

N. Machine 421

Chapter: 421

“Do you think you can defeat me with sword skill of Sword Demon?”

‘Does he know sword formation of Twenty Four Demon Sword?’

Yeowun became shocked. He figured it was strange when Sahin countered as if he knew Twenty Four Demon Sword, and he sure did know. But this wasn't all that strange. AS Sword Demon tried hard to analyze Blade God's blade formation, it was likely that Blade God's descendants tried hard to analyze Sword Demon's formation, who was known to be the nemesis of the Blade God.

“L...Left Guardian Lee... Hameng... reporting to the Lord.”

Lee Hameng got to the Lord Chun Yujong and was barely able to kneel with his one knee. Every cultist around the area became grim at the sight of Lee Hameng with severe injury. Lee Hameng was one of the top ten powerful warriors of the cult, so if he was injured this badly, then it meant the enemy was very powerful. The Lord asked.

“Where is the enemy?”

Chapter: 423

“Great Guardian! What has happened... huh?”

Fourth Elder Ja Kinkeng then found Chun Yeowun standing on the dead body of Sahin the Blade Fist. Ja Kinkeng thought they would still be fighting, but the fight was already over.

‘By the gods... did he just killed warrior from Blade God Six Martial clan alone?’

Chapter: 424

But that was obvious. Demonic Cult had every cultist to carry medals that proved of themselves who they were and took control of everyone who entered the castle, that made hard for sneaking into the castle with the normal route.

And at the Hall of the Feast, there were hundreds of guards standing guard over one groups. They were guests from the Yulin clan.

“Hmph. I wonder how long will our lockdown will remain.”

Chapter: 425

“Hmm.”

He sighed. That’s when all warriors in the hall bowed to one that entered.

“Crown Prince!”

Chapter: 426

After Yeowun walked through every chopsticks and glasses over on the round table, he turned over some glasses upside down. After walking through all tables, he then came over to warriors from Yulin clan who were hypnotized and spoke.

“Do you know where you sat last night?”

“Y-yes, we remember.”

Chapter: 427

“Who is it?”

“It’s me, Marakim, My Lord.”

“Okay. I will go up to the office.”

Chapter: 428

“Yes, my Lord.”

“We should call them off now.”

This was on intention. The Lord had contained members from Yulin clan at the hall purposely so that they can see cults had investigated publicly in front of everyone. Yulin clan had two of 17 members and their strategist Jegal Sohi with them. This was why the Lord allowed Chun Yeowun's request to investigate. This was to ensure no complaints being made for lack of investigation.

Chapter: 429

"...Is that the real reason for the illusion?"

"Yes, my Lord. Taking this substance will make you fall under an illusion. With a caster experienced in illusion, it is likely that it will happen. Especially if it is used against ones with weaker internal energy. But what's concerning is that the amount in the glass isn't enough."

As Baek Jongwu explained further, the Lord became grimmer.

Chapter: 430

"Haha, it's good that our suspicion is lifted."

Poong Chunwun spoke and MOyong Kang nodded. He spoke in discomfort.

"Hmph. It's good, but it's probably because they can't undo the alliance for their safety either. They can't fight against us now, maybe that's why they decided to let us go."
