

N. Machine 301

Chapter: 301

'Let's keep an eye on him.'

And when he saw Yeowun using the sword formation again against criminal from the evil force, he was able to confirm it. Chun Yeowun was the true successor who guardians had waited for so long. And it was long wait until Yeowun was to pass through the Demon Seal Cave and pass the sixth test. Lee Hameng asked again in shaking voice.

"Let me ask you again, Prince. Did you succeed the truth of Father Chun Ma?"

Chapter: 302

He was told before the sixth test about the existence of such a place, but it was true. As they walked down, there were thick metal door and three guards at grandmaster level standing guard.

"Welcome, Chief."

"Open the door to the treasure room."

Chapter: 303

Blade markings weren't simple. All of it had sharp energy within it. Yeowun now had very advanced skills to simulate after coming up to the superior level. Yeowun closed his eyes and saw a figure unleashing the unique blade skill that caused these injuries. Unlike the sword skills that had mixes of slash and stab, the blade only had formation made from slash, but it was very unique.

'This is impossible... how can such a blade skill exist?'

Yeowun tried fighting it with his butterfly dance, but he wasn't sure if he can defend over then two formations. If he wanted to fight this, he needed counter sword skill of Sword Demon or the formation from Sword Force of the Sky Demon.

Chapter: 304

The Sword Demon was worried of Blade God's return as he had lost an arm and used up too much of his energy that made his martial arts to deteriorate. But even after fifteen years when the Sword Demon died, Blade God did not appear. But the Sword Demon was worried that Blade God or his descendant might reappear and died while worrying for the future of the cult.

“And 500 years had passed. I don’t think Blade God’s descendant will appear again, but I hope you can counter the blade marking left by the Blade God and continue on the will left by the Sword Demon.”

‘Ah...’

Chapter: 305

‘Blade skill equal to the Sword Force of the Sky Demon... this is best that can happen.’

It had been seven days since Chun Yeowun had passed the sixth test. It was now three years and seven months since the first day of the Demonic Academy. From the over one thousand cadets that first entered, there were now only sixty-four cadets remaining. Just like other times when the Heirship Competition was going on, this time too had trained many talented warriors.

56 fourth stage cadets.

Chapter: 306

“Yes, I know. That’s why we have to deal with him with plans.”

Mu Jinyun spoke confidently and everyone became curious. Just three days ago, he didn’t have any plan at the time, but it seemed he had come up with some plans.

“Guk Shin, it is important we recruit remaining cadets too. We have to recruit Sama Chak and Huan Ya at least.”

Chapter: 307

“We will do it next dinner time. I already talked with those four cadets. But it is better if we can let Sama Chak and Huan Ya join us before.”

“Sure. Let’s go try to recruit them now then.”

The next day in the late afternoon, Chun Yeowun was busy training in a private training room. He had found sword skills left by Sword Demon and tracing of blade formation left by the Blade God and acquired a total of six blood formation from it. Chun Yeowun was very happy at acquiring such powerful blade skill, but there was a problem. The blade marking didn’t have energy flow. Without the flow of energy way, it wasn’t possible to perfect the formation. For the True Sword Demon Art left by the Sword

Demon, he also left the breathing skill and the path of energy flow, but the blade markings were just markings. But Yeowun wasn't disappointed.

Chapter: 308

"Ugh, we can have dinner with him if they come out a bit faster."

Hou Sangwha, Bakgi, and Jin Guuk were still missing from the group. They have been waiting for twenty minutes already, so Mun Ku didn't look too comfortable as she rubbed her face with her hands. Ko Wanghur grinned.

'He wasn't like that at first, but now he likes master as much as Hu Bong do.'

Chapter: 309

"Hmmm?"

It seems they were certain that they can defeat Yeowun for real. Yeowun was sure that none of them had become at the supreme level, but what was giving them such confidence?

'Foolish peasant boy! I waited for this time for a long time!'

Chapter: 310

"I said I don't have time."

Chun Yeowun then disappeared and shoot past Hang Yujik, cutting off his arm. Yujik declared that he will cut down Yeowun's arms but instead it was he who got his arm cut off. Yujik screamed in agony and fell down to the ground and rolled.

"H-how can this be?!"
