

N. Machine 521

Chapter: 521

Elders were originally required to be at the superior master level, but Yeowun figured that there weren't any new superior master level warriors so he made it lower. This announcement was made to all castles and outside posts. After the competition, the result was unexpected.

A total of 45 cultists competed. Those who passed the preliminaries sorted out those who did not know tactics and battle formations were 32. This was where something unexpected happened. Hidden warriors rose from hiding.

'Two from the same clan?'

Chapter: 522

Seventh Elder, Huan Yi.

Eighth Elder, Mong Oh.

Ninth Elder, Sama Yi.

Chapter: 523

A large man unleashed his fist formation. It was Ko Wanghur. And other three who fought alongside him were Sama Chak, Mun Ku, and Che Takim. They were using their best skills to fight against one man, almost as if they were fighting for real.

'Ugh! He's too fast!'

The man they were fighting was so fast that even Ko Wanghur and Mun Ku who had now reached the end stage of superior master level couldn't follow with their naked eyes.

Chapter: 524

Yeowun was trying hard to gain understanding through meditation every night, but it was hard to grasp. This was only obvious. There were only less than 10 people who had reached the supreme master level in all of Yulin. If that small amount of people was able to reach that level, it meant it required very hard training and effort.

'Well, it's not going to help even if I try to do it fast.'

Yeowun reached his hand to Ko Wanghur and Sama Yi to help them get up and he was going to say that today's training was over, but he stopped when Marakim came down into the training ground with someone. They bowed to Yeowun.

Chapter: 525

'Should I follow this?'

The agent said he did not know inside of the forest, so it felt like Yin Moha had to follow this energy.

"I will take the lead."

Chapter: 526

'M-my lord!'

'No.'

Ko Wanghur regretted his large muscles for the first time in his life. He really wanted to go with Chun Yeowun ever since he heard Hou Sangwha had gone missing.

Chapter: 527

"...Lieutenant Hu. I mean, Hu Bong."

"Yes?"

"Bandit ships only attack merchant ships that travel along the river. They don't attack small boats that go across the river."

Chapter: 528

[The rest are weaklings, but those are monks from the Mudan clan. What should we do?]

There were two answers to this question. One was to give up staying in this inn and go through the rain, or stay quietly at the inn without making any trouble.

Yeowun glanced outside the inn, and the rain didn't seem it was going to stop any time soon. It was heavy monsoonal rain that didn't seem to stop. It wasn't a wise move to go out searching the creek in this weather.

Chapter: 529

Yang Danwa hesitated for a bit, but got up and bowed to the monk.

"Thank you, Monk Mu."

"To God all mighty... no, it is nothing. It seems that the three of you are heroes who have learned martial arts. It is a deed must done to for brothers in arms."

Chapter: 530

"...I'm just an old man at the inn. I wouldn't know much... but I warned you. And when the rain stops, there will be fog. Don't try to go in and kill yourself. Just go back."

The old man spoke, and all members of Yeowun's group became grim. They wanted to ask, but they couldn't bear to ask while all the people around were listening to them. Yang Danwa sent a telepathic message to Yeowun.

[We have many ears here, so I'll ask the old man later about the details. You should get some rest after dinner, my Lord.]
