

N. Machine 541

Chapter: 541

There was a large word engraved on the giant stone wall.

“What are you talk... HUH!?”

“T-this is...”

Chapter: 542

It was amazing to see such wonder for one who studied the sword. It seemed like the word left on the wall had been there for a long time. But it still had sword qi within it, which was a mystery beyond understanding.

‘It’s a level where a superior master level warrior cannot even possibly think to achieve.’

As Yeowun looked through the word, Yang Danwa suddenly found something and sent a telepathic message.

Chapter: 543

“I’ll carry you over if you can’t.”

She stopped herself from saying it and nodded excitedly. There was no need to refuse the offer.

‘Hehe. He’ll carry me over!’

Chapter: 544

The fire powder had its own purpose, but if the person was inside there, then it wasn’t likely for him to set it to explode.

[What should we do, my Lord?]

[Wait here.]

Chapter: 545

And she saw Yeowun, engulfed in fire, thrown out from the cave before dropping down into the cliff.

“NOOOOOOOOOOOO!!!!”

Mun Ku screamed in despair, but Yeowun’s body was disappearing into the depth of the cliff. With Yeowun’s energy dissipating, Mun Ku and others got down safely on the other side of the cliff and quickly turned to run to the cliff.

Chapter: 546

‘I thought I was lucky... but I guess not.’

The old man then stopped and rested his back on a large tree. He opened his senses to check if there were any chasers.

‘If it wasn’t for that girlish boy coming at me so fiercely... I would have taken care of them fast and also taken care of him too.’

Chapter: 547

‘I can’t die like this!’

There was something more fearful than death itself. Yeowun couldn’t finish what he had set out to do yet. And to think that he couldn’t see the woman’s face whom he had given to the first time in his life, his head instantly cleared up.

As Yeowun was flung about all over the place from the wind, he noticed something. He didn’t see it when he was in fear, but now he now saw it clearly.

Chapter: 548

But it wasn’t only swords that were here. There were countless skulls and bones scattered around. It seemed these were people who dropped through the cliff and died. Some were too old, barely recognizable if they were human, but there were some that were intact and still had clothes.

‘I almost joined them. But why did they fall and die here?’

Yeowun became curious but there was no way to find out. Yeowun hesitated for a bit, but he then took off one of the pieces of clothing from a skeleton.

Chapter: 549

Yeowun ordered Nano to scan the sword and blade traces.

[Yes, Master.]

Nano scanned the trace and began analyzing. Yeowun was then walking through the traces and...

Chapter: 550

“Waaaah.... Prince...”

“...How can this be...”

There was a girl wailing with both hands on her face. It was Mun Ku. There was another woman, tall and large, hugging her. It was Hou Sangwha who was said to be missing. She was actually at the hideout of the Godly Doctor. Of course, there were others who were alive from the team.
