

N. Machine 331

Chapter: 331

“But I saw no one among these seven people was shaking their neck to send the telepathic message. Then it meant there was only one who can sent the message.”

“Oh...”

Nhu Yaya's face turned weird. He had recognized Mun Ku moment he saw at the giant gate in front of the mansion. It was the mask he made himself, so there was no way he would not recognize. He didn't plan on taking other people, but changed his mind.

Chapter: 332

“Good. My specialty is with the blade too.”

Huan Yi's martial art was Ghost Illusion Blade. Yeowun was surprised as he knew that the Art of the Ghost Spirit was not the strongest martial art of the clan. It was long time since Yeowun fought warrior using blade skill. But unlike Chun Yuchan who Yeowun fought back then, Huan Yi was much more powerful.

Yeowun then pulled out White Dragon Blade. As the white blade revealed itself, Huan Yi grinned.

Chapter: 333

‘Then should I try it?’

Sword Force of the Sky Demon was very similar to the Sword Art of the Sky Demon so there was no way for Huan Yi to not know what it was. Then two best martial art that Yeowun had was left with two. Counter sword skill – Twenty Four Demon Sword or the Blade skill from Blade God. Yeowun chose the latter.

When Yeowun quickly took steps to put distance, Huan Yi became surprised. Yeowun's stance had changed entirely from that of Butterfly dance.

Chapter: 334

Bakgi, who was frustrated at these people blocking their way while their master was in danger, but Ko Wanghur stopped him.

'We can't make more problem.'

Ko Wanghur then brought out two medals from his pocket and showed it to them.

Chapter: 335

"Ah-ah!"

They gasped with astonishment. They saw Chun Yeowun standing with his White Dragon Blade, and Nhu Yayen with one of his knee on the ground, giving something to Yeowun. It was the medal that proved to be 11th elder.

"11th Elder, and Leader of Ghost Illusion clan. Huan Yi accepts Prince Chun Yeowun as the rightful heir to the throne. Please take this as my proof of allegiance."

Chapter: 336

"So, when are you going to reveal it?"

"Huh?"

"...You are out of the academy now, so..."

Chapter: 337

'Let's be calm... let's look this through.'

Yeowun then came out of the yard and looked at the ground. He first thought the yard was cleanly swept that it had no problem, but if Guard Jang was empty at this hour, it meant there had been something that happened.

'This is weird. It's too clean.'

Chapter: 338

"That's not easy as you think. You cannot underestimate power of six clans even without their leaders."

Ghost Illusion clan, who was not one of six clans too quickly reacted to intruders. If Yeowun and his members needed to search the entire mansion, then it was hard for them to be not noticed.

“Sama Chak is right. Hu Bong, there’s reason why six clans rule our cult. And for these people who did such thing, they must be standing heavy guard at.... Oh! Master!”

Chapter: 339

“I’m not sure. But if what Ko Wanghur guessed is right, then they will try to contact us in any way.”

Mun Ku wasn’t really sure if their plan will really work. They came to Waho street intentionally where people can find him easily, but it wasn’t sure if the person behind kidnapping of Guard Jang will really try to contact them.

‘They are after you, not Guard Jang. If they find out that you have came out of the Demonic Academy, they will try to contact you. But I’m sure they will not try to do something fishy in front of every people of the street.’

Chapter: 340

And with that as the last word, the man disappeared from the entrance. Yeowun then got up, thinking he should do something before the man’s presence really disappears from the area. But when Yeowun got up, four men got up from other tables and glared at Yeowun. Yeowun then charged against those who glared at him.

“Argh!”

Yeowun appeared in front of each men and struck them with his fist to make them pass out, except one man.
