

N. Machine 571

Chapter: 571

'It's not here.'

Yang Danwa's face turned grim. The mansion was in ruins from the fight and there were countless bodies. But Yang Danwa couldn't find the body of Hing Wunja, the Mudan Strong Sword.

'Was it him that the Lord sensed earlier?'

Chapter: 572

'Have I been captured?'

He thought he was killed when he was struck down. He then looked down at his wound, which was covered with linen wrap.

'They kept me alive.'

Chapter: 573

"Huh?"

Yeowun then placed his hand below the man's stomach. The man looked back at Yeowun and Yeowun spoke coldly.

"Second, you have no right to question me."

Chapter: 574

Yeowun ignored him and put the pot's opening into the man's mouth and began pouring in the medicine soup into the man's mouth. The man tried to spit it out but Yeowun clogged his nose, so the man couldn't fight back on swallowing it. The soup was boiling hot.

After making him swallow a good amount, Yeowun took off the pot from the man's mouth.

"Ugh... argh..."

Chapter: 575

“And what is that relic?”

“It is a schematic to create the Extreme Martial Body.”

“Extreme Martial... what? What is that?”

Chapter: 576

Hu Bong was exhausted. Bakgi nodded as he too was exhausted from long work. Yang Danwa spoke to them.

“Good work. We are not sure when we will leave, so you two can get some rest while you can.”

They were in the middle of enemy territory, so even if it wasn't for the escaped Hing Wunja, warriors of the Yulin clan could appear at any moment. Yang Danwa suggested for Hu Bong and Bakgi to rest. That's when Gam Rosu appeared.

Chapter: 577

The man spat and clenched his fist. The centipede screamed within the fist and soon exploded from the pressure. And the man watched white liquid dripping within his hand and smiled.

“Whoever you are... you are a fool if you think you can find something out from him.”

At the same time within the hidden mansion of Sword Creek... Yeowun was asking questions through hypnosis. Lee Baek had been telling all answers to every question Yeowun had until now. Now, they were moving onto the important question. Yeowun had to find out where the Blade God Six Martial clan was hiding, how strong they were, and their purpose. The Blade God had disappeared from the Yulin for 500 years and the Blade God Six Martial clan never revealed themselves within that time. If they appeared now, it was certain that they were ready for whatever purpose they set out to do. Yeowun wanted to know what that purpose was, so he could be prepared.

Chapter: 578

“Gggggagagagagagaga!”

Lee Baek's entire body trembled through electricity running through. His eyes, ears, nose and mouth all spilled blood from within. Yeowun then placed his hand over his right eye.

'Nano, help me so I don't damage his brain.'

Chapter: 579

"N...ngh... Jurkang... H.. Hangju... at Hangsan Castle... our base..."

Lee Baek who was barely speaking then dropped his head down. He finally died.

"Hah..."

Chapter: 580

"W-what?!"

Gam Rosu became furious at the immediate response of her granddaughter's location. She had asked countless times if her granddaughter was found, but Hing Wunja always said they were looking for her. She bit on her lips to endure her fury and asked.

"Why... why did you not tell me until now?"
