

N. Machine 401

Chapter: 401

“I have won in the Heirship competition in the Demonic Academy.”

“Huh?”

Guard Jang became shocked at unexpected words. Yeowun spoke again.

Chapter: 402

“What do you mean?”

Yeowun asked back confusingly. It seemed this was related to what had been decided in the Great Hall meeting.

“Oh, yes. I guess I have to tell you about what we talked about in the Great Hall.”

Chapter: 403

This meant that every cultist within Jurkang castle was wiped out. This was too fast for a castle to be fallen under the enemy, so the Cult readied for the war. They thought that Yulin clan was behind this and had figured the war that had not been waged for quite some time, had started again. That’s when Yulin clan had sent ambassadors to the castle of the Demonic Cult.

“We were thinking of executing them and send their heads back to their cult, but what we heard was shocking.”

They told that Anhuy castle was also taken, and Namkung Shon was killed in the process. The Yulin clan also thought it was work of the Demonic Cult and was readying for war. But they always required to find evidence, so they sent ambassadors to raise a complaint.

Chapter: 404

Marakim then changed the subject.

“What is that?”

“Blade God Six Martial clan.”

Chapter: 405

He was sitting very close to the Lord. He was now a Crown Prince, number 2 rank within the cult. At least the Lord was in his own, so Yeowun did not look him across the table. The guests have not arrived yet so everyone waited. And soon, guards that stood at the gate shouted.

“Guests have arrived!”

And the gate to the hall was opened and guests from Yulin clan entered. The first forty people had black clothes with orange sashes. They were from the Flower Mountain clan. One in the front was a large man with a long beard, the leader of Flower Mountain clan, and one of seventeen leaders of forces of justice, Poong Chungwun.

Chapter: 406

The Lord warned to all clan leaders before the party started. Even those in the Yulin clan, two leaders warned their members.

‘Small argument might lead to a fight, so be wary.’

They will try hard to stay away from any potential problem that might cause harm to the alliance, but it wasn't sure what might happen when they start drinking. Jegal Sohi bowed to greet.

Chapter: 407

‘It's good that I brought him here.’

But he also knew that it was quite dangerous. He couldn't even see how powerful this Crown Prince was.

‘So, this is the Demonic Cult.’

Chapter: 408

Yeowun then looked at Jegal Sohi's face. Chun Yeowun then became weird, not stopping her anymore and the man who was watching, thought this was the chance.

‘Let's get him now!’

He then rang the glass two times. Jegal Sohi, then suddenly took the chopstick on the table and thrust toward Yeowun's chest.

Chapter: 409

[Move to the second plan.]

[Y-yes, Brother.]

The man then tapped on glass three times. With the sound, Moyong Yu who were helping Jegal Sohi to stand with a concerned look, suddenly turned weird and charged at Chun Yeowun.

Chapter: 410

Yeowun's eyes began to shake and white light particles began to scan Jegal Sohi's face. Nano's voice then returned.

[Her eye movement shows irregularities. The entity is presumed to be in a hypnotized state.]

'Hypnotized?'
