

N. Machine 551

Chapter: 551

[Did you see that?]

Yang Danwa turned to the direction, and there was a beautiful woman with thick eyebrows looking at him with her arms crossed, sitting on a bed on the opposite side. It was Second Elder Yin Moha. She too was safe. However, Yang Danwa saw Yin Moha's true face for the first time after he got here, so he looked awkward searching for Yin Moha's younger look.

[...I think she's being watched. And so are we.]

Chapter: 552

"...It is better if we leave her alone. I know it is for the greater good, but our actions should be just."

"Yes, sir. You are right."

"But as you say, the Godly Doctor is almost complete with her work. With enemies located near our spot, it is better for us to move."

Chapter: 553

'I'm exhausted.'

After two hours, Yeowun was now fully exhausted. Almost four hours of nonstop usage of the Sword Force of the Sky Demon depleted his internal energy completely. How could he create a new sword skill that broke the limit that was set in place? He tried many ways but failed constantly.

'I cannot combine the sword movements if it goes over the current limit... I have to make it work in balance...'

Chapter: 554

He then let the doctor return to her office so she could pack up. When Gam Rosu returned, a man with dark clothing came in.

"Report."

“It is as you said, Elder. There are suspicious movements detected around the forest outside the creek. Numbers are increasing, so they’ll be coming in by the morning.”

Chapter: 555

Warriors frowned at Hu Bong’s strong protest. They had to let Gam Rosu prepare to leave, but blocking her from tending to the patient also seemed suspicious.

“Hmm...”

Gam Rosu then walked over and placed her hand over Hou Sangwha’s wrist to check on the pulse. She then frowned weirdly.

Chapter: 556

‘I’m lucky. I’ve reached supreme master level!’

With unexpected understanding, Yeowun was able to break the barrier. He was trying to find the balance between sword movements of Sword Force of the Sky Demon, but it actually worked to help him break the barrier to go up to the supreme master level. Yeowun looked up to yet dark morning sky. The color was now turning to dark blue. It was the sign that morning was almost here.

‘No...’

Chapter: 557

“They’re gone!!”

“Ah!”

A strong gush of wind threw Chun Yeowun’s balance off, messing up his stepping skill. He tried to regain balance, but the rusted sword couldn’t hold him up and broke down.

Chapter: 558

Warriors who heard the shouts began to search through the mansion. The man then quickly headed toward Hing Wunja to report, who would have been waiting at the secret passage. And when he got there, he saw monks of the Mudan clan waiting outside the secret passage.

The passage was made to be opened by using the lever made next to it, but it was broken and a few monks were trying hard to open the door. But there was no way they could open the blue pearl stone door that had been sealed. The man then found Hing Wunja between them and ran up to him.

Chapter: 559

“Yes, ma’am.”

Yin Moha ordered as they ran. There were too many enemies so it was likely that the people left at the mansion wouldn’t last long. They had to get out of Sword Creek while the fights went on at the mansion. After a while of running, they saw the end. But the exit was blocked.

“It’s blocked!”

Chapter: 560

“Oh... I didn’t know the Godly Doctor was an old woman.”

He recognized the Godly Doctor right away. He had seen the other people once, so it wasn’t hard for him to recognize the doctor. Mun Ku then gritted her teeth when she saw the face of the old man. Rage came back to her as she saw the person who led Yeowun to his death. But Yin Moha and Yang Danwa were frustrated by the situation.

‘This is bad.’
