

N. Machine 371

Chapter: 371

It would have become a serious problem if Mun Ku had not stopped him. Yin Moha wasn't just dropped to the ground. She was meditating. A light in varying color began to shine from her and powerful torrent began to unleash from her.

"W-what is going on?"

Workers inside the mansion became shocked and looked at her. Yin Moha's body was shining in five colors of light. Ko Wanghur mumbled in astonishment.

Chapter: 372

The man lost way to run and lost the way to kill himself. Yeowun looked at him coldly and spoke.

"Who sent you?"

There was no more poison in his mouth, so Yeowun unsealed the blood point so the man can talk. The man knew that Yeowun was not someone he can even imagine to resist, so he spoke in shaking voice.

Chapter: 373

With 10th Elder Yin Moha going through body reconstruction, for the first time in his life, a naked woman was bowing to Chun Yeowun in allegiance. Yeowun also became embarrassed and looked away.

"...Elder, you should get dressed first."

"Oh!"

Chapter: 374

"We wanted to be approved of what we restored over 500 years, but Sword and Wise clan always rejected the idea."

They always emphasized that they were the true successor to the will and did not approve True Sword Demon that the Demonspread Sword Clan restored. And that continued through history down to Yin Moha.

“It was 8 years ago...”

Chapter: 375

‘I’ll just say this. I just considered it was right to teach this to the ones that have succeeded the teaching of the Sword Demon.’

As he said, they confirmed that this Anonymous was a member of the cult. But his power was so powerful to attempt to find out who he is with force. Kingbonki and Mu Jinwon agreed to be taught on the sword skill, but Yin Moha objected.

‘NO! I can’t allow that!’

Chapter: 376

“That was three years ago.”

“Oh...”

Yeowun then realized what Lee Hameng had said. The reason she came into contact with Wise and Sword clan was because of this.

Chapter: 377

‘He learned the Sword Force of the Sky Demon but it’s not perfect.’

Fortunately, the Sword Force of the Sky Demon required specific energy flow or it didn’t allow its formation to be utilized. The reason why Anonymous’ formation was awkward and made him exhausting was probably because he did not know the energy flow.

And when they all gathered back at the office, Yin Moha declared in front of everyone.

Chapter: 378

“It seems it’s good if you cannot recognize her.”

Huan Yi then frowned. He thought for a second and soon his eyes turned wide with shock.

“W-what? Is she Elder Yin?”

Chapter: 379

“Huh?”

Last night, Yeowun had planned what he needed to do. He figured that it was important to gather approvals, but it seemed also necessary to meet with clans from his members still at the academy. Yeowun then told Ko Wanghur, Hu Bong and Mun Ku to meet with their members at the academy and arrange a meeting with clan leaders of respective clans. Ko Wanghur then shook his head.

“I think me and Hu Bong can do it fine. It’s better that you keep at least three with you, master. Take Mun Ku with you.”

Chapter: 380

Sama Yi sat right next to Yeowun and complemented and praised him throughout the feasting. It was his show of friendliness, but it just felt awkward for Yeowun. And after some time, Yeowun thought it was time to go into his business.

“I have something to ask you, Elder Sama.”

Sama Yi then became serious and responded.
