

N. Machine 581

Chapter: 581

“What is the purpose of the Blue Sky Brotherhood?”

Hing Wunja let out a heavy breath as he spoke.

“B...blue Sky... Brotherhood... only wants... the world to walk the path of... justice.... ..ngr....”

Chapter: 582

[This is a ‘simplified Chinese character.’]

‘Simplified?’

[It is created to easily write the traditional characters.]

Chapter: 583

“Don’t mind it.”

Yeowun then turned cold, and Gam Rosu immediately knelt with her both knees. Yeowun raised his eyebrows. From what he knew about this old woman, it was likely that she would ask for a serious request.

‘Uh...’

Chapter: 584

Yeowun thought for a moment. His cold heart didn’t move at the sympathetic approach, but this bargain was something worth considering. It seemed it was good for either Yeowun or the Demonic Cult. His thoughts didn’t last long.

‘Ah?’

Gam Rosu’s body was immediately brought up by strong energy force. She looked up and Yeowun warned her with low voice.

Chapter: 585

“I smell blood in the area.”

“Blood?”

They couldn't smell anything. The man then began to walk toward some direction and as they walked in further into the bush, they found something hidden beneath.

Chapter: 586

The reason why they came down to Meking city was because it was city located near the Yellow River. They also had heard a rumor about pirates of the 18 River Families often visit this city.

‘Back alley?’

Yang Danwa, however, was moving into the back alley of Meking city. The further they moved in, the darker and creepier the city looked.

Chapter: 587

“Please order and call again.”

When the server returned, Yang Danwa sent a telepathic message.

[My lord. This is the secret information selling place within Mekin city. You can consider it similar to the Hao family.]

Chapter: 588

“...What do you mean?”

Yang Danwa became confused and Man Ou laughed and took something out of his pocket. It had a certain seal that read 18.

“There are a lot who support us. This was given by one of our supporter. Do you recognize this supporter is?”

Chapter: 589

Yeowun then clenched his hand and spoke.

“AAARGH!”

“Don’t pretend you’re just a guard, Mr. Owner.”

Chapter: 590

‘H-he broke the sword with his finger!’

There was no way a middle-level warrior could fight against a superior master warrior. The power difference was so huge that Yang Danwa did not even feel the need to get up. The strongest warrior that entered was at the top master level, so they couldn’t even win against Hu Bong, who was the weakest among Yeowun’s group.

“Ugh!”
