

N. Machine 531

Chapter: 531

“What are you talking about? The master should use the room al...”

“How can we share this small room with a wo.... Hmph. Man, Mun Ku? It’s better for her to share the room with Master and guard him.”

“HUH!?”

Chapter: 532

“Ugh.”

She wasn’t sure if Yang Danwa was inside, but she felt Hu Bong’s presence so it was weird. Maybe he was pretending to not have heard. Mun Ku then knocked harder.

“Hu Bong!”

Chapter: 533

‘Is he nervous too?’

It seemed she wasn’t the only one who was nervous about the situation. When she realized this, her nervousness calmed down and she now thought that Yeowun was cute.

‘Hmmm...’

Chapter: 534

‘Nano, go mute.’

[Activating silence mode.]

After a long kiss, Yeowun and Mun Ku let go of each other’s lips. Mun Ku had been holding her breath so she panted.

Chapter: 535

If the raindrop hadn't splashed in front of his eyes, Yang Danwa would not have realized the old man had come for him. The old man was at least stage stronger than Yang Danwa himself.

"Old man... what are you?"

"Me? Hahaha. I'm just an owner of the inn."

Chapter: 536

"M-master!"

It was Chun Yeowun who saved him. It seemed he had come out quickly, so his upper clothes just hung there and his face was a bit red.

'Who is that man?'

Chapter: 537

"D-did the old man kill our leader here?"

"Ugh... y-yes. I saw it with my own eyes. He then ran toward the creek when you all were coming out."

"No! Get ready!"

Chapter: 538

The old man was weird in many ways originally, so the kitchen staff thought it wasn't much of a deal. Yeowun then realized that the man he fought had come to this inn about month ago, faking himself as a old man. The five days was probably days for the man to create a mask of dead old man. But after knowing that they realized the old man was changed a month ago, monks of Mudan clan became grim.

[Brother! It is matches the date when we lost contact with him!]

[...We should make haste then.]

Chapter: 539

Yeowun nodded at Yang Danwa's question. Hu Bong and Mun Ku weren't sure what they were talking about and became curious. They were too weak to sense this sound.

“I think there’s something there. Let’s move there.”

“Yes, sir.”

Chapter: 540

‘There’s no way he would be able to get away.’

There were only three of them, so it was likely that the old man could easily catch up to them and kill them. But Yeowun couldn’t find another body. And when he was curious, Yang Danwa raised his hand to signal.

“Master!”
