

N. Machine 101

Chapter: 101

“Yes, but there’s another issue. That alone will make it too easy, and as you know, the test gets only harder once you move up.”

Over 80% of students would pass if that was the only issue with the third test.

“If what my father told me is right, the martial art form that’s provided is the Seven Demons Sword, which all of our high-ranked warriors know how to use.”

Chapter: 102

This was his biggest question here.

“...That is an excellent question.”

“I need to trust you if I am to take you in.”

Chapter: 103

When he talked with Yumpa, he felt the shadow of Chun Yuchan from within and activated the skill. There was no change to the facial muscles while talking about the third test, but when he was asked why he didn’t go to the other princes, Nano found the change in expression.

“They were already full. They already have skilled warriors serving them. No spots left for me.”

[Sensing slight change in facial expression. Chance of the entity lying is at 45%.]

Chapter: 104

He smiled and reassured Yumpa, but it made Yumpa even more scared.

“B-but...”

“You don’t need to do that anymore, so you should go look for a different group to sneak into. Who knows if you will become a leader also?”

Chapter: 105

[Urgh!]

It was the same way he did it in the forest, but the result was different. Mukeum's avatar neck twisted weirdly as it was struck, and the avatar disappeared.

[Chun Mukeum's avatar died with a destroyed neck bone.]

Chapter: 106

"What! You destroyed the room again?!"

He shouted furiously and they went to the room together. After looking at the ceiling, he placed his hand over his forehead and spoke dumbfoundedly.

"What in the world... oh, gosh."

Chapter: 107

[A little after 7:00 PM, Master.]

'I see.'

He still had a lot of time left before he had to return. He then tried to battle against the ten Chun Mukeum avatars again, but he came up with a different idea.

Chapter: 108

Submeng's avatar was thrown back.

'I got him!'

Yeowun then followed up with the last movement, but Submeng's avatar spun quickly and unleashed the second blade skill. Yeowun's finger touched Submeng's head, but he was thrown back from the blade spin. He thought he had lost even while using the sword skill and looked at Submeng's avatar.

Chapter: 109

The cadets then became excited immediately. This was a dream come true for the cadets from weaker clans. It wasn't common for them to come across a chance to learn a top-class martial art.

"If you absorb the Black Dragon Ball given out today and learn this Seven Demon Sword formation, you will be able to have a top-class martial arts skill in no time."

Chun Yeowun nodded. Even if the test was supposed to be harder, they weren't going to make it way too hard.

Chapter: 110

Cadets who knew most of the information now turned to their group leaders up in the frontline. From how things went on until now, it was likely that the current group leaders would be chosen to be leaders again.

"So, let's talk about how we will appoint a group leader and I will dismiss you all with the Black Dragon Ball and the book of the Seven Demon Sword."

'Huh?!'
