback for a second and hurriedly helped her up. "It's a trivial matter for me. There's no need to talk about repaying kindness."

Tang Suyin smiled and explained. "Little Qing has a lifelong regret in her heart. She wants to see her father, Uncle Lu, again. Your kindness allows her to make up for her regret."

Yun Lintian smiled and didn't continue on this topic. "Let's leave here."

Everyone looked at each other and nodded their head.

Yun Lintian took the Skymist Seal out and concentrated on his mind. Soon, the Tang clan seal immediately flew out from the depth of the manor and hovered above Yun Lintian's head.

At the same time, somewhere inside a majestic palace. A handsome man clad in pristine white opened his eyes, and a look of surprise appeared on his face. He glanced at a storage ring that was shaking uncontrollably.

"What's going on?" He quickly checked the inside and saw two golden seals trembling as if they wanted to get out.

Before he could react, his storage ring burst out, and two seals immediately flew away, disappearing into the sky at lightning speed.

The man's eyes widened open in shock, and a trace of anger gradually appeared on his face. "Who was it!?"

Unfortunately, he was destined to get no answer.

In Tang Suyin's courtyard, four seals, Vermilion Bird, Black Turtle, Azure Dragon, and White Tiger seal, were hovering above Yun Lintian's head as if children recognized their parents.

"It's really convenient. I don't know what kind of face Shi Longwei has right now. It must be funny to look at." Shen Liquiu looked at the seals and laughed aloud.

Tang Suyin smiled and said. "I guess Skymist Emperor has told you how to use them. You can change the city's shape at will with them."

Yun Lintian didn't say anything. He moved his mind, and the entire city suddenly trembled. All the debris magically floated into the air and gathered, transforming into several buildings.

"No wonder Cai Jingjing said the buildings here cannot be destroyed." Yun Lintian muttered to himself.

In the next moment, the entire city began to shrink its size. The four walls gradually shrank in, and soon the city transformed into a palm size rectangle object, landing on Yun Lintian's palm.

"Incredible. Who would have thought this small object was actually the vast ancient city." Shen Liqiu looked at the object on Yun Lintian's palm in amazement.

Yun Lintian put the object away and contacted Yun Ci to bring the skyship here.

After waiting a few minutes, Yun Lintian told Qingqing to disperse the windstorm and brought everyone onto the skyship.

The disappearance of the windstorm, as well as the Skymist Ancient City, was quickly noticed by the mass. Soon, the news spread to other continents, and countless fortune-seeking people hurriedly flocked to the Southern Continent.

Inside the palace, the man, who had just lost the seals previously, smashed the table before him angrily. His face was icy to the point it could freeze anyone's soul. He was no other than Shi Longwei.

"Tell every branch of the Star Pavilion. Let them find out the identity of this person." Shi Longwei said coldly, and a person at the other end of the transmission jade accepted the task readily.

"Don't let me find out who you are." Shi Longwei took a deep breath. After calming down, he stood up and walked into the inner area of the palace. He was going to meet the Star Gazing Palace Master.

"You actually have a skyship?" On the Heavenly Cloud Profound Skyship, Shen Liqiu looked at the luxury interior in amazement. She knew Yun Lintian was rich but had never thought of the skyship. One must know that the Shen clan had paid a hefty price in order to build one. How could a runaway sect like the Misty Cloud Sect have it?

Yun Lintian invited everyone to sit down and called the disciples in charge to serve tea and food.

"Senior, we will go to the Divine Phoenix Palace first, and then I will bring everyone to my sect." Yun Lintian explained his intention.

"No problem." Tang Suyin said. "The aura outside is truly thin. It is several times thinner than four thousand years ago. It's understandable why there aren't new Divine Ascending Tribulation Realm experts appearing in the past years."

As Tang Suyin spoke this, Yun Lintian suddenly noticed Tang Suyin and Little Qing's realm. He was surprised to see both of them were at the peak of the Divine Ascending Tribulation Realm. He immediately understood how large the gap between the past and present was.

"Senior, how much do you know about the Star Gazing Palace?" Yun Lintian asked. Since Shi Longwei would likely come after him soon, it was better to know the enemy first.

Chapter 890 Star Gazing Divination Art

"Although several years have passed, I don't think their nature has changed much," Tang Suyin replied. "The Star Gazing Palace is famous for their 'Star Gazing Divination Art.' It could allow one to get a glimpse of the target's fate. The stronger the target is, the higher the price one has to pay. Usually, the price would be their lifespan."

A cold glint flashed through Tang Suyin's eyes as she continued. "By relying on this, they have been calculating the heroes since the ancient era. Many heroes have fallen under their conspiracy." She turned to Xiao Weiyan and said. "One of them is your master, Senior Mo."

Xiao Weiyan's expression changed drastically. His heart turned cold upon hearing this.

"Do you think it was a coincidence that three peak-level Abyssal Beasts appeared above a mortal village where Senior Mo at?" Tang Suyin's voice carried an incomparable coldness. She looked at Yun Lintian and continued. "Your founder, Senior Yun Wushuang, was also targeted by them."

Yun Lintian's eyes narrowed slightly. A killing intent gradually emerged within his heart. Although he didn't know Yun Wushuang personally, he was, after all, a disciple of the Misty Cloud Sect. It was impossible for him to be indifferent to this matter.

"Throughout those years, I had collected their evil deeds in secret. You wouldn't want to know what they did to people around the world." Tang Suyin said in a deep voice. "It's a pity. That incident occurred first. I didn't have a chance to expose them."

"I'm afraid this method is not working now." Shen Liqiu shook her head. "From what I know, behind the Star Gazing Palace is the Azure Palace. They have been colluding with each other for years. One controlling the resources and another one controlling the information. That's how scary they are."

"Is this why your father urgently created a bridge between the Shen Clan and the Divine Thunder Palace?" Yun Lintian asked.

Shen Liqiu nodded heavily. "Although the Divine Thunder Palace is a bit inferior to the two, it is still a top-notch faction. With the solid background of the Shen Clan and this connection, it could at least guarantee the clan's safety for years to come."

"Your father's foresight is not bad," Yun Lintian said calmly. "The current Divine Thunder Palace Master, Lei Zhenxiang, is under a lot of pressure. And if he cannot withstand it, the palace master position is likely to fall in Lei Jun's head. Even though he's likely to be a mere puppet, the power in his hand shouldn't be small."

Shen Liqiu pursed her lips, unwilling to give a comment.

"Headmaster, we've arrived at the destination." A disciple, Yun Ting, walked over and reported.

Yun Lintian nodded and said. "Wait for us here. We will return to the Moon Garden after this."

"Understood." Yun Ting said and returned to her position.

"Headmaster? Did you open a school?" Shen Liqiu was curious about Yun Lintian's honorific title.

Yun Lintian smiled and answered. "I am the current Sect Master. However, I prefer to be called headmaster instead."

"You are the Sect Master?" Shen Liqiu was stunned. Yun Lintian always gave her a surprise one after another. She didn't know what to say anymore.

Meanwhile, Tang Suyin and Xiao Weiyuan weren't surprised about this. Especially Xiao Weiyuan. He had witnessed the grandeur of Yun Lintian's strength not long ago. Even if he wasn't a sect master, he must be a true successor for certain.

"Everyone, please." Yun Lintian made an inviting gesture while holding Linlin and Qingqing in his arms.

Afterward, everyone slowly descended from the skyship and landed in the inner hall of the Divine Phoenix Palace.

"You are allowed to park your skyship above the palace? It seems they truly care about your relationship with your Fifth Sister." Shen Liqiu was surprised

Before Yun Lintian could say anything, a female voice resounded from within the hall. "Yes. We really do."

Nantian Xuanyu walked out of the hall with a smile.

The expressions of Shen Liqiu and Xiao Weiyuan changed slightly, and they hurriedly greeted Nantian Xuanyu. "Junior Shen Liqiu, Xiao Weiyuan, greet Palace Master Nantian."

"Since you're his friends, there's no need to be polite," Nantian Xuanyu said gently. A surprised look appeared on her face as her gaze landed on Tang Suyin and Little Qing.

Tang Suyin stepped forward and cupped her fists. "Greetings, Palace Master Nantian. My name is Tang Suyin, and this is my servant, Lu Qing."

Nantian Xuanyu was aware of the two's strength and quickly cupped her fists. "Welcome to our Divine Phoenix Palace, Senior."

"Tang Suyin... Are you really that Little Girl Suyin?" An aged voice resounded, and Nantian Xiulan slowly walked out of the hall.

Tang Suyin was surprised and hurriedly bowed her head. "Little Girl Suyin greets Senior Nantian."

"It's really you." Nantian Xiulan was amazed. "I knew that you were still alive somewhere in this world."

"Thanks to Young Master Yun for helping me and Little Qing." Tang Suyin said with a smile.

"Senior, you are the Holy Maiden Tang?" Nantian Xuanyu said with an incredible expression.

"That's her." Nantian Xiulan said with a smile. "Is it perhaps related to the recent disappearance of the Skymist Ancient City?"

Tang Suyin didn't answer. She turned to look at Yun Lintian, indicating he was in charge of this question.

Yun Lintian didn't hide the truth. He spoke directly. "The city is under my control now."

Nantian Xuanyu was stunned. How long had it passed? A month or two? Yun Lintian could actually deal with the windstorm that remained untouchable for countless years. What a monster!

Meanwhile, Nantian Xiulan nodded gently. She wasn't surprised about it. At the same time, she inadvertently glanced at Qingqing in Yun Lintian's arms with a strange expression. With her sharp perception, she could see through Qingqing's identity at a glance. A true spirit body was scarce nowadays.

Yun Lintian didn't explain it further. He went straight to the point. "We're here to pick Senior Zhou and the other two up."

"I'll let people bring them here." Nantian Xuanyu nodded and called a disciple nearby.

"By the way, where's Fifth Sister, Senior?" Yun Lintian asked.

"She's currently practicing under Lord Divine Phoenix's guidance." Nantian Xiulan answered.

Yun Lintian was surprised to hear this. According to Nantian Fengyu's personality, it was hard to believe she was practicing at the moment... What's going on?
